US 1939 105m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

At the outbreak of World War II, in a hotel on the Swiss border, a hoofer with an all-girl troupe meets an old flame masquerading as a Russian countess.
Interesting but quite unsuccessful film version of a highly artificial play which had been carried off superbly by the Lunts but was now somewhat less well cast, though it did represent an early Hollywood challenge to Hitler. The flagwaving in fact made it more than a little boring.
w Robert E. Sherwood play Robert E. Sherwood d Clarence Brown ph William Daniels m Herbert Stothart
☆ Clark Gable, Norma Shearer, Edward Arnold, Charles Coburn, Burgess Meredith, Joseph Schildkraut, Laura Hope Crews, Skeets Gallagher, Pat Paterson, Fritz Feld
'Exceptionally entertaining comedy, a b.o. sock.' – Variety
'The fun and excitement are still there, however filtered it may be.' – Film Daily
'The mood of the whole thing is forced and cheap – the coming world war staged by Maurice Chevalier.' – Otis Ferguson
'Exactly the same pseudo-qualities as The Petrified Forest: a moral pretentiousness, a kind of cellophaned intellectuality.' – Graham Greene

The Idle Class ★

US 1922 30m approx bw silent
First National/Charles Chaplin

A tramp dreams of the rich life and is mistaken for the husband of a lady.
Rather slight later Chaplin without the full-blooded farcical elements which made him so popular around 1917.
wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh
☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Mack Swain

Idlewild ⑤

US 2006 121m
UIP/Forensic Films/HBO Films/Mosaic Media Group (William Green, Robert Guralnick, Scott Macaulay, Robin O'Hara, Charles Roven)

Love and crime converge at a Prohibition-era speakeasy in America's Deep South.
A vehicle for hip-hop duo OutKast that's half musical, half melodrama and all florid self-indulgence.
wd Bryan Barber ph Pascal Rabaud
m John Debney ch Hinton Battle pd Charles Breen ad Gary Diamond
ed Anne Goursand
☆ Andre Benjamin (Percival), Antwan A Patton (Rooster), Paula Patton (Angel Davenport), Terrence Howard (Trumpy), Faizon Love (Ace), Ben Vereen (Percy Senior), Macy Gray (Taffy), Ving Rhames (Spats)
'An entertaining mess is still a mess.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

The Idol

GB 1966 111m bw
Embassy (Leonard Lightstone)

A divorced woman falls in love with her son's friend.
Stupefyingly boring generation-gap sex drama.
w Millard Lampell d Daniel Petrie
ph Ken Higgins m Johnny Dankworth
☆ Jennifer Jones, Michael Parks, John Leyton, Jennifer Hilary, Guy Doleman, Natasha Pyne
'Doesn't even qualify for worst picture of the year, missing the perfection and purity of that category by the sheer ineptness of script, direction, and performance.' – Judith Crist

Idol of Paris

GB 1948 105m bw
Premier (R. J. Minney)

In old Paris, a ragman's daughter becomes queen of the demi-mondaines.
Unintentionally hilarious copy of the Gainsborough period romances which had been so popular; much criticized because the leading ladies fight a duel with whips, but that's the least of its faults.
w Norman Lee, Stafford Dickens, Henry Ostrer novel Paiva Queen of Love by Alfred Shirkauer d Leslie Arliss ph Jack Cox
m Mischa Spoliansky ad Albert Jullion
ed A. H. Bates
☆ Beryl Baxter, Christine Norden, Michael Rennie, Margaretta Scott, Keneth Kent, Henry Oscar, Miles Malleson, Andrew Osborn, Andrew Cruickshank

The Idolmaker

US 1980 119m Technicolor
United Artists/Gene Kirkwood, Howard W. Koch

A songwriter accurately sums up his own limited talent and turns agent and starmarker.
Sharp but padded look behind the scenes of the pop industry; in the end of interest only to initiates.
w Edward Di Lorenzo d Taylor Hackford
ph Adam Holender m Jeff Barry
☆ Ray Sharkey, Tovah Feldshuh, Peter Gallagher, Paul Land

Idols in the Dust: see Saturday's Hero

If... ★★★★

GB 1968 111m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Memorial (Lindsay Anderson, Michael Medwin)

Discontent at a boys' public school breaks out into rebellion.
Allegorical treatment of school life with much fashionable emphasis on obscure narrative, clever cutting, variety of pace, even an unaccountable changing from colour to monochrome and vice versa. It catches perfectly a mood of rebellion and dissatisfaction with the status quo.
w David Sherwin d Lindsay Anderson
ph Miroslav Ondricek m Marc Wilkinson pd Jocelyn Herbert ad Brian Eatwell
ed David Gladwell
☆ Malcolm McDowell (Mick Travers), David Wood (Johnny), Richard Warwick (Wallace), Robert Swann (Rowntree), Christine Noonan (The Girl), Peter Jeffrey (Headmaster), Arthur Lowe (Mr. Kemp, Housemaster), Anthony Nicholls (Gen. Denson)
'The school ... is the perfect metaphor for the established system all but a few of us continue to accept.' – David Wilson
'It's something like the Writing on the Wall.' – Lindsay Anderson
'Combines a cold and queasy view of youth with a romantic view of violence.' – New Yorker
† It won the Palme D'Or at the 1969 Cannes Film Festival.

If a Man Answers

US 1962 102m Technicolor
Universal/Ross Hunter

A wife decides to make her husband jealous.
Derivative second-team matrimonial comedy, all dressed up but with nowhere to go.
w Richard Morris novel Winifred Wolfe
d Henry Levin ph Russell Metty m Hans Salter ad Alexander Golitzen ed Milton Carruth ☆ Sandra Dee, Bobby Darin, Micheline Presle, John Lund, Cesar Romero, Stefanie Powers

If Ever I See You Again

US 1978 105m colour
Columbia (Joe Brooks)

A songwriter attempts to win back the love of an old girlfriend.
Almost a one-man band of a movie that plays too long on one note and is better never seen at all.
w Joe Brooks, Martin Davidson d Joseph Brooks ph Adam Holender m Joe Brooks
ed Rich Shaine
☆ Joe Brooks, Shelley Hack, Jimmy Breslin, Jerry Keller, George Plimpton, Michael Decker

If I Had a Million ★★

US 1932 88m bw
Paramount (Benjamin Glazer, Louis D. Lighton)

Various people each receive a million dollars from an eccentric who wants to test their reactions.
Interesting, dated multi-part comedy drama remembered chiefly for the brief sequence in which Laughton blows a raspberry to his boss and Fields chases road hogs. As an entertainment it's patchy, lacking an overall style.
w Claude Binyon, Whitney Bolton, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, John Bright, Sidney Buchman, Lester Cole, Isabel Dawn, Boyce DeGaw, Walter de Leon, Oliver H. P. Garrett, Harvey Gates, Grover Jones, Ernst Lubitsch, Lawton Mackaill, Joseph L. Mankiewicz, William Slavens McNutt, Seton I. Miller, Tiffany Thayer story Robert D. Andrews
d Ernst Lubitsch, Norman Taurog, Stephen Roberts, Norman Z. McLeod, James Cruze, William A. Seiter, H. Bruce Humberstone
☆ W. C. Fields, Charles Laughton, May Robson, Richard Bennett, Alison Skipworth, Gary Cooper, Wynne Gibson, George Raft, Jack Oakie, Frances Dee, Charles Ruggles, Mary Boland, Roscoe Karns, Gene Raymond, Lucien Littlefield
'Not uninteresting, but spotty in retrospect ... the cinematic porridge is naturally replete with a diversity of seasonings.' – Variety
'It develops an obvious idea in an obvious way.' – Time

If I Had My Way ★

US 1940 82m bw
Universal (David Butler)

Two vaudevillians help an orphan girl and open a new night-club.
Quite likeable and very typical star vehicle of its period.
w William Conselman, James V. Kern
d David Butler ph George Robinson
m Frank Skinner
☆ Bing Crosby, Charles Winninger, Gloria Jean, El Brendel, Allyn Joslyn, Donald Woods, Eddie Leonard, Claire Dodd, Blanche Ring

If I Were Free

US 1933 65m bw
RKO

A man and woman, each unhappily married, try to get together.
Rather soppy drama which fails to develop.
w Dwight Taylor play Behold We Live by John Van Druten d Elliott Nugent ☆ Irene Dunne, Clive Brook, Nils Asther, Henry Stephenson, Laura Hope Crews
'Thin in texture, it never reaches a pace that really counts.' – Variety

'His love-making was as dangerous as his swordplay!'

If I Were King ★

US 1938 101m bw
Paramount (Frank Lloyd)

The 14th-century poet and rascal François Villon matches wits with Louis XI and leads an uprising of the people.
A story which we have grown used to seeing with music as The Vagabond King is here well presented but somehow rings hollow, with insufficient derring-do; it is the wrong kind of swashbuckling for its star, who is for once outacted by Rathbone in an unusual wily characterization.
w Preston Sturges d Frank Lloyd ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Richard Hageman ad Hans Dreier, John Goodman ☆ Ronald Colman, Basil Rathbone, Frances Dee, Ellen Drew, C. V. France, Heather Thatcher, Henry Wilcoxon, Sidney Toler
'Healthy box office that will hit extended runs right down the line.' – Variety
'A well mounted and splendid production that carries along at a fascinating pace.' – Daily Variety
Richard Hageman; Basil Rathbone; art direction

If I'm Lucky

US 1945 79m bw
TCF (Brian Foy)

A singer runs for state governor and exposes corruption.
Lacklustre remake of Thanks a Million, with decidedly dispirited elements.
w Snag Werris, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, George Bricker d Lewis Seiler ph Glen MacWilliams m/ly Edgar de Lange, Joseph Myrow md Emil Newman
☆ Vivian Blaine, Perry Como, Carmen Miranda, Harry James, Phil Silvers, Edgar Buchanan, Reed Hadley

If It's Tuesday, This Must Be Belgium ★

US 1969 98m DeLuxe
UA/Wolper (Stan Margulies)

A group of American tourists have various adventures during a lightning tour of Europe.
Amusing comedy which does pretty well by a good idea.
w David Shaw d Mel Stuart ph Vilis Lapenieks m Walter Scharf
☆ Suzanne Pleshette, Ian McShane, Mildred Natwick, Murray Hamilton, Michael Constantine, Sandy Baron, Norman

Fell, Peggy Cass, Marty Ingels, Pamela Britton, Luke Halpin, Aubrey Morris

If Looks Could Kill: see Teen Agent

If Lucy Fell

US 1996 94m Technicolor
Sony/TriStar/Motion Picture Corp (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler, Brad Jenkel)

Two flatmates make a pact to jump from Brooklyn Bridge if they fail to find the perfect mate before they reach 30.
Dim and charmless attempt at a romantic comedy.
wd Eric Schaeffer ph Ron Fortunato
m Amanda Kravat, Charles Pettis
pd Ginger Tougas ed Sue Graef
☆ Sarah Jessica Parker, Eric Schaeffer, Ben Stiller, Elle Macpherson, James Rebhorn, Dominic Luchese, Robert John Burke

'The sparks fly with some memorable verbal sparring and screen chemistry between the principals.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

'If men and women were emotionally, physically, biologically, astrologically, hormonally, psychologically, orgasmically the same ... life would be easy.'

If Only

GB/France/Spain/Canada/Luxembourg 1998 95m colour
Pathé/HandMade/Paragon/Mandarin/Wild Rose/Parallel (Juan Gordon)

An actor, who lost the woman he loved when he told her of an affair, gets a chance to relive his life without repeating the mistake.
Curious little comedy about having to live with one's mistakes, which has a certain slight charm.
w Rafa Russo d Maria Ripoll ph Javier Salmones m Luis Mendo, Bernardo Fuster, Angel Illarramendi pd Grant Hicks
ed Nacho Ruiz-Capillas
☆ Penelope Cruz, Douglas Henshall, Lena Headey, Gustavo Salmeron, Mark Strong, Eusebio Lazaro, Charlotte Coleman, Neil Stuke, Elizabeth McGovern

'Well-crafted and enjoyable.' – Empire

If This Be Sin: see That Dangerous Age

If Winter Comes

US 1948 97m bw
MGM (Victor Saville)

A sentimental idealist, unhappily married, finds himself at the mercy of village gossip when he takes in a pregnant girl.
Artificial romantic nonsense, unconvincingly staged and modernized from a very dated bestseller.
w Marguerite Roberts, Arthur Wimperis novel A. S. M. Hutchinson d Victor Saville ph George Folsey m Herbert Stothart
☆ Walter Pidgeon, Deborah Kerr, Janet Leigh, Angela Lansbury, Binnie Barnes, Dame May Whitty, Reginald Owen

If You Could Only Cook

US 1935 72m bw
Columbia

A young millionaire meets a poor girl and they get jobs as cook and butler.
Whimsical comedy-romance; thin but moderately beguiling.
w F. Hugh Herbert, Gertrude Purcell, Howard J. Green d William A. Seiter ph John Stumar ad Stephen Goosson
ed Gene Havlick
☆ Jean Arthur, Herbert Marshall, Leo Carrillo, Lionel Stander, Frieda Inescort

'Plenty of chuckles ... offers particularly strong promise for the nabes.' – Variety
† This was the film which enabled Frank Capra to get out of his Columbia contract, because they accidentally promoted it in Europe as being directed by him.

If You Feel Like Singing: see Summer Stock

If You Knew Susie ★

US 1948 90m bw
RKO (Eddie Cantor)

A vaudeville couple retire to his ancestral home in New England.
Mild family comedy capitalizing on the team established in Show Business.
w Warren Wilson, Oscar Brodney
d Gordon Douglas ph Frank Redman ☆ Eddie Cantor, Joan Davis, Allyn Joslyn, Bobby Driscoll, Charles Dingle

If You Live Shoot!: see Django, Kill!

'Insanity is relative.'

Igby Goes Down ★

US colour
MGM/UA/Igby (Lisa Tornell, Marco Weber)

A rich young slacker from a dysfunctional family finds his discountent mirrored in Manhattan.
Intermittently amusing, dark-toned comedy of teenage angst and adult betrayals, let down by its self-satisifed air.
wd Burr Steers ph Wedigo von Schultzendorff m Uwe Fahrenkrog Peterson pd Kevin Thompson ed William M. Anderson
☆ Kieran Culkin (Igby Slocumb), Susan Sarandon (Mimi Slocumb), Jeff Goldblum (DH), Ryan Phillippe (Oliver Slocumb), Bill Pullman (Jason Slocumb), Amanda Peet (Rachel), Jared Harris (Russel), Rory Culkin (Young Igby)

'A middlebrow, ersatz-smart movie, lacking both heart and any plausible psychological insight.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Wickedly funny, jarringly transgressive, obdurately unpigeonholeable and startlingly moving.' – Michael O'Sullivan, Washington Post

Ikimono No Kiroku ★

Japan 1955 113m bw
Toho (S. Motoki)

aka: I Live in Fear
A family attempts to have its father, a wealthy industrialist, declared of unsound mind because he wants them all to move to Brazil to escape the danger of radiation and the atom bomb.
Although the main theme has lost its topicality, the drama of the dynamics of family relationships still holds the interest, as does Mifune's uncharacteristic performance as an old man.
w Shinobu Hashimoto, Hideo Oguni, Akira Kurosawa d Akira Kurosawa ph Asakazu Nakai m Fumio Hayasaka ☆ Toshiro Mifune, Takashi Shimura, Minoru Chiaki, Masao Shimizu, Eiko Miyoshi, Haruko Togo, Yutaka Sada, Norkiro Sengoku

Ikiru ★★★

Japan 1952 143m bw
Toho

aka: Living
aka: Doomed
A clerk learns that he is dying and spends his last months creating a children's playground.
A moving and beautifully made personal drama which also gives an interesting background of modern Japan.
w Hideo Oguni, Shinobu Hashimoto, Akira Kurosawa d Akira Kurosawa ph Asaishi Nakai m Fumio Hayasaka ad So Matsuyama ed Akira Kurosawa
☆ Takashi Shimura (Kanji Watanabe), Nobuo Kaneko (Mitsuo Watanabe), Kyoko Seki (Kazue Watanabe)

Il etait une fois un pays: see Underground (1995)

Il Faut Vivre Dangereusement

France 1975 100m colour
Fox/ORFT (Nelly Kaplan)

aka: You've Got to Live Dangerously
A private eye, hired to investigate a young woman, uncovers a plot to find a fabulous diamond.
Baroque thriller with more corpses than Hamlet, but one that fails to sustain interest, despite its recourse to naked flesh at every possible opportunity.
w Nelly Kaplan d Claude Makovsky
m Claude Bolling ad Jacques Dugied
ed Jocelyne Triquet
☆ Claude Brasseur, Annie Girardot

Il mio nome è Nessuno: see My Name Is Nobody

Ildan Dwieo: see Make it Big

L'Ile au trésor: see Treasure Island

'Somewhere between L.A. and N.Y. Jake found the true meaning of Christmas.'

I'll Be Home for Christmas

US 1998 85m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Mandeville (David Hoberman, Tracey Trench)

A spoilt, selfish student, abandoned in the Californian desert with no money, has 48 hours in which to get to New York so that he can get his Christmas present of a sports car.
Sentimental family comedy that runs along totally predictable lines; it is as bland as supermarket turkey.
w Tom Nursall, Harris Goldberg story Michael Allin d Arlene Sanford
ph Hiro Narita m John Debney
pd Cynthia Charette ed Anita Brandt-Burgoyne
☆ Jonathan Taylor Thomas, Jessica Biel, Adam LaVorgna, Sean O'Bryan, Gary Cole, Eve Gordon, Lauren Maltby, Andrew Lauer, Leslie Boone

'Both living a secret – each afraid to tell!'

I'll Be Seeing You ★★

US 1944 85m bw
David O. Selznick (Dore Schary)

A lady convict at home on parole for Christmas meets and falls for a shell-shocked soldier.
Schmaltzy, middle-American romantic drama with some nicely handled moments and plenty of talent on hand. In the Hollywood mainstream.
w Marion Parsonnet novel Charles Martin
d William Dieterle ph Tony Gaudio
m Daniele Amfitheatrof
☆ Ginger Rogers, Joseph Cotten, Shirley Temple, Spring Byington, Tom Tully, Chill Wills

'A sentimental, improbable picture, but unexpectedly rewarding in detail.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'Olivia just met the perfect man for her Mom... Her Dad.'

I'll Be There ②

US/GB 2003 105m Fujicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek/Immortal (James G. Robinson)

A ageing mixed-up rock singer discovers that he has a teenage daughter who can sing.
Bland comedy intended as a vehicle for a teenage singer; it won't take her very far.
w Craig Ferguson, Philip McGrade
d Craig Ferguson ph Ian Wilson
m Trevor Jones pd Tim Harvey
ed Sheldon Kahn
☆ Craig Ferguson (Paul Kerr), Jemma Redgrave (Rebecca), Charlotte Church (Olivia), Joss Ackland (Evil Edmonds), Ralph Brown (Digger McQuade), Ian McNeice (Graham), Imelda Staunton (Dr Bridget), Anthony Head (Sam Gervasi)

'A modest movie that singularly fails to hit any high notes.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror

I'll Be Your Sweetheart

GB 1945 104m bw
Gainsborough (Louis Levy)

In 1900, songwriters fight with copyright pirates.
Studio-bound musical romance without the necessary resonance.
w Val Guest, Val Valentine d Val Guest ph Phil Grindrod md Louis Levy ☆ Margaret Lockwood, Michael Rennie, Vic Oliver, Peter Graves, Moore Marriott, Frederick Burtwell, Maudie Edwards, Garry Marsh

I'll Be Yours

US 1947 90m bw
Universal (Felix Jackson)

A small-town girl tries to make good in the big city.
Slackly handled remake of The Good Fairy. A doubtful 'A' production which did nothing for its star's ailing career.
w Preston Sturges (adapted anonymously from his previous screenplay based on the Molnar original) d William A. Seiter
ph Hal Mohr m Frank Skinner
☆ Deanna Durbin, Tom Drake, William Bendix, Adolphe Menjou, Walter Catlett, Franklin Pangborn

I'll Cry Tomorrow ★

US 1955 119m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

Lillian Roth, a Broadway/Hollywood star of the early thirties, becomes an alcoholic.
Fictionalized biopic, pretty well done of the True Confessions kind.
w Helen Deutsch, Jay Richard Kennedy book Lillian Roth, Gerold Frank d Daniel Mann ph Arthur E. Arling m Alex North ad Cedric Gibbons, Randall Duell
☆ Susan Hayward, Richard Conte, Eddie Albert, Jo Van Fleet, Don Taylor, Ray Danton, Margo

'By emphasizing physical degradation in almost every frame, the film makes her less an object of acutely personal concern than a street casualty seen remotely from the top of a bar.' – Alexander Walker
♗ Arthur E. Arling; Susan Hayward; art direction

I'll Do Anything

US 1994 115m Technicolor
Columbia/Gracie (James L. Brooks, Polly Platt)

An out-of-work actor with a small daughter to support falls for a Hollywood executive

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

while working as a chauffeur for an overbearing producer.
Moderate romantic comedy, more likely to interest those who work in Hollywood than a wider audience.
wd James L. Brooks ph Michael Ballhaus m Hans Zimmer pd Stephen J. Lineweaver ed Richard Marks ☆ Nick Nolte, Albert Brooks, Julie Kavner, Whittni Wright, Joely Richardson, Tracey Ullman, Joely Fisher, Jeb Brown
'Given its origins the movie is better than one might have anticipated yet has to be viewed as a disappointment relative to Brooks' earlier features.' – Variety
† The film was originally intended as a musical. Eleven of the 12 songs were cut after some of the audience walked out at previews, and new footage was added.

I'll Get By

US 1950 86m Technicolor
TCF (William Perlberg)
Two songwriters meet success, then join the marines and are reunited with their former girlfriends.
Fair standard musical, a modernization of Tin Pan Alley.
w Mary Loos, Richard Sale d Richard Sale ph Charles G. Clarke md Lionel Newman ch Larry Ceballos ad Lyle Wheeler, Mary Loos ed J. Watson Webb
☆ June Haver, Gloria de Haven, William Lundigan, Dennis Day, Harry James, Thelma Ritter
♗ Lionel Newman

I'll Give a Million ★

US 1938 70m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A millionaire becomes a tramp and disappears, letting it be known that he will give a fortune for genuine acts of kindness. Tramps are then royally entertained all over town.
Amusing Depression comedy with satirical touches.
w Boris Ingster, Milton Sperling d Walter Lang ph Lucien Andriot md Louis Silvers ☆ Warner Baxter, Peter Lorre, Marjorie Weaver, Jean Hersholt, John Carradine, J. Edward Bromberg, Lynn Bari, Fritz Feld, Sig Rumann
'Not worth that much ... the plot sags at the halfway mark and the wind-up is disappointing.' – Variety

Ill Met by Moonlight

GB 1956 104m bw Vistavision
Rank/Vega (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)
US title: Night Ambush
In Crete during the German occupation, British agents work with partisans to capture a German general.
Disappointingly dreary war adventure with too many night locations, too little suspense and characterization, and photography which seems to be deliberately unattractive.
wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger book W. Stanley Moss ph Christopher Challis m Mikis Theodorakis
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Marius Goring, David Oxley, Cyril Cusack, John Cairney, Laurence Payne, Wolfe Morris, Michael Gough

I'll Never Forget What's 'isname ★

GB 1967 96m Technicolor
Universal/Scimitar (Michael Winner)
An advertising executive gives up power and money for integrity on a small literary magazine, but is won back by a mogul.
Vivid yet muddled tragi-comedy of the sixties, with splashes of sex and violence in trendy settings, a hero one really doesn't believe in, and a title which seems to have no meaning whatsoever.
w Peter Draper d Michael Winner
ph Otto Heller m Francis Lai
☆ Oliver Reed, Orson Welles, Carol White, Harry Andrews, Michael Hordern, Wendy Craig, Marianne Faithfull
'The film is all surface; the direction and the editing elbow detail away, and there is time to watch nothing.' – Penelope Gilliatt, New Yorker

I'll Never Forget You: see The House in the Square

I'll See You in My Dreams ★

US 1952 112m bw
Warner (Louis F. Edelman)
The domestic and professional life of songwriter Gus Kahn.
Quiet-toned, well made, quite forgettable musical.
w Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose d Michael Curtiz ph Ted McCord md Ray Heindorf ch Le Roy Prinz ☆ Doris Day, Danny Thomas, Frank Lovejoy, Patrice Wymore, James Gleason

I'll Sleep When I'm Dead ★

GB/US 2003 102m Technicolor
Paramount Classics/Revere/Seven Arts/Will and Co (Michael Kaplan, Michael Corrente)
A man seeks revenge on the gangsters responsible for his younger brother's suicide.
Cockney criminals in a familiar story of low-life vengeance with a grim and laconic protagonist; it is well enough done, though there seems little purpose in doing it again.
w Trevor Preston d Mike Hodges ph Mike Garfath m Simon Fisher Turner pd Jon Bunker ed Paul Carlin ☆ Clive Owen (Will Graham), Charlotte Rampling (Helen), Jonathan Rhys Meyers (Davey), Malcolm McDowell (Boad), Jamie Foreman (Mickser), Ken Stott (Frank Turner), Sylvia Syms (Mrs Bartz), Geoff Bell (Arnie Ryan)
'Embarrassing chiefly for its spooky semblance to Hodges's first and far superior hit, Get Carter' – James Christopher, Times

I'll Take Romance

US 1937 85m bw
Columbia (Everett Riskin)
When an opera singer refuses to fulfil a South American contract, her impresario kidnaps her.
Moderate star vehicle.
w George Oppenheimer, Jane Murfin
d Edward H. Griffith ph Lucien Andriot m/ly various ☆ Grace Moore, Melvyn Douglas, Helen Westley, Stuart Erwin, Margaret Hamilton, Walter Kingsford, Esther Muir

I'll Take Sweden

US 1965 96m Technicolor
UA/Edward Small
A widowed oil company executive accepts a Stockholm posting to remove his teenage daughter from an unsuitable attachment.
Feeble comedy which unwisely attempts to be with it, but is bogged down by amateurish handling and wit-wise is sadly without it.
w Nat Perrin, Bob Fisher, Arthur Marx
d Frederick de Cordova ph Daniel L. Fapp m Jimmy Haskell ☆ Bob Hope, Tuesday Weld, Frankie Avalon, Dina Merrill, Jeremy Slate, John Qualen, Walter Sande

Illegal ★

US 1955 88m bw
Warner (Frank P. Rosenberg)
A disillusioned District Attorney becomes a racketeer's lawyer but finally denounces him at the cost of his own life.
Competent remake of The Mouthpiece (qv), a good star melodrama.
w W. R. Burnett, James R. Webb story Frank J. Collins d Lewis Allen ph Peverell Marley m Max Steiner
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Nina Foch, Albert Dekker, Hugh Marlowe, Jayne Mansfield, Howard St John, Ellen Corby
'Hard-hitting stuff in the old gangster tradition.' – MFB

Illegal Entry

US 1949 84m bw
Universal-International
Undercover agents investigate a smuggling racket.
Routine, quite entertaining alleged exposé.
w Joel Malone d Frederick de Cordova
ph William H. Daniels
☆ Howard Duff, George Brent, Marta Toren, Tom Tully, Paul Stewart, Gar Moore

Illegal Traffic

US 1938 67m bw
Paramount
The FBI tracks down an organization devoted to smuggling criminals away from danger.
Smart second feature based on J. Edgar Hoover's Persons in Hiding.
w Robert Yost, Lewis Foster, Stuart Anthony
d Louis King
☆ J. Carrol Naish, Mary Carlisle, Robert Preston
'Good racketeer film ... should do better than average business.' – Variety

Illegally Yours

US 1988 102m Technicolor
UA/Crescent Moon/DEG (Peter Bogdanovich)
A juror sets out to prove the innocence of a woman he has loved from afar, who is accused of murder and blackmail.
Screwed-up attempt at a screwball comedy, painful to watch.
w M. A. Stewart, Max Dickens d Peter Bogdanovich ph Dante Spinotti m Phil Marshall pd Jane Musky ed Richard Fields, Ronald Krehel ☆ Rob Lowe, Colleen Camp, Kenneth Mars, Harry Carey Jnr, Kim Myers, Marshall Colt

Illicit

US 1931 81m bw
Warner
A disillusioned wife walks out on her husband and seeks solace elsewhere.
Undistinguished weepie, which later became Ex-Lady.
w Harvey Thew d Archie Mayo
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Ricardo Cortez, Joan Blondell, Charles Butterworth
'Lacks a wallop and action.' – Variety

'Nothing is what it seems.'

The Illusionist ★ (7)

US 2006 108m
Momentum/Bob Yari Productions/Koppelman-Levien/Michael London Productions/Contagious Pictures (Michael London, Brian Koppelman, David Levien, Bob Yari, Cathy Schulman)
In 19th-century Vienna, a magician provokes the ire of the Crown Prince by courting his prospective wife.
Engrossing period drama that shares its fascination with fin de siècle stagecraft with Christopher Nolan's The Prestige (qv); the Mittel-European accents are a distraction, though, while the ending is preposterous.
wd Neil Burger short story Eisenheim the Illusionist by Steven Millhauser ph Dick Pope m Philip Glass pd Ondrej Nekvasil ad Vlasta Svobodova, Stefan Kovacik ed Naomi Geraghty
☆ Edward Norton (Eisenheim), Paul Giamatti (Inspector Uhl), Jessica Biel (Sophie), Rufus Sewell (Crown Prince Leopold), Eddie Marsan (Josef Fischer), Karl Johnson (Doctor/Old Man)
'An exciting story of deception, intrigue, illusion and reality.' – Philip French, Observer
'A pungent period folk tale that teases you until the very end.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
† The film was released before The Prestige in the US but after it in the UK.
♗ cinematography

'Don't dare stare at...'

The Illustrated Man ★

US 1969 103m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/SKM (Howard B. Kreitsek, Ted Mann)
A strange wanderer tells weird stories based on the tattooed pictures which cover him from tip to toe.
Oddball compendium based rather insecurely on Ray Bradbury stories; in this form they don't amount to much but the presentation is assured.
w Howard B. Kreitsek d Jack Smight ph Philip Lathrop m Jerry Goldsmith
ad Joel Schiller
☆ Rod Steiger, Claire Bloom, Robert Drivas, Don Dubbins, Jason Evers
'A curiously passionless affair – efficient enough, meaty enough, but without poetry, without charm, without beauty.' – Philip Strick
'A pretentious comic strip of maudlin and muddled fantasies.' – Judith Crist

Illustrious Corpses ★

Italy/France 1975 120m Technicolor
PEA/UA (Alberto Grimaldi) original title: Cadaveri Eccellenti
A right-wing conspiracy to arouse feelings against dissidents is found to be behind the murders of public figures.
Elegant police melodrama on an unlikely political thesis.
w Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, Lino Jannuzzi novel Il Contesto by Leonardo Sciascia d Francesco Rosi ph Pasqualino de Santis m Piero Piccioni
☆ Lino Ventura, Alain Cuny, Paolo Bonacelli, Marcel Bozzuffi, Max von Sydow, Fernando Rey, Charles Vanel, Tina Aumont
'Like watching layer after layer peeled off some diseased flower until the poisoned root is reached.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

I'm All Right Jack ★★★

GB 1959 104m bw
British Lion/Charter (Roy Boulting)
A world-innocent graduate takes a job in industry; by starting at the bottom he provokes a national strike.
Satirical farce which manages to hit most of its widespread targets and finds corruption in high, low and middle places. A not inaccurate picture of aspects of British life in the fifties, and a presage of the satire boom to come with Beyond the Fringe and That Was the Week That Was.

w Frank Harvey, John Boulting, Alan Hackney novel Private Life by Alan Hackney d John Boulting ph Max Greene m Ken Hare ed Anthony Harvey
☆ Ian Carmichael (Stanley Windrush), Peter Sellers (Fred Kite), Irene Handl (Mrs. Kite), Richard Attenborough (Sidney de Vere Cox), Terry-Thomas (Maj. Hitchcock), Dennis Price (Bertram Tracepurcel), Margaret Rutherford (Aunt Dolly), Liz Fraser (Cynthia Kite), John Le Mesurier (Waters), Sam Kydd (Shop Steward)
Ⓑ Peter Sellers; screenplay

I'm Dancing as Fast as I Can

US 1982 106m Movielab
Paramount/Edgar J. Scherick/Scott Rudin

A documentary film-maker is rehabilitated after dependence on drugs.
Unabsorbing case history more suitable as a TV movie except that the acting for TV would not have been so far over the top.
w David Rabe book Barbara Gordon d Jack Hofsiss ph Jan de Bont m Stanley Silverman
☆ Jill Clayburgh, Nicol Williamson, Dianne Wiest, Joe Pesci, Geraldine Page, James Sutorius, Richard Masur, Kathleen Widdoes

I'm from Missouri

US 1939 77m bw
Paramount

The wife of a Missouri farmer and mule breeder has social aspirations.
Rural comedy patterned after the Will Rogers successes.
w John C. Moffitt, Duke Atterbury d Theodore Reed
☆ Bob Burns, Gladys George, Gene Lockhart, Judith Barrett, William Henry, Patricia Morison, E. E. Clive, Melville Cooper

'Moderate grosser for family trade.' – Variety

I'm Going Home ★★

Portugal/France 2000 90m colour
Artificial Eye/Madragoa/Gemini/France2 (Paulo Branco)

aka: Vou Para Casa

After the rest of his family is accidentally killed, leaving him to bring up his young grandson, an ageing actor reflects on his life and the increasingly poor roles offered to him.
Heartfelt meditation on old age from the oldest working director (he was 93 when he made this), with a dignified performance from Piccoli as a man who affirms the pleasures of life while acknowledging his own fading powers.
wd Manoel de Oliveira ph Sabine Lancelin pd Yves Fournier ed Valerie Loiseleux
☆ Michel Piccoli (Gilbert Valence), Antoine Chappey (Agent), Catherine Deneuve (Marguerite), John Malkovich (John Crawford), Leonor Baldaque (Sylvia), Leonor Silveira (Marie)

'The result is something as original as it is unlikely: a study in grief that is flooded with happiness.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'This patient detailing of an actor's life – a portrait of the artist as an old man – has a fascination akin to watching a sun slowly disappear beneath the horizon.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

I'm Gonna Git You, Sucka

US 1988 89m DeLuxe
UIP/United Artists/Ivory Way/Raymond Katz/Front Films (Peter McCarthy, Carl Craig)

Black heroes are recruited to overthrow a white gangster.
Good-natured parody of black action movies such as Shaft.
wd Keenen Ivory Wayans ph Tom Richmond m David Michael Frank pd Melba Farquhar, Catherine Hardwicke ed Michael R. Miller
☆ Keenen Ivory Wayans, Bernie Casey, Antonio Fargas, Steve James, Isaac Hayes, Jim Brown, Ja'Net DuBois, Dawn Lewis, John Vernon, Clu Gulager

Im Innern des Wals: see In the Belly of the Whale

Im Lauf der Zeit: see Kings of the Road

'Just a sensitive gal who climbed the ladder of success ... wrong by wrong! A story about a gal who lost her reputation – and never missed it!'

I'm No Angel ★★★

US 1933 88m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)

A carnival dancer gets off a murder charge, moves into society and sues a man for breach of promise.
The star's most successful vehicle, credited with saving the fortunes of Paramount, remains a highly diverting side show with almost a laugh a minute. Released before the Legion of Decency was formed, it also contains some of Mae's fruitiest lines.
w Mae West d Wesley Ruggles ph Leo Tover m/ly Harvey Brooks, Gladys Dubois ad Hans Dreier, Bernard Herzbrun ed Otho Lovering
☆ Mae West (Tira), Edward Arnold (Big Bill Barton), Cary Grant (Jack Clayton), Gregory Ratoff (Benny Pinkowitz), Ralf Harolde (Slick Wiley), Kent Taylor (Kirk Lawrence), Gertrude Michael (Alicia Hatton)

'The most freewheeling of all Mae's screen vehicles, and the most satisfying of the lot.' – James Robert Parish
'A quality of balance and proportion which only the finest films attain.' – Views and Reviews

I'm Not Rappaport ③

US 1996 135m DuArt
Gramercy/Greenstreet (John Penotti, John Starke)

Two 80-year-olds are determined not to go gentle into that good night.
Capable, sweetly comic performances from Matthau and Davis add a little humanity to what is a contrived and often implausible narrative.
wd Herb Gardner play Herb Gardner ph Adam Holender m Gerry Mulligan pd Mark Friedberg ed Wendey Stanzler, Emily Paine
☆ Walter Matthau, Ossie Davis, Amy Irving, Martha Plimpton, Craig T. Nelson, Boyd Gaines

'An uncomfortable mix of slap-shtick and social commentary, with the passage of time having dulled the story's sense of humor.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

I'm Not Scared: see Io Non Ho Paura

I'm Still Waiting For You: see Lovers Lane

Images

Eire 1972 101m Technicolor
Panavision
Lions Gate/Hemdale (Tommy Thompson)

A semi-hysterical woman is confronted by the images of her former lovers.
Pretentious psycho-drama which might have made a good half-hour.
wd Robert Altman ph Vilmos Zsigmond m John Williams
☆ Susannah York, René Auberjonois, Marcel Bozzuffi
Ⓐ John Williams

'When a father doesn't live up to his dreams ... a daughter has to stand up for hers.'

Imaginary Crimes ★

US 1994 105m colour
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

A con man, forever dreaming of riches around the corner, struggles to bring up his two daughters after their mother dies.
Nostalgic reminiscence, seen from the viewpoint of a teenager and embryonic writer, in which love conquers all.
w Kristine Johnson, Davia Nelson book Sheila Ballantyne d Anthony Drazan ph John J. Campbell m Stephen Endelman pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Elizabeth Kling
☆ Harvey Keitel, Fairuza Balk, Kelly Lynch, Vincent D'Onofrio, Diane Baker, Chris Penn, Amber Benson, Seymour Cassel, Annette O'Toole

'The script has stretches of pure corn and the plot mechanics get in the way of genuine feeling. The movie tries hard, but it's far too slight to click on the big screen.' – Kim Newman, Empire

'People are never who they seem to be.'

Imaginary Heroes ★

US 2004 112m colour Panavision
Signature/ApolloProMedia/QI Quality (Illana Diamant, Gina Resnick, Denise Shaw, Art Linson, Frank Hubner)

A family begins to fall apart after the suicide of the eldest son, a champion swimmer.
A sensitive but not always convincing study of the personalities involved in a dysfunctional family whose tragedy is their inability to be honest with one another when it matters.
wd Dan Harris ph Tim Orr m John Ottman, Deborah Lurie pd Rick Butler ed James Lyons
☆ Sigourney Weaver (Sandy Travis), Emile Hirsch (Tim Travis), Jeff Daniels (Ben Travis), Michelle Williams (Penny Travis), Kip Pardue (Matt Travis), Deirdre O'Connell (Marge Dwyer), Ryan Donowho (Kyle Dwyer), Suzanne Santo (Steph Connors)

'Sways awkwardly back and forth between prickly humor and pathos, rarely ringing true in either register.' – David Rooney, Variety

Imaginary Sweetheart: see Professional Sweetheart

An Imaginary Tale

France 1990 100m colour
Mayfair/C. M. Luca/Télescène/National Film Board of Canada (Claudio Luca, Robin Spry)
French title: Une histoire inventée

In Montreal, a jazz trumpeter falls in love with an actress, to the annoyance of her actor-lover.
Performances of Shakespeare's Othello form a background to this tale of jealousy, treated as comic rather than tragic.
w André Forcier, Jacques Marcotte d André Forcier ph George Dufaux m Serge Fiore ad Réal Ouellette ed François Gill
☆ Jean Lapointe, Louise Marleau, Charlotte Laurier, Marc Messier, Jean-François Pichette, France Castel, Tony Nardi

'Too hermetic to be much more than a light diversion.' – Sight and Sound

'There Goes The Bride.'

Imagine Me and You ②

GB/Germany/US 2005 94m colour
UIP/Ealing/BBC/Cougar/FragileX Filme/Minotaur/Endgame/RTL (Sophie Balhetchet, Barnaby Thompson, Lynda LaPlante, James Spring)

On her wedding day, a bride falls for the female florist reponsible for the occasion's flower arrangements.
A comedy in the style of Richard Four Weddings and a Funeral Curtis, though not as funny and settling for something blander than its subject matter would suggest.
wd Ol Parker ph Ben Davis m Alex Heffes pd Eve Mavrakis ed Alex Mackie
☆ Piper Perabo (Rachel), Lena Headey (Luce), Matthew Goode (Heck), Celia Imrie (Tessa), Anthony Head (Ned), Darren Boyd (Cooper)

'Pleasant if pedestrian.' – Hollywood Reporter
'Despite the laughs, it all adds up to a rather sad, sombre affair.' – Empire

L'Imbalsamatore: see The Embalmer

Imitation General

US 1958 88m bw
MGM (William Hawks)

France 1944: when a general is killed, a sergeant takes his place to preserve morale.
Odd, rather unpalatable war comedy-drama.
w William Bowers d George Marshall ph George Folsey ☆ Glenn Ford, Red Buttons, Taina Elg, Dean Jones, Kent Smith

Imitation of Life ★★

US 1934 109m bw
Universal (John M. Stahl)

A woman becomes rich through the pancake recipe of her black servant, but the latter has a tragic life because her daughter passes for white.
Monumentally efficient tearjerker, generally well done.
w William Hurlbut novel Fannie Hurst d John Stahl ph Merritt Gerstad m Heinz Roemheld ☆ Claudette Colbert, Warren William, Louise Beavers, Ned Sparks, Rochelle Hudson, Fredi Washington, Alan Hale, Henry Armetta

'Grim and harsh stuff ... its reception in the south cannot be judged or guessed by a northerner.' – Variety
'Classic, compulsively watchable rags-to-riches-and-heartbreak weeper.' – New Yorker, 1977
Ⓐ best picture

Imitation of Life ★

US 1959 124m Eastmancolor
U-I (Ross Hunter)

Glossy remake of the above with its heroine now an actress; stunningly produced but dully acted, making its racially sensitive plot seem insincere.
w Eleanore Griffin, Allan Scott d Douglas Sirk ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ☆ Lana Turner, Juanita Moore, John Gavin, Susan Kohner, Dan O'Herlihy, Sandra Dee, Robert Alda
Ⓐ Juanita Moore; Susan Kohner

Immaculate Conception ★

GB 1991 120m Metrocolor
Feature/Dehlavi Films/Film on Four (Jamil Dehlavi)

In Pakistan, a childless American woman is

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Ⓐ Academy Award · Ⓐ Academy Award nomination · Ⓑ BAFTA

In Country
US 1989 115m DuArt
Warner (Norman Jewison, Richard Roth)

A young girl attempts to discover more about her father, a soldier who died in Vietnam.
Mundane account of a child coming to terms with her life.
w Frank Pierson, Cynthia Cidre novel Bobbie Ann Mason d Norman Jewison ph Russell Boyd m James Horner pd Jackson DeGovia ed Antony Gibbs, Lou Lombardo
☆ Bruce Willis, Emily Lloyd, Joan Allen, Kevin Anderson, Richard Hamilton, Judith Ivey, Peggy Rea, John Terry, Dan Jenkins

'What would you do to get in?'

The In Crowd
US 2000 104m colour
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

Released from a mental hospital to work in a country club, a girl is befriended by a wealthy psychopath and her friends.
Formulaic thriller with slight lesbian overtones but little to interest anyone.
w Mark Gibson, Philip Halprin d Mary Lambert ph Tom Priestley m Jeff Rona pd John D. Kretschmer ed Pasquale Buba
☆ Lori Heuring (Adrien Williams), Susan Ward (Brittany Foster), Daniel Hugh Kelly (Dr Thompson), Matthew Settle (Matt Curtis), Nathan Bexton (Bobby), Laurie Fortier (Kelly), Kim Murphy (Joanne), Ethan Erickson (Tom)
'Probably the only people who could be surprised at this movie will be those who wandered into the wrong multiplex theater by mistake.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

In Custody
GB 1993 120m Technicolor
Merchant Ivory/Channel 4 (Walid Chowhan)

A teacher, sent to interview the greatest living poet of the dying Urdu language, finds that his hero is a broken-down drunk.
A stately, uninvolving examination of an urgent topic, that of tradition losing out to commerce and debased culture.
w Anita Desai, Shahrukh Husain novel Anita Desai d Ismail Merchant ph Larry Pizer m Zakir Hussain, Ustad Sultan Khan pd Suresh Sawant ed Roberto Silvi
☆ Shashi Kapoor, Om Puri, Shabana Azmi, Sushma Seth, Neena Gupta, Prayag Raj, Tinnu Anand
'As for Merchant, perhaps he should stick to producing.' – Robin Brooks, Empire

'What started as a dream, ended as a nightmare.'

In Dreams
US 1999 99m Technicolor 'Scope
DreamWorks (Stephen Woolley)

A mother finds that she can communicate in dreams with the serial killer who murdered her young daughter.
Unattractive psychological thriller that begins on a note of hysteria and remains on that high-pitched level throughout.
w Bruce Robinson, Neil Jordan novel Doll's Eyes by Bari Wood d Neil Jordan ph Darius Khondji m Elliot Goldenthal pd Nigel Phelps ed Tony Lawson
☆ Annette Bening, Aidan Quinn, Robert Downey Jnr, Paul Guilfoyle, Dennis Boutsikaris, Stephen Rea, Prudence Wright Holmes, Katie Sagona
'A silly and unpleasant psycho-chiller.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A complete and utter mess from top to bottom.' – Bruce Robinson

In Enemy Country
US 1968 107m Techniscope
Universal (Harry Keller)

In 1939 Paris, the French secret service evolves an elaborate four-year undercover plan.
Standard, overlong espionage melodrama with no surprises.
w Edward Anhalt story Sy Bartlett d Harry Keller ph Loyal Griggs m William Lava
☆ Tony Franciosa, Anjanette Comer, Guy Stockwell, Paul Hubschmid, Tom Bell, Harry Townes, Michael Constantine, John Marley

'To Some, Losing Control Is ... Everything.'

In Excess
Italy 1991 94m Fotocinema
Metrofilm/PAC (Galliano Juso)

An English screenwriter grows increasingly jealous of his wife after she insists on spending her weekends with a sadistic lover.
Glossy, sterile, would-be erotic thriller that fails to satisfy on any level.
w Sergio Bazzini novel Alberto Moravia d Mauro Bolognini ph Giuseppi Lanci m Ennio Morricone pd Claudio Cinini ed Sergio Montanari
☆ Julian Sands, Joanna Pacula, Tcheky Karyo, Lara Wendel, Mario Di Stefano
'A pretentious Euro-production which shifts between haunting lyricism and self-indulgence.' – Sight and Sound
'Humourless tosh.' – Empire

In Gay Madrid
US 1930 78m bw
MGM

A Spanish blade is torn between two women.
Feeble star vehicle, presumably aimed at the Spanish market.
w Bess Meredyth, Edwin Justus Mayer, Salisbury Field novel Alejandro Perez Lugin d Robert Z. Leonard
☆ Ramon Novarro, Dorothy Jordan, Lottice Howell, Claude King, Eugenie Besserer
'Unreal story, poor acting, ditto direction and general lack of popular appeal.' – Variety

In God We Trust
US 1980 97m Technicolor
Universal

A monk leaves his monastery to raise some ready cash.
Dismal and tasteless attempt at religious satire.
w Marty Feldman, Chris Allen d Marty Feldman ph Charles Correll m John Morris
☆ Marty Feldman, Peter Boyle, Louise Lasser, Richard Pryor, Wilfrid Hyde-White
'A rare achievement – a comedy with no laughs. Its energy is prodigious. But only rarely is it matched by invention.' – Variety

'He's rich, young and handsome. He's in love with you and he's your dad's boss.'

In Good Company ★ ⑥
US 2004 109m colour
Universal/Depth of Field (Paul Weitz, Chris Weitz)

A middle-aged advertising executive finds himself working for a 25-year-old boss who is dating his daughter.
An attempt at the sort of corporate comedy that Billy Wilder made his own, this substitutes mildness and a soft centre for the necessary tartness and bite.
wd Paul Weitz ph Remi Adefarasin m Stephen Trask pd William Arnold ed Myron Kerstein
☆ Dennis Quaid (Dan Foreman), Topher Grace (Carter Duryea), Scarlett Johansson (Alex Foreman), Marg Helgenberger (Ann Foreman), David Paymer (Morty)
'A bit of a soothing cough-sweet of a movie.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian

In Harm's Way ★
US 1965 167m bw Panavision
Paramount/Sigma (Otto Preminger)

The American navy retaliates after Pearl Harbor.
Odd mix of all-star action, spectacle (mostly models) and personal romances, with a few interesting scenes; shorn of colour it seems rather half-hearted.
w Wendell Mayes novel James Bassett d Otto Preminger ph Loyal Griggs m Jerry Goldsmith titles Saul Bass
☆ John Wayne, Kirk Douglas, Patricia Neal, Tom Tryon, Paula Prentiss, Brandon de Wilde, Stanley Holloway, Burgess Meredith, Henry Fonda, Dana Andrews, Franchot Tone, Jill Haworth, George Kennedy, Hugh O'Brian, Carroll O'Connor and also Patrick O'Neal, Slim Pickens, Bruce Cabot, Larry Hagman, James Mitchum
'Lacks even a touch of the touch.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Loyal Griggs
BAFTA Patricia Neal

In Like Flint
US 1967 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Saul David)

Top agent Derek Flint unmasks a subversive female spy ring which has kidnapped the President.
This sequel to Our Man Flint (qv) is silly rather than funny, a spy spoof which becomes irritatingly hard to take.
w Hal Fimberg d Gordon Douglas ph William Daniels m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ James Coburn, Lee J. Cobb, Jean Hale, Andrew Duggan, Anna Lee
'It gently founders in yards of flat dialogue, lavishly uninteresting sets, fuzzy colour processing, and a supporting cast in which all the girls look alarmingly mass produced.' – MFB

In Love and War
US 1958 111m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)

Three men from different backgrounds join the US Marines and see service in the Pacific.
Self-conscious propaganda concoction of bare routine interest.
w Edward Anhalt novel Anton Myrer d Philip Dunne ph Leo Tover m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Robert Wagner, Bradford Dillman, Dana Wynter, Hope Lange, Sheree North, France Nuyen

'In war they found each other ... In each other they found love...'

In Love and War ★
US 1996 115m Rank Colour Panavision
Entertainment/New Line/Dimitri Villard

In Italy during the First World War, the 18-year-old Ernest Hemingway falls in love with a 26-year-old nurse.
Oddly stilted account of an experience that seems to have had a lasting effect on Hemingway; it's just a story of a sentimental interlude between a boy and a woman.
w Allan Scott, Clancy Sigal, Anna Hamilton Phelan book Hemingway in Love and War by Henry S. Villard, James Nagel d Richard Attenborough ph Roger Pratt m George Fenton pd Stuart Craig ed Lesley Walker
☆ Sandra Bullock (Agnes von Kurowsky), Chris O'Donnell (Ernest Hemingway), Mackenzie Astin (Henry Villard), Ingrid Lacey (Elsie MacDonald), Emilio Bonucci, Margot Steinberg, Colin Stinton, Ian Kelly
'Doesn't get under the skin of its protagonists, leaving the viewer unmoved and passably interested at best.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

In My Country: see Country of My Skull

In My Skin: see Dans Ma Peau

In Name Only ★
US 1939 94m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A rich man falls in love but his wife refuses a divorce.
The stars seem unhappy in this sombre matrimonial drama, but of its kind it's surprisingly well made.
w Richard Sherman novel Memory of Love by Bessie Brewer d John Cromwell ph J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb
☆ Cary Grant, Carole Lombard, Kay Francis, Charles Coburn, Helen Vinson
'Sock romantic drama ... will get maximum playing time and the best dating the country offers.' – Variety
'Shot with a refined taste for interior decoration ... it is oversweetened with the material for tears.' – Graham Greene

'The talking picture reaches perfection!'

In Old Arizona ★★
US 1929 95m bw
Fox

Adventures of the Cisco Kid.
Primitive sound Western, a sensation in its day but now of purely historical interest.
w Tom Barry stories O. Henry d Raoul Walsh, Irving Cummings ph Arthur Edeson
☆ Warner Baxter, Edmund Lowe, Dorothy Burgess, J. Farrell MacDonald
† See also The Cisco Kid.
Academy Award Warner Baxter
Academy Award best picture; Tom Barry; Irving Cummings; Arthur Edeson

In Old California
US 1942 89m bw
Republic

A Boston pharmacist heads west towards gold rush California.
Moderate star Western with parsimonious budget.
w Gertrude Purcell, Frances Hyland d William McGann
☆ John Wayne, Binnie Barnes, Albert Dekker, Helen Parrish, Patsy Kelly, Edgar Kennedy, Dick Purcell, Charles Halton

In Old Chicago ★★★
US 1937 115m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

Events leading up to the great Chicago fire include a torrid romance between a gambler and a café singer.
Spectacular melodrama which with its two-

Philip K. Dick's themes of paranoia and identity have been better explored elsewhere, notably in Blade Runner.
w Caroline Case, Ehren Kruger, David Twohy story Philip K. Dick adaptation Scott Rosenberg d Gary Fleder ph Robert Elswit m Mark Isham pd Nelson Coates ed Armen Minasian, Bob Ducsay sp Jonathan Silver; ILM; Metrolight
☆ Gary Sinise (Spence Olham), Madeleine Stowe (Maya Olham), Vincent D'Onofrio (Hathaway), Tony Shalhoub (Dr Carone), Mekhi Phifer (Cale), Lindsay Crouse (Chancellor), Elizabeth Pena (Midwife)
'A stubbornly unexciting ride into the near future fronted by superb thesps in slumming mode.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
† The film was released after a two year delay.

'A musical, magical, cross-dressing, mistaken identity, cream puff-eating, hidden bomb kind of comedy!'

The Imposters ★

US 1998 101m Technicolor
TCF/Fox Searchlight/First Cold Press (Beth Alexander, Stanley Tucci)
In the 30s, two out-of-work actors pretend to be stewards after they become inadvertent stowaways on an Atlantic liner.
An energetic farce of false identities and elaborate plots, which is enjoyable for as long as it lasts, though it hardly amounts to a successful revival of screwball comedy.
wd Stanley Tucci ph Ken Kelsch m Gary DeMichele pd Andrew Jackness ed Suzy Elmiger
☆ Oliver Platt, Stanley Tucci, Teagle F. Bougere, Elizabeth Bracco, Steve Buscemi, Billy Connolly, Allan Corduner, Hope Davis, Dana Ivey, Alfred Molina, Isabella Rossellini, Campbell Scott
'More than a dozen of New York's finest actors ham it up with such unrestrained glee ... that it hardly matters if this swirl of cotton candy disappears even before it touches the tip of your tongue.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
† Woody Allen appears uncredited.

The Impostor

US 1944 92m bw
Universal
TV title: Strange Confession
A French convict escapes during a Nazi bombing raid, and in the guise of a dead man fights bravely for France.
Propagandist melodrama, more stiffly made than its talent would suggest.
wd Julien Duvivier
☆ Jean Gabin, Ellen Drew, Richard Whorf, Allyn Joslyn, Peter Van Eyck, Ralph Morgan Impromptu ★

GB 1989 107m colour
Rank/Sovereign/Governor/Les Films Ariane (Stuart Oken, Daniel A. Sherkow)
George Sand chases after Chopin to a country house-party and succeeds in seducing him later in Paris.
Lively re-telling of a well-known romance, but the modern, slangy dialogue makes it seem like a fancy-dress party, and it runs out of energy halfway through.
w Sarah Kernochan d James Lapine ph Bruno de Keyzer md Chris Walker ad Gérard Daoudal ed Michael Ellis
☆ Judy Davis, Hugh Grant, Mandy Patinkin, Bernadette Peters, Julian Sands, Ralph Brown, Georges Corraface, Anton Rodgers, Emma Thompson, Anna Massey
'Not wholly successful, this is nevertheless a surprisingly perky addition to the mainly dreary catalogue of films about the loves of deadweight famous names from the past.' – Kim Newman, MFB

Improper Channels

Canada 1979 91m colour
A father runs into administrative trouble when he takes his injured daughter to hospital.
Salutary but not very commanding tale for our times, with a leading performance that suffers from overfamiliarity.
w Morrie Rubinsky, Ian Sutherland, Adam Arkin d Eric Till ph Anthony Richmond m Maribeth Solomon, Micky Erbe
☆ Alan Arkin, Mariette Hartley, Monica Parker, Harry Ditson

Improper Conduct

US 1994 95m colour
Everest (Victor Bhalla/Jag Mundhra)
A woman decides to expose the sleazy married marketing man whose sexual harassment led to the death of her sister.
Uninteresting thriller, which exemplifies its theme of exploitation by including many scenes of voyeuristic and gratuitous sexual activity.
w Carl Austin story Jag Mundhra d Jag Mundhra ph James Michaels m Alan Dermarderosian pd Brian McCabe ed Wayne Schmidt, David Schulman
☆ Steven Bauer, Tahnee Welch, John Laughlin, Nia Peeples, Lee Anne Beaman, Stuart Whitman

An Impudent Girl ★★

France 1985 97m colour
Artificial Eye/Oliane/A2/Telema/Monthyon (Marie-Laure Reyre) original title: L'Effrontée
An awkward 13-year-old girl begins to grow up.
Charming film of adolescent trauma, owing much to Carson McCuller's The Member of the Wedding and superior to the US movie version.
w Claude Miller, Luc Beraud, Bernard Stora, Annie Miller d Claude Miller ph Dominique Chapuis m Alain Jomy pd Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko ed Albert Jurgenson
☆ Charlotte Gainsbourg, Bernadette Lafont, Jean-Claude Brialy, Raoul Billerey, Clothilde Baudon, Jean-Philippe Ecoffey

Impulse

US 1984 99m DeLuxe
Tim Zinnemann/ABC Motion Pictures
After an earthquake, a small farming community is menaced by a mysterious subterranean substance which makes people self-destructive.
Modest, mildly humorous sci-fi which has its fun without explaining anything at all.
w Bart Davis, Don Carlos Dunaway d Graham Baker ☆ Tim Matheson, Meg Tilly, Hume Cronyn, John Karlen, Amy Stryker

Impulse

US 1990 108m Technicolor
Warner (Albert S. Ruddy, André Morgan)
An undercover cop keeps quiet about the murder of a missing witness.
Implausible thriller.
w John de Marco, Leigh Chapman d Sondra Locke ph Dean Semler m Michel Colombier pd William A. Elliott ed John W. Wheeler
☆ Theresa Russell, Jeff Fahey, George Dzundza, Alan Rosenberg, Nicholas Mele, Eli Danker, Charles McCaughan, Lynne Thigpen, Shawn Elliott

In a Lonely Place ★

US 1950 93m bw
Columbia/Santana (Robert Lord)
An embittered Hollywood scriptwriter escapes a murder charge but loses his girlfriend through his violent temperament.
Curious character melodrama which intrigues without satisfying.
w Andrew Solt novel Dorothy B. Hughes d Nicholas Ray ph Burnett Guffey m George Antheil
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Gloria Grahame, Frank Lovejoy, Carl Benton Reid, Art Smith, Jeff Donnell
'It remains better than average, but lacks the penetration which would make it really interesting.' – Gavin Lambert

In a Year with 13 Moons

West Germany 1978 124m colour
Tango/Project/Filmverlag der Autoren original title: In einem Jahr mit 13 Monden
Ordeals of a man who undergoes a sex change.
Unattractive case history with expressionist decoration.
wd Rainer Werner Fassbinder ph Rainer Werner Fassbinder m Peter Raben ☆ Volker Spengler, Ingrid Caven, Gottfried John, Elisabeth Trissenaar, Eva Mattes

In All Innocence: see En Plein Coeur

In America ★★

US/Ireland/GB 2002 colour
TCF/Hell's Kitchen/East of Harlem (Jim Sheridan, Arthur Lappin)
A poor Irish couple and their two young children move into a rundown Manhattan apartment block as illegal immigrants.
At times a charming, semi-autobiographical account of survival and coping with loss, but too often it strives for cosmic significance; the acting saves it.
w Jim Sheridan, Naomi Sheridan, Kirsten Sheridan. d Jim Sheridan ph Declan Quinn m Gavin Friday, Maurice Seezer pd Mark Geraghty ed Naomi Geraghty
☆ Samantha Morton (Sarah), Paddy Considine (Johnny), Sarah Bolger (Christy), Emma Bolger (Ariel), Djimon Hounsou (Mateo)
'Richly observed, beautifully written and performed winner.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter
'A mawkish, self-indulgent tale.' – Jason Solomons, Times
'Lyrical moonshine would be one way of describing it. A gang of bollix would be another.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent † Kate Winslet and Billy Bob Thornton were the original choices for the leading roles.
Ⓐ screenplay; Samantha Morton; Djimon Hounsou

'An Out-And-Out Comedy.'

In & Out ★

US 1997 90m DeLuxe
Paramount/Spelling Films (Scott Rudin)
Just before his wedding, a small-town teacher is 'outed' as a homosexual during a speech by a former pupil, now a Hollywood star, as he accepts an Oscar.
Brisk, mildly amusing comedy that is careful not to offend.
w Paul Rudnick d Frank Oz ph Rob Hahn m Mark Shaiman pd Ken Adam ed Dan Hanley, John Jympson
☆ Kevin Kline, Joan Cusack, Matt Dillon, Debbie Reynolds, Wilford Brimley, Bob Newhart, Tom Selleck
'A screwball comedy that is always genial and often hilarious.' – Stephen Amidon, Sunday Times
† The inspiration for the comedy was a speech made by Tom Hanks when accepting an Oscar for Philadelphia.
†† Glenn Close, Whoopi Goldberg and Jay Leno appear as themselves.
Ⓐ Joan Cusack

In Bed with Madonna: see Truth or Dare

In Caliente

US 1935 85m bw
Warner
In a Mexican horse racing resort, a dancer falls for the magazine editor who criticized her act.
Very slim storyline fails to make this a major musical despite attractive numbers including 'The Lady in Red'.
w Jerry Wald, Julius Epstein d Lloyd Bacon ph Sol Polito, George Barnes m/ly various ch Busby Berkeley ☆ Dolores del Rio, Pat O'Brien, Edward Everett Horton, Leo Carrillo, Glenda Farrell, Judy Canova, Phil Regan, Wini Shaw, Herman Bing

In Celebration

GB 1974 131m Eastmancolor
Ely Landau/Cinevision
Three sons travel north for their miner father's fortieth wedding anniversary.
Sharply observant but fairly predictable dramatics, plainly filmed.
w David Storey play David Storey d Lindsay Anderson ph Dick Bush m Christopher Gunning ☆ Alan Bates, James Bolam, Brian Cox, Constance Chapman, Bill Owen

In Cold Blood ★★★

US 1967 134m bw Panavision
Columbia/Richard Brooks
An account of a real life crime in which an entire family was brutally murdered by wandering gunmen.
The fatal collision between the murdered family and two rootless drifters from dysfunctional homes is given an ironic weight in this detailed reconstruction of a haphazard tragedy.
wd Richard Brooks book Truman Capote ph Conrad Hall m Quincy Jones ad Robert Boyle ed Peter Zinner
☆ Robert Blake (Perry Smith), Scott Wilson (Dick Hickock), John Forsythe (Alvin Dewey), Paul Stewart (Reporter), Gerald S. O'Loughlin (Harold Nye), Jeff Corey (Hickock's Father)
'It marks a slight step up for its director, best remembered for reducing Lord Jim to Pablum and The Brothers Karamazov to pulp.' – John Simon
† It was remade as an 180m TV mini-series in 1990, directed by Jonathan Kaplan and starring Anthony Edwards and Eric Roberts.
Ⓐ Richard Brooks (as writer); Richard Brooks (as director); Conrad Hall; Quincy Jones

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Ⓐ Academy Award · Ⓐ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

In Country
US 1989 115m DuArt
Warner (Norman Jewison, Richard Roth)

A young girl attempts to discover more about her father, a soldier who died in Vietnam.
Mundane account of a child coming to terms with her life.
w Frank Pierson, Cynthia Cidre novel Bobbie Ann Mason d Norman Jewison ph Russell Boyd m James Horner pd Jackson DeGovia ed Antony Gibbs, Lou Lombardo
☆ Bruce Willis, Emily Lloyd, Joan Allen, Kevin Anderson, Richard Hamilton, Judith Ivey, Peggy Rea, John Terry, Dan Jenkins

'What would you do to get in?'

The In Crowd
US 2000 104m colour
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

Released from a mental hospital to work in a country club, a girl is befriended by a wealthy psychopath and her friends.
Formulaic thriller with slight lesbian overtones but little to interest anyone.
w Mark Gibson, Philip Halprin d Mary Lambert ph Tom Priestley m Jeff Rona pd John D. Kretschmer ed Pasquale Buba
☆ Lori Heuring (Adrien Williams), Susan Ward (Brittany Foster), Daniel Hugh Kelly (Dr Thompson), Matthew Settle (Matt Curtis), Nathan Bexton (Bobby), Laurie Fortier (Kelly), Kim Murphy (Joanne), Ethan Erickson (Tom)
'Probably the only people who could be surprised at this movie will be those who wandered into the wrong multiplex theater by mistake.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

In Custody
GB 1993 120m Technicolor
Merchant Ivory/Channel 4 (Walid Chowhan)

A teacher, sent to interview the greatest living poet of the dying Urdu language, finds that his hero is a broken-down drunk.
A stately, uninvolving examination of an urgent topic, that of tradition losing out to commerce and debased culture.
w Anita Desai, Shahrukh Husain novel Anita Desai d Ismail Merchant ph Larry Pizer m Zakir Hussain, Ustad Sultan Khan pd Suresh Sawant ed Roberto Silvi
☆ Shashi Kapoor, Om Puri, Shabana Azmi, Sushma Seth, Neena Gupta, Prayag Raj, Tinnu Anand
'As for Merchant, perhaps he should stick to producing.' – Robin Brooks, Empire

'What started as a dream, ended as a nightmare.'

In Dreams
US 1999 99m Technicolor 'Scope
DreamWorks (Stephen Woolley)

A mother finds that she can communicate in dreams with the serial killer who murdered her young daughter.
Unattractive psychological thriller that begins on a note of hysteria and remains on that high-pitched level throughout.
w Bruce Robinson, Neil Jordan novel Doll's Eyes by Bari Wood d Neil Jordan ph Darius Khondji m Elliot Goldenthal pd Nigel Phelps ed Tony Lawson
☆ Annette Bening, Aidan Quinn, Robert Downey Jnr, Paul Guilfoyle, Dennis Boutsikaris, Stephen Rea, Prudence Wright Holmes, Katie Sagona
'A silly and unpleasant psycho-chiller.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A complete and utter mess from top to bottom.' – Bruce Robinson

In Enemy Country
US 1968 107m Techniscope
Universal (Harry Keller)

In 1939 Paris, the French secret service evolves an elaborate four-year undercover plan.
Standard, overlong espionage melodrama with no surprises.
w Edward Anhalt story Sy Bartlett d Harry Keller ph Loyal Griggs m William Lava
☆ Tony Franciosa, Anjanette Comer, Guy Stockwell, Paul Hubschmid, Tom Bell, Harry Townes, Michael Constantine, John Marley

'To Some, Losing Control Is ... Everything.'

In Excess
Italy 1991 94m Fotocinema
Metrofilm/PAC (Galliano Juso)

An English screenwriter grows increasingly jealous of his wife after she insists on spending her weekends with a sadistic lover.
Glossy, sterile, would-be erotic thriller that fails to satisfy on any level.
w Sergio Bazzini novel Alberto Moravia d Mauro Bolognini ph Giuseppi Lanci m Ennio Morricone pd Claudio Cinini ed Sergio Montanari
☆ Julian Sands, Joanna Pacula, Tcheky Karyo, Lara Wendel, Mario Di Stefano
'A pretentious Euro-production which shifts between haunting lyricism and self-indulgence.' – Sight and Sound
'Humourless tosh.' – Empire

In Gay Madrid
US 1930 78m bw
MGM

A Spanish blade is torn between two women.
Feeble star vehicle, presumably aimed at the Spanish market.
w Bess Meredyth, Edwin Justus Mayer, Salisbury Field novel Alejandro Perez Lugin d Robert Z. Leonard
☆ Ramon Novarro, Dorothy Jordan, Lottice Howell, Claude King, Eugenie Besserer
'Unreal story, poor acting, ditto direction and general lack of popular appeal.' – Variety

In God We Trust
US 1980 97m Technicolor
Universal

A monk leaves his monastery to raise some ready cash.
Dismal and tasteless attempt at religious satire.
w Marty Feldman, Chris Allen d Marty Feldman ph Charles Correll m John Morris
☆ Marty Feldman, Peter Boyle, Louise Lasser, Richard Pryor, Wilfrid Hyde-White
'A rare achievement – a comedy with no laughs. Its energy is prodigious. But only rarely is it matched by invention.' – Variety

'He's rich, young and handsome. He's in love with you and he's your dad's boss.'

In Good Company ★ (6)
US 2004 109m colour
Universal/Depth of Field (Paul Weitz, Chris Weitz)

A middle-aged advertising executive finds himself working for a 25-year-old boss who is dating his daughter.
An attempt at the sort of corporate comedy that Billy Wilder made his own, this substitutes mildness and a soft centre for the necessary tartness and bite.
wd Paul Weitz ph Remi Adefarasin m Stephen Trask pd William Arnold ed Myron Kerstein
☆ Dennis Quaid (Dan Foreman), Topher Grace (Carter Duryea), Scarlett Johansson (Alex Foreman), Marg Helgenberger (Ann Foreman), David Paymer (Morty)
'A bit of a soothing cough-sweet of a movie.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian

In Harm's Way ★
US 1965 167m bw Panavision
Paramount/Sigma (Otto Preminger)

The American navy retaliates after Pearl Harbor.
Odd mix of all-star action, spectacle (mostly models) and personal romances, with a few interesting scenes; shorn of colour it seems rather half-hearted.
w Wendell Mayes novel James Bassett d Otto Preminger ph Loyal Griggs m Jerry Goldsmith titles Saul Bass
☆ John Wayne, Kirk Douglas, Patricia Neal, Tom Tryon, Paula Prentiss, Brandon de Wilde, Stanley Holloway, Burgess Meredith, Henry Fonda, Dana Andrews, Franchot Tone, Jill Haworth, George Kennedy, Hugh O'Brian, Carroll O'Connor and also Patrick O'Neal, Slim Pickens, Bruce Cabot, Larry Hagman, James Mitchum
'Lacks even a touch of the touch.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Loyal Griggs
Patricia Neal

In Like Flint
US 1967 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Saul David)

Top agent Derek Flint unmasks a subversive female spy ring which has kidnapped the President.
This sequel to Our Man Flint (qv) is silly rather than funny, a spy spoof which becomes irritatingly hard to take.
w Hal Fimberg d Gordon Douglas ph William Daniels m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ James Coburn, Lee J. Cobb, Jean Hale, Andrew Duggan, Anna Lee
'It gently founders in yards of flat dialogue, lavishly uninteresting sets, fuzzy colour processing, and a supporting cast in which all the girls look alarmingly mass produced.' – MFB

In Love and War
US 1958 111m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)

Three men from different backgrounds join the US Marines and see service in the Pacific.
Self-conscious propaganda concoction of bare routine interest.
w Edward Anhalt novel Anton Myrer d Philip Dunne ph Leo Tover m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Robert Wagner, Bradford Dillman, Dana Wynter, Hope Lange, Sheree North, France Nuyen

'In war they found each other ... In each other they found love...'

In Love and War ★
US 1996 115m Rank Colour
Panavision
Entertainment/New Line/Dimitri Villard

In Italy during the First World War, the 18-year-old Ernest Hemingway falls in love with a 26-year-old nurse.
Oddly stilted account of an experience that seems to have had a lasting effect on Hemingway; it's just a story of a sentimental interlude between a boy and a woman.
w Allan Scott, Clancy Sigal, Anna Hamilton Phelan book Hemingway in Love and War by Henry S. Villard, James Nagel d Richard Attenborough ph Roger Pratt m George Fenton pd Stuart Craig ed Lesley Walker
☆ Sandra Bullock (Agnes von Kurowsky), Chris O'Donnell (Ernest Hemingway), Mackenzie Astin (Henry Villard), Ingrid Lacey (Elsie MacDonald), Emilio Bonucci, Margot Steinberg, Colin Stinton, Ian Kelly
'Doesn't get under the skin of its protagonists, leaving the viewer unmoved and passably interested at best.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

In My Country: see Country of My Skull

In My Skin: see Dans Ma Peau

In Name Only ★
US 1939 94m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A rich man falls in love but his wife refuses a divorce.
The stars seem unhappy in this sombre matrimonial drama, but of its kind it's surprisingly well made.
w Richard Sherman novel Memory of Love by Bessie Brewer d John Cromwell ph J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb
☆ Cary Grant, Carole Lombard, Kay Francis, Charles Coburn, Helen Vinson
'Sock romantic drama ... will get maximum playing time and the best dating the country offers.' – Variety
'Shot with a refined taste for interior decoration ... it is oversweetened with the material for tears.' – Graham Greene

'The talking picture reaches perfection!'

In Old Arizona ★★
US 1929 95m bw
Fox

Adventures of the Cisco Kid.
Primitive sound Western, a sensation in its day but now of purely historical interest.
w Tom Barry stories O. Henry d Raoul Walsh, Irving Cummings ph Arthur Edeson
☆ Warner Baxter, Edmund Lowe, Dorothy Burgess, J. Farrell MacDonald
† See also The Cisco Kid.
Warner Baxter
best picture; Tom Barry; Irving Cummings; Arthur Edeson

In Old California
US 1942 89m bw
Republic

A Boston pharmacist heads west towards gold rush California.
Moderate star Western with parsimonious budget.
w Gertrude Purcell, Frances Hyland d William McGann
☆ John Wayne, Binnie Barnes, Albert Dekker, Helen Parrish, Patsy Kelly, Edgar Kennedy, Dick Purcell, Charles Halton

In Old Chicago ★★★
US 1937 115m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

Events leading up to the great Chicago fire include a torrid romance between a gambler and a café singer.
Spectacular melodrama which with its two million-dollar budget was a deliberate attempt to outdo San Francisco, and only failed because the cast was less interesting. A splendid studio super-production.

w Lamar Trotti, Sonya Levien novel We the O'Learys by Niven Busch d Henry King ph Peverell Marley md Louis Silvers ad William Darling ed Barbara McLean sp H. Bruce Humberstone, Daniel B. Clark, Fred Sersen, Louis J. Witte, Ralph Hammeras
☆ Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Alice Brady, Andy Devine, Brian Donlevy, Phyllis Brooks, Tom Brown, Sidney Blackmer, Berton Churchill, Paul Hurst, Rondo Hatton, Eddie Collins
'Sock spectacle film ... an elaborate and liberally budgeted entertainment.' – Variety
Alice Brady
best picture; Niven Busch (original story); Louis Silvers

In Old Kentucky
US 1935 85m bw
TCF (Edward Butcher)
A family feud is settled by a horse race.
Warm-hearted, old-fashioned stuff, and the star's last film.
w Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman play Charles T. Dazey d George Marshall ☆ Will Rogers, Bill Robinson, Dorothy Wilson, Russell Hardie

In Old Mexico
US 1938 62m bw
Paramount (Harry Sherman)
Hopalong Cassidy rides out in search of the outlaw who shot the son of a friend and is now trying to kill him.
Slow-moving Western, strictly for fans of our hero.
w Harrison Jacobs d Edward D. Venturini ph Russell Harlan m Gregory Stone ad Lewis J. Rachmil ed Robert Warwick
☆ William Boyd, George Hayes, Russell Hayden, Paul Sutton, Allan Garcia, Jane Clayton, Glenn Strange

In Old Montana
US 1942 61m bw
Equity (C. C. Burr)
In Montana in the 1880s, an army officer goes undercover to prevent a range war between cattlemen and sheep-herders.
Despite its theme, which is treated in a threadbare manner, the emphasis here is on songs and comedy, neither done with much style.
w Jackson Parks, Raymond K. Johnson, Homer King Gordon, Barney Hutchinson d Raymond K. Johnson ph Marcel Picard, Harvey Gould ad Ben Berk ed Charles Henkel
☆ Fred Scott, Jean Carmen, John Merton, Harry Harvey, Walter McGrail, Wheeler Oakman, Frank LaRue, Allen Cavan, Jane Keckley
† There is a continuity error early in the film, in which John Merton as the villain unbuttons his shirt, removes his gunbelt and then unbuttons his shirt again.

In Old Oklahoma: see War of the Wildcats

In Our Time ★
US 1944 110m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)
English girl marries Polish count and helps defy the Nazis.
Ambitious, would-be meaningful melodrama that doesn't quite come off.
w Ellis St Joseph, Howard Koch d Vincent Sherman ph Carl Guthrie m Franz Waxman ☆ Ida Lupino, Paul Henreid, Nancy Coleman, Nazimova, Mary Boland, Victor Francen, Michael Chekhov
'The story starts a good many hares but prudently refrains from following them.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

In Person
US 1935 85m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)
A glamorous but exhausted film star tries to escape her public by fleeing incognito to the country.
Mild star comedy.
w Allan Scott novel Samuel Hopkins Adams d William A. Seiter ph Edward Cronjager m Roy Webb songs Oscar Levant, Dorothy Fields
☆ Ginger Rogers, George Brent, Alan Mowbray, Grant Mitchell, Samuel S. Hinds, Spencer Charters
'Inept starring debut for Ginger Rogers ... a very weak affair.' – Variety

In Praise of Love: see Éloge De L'amour

In Praise of Older Women
Canada 1978 108m colour
Warner/Canadian Film Development/Famous Players & TSM Investments (Robert Lantos, Claude Héroux)
A young Hungarian has affairs with older women in his homeland and, following the revolution, in Canada.
Episodic movie that soon becomes numbingly repetitious.
w Paul Gottlieb novel Stephen Vizinczey d George Kaczender ph Miklos Lente m Tibor Polgar ad Wolf Kroeger ed George Kaczender, Peter Wintonick
☆ Tom Berenger, Karen Black, Susan Strasberg, Helen Shaver, Marilyn Lightstone, Alexandra Stewart

In Rosie's Room: see Rosie the Riveter

In Search of Gregory
GB 1969 90m Technicolor
Universal/Vic Films/Vera Films (Joe Janni, Daniele Senatore)
A girl attends her father's wedding to meet a mysterious guest named Gregory, whom she never quite contacts.
Irritatingly pretentious Pinterish puzzle-drama with apparently no hidden depths except the urge to be clever.
w Tonino Guerra, Lucile Laks d Peter Wood ph Otto Heller, Giorgio Tonti m Ron Grainer
☆ Julie Christie, Michael Sarrazin, John Hurt, Adolfo Celi, Roland Culver, Tony Selby
'Moments in a vacuum: however lively the surface, the centre remains depressingly inert.' – MFB

'A thousand thrills ... and Hayley Mills'
In Search of the Castaways ★★★
GB 1961 100m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Hugh Attwooll)
With the aid of an eccentric professor, three children seek their lost explorer father in some geographically fantastic regions of South America.
Engaging Victorian fantasy which starts realistically but builds up to sequences in the manner of The Wizard of Oz and concludes in Treasure Island vein. Jaunty juvenile fare.
w Lowell S. Hawley novel Captain Grant's Children by Jules Verne d Robert Stevenson ph Paul Beeson m William Alwyn ad Michael Stringer ☆ Maurice Chevalier, Hayley Mills, George Sanders, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Wilfrid Brambell

In Society ★
US 1944 74m bw
Universal (Edmund Hartmann)
Two incompetent plumbers ruin a mansion.
One of the better A & C romps, with little padding between the comedy highlights, though the trimmings are fearsomely dated.
w John Grant, Hal Fimberg, Edmund L. Hartmann d Jean Yarbrough ph Jerome Ash m Edgar Fairchild
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Kirby Grant, Ann Gillis, Arthur Treacher, Steve Geray, George Dolenz, Marion Hutton

'A young man. An older woman. Her ex-husband. Things are about to explode...'
In The Bedroom ★★
US 2001 138m CFI
Buena Vista/GreeneStreet/Good Machine (Graham Leader, Ross Katz, Todd Field)
The marriage of a middle-aged doctor and his wife, a teacher, grows fractious when their son is killed.
Compelling drama of marital tensions at breaking point, of parents who have invested their future in their only child; but the violent ending vitiates all that has gone before.
w Rob Festinger, Todd Field story Killings by Andre Dubus d Todd Field ph Antonio Calvache m Thomas Newman ad Shannon Hart ed Frank Reynolds
☆ Sissy Spacek (Ruth Fowler), Tom Wilkinson (Matt Fowler), Nick Stahl (Frank Fowler), Marisa Tomei (Natalie Strout), William Mapother (Richard Strout), William Wise (Willis Grinnel), Celia Weston (Katie Grinnel), Karen Allen (Marla Keyes)
'An intensely emotional family drama drenched by the earth's elements and outfitted with the myriad details of the stuff of life.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'There are scenes as true as movies can make them, and even when the story develops thriller elements, they are redeemed, because the movie isn't about what happens, but about why.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
picture; Rob Festinger, Todd Field (screenplay);Tom Wilkinson; Sissy Spacek; Marisa Tomei

In the Belly of the Whale ★
West Germany 1985 96m colour
DNS Film/Haro Senft/NDR original title: Im Innern des Wals
Fleeing from her violent father, an adolescent girl goes in search of the mother she has not seen for ten years.
Teenage angst is set against adult violence and unhappy love affairs.
w Michael Junker, Doris Dörrie d Doris Dörrie ph Alex Block m Claus Bantzer ad Jörg Neuman ed Raimund Barthelmes
☆ Janna Marangosoff, Eisi Gulp, Peter Saltmann, Silvia Reize

'The drama. The passion. The intrigue. And rehearsals haven't even started.'
In the Bleak Midwinter ★
GB 1995 98m bw
Rank/Midwinter (David Barron)
An out-of-work actor gathers together a motley crew of unemployed thespians to put on a production of Hamlet in a village church.
A sentimental comedy with amusing moments, although the script is too manipulative to achieve the required tear-jerking, and some of the performances shade into caricature.
wd Kenneth Branagh ph Roger Lanser m Jimmy Yuill pd Tim Harvey ed Neil Farrell
☆ Michael Maloney, Richard Briers, Mark Hadfield, Julia Sawalha, Nick Farrell, Gerard Horan, John Sessions, Celia Imrie, Hetta Charnley, Joan Collins, Jennifer Saunders
'Is only likely to end up as the answer to a riddle in a Christmas cracker: "What's broad and thin and weak and tired?"' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'Both shrewdly written and well played.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

In the Company of Men ★★ (6)
US 1997 97m colour
Alliance/Stephen Pevner/Atlantis/Fair and Square (Mark Archer, Stephen Pevner)
Two corporate workers, unhappy at being ditched by their girlfriends, decide to get their revenge by dating and dumping on the first vulnerable woman they meet.
Effective but very manipulative piece of social drama, too diagrammatic to be dramatically convincing, but providing some biting dialogue and controversial subject-matter.
wd Neil LaBute ph Tony Hettinger m Ken Williams, Karel Roessing pd Julia Henkel ed Joel Plotch
☆ Aaron Eckhart, Stacy Edwards, Matt Malloy, Mark Rector, Jason Dixie, Emily Cline
'A serious, brainy and highly entertaining film – the best kind of popular cinema.' – Richard Williams, Guardian
'Passes itself off as an exposé of cynicism and manipulation but the movie itself is more cynical and manipulative than its subject. Like so many "issue" films, it's a talking point, not a movie.' – Mark Steyn, Spectator

In the Cool of the Day
GB 1962 91m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (John Houseman)
The frail wife of a New York publisher dies in Greece after an affair with his colleague.
Travelogue with romantic asides; a pretty glum business.
w Meade Roberts novel Susan Ertz d Robert Stevens ph Peter Newbrook m Francis Chagrin ad Ken Adam ☆ Jane Fonda, Peter Finch, Arthur Hill, Angela Lansbury, Constance Cummings

'Everything you know about desire is dead wrong.'
In The Cut ★ (4)
US/Australia 2003 119m Technicolor
Pathé/Screen Gems (Laurie Parker, Nicole Kidman)
In New York, a female professor becomes involved with a detective investigating the murder of young women in her neighbourhood.
An often pedantic take on the serial killer genre, where even the women who don't end up dead are seen as victims of predatory men; Beebe's cinematography captures the seedy anxiety of its setting.
w Jane Campion, Susanna Moore novel Susanna Moore d Jane Campion ph Dion Beebe m Hilmar Orn Hilmarsson pd David Brisbin ed Alexandre De Francheschi
☆ Meg Ryan (Frannie Avery), Mark Ruffalo (Det Giovanni A. Malloy), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Pauline), Nick Damici (Det Rodriguez), Sharrieff Pugh (Cornelius Webb)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Terrible–a thriller devoid of incidental pleasures or humor, or even commonplace reality.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'A slasher movie with high-toned pretensions.' – Abthony Quinn, Independent

In the Doghouse

GB 1961 93m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)
Misadventures of a newly qualified vet.
Easy-going farce with animal interest and a great many familiar faces.
w Michael Pertwee novel It's a Vet's Life by Alex Duncan d Darcy Conyers ph Alan Hume m Philip Green
☆ Leslie Phillips, Peggy Cummins, Hattie Jacques, James Booth, Dick Bentley, Colin Gordon, Joan Heal, Fenella Fielding, Esma Cannon, Richard Goolden, Joan Hickson, Vida Hope, Harry Locke, Kynaston Reeves

In the Folds of the Flesh (dubbed)

Italy/Spain 1970 90m Eastmancolor
MGB/Talia (Sergio Bergonzelli) original title: Nelle Pieghe della Carne
A murder tips a family into madness.
Absurd and bloody thriller which, with its incestuous trio of vulture-keeping homicidal maniacs, tilted camera angles and optical effects, fails to live up to its Freudian pretentiousness.
w Fabio de Agostini, Sergio Bergonzelli d Sergio Bergonzelli ph Mario Pacheco m Jesus Villa Rojo ad Eduardo Torre de la Fuente ed Donatella Baglivo ☆ Eleonora Rossi Drago, Pier Angeli (Anna Maria Pierangeli), Fernando Sancho, Alfredo Majo, Emilio Gutierrez Caba, Maria Rosa Sclauzero

'Anywhere but Paris it would have been a scandal!'

In the French Style ★

US/France 1962 105m bw
Columbia/Casanna/Orsay (Robert Parrish, Irwin Shaw)
An American girl in Paris has affairs with a young boy and with a divorced newspaperman.
Smooth, episodic, romantic character study, well made but with no perceptible dramatic point.
w Irwin Shaw d Robert Parrish ph Michel Kelber m Josef Kosma ☆ Jean Seberg, Stanley Baker, Philippe Fouquet

In the Good Old Summertime ★

US 1949 102m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)
In a Chicago music store in 1906, a salesgirl corresponds through a dating service with a man who turns out to be the manager she detests.
Cheerful remake of The Shop around the Corner (qv), with agreeable music, garish colour and not much style.
w Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, Ivan Tors play The Shop Around the Corner by Miklos Laszlo d Robert Z. Leonard ph Harry Stradling md George Stoll ch Robert Alton ad Randell Duell ed Adrienne Fazan
☆ Judy Garland, Van Johnson, S. Z. Sakall, Spring Byington, Clinton Sundberg, Buster Keaton, Lillian Bronson
♫ 'Merry Christmas'; 'In the Good Old Summertime'; 'Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland'; 'Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey'; 'Wait 'Till the Sun Shines Nellie'; 'In the Evening'; 'I Don't Care'

'They got a murder on their hands . . . they don't know what to do with it.'

In the Heat of the Night ★★★★

US 1967 109m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch (Walter Mirisch)
In a small Southern town, the bigoted and bombastic sheriff on a murder hunt grudgingly accepts the help of a black detective.
A tense and exciting thriller that also explores racism through the explosive clash of two contrasting personalities.
w Stirling Silliphant d Norman Jewison ph Haskell Wexler m Quincy Jones ad Paul Groesse ed Hal Ashby
☆ Sidney Poitier (Virgil Tibbs), Rod Steiger (Bill Gillespie), Warren Oates (Sam Wood), Quentin Dean (Delores Purdy), William Schallert (Webb Schubert)
BILL GILLESPIE: 'Well, you're pretty sure of yourself, ain't you, Virgil. Virgil, that's a funny name for a nigger boy to come from Philadelphia. What do they call you up there?'
VIRGIL TIBBS: 'They call me Mr Tibbs.'
'A very nice film and a very good film and yes, I think it's good to see a black man and a white man working together ... but it's not going to take the tension out of New York City; it's not going to stop the riots in Chicago.' – Rod Steiger
'A film that has the look and sound of actuality and the pounding pulse of truth.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times † Poitier subsequently starred in a couple of very inferior sequels, They Call Me Mister Tibbs and The Organization (both qv).
best picture; Stirling Silliphant; Rod Steiger; Hal Ashby; sound Norman Jewison; sound effects (James A. Richard)
Rod Steiger

In the Line of Fire ★

US 1993 129m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia (Jeff Apple)
A secret service agent, who is haunted by his failure to save President Kennedy, is taunted by a ruthless killer who announces he intends to assassinate the current US President.
An enjoyable thriller that provides Eastwood the opportunity to develop an unstereotypical character, but which also lets Malkovich go over the top as a carpet-chewing baddie, and lacks suspense.
w Jeff Maguire d Wolfgang Petersen ph John Bailey m Ennio Morricone pd Lilly Kilvert ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Clint Eastwood, John Malkovich, Rene Russo, Dylan McDermott, Gary Cole, Fred Dalton Thompson, John Mahoney, Greg Alan-Williams
'Meat-and-potatoes genre-picture entertainment: nothing fancy, nothing unusual.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'The story is from recycled thrillersville, but it's snappy and appealing in its fast, tense treatment.' – Angie Errigo, Empire
John Malkovich; Jeff Maguire; Anne V. Coates

In the Mood: see The Woo Woo Kid

In the Mood for Love ★★★

Hong Kong 2000 97m colour
Metro Tartan/Block 2/Paradis/Jet Tone (Wong Kar-wai) original title: Huayang Nianhua
In Hong Kong in the early 1960s, a newspaper editor and a secretary form a tentative relationship after they discover that their respective partners are having an affair.
Delicate, subdued study in unrequited love, in which the reluctant couple almost merge into the background of a life that is long gone; it has about it an affecting air of broken-hearted nostalgia.
wd Wong Kar-wai ph Christopher Doyle, Mark Li Ping-bing m Michael Galasso, Umebayashi Shigeru pd William Chang ad Man Lim-chung, Alfred Yau ed William Chang
☆ Tony Leung Chiu-wai (Chow Mo-wan), Maggie Cheung (Su Li-zhen), Lai Chin (Mr Ho), Rebecca Pan (Mrs Suen), Siu Ping-lam (Ah-ping)
'Dazzles with a heady atmosphere of romantic melancholy and ravishing visuals straight out of a '60s Vogue spread but neglects to construct the kind of dramatic complexity to provide any lasting emotional resonance.' – David Rooney, Variety
† Tony Leung won the Best Actor award at the Cannes Film Festival in 2000 for his performance.

In the Mouth of Madness

US 1995 95m Film House colour Panavision
New Line (Sandy King)
An insurance agent investigates the disappearance of a best-selling horror author, whose latest book is making its readers lose their sanity, and finds himself living in the author's fictional world.
An intriguing notion is abandoned after a while for a more conventional horror movie in the H. P. Lovecraft mould of monstrous beings striving to recapture the world.
w Michael de Luca d John Carpenter ph Gary B. Kibbe m John Carpenter, Jim Lang pd Jeff Steven Ginn ed Edward A. Warschilka sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Sam Neill, Julie Carmen, Jürgen Prochnow, Charlton Heston, David Warner, John Glover, Bernie Casey, Peter Jason, Frances Bay
'The plotline is so incoherent that in the end you don't much care what happens to whom and why.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

In the Name of the Father ★★

Eire/GB 1993 133m Technicolor
Universal/Hell's Kitchen/Gabriel Byrne (Jim Sheridan)
Four young Irish friends are framed by the police for planting an IRA bomb that blows up a Guildford pub.
A true story, filled with a righteous indignation and deftly told, but debasing its own authenticity with its final, hollow court-room scene which is not only completely invented and inaccurate in its portrayal of British procedure, but is played like the climax from a Perry Mason movie; it is at its best when exploring the relationship between father and son.
w Terry George, Jim Sheridan d Jim Sheridan ph Peter Biziou m Trevor Jones pd Caroline Amies ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Daniel Day-Lewis, Pete Postlethwaite, Emma Thompson, John Lynch, Mark Sheppard, Beatie Edney, Marie Jones, Britta Smith, Corin Redgrave
'Solid and well-crafted, with moments of great power.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'Unashamed Irish myth-making. But considering the sensitivity of the issues involved, it is a bit odd that Sheridan has taken quite such liberties with the truth. This is, after all, a film about a man who spent 14 years in prison because people made up stories about him.' – Martin Bright, Sight and Sound
Daniel Day-Lewis; Pete Postlethwaite; Emma Thompson; Jim Sheridan (as director); Terry George, Jim Sheridan; Gerry Hambling

In the Navy ★

US 1941 86m bw
Universal (Alex Gottlieb)
Two incompetents and a singing heart-throb are naval recruits.
A basically feeble follow-up to Buck Privates which outgrossed its predecessor and now stands as an interesting pointer to how mass entertainment has changed since 1941.
w John Grant, Arthur T. Horman d Arthur Lubin ph Joseph Valentine m/ly Gene de Paul, Don Raye
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Dick Powell, The Andrews Sisters, Claire Dodd, Dick Foran, Shemp Howard

In the Realm of Passion: see Ai No Borei

In the Shadow of the Wind

France/Canada 1987 107m colour
Cinevideo/Les Film Ariane/TFI Films (Justine Héroux) original title: Les Fous de Bassan
A middle-aged artist recalls an earlier time when he disrupted the life of a small, puritannical fishing community.
Slow-moving movie that tries for, and misses, a tragic dimension.
w Sheldon Chad, Marcel Beaulieu, Yves Simoneau novel Anne Hébert d Yves Simoneau ph Alain Dostie m Richard Grégoire ad Michel Proulx ed Joele Van Effenterre
☆ Steve Banner, Charlotte Valandrey, Laure Marsac, Angèle Coutu, Paul Hébert, Marie Tifo, Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu, Lothaire Bluteau, Jean-Louis Millette

In the Soup ★★

US/Japan/Germany/France 1992 93m bw
Will Alliance/Pandora/Why Not/Odessa/Alta/Mikado (Jim Stark, Hank Blumenthal)
A con-man uses an independent film director trying to raise the money to finance his screenplay as a front for his schemes.
An amusing off-beat comedy about the education of an innocent.
w Alexandre Rockwell, Tim Kissell d Alexandre Rockwell ph Phil Parmet m Mader pd Mark Friedberg ed Dana Congdon ☆ Steve Buscemi, Seymour Cassel, Jennifer Beals, Pat Moya, Will Patton, Jim Jarmusch, Carol Kane
'Winning performances and gentle, self-deprecating humor put this across as an audience pleaser for the specialized film crowd.' – Variety
† Although the cinema release was in black and white, the film was issued on video in a colour print.

In the White City ★

Portugal/Switzerland 1983 108m colour
Contemporary/Metro filme/Filmograph/WDR/Channel 4 (Paulo Branco, Alain Tanner, Antonio Vaz da Silver) original title: Dans La Ville Blanche
Jumping ship in Lisbon, a married sailor falls in love with a local girl and sends home movies of the city to his wife.
A study in masculine alienation, dependent on its images to carry its message of distintegration and illusory freedom.

wd Alain Tanner ph Acacio de Almeida m Jean-Luc Barbier ad Maria Jose Branco ed Laurent Uhler ☆ Bruno Ganz, Teresa Madruga, Julia Vonderlinn, José Carvalho, Victor Costa, Francisco Baiao, José Wallenstein, Lidia Franco

In the Woods: see Rashomon

'No one is as good as Bette when she's bad!'

In This Our Life ★★

US 1942 101m bw
Warner (David Lewis)

A neurotic girl steals her sister's husband, leaves him in the lurch, dominates her hapless family and is killed while on the run from the police.
Splendid star melodrama with good supporting acting and background detail.
w Howard Koch novel Ellen Glasgow
d John Huston ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner
☆ Bette Davis, Charles Coburn, Olivia de Havilland, Frank Craven, George Brent, Dennis Morgan, Billie Burke, Hattie McDaniel, Lee Patrick, Walter Huston (uncredited)

'The journey to freedom has no borders.'

In This World ★★

GB 2002 89m DeLuxe
ICA/Film Consortium/BBC/Film Council/The Works/Revolution (Andrew Eaton, Anita Overland)

Two young Afghans living in Shamshatoo refugee camp in Pakistan decide to try to reach Britain.
Shot on digital video, this falls somewhere between documentary and drama, recreating the experience of the vast journey by bus, car, and lorry with its monotony and sudden flurries of action, its uncertainties and dangers. It is an untidy movie, with no easy resolution, just an underlying desperation.
w Tony Grisoni d Michael Winterbottom ph Marcel Zyskind m Dario Marianelli ed Peter Christelis
☆ Jamal Udin Torabi, Enayatullah, Imran Paracha, Hiddayatullah, Kerem Atabeyoglu, Erham Sekizcan, Nabil Elouahabi
'An audacious undertaking that some might dismiss because it feels unfinished, in the sense of ragged round the edges... a truly existential road movie, in which the characters are the road they travel.' – Jonathan Romney, Independent
† It won the Golden Bear for best film at the Berlin Film Festival.
BAFTA foreign language film

'He didn't know how far he'd have to go.'

In Too Deep

US 1999 96m DeLuxe
Metrodome/Dimension/Suntaur (Paul Aaron, Michael Henry Brown)

An undercover cop infiltrates the operations of a Cincinnati crime boss and becomes confused about where his loyalties lie.
Gritty urban drama of moral corruption that was done rather better in Bill Duke's Deep Cover (qv) a few years back.
w Michael Henry Brown, Paul Aaron d Michael Rymer ph Ellery Ryan m Christopher Young pd Dan Leigh ed Dany Cooper cos Shawn Barton
☆ Omar Epps (Jeff Cole/J. Reid), LL Cool J (Dwayne Gittens ('God')), Nia Long (Myra), Stanley Tucci (Preston Boyd), Hill Harper (Breezy T.), Pam Grier (Det Angela Wilson), Jake Webber (Daniel Connolly), Richard Brooks (Wesley), David Patrick Kelly (Rick Scott)
'Its aura of made-for-television prosaicness fatally diminishes it.' – Danny Leigh, Sight and Sound

In Which We Serve ★★★

GB 1942 114m bw
Rank/Two Cities (Noel Coward)

Survivors from a torpedoed destroyer recall their life at sea and on leave.
Dated but splendid flagwaver; an archetypal British war film of almost limitless propaganda value.
w Noël Coward d Noël Coward, David Lean ph Ronald Neame m Noël Coward ☆ Noël Coward, Bernard Miles, John Mills, Richard Attenborough, Celia Johnson, Kay Walsh, Joyce Carey, Michael Wilding, Penelope Dudley Ward, Kathleen Harrison, Philip Friend, George Carney, Geoffrey Hibbert, James Donald COMMANDER (NOËL COWARD): 'The Torrin has been in one scrap after another, but even when we've had men killed, the majority survived and brought the old ship back. Now she lies in 1500 fathoms and with her more than half our shipmates. If they had to die, what a grand way to go! And now they lie all together with the ship we loved, and they're in very good company. We've lost her, but they're still with her. There may be less than half the Torrin left, but I feel that we'll all take up the battle with even stronger heart. Each of us knows twice as much about fighting, and each of us has twice as good a reason to fight. You will all be sent to replace men who've been killed in other ships, and the next time you're in action, remember the Torrin! I should like to add that there isn't one of you that I wouldn't be proud and honoured to serve with again.'
'One of the screen's proudest achievements at any time and in any country.' – Newsweek
'Never at any time has there been a reconstruction of human experience which could touch the savage grandeur and compassion of this production.' – Howard Barnes, New York Herald Tribune
† The story and the Coward character were based on the experiences of Louis Mountbatten, whose ship, HMS Kelly, was sunk under him.
Academy Award Special Award to Noël Coward
Academy Award nomination best picture; Noël Coward (as writer)

In Your Hands

Denmark 2003 101m colour
Metrodome/Zentropa (Ib Tardini)

original title: Forbrydelser

A newly qualified priest's job in a woman's prison brings her into contact with a woman with a gift for healing, who was jailed for allowing her baby to die from neglect.
Harrowing, well-acted drama of the testing of religious faith that is, in itself, a penance to sit through.
w Annette K. Olesen, Kim Fupz Aakeson d Annette K. Olesen ph Boje Lomholdt m Jeppe Kaas ed Molly Malene Stensgaard
☆ Ann Eleonora Jorgensen (Anna), Trine Dyrholm (Kate), Nicolaj Kopernikus (Henrik), Sonja Richter (Marion), Lars Ranthe (Frank)
'There is little the viewer can carry away from it, other than conceding the film's skill in making you very, very unhappy.' – Peter Bradshw, Guardian

The In-Laws

US 1979 103m Technicolor
Warner (Alan Arkin)

A timorous dentist and a CIA spy, whose children are to marry, find themselves unwillingly linked together in gunplay in a South American republic.
Two charismatic actors can't fail to get some laughs, but the extended script makes it a bumpy ride.
w Andrew Bergman d Arthur Hiller ph David M. Walsh m John Morris pd Pato Guzman
☆ Peter Falk, Alan Arkin, Richard Libertini, Penny Peyser, Nancy Dussault
'It seems incapable either of adhering to the conventions of a comedy-thriller plot or of mustering sufficient invention to abandon plot altogether for a farcical free-for-all.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

'The cake is going to hit the fan.'

The In-Laws ④

US/Germany/Canada 2003 98m Technicolor
Warner/Franchise/Further Films/MHF Erste Academy (Bill Gerber, Elie Samaha, Bill Todman Jnr, Joel Simon)

On the eve of a marriage between their children, a podiatrist is plunged into risky espionage in France by a CIA agent.
Overblown remake that is less interesting and not a third as amusing as the original.
w Nat Mauldin, Ed Solomon screenplay Andrew Bergman d Andrew Fleming ph Alexander Gruszynski m Jocelyn Pook pd Andrew McAlpine ed Mia Goldman sp Cinesite
☆ Michael Douglas (Steve Tobias), Albert Brooks (Jerry Peyser), Robin Tunney (Angela Harris), Ryan Reynolds (Mark Tobias), Candice Bergen (Judy), David Suchet (Jean-Pierre Thibodoux)
'There's a whiff of putrefied, petrified wackiness about this pointless remake.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Inadmissible Evidence ★★

GB 1968 96m bw
Paramount/Woodfall (Ronald Kinnoch)

A frustrated 40-year-old solicitor is on the verge of a nervous breakdown.
Interesting and surprisingly successful transcription of a difficult play which was virtually an anti-humanity soliloquy.
w John Osborne play John Osborne d Anthony Page ph Kenneth Hodges m Dudley Moore ad Seamus Flannery ☆ Nicol Williamson, Eleanor Fazan, Jill Bennett, Peter Sallis, Eileen Atkins, Isabel Dean
'A play that was conceived as an increasingly bad dream has been made into a grittily detailed, naturalistic film.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'A story of sex, drugs, nudity and gratuitous study.'

Inbetweeners

GB 2001 86m colour
Universal/Britpack (Darren Paul Fisher)

A group of first-year students experience life at the University of Great Britain.
Uninvolving romantic comedy about an undifferentiated group, recycling the tiredest clichés of undergraduate existence.
wd Darren Paul Fisher ph Matthew Woolf pd Henry Davis ed Darren Fisher, Kerrie Campbell, Allan Williams
☆ Finlay Robertson (David Marshall), Kate Loustau (Nicole Miles), Lynn Edmonstone (Steph Thornhill), Toby Walton (Jack Easterford), Sarah Vandenbergh (Cassie Sanderson), Katy Kennedy (Mel Reeves), Jane Peachey (Beth Morton), Gary Fannin (Clark Slater), Alex Harcourt-Smith (Marc Bailey-Piper)
'Competently done, but dull.' – Sight and Sound

'She was the biggest sucker of them all!'

Incendiary Blonde ★

US 1945 112m Technicolor
Paramount (Joseph Sistrom)

The life of twenties night-club queen Texas Guinan.
Laundered biopic with guns, girls and gangsters as well as songs.
w Claude Binyon, Frank Butler d George Marshall ph Ray Rennahan m Robert Emmett Dolan ☆ Betty Hutton, Arturo de Cordova, Charles Ruggles, Albert Dekker, Barry Fitzgerald, Mary Philips, Bill Goodwin, Eduardo Ciannelli, Maurice Rocco
'It runs its noisy but high-minded course through steamy emotion, painful misunderstanding and dramatic self-sacrifice, winding up in the snow among the blood of dead gangsters. Have we ever seen gangsters in Technicolor before?' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'A brassy synthesis of colour, song and dance, spattered with laughs.' – Daily Herald
Academy Award Robert Emmett Dolan

L'incendio di Roma: see Fire over Rome

'See The Terror! Feel The Pleasure! Taste The Pain!'

Incense for the Damned

GB 1970 87m Eastmancolor
Grand National/Lucinda/Titan (Graham Harris)

video title: Blood Suckers

An Oxford academic holidays in Greece and becomes a vampire.
A moderately successful attempt to create a modern-day vampire story, substituting sexual perversion for the usual occult approach.
w Julian More novel Doctors Wear Scarlet by Simon Raven d Michael Burrowes (Robert Hartford-Davis) ph Desmond Dickinson m Bobby Richards pd George Provis
☆ Patrick Macnee (Major Longbow), Peter Cushing (Dr Goodrich), Alex Davion (Tony Seymour), Johnny Sekka (Bob Kirby), Madeline Hinde (Penelope), Patrick Mower (Richard Fountain), Imogen Hassall (Chriseis), Edward Woodward (Holmstrom), William Mervyn (Honeydew), David Lodge (Colonel)
'Well enough constructed to amount to a richly subversive exercise in the genre.' – David Pirie, MFB
† The film was cut by four minutes for its British release and disowned by its director, who did not regard it as finished. It was given a trade show in 1972 but did not receive a London showing until 1976.

Inchon

US 1981 140m colour
One Way Productions (Mitsuharu Ishii)

General MacArthur is affected by divine guidance during a major battle of the Korean war.
A very curious enterprise apparently financed by the Moonies. The religious angle sits oddly with the war scenes, and the result is an unsatisfactory mess.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Robin Moore, Laird Koenig d Terence Young ph Bruce Surtees m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ Laurence Olivier (MacArthur), Jacqueline Bisset, David Janssen, Ben Gazzara, Toshiro Mifune, Richard Roundtree, Gabriele Ferzetti, Rex Reed
'A near total loss as well as a laugh.' – Bruce Williamson, Playboy
'The worst movie ever made, a turkey the size of Godzilla.' – Jack Kroll, Newsweek
'Quite possibly the worst movie ever made ... stupefyingly incompetent.' – Peter Rainer, Los Angeles Herald Examiner
'As military spectacles go, one of the sorriest in military history.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Incident at Blood Pass: see Machibuse

Incident at Owl Creek ★

France 1961 27m bw
Marcel Ichac/Films de Centaure/Paul de Roubaix original title: La Rivière du Hibou
US title: An Occurrence At Owl Creek
During the American Civil War a man is about to be hanged, and imagines how he might escape.
Intriguing but somewhat overpraised short with a rather obvious solution.
wd Robert Enrico story Ambrose Bierce ph Jean Boffety m Henri Lanoë ☆ Roger Jacquet, Anne Cornaly, Anker Larsen
'A powerful and remarkable film.' – MFB
♟ best short film

Incident at Phantom Hill

US 1966 88m Technicolor Techniscope Universal
Two men face desperate odds to reach one million dollars in gold.
Full-blooded Western programmer with useful performances.
w Frank Nugent d Earl Bellamy ph William Margulies m Hans J. Salter
☆ Robert Fuller, Dan Duryea, Jocelyn Lane, Claude Akins, Noah Beery Jnr

'Harry Donovan Is A Master In The Art Of Deception ... Trapped In A Life So Perfect Even The Truth Can't Save Him.'

Incognito

US 1997 106m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)
An art forger is offered a fortune to fake a Rembrandt for crooked dealers.
Ridiculous thriller, the cinematic equivalent of painting by numbers.
w Jordan Katz d John Badham ph Denis Crossan m John Ottman pd Jamie Leonard ed Frank Morriss
☆ Jason Patric, Irène Jacob, Thomas Lockyer, Ian Richardson, Simon Chandler, Rod Steiger, Pip Torrens, Ian Holm
'Starts badly and gets even worse, giving it a special kind of entertainment value.' – George Perry

Les Inconnus dans la Maison ★

France 1941 94m bw
Continental
An embittered ex-barrister saves his teenage daughter from a murder charge.
Unlikely melodrama remade as Stranger in the House; this version has more compelling writing and acting.
w Henri-Georges Clouzot novel Georges Simenon d Henri Decoin ph Jules Kruger m Roland Manuel ☆ Raimu, Juliette Fabre, Jacques Baumer, Jean Tissier
'A global warning.'
'By far the most terrifying film you will ever see.'

An Inconvenient Truth ★★ (8)

US 2006 96m
UIP/Paramount/Participant (Laurie David, Lawrence Bender, Scott Z. Burns)
Former US vice-president Al Gore tours the world, giving lectures to heighten awareness of global warming.
There may be nothing new here for those who study environmental matters closely. And in cinematic terms, it's true that this is little more than a filmed slide-show. Yet Gore is remarkably persuasive, addressing the public over the heads of other politicians seemingly intent on avoiding engagement with this most pressing of issues.
d Davis Guggenheim ph Bob Richman, Davis Guggenheim m Michael Brook pd John Calkins ed Jay Cassidy, Dan Swietlik
☆ Al Gore (Himself)
AL GORE: 'Future generations may well have occasion to ask themselves, "What were our parents thinking? Why didn't they wake up when they had a chance?" We have to hear that question from them, now.'
'Despite or perhaps because of Gore's schoolmasterly attitudes, his arguments have force. A kind of anti-charisma sees it through.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'It is utterly convincing, it's emotionally powerful and it makes Gore look more charming than he ever did as a presidential candidate.' – Dave Calhoun, Time Out ♟ Best documentary; original song ('I Need To Wake Up', Melissa Etheridge)

The Incredible Journey ★★

US 1963 80m Technicolor
Walt Disney (James Algar)
Two dogs and a cat, separated from their owners, escape and travel 250 miles home.
A novelty attraction which keeps going purely on its animal interest, which is considerable.
w James Algar book Sheila Burnford d Fletcher Markle ph Kenneth Peach, Jack Couffer, Lloyd Beebe m Oliver Wallace

The Incredible Melting Man

US 1977 84m Movielab
AIP/Quartet (Max J. Rosenberg)
The survivor of a space flight is rushed to hospital with radiation burns and an infection which causes his flesh to melt.
Unpleasant and nonsensical horror film with a few unintentional laughs and a plot borrowed from The Quatermass Experiment.
wd William Sachs ph Willy Curtis m Arlon Ober ☆ Alex Rebar, Burr DeBenning, Myron Healey, Michael Alldredge

The Incredible Mr Limpet

US 1964 102m Technicolor
Warner (John C. Rose)
A meek but patriotic clerk is turned down by the navy and turns into a fish. In this form he becomes a radar assistant to a warship.
Sentimental sub-Disney goo, part animated.
w Jameson Bewer, John C. Rose novel Theodore Pratt d Arthur Lubin ph Harold Stine m Frank Perkins
☆ Don Knotts, Andrew Duggan, Larry Keating, Jack Weston

The Incredible Sarah ★

GB 1976 105m Technicolor Panavision
Readers Digest (Helen M. Strauss)
The career of French actress Sarah Bernhardt up to the age of thirty-five.
Mildly pleasing old-fashioned biopic with remarkably unreliable detail and a regrettably bland approach to its fascinating subject.
w Ruth Wolff d Richard Fleischer ph Christopher Challis m Elmer Bernstein pd Elliot Scott
☆ Glenda Jackson, Daniel Massey, Yvonne Mitchell, Douglas Wilmer, David Langton, Simon Williams, John Castle, Edward Judd, Peter Sallis
'An incredibly old-fashioned movie full of the most unforgettable moments you have ever tried to forget.' – Andrew Sarris, Village Voice
'A job lot of obligatory Hollywood platitudes strung together with all the skill of Captain Hook trying to thread a needle.' – Benny Green, Punch
'In the stupefying tradition of Song of Norway.' – Pauline Kael

'So incredible you'll talk about it for years to come!'

The Incredible Shrinking Man*

US 1957 81m bw
U-I (Albert Zugsmith)
After being caught in a radioactive mist, a man shrinks inexorably to micro-size.
Horrifyingly inevitable sci-fi with imaginative touches gracing a cheap production.
w Richard Matheson d Jack Arnold ph Ellis W. Carter m Hans Salter sp Clifford Stine, Roswell A. Hoffman, Everett H. Bronssard
☆ Grant Williams, Randy Stuart, April Kent, Paul Langton
'It opens up new vistas of cosmic terror.' – Peter John Dyer
'One hails a science fiction film which is both inventive and humane.' – Sunday Times
'Simple, ingenious, effective.' – The Times

The Incredible Shrinking Woman

US 1981 88m Technicolor
Universal/Lija (Hank Moonjean)
A housewife finds herself shrinking after using a new perfume...
Hamfisted spoof on The Incredible Shrinking Man, with flat jokes and rather poor trick photography.
w Jane Wagner d Joel Schumacher ph Bruce Logan m Suzanne Ciani
☆ Lily Tomlin, Charles Grodin, Ned Beatty, Henry Gibson, Elizabeth Wilson
'Leaden satire on consumerism ... even the special effects are barely passable.' – Time Out, 1984

The Incredible Torture Show: see Bloodsucking Freaks

The Incredible Two-Headed Transplant

US 1970 88m DeLuxe
Mutual General/Trident/American International (John Lawrence)
A mad doctor grafts an extra head onto a homicidal maniac.
Full-blooded nonsense on a low budget; utterly repellent to some, but done with sufficient verve to be a minor cult title to others.
w James Gordon White, John Lawrence d Anthony M. Lanza ph John Steely, Glen Gano, Paul Hipp m John Barber
☆ Bruce Dern, Pat Priest, Casey Kasem, Berry Kroeger

The Incredibles ★★★

US 2004 115m Technicolor PixarVision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney Pictures/Pixar (John Walker)
Forced to lead ordinary lives and forget their powers, a family of superheroes return to action when the world is threatened by a megalomaniac.
Witty, brilliantly animated paean to individuality (though one that at times almost takes it too far into a Nietzschean ideology). The retro comic-book style is matched by a plot that might have served James Bond.
wd Brad Bird ph Janet Lucroy, Patrick Lin, Andrew Jimenez m Michael Giacchino pd Lou Romano ed Stephen Schaffer
☆ voices of: Craig T. Nelson (Bob Parr/Mr Incredible), Holly Hunter (Helen Parr/Elastigirl), Samuel L. Jackson (Lucius Best/Frozone), Jason Lee (Buddy Pine/Syndrome), Wallace Shawn (Gilbert Huph), Sarah Vowell (Violet Parr), Spencer Fox (Dashiell Parr), Brad Bird (Edna 'E' Mode)
'Delivers the sort of excitement, imagination, wit and panache that will make it enormously appealing to a wide spectrum of audiences around the world.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Fails to fulfil the remit of a true family film, which is surely to induce in everyone a sense of magical, childlike wonderment.' – Mark Kermode, Observer
♟ animated film; sound editing (Michael Silvers, Randy Thom)
♙ screenplay; sound mixing (Randy Thom, Gary A. Rizzo, Doc Kane)

The Incredibly Strange Creatures who Stopped Living and Became Mixed-up Zombies

US 1963 82m colour
Morgan Steckler Productions
A gypsy fortune-teller keeps monsters of her own making at the back of her tent.
Murder and mayhem at the carnival: cheap exploitation item which for long was thought to be a fragment of someone's imagination, but turns out really to exist.
w Gene Pollock, Robert Silliphant d Cash Flagg (Ray Dennis Steckler) ph Joseph V. Mascelli m Libby Quinn
☆ Cash Flagg, Carolyn Brandt, Brett O'Hara

The Incredibly True Adventure of 2 Girls in Love

US 1995 94m colour
Feature/Smash (Dolly Hall)
Two lesbian high-school students face rejection from friends and family when they fall in love.
Apart from the fact that its protagonists are of the same sex, this is otherwise a predictable movie of teenage angst and rebellion.
wd Maria Maggenti ph Tami Reiker m Terry Dame pd Ginger Tougas ed Susan Graef ☆ Laurel Holloman, Maggie Moore, Kate Stafford, Sabrina Artel, Toby Poser, Nelson Rodriguez
'A pacy, sweet and candid treat.' – Empire

Incubo Sulla Città Contaminata: see Nightmare City

'The Dreams. The Nightmares. The Desires. The Fears. The Mystery. The Revelation. The Warning.'

Incubus

Canada 1981 92m colour
Guardian Trust Company

Women are raped by a rampant demon.
Utterly distasteful horror film.
w George Franklin novel Ray Russell
d John Hough
☆ John Cassavetes, Kerrie Keane, Helen Hughes, Erin Flannery, John Ireland

'A husband. A wife. A billionaire. A proposal.'

Indecent Proposal

US 1993 117m DeLuxe
Paramount (Sherry Lansing)

In Las Vegas, after her husband has lost the last of his money in a desperate gamble, a wealthy man offers a woman a million dollars to spend a night with him.
Glutinous problem drama of transcendent silliness; perhaps the dilemma would have seemed more interesting if the millionaire had been less personable than Redford, although it would still have remained a ridiculous enterprise.
w Amy Holden Jones novel Jack Engelhard
d Adrian Lyne ph Howard Atherton
m John Barry pd Mel Bourne ed Joe Hutshing
☆ Robert Redford, Demi Moore, Woody Harrelson, Seymour Cassel, Oliver Platt, Billy Bob Thornton, Rip Taylor, Billy Connolly
'One of those high-concept pictures with a big windup and weak delivery.' – Variety
'Unredeemingly awful.' – Philip French, Observer

'Prepare for Impact!'

Independence Day ★

US 1996 145m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/Centropolis (Dean Devlin)

A plucky pilot and a computer expert defeat an alien invasion of hundreds of vastly destructive spaceships.
Enjoyably silly, jingoistic nonsense that found an appreciative audience for its sensational effects of blowing up the White House and most of the world; it sticks closely to the plot of The War of the Worlds, offering a technological version of a biological virus to knock out the aliens.
w Dean Devlin, Roland Emmerich
d Roland Emmerich ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m David Arnold pd Oliver Scholl, Patrick Tatopolous ed David Brenner sp Patrick Tatopoulos, Volker Engel, Douglas Smith, Pacific Ocean Post Digital ☆ Will Smith, Bill Pullman, Jeff Goldblum, Mary McDonnell, Judd Hirsch, Margaret Colin, Randy Quaid, Robert Loggia, James Rebhorn, Harvey Fierstein, Adam Baldwin, Brent Spiner, Vivica A. Fox, Harry Connick Jnr
'Lavish in scale, cornball to a T and a wonderfully enthusiastic blend of fifties sci-fi and seventies disaster movies.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Apotheosis of the video zap games that kids play; but fun for folk with popcorn appetites.' – Alexander Walker
'The first futuristic disaster movie that's as cute as a button.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly
† The biggest box-office success of 1996, it grossed around $746m around the world, and $306m in the US.
visual effects (Volker Engel, Douglas Smith, Clay Pinney, Joseph Viskocil) sound

The Independent ★ (4)

US 2001 83m Technicolor
United Lotus (Mike Wilkins)

The bankrupt producer-director of such exploitation classics as 'World War III II, Christ for the Defense, 12 Angry Men and a Baby and Brothers Divided, about Siamese twins who take opposing views on the Vietnam war, is given a restrospective at a Nevada film festival.
Inermittently amusing, low-budget spoof documentary on low-budget drive-in movies of the 60s and 70s, with some funny parodies of the various genres.
w Mike Wilkins, Stephen Kessler
d Stephen Kessler ph Amir Hamed
m Ben Vaughn pd Russell Christian
ed Chris Franklin
☆ Jerry Stiller (Morty Fineman), Janeane Garofalo (Paloma Fineman), Max Perlich (Ivan), Ginger Lynn Allen (Mayor Kitty Storm), Ron Howard (Himself), Peter Bogdanovich (Himself), Roger Corman (Himself), Karen Black (Herself)
'Expertly done in a loose-jointed, semideadpan style.' – New York Times

'300,000 volts of horror!'

Indestructible Man

US 1956 70m bw
Allied Artists

The dead body of a vicious killer is given new life by a mad doctor.
Low-budget horror mayhem with no style at all.
w Vy Russell, Sue Bradford d Jack Pollexfen ☆ Lon Chaney Jnr, Robert Shayne, Casey Adams, Marian Carr

The Indian Fighter

US 1955 88m Technicolor Cinemascope
UA/Bryna (William Schorr)

An Indian fighter protects a wagon train from the Sioux.
Simple-minded Western with touches of philosophy and not much drive.
w Frank Davis, Ben Hecht story Robert L. Richards d André de Toth ph Wilfrid M. Cline m Franz Waxman
☆ Kirk Douglas, Elsa Martinelli, Walter Abel, Walter Matthau, Diana Douglas, Eduard Franz, Lon Chaney Jnr, Alan Hale Jnr, Elisha Cook Jnr
† The film credited Ben Kadish as the writer of the original story because Richards was blacklisted.

The Indian in the Cupboard

US 1995 96m DeLuxe
Columbia/Scholastic (Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall, Jane Startz)

A nine-year-old boy's toy Indian comes alive when put inside a magic cupboard.
A pleasant but unremarkable fairy story that makes limited use of its interesting central concept.
w Melissa Mathison novel Lynne Reid Banks d Frank Oz ph Russell Carpenter
m Randy Edelman pd Leslie McDonald ed Ian Crafford sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Hal Scardino, Litefoot, Lindsay Crouse, Richard Jenkins, Rishi Bhat, David Keith, Steve Coogan
'Never comes to life as a movie. Earnest and well-intentioned, the promising concept feels stretched to feature length and should play best only with younger kids.' – Variety

The Indian Runner

US 1991 126m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Mount Film Group/Mico/NHK Enterprises (Don Philips)

A small-town cop has a stormy relationship with his criminally inclined brother.
Glum and talky drama drawn out to an inordinate length, long after it has exhausted any interest.
wd Sean Penn ph Anthony B. Richmond
m Jack Nitzsche pd Michael Haller ed Jay Cassidy, Phil Linson song 'Highway Patrolman' by Bruce Springsteen ☆ David Morse, Viggo Mortensen, Valeria Golino, Patricia Arquette, Charles Bronson, Sandy Dennis, Dennis Hopper, Jordan Rhodes
'More than two hours' worth of predictable characters and plot developments visible at a distance of some miles.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Indian Scout

US 1949 70m bw
Edward Small

Episodes in the life of Davy Crockett.
Minor Western which hit the spot with small-town audiences, and in the late fifties, after the success of the Disney film, was reissued as Davy Crockett, Indian Scout. *
w Richard Schayer d Ford Beebe ph John Mescall m Paul Sawtell
☆ George Montgomery, Ellen Drew, Philip Reed, Noah Beery Jnr

Indian Summer: see The Judge Steps Out (1947)

Indian Summer

US 1993 97m Technicolor Panavision
Touchstone/Outlaw (Jeffrey Silver, Robert Newmyer)

aka: Alive and Kicking
Friends meet up for one last week at summer camp after a gap of 20 years.
Nostalgic, sentimental drama that suggests problems can be solved by reverting to childhood behaviour, but it does have moments of charm.
wd Mike Binder ph Tom Sigel m Miles Goodman pd Craig Stearns ed Adam Weiss
☆ Alan Arkin, Matt Craven, Diane Lane, Bill Paxton, Elizabeth Perkins, Kevin Pollak, Sam Raimi, Vincent Spano, Julie Warner, Kimberly Williams

Indian Summer: see Alive and Kicking (1996)

'The Man With The Hat Is Back. And This Time He's Bringing His Dad.'

Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade ★★

US 1989 127m DeLuxe
Panavision
UIP/Paramount/Lucasfilm (Robert Watts)

Indiana Jones goes in search of his father who disappeared while looking for the Holy Grail.
The formula as before, which still works thanks to some splendid set-pieces and the genial interplay between Ford and Connery.
w Jeffrey Boam story George Lucas, Menno Meyjes d Steven Spielberg ph Douglas Slocombe m John Williams
pd Elliot Scott ed Michael Kahn ☆ Harrison Ford, Sean Connery, Denholm Elliott, Alison Doody, John Rhys-Davies, Julian Glover, River Phoenix, Michael Byrne, Kevork Malikyan, Robert Eddison, Richard Young, Alexei Sayle
sound
John Williams; sound effects editing

'The hero is back!'

Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom ★★

US 1984 118m Rank Colour/DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Lucasfilm (Robert Watts)

A prequel to Raiders of the Lost Ark: Jones in 1935 finds the sacred Sankara stone.
Slow-starting adventure romp with much ingenuity and too much brutality and horror. In the US it caused the creation of a new censor certificate: PG(13).
w Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz story George Lucas d Steven Spielberg ph Douglas Slocombe, Allen Daviau
m John Williams pd Elliot Scott
☆ Harrison Ford, Kate Capshaw, Ke Huy Quan, Philip Stone
'One of the most sheerly pleasurable physical comedies ever made.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'A thin, arch, graceless affair.' – Observer
'A two-hour series of none too carefully linked chase sequences ... sitting on the edge of your seat gives you a sore bum but also a numb brain.' – Guardian
music; visual effects

Indianapolis Speedway

US 1939 82m bw
Warner

A racetrack driver wants his kid brother to continue in college, but he has the racing fever.
Editor's-bench mélange of The Crowd Roars (1932) and Here Comes the Navy; this doesn't star Cagney.
w Sig Herzig, Wally Klein d Lloyd Bacon
☆ Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan, John Payne, Gale Page, Frank McHugh, Regis Toomey
'It contains just about every cliché such type melodrama can have.' – Variety † Frank McHugh played the same role in the 1932 version.

Indio Black, Sai che ti Dico: Sei un Gran Figlio di...: see The Bounty Hunters

'Through one indiscretion ... a woman with a future became a woman with a past!'

Indiscreet

US 1931 92m bw
Art Cinema Corporation (Joseph M. Schenck)

A socialite endangers her own romance when she tries to protect her younger sister.
Embarrassing and slow-moving farce which helped to kill its star's career.
d Leo McCarey ph Ray June, Gregg Toland
m Alfred Newman w/songs Brown, de Sylva and Henderson ☆ Gloria Swanson, Ben Lyon, Monroe Owsley, Barbara Kent, Arthur Lake, Maude Eburne, Henry Kolker

'How dare he make love to me – and not be a married man!'

Indiscreet ★★

GB 1958 100m Technicolor
Grandon (Stanley Donen)

An American diplomat in London falls in love with an actress but protects himself by saying he is married.
Affairs among the ultra rich, amusing when played by these stars but with imperfect production values which the alarmingly thin plot allows one too much time to consider.
w Norman Krasna play Kind Sir by Norman Krasna d Stanley Donen
ph Frederick A. Young m Richard Bennett, Ken Jones

☆ Cary Grant, Ingrid Bergman, Phyllis Calvert, Cecil Parker, David Kossoff, Megs Jenkins

'One is often on the point of being bored, but one never is, quite.' – Richard Roud

'A film to which you would not hesitate to take your jeweller, your architect, your home decorator, your dressmaker and your domestic staff.' – Alexander Walker

Indiscretion: see Christmas in Connecticut (1945)

Indiscretion: see Indiscretion of an American Wife (1954)

Indiscretion of an American Wife ★

Italy/US 1954 75m bw
David O. Selznick (Vittorio de Sica)

aka: Terminus Station
aka: Indiscretion

An American woman and an Italian professor say goodbye in Rome's terminal station.

Strained attempt to re-do Brief Encounter against the busy background of a great railway station; moments of interest, but artificiality prevails, and the plot never gets up enough steam.

w Cesare Zavattini, Truman Capote, etc d Vittorio de Sica ph G. R. Aldo m Aldo Cicognini

☆ Jennifer Jones, Montgomery Clift, Gino Cervi, Richard Beymer

Indochine ★★

France 1992 158m colour
Paradis/La Générale d'Images/BAC/Orly/Ciné Cinq (Eric Heumann)

In the unsettled Indochina of the 1930s, the adopted Indochinese daughter of the female head of a rubber plantation runs away to be with the French naval officer loved by her and her mother.

A glossy romantic drama dominated by Deneuve's performance.

w Erik Orsenna, Louis Gardeal, Catherine Cohen, Régis Wargnier d Régis Wargnier ph François Catonne m Patrick Doyle ed Genevieve Winding

☆ Catherine Deneuve, Vincent Perez, Linh Dan Pham, Jean Yanne, Dominique Blanc, Henri Marteau, Mai Chau

'A riveting romantic saga.' – Variety

'It has the breadth and intelligence of the David Lean epics from whose plots it borrows so freely ... And in Deneuve the movie has a star of epic glamour and gravity. Her presence is like some handsome monument to the French spirit miraculously preserved on the streets of Vietnam.' – Richard Corliss, Time

♟ foreign language film
♙ Catherine Deneuve

Infamous ★ (7)

US 2006 117m
Warner Bros./Warner Independent/Killer Films/John Wells (Christine Vachon, Jocelyn Hayes, Anne Walker-McBay)

Writer and socialite Truman Capote travels from Manhattan to Kansas to investigate the gruesome murder of a farmer's family. His reporting becomes his literary masterpiece In Cold Blood.

It's bad luck for Infamous that it covers essentially the same territory as Capote, released less than a year previously, and hugely acclaimed. The earlier film concentrated on the duplicitous methods Capote employed to tease information from his interviewees, thereby destroying himself. Infamous suffers by comparison: it over-stresses Capote as social gadfly, gossiping madly to his frankly tiresome gang of wealthy ladies-who-lunch. The Kansas scenes also fail to convince: is it likely that Capote was able to conduct a tryst with Perry Smith, one of the two murderers, in his prison cell? The film's tone veers between documentary (with 'witnesses' recalling Capote on camera), courtroom drama, high-society satire and doomed gay love story. It's all over the place. The one saving grace is Toby Jones, whose portrayal of Capote not only captures him physically but adds welcome light and shade to what might have been a one-dimensional role.

wd Douglas McGrath book Truman Capote by George Plimpton ph Bruno Delbonnel m Rachel Portman pd Judy Becker ad Laura Ballinger Gardner ed Camilla Toniolo

☆ Toby Jones (Truman Capote), Sandra Bullock (Nelle Harper Lee), Daniel Craig (Perry Smith), Peter Bogdanovich (Bennett Cerf), Jeff Daniels (Alvin Dewey), Hope Davis (Slim Keith), Gwyneth Paltrow (Kitty Dean), Isabella Rossellini (Marella Agnelli), Juliet Stevenson (Diana Vreeland), Sigourney Weaver (Babe Paley)

'Jones gets everything – the gestures, the generosity, the mean streak, the bending of the ear to recitals of woe, whether across a lunch table or a prison cell.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Infernal Affairs ★★

Hong Kong 2003 101m colour 'scope
Metro Tartan/Media Asia/Basic (Nansun Shi, John Chong)

original title: Wu Jian Dao

Two lives intersect, of an undercover cop, who has infiltrated a Triad gang, and a gangster who has become a cop to keep his boss informed of police activities.

Clever, suspenseful thriller of duplicity and conflicting loyalties, one that prefers intrigue to shoot-outs.

w Alan Mak, Felix Chong d Andrew Lau, Alan Mak ph Andy Lau, Lai Yiu-fai m Chan Kwong-wing ed Danny Pang, Pang Ching-hei

☆ Tony Leung Chiu-wai (Chan Wing-yan), Andy Lau (Insp Lau Kin-ming), Anthony Wong (Supt Wong), Eric Tsang (Hon Sam), Chapman To (Keung), Lam Ka-tung (Insp B), Sammi Cheng (Mary)

'Holds its audience in a vice-like grip as the dark, claustrophobic narrative winds its way to an emotionally powerful climax.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Infernal Affairs II ★★

Hong Kong 2003 109m colour 'Scope
Media Asia/Raintree/Eastern Dragon/Basic (John Chong, Daniel Yun, Ma Baoping)

original title: Wu Jian Dao II

A triad spy begins his career in the police at the same time as a police mole infiltrates the triads, while two friends – one a successful gangster, the other a senior policeman – attempt to outwit each other.

A prequel to the first film, covering three different years in the 1990s, culminating with the British handover of Hong Kong in 1997; it is a more complex story, punctuated by moments of violence.

w Alan Mak, Felix Chong d Andrew Lau, Alan Mak ph Andrew Lau, Ng Man-ching m Chan Kwong-wing ad Bill Lui ed Danny Pang, Pang Ching-hei action director Lee Tat-chiu

☆ Anthony Wong (Wong), Eric Tsang (Sam), Carina Lau (Mary), Francis Ng (Ngai Wing-Hau), Shawn Yue (Chen Wing Yan), Edison Chen (Lau Kin Ming), Hu Jun (Luk)

'Clever on every level: period, music and performance... The acting is mesmerising. The tension is priceless.' – James Christopher, Times

Infernal Affairs III ★

Hong Kong/China 2004 117m colour Panavision
Media Asia/Tianjin/Eastern Dragon/China Megastar (John Chong, Han Hongfei)

original title: Wu Jian Dao III

Undercover agents among triad gangs and police fear betrayal and regard their associates with suspicion.

With many of the characters killed off in the first film, and the second being a prequel, there's little room for manoeuvre in this third instalment, which continually tracks between past and present to provide some repetitious action and much confusion.

w Alan Mak, Felix Chong d Andrew Lau, Alan Mak ph Andrew Lau, Ng Man-ching m Chan Kwong-wing ad Bill Lui ed Pang Ching-he, Danny Pang action director Wong Wai-fai

☆ Tony Leung Chiu-wai (Chan Wing Yan), Andy Lau (Lau Kin Ming), Leon Lai (SP Yeung), Chen Daoming (Shen), Kelly Chen (Dr Lee Sum Yee), Anthony Wong (SWP Wong), Eric Tsang (Sam)

'A full helping of nice individual moments in search of a dramatically satisfying whole.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Inferno: see Desert Heat

Inferno ★★

US 1953 83m Technicolor 3-D
TCF (William Bloom)

When a millionaire breaks his leg in the desert, his wife and her lover leave him to die; but he contrives to catch up with them.

An outdoor melodrama which made better use of 3-D than any other film, suggesting the lone handicapped figure in the vast spaces; but the lovers are dull and the fire climax perfunctory.

w Francis Cockrell d Roy Baker ph Lucien Ballard m Paul Sawtell

☆ Robert Ryan, William Lundigan, Rhonda Fleming

'Its chief merit is a strong and simple story.' – C. A. Lejeune

Inferno

Italy 1980 107m Technicolor
TCF (Claudio Argento)

A New York apartment house is occupied by satanists who murder those who learn their secret.

Absurdly overplotted and mainly incomprehensible shocker with some small pretensions to style.

wd Dario Argento ph Romano Albani m Keith Emerson ad Giuseppe Bassan ed Franco Fraticelli sp Mario Bava, Germano Natali, Pino Leone

☆ Leigh McCloskey (Mark Elliot), Irene Miracle (Rose Elliot), Eleonora Giorgi (Sara), Daria Nicolodi (Elise), Alida Valli (Carol), Feodor Chaliapin (Varelli), Sacha Pitoeff (Kazanian)

Infinity

US 1996 119m DeLuxe
First Look (Joel Soisson, Michael Leahy, Patricia Broderick, Matthew Broderick)

A Nobel Prize-winning scientist looks back on his early life and his marriage to a woman dying of tuberculosis.

A slight but charming biopic that concentrates on the private life of a brilliant man, Richard Feynman, and his doomed romance with Arline Greenbaum.

w Patricia Broderick memoirs Richard Feynman d Matthew Broderick ph Toyomichi Kurita m Bruce Broughton pd Bernt Capra ed Elena Maganini, Bill Johnson, Amy Young

☆ Matthew Broderick, Patricia Arquette, Peter Riegert, Dori Brenner, Peter Michael Goetz, Zeljko Ivanek, James LeGros, Jeffrey Force

'A static, old-fashioned film that only intermittently involves the viewer.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

The Informer ★★★

US 1935 91m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)

An IRA leader is betrayed by a simple-minded hanger-on who wants money to emigrate; he is hounded by fellow rebels and his own conscience.

A tedious plot is turned into brilliant cinema by full-blooded acting and a highly stylized yet brilliantly effective mise en scène which never attempts reality.

w Dudley Nichols novel Liam O'Flaherty d John Ford ph Joseph H. August m Max Steiner ad Van Nest Polglase ed George Hively

☆ Victor McLaglen (Gypo Nolan), Heather Angel (Mary McPhillip), Margot Grahame (Katie Madden), Una O'Connor (Mrs. McPhillip), Wallace Ford (Frankie McPhillip), Preston Foster (Dan Gallagher), J. M. Kerrigan (Terry), Joe Sawyer (Bartley Mulholland), Donald Meek (Pat Mulligan)

'A tough subject, a sure critic's picture, but dubious box office.' – Variety

'As impressive as Scarface, or anything in the whole powerful literature redolent of fog and grime and dreariness which the Germans gave to the Americans.' – Bardèche and Brasillach

'Among the best five pictures since the coming of sound.' – Baltimore Sun

† An early British sound version was made in 1929 by Arthur Robison for BIP, with Lars Hansen and Lya de Putti. Dudley Nichols became the first person to refuse to accept an Oscar, due to a quarrel between the Academy and some industry organizations.

♟ Dudley Nichols; John Ford; Max Steiner; Victor McLaglen ♙ best picture; editing

The Informers

GB 1963 104m bw
Rank (William MacQuitty)
US title: Underworld Informers

A police informer is murdered and his brother takes revenge.

Basic police melodrama, with clumsy script and jaded direction.

w Alun Falconer novel Death of a Snout by Douglas Warner d Ken Annakin ph Reg Wyer m Clifton Parker

☆ Nigel Patrick, Colin Blakely, Derren Nesbitt

L'Ingénue Libertine

France 1950 88m approx bw
Codo-Cinéma (Jean Velter)

A romantic girl lives in an imaginary world of affairs, but can't bring herself to consummate her marriage.

Minor period sex comedy which has the distinction of being Britain's first 'X' film, though the naughtiness is more implied than stated.

w P. Laroche novel Colette d Jacqueline Audry ph Grignon m Vincent Scotto ☆ Daniele Delorme, Frank Villard, Jean Tissier

Inherit the Wind ★★

US 1960 127m bw
UA/Lomitas (Stanley Kramer)

A fictionalized account of the 1925 Scopes 'monkey trial', when a schoolmaster was accused of teaching the theory of evolution.
Splendid theatrics with fine performances, marred by boring subplots but enhanced by a realistic portrait of a sweltering Southern town.
w Nathan E. Douglas (Nedrick Young), Harold Jacob Smith play Jerome Lawrence, Robert E. Lee d Stanley Kramer ph Ernest Laszlo m Ernest Gold ed Frederic Knudtson
☆ Spencer Tracy, Fredric March, Florence Eldridge, Gene Kelly, Dick York, Donna Anderson, Harry Morgan, Elliott Reid, Claude Akins † Screenwriter Nedrick Young used a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.
script; Ernest Laszlo; Spencer Tracy; editing

The Inheritance: see Uncle Silas (1947)

The Inheritance

Italy 1976 121m Eastmancolor
Flag Productions (Gianni Hecht Lucari)

original title: L'Eredità Ferramonti
In Rome of the 1880s, a wealthy father disinherits his children but succumbs to the wiles of his daughter-in-law.
Sumptuous period soap opera, for which Sanda won a best actress award at the Cannes Film Festival.
w Ugo Pirro, Sergio Bazzini novel Gaetano Carlo Chelli d Mauro Bolognini ph Ennio Guarnieri m Ennio Morricone ad Luigi Scaccianoce ed Nino Baragli
☆ Anthony Quinn, Fabio Testi, Dominique Sanda, Luigi Proietti, Adriana Asti, Paolo Bonacelli, Rosella Rusconi, Harold Bromley

Injeong Sajeong Bolgeos Eobsda ★

South Korea 1999 112m bw/colour
Metro Tartan/Taewon Entertainment/Kookmin/Samboo (Chung Tae-Won)

GB title: Nowhere to Hide
A slouching cop tracks down a hitman who is a master of disguise.
An over-elaborate style, full of fancy wipes, bullet-holed intertitles, freeze-frames and selfconciously arty shots, does little to hide the threadbare nature of the narrative; its exuberance carries it through.
wd Lee Myung-Se ph Jeong Kwang-Seok, Song Haeng-Ki m Cho Sung-Woo, Kim Dae-Hong pd Lee Myung-Se ed Go Im Pyo ☆ Park Joong-hoon (Detective Woo), Ahn Sung-Ki (Chang Sungmin), Jang Dong-Kun (Detective Kim), Choi Ji-Woo (Juyon), Do Yong-Ku (Detective Chang), Shim Cheol-Jong (Detective Chu)
'A wild devil-may-care demonstration of style that hits more targets than it misses.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† The UK release ran for 100m.

'A story of a mystery...A mystery inside worlds within worlds...Unfolding around a woman...A woman in love and in trouble.'

Inland Empire ★ (5)

US/France/Poland 2006 180m Colour/bw
Optimum/Studio Canal/Camerimage/Asymmetrical (Mary Sweeney, David Lynch)

Hollywood actress Nikki Grace accepts the lead in a new movie, then discovers its script is based on an old Polish film, abandoned after the murder of its two stars, who were illicit lovers. Alarmed by this, she descends into delusional behaviour, adopts multiple personalities and is unable to distinguish truth from fantasy.
This marks a further retreat from conventional film-making by Lynch, who seems more intrigued by the dream state induced by film rather than linear narratives. At three hours, it's a test of audiences' resolve; dense, allusive and visually stunning, its meaning remains unclear – at least, on first viewing. Parallels between Nikki's film character and her flirtation with her co-star (Theroux) are clear enough, but Lynch throws in an eastern European circus troupe, and a bizarre stage sitcom featuring people with rabbit heads and a laugh track switched on randomly. Tough-talking prostitutes do a dance routine to Little Eva's 'Loco-motion'. Nikki appears as a working class Polish wife. Time and space loop, redouble and overlap. When realisation finally dawns that no rational explanations will be offered, one can relax into experiencing it as a visual mood piece, if a demented one. But it's mainly for hardcore Lynch fans.
wd David Lynch ph David Lynch, Erik Crary, Odd Geir Saether, Ole Johan Roska m Angelo Badalamenti ad Christina Wilson ed David Lynchg
☆ Laura Dern (Nikki Grace/Susan Blue), Jeremy Irons (Kingsley Stewart), Justin Theroux (Devon Berk/Billy Side), Grace Zabriskie (Visitor 1), Harry Dean Stanton (Freddie Howard)
'Lynch's most berserk, terrifying and formally radical plunge into the unconscious since Eraserhead (1977). Hellish but extraordinary.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph
'Inland Empire is so locked up in David Lynch's brain that it never burrows its way into ours.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
† The title refers to an area of California, east of Los Angeles.
†† Naomi Watts plays one of the sitcom characters with rabbit heads.

Inn for Trouble

GB 1960 90m bw
Film Locations/Eros

A suburban couple become country publicans.
Amiable extension of a popular TV series, The Larkins.
w Fred Robinson d C. M. Pennington-Richards ph Eric Cross m Philip Green
☆ Peggy Mount, David Kossoff, Leslie Phillips, Glyn Owen, Charles Hawtrey, A. E. Matthews, Yvonne Monlaur, Irene Handl

The Inn of the Sixth Happiness ★★

GB 1958 158m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Mark Robson)

An English servant girl becomes a missionary and spends many arduous years in China.
Romanticized biopic of Gladys Aylward, with lots of children, a happy ending, and everyone sensationally miscast. Somehow it all works, even North Wales standing in for China.
w Isobel Lennart book The Small Woman by Alan Burgess d Mark Robson
ph Frederick A. Young m Malcolm Arnold ed Ernest Walter ☆ Ingrid Bergman, Curt Jurgens, Robert Donat, Athene Seyler, Ronald Squire, Richard Wattis, Moultrie Kelsall
Mark Robson

The Inner Circle

Italy 1991 137m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Numero Uno (Claudio Bonivento)

Italian title: Il Proiezionista
A cinema projectionist goes to work for Stalin, an act that has a devastating effect on his marriage.
A movie that attempts to explain the appeal to the Russian people of Stalin, but achieves only a trivialization of history.
w Andrei Konchalovsky, Anatoli Usov d Andrei Konchalovsky ph Ennio Guarnieri m Eduard Artemyev pd Ezio Frigerio ed Henry Richardson
☆ Tom Hulce, Lolita Davidovich, Bob Hoskins, Alexandre Zbruev, Feodor Chaliapin Jnr, Bess Meyer, Maria Baranova, Irina Kuptchenko
'A dramatically messy, momentarily compelling look at Stalin's tyranny.' – Variety
'The umpteenth film to turn truth-based political tragedy into dial-a-cliché melodrama. Overacted by almost everyone in sight and scripted for stark risibility ... it comes to life only when raiding history direct.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times

Inner Sanctum

The title was taken from a radio show featuring mystery stories with a last minute twist. The films were introduced rather oddly by a misshapen head in a crystal ball on the empty table of a boardroom. The head belonged to David Hoffman, and he introduced each film: 'This ... is the inner sanctum...' (The original reference was presumably to the innermost working of the human mind.) The films, made for Universal, all starred Lon Chaney Jnr (who alternated as hero and villain); they were among the most boring and badly made second feature thrillers of the forties.
1943 Calling Dr Death
1944 Weird Woman, Dead Man's Eyes
1945 Strange Confession (remake of The Man Who Reclaimed His Head), The Frozen Ghost 1946 Pillow of Death

Innerspace ★

US 1987 120m Technicolor
Warner/Amblin/Steven Spielberg/Guber-Peters (Michael Finnell)

A miniaturized air force flyer is injected into the body of a grocery clerk.
Derivative comedy with clever twists; very tolerable of its kind, but no Back to the Future.
w Jeffrey Boam, Chip Proser d Joe Dante ph Andrew Laszlo m Jerry Goldsmith pd James H. Spencer ☆ Dennis Quaid, Martin Short, Meg Ryan, Kevin McCarthy, Fiona Lewis special visual effects (Dennis Muren)

Innocence is Bliss: see Miss Grant Takes Richmond

Innocence Unprotected ★

Yugoslavia 1968 78m Eastmancolor/bw Avala

original title: Nevinosti Bez Zastite
Interviews with the actor-writer-director of, and those who worked on, Innocence Unprotected, the first Serbian talkie made in 1942, which was confiscated during the Nazi occupation, together with excerpts from the film and from contemporary newsreels.
A fascinating collage from Makavejev, providing a documentary frame to scenes from a primitive story of true love triumphant, in style more like a silent than a talking picture, and glorifying the death-defying acrobatics of its strong-man hero and director, filmed hanging from an aeroplane by a rope held in his teeth; both the new film and the old have a simple charm.
wd Dusan Makavejev ph Branko Perak, Stevan Miskovic m Vojislav Dostic ed Alexsander Popovic ☆ Dragoljub Aleksic, Ana Milosavljevic, Vera Jovanovic, Bratoljub Gligorijevic, Ivan Zivkovic, Pera Milosavljevic

The Innocent ★★★

Italy 1976 125m colour Technovision
Rizzoli (Giovanni Bertolucci)

original title: Innocente
aka. The Intruder
In Rome in the 1890s, a Sicilian aristocrat who keeps his wife informed of his own affair takes a terrible revenge when he discovers she also has a lover.
An elegant account of decadence and sexual politics, one that subverts the intentions of the novel on which it is based.
w Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Luchino Visconti, Enrico Medioli novel Gabriele d'Annunzio d Luchino Visconti ph Pasqualino de Santis m Chopin, Liszt, Mozart, Gluck ad Mario Garbuglia ed Ruggero Mastroianni ☆ Giancarlo Giannini (Tullio Hermil), Laura Antonelli (Guiliana), Jennifer O'Neill (Teresa Raffo), Rina Morelli (Tullio's Mother), Didier Haudepin (Federico Hermil), Massimo Girotti (Count Stefano Egano), Marie Dubois (The Princess)
'An outstanding example of what Hemingway would have called grace under pressure.' – Sight and Sound
'The protagonist is meant to be an atheist hero, a brave anarch who pays the price for his amorality. But he comes out only a sordid, spoiled sensualist swine, with no kind of depth, so this story has no involvement for the viewer.' – Stanley Kauffmann † Visconti had wanted Alain Delon and Romy Schneider for the two leads. He directed the film from a wheelchair and died just before its release.

'A passion beyond love. A crime beyond murder.'

The Innocent ★

GB/Germany 1993 107m Eastmancolor
Island Lakeheart/Sievernich/Defa (Norma Heyman, Chris Sievernich, Wieland Schulz-Keil)

As the Berlin Wall comes down, a bungling English engineer returns to Germany and recalls his time there during the Cold War of the 50s, when he was assigned to the CIA, fell in love with a local woman and became involved in murder.
Uninvolving drama for the most part, though it improves as it continues, intertwining horror and humour as a naïve man finds himself in a situation beyond his control or understanding.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Ian McEwan novel Ian McEwan d John Schlesinger ph Dietrich Lohmann m Gerald Gouriet pd Luciana Arrighi ed Richard Marden
☆ Anthony Hopkins, Isabella Rossellini, Campbell Scott, Hart Bochner, Ronald Nitschke, Jeremy Sinden, James Grant, Richard Durden
'An interesting idea and characters are otherwise wasted on a thudding succession of obvious moments which topple over into bathos.' – Kim Newman, Empire
† Anthony Hopkins composed and performed the soundtrack piano étude.

'For generations, the Mafia preyed on the innocent. Tonight, someone's feasting on them.'

Innocent Blood

US 1992 113m Technicolor
Warner (Lee Rich, Leslie Belzberg)
aka: A French Vampire in America
A female vampire regrets turning a Mafia hoodlum into a vampire.
Haphazard and anaemic vampire movie with comic elements which never really works on any level.
w Michael Wolk d John Landis ph Mac Ahlberg m Ira Newborn pd Richard Sawyer ed Dale Beldin sp Steve Johnson, Syd Dutton, Bill Taylor
☆ Anne Parillaud, Robert Loggia, Anthony LaPaglia, Don Rickles, Elaine Kagan, David Proval, Chazz Palminteri
'Teens and genre fans should eat up John Landis' latest mix of horror and camp comedy.' – Variety
'A gloomy, almost oppressive film.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
† Directors who make brief appearances in the movie include Dario Argento, Frank Oz, Sam Raimi, Michael Ritchie and Tom Savini.

Innocent Bystanders ★

GB 1972 110m Eastmancolor
Sagittarius (George H. Brown)
The British secret service sends three agents to trace a Russian traitor.
Confused and violent espionage thriller; rather a waste of good production.
w James Mitchell d Peter Collinson ph Brian Probyn m John Keating ☆ Stanley Baker, Geraldine Chaplin, Dana Andrews, Donald Pleasence

Innocent Lies

GB/France 1995 88m colour
Polygram/Red Umbrella/Septieme (Simon Perry, Philippe Guez)
In France in 1938, an English policeman tries to clear up the mystery of the apparent suicide of his mentor and finds himself involved with an odd and incestuous English upper-middle-class family.
The credits include an acknowledgement to 'the inspiration provided by Agatha Christie for the making of this film, which does not purport to be a faithful adaptation of any of her work', but this stew of overheated sex and underdeveloped narrative bears little resemblance to the deadly gentility of her world. It is a thriller that contains no red herrings, only dead ends and lots of loose threads.
w Kerry Crabbe, Patrick Dewolf d Patrick Dewolf ph Patrick Blossier m Alexandre Desplat pd Bernd Lepel ed Chris Wimble, Joelle Hache
☆ Stephen Dorff, Gabrielle Anwar, Adrian Dunbar, Sophie Aubry, Joanna Lumley, Melvil Poupaud, Bernard Haller, Alexis Denisof
'It's a disgrace that, in its present form, this script was allowed to see the light of day.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent
'Fails on every count.' – Sight and Sound

An Innocent Man

US 1989 113m Technicolor
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Ted Field, Robert W. Cort)
Framed by crooked cops, an engineer learns lessons of survival in prison, which he applies to seeking vengeance on his release.
Undistinguished melodrama.
w Larry Brothers d Peter Yates ph William A. Fraker m Howard Shore pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Stephen A. Rotter, William S. Scharf
☆ Tom Selleck, F. Murray Abraham, Laila Robins, David Rasche, Richard Young, Badja Djola, Todd Graff, M. C. Gainey

Innocent Moves: see Searching for Bobby Fischer

Innocent Sinners ★★

GB 1957 95m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)
A 13-year-old London girl builds a garden in the rubble of a bombed church, and gets into trouble with the police.
Likeable, slightly unfinished, mildly astringent little human drama full of well-observed character sketches.
w Neil Paterson novel An Episode of Sparrows by Rumer Godden d Philip Leacock ph Harry Waxman m Philip Green ☆ Flora Robson, Catherine Lacey, David Kossoff, Barbara Mullen, June Archer

The Innocent Sleep

GB 1995 110m colour Super 35
Starlight/Timedial (Scott Michell, Matthew Vaughn)
A tramp witnesses a murder in which a senior policeman was one of the killers.
Moderately gripping low-voltage thriller of corruption and cover-up.
w Ray Villis d Scott Michell ph Alan Dunlop m Mark Ayres pd Eve Mavrakis ed Derek Trigg
☆ Rupert Graves, Annabella Sciorra, Michael Gambon, Franco Nero, Graham Crowden, Oliver Cotton
† The film is loosely based on a real-life event: the death of Italian banker Roberto Calvi, who was found hanged under London's Blackfriars Bridge in the 80s.

'How much will a mother sacrifice for the love of her son.....'

Innocent Voices ★★ (7)

Mexico/US/Puerto Rico 2005 120m
The Works/Alta Vista/Santo Domingo Films (Lawrence Bender, Alejandro Soberon Kuri, Luis Mandoki)
Mexican/Puerto Rican theatrical: Voces Inocentes
A father abandons his poor family in El Salvador at the outbreak of the civil war in the 1980s to go to the US, leaving Chava, 11, as the 'man of the house'. He lives in a shack with his sister, younger brother and hard-working mother. The army is already recruiting 12-year-old boys, taking them at gunpoint from their classrooms. Chava has one year left before he is eligible.
Mexican director Mandoki shows how one child's indomitable spirit refuses to be dulled by war and conflict. The boy tries to keep a sense of normality by attending school and falling in love while dodging bullets. As Chava, Carlos Padilla, with his hugely expressive face, practically carries the film.
w Oscar Torres, Luis Mandoki d Luis Mandoki ph Juan Ruiz Anchia m Andre Abujamra pd Antonio Munohierro ed Aleshka Ferrero ☆ Carlos Padilla (Chava), Leonor Varela (Kella), Gustavo Munoz (Ancha), Jose Maria Yazpik (Uncle Beto), Ofelia Medina (Mama Toya), Daniel Gimenez Cacho (Priest)
'Effective without being overwhelming.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'An expert addition to a well-worn genre.' – Paul Julian Smith, Sight & Sound

The Innocents ★★

GB 1961 99m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Achilles (Jack Clayton)
In Victorian times, a spinster governess in a lonely house finds her young charges possessed by evil demons of servants now dead.
Elaborate revamping of Henry James's The Turn of the Screw, the ghosts being now (possibly) the figments of a frustrated woman's imagination. The frissons would have worked better on a normal-shaped screen, but the decor, lighting and general handling are exceptional.
w William Archibald, Truman Capote d Jack Clayton ph Freddie Francis m Georges Auric ad Wilfrid Shingleton
☆ Deborah Kerr, Megs Jenkins, Pamela Franklin, Martin Stephens, Michael Redgrave, Peter Wyngarde

Les Innocents aux Mains Sales: see Innocents with Dirty Hands

Innocents in Paris

GB 1953 102m bw
Romulus (Anatole de Grunwald)
British tourists spend a weekend in the gay city.
Strained compendium of anecdotes which misses an easy target.
w Anatole de Grunwald d Gordon Parry ph Gordon Lang m Josef Kosma ☆ Alastair Sim, Margaret Rutherford, Jimmy Edwards, Claire Bloom, Laurence Harvey, Ronald Shiner

Innocents of Paris

US 1929 69m bw
Paramount/Jesse L. Lasky
A Parisian junk dealer saves a boy's life and falls for his aunt.
Heavygoing and dated musical comedy which introduced Chevalier to world audiences.
w Ethel Doherty, Ernest Vajda play Flea Market by Charles Andrews d Richard Wallace ph Charles Lang m/ly Leo Robin, Richard A. Whiting
☆ Maurice Chevalier, Sylvia Beecher, Russell Simpson, George Fawcett
'The most childish thing in invention which to my knowledge has yet proceeded from the childlike cinema mind.' – James Agate, Tatler

Innocents with Dirty Hands ★★★

France/West Germany/Italy 1975 125m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Films la Boétie/Terra/Juppiter (André Génovès) original title: Les Innocents aux Mains Sales
An unhappy wife and her new young lover decide to kill her alcoholic husband, but he is aware of their plan.
An enjoyable, teasing thriller that keeps its audience, as well as its characters, guessing as one double-cross quickly follows upon another.
wd Claude Chabrol novel The Damned Innocents by Richard Neely ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen ad Guy Littaye ed Jacques Gaillard
☆ Romy Schneider (Julie), Rod Steiger (Louis), Paolo Giusti (Jeff), Jean Rochefort (Legal), François Maistre (Lamy), Pierre Santini (Villon), François Perrot (Thorent)
'One of cinema's most enjoyable charades.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Inquest ★

GB 1939 60m bw
Charter (John Boulting)
A coroner has his suspicions as to who murdered the deceased.
Modest courtroom suspenser which marked the Boultings' first attempt (the second was Suspect*) to raise the standard of second features.*
w Francis Miller play Michael Barringer d Roy Boulting ph D. P. Cooper ad John Maxted ed Roy Boulting
☆ Elizabeth Allan, Herbert Lomas, Hay Petrie, Barbara Everest, Olive Sloane

The Inquisitor ★★

France 1981 90m Eastmancolor
Gala/Ariane/TFI (Georges Dancigers, Alexandre Mnouchikine) original title: Garde à Vu
On New Year's Eve, a police inspector questions a rich lawyer suspected of killing a child.
Excellently acted, engrossing contest of wits.
w Claude Miller, Jean Herman, Michel Audiard novel Brainwash by John Wainwright d Claude Miller ph Bruno Nuytten m Georges Delerue ad Eric Moulard ed Albert Jurgenson ☆ Lino Ventura, Michel Serrault, Guy Marchand, Romy Schneider, Didier Agostini, Patrick Depeyrat, Pierre Maguelon, Serge Malik
'Not unlike a Twelve Angry Men from which all comfortable certainties have been withdrawn.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Inseminoid

GB 1980 92m colour J-D-C Scope
Brent Walker/Jupiter (Richard Gordon, David Speechley)
US title: Horror Planet
On a far-off planet a scientist is raped by an alien and gives birth to monsters.
Cheap and nasty rip-off of Alien that is full of disgusting effects and violent deaths but lacks any suspense.
w Nick Maley, Gloria Maley d Norman J. Warren ph John Metcalfe m John Scott pd Hayden Pearce
☆ Robin Clarke, Jennifer Ashley, Stephanie Beacham, Judy Geeson, Victoria Tennant, Steven Grives, Barry Houghton
† Six minutes were cut from the film on its US release.

'A degenerate film with dignity!'

Inserts

GB 1975 117m DeLuxe
UA/Film and General (Davina Belling, Clive Parsons)
In 1930 Hollywood, a fading silent queen and a has-been director take to drugs.
Curious, interesting semi-porno melodrama with Pinterish asides and an inaccurate but stimulating feel of the film city at its height.
wd John Byrum ph Denys Coop md Jessica Harper
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Jessica Harper, Veronica Cartwright, Bob Hoskins, Stephen Davies
'The ludicrous plot and the painfully obvious symbolism make it tempting to interpret Inserts as a comedy. Yet to assume that a bad movie about the making of a bad movie is somehow good by virtue of its badness is to be guilty of a kind of mimetic fallacy.' – Robert Asahina, New Leader

'This is the story of Daisy Clover ... Love at 15. Married at 16. Divorced at 17.'

Inside Daisy Clover ★

US 1965 128m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Pakula-Mulligan (Alan J. Pakula)

Tribulations of an adolescent movie star in thirties Hollywood.

Amusing, rather hysterical variant on A Star Is Born; agreeably wacky in spots, glum in others. Would have benefited from the greater permissiveness possible a few years later.

w Gavin Lambert novel Gavin Lambert d Robert Mulligan ph Charles Lang Jnr m André Previn ch Herbert Ross ad Robert Clatworthy

☆ Natalie Wood, Robert Redford, Ruth Gordon, Christopher Plummer, Roddy MacDowall

'The movie is short on characters, detail, activity, dialogue, even music; it's as if it's so determined to be stylish and sophisticated that rather than risk vulgarity or banality, it eliminates almost everything.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

♗ Ruth Gordon

'Go deeper inside the movie the government didn't want you to see.'

Inside Deep Throat ★★ ⑥

US 2005 90m CFI color
Momentum/Imagine/HBO/World of Wonder (Brian Grazer, Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato)

Documentary on the making, and the significance, of Deep Throat, the movie that brought pornography into the mainstream in 1972.

Easy to swallow account of the result of the movement towards sexual liberation during the Nixon era: a hastily made porn movie that cost around $25,000 and grossed, according to Variety, some $600m. Included are interviews with everyone involved, apart from the gangsters who took control of it and its dead star, Linda Lovelace.

wd Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato ph David Kempner, Teodoro Maniaci m David Steinberg ed William Grayburn, Jeremy Simmons

☆ Dennis Hopper (Narrator)

'A fast, splashy, engrossing yarn, but one that isn't as deep as it could have been.' – Nicholas Barber, Indpendent

'Live life like you mean it.'

Inside I'm Dancing ★

GB/Ireland/Germany 2004 103m colour 'Scope
Momentum/Universal/Studio Canal,/Working Title (James Flynn, Juanita Wilson)

US title: Rory O'Shea Was Here

A rebel, who suffers from muscular dystrophy, enlivens the life of a man who has cerebal palsy when they meet in a home for the disabled.

Funny, touching, life-affirming tale of two wheelchair-bound people who strive for independence at whatever cost to themselves and, sometimes, others.

w Jeffrey Caine story Christian O'Reilly d Damien O'Donnell ph Peter J. Robertson m David Julyan pd Tom Conroy ed Frances Parker

☆ James McAvoy (Rory O'Shea), Steven Robertson (Michael Connolly), Romola Garai (Siobhan), Gerard McSorley (Fergus Connolly), Tom Hickey (Con O'Shea), Brenda Fricker (Eileen)

'If there's such a thing as freedom for everyone, Rory's determined to give the prospect its most grueling road test.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post

Inside Man ★★ ⑤

US 2006 129m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer)

Thieves take a bank's employees and customers hostage in order to hide their real purpose of discovering its chairman's dark secret.

Clever, if implausible thriller, that maintains its suspense well.

w Russell Gewirtz d Spike Lee ph Matthew Libatique m Terence Blanchard pd Wynn Thomas ed Barry Alexander Brown

☆ Denzel Washington (Detective Keith Frazier), Clive Owen (Dalton Russell), Jodie Foster (Madeline White), Christopher Plummer (Arthur Case), Willem Dafoe (Capt John Darius), Chiwetel Ejiofor (Detective Bill Mitchell)

'It's glossy, it's upbeat, it's superficial, and it's wildly implausible.' – Kevin Maher, Sight & Sound

Inside Moves

US 1980 113m colour
Goodmark (Mark M. Tanz, R. W. Goodwin)

A failed suicide makes friends in Max's bar with other handicapped people.

Curious tragi-comedy which generally settles for sentimentality but provides a few funny moments along the way.

w Valerie Curtin, Barry Levinson novel Todd Walton d Richard Donner ph Laszlo Kovacs m John Barry

☆ John Savage, David Morse, Diana Scarwid, Amy Wright, Tony Burton, Harold Russell

'A dismal contribution in the Year of the Disabled Person.' – John Pym, MFB

'If you imagine The Iceman Cometh rewritten by William Saroyan as a tribute to Frank Capra, that's about it.' – Sunday Times

♗ Diana Scarwid (supporting actress)

Inside Out ★

GB/West Germany 1975 97m Technicolor
Warner/Kettledrum (Judd Bernard)

TV title: The Golden Heist
aka: Hitler's Gold

A German ex-commandant of a POW camp enlists the aid of Americans in a daring plan to kidnap a Nazi war criminal from East Germany and find buried Nazi loot.

Entertaining but very silly actioner with too many changes of mood, though some sequences please.

w Judd Bernard, Stephen Schneck d Peter Duffell ph John Coquillon m Konrad Elfers

☆ Telly Savalas, James Mason, Robert Culp, Aldo Ray, Gunter Meisner, Adrian Hoven, Charles Korvin, Richard Warner

Inside Paris ★★ ⑥

France 2006 93m
Artificial Eye/Gemini Films/Clap Filmes (Paulo Branco)

French theatrical: Dans Paris

The tale of two Parisian brothers, one easy-going and charming, the other suffering from depression which also had afflicted his sister – and resulted in her suicide. He tries to follow suit and jumps into the Seine but survives much to his surprise.

It may not make easy viewing, but director Honoré proves adept at showing how all-consuming depression can exert such a powerful grip on the sufferer and his family. Louis Garrel exudes accessible charm as the younger sibling, while Romain Duris displays the pain and anguish of someone losing control.

wd Christophe Honoré ph Jean-Louis Vialard m Alex Beaupain pd Samuel Deshors ed Chantal Hymans

☆ Romain Duris (Paul), Louis Garrel (Jonathan), Joana Preiss (Anna), Guy Marchand (Mirko, the father), Marie-France Pisier (Mother)

Inside Straight

US 1951 89m bw
MGM (Richard Goldstone)

The life of a 19th-century tycoon is revealed in flashbacks during a poker game.

Solid melodrama which doesn't quite have the required spark.

w Guy Trosper d Gerald Mayer ph Ray June m Lennie Hayton

☆ David Brian, Arlene Dahl, Barry Sullivan, Mercedes McCambridge, Paula Raymond, Claude Jarman Jnr, Lon Chaney Jnr, John Hoyt

'Ordinary Men Of Uncommon Courage Risk All To Speak Out... And Change Everything.'
'Two Angry Men Driven To Tell The Truth...Whatever The Cost'

The Insider ★★★

US 1999 158m Technicolor Super 35
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Forward Pass (Michael Mann, Pieter Jan Brugge)

A TV producer persuades a former tobacco company scientist to expose the official denials that cigarettes are injurious to health, only to discover that his investigation will not be broadcast.

A true-life, devastating exposé of the way corporations and the media respond to unwelcome facts, and a gripping drama of an ordinary, principled man caught up in events beyond his control; if the film has a fault, it is that it is too long.

w Eric Roth, Michael Mann Vanity Fair article The Man Who Knew Too Much by Marie Brenner d Michael Mann ph Dante Spinotti pd Brian Morris ad Nancy Haigh ed William Goldenberg, Paul Rubell, David Rosenbloom

☆ Al Pacino (Lowell Bergman), Russell Crowe (Jeffrey Wigand), Christopher Plummer (Mike Wallace), Diane Venora (Liane Wigand), Philip Baker Hall (Don Hewitt), Lindsay Crouse (Sharon Tiller), Debi Mazar (Debbie De Luca), Stephen Tobolowsky (Eric Kluster), Colm Feore (Richard Scruggs), Bruce McGill (Ron Motley), Gina Gershon (Helen Caperelli), Michael Gambon (Thomas Sandefur), Rip Torn (John Scanlon), Michael Moore (Himself), Wings Hauser (Tobacco Lawyer)

'An edge-of-your-seat, gut-churning thriller.' – Newsweek

'A brilliant nail-biter of a true-story conspiracy.' – Adam Smith, Empire

♗ picture; Russell Crowe; Michael Mann; script (Eric Roth, Michael Mann); Dante Spinotti; William Goldenberg, Paul Rubell, David Rosenbloom; sound (Andy Nelson, Doug Hemphill, Lee Orloff)

Insignificance

GB 1985 108m colour
Zenith/Recorded Picture Company (Jeremy Thomas)

On a hot night in 1953, a professor, an actress, a senator and a ballplayer meet in a New York hotel room.

Presumably meaningful but very boring talk piece in which the audience is supposed to recognize not merely well-known figures but a cross-section of America at the time.

w Terry Johnson play Terry Johnson d Nicolas Roeg ph Peter Hannan m Stanley Myers

☆ Gary Busey, Tony Curtis, Theresa Russell, Michael Emil

Insomnia ★★

Norway 1997 99m colour
Norsk Film/Nordic Screen (Petter J. Borgli, Tomas Backstrom, Tom Remlov)

On the trail of a killer, a Swedish-born cop, working in Norway, accidentally shoots his partner and covers up his guilt.

Deft psychological thriller of a man on the edge, set in a time of continual sunlight.

w Nikolaj Frobenius, Erik Skjoldbjaerg d Erik Skjoldbjaerg ph Erling Thurmann-Andersen m Geir Jenssen pd Eli Bo ed Hakon Overas

☆ Stellan Skarsgard, Sverre Anker Ousdal, Bjorn Floberg, Gisken Armand, Maria Bonnevie

'Offers a complex and emotionally compelling tale that doesn't settle for mere quirkiness or the de rigueur cop-thriller gore currently in vogue.' – Steven Gaydos, Variety

'Don't close your eyes.'

Insomnia ★★

US 2002 118m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Alcon (Paul Junger Witt, Edward L. McDonnell, Broderick Johnson, Andrew A. Kosove)

Two Los Angeles cops go to the town of Nightmute, where the summer sun never sets, to investigate a schoolgirl's murder.

Effective remake of a Norwegian thriller; despite its added star power, it is no improvement on the original.

w Hillary Seitz film Insomnia by d Erik Skjoldbjaerg, w Nikolaj Frobenius, Erik Skjoldbjaerg d Christopher Nolan ph Wally Pfister m David Julyan pd Nathan Crowley ed Dody Dorn

☆ Al Pacino (Will Dormer), Robin Williams (Walter Finch), Hilary Swank (Ellie Burr), Maura Tierney (Rachel Clement), Martin Donovan (Hap Eckhart), Nicky Katt (Fred Duggar), Paul Dooley (Chief Nyback), Randy Stetz (Jonathan Jackson)

'A gripping, highly dramatic thriller.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'About as good a movie as you could have hoped for. Really good. Hole-in-one good.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian

'Serves up Hollywood stars, superfluous action sequences, moral sermons and tidy conclusions.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Inspecteur Lavardin

France 1986 100m colour
Artificial Eye/MK2/Antenne 2/Suisse Romande TV (Marin Karmitz)

A detective investigates the murder of a respected writer.

Sequel to Cop Au Vin, featuring an unorthodox cop, but less effective this time around.

w Claude Chabrol, Dominique Roulet d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Matthieu Chabrol ed Monique Fardoulis, Angela Braga-Marmet

☆ Jean Poiret, Jean-Claude Brialy, Bernadette Lafont, Jean-Luc Bideau, Jacques Dacqmine, Hermine Clair

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Inspector ★

GB 1961 111m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Mark Robson)
US title: Lisa

In 1946 a Dutch policeman rescues a Jewish girl from an ex-Nazi and helps smuggle her to Palestine.

Peripatetic melodrama with surface suspense and subdued thoughts of ideology and race. Moments of interest, but generally dully developed and acted.

w Nelson Gidding novel Jan de Hartog d Philip Dunne ph Arthur Ibbetson m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Stephen Boyd, Dolores Hart, Leo McKern, Hugh Griffith, Donald Pleasence, Harry Andrews, Robert Stephens, Marius Goring

'A sluggish mélange of melodrama, romance, mystery and what the inactive might call action.' – Judith Crist

An Inspector Calls ★★

GB 1954 79m bw
British Lion/Watergate (A. D. Peters)

In 1912 a prosperous Yorkshire family is visited by a mysterious inspector who proves that each of them was partly responsible for the death of a young girl.

Tactful, enjoyable record of a celebrated play in its author's most typical manner.

w Desmond Davis play J. B. Priestley d Guy Hamilton ph Ted Scaife m Francis Chagrin ad Joseph Bato

☆ Alastair Sim (Inspector Poole), Jane Wenham (Eva Smith), Arthur Young (Arthur Birling), Olga Lindo (Sybil Birling), Brian Worth (Gerald Croft), Eileen Moore (Sheila Birling), Bryan Forbes (Eric Birling)

Inspector Clouseau

GB 1968 105m Eastmancolor
Panavision
UA/Mirisch (Lewis J. Rachmil)

An incompetent French policeman is brought to London to investigate the aftermath of the Great Train Robbery.

Tiresome charade with all the jokes well telegraphed, and a background of swinging London.

w Tom and Frank Waldman d Bud Yorkin ph Arthur Ibbetson m Ken Thorne

☆ Alan Arkin, Delia Boccardo, Frank Finlay, Patrick Cargill, Beryl Reid, Barry Foster

'An incredibly bad film, but Alan Arkin is sometimes very funny in it.' – Penelope Gilliatt

Inspector Gadget

US 1999 78m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Caravan (Jordan Kerner, Roger Birnbaum, Andy Heyward)

A half-human, half-robotic cop, equipped with mechanical devices for every occasion, battles against his evil twin.

Lavish, gimmick-laden extravaganza resembling a live-action cartoon, but, lacking a convincing narrative, the knockabout action soon palls.

w Kerry Ehrin, Zak Penn, Dana Olsen characters created by Andy Heyward, Jean Chalopin, Bruno Bianchi d David Kellogg ph Adam Greenberg m John Debney pd Michael White, Leslie Dilley ed Thom Noble, Adam Cody

☆ Matthew Broderick (Inspector Gadget/ RoboGadget/ John Brown), Rupert Everett (Sanford Scolex), Joely Fisher (Brenda/ RoboBrenda), Michelle Trachtenberg (Penny), Andy Dick (Kramer), Cheri Oteri (Mayor Wilson), Michael G. Hagerty (Sikes), Dabney Coleman (Chief Quimby), D.L. Hughley (Gadgetmobile voice), Rene Auberjonois (Artemus Bradford), Frances Bay (Thelma), Don Adams (voice of Brain)

'Demonstrates how a movie with little more on its mind than tickling the eyeballs of 7-year-olds can feature spiffy, jack-in-the-box special effects and still end up a dud.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

The Inspector General ★★

US 1949 101m Technicolor
Warner (Jerry Wald)

aka: Happy Times

An assistant elixir salesman with a travelling fair is mistaken by villagers for the dreaded inspector general.

Well wrought but basically boring version of a basically boring classic farce full of rhubarbing Old Russians. Nice production and hilarious moments do not quite atone for the dull stretches.

w Philip Rapp, Harry Kurnitz play Nikolai Gogol d Henry Koster ph Elwood Bredell m John Green ad Robert Haas songs Sylvia Fine

☆ Danny Kaye, Walter Slezak, Barbara Bates, Elsa Lanchester, Gene Lockhart, Alan Hale, Benny Baker, Walter Catlett

Inspector Hornleigh ★

GB 1938 87m bw
TCF (Robert T. Kane)

The Chancellor of the Exchequer's bag is stolen.

First of three police comedy-dramas based on a character created for the radio series Monday Night at Eight by Hans Priwin. Not bad, but the thinnest of the trio.

w Bryan Wallace, Gerald Elliott, Richard Llewellyn d Eugene Forde ph Derrick Williams, Phil Tannura md Bretton Byrd

☆ Gordon Harker, Alastair Sim, Miki Hood, Hugh Williams, Steve Geray, Wally Patch, Edward Underdown, Gibb McLaughlin, Ronald Adam

'The opening shots – the murder in the squalid lodging and the stamp auction with the rows of poker faces and the elaborately mute bids – are not only good cinema, they are good English cinema, as national as a shot, say, from a Feyder, a de Mille or a Pommer.' – Graham Greene

'Interest is well sustained from the exciting opening shots to the crescendo at the close.' – MFB

Inspector Hornleigh Goes to It ★

GB 1940 87m bw
TCF (Edward Black)
US title: Mail Train

Hornleigh and Bingham track down a fifth columnist.

Zestful comedy thriller climaxing on an express train: good fun for addicts of the genre.

w Val Guest, J. O. C. Orton, Frank Launder d Walter Forde ph John Cox md Louis Levy

☆ Gordon Harker, Alastair Sim, Phyllis Calvert, Edward Chapman, Charles Oliver, Raymond Huntley, Percy Walsh, David Horne, Peter Gawthorne

Inspector Hornleigh on Holiday ★

GB 1939 87m bw
TCF (Edward Black)

The inspector and his sergeant solve the death of a fellow boarder at a seaside hotel.

Lively Hitchcockian comedy-thriller romp with an excellent script and plenty of variety of location.

w Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, J. O. C. Orton d Walter Forde ph John Cox md Louis Levy

☆ Gordon Harker, Alastair Sim, Linden Travers, Wally Patch, Edward Chapman, Philip Leaver, Kynaston Reeves

Inspiration

US 1930 74m bw
MGM

A French artists' model renounces her lover in case she harms his career.

Inane romantic melodrama.

w Gene Markey d Clarence Brown ph William Daniels

☆ Greta Garbo, Robert Montgomery, Lewis Stone, Marjorie Rambeau, Beryl Mercer, John Miljan

'As an adult problem it holds and never offends ... box office certainly, and a cinch for women.' – Variety

'Camille without the cough.' – Motion Picture

'He Gave Up What He Believed In, For The Ones He Loved.'

Instinct

US 1999 124m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass (Michael Taylor, Barbara Boyle)

A psychiatrist evaluates the mental condition of an anthropologist, who has lived in isolation with apes for several years and is accused of killing members of the search party that came looking for him.

Ludicrous psycho-melodrama that sets out to show that human society is corrupt in contrast to the natural world; all it demonstrates is how easily actors, given an unsatisfactory script, can compensate with hammy performances.

w Gerald DiPego novel Ishmael by Daniel Quinn d Jon Turteltaub ph Philippe Rousselot m Danny Elfman pd Garreth Stover ed Richard Francis-Bruce

☆ Anthony Hopkins (Ethan Powell), Cuba Gooding Jnr (Theo Caulder), Donald Sutherland (Ben Hillard), Maura Tierney (Lyn Powell), George Dzundza (Dr John Murray), John Ashton (Guard Dacks), John Aylward (Warden Keefer), Thomas Q. Morris (Pete), Doug Spinuzza (Nicko), Paul Bates (Bluto)

'Awkward, sluggish, finally ludicrous mix of suspense, character drama and inspirational fodder is half-baked on all counts.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

'A mess of sanctimonious eco-drivel.' – Neil Norman, London Evening Standard

'Powerful food for unrest, and the first half hour is certainly one of the most extraordinary stretches of cinema this year.' – Jonathan Romney, Guardian

'Meticulously conjures a visually interesting netherworld that commands attention until alienation and indifference to the film's rarefied pursuits take over.' – David Rooney, Variety

'Tedium and repetition have never been so thrillingly filmed before.' – Sight and Sound

'All bets are on.'

Institute Benjamenta ★

GB 1995 105m bw
ICA/British Screen/Channel 4/Image/Pandora (Keith Griffiths, Janine Marmot)

A new arrival at a school for servants becomes the favourite of its owners.

Dense, slow, visually interesting movie, the first to use actors by makers of disturbing, surrealist animated films; there's not much animation in this feature, and the audience is left to tease out its meaning.

w Alan Passes, The Brothers Quay novel Jakob von Gunten by Robert Walser d The Brothers Quay ph Nic Knowland m Lech Jankowski pd Jennifer Kernke ed Larry Sider

☆ Mark Rylance, Alice Krige, Gottfried John, Daniel Smith, Joseph Alessi

Intacto

Spain 2001 108m colour
Momentum/Sogecine/Telecinco/Canal+

In a world where luck can be traded or absorbed from others, the luckiest man falls out with a protege, who vows revenge after his luck is taken away from him.

Curious fable that has some effective moments, including a blindfold race through a forest, but its single notion is not enough to sustain the movie.

w Juan Carlos Fresnadillo, Andres Koppel d Juan Carlos Fresnadillo ph Xavier Jimenez m Lucio Godoy ad Cesar Macarron ed Nacho Ruiz Capillas

☆ Leonardo Sbaraglia (Tomas Sanz), Eusebio Poncela (Federico), Monica Lopez (Sara), Antonio Dechent (Alejandro), Max Von Sydow (Samuel Berg), Guillermo Toledo (Horacio), Paz Gomez (Ana)

'Imagine finding the will to get up every morning to do another day's work on this stale story tarted up with relevance.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

The Intelligence Men

GB 1965 104m Eastmancolor
Rank/Hugh Stewart
US title: Spylarks

Two incompetent spies blunder through a series of adventures.

Inept and rather embarrassing big-screen debut for two excellent television comedians.

w S. C. Green, R. M. Hills d Robert Asher ph Jack Asher m Phillip Green

☆ Eric Morecambe, Ernie Wise, William Franklyn, April Olrich, Richard Vernon, David Lodge, Warren Mitchell, Francis Matthews

Intent to Kill ★

GB 1958 89m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Zonic (Adrian Worker)

In a Montreal hospital, attempts are made on the life of a South American dictator recovering from a brain operation.

Solidly entertaining suspenser.

w Jimmy Sangster d Jack Cardiff ph Desmond Dickinson m Kenneth V. Jones

☆ Richard Todd, Betsy Drake, Herbert Lom, Warren Stevens, Alexander Knox Interceptor

US 1992 92m colour
Trimark (Oliver G. Hess, Kevin M. Kallberg)

A pilot is the only man who can foil a terrorist attempt to steal two experimental Stealth fighters while they are being transported by air.

Run-of-the-mill action movie with the usual indestructible hero.

w John Brancato, Michael Ferris d Michael Cohn ph Lee Redmond m Rick Marvin pd Gary T. New ed Glenn A. Morgan visual effects Richard Kerrigan

☆ Andrew Divoff (Capt. Christopher Winfield), Elizabeth Morehead (Maj. Janet

Morgan), Jurgen Prochnow (Phillips), J. Kenneth Campbell (Engineer), Jon Cedar (Elliot), John Prosky (Collins), Rick Marzan (Martinez), Daniel Namath (Lt. Rheinbeck)

Interference

US 1929 75m bw
Paramount

To prevent his wife from being blackmailed, a dying man commits murder and turns himself in.

Dreary drama with the distinction of being Paramount's first talking picture.

w Ernest Pascal, Hope Loring play Roland Pertwee, Harold Dearden d Lothar Mendes, Roy Pomeroy

☆ William Powell, Evelyn Brent, Clive Brook, Doris Kenyon

Interiors ★

US 1978 95m Technicolor
UA/Jack Rollins-Charles H. Joffe

Everybody in a well-heeled American family has problems.

Curious attempt by Woody Allen to make his own version of the Bergmanesque psycho-dramas he usually satirizes. Apparently this is the real Woody, and the comedian was a mask. Oh, well.

wd Woody Allen ph Gordon Willis m none

☆ Kristin Griffith, Mary Beth Hurt, Richard Jordan, Diane Keaton, E. G. Marshall, Geraldine Page, Maureen Stapleton, Sam Waterston

'As dull as toothache and as predictable as a metronome.' – Barry Took, Punch

Ⓐ script; direction; Geraldine Page; Maureen Stapleton

Ⓑ Geraldine Page

Interlude

US 1957 89m Technicolor
Cinemascope
U-I (Ross Hunter)

An American girl in Munich falls in love with an orchestral conductor but leaves him because of his insane wife.

Dull remake of When Tomorrow Comes (qv), with poor script and performances.

w Daniel Fuchs, Franklin Coen d Douglas Sirk ph R. F. Schoengarth m Frank Skinner

☆ Rossano Brazzi, June Allyson, Françoise Rosay, Marianne Cook, Keith Andes, Jane Wyatt

'Contains every cliché known to romantic fiction.' – MFB

Interlude ★

GB 1968 113m Technicolor
Columbia/Domino (David Deutsch, Jack Hanbury)

A girl reporter falls for a celebrated orchestral conductor; they have an affair but he finally goes back to his wife.

Intermezzo remade for the swinging London set, quite agreeable in parts because of the acting but generally rather soggy.

w Lee Langley, Hugh Leonard d Kevin Billington ph Gerry Fisher m Georges Delerue pd Tony Woollard

☆ Oskar Werner, Barbara Ferris, Virginia Maskell, John Cleese, Donald Sutherland, Nora Swinburne, Alan Webb

'If you laughed at Brief Encounter you will roar over this one.' – Wilfrid Sheed

'It's got all the schmaltz and none of the style of the tearjerkers of yesteryear.' – Judith Crist, 1973

'Wild longings ... fierce desires he could not name ... for an interlude of stolen love! To one woman he gave his memories – to another he gave his dreams!'

Intermezzo ★★★

US 1939 69m bw
David O. Selznick

GB title: Escape to Happiness

A renowned, married violinist has an affair with his musical protégée.

Archetypal cinema love story, Hollywoodized from a Swedish original but quite perfect in its brief, sentimental way.

w George O'Neil original scenario Gosta Stevens, Gustav Molander d Gregory Ratoff ph Gregg Toland m Lou Forbes ad Lyle Wheeler ed Hal C. Kern, Francis D. Lyon

☆ Leslie Howard (Holger Brandt), Ingrid Bergman (Anita Hoffman), John Halliday (Thomas Stenborg), Edna Best (Margit Brandt), Cecil Kellaway (Charles Moler)

† Harry Stradling was replaced as cinematographer because Selznick thought he was not capturing Bergman's beauty.

Ⓐ Lou Forbes

'Life is what happens in between.'

interMission ★ 6

Ireland/GB 2003 103m colour
Buena Vista/IFC/IFB/FC/Company of Wolves/Parallel Film (Neil Jordan, Stephen Woolley, Alan Moloney)

A supermarket shelf-stacker helps a friend rob a bank where the manager is the lover of his former girlfriend.

Involved and over-manipulative ensemble exercise, where lives overlap and interact, with an improbable 'feelgood' ending.

w Mark O'Rowe d John Crowley ph Ryszard Lenczewski m John Murphy pd Tom Conroy ed Lucia Zucchetti

☆ Colin Farrell (Lehiff), Shirley Henderson (Sally), Kelly Macdonald (Deidre), Colm Meaney (Det Jerry Lynch), Cillian Murphy (John), Ger Ryan (Maura), Brian F. O'Byrne (Mick)

'A tedious and under-inspired comedy about a dozen all-too-ordinary Dubliners leading lives of not-so-quiet desperation that intersect with one another improbably.' – Kevin Thomas, LA Times

'Trust me ... I'm a cop.'

Internal Affairs

US 1990 115m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Paramount (Frank Mancuso Jnr)

A duel to the death develops between an honest and a corrupt cop.

Unconvincing melodrama in which loud voices substitute for passion and feeling.

w Henry Bean d Mike Figgis ph John A. Alonso m Mike Figgis, Anthony Marinelli, Brian Banks pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Robert Estrin

☆ Richard Gere, Andy Garcia, Nancy Travis, Laurie Metcalf, Richard Bradford, William Baldwin, Michael Beach

'Where Internal Affairs really succeeds is in its cracking narrative drive, moody atmospherics, and excellent performances, even in the smallest roles.' – MFB

'Stars of stage, screen, radio and boudoir throw a party for your entertainment!'

International House ★

US 1933 73m bw
Paramount

A weird variety of travellers are quarantined in a Shanghai hotel where a local doctor has perfected television.

Madcap farce which succeeds in hits and misses.

w Francis Martin, Walter de Leon, Lou Heifetz, Neil Brant d A. Edward Sutherland ph Ernest Haller m/ly Ralph Rainger, Leo Robin

☆ W. C. Fields, George Burns, Gracie Allen, Peggy Hopkins Joyce, Stuart Erwin, Sari Maritza, Bela Lugosi, Edmund Breese, Lumsden Hare, Rose Marie, Rudy Vallee, Sterling Holloway, Cab Calloway and his band, Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd

'Cast includes enough names to offset the effects of an otherwise second-rate picture.' – Variety

'Constructed along the lines of a mammoth vaudeville show, the motivating story often is sidetracked entirely to permit a lot of unrelated hokum comedy.' – Motion Picture Herald

'A thousand thrills as two men battle across a continent!'

International Lady ★

US 1941 102m bw
Edward Small

An FBI man falls for the lady Axis agent he is chasing.

Cliché-ridden melodrama partially saved by light comedy touches.

w Howard Estabrook d Tim Whelan ph Hal Mohr m Lucien Moraweck

☆ George Brent, Basil Rathbone, Ilona Massey, Gene Lockhart, George Zucco, Francis Pierlot, Martin Kosleck, Marjorie Gateson

International Settlement

US 1938 75m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

An adventurer becomes involved in Shanghai gun-running during the war between China and Japan.

Brisk action romance with good technical credits.

w Lou Breslow, John Patrick d Eugene Forde ph Lucien Andriot md Samuel Kaylin

☆ George Sanders, Dolores del Rio, June Lang, Dick Baldwin, Ruth Terry, John Carradine, Keye Luke, Harold Huber, Pedro de Cordoba

'Strong supporting picture for double bills.' – Variety

International Squadron ★

US 1941 87m bw
Warner (Edmund Grainger)

A playboy becomes a fighting air ace.

Standard war story, quite well done; remake of Ceiling Zero (qv).

w Barry Trivers, Kenneth Gamet story Frank Wead d Lothar Mendes ph James Van Trees, Ted McCord ed Frank McGee

☆ Ronald Reagan, James Stephenson, Julie Bishop, Cliff Edwards, Reginald Denny, Olympe Bradna, William Lundigan, John Ridgely

International Velvet

GB 1978 125m Metrocolor
MGM (Bryan Forbes)

A hostile orphan becomes an international horsewoman.

Disappointing attempt to produce a sequel to 1944's National Velvet; none of it coheres, one is not clear to whom it is intended to appeal, and some of the dialogue is fearsome.

wd Bryan Forbes ph Tony Imi m Francis Lai pd Keith Wilson

☆ Nanette Newman, Tatum O'Neal, Anthony Hopkins, Christopher Plummer, Peter Barkworth, Dinsdale Landen

The Internecine Project ★

GB 1974 89m Eastmancolor
Maclean and Co/Lion International/Hemisphere (Barry Levinson, Andrew Donally)

A Harvard professor arranges the mutual extermination of four people who could spoil a politician's presidential chances.

Coldly murderous romp with plenty of style.

w Barry Levinson, Jonathan Lynn novel Mort W. Elkind d Ken Hughes ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Roy Budd pd Geoffrey Drake ed John Shirley

☆ James Coburn, Lee Grant, Harry Andrews, Ian Hendry, Michael Jayston, Keenan Wynn

'He risked his life to save a rat – and what did he get for it?'

Internes Can't Take Money ★

US 1937 75m bw
Paramount (Benjamin Glazer)

GB title: You Can't Take Money

A hospital doctor persuades a gangster friend to help a woman find her missing child.

Quite interesting minor melodrama, first of the Dr Kildare series which was subsequently recast and restyled by MGM.

w Rian James, Theodore Reed story Max Brand d Alfred Santell ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Gregory Stone

☆ Joel McCrea, Barbara Stanwyck, Lloyd Nolan, Stanley Ridges, Lee Bowman, Irving Bacon

'Satisfactory melodrama with a tear better than average standing at the box office.' – Variety

Interno d'un Convento: see Behind Convent Walls

'Their nights are as fast and frantic as their days! Don't miss the wildest party ever filmed!'

The Interns ★

US 1962 130m bw
Columbia/Interns Co./Robert Cohn

In an American hospital, newly qualified doctors have personal and career problems.

*Birth, abortion, sudden death, drugs and women's lib all figure in this melodramatic compendium which succeeds well enough on its own level and spawned a sequel (The New Interns) and an unsuccessful TV series.*

w Walter Newman, David Swift novel Richard Frede d David Swift ph Russell Metty m Leith Stevens

☆ Cliff Robertson, Michael Callan, James MacArthur, Nick Adams, Suzy Parker, Buddy Ebsen, Telly Savalas

Interpol

GB 1957 92m bw Cinemascope
Columbia/Warwick (Irving Allen, Albert R. Broccoli)

US title: Pickup Alley

The US Anti-Narcotics Squad trails across Europe the insane and ruthless leader of a drug ring.

Drearily routine thick ear electrified by one performance but not helped by wide screen.

w John Paxton d John Gilling ph Ted Moore m Richard Bennett

☆ Victor Mature, Anita Ekberg, Trevor Howard, Bonar Colleano, Marne Maitland, Eric Pohlmann, Alec Mango, Peter Illing, Sydney Tafler

'The truth needs no translation.'

The Interpreter

US/GB 2005 128m Technicolor Technovision
Universal/MP Jota/Working Title/Mirage

Enterprises (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Kevin Misher)

An FBI agent is assigned to protect a United Nations' interpreter who overhears an assassination plot, though he is not at first convinced of the truth of her story.

An earnest thriller that grows more confusing and less interesting by the minute, weighing down its central characters with so much guilt and misery that its purpose is flattened.

w Charles Randolph, Scott Frank, Steven Zaillian story Martin Stellman, Brian Ward d Sydney Pollack ph Darius Khondji m James Newton Howard pd Jon Hutman ed William Steinkamp

☆ Nicole Kidman (Silvia Broome), Sean Penn (Tobin Keller), Catherine Keener (Dot Woods), Jesper Christensen (Nils Lud), Yvan Attal (Philippe), Tsai Chin (Luan)

'Thrillers don't get much smarter.' – Hollywood Reporter

'Gets more and more complex until it's almost laughable; it has too many beats, too many reverses, and in the end seems unbelievable.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

Interrogation ★★★

Poland 1982 120m colour
Gala/Zespol Filmowy 'X' (Tadeusz Drewno) original title: Przesluchanie

In the 1950s, a fun-loving singer is arrested, questioned and tortured by the secret police.

Harrowing, but uplifting in its depiction of an unquenchable human spirit. The film was banned by the authorities, its director moving to work in North America, and not released until 1990.

wd Ryszard Bugajski ph Jacek Petrycki pd Janusz Sosnowski ed Katarzyna Maciejko

☆ Krystyna Janda (Antonia Dziwisz), Adam Ferency (Morawsky), Janusz Gajos (Zawada), Agnieszka Holland (Witowska), Anna Romantowska (Miroslawa "Mira" Szejnert), Bozena Dykiel (Honorata), Olgierda Lukaszewicza (Konstanty Dziwisz), Tomasz Dedek

The Interrupted Journey

GB 1949 80m bw
Valiant (Anthony Havelock-Allan)

An author leaves his wife for another woman, changes his mind on the journey, pulls the communication cord and causes a train crash. Or does he?

Minor melodrama with expressionist tendencies and a dream explanation. Interesting for its parts rather than its whole.'

w Michael Pertwee d Daniel Birt ph Erwin Hillier

☆ Richard Todd, Valerie Hobson, Christine Norden, Tom Walls, Ralph Truman, Vida Hope

Interrupted Melody

US 1955 106m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Jack Cummings)

The story of Marjorie Lawrence, an Australian opera singer who fell victim to polio.

Standard biopic which jells less well than some.

w William Ludwig, Sonya Levien d Curtis Bernhardt ph Joe Ruttenberg, Paul Vogel music supervisor Saul Chaplin

☆ Eleanor Parker, Glenn Ford, Roger Moore, Cecil Kellaway, Stephen Bekassy

† Eleanor Parker's singing was dubbed by Eileen Farrell.

script
Eleanor Parker

'Make every move as if it were your last.'

Intersection

US 1994 98m DeLuxe
Paramount (Bud Yorkin, Mark Rydell)

An architect's love-life goes awry after a car crash.

Dim and glossy melodrama about the meaning of life; if you value every moment, then don't waste time watching it.

w David Rayfiel, Marshall Brickman novel Paul Guimard d Mark Rydell ph Vilmos Zsigmond m James Newton Howard pd Harold Michelson ed Mark Warner

☆ Richard Gere, Sharon Stone, Lolita Davidovich, Martin Landau, David Selby, Jenny Morrison

'A misguided attempt to retool a French art film as a Hollywood big-star vehicle.' – Variety

† It is a remake of Les Choses de la Vie (qv), directed in 1969 by Claude Sautet and starring Michel Piccoli and Romy Schneider.

Interview with a Serial Killer: see White Angel

'Drink From Me And Live Forever.'

Interview with the Vampire: The Vampire Chronicles ★★

US 1994 122m Technicolor
Warner/Geffen (Stephen Woolley, David Geffen)

A vampire reminisces about his life over the past 200 years and his enduring relationship with an older vampire, who initiated him and whom he later tries to kill, and the young girl vampire they both created.

A brooding period piece on horror themes and the price paid for immortality, with a homoerotic subtext, but lacking the necessary emotional depth and narrative credibility as it skips through the centuries; what lingers in the mind are some of the more spectacular set-pieces.

w Anne Rice novel Anne Rice d Neil Jordan ph Philippe Rousselot m Elliot Goldenthal pd Dante Ferretti ed Mick Audsley sp make-up: Stan Winston

☆ Tom Cruise, Brad Pitt, Antonio Banderas, Christian Slater, Stephen Rea, Kirsten Dunst, Virgina McCollam, John McConnell, Mike Seelig, Roger Lloyd Pack

'An anaemic experience. It doesn't frighten; still less, shock. For fear, it substitutes disgust. It's such a dishonest, hypocritical film. Largely an exercise in sado-masochism, it uses the traditional trappings of vampire legend as licence for its own fixation on an array of modern perversions it would be hard to get permission to show if they were performed in modern dress and contemporary times.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'It seems that Neil Jordan is better at capturing the eternal ennui of the vampire condition than the cheap thrills which are the lifeblood of the genre.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'Best thought of as a lycanthropic The Odd Couple.' – Joe Queenan

Dante Ferretti; Elliot Goldenthal
Philippe Rousselot; Dante Ferretti

Intervista ★

Italy 1987 105m Eastmancolor
Aljosha/RAI Uno/Cinecittà (Ibrahim Moussa)

Part autobiographical reminiscence, part celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Cinecittà, part interview by Japanese television.

Fascinating, though also self-indulgent, trip through Fellini's past.

w Federico Fellini, Gianfranco Angelucci d Federico Fellini ph Tonino Delli Colli m Nicola Piovani ad Danilo Donati, Paul Mazursky, Leon Capetanos ed Nino Baragli

☆ Federico Fellini, Marcello Mastroianni, Anita Ekberg, Sergio Rubini, Lara Wendel, Paola Liguori, Nadai Ottaviani, Tonino Delli Colli, Danilo Donati

Intimacy ★

US 1965 87m bw
Goldstone (David Heilwell)

A businessman in need of a government contract tries to compromise the official concerned.

Unusual minor melodrama, interesting but not quite successful.

w Eva Wolas d Victor Stoloff ph Ted Saizis m Geordie Hormel

☆ Barry Sullivan, Nancy Malone, Jack Ging, Joan Blackman, Jackie Shannon

Intimacy ★

GB/France 2000 120m colour Super 35
Pathé/Telema/Studio Canal/Arte/France2/ Mikado/Azor (Patrick Cassavetti, Jacques Hinstin)

A barman, who has anonymous sex every Wednesday with a married woman, begins to want to know more about his lover.

Bleak, sexually explicit drama of a loveless affair in seedy surroundings; it promises more than it delivers.

w Anne-Louise Trividic, Patrice Chéreau stories Hanif Kureishi d Patrice Chéreau ph Eric Gautier m Eric Neveux pd Hayden Griffin ed Francois Gedigier

☆ Mark Rylance (Jay), Kerry Fox (Claire), Timothy Spall (Andy), Alastair Galbraith (Victor), Philippe Calvario (Ian), Marianne Faithful (Betty), Susannah Harker (Susan), Rebecca Palmer (Pam)

'A tortured reflection on the complex relationship between love, sex, desire and obsession, distinguished by courageously raw performances.' – David Rooney, Variety

Intimate Relations: see Les Parents Terribles (1948)

'In the Spring of 1956, in a quaint little town, a crime took place that shocked a nation ... This is the true story.'

Intimate Relations ★

GB/Canada 1995 99m DeLuxe
TCF/Intimate Relations/Chandlertown/ Handmade/Boxer/Paragon (Angela Hart, Lisa Hope, Jon Slan)

In the mid-50s, a young sailor finds lodgings in a northern town and is seduced by his sex-starved middle-aged landlady and her pubescent daughter.

A blackly comic take on a true-life murder, in which a lower-middle-class gentility masks rapacious emotions; in its not-always-successful stylized approach, it edges towards the territory that Joe Orton marked out as his own.

wd Philip Goodhew ph Andrés Garretón m Lawrence Shragge pd Caroline Greville-Morris ed Pia di Ciaula

☆ Julie Walters, Rupert Graves, Matthew Walker, Laura Sadler, Holly Aird, Les Dennis, Elizabeth McKechnie

'A razor-sharp condemnation not of the historical 50s but of the mythic 50s so mistily invoked by John Major in his calls for a return to "decency" and "family values".' – Claire Monk, Sight and Sound

The Intimate Stranger ★

GB 1956 95m bw
Anglo-Guild (Alec Snowden)
US title: Finger of Guilt

An American film producer in England is plagued by a strange girl who claims to have been his mistress.

Acceptable mystery thriller which holds the interest and has good detail.

w Howard Koch novel Pay the Piper by Peter Howard d Joseph Walton (Joseph Losey) ph Gerald Gibbs m Trevor Duncan

☆ Richard Basehart, Mary Murphy, Mervyn Johns, Constance Cummings, Roger Livesey, Faith Brook

† The film credited Peter Howard as the screenwriter because Howard Koch was blacklisted.

'She confused him for a therapist and told him her deepest secrets. Now, two people who never should have met are discovering there's nothing more seductive than the truth.'

Intimate Strangers ★★★

France 2004 103m colour 'Scope
Alain Sarde/France 3/ Zoulou/Assise

original title: Confidences Trop Intime

An unhappily married woman enters the wrong office and mistakes a tax consultant for a psychiatrist; when she discovers the truth, she continues to see him.

Beguiling drama of two people who discover new possibilities in their lives, beautifully played and elegantly directed.

w Jerome Tonnerre, Patrice Leconte d Patrice Leconte ph Eduardo Serra m Pascal Esteve pd Ivan Maussion ed Joelle Hache

☆ Fabrice Luchini (Anna), Sandrine Bonnaire (William), Michel Duchaussoy (Dr Monnier), Anne Brochet (Jeanne), Gilbert Melki (Marc)

'Such a triumph of simplicity, subtlety and tact – and of the eroticism in words, looks and glances – that the actors ravish us with sheer talent and intelligence.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune

Intimate with a Stranger

GB 1994 94m colour
Independent International (Roderick Mangin-Turner)

A former academic turned gigolo decides, after servicing a succession of women, that life would be better with his former girlfriend.

A series of vapid sexual encounters combined with a little psycho-babble make for a depressing movie, a throwback to the sexploitation cycle of the 70s but more pretentious and even less interesting.

w Mel Woods, Roderick Mangin-Turner d Mel Roberts ph Nicholas Tebbet m Ledsam & Pugh pd Graeme Story ed Brian Smedley-Ashton

☆ Roderick Mangin-Turner, Daphne Nayer, Amy Tolsky, Lorelei King, Ellenor Wilkinson, Janis Lee, Darcey Ferrer

'Jaw-droppingly, eye-bogglingly awful.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

Into Great Silence ★ (8)

Germany/Switzerland 2005 169m
Soda Pictures/Bayerische Rundfunk/ZDF/ARTE/ TSI Televisione Svizzera (Philip Groning, Michael Weber, Andres Pfaffli, Elda Guidinetti)

German theatrical title: Die grosse Stille
Swiss theatrical title: Le Grand Silence

A record of the daily routines of Carthusian monks in a Catholic monastery in the French Alps, who have taken a vow of silence.

The sense of an ascetic life in which time passes very slowly is admirably conveyed by this film; its virtually silent soundtrack and deliberate pace leave viewers in an almost trance-like state. Still, the rigorous silent life of the monks rarely looks like a blessed existence.
wd Philip Groning ph Philip Groning ed Philip Groning
☆ The monks of La Grande Chartreuse (Themselves)

'I hesitate.....to call Into Great Silence one of the best films of the year. I prefer to think of it as the antidote to all of the others.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

Into the Blue

GB 1950 83m bw
Imperadio
US title: Man in the Dinghy

A cheerful stowaway on a yacht helps the owners catch smugglers.
Emaciated comedy which never gets going.
w Pamela Wilcox Bower, Donald Taylor, Nicholas Phipps d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Mischa Spoliansky
☆ Michael Wilding, Odile Versois, Jack Hulbert, Constance Cummings, Edward Rigby

'Treasure Has Its Price.'

Into the Blue ④

US 2005 110m colour
MGM/Columbia/Mandalay (David A. Zelon)

Underwater treasure hunters fall out after they discover a treasure-laden shipwreck next to a crashed plane loaded with cocaine.
'B' movie that hopes to grow up to be Baywatch with added gore; its cheap thrills are mainly confined to Jessica Alba in an itsy-bitsy bikini.
w Matt Johnson d John Stockwell ph Shane Hurlbut, Peter Zuccarini m Paul Haslinger pd Maia Javan ed Nicolas De Toth, Dennis Virkler
☆ Paul Walker (Jared), Jessica Alba (Sam), Scott Caan (Bryce), Ashley Scott (Amanda), Josh Brolin (Bates), Tyson Beckford (Primo), James Frain (Reyes)

'Not a thriller so much as an extremely violent swimsuit calendar.' – Justin Chang, Variety

'In the deep night, if you live alone, don't look in the mirror!'

Into the Mirror ★

South Korea 2003 113m colour
Tartan/Cinema Service/SBS/Hana Bank/KeyPlus (Kim Eun-yeong)

original title: Geoul sokeuro

An ex-cop working as a security chief investigates strange deaths at a gleaming department store which is about to reopen after being destroyed in a mysterious fire.
Intriguing ghost story with some striking images that plays with chilling effect on the reversal of the real world as viewed in mirrors; it also reflects the banality of a consumer society.
wd Kim Seong-ho ph Jung Han-cheol m Mun Dae-hyeon pd Lee Hyeong-ju ed Kim Sun-min
☆ Yu Ji-tae (Woo Yeong-min), Kim Myeong-min (Ha Hyeon-su), Kim Hye-na (Lee Ji-hyeon), Gi Ju-bong (Jeon Il-Sung), Kim Myeong-su (Choi Sang-Ke), Jeong Eun-pyo (Chief Kim Il-Hwan), Lee Yeong-jin (Choi Min-Jung)

'Very clever film about mirrors and mirror images that Lewis Carroll and Jean Cocteau would have loved.' – Philip French, Observer

Into the Night

US 1985 115m Technicolor
Universal/George Folsey Jnr, Ron Koslow

A harassed husband becomes even more so when one night at the airport he meets a dizzy girl with six smuggled emeralds.
A kind of nocturnal road film into which for some reason the director has crammed a number of his colleagues. None of it really works, even as an in-joke.
w Ron Koslow d John Landis ph Robert Paynter m Ira Newborn pd John Lloyd ☆ Jeff Goldblum, Michelle Pfeiffer, Richard Farnsworth, Irene Papas, Paul Mazursky, Roger Vadim, David Bowie

Into the Sun

US 1991 100m Foto-Kem
Trimark (Kevin M. Kallberg, Oliver G. Hess)

A top pilot is assigned to demonstrate his skills for the benefit of a Hollywood star of action movies.
Pleasant but unmemorable movie that becomes ridiculous towards the end.
w John Brancato, Michael Ferris d Fritz Kiersch ph Steve Grass m Randy Miller pd Gary T. New ed Barry Zetlin
☆ Anthony Michael Hall, Michael Paré, Deborah Maria Moore, Terry Kiser, Brian Haley, Michael St Gerard, Linden Ashby

'Where myth and magic walk the earth.'

Into the West ★

Eire 1992 102m Technicolor
Entertainment/Little Bird/Parallel/Majestic/Miramax/Film Four/Newcomm (Jonathan Cavendish, Tim Palmer)

A father, a former traveller, hunts for his two sons who have run away from their Dublin home with a magical white horse, Tir na nOg.
An odd, likeable film, despite its not always successful mythic overtones, and one that should have an appeal to the young.
w Jim Sheridan, David Keating story Michael Pearce d Mike Newell ph Tom Sigel m Patrick Doyle pd Jamie Leonard ed Peter Boyle
☆ Gabriel Byrne, Ellen Barkin, Ciarán Fitzgerald, Ruaidhri Conroy, David Kelly, Johnny Murphy, Colm Meaney, John Kavanagh, Brendan Gleeson, Jim Norton

'Its heady mix of Irish myth and gritty realism will effortlessly capture the imaginations of all ages.' – Empire

'They can't keep their hands off each other's assets.'

Intolerable Cruelty ★★ ⑦

US 2003 100m Technicolor
Universal/Imagine/Alphaville (Ethan Coen, Brian Grazer)

A divorce lawyer and the woman he is tricked into marrying decide to kill one another.
It's a comment on modern manners that a romantic comedy should involve a gold-digging woman and a cynical divorce lawyer, but there's stylish amusement to be found.
w Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone, Ethan Coen, Joel Coen d Joel Coen ph Roger Deakins m Carter Burwell pd Leslie McDonald ed Roderick Jaynes
☆ George Clooney (Miles Massey), Catherine Zeta-Jones (Marylin Rexroth), Geoffrey Rush (Donovan Donaly), Cedric the Entertainer (Gus Petch), Edward Hermann (Rex Rexroth), Richard Jenkins (Freddy Bender), Billy Bob Thornton (Howard Doyle), Paul Adelstein (Wrigley)

'Tight as a drum, glamorous and exquisitely funny.' – Damon Wise, Empire
'So clever, so funny, so suavely entertaining that it comes as a shock to realize that it's not nearly as satisfying as all those qualities would lead you to believe.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Anglese Times

Intolerance ★★★★

US 1916 115m approx (24 fps) bw silent
D. W. Griffith

Four stories – including Belshazzar's feast and the massacre of St Bartholomew – of intolerance through the ages are intercut and linked by the image of a mother and her baby: 'out of the cradle, endlessly rocking'.
A massive enterprise of which audiences at the time and after were quite intolerant. Hard to take in parts, it rises to a fine climax as all the stories come to a head, including a modern one with a race between a car and train, and has been called 'the only film fugue'. At the time, by far the most expensive film ever made.
wd D. W. Griffith ph Billy Bitzer, Karl Brown ad Walter L. Hall ed Rose Smith, James Smith
☆ Mae Marsh (The Dear One), Lillian Gish (Woman Who Rocks the Cradle/Eternal Mother), Constance Talmadge (Marguerite de Valois/The Mountain Girl), Robert Harron (The Boy), Elmo Lincoln (The Mighty Man of Valour), Eugene Pallette (Prosper Latour)

'A mad, brilliant, silly extravaganza. Perhaps the greatest movie ever made. In it one can see the source of most of the major traditions of the screen: the methods of Eisenstein and von Stroheim, the Germans and the Scandinavians, and, when it's bad, de Mille.' – New Yorker, 1980

Intrigue

US 1947 90m bw
UA/Star (Sam Bischoff)

In Shanghai after the war, a civilian pilot becomes unwittingly involved in drug smuggling.
Tedious and flashy pot-boiler.
w Barry Trivers, George Slavin d Edwin L. Marin ph Lucien Andriot m Louis Forbes
☆ George Raft, June Havoc, Tom Tully, Helena Carter

Intrigue in Paris: see Miss V from Moscow

The Intruder ★

GB 1953 84m bw
British Lion/Ivan Foxwell

An ex-army officer surprises a burglar and recognizes his old comrade who has been ill-served by society.
Watchable but rather mechanical compendium drama in which a series of cameos supposedly sum up the problems of life in post-war Britain.
w Robin Maugham, John Hunter novel Line on Ginger by Robin Maugham d Guy Hamilton ph Ted Scaife m Francis Chagrin
☆ Jack Hawkins, Michael Medwin, Hugh Williams, George Cole, Dennis Price, Dora Bryan

The Intruder ★

US 1961 84m bw
Filmgroup (Roger Corman)

GB title: The Stranger

A mild-mannered stranger arrives in a Southern town and stirs up racist trouble.
Cheaply-made social melodrama with many effective moments.
w Charles Beaumont novel Charles Beaumont d Roger Corman ph Taylor Byars m Herman Stein
☆ William Shatner, Frank Maxwell, Beverly Lunsford, Robert Emhardt, Jeanne Cooper, Leo Gordon, Charles Beaumont

The Intruder: see The Innocent (1976)

Intruder in the Dust ★★★

US 1949 87m bw
MGM (Clarence Brown)

In a Southern town, a boy and an old lady solve a mystery and prevent a black man from being lynched.
Excellent character drama which also offers vivid local colour, a murder puzzle and social comment. A semi-classic.
w Ben Maddow novel William Faulkner d Clarence Brown ph Robert Surtees m Adolph Deutsch ad Cedric Gibbons, Randall Duell ed Robert J. Kern ☆ Juano Hernandez (Lucas Beauchamp), Elizabeth Patterson (Miss Habersham), David Brian (John Gavin Stevens), Claude Jarman Jnr (Chick Mallison), Porter Hall (Nub Gowrie), Will Geer (Sheriff Hampton)

'It is surely the years of range and experience which have given him a control of the medium so calm, sure and – apparently – easy that he can make a complex story seem simple and straightforward.' – Pauline Kael
'A really good movie that is also and incidentally the first honestly worked out "racial" film I have seen.' – Richard Winnington
'An example of gripping film craftsmanship.' – News of the World

The Invaders: see 49th Parallel

'From out of space – came hordes of green monsters!'

Invaders from Mars

US 1953 82m Cinecolor
Edward L. Alperson

Martian invaders use hypnotized humans as saboteurs.
Poverty Row sci-fi partly redeemed by its erratic but talented designer who provides flashes of visual imagination.
w Richard Blake ph John Seitz m Raoul Kraushaar d/pd William Cameron Menzies
☆ Helena Carter, Arthur Franz, Leif Erickson, Hillary Brooke

Invaders from Mars

US 1986 100m TVC Color
Panavision
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

A boy one night sees a space ship land in his back yard.
Astonishingly witless remake of a show that was a cheap second feature in 1953.
w Dan O'Bannon, Don Jakoby d Tobe Hooper ph Daniel Pearl m Christopher Young ☆ Karen Black, Hunter Carson, Timothy Bottoms, Louise Fletcher, Bud Cort Invasion ★

GB 1966 82m bw
AA/Merton Park (Jack Greenwood)

An English village is beset one night by invaders from outer space.
Understated, effective little suspenser, well done in all departments.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Roger Marshall d Alan Bridges
ph James Wilson m Bernard Ebbinghouse
☆ Edward Judd, Valerie Gearon, Lyndon Brook, Yoko Tani, Tsai Chin, Barrie Ingham, Arthur Sharp

'A modest but highly intelligent science fiction thriller.' – Financial Times

Invasion of Planet X: see Invasion of the Astro-Monsters

Invasion of the Astro-Monsters

Japan 1967 90m colour Tohoscope
Toho/Henry G. Saperstein Enterprises (Tomoyuki Tanaka) aka: Monster Zero
aka: Invasion of Planet X; Godzilla vs Monster Zero

Aliens program three monsters, Godzilla, Rodan and Ghidrah, to attack the Earth.
Dull monster movie, its only novelty being its American leading man.
w Shinichi Sekizawa d Inoshiro Honda ph Hajime Koizumi m Akira Ifukube ad Takeo Kita ed Rhyohei Fujii sp Eiji Tsuburaya
☆ Nick Adams, Akira Takarada, Kumi Mizuno, Keiki Sawai, Jun Tazaki, Yoshio Tsuchiya, Akira Kubo

'The world as they knew it was slipping away from them. Time was running out for the human race. And there was nothing to hold on to – except each other!'

Invasion of the Body Snatchers ★★★★

US 1955 80m bw Superscope
Allied Artists/Walter Wanger

A small American town is imperceptibly taken over by an alien force.
Persuasive, thoroughly satisfying, low-budget science fiction, put across with subtlety and intelligence in every department.
w Daniel Mainwaring novel Jack Finney d Don Siegel ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Carmen Dragon ad Ted Haworth ed Robert S. Eisen
☆ Kevin McCarthy (Miles Bennel), Dana Wynter (Becky Driscoll), Larry Gates (Dr. Dan Kauffmann), King Donovan (Jack), Carolyn Jones (Theodora), Virginia Christine (Wilma Lentz), Sam Peckinpah (Charlie Buckholtz)
† The Region 1 DVD release includes aninterview with Kevin McCarthy.

Invasion of the Body Snatchers ★

US 1978 115m Technicolor
UA/Robert H. Solo

Failing to get officials to listen to the fact that the population is being replaced by aliens, a San Francisco public health inspector imitates the emotionless pod people in order to infiltrate their organisation.
Flashy updating of the 1956 classic, mistakenly set in a big city and confusingly unravelled, with nobody for the audience to empathize with. Its nicest effect is to have Kevin McCarthy appear in a cameo.
w W. D. Richter d Philip Kaufman ph Michael Chapman m Denny Zeitlin pd Charles Rosen
☆ Donald Sutherland, Brooke Adams, Leonard Nimoy, Veronica Cartwright, Jeff Goldblum, Art Hindle, Lelia Goldoni, Kevin McCarthy, Don Siegel
† The film was remade in 1993 as Body Snatchers.

Invasion of the Saucermen

US 1957 90m bw
AIP/Malibu (James H. Nicholson, Robert J. Gurney Jnr)

Little green aliens who land on Earth in a flying saucer are defeated by teenagers.
Science fiction with comic overtones, though done with so little finesse that it is difficult to know what is intentionally funny and what is accidentally so.
w Robert J. Gurney Jnr, Al Martin story Paul Fairman d Edward L. Cahn ph Fred West m Ronald Stein ad Don Ament ed Ronald Sinclair
☆ Steve Terrell, Gloria Castillo, Frank Gorshin

Invasion Quartet

GB 1961 87m bw
MGM (Ronald Kinnoch)

An ill-assorted foursome of officers and a boffin take on the dangerous mission of silencing a Nazi gun trained on Dover.
A plot which could have been handled any way is played unsatisfactorily for farce, and all concerned are understandably uneasy.
w Jack Trevor Story, John Briley story Norman Collins d Jay Lewis ph Geoffrey Faithfull, Gerald Moss m Ron Goodwin
☆ Bill Travers, Spike Milligan, Grégoire Aslan, John Le Mesurier, Thorley Walters, Maurice Denham, Millicent Martin, Cyril Luckham

'Desperately unfunny.' – Spike Milligan

'America wasn't ready – but he was!'

Invasion USA

US 1952 70m bw
Columbia (Albert Zugsmith)

A hypnotist in a New York bar gives a group of people a foretaste of what might happen to them under atomic attack.
Ludicrous, dangerous, hilarious low-budget exploitationer composed mainly of rubber rocks and old newsreels.
w Robert Smith d Alfred E. Green ph John L. Russell m Albert Glasser ☆ Dan O'Herlihy, Gerald Mohr, Peggie Castle

Invasion USA

US 1985 107m TVC Color
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

Ruthless foreign mercenaries invade the southern US.
Brainless farrago of violence which goes out of its way to be unpleasant but ends up being rather funny.
w James Bruner, Chuck Norris d Joseph Zito ph Joao Fernandes m Jay Chattaway
☆ Chuck Norris, Richard Lynch, Melissa Prophet, Alexander Zale

Les Invasions Barbare: see The Barbarian Invasions

'Love, beauty, happiness. If you don't have it … invent it.'

Inventing the Abbots ★ ②

US 1997 110m DeLuxe
TCF/Imagine (Ron Howard, Brian Grazier, Janet Meyers)

A man remembers events in the 50s, when his working-class family became involved with the family of a wealthy neighbour.
Three brothers woo two sisters in a nostalgic, small-town soap opera which investigates the power of myths to warp reality.
w Ken Hixon story Sue Miller d Pat O'Connor ph Kenneth MacMillan m Michael Kamen pd Gary Frutkoff ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Joaquin Phoenix, Billy Crudup, Liv Tyler, Will Patton, Kathy Baker, Jennifer Connelly, Joanna Going, Barbara Williams

'An emotionally powerful but extremely old-fashioned coming-of-age saga.' – Variety

Investigation of a Citizen above Suspicion ★

Italy 1970 115m Technicolor
Vera (Daniele Senatore)

A successful police inspector kills his mistress and, paranoically considering himself above suspicion, plants clues leading to himself and even confesses the crime.
Fairly engrossing character study with political undertones; cinematically quite striking, too.
w Ugo Pirro, Elio Petri d Elio Petri ph Luigi Kuveiller m Ennio Morricone ☆ Gian Maria Volonte, Florinda Bolkan, Salvo Randone, Gianni Santuccio best foreign film
script

An Investigation of Murder: see The Laughing Policeman

The Investigator

France/Italy/Spain/West Germany 1967 98m Technicolor Techniscope
Warner/Waterview/Criterion/Franca/CCM (Nat Waschsberger) original title: Le Vicomte Règle Ses Comptes
US title: The Viscount

An investigator chases across Europe to expose a gang of drug dealers.
Dull and dreary thriller that should have done better by its cast.
w Clark Reynolds, Georges Farrel novel Bonne Mesure by Jean Bruce d Maurice Cloche ph Henri Raichi m Georges Garvarentz ad Jean Douarinou ed Raymond Leboursier ☆ Kerwin Matthews, Edmond O'Brien, Jean Yanne, Fernando Rey, Jane Fleming (Silvia Sorrente), Yvette Lebon

'Irredeemable gangster melodrama.' – Clive Hirshhorn

† Folco Lulli replaced Edmond O'Brien in the foreign-language versions of the film.

Invincible

Germany/Ireland/GB/US 2001 133m colour
Film4/Werner Herzog/Tatfilm/Little Bird/Jan Bart

In the early 1930s, a Jewish strongman becomes a star in Berlin and tries to warn his fellow Poles of the dangers of fascism.
Muddled, slow-moving drama: its genuine athlete – winner of the World's Strongest Man competition – in the lead is the nearest it comes to reflecting any sort of reality.
wd Werner Herzog ph Peter Zeitlinger m Hans Zimmer, Klaus Badelt pd Ulrich Bergfelder ed Joe Bini
☆ Tim Roth (Hanussen), Jouko Ahola (Zishe), Anna Gourari (Marta Farra), Max Raabe (MC), Jacob Wein (Benjamin), Gustav Peter Wohler (Landwehr), Udo Kier (Count Helldorf), Herbert Golder (Rabbi Edelman)

'The film is confusion throughout. Nothing is plausible; much, unintelligible.' – Alexander Walker
'The English dialogue is stilted, the performances hollow, the pace evenly leaden, the larger social context non-existent.' – Philip French, Observer

Invisible Adversaries

Austria 1977 109m colour
Valie Export original title: Unsichtbare Gegner

A female photographer becomes convinced that aliens are taking over people's bodies and robbing them of their humanity.
Bizarre images of alienation – a man urinating on a woman's head, a fish head gasping after it has been severed from its body, a baby in a fridge – reinforce an attack on conformity. But Invasion of the Body Snatchers it isn't.
w Peter Weibel d Valie Export ph Wolfgang Simon ☆ Susanne Widl, Peter Weibel, Dr Josef Plavek, Monica Helfer-Friedrich, Helke Sander, Dominick Dusek, Herbert Schmid, Edward Neversal

Invisible Agent ★

US 1942 84m bw
Universal (George Waggner)

Nazi and Japanese spies seek the secret of invisibility from its inventor.
Lively fantasy thriller with a cast more distinguished than it deserves.
w Curt Siodmak d Edwin L. Marin m Hans Salter sp John P. Fulton
☆ Cedric Hardwicke, Peter Lorre, Ilona Massey, Jon Hall, Albert Basserman, J. Edward Bromberg, John Litel

Invisible Boy

US 1957 89m bw
MGM/Pan (Nicholas Nayfack)

A scientist allows his 10-year-old son to repair a robot, which comes under the control of an alien force.
Minor sci-fi utilizing the robot from Forbidden Planet.
w Cyril Hume d Herman Hoffman ph Harold Wellman m Les Baxter ☆ Richard Eyer, Philip Abbott, Harold J. Stone, Diane Brewster

The Invisible Circus

US 2001 92m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Fine Line/Industry Entertainment (Julia Chasman, Nick Wechsler)

In the mid-1970s, a teenager travels to Europe to discover the circumstances behind the death of her sister, who was involved in radical politics.
Contrived and predictable drama with an awkward flashback structure and an unconvincing dénouement.
wd Adam Brooks novel Jennifer Egan ph Henry Braham m Nick Laird-Clowes pd Robin Standefer ed Elizabeth King
☆ Jordana Brewster (Phoebe), Christopher Eccleston (Wolf), Cameron Diaz (Faith), Blythe Danner (Gail), Patrick Bergin (Gene), Camilla Belle (Phoebe as a child), Moritz Bleibtreu (Eric), Isabelle Pasco (Claire)

'The film is too pretty and schematic, but it does envelop the viewer in rue for a wasted life.' – Richard Schickel, Time

The Invisible Ghost

US 1941 66m bw
Monogram/Banner (Sam Katzman)

Maddened by the death of his wife, a doctor develops murderous tendencies.
Dire and chaotic horror that makes no sense at all.
w Helen Martin, Al Martin d Joseph H. Lewis ph Marcel le Picard ed Robert Golden ☆ Bela Lugosi, Polly Ann Young, John

Maguire, Betty Compson, Clarence Muse, Terry Walker, Ernie Adams

'Creaky but enjoyable.' – Sight and Sound

'Even the moon is frightened of me – frightened to death!'

The Invisible Man

US 1933 71m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

A scientist discovers a means of making himself invisible, but in the process becomes a megalomaniac.

Superb blend of eccentric character comedy, melodrama and trick photography in a Hollywood English setting; remarkably faithful to the spirit of the book. It made a star of Claude Rains in his first film, even though he is seen for only a couple of seconds.

w R. C. Sherriff, Philip Wylie novel H. G. Wells d James Whale ph Arthur Edeson m W. Frank Harling ad Charles D. Hall ed Ted J. Kent sp John P. Fulton

☆ Claude Rains (Jack Griffin/The Invisible One), Gloria Stuart (Flora Cranley), William Harrigan (Doctor Kemp), Henry Travers (Dr. Cranley), E. E. Clive (Jaffers), Una O'Connor (Mrs. Jenny Hall), Forrester Harvey (Mr. Herbert Hall), Dudley Digges (Chief of Detectives), Holmes Herbert (Chief of Police)

GRIFFIN (CLAUDE RAINS): 'We'll start with a few murders. Big men, little men – just to show we make no distinction.'

'Well made and full of intentional and unintentional laughs. Should do well.' – Variety

'Taken either as a technical exercise or as a sometimes profoundly moving retelling of the Frankenstein fable, it is one of the most rewarding of recent films.' – William Troy

† Sequels, successively less interesting, were (all qv) The Invisible Man Returns (1940), Invisible Woman (1941), Invisible Agent (1942), The Invisible Man's Revenge (1944), Abbott and Costello Meet the Invisible Man (1951) and Memoirs of an Invisible Man (1992). A TV series with an anonymous hero was made by ATV in 1955; a Universal one with David McCallum followed in 1975, and was restructured as The Gemini Man in 1976.

Boris Karloff had been first choice for the role, but he turned it down.

The Invisible Man Returns

US 1940 81m bw
Universal (Ken Goldsmith)

A man convicted of killing his brother uses the secret of invisibility to find the real culprit.

Second in the series takes itself too seriously: a slow starter which works its way to a strong climax.

w Curt Siodmak, Lester Cole, Cedric Belfrage d Joe May ph Milton Krasner m Hans Salter, Frank Skinner sp John P. Fulton

☆ Vincent Price, Cedric Hardwicke, John Sutton, Nan Grey, Cecil Kellaway, Alan Napier, Forrester Harvey

'Though the film has its bright moments, and some weird ones too, the first freshness is gone. Even the effects seem repetitive.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Invisible Man's Revenge

US 1944 77m bw
Universal (Ford Beebe)

A psychopathic killer on the run takes refuge with a doctor who has discovered the secret of invisibility.

Curious reversion to the original story in that the invisible man is now again the villain; but otherwise there's no flavour at all to this horror comic set in a phoney England.

w Bertram Millhauser d Ford Beebe m Hans Salter sp John P. Fulton

☆ Jon Hall, Leon Errol, John Carradine, Alan Curtis, Evelyn Ankers, Gale Sondergaard, Halliwell Hobbes

The Invisible Menace

US 1938 55m bw
Warner

Murder at an army base brings strange revelations of the past.

Standard mystery in which the star seems misplaced.

w Crane Wilbur play Ralph S. Zink d John Farrow ph L. William O'Connell ed Harold McLernan

☆ Boris Karloff, Regis Toomey, Marie Wilson, Henry Kolker

'Undistinguished mystery meller, for bottom-lining the duals.' – Variety

† It was remade in 1943 as Murder at the Waterfront.

'Destruction To All He Touched Or Looked Upon!'

The Invisible Ray ★

US 1935 79m bw
Universal (Edmund Grainger)

A scientist discovers a superpowerful element which makes him homicidal.

Slow-moving science fiction with a touch of horror, and the pattern for its star's many later roles as a sympathetic man who turns into a monster. Interesting rather than stimulating.

w John Colton story Howard Higgin, Douglas Hodges d Lambert Hillyer ph George Robinson m Franz Waxman sp John P. Fulton

☆ Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Frances Drake, Frank Lawton, Walter Kingsford, Beulah Bondi, Violet Kemble Cooper, Nydia Westman

'An easy number to sell, it should do pretty good business.' – Variety

Invisible Stripes

US 1939 82m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

An ex-con finds it difficult to go straight.

By 1940 Warner must have been able to make rip-offs of Angels with Dirty Faces in their sleep, and this one, despite its cast, suggests that they did.

w Warren Duff book Warden Lewis E. Lawes d Lloyd Bacon ph Ernest Haller m Heinz Roemheld

☆ George Raft, Humphrey Bogart, William Holden, Flora Robson, Jane Bryan, Paul Kelly, Lee Patrick, Henry O'Neill, Moroni Olsen

'It's a familiar cinematic yarn but strengthened by a zippy pace, excellent performances and direction.' – Variety

The Invisible Woman

US 1941 72m bw
Universal (Burt Kelly)

A mad scientist turns a model invisible.

Screwball comedy with a deteriorating star at his hammiest: generally very laboured, but with some funny moments.

w Robert Lees, Fred Rinaldo, Gertrude Purcell d A. Edward Sutherland ph Elwood Bredell md Charles Previn

☆ John Barrymore, Charles Ruggles, Virginia Bruce, John Howard, Oscar Homolka, Donald MacBride, Edward Brophy, Shemp Howard, Margaret Hamilton, Maria Montez

Invitation

US 1952 81m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

When a millionaire's daughter believes she is dying, revelations ensue about her beloved husband's original intentions.

Competently idiotic weepie with a happy ending.

w Paul Osborn story Jerome Weidman d Gottfried Reinhardt ph Ray June m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Dorothy McGuire, Van Johnson, Ruth Roman, Louis Calhern, Ray Collins, Michael Chekhov

'The dialogue is stagey and the treatment indeterminate, with overmuch reliance on the dubious emotional reinforcement of loud background music.' – Penelope Houston

L'Invitation ★★★

Switzerland/France 1973 100m colour
Groupe 5/Television Suisse/Citel Films/Planfilm

Following his mother's death, a middle-aged bachelor buys a home in the country and invites his office colleagues to a garden party.

Delightful comedy of manners that won a Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival.

w Claude Goretta, Michel Viala d Claude Goretta ph Jean Zeller m Patrick Moraz ad Yanko Hodjis ed Joelle Van Effenterre

☆ Jean-Luc Bideau (Maurice), Jean Champion (Alfred), Corinne Coderey (Simone), Pierre Collet (Pierre), Neige Dolsky (Emma), Jacques Rispal (Rene), Michel Robin (Remy), Rosine Rochette (Helene), François Simon (Emile), Cecile Vassort (Aline)

Invitation to a Gunfighter ★

US 1964 92m DeLuxe
UA/Stanley Kramer (Richard Wilson)

A small-town tyrant hires a smooth gunfighter to keep down the farmers he has cheated.

Predictable, rather self-satisfied little Western with a studio look. Smart script and performances.

w Elizabeth and Richard Wilson d Richard Wilson ph Joseph MacDonald m David Raksin

☆ Yul Brynner, George Segal, Janice Rule, Pat Hingle

Invitation to Die: see Wild

Invitation to Happiness

US 1939 95m bw
Paramount (Wesley Ruggles)

A society girl marries a prizefighter.

Routine star romantic drama.

w Claude Binyon d Wesley Ruggles ph Leo Tover m Frederick Hollander

☆ Irene Dunne, Fred MacMurray, Charles Ruggles, Billy Cook, William Collier Snr, Marion Martin

'Heartthrob drama, geared for good biz.' – Variety

Invitation to the Dance ★★

GB 1954 92m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

Three stories in dance and mime.

Unsuccessful ballet film which closed its star's great period and virtually ended the heyday of the Hollywood musical. The simple fact emerged that European ballet styles were not Kelly's forte; yet there was much to enjoy in Circus, Ring around the Rosy and The Magic Lamp.

ph Frederick A. Young m Jacques Ibert, André Previn, Rimsky-Korsakov ad Alfred Junge wd/ch Gene Kelly

☆ Gene Kelly, Igor Youskevitch, Tommy Rall, Belita, Tamara Toumanova

Invitation to the Wedding

GB 1985 90m colour widescreen
Chancery Lane (Joseph Brooks)

An aristocratic wedding causes trouble when the bride's uncle, the bishop, marries her to the wrong man at rehearsal.

A situation which could have been mildly amusing in the Quiet Wedding vein is botched by an unfunny script and wildly eccentric casting, including Gielgud as an American evangelist.

w William Fairchild d Joseph Brooks ph Freddie Young m Joseph Brooks

☆ Ralph Richardson, John Gielgud, Paul Nicholas, Elizabeth Shepherd, Ronald Lacey, John Standing, Susan Brooks

'Secrets. Betrayal. Murder.'

Io Non Ho Paura ★★

Italy/Spain/GB 2003 110m Cinecitta Panavision widescreen
Medusa/Colorado/Cattleya/Alquimia (Maurizio Totti, Riccardo Tozzi, Giovanni Stabilini, Marco Chimenz)
GB title: I'm Not Scared

In the late 70s, a Sicilian boy discovers that his parents are involved in the kidnapping of a boy from Milan.

Gripping sun-baked drama, seen from the viewpoint of a 10-year-old attempting to understand the world around him and come to terms with the horrifying implications of what he knows.

w Niccolo Ammaniti, Francesca Marciano novel Niccolo Ammaniti d Gabriele Salvatores ph Italo Petriccione m Pepo Scherman, Ezio Bosso pd Giancarlo Basili ed Massimo Fiocchi

☆ Aitana Sanchez Gijon (Anna), Dino Abbrescia (Pino), Giorgio Careccia (Felice), Giuseppe Cristiano (Michele), Mattia Di Perro (Filippo), Diego Abatantuono (Sergio)

'Worth seeing not only because it's a highly effective thriller, but also because it's a finely tuned evocation of innocence at the mercy of adult cynicism.' – Claudia Puig, USA Today

'The film is remarkable for something besides its visual immersion in gold. The director, Gabriele Salvatores, has added his name to the roster of film-makers who have drawn remarkable acting from children.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

The Ipcress File ★★

GB 1965 109m Techniscope
Rank/Steven/Lowndes (Harry Saltzman)

An intelligence man traces a missing scientist and finds that one of his own superiors is a spy.

The attempt to present a low-key James Bond (glasses, good at cookery, supermarket shopper) is frustrated by flashy direction and a confused plot. It did herald a new genre though the whole ambiance is now sadly dated, like an old copy of The Sunday Times Colour Supplement.

w Bill Canaway, James Doran novel Len Deighton d Sidney J. Furie ph Otto Heller m John Barry ad Ken Adam

☆ Michael Caine, Nigel Green, Guy

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Doleman, Sue Lloyd, Gordon Jackson
'The deglamorized espionage story, but with plenty of tingle and zest, both in plot and camerawork.' – Judith Crist
† Two sequels appeared starring 'Harry Palmer' (never named in the books): Funeral in Berlin and Billion Dollar Brain (both qv).
BAFTA best British film; Ken Adam; Otto Heller

Iqbal

India 2005 132m colour
Tip Top/SIC/Searchlight (Subhash Ghai)
DVD
A deaf-mute youth is determined to become a fast bowler with the Indian cricket team.
Solid sporting drama that includes every cliché of the genre, from disadvantaged teenager to an alcoholic coach down on his luck and needing a chance to redeem himself.
wd Nagesh Kukunoor ph Sudeep Chatterjee m Sukhwinder Singh, Salim Sulaiman pd Devika Bahudhanam ed Sanjib Datta ☆ Naseeruddin Shah (Mohit), Girish Karnad (Guruji), Shreyas Talpade (Iqbal), Shweta Prasad (Khadija), Yatin Karyekar (Anwar)
'You'll need an indulgent attitude to enjoy this by-the-book cricketing drama.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Iraq In Fragments ★★ 9

US 2007 94m
ICA/Typecast/Daylight Factory (John Sinno, James Longley)
DVD
A three-part story about an 11-year-old Iraqi boy whose anti-Saddam father is missing, presumed dead; a portrait of the followers of an Islamic cleric; and young Kurds eager for independence.
A calm condemnation of the West's blunders in Iraq, and their plans for reconstruction. Unusually, the voices and opinions heard are those of Iraqis, and their sense of being oppressed is genuine. An intimate film that gets up close to its subjects and explains them creditably.
d James Longley ph James Longley m James Longley ed Billy McMillan, James Longley, Fiona Otway
☆ Mohammed Haithem, Suleiman Mahmoud
'This one demands to be seen.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
Oscar documentary

Irene

US 1940 101m bw (colour sequence)
RKO/Imperator (Herbert Wilcox)
A New York Irish shopgirl moves into society.
Fairly dim picturization of the old musical: the cast does its best.
w Alice Duer Miller play James H. Montgomery d Herbert Wilcox ph Russell Metty m/ly Harry Tierney, Joseph McCarthy md Anthony Collins
☆ Anna Neagle, Ray Milland, Roland Young, Alan Marshal, May Robson, Billie Burke, Arthur Treacher, Marsha Hunt, Isabel Jewell, Ethel Griffies
'This pre-camp version tries to be innocuously charming, and the effort is all too evident.' – New Yorker, 1976
† Previously filmed in 1926 with Colleen Moore.
Oscar Anthony Collins

'Her Greatest Talent Was For Life.'

Iris ★★

GB/US 2001 90m colour
Buena Vista/BBC/Intermedia/Mirage (Robert Fox, Scott Rudin)
DVD CD
Biopic of novelist and philosopher Iris Murdoch and her relationship with her husband, academic John Bayley, as a young woman and as an elderly sufferer from Alzheimer's disease.
Deftly switching back and forth from the young Iris to the diminished old, this somehow misses out on what made her a fascinating figure; some accomplished acting saves it from becoming merely a moderately intriguing drama of an unusual marriage.
w Richard Eyre, Charles Wood books Iris: A Memoir, Elegy for Iris by John Bayley d Richard Eyre ph Roger Pratt m James Horner (solo violin, Joshua Bell) pd Gemma Jackson ed Martin Walsh
☆ Judi Dench (Iris Murdoch), Jim Broadbent (John Bayley), Kate Winslet (Young Iris), Hugh Bonneville (Young John), Penelope Wilton (Janet Stone), Juliet Aubrey (Younger Janet), Samuel West (Young Maurice), Timothy West (Old Maurice), Eleanor Bron (College Principal), Joan Bakewell (TV Presenter)
'Intimate, frank and shattering without being maudlin or sudsy.' – Rex Reed
'The audience is transported between two very obvious stories and becomes slightly irritated by the grinding inevitability of both of them. As a result, Iris Murdoch gets lost in the shuffle.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
Oscar Jim Broadbent
Oscar Judi Dench; Kate Winslet
BAFTA Judi Dench

Irish Eyes Are Smiling ★★

US 1944 90m Technicolor
TCF (Damon Runyon)
The life and times of an 1890s songwriter, Ernest R. Ball.
Standard musical biopic, handsomely mounted.
w Earl Baldwin, John Tucker Battle d Gregory Ratoff ph Harry Jackson md Alfred Newman, Charles Henderson
☆ Dick Haymes, June Haver, Monty Woolley, Anthony Quinn, Beverly Whitney, Maxie Rosenbloom, Veda Ann Borg, Clarence Kolb
Oscar Alfred Newman, Charles Henderson

The Irish in Us

US 1935 84m bw
Warner (Samuel Bischoff)
Adventures of three New York brothers.
Routine, good-natured star action frolic.
w Earl Baldwin d Lloyd Bacon ph George Barnes md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Olivia de Havilland, Mary Gordon, Frank McHugh, Allen Jenkins, J. Farrell MacDonald, Thomas Jackson
'A hokey laugh ensemble that will be oke.' – Variety

The Irishman ★

Australia 1978 110m Gevacolor
Forest Home/SAFC (Anthony Buckley)
In the 20s, a heavy-drinking, horse-loving Irish teamster finds it hard to come to terms with the arrival of motor-driven transport and the demands of his family.
Family drama acted out against spacious landscapes, good to look at but too predictable and with a score that emphasizes its sentimental aspects.
wd Donald Crombie novel Elizabeth O'Conner ph Peter James m Charles Marawood pd Owen Williams ed Tim Wellburn
☆ Michael Craig, Robyn Nevin, Simon Burke, Gerard Kennedy, Lou Brown, Tony Barry, Bryan Brown, John Bluthal

'A story of bloodshed, passion, desire and death . . . everything in fact that makes life worth living!'

Irma La Douce ★

US 1963 146m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Phalanx/Mirisch/Edward L. Alperson (Billy Wilder)
DVD CD
A Paris policeman falls for a prostitute and becomes her pimp.
A saucy yarn originally presented inventively as a small-scale stage musical becomes a tasteless yawn on the big screen, especially when presented at such length and without the songs. Minor compensations abound but are insufficient.
w Billy Wilder, I. A. L. Diamond play Alexandre Breffort d Billy Wilder ph Joseph LaShelle m Marguerite Monnot md André Previn ad Alexander Trauner ed Daniel Mandell cos Orry-Kelly
☆ Shirley MacLaine (Irma La Douce), Jack Lemmon (Nestor), Lou Jacobi (Moustache), Herschel Bernardi (Inspector LeFevre), Joan Shawlee (Amazon Annie), Bruce Yarnell (Hippolyte)
'What hurts the film the most is its length. Two hours and 23 minutes is an awfully long haul for a frivolous farce.' – Variety
'It's false. It just doesn't work.' – Billy Wilder
Oscar André Previn
Oscar Joseph LaShelle; Shirley MacLaine

Irma Vep ★

France 1996 98m colour
ICA/Dacia (Georges Benayoun)
DVD CD
A Hong Kong actress goes to Paris to star as a mysterious thief in a disastrous television remake of Louis Feuillade's silent French film Les Vampires.
Enjoyable mix of nostalgia for cinema's past and a celebration of the trials and triumphs of high-energy, low-budget film-making.
wd Olivier Assayas ph Eric Gautier ad François-Renaud Labarthe ed Luc Barnier ☆ Maggie Cheung, Jean-Pierre Leaud, Nathalie Richard, Antoine Basler, Nathalie Boutefeu, Bulle Ogier, Lou Castel, Arsinee Khanjian
'An inventive, often hilarious depiction of low-budget arthouse filmmaking.' – Neon
† The film was itself made in four weeks on a tiny budget.

Iron & Silk ★

US 1990 92m DuArt
Sun/Tokyo Broadcasting (Shirley Sun)
CD
A Chinese-speaking American graduate with a love of kung fu goes to China in the 80s to teach English and study martial arts.
Based on a true story, a film of great charm and good humour, as the representative of one culture tries to understand and appreciate another.
w Mark Salzman, Shirley Sun book Mark Salzman d Shirley Sun ph James Hayman m Michael Gibbs pd Calvin Tsao ed Geraldine Peroni, James V. Kwei
☆ Mark Salzman, Pan Qingfu, Jeanette Lin Tsui, Vivian Wu, Sun Xudong

The Iron Curtain

US 1948 87m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)
A Russian official in Ottawa becomes disillusioned and reveals to the US authorities details of a spy ring.
Cold war biopic of Igor Gouzenko; not badly done in the semi-documentary mould.
w Milton Krims d William Wellman ph Charles G. Clarke md Alfred Newman, using Russian themes
☆ Dana Andrews, Gene Tierney, Berry Kroeger, Edna Best

The Iron Duke ★

GB 1934 88m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)
After Waterloo, the Duke of Wellington defeats a French scheme to discredit him.
A popular historical star vehicle of its time and a good example of British pre-war production in the Korda mould.
w Bess Meredyth story H. M. Harwood d Victor Saville ph Curt Courant md Louis Levy ad Alfred Junge ed Ian Dalrymple
☆ George Arliss, Gladys Cooper, Emlyn Williams, Ellaline Terriss, A. E. Matthews, Edmund Willard, Felix Aylmer

Iron Eagle

US 1986 119m Metrocolor
Tri-Star (Ron Samuels, Joe Wizan)
DVD CD
A young man rescues his hostage father from a Middle Eastern country.
Increasingly suspenseful adventure drama which suited America's mood.
w Kevin Elders, Sidney J. Furie d Sidney J. Furie ph Adam Greenberg m Basil Poledouris pd Robb Wilson King ed George Grenville
☆ Louis Gossett Jnr, Jason Gedrick, David Suchet, Tim Thomerson, Larry B. Scott 'Theaters may have to stay open from high noon to red dawn to handle the crowd.' – Variety

Iron Eagle II

Canada 1988 100m Bellevue-Pathé
Guild/Alliance Entertainment/Harkot Productions (Jacob Kotzky, Sharon Harel, John Kemeny)
DVD CD
American and Russian pilots co-operate to destroy a nuclear missile base in the Middle East.
Silly fantasy, made occasionally bearable by its airborne sequences.
w Kevin Elders, Sidney J. Furie d Sidney J. Furie ph Alain Dostie m Amin Bhatia ad Ariel Roshko ed Rit Wallis
☆ Louis Gossett Jnr, Mark Humphrey, Stuart Margolin, Alan Scarfe, Sharon H. Brandon, Maury Chaykin, Colm Feore, Clark Johnson, Jason Blicker
† There was a further sequel, Aces: Iron Eagle III (qv).

Iron Eagle IV

Canada 1995 95m colour
Norstar (Peter Simpson)
Delinquent teenagers training to be pilots uncover a high-level conspiracy involving toxic chemicals.
An action film aimed at an audience that can identify with its young heroes; they will also need to enjoy bad films.
w Michael Stokes d Sidney J. Furie ph Curtis Petersen m Paul Zaza ad Michael Parks ed Jeff Warren
☆ Louis Gossett Jnr, Al Waxman, Jason Cadieux, Joanne Vanicola

'Never manages to get off the runway.' – Variety

The Iron Giant

US 1999 86m Technicolor Celco Scope
Warner (Allison Abbate, Des McAnuff)

In 1957, a young boy tries to protect an iron giant from government officials who are convinced that it is an alien weapon and plan to destroy it.
Set at a time of Cold War and nuclear paranoia and the beginnings of space exploration, this is an engaging, well-animated fable of pacifism and self-realisation that should find a ready audience among adults as well as children.
w Tim McCanlies book The Iron Man by Ted Hughes d Brad Bird ph Mark Dinicola m Michael Kamen pd Mark Whiting ad Alan Bodner ed Darren T. Holmes
☆ Featuring voices of: Jennifer Aniston, Eli Marienthal, Harry Connick Jnr, Vin Diesel, Christopher McDonald, James Gammon, Cloris Leachman, John Mahoney, M. Emmet Walsh
'An unalloyed success that works on several levels.' – Variety
'A modern classic.' – Film Review
† Despite critical plaudits, the movie did poorly at the box-office.

The Iron Hand: see Fist of Fury

The Iron Horse ★

US 1924 119m (24 fps) bw silent
Fox

A man seeking to avenge his father's murder works on the first transcontinental railroad.
Archetypal Western, very slow to start but with an authentic cast of thousands.
w Charles Kenyon, John Russell d John Ford ph George Schneiderman
☆ George O'Brien (Davy Brandon), Madge Bellamy (Miriam Marsh), Cyril Chadwick (Peter Jesson), Fred Kohler (Deroux), Charles Edward Bull (Abraham Lincoln)
'At last a film has come from America which trusts the railroad, and sees magic in it, and power; which honours the railroad and holds it mightier than man; which loves the railroad and is content to follow it into the heart of romance.' – C. A. Lejeune

The Iron ladies: see Satreelex

The Iron Maiden

GB 1962 98m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/GHW (Peter Rogers)
US title: The Swinging Maiden

An aircraft designer gets into trouble because of his affection for traction engines.
Feeble attempt to duplicate the success of Genevieve, this time starring a steamroller. Very English.
w Vivian Cox, Leslie Bricusse d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers
☆ Michael Craig, Alan Hale Jnr, Jeff Donnell, Cecil Parker, Noel Purcell, Roland Culver, the Duke of Bedford, Anne Helm

The Iron Major

US 1943 85m bw
RKO

The life of Frank Cavanaugh, football coach and hero of World War I.
Sub-standard biopic.
w Aben Kandel, Warren Duff d Ray Enright
☆ Pat O'Brien, Ruth Warrick, Robert Ryan, Leon Ames
'A respectful, rather dull picture ... all the talk is in words of less than one syllable.' – James Agee

The Iron Man

US 1931 73m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

A prizefighter is spurred on by his money-hungry wife.
Competent, routine, ringside melodrama.
w Francis Edwards Faragoh novel W. R. Burnett d Tod Browning ph Percy Hilburn ☆ Lew Ayres, Jean Harlow, Robert Armstrong, John Miljan, Eddie Dillon, Ned Sparks
† Remade in 1937 as Some Blondes Are Dangerous and in 1951 under the original title.

Iron Man

US 1951 81m bw
Universal-International

A coal miner is persuaded to become a prizefighter, but success changes his character.
A somewhat changed version of the 1931 film; no better.
w George Zuckerman, Borden Chase d Joseph Pevney
☆ Jeff Chandler, Evelyn Keyes, Stephen McNally, Joyce Holden, Rock Hudson, Jim Backus, James Arness

The Iron Mask ★

US 1929 97m bw talking sequences, sound and music score
UA/Douglas Fairbanks

The true prince of France is kidnapped and imprisoned, but the villains reckon without D'Artagnan and the three musketeers.
Spirited star rendition of Dumas, the last big silent costume drama of the twenties.
w Elton Thomas (Douglas Fairbanks) novel Ten Years After by Alexandre Dumas d Allan Dwan ph Henry Sharp m Hugo Riesenfeld pd Maurice Leloir ☆ Douglas Fairbanks, Nigel de Brulier, Belle Bennett, Marguerite de la Motte

'...a labyrinth of deception.'

Iron Maze

US/Japan 1991 102m CFI color
First Independent/Trans-Tokyo/J & M Entertainment (Ilona Herzberg, Hidenori Ueki)

A police-chief in a Pennsylvania steel town investigates the attempted murder of a Japanese businessman, who wants to build an amusement park on the site of the mill; the chief suspects are the man's American wife and her lover.
Based on the same story that Kurosawa used as an inspiration for Rashomon, which was first filmed in Hollywood as The Outrage, this seems little more than a muddled protest at the Japanese takeover of US businesses (and, perhaps, of Hollywood studios).
w Tim Metcalfe story In A Grove by Ryunosuke Akutagawa d Hiroaki Yoshida ph Morio Saequsa m Stanley Myers pd Toby Corbett, Toro Ueno ed Bonnie Koehler
☆ Jeff Fahey, Bridget Fonda, Hiroaki Murakami, J. T. Walsh, Gabriel Damon, John Randolph, Peter Allas, Carmen Filpi
'A mess from beginning to end, presenting three cardboard characters and a flashback-infested narrative which rivals Passage to Marseille and Millennium as one of the most inelegant ever committed to film.' – Empire

The Iron Mistress

US 1952 107m Technicolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)

The life of Westerner Jim Bowie and his famous knife.
Stolid actioner with uninspired script and performances.
w James R. Webb novel Paul I. Wellman d Gordon Douglas ph John Seitz m Max Steiner
☆ Alan Ladd, Virginia Mayo, Joseph Calleia, Phyllis Kirk, Alf Kjellin, Douglas Dick, Tony Caruso, George Voskovec

The Iron Petticoat

GB 1956 96m Technicolor Vistavision
Remus/Harry Saltzman (Betty E. Box)

An American air force officer persuades a Russian lady flyer of the advantages of the western way of life.
Feeble imitation of Ninotchka with a saucy star team which simply doesn't jell.
w Ben Hecht d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Bob Hope, Katharine Hepburn, James Robertson Justice, Robert Helpmann, David Kossoff, Alan Gifford, Paul Carpenter, Noelle Middleton
'They seem amazed to find themselves in a comedy that has no humour, and they go through the motions grimly, like children at dancing school, hoping it will all be over soon.' – William K. Zinsser

The Iron Triangle

US 1988 91m colour
Medusa/Eurobrothers/International Video Entertainment (Angela P. Schapiro, Tony Scotti)

An American officer is captured by two Vietcong, one idealistic, the other murderous.
War film more concerned with humanity than action, and effective enough in its small way.
w Eric Weston, John Bushelman, Lawrence Hilbrand book based on the diary of an unknown Vietcong soldier d Eric Weston ph Irv Goodnoff m Michael Lloyd, John D'Anrea, Nick Strimple pd Errol Kelly ed Roy Watts ☆ Beau Bridges, Haing S. Ngor, Liem Whatley, Johnny Hallyday, Jim Ishida, Ping Wu, Jack Ong, Sophie Trang

Iron Will

US 1994 109m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Disney (Patrick Palmer, Robert Schwartz)

In 1917, a youth enters a 500-mile dog-sled race and becomes an American hero.
Predictable, soft-centred drama of success against the odds.
w John Michael Hayes, Djordje Milicevic, Jeff Arch d Charles Haid ph William Wages m Joel McNeely pd Stephen Storer ed Andrew Doerfer
☆ Mackenzie Astin, Kevin Spacey, August Schellenberg, David Ogden Stiers, Brian Cox, George Gerdes, John Terry, Penelope Windust

Ironweed

US 1987 143m Technicolor
Taft Entertainment/Keith Barish/Home Box Office

An alcoholic down-and-out returns to his home town, where he is haunted by his violent past. Although forgiven by his family, he takes to the road again.
Relentlessly gloomy and ploddingly faithful re-creation of a Pulitzer prizewinner.
w William Kennedy novel William Kennedy d Hector Babenco ph Lauro Escorel m John Morris pd Jeannine C. Oppewall
☆ Jack Nicholson, Meryl Streep, Carroll Baker, Michael O'Keefe, Diane Venora, Tom Waits
Jack Nicholson; Meryl Streep

Irreconcilable Differences

US 1984 113m Technicolor
Lantana/Warner

Nine-year-old Casey interferes in her parents' planned divorce.
An ancient wheeze for a romantic comedy, here decked out with modern trimmings but no better intrinsically than it was in the thirties.
w Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer d Charles Shyer
☆ Ryan O'Neal, Shelley Long, Drew Barrymore, Sam Wanamaker, Allen Garfield, Sharon Stone

The Irrefutable Truth About Demons

New Zealand 2000
First Sun/NZFC (Dave Gibson)

GB title: The Truth About Demons

An academic is targeted by a satanic cult.
Gruesome little shocker that manages a modicum of suspense.
wd Glenn Standring ph Simon Baumfield m Victoria Kelly, Joost Langeveld pd Clive Memmott ed Paul Sutorius sp Nigel Streeter ☆ Karl Urban (Harry Ballard), Katie Wolfe (Bennie), Jonathon Hendry (Le Valliant), Sally Stockwell (Celia), Tony MacIver (Johnny), Peter Daubé (Lawrence), Kelson Henderson (Wank), Mel Johnson (Alice)
'Packed with gore, elliptical CGI devils and numerous plot surprises.' – Shivers

Irresistible Force

US 1993 74m colour
CBS/Davis (Michael Lake)

A suspended cop and his female partner combat a heavily armed group of white supremacists who take over a shopping mall.
Efficient, though ultimately silly, time-wasting action movie, designed mainly to display the high-kicking martial art skills of Rothrock.
w Carleton Eastlake d Kevin Hooks ph Kevan 'Loosey' Lind m David Michael Frank pd David R. Copping ed Andy Blumenthal
☆ Stacy Keach, Cynthia Rothrock, Christopher Neame, Kathleen Garrett, Michael Bacall, Nicholas Hammond, Paul Winfield

'Time destroys everything.'

Irreversible ★

France 2002 97m colour
Metro Tartan/Nord-Ouest/Eskwad/Canal/120/De La Zone (Christophe Rossignon, Richard Grandpierre)

After a teacher's girlfriend is sexually assaulted, he and a friend visit a gay club to take revenge on the pimp who raped her.
There is something so brutalist and miserablist about Noé's view of the world that it can seem ludicrous, but not here: with a ferocious murder followed by a vicious rape, both shown in all their horror, this can be a shattering experience that offers no hope for humanity.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

wd Gaspar Noé ph Gaspar Noé
m Thomas Bangalter, Beethoven ad Alain Juteau ed Gaspar Noé ☆ Monica Bellucci (Alex), Vincent Cassel (Marcus), Albert Dupontel (Pierre), Philippe Nahon (Philippe), Jo Prestia (Le Ténia)
'A seductive and powerful film, but it is nevertheless steeped in sado-masochism, wherein lies its ability to repulse, shock and – lets be honest about this – thrill.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight & Sound
'An exploitation movie with a gimmick, not to mention a vacuous philosophy.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice
'Even if you closed your eyes – a tempting option – you would still know that you were in the hollering presence of pain. The story is undiluted dread.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Is Everybody Happy?
US 1929 80m bw
Warner
The life of a clarinettist who rises from poverty.
Or, The Ted Lewis Story, a primitive musical.
w Joseph Jackson, James A. Starr d Archie Mayo m/ly Harry Akst, Grant Clarke ch Larry Ceballos
☆ Ted Lewis, Alice Day, Ann Pennington, Lawrence Grant

Is Everybody Happy?
US 1943 73m bw
Columbia
A virtual remake of the 1929 biopic, with the star fourteen years older.
Low-budget filler with a few good numbers.
w Monte Brice d Charles Barton ph L. William O'Connell md Morris Stoloff ☆ Ted Lewis, Larry Parks, Michael Duane, Nan Wynn

Is Paris Burning?
France/US 1965 165m bw Panavision (colour sequence)
Paramount/Transcontinental/Marianne (Paul Graetz)
A multi-storied account of the 1944 liberation of Paris.
Muddled, scribbled, tedious and confusing attempt at a thinking man's all-star war epic.
w Francis Ford Coppola, Gore Vidal book Paris, brûle-t-il? by Larry Collins and Dominique Lapierre d René Clément ph Marcel Grignon m Maurice Jarre
☆ Leslie Caron, Gert Frobe, Charles Boyer, Yves Montand, Orson Welles, Alain Delon, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Jean-Paul Belmondo, Kirk Douglas, Glenn Ford, Claude Dauphin, Daniel Gélin, Anthony Perkins, Simone Signoret, Robert Stack and also George Chakiris
'An incoherent, ponderous and shallow tribute to one of the great experiences of our time, an insult to those with intimate knowledge of or experience with the liberation of Paris, an embarrassment for those interested in spectacular moviemaking.' – Judith Crist
Marcel Grignon

Isaac Littlefeathers
Canada 1985 90m colour
Lauron/Allarcom/King Motion Picture (Barry Pearson, William Johnson)
A hot-headed Indian boy, abandoned by his mother and his white father and adopted by a Jewish grocer, fights the prejudice he meets with violence.
A well-made drama about racial intolerance, with some nice touches but an over-reliance on cliché.
w Les Rose, Barry Pearson, John Katz
d Les Rose ph Ed Higginson m Paul Zaza ad Richard Hudolin ed Mairin Wilkinson ☆ Lou Jacobi, William Korbut, Scott Hylands, Tom Heaton, Lynda Mason Green, Lorraine Behnan, George Clutesi, Vincent Gale, Robert Astle

Isadora ★
GB 1968 138m Eastmancolor
Universal (Robert and Raymond Hakim)
US title: The Loves of Isadora
Eccentric character dancer Isadora Duncan reflects on her crowded and unconventional life.
Ambitious and expensive but finally unsatisfactory biopic of a controversial figure of the twenties.
w Melvyn Bragg, Clive Exton d Karel Reisz ph Larry Pizer m Maurice Jarre
pd Jocelyn Herbert ad Michael Seymour, Ralph Brinton ☆ Vanessa Redgrave, Jason Robards Jnr, James Fox, Ivan Tchenko, John Fraser, Bessie Love
'A brave attempt at a daunting task.' – Tom Milne
Vanessa Redgrave

Ishtar
US 1987 107m Technicolor
Columbia/Delphi V (Warren Beatty)
Two untalented songwriters get involved with Middle Eastern turmoil.
Bitty rehash of old jokes and situations, vaguely resembling a Hope-Crosby Road picture of long ago, but far less funny despite costing 50 million dollars.
wd Elaine May ph Vittorio Storaro
pd Paul Sylbert
☆ Dustin Hoffman, Warren Beatty, Isabelle Adjani, Charles Grodin, Jack Weston, Tess Harper
'One can't help but wonder whether the camel was the only blind creature who had something to do with this picture.' – Daily Variety

The Island ★
Japan 1961 92m bw
Kindai Eiga Kyokai (Kaneto Shindo) original title: Hadaka no Shima
The quiet tenor of life for the only family inhabiting a tiny island is eventually broken by illness and death.
Slow, controlled, beautiful film in which not a single word of dialogue is spoken. The artificiality of this concept eventually diminishes its stature.
wd Kaneto Shindo ph Kiyoshi Kuroda
m Hikaru Hayashi
☆ Nobuko Otowa, Taiji Tonoyama, Shinji Tanaka, Masanori Horimoto
'A visual poem which mirrors tedium without ever inducing it.' – MFB

'For 300 years a terrifying secret has been kept from the outside world!'

The Island
US 1980 114m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Richard Zanuck, David Brown)
A journalist is in fear of his life on a Caribbean island inhabited by the bloodthirsty descendants of 17th-century buccaneers.
Ridiculous shocker from the Jaws people; stupidly plotted and gruesome in detail.
w Peter Benchley novel Peter Benchley
d Michael Ritchie ph Henri Decaë
m Ennio Morricone
☆ Michael Caine, David Warner, Angela Punch McGregor, Frank Middlemass, Dudley Sutton, Colin Jeavons
'Suspense gives way to gut-level sadism aimed at the lowest common audience denominator.' – Variety

'They don't want you to know what you are.'

The Island ★ (5)
US 2005 136m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/DreamWorks (Walter F. Parkes, Michael Bay, Ian Bryce)
In 2019 a couple break out of a research facility to discover that they are clones, bred to provide organs for their orginals.
Frenetic action flick that is a blurred and chaotic copy of too many other, better movies to be of much interest.
w Caspian Tredwell-Owen, Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci d Michael Bay ph Mauro Fiore m Steve Jablonsky pd Nigel Phelps ed Paul Rubell, Christian Wagner ☆ Ewan McGregor (Lincoln Six Echo/Tom Lincoln), Scarlett Johansson (Jordan Two Delta/Sarah Jordan), Djimon Hounsou (Albert Laurent), Sean Bean (Merrick), Michael Clarke Duncan (Starkweather), Ethan Phillip (Jones Three Echo), Max Baker (Carnes), Steve Buscemi (McCord)
'For all the menace of its techno-prattle, its implicit boosts for humanism and its swell production design, the picture is finally a bore.' – Richard Schickel, Time
'The movie is more about how many things Michael Bay can smash up – lots. That might not be a talent most people respect, but it gets through to people anyway, and here Bay does it exceptionally well.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

The Island at the Top of the World ★★
US 1974 93m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Winston Hibler)
In 1907, a rich Englishman commissions an airship to take him to a mythical arctic Shangri-La in search of his lost son.
Generally brisk and effective adventure fantasy whose trick effects are sufficiently splendid to redeem a sag in the middle and an overplus of Viking chatter which has to be laboriously translated.
w John Whedon novel The Lost Ones by Ian Cameron d Robert Stevenson
ph Frank Phillips m Maurice Jarre
pd Peter Ellenshaw sp Art Cruickshank, Danny Lee ☆ Donald Sinden, David Hartman, Jacques Marin, Mako

Island Escape: see No Man Is an Island

Island in the Sky ★
US 1953 109m bw
Wayne-Fellows (Robert Fellows)
A transport plane makes a forced landing north of Greenland, and the crew must survive till help comes.
Well-made outdoor suspenser shot in the California Sierras.
w Ernest K. Gann novel Ernest K. Gann
d William Wellman ph Archie Stout
m Hugo Friedhofer md Emil Newman
☆ John Wayne, Lloyd Nolan, Walter Abel, Allyn Joslyn, Andy Devine, James Arness

Island in the Sun ★
GB 1957 119m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
Sexual and racial problems erupt on a West Indian island.
Portmanteau romantic melodrama which generally misfires, especially in an attempt to parallel Crime and Punishment; but the cast is interesting.
w Alfred Hayes novel Alec Waugh
d Robert Rossen ph Frederick A. Young
m Malcolm Arnold
☆ James Mason, Joan Fontaine, Harry Belafonte, John Williams, Dorothy Dandridge, Joan Collins, Michael Rennie, Patricia Owens, Stephen Boyd, Basil Sydney, Diana Wynyard, Ronald Squire, John Justin

Island of Desire: see Saturday Island

The Island of Dr Moreau ★
US 1977 98m Movielab
AIP/Cinema 77 (Skip Steloff, John Temple-Smith)
In 1911, shipwrecked sailors land on a Pacific island where a mad doctor experiments with animal mutations.
A sprightly version of an old story; unfortunately it lacks any sense of the sinister, and the star is no match for Charles Laughton in Island of Lost Souls.
w John Herman Shaner, Al Ramrus story H. G. Wells d Don Taylor ph Gerry Fisher m Laurence Rosenthal ☆ Burt Lancaster, Michael York, Nigel Davenport, Barbara Carrera, Richard Basehart, Nick Cravat
'Cursed with lush colour photography instead of black and white atmospherics, and Lancaster's stolid mania instead of Laughton's manic zeal.' – Sight and Sound

The Island of Dr Moreau
US 1996 95m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/New Line (Edward R. Pressman)
On a South Pacific island, genetically altered animals with human characteristics revolt against the mad scientist who created them.
Incoherent horror, notable for one of Brando's more eccentric performances, mercifully brief.
w Richard Stanley, Ron Hutchinson
d John Frankenheimer ph William A. Fraker m Gary Chang pd Graham (Grace) Walker ed Paul Rubell ☆ Marlon Brando, Val Kilmer, David Thewlis, Fairuza Balk, Ron Perlman, Marco Hofschneider, Temuera Morrison, William Hootkins, Mark Dacascos, Nelson de la Rosa
'Astonishing four-fifths dreadful, one-fifth remarkable film.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound † Director Richard Stanley was sacked after three days, though he returned incognito to play the part of a Dog-Man; David Thewlis replaced the originally cast Rob Morrow, and Walon Green worked uncredited on the script. The film cost $50m to make and grossed around $28m in the US.

Island of Lost Men
US 1939 64m bw
Paramount
An Oriental girl seeks her lost father in waterfront dives and finds him on a prison island.
Adequate action programmer.
w William R. Lipman, Horace McCoy
d Kurt Neumann
☆ Anna May Wong, Broderick Crawford, Anthony Quinn, J. Carrol Naish
† A remake of White Woman.

'Out of the dark fantastic madness of his science he created her – the panther woman – throbbing to the hot flush of new-found love!'

Island of Lost Souls ★

US 1932 74m bw
Paramount

On a remote South Sea island, mad Dr Moreau transforms animals into humans by vivisection.
Unchilling but interesting thriller with a rolling-eyed star performance.
w Waldemar Young, Philip Wylie story The Island of Dr Moreau by H. G. Wells d Erle C. Kenton ph Karl Struss ☆ Charles Laughton, Bela Lugosi, Richard Arlen, Kathleen Burke, Leila Hyams

Island of Lost Women

US 1958 72m bw
Jaguar/Warner

A newspaperman lands on a remote island where a scientist has retired from the world with his daughters.
Unexciting hokum with more talk than action.
w Ray Buffum d Frank Tuttle
☆ Jeff Richards, Venetia Stevenson, John Smith, Alan Napier

Island of Love

US 1963 101m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Belgrave (Morton da Costa)

A gangster finances a film providing his girlfriend stars, but when it flops he chases the producers to a Greek island.
Dismally unfunny comedy wasting a talented cast.
w David R. Schwartz d Morton da Costa ph Harry Stradling m George Duning ☆ Robert Preston, Tony Randall, Walter Matthau, Giorgia Moll

Island of Terror

GB 1966 89m Eastmancolor
Planet (Tom Blakeley)

On an Irish island, a scientist makes monsters who thrive on bone.
Horror hokum, moderately done.
w Edward Andrew Mann, Alan Ramsen d Terence Fisher ph Reg Wyer m Malcolm Lockyer sp John St John Earl ☆ Peter Cushing, Edward Judd, Carole Gray, Eddie Byrne, Sam Kydd, Niall MacGinnis

Island of the Blue Dolphins

US 1964 93m Eastmancolor
U-I/Robert B. Radnitz

Two orphaned children grow up alone on a Californian island, protected by wild dogs.
Pleasant if unconvincing family film based on a true story.
w Ted Sherdeman, Jane Klove novel Scott O'Dell d James B. Clark ph Leo Tover m Paul Sawtell ad Alexander Golitzen, George Webb ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Celia Kaye, Larry Domasin, George Kennedy, Ann Daniel, Carlos Romero, Hal Jon Norman, Martin Garralaga

Island of The Living Dead: see Zombie Flesh Eaters

Island of the Lost

US 1968 92m colour
Ivan Tors

An anthropologist sets sail for an uncharted island and is shipwrecked on it.
Good-looking but singularly plotless action adventure.
w Richard Carlson, Ivan Tors d John Florea, Ricou Browning (underwater scenes)
☆ Richard Greene, Luke Halpin, Mark Hulswit

Island Rescue: see Appointment with Venus

Islands in the Stream

US 1977 105m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount (Peter Bart, Max Palevsky)

On a Bahamian island in 1940, an expatriate American artist welcomes his three sons and reflects on the futility of life.
Shapeless semi-autobiographical fragments culminating unpersuasively in an action climax of heroic self-sacrifice. A film on which no expense has been spared and which doesn't work at all.
w Denne Bart Petitclerc novel Ernest Hemingway d Franklin Schaffner ph Fred J. Koenekamp m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ George C. Scott, David Hemmings, Gilbert Roland, Susan Tyrrell, Richard Evans, Claire Bloom, Hart Bochner, Julius Harris
'It is all too awful for words.' – Benny Green, Punch
♗ photography

The Isle: see Seom

Isle of Forgotten Sins

US 1943 82m bw
PRC (Peter R. Van Duinen)

In the South Seas, villains congregate in search of sunken treasure.
Patchy tropical melodrama with a cast more interesting than the script.
w Raymond L. Schrock story Edgar G. Ulmer d Edgar G. Ulmer
☆ John Carradine, Gale Sondergaard, Sidney Toler, Frank Fenton, Rita Quigley, Veda Ann Borg

Isle of Fury

US 1936 60m bw
Warner

A fugitive from justice finds temporary peace on a South Sea island.
Limp remake of The Narrow Corner (qv); its star later pretended he hadn't made it.
w Robert Andrews, William Jacobs novel The Narrow Corner by W. Somerset Maugham d Frank McDonald ☆ Humphrey Bogart, Margaret Lindsay, Donald Woods

Isle of Sinners: see Dieu a Besoin des Hommes

Isle of the Dead ★★

US 1945 72m bw
RKO (Val Lewton)

On a Balkan island in 1912 a group of people shelter from the plague and fear that one of their number is a vampire.
Glum, ghoulish melodrama with some neatly handled shocks; quite different from any other horror film.
w Ardel Wray, Josef Mischel d Mark Robson ph Jack Mackenzie m Leigh Harline ☆ Boris Karloff, Ellen Drew, Helene Thimig, Marc Cramer, Katherine Emery, Alan Napier, Jason Robards

Isn't It Romantic ★

US 1948 87m bw
Paramount (Daniel Dare)

Romance hits the household of an ex-Civil War colonel in Indiana.
Pleasant but forgettable period semi-musical.
w Theodore Strauss, Josef Mischel, Richard Breen d Norman Z. McLeod ph Lionel Lindon m Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Veronica Lake, Mona Freeman, Mary Hatcher, Roland Culver, Billy de Wolfe, Patric Knowles, Richard Webb, Kathryn Givney, Pearl Bailey

Isn't Life Wonderful? ★

US 1924 99m (24 fps) bw silent
UA/David Wark Griffith

The life of a family in post-war Germany.
An unpopular subject, and a grey-looking film, but the director shows a lot of his strength in it.
wd D. W. Griffith story Geoffrey Moss ph Hendrik Sartov, Hal Sintzenich ☆ Carol Dempster, Neil Hamilton, Helen Lowell, Frank Puglia, Marcia Harris, Lupino Lane

Isn't Life Wonderful? ★

GB 1952 83m Technicolor
ABP (Warwick Ward)

In 1902, drunken Uncle Willie runs a bicycle shop and manages to reconcile a lovers' quarrel.
Engaging, well-cast family comedy.
w Brock Williams novel Uncle Willie and the Bicycle Shop by Brock Williams
d Harold French ph Erwin Hillier
m Philip Green ad Terence Verity
☆ Donald Wolfit, Eileen Herlie, Cecil Parker, Eleanor Summerfield, Robert Urquhart, Cecil Trouncer

'Talent isn't everything.'

Isn't She Great ★

US/GB/Germany/Japan 2000 95m colour
Universal/Mutual/Lobell/Bergman (Mike Lobell)

An ambitious but untalented actress becomes a best-selling novelist with the aid of her manager-husband.
Enjoyable biopic of publishing phenomenon Jacqueline Susann, an all-conquering icon of pop culture, who, in best melodramatic manner, kept her personal disasters hidden from her adoring readers.
w Paul Rudnick article Michael Korda d Andrew Bergman ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m Burt Bacharach pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Barry Malkin cos Julie Weiss
☆ Bette Midler (Jacqueline Susann), Nathan Lane (Irving Mansfield), Stockard Channing (Florence Maybelle), David Hyde Pierce (Michael Hastings), John Cleese (Henry Marcus), John Larroquette (Maury Manning), Amanda Peet (Debbie), Christopher MacDonald (Brad Bradburn)
'Raucously funny and good-natured.' – Sight and Sound
'Veering from broad farce to sheer banality, pic isn't even unintentionally funny enough to qualify as guilty pleasure.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Istanbul

US 1956 84m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)

Various adventurers and an amnesiac girl seek stolen diamonds in Istanbul.
Dim remake of a flat-footed piece of thick ear called Singapore.
w Seton I. Miller, Barbara Gray, Richard Alan Simmons d Joseph Pevney
ph William Daniels m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Errol Flynn, Cornell Borchers, John Bentley, Torin Thatcher, Leif Erickson, Martin Benson, Vladimir Sokoloff, Werner Klemperer, Nat King Cole, Peggy Knudsen

Istgah-e Matrouk: see The Deserted Station

Istoria Asi Klyachinoi, kotoraya lyubila, da nie vshla zamuzh: see Asya's Happiness

It ★

US 1927 72m (24 fps) bw silent
Famous Players-Lasky/Paramount (B. P. Schulberg)

A shopgirl tries to live by the tenets of Elinor Glyn's book, and finally marries her boss.
In its day a fast and funny spoof, and the years have not dealt too unkindly with it.
w Hope Loring, Louis D. Lighton
d Clarence Badger ph H. Kinley Martin adaptation Elinor Glyn
☆ Clara Bow, Antonio Moreno, William Austin, Jacqueline Gadsdon, Gary Cooper, Elinor Glyn

It Ain't Hay

US 1943 79m bw
Universal (Alex Gottlieb)
GB title: Money for Jam

When a racehorse dies, a New York cabbie and his friend try to find a new one for the impecunious owners.
Formula Abbott and Costello with a small injection of sentiment and Runyonese. Not their best by a mile.
w Allen Boretz, John Grant story Princess O'Hara by Damon Runyon d Erle C. Kenton ph Charles von Enger m/ly Harry Revel, Paul Francis Webster ☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Grace McDonald, Cecil Kellaway, Patsy O'Connor, Eugene Pallette, Shemp Howard, Eddie Quillan

It All Came True ★

US 1940 97m bw
Warner (Mark Hellinger)

A gangster hides out in a boarding house and puts it back on its feet.
Competent New York fairy story full of sweetness and light.
w Michael Fessier, Lawrence Kimble story Better Than Life by Louis Bromfield
d Lewis Seiler ph Ernest Haller m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Ann Sheridan, Jeffrey Lynn, ZaSu Pitts, Una O'Connor, Jessie Busley, John Litel, Grant Mitchell, Felix Bressart

It All Starts Today ★★

France 1999 118m colour Super 35
Artificial Eye/Alain Sarde/Little Bear/TFI

original title: Ca Commence Aujourd'hui

In a deprived area, where unemployment is rife, an idealistic infant teacher tries to cope with inadequate aid from the local authorities and his own complicated private life.
Partly based on the experiences of his daughter's then-boyfriend (later her husband), Tavernier's film is suffused with a righteous anger, though he sweetens the pill with rather more glamour than one would expect.
w Dominique Sampiero, Tiffany Tavernier, Bertrand Tavernier d Bertrand Tavernier ph Alain Choquart m Louis Sclavis ad Thierry Francois ed Sophie Brunet
☆ Philippe Torreton (Daniel Lefebvre), Maria Pitarresi (Valeria), Nadia Kaci (Samia Damouni), Véronique Ataly (Mme Liénard), Nathalie Bécue (Cathy), Emmanuelle Bercot (Mme Tiévaux), Françoise Bette (Mme Delacourt), Christine Citti (Mme Baudoin)
'Every piece of grittiness in the film is

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

undone by a corresponding bit of slickness.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

'The secrets of a street you know.'

It Always Rains on Sunday ★★★

GB 1947 92m bw
Ealing (Henry Cornelius)

An escaped convict takes refuge in his married mistress's house in East London.
Influential slumland melodrama, now dated – the stuff of every other television play – but at the time electrifyingly vivid and very well done.
w Angus MacPhail, Robert Hamer, Henry Cornelius novel Arthur La Bern d Robert Hamer ph Douglas Slocombe m Georges Auric ad Duncan Sutherland ed Michael Truman ☆ Googie Withers (Rose Sandigate), John McCallum (Tommy Swann), Jack Warner (Detective Sgt. Fothergill), Edward Chapman (George Sandigate), Susan Shaw (Vi Sandigate), Sydney Tafler (Morry Hyams)
'Let me pay it the simplest of compliments and say that it has the persuasiveness of an exciting story professionally told.' – Sunday Times

It Came from beneath the Sea

US 1955 80m bw
Columbia/Sam Katzman (Charles Schneer)

A giant octopus half destroys San Francisco.
Tepid monster movie; special effects only fair.
w George Worthing Yates, Hal Smith d Robert Gordon ph Henry Freulich md Mischa Bakaleinikoff ad Paul Palmentola ed Jerome Thoms sp Ray Harryhausen ☆ Kenneth Tobey, Faith Domergue, Donald Curtis, Ian Keith

It Came from Outer Space ★★

US 1953 80m bw 3-D
U-I (William Alland)

A young astronomer sees a space ship land in the Arizona desert and tracks down the occupants who can adopt human appearance at will.
Quite bright science fiction, the first to use this theme of borrowing bodies and the first to utilize the Western desert locations. 3-D adds a shock moment or two.
w Harry Essex story Ray Bradbury d Jack Arnold ph Clifford Stine m Herman Stein md Joseph Gershenson
☆ Richard Carlson, Barbara Rush, Charles Drake, Kathleen Hughes
'A solid piece of eerie entertainment, replete with wild screams and bug-eyed monsters guaranteed to send scared customers out of this world.' – Hollywood Reporter
'Desert was Arnold's favourite location, and he used it consistently to create a sense of strangeness and menace otherwise much restricted by his budgets.' – Time Out, 1982

It Can't Be Winter, We Haven't Had Summer Yet

Canada 1980 84m colour
La Maison de Quatre (Louise Carré) original title: ça Peut Pas être l'Hiver, On n'a Même Pas Eu d'été

A middle-aged woman, much to the apprehension of her children, enjoys a new lease of life after her husband's death.
Too pat and comfortable to be plausible, though it has some charm, apart from a dire excursion into a pop video halfway through.
wd Louise Carré ph Robert Vanherweghem m Marc O'Farrell ed André Théberge ☆ Charlotte Boisjoli, Jacques Galipeau, Céline Lomez, Serge Bélair, Mireille Thibault, Daniel Matte, Marie-Eve Doré, Martin Neufeld

It Conquered the World

US 1956 68m bw
AIP

Something from another planet is sheltered by a well-meaning scientist who discovers too late that its intentions are evil.
Tolerable horror comic on a risibly low budget.
w Lou Rusoff d Roger Corman ph Frederick E. West m Ronald Stein
☆ Peter Graves, Beverly Garland, Lee Van Cleef, Sally Fraser, Charles B. Griffith

It Could Happen to You

US 1939 73m bw
TCF

After a stag party, an advertising man finds a body in his car.
Neat second-feature mystery.
w Allen Rivkin, Lou Breslow d Alfred Werker
☆ Stuart Erwin, Gloria Stuart, Raymond Walburn, Douglas Fowley

'A Cop. A Waitress. A Lottery Ticket.'
'Life is full of surprises.'

It Could Happen to You

US 1994 101m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Adelson/Baumgarten/Lobell/Bergman (Mike Lobell)

A married cop makes good on his offer to a waitress of half the proceeds of a lottery ticket instead of a tip, even when he wins four million dollars.
A comedy of mild charm, but too calculating to be convincing in its belief that love conquers all.
w Jane Anderson d Andrew Bergman ph Caleb Deschanel m Carter Burwell pd Bill Groom ed Barry Malkin
☆ Nicolas Cage, Bridget Fonda, Wendell Pierce, Rosie Perez, Isaac Hayes, Seymour Cassel, Victor Rojas, Red Buttons
'A lame romantic comedy that is too calculating in its cornball sentimentality to tug effectively on the heartstrings.' – Colin Brown, Screen International
'It's good escapist fun for those who enjoy the anodine.' – Marianne Gray, Film Review

It Grows on Trees

US 1952 84m bw
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

A housewife finds a money tree in her backyard.
Protracted fantasy comedy.
w Leonard Praskins, Barney Slater d Arthur Lubin ph Maury Gertsman m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen, Bernard Herzbrun ed Milton Carruth
☆ Irene Dunne, Dean Jagger, Joan Evans, Richard Crenna, Edith Meiser, Dee Pollock
† It was Irene Dunne's last film.

It Had to Be You

US 1947 98m bw
Columbia/Don Hartman

A dizzy dame runs out on three prospective husbands and is pursued by an Indian.
Weak sex farce without the courage of its lack of convictions.
w Norman Panama, Melvin Frank d Don Hartman, Rudolph Maté ph Rudolph Maté m Heinz Roemheld md Morris Stoloff
☆ Ginger Rogers, Cornel Wilde, Percy Waram, Spring Byington, Thurston Hall, Ron Randell

It Happened at the Inn: see Goupi Mains Rouges

It Happened at the World's Fair

US 1962 104m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Ted Richmond

At the Seattle World's Fair, two crop-dusting pilots have romantic intrigues.
Routine star vehicle.
w Si Rose, Seaman Jacobs d Norman Taurog ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Leith Stevens ☆ Elvis Presley, Gary Lockwood, Joan O'Brien, Yvonne Craig, Ginny Tiu

It Happened Here ★★

GB 1963 99m bw
UA/Kevin Brownlow, Andrew Mollo

What might have happened if the Germans had invaded England in 1940.
A remarkable semi-professional reconstruction which took seven years to film and is totally convincing in detail, but unfortunately rather confused and padded as drama.
wd Kevin Brownlow, Andrew Mollo ph Peter Suschitzky m Jack Beaver ☆ Sebastian Shaw, Pauline Murray, Fiona Leland, Honor Fehrson
'For a grain of artistic truth, we can forgive even the grainy photography and wavering sound with which part of it is afflicted.' – John Simon

It Happened in Athens

US 1961 100m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (James S. Elliott)

At the first revival of the Olympic Games in 1896 a publicity-seeking actress announces that she will marry whoever wins the Marathon.
Witless extravagant romp, well mounted but adding up to zero.
w Laszlo Vadnay d Andrew Marton ph Curt Courant m Manos Hadjidakis ☆ Jayne Mansfield, Trax Colton, Bob Mathias

It Happened in Brooklyn ★

US 1947 103m bw
MGM (Jack Cummings)

Young New Yorkers with musical talents find their way to fame.
Well-handled routine musical of its time.
w Isobel Lennart d Richard Whorf ph Robert Planck m Johnny Green songs Jule Styne, Sammy Cahn
☆ Frank Sinatra, Jimmy Durante, Kathryn Grayson, Peter Lawford, Gloria Grahame
'Aside from Sinatra and Durante the show amounts to practically nothing, but there is a general kindliness about it which I enjoyed.' – James Agee

It Happened in Hollywood

US 1937 67m bw
Columbia

A silent cowboy star is washed up when talkies come in.
Indifferent studio story.
w Ethel Hill, Harvey Ferguson, Sam Fuller, Myles Connolly d Harry Lachman ☆ Richard Dix, Fay Wray, Victor Kilian, Franklin Pangborn, Charles Arnt, Granville Bates
'It will have difficulty fitting in ... won't particularly satisfy 'em in the duals.' – Variety

It Happened on Fifth Avenue ★

US 1947 115m bw
Allied Artists (Roy del Ruth)

A child of divorce finds amiable squatters in her millionaire father's house.
Curious, overlong, cheerful Capraesque comedy with the mildest of social pretensions.
w Everett Freeman, Frederick Stephani, Herbert Clyde Lewis d Roy del Ruth ph Henry Sharp ☆ Gale Storm, Ann Harding, Victor Moore, Charles Ruggles, Don Defore original story

'Together For The First Time!'

It Happened One Night ★★★★

US 1934 105m bw
Columbia (Frank Capra)

A runaway heiress falls in love with the reporter who is chasing her across America.
Highly successful and influential romantic comedy, the first to use buses and motels as background and still come up sparkling. Its success began the genre of screwball comedies that enlivened the 1930s and 40s.
w Robert Riskin story Night Bus by Samuel Hopkins Adams d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker md Louis Silvers ad Stephen Goosson ed Gene Havlick
☆ Clark Gable (Peter Warne), Claudette Colbert (Ellie Andrews), Walter Connolly (Alexander Andrews), Roscoe Karns (Oscar Shapeley), Alan Hale (Danker), Ward Bond (Bus Driver), Jameson Thomas (King Westley), Arthur Hoyt (Zeke)
'A laughing hit that will mean important coin.' – Variety
'It will be a long day before we see so little made into so much.' – Otis Ferguson
'Something to revive your faith in a medium which could belong among the great arts.' – Robert Forsythe
'We may look askance at Capra's sententious notions about the miserable rich and the happy poor, but there's no doubting the chord he struck in depression audiences.' – Time Out, 1980
'It made audiences happy in a way that only a few films in each era do. In the mid-30s, the Colbert and Gable of this film became Americans' idealized view of themselves – breezy, likeable, sexy, gallant, and maybe just a little harebrained. It was the Annie Hall of its day – before the invention of anxiety.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
'One of the most entertaining films that has ever been offered to the public.' – Observer † Remade 1956 (badly) as You Can't Run Away From It.
†† Robert Montgomery was the first choice for the Gable role, but he refused it because he had been on a bus in Fugitive Lovers. The Colbert role was first offered to Myrna Loy, Margaret Sullavan and Constance Bennett. Colbert was lured by a 40,000-dollar fee.
††† Steven Spielberg paid $607,500 at a 1996 auction for Clark Gable's Oscar, which he then presented to the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.
best picture; Robert Riskin; Frank Capra; Clark Gable; Claudette Colbert

It Happened One Summer: see State Fair (1945)

It Happened One Sunday

GB 1943 99m bw
ABPC

In Liverpool, a Canadian seaman falls for an Irish maid.
Overlong romantic comedy with nowhere to go.

w Victor Skutezky, Frederic Gotfurt, Stephen Black d Karel Lamac
☆ Robert Beatty, Barbara White, Marjorie Rhodes, Ernest Butcher, Judy Kelly, Irene Vanbrugh

'A warm, wonderful movie that's stacked with joy for the whole family!'

It Happened to Jane

US 1959 98m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia/Arwin (Richard Quine)
A lady lobster dealer becomes involved in a battle with the railroad whose inefficiency affects her business.
Witless, wholesome farce which promises more than it delivers.
w Norman Katkov d Richard Quine
ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning
☆ Doris Day, Jack Lemmon, Ernie Kovacs, Steve Forrest
'Up to a point, this is a funny comedy. The point is reached about three-quarters of the way through when the film abruptly changes form and loses momentum.' – Variety

It Happened Tomorrow ★★★

US 1944 84m bw
UA/Arnold Pressburger
A reporter meets an old man with the power to show him tomorrow's newspaper headlines, so that he always gets scoops – including his own death...
Engaging fantasy, flawlessly made and quietly very entertaining.
w Dudley Nichols, René Clair d René Clair ph Archie Stout m Robert Stolz ☆ Dick Powell, Linda Darnell, Jack Oakie, John Philliber, Edgar Kennedy, Ed Brophy, George Cleveland, Sig Rumann
'Students of cinematic style will find many shrewdly polished bits to admire and enjoy.' – James Agee
'Diverting escapist entertainment for all audiences.' – Variety
Robert Stolz

It Happens Every Spring

US 1949 80m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)
A chemistry teacher discovers a formula that makes baseballs repellent to wood.
Smartly produced but rather desperate fantasy comedy.
w Valentine Davies d Lloyd Bacon ph Joe MacDonald m Leigh Harline ☆ Ray Milland, Jean Peters, Paul Douglas, Ed Begley, Ted de Corsia, Ray Collins, Jessie Royce Landis, Alan Hale Jnr original story (Shirley W. Smith, Valentine Davies)

It Happens Every Thursday ★

US 1953 80m bw
U-I (Anton Leader)
The new owner of a small-town newspaper becomes unpopular through his attempts to boost the circulation.
Pleasant comedy with amusing scenes.
w Dane Lussier d Joseph Pevney
ph Russell Metty m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Loretta Young, John Forsythe, Jimmy Conlin, Frank McHugh, Edgar Buchanan, Jane Darwell

It Hurts Only When I Laugh: see Only When I Laugh

It Lives Again

US 1978 91m colour
Warner/Larco (Larry Cohen)
aka: It's Alive II
Three mutant killer babies are protected by a scientist from a cop determined to kill them.
A sequel to It's Alive that is less effective because the babies are too visible for too much of the time.
wd Larry Cohen ph Fenton Hamilton m Bernard Herrmann ed Curt Burch, Louis Friedman, Carol O'Blath
☆ Frederic Forrest, Kathleen Lloyd, John P. Ryan, John Marley, Andrew Duggan, Eddie Constantine, James Dixon
† It was followed by It's Alive III (qv).

It Rains on Our Love ★

Sweden 1946 95m bw
Sveriges Folkbiografer (Lorens Marmstedt) original title: Det Regnar Pa Var Kärlek
aka: Man with an Umbrella
A pregnant girl meets an ex-prisoner while waiting for a train and they decide to live together.
A mainly light-hearted movie about two irresponsible people making the best of the worst that life has to offer.
w Ingmar Bergman, Herbert Grevenius play Oscar Braathen d Ingmar Bergman ph Göran Strindberg, Hilding Bladh m Erland von Koch ad P. A. Lundgren ed Tage Holmberg ☆ Barbro Kollberg, Birger Malmsten, Gösta Cederlund, Ludde Gentzel, Douglas Hage, Hjördis Pettersson, Benkt-Ake Benktsson, Sture Ericson

'Some families can survive anything. Even each other.'

It Runs in the Family ④

US DeLuxe Panavision
MGM/Buena Vista/Further Films (Michael Douglas)
In New York, a dysfunctional family attempt to reconcile a father and son who are locked in rivalry with each other.
In a perfect world, the Douglas family would constitute the audience for this expensive home movie; they're the only ones who are likely to enjoy it.
w Jesse Wigutow d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Paul Grabowsky pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Kate Williams
☆ Michael Douglas (Alex Gromberg), Kirk Douglas (Mitchell Gromberg), Rory Culkin (Eli Gromberg), Cameron Douglas (Asher Gromberg), Diana Douglas (Evelyn Gromberg), Bernadette Peters (Rebecca Gromberg), Michelle Monaghan (Peg Maloney), Geoffrey Arend (Malik)
'A big-screen family folly in which celebrated screen stars get together to foist their genetic backslapping on the rest of us.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

It Should Happen to You ★★

US 1954 87m bw
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)
A slightly daffy New York model with an urge to be famous rents a huge billboard and puts her name on it.
Likeable comedy which starts brightly and slowly falls apart, disappointing considering the credentials of the talents involved and the satiric possibilities of the plot.
w Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin d George Cukor ph Charles Lang m Frederick Hollander ☆ Judy Holliday, Jack Lemmon, Peter Lawford, Michael O'Shea
'One of the funniest films to come out of Hollywood.' – Life

It Shouldn't Happen to a Vet

GB 1976 93m Technicolor
EMI/Talent Associates/Readers Digest
US title: All Things Bright and Beautiful
Adventures of a Yorkshire vet just before World War II.
Competent sequel to All Creatures Great and Small (qv).
w Alan Plater books James Herriot d Eric Till ph Arthur Ibbetson m Laurie Johnson
☆ John Alderton, Colin Blakely, Lisa Harrow, Bill Maynard, Richard Pearson, Raymond Francis, John Barrett, Paul Shelley

It Started in Naples ★

US 1960 100m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Capri (Jack Rose)
A Philadelphia lawyer goes to Naples to settle his dead brother's affairs, and falls for his nephew's aunt.
Nicely made, formula romantic comedy which started life as a vehicle for Gracie Fields.
w Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose, Suso Cecchi d'Amico d Melville Shavelson ph Robert Surtees m Alessandro Cicognini ad Hal Pereira, Roland Anderson ☆ Clark Gable, Sophia Loren, Vittorio de Sica, Marietto, Paulo Carlini
art direction

It Started in Paradise

GB 1952 94m Technicolor
GFD/British Film Makers (Leslie Parkyn, Sergei Nolbandov)
The career of an ambitious dress designer.
Stilted and garishly coloured but often amusing backstage melodrama of the fashion world: a Hollywood-style star vehicle which seems faintly surprising as a British product.
w Marghanita Laski d Compton Bennett ph Jack Cardiff m Malcolm Arnold
ad Edward Carrick
☆ Jane Hylton, Ian Hunter, Terence Morgan, Muriel Pavlow, Brian Worth, Martita Hunt, Ronald Squire, Harold Lang, Joyce Barbour, Kay Kendall

It Started with a Kiss

US 1959 104m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM/Arcola (Aaron Rosenberg)
An army sergeant posted to Spain is embarrassed when his wife follows him.
Flabby comedy with the emphasis on sex and pratfalls.
w Charles Lederer d George Marshall
ph Robert Bronner m Jeff Alexander
☆ Glenn Ford, Debbie Reynolds, Fred Clark, Edgar Buchanan, Eva Gabor

It Started with Eve ★★

US 1941 93m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)
A dying millionaire wants to see his grandson engaged, so a waitress obliges for an hour ... but the old man recovers.
Charming comedy which was probably the star's best film; remade as I'd Rather be Rich (qv).
w Norman Krasna, Leo Townsend
d Henry Koster ph Rudolph Maté md Charles Previn, Hans Salter
☆ Deanna Durbin, Charles Laughton, Robert Cummings, Margaret Tallichet, Guy Kibbee, Walter Catlett, Catherine Doucet
'The perfect 8 to 80 picture.' – Variety
Charles Previn, Hans Salter

It Takes Two

US 1988 79m colour
United Artists (Robert Lawrence)
Three days before his wedding, a gullible 20-year-old Texan goes to the big city to buy a car and is taken for a ride.
A broad comedy that confuses energy and wit, leaving its audience tired rather than amused.
w Richard Christian Matheson, Thomas Szollosi d David Beaird ph Peter Deming m Carter Burwell pd Richard Hoover ed David Garfield
☆ George Newbern, Leslie Hope, Kimberly Foster, Barry Corbin, Anthony Geary, Frances Lee McCain

It Takes Two

US 1995 98m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Rysher/Dualstar (James Orr, Jim Cruickshank)
A 10-year-old orphan switches places with a rich girl who resembles her.
A modern, not very interesting, variation on The Prince and the Pauper, which may keep those who can identify with its twee heroines moderately quiet on a rainy afternoon.
w Deborah Dean Davis d Andy Tennant
ph Kenneth D. Zunder m Sherman Foote, Ray Foote pd Ed Pisoni ed Roger Bondelli ☆ Kirstie Alley, Steve Guttenberg, Mary-Kate Olsen, Ashley Olsen, Philip Bosco, Jane Sibbett, Michelle Grisom, Desmond Roberts
'A predictable if not entirely charmless film, assembled from all the hoary clichés known to "B"-grade Hollywood.' – Andy Richards, Sight and Sound

It! The Terror from Beyond Space

US 1958 69m bw
Vogue/United Artists
A space ship returning from Mars is invaded by a worm-like monster.
Laughable but lively precursor of Alien; rather more fun on the whole.
w Jerome Bixby d Edward L. Cahn ph Kenneth Peach m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter ad William Glasgow ☆ Marshall Thompson, Shawn Smith, Kim Spaulding, Ann Doran, Dabbs Greer

It Was An Accident

GB/France 2000 96m Technicolor
Pathé/Arts Council/Canal+ (Paul Goodman)
An ex-convict who wants to go straight finds the odds stacked against him.
A jokey drama of petty crooks and thwarted romance, enjoyable enough but small-scale.
w Ol Parker novel Jeremy Cameron d Metin Huseyin ph Guy Defaux m Courtney Pine pd Joseph Bennett ed Annie Kocur cos Susannah Buxton
☆ Chiwetel Ejiofor (Nicky Burkett), Thandie Newton (Noreen Hurlock), Hugh Quarshie (George Hurlock), Max Beesley (Mickey Cousins), James Bolam (Fitch), Nicola Stapleton (Kelly), Neil Dudgeon (Holdsworth), Sidh Solanki (Rameez), Cavan Clerkin (Jimmy Foley), Jacqueline Williams (Sharon Burkett)
'A surprisingly genial London gangster comedy with its own distinct flavor and good ensemble chemistry among the multiethnic cast.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Lessons in the language of love.'

Italian for Beginners ★★

Denmark 2000 112m colour
Pathé/Zentropa/DRTV/DFI (Ib Tardini)

original title: Italiensk for Begyndere

A young widowed minister moves to a new parish and joins an evening class filled wqith love-lorn locals.

Charming, but also sharply observant, comedy of suburban life and domestic traumas as shy and edgy individuals edge towards relationships with one another.

wd Lone Scherfig ph Jørgen Johansson m Puccini et al ed Gerd Tjur

☆ Anders W. Berthelsen (Andreas), Anette Støvelbaek (Olympia), Peter Gantzler (Jørgen Mortensen), Ann Eleonora Jørgensen (Karen), Lars Kaalund (Hal-Finn), Sara Indrio Jensen (Giulia), Elsbeth Steentoft (Verger), Rikke Wölck (Nurse)

'A delicious and delicately funny look at the residents of a Copenhagen neighborhood coping with the befuddling complications life tosses at them.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

The Italian Job ★★

GB 1969 100m Eastmancolor Panavision
Paramount/Oakhurst (Michael Deeley)

Crooks stage a traffic jam in Turin in order to pull off a bullion robbery.

Lively caper comedy that provides a good measure of entertainment.

w Troy Kennedy Martin d Peter Collinson ph Douglas Slocombe, Norman Warwick m Quincy Jones pd Disley Jones ed John Trumper

☆ Michael Caine (Charlie Crocker), Noël Coward (Mr Bridger), Benny Hill (Prof Simon Peach), Raf Vallone (Altabani), Tony Beckley (Camp Freddie), Rossano Brazzi (Beckerman), Maggie Blye (Lorna), Irene Handl (Miss Peach), John Le Mesurier (Governor), Fred Emney (Birkenshaw)

Crocker (Michael Caine): 'You're only supposed to blow the bloody doors off.'

'Thinly scripted, routine thriller... lifted off the ground (both figuratively and literally) by some superb stunt driving.' – MFB

'Get in. Get out. Get even.'

The Italian Job ⑥

US 2003 111m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Donald De Line)

After they are double-crossed in a bullion robbery, a gang of crooks plan to get back their gold.

Only the Minis survive in this remake, which is otherwise a straightforward revenge thriller with little wit or interest.

w Donna Powers, Wayne Powers screenplay Troy Kennedy Martin d F. Gary Gray ph Wally Pfister m John Powell pd Charles Wood ed Richard Francis-Bruce, Christopher Rouse

☆ Mark Wahlberg (Charlie Croker), Charlize Theron (Stella Bridger), Edward Norton (Steve), Seth Green (Lyle), Jason Statham (Handsome Rob), Mos Def (Left Ear), Franky G (Wrench), Donald Sutherland (John Bridger)

'The stunts are more convincing than the performances. The sentiment is gruesome.' – James Christopher, Times

'For two hours, the bliss of the brainless fluff is yours for the asking. It cheerfully puts the escape back in escapism.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

† It took more than $106m at the US box-office.

Italian Movie

US 1994 95m colour
DiLauro (Peter Guzzardo)

Desperate to pay off his gambling debts, a good-looking, married pizza restaurant owner finds work as a gigolo.

Dull domestic drama among an Italian-American community that seems to owe its video release to the involvement of newly popular James Gandolfini, even though he plays a minor and unattractive role.

w Angela Sciddurlo Rago, Eugenia Bone story Broken Honor by Marco Cristino d Roberto Monticello ph Ray Preziosi m Hayden Wayne pd Stephanie Carroll ed Janice Keuhnelian

☆ Michael Dellafemina (Leonardo), Caprice Benedetti (Anna), Janet Sarno (Nina), James Gandolfini (Angelo), Paul Carafotes (Philipo), Anthony Alessandro (Alfredo), Rita Moreno (Isabella)

An Italian Straw Hat ★★★

France 1927 74m (24 fps) bw silent Albatross

original title: Un Chapeau de Paille d'Italie

A bridegroom is prevented from getting to his wedding when his horse chews up a lady's straw hat and her escort demands that it be replaced.

Lively but gentle comedy of errors, a stage farce expanded for the screen and filled with visual gags. A very influential and still amusing piece.

wd René Clair play Eugène Labiche ph Maurice Desfassiaux, Nicolas Roudakoff ad Lazare Meerson

☆ Albert Préjean (Fadinard), Olga Tschekowa (Anais), Marise Maia (Helene), Alice Tissot (A Cousin)

'The very springtime of screen comedy.' – Tatler

'One of the funniest films ever made.' – Tribune, 1945

'Still one of the funniest films in the world.' – Sunday Times, 1948

ItalianAmerican

US 1974 45m colour/bw
National Communications Foundation (Saul Rubin, Elaine Attias)

Martin Scorsese's affectionate portrait of his parents, as they talk about their upbringing, and their enjoyment of food, showing holiday snaps mainly of people at dinner.

A sophisticated home movie, rooting a family in their environment. The credits include the recipe for Mrs Scorsese's meatball sauce.

wd Martin Scorsese ph Alex Hirshfeld

☆ Catherine and Charles Scorsese

† It was released on video with three other shorts under the title 4 x Scorsese.

Italiensk for Begyndere: see Italian for Beginners

It's a 2'6" above the Ground World

GB 1972 96m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Welbeck/Betty E. Box-Ralph Thomas aka: The Love Ban

A Roman Catholic couple go on the pill.

Smutty, not very funny sex comedy.

w Kevin Laffan play Kevin Laffan d Ralph Thomas ph Tony Imi m Stanley Myers

☆ Nanette Newman, Hywel Bennett, Russell Lewis, Simon Henderson, Milo O'Shea

'Offering cheap thrills and easy laughs on the side by filling the screen with capering nudes.' – Clyde Jeavons

It's a Big Country

US 1952 89m bw
MGM (Robert Sisk)

Seven stories show the diversity of the US and the glory of being one of its citizens.

Stultifying flagwaver memorable chiefly as a waste of good actors.

w William Ludwig, Helen Deutsch, George Wells, Allen Rivkin, Dorothy Kingsley, Isobel Lennart d Richard Thorpe, Don Weis, John Sturges, Don Hartman, William Wellman, Charles Vidor, Clarence Brown ph John Alton, Ray June, William Mellor, Joseph Ruttenberg m Bronislau Kaper, Rudolph G. Kopp, David Raksin, David Rose

☆ Ethel Barrymore, Keefe Brasselle, Nancy Davis, Van Johnson, Gene Kelly, Janet Leigh, Marjorie Main, Fredric March, George Murphy, William Powell, S. Z. Sakall, Lewis Stone, James Whitmore

'They've turned into the things they hated most... each other.'

It's a Boy/Girl Thing ④

Canada/UK 2006 94m
Icon/Prospero Pictures/Rocket Pictures/Scion Films (David Furnish, Martin Katz, Steve Hamilton Shaw)

A high school jock swaps bodies with the prissy swot who lives next door.

Flaccid teen reprise of Vice Versa, only partially redeemed by its fresh-faced stars.

w Geoff Deane d Nick Hurran ph Steve Danyluk m Christian Henson pd Craig Lathrop ad Jon P Goulding ed John Richards

☆ Kevin Zegers (Woody Deane), Samaire Armstrong (Nell Bedworth), Emily Hampshire (Chanel), Brooke D'Orsay (Breanna), Maury Chaykin (Mr Deane), Sharon Osbourne (Mrs Deane)

'What might have been yet another ho-hum entry into an already overcrowded field manages to rise above mediocrity thanks to two young leads who are clearly destined for big things.' – David Edwards, Daily Mirror

† Singer Elton John was one of the film's executive producers.

It's a Date ★

US 1940 100m bw
Universal/Joe Pasternak

The daughter of a Broadway musical heroine has stage ambitions of her own, and chases an older man who is more interested in her mother.

Fairly pleasant but unduly elongated star comedy.

w Norman Krasna d William Seiter ph Joe Valentine m Charles Previn

☆ Deanna Durbin, Walter Pidgeon, Kay Francis, Eugene Pallette, Henry Stephenson, Cecilia Loftus, Samuel S. Hinds, S. Z. Sakall

'A natural which will roll grosses of upper bracket proportions.' – Variety

It's a Dog's Life: see The Bar Sinister

It's a Gift ★★

US 1934 73m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)

A general store proprietor buys an orange ranch by mail and transports his family to California.

Roughly assembled comedy of disasters which happens to show the star more or less at his best, though the expected climax is lacking.

w Jack Cunningham story W. C. Fields, J. P. McEvoy d Norman Z. McLeod ph Henry Sharp

☆ W. C. Fields, Kathleen Howard, Jean Rouverol, Julian Madison, Tommy Bupp, Baby LeRoy

'An enormously amusing succession of rough and ready gags.' – Literary Digest

It's a Grand Life

GB 1953 102m bw
Mancunian/John E. Blakeley

A nitwit army private plays Cupid.

Senseless and under-rehearsed farce which has interest for fans of the usually drunken star.

w H. F. Maltby, Frank Randle d John E. Blakeley ph Ernest Palmer ad Alec Gray ed Dorothy Stimson

☆ Frank Randle, Diana Dors, Dan Young, Michael Brennan, Jennifer Jayne, John Blythe

† The film opens with the disclaimer: 'This film has been produced with the sole intention of providing Burlesque Comedy Entertainment, and is not meant in any way to be derogatory to any of the Services.'

It's a Great Day!

GB 1956 71m bw
Butchers/Grove (Victor Lyndon)

A jobbing builder is suspected of theft and, with his family, prevented from attending a royal event.

Film version of The Grove Family, Britain's first TV soap opera, a mix of comedy and domestic drama; it is well enough done, but more of sociological interest than anything else.

w Michael and Roland Pertwee d John Warrington ph Cedric Williams m Eric Spear ad Norman Arnold ed Joseph Sterling

☆ Ruth Dunning, Edward Evans, Peter Bryant, Nancy Roberts, Sheila Sweet, Margaret Downs, Christopher Beeny, Vera Day, Sidney James, Victor Maddern

It's a Great Feeling ★

US 1949 85m Technicolor
Warner (Alex Gottlieb)

No one will direct a Jack Carson movie, so he has to do it himself.

Amiable studio farce with plenty of guest appearances.

w Jack Rose, Mel Shavelson d David Butler ph Wilfrid M. Cline m Ray Heindorf songs Jule Styne, Sammy Cahn

☆ Jack Carson, Doris Day, Dennis Morgan, Bill Goodwin, Gary Cooper, Joan Crawford, Errol Flynn, Sydney Greenstreet, Danny Kaye, Patricia Neal, Edward G. Robinson, Jane Wyman, Eleanor Parker, Ronald Reagan

♫ title song

It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World ★★

US 1963 192m Technicolor Ultra Panavision 70
UA/Stanley Kramer

An assortment of people including a frustrated cop are overcome by greed when they hear of buried loot.

Three hours of frantic chasing and violent slapstick is too much even when done on this scale and with this cast, but one must observe that scene for scene it is extremely well done and most of the players are in unusually good form though they all outstay their welcome and are upstaged by the stunt men

w William and Tania Rose d Stanley Kramer ph Ernest Laszlo m Ernest Gold stunts Carey Loftin titles Saul Bass
☆ Spencer Tracy, Jimmy Durante, Milton Berle, Sid Caesar, Ethel Merman, Buddy Hackett, Mickey Rooney, Dick Shawn, Phil Silvers, Terry-Thomas, Jonathan Winters, Edie Adams, Dorothy Provine, Eddie Anderson, Jim Backus and also William Demarest, Peter Falk, Paul Ford, Leo Gorcey, Ben Blue, Edward Everett Horton, Buster Keaton, Joe E. Brown, Carl Reiner, the Three Stooges, ZaSu Pitts, Sterling Holloway, Jack Benny, Jerry Lewis

'To watch on a Cinerama screen in full colour a small army of actors inflict mayhem on each other with cars, planes, explosives and other devices for more than three hours with stereophonic sound effects is simply too much for the human eye and ear to respond to, let alone the funny bone.' – Dwight MacDonald

Ⓐ Ernest Laszlo; Ernest Gold; title song (m Ernest Gold, ly Mack David)

It's a Pleasure

US 1945 90m Technicolor
International/RKO

The career of an ice-skating couple is interrupted when he takes to drink.
Unimpressive vehicle from the star's waning years: the numbers are good but the rest very soggy.
w Lynn Starling, Elliot Paul d William A. Seiter
☆ Sonja Henie, Michael O'Shea, Marie McDonald

It's a Small World

US 1935 72m bw
Fox

A man and woman fall in love after being stranded by a car crash in a small Louisiana town.
Mildly amusing comedy.
w Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman d Irving Cummings
☆ Spencer Tracy, Wendy Barrie, Raymond Walburn, Virginia Sale, Irving Bacon

'Very weak entertainment, strictly for double bills.' – Variety

It's a Wise Child

US 1931 73m bw
Cosmopolitan/MGM

When a girl is thought to be pregnant, her family hunts the father.
Tasteless comedy with too few laughs.
w Laurence E. Johnson play Laurence E. Johnson d Robert Z. Leonard ☆ Marion Davies, Sidney Blackmer, James Gleason, Polly Moran, Marie Prevost, Lester Vail

'No subject matter here for family audiences ... it must prove embarrassing to young unmarried couples attending the theatre together.' – Variety

It's a Wonderful Life ★★★★

US 1946 129m bw
RKO/Liberty Films (Frank Capra)

A man is prevented from committing suicide by an elderly angel, who takes him back through his life to show him what good he has done.
Superbly assembled small-town comedy drama in a fantasy framework; arguably Capra's best and most typical work.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Frank Capra d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker, Joseph Biroc m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Jack Okey ed William Hornbeck
☆ James Stewart (George Bailey), Henry Travers (Clarence), Donna Reed (Mary Hatch), Lionel Barrymore (Mr. Potter), Thomas Mitchell (Uncle Billy), Beulah Bondi (Mrs. Bailey), Frank Faylen (Ernie), Ward Bond (Bert), Gloria Grahame (Violet Bick), H. B. Warner (Mr. Gower), Frank Albertson (Sam Wainwright), Samuel S. Hinds (Pa Bailey), Mary Treen (Cousin Tilly)
CLARENCE (HENRY TRAVERS): 'Every time you hear a bell ring, it means that some angel's just got his wings.'

'One of the most efficient sentimental pieces since A Christmas Carol.' – James Agee
'The most brilliantly made motion picture of the 1940s, so assured, so dazzling in its use of screen narrative.' – Charles Higham
'In its own icky, bittersweet way, it's terribly effective.' – New Yorker, 1977
'At its best all this seems to me insipid, and at its worst an embarrassment to both flesh and spirit.' – Richard Winnington, News Chronicle

Ⓐ best picture; Frank Capra; James Stewart; editing

It's a Wonderful World ★

US 1939 86m bw
MGM (Frank Davis)

Kidnapped by a suspected murderer, a girl helps him track down the real criminal.
Madcap comedy mystery which now seems much fresher and funnier than it did at the time. A highlight of the crazy comedy cycle.
w Ben Hecht, Herman J. Mankiewicz d W. S. Van Dyke II ph Oliver Marsh
m Edward Ward
☆ Claudette Colbert (Edwina Corday), James Stewart (Guy Johnson), Guy Kibbee (Capt Streeter), Nat Pendleton (Sgt Koretz), Frances Drake (Vivian Tarbel), Edgar Kennedy (Lt Meller), Ernest Truex (Willie Heyward), Richard Carle, Sidney Blackmer, Andy Clyde, Cliff Clark, Hans Conried

'It's right down the alley for general audiences.' – Variety
'One of the few genuinely comic pictures in a dog's age.' – Otis Ferguson

It's a Wonderful World

GB 1956 90m Technicolor
Spectascope
Renown/George Minter

Two songwriters struggle to compose a hit song, until one discovers a way to be successful: by recording an old tune backwards.
Dull and uninspired musical, making fun of modern styles, but only offering in its stead some extremely dreary examples of 50s pop.
wd Val Guest ph Wilkie Cooper md Robert Farnon ad Elven Webb
ed John Pomeroy
☆ Terence Morgan, George Cole, Kathleen Harrison, Mylene Nicole (aka Mylene Demongeot), James Hayter, Richard Wattis, Reginald Beckwith, Maurice Kaufmann, Harold Lang, Ted Heath and His Music

'Save your screams till you see its face!'

It's Alive

US 1974 91m Technicolor
Warner/Larco (Larry Cohen)

A new-born baby turns out to be a vicious monster.
Exploitation horror flick in the worst of taste, with a good central performance.
wd Larry Cohen ph Fenton Hamilton
m Bernard Herrmann ed Peter Honess
☆ John Ryan, Sharon Farrell, Andrew Duggan, Guy Stockwell, James Dixon, Michael Ansara

'The best horror movie ever.' – Quentin Crisp, Christopher Street
† It was followed by It Lives Again and It's Alive III: Island of The Alive (qv).

It's Alive II: see It Lives Again

It's Alive III: Island of the Alive

US 1988 91m Technicolor
Warner/Larco (Paul Stader)

A mutant baby, whose father has gone to court to protect his right to live, swiftly grows to adulthood on a remote island with others of his kind and then heads back to America with his own child.
Wild, undisciplined horror film full of satirical thrusts at everything from attitudes to AIDS to media exploitation.
wd Larry Cohen ph Daniel Pearl
m Laurie Johnson, Bernard Herrmann ad George Stoll ed David Kern sp Steve Neill, Rick Baker, William Hedge ☆ Michael Moriarty, Karen Black, Laurene Landon, James Dixon, Neal Israel, Art Lund, Ann Dane, Macdonald Carey, Gerrit Graham

'This is from the Cohen home-movie stable and non-aficionados should beware: production values and special effects are as hokey as ever.' – Anne Billson, Shock Xpress
† The film was shot in four weeks in Hawaii and Los Angeles.

'The Legend of Frankie Wilde - the Deaf DJ.'

It's All Gone Pete Tong ④

GB/Canada 2004 89m colour
Redbus/Alliance Atlantis/Odeon/Vertigo/True West (Allan Niblo, James Richardson, Elizabeth Yake)

A DJ living a fast life of drugs and faster women in Ibiza, realises that he is going deaf.
Unlovely mock documentary with crude humour and saccharine sentimentality; it is not so much candid in its attitude to its anti-hero as candied.
wd Michael Dowse ph Balasz Bolygo
m Graham Massey pd Paul Burns
ed Stuart Gazzard
☆ Paul Kaye (Frankie Wilde), Beatriz Batarda (Penelope), Mike Wilmot (Max Hagger), Dave Lawrence (Horst), Paul J. Spence (Alfonse), Kate Magowan (Sonia)

'Breathtakingly charmless and humourless, and the whole subject is surely years past its sell-by date.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

It's All Happening

GB 1963 101m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Magna/KNP (Norman Williams)
US title: The Dream Maker

A talent scout for a recording agency helps to save an orphanage and makes himself a star in the process.
Unassuming, jolly little comedy with music; a better title would have made it more memorable.
w Leigh Vance d Don Sharp ph Ken Hodges m Philip Green
☆ Tommy Steele, Angela Douglas, Michael Medwin, Bernard Bresslaw, Walter Hudd, Jean Harvey, Richard Goolden

It's All Yours

US 1937 80m bw
Columbia

A millionaire leaves a fortune to his favourite secretary, hoping that it will make his nephew take notice of her.
Unpersuasive romantic comedy with slightly crazy touches.
w Mary C. McCall Jnr d Elliott Nugent
☆ Madeleine Carroll, Francis Lederer, Mischa Auer, Grace Bradley

'Of the whimsy, gay school currently in vogue ... too light to figure importantly at solo b.o.' – Variety

It's Always Fair Weather ★★

US 1955 101m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Arthur Freed)

In 1945 three army veterans vow to meet ten years on, but they find each other dull failures until they go on a wild spree.
Rather dejected New Yorkish comedy with musical sequences; some of it works very well, but the colour is crude and the wide screen doesn't help.
d Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen ph Robert Bronner md André Previn w/m/ly Betty Comden, Adolph Green
☆ Gene Kelly, Dan Dailey, Michael Kidd, Dolores Gray, Cyd Charisse
† Michael Kidd's vocals were dubbed by Jud Conlin.
Ⓐ Betty Comden, Adolph Green (as writers); André Previn

It's Great to Be Young ★

GB 1956 93m Technicolor
AB-Pathé/Marble Arch (Victor Skutezky)

A popular teacher falls foul of the new headmaster who tries to disband the school orchestra.
Very acceptable but totally forgettable star comedy.
w Ted Willis d Cyril Frankel ph Gilbert Taylor m Ray Martin, Lester Powell, John Addison ☆ John Mills, Cecil Parker, Jeremy Spenser, Dorothy Bromiley, John Salew, Derek Blomfield, Eleanor Summerfield, Bryan Forbes

It's Hard to Be Good

GB 1948 93m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Jeffrey Dell)

A demobbed war hero determines to spread peace and goodwill, but comes one cropper after another.
Well intended but somehow unprofessional comedy which irritates more than it amuses.
wd Jeffrey Dell ph Laurie Friedman
m Antony Hopkins
☆ Jimmy Hanley, Anne Crawford, Raymond Huntley

It's Hot in Hell: see A Monkey in Winter

It's in the Air ★

GB 1938 86m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)
US title: George Takes the Air

Adventures of an accident-prone RAF recruit.
Amiable star comedy with good situations and songs.
wd Anthony Kimmins ph Gordon Dines, Ronald Neame
☆ George Formby, Garry Marsh, Polly Ward, Julien Mitchell, Jack Hobbs, Hal Gordon

It's in the Bag: see L'Affaire est dans le Sac (1932)

It's in the Bag ★★

US 1945 87m bw
(UA)
GB title: The Fifth Chair

The owner of a flea circus seeks a legacy

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

hidden in one of five chairs which have been sold to a variety of people.
Patchily amusing, star-studded comedy which was also filmed as Keep Your Seats Please and The Twelve Chairs. Full enjoyment requires some knowledge of American radio characters.
w Jay Dratler, Alma Reville d Richard Wallace ph Russell Metty m Werner Heymann
☆ Fred Allen, Binnie Barnes, Jack Benny, Robert Benchley, Don Ameche, Victor Moore, Rudy Vallee, William Bendix, Jerry Colonna
'An untidy piece that doesn't make the most of itself but is full of fun.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

It's Love Again ★

GB 1936 83m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)
A chorus girl poses as a socialite who has hit the headlines without ever existing.
Delightfully dated comedy musical.
w Lesser Samuels, Marion Dix, Austin Melford d Victor Saville ph Glen MacWilliams m Louis Levy, Bretton Byrd md Louis Levy ad Alfred Junge ed A. L. Barnes songs Harry Woods, Sam Coslow
☆ Jessie Matthews, Robert Young, Sonnie Hale, Ernest Milton, Robb Wilton, Sara Allgood, Athene Seyler, Cyril Raymond
'Mr Saville has directed it with speed, efficiency and a real sense of the absurd.' – Graham Greene

'The tops in topsy-turvy romance!'

It's Love I'm After ★

US 1937 90m bw
Warner (Harry Joe Brown)
A beloved stage star couple fight like cat and dog behind the scenes.
Amusing romantic farce which has worn rather less well than might have been expected but does present two stars at their peak.
w Casey Robinson d Archie Mayo ph James Van Trees m Heinz Roemheld ☆ Bette Davis, Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Patric Knowles, Eric Blore, George Barbier, Spring Byington, Bonita Granville, E. E. Clive
'Smash comedy hit. Arrange extra playing time for this one.' – Variety
'One of the most delightful and diverting comedies the madcap cinema has yet turned out.' – New York World Telegram
'Proceeds like a somewhat deranged Taming of the Shrew ... [BD and LH] are surrounded by that set of millionaires, valets and heiresses that were at one time as much of a convention in American comedy as the fops of Restoration theatre.' – American Film Institute

It's Magic: see Romance on the High Seas

It's My Party

US 1996 110m DeLuxe
UA/Opala (Joel Thurm, Randal Kleiser)
A handsome Los Angeles architect, who discovers that he is HIV-positive and facing imminent death, decides to end his life with a two-day party.
A sentimental comedy with the most prolonged death-bed scene since the departure of Little Nell; those who can identify with its protagonist will enjoy it most.
wd Randal Kleiser ph Bernd Heinl m Basil Poledouris pd Clark Hunter ed Ila von Hasperg
☆ Eric Roberts, Gregory Harrison, Margaret Cho, Bruce Davison, Lee Grant, Devon Gummersall, Marlee Matlin, Roddy McDowall, Olivia Newton-John, Bronson Pinchot, George Segal, Dennis Christopher, Sally Kellerman
'Not since Tom Sawyer attended his own funeral has there been such an orgy of weepy self-congratulation.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

It's My Turn

US 1980 90m Metrocolor
Columbia/Rastar/Martin Elfand
A lady mathematics professor decides to seize her chances when she falls for the son of her father's new wife.
Unattractive and rather uninteresting comedy-drama with strong overtones of women's lib.
w Eleanor Bergstein d Claudia Weill ph Bill Butler m Patrick Williams ☆ Jill Clayburgh, Michael Douglas, Charles Grodin, Beverly Garland, Steven Hill

It's Never Too Late

GB 1956 95m Eastmancolor
Park Lane/ABP
A mother considered dull by her family starts a new career as a scriptwriter.
Acceptable but quite unexciting matinée comedy.
w Edward Dryhurst play Felicity Douglas d Michael McCarthy ☆ Phyllis Calvert, Guy Rolfe, Susan Stephen, Patrick Barr, Delphi Lawrence, Sarah Lawson, Peter Hammond

It's Never Too Late to Mend

GB 1937 67m bw
George King
An evil squire schemes for the hand of the farmer's beautiful daughter.
Archetypal melodrama of the 'Fie, Sir Jasper' school, mainly interesting in this version for the antics of its heavy-breathing star.
w H. F. Maltby play Charles Reade, Arthur Shirley d David MacDonald ph Hone Glendinning
☆ Tod Slaughter, Marjorie Taylor, Jack Livesey, Lawrence Hanray

It's Not Cricket

GB 1949 77m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Betty Box)
Bowler-hatted officers catch a Nazi spy.
Over-spoofed comedy which barely allows the stars a real chance.
w Gerard Bryant, Lyn Lockwood, Bernard MacNab d Alfred Roome, Roy Rich ph Gordon Lang m Arthur Wilkinson
☆ Basil Radford, Naunton Wayne, Maurice Denham, Susan Shaw, Nigel Buchanan, Diana Dors

It's Not Just You Murray! ★

US 1964 16m bw
New York University
A crook describes how he made it to the top.
An exuberant short, revealing Scorsese's interest in American low-life and European film directors, expressed here in a light-hearted style with an ironic voice-over that rarely matches the truth of what is shown on-screen.
w Martin Scorsese, Mardik Martin d Martin Scorsese ph Richard H. Coll m Richard H. Coll ed Eli F. Bleich
☆ Ira Rubin, Sam DeFazio, Andrea Martin, Catherine Scorsese
† It was released on video with three other shorts under the title 4 x Scorsese.

It's Not the Size that Counts: see Percy's Progress

It's Only Money: see Double Dynamite (1951)

It's Only Money

US 1962 84m bw
Paramount/York/Jerry Lewis Productions (Paul Jones)
A TV repair mechanic hampers his detective friend in a search for a missing heir, which turns out to be himself.
Patchy mystery spoof with the star in rather better form than usual, and a memorable scene in which he is chased by an army of lawnmowers.
w John Fenton Murray d Frank Tashlin ph W. Wallace Kelley m Walter Scharf
☆ Jerry Lewis, Zachary Scott, Joan O'Brien, Jesse White, Jack Weston

It's That Man Again ★★

GB 1942 84m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)
The Mayor of Foaming-at-the-Mouth puts on a show to save a bombed theatre.
Smart, fast-moving comedy which no longer seems particularly funny in itself but is an invaluable record of the characters and wisecracks of a radio show which proved a prime morale booster during World War II.
w Howard Irving Young, Ted Kavanagh d Walter Forde ph Basil Emmott m Hans May ad W. Murton ed R. E. Dearing
☆ Tommy Handley, Jack Train, Greta Gynt, Dino Galvani, Dorothy Summers, Horace Percival, Sidney Keith, Clarence Wright

It's Tough to be Famous

US 1932 81m bw
First National
A young naval hero finds that fame destroys his private life.
Unco-ordinated comedy-drama.
w Robert Lord, Mary McCall Jnr d Alfred E. Green ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Mary Brian, Walter Catlett, J. Carrol Naish
'Lightweight feature possessing sufficient entertainment value to give theatres a moderate week.' – Variety

It's Winter ★★ (8)

Iran 2006 83m
Artificial Eye/AMA Media (Mohammad Mehdi Dadgoo)
Iranian theatrical: Zemestan
In Tehran, Mokhtar lives in a house by the railway. The story begins as he is leaving his young wife Khatoun and small daughter to seek work abroad. His family hears no word from him. Khatoun meets up with a young mechanic who declares his love for her and she has to make a choice for her daughter's future Director Rafi Pitts depicts everyday struggles and absences with a poetic realism, and coaxes amazing performances from his mainly non-professional cast.
wd Rafi Pitts novel Safar by Mahmoud Dowlatabadi ph Mohammad Davoodi m Hossein Alizadeh, Mohammad Reza Shajarian pd Malak D. Khazai
☆ Mitra Hadjar (Khatoun), Ali Nicksolat (Marhab), Saeed Orkani (Ali Reza), Hashem Abdi (Mokhtar)

Ivan Groznyi: see Ivan the Terrible

Ivan the Terrible ★★★

USSR 1942 100m bw some Agfacolor in part two Mosfilm
original title: Ivan Groznyi
The life of a 16th-century tsar.
A heavy-going film overflowing with grim, gloomy and superbly composed images: the plot is by the way, and part two (released in 1946 and also known as The Boyars' Plot*) is not up to the standard of part one, in which the coronation sequence alone is a masterpiece of cinema.*
ph Edouard Tissé (exteriors), Andrei Moskvin (interiors) m Sergei Prokofiev ad Isaac Shpinel, L. Naumova wd/ed Sergei Eisenstein
☆ Nikolai Cherkassov, Ludmilla Tselikovskaya, Serafima Birman
'A visual opera, with all of opera's proper disregard of prose-level reality ... an extraordinarily bold experiment, fascinating and beautiful to look at.' – James Agee

Ivanhoe ★

GB 1952 106m Technicolor
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)
Derring-do among the knights of medieval England.
Tolerable, big-budget spectacular based on Sir Walter Scott's novel.
w Noel Langley, Aeneas Mackenzie d Richard Thorpe ph F. A. Young m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Robert Taylor, Joan Fontaine, Elizabeth Taylor, Emlyn Williams, George Sanders, Robert Douglas, Finlay Currie, Felix Aylmer, Francis de Wolff, Guy Rolfe, Norman Wooland, Basil Sydney
† After refusing to co-operate with the House UnAmerican Activities Committee, screenwriter Marguerite Roberts was sacked by MGM and her name excluded from the credits.
best picture; F. A. Young; Miklos Rozsa

Ivanovo Detstvo: see Ivan's Childhood

Ivan's Childhood ★★★★

USSR 1962 95m bw
Mosfilm (G. Kuznetsov) original title: Ivanovo Detstvo
A vengeful 12-year-old escapes from a concentration camp and becomes an army scout after his family is killed by the Nazis.
Probably Tarkovsky's most accessible film, a tragic tale beautifully told.
w Vladimir Bogomolov, Mikhail Papava novel Vladimir Bogomolov d Andrei Tarkovsky ph Vadim Yusov m Vyacheslav Ovchinnikov ad Evgeni Cherniaev ed G. Natanson ☆ Kolya Burlyaev (Ivan), Irma Takovskaya (Ivan's Mother), Valentin Zubkov (Capt. Kholin), E. Zharikov (Lt. Galtsev), S. Krylov (Cpl. Katasonych), Nikolai Grinko (Col. Gryaznov), L. Malyavina (Masha), Andrey Mikhalkov (Konchalovsky)
'The film is not disfigured by the unnaturally cheery or the conventionally hysterical. With one blow it annuls a whole cinémathèque of the war films of all lands.' – Ivor Montagu, Sight and Sound

† It won the Golden Lion for best film at the Venice Film Festival in 1962.
†† Tarkovsky replaced director Eduard Abalov, who was fired from the film, and began again with a new crew and cast, and a smaller budget.

'There's a fine line between success and excess.'

Ivansxtc ★★

US 2000 93m DeLuxe
Metro Tartan/Rhino (Lisa Enos)

A successful agent with a large appetite for sex and drugs discovers that he has incurable cancer just as he pulls off an important deal.
A jaudiced look at Hollywood and its lack of soul, shot in murky video by its disillusioned director. It gains immeasurably from Houston's seductive performance as the agent.
w Bernard Rose, Lisa Enos novella The Death of Ivan Illyich by Leo Tolstoy
d Bernard Rose ph Bernard Rose
m Wagner ed Bernard Rose
☆ Danny Huston (Ivan Beckman), Peter Weller (Don West), Lisa Enos (Charlotte White), Joanne Duckman (Marcia Beckman), Angela Featherstone (Amanda Hill), Caroleen Feeney (Rosemary Kramer), Valeria Golino (Constanza Vero), James Merendino (Danny McTeague)

'Harrowing, astonishingly caustic, and nigh-on essential viewing.' – Daily Telegraph
'A darkly brilliant movie: tight and bunched and hostile as a fist.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

I've Always Loved You

US 1946 116m Technicolor
Republic

GB title: Concerto

A brilliant pianist becomes jealous of his girl pupil, despite his love for her.
High-flown romantic tosh with music, an unusual departure for this studio; most notable for Arthur Rubinstein on the sound track.
w Borden Chase d Frank Borzage
ph Tony Gaudio m Walter Scharf
☆ Philip Dorn, Catherine McLeod, Felix Bressart, Maria Ouspenskaya, William Carter

I've Got Your Number

US 1934 68m bw
Warner

Telephone service engineers help prove a girl innocent of burglary.
Cheerful, fast-moving programmer typical of its studio at the time.
w Warren Duff, Sidney Sutherland d Ray Enright ph Arthur Todd ad Esdras Hartley ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Joan Blondell, Pat O'Brien, Allen Jenkins, Glenda Farrell, Eugene Pallette

I've Gotta Horse

GB 1965 92m Technicolor
Techniscope
Warner/Windmill (Larry Parnes, Kenneth Hume)
aka: Wonderful Day

An animal-loving pop singer becomes a racehorse owner.
A failed attempt to turn an English rocker into a family entertainer; the songs are trite and the script triter.
w Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney story Kenneth Hume, Larry Parnes
d Kenneth Hume ph Ernest Steward
m/ly David Heneker, John Taylor md Michael Leander ch Ross Taylor ad Scott McGregor ed Ernest Hosler
☆ Billy Fury, Michael Medwin, Amanda Barrie, Bill Fraser, Jon Pertwee, Fred Emney, Leslie Dwyer, Peter Gilmore, Marjorie Rhodes, The Bachelors

I've Heard the Mermaids Singing ★

Canada 1987 84m colour
Contemporary/Electric/Ontario Arts Council/Canada Council/National Film Board/Ontario Film Development Corp/Telefilm Canada (Patricia Rozema)

An untalented woman falls in love with the owner of the art gallery where she works.
Gentle, quirky and enjoyable romance.
wd Patricia Rozema ph Douglas Koch
m Mark Korven ad Valanne Ridgeway
ed Patricia Rozema
☆ Sheila McCarthy, Ann-Marie MacDonald, John Evans, Brenda Kamino, Richard Monette

I've Lived Before

US 1956 82m bw
U-I (Howard Christie)

After a plane crash, the pilot recovers but believes himself to be another airman who died in 1918.
Dullish, talky drama which wastes its interesting reincarnation theme.
w Norman Jolley, William Talman
d Richard Bartlett ph Maury Gertsman
m Herman Stein ad Alexander Golitzen, Richard H. Riedel, Alfred Sweeney
ed Milton Carruth, Fred MacDowell
☆ Jock Mahoney, Leigh Snowden, Ann Harding, John McIntire, Raymond Bailey, Jerry Paris

Ivory Hunter: see Where No Vultures Fly

Ivy ★

US 1947 99m bw
Universal (William Cameron Menzies)

In Edwardian society England, a lady poisoner gets her come-uppance.
Curiously ineffective period thriller in which the star is the elegant but artificial production design: the script is deadly dull.
w Charles Bennett novel Mrs Belloc Lowndes d Sam Wood ph Russell Metty m Daniele Amfitheatrof pd William Cameron Menzies
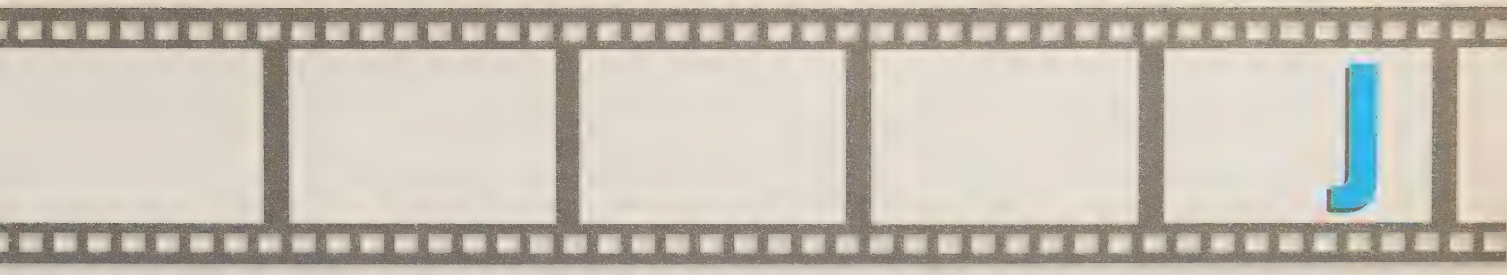
☆ Joan Fontaine, Herbert Marshall, Patric Knowles, Richard Ney, Cedric Hardwicke, Lucile Watson, Sara Allgood, Henry Stephenson, Rosalind Ivan, Lillian Fontaine, Una O'Connor, Isobel Elsom, Alan Napier, Paul Cavanagh, Gavin Muir and also Norma Varden

'The real star is whoever was responsible for the dressing, setting, lighting and shooting, and that, I infer from past performance, is the producer, William Cameron Menzies.' – James Agee

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA



'He's a District Attorney. He will risk his life, the lives of his family, everything he holds dear for the one thing he holds sacred ... the truth.'

JFK ★★

US 1991 189m DuArt Panavision
Warner/Le Studio Canal/Regency Enterprises/Alcor (A. Kitman Ho, Oliver Stone)

New Orleans DA Jim Garrison investigates the assassination of President Kennedy and uncovers what amounts to a coup d'état to kill him because he wanted to pull out of Vietnam.

Bad history and a bullying, though engrossing, movie, mixing fact and dubious speculation indiscriminately.

w Oliver Stone, Zachary Sklar book On the Trail of the Assassins by Jim Garrison; Crossfire: The Plot That Killed Kennedy by Jim Marrs d Oliver Stone ph Robert Richardson m John Williams pd Victor Kempster ed Joe Hutshing, Pietro Scalia

☆ Kevin Costner, Sissy Spacek, Joe Pesci, Tommy Lee Jones, Gary Oldman, Jay O. Sanders, Michael Rooker, Laurie Metcalf, Gary Grubbs, John Candy, Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, Ed Asner, Donald Sutherland, Kevin Bacon and also Brian Doyle-Murray, Sally Kirkland, Jim Garrison

'A rebuke to official history and a challenge to continue investigating the crime of the century, Oliver Stone's JFK is electric muckraking filmmaking.' – Variety

'The first thing to be said about JFK is that it is a great movie, and the next is that it is one of the worst great movies ever made. It is great in spite of itself, and such greatness owes more to the moxie of the director than to his special talents.' – Norman Mailer, Vanity Fair

'Courageous, gripping, reckless ... the culmination or apotheosis of the paranoid political thriller.' – Philip French, Observer

'Shortchanges the audience and at the end plays like a bait-and-switch scam.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

Robert Richardson; editing film; Oliver Stone; Tommy Lee Jones; Oliver Stone, Zachary Sklar (screenplay adaptation); John Williams; sound

J.R.: see Who's That Knocking at My Door

J. W. Coop ★

US 1971 112m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Robertson and Associates (Cliff Robertson)

After ten years in prison, a rodeo rider returns to his home town.

Well-made but rather inconsequential drama with attractive locations.

w Cliff Robertson, Gary Cartwright, Bud Shrake d Cliff Robertson ph Frank Stanley m Don Randi, Louie Shelton

☆ Cliff Robertson, Cristina Ferrare, Geraldine Page, R. G. Armstrong

Jabberwocky

GB 1977 101m Technicolor
Umbrella (John Goldstone, Sandy Lieberson)

A medieval cooper's apprentice is mistaken for a prince and slays the dragon which is terrorizing the neighbourhood.

An intellectual Carry On film, with very little more taste and a great deal more unpleasant imagery. Despite much re-editing, the laughs are very intermittent.

w Charles Alverson, Terry Gilliam d Terry Gilliam ph Terry Bedford m De Wolfe pd Roy Smith

☆ Michael Palin, Max Wall, Deborah Fallender, Warren Mitchell, John Le Mesurier, Harry H. Corbett, Rodney Bewes, Bernard Bresslaw

'The constant emphasis on blood, excrement, dismemberment and filth ultimately becomes rather wearing.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

J'Accuse ★

France 1939 95m bw
Forrester-Parant

A scientist intends his invention to end war; when it is put to a contrary purpose, he calls the war dead to rise from their graves and accuse humanity.

Stern, well acted, but (as it proved) ineffective propaganda.

wd Abel Gance

☆ Victor Francen, Jean Max, Renée Devillers

Jack

US 1996 113m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/American Zoetrope/Great Oaks (Ricardo Mestres, Fred Fuchs, Francis Ford Coppola)

A 10-year-old boy, who has a rare condition that means he has the body of a 40-year-old, goes to school for the first time.

An unbelievably bad, totally risible movie played all out for sentimentality; it represents a regrettable infantile regression by its director and star.

w James DeMonaco, Gary Nadeau d Francis Ford Coppola ph John Toll m Michael Kamen pd Dean Tavoularis ed Barry Malkin

☆ Robin Williams, Diane Lane, Jennifer Lopez, Brian Kerwin, Fran Drescher, Bill Cosby, Michael McKean

'It's hard to shake the feeling that Coppola has become a hack in an artist's body.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

Jack Ahoy!

GB 1934 82m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

An accident-prone naval rating routs bandits and wins the girl.

Tailor-made star comedy with skilful moments.

w Jack Hulbert, Leslie Arliss, Gerard Fairlie, Austin Melford story Sidney Gilliat, J. O. C. Orton d Walter Forde ph Bernard Knowles m Bretton Byrd ed Ralph Kemplen

☆ Jack Hulbert, Nancy O'Neil, Alfred Drayton, Tamara Desni

'Mr Hulbert is equal to all his occasions ... his abounding energy and high spirits are never monotonous or wearisome.' – E. V. Lucas, Punch

'Sometimes ... It's The Little Things In Life That Bring People Together'

Jack & Sarah

GB/France 1995 110m colour
Polygram/British Screen/Canal/Granada TV/Mainstream (Pippa Cross, Simon Channing-Williams, Janette Day)

A lawyer whose wife dies in childbirth tries to cope with bringing up his baby daughter.

Moderately entertaining, though unmemorable, comedy with romantic overtones, small in scope and ambition.

wd Tim Sullivan ph Jean Yves Escoffier m Simon Boswell pd Christopher J. Bradshaw ed Lesley Walker

☆ Richard E. Grant, Samantha Mathis, Judi Dench, Ian McKellen, Eileen Atkins, Cherie Lunghi, Imogen Stubbs, David Swift, Kate Hardie

'Good for an easy laugh and a warm glow, but it lacks the sharpness and dexterity of the best British comedies.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Jack and the Beanstalk

US 1952 78m Supercinecolor
Warner/Alex Gottlieb

A babysitter dreams the story he is reading aloud.

Rather feeble star comedy aimed entirely at the kiddie set, and with none of the familiar routines. The 'bookends', as is customary, are in black and white.

w Nat Curtis d Jean Yarbrough ph George Robinson m Heinz Roemheld

☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Buddy Baer, Dorothy Ford, William Farnum

Jack Be Nimble

New Zealand 1992 95m colour
Metro Tartan/Essential/New Zealand Film Commission (Jonathan Dowling, Kelly Rogers)

An unhappy youth, separated from his psychic sister, invents a machine to hypnotize and kill his cruel, adopted parents, but their spirits seek revenge.

Ghoulish and disturbing horror, offering nothing in the way of comfort.

wd Garth Maxwell ph Donald Duncan m Chris Neal pd Grant Major ed John Gilbert sp Kevin Chisnall

☆ Alexis Arquette, Sarah Smuts-Kennedy, Bruno Lawrence, Tony Barry, Elizabeth Hawthorne, Brenda Simmons, Gilbert Goldie

'This deeply weird melodrama ... at once affecting, funny and horrifying.' – Kim Newman, Empire

'Miracles Can Happen.'

Jack Frost

US 1998 101m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Irving Azoff, Mark Canton)

A dead rock singer comes back to life as a snowman built by his 12-year-old son.

Gruesomely sentimental tale of male bonding.

w Mark Steven Johnson, Steve Bloom, Jonathan Roberts, Jeff Cesario d Troy Miller ph Laszlo Kocacs m Trevor Rabin pd Mayne Berke ed Lawrence Jordan

☆ Michael Keaton, Kelly Preston, Mark Addy, Joseph Cross, Andy Lawrence, Eli Marienthal, Will Rothhaar

'Any adults in the audience will find themselves fighting for breath beneath the film's avalanche-weight of sentiment. Pure slush.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Jack London

US 1943 93m bw
Samuel Bronston/United Artists

Jack London seeks various kinds of adventure, writes a book about the Klondike, and warns the world of the Japanese menace.

Occasionally bright but generally faltering biopic, obviously made on the cheap.

w Ernest Pascal d Alfred Santell

☆ Michael O'Shea, Susan Hayward, Osa Massen, Harry Davenport, Virginia Mayo, Jonathan Hale

Frederick E. Rich (music)

Jack of All Trades ★

GB 1936 76m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

A cheerful con man talks his way into a top job in an international firm.

Odd amalgam of star comedy, musical numbers of the Astaire/Rogers type, shafts of satire from the original play, and finally some flat-footed farce. Certainly worth a look.

w Jack Hulbert, Austin Melford, J. O. C. Orton play Youth at the Helm by Hubert Griffith, Paul Vulpuis d Jack Hulbert, Robert Stevenson ph Charles Van Enger md Louis Levy ad Vetchinsky ed T. R. Fisher

☆ Jack Hulbert, Gina Malo, Robertson Hare, Athole Stewart, Felix Aylmer, H. F. Maltby

'The film degenerates into nothing but the jutting jaw and the permanent grin, the same memory one takes away from all Mr Hulbert's films.' – Graham Greene

Jack of Diamonds

US/West Germany 1967 105m Metrocolor
MGM/Harris/Bavaria Atelier

A retired jewel thief introduces a brilliant pupil into society.

Repetitive and rather glum comedy-drama which perks up occasionally.

w Jack de Witt, Sandy Howard d Don Taylor ph Ernst Wild m Peter Thomas

☆ George Hamilton, Joseph Cotten, Marie Laforet, Maurice Evans, Wolfgang Preiss, Lilli Palmer, Carroll Baker, Zsa Zsa Gabor

Jack Slade

US 1953 90m bw
Allied Artists
GB title. Slade

A Western gunman becomes a psychopathic killer.

Cliché-ridden but rather brutish Western, thought sensationally violent at the time.

w Warren Douglas d Harold Schuster ph William Sickner m Paul Dunlap

☆ Mark Stevens, Dorothy Malone, Barton MacLane, John Litel, Paul Langton, Harry Shannon

'A Father. Two Sons. A Love Story.'
'Every Family Needs A Hero.'

Jack the Bear

US 1993 99m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/American Filmworks/Lucky Dog (Bruce Gilbert)

In the 1970s, following the death of his wife, an actor begins to drink heavily as he tries to cope with his two young sons and unbalanced neighbour.

Family drama that veers towards melodrama without becoming very interesting.

w Steven Zaillian novel Dan McCall d Marshall Herskovitz ph Fred Murphy m James Horner pd Lilly Kilvert ed Steven Rosenblum

☆ Danny DeVito, Robert J. Steinmiller Jnr, Miko Hughes, Gary Sinise, Art LaFleur, Stefan Gierasch, Erica Yohn, Andrea Marcovicci

'Its effect is that of a TV series that has been telescoped and packed, with each of its rather glib resolutions, into an hour and a half. Despite a surfeit of material, nothing is thorny enough to sustain and the result is a long haul.' – Amanda Lipman, Sight and Sound

Jack the Giant Killer ★★

US 1961 94m Technicolor
Zenith/Edward Small (Robert E. Kent)

Demon Pendragon kidnaps the princess of Cornwall but she is rescued by a farmer's son.

Very creditable fairy tale, with the right style and atmosphere assisted by vigorous acting, good pace and excellent trick effects. Unfortunately it turned out rather scary for a child audience and so fell between two stools.

w Orville Hampton, Nathan Juran d Nathan Juran ph David S. Horsley m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter ad Fernando Carere, Frank McCoy sp Howard Anderson

☆ Kerwin Mathews, Judi Meredith, Torin Thatcher, Don Beddoe, Walter Burke, Barry Kelley

'He baffled the great Scotland Yard, the celebrated Arthur Conan Doyle, and Robert Louis Stevenson!'

Jack the Ripper

GB 1958 84m bw
Mid Century (Baker and Berman)

In Victorian London the Ripper murders are finally attributed to a demented surgeon.

Flat and rather flabby treatment of a cause célèbre, saved by a reasonably convincing period look.

w Jimmy Sangster m Stanley Black d/ph Robert S. Baker, Monty Berman

☆ Ewen Solon, Lee Patterson, Eddie Byrne, Betty McDowall, John Le Mesurier

'How do you stop an assassin who has no identity?'

The Jackal

US 1997 124m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Mutual/Alphaville (James Jacks, Sean Daniel, Michael Caton-Jones, Kevin Jarre)

In revenge for his brother's death at the hands of the FBI, a Russian gangster hires a top assassin, a master of disguise, to kill a leading American.

Dull thriller, in which an audience is expected to care that someone appears to be planning to shoot the head of the FBI, while he is hunted by an IRA killer, a Basque terrorist and a former KGB agent.

w Chuck Pfarrer screenplay The Day of the Jackal by Kenneth Ross d Michael Caton-Jones ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m Carter Burwell pd Michael White ed Jim Clark

☆ Bruce Willis, Richard Gere, Sidney Poitier, Diane Venora, Tess Harper, J.K. Simmons, Mathilda May, Stephen Spinella

'An involving high-tech thriller that occasionally hits peaks of pulsating excitement.' – Variety

'Such a banal and redundant blockbuster, one senses there was no reason to make it, other than the desire to cash in on the stars' names.' – David Tse, Sight and Sound

Jackass Mail

US 1942 80m bw
MGM (John Considine Jnr)

A horse thief marries the proprietress of a gambling saloon in the hope of hijacking her mail line, but she reforms him.

Boisterously conceived but anaemically scripted Western comedy with the stars in full throttle.

w Lawrence Hazard d Norman Z. McLeod ph Clyde de Vinna m David Snell, Earl Brent

☆ Wallace Beery, Marjorie Main, J. Carrol Naish, Darryl Hickman, William Haade, Hobart Cavanaugh

'This time,at least they are repeating their variation on the Min-and-Bill routine among companions whose resemblance to burlesque is as unabashed as their own.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

'When is the last time a movie made you beg for mercy?'

Jackass Number Two

US 2006 92m
UIP/Paramount/MTV/Dickhouse/Lynch Siderow (Jeff Tremaine, Johnny Knoxville, Spike Jonze)

The Jackass collective reunite for more perilous gross-out stunts.

The puerile joke, such as it was, has grown monotonous. Few will laugh at the escapades of these man-boys, now old enough to know better, as hard they laugh themselves.

d Jeff Tremaine ph Dimitry Elyashkevich ad J.P. Blackmon ed Seth Casriel, Matthew Probst, Scott Simmons

☆ Johnny Knoxville, Bam Margera, Steve-O, Chris Pontius, Ryan Dunn, Jason 'Wee Man' Acuna

'Do not attempt this at home'

Jackass The Movie

US 2002 85m DeLuxe
Paramount/MTV/Dickhouse/Lynch Siderow (Jeff Tremaine, Spike Jonze, Johnny Knoxville)

A group of young men indulge in a series of tasteless pranks and damgerous stunts.

A movie version of a TV series that is an outgrowth, or possibly a carbuncle, from so-called reality television. Those who like to watch grown men behaving badly while risking injury will love it.

d Jeff Tremaine ph Dimitry Elyashkevich ed Liz Ewart, Mark Hansen, Kristine Young

☆ Johnny Knoxville, Bam Margera, Chris Pontius, Steve-O, Dave England, Ryan Dunn, Jason Preston Lacyn 'Wee Man' Acuna

'Quite possibly the most exuberantly distasteful hodgepodge of beery anarchy and death-wishing irresponsibility ever unleashed by a major Hollywood distrib.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'This plotless, crudely videotaped collection of moronic stunts is a movie in the same sense that those hideous, velvet depictions of Elvis are paintings.' – Lou Lumenick, New York Post

Jackboot Mutiny

Germany 1955 77m bw
Arca-Ariston
original title: Es Geschah am 20 Juli

An account of the army officers' plot to assassinate Hitler.

Documentary-like treatment without much attempt at characterization. An important historical document nevertheless.

w W. P. Zibaso, Gustav Machaty d G. W. Pabst ph Kurt Hasse m Johannes Weissenbach

☆ Bernhard Wicki, Karl Ludwig Diehl, Carl Wery

'Terror has a new name.'

The Jacket ③

US 2005 102m DeLuxe 'Scope
Warner/Mandalay/2929 Entertainment/Section Eight/ (Peter Guber, George Clooney, Steven Soderbergh)

An amnesiac former soldier is sent to an asylum for the criminally insane after being found guilty of a murder he did not commit.

Stylish but ultimately empty mix of horror and time travel in which our hero, while undergoing sadistic medical treatment, travels into his own possible future fifteen years hence.

w Massy Tadjedin story Tom Bleecker, Marc Rocco d John Maybury ph Peter Deming m Brian Eno pd Alan MacDonald ed Emma Hickox

☆ Adrien Brody (Jack Starks), Keira Knightley (Jackie), Kris Kristofferson (Dr Becker), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Dr Lorenson), Kelly Lynch (Jean), Brad Renfro (Stranger), Daniel Craig (Mackenzie)

'A gripping, affecting, strange movie – but oddly, it's just like too many other gripping, affecting, strange movies we've seen recently.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Jackie Brown ★★

US 1997 155m CFI color
Buena Vista/Miramax/A Band Apart (Lawrence Bender)

An air stewardess outsmarts a ruthless gun-runner and the FBI.

An absorbing, if overlong, thriller, successfully combining intrigue and character development to create a satisfying mix that updates the style of the blaxploitation movies of the 70s.

wd Quentin Tarantino novel Rum Punch by Elmore Leonard ph Guillermo Navarro pd David Wasco ed Sally Menke

☆ Pam Grier, Samuel L. Jackson, Robert Forster, Bridget Fonda, Michael Keaton, Robert de Niro, Michael Bowen, Chris Tucker

'Offers an abundance of pleasures, especially in the realm of characterization and atmosphere.' – Variety

'Jackie Chan Fights For The World In His Biggest Action Film Ever!'

Jackie Chan's First Strike ★ ⑤

(dubbed)
Hong Kong/US 1996 84m DeLuxe 'Scope
Entertainment/Paragon/New Line/Golden Harvest (Barbie Tung)

original title: Jingcha Gushi 4 Zhi Jiandan Renwu

A Hong Kong policeman becomes involved with arms dealers in Russia and Australia.

A typical Jackie Chan action film, not to be taken seriously but to be enjoyed for the panache and daring of its stunts, which are many and spectacular.

w Stanley Tong, Nick Tramontane, Greg Mellott, Elliot Tong, Doris Wang d Stanley Tong ph Jingle Ma m J. Peter Robinson pd Oliver Wong ed Peter Cheung, Chi Wai Yau

☆ Jackie Chan, Chen Chun Wu, Jackson Lou, Bill Tung, Jouri Petrov, Grishajeva Nonna

'Just one death-defying deed after another. But it's a sight more entertaining than films that cost a fortune and deliver only confusion.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Jacknife

US 1988 103m Technicolor
Vestron/Kings Road Entertainment (Robert Schaffel, Carol Baum)

A Vietnam veteran begins a relationship with the sister of an old army friend.

Well-acted but only occasionally interesting.

w Stephen Metcalfe play Strange Snow by Stephen Metcalfe d David Jones ph Brian West pd Edward Pisoni ed John Bloom

☆ Robert DeNiro, Ed Harris, Kathy Baker, Charles Dutton, Elizabeth Franz, Tom Isbell, Loudon Wainwright III, Sloane Shelton, Ivan Brogger

The Jackpot ★★

US 1950 85m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

A suburban husband finds that life becomes complicated when winning the jackpot on a radio quiz makes him a celebrity.

Modest, skilful comedy in Hollywood's best manner.

w Phoebe and Henry Ephron d Walter Lang ph Joseph LaShelle md Lionel Newman

☆ James Stewart, Barbara Hale, James Gleason, Fred Clark, Alan Mowbray, Patricia Medina, Natalie Wood, Tommy Rettig, Robert Gist, Lyle Talbot

Jack's the Boy ★

GB 1932 91m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

US title: Night and Day

The police commissioner's son proves his worth in rounding up a smash-and-grab gang.

Dated but lively farce which established its star as a British box-office attraction of the 30s.

w W. P. Lipscomb story Jack Hulbert, Douglas Furber d Walter Forde ph Leslie Rowson m/ly Vivian Ellis, Douglas Furber md Louis Levy ad Vetchinsky ed Ian Dalrymple, John Goldman

☆ Jack Hulbert, Cicely Courtneidge, Francis

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Lister, Winifred Shotter, Peter Gawthorne, Ben Field

'A riotously funny, good, clean, honest British picture.' – Sydney Carroll, Sunday Times

† The film in which Hulbert sang 'The Flies Crawled Up the Window'.

Jack's Wife: see Season of the Witch

Jackson County Jail

US 1976 84m Metrocolor
UA/New World (Roger Corman)

A lady driver is hijacked, attacked, disbelieved by the local police, thrown into jail and raped by the jailer, whom she brains with a stool.

An exploitation piece with social pretensions which it in no way justifies: it is however quite competently entertaining in its mindlessly violent way.

w Donald Stewart d Michael Miller ph Bruce Logan m Loren Newkirk

☆ Yvette Mimieux, Tommy Lee Jones, Robert Carradine, Frederic Cook, Severn Darden, Howard Hesseman

Jacob's Ladder

US 1990 113m Technicolor
Tri-Star/Carolco (Alan Marshall)

A Vietnam veteran is unwittingly the subject of secret experiments with chemical weapons.

Exceedingly silly on every level, particularly in its supernatural dabblings.

w Bruce Joel Rubin d Adrian Lyne ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m Maurice Jarre pd Brian Morris ed Tom Rolf

☆ Tim Robbins, Elizabeth Pena, Danny Aiello, Matt Craven, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Jason Alexander, Patricia Kalember

'Dull, unimaginative and pretentious.' – Variety

Jacqueline ★

GB 1956 93m bw
Rank (George H. Brown)

A Belfast shipyard worker cannot stand heights, takes to drink, and is helped by his small daughter.

Convincing, well-made, realistically set domestic comedy-drama.

w Patrick Kirwan, Liam O'Flaherty d Roy Baker ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Cedric Thorpe Davie

☆ John Gregson, Kathleen Ryan, Jacqueline Ryan, Noel Purcell, Cyril Cusack, Marie Kean, Liam Redmond, Maureen Delany

Jacqueline Susann's Once Is Not Enough: see Once Is Not Enough

Jacquot de Nantes ★★

France 1991 119m bw/colour
Cine-Tamaris/Canal/La Sept/La Sofiarp (Agnes Varda, Perrine Baudin)

Biopic of the early years of the life of director Jacques Demy, combined with clips from his films and interviews with him, based on his own memoirs.

A labour of love from Demy's wife that is both moving as a tribute and fascinating in its exploration of a youthful obsession.

wd Agnès Varda ph Patrick Blossier, Agnes Godard, Georges Strouve m Joanna Bruzdowicz pd Robert Nardone, Olivier Radot ed Marie-Jo Audiard

☆ Philippe Maron, Edouard Joubeaud, Laurent Monnier, Brigitte de Villepoix, Daniel Dublet, Guillaume Navaud

'A delightful, if overlong, depiction of the formative years of a youngster determined to make films when he grows up.' – Variety

Jacula: see Female Vampire

'Some Fantasies Go Too Far.'

Jade

US 1995 95m DeLuxe
UIP/Paramount (Robert Evans, Craig Baumgarten, Gary Adelson)

In San Francisco, an assistant DA investigates the axe murder of a millionaire and discovers evidence that links it with a former girlfriend, now married to a successful lawyer, and the Governor of California.

A bungled attempt at an erotic thriller, in which the murder makes less sense the more we are told about it; the narrative is just an excuse for a little sleaze, including irrelevant scenes of sexual activity.

w Joe Eszterhas d William Friedkin ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m James Horner pd Alex Tavoularis ed Augie Hess

☆ David Caruso, Linda Fiorentino, Chazz Palminteri, Michael Biehn, Richard Crenna, Donna Murphy, Ken King

'Writer Joe Eszterhas's follow-up to his Showgirls fiasco is every bit as hopeless, and this time he takes some good actors down with him.' – Bruce Diones, New Yorker

'For sheer nastiness, allied to a lush, well-decorated camera style, William Friedkin's Jade ... takes some beating.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Jag är nyfiken – gul: see I Am Curious – Yellow

Jagged Edge ★★

US 1985 108m Metrocolor
Columbia/Martin Ransohoff

A lady lawyer defends a newspaper publisher who may or may not be guilty of murder.

Well-crafted courtroom mystery with fashionable violence and a few unexpected twists.

w Joe Eszterhas d Richard Marquand ph Matthew F. Leonetti m John Barry pd Gene Callahan ed Sean Barton, Conrad Buff

☆ Jeff Bridges, Glenn Close, Peter Coyote, Robert Loggia, Leigh Taylor-Young, John Dehner

Robert Loggia (supporting actor)

Jaguar Lives

US 1979 90m Eastmancolor
Jaguar (Sandy Howard)

Exploits of an international secret agent with skill in the martial arts.

Flashy, violent, James Bond rip-off, years behind its time.

w Yabo Yablonsky d Ernest Pintoff ph John Cabrera m Robert Ragland

☆ Joe Lewis, Christopher Lee, Donald Pleasence, Capucine, Barbara Bach, Joseph Wiseman, Woody Strode, John Huston

J'ai Épousé une Ombre: see I Married a Dead Man

Jailbirds: see Pardon Us

Jailhouse Rock ★

US 1957 96m bw Cinemascope
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

An ex-convict becomes a pop star.

Reasonably competent star vehicle, sourer in tone than most.

w Guy Trosper story Ned Young d Richard Thorpe ph Robert Bronner md Jeff Alexander

☆ Elvis Presley, Judy Tyler, Mickey Shaughnessy, Vaughn Taylor, Dean Jones

Jakarta

Indonesia/US 1988 95m colour
Panavision
Medusa/Parkit Films/Troma

An ex-CIA agent is taken to Indonesia to put an end to a local big-time drug dealer.

Inconsequential thriller.

w Charles Kaufman, Ralph Soll d Charles Kaufman ph Robert Chappell, Kasiyo Hadiwijoyo m Jay Chattaway pd Susan Kaufman ed Michael Spence, Norman Benny

☆ Christopher Noth, Sue Francis Pai, Franz Tumbuan, Ronald Hunter, Zoraya Perucha, David Sharp, David Gale

Jake Speed

US 1986 100m Technicolor
Crawford/Lane/Foster/Balcor

A famous hero tracks down an American girl abducted in Paris.

Adventure hokum with spoof elements which don't come off.

w Wayne Crawford, Andrew Lane d Andrew Lane ph Bryan Loftus m Mark Snow pd Norman Baron

☆ Wayne Crawford, John Hurt, Dennis Christopher, Karen Kopins, Leon Ames

'When all hope was lost, he invented it.'

Jakob the Liar ★

US 1999 114m DeLuxe
Columbia/Blue Wolf/Kasso (Marsha Garces Williams, Steven Haft)

In Nazi-occupied Poland, a Jewish café owner keeps hope in the ghetto high by pretending to own a radio and relaying news of a Russian advance.

Doggedly earnest drama with an ironic undertone, probably too restrained in its treatment to have a wide appeal.

w Peter Kassovitz, Didier Decoin book Jurek Becker d Peter Kassovitz ph Elemer Ragalyi m Edward Shearmur pd Luciana Arrighi ed Claire Simpson

☆ Robin Williams (Jakob Heym), Alan Arkin (Frankfurter), Bob Balaban (Kowalsky), Hannah Taylor Gordon (Lina), Michael Jeter (Avron), Armin Mueller-Stahl (Kirschbaum), Liev Schreiber (Mischa), Nina Siemaszko (Rosa), Mathieu Kassovitz (Herschel), Justus von Dohnanyi (Preuss), Mark Margolis (Fajngold), Gregg Bello (Blumenthal)

'A bitterly whimsical slice of mordant Yiddish-style humor that plays more like an Eastern European fable than a piece of emotional Hollywood pandering.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A dreadful, enervated mess.' – Glenn Kenny, Premiere

† The film failed at the US box-office, grossing around $5m.

Jalna

US 1935 75m bw
RKO

Episodes in the life of the Whiteoaks family.

Flat adaptation of a Canadian bestseller.

w Anthony Veiller, Garrett Fort, Larry Bachmann novel Mazo de la Roche d John Cromwell

☆ Kay Johnson, Ian Hunter, C. Aubrey Smith, Jessie Ralph, Nigel Bruce, David Manners, Peggy Wood, Halliwell Hobbes

'Nice production of a not very good adaptation.' – Variety

Jalsaghar: see The Music Room

Jamaica Inn ★

GB 1939 107m bw
Mayflower (Erich Pommer)

In old Cornwall, an orphan girl becomes involved with smugglers.

Stagey, stilted adventure story which never loses its studio feel or takes fire as a Hitchcock picture. The cast keeps it interesting.

w Sidney Gilliat, Joan Harrison, J. B. Priestley novel Daphne du Maurier d Alfred Hitchcock ph Harry Stradling, Bernard Knowles m Eric Fenby ad Tom Morahan ed Robert Hamer

☆ Charles Laughton, Maureen O'Hara, Leslie Banks, Robert Newton, Emlyn Williams, Wylie Watson, Marie Ney, Morland Graham

'Should get good but not outstanding b.o. Superb direction, excellent casting, expressive playing and fine production offset an uneven screenplay.' – Variety

'I was irresistibly reminded of an all-star charity matinee.' – Graham Greene

Jamaica Run

US 1953 92m Technicolor
Paramount/Pine-Thomas

A search for documents, which may apportion a great house to another branch of the family, leads to murder.

Plot-bound romantic mystery in period, with elements of a Caribbean Rebecca. Watchable medium-budget hokum.

wd Lewis R. Foster novel Max Murray ph Lionel Lindon m Lucien Cailliet

☆ Ray Milland, Arlene Dahl, Wendell Corey, Patric Knowles

James and the Giant Peach ★★

US 1996 79m Technicolor
Guild/Disney/Allied Filmmakers (Denise di Novi, Tim Burton)

An unhappy boy goes on a magical journey inside a giant peach, accompanied by six friendly insects.

Witty stop-motion animated feature, softer-centred than Dahl's original, but still ripe with delights.

w Karey Kirkpatrick, Jonathan Roberts, Steve Bloom novel Roald Dahl d Henry Selick ph Pete Kozachik, Hiro Narita m Randy Newman pd Harley Jessup ed Stan Webb

☆ Paul Terry, Joanna Lumley, Miriam Margolyes, Pete Postlethwaite and also the voices of: Simon Callow, Richard Dreyfuss, Jane Leeves, Susan Sarandon, David Thewlis

'Can be recommended to almost anyone. It's a peach.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Randy Newman

The James Brothers: see The True Story of Jesse James

The James Gang

GB 1997 99m colour
Polygram/Paragon/HandMade/BBC/Revolution (Andrew Eaton)

After her home is burned down by a loan shark, a Scottish woman and her four children head for London to be reunited with her feckless husband; the family then drives round England committing a series of petty robberies.

An unhappy mix of gritty social realism and stylized comedy; its disparate elements never come together and the result, despite some effective acting, is a dispiriting road movie.

w Stuart Hepburn story Andrew Eaton, Paul Lee d Mike Barker ph Benjamin Seresin m Bernard Butler pd Alice Normington ed Guy Bensley
☆ John Hannah, Helen McCrory, Jason Flemyng, Toni Collette, Darren Brownlie, David Brownlie, Lauren McMurray, Lauren McCracken

'As with so many recent, mediocre British films, it's the quality of the performances which partly redeems The James Gang.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight and Sound

'A Film Where Women Eat Men And Men Eat Ham.'

Jamón Jamón ★

Spain 1992 91m colour
Metro Tartan/Lolafilms/Ovideo/Sogepaq (Andrés Vicente Gómez)

A wealthy mother decides she wants a local stud for herself after hiring him to seduce her son's girlfriend.
Broad and enjoyable comedy of sex and male virility, not to be taken seriously despite its downbeat, partner-swapping finale.
w Cuca Canals, Bigas Luna, Quim Monzó d Bigas Luna ph José Luis Alcaine m Nicola Piovani pd Chu Uroz, Noemi Campano ad Julio Esteban ed Teresa Font ☆ Stefania Sandrelli, Anna Galiena, Juan Diego, Penélope Cruz, Javier Bardem, Jordi Molla

'Racy and surreal farce.' – Empire
'His storytelling wanders too arbitrarily between slapstick eroticism and an exaggerated neo-realism to achieve any clarity of focus.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound

Jana-Aranya: see The Middle Man

Jane and the Lost City

GB 1988 92m colour
Blue Dolphin/Marcel-Robertson (Harry Robertson)

A girl with a penchant for stripping becomes a British agent during the Second World War.
Based on a once-famous Daily Mirror strip cartoon, a tatty, low-budget romp of no perceptible interest, other than to students of the decline of British cinema.
w Mervyn Haisman story Mervyn Haisman, Terry Marcel, Harry Robertson d Terry Marcel ph Paul Beeson m Harry Robertson pd Michael Pickwoad ed Alan Jones
☆ Sam Jones, Maud Adams, Jasper Carrott, Kirsten Hughes, Graham Stark, Robin Bailey, Ian Roberts, Elsa O'Toole

Jane Austen in Manhattan

GB/US 1980 108m colour
Contemporary/Merchant-Ivory (Ismail Merchant)

Two producers squabble over the right to stage an unproduced play that was written in childhood by Jane Austen.
Tiresome comedy about two uninteresting people, an attempt to flesh out a slight work better left unperformed.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala libretto Sir Charles Grandison by Jane Austen, Samuel Richardson d James Ivory ph Ernest Vincze m Richard Robbins pd Jeremiah Rusconi ed David E. McKenna
☆ Anne Baxter (Liliana), Robert Powell (Pierre), Michael Wager (George Midash), Tim Choate (Jamie), John Guerrasio (Gregory), Katrina Hodiak (Katya)

Jane Eyre

US 1934 62m bw
Monogram

A Poverty Row transcription of the Charlotte Brontë novel: see below.
w Adele Comandini d Christy Cabanne
☆ Virginia Bruce, Colin Clive, Beryl Mercer, Jameson Thomas, Aileen Pringle

'The cast appear to have considered their tasks with considerable melancholy.' – Variety

'A love story every woman would die a thousand deaths to live!'

Jane Eyre ★★★

US 1943 96m bw
TCF (William Goetz)

In Victorian times, a harshly treated orphan girl becomes governess in a mysterious Yorkshire mansion with a brooding master.
Sharply paced, reasonably faithful and superbly staged Hollywood version of Charlotte Brontë's archetypal romantic novel which stimulated so many imitations, including Rebecca.
w Aldous Huxley, Robert Stevenson, John Houseman d Robert Stevenson ph George Barnes m Bernard Herrmann ad Wiard B. Ihnen, James Basevi ed Walter Thompson sp Fred Sersen
☆ Joan Fontaine (Jane Eyre), Orson Welles (Edward Rochester), Margaret O'Brien (Adele), Henry Daniell (Brockelhurst), John Sutton (Dr. Rivers), Agnes Moorehead (Mrs. Reed), Elizabeth Taylor (Helen Burns), Peggy Ann Garner (Jane as a Child), Sara Allgood (Bessie), Aubrey Mather (Col. Dent), Hillary Brooke (Blanche), Edith Barrett (Mrs. Fairfax), Ethel Griffies (Grace Poole), Barbara Everest (Lady Ingraham), John Abbott (Mason)

'A careful and tame production, a sadly vanilla-flavoured Joan Fontaine, and Orson Welles treating himself to broad operatic sculpturings of body, cloak and diction, his eyes glinting in the Rembrandt gloom, at every chance, like side orders of jelly.' – James Agee
'The essentials are still there; and the non-essentials, such as the gloom, the shadows, the ground mist, the rain and the storms, have been expanded and redoubled and magnified to fill up the gaps.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Jane Eyre

GB 1970 110m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Omnibus/Sagittarius (Frederick H. Brogger)

A Victorian governess discovers that the master she comes to love hides a secret in his attic.
A generally lacklustre version of a classic story, enlivened by Scott's performance.
w Jack Pulman novel Charlotte Brontë d Delbert Mann ph Paul Beeson m John Williams ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Peter Boita
☆ George C. Scott, Susannah York, Ian Bannen, Jack Hawkins, Nyree Dawn Porter, Rachel Kempson, Kenneth Griffith, Peter Copley, Michele Dotrice, Clive Morton, Constance Cummings

'A pleasant if unispired reminder of Charlotte's most successful novel.' – David Pirie, MFB

Jane Eyre

US 1996 112m colour
Miramax/Rochester (Dyson Lovell)

In the 1820s, a governess falls in love with her secretive employer, who keeps a mystery hidden in the attic.
Glum and emotionally stolid version that fails to evoke the necessary romance.
w Hugh Whitemore, Franco Zeffirelli novel Charlotte Brontë d Franco Zeffirelli ph David Watkin m Alessio Vlad, Claudio Capponi pd Roger Hall ed Richard Marden
☆ William Hurt, Charlotte Gainsbourg, Joan Plowright, Anna Paquin, Geraldine Chaplin, Billie Whitelaw, Maria Schneider, Fiona Shaw, Elle Macpherson, John Wood, Amanda Root

'Zeffirelli's approach to period drama – faithful, four-square and flat as a miniseries – itself feels like something of a period piece.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Janghwa, Hongryeon: see A Tale of Two Sisters

Janice Beard 45 WPM

GB 1999 81m Technicolor
UIP/Film Consortium/Arts Council/WAVE/Channel4/Dakota (Judy Counihan)

A Scottish woman, who hopes to find a cure for her agoraphobic mother, gets a job in London as a temporary secretary.
Dreary would-be comedy, of industrial espionage and office mishaps, that is best avoided.
w Clare Kilner, Ben Hopkins d Clare Kilner ph Richard Greatrex, Peter Thwaites m Paul Carr pd Sophie Becher ed Mary Finlay ☆ Eileen Walsh (Janice Beard), Rhys Ifans (Sean), Patsy Kensit (Julia), David O'Hara (O'Brien), Sandra Voe (Mimi), Frances Gray (Violet), Zita Sattar (Jane), Amelia Curtis (June)

'An unsatisfying mess.' – Film Review

Janice Meredith

US 1924 153m bw silent
Metro-Goldwyn/Cosmopolitan
GB title: The Beautiful Rebel

Vicissitudes of the coquettish daughter of a New Jersey family through the War of Independence.
Marathon melodrama not unlike Gone with the Wind in subject matter, but of no remaining interest.
w Lillie Hayward novel Paul Leicester Ford d E. Mason Hopper ph Ira H. Morgan, George Barnes m Deems Taylor ad Joseph Urban ☆ Marion Davies, Harrison Ford, Macklyn Arbuckle, Joseph Kilgour, George Nash, Tyrone Power Snr, May Vokes, W. C. Fields, Olin Howland

Janie

US 1944 106m bw
Warner (Brock Pemberton)

The teenage daughter of a middle-class American household gets into innocent scrapes with the army.
Deafening tomboy farce.
w Agnes Christine Johnston, Charles Hoffman play Josephine Bentham, Herschel V. Williams Jnr d Michael Curtiz ph Carl Guthrie m/ly Lee David, Sammy Cahn, Jule Styne ed Owen Marks
☆ Joyce Reynolds, Robert Hutton, Ann Harding, Edward Arnold, Robert Benchley, Claire Foley, Hattie McDaniel
† Janie Gets Married, made the following year and running 89m, had almost identical credits except that Joan Leslie replaced Joyce Reynolds and Dorothy Malone joined the cast.
Owen Marks

The Janitor: see Eye Witness (1981)

The January Man

US 1989 97m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM (Norman Jewison, Ezra Swerdlow)

A disgraced policeman tracks down a serial killer.
Ludicrously implausible thriller.
w John Patrick Shanley d Pat O'Connor ph Jerzy Zielinksi m Marvin Hamlisch pd Philip Rosenberg ed Lou Lombardo
☆ Kevin Kline, Susan Sarandon, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Harvey Keitel, Danny Aiello, Rod Steiger, Alan Rickman, Faye Grant, Ken Welsh

'A damp sock of a movie.' – Washington Post

Japanese Story ★★

Australia/GB 2003 105m Cinevex colour Panavision
AFFC/Gecko (Sue Maslin)

A female geologist takes a married Japanese businessman on a trip into the outback, where the two begin a tentative relationship.
Engrossing drama that begins as a clash between two cultures, one formal, the other casual, and then unexpectedly develops into a moving and emotional study of a woman in crisis.
w Alison Tilson d Sue Brooks ph Ian Baker m Elizabeth Drake pd Paddy Reardon ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Toni Collette (Sandy Edwards), Gotaro Tsunashima (Tachibana Hiromitsu), Matthew Dyktynski (Bill Baird), Lynette Curran (Mum), Yumiko Tanaka (Yukiko Hiromitsu)

'A simple, austerely told tale. But there is something memorable, even haunting, about it.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Japón

Mexico/Spain 2001 133m colour Cinemascope
Artificial Eye/No Dream/Mantarraya/Solaris (Carlos Reygadas)

An anonymous middle-aged man arrives at a remote village with the intention of killing himself; he changes his mind after making love to the elderly woman with whom he stays.
An old-fashioned art film with a grainy texture, much uneccessary movement of the camera, the accompaniment of classical music, a non-professional cast (one of whom complains on camera about the meanness of the film company), and a gloomy ending.
wd Carlos Reygadas ph Diego Martinez Vignatti m Shostakovich, Bach ad Alejandro Reygadas ed Daniel Melguizo
☆ Alejandro Ferretis (The man), Magdalena Flores (Ascen)

'An unusually tranquillizing experience.' – Alexander Walker

'Welcome To The Suck.'

Jarhead ★★ 5

Germany/US/GB 2005 115m DeLuxe
Universal (Douglas Wick, Lucy Fisher)

A young marine takes part in the Gulf War of 1991, in which he does nothing but wait in intense heat for something to happen.
Well-made, if frustrating, movie about the futility and boredom of war.
w William Broyles Jnr book Anthony Swofford d Sam Mendes ph Roger Deakins m Thomas Newman pd Dennis Gassner ed Walter Murch ☆ Jake Gyllenhaal (Swoff), Peter Sarsgaard (Troy), Lucas Black (Kruger), Brian Geraghty (Fergus), Jacob Vargas (Cortez),

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Chris Cooper (Lt Col Kazinski), Dennis Haysbert (Major Lincoln), Jamie Foxx (Staff Sgt Sykes)

'A movie that walks up to some of the most urgent and painful issues of our present circumstance, clears its throat loudly and, with occasional flourishes of impressive rhetoric, says nothing.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Jarrapellejos ★★

Spain 1987 108m colour
Penelope/Television Española (Jose G. Blanco Sola, Jose Joaquin Aguirre)

In the early 1900s, a corrupt landowner in a small town covers up the rape and murder of a mother and daughter.

Devastating exposé of social and sexual hypocrisy, shot in a stately fashion.

w Antonio Gimenez Rico, Manuel Gutierrez Aragon novel Felipe Trigo d Antonio Gimenez Rico ph Jose Luis Alcaine m Carmelo A. Bernaola ad Rafael Palmero ed Miguel Gonzalez Sinde

☆ Antonio Ferrandis, Juan Diego, Lydia Bosch, Amparo Larrañaga, Joaquin Hinojosa, Miguel A. Rellan, Aitana Sanchez-Gijon, Carlos Tristancho, Florinda Chico, Jose Coronado

Jason and the Argonauts ★★★

GB 1963 104m Technicolor
Columbia/Charles H. Schneer

With help and hindrance from the gods, Jason voyages in search of the Golden Fleece and meets all kinds of monsters.

Rambling semi-classic mythological fantasy which keeps its tongue firmly in its cheek and provides a framework for some splendid stop-frame animation.

w Jan Read, Beverley Cross d Don Chaffey ph Wilkie Cooper m Bernard Herrmann ad Jack Maxsted, Toni Sarzi-Braga, Herbert Smith ed Maurice Rootes sp Ray Harryhausen

☆ Todd Armstrong (Jason), Honor Blackman (Hera), Niall MacGinnis (Zeus), Andrew Faulds (Phalerus), Nancy Kovack (Medea)

Jason Goes to Hell: The Final Friday

US 1993 88m DeLuxe
New Line (Sean S. Cunningham)

Jason attempts to kill his relatives so that he can live forever.

The series ends, but does not even manage a whimper on the way out; it simply fades away into witless, boring nonsense. The most frightening moment comes at the end, with the hint that he and Freddy, hero of the Nightmare on Elm Street series, may be teamed in a new movie.

w Dean Lorey, Jay Huguely d Adam Marcus ph William Dill m Harry Manfredini pd W. Brooke Wheeler ed David Handman

☆ Jon D. LeMay, Kari Keegan, Kane Hodder, Steve Williams, Steven Culp, Erin Gray, Rusty Schwimmer

'Jason goes to hell and not a moment too soon.' – Variety

† The film was the ninth and last film in the Friday the 13th series (qv).

'Evil Gets An Upgrade'

Jason X

US 2002 92m DeLuxe
New Line/Sean S. Cunningham (Noel J. Cunningham)

In the 25th century, students aboard a spaceship find the frozen body of a serial killer, and revive it.

Gory and uninmaginative rehash of Alien.

w Todd Farmer d James Isaac ph Derrick Underschultz m Harry Manfredini pd John Dondertman ed David Handman cos Maxyne Baker

☆ Lexa Doig (Rowan), Lisa Ryder (KAY-EM 14), Chuck Campbell (Tsunaron), Jonathan Potts (Professor Lowe), Peter Mensah (Sgt Brodski), Melyssa Ade (Janessa), Kane Hodder (Jason), David Cronenberg (Dr Wimmer)

'The look and feel of this film is lower rent than any of the space travel films Roger Corman made, while pic's cast has been outfitted in the most eye-poppingly atrocious costumes this side of Starfleet Academy.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

Jason's Lyric ★

US 1994 119m colour
Polygram/Propaganda (Doug McHenry, George Jackson)

In Houston, a hard-working television salesman is drawn into the world of crime by his love for his crooked brother and for the sister of a local gangster.

Grim drama of characters trapped by circumstance and the ghetto, but one that recycles old themes without adding much to them.

w Bobby Smith Jnr d Doug McHenry ph Francis Kenny m Afrika, Matt Noble pd Simon Dobbin ed Andrew Mondshein

☆ Allen Payne, Jada Pinkett, Bokeem Woodbine, Anthony 'Treach' Criss, Lisa Carson, Forest Whitaker, Suzzanne Douglas

'The soundtrack CD may find an audience, but no one should relish the film itself, a horrid collison between West Side Story, East of Eden and a pile of junk.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

'A tough film, well shot and directed but paying strict attention, above all, to the performances. Even though made with music that's obviously sellable in record form, it never resorts to out and out cliché.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Jassy

GB 1947 102m Technicolor
GFD/Gainsborough (Sydney Box)

A gypsy servant girl falls in love with her master but is accused of murder.

Period romantic melodrama of the Man in Grey school; poor of its kind despite high production values.

w Dorothy and Campbell Christie, Geoffrey Kerr novel Norah Lofts d Bernard Knowles ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Henry Geehl md Louis Levy ad George Provis ed Charles Knott cos Elizabeth Haffenden

☆ Margaret Lockwood (Jassy), Patricia Roc (Dilys), Dennis Price (Christopher Hatton), Basil Sydney (Nick Helmar), Dermot Walsh (Barney Hatton), Nora Swinburne (Mrs Hatton), Linden Travers (Mrs Helmar), Ernest Thesiger (Sir Edward Follesmark), Cathleen Nesbitt (Elizabeth Twisdale), John Laurie (Woodroffe), Jean Cadell (Meggie), Clive Morton (Sir William Fennell), Grace Arnold (Maid), Maurice Denham (Jim Stoner), Alan Wheatley (Sir Edward Walker)

'As a piece of unabashed romantic hokum, I found it more and more diverting as the plot thickened.' – Evening Standard

Jaws ★★

US 1975 125m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Zanuck-Brown (William S. Gilmore Jnr)

A man-eating shark causes havoc off the Long Island coast.

In the exploitation-hungry seventies this film took more money than any other. In itself, despite genuinely suspenseful and frightening sequences, it is a slackly narrated and sometimes flatly handled thriller with an over-abundance of dialogue and, when it finally appears, a pretty unconvincing monster.

w Peter Benchley, Carl Gottlieb novel Peter Benchley d Steven Spielberg ph Bill Butler m John Williams ad Joseph Alves Jnr ed Verna Fields

☆ Robert Shaw, Roy Scheider, Richard Dreyfuss, Lorraine Gary, Murray Hamilton, Carl Gottlieb

'A mind-numbing repast for sense-sated gluttons. Shark stew for the stupefied.' – William S. Pechter

'The opening sequences have few parallels in modern cinema; like the shower scene in Psycho they will haunt a whole generation.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies

John Williams; Verna Fields; sound
best picture
John Williams

'Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the water...'

Jaws 2

US 1978 117m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Richard Zanuck, David Brown (Joe Alves)

Another man-eating shark menaces teenagers in the Long Island resort of Amity.

Repetitive and feeble sequel aimed directly at the popcorn market.

w Carl Gottlieb, Howard Sackler, Dorothy Tristan d Jeannot Szwarc ph Michael Butler, David Butler, Michael McGowan m John Williams

☆ Roy Scheider, Lorraine Gary, Murray Hamilton, Joseph Mascolo, Collin Wilcox

'A manipulation of the audience, in the best sense of the term' – Jeannot Szwarc, director

'The third dimension is terror!'

Jaws 3-D

US 1983 99m Technicolor ArriVision 3-D
Alan Landsburg/Universal (Rupert Hitzig)

A man-eating shark turns up in a Florida theme park.

Noisy additional chapter to this string of shocks.

w Richard Matheson, Carl Gottlieb story Guerdon Trueblood d Joe Alves ph James A. Contner m Alan Parker pd Woods Macintosh ed Randy Roberts, Corky Ehlers

☆ Dennis Quaid, Bess Armstrong, Simon MacCorkindale, Louis Gossett Jnr, John Putch, Lea Thompson

Jaws: The Revenge

US 1987 100m colour Super 35
UIP/Universal (Joseph Sargent)

Superfluous fourth story in the Jaws series, almost indistinguishable from the others once you accept that the sharks are after Brody's widow.

w Michael de Guzman d Joseph Sargent ph John McPherson m Michael Small pd John Lloyd ed Michael Brown

☆ Lorraine Gary, Lance Guest, Mario Van Peebles, Karen Young, Michael Caine

'Hollywood Had It Coming.'

Jay and Silent Bob Strike Back

US 2001 104m DeLuxe Super 35
Buena Vista/Dimension/View Askew (Scott Mosier)

Two slackers set out to sabotage a Hollywood movie featuring comic-book characters based on themselves.

Knockabout, self-indulgent, self-referential comedy that goes round in ever-decreasing circles.

wd Kevin Smith ph Jamie Anderson m James L. Venable pd Robert 'Ratface' Holtzman ed Kevin Smith, Scott Mosier

☆ Ben Affleck (Holden/Himself), Jeff Anderson (Randal), Diedrich Bader (Security Guard), Eliza Dushku (Sissy), Shannon Elizabeth (Justice), Will Ferrell (Willenholly), Mark Hammill (Cocknocker), Ali Larter (Chrissy), Jason Lee (Brodie/Banky), Jason Mewes (Jay), Chris Rock (Chaka), Seann William Scott (Brent), Kevin Smith (Silent Bob)

'Uneven and quite messily made.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Jayhawkers

US 1959 110m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Panama and Frank

Before the Civil War, a farmer defeats a militant posse of private raiders.

Unconvincing but rather unusual Western, flat patches alternating with striking ones.

w Melvin Frank, Joseph Petracca, Frank Fenton, A. I. Bezzerides d Melvin Frank ph Loyal Griggs m Jerome Moross

☆ Fess Parker, Jeff Chandler, Nicole Maurey, Henry Silva, Herbert Rudley

Jazz Comedy ★

USSR 1934 93m bw
Mosfilm
original title: Vesolye Rebyata

A shepherd is frequently mistaken for a famous conductor.

Peripatetic comedy with many sight gags and western slapstick: Russian comedy being still a rare thing, it seems something of a revelation.

w Grigori Alexandrov, Nikolai Erdman, V. Mass d Grigori Alexandrov ph Vladimir Nilsen m Isaac Dunayevsky

☆ Lubov Orlova, Leonid Utyosov, Maria Strelkova

'The best thing that has happened to the cinema since René Clair made The Italian Straw Hat ... a picture of almost ecstatic happiness.' – Graham Greene

Jazz on a Summer's Day ★★

US 1959 85m DeLuxe
Galaxy/Raven (Allan Green)

Exemplary documentary about the Newport Jazz Festival, incorporating many excellent performances from the musicians involved.

Made by a famous fashion photographer, this is visually as interesting as it is musically. With its witty juxtaposition of images and sound, it remains probably the best documentary of its kind so far.

w Arnold Pearl, Albert D'Annibale d Bert Stern ph Bert Stern, Courtney Hafela, Ray Phealan md George Avakian ed Aram Avakian

☆ Louis Armstrong, Mahalia Jackson, Gerry Mulligan, Dinah Washington, Chico Hamilton, Anita O'Day, George Shearing,

Chuck Berry, Jack Teagarden, Thelonious Monk, Big Maybelle, Sonny Stitt

'New songs and old favourites sung by Mr Jolson during the action of the story on the Vitaphone!'

The Jazz Singer ★★★★

US 1927 89m bw
Warner

A cantor's son makes it big in show business.
Archetypal Jewish weepie which became of absorbing interest as the first talkie film (songs and a few fragments of speech) and in its way, surprisingly, is not half bad.
w Alfred A. Cohn play Samson Raphaelson d Alan Crosland ph Hal Mohr md Louis Silvers ed Harold McCord
☆ Al Jolson (Jakie Rabinowitz/Jack Robin), May McAvoy (Mary Dale), Warner Oland (Cantor Rabinowitz), Eugenie Besserer (Sara Rabinowitz), Otto Lederer (Moishe Yudelson)

'A beautiful period piece, extravagantly sentimental ... yet entirely compelling in its own conviction.' – NFT, 1969
''The Jazz Singer definitely establishes the fact that talking pictures are imminent. Everyone in Hollywood can rise up and declare that they are not, and it will not alter the fact. If I were an actor with a squeaky voice I would worry.' – Welford Beaton, The Film Spectator

♫ 'Blue Skies'; 'Mother I Still Have You'; 'My Mammy'; 'Toot Toot Tootsie Goodbye'; 'Dirty Hands Dirty Face'
Special Award to Warner for producing 'the pioneer outstanding talking picture'
Alfred A. Cohn

The Jazz Singer

US 1953 107m Technicolor
Warner (Louis F. Edelman)

Ill-considered, schmaltzy remake of the above.
w Frank Davis, Leonard Stern, Lewis Meltzer d Michael Curtiz ph Carl Guthrie m Max Steiner md Ray Heindorf ☆ Danny Thomas, Peggy Lee, Mildred Dunnock, Eduard Franz
Ray Heindorf; Max Steiner

The Jazz Singer

US 1980 115m DeLuxe
EMI/Jerry Leider

Oddly-timed reprise of the above, with doting mum replaced by patient wife.
A good basis for a best-selling album, otherwise a pointless enterprise.
w Herbert Baker, Stephen H. Foreman d Richard Fleischer ph Isidore Mankofsky m Leonard Rosenman pd Harry Horner ☆ Neil Diamond, Laurence Olivier, Lucie Arnaz, Catlin Adams, Sully Boyar

'What is jazz to Neil Diamond and what is Neil Diamond to jazz? Old title has nothing to do with music on display here and would seem meaningless to modern audiences.' – Variety

Jazzboat

GB 1959 96m bw Cinemascope
Warwick/Columbia

A jazz musician pretends to be a crook and leads the police to an important gang.
Flimsy comedy with a background of pop acts. Very dated.
w Ken Hughes, John Antrobus d Ken Hughes ph Ted Moore m Kenneth Jones ch Lionel Blair
☆ Anthony Newley, Anne Aubrey, David Lodge, Lionel Jeffries, Bernie Winters, James Booth, Al Mulock, Joyce Blair, Leo McKern, Ted Heath and his Music

Je T'Aime, Je T'Aime ★★

France 1967 94m Eastmancolor
TCF/Parc/Fox Europa (Mag Bodard)

During experiments with a time-machine, a suicidal man relives the experience of an unhappy love affair that led him to attempt to take his own life.
A fascinating, if sometimes confusing, speculation on the nature of time and the fact that there are no second chances in life.
w Jacques Sternberg d Alain Resnais ph Jean Boffety m Krzysztof Penderecki, Jean-Claude Pelletier, Jean Dandeny ad Jacques Dugied, Auguste Pace ed Albert Jurgenson, Colette Leloup
☆ Claude Rich, Olga Georges-Picot, Anouk Ferjac, Annie Fargue, Bernard Fresson, Yvette Etievant

'A work that deserves to be studied and discussed: to see it is essential.' – Gordon Gow, Films and Filming

Je T'Aime Moi Non Plus

France 1975 90m Eastmancolor
President/Renn (Jacques-Eric Strauss)

aka: I Love You No More
A gay truck driver begins an affair with a boyish girl which proves difficult to consummate and also upsets his jealous Italian boyfriend.
Rambling, inconsequential, intermittently entertaining tale that gives the impression that the actors made it up as they went along.
wd Serge Gainsbourg ph Willy Kurant m Serge Gainsbourg ad Theo Meurisse ed Kenout Peltier
☆ Jane Birkin, Joe Dallesandro, Hugues Quester, Rene Kolldehoff, Gérard Depardieu, Michel Blanc

Je Vous Aime

France 1981 105m Eastmancolor
Renn Productions/FR3 (Pierre Grunstein)

A woman changes husbands as if they were dresses.
Shallow depiction of an incurable romantic, or obsessive promiscuity, depending on your viewpoint. From either, it makes for a dull movie.
w Claude Berri, Michel Grisolia d Claude Berri ph Etienne Becker m Serge Gainsbourg ad Pierre Guffroy ed Arlette Langmann
☆ Catherine Deneuve, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Gérard Depardieu, Serge Gainsbourg, Alain Souchon, Christian Marquand

Jealousy ★

US 1945 70m bw
Republic

A failed writer, jealous of his wife's friendship with another man, is found murdered.
Curious but interesting melodrama with much talent breaking through.
w Arnold Phillips, Gustav Machaty, Dalton Trumbo d Gustav Machaty m Hanns Eisler ☆ Nils Asther, John Loder, Jane Randolph, Karen Morley

'It is a sympathetic film, and in spite of its overall failure, contains enough sincerity and enough artistry to make most of the other films mentioned here look sick.' – James Agee

Jealousy Italian Style ★

Italy/Spain 1970 106m Technicolor
Panavision
Dean/Jupiter Generale/Midega (Pio Angeletti, Adriano de Micheli) original title: Dramma della Gelosia – Tutti i Particolari in Cronaca
aka: A Drama of Jealousy; The Pizza Triangle

Two friends – a married bricklayer and a pizza cook – fall in love with the same woman, who cannot choose between them, resulting in disaster for all three.
Mildly amusing, if over-loud and vociferous, comedy that takes swipes at, among other targets, male–female relationships, modern Italian design, politics, and Fellini's liking for grotesques.
w Furio Scarpelli, Agenore Incrocci, Ettore Scola d Ettore Scola ph Carlo Di Palma m Armando Trovaioli ad Luciano Ricceri ed Alberto Gallitti
☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Giancarlo Giannini, Monica Vitti, Manolo Zarzo, Marisa Merlini, Hercules Cortes
† Mastroianni's performance won him the Best Actor award at the Cannes Film Festival in 1970.

Jean de Florette ★★★

France 1986 121m Eastmancolor
Technovision
Renn/Films A2/RAI2/DD

Elemental story of feuding over water supplies in rural France in the 20s.
Stunning performances and detailed depiction of Provençal farming life made it a wild success in France, repeated to a remarkable extent abroad.
w Claude Berri, Gérard Brach novel Marcel Pagnol d Claude Berri ph Bruno Nuytten m Jean-Claude Petit pd Bernard Vezat ed Arlette Langmann, Herve de Luze, Noelle Boisson
☆ Yves Montand (Cesar Soubeyran/"Le Papet"), Gérard Depardieu (Jean de Florette/Cadoret), Daniel Auteuil (Ugolin Soubeyran/"Galignette"), Elisabeth Depardieu (Aimee Cadoret)
† The saga continued in Manon des Sources (qv), from Pagnol's sequel L'eau de collines.
BAFTA best picture; adapted screenplay; cinematography; Daniel Auteuil

Jeanne Eagels ★

US 1957 114m bw
Columbia (George Sidney)

A sideshow dancer becomes a Broadway star of the twenties but dies of drugs.
Well-upholstered but basically too conventional showbiz biopic.
w Daniel Fuchs, Sonya Levien, John Fante d George Sidney ph Robert Planck
m George Duning
☆ Kim Novak, Jeff Chandler, Agnes Moorehead, Charles Drake, Larry Gates, Virginia Grey

Jeanne la Pucelle: Part I, Les Batailles; Part II, Les Prisons ★★

France 1994 238m colour
Artificial Eye/Mayfair/La Sept/France 3/Pierre Grise

The story of the life and death at the stake of Joan of Arc. Part I deals with Joan persuading the French court that she has been sent by God to drive the English from France. Part II concentrates on the political machinations that followed her successes, her trial and death.
Absorbing, exhaustively detailed drama that follows Joan in close-up, ignoring opportunities for spectacle; its length, though, remains a problem.
w Christine Laurent, Pascal Bonitzer d Jacques Rivette ph William Lubtchansky m Jordi Savall pd Mau de Chauvigny ed Nicole Lubtchanksy
☆ Sandrine Bonnaire (Jeanne), André Marcon (Dauphin), Jean-Louis Richard, Marcel Bozonnet, Didier Sauvegrain, Patrick Le Mauff, Jean-Pierre Lorit, Jean-Pierre Becker, Mathieu Busson

'An original, prowling and restless film with an outstanding central performance.' – Empire
'Is certainly a sumptuous costume drama, but it's also as cold and as dry as any history lesson.' – Film Review † Part I 117m, Part II 121m. The original running time for the film's French release was Part I 160m, Part II 176m.

Jeanne's House ★★

France 1987 94m colour
MDG/FR3 (Marie-Dominique Girodet) original title: La Maison de Jeanne

A restaurateur, driven to the point of breakdown by her passive husband, demanding mother and noisy children, falls in love with her new landlord.
Witty movie of domestic conflict that comes to a surprising conclusion.
wd Magali Clement ph Pierre Novion m Raymond Alessandrini ad Bruno Bruneau ed Amina Mazani ☆ Christine Boisson, Benoit Regent, Jean-Pierre Bisson, Marie Trintignant, Michelle Goddet, Maxime Leroux, Pascale Audret, Jacques Richard

Jeannie ★

GB 1941 101m bw
GFD/Tansa (Marcel Hellman)
US title: Girl in Distress

A Scots girl comes into money and takes a European holiday.
Mildly astringent, generally amusing comedy which overcomes shaky production. Remade as Let's Be Happy in 1952.
w Anatole de Grunwald, Roland Pertwee play Aimée Stuart d Harold French ph Bernard Knowles m Mischa Spoliansky
☆ Barbara Mullen, Michael Redgrave, Albert Lieven, Wilfrid Lawson, Kay Hammond, Edward Chapman, Googie Withers, Gus MacNaughton

'One of the easiest, sweetest of light comedies.' – James Agee
'As enchanting a bit of rue and nonsense as we've succumbed to in many a month.' – New York Times

Jeder für sich und Gott gegen alle: see The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser

'What's Eating You?'

Jeepers Creepers

US 2001 89m FotoKem
UA/American Zoetrope/Cinerenta-Cinebeta (Barry Opper, Tom Luse)

A brother and sister are terrorised by a demon.
Spooky little horror with a feel-bad ending that begins promisingly but quickly loses the plot.
wd Victor Salva ph Don E. Fauntleroy m Bennett Salvay pd Steven Legler ed Ed Marx sp Brad Parker; Make-up & Monster Studios; E=MC² ☆ Gina Phillips (Trish), Justin Long (Darry), Jonathan Breck (The Creeper), Patricia Belcher (Jezelle Gay Hartman),

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Brandon Smith (Sgt Davis Tubbs), Eileen Brennan (Cat Lady)

'A clever thriller-chiller combining laughter with creepiness that should satisfy horror fans.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times

'He can taste your fear.'

Jeepers Creepers II ★ (3)

US 2002 103m Technicolor Panavision
Pathé/United Artists/Myriad/American Zoetrope (Tom Luse)

Stranded on a country road, a busload of highschool students become the prey of a winged demon.

A standard and predictable teens in peril horror that even so manages to generate some tension.

wd Victor Salva ph Don E. FauntLeRoy m Bennett Salvay pd Peter Jamison ed Ed Marx sp The Orphange

☆ Ray Wise (Jack Taggart), Jonathan Breck (The Creeper), Garikayi Mutambirwa (Deaundre 'Double D' Davis), Eric Nenninger (Nicki Aycox), Travis Schiffner (Izzy Bohen), Lena Cardwell (Chelsea Farmer)

'Substantially better than its predecessor, even while staying strictly within the genre's well-defined boundaries.' – Andy Klein, Variety

Jefferson in Paris

US 1995 139m colour
Buena Vista/Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant)

In the 1780s, Thomas Jefferson becomes the US Ambassador to France, where he courts a married artist and fathers a child on a young, black slave in his household.

Glossily presented period drama that is all show and no substance.

w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala d James Ivory ph Pierre Lhomme m Richard Robbins pd Guy-Claude Françoise ed Andrew Marcus, Isabel Lorente

☆ Nick Nolte, Greta Scacchi, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Thandie Newton, Simon Callow, Seth Gilliam, James Earl Jones, Michel Lonsdale, Nancy Marchand, Gwyneth Paltrow

'A dreary, tedious, condescending film that, given its sexual subplot, is quite amazingly passionless.' – Joe Queenan

'The high-minded look of the film, combined with Jhabvala's uncharacteristically muddled handling of the story, makes for a distinctly queasy experience.'– Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'Two-and-a-half hours of beautifully costumed inconsequence.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Jeffrey ★

US 1995 94m Technicolor
Film Four/Workin' Man/The Booking Office (Mark Balsam, Mitchell Maxwell, Victoria Maxwell)

A gay actor decides to give up sex and then meets the man of his dreams.

A slight and bitchy comedy of the strains and confusions that the arrival of AIDS has brought to matters of love and sex.

w Paul Rudnick play Paul Rudnick d Christopher Ashley ph Jeffrey Tufano m Stephen Endelman pd Michael Johnston ed Cara Silverman

☆ Steven Weber, Patrick Stewart, Bryan Batt, Sigourney Weaver, Nathan Lane, Olympia Dukakis

'Quite successfully walks the tightrope between utter sincerity and queenly silliness.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

J'Embrasse Pas ★

France 1991 115m colour 'Scope
President/BAC/Salome/Ciné Cinq/Canal Plus (Maurice Benart, Jacques Eric-Strauss, Jean Labadie)

aka: I Don't Kiss

An ill-educated but ambitious youth from the country comes to Paris, finds success as a male prostitute and falls for a whore.

Dour moral tale of disillusioned youth that comes to no satisfactory conclusion.

w Jacques Nolot, André Téchiné, Michel Grisolia d André Téchiné ph Thierry Arbogast m Philippe Sarde ed Claudine Merlin, Edith Vassard

☆ Philippe Noiret, Emmanuelle Béart, Manuel Blanc, Hélène Vincent, Yvan Desni

Jennie: see Portrait of Jennie

Jennifer

US 1953 73m bw
AA (Berman Swartz)

The lady housekeeper of a California mansion broods on the mysterious disappearance of her predecessor.

Slight, quietly effective suspenser with a letdown ending.

w Virginia Myers d Joel Newton ph James Wong Howe m Ernest Gold

☆ Ida Lupino, Howard Duff, Robert Nichols, Mary Shipp

'On the trail of a serial killer, Detective John Berlin has no clues and no suspects. And no alibi.'

Jennifer Eight

US 1992 120m DeLuxe
Paramount (Gary Lucchesi, David Wimbury)

A burnt-out cop, moving to a new small-town job, faces local derision when he decides a murder has been committed by a serial killer who targets blind women.

A drawn-out, predictable thriller that becomes more ridiculous the longer it lasts; and it lasts a long time.

wd Bruce Robinson ph Conrad L. Hall m Christopher Young pd Richard Macdonald ed Conrad Buff

☆ Andy Garcia, Uma Thurman, John Malkovich, Lance Henriksen, Kathy Baker, Kevin Conway, Graham Beckel

'Although initially menacing, Robinson's addition to the serial killer genre falls back on clichés.' – Sight and Sound

'A sombre character-oriented suspense mystery, this is notable both for its stunningly atmospheric cinematography and the dark psychological undercurrents lurking beneath the surface.' – Empire

† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Jenny Lind: see A Lady's Morals

Jeopardy

US 1952 69m bw
MGM (Sol Baer Fielding)

A man on a camping holiday falls off a jetty and gets stuck in the timbers while the water rises; his wife frantically seeks help from an escaped convict.

Panic melodrama enjoyable for its clichés.

w Mel Dinelli d John Sturges ph Victor Milner m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Barry Sullivan, Ralph Meeker

'Some say he's dead ... some say he never will be!'

Jeremiah Johnson ★★

US 1972 107m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Joe Wizan)

In the 1850s an ex-soldier becomes a mountain trapper.

Splendidly made if rather desultorily plotted adventure story with the feel of raw reality.

w John Milius, Edward Anhalt d Sydney Pollack ph Duke Callaghan m John Rubinstein, Tim McIntire

☆ Robert Redford, Will Geer, Allyn McLerie

Jeremy

US 1973 90m DeLuxe
UA/Kenasset (George Pappas)

A music student falls in love with a ballet dancer.

Sentimental love story with nothing positive to commend it, chiefly interesting because for commercial release it was blown up from 16mm.

wd Arthur Barron ph Paul Goldsmith m Lee Holdridge

☆ Robby Benson, Glynnis O'Connor, Len Bari, Leonardo Cimino

Jericho

GB 1937 77m bw
Buckingham (Walter Futter, Max Schach)
US title: Dark Sands

A court-martialled officer pursues a murderous deserter across Africa.

Lively star vehicle of its day.

w Frances Marion, George Barraud, Peter Ruric, Robert N. Lee d Thornton Freeland ph John W. Boyle

☆ Paul Robeson, Henry Wilcoxon, Wallace Ford, John Laurie, James Carew

'Can't fail to interest audiences throughout the world.' – Variety

The Jerk

US 1979 94m Technicolor
Universal/Aspen (Peter MacGregor-Scott)

An innocent white man brought up by black sharecroppers goes out into the world and first makes, then loses a fortune.

Hit-or-miss star vehicle with flashes of satire and fallen aspirations to be a modern Candide.

w Steve Martin, Carl Gottlieb, Michael Elias d Carl Reiner ph Victor J. Kemper m Jack Elliott

☆ Steve Martin, Bernadette Peters, Catlin Adams, Bill Macy, Maurice Evans

'Goofy, dumb, innocent, loud, uncoordinated, bashful and quite dirty.' – Variety

Jerry and Tom ★

US 1998 106m DeLuxe
Miramax/Lions Gate (Elinor Reid, Vivienne Leebosh, Michael Paseornek, Saul Rubinek)

A hitman and his young apprentice have differing approaches to their job.

Deft, skilful, slow-burning, conversational thriller that breathes new vitality into over-familiar material.

w Rick Cleveland d Saul Rubinek ph Paul Sarossy m David Buchbinder pd David Hackl ed Sloane Klevin

☆ Joe Mantegna, Sam Rockwell, Maury Chaykin, Ted Danson, Charles Durning, William H. Macy, Peter Riegert

'Very well acted and beautifully directed.' – Variety

'Everybody loved him ... Everybody disappeared.'
'The rest of his life begins now...'

Jerry Maguire ★ (7)

US 1996 139m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Gracie (James L. Brooks, Laurence Mark, Richard Sakai, Cameron Crowe)

A successful sports agent turns idealistic and loses his job but finds love and fulfilment.

An enjoyable movie that works best in its more intimate moments; its wider theme, of one man's redemption through learning to care for others, is vitiated by its feel-good ending, when the difference between agent-as-shark and agent-as-good-guy is obliterated.

wd Cameron Crowe ph Janusz Kaminski m Nancy Wilson pd Stephen Lineweaver ed Joe Hutshing

☆ Tom Cruise, Cuba Gooding Jnr, Renée Zellweger, Kelly Preston, Jerry O'Connell, Jay Mohr, Regina King

'If this is the best Hollywood can offer, you wonder what all the talent is doing.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Cuba Gooding Jnr

best picture; Tom Cruise; Cameron Crowe (as writer); Joe Hutshing

Jersey Girl

US 1992 95m Technicolor
Entertainment/Electric/Interscope

A New Jersey teacher crashes her Volkswagen into a Mercedes belonging to the kind of person that she needs to improve her life: a successful and handsome man from Manhattan.

Amiable comedy of class differences with true love winning out in the end, to no one's surprise.

w Gina Wendkos d David Burton Morris ph Ron Fortunato m Misha Segal pd Lester Cohen ed Norman Hollyn

☆ Jami Gertz, Dylan McDermott, Molly Price, Aida Turturro, Star Jasper, Sheryl Lee, Joseph Bologna, Joseph Mazzello, Philip Casnoff

'Pic has the potential to warm the hearts of ancillary viewers, especially young women.' – Variety

The Jerusalem File

US/Israel 1971 96m Metrocolor
MGM/Sparta (Ram Ben Efraim)

American archaeologists in Jerusalem become involved in Arab/Israeli espionage.

Muddled mixture of action and politics.

w Troy Kennedy Martin d John Flynn ph Raoul Coutard m John Scott

☆ Bruce Davison, Nicol Williamson, Donald Pleasence, Ian Hendry

Jesse James ★★

US 1939 106m Technicolor
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

After the Civil War, two brothers take to train robbing when railroad employees harass their family.

The life of an outlaw turns into family entertainment when Hollywood bathes it in sentiment, soft colour, family background and warm humour. It works dangerously well, and the action sequences are splendid.

w Nunnally Johnson d Henry King ph George Barnes md Louis Silvers ad William Darling, George Dudley

☆ Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly, Jane Darwell, Randolph Scott, Henry Hull, Slim Summerville, Brian Donlevy, J. Edward Bromberg, John Carradine, Donald Meek

'Sock outdoors meller, vigorous and intensely dramatic in its unfolding ... box office smacko.' – Variety
'An authentic American panorama.' – New York Times
† Sequel 1940: The Return of Frank James. Remake 1957: The True Story of Jesse James.

Jesse James Meets Frankenstein's Daughter

US 1965 82m Pathécolor
Avco Embassy/Circle/Embassy (Carroll Case)

Baron Frankenstein's granddaughter moves to a Mexican village where she sets up in the family business and falls in love with Jesse James.
Low-budget nonsense, played and directed with little sense of style or purpose.
w Carl K. Hittleman d William Beaudine ph Lothrop Worth m Raoul Kraushaar ad Paul Sylos, Harry Reif ed Roy Livingston
☆ John Lupton, Estelita, Cal Bolder, Narda Onyx, Steven Geray, Raymond Barnes
'With script and direction proving equally frail, the film is only prevented from becoming the camper's delight promised by the title by the fact that the cast plod through it all with gravity hardly befitting the occasion.' – Tom Milne, MFB
† The same director was also responsible for Billy the Kid vs Dracula (qv).

Jessica

France/Italy/US 1962 105m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Ariane/Dear Film (Jean Negulesco)

The attractive midwife in a Sicilian village causes the women to go on a sex strike.
Synthetic rustic naughtiness showing several influences imperfectly assimilated.
w Edith Sommer novel The Midwife of Pont Clery by Flora Sundstrom d Jean Negulesco ph Piero Portalupi m Mario Nascimbene ☆ Angie Dickinson, Maurice Chevalier, Noel Noel, Gabriele Ferzetti, Sylva Koscina, Agnes Moorehead, Marcel Dalio

Jesus Christ Superstar ★

US 1973 107m Technicolor Todd-AO 35
Universal (Norman Jewison, Robert Stigwood)

Young tourists in Israel re-enact episodes of the life of Christ.
Location-set fantasia based on the phenomenally successful rock opera; some of it works, but the original concept was a theatrical one.
w Melvyn Bragg, Norman Jewison d Norman Jewison ph Douglas Slocombe m/ly Andrew Lloyd Webber, Tim Rice md André Previn
☆ Ted Neeley, Carl Anderson, Yvonne Elliman, Barry Dennen
'One of the true fiascos of modern cinema.' – Paul D. Zimmerman
♗ André Previn

Jesus of Montreal ★★★

Canada/France 1989 120m colour
Max Films/Gérard Mital Productions/NFB Canada (Roger Frappier, Pierre Gendron)

original title: Jésus de Montréal
An actor, chosen to play Christ in a religious play, finds himself in conflict with the church authorities.
A modern morality play, surprisingly effective despite sometimes forced parallels between the actor's experience and those of Jesus, and fuelled by a passionate irony.
wd Denys Arcand ph Guy Dufaux m Yves Laferrière, François Dompierre, Jean-Marie Benoît ad François Seguin ed Isabelle Dedieu
☆ Lothaire Bluteau (Daniel), Catherine Wilkening (Mireille), Johanne-Marie Tremblay (Constance), Rémy Girard (Martin), Robert Lepage (Rene), Gilles Pelletier (Fr. Leclerc), Yves Jacques (Richard Cardinal)
'Arcand is a master of tone, a sympathetic director of actors, and an unsanctimonious moralist, who locates his fable within a well-observed society.' – Philip French, Observer
♗ best foreign film

Jesus' Son ★★

US/Canada 1999 108m Technicolor Super 35
Alliance/Lions Gate/Evenstar (Lydia Dean Pilcher, Elizabeth Cuthrell, David Urrutia)

An accident-prone drifter finds redemption despite his disaster-strewn relationship with a heroin-addicted woman.
Downbeat and often grim drama, set among layabouts and drug-addicts in the 70s, that manages to suggest a sweet sense of humanity.
w Elizabeth Cuthrell, David Urrutia, Oren Moverman short stories Denis Johnson d Alison Maclean ph Adam Kimmel m Joe Henry pd David Doernberg ed Geraldine Peroni, Stuart Levy
☆ Billy Crudup (FH), Samantha Morton (Michelle), Denis Leary (Wayne), Jack Black (Georgie), Will Patton (John Smith), Greg Germann (Dr Shanis), Holly Hunter (Mira), Dennis Hopper (Bill)
'An intermittently compelling and occasionally hilarious road movie.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'William Burroughs would love this stuff. Others will find it too nightmarish to stomach.' – James Christopher, Times

Jet: see Ground Control

Jet Li's The Enforcer: see The Enforcer (1995)

Jet over the Atlantic

US 1958 95m bw
Warner/Inter Continental (Benedict Bogeaus)

A noble British passenger on a plane from Madrid to New York has planted a gas bomb in the luggage compartment.
Mechanical airborne suspenser with the usual assortment of unconvincing types making unconvincing gestures.
w Irving H. Cooper d Byron Haskin ph George Stahl m Lou Forbes
☆ Guy Madison, Virginia Mayo, George Raft, George Macready, Ilona Massey, Anna Lee, Margaret Lindsay, Venetia Stevenson, Mary Anderson, Brett Halsey, Frederic Worlock

Jet Pilot

US 1957 112m Technicolor
Howard Hughes (Jules Furthman)

A Russian lady spy falls for an American pilot.
Lamentably dull and stupid romantic actioner of which all concerned should be thoroughly ashamed, especially as it took seven years to complete and is not even technically competent.
w Jules Furthman d Josef von Sternberg (and others) ph Winton C. Hoch m Bronislau Kaper
☆ John Wayne, Janet Leigh, Jay C. Flippen, Paul Fix, Richard Rober, Roland Winters, Ivan Triesault, Hans Conried
'One of the most childish, tedious and futile cold war spy dramas yet concocted by a Hollywood screenwriter.' – John Gillett

Jet Storm ★

GB 1959 99m bw
British Lion/Britannia/Pendennis (Steven Pallos)

An airliner in flight from London to New York is discovered to have a bomb on board.
All-star slice-of-life suspenser with competently handled dialogue and situations.
w Cy Endfield, Sigmund Miller d Cy Endfield ph Jack Hildyard m Thomas Rajna
☆ Richard Attenborough, George Rose, Hermione Baddeley, Mai Zetterling, Diane Cilento, Stanley Baker, Harry Secombe, Virginia Maskell, Elizabeth Sellars, Sybil Thorndike, Bernard Braden, Cec Linder, David Kossoff

Jetsons: The Movie

US 1990 83m CFI color
UIP/Universal/Hanna-Berbera/Wang/Cuckoo's Nest Studios (Bruce David Johnson)

The Jetson family solve the problem of alien saboteurs who object to their asteroid being the site of a mining factory.
Poorly animated situation comedy that would be better suited to television and best suited to the nearest garbage disposal unit.
w Dennis Marks, Carl Sautter d William Hanna, Joseph Barbera ph Daniel Bunn m John Debney
☆ Featuring the voices of George O'Hanlon, Mel Blanc, Penny Singleton, Tiffany, Patric Zimmerman, Don Messick, Jean Vanderpyl
'This exercise in high-tech tedium might prove more bewildering than charming to its pre-teen audience.' – MFB

Jeu de Massacre ★

France 1967 94m colour
Cociticel/A. J. Films/Films Modernes/Francinor (René Thevenet)

US title: The Killing Game
aka: Comic Strip Hero
An impoverished comic-book writer and his artist wife become involved with a wealthy young fantasist.
Witty games-playing on the themes of illusion and reality.
wd Alain Jessua ph Jacques Robin m Jacques Loussier ad Claire Forestier ed Nicole Marko ☆ Claudine Auger, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Michel Duchaussoy, Eleonore Hirt, Guy Saint-Jean, Anna Gaylor, Nancy Holloway

La Jeune Fille Assassinée: see Charlotte

Le Jeune Werther ★

France 1992 90m colour
Home Made Movies/Canal/Alain Sarde

aka: Young Werther
Young teenagers try to discover why one of their friends killed himself.
An updated version of, and commentary on, Goethe's tale of impossibly romantic love, rather too doom-laden to be entirely convincing as a portrait of modern-day young.
wd Jacques Doillon ph Christophe Pollock m Philippe Sarde ed Nicole Lubtchansky ☆ Ismaël Jolé-Ménébhi, Thomas Brémond, Simon Clavière, Pierre Mézerette, Faye Anastasia, Miren Capello, Sunny Lebrati, Mirabelle Rousseau, Jessica Tharaud
'The writer-director does ask a lot of his audience to maintain interest in a feature film almost entirely devoted to 13-year-old talk sessions.' – Variety

Jeux D'Enfants: see Love Me If You Dare

Jeux Interdits ★★★

France 1952 84m bw
Robert Dorfmann (Paul Joly)

aka: Forbidden Games
aka: The Secret Game
In 1940, the little daughter of refugee parents sees her parents killed, and takes refuge with a peasant family, the small son of which helps her bury her dead puppy. They make a game of building a cemetery, which leads to a village feud...
Poignant anti-war tract which seemed a masterpiece at the time and is full of marvellous moments, but no longer holds up as a whole.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost novel François Boyer d René Clément ph Robert Julliard m Narciso Yepes ad Paul Bertrand ed Roger Dwyre ☆ Brigitte Fossey (Paulette), Georges Poujouly (Michel Dolle), Amédée (Francis Gouard), Laurence Badie (Berthe Dolle), Jacques Marin (Georges Dolle), Suzanne Courtal (Mme Dolle), Lucien Hubert (Dolle, the Father)
'A truly imposing achievement of blending several seemingly unrelated elements into a totally meaningful whole.' – John Simon, 1967
♗ foreign film
♗ François Boyer (original story)
♗ picture

Les Jeux Sont Faits ★

France 1947 91m bw
Films Gibe

Falling in love in Purgatory, two murdered people get a second chance to return to earth, but spend their time quarrelling.
Somewhat despondent romantic fantasy with morsels of wit.
w Jean-Paul Sartre d Jean Delannoy ph Christian Matras m Georges Auric ☆ Micheline Presle, Marcel Pagliero, Marguerite Moreno, Charles Dullin

Jew Suss ★★

GB 1934 109m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)
US title: Power
In old Württemberg, a Jew gains power to help his people, then finds he is Gentile.
Interesting, heavy-handed historical satire on the pointlessness of race distinctions, made partly in answer to Nazi oppression in Germany.
w Dorothy Farnum, A. R. Rawlinson novel Lion Feuchtwanger d Lothar Mendes ph Bernard Knowles, Roy Kellino md Louis Levy ad Alfred Junge ed Otto Ludwig ☆ Conrad Veidt, Benita Hume, Frank Vosper, Cedric Hardwicke, Gerald du Maurier, Pamela Ostrer
'Powerful as an artistic film achievement ... but may have to struggle for commercial contentment.' – Variety

Jew Suss ★

Germany 1940 85m bw
Terra

Celebrated travesty of the above, in which the Jew is wholly evil and rapes Aryan girls.
w Ludwig Metzger, Veit Harlan, Eberhard

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Wolfgang Möller d Veit Harlan ph Bruno Mondi m Wolfgang Zeller
☆ Ferdinand Marian, Werner Krauss, Heinrich George, Kristina Söderbaum
'The epitome of anti-semitic propaganda ... the most notorious film of the Third Reich and one which brought disgrace on almost everyone connected with it.' – Georges Sadoul
'Highly recommended for its artistic value and, to serve the politics of the State, recommended for young people.' – Josef Goebbels

'When the going gets tough, the tough get going!'

Jewel of the Nile ★

US 1985 104m Technicolor J-D-C Scope
TCF/Michael Douglas
A lady novelist gets into trouble when she accepts an invitation from a Middle Eastern potentate.
Moderate sequel to Romancing the Stone; plenty of action, but dull spots in between.
w Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner d Lewis Teague ph Jan DeBont m Jack Nitzsche pd Richard Dawking, Terry Knight
☆ Michael Douglas, Kathleen Turner, Danny DeVito, Spiros Focas
'Mass destruction, endless gunfire and a fiery finish ... the only box office question is whether the film comes late in the cycle for Saturday matinee revivals.' – Variety

Jewel Robbery ★

US 1932 68m bw
Warner
A jewel thief and a millionaire's wife fall in love in Vienna.
Good sparkling fun in the shadow of Trouble in Paradise (qv).
w Erwin Gelsey story Ladislaus Fodor d William Dieterle ph Robert Kurrle md Leo B. Forbstein ad Robert Haas ed Ralph Dawson
☆ William Powell, Kay Francis, Hardie Albright, André Luguet, Henry Kolker, Spencer Charters, Alan Mowbray, Helen Vinson, Lee Kohlmar

'The Greatest Actress Of The Screen ... In The Greatest Romance Of The South!'

Jezebel ★★★

US 1938 104m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
Before the Civil War, a Southern belle stirs up trouble among the menfolk by her wilfulness and spite, but atones when a plague strikes.
Superb star melodrama, tossed to her in compensation for losing Gone with the Wind, and dealt with in high style by all concerned.
w Clements Ripley, Abem Finkel, John Huston play Owen Davis Snr d William Wyler ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner ad Robert Haas ed Warren Low
☆ Bette Davis (Julie Morrison), Henry Fonda (Preston Dillard), George Brent (Buck Cantrell), Margaret Lindsay (Amy Bradford Dillard), Fay Bainter (Aunt Belle Massey), Richard Cromwell (Ted Dillard), Donald Crisp (Dr. Livingstone), Henry O'Neill (Gen. Theopholus Bogardus), John Litel (Jean LeCour), Spring Byington (Mrs. Kendrick), Eddie Anderson (Gros Bat), Gordon Oliver (Dick Allen), Irving Pichel (Huger)
'Good femme film, assured of okay results.' – Variety
'Its excellences come from many sources – good plotting and writing, a director and photographer who know how to make the thing flow along with dramatic pictorial effect, and a cast that makes its story a record of living people.' – James Shelley Hamilton, National Board of Review
'Without the zing Davis gave it, it would have looked very mossy indeed.' – Pauline Kael, 1968
♟ Bette Davis; Fay Bainter
♙ best picture; Ernest Haller; Max Steiner

The Jezebels: see Switchblade Sisters

Jigokumon: see Gate of Hell

Jigsaw

US 1949 72m bw
UA/Tower (The Danzigers)
An assistant District Attorney uncovers a mob stirring up racial hatred.
Undistinguished piece of do-goodery, curiously decorated by guest stars doing bit parts as a gesture of goodwill.
w Fletcher Markle, Vincent McConnor d Fletcher Markle ph Don Malkames m Robert Stringer ☆ Franchot Tone, Jean Wallace, Myron McCormick, Marc Lawrence, Marlene Dietrich, Henry Fonda, John Garfield, Marsha Hunt, Leonard Lyons, Burgess Meredith

Jigsaw ★★

GB 1962 107m bw Cinemascope
British Lion/Britannia/Figaro (Val Guest)
Brighton policemen track down the murderer of a woman found in a lonely house on the beach.
Absorbing and entertaining little murder mystery which sustains its considerable length with interesting detail and plays as fair as can be with the audience. Excellent unassuming entertainment.
wd Val Guest play Sleep Long My Love by Hilary Waugh ph Arthur Grant m none ☆ Jack Warner, Ronald Lewis, Michael Goodliffe, Yolande Donlan, John Barron

The Jigsaw Man

GB 1985 98m colour
J & M
A British traitor in Moscow is given a new face and sent back home, where he becomes a double agent.
Somewhat elementary cold war chicanery with an abundance of talk before a routine action finish. Production was interrupted by financial crises, and the final result is patchy to say the least.
w Jo Eisinger d Terence Young ph Freddie Francis m John Cameron
☆ Michael Caine, Laurence Olivier, Robert Powell, Susan George, Michael Medwin, Vladek Sheybal

Jigureul Jikyeora!: see Save the Green Planet

Jim Buck

US 1977 86m colour
Wildfire (James Rokos, Andrzej Krakowski)
aka: Portrait of a Hitman
An artistic hitman discovers that the person he has been hired to shoot is an old friend who once saved his life.
An incoherent and never-less-than-silly thriller, directed without style and acted with little conviction.
w Yabo Yablonsky d Allan A. Buckhantz ph Charles Correll m Laurence Rosenthal pd Elayne Ceder ed Michael Ripps
☆ Jack Palance, Bo Svenson, Richard Roundtree, Ann Turkel, Rod Steiger, Herb Jeffries, Richard Ahn

Jim Thorpe, All-American

US 1951 105m bw
Warner (Everett Freeman)
GB title: Man of Bronze
A Red Indian becomes a star footballer, but later succumbs to drink.
Adequate sporting biopic.
w Douglas Morrow, Everett Freeman d Michael Curtiz ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner
☆ Burt Lancaster, Charles Bickford, Steve Cochran, Phyllis Thaxter, Dick Wesson

Jimmy Hollywood

US 1994 113m DeLuxe
Paramount/Baltimore Pictures (Mark Johnson, Barry Levinson)
An obsessive would-be actor becomes a celebrity when he turns vigilante after his car radio is stolen.
Drama of the low life and underside of Hollywood which lacks bite; nor does it work as a character study.
wd Barry Levinson ph Peter Sova
m Robbie Robertson pd Linda DeScenna ed Jay Rabinowitz
☆ Joe Pesci, Christian Slater, Victoria Abril, Jason Beghe, John Cothran Jnr
'Oddball attempt to mix offbeat comedy with social commentary and fringe-level character study. However well intentioned, the contrary elements just don't mesh.' – Variety
'Creeps out to please the completists and mildly irritate anyone else who happens to rent it.' – Kim Newman, Empire
† Harrison Ford plays a cameo role, and Barry Levinson also appears, in the film's final joke. It was released direct to video in Britain.

Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius

US 2001 83m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickelodeon/O Entertainment (Steve Oedekerk, John A. Davis, Albie Hecht)
A child genius and his friends rescue their parents, who have been kidnapped by egg-like aliens.
Lively cartoon for small children that is unlikely to interest any other age group; the animation is never more than adequate.
w John A. Davis, David N. Weiss, J. David Stem, Steve Oedekerk d John A. Davis m John Debney pd Fred Cline ed Jon Michael Price, Gregory Perler
☆ voices of: Megan Cavanagh, Mark DeCarlo, Debi Derryberry, Jeff Garcia, Bob Goen, Mary Hart, Carolyn Lawrence, Andrea Martin
'It has the bright Rube Goldberg energy of one of Jimmy's contraptions, and it resists the common kid-movie tendency to lecture its young audience about individuality, self-esteem or other stuff they hear enough about in school.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
♙ animated feature film

Jimmy Reardon

US 1988 92m colour
Island/Enterprise/Fox (Russell Schwartz) original title: A Night in the Life of Jimmy Reardon
A romantic youth finds he has a rival for the girl he loves.
Teenage angst, deftly done but lacking a wider perspective.
wd William Richert novel Aren't You Ever Gonna Kiss Me Goodbye by William Richert ph John J. Connor m Bill Conti
pd Norman Newberry ed Suzanne Fenn ☆ River Phoenix, Ann Magnuson, Meredith Salenger, Matthew Perry, Ione Skye, Jane Hallaren, Paul Koslo, Jason Court

Jimmy the Gent ★

US 1934 67m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)
A racketeer supplies heirs for unclaimed estates.
Adequate star crime comedy.
w Bertram Millhauser d Michael Curtiz ph Ira Morgan md Leo F. Forbstein ☆ James Cagney, Bette Davis, Alice White, Allen Jenkins, Arthur Hohl, Mayo Methot, Alan Dinehart, Hobart Cavanaugh, Ralf Harolde, Philip Reed, Joe Sawyer
'Fast and flip, rough and rowdy.' – New York American

Jimmy the Kid

US 1982 85m CFI color
Zephyr (Ronald Jacobs)
An incompetent bunch of crooks kidnap a young boy, the precocious son of wealthy parents, who decides he does not want to go home.
An unendearing comedy that relies on contrived slapstick and features some charmless performances, especially from its teenage star.
w Sam Bobrick novel Donald E. Westlake d Gary Nelson ph Dennis Dalzell m John Cameron ad Bill Ross ed Richard C. Meyer
☆ Gary Coleman, Paul Le Mat, Ruth Gordon, Dee Wallace, Cleavon Little, Avery Schreiber, Pat Morita, Fay Hauser, Walter Olkewicz, Don Adams

Jin-Roh: The Wolf Brigade ★★

(dubbed)
Japan 1998 102m bw/colour
Bandai (Tsutomu Sugita, Hidekazu Terakawa)
In a future world of rival counter-terrorist forces, a traumatized member of an elite para-military unit becomes involved with a woman who claims to be the sister of a teenaged suicide bomber that he failed to kill.
Set in a world that resembles modern-day Japan under the influence of Nazi Germany, where police and anti-government forces fight on the streets, this is a bleak, dark, adult animated drama of love and betrayal amid internecine battles between the forces of law and order; it takes its world-view from the story of Little Red Riding Hood.
w Mamoru Oshii d Hiroyuki Okiura ph Hisao Shirai m Hajime Mizoguchi ad Hiromasa Ogura ed Shuichi Kakesu animation director Kenji Kamiyama ☆ voices of: Michael Dobson (Kazuki Fuse), Moneca Stori (Kei Amemiya), Doug Abrahams (Hachiroh Tohbe), Colin Murdock (Atsushi Henmi)
'Close to being a cartoon version of "Vertigo" that grapples with the issues of fascism... it strains toward a grown-up emotional depth that most films starring grown-ups reject.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'Under the surface of every life lies a mystery.'

Jindabyne

★★★ ⑥

Australia 2006 124m
Revolver/April Films/Babcock and Brown/Red Chair Films (Catherine Jarman)

Four men from a small Australian town are on a weekend fishing trip in isolated country. They find the body of an aboriginal girl in a river. Rather than call the authorities, they continue with their trip, then go home to face the wrath of their community.

Rich, complex drama that encompasses stormy affairs of the heart and chasms of race and gender. Superbly played by Linney as an outraged wife and Byrne as her uncomprehending husband. As in his earlier Lantana (qv), director Lawrence shows his talent for foraging deep into his characters' motives and weaknesses. A hugely satisfying, grown-up film.

w Beatrix Christian short story So Much Water So Close To Home by Raymond Carver d Ray Lawrence ph David Williamson m Paul Kelly, Dan Luscombe pd Margot Wilson ad Deborah Riley ed Karl Sodersten

☆ Laura Linney (Claire Kane), Gabriel Byrne (Stewart Kane), Deborra-Lee Furness (Jude), John Howard (Carl), Stelios Yiakmis (Rocco), Simon Stone (Billy)

'The movie is beautifully shot, and succeeds in being deeply disturbing and mysterious, with richly achieved nuances of characterisation. I have seen it two or three times now, and each time it gets better.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† Raymond Carver's short story, the source for this film, was also adapted for a segment of Robert Altman's film Short Cuts (qv).

Jing Ke Ci Qin Wang: see The Emperor and the Assassin

Jingcha Gushi: see Police Story

Jingcha Gushi 4 Zhi Jiandan Renwu: see Jackie Chan's First Strike

Jingi naki tatakai: see Battles Without Honour & Humanity

Jingle All the Way

US 1996 88m DeLuxe
TCF (Chris Columbus, Mark Radcliffe, Michael Barnathan)

On Christmas Eve, a salesman searches frantically for the special toy, sold out in all the shops, that his son wants.

Tedious action comedy with heavy-handed slapstick; it's undiluted humbug.

w Randy Kornfield d Brian Levant ph Victor J. Kemper m David Newman pd Leslie McDonald ed Kent Beyda, Wilton Henderson, Adam Weiss

☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Sinbad, Phil Hartman, Rita Wilson, Robert Conrad, Martin Mull, Jake Lloyd, James Belushi, Harvey Korman

'This ghastly, paper-thin piece of Yuletide rubble from the Home Alone stable is rather like that Christmas pudding you forgot to eat last year, which now lies on a kitchen shelf, soft in the centre with a hard-as-nails exterior.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Jinxed!

US 1982 103m Technicolor
MGM-UA/Herb Jaffe

A frustrated blackjack dealer seduces the girl of a frequent winner.

Unfunny gambling comedy which never begins to cohere.

w Bert Blessing, David Newman d Don Siegel ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Bruce Roberts, Miles Goodman

☆ Bette Midler, Ken Wahl, Rip Torn, Val Avery, Jack Elam, Benson Fong, Jacqueline Scott

'Jinxed stinks.' – Don Siegel

Jipangu: see Zipang

Jit

★

Zimbabwe 1990 92m bw
ICA/FilmAfrica/Makuvisi (Rory Kilalea)

A youth takes various jobs in order to raise the money he needs to buy the bride he wants.

Lively low-budget comedy, the first feature film to be made in Zimbabwe, with an engaging soundtrack of local popular music.

wd Michael Raeburn ph João Costa m Oliver Mtukudzi pd Lindie Pankiv ed Justin Krish

☆ Dominic Makuvachuma, Sibongile Nene, Farai Sevenzo, Winnie Ndemera, Oliver Mtukudzi, Lawrence Simbarashe

Jitsuroku Abe Sada: see A Woman Called Abé Sada

Jitterbugs

★

US 1943 75m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

Laurel and Hardy help a night-club singer to fight off gangsters.

The last Laurel and Hardy film to contain any good scenes, and almost the only one of their TCF films that did.

w Scott Darling d Malcolm St Clair ph Lucien Andriot m/ly Charles Newman, Lew Pollack md Emil Newman ed James Bashevi, Chester Gore

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Vivian Blaine, Bob Bailey, Douglas Fowley, Noel Madison, Lee Patrick

Jivaro

US 1953 91m Technicolor 3D
Paramount/William H. Pine, William C. Thomas
GB title: Lost Treasure of the Amazon

A mixed party of Americans follows a drunken treasure seeker into the jungle.

Elementary treasure hunt adventure, hampered by studio foliage, bad script and half-hearted acting.

w Winston Miller novel The Lost Treasure by David Duncan d Edward Ludwig ph Lionel Lindon m Gregory Stone ad Hal Pereira, Earl Hedrick ed Howard A. Smith cos Edith Head

☆ Fernando Lamas (Rio), Rhonda Fleming (Alice Parker), Brian Keith (Tony), Lon Chaney Jnr (Pedro), Marvin Miller (Kovanti), Richard Denning (Jerry Russell), Rita Moreno (Maroa), Morgan Farley (Vinny)

Joan Medford Is Missing: see House of Horrors

Joan of Arc

US 1948 145m Technicolor
RKO/Sierra/Walter Wanger

The last campaign of the Maid of Orleans.

Strictly from Dullsville; one studio set-piece follows another, and a group of talented people clearly thought that prestige would sell itself without the hard work that goes into more commercial productions.

w Maxwell Anderson, Andrew Solt play Joan of Lorraine by Maxwell Anderson d Victor Fleming ph Joe Valentine m Hugo Friedhofer md Emil Newman ad Richard Day ed Frank Sullivan

☆ Ingrid Bergman, José Ferrer, George Coulouris, Francis L. Sullivan, Gene Lockhart, Ward Bond, John Ireland, Hurd Hatfield, Cecil Kellaway, George Zucco, J. Carrol Naish

'A bad film with one or two good things. It is childishly oversimplified, its battles papier mâché, its heroine far too worldly, its spiritual content that of a chromo art calendar.' – Herman G. Weinberg

Joe Valentine; Walter Wanger (Special Award for 'adding to the moral stature' of the industry by his production)

Hugo Friedhofer; Ingrid Bergman; José Ferrer; art direction; editing

Joan of Ozark

US 1942 82m bw
Republic
GB title: The Queen of Spies

A hillbilly sharpshooter becomes a national spy heroine.

Scatty comedy of moderate liveliness.

w Robert Harari, Eve Greene and Jack Townley d Joseph Santley

☆ Judy Canova, Joe E. Brown, Eddie Foy Jnr, Jerome Cowan, Alexander Granach

Joan of Paris

US 1942 95m bw
RKO (David Hempstead)

A French resistance leader sacrifices herself so that Allied pilots can escape.

Well-made propaganda adventure dignified by excellent cast.

w Charles Bennett, Ellis St Joseph story Jacques Thery, Georges Kessel d Robert Stevenson ph Russell Metty m Roy Webb

☆ Michele Morgan, Paul Henreid, Thomas Mitchell, Laird Cregar, May Robson, Alexander Granach, Alan Ladd

Roy Webb

Joan the Woman

★★

US 1916 125m approx bw silent
Cardinal

The story of Joan of Arc.

An epic spectacle typical of its director.

w Jeanie Macpherson d Cecil B. de Mille

☆ Geraldine Farrar, Raymond Hatton, Wallace Reid, Hobart Bosworth, Theodore Roberts

Joanna

GB 1968 122m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Laughlin (Michael S. Laughlin)

A girl art student comes to London and quickly finds the road to ruin.

Antediluvian rubbish tarted up with swinging London settings.

wd Mike Sarne ph Walter Lassally m Rod McKuen

☆ Genevieve Waite, Christian Doermer, Calvin Lockhart, Donald Sutherland

'An unnecessarily protracted punishing of a very dead quadruped.' – MFB

The Job

★★★

Italy 1961 90m bw
24 Horses Films (Alberto Soffientini) original title: Il Posto

A teenage boy gets his first job, and progresses from office boy to clerk when a senior man dies.

Appealingly observant social comedy, very simple and extremely effective.

wd Ermanno Olmi ph Lamberto Caimi ad Ettore Lombardi ed Carla Colombo

☆ Sandro Panzeri (Domenico Cantoni), Loredana Detto (Antonietta Masetti)

'Rueful and funny and honest ... the players have been encouraged not so much to act as to behave. Olmi stalks them like a naturalist, and the result is a small, unique and perfect achievement in film-making.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

Jób Lázadása: see The Revolt of Job

Jobman

★

South Africa 1990 97m Technicolor
Blue Rock/Three's Company (Christopher Coy)

In the 60s, the persecuted, deaf-mute son of a preacher is forced to fight to protect himself, his wife and child from attack by those who resent his strivings for an independent life.

A tense drama of persecution and retribution, much like a Western in style – and one that can be taken as a political allegory of the dispossessed, who are left with no voice in their country's concerns and no recourse to any means other than violence.

w Darrell Roodt, Greg Latter story Achmat Dangor d Darrell Roodt ph Paul Witte m Joel Goldsmith pd Dave Barkham ed Shelley Wells

☆ Kevin Smith (Jobman), Tertius Meintjes, Lynn Gaines, Marcel Van Heerden, Goliath Edwards, Josephine Liedeman, Bill Curry

'A simple, poetic tale with a powerful central image that hints at underlying social and political themes but fails to really activate them.' – Variety

Jock of the Bushveld

South Africa 1988 90m colour
Toron (Duncan MacNeillie)

The adventures of an ambitious Irishman and his hunting dog, which was once the runt of the litter, in South Africa in the 1880s.

Based on a true story, of the early life of a prominent South African politician and author, an episodic adventure that never quite holds the attention; it is colourful but bland.

w John Cundill book Sir Percy Fitzpatrick d Gray Hofmeyr ph Mike Buckley m Kenneth Hutchinson ad John Gerber ed Valma Muir

☆ Jonathan Rands, Gordon Mulholland, Jocelyn Broderick, Wilson Dunster, Olivier Ngwenya

Joe

★

US 1970 107m DeLuxe
Cannon (David Gil)

A construction worker in a bar meets a businessman who has just killed his daughter's drug addicted lover; they become buddies in their hatred of hippies.

Highly successful in America as a backlash against permissiveness, this rough-hewn opportunistic melodrama is vivid enough but moves in fits and starts.

w Norman Wexler m Bobby Scott d/ph John G. Avildsen

☆ Peter Boyle, Dennis Patrick, Audrey Caire, Susan Sarandon

'A bad film disfigured by brute strokes of tendentiousness.' – Penelope Gilliatt

Norman Wexler

Joe Dakota

US 1957 90m Technicolor
Cinemascope
U-I (Howard Christie)

A stranger appears in a Western town in search of his Indian friend, who turns out to have been murdered by the townspeople so that they can share the profits from his oil well.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Feeble rip-off of Bad Day at Black Rock.
w William Talman, Norman Jolley
d Richard Bartlett ph George Robinson
m Hans Salter md Joseph Gershenson
☆ Jock Mahoney, Luana Patten, Charles McGraw, Barbara Lawrence, Claude Akins, Lee Van Cleef

'Keep on Moppin' in the Free world.'
'Dig it.'

Joe Dirt

US 2001 90m DeLuxe
Columbia/Happy Madison (Robert Simonds)

A dim-witted man goes in search of the parents who abandoned him as a child at the Grand Canyon.
If only they had pushed him over the edge, and thrown this lamentable effort after him...
w David Spade, Fred Wolf d Dennie Gordon ph John R. Leonetti m Waddy Wachtel pd Perry Andelin Blake ed Peck Prior ☆ David Spade (Joe Dirt), Dennis Miller (Zander Kelly), Brittany Daniel (Brandy), Kid Rock (Robby), Adam Beach (Kicking Wing), Erik Per Sullivan (Little Joe Dirt), Christopher Walken (Clem), Caroline Aaron (Joe's Mom), Fred Ward (Joe's Dad), Jaime Pressly (Jill)
'Smells like uncollected garbage from Adam Sandler, who exec-produced this dead raccoon of a movie.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

Joe Hill: see The Ballad of Joe Hill

Joe Kidd

US 1972 87m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Malpaso (Sidney Beckerman)

A disreputable bounty hunter tracks down the leader of a tribe of Mexican bandits.
Rough-and-tumble star Western with untenable moral attitudes.
w Elmore Leonard d John Sturges
ph Bruce Surtees m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Clint Eastwood, Robert Duvall, John Saxon, Don Stroud, James Wainwright

Joe Macbeth

GB 1955 90m bw
Film Locations/Frankovich (George Maynard)

A gangster is urged by his wife to rub out his boss.
Almost too bad to be funny, this effort to update Shakespeare has actors behaving as though they were stuck in treacle, and its gimmick quality is quickly dissipated by an indifferent production.
w Philip Yordan d Ken Hughes ph Basil Emmott m Trevor Duncan ☆ Paul Douglas, Ruth Roman, Grégoire Aslan, Bonar Colleano, Sidney James

Joe Palooka, Champ

US 1946 72m bw
Monogram (Hal E. Chester)

A boxing promoter grooms a young dope for the ring.
Modest series opener with plenty to be modest about.
w Cy Endfield, Albert de Pina d Reginald Le Borg ☆ Leon Errol, Joe Kirkwood, Elyse Knox, Eduardo Ciannelli, Joe Sawyer, Elisha Cook Jnr

'The Story Of A Boy's Journey To Manhood.'

Joe Panther

US 1976 110m
Artists Creation (Stewart H. Beveridge)

A Seminole youth experiences prejudice and tragedy when he tries to work in the white man's world.
Pleasant rites-of-passage drama about an adolescent and his dog that takes in alligator wrestling along the way, though it may now seem too tame for its intended youthful audience.
w Dale Eunson novel Zachary Ball d Paul Krasny ph Robert L. Morrison m Fred Karlin ad Don K. Ivey ed Mike Vejar, Millie Moore
☆ Brian Keith (Captain Harper), Ricardo Montalban (Turtle George), Alan Feinstein (Rocky), Cliff Osmond (Rance), A Martinez (Billy Tiger), Ray Tracey (Joe Panther)

Joe Smith American ★

US 1942 63m bw
MGM (Jack Chertok)
GB title: Highway to Freedom

An aircraft factory worker with special knowledge is kidnapped by Nazis but leads the FBI to his captors.
Watchable propaganda thriller credited with easing Americans into a war mood.
w Allen Rivkin story Paul Gallico
d Richard Thorpe ph Charles Lawton Jnr
m Daniele Amfitheatrof
☆ Robert Young, Marsha Hunt, Darryl Hickman, Harvey Stephens, Jonathan Hale, Noel Madison, Joseph Anthony
'Not a high-powered movie, it is a first rate die for the new propaganda models which Hollywood is readying for mass production.' – Time

'A Comedy About Somebody Everybody Can Believe In.'

Joe Somebody

US 2001 98m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox 2000/Regency (Arnold Kopelson, Anne Kopelson, Matthew Gross, Ken Atchity, Brian Reilly)

After he is humiliated by the office bully, a man has a breakdown and regains respect by challenging his tormentor to a fight.
Mild-mannered comedy of corporate life with a little romance thrown in, but it doesn't punch its weight.
w John Scott Shepherd d John Pasquin
ph Daryn Okada m George S. Clinton pd Jackson De Govia ed David Finfer
☆ Tim Allen (Joe Scheffer), Julie Bowen (Meg Harper), Kelly Lynch (Callie Scheffer), Hayden Panettiere (Natalie Scheffer), Jim Belushi (Chuck Scarett), Greg Germann (Jeremy)
'A simple, wholesome parable, crashingly obvious, and we sit patiently while the characters and the screenplay slowly arrive at the inevitable conclusion.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Joe versus the Volcano

US 1990 102m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Amblin Entertainment (Teri Schwartz)

Told that he has only a few months to live, a man agrees to jump into a volcano to prevent an eruption and save an island for an entrepreneur.
Weak whimsy, directed without flair.
wd John Patrick Shanley ph Stephen Goldblatt m Georges Delerue pd Bo Welch ed Richard Halsey
☆ Tom Hanks, Meg Ryan, Lloyd Bridges, Robert Stack, Abe Vigoda, Dan Hedaya, Barry McGovern, Amanda Plummer, Ossie Davis, Jayne Haynes

'Sex. Bugs. Rock 'n' Roll.'

Joe's Apartment

US 1996 80m colour
Warner/Geffen/MTV (Diana Phillips, Bonni Lee)

A youth having problems with his girlfriend and his evil landlord shares his apartment with hundreds of singing and dancing cockroaches.
A one-joke movie, stretched well beyond breaking point.
wd John Payson ph Peter Deming
m Carter Burwell pd Carol Spier ed Peter Frank ☆ Jerry O'Connell, Megan Ward, Jim Turner, Jim Sterling, Sandra Denton, Robert Vaughn, Don Ho and also the voices of: Reginald Hudlin, Bill West
† It is based on a short film of the same name, made by Payson for MTV.

Joey Boy

GB 1965 91m bw
British Lion/Launder-Gilliat

In 1941, a group of petty crooks join the army.
Abysmal service comedy, incredibly cheap and tatty and the nadir of several of the talents involved.
wd Frank Launder ph Arthur Lavis
m Philip Green
☆ Harry H. Corbett, Stanley Baxter, Bill Fraser, Reg Varney, Percy Herbert, Lance Percival
'As visually shoddy as it is unfunny ... the final shot (Corbett pulling a lavatory chain) is all too crudely apt.' – MFB

Johann Mouse ★★★

US 1952 8m Technicolor
MGM (Fred Quimby)

Strauss's mouse dances to his master's music; the cat, to lure him out, learns to play the piano.
Splendid Tom and Jerry cartoon from the great period of this neglected art.
best cartoon

John and Julie

GB 1955 82m Eastmancolor
Group Three (Herbert Mason)

Two children run away to see the coronation.
Genial little family comedy full of stock comic characters.
wd William Fairchild ph Arthur Grant
m Philip Green
☆ Colin Gibson, Leslie Dudley, Peter Sellers, Moira Lister, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Sidney James, Andrew Cruickshank

John and Mary ★

US 1969 92m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Debrod (Ben Kadish)

Two New Yorkers have a one-night affair and cannot decide whether to continue.
Slight, disappointing sex comedy vehicle for two stars who were very hot at the time.
w John Mortimer novel Mervyn Jones
d Peter Yates ph Gayne Rescher
m Quincy Jones pd John Robert Lloyd ☆ Dustin Hoffman, Mia Farrow, Michael Tolan, Sunny Griffin, Tyne Daly
'The emphasis is not on action but on acting, which although skilful and subtly nuanced does not in this case amount to the same thing as character.' – Jan Dawson
'Despite all the "now" sets and surfaces, it's like an old comedy of the thirties – minus the comedy.' – Judith Crist
Dustin Hoffman

John Carpenter's Escape from LA: see Escape from LA

John Carpenter's Ghosts of Mars: see Ghosts of Mars

'Prepare For The Dawn.'

John Carpenter's Vampires ★

US 1998 104m Foto-Kem Panavision
Largo/Film Office/Storm King (Sandy King)

aka: Vampires

A vampire killer and his gang of mercenaries are hired by the Vatican to destroy a 600-year-old vampire terrorizing the American Southwest.
Entertaining low-budget horror-cum-western that works up to a satisfying climax.
w John Carpenter, Don Jacoby, Dan Mazur novel Vampire$ by John Steakley d John Carpenter ph Gary B. Kibbe m John Carpenter pd Thomas A. Walsh ed Edward A. Warschilka sp Darrell D. Pritchett; make-up fx: KNB EFX
☆ James Woods, Daniel Baldwin, Sheryl Lee, Thomas Ian Griffith, Tim Guinee, Maximilian Schell, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa
'Taps into an appealing mix of anti-clerical sentiment, unsentimental rebel codes and gung-ho gouging and splattering. Unlike garlic, Carpenter's humor-leavened handling of evil doesn't leave a bad taste in the mouth.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety
† It was followed by a sequel Vampires: Los Muertos in 2002, directed by Tommy Lee Wallace.

John Goldfarb, Please Come Home

US 1965 96m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Steve Parker/J. Lee-Thompson

An American spy pilot crashlands near the palace of a Middle Eastern potentate at the same time as a girl reporter arrives for an interview.
Would-be satire on the cold war, anti-feminism, American football, American/Arab relations, etc. None of it works for a minute, and the actors' desperation can be plainly seen.
w William Peter Blatty d J. Lee-Thompson
ph Leon Shamroy m Johnny Williams
☆ Shirley MacLaine, Richard Crenna, Peter Ustinov, Fred Clark, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Jim Backus

'They were totally unqualified to try the case of a lifetime ... but every underdog has his day.'

John Grisham's The Rainmaker ★★ 6

Germany/US 1997 136m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Constellation/American Zoetrope (Michael Douglas, Steven Reuther, Fred Fuchs)

With the aid of a sleazy para-legal, an idealistic young lawyer sues a big insurance company, which refuses to pay benefits to a man dying of leukaemia.
A well-made, satisfying account of a David versus Goliath contest that makes effective use of all the suspenseful tricks of courtroom dramas.
wd Francis Ford Coppola novel John Grisham ph John Toll m Elmer Bernstein pd Howard Cummings ed Barry Malkin, Melissa Kent
☆ Matt Damon, Claire Danes, Jon Voight, Mary Kay Place, Mickey Rourke, Danny De Vito, Dean Stockwell, Teresa Wright, Virginia Madsen, Roy Scheider
'One of the few films that say something important about life and work in the US today. This is a populist movie made by a master.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

John Loves Mary

US 1948 87m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

A GI returns home to get married, but unfortunately, to help a friend, he has already entered into a marriage of convenience.
Moderately amusing comedy with an excess of complications.
w Phoebe and Henry Ephron play Norman Krasna d David Butler
ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph
☆ Ronald Reagan, Patricia Neal, Jack Carson, Virginia Field

'Was a thin war comedy on the stage and it's even thinner as a movie.' – New Yorker

John Meade's Woman

US 1937 82m bw
Paramount

A timber industrialist marries a farm girl.
Solemn star drama.
w Vincent Lawrence, Herman J. Mankiewicz d Richard Wallace
☆ Edward Arnold, Francine Larrimore, Gail Patrick, George Bancroft

'One more picture with a message. Edward Arnold's pictures are beginning to look alike.' – Variety

John Paul Jones

US 1959 126m Technirama
Warner/Samuel Bronston

At the time of the American revolution a young Scotsman rises to great heights in the American navy.
Fragmented biopic with a succession of guest stars which turn it into a charade almost as silly as The Story of Mankind. On that level it is not unentertaining.
wd John Farrow ph Michel Kelber m Max Steiner
☆ Robert Stack, Charles Coburn (Benjamin Franklin), Bette Davis (Catherine the Great), Marisa Pavan, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Peter Cushing, Bruce Cabot, Macdonald Carey

'Give a father no options and you leave him no choice.'

John Q

US 2002 116m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line (Mark Burg, Oren Koules)

A hard-up father takes people hostage at a hospital when his son is denied further treatment for a heart condition.
Hectoring drama in favour of a national health insurance: its heart may be in the right place, but it has misplaced its mind.
w James Kearns d Nick Cassavetes
ph Rogier Stoffers m Aaron Zigman
pd Stefania Cella ed Dede Allen
☆ Denzel Washington (John Q. Archibald), Robert Duvall (Grimes), James Woods (Dr Turner), Anne Heche (Rebecca Payne), Kimberly Elise (Denise Archibald), Shawn Hatosy (Mitch), Ray Liotta (Police Chief Monroe), Daniel E. Smith (Mike Archibald)

'Will leave most audiences in dire need of medical attention, though it would be hard to say if that need will come from the painful collection of plot clichés or Aaron Zigman's assaultive soundtrack.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'Truly awful – an "issue" movie which cheapens its issue with fatuous emotional grandstanding.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Don't get mad, get even.'

John Tucker Must Die

US/Canada 2006 89m
TCF/Landscape Entertainment (Bob Cooper, Michael Birnbaum)

Three ex-girlfriends of a handsome, cheating high-school sports star vow to avenge themselves on him.
Dim, unfocused story that switches sides halfway through.
w Jeff Lowell d Betty Thomas ph Anthony B. Richmond m Richard Gibbs pd Marcia Hinds ad Bo Johnson, Leah Hong ed Matthew Friedman ☆ Jesse Metcalfe (John Tucker), Brittany Snow (Kate), Ashanti (Heather), Sophia Bush (Beth), Arielle Kebbel (Carrie)

John Woo's Once a Thief

US 1995 96m colour
Alliance/WCG/NDG

GB video title: John Woo's Violent Tradition

After double-crossing his boss, an American member of a Hong Kong criminal gang goes to work in Vancouver on a covert police operation against his former associates.
Mindless, violent thriller, although tame by Woo's standards, since it was made as a pilot for a TV series; its central characters are unattractive and the narrative unoriginal.
w Glenn Davis, William Laurin d John Woo ph Bill Wong m Amin Bhatia
pd Douglas Higgins ed David Wu ☆ Sandrine Holt, Ivan Sergei, Nicholas Lea, Robert Ito, Michael Wong, Alan Scarfe, Jennifer Dale

'Tailor-made for stupid American audiences.' – Total Cinema

† The film is an American variation on Woo's Once a Thief (qv), made in Hong Kong in 1991.

Johnny Allegro

US 1949 81m bw
Columbia (Irving Starr)
GB title: Hounded

A private eye eliminates a counterfeiter and marries his wife.
Cheeky variation on the plot of Gilda, with Macready repeating his role; later stages borrow from The Most Dangerous Game. All mildly diverting.
w Karen de Wolf, Guy Endore, James Edward Grant d Ted Tetzlaff ph Joseph Biroc m George Duning
☆ George Raft, George Macready, Nina Foch, Will Geer, Ivan Triesault

'Without any particular distinction, but certainly not boring.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Johnny Angel

US 1945 79m bw
RKO (William L. Pereira)

A seaman solves the mystery of his father's ship, found empty and adrift in the Gulf of Mexico.
Very watchable mystery with plenty of plot twists and efficient presentation.
w Steve Fisher d Edwin L. Marin
ph Harry J. Wild m Leigh Harline
☆ George Raft, Claire Trevor, Signe Hasso, Lowell Gilmore, Hoagy Carmichael, Marvin Miller

Johnny Apollo

US 1940 93m bw
TCF (Harry Joe Brown)

A well-heeled young man turns crook.
Moderate crime melo, impeccably turned out.
w Philip Dunne, Rowland Brown d Henry Hathaway ph Arthur Miller m Cyril Mockridge md Alfred Newman
☆ Tyrone Power, Dorothy Lamour, Edward Arnold, Lloyd Nolan, Charles Grapewin, Lionel Atwill, Marc Lawrence, Jonathan Hale

'There was temptation in her helpless silence – and then torment!'

Johnny Belinda

US 1948 103m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

In a remote fishing community, a deaf mute girl is raped and the sympathetic local doctor is suspected of being the father of her baby.
Melodrama of the old school which in 1948 seemed oddly to mark a new permissiveness and made a big star of Jane Wyman; the production and locations were also persuasive.
w Irmgard von Cube, Allen Vincent play Elmer Harris d Jean Negulesco ph Ted McCord m Max Steiner md Leo F. Forbstein ad Robert Haas ☆ Jane Wyman, Lew Ayres, Charles Bickford, Agnes Moorehead, Stephen McNally, Jan Sterling, Rosalind Ivan, Mabel Paige

'Hollywood has tried something dangerously different here, and succeeded in making a powerful and sensitive job of it.' – Observer

'An atmosphere in which the hokey, tearjerking elements are used for more than mere pathos – an example of technique over subject matter.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Jane Wyman
best picture; script; Jean Negulesco; Ted McCord; Max Steiner; Lew Ayres; Charles Bickford; Agnes Moorehead; art direction

Johnny Come Lately

US 1943 97m bw
Cagney Productions (William Cagney)

GB title: Johnny Vagabond

A travelling newspaperman is jailed for vagrancy in a small town and stays to expose corrupt politicians.
A turn-of-the-century folksy drama seemed an odd choice for a Cagney independent production, and it was not very persuasively made, but the star produced moments of his old charisma.
w John Van Druten novel McLeod's Folly by Louis Bromfield d William K. Howard ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Leigh Harline
☆ James Cagney, Grace George, Marjorie Main, Marjorie Lord, Hattie McDaniel, Edward McNamara, Bill Henry, Robert Barrat, George Cleveland, Margaret Hamilton, Lucien Littlefield, Irving Bacon

'The kind of business that might result if Jimmy Cagney, the immortal Hollywood movie star, had returned to play the lead in the annual production of his old high school's Masque and Film Club.' – John T. McManus

'The film does show a fatal commercial uneasiness and, I half suspect, radical loss or atrophy of cinematic judgment. But … there is a general ambience of hope and pleasure about the production which, regrettably, loses its glow.' – James Agee

Leigh Harline

Johnny Comes Flying Home

US 1946 65m bw
Aubrey Schenck/TCF

Three discharged flyers build an air freight company.
The Best Years of Our Lives it isn't, not on this budget, but it clumsily expresses some of the same concerns.
w Jack Andrews, George Bricker d Ben Stoloff
☆ Richard Crane, Faye Marlowe, Martha Stewart, Roy Roberts, Henry Morgan

Johnny Concho

US 1956 84m bw
UA/Kent (Frank Sinatra)

A coward runs Cripple Creek because he has a gunfighter brother, but when the latter is shot another gunman takes over.
Unexpected small-scale Western, pleasantly made but no High Noon.
w David P. Harmon, Don McGuire d Don McGuire ph William Mellor m Nelson Riddle
☆ Frank Sinatra, William Conrad, Phyllis Kirk, Wallace Ford, John Qualen

Johnny Cool

US 1963 101m bw
UA/Chrislaw (William Asher)

A Sicilian bandit is sent to the US on a mission of vengeance.
Chilling gangster thriller, the callousness of which is apparently meant to be counterpointed by the humorous cameo appearances of several well-known faces. This does not work.
w Joseph Landon novel John McPartland d William Asher ph Sam Leavitt m Billy May ☆ Henry Silva, Elizabeth Montgomery, Jim Backus, Marc Lawrence, John McGiver, Sammy Davis Jnr, Mort Sahl, Telly Savalas, Joseph Calleia, Robert Armstrong, Douglass Dumbrille, Elisha Cook Jnr

'Organized crime has never been so disorganized!'

Johnny Dangerously

US 1984 90m DeLuxe
TCF/Edgewood (Michael Hertzberg)

A boy takes up crime to pay for an operation for his ailing mother.
1930s gangster send-up which fails to register, and is filled with unnecessary excesses.
w Norman Steinberg, Bernie Kukoff, Harry Colomby, Jeff Harris d Amy Heckerling ph David M. Walsh m John Morris pd Joseph R. Jennings ed Pembroke J. Herring
☆ Michael Keaton, Joe Piscopo, Marilu Henner, Maureen Stapleton, Peter Boyle, Griffin Dunne, Richard Dmitri, Glynnis O'Connor, Dom DeLuise, Ray Walston

'The material given all of them just gets worse and worse.' – Variety

Johnny Dark

US 1954 85m Technicolor
U-I (William Alland)

A motor company produces a new sports car designed by an employee, who drives it in a race.
Competent, unremarkable action melodrama tailor-made for its star.
w Franklin Coen d George Sherman
ph Carl Guthrie m Hans Salter
☆ Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie, Don Taylor, Paul Kelly, Ilka Chase, Sidney Blackmer

Johnny Doughboy

US 1943 64m bw
Republic

A teenage girl star runs away, falls for a middle-aged playwright, and joins an acting troupe called The Hollywood Victory Caravan.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Curious attempt to make a child star grow up, with a supporting cast laced with others of her ilk.
w Lawrence Kimble d John H. Auer
m Walter Scharf
☆ Jane Withers, Henry Wilcoxon, William Demarest, Ruth Donnelly; and Bobby Breen, Baby Sandy, Butch and Buddy, Spanky McFarland, etc
♗ Walter Scharf

'The flaming drama of a high-born beauty who blindly loved the most icy-hearted big shot gangland ever knew!'

Johnny Eager ★

US 1942 107m bw
MGM (John W. Considine)

A gangster makes a play for a society girl.
Well-made, rather unattractive gangster melodrama.
w John Lee Mahin, James Edward Grant
d Mervyn Le Roy ph Harold Rosson
m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Robert Taylor, Van Heflin, Lana Turner, Edward Arnold, Robert Sterling, Patricia Dane, Glenda Farrell, Henry O'Neill
♗ Van Heflin

Johnny Frenchman

GB 1945 111m bw
Ealing (S. C. Balcon)

Rivalry between the fishermen of Cornwall and Brittany prevents the course of true love from running smooth.
Rhubarbing extras and studio sets make this an unreal and disappointing Ealing melodrama, and all the actors look helpless.
w T. E. B. Clarke d Charles Frend ph Roy Kellino m Clifton Parker ☆ Françoise Rosay, Tom Walls, Patricia Roc, Paul Dupuis, Ralph Michael, Frederick Piper, Arthur Hambling

Johnny Got His Gun

US 1971 111m colour
World Entertainments Ltd (Bruce Campbell)

In 1918 a soldier is so badly wounded as to lose arms, legs, eyes, ears, mouth and nose, and begs his doctors to kill him.
A horrifying and fascinating premise turns out to have nowhere to go, at least not in this talky treatment which the author has nurtured too long.
wd Dalton Trumbo ph Jules Brenner
m Jerry Fielding
☆ Timothy Bottoms, Jason Robards Jnr, Marsha Hunt, Donald Sutherland, Kathy Fields, Diane Varsi

Johnny Guitar ★

US 1953 110m Trucolor
Republic (Nicholas Ray)

In old Arizona, the proprietress of a gambling saloon stakes a claim to valuable land and incurs the enmity of a lady banker.
Weird Freudian Western notable for a running catfight between its lady protagonists; the title character is decidedly secondary. Not exactly a good movie, but memorable because it's almost always over the top.
w Philip Yordan novel Roy Chanslor
d Nicholas Ray ph Harry Stradling
m Victor Young m/ly Victor Young, Peggy Lee ad James Sullivan ed Richard L. Van Enger
☆ Joan Crawford (Vienna), Mercedes McCambridge (Emma Small), Sterling Hayden (Johnny 'Guitar' Logan), Ernest Borgnine (Bart Lonergan), Ward Bond (John McIvers), John Carradine (Old Tom), Scott Brady (Dancin' Kid), Ben Cooper (Turkey Ralston)
'A very rum western, with cockeyed feminist attitudes.' – New Yorker, 1975

Johnny Handsome

US 1989 94m Technicolor
Guild/Carolco Pictures/Guber-Peters (Charles Roven)

A deformed petty criminal undergoes surgery to give him a new appearance.
A thriller of betrayal and double-cross that never fully engages the attention.
w Ken Friedman novel The Three Worlds of Johnny Handsome by John Godey d Walter Hill ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Ry Cooder pd Gene Rudolf ed Freeman Davies, Carmel Davies, Donn Aron
☆ Mickey Rourke, Ellen Barkin, Elizabeth McGovern, Morgan Freeman, Forest Whitaker, Lance Henriksen, Scott Wilson, David Schramm, Yvonne Bryceland
'A taut, violent, moody thriller.' – Philip French, Observer
'A faintly risible mess, torn between a dozen stools and never managing to settle squarely on any of them.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Johnny Holiday

US 1949 92m bw
United Artists (R. W. Alcorn)

A reform school boy becomes a goodie through devotion to his sergeant.
Sentimental mush.
w Jack Andrews, Willis Goldbeck, Frederick Stephani d Willis Goldbeck ph Hal Mohr
m Franz Waxman
☆ William Bendix, Stanley Clements, Allen Martin Jnr, Herbert Newcomb, Hoagy Carmichael

Johnny in the Clouds: see The Way to the Stars

'Meet the ultimate hard drive.'

Johnny Mnemonic

Canada 1995 98m Film House colour
TCF/Alliance (Don Carmody)

In the future, ruthless killers hunt down a courier who will die unless he can quickly transfer important information implanted in a microchip in his brain.
A cyberpunk thriller that, like every other movie that has attempted to cash in on virtual reality, crashes and leaves only confusion behind.
w William Gibson story William Gibson
d Robert Longo ph François Protat
m Brad Fiedel pd Nilo Rodis Jamero
ed Ronald Sanders sp Sony Pictures Imageworks, Fantasy II, CORE Digital Pictures ☆ Keanu Reeves, Dolph Lundgren, Takeshi Kitano, Ice T, Dina Meyer, Denis Akiyama, Henry Rollins, Barbara Sukowa, Udo Kier
'High-tech trash, film as video-game.' – Variety
'Colossally inept badaptation.' – Premiere

Johnny Nobody

GB 1960 88m bw Warwickscope
Columbia/Viceroy (Irving Allen, Albert Broccoli)

A drunken Irish author challenges God to strike him dead for blasphemy. When an amnesiac shoots him, a nationwide religious controversy begins, but the deed is found to have a mercenary motive.
A mysterious rigmarole which irritates more than it entertains.
w Patrick Kirwan story The Trial of Johnny Nobody by Albert Z. Carr d Nigel Patrick ph Ted Moore m Ron Goodwin
☆ Nigel Patrick, Aldo Ray, Yvonne Mitchell, William Bendix, Cyril Cusack, Niall MacGinnis, Bernie Winters, Noel Purcell, Jimmy O'Dea
'The more one thinks of it, the more one is amazed that anyone should have thought a plot and players as uniformly unlikely as these could have worked out satisfactorily.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Johnny O'Clock

US 1946 95m bw
Columbia

A gambler appears to be involved in the death of a crooked policeman, but a girl helps to clear him.
Tawdry material made palatable by surface slickness.
wd Robert Rossen ph Burnett Guffey
☆ Dick Powell, Ellen Drew, Lee J. Cobb, Evelyn Keyes

Johnny Rocco

US 1958 83m bw
Allied Artists

The small son of a gangster is affected by his father's notoriety.
Awful sentimental melodrama with tear-stained ending; for connoisseurs of cliché.
w James O'Hanlon, Samuel F. Roeca
d Paul Landres ph William Margulies
m Edward J. Kay
☆ Richard Eyer, Stephen McNally, Coleen Gray, Russ Conway

Johnny Stecchino ★★

Italy 1991 102m Technicolor
Tiger/Pentafilm (Mario and Vittorio Cecchi Gori)

The wife of a Sicilian gangster whom many people want dead discovers that a naive bus driver is her husband's double.
Relaxed comedy of mistaken identity that makes fun of the Mafia and displays Benigni's gifts as a sweet-natured clown.
w Vincenzo Cerami, Roberto Benigni
d Roberto Benigni ph Giuseppe Lanci
m Evan Lurie pd Paolo Biagetti ed Nino Baragli
☆ Roberto Benigni, Nicoletta Braschi, Paolo Bonacelli, Franco Volpi, Ivano Marescotti, Turi Scalia, Loredana Romito
† The film broke all box-office records in Italy.

'A Smooth Comedy...'

Johnny Suede ★

US/Switzerland/France 1991 97m
Fujicolour
Artificial Eye/Vega/Balthazar/Starr/Arena (Yoram Mandel, Ruth Waldburger)

After a pair of suede shoes drops on top of a phone booth he's using, an ineffectual young man with an exaggerated quiff puts them on and tries to become a rock star.
Stylish exploration of pop style, although a certain tedium sets in before the end.
wd Tom DiCillo ph Joe DeSalvo m Jim Farmer, Link Wray pd Patricia Woodbridge ed Geraldine Peroni ☆ Brad Pitt, Catherine Keener, Calvin Levels, Alison Moir, Nick Cave, Peter McRobbie, Ashley Gardner, Dennis Parlato, Ron Vawter, Tina Louise
'There are moments of quirky charm and humor in this odd, stylized fable.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

Johnny Tiger

US 1966 102m colour
Nova Hook (John Hugh)

A repressed schoolteacher learns to trust his feelings after working on an Indian reservation and encouraging a wild young half-breed Seminole to study.
Formulaic confrontational drama of minimal interest.
w Paul Crabtree, John Hugh d Paul Wendkos ph Charles Straumer m John Green ed Harry Coswick
☆ Robert Taylor, Geraldine Brooks, Chad Everett, Brenda Scott, Marc Lawrence

Johnny Tremain

US 1957 81m Technicolor
Walt Disney

In 1773 Boston an apprentice silversmith joins the Sons of Liberty and helps start the War of Independence.
Schoolbook history with little vitality.
w Tom Blackburn novel Esther Forbes
d Robert Stevenson ph Charles P. Boyle
m George Bruns
☆ Hal Stalmaster, Luana Patten, Jeff York, Sebastian Cabot, Richard Beymer, Walter Sande

Johnny Trouble

US 1956 88m bw
Clarion (John H. Auer)

An elderly widow becomes involved with a boys' college and thinks she has found her lost grandson.
Sentimental, whimsical star vehicle.
w Charles O'Neal, David Lord d John H. Auer ph Peverell Marley m Frank de Vol
☆ Ethel Barrymore, Stuart Whitman, Cecil Kellaway, Carolyn Jones, Jesse White

Johnny Vagabond: see Johnny Come Lately

Johns (2)

US 1995 96m CFI color
Metrodome/Bandeira (Beau Flynn, Stefan Simchowitz)

A male prostitute's attempt to help a fellow hustler pay off his debts goes wrong.
A downbeat chronicle of sex and violence, inadequate and unsatisfactory despite some earnest performances.
wd Scott Silver ph Tom Richmond
m Charles Brown, Danny Caron pd Amy Beth Silver ed Dorian Harris
☆ David Arquette, Lukas Haas, Wilson Cruz, Keith David, Christopher Gartin, Elliott Gould, Terrence Dashon Howard, Richard Timothy Jones
'Works well as an MTV-style day in the life of LA rent boys, but its heart (which is in the right place) isn't quite substantial enough to support the emotional resonance the film needs.' – Peter Griffiths, Film Review

'Wrong turn in Arizona. No brakes in Colorado. Arrested in Kansas. It's the ultimate family trip.'

Johnson Family Vacation

US 2004 97m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Hallway Pictures/A Bird and a Bear Entertainment (Paul Hall, Eric C. Rhone, Cedric the Entertainer, Wendy Park)

A Los Angeles businessman whose marriage is failing takes a 1,000 mile trip with his wife and children for a family reunion.
Misfiring comedy that is a succession of feeble jokes and misunderstandings.
w Todd R. Jones, Earl Richey Jones
d Christopher Erskin ph Shawn Maurer
m Richard Gibbs pd Keith Brian Burns
ed John Carter
☆ Cedric the Entertainer (Nate Johnson/Uncle Earl), Vanessa Williams (Dorothy Johnson), Solange Knowles (Nikki

Johnson), Bow Wow (D.J. Johnson), Gabby Soleil (Destiny Johnson), Shannon Elizabeth (Chrishelle Rene Babineau), Steve Harvey (Mack Johnson), Aloma Wright (Glorietta Johnson)

'If someone had just remembered to pack the laughs, this might have been a trip worth taking.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

The Johnstown Flood ★

US 1926 70m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Fox

A construction worker is warned by his girlfriend of an approaching flood, in which she dies.

Curious melodrama with mild spectacle.

w Edfrid Bingham, Robert Lord d Irving Cummings

☆ George O'Brien, Janet Gaynor, Paul Panzer, George Harris

Joi-uchi: see Samurai Rebellion

Joint Security Area ★★

South Korea 2000 107m colour
CJ Entertainment/KTB/intz/Myung Film (Lee Eun)

original title: Gongdong Gyeongbi Guyeok Jsa

A female soldier from a neutral organisation investigates a border incident involving the shooting of a North Korean soldier by a South Korean sergeant.

Fascinating thriller that illumines the divisions in Korea between North and South: while the soldiers on both sides come to a friendly understanding, those in authority demonise the other side. The conclusion is that peace is preserved by hiding the truth.

w Hyeon-seok, Lee Mu-yeong, Jeong Seong-san, Park Chan-wook novel DMZ by Park Sang-yeon d Park Chan-wook ph Kim Seong-bok m Jo Yeong-wook, Bang Jun-seok ad Kim Sang-man ed Kim Sang-beom

☆ Lee Yeong-ae (Major Sophie E. Jang), Lee Byeong-heon (Sgt Lee Soo-hyeok), Song Kang-ho (Sgt Oh Kyeong-pil), Kim Tae-woo (Nam Sung-shik), Shin Ha-kyun (Jeong Woo-jin)

'Timely, accessible slice of quality mainstream cinema that further confirms the commercial maturity of the peninsula's southern industry.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Joke ★★

Czechoslovakia 1968 78m bw
Studio Barrandov (Milos Stejskal) original title: Zert

Fifteen years after being severely punished for making a joke about Trotsky, a man takes revenge on one of his judges and discovers that his action rebounds upon him.

Deft and deadly ironic political fable of the Stalinist era, with its seamless mix of past despair and present regret.

w Milan Kundera, Jaromil Jires novel Milan Kundera d Jaromil Jires ph Jan Curik m Zdenek Pololanik ad Leos Karen

☆ Josef Somr, Jana Ditetova, Ludek Munzar, Jaroslava Obermaierova

† The film was banned by the Czech authorities in the 70s.

The Joker Is Wild ★

US 1957 126m bw Vistavision
Paramount/Charles Vidor

Joe E. Lewis, a twenties night-club singer, loses his voice after an attack by gangsters, and becomes a comedian.

Reasonably lively showbiz biopic in jaundiced vein; good atmosphere but far too long.

w Oscar Saul book Art Cohn d Charles Vidor ph Daniel L. Fapp m Walter Scharf

☆ Frank Sinatra, Mitzi Gaynor, Eddie Albert, Jeanne Crain, Beverly Garland, Jackie Coogan, Ted de Corsia

♪ song 'All the Way' (m Jimmy Van Heusen, ly Sammy Cahn)

The Jokers ★★

GB 1967 94m Technicolor
Universal/Adastra/Gildor/Scimitar (Maurice Foster, Ben Arbeid)

Two young brothers in London society plan to create a sensation by borrowing (and replacing) the crown jewels.

Bright suspense comedy which sums up the swinging London era pretty well and is generally amusing though it finally lacks aplomb.

w Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais d Michael Winner ph Ken Hodges m Johnny Pearson

☆ Michael Crawford, Oliver Reed, Harry Andrews, James Donald, Daniel Massey, Michael Hordern, Gabriella Licudi, Frank Finlay, Warren Mitchell, Rachel Kempson, Peter Graves

A Jolly Bad Fellow ★

GB 1964 95m bw
British Lion/Pax/Tower/Michael Balcon (Donald Taylor)
US title: They All Died Laughing

A brash chemistry don tries a new poison on his enemies.

Interesting but finally irritating comedy of murders with a punnish rather than a donnish script and only moments of genuine sub-Ealing hilarity.

w Robert Hamer, Donald Taylor novel Don Among the Dead Men by C. E. Vulliamy d Don Chaffey ph Gerald Gibbs m John Barry

☆ Leo McKern, Janet Munro, Maxine Audley, Duncan Macrae, Dennis Price, Miles Malleson, Leonard Rossiter

Jolson Sings Again ★★

US 1949 96m Technicolor
Columbia (Sidney Buchman)

Al Jolson's later career and second marriage to a nurse he met while entertaining troops in World War II.

Breezy, routine, rather empty sequel to the following.

w Sidney Buchman d Henry Levin ph William Snyder md Morris Stoloff, George Duning

☆ Larry Parks, Barbara Hale, William Demarest, Ludwig Donath, Bill Goodwin, Tamara Shayne, Myron McCormick

'Just relax and enjoy yourself.' – Daily Express

'I love it now – every last sentimental showbiz cliché, every oversung song.' – Daily Telegraph, 1969

♪ Sidney Buchman; William Snyder; Morris Stoloff, George Duning

The Jolson Story ★★

US 1946 129m Technicolor
Columbia (Sidney Skolsky)

Asa Yoelson, son of a cantor, becomes Al Jolson, the great entertainer of the twenties; but showbiz success brings marital difficulties.

Whitewashed biopic in impeccable Hollywood style, with everything working shamelessly right, a new star in the leading role, perfect if unambitious production values, and a deluge of the best songs ever written.

w Stephen Longstreet d Alfred E. Green, Joseph H. Lewis ph Joseph Walker md Morris Stoloff ed William Lyon

☆ Larry Parks, William Demarest, Evelyn Keyes, Ludwig Donath, Tamara Shayne, Bill Goodwin, Scotty Beckett, John Alexander

'I have nothing in the world against this picture except that at least half of it seemed to me enormously tiresome.' – James Agee

† 3rd biggest moneyspinner of 1946, after The Best Years of Our Lives and Duel in the Sun.

†† Jolson dubbed Larry Parks's singing of his songs.

♪ Morris Stoloff

Joseph Walker; Larry Parks; William Demarest; William Lyon

'Everyone's book is now everyone's motion picture!'

Jonathan Livingston Seagull

US 1973 114m DeLuxe
Panavision
Paramount/JLS Partnership/Hall Bartlett

The life of a seagull who aims to fly faster than any of his peers and eventually arrives in a perfect world.

Weird 'family' fantasy based on a phenomenally successful book which clearly could not translate easily to the screen. The bird photography is much more successful than the mysticism.

w Richard Bach novel Richard Bach d Hall Bartlett ph Boris Leven m Neil Diamond, Lee Holdridge

'A parable couched in the form of a nature film of overpowering beauty and strength in which, perhaps to our horror, we are forced to recognize ourselves in a seagull obsessed with the heights.' – Michael Korda

'It may be that the creature best qualified to review it is another seagull.' – Benny Green, Punch

'If one must spend two hours following the adventures of a bird, far better that the hero be Donald Duck.' – Jay Cocks, Time

'The sort of garbage that only a seagull could love.' – Judith Crist

♪ Jack Couffer

The Jones Family

Less human, more farcical than the Hardy films (qv), this series was TCF's second feature answer to MGM's money-makers, and pleased a lot of people at the time. Pop was Jed Prouty, Mom was Spring Byington, Grandma was Florence Roberts, and the youngsters included Kenneth Howell, George Ernest, Billy Mahan, June Carlson and June Lang. The first script was from a play by Katharine Cavanaugh, and the principal director was Frank Strayer.

1936 Every Saturday Night, Educating Father, Back to Nature
1937 Off to the Races, Borrowing Trouble, Hot Water
1938 Love on a Budget, Trip to Paris, Safety in Numbers, Down on the Farm
1939 Everybody's Baby, Quick Millions, The Jones Family in Hollywood, Too Busy to Work
1940 On Their Own

† An earlier series with different actors was abandoned after two episodes: Young as You Feel (1931), Business and Pleasure (1932).

'The epic love story in which everybody has a great role and a big part.'

Joseph Andrews

GB 1977 104m Eastmancolor
UA/Woodfall (Neil Hartley)

Adventures of a naïve 18th-century footman.

Woebegone attempt to restage Tom Jones.

w Allan Scott, Chris Bryant d Tony Richardson ph David Watkin m John Addison pd Michael Annals

☆ Peter Firth, Ann-Margret, Michael Hordern, Beryl Reid, Jim Dale, Peter Bull, John Gielgud, Hugh Griffith, Timothy West, Wendy Craig, Peggy Ashcroft, James Villiers, Karen Dotrice, Ronald Pickup

'Even the incidental pleasures cannot offset the sense of déjà vu which pervades this musty enterprise.' – John Pym, MFB

Joseph Conrad's The Secret Agent: see The Secret Agent

Josephine and Men

GB 1955 98m Eastmancolor
Charter (John and Roy Boulting)

The three romances of a determined young woman.

Alarmingly thin, old-fashioned romantic comedy with all resolved in a country cottage. Nothing quite works, especially the colour.

w Nigel Balchin, Roy Boulting, Frank Harvey d Roy Boulting ph Gilbert Taylor m John Addison

☆ Glynis Johns, Jack Buchanan, Donald Sinden, Peter Finch, Heather Thatcher, Ronald Squire

Josette

US 1938 73m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)

A New Orleans coquette teases two men.

Very minor musical, well enough presented but adding up to almost nothing.

w James Edward Grant d Allan Dwan ph John Mescall m/ly Harry Revel, Mack Gordon

☆ Simone Simon, Don Ameche, Robert Young, Joan Davis, Bert Lahr, Paul Hurst, William Collier Snr, Lynn Bari, William Demarest

'Rollicking farce with music ... a corking good entertainment.' – Variety

'Why run away from home when you can drive?'

Josh and S.A.M.

US 1993 98m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock/New Line/City Lights (Martin Brest)

Two young brothers, unhappy at home with their father, run away.

An odd, sentimental drama of adolescent fantasy, which mainly shows how a 12-year-old can become a success by the use of deft lies and deceit.

w Frank Deese d Billy Weber ph Don Burgess m Thomas Newman pd Marcia Hinds-Johnson ed Chris Lebenzon

☆ Jacob Tierney, Noah Fleiss, Martha Plimpton, Stephen Tobolowsky, Chris Penn, Joan Allen, Maury Chaykin, Udo Kier

'A marvellous example of how uninspired and lacking in vision most American movie-making has become. Competent and reasonably entertaining, it's ultimately forgettable.' – Nigel Robinson, Film Review

'The hunted has become the hunter. And there will be no mercy.'

Joshua Tree

US 1993 94m Foto-Kem Super 35
Vision International (Illana Diamant, Andy Armstrong)

video title: Army of One

A trucker escapes from prison, takes a female cop as hostage and goes to seek revenge on those who killed his partner and framed him for murder.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♪ Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

An action film with a familiar plot but also possessing a slight sense of irony, with a little bow along the way to Bogart and a violent confrontation with Chinese crooks straight out of a Hong Kong movie.
w Steven Pressfield d Vic Armstrong ph Dan Turrett m Joel Goldsmith pd John J. Moore ed Paul Morton
☆ Dolph Lundgren (Santee), George Segal (Severence), Kristian Alfonso (Rita), Geoffrey Lewis (Capeda), Bert Remsen (Woody Engstrom), Michelle Phillips (Esther), Beau Starr (Rudisill)
'Serviceable action-suspense pic.' – Sight and Sound

'Here kitty, kitty, kitty...'

Josie and the Pussycats
US 2001 98m DeLuxe
TCF/MGM/Universal/Riverdale (Marc Platt, Tracey Edmonds, Chuck Grimes, Tony DeRosa-Grund)
An all-girl rock group top the hit parade and expose a government conspiracy to brainwash teenage audiences.
Badly acted, bubblegum pop fodder that pretends to preach an anti-consumerist message while being blatantly, slickly commercial and overloaded with product placements.
wd Deborah Kaplan, Harry Elfont based on characters from Archie comics ph Matthew Libatique m John Frizzell pd Jasna Stefanovich ed Peter Teschner, Gabriel Wrye cos Leesa Evans
☆ Rachael Leigh Cook (Josie McCoy), Tara Reid (Melody Valentine), Rosario Dawson (Valerie Brown), Alan Cumming (Wyatt Frame), Parker Posey (Fiona), Gabriel Mann (Alan M.), Paulo Costanzo (Alexandra Cabot), Missi Pyle (Alexandra Cabot)
'Sensationally exuberant, imaginatively crafted and intoxicatingly clever.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
'Few people other than future airline passengers should be subjected to such misery.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

Jour de Fête ★★★
France 1948 87m bw
Francinex (Fred Orain)
A village postman sees a film about the efficiency of the American postal service and decides to smarten himself up.
First, and some say best, of Tati's comedy vehicles: two-thirds superb local colour, one-third hilarious slapstick.
w Jacques Tati, Henri Marquet d Jacques Tati ph Jacques Mercanton m Jean Yatove ad Rene Moullaert ed Marcel Morreau
☆ Jacques Tati (Francois), Guy Decomble (Roger), Paul Fankeur (Marcel), Santa Relli (Roger's Wife)
'You could watch it with a bout of toothache and it would make you laugh.' – Daily Express
'It is not progressive; it won't be a landmark in the history of the cinema; but it gives me more pleasure than any film for the last five years.' – Dilys Powell
† A reissue version had colour items hand-painted in each frame, and proved quite effective.
†† A restored version in colour, made by Tati on experimental Thomsoncolour film but never printed at the time due to technical problems, was released in 1994 as part of France's celebration of the centenary of cinema. It has also been released on video-cassette.

Le Jour Se Lève ★★★★
France 1939 95m bw
Sigma
aka: Daybreak
A murderer is besieged by police in his attic room, remembers his past through the night, and shoots himself.
A model of French poetic realism, and a much-praised film which was almost destroyed when it was bought for an American remake (The Long Night).
w Jacques Viot, Jacques Prévert d Marcel Carné ph Curt Courant, Philippe Agostini, André Bac m Maurice Jaubert
ad Alexander Trauner ed Rene Le Henaff
☆ Jean Gabin (Francois), Jules Berry (M. Valentin), Arletty (Clara), Jacqueline Laurent (Francoise)
'The man walks about his room, moves a few things, lies on his bed, looks out of the window, chain-smokes ... and one is genuinely interested in him all the time (remembering afterwards that there exist directors who contrive to be boring even when they use fifteen characters in a motor car chase crackling with revolver shots).' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Le Journal de Lady M: see The Diary of Lady M

Journal d'un Curé de Campagne: see The Diary of a Country Priest

Le Journal d'une Femme de Chambre: see The Diary of a Chambermaid

Journal of a Crime
US 1934 65m bw
Warner
A woman shoots her husband's mistress and gets amnesia before she can confess.
Melodramatic farrago which entertains by its very excesses.
w F. Hugh Herbert, Charles Kenyon play Jacques Deval d William Keighley ☆ Ruth Chatterton, Adolphe Menjou, Claire Dodd, Douglass Dumbrille, George Barbier
'High in sympathetic interest and force.' – Variety

Une Journée Bien Remplie: see A Full Day's Work

The Journey
US 1959 125m Technicolor
MGM/Alby (Anatole Litvak)
During the 1956 Hungarian uprising, a busload of international passengers is detained overnight by a Russian major.
Pretentious, predictable and dull multi-melodrama peopled by uninteresting characters; different handling might have made a Casablanca of it.
w George Tabori d Anatole Litvak ph Jack Hildyard m Georges Auric ☆ Yul Brynner, Deborah Kerr, Jason Robards Jnr, Anouk Aimée, Robert Morley, E. G. Marshall, Anne Jackson, David Kossoff, Kurt Kasznar, Gerard Oury
'Ten minutes of this and we know where we are: we are back in the 1930s with Alfred Hitchcock and that glamorous band of international characters trapped in Mitteleuropa.' – Steven Marcus

Journey Back to Oz ★
US 1974 90m colour
Norm Prescott and Lou Scheimer/Filmation
Dorothy makes a return journey over the rainbow to fight the wicked witch's sister.
Competent cartoon version of Frank Baum themes from The Wizard of Oz.
d Hal Sutherland
☆ Featuring the voices of Liza Minnelli, Milton Berle, Ethel Merman, Margaret Hamilton, Mickey Rooney, Paul Ford
† Made in 1964, but not released for a decade.

Journey Beneath the Desert
Italy/France 1961 195m Eastmancolor
CCM/Fidès
original title: Antinea, l'Amante della Città Sepolta
After a forced landing in the Sahara Desert, three engineers discover underground the lost continent of Atlantis, ruled over by a despotic queen.
Leisurely adventure of a familiar kind, the fourth version of the story, which was first filmed in 1921 as L'Atlantide (qv). Here the actors seem unable to compete with the set design.
w André Tabet, Ugo Liberatore, Remigio Del Grosso, Amedeo Nazzari
novel L'Atlantide by Pierre Benoit d Edgar G. Ulmer, Giuseppe Masini ph Enzo Serafin m Carlo Rustichelli pd Piero Filippone ed Renato Cinquini ☆ Haya Harareet, Jean-Louis Trintignant, James Westmoreland, Amedeo Nazzari, Georges Riviere, Giulia Rubini, Gian Maria Volonte
† The uncredited Frank Borzage also directed some sequences.

Journey for Margaret ★
US 1942 81m bw
MGM (B. P. Fineman)
An American correspondent brings home an orphan from the London blitz.
Efficient tearful propaganda which coincidentally made a star of little Margaret O'Brien.
w David Hertz, William Ludwig book William L. White d W. S. Van Dyke ph Ray June m Franz Waxman
☆ Robert Young, Laraine Day, Margaret O'Brien, Billy Severn, Fay Bainter, Signe Hasso, Nigel Bruce, Halliwell Hobbes

Journey into Autumn ★
Sweden 1954 86m bw
Sandrews (Rune Waldekrantz)
original title: Kvinnodrom
Two business women visiting Gothenburg have difficult relationships to settle.
Moody, impressionist sex drama which succeeds by fits and starts.
wd Ingmar Bergman ph Hilding Bladh
☆ Eva Dahlbeck, Harriet Andersson, Gunnar Bjornstrand, Ulf Palme, Inga Landgre, Naima Wifstrand
'Scenes of austere anti-romanticism and painful irony.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Journey into Fear ★★★
US 1942 71m bw
RKO (Orson Welles)
A munitions expert finds himself in danger from assassins in Istanbul, and has to be smuggled home.
Highly enjoyable impressionist melodrama supervised by Orson Welles and full of his touches and excesses.
w Joseph Cotten, Orson Welles novel Eric Ambler d Norman Foster (and Orson Welles) ph Karl Struss m Roy Webb md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Mark-Lee Kirk ed Mark Robson
☆ Joseph Cotten (Graham), Dolores del Rio (Josette), Jack Moss (Banat), Orson Welles (Col. Haki), Ruth Warrick (Stephanie), Agnes Moorehead (Mme. Mathews)
'Brilliant atmosphere, the nightmare of pursuit, eccentric encounters on the way, and when the shock comes it leaps at eye and ear.' – William Whitebait
† A 1976 remake, much heralded, was for obscure legal reasons hardly seen. Directed by Daniel Mann for New World, it starred Zero Mostel, Shelley Winters, Stanley Holloway, Vincent Price, Donald Pleasence, Sam Waterston, Joseph Wiseman, Scott Marlowe and Yvette Mimieux.

Journey into Light
US 1951 87m bw
TCF/Joseph Bernhard
A minister loses his faith, becomes a derelict, and is reformed by a blind girl.
An old-fashioned tract in pictures. Has to be seen to be believed, but quite nicely made.
w Stephanie Nordli, Irving Shulman d Stuart Heisler m Paul Dunlap ☆ Sterling Hayden, Viveca Lindfors, Thomas Mitchell, H. B. Warner, Ludwig Donath, Jane Darwell, Charles Evans
'Slow, inept, and often extremely embarrassing.' – MFB

The Journey of August King
US 1995 92m Technicolor
Miramax (Nick Wechsler, Sam Waterston)
In 1815, a farmer protects a runaway slave girl, who has escaped from a rich and ruthless landowner.
Slow-moving drama that never sparks into life, despite the good intentions of those involved.
w John Ehle novel John Ehle d John Duigan ph Slawomir Idziak m Stephen Endelman pd Patricia Norris
ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Jason Patric, Thandie Newton, Larry Drake, Sam Waterston, Nesbitt Blaisdell, John Doman
'A strongly crafted, if unexcitingly simple drama of moral courage.' – Variety
† Directors George Roy Hill and Robert Mulligan earlier tried to set up productions of Ehle's novel, which was published in 1971.

Journey of Honor: see Shogun Warrior

Journey of Hope ★
Switzerland 1990 110m colour
Mainline/Catpics/Condor/SRG/RTSI/Film Four (Alfi Sinniger, Peter Fueter) original title: Reise der Hoffnung
A Turkish father and mother and their young son, part of a group of illegal immigrants abandoned by their guide, try to make their way across a mountain pass into Switzerland.
Moving, almost documentary account of refugees seeking a better life.
w Xavier Koller, Feride Çiçekoğlu, Heike Hubert d Xavier Koller ph Elemer Ragalyi ad Luigi Pelizzo, Kathrin Brunner ed Galip Iyitanir
☆ Necmettin Çobanoğlu, Nur Srer, Emin Sivas, Erdinç Akbas, Yaman Okay, Yasar Gner, Hseyin Mete, Yaman Tarcan
♟ best foreign film

The Journey of Natty Gann
US 1985 105m colour
Panavision
Walt Disney (Michael Lobell)
During the Chicago depression, a girl follows her father west and hitch-hikes across America.

A kind of human Lassie Come Home: doggedly watchable but not inspiring, especially since it was shot in Canada.
w Jeanne Rosenberg d Jeremy Kagan ph Richard Bush m James Horner ☆ Meredith Salenger, John Cusack, Ray Wise, Scatman Crothers
'Cut to an hour, it would make a fine Disney telepic.' – Variety
§ costumes (Albert Wolsky)

[illegible] see Voyage to Italy

Journey to Shiloh
US 1967 101m Techniscope Universal
Seven young Texans leave home to fight in the Civil War.
Episodic Western which failed in its ambition to reach epic stature.
w Gene Coon novel Fields of Honour by Will Henry d William Hale ph Enzo A. Martinelli m David Gates
☆ James Caan, Michael Sarrazin, Brenda Scott, Paul Petersen, Don Stroud, Michael Burns, Michael Vincent, Harrison Ford, John Doucette, Noah Beery Jnr

Journey to the Beginning of the World ★
Portugal/France 1997 95m colour Artificial Eye/Madragoa/Gemini (Paulo Branco)
An elderly film director goes on a journey into his past in the company of three actors.
Elegiac celebration of, and farewell to, the forces and places that form an individual; it was Mastroianni's last film.
wd Manoel de Oliveira ph Renato Berta m Emmanuel Nunes pd Maria José Branco ed Valérie Loiseleux ☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Jean-Yves Gautier, Leonor Silveira, Diogo Dória, Isabel de Castro, Cecile Sanz de Alba
'The star takes it like a sweet swansong that makes his performance feel like an unforced tribute to his own long career. An unusually touching obituary.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'A more stupefyingly uncinematic film has probably never been made.' – Gaby Wood, Guardian

Journey to the Center of the Earth ★★
US 1959 132m DeLuxe Cinemascope TCF (Charles Brackett)
An Edinburgh professor and assorted colleagues follow an explorer's trail down an extinct Icelandic volcano to the Earth's centre.
Enjoyable hokum which gets more and more fantastic but only occasionally misses its footing; it ends splendidly with the team being catapulted out of Stromboli on a tide of lava.
w Walter Reisch, Charles Brackett novel Jules Verne d Henry Levin ph Leo Tover m Bernard Herrmann ad Lyle R. Wheeler, Franz Bachelin, Herman A. Blumenthal
☆ James Mason, Arlene Dahl, Pat Boone, Peter Ronson, Diane Baker, Thayer David
'The attraction of a Jules Verne fantasy ... is in the endearing contrast between the wildest adventures and the staidest Victorian propriety on the part of those undergoing them ... There is about the whole film a good-natured enjoyment of its own excesses.' – Penelope Houston
§ art direction
'Caught in a fantastic time trap.'

Journey to the Center of Time
US 1967 82m colour Ember/Flamingo/Borealis-Dorad (Ray Dorn, David L. Hewitt)
Scientists inadvertently send themselves to the year 5000 AD, at a time of a war with aliens, and then travel to 1,000,000 BC where they are attacked by monsters.
Low-budget, unexciting sci-fi, with the prehistoric world represented by one medium-sized lizard, dry ice and coloured lights.
w David Prentiss d David L. Hewitt ph Robert Caramico pd Edward D. Engoron ed Bill Welburn sp Modern Film Effects
☆ Scott Brady, Gigi Perreau, Anthony Eisley, Abraham Sofaer, Poupee Gamin

Journey to the Far Side of the Sun ★
GB 1969 99m DeLuxe Cinemascope Universal/Century 21 Productions (Gerry Anderson) aka: Doppelgänger
An astronaut on a mission to a hitherto undetected planet discovers it to be an exact duplicate of Earth, and his own double returns in his place.
Intriguing, impeccably produced, but rather dull science fiction.
w Gerry and Sylvia Anderson, Donald James d Robert Parrish ph John Read m Barry Gray sp Harry Oakes models Derek Meddings
☆ Ian Hendry, Roy Thinnes, Patrick Wymark, Lynn Loring, Herbert Lom, George Sewell, Ed Bishop

Journey to the South (dubbed)
Argentina/Yugoslavia 1988 90m colour Art Film 80/Smart Egg/CFS (Jorge Estrada Mora, Aleksandar Stojanović) original title: El Camino del Sur
In the 1920s, a young Yugoslavian girl thinks she is marrying a wealthy European who lives in Buenos Aires, but discovers instead that she has been sold to work in a brothel.
Episodic treatment of the once-flourishing white slave trade in East European women, a colourful but unconvincing melodrama.
w Juan Bautista Stagnaro, Elida Cecconi story Beda Docampo Feijoo d Juan Bautista Stagnaro ph Karpo A. Godina m Zoran Simjanović ad Nikola Lazarevski, Santijago Eider ed Enrique Muzio, Snezana Ivanović ☆ Mirjana Joković, Adrian Ghio, Zarko Lausević, Mira Furlan, Osvaldo Santoro

Journey Together ★
GB 1944 95m bw RAF Film Unit (John Boulting)
Trainee pilots receive instruction in England and America before going on their first bombing mission.
Modest wartime semi-documentary, pleasingly done.
w Terence Rattigan d John Boulting ph Harry Waxman m Gordon Jacob pd John Howell
☆ Richard Attenborough, Jack Watling, David Tomlinson, Edward G. Robinson, Hugh Wakefield, Sebastian Shaw, Ronald Adam, Bessie Love
'It has a natural dignity as well as a natural fun.' – Listener
'One of the most realistic and brilliant films of the war in the air.' – News Chronicle

Journey's End ★
GB/US 1930 120m bw Gainsborough/Welsh-Pearson/Tiffany-Stahl (George Pearson)
France 1917: personal tensions mount as men die in the trenches.
Primitive early sound version (made in Hollywood because of better equipment) of a justly celebrated play first performed a year earlier. Cinematically uninteresting, with acting generally over the top, but it kept Whale and Clive in Hollywood where they shortly collaborated on Frankenstein.
w Joseph Moncure March, Gareth Gundrey play R. C. Sherriff d James Whale ph Benjamin Kline m none ad Harvey Libbert ed Claude Berkeley
☆ Colin Clive, Ian MacLaren, David Manners, Billy Bevan, Anthony Bushell, Robert Adair
'No crystal gazing required to forecast a big measure of success.' – Variety
'It has been transferred to the screen with the greatest possible tact and discretion.' – James Agate
'Hollywood has produced its first sex-appeal-less film. Mr George Pearson is to be congratulated on his restraint.' – Punch
'Almost painfully English ... I cannot believe that the strangulated emotions which resulted can have meant much to audiences outside the English-speaking world.' – Basil Wright, 1972
† It was the first Anglo-American co-production.

Jours Tranquilles à Clichy: see Quiet Days in Clichy

Joy House
France 1964 98m bw Franscope MGM (Jacques Bar)
aka: The Love Cage
The husband of a wealthy American woman in France tries to kill her boyfriend.
Weird hothouse drama, an unsuccessful attempt to combine French and American styles.
w René Clément, Pascal Jardin, Charles Williams novel Day Keene d René Clément ph Henri Decae m Lalo Schifrin ad Jean Andre ed Fedora Zincone
☆ Jane Fonda, Alain Delon, Lola Albright

Joy in the Morning
US 1965 103m Metrocolor MGM (Henry T. Weinstein)
Early episodes in the marriage of a poor teenage student.
Glutinous romantic drama, quite well made.
w Sally Benson, Alfred Hayes, Norman Lessing novel Betty Smith d Alex Segal ph Ellsworth Fredricks m Bernard Herrmann
☆ Richard Chamberlain, Yvette Mimieux, Arthur Kennedy, Oscar Homolka, Joan Tetzel, Sidney Blackmer

'Between every mother and daughter there is a story that must be told.'

The Joy Luck Club
US 1993 139m Technicolor Buena Vista/Hollywood Pictures (Wayne Wang, Amy Tan, Ronald Bass, Patrick Markey)
The relationships of four Chinese-American daughters with their Chinese mothers are recalled.
A long, slick, mostly sentimental wallow in the past that fails to throw much light on the present or the future; it lacks the sense of culture clash and quirky humour evident in the director's earlier, low-budget films.
w Amy Tan, Ronald Bass novel Amy Tan d Wayne Wang ph Amir Mokri m Rachel Portman pd Donald Graham Burt ed Maysie Hoy
☆ Kieu Chinh, Tsai Chin, France Nuyen, Lisa Lu, Ming-Na Wen, Tamlyn Tomita, Lauren Tom, Victor Wong
'Beautifully made and acted and emotionally moving into the bargain.' – Variety
'Delivers neither subtlety nor heart-warming ebullience. Everything is shoe-horned into the fake conflicts and resolutions of soap opera ... If you go to this film with a date whom you want to impress with your sensitivity, bring onions.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Joy of Living ★
US 1938 90m bw RKO (Felix Young)
A practical-minded Broadway songstress succumbs to the charms of an aristocratic freewheeler.
Zany romantic comedy, not quite zippy enough to make one forget its irritating archness, but socio-historically very interesting, in the mould of You Can't Take It with You.
w Gene Towne, Allan Scott, Graham Baker story Dorothy Fields, Herbert Fields d Tay Garnett ph Joseph Walker m/ly Jerome Kern, Dorothy Fields md Frank Tours
☆ Irene Dunne, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Alice Brady, Guy Kibbee, Lucille Ball, Eric Blore, Jean Dixon, Warren Hymer, Billy Gilbert
'Fair farce ... bereft of sufficient novelty or comedy plot to sustain itself through an hour and a half of gags.' – Variety

'It started as a joke. Now the joke is on them.'

Joy Ride ★
US 2001 97m DeLuxe Panavision TCF/New Regency/Bad Robot/Liveplanet (J. J. Abrams, Chris Moore)
GB title: Roadkill
On a cross-country drive, three students are terrorised by a murderous trucker.
Spielberg did it rather better with Duel, but this is an undeniabky suspenseful thriller about callow youths going too far.
w Clay Tarver, J. Abrams d John Dahl ph Jeffrey Jur m Marco Beltrami pd Rob Pearson ed Eric L. Beason, Scott Chestnut, Todd E. Miller, Glen Scantlebury cos Terry Dresbach
☆ Steve Zahn (Fuller Thomas), Paul Walker (Lewis Thoma), Leelee Sobieski (Venna), Jessica Bowman (Charlotte), Stuart Stone (Danny), Basil Wallace (Car Salesman), Brian Leckner (Officer Keeney)
'Hot-wired, white-knuckle thriller...steadily gains momentum while speeding through familiar territory.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
'First-rate pure thriller, an exercise that depends on believable characters and the director's skill in putting the pieces together.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Joyeux Noël: see Merry Christmas

Joyless Street ★
Germany 1925 139m (24 fps) bw silent Sofar Film original title: Die Freudlose Gasse
Problems of the inhabitants of a street in Vienna after World War I.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · § Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Realistic but studio-set melodrama which brought its director and Greta Garbo to international fame. In itself the film begins by stimulating and ends by boring.
w Willy Haas novel Hugo Bettauer d G. W. Pabst ph Guido Seeber, Curt Oertel, Robert Lach ☆ Asta Nielsen, Werner Krauss, Greta Garbo, Valeska Gert, Agnes Esterhazy 'Moments of searing pain, of mental anguish, of sheer unblemished beauty.' – Paul Rotha, The Film Till Now

Joyriders

GB 1988 96m Technicolor
Pathé/Granada/British Screen/Little Bird/Film Four (Emma Hayter)
A battered wife runs away with a petty criminal.
Road movie that, for all its squalor, never comes near to reality.
w Andy Smith story Aisling Walsh, Andy Smith d Aisling Walsh ph Gabriel Beristain pd Leigh Malone ed Thomas Schwalm ☆ Patricia Kerrigan, Andrew Connolly, Billie Whitelaw, David Kelly, John Kavanagh, Deirdre Donoghue, Tracy Peacock, Rolf Saxon, Otto Jarman

Ju Dou ★★

Japan/China 1990 94m Eastmancolor
ICA/Tokuma Shoten/China Film/X'ian Film Studio (Shigeru Mori, Hiroyuki Kato, Zhao Hangao)
An impotent old man succeeds in revenging himself on his adulterous wife and her lover, his nephew, through their son.
A tragic folk-tale, colourfully told.
w Liu Heng story Fuxi Fuxi by Liu Heng d Zhang Yimou, Yang Fengliang ph Gu Changwei, Yang Lun m Zhao Jiping ad Cao Jiuping, Xia Rujin ed Du Yuan
☆ Li Wei, Gong Li, Li Baotian, Zhang Yi, Zheng Jian
'A film where the images do the talking, and almost everything they have to say is deeply cautionary.' – MFB
† The film was banned in China.
♗ best foreign film

Ju-on ★

Japan 2000 70m colour
Toei (Taka Ichise, Kazuo Kato)
aka: Ju-on: The Curse
A teacher visits the home of a young pupil to discover why he has not been attending school and finds the boy alone in a deserted house.
A low-budget direct-to-video movie that began a surprisingly successful series of haunted house stories, about the angry ghost of a young, murdered mother and her small son; its has moments of shock, mainly achieved through the clever use of sound.
wd Takashi Shimizu ph Nobuhito Kisuki m Shiro Sato sp Hajime Matsumoto
☆ Yurei Yanagi (Shunsuke Kobayashi), Chiaki Kuriyama (Mizuho Tamura), Hitomi Miwa (Yuki), Asumi Miwa (Kanna Murakami), Takako Fuji (Kayako Saeki), Taklashi Matsuyama (Takeo Saeki), Ryota Koyama (Toshio Saeki)
† It was followed by another low-budget direct-to-video sequel Ju-On: The Curse 2, which repeated some of the footage of the first film. Their cult following led to the bigger-budget movie Ju-On: The Grudge and its sequel Ju-On: The Grudge 2 with another, Ju-On: The Grudge 3, planned. The US remake The Grudge was mostly based on Ju-On: The Grudge.

Ju-on 2

Japan 2000 colour
Toei (Taka Ichise, Kazuo Kato)
aka: Ju-on: The Curse 2
Visiting the home of a young truant, a schoolmaster discovers that he was the unwitting cause of a murder that has terrible consequences.
Familiar re-run of the psychological horror that began this series, with a more straightforward narrative but still depending on sound to create its creepy atmosphere.
wd Takashi Shimizu ph Nobuhito Kisuki m Gary Ashiya
☆ Yuuko Daike (Kyoko Sazuki), Makoto Ashikawa (Tatsuya Suzuki), Mayuko Saito (Clerk), Kahori Fujii (Yoshimi Kitada), Yurei Yanagi (Shunsuke Kobayashi), Takako Fuji (Kayako Saeki), Ryota Koyama (Toshio)
† The first half-hour of this movie repeats the last half-hour of Ju-on. The new footage here has been combined with Ju-on in an Asian VCD release running for 106m and retitled Ju-on: The Prequel (to Ju-on; The Grudge).

Ju-on: The Grudge ★ ③

Japan 2003 92m colour
Oz Co/Pioneer LDC/Nikkatsu/Xanadeux (Taka Ichise)
Police investigating disappearances at a house lived in by a demented old woman uncover some grisly secrets.
A continuation of the themes developed in the first two Ju-on movies, this horror story of the vengeful ghosts of a murdered mother and her young son relies, like them, on a fractured narrative and spooky sound effects.
wd Takashi Shimizu ph Tokusho Kikumura m Shiro Sato ad Toshiharu Tokiwa ed Nobuyuki Takahashi sp Hajime Matsumoto creative consultants Hiroshi Takahashi, Kiyoshi Kurosawa
☆ Megumi Okina (Rika Nishida), Kanji Tsuda (Katsuya Tokunaga), Risa Matsuda (Kazumi), Misaki Ito (Hitomi), Misa Uehara (Izumi Toyama), Yui Ichikawa (Sachie)
'A haunted-house one-trick pony.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† This was the third film in a series, following on from Ju-on/Ju-on: The Curse 00 and Ju-on 2/Ju-on: The Curse 2 00, which were released direct to video. Their cult success led to this cinema release, which was followed by a sequel, Ju-on 2/Ju-on: The Grudge 2 03, an American remake The Grudge 04 (qv) and a planned Japanese sequel Ju-on 3/Ju-on: The Grudge 3 05. All were written and directed by Takashi Shimizu.

Ju-on: The Grudge 2

Japan 2003 91m colour
Pioneer LDC/Nikkatsu/Oz/Xanadeux/ Kadokawa Shoten/Tokyo Theatres (Taka Ichise)
A television crew and an actress famous for her horror roles investigate a haunted house and suffer the consequences.
The mixture is much as before, with the narrative divided into overlapping chapters, though now the murderous ghosts of the dead mother and her small son are able to operate outside the house in which they died. One scene makes effective use of its treatment of time, in which a woman only discovers at the moment of her death the cause of knocking noises that have frightened her at night. But it tips over into the ridiculous by the end.
wd Takashi Shimizu ph Tokusho Kikumura m Shiro Sato ad Toshiharu Tokiwa ed Nobuyuki Takahashi sp Hajime Matsumoto
☆ Noriko Sakai (Kyoko Harase), Chiharu Niiyama (Tomoka Miura), Kei Horie (Yamashita), Emi Yamamoto (Megumi Oobayashi), IYui chikawa (Chiharu), Shingo Katsurayama (Keisuke Ookuni)
'The truly frightening thought is how long this franchise, like the curse itself, can continue to be reborn.' – Jay Weissberg, Variety

'See it now! Remember it always!'
'A story so momentous it required six Academy Award stars and a cast of 1,186 players!'

Juarez ★★

US 1939 132m bw
Warner (Hal. B. Wallis, Henry Blanke)
A revolutionary leader causes the downfall of Emperor Maximilian of Mexico.
Spectacular historical drama with many fine moments which do not quite coalesce into a dramatic whole, chiefly owing to the lack of a single viewpoint.
w John Huston, Wolfgang Reinhardt, Aeneas Mackenzie d William Dieterle ph Tony Gaudio m Erich Wolfgang Korngold
☆ Brian Aherne, Bette Davis, Paul Muni, Claude Rains, John Garfield, Donald Crisp, Gale Sondergaard, Joseph Calleia, Gilbert Roland, Henry O'Neill, Pedro de Cordoba, Montagu Love, Harry Davenport
'With such potent box office values, its success at theatres seems assured.' – Variety
'A million dollars' worth of ballroom sets, regimentals, gauze shots and whiskers.' – Otis Ferguson
'Dramatically by far the most effective of Warners' biographical films of the thirties.' – Graham Greene
'Muni's big-star solemn righteousness is like a dose of medicine.' – New Yorker, 1977
† Based vaguely on two novels: The Phantom Crown by Bertita Harding, and Maximilian and Carlotta by Franz Werfel.
†† According to Brian Aherne the film was to have been called The Phantom Crown, but Muni's contract enabled him to insist that the name of his character should appear in the title.
♗ Brian Aherne

'Remember his name ... You'll remember his story!'

Jubal

US 1956 101m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia (William Fadiman)
A rancher's wife causes trouble when she falls in love with a wandering cowhand.
Solid sex Western, moderately interestingly done.
w Russell S. Hughes, Delmer Daves novel Jubal Troop by Paul Wellman d Delmer Daves ph Charles Lawton m David Raksin
☆ Glenn Ford, Ernest Borgnine, Felicia Farr, Rod Steiger, Valerie French, Charles Bronson, Noah Beery Jnr

Jubei Ninpocho: see Ninja Scroll

Jubilee ★★★

GB 1978 104m colour
Whaley-Malin/Megalovision
Queen Elizabeth I is transported by her astrologer into the latter part of the 20th century, and is appalled by what she sees.
Outrageous dissection of modern urban life, full of black jokes: it has the right attitudes but is not free of a determination to shock at all costs.
w Derek Jarman and others d Derek Jarman ph Peter Middleton m Brian Eno ed Nick Barnard, Tom Priestley ☆ Jenny Runacre (Queen Elizabeth I), Nell Campbell (Crabs), Toyah Willcox (Mad), Jordan (Amyl Nitrite), Hermine Demoriane (Chaos)
'One of the most intelligent and interesting films to be made in Britain in a long time.' – Scott Meek, MFB

Jubilee Trail ★

US 1954 103m Trucolor
Republic (Joseph Kane)
Jealousy and murder by covered wagon en route from New Orleans to the California gold fields.
Bumpy adventure melodrama, generally quite entertaining.
w Bruce Manning novel Gwen Bristow d Joseph Kane ph Jack Marta m Victor Young ☆ Vera Hruba Ralston, Forrest Tucker, Joan Leslie, Pat O'Brien, John Russell, Ray Middleton

Judas Was a Woman: see La Bête Humaine

'A time without pity. A society without mercy. A love without equal.'

Jude ★

GB 1996 123m Technicolor Panavision
PolyGram/BBC Films/Revolution (Andrew Eaton)
After his wife leaves him, a rural labourer decides to revive his dream of becoming a teacher and moves to a university town, where he falls in love with his cousin.
An unhappy adaptation, with some jarringly anachronistic dialogue, which only occasionally gets to grips with Hardy's tragic story.
w Hossein Amini novel Thomas Hardy d Michael Winterbottom ph Eduardo Serra m Adrian Johnston pd Joseph Bennett ed Trevor Waite ☆ Christopher Eccleston, Kate Winslet, Liam Cunningham, Rachel Griffiths, June Whitfield, Ross Colvin Turnbull, James Daley
'A little triumph.' – Adam Mars-Jones
'An ambitious, sensitive, but ultimately uninvolving effort.' – Geoff Andrew, Time Out

Judex ★★

France 1916 300m approx bw silent
Gaumont
A Robin Hood type crimefighter destroys the empire of an evil banker.
Stylishly enjoyable serial from the maker of Les Vampires and Fantômas.
w Arthur Bernade, Louis Feuillade d Louis Feuillade
☆ René Creste, Musidora, Yvette Andreyor, Louis Leubas
† Another Judex serial was made in 1917, and in 1933 came a feature version directed by Maurice Champreux, with René Ferte. In 1963 Georges Franju directed another feature remake with Channing Pollock, and this was extremely well received.

The Judge and the Assassin ★★

France 1976 125m colour Panavision
Arrow/Lira (André Hoss)
original title: Le Juge et L'Assassin

In the 1890s, at a time of unrest, unemployment and poverty, a judge expends his energies in persuading a former sergeant, disappointed in love, to confess to raping and killing children as he tramped across France.
Gripping examination of the mind of a mass murderer and a passionate indictment of a society that uses justice as a means of oppression.
w Jean Aurenche, Bertrand Tavernier, Pierre Bost d Bertrand Tavernier ph Pierre William Glenn m Philippe Sarde ad Antoine Roman ed Armand Psenny ☆ Philippe Noiret, Michel Galabru, Isabelle Huppert, Jean-Claude Brialy, Renée Faure, Cecile Vassort, Yves Robert

'In The Future, One Man Is The Law.'

Judge Dredd

US 1995 96m Technicolor Panavision
Guild/Cinergi (Charles M. Lippincott, Beau E. L. Marks)

In Mega City One in AD 2139, Judge Dredd is exiled after being framed for a murder committed by his evil clone.
John Wagner and Carlos Ezquerra's comic-book creation of a shoot-first-ask-questions-later cop who is also judge and jury finds the ideal actor in Sylvester Stallone, but the film strands him without a decent script in which he can flex his muscles.
w William Wisher, Steven E. de Souza d Danny Cannon ph Adrian Biddle m Alan Silvestri pd Nigel Phelps ed Alex Mackie, Harry Keramidas
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Armand Assante, Diane Lane, Rob Schneider, Joan Chen, Jürgen Prochnow, Max von Sydow, Joanna Miles, Balthazar Getty, Maurice Roeves, Ian Dury

'What's worrying is that so much time and energy can be spent on such a crashingly stale chunk of genre hardware.' – Jonathan Romney
'With its routine story-line and unsurprising visuals, you feel as if you have already seen Judge Dredd before it is even 10 minutes old.' – Stephen Amidon, Sunday Times
'Thunderous, unoriginal futuristic hardware show for teenage boys.' – Variety
'Continuously beautiful and interesting from beginning to end ... With its first-rate rumbling sound effects, its lavish, old-fashioned score and its exquisite palette of muted browns and pale blues, Judge Dredd offers a sophisticated aesthetic experience.' – Camille Paglia, TLS

† The film took around $34m at the US box-office and another $78m elsewhere during 1995.

'Enough laughs to make your head spin!'

Judge Priest ★

US 1934 79m bw
Fox (Sol M. Wurtzel)

A political judge sees fair play through a criminal case.
Mainly effective star vehicle.
w Dudley Nichols, Lamar Trotti stories Irvin S. Cobb d John Ford ph George Schneiderman m Samuel Kaylin
☆ Will Rogers, Tom Brown, Anita Louise, Henry B. Walthall, David Landau, Rochelle Hudson

'A great part for Will Rogers and a box office bet.' – Variety

The Judge Steps Out ★

US 1947 91m bw
RKO

GB title: Indian Summer
A middle-aged judge leaves his wife and sets off on an aimless journey in the course of which he falls in love with a café proprietress.
A pleasing human story, simply told in a manner which at the time seemed more French than American.
w Boris Ingster, Alexander Knox d Boris Ingster ph Robert de Grasse m Constantin Bakaleinikoff
☆ Alexander Knox, Ann Sothern, George Tobias, Sharyn Moffett

A Judgement in Stone: see La Cérémonie

'The things you'll see and the things you'll feel are the things that will be part of you as long as you live!'

Judgment at Nuremberg ★★

US 1961 190m bw
UA/Roxlom (Stanley Kramer)

A fictionalized version of the 1948 trial of the Nazi leaders for crimes against humanity.
Interminable, heavy-going dramatic documentary expanded from a succinct TV play into a courtroom marathon with philosophical asides. All good stuff, but too much of it.
w Abby Mann play Abby Mann d Stanley Kramer ph Ernest Laszlo m Ernest Gold pd Rudolph Sternad
☆ Spencer Tracy, Marlene Dietrich, Burt Lancaster, Richard Widmark, Maximilian Schell, Judy Garland, Montgomery Clift, William Shatner, Edward Binns, Werner Klemperer, Torben Meyer, Alan Baxter, Ray Teal

'Some believe that by tackling such themes Kramer earns at least partial remission from criticism. How much? 20 per cent off for effort?' – Stanley Kauffmann † Burt Lancaster replaced Laurence Olivier, who was originally cast.

Abby Mann; Maximilian Schell best picture; Stanley Kramer; Ernest Laszlo; Spencer Tracy; Judy Garland; Montgomery Clift

'Prepare for Impact.'

Judgment Day

US 1999 90m FotoKem
Cinetel

The only scientist who can save the world from collision with an asteroid is kidnapped by the leader of a religious cult.
Despite the slightly different narrative approach, this is low-budget action as usual, with the standard prolonged gun-battles along corridors and high-level walkways and stairs.
w William Carson d John Terlesky ph Maximo Munzi m Joseph Williams ☆ Ice T (Reese), Suzy Amis (Tyrell), Mario Van Peebles (Payne), Coolio (Luther), Linden Ashby (Corbett), Tommy 'Tiny' Lister Jnr (Clarence), Max Gail (Meech), Mark Deakins (McNally), James Eckhouse (Keller), David Wells (Dr Richard Keller), Shireen Crutchfield (Rachel)

Judgment Deferred

GB 1951 88m bw
Group Three (John Baxter)

A collection of Dorset eccentrics brings to book the head of a dope smuggling ring who has framed one of their associates.
An unusual story can't compensate for stagey handling in this first disappointing production of a company set up by the National Film Finance Corporation to make low budget films with top talent.
w Geoffrey Orme, Barbara Emary, Walter Meade d John Baxter ph Arthur Grant m Kennedy Russell
☆ Hugh Sinclair, Helen Shingler, Abraham Sofaer, Leslie Dwyer, Joan Collins, Harry Locke, Elwyn Brook Jones, Bransby Williams, Maire O'Neill, Harry Welchman

† This was an expanded remake of Dosshouse.

Judgment in Berlin

US 1988 96m Eastmancolor
Hobo/Bibo TV/January Enterprises/Sheen-Greenblatt (Joshua Sinclair, Ingrid Windisch)

An East German is tried by an American court in Berlin after hijacking a Polish airliner.
Despite being based on an actual incident, this courtroom drama lacks conviction.
w Joshua Sinclair, Leo Penn book Herbert J. Stern d Leo Penn ph Gabor Pogany ad Jan Schlubach, Peter Alteneder ed Teddy Darvas
☆ Martin Sheen, Sam Wanamaker, Max Gail, Juergen Heinrich, Heinz Hoenig, Carl Lumbly, Max Volkert Martens, Christine Rose, Sean Penn

Judgment Night

US 1993 110m colour Super 35
Universal/Largo/JVC (Gene Levy)

Four friends are pursued by killers after they get lost in a city slum and witness a gangland murder.
Violent and implausible chase thriller that requires only that its protagonists behave with great stupidity.
w Lewis Colick d Stephen Hopkins ph Peter Levy m Alan Silvestri pd Joseph Nemec III ed Timothy Wellburn
☆ Emilio Estevez, Cuba Gooding Jnr, Denis Leary, Stephen Dorff, Jeremy Piven, Peter Greene, Erik Schrody, Michael Wiseman

'Exceedingly well directed, cleverly filmed and edited, tension-filled affair. It is also a wholly preposterous, muddled, paranoid view of the inner-city nightmare.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Judith

US 1965 109m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Cumulus/Command (Kurt Unger)

In 1947 Israel, loyalists rescue the wife of an escaped war criminal and ask her to identify him, but she takes her own revenge.
Glowering kibbutz adventures, well enough made but adding up to neither one thing nor the other, and rather confusing to non-Jews.
w John Michael Hayes story Lawrence Durrell d Daniel Mann ph John Wilcox m Sol Kaplan pd Wilfrid Shingleton
☆ Sophia Loren, Peter Finch, Jack Hawkins, Hans Verner, André Morell

'Tasteless and pretentious ... Here is tragedy and glory being used as window dressing for some cheap little undercover-agent episodes and fleshly exploitation.' – Judith Crist

Judith of Bethulia

US 1913 42m (24 fps) bw silent
Biograph (D. W. Griffith)

A widow in a city attacked by the Assyrians courts their leader and beheads him.
Semi-biblical melodrama in Griffith's most Victorian style.
w Frank Woods d D. W. Griffith ph Billy Bitzer
☆ Blanche Sweet, Henry B. Walthall, Lillian Gish, Dorothy Gish, Lionel Barrymore, Mae Marsh, Robert Harron

Judy Berlin ★

US 1998 94m bw
Blue Light/Sundance (Rocco Caruso)

In Long Island, during an eclipse of the sun, a would-be actress says her goodbyes as she prepares to leave for Los Angeles.
Delicate, well-observed mood piece of frustrated lives and ill-judged hope.
wd Eric Mendelsohn ph Jeffrey Seckendorf m Michael Nicholas pd Charlie Kulsziski ed Eric Mendelsohn
☆ Barbara Barrie (Sue Berlin), Bob Dishy (Arthur Gold), Edie Falco (Judy Berlin), Carlin Glynn (Maddie), Aaron Harnick (David Gold), Bette Henritze (Dolores Engler), Madeline Kahn (Alice Gold), Julie Kavner (Marie), Anne Meara (Bea), Novella Nelson (Carol)

'An offbeat whimsy that may be just a tad too fragile for its own good.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Juggernaut

GB 1937 64m bw
Ambassador (Julius Hagen)

A scientist lacking funds for his experiments agrees to commit murder.
Tedious melodrama which wastes Karloff's time.
w Cyril Campion, H. Fowler Mear, H. Fraenkel d Henry Edwards ph Sidney Blythe ☆ Boris Karloff, Mona Goya, Joan Wyndham, Arthur Margetson, Anthony Ireland, Morton Selten

'It gets into motion slowly and reaches the meat of the plot after numerous distractions.' – Variety

Juggernaut ★★

GB 1974 110m DeLuxe Panavision
United Artists/David E. Picker (Richard Alan Simmons)

A transatlantic liner is threatened by a mad bomber.
Elaborate suspense spectacular, most of which works pretty well.
w Richard Alan Simmons d Richard Lester ph Gerry Fisher m Ken Thorne pd Terence Marsh
☆ Richard Harris, David Hemmings, Omar Sharif, Anthony Hopkins, Ian Holm, Shirley Knight, Roy Kinnear, Cyril Cusack, Freddie Jones

'However unoriginal its basic ingredients, it hardly ever slackens its pace or diverts attention from its central premise.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum
'Jaunty, cynical slapstick.' – New Yorker

The Juggler

US 1953 88m bw
Columbia/Stanley Kramer

A Jewish refugee in Palestine has a horror of being imprisoned, and runs away from a transit camp with a small wandering boy.
Well-meaning cheapie, a curiously aimless topical drama which fails to make any of its several points.
w Michael Blankfort novel Michael Blankfort d Edward Dmytryk ph Roy Hunt m Georges Antheil
☆ Kirk Douglas, Milly Vitale, Paul Stewart, Joey Walsh

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Power. Respect.'

Juice ★★

US 1992 91m Technicolor
Electric/Paramount/Island World (David Heyman, Neal H. Moritz, Peter Frankfurt)

Four young friends from Harlem find their relationship alters after they rob a store and kill its owner.

Gripping tale of inner-city despair and the dead end offered by violence.

w Gerard Brown, Ernest R. Dickerson d Ernest R. Dickerson ph Larry Banks m Hank Shocklee & The Bomb Squad pd Lester Cohen ed Sam Pollard, Brunilda Torres

☆ Omar Epps, Tupac Shakur, Jermaine Hopkins, Khalil Kain, Cindy Herron, Vincent Laresca, Samuel L. Jackson, George O. Gore, Grace Garland, Queen Latifah

'A vivid slice of everyday fun and mortal danger in young Harlem.' – Joe Brown, Washington Post

'Demonstrates the black community's untapped talent waiting for opportunities on both sides of the camera, but it also reflects the confined realm within which the filmmakers and performers are forced to operate.' – Variety

Jujiro: see Crossroads

Juke Girl

US 1942 90m bw
Warner (Jack Saper, Jerry Wald)

Fruit workers in Florida get involved in murder.

Hokum melodrama with all concerned treading water.

w A. I. Bezzerides novel Theodore Pratt d Curtis Bernhardt ph Bert Glennon m Adolph Deutsch

☆ Ann Sheridan, Ronald Reagan, Richard Whorf, Gene Lockhart, Faye Emerson, George Tobias, Alan Hale, Howard da Silva, Donald McBride, Fuzzy Knight, Willie Best

Jules et Jim ★★★★

France 1962 105m bw Franscope
Films du Carrosse/SEDIF (Marcel Berbert)

Before World War I, in Paris, a girl alternates between a French and a German student, and after the war they meet again to form a constantly shifting triangle.

Charming, quintessentially French period romance, technically interesting, emotionally uplifting, and acted and directed with verve and feeling.

w François Truffaut, Jean Gruault novel Henri-Pierre Roché d François Truffaut ph Raoul Coutard m Georges Delerue ed Claudine Bouche

☆ Oskar Werner (Jules), Jeanne Moreau (Catherine), Henri Serre (Jim), Vanna Urbino (Gilberte), Boris Bassiak (Albert), Anny Nelsen (Lucie)

'The sense is of a director intoxicated with the pleasure of making films.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

'An arch and arty study of the perversities of women and the patience of men.' – Bosley Crowther

† A Region 2 DVD release includes audio commentary by Jeanne Moreau.

Jules Verne's Rocket to the Moon

US 1967 95m colour Panavision
AIP (Harry Alan Towers)

aka: Those Fantastic Flying Fools
aka: Blast-Off

Escaping from his creditors to England, Phineas T. Barnum finances a trip to the moon in an attempt to recoup his fortunes.

Farcical Victoriana that owes little to Jules Verne and more to the Carry On films, though it leans more to genteel slapstick than genial vulgarity. Some skilled character actors provide moments of amusement.

w Dave Freeman story Peter Welbeck (Harry Alan Towers), 'inspired by the writings of Jules Verne' d Don Sharp ph Reg Wyer m Patrick John Scott ad Frank White ed Ann Chegwidden

☆ Burl Ives, Troy Donahue, Gert Frobe, Hermione Gingold, Lionel Jeffries, Dennis Price, Terry-Thomas, Daliah Lavi, Stratford Johns, Graham Stark, Jimmy Clitheroe

† Jules Verne's novel was filmed more seriously, but no more successfully, in 1958 as From the Earth to the Moon (qv).

Jules Verne's Sea Devils (dubbed)

Spain 1981 87m Eastmancolor
Dinavision
Almena/Cinevision (Alfredo Casado)
original title: Los Diablos del Mar

A group of youthful immigrants, on their way to Australia, escape from pirates only to be shipwrecked in Africa, where they fall foul of slave traders.

Vapid, politically incorrect action movie, particularly unconvincing in scenes involving attacks by wild animals and in its heavy-handed moments of comedy.

w Joaquin Grau, Juan Piquer story Fifteen years old Captain by Jules Verne d J. Piquer Simon ph Juan Marine m Alfonso Agullo, Carlos Villa pd Gumer Andres ed Antonio Gimeno

☆ Ian Sera, Frank Brana, Patty Shepard, Flavia Zarzo, Gaby Gimenez, Aldo Sambrell

'A story of turmoil, of courage, of love!'

Julia ★★★

US 1977 117m Technicolor
TCF (Richard Roth)

Lillian Hellman reflects on the fortunes of her friend Julia, filled with enthusiasm for European causes and finally killed by the Nazis.

Thoughtful, elegant patchwork of thirties memories, a vehicle for actors and a subtle, self-effacing director.

w Alvin Sargent book Pentimento by Lillian Hellman d Fred Zinnemann ph Douglas Slocombe m Georges Delerue pd Carmen Dillon, Gene Callahan, Willy Holt ed Walter Murch

☆ Jane Fonda (Lillian Hellman), Vanessa Redgrave (Julia), Jason Robards Jnr (Dashiell Hammett), Maximilian Schell (Johann), Hal Holbrook (Alan Campbell), Meryl Streep (Anne Marie), Rosemary Murphy (Dorothy Parker), Cathleen Nesbitt (Grandmother), Maurice Denham (Undertaker)

'After a while it becomes apparent that Zinnemann and Sargent are trafficking in too many quotations and flashbacks because they can't find the core of the material.' – Pauline Kael

♟ script; Vanessa Redgrave; Jason Robards Jnr

♙ best picture; Fred Zinnemann; Douglas Slocombe; Georges Delerue; Jane Fonda; Maximilian Schell

♈ best picture; Alvin Sargent; Douglas Slocombe; Jane Fonda

'An erotic comedy about life on the line.'

Julia Has Two Lovers

US 1990 85m colour
Oneira (Bashar Shbib)

A woman, who has ambivalent feelings about her current lover, begins a romance with a man who dials her number by mistake.

Low-budget romance that fails to ring bells.

w Daphna Kastner, Bashar Shbib d Bashar Shbib ph Stephen Reizes m Emilio Kauderer ed Dan Foegelle, Bashar Shbib

☆ Daphna Kastner, David Duchovny, David Charles, Tim Ray

Julia Misbehaves

US 1948 99m bw
MGM (Everett Riskin)

An actress returns to her stuffy husband when her daughter is about to marry.

Desperate attempt to find a vehicle for a fading star team.

w William Ludwig, Arthur Wimperis, Harry Ruskin novel The Nutmeg Tree by Margery Sharp d Jack Conway ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Adolph Deutsch

☆ Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Elizabeth Taylor, Peter Lawford, Cesar Romero, Lucile Watson, Nigel Bruce, Mary Boland, Reginald Owen, Ian Wolfe, Edmund Breon, Fritz Feld, Aubrey Mather, Henry Stephenson

Julian Po

US 1997 78m Technicolor
Entertainment/Fine Line/Cypress/Mindel/Shaw (Joseph Pierson, Jon Glascoe)

Small townspeople make a hero out of stranger who claims that he has come to their town to kill himself.

Bland mystery of a movie that never quite explains itself.

wd Alan Wade novella La Mort de Monsieur Golouga by Branimir Scepanovic ph Bernd Heinl m Patrick Williams pd Stephen McCabe ed Jeffrey Wolf

☆ Christian Slater (Julian Po), Robin Tunney (Sarah), Michael Parks (Vern), Cherry Jones (Lucy), Frankie R. Faison (Sheriff), Harve Presnell (Mayor), Allison Janney (Lilah)

'A dull, faintly puzzling nullity of a movie.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Julie ★

US 1956 97m bw
MGM/Arwin (Marty Melcher)

A concert pianist plans to murder his wife.

Wildly improbable but entertaining suspenser in which the lady finally has to assume control of an airplane.

wd Andrew Stone ph Fred Jackman Jnr m Leith Stevens

☆ Doris Day, Louis Jourdan, Barry Sullivan, Frank Lovejoy, John Gallaudet

'Some of the dialogue reaches a fine pitch of banality.' – MFB

♙ Andrew Stone (as writer); title song (m Leith Stevens, ly Tom Adair)

'You've got to risk it all to get your first hit.'

Julie and the Cadillacs

GB 1997 107m colour
Capricorn/Parker Mead (John Dean, Sean O'Mahony)

In the mid 60s, a girl singer and her band move from Liverpool to London in search of stardom.

Bland 'B' movie of British pop that arrived 30 years too late to find an audience.

w John Dean d Bryan Izzard ph Les Young m/ly John Dean pd Jeremy Bear ed James Thomas

☆ Toyah Willcox (Barbara Gifford), Victor Spinetti (Cyril Wise), Peter Polycarpou (Phil Green), Thora Hird (Julie's grandmother), James Grout (Mr Watkins), Mike Berry (Mac MacDonald), Tina Russell (Julie Carr), Ben Richards (Mike Williams), Billy Boyd (Jimmy Campbell), David Habbin (John Wood), Chris O'Neill (Tony Henderson), Matt Rayner (Roy Holgate)

'Starry-eyed, amateurish and endearingly bouncy.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

Julien Donkey-Boy ★

US 1999 100m colour
Fine Line/Independent Pictures (Cary Woods, Scott Macaulay, Robin O'Hara)

A schizophrenic youth, capable of violence to others, shares his New Jersey home with his equally dysfunctional father, brother and pregnant sister.

An intermittently interesting attempt to provide a visual equivalent to the central character's unbalanced view of the world; it has its moments, but the effect of the fuzzily lurid colours, the lurchings of the hand-held camera and the often muddy sound is a diminishing one, as is the shock of incest, death and general weirdness.

wd Harmony Korine ph Anthony Dod Mantle ed Valdis Oskarsdottir

☆ Ewen Bremner (Julien), Chloe Sevigny (Pearl), Werner Herzog (Father), Evan Neumann (Chris), Joyce Korine (Grandma), Chrissy Kobylak (Chrissy), Alvin Law (Neighbor)

'A pointless attempt to give a semblance of realism to what is patently fiction. And very tedious, shallow fiction it is, too.' – Ed Porter, Sunday Times

Juliet of the Spirits ★★★★

Italy/France 1965 145m Technicolor
Federiz/Francoriz (Clemente Fracassi)

original title: Giulietta degli Spiriti

A bored middle-aged woman finds she can conjure up spirits who lead her into a life of sensual gratification.

A fascinating patchwork of autobiographical flashbacks, the distaff side of Eight and a Half. Its success depends upon its dreamlike imagery, the set designs of Piero Gherardi and the photography of Gianni di Venanzo rather than any deep exploration of feelings.

w Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinnelli, Brunello Rondi, Ennio Flaiano d Federico Fellini ph Gianni di Venanzo m Nino Rota ad Piero Gherardi ed Ruggero Mastroianni

☆ Giulietta Masina (Juliet), Mario Pisu (Giorgio), Sandra Milo (Susy/Iris/Fanny), Valentina Cortese (Valentina), Sylva Koscina (Sylva)

'A kaleidoscope of fantasy, a series of cerebral inventions, of which only a few are artistically justified ... an extravagant illusion, a huge confidence trick, with little new to say and an often pedantic way of saying it.' – David Wilson, MFB

'Greater than Ivanhoe!'
'Thrill to ruthless men and their goddess-like women in a sin-swept age!'
'Thrill to traitors and heroes, killings and conspiracies, passions and violence in Rome's most exciting age!'

Julius Caesar ★★

US 1953 121m bw
MGM (John Houseman)

Cassius and Brutus lead the conspirators who murder Caesar, but are themselves routed by Mark Antony.

Straightforward, rather leaden presentation of Shakespeare's play, lit by effective moments in the acting, but the sudden change from talk to battle is not smoothed over.
wd Joseph L. Mankiewicz ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Edward Carfagno ☆ John Gielgud, James Mason, Marlon Brando, Greer Garson, Deborah Kerr, Louis Calhern, Edmond O'Brien, George Macready, Michael Pate, John Hoyt, Alan Napier
art direction
best picture; Joseph Ruttenberg; Miklos Rozsa; Marlon Brando
John Gielgud; Marlon Brando

Julius Caesar

GB 1969 116m Technicolor Panavision
Commonwealth United (Peter Snell)
Elementary production with a surprising number of faults and very few merits.
w Robert Furnival d Stuart Burge ph Ken Higgins m Michael Lewis pd Julia Trevelyan Oman
☆ Richard Johnson, Jason Robards Jnr, John Gielgud, Charlton Heston, Robert Vaughn, Richard Chamberlain, Diana Rigg, Jill Bennett, Christopher Lee, Alan Browning, Andrew Crawford 'Ugly, ill-spoken, ham-fisted.' – Sight and Sound

Jumanji ★

US 1995 104m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Interscope/Teitler (Scott Kroopf, William Teitler)
Two children play a mysterious board game that releases after 25 years a child, now grown to be a man, who was trapped within it, together with an invasion of jungle animals.
Unsuccessful, convoluted fantasy that surprises only with its special effects of wild animals rampaging through a house and the streets of an American town.
w Jonathan Hensleigh, Greg Taylor, Jim Strain book Chris Van Allsburg d Joe Johnston ph Thomas Ackerman m James Horner pd James Bissell ed Robert Dalva sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Robin Williams, Bonnie Hunt, Kirsten Dunst, Bradley Pierce, Bebe Neuwirth, Jonathan Hyde, David Alan Grier, Patricia Clarkson, Adam Hann-Byrd
'The filmmakers re-create safari beasts with wizardly finesse but can't think of anything to do with them but zap you. The plot is cardboard Spielberg.' – Entertainment Weekly

Jumbo ★

US 1962 124m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Joe Pasternak, Martin Melcher)
aka: Billy Rose's Jumbo
In 1910, the daughter of the owner of a shaky circus prevents a take-over bid.
Hoary circus story with music. General effect disappointing: the elephant steals the show.
w Sidney Sheldon play Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur d Charles Walters ph William H. Daniels m/ly Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart md George Stoll ch Busby Berkeley
☆ Doris Day, Jimmy Durante, Stephen Boyd, Martha Raye, Dean Jagger
† Stephen Boyd's singing was dubbed by James Joyce.
George Stoll

Jump for Glory

GB 1937 89m bw
Criterion (Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Marcel Hellman)
US title: When Thief Meets Thief
Adventures of a cat burglar who accidentally kills his ex-partner.
Curious star comedy drama with pleasing scenes.
w John Meehan Jnr, Harold French novel Gordon MacDonnell d Raoul Walsh ph Cedric Williams
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Valerie Hobson, Alan Hale, Edward Rigby, Barbara Everest, Jack Melford, Anthony Ireland
'Starts off at a commendable pace but doesn't carry through.' – Variety

Jump into Hell

US 1955 93m bw
Warner (David Weisbart)
Paratroops relieve a fort in Indo-China.
Mediocre semi-documentary war heroics.
w Irving Wallace d David Butler ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph ☆ Jacques Sernas, Kurt Kasznar, Arnold Moss, Peter Van Eyck, Pat Blake

'Living in Hell and Loving It!'

Jump the Gun ★

GB/South Africa 1996 124m Metrocolor
Film Four/Parallax/Xencat (Indra de Lanerolle)
Johannesburg is the destination of an oil-rig worker looking for fun and a singer hoping for work.
Slight but engaging movie of a city undergoing change, seen from the perspective of the streets.
wd Les Blair ph Seamus McGarvey m Joe Nina pd David Barkham ed Oral Norrie Ottey ☆ Baby Cele, Lionel Newton, Thulani Nyembe, Rapulana Seiphemo, Danny Keogh, Joe Nina
'Despite unevenness and not much dramatic structure, the partly improvised screenplay works well.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Live a little first.'

Jump Tomorrow ★

GB/US 2001 96m Technicolor
Film4/Eureka/Jorge (Nicola Usborne)
Encouraged by a love-lorn Frenchman, an office worker abandons his plans for an arranged marriage to pursue a woman he meets at the airport.
A would-be romantic comedy that turns out to be more a buddy movie about an odd couple of near-strangers; it has an enjoyably quirky quality.
wd Joel Hopkins ph Patrick Cady m John Kimbrough pd John Panno ed Susan Littenberg ☆ Tunde Adebimpe (George), Hippolyte Girardot (Gerard), Natalia Verbeke (Alicia), James Wilby (Nathan), Patricia Mauceri (Consuelo), Isiah Whitlock Jnr (George's Uncle), Kaili Vernoff (Heather Leather), Abiola Wendy Abrams (Sophie)
'The whole movie is diagrammed. It's a just-add-water trifle.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'Slightly screwy romantic comedy... becomes increasingly charming as it goes along.' – Amy Taubin, Village Voice

Jumpin' Jack Flash

US 1986 100m DeLuxe
TCF (Lawrence Gordon-Joel Silver)
A black office worker finds herself plunged into espionage.
Tiresome, dirty-talking, would-be wild and woolly comedy which fails to establish itself.
w David H. Franzoni, J. W. Melville, Patricia Irving, Christopher Thompson d Penny Marshall ph Matthew F. Leonetti
m Thomas Newman pd Robert Boyle ed Mark Goldblatt ☆ Whoopi Goldberg, Stephen Collins, John Wood, Carol Kane, Annie Potts, Roscoe Lee Browne

Jumping for Joy

GB 1955 88m bw
Rank/Raymond Stross
A track attendant acquires a winning greyhound and exposes a group of crooks.
Totally predictable star comedy which needs livening up.
w Jack Davies, Henry E. Blyth d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Cox m Larry Adler ☆ Frankie Howerd, Stanley Holloway, A. E. Matthews, Tony Wright, Alfie Bass, Joan Hickson, Lionel Jeffries

Jumping Jacks ★

US 1952 96m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis
Two cabaret comedians join the paratroops.
Standard star farce, one of Martin and Lewis's best.
w Robert Lees, Fred Rinaldo, Herbert Baker d Norman Taurog ph Daniel L. Fapp
m Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Mona Freeman, Robert Strauss, Don Defore

June Bride

US 1948 97m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
Two bickering reporters are sent to cover a small-town wedding.
Sloppily structured romantic farce in which nothing ever comes together.
w Ranald MacDougall play Feature for June by Eileen Tighe, Graeme Lorimer d Bretaigne Windust ph Ted McCord
m David Buttolph
☆ Bette Davis, Robert Montgomery, Fay Bainter, Tom Tully, Betty Lynn, Barbara Bates, Jerome Cowan, Mary Wickes, Debbie Reynolds

June Night ★

Sweden 1940 90m bw
AB Svensk Filmindustri original title: Juninatten
Recovering from being shot by her lover, a shop assistant moves to Stockholm but cannot escape her past.
A complex examination of the power of passion and the public fascination with scandal, even though its resolution is bungled.
w Ragnar Hyltén-Cavallius story Tora Nordstrom-Bonnier d Per Lindberg
ph Åke Dahlquist m Jules Sylvain, Gunnar Johansson
☆ Ingrid Bergman, Marianne Löfgren, Lill-Tollie Zellman, Marianne Aminoff, Olof Widgren, Gunnar Sjöberg

Junebug ★★★ (8)

US 2005 106m DeLuxe
Eureka/Epoch (Mindy Goldberg, Mike S. Ryan)
An elegant Chicago art dealer goes to North Carolina on business and to meet for the first time her husband's parents, his surly brother and perky sister-in-law.
Delightful comedy of misunderstandings, culture-clash and long-buried resentments, done with a light touch.
w Angus MacLachlan d Phil Morrison
ph Peter Donahue m Yo La Tengo
pd David Doernberg ed Joe Klotz
☆ Amy Adams (Ashley), Embeth Davidtz (Madeleine), Ben McKenzie (Johnny), Alessandro Nivola (George), Frank Hoyt Taylor (David Wark), Celia Weston (Peg), Scott Wilson (Eugene)
'A great film because it is a true film. It humbles other films that claim to be about family secrets and eccentricities. It understands that families are complicated and their problems are not solved during a short visit, just in time for the film to end.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Although it neatly captures the minutiae of everyday life, it's an event-lite movie that requires all your patience.' – David Edwards, Daily Mirror
'If you see it, you will remember it. You may want to see it twice.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph
Amy Adams

Jungfrukällan: see The Virgin Spring

Jungle 2 Jungle ★

US 1997 105m colour
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/TF1 (Brian Reilly)
A New York businessman brings back to the city his 13-year-old son, who has lived all his life in the Amazon jungle.
Mildly entertaining comedy of a father–son relationship in two differing cultures, so that each has a turn at getting things wrong.
w Bruce A. Evans, Raynold Gideon d John Pasquin ph Tony Pierce-Roberts
m Michael Convertino pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Michael A. Stevenson film Un Indien dans la ville by Hervé Palud, Thierry Lhermitte, Igor Aptekman, Philippe Bruneau de la Salle
☆ Tim Allen, Martin Short, JoBeth Williams, Lolita Davidovich, Sam Huntington, David Ogden Stiers, Bob Dishy
'A warm-hearted family outing.' – Variety

'More thrilling than the deeds of man ... more beautiful than the love of woman ... more wonderful than the dreams of children!'

The Jungle Book ★

US 1942 109m Technicolor
Alexander Korda
aka: Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book
Growing up with animals in an Indian forest, a boy forestalls the getaway of three thieves.
High-budgeted but rather boring live action version with stiff-jointed model animals.
w Laurence Stallings stories Rudyard Kipling d Zoltan Korda, André de Toth ph Lee Garmes, W. Howard Greene
m Miklos Rozsa ad Vincent Korda
☆ Sabu, Joseph Calleia, John Qualen, Frank Puglia, Rosemary de Camp cinematography; Miklos Rozsa; Vincent Korda

'The Jungle is Jumpin'.'

Jungle Book ★

US 1967 78m Technicolor
Walt Disney
An Indian orphan is raised by very vocal jungle animals.
Cartoon version relying less on action than on songs and voices; patchily successful but no classic.
w Larry Clemmons, Ralph Wright, Ken

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Anderson, Vance Gerry d Wolfgang Reitherman m George Bruns m/ly Richard and Robert Sherman, Terry Gilkyson ed Tom Acosta, Norman Carlisle
☆ voices of: Phil Harris (Baloo), Sebastian Cabot (Bagheera), Louis Prima (King Louie of the Apes), George Sanders (Shere Khan), Sterling Holloway (Kaa), J. Pat O'Malley (Colonel Hathi/Buzzie), Bruce Reitherman (Mowgli)
† It was the last animated movie to be personally supervised by Walt Disney.
♫ 'The Bare Necessities'; 'Colonel Hathi's March'; 'I Wanna Be Like You'; 'My Own Home'; 'That's What Friends Are For'; 'Trust In Me'
♗ song 'The Bare Necessities' (m/ly Terry Gilkyson)

Jungle Book: see Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book (1994)

'Feel the jungle beat.'

The Jungle Book 2

US 2003 72m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Mary Thorne, Chris Chase)

Mowgli, now living with other humans, pines for his jungle friends.
A belated sequel that isn't much fun, content to recycle the hit songs from the first film, and to display poorer animation.
w Karl Geurs d Steve Trenbirth m Joel McNeely m/ly Lorraine Feather, Paul Grabowsky ad Michael Peraza ed Peter N. Lonsdale, Christopher Gee ☆ voices of: John Goodman (Baloo), Haley Joel Osment (Mowgli), Mae Whitman (Shanti), Connor Funk (Ranjan), Bob Joles (Bagheera), Tony Jay (Shere Khan), John Rhys-Davies (Ranjan's Father), Phil Collins (Lucky)
'Less a film than an ersatz simulation, reducing the wit and charm of the original film to the level of a bog-standard TV special.' – Andrew Osmond, Sight & Sound
♫ 'I Wanna Be Like You'; 'Jungle Rhythm'; 'Bare Necessities'; 'Colonel Hathi's March'; 'W-I-L-D'; 'Right Where I Belong'

Jungle Book 2: Mowgli and Baloo: see Rudyard Kipling's The Second Jungle Book: Mowgli and Baloo

Jungle Captive

US 1945 63m bw
Universal

A mad doctor steals the body of Paula the ape woman and restores it to life.
Arrant rubbish, a sequel to Captive Wild Woman and Jungle Woman.
w M. Coates Webster, Dwight V. Babcock d Harold Young ☆ Otto Kruger, Phil Brown, Rondo Hatton, Jerome Cowan, Amelita Ward Jungle Fever ★★

US 1991 132m DuArt
UIP/Universal/Forty Acres and A Mule Filmworks (Spike Lee)

A black architect leaves his wife and child to live with his Italian-American secretary.
Sharply observed drama of racism and prejudice that raises more questions than it attempts to answer.
wd Spike Lee ph Ernest Dickerson m Terence Blanchard, Stevie Wonder pd Wynn Thomas ed Sam Pollard, Brunilda Torres
☆ Wesley Snipes, Annabella Sciorra, Spike Lee, Ossie Davis, Ruby Dee, Samuel L. Jackson, Lonette McKee, John Turturro, Frank Vincent, Anthony Quinn, Tim Robbins, Brad Dourif
'An inspired and very welcome return to form.' – Empire

Jungle Fighters: see The Long and the Short and the Tall

Jungle Jim

When Johnny Weissmuller began to show his middle-age spread, Columbia put him in a jacket and more or less redid his Tarzan thing in a series of second features which appeared to be shot in producer Sam Katzman's back garden and gradually indulged in wilder and wilder plots. None of them has more than curiosity value.
1948 Jungle Jim
1949 The Lost Tribe
1950 Captive Girl, Mark of the Gorilla, Pygmy Island
1951 Fury of the Congo, Jungle Manhunt
1952 Jungle Jim in the Forbidden Land, Voodoo Tiger
1953 Savage Mutiny, Valley of the Headhunters, Killer Ape
1954 Jungle Maneaters, Cannibal Attack
1955 Jungle Moon Men, Devil Goddess
w main scriptwriters were Carroll Young, Dwight Babcock, Sam Newman d main directors William Berke, Lee Sholem, Spencer G. Bennet

'Men staked their lives for just one look at the thrilling beauty of this tiger woman!'

The Jungle Princess ★

US 1936 84m bw
Paramount (E. Lloyd Sheldon)

A British hunter is injured on a tropical island and rescued by a native girl and her animal retinue.
Dorothy Lamour's first film role cast her as the female Tarzan she was to play (in a sarong, of course) a dozen times again. This is strictly a programmer, but after its success it was all done again, rather better, as Her Jungle Love.
w Cyril Hume, Gerald Geraghty, Gouverneur Morris d William Thiele ph Harry Fischbeck md Boris Morros
☆ Dorothy Lamour, Ray Milland, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, Molly Lamont, Hugh Buckler
'Fairly palatable entertainment most of the way.' – Variety
'Poor Mr Lynne Overman is expected to lend humorous relief to a film already richly comic.' – Graham Greene
† On this trip the tiger was Liamu and the chimp Bogo.

Jungle Woman

US 1944 54m bw
Universal

A mad doctor restores an ape to life. It turns into a beautiful woman.
Middle section of a talentless trio of which the first is Captive Wild Woman and the third Jungle Captive.
w Bernard Schubert, Henry Sucher, Edward Dein d Reginald LeBorg
☆ J. Carrol Naish, Acquanetta, Evelyn Ankers, Milburn Stone, Richard Davis, Lois Collier

'Nothing is inconceivable.'

Junior

US 1994 109m Eastmancolor
UIP/Northern Lights (Ivan Reitman)

A scientist tests a fertility drug on a male colleague, with the result that he becomes pregnant.
A less amusing reunion of the team that produced Twins, a still-born, surprisingly old-fashioned comedy with its belief that the essence of femininity resides in being helpless and hopeless, nagging and clinging; the old jokes are not always the best.
w Kevin Wade, Chris Conrad d Ivan Reitman ph Adam Greenberg m James Newton Howard pd Stephen Lineweaver ed Sheldon Kahn, Wendy Greene Bricmont
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Danny DeVito, Emma Thompson, Frank Langella, Judy Collins, Pamela Reed, Aida Turturro, James Eckhouse
'What separates this straightforward chuckler from the pack is its shrewd reliance on character rather than plot, and that human dimension proves surprisingly poignant.' – Leonard Klady
♗ song 'Look What Love Has Done'

Junior Army

US 1943 70m bw
Columbia (Colbert Clark)

An English boy goes to an American military academy.
Routine propaganda item which might almost have been titled David Copperfield Meets the Dead End Kids.
w Albert Bein, Paul Gangelin d Lew Landers
☆ Freddie Bartholomew, Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Don Beddoe, Peter Lawford, Boyd Davis

Junior Bonner ★

US 1972 105m Movielab Todd-AO 35
ABC/Booth-Gardner/Joe Wizan/Solar

An ageing rodeo star returns to his home town and finds his family in trouble.
Well-made, rather downcast and not very interesting drama, remarkably gentle from this director.
w Jeb Rosebrook d Sam Peckinpah ph Lucien Ballard m Jerry Fielding ☆ Steve McQueen, Ida Lupino, Robert Preston, Joe Don Baker, Ben Johnson Junior Miss ★

US 1945 94m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

A teenager causes trouble by meddling in the lives of her family.
Amusing family comedy from a hit play.
w George Seaton play Jerome Chodorov, Joseph Fields stories Sally Benson d George Seaton ph Charles Clarke m David Buttolph
☆ Peggy Ann Garner, Allyn Joslyn, Faye Marlowe, Mona Freeman, Michael Dunne, John Alexander

'A black comedy about love, money, cold canned spaghetti, karaoke, involuntary good deeds and the joy of being comatose.'

Junk Mail ★

Norway 1997 79m colour
MovieMakers/Norsk Film/Atlas (Dag Nordahl, Peter Boe)

original title: Budbringeren
An inquisitive postman becomes involved in the complicated life of a young woman.
An edgy and glumly enjoyable semi-thriller, about a hapless individual out of his depth.
w Pal Sletaune, Jonny Halberg d Pal Sletaune ph Kjell Vassdal m Joachim Holbek pd Karl Juliusson ed Pal Gengenbach ☆ Robert Skjaerstad (Roy Amundsen), Andrine Saether (Line Groberg), Per Egil Aske (Georg Rheinhardsen), Eli Anne Linnestad (Betsy), Trond Hovik (Saether), Henriette Steenstrup (Gina), Trond Fausa Aurvag (Espen), Adne Olav Sekkelsten (Per)
'An offbeat, blackly humorous love story with a grotesque edge.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Juno and the Paycock

GB 1930 85m bw
British International (John Maxwell)

US title: The Shame of Mary Boyle
During the Irish troubles of the early twenties, tragedy comes to a poor Dublin family.
A plainly done film version of a modern classic whose changes of mood would not in any case have worked well on the screen.
w Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville play Sean O'Casey d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox ad Norman Arnold ed émile de Ruelle
☆ Sara Allgood, Edward Chapman, Maire O'Neill, Sidney Morgan, John Longden
'A film which completely justifies the talkies.' – James Agate
'Just a photograph of a stage play.' – Alfred Hitchcock

Jupiter's Darling ★

US 1954 96m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (George Wells)

Advancing on Rome, Hannibal falls in love with the dictator's fiancée.
A splendid example of the higher lunacy, with coloured elephants decorating an MGM musical about the fall of the Roman Empire. Small elements can be salvaged, and the gall is enough to be divided into three parts.
w Dorothy Kingsley play The Road to Rome by Robert E. Sherwood d George Sidney ph Paul C. Vogel, Charles Rosher m David Rose m/ly Burton Lane, Harold Adamson ch Hermes Pan ad Cedric Gibbons, Uric McCleary
☆ Esther Williams, Howard Keel, George Sanders, Marge and Gower Champion, Richard Haydn, William Demarest
'If it had been my first picture, there wouldn't have been a second.' – Esther Williams

'An adventure 65 million years in the making.'

Jurassic Park ★★

US 1993 127m colour
UIP/Universal/Amblin (Kathleen Kennedy, Gerald R. Molen)

Genetically re-created from blood taken from ancient mosquitoes, dinosaurs run amok in a theme park.
The dinosaurs are amazing: living, breathing, believable creatures, which is more than you can say for the actors in this otherwise cardboard creation, hung up on toilet jokes and often seeming no more than an elongated commercial for all the merchandise associated with the movie, which includes a long, shameless pan along shelves of the toys and books available. The film was distributed with a warning that it might upset sensitive children. Sensitive adults are likely to be disappointed, too.
w Michael Crichton, David Koepp novel Michael Crichton d Steven Spielberg ph Dean Cundey m John Williams pd Rick Carter ed Michael Kahn sp Dennis Muren, Stan Winston, Phil Tippett, Pamela Easley
☆ Sam Neill, Laura Dern, Jeff Goldblum, Richard Attenborough, Bob Peck, Martin Ferrero, B. D. Wong, Joseph Mazello, Ariana Richards, Samuel L. Jackson
'Doesn't have the imagination – or the courage – to take us any place we haven't been a thousand times before. It's just a creature feature on amphetamines.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

'The dinosaurs are wonderful, but they aren't on the set enough of the time (yes, I know how much more they cost than human actors). Unfortunately, the plot line for the human actors reduces to pap and romantic drivel of the worst kind, the very antithesis of the book's grappling with serious themes.' – Stephen Jay Gould

† Among the many inconsistencies in the narrative, Sam Neill warns that the Tyrannosaurus Rex reacts to movement when he can have no knowledge or experience of this fact.

†† It was followed by two sequels: The Lost World: Jurassic Park and Jurassic Park III.

sound; sound effects editing; visual effects

'This Time It's Not Just A Walk In The Park!'

Jurassic Park III

US 2001 92m DeLuxe
UIP/Amblin (Kathleen Kennedy, Larry Franco)

A palaeontologist is tricked into returning to an island inhabited by intelligent dinosaurs.

Hectic chase movie that, jettisoning the slight intellectual content of the first two movies, concentrates on shocks and thrills, which it delivers efficiently.

w Peter Buchman, Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor d Joe Johnston ph Shelly Johnson m Don Davis pd Ed Verreaux ed Robert Dalva sp Stan Winston

☆ Sam Neill (Dr Alan Grant), William H. Macy (Paul Kirby), Tea Leoni (Amanda Kirby), Alessandro Nivola (Billy Brennan), Trevor Morgan (Eric Kirby), Michael Jeter (Udesky), John Diehl (Cooper), Bruce A. Young (Nash), Laura Dern (Ellie)

'An all-action, helter-skelter, don't-forget-to-buy-the-computer-game ride that makes the two previous installments look like models of classic filmmaking.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'There Is No Defence.'

The Juror

US 1996 118m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia (Irwin Winkler, Rob Cowan)

A sculptor, intimidated by a gangster to free a killer when serving on a jury, finds herself caught between the Mob and the law.

Routine woman-in-jeopardy movie that does not even maintain a sense of suspense.

w Ted Tally book George Dawes Green d Brian Gibson ph Jamie Anderson m James Newton Howard pd Jan Roelfs ed Robert Reitano

☆ Demi Moore, Alec Baldwin, Joseph Gordon-Levitt, Anne Heche, James Gandolfini, Lindsay Crouse, Tony Lo Bianco

'Has only a transitory impact – once seen, soon forgotten – though it does have its moments of inevitable chill.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review

Jury Duty

US 1995 86m Technicolor
TriStar/Triumph/Weasel (Yoran Ben-Ami, Peter M. Lenkov)

A layabout member of a jury attempts to prolong the trial of a serial killer so that he can continue to enjoy being sequestered in a luxury hotel.

Ineffably terrible comedy, a celebration of stupidity and tasteless jokes.

w Neil Tolkin, Barbara Williams, Samantha Adams d John Fortenberry ph Avi Karpick m David Kitay pd Deborah Raymond ed Stephen Semel

☆ Pauly Shore, Tia Carrere, Stanley Tucci, Brian Doyle-Murray, Abe Vigoda, Charles Napier, Richard Edson, Shelley Winters, Andrew Dice Clay (uncredited)

'Not only has the distinction of being one of the worst major studio releases of recent memory, it's also one of the most morally dubious.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

Jury's Evidence

GB 1935 71m bw
British Lion (Herbert Smith)

The jury in a murder trial disagrees.

Courtroom drama with an unsatisfactory finish.

w Ian Dalrymple play Jack de Leon, Jack Celestin d Ralph Ince ph George Stretton

☆ Hartley Power, Margaret Lockwood, Nora Swinburne, Sebastian Shaw

The Jury's Secret

US 1937 64m bw
Universal

The guilty man in a murder case is on the jury.

Slow-moving courtroom drama with an unsatisfactory twist.

w Lester Cole, Newman Levy d Edward Sloman

☆ Kent Taylor, Fay Wray, Jane Darwell, Nan Grey, Larry Blake, Fritz Leiber

'Doomed for no honours such as b.o.' – Variety

Just a Gigolo

US 1931 71m bw
MGM

A young lord masquerades as a gigolo to avoid being the prey of gold diggers.

Slackly handled comedy which doesn't come off.

w Hans Kraly, Richard Schayer, Claudine West d Jack Conway

☆ William Haines, Irene Purcell, C. Aubrey Smith, Lillian Bond

'Too much talk, too little action.' – Variety

Just a Gigolo

West Germany 1978 147m colour
Leguan (Rolf Thiele)

A young Prussian veteran of World War I intends to succeed, but stumbles through the Berlin underworld and is accidentally shot in a street skirmish.

An international misadventure whose English version is not only interminable and badly dubbed but extremely clumsily made.

w Ennio de Concini, Joshua Sinclair d David Hemmings ph Charly Steinberger m Gunther Fischer pd Peter Rothe

☆ David Bowie, Sydne Rome, Kim Novak, Marlene Dietrich, David Hemmings, Maria Schell, Curt Jurgens, Erika Pluhar

'It often goes for laughs it hasn't a hope of getting; sometimes it aspires to tragic dignity and looks truly inept. It would be kinder to yourself and to everybody involved to overlook it.' – Time Out

Just Across the Street

US 1952 78m bw
Universal-International/Leonard Goldstein

Complications arise when a plumber's secretary pretends to be rich.

Silly and pointless comedy which provides its talent with nothing to do.

w Roswell Rogers, Joel Malone d Joseph Pevney ph Maury Gertsman ed Virgil Vogel

☆ Ann Sheridan, John Lund, Robert Keith, Cecil Kellaway, Harvey Lembeck, Natalie Schafer, Alan Mowbray

'If you think you know her, think again.'

Just Another Girl on the I.R.T.

US 1992 97m colour
Metro Tartan/Miramax/Truth 24 F.P.S. (Erwin Wilson)

A 17-year-old rebellious black Brooklyn girl with aspirations to be a doctor becomes pregnant by a boy she meets at a party.

A sympathetic portrait of a teenager refusing to come to terms with reality, brightly performed but hampered by a script that sticks to the obvious and settles for an easy resolution.

wd Leslie Harris ph Richard Connors m Eric Sadler, Willie Bruno II pd Michael O'Dell Green ed Jack Haigis

☆ Ariyan A. Johnson, Kevin Thigpen, Ebony Jerido, Jerard Washington, Chequita Jackson

'A crude but disturbing exposé of teenage ignorance and denial about the facts of life on the streets and in the bedroom.' – Variety

'The movie's only strong point is its sharp and zappy cast. But hazy vision finally saps even their energy – just as the pasted-on happy ending mocks their efforts to keep things real.' – Cynthia Rose, Sight and Sound

Just Around the Corner

US 1938 70m bw
TCF (David Hempstead)

A little girl helps her dad to get on in business.

Tedious Little Miss Fixit tale from the period when Shirley's star was sliding.

w Ethel Hill, J. P. McEvoy, Darrell Ware d Irving Cummings ph Arthur Miller md Louis Silvers

☆ Shirley Temple, Charles Farrell, Bert Lahr, Joan Davis, Amanda Duff, Bill Robinson, Franklin Pangborn, Cora Witherspoon

'Top flight for general all-round entertainment.' – Variety

Just Before Dawn

US 1980 90m Movielab
Oakland

Visitors to a mountain area are terrorized by a cleaver-wielding killer.

Teenage shocker with just a little more style than most.

w Mark Arywitz, Gregg Irving d Jeff Lieberman

☆ George Kennedy, Mike Kellin, Chris Lemmon, Gregg Henry, Deborah Benson

Just Between Friends

US 1986 120m DeLuxe
Orion/MTM (Edward Teets, Allan Burns)

A middle-aged woman finds little excitement in her household, and fancies a lesbian relationship; but her husband dies and she finds herself pregnant.

Ho-hum melodrama of our time.

wd Allan Burns ph Jordan Cronenweth m Patrick Williams pd Sydney Z. Litwack

☆ Mary Tyler Moore, Ted Danson, Christine Lahti, Sam Waterston, Salome Jens

'The main difference between this and a TV movie is that this doesn't have commercials.' – Variety

'Buried deep in the Florida Everglades is a secret that can save an innocent man or let a killer kill again.'

Just Cause

US 1995 colour Panavision
Warner/Fountainbridge (Lee Rich, Arne Glimcher, Steve Perry)

A Harvard law professor goes to Florida to prove that a black youth awaiting execution for murder is innocent, accompanied by the detective who he claims beat him into confessing to the crime.

Lacklustre thriller that becomes increasingly silly and derivative the longer it lasts, so that it exhausts patience and credibility long before the end.

w Jeb Stuart, Peter Stone novel John Katzenbach d Arne Glimcher ph Lajos Koltai m James Newton Howard pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed William Anderson

☆ Sean Connery, Laurence Fishburne, Kate Capshaw, Blair Underwood, Ruby Dee, Ed Harris, Christopher Murray, Daniel J. Travanti, Ned Beatty, Scarlett Johansson

'We watch a passable investigative thriller spiral into an absurd, ineffectual melodrama.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Just for You

US 1952 104m Technicolor
Paramount (Pat Duggan)

A successful songwriter finds that his troublesome teenage son is in love with his own fiancée.

Tiresomely scripted, pleasantly played romantic comedy with music.

w Robert Carson novel Famous by Stephen Vincent Benet d Elliott Nugent ph George Barnes m Hugo Friedhofer m/ly Harry Warren, Leo Robin md Emil Newman

☆ Bing Crosby, Jane Wyman, Bob Arthur, Ethel Barrymore, Natalie Wood, Cora Witherspoon, Regis Toomey

song 'Zing a Little Zong'

'Some friends are just friends. Others you get to see naked.'

Just Friends

Germany/US/Canada 2005 95m DeLuxe
Momentum/New Line/Cinerenta/Benderspink/Cinezeta (Chris Bender, JC Spink, William Vince, Bill Johnson, Michael Ohoven)

A successful LA music executive returns home to woo the girl who rejected him ten years earlier, when he was a fat boy in high school.

Lacklustre comedy given to violent slapstick to get its laughs.

w Adam 'Tex' Davis d Roger Kumble ph Anthony B. Richmond m Jeff Cardoni pd Robb Wilson King ed Jeff Freeman

☆ Ryan Reynolds (Chris Brander), Amy Smart (Jamie Palamino), Anna Faris (Samantha James), Julie Hagerty (Carol Brander), Christopher Marquette (Mike Brander)

'A surprisingly shrewd and energetic romantic comedy.' – Justin Chang, Variety

'One is tempted to call this a comedy for those with short attention spans because many scenes contradict earlier scenes. In reality, no logic governs the characters or situations.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Just Heroes

Hong Kong 1989 96m colour
Magnum (Tsui Hark)

When a gang leader is assassinated, a power struggle begins among surviving members to succeed him and discover the identity of his killer.

A movie that grows misty-eyed and sentimental about ruthless killers; admirers of John Woo may enjoy the final shoot-out, with its jokey references to A Better Tomorrow (a film that all the best gangsters have evidently seen).

w Nieh Kuang, Tommy Hau d John Woo, Wu Ma ph Chu Wai Ki, Yee Tung Lung m Romeo Diaz, James Wong ad Ringo Cheung, Andy Lee ed Choi Hung

☆ John Chiang, Danny Lee, Chan Kwon Tai, Kelly Chu, Cally Kwong, Wu Ma, Ti Lung, Chiu Lui

Just Imagine

US 1930 102m bw
Fox

A man who dies in 1930 is revived in 1980 and can't get used to the pace of life.

Famous fantasy which doesn't live up to its reputation and can now be seen as hampered by poor sets, script and acting. Futuristic sets are few but choice.

d David Butler ph Ernest Palmer m Hugo Friedhofer md Arthur Kay ch Seymour Felix ad Stephen Goosson, Ralph Hammeras w/songs De Sylva, Brown, Henderson

☆ El Brendel, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Garrick, Frank Albertson, Marjorie White, Hobart Bosworth, Mischa Auer, Wilfred Lucas

'Needs to be sold in advance on its novelty angle ... it seems essential that something be done to make them say "Go down and take a look at that crazy picture".' – Variety

art direction

'She stole his heart. He stole her clothes.'

Just Like a Woman

GB 1992 106m Eastmancolor
Rank/Zenith/LWT/British Screen (Nick Evans)

An American living in London moves into lodgings after his wife throws him out, and reveals to his landlady that he is a transvestite.

Tedious comedy of minimal interest, even to cross-dressers.

w Nick Evans novel Geraldine, for the Love of a Transvestite by Monica Jay d Christopher Monger ph Alan Hume m Michael Storey pd John Box ed Nicolas Gaster

☆ Julie Walters, Adrian Pasdar, Paul Freeman, Susan Wooldridge, Gordon Kennedy, Ian Redford, Shelley Thompson

'The film remains poky, parochial, and its message is clear – no sex, please, we're British.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

'A tepid comedy of Anglo-Saxon inhibition.' – Philip French, Observer

'It was the perfect honeymoon... Until it began.'

Just Married

US/Germany 2003 95m DeLuxe
TCF/Mediastream 1 (Robert Simonds)

A young American couple's European honeymoon goes disastrously wrong.

Lax, slapstick comedy that makes one wish the couple had stayed at home.

w Sam Harper d Shawn Levy ph Jonathan Brown m Christophe Beck pd Nina Ruscio ed Don Zimmerman, Scott Hill

☆ Ashton Kutcher (Tom), Brittany Murphy (Sarah), Christian Kane (Peter Prentiss), David Moscow (Kyle), Monet Mazur (Lauren), David Rasche (Mr McNerney)

'Collapses into the most generic sort of teen movie-ville.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

Just My Luck

GB 1957 86m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)

A jeweller's assistant becomes involved in horse racing.

Flat star vehicle.

w Alfred Shaughnessy d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Cox m Philip Green

☆ Norman Wisdom, Jill Dixon, Leslie Phillips, Margaret Rutherford, Delphi Lawrence

'Good luck charm. Bad luck magnet.'

Just My Luck ②

US 2006 102m DeLuxe
TCF/New Regency/Cheyenne (Arnon Milchan, Arnold Rifkin, Donald Petrie)

When a supernaturally lucky PR girl kisses an unsuccessful manager of a boy-band, she loses her good fortune and transfers it to him.

Glossy, ineffably upbeat romantic comedy without a thought in its silly little head.

w I. Marlene King, Amy B. Harris d Donald Petrie ph Dean Semler m Teddy Castellucci pd Ray Kluga ed Debra Neil-Fisher

☆ Lindsay Lohan (Ashley Albright), Chris Pine (Jake Hardin), Faizon Love (Damon Phillips), Missi Pyle (Peggy Braden), Bree Turner (Dana), Samaire Armstrong (Maggie), Tovah Feldshuh (Madame Z)

'I can't think of a movie that matters less... It's just negligible.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

'Plays like a focus-group compilation of everything a 12-year-old girl could want in a Lindsay Lohan movie.' – Justin Chang, Variety

Just Off Broadway

US 1942 66m bw
TCF/Sol M. Wurtzel

Michael Shayne investigates a court case on which he is sitting as a juror.

Standard second feature mystery, reasonably well made.

w Arnaud D'Usseau d Herbert I. Leeds

☆ Lloyd Nolan, Marjorie Weaver, Phil Silvers, Janis Carter, Richard Derr, Chester Clute

Just Tell Me What You Want

US 1980 112m Technicolor
Warner/Jay Presson Allen, Sidney Lumet

A powerful tycoon starts to weave plots when one of his harem wants to go independent.

Thoroughly silly melodrama with a few incidental humours.

w Jay Presson Allen novel Jay Presson Allen d Sidney Lumet ph Oswald Morris m Charles Strouse pd Tony Walton

☆ Ali MacGraw, Alan King, Myrna Loy, Keenan Wynn, Tony Roberts, Dina Merrill, Peter Weller

'Jay Presson Allen has adapted her trashy novel into a trashy picture ... Myrna Loy looks as if she's constantly amazed at the kinds of films getting made these days, and she's absolutely right.' – Variety

'In love, you can't accept anything at face value.'

Just the Ticket

US 1998 115m DeLuxe
Entertainment/CineSon (Gary Lucchesi, Andy Garcia)

In order to impress his girfriend, a tout tries to corner the market in tickets for the Pope's Mass at Yankee Stadium.

Gritty romantic comedy with no spark between its stars, and not much comedy either.

wd Richard Wenk ph Ellen Kuras m Rick Marotta pd Franckie Diago ed Christopher Cibelli

☆ Andy Garcia, Andie MacDowell, Richard Bradford, Laura Harris, Andre Blake, Elizabeth Ashley, Patrick Breen, Fred Asparagus, Louis Mustillo, Ron Leibman, Chris Lemmon, Don Novello, Abe Vigoda, Irene Worth

'Even though his performance is passable, the only real romance on show in this vanity vehicle is Garcia's love affair with himself.' – Total Film

Just the Way You Are

US 1984 95m Metrocolor
MGM-UA (Leo L. Fuchs)

A young fluteplayer tries to carve a career for herself while overcoming a physical disability.

Odd little comedy-drama with little plot beyond the central character's crippled leg; not likely to make much headway.

w Allan Burns d Edouard Molinaro ph Claude Lecomte m Vladimir Cosmar ad François de Lamotte ed Claudio Ventura, Georges Klotz

☆ Kristy McNichol, Michael Ontkean, Kaki Hunter, André Dussolier, Robert Carradine

'They're Not Just From Another Time, They're From France.'

Just Visiting

US/France 2001 89m Technicolor Super 35
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Patrice Ledoux, Ricardo Mestres)

A wizard sends a French knight and his servant forward in time from the 12th century to Chicago in 2000.

A remake of the 1993 French movie Les Visiteurs that does not live up to the boisterous comedy of the original.

w Christian Clavier, Jean-Marie Poiré, John Hughes based on Les Visiteurs by Christian Clavier, Jean-Marié Poire d Jean-Marie Gaubert ph Ueli Steiger m John Powell pd Doug Kraner ed Michael A. Stevenson

☆ Jean Reno (Thibault), Christina Applegate (Rosalind/Julia), Christian Clavier (Andre), Matthew Ross (Hunter), Tara Reid (Angelique), Bridgette Wilson-Sampras (Amber), John Aylward (Byron), George Plimpton (Dr Brady), Malcolm McDowell (Wizard)

'One of those rare American remakes of a French film that preserves the flavor of the original and even improves upon it.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'If you have a barge pole, do not use it to touch this mirthless film.' – Philip French, Observer

Just William

GB 1939 94m bw
Associated British (Walter C. Mycroft)

William, hunting for bomb-carrying spies, foils a con man and helps his father in his campaign to become a local councillor.

The first and best of the William series, with a good cast and a genuine feeling for children's fantasy and anarchy.

w Graham Cutts, Doreen Montgomery, Ireland Wood novel Richmal Crompton d Graham Cutts ph Walter Harvey ad Cedric Dawe ed E. B. Jarvis

☆ Fred Emney, Basil Radford, Iris Hoey, Amy Veness, Dicky Lupino, Roddy McDowall, Norman Robinson, Peter Miles, Jenny Laird, David Tree

Just William's Luck

GB 1947 85m bw
Alliance (James Carter)

William tries to marry off his brother so that he can inherit his bicycle, and succeeds in foiling a gang of smugglers.

Limp comedy that fails to translate to the screen the verbal exuberance and mayhem of the novels.

wd Val Guest novel Richmal Crompton ph Bert Mason m Robert Farnon ad Harry Moore ed Anne Barker

☆ William Graham (William), Leslie Bradley (The Boss), Garry Marsh (Mr Brown), Jane Walsh (Mrs Brown), Hugh Cross (Robert), Kathleen Stuart (Ethel), Muriel Aked (Emily), Joan Hickson (Hubert's Mother), A. E. Matthews (The Tramp), Michael Medwin (Boss Gang Member), Michael Balfour (Jenks)

† It was followed by a sequel, William at the Circus (qv).

Just You and Me, Kid

US 1979 93m Metrocolor
Columbia/Irving Fein-Jerome M. Zeitman

An elderly comedian reluctantly takes care of a naked teenager on the run from a dope pusher.

Virtually a one-set comedy which quickly tires the eye and ear; not a good idea despite the veteran star.

w Oliver Hailey, Leonard Stern d Leonard Stern ph David Walsh m Jack Elliott

☆ George Burns, Brooke Shields, Burl Ives, Lorraine Gary, John Schuck, Keye Luke, Leon Ames, Ray Bolger, Carl Ballantine

Justice Est Faite ★

France 1950 105m bw
Silver Films

The personal lives of jurors in a mercy killing case affect their verdict.

Absorbing courtroom drama with a message.

w Charles Spaak, André Cayatte d André Cayatte ph Jean Bourgoin m Raymond Legrand

☆ Valentine Tessier, Claude Nollier, Jacques Castelot, Michel Auclair

Justice for Sale: see Night Court

Justine

US 1969 116m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Pandro S. Berman

In Alexandria in the thirties, the beautiful wife of a wealthy banker influences the lives of all who meet her.

Disastrous condensed version of a very unusual set of novels whose atmosphere has not translated at all well. The result is like a bad rehearsal for a film, which is not surprising in view of the number of producers variously involved. The author feared 'a sort of Peyton Place with camels', and got it.

w Lawrence B. Marcus novels The Alexandria Quartet by Lawrence Durrell
d George Cukor ph Leon Shamroy
m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Anouk Aimée, Michael York, Dirk Bogarde, Anna Karina, John Vernon, George Baker, Philippe Noiret, Robert Forster, Jack Albertson, Michael Dunn, Barry Morse, Cliff Gorman, Severn Darden

'Could well stand as a model of what can happen when Hollywood gets to grips with a celebrated literary property.' – David Wilson

'Despite leaden forays into homosexuality, transvestitism, incest, and child prostitution, it remains as naively old-fashioned in its emotional and intellectual vocabulary as in its actual verbiage and cinematic technique.' – John Simon

† The film is said to have been eight years in preparation. Joseph Strick was fired as director when the cast and crew returned to Los Angeles after shooting exteriors in Tunisia. Cukor, reported Michael York, 'made his disapproval of some of his inherited cast quite unambiguous. At the mention of our leading lady his face would flush.'

Justine and Julia: see Marquis de Sade: Justine

'The only way he can stay pro, is to play (like) a girl.'

Juwanna Mann

US 2001 91m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson, Steve Oedekerk, Bill Gerber)

A disgraced basketball player turns transvestite so that he can join a woman's team.
Mildly amusing cross-dressing comedy that cannot compare to either Tootsie or Some Like It Hot.
w Bradley Allenstein d Jesse Vaughan
ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Wendy Melvoin, Lisa Coleman pd Eve Cauley Turner ed Seth Flaum ☆ Miguel A. Nunez Jnr (Jamal Jefferies/Juwanna Mann), Vivica A. Fox (Michelle Langford), Kevin Pollak (Lorne Daniels), Tommy Davidson (Puff Smokey Smoke), Kim Wayans (Latisha Jansen), Jenifer Lewis (Aunt Ruby), Ginuwine (Romeo), Kimberly 'Lil' Kim' Jones (Tina Parker)

'Sloppy, amusing comedy that proceeds from a stunningly unoriginal premise.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'Hilarity does not ensue.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

Juyuso Seubgyuksageun: see Attack the Gas Station

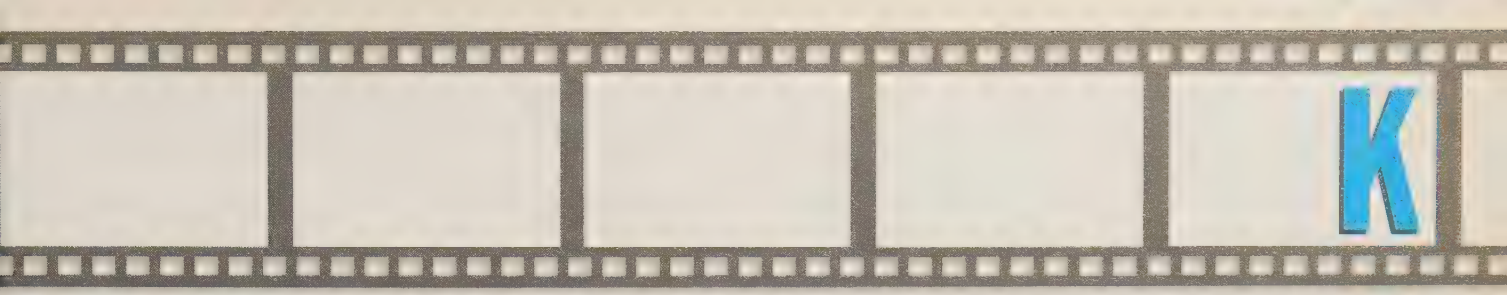
Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA



K2

US 1991 111m Technicolor
Entertainment/TransPacific/Majestic (Jonathan Taplin, Marilyn Weiner, Tim Van Rellim)

Two friends join an ill-assorted expedition to climb the Himalayan mountain K2.
A tame buddy-buddy movie that has nowhere to go but down.
w Patrick Myers, Scott Roberts play Patrick Myers d Franc Roddam ph Gabriel Beristain m Chaz Jankel pd Andrew Sanders ed Sean Barton
☆ Michael Biehn, Matt Craven, Raymond J. Barry, Hiroshi Fujioka, Luca Bercovici, Patricia Charbonneau, Julia Nickson-Soul, Jamal Shah

'Begins as mindlessly as it means to – and does – go on.' – Sight and Sound
'On this evidence, climbing K2 can't be any harder than sitting through it.' – Kim Newman, Empire

K9000

US 1989 90m colour
Fries Entertainment (J. Rickley Dunn)

A cop teams up with a cybernetic dog to bust a crime syndicate.
Witless compendium of action picture clichés.
w Steven E. de Souza, Michael Part d Kim Manners ph Frank Raymond m Jan Hammer pd Elliott Gilbert ed J. P. Farrell
☆ Chris Mulkey, Catherine Oxenberg, Dennis Haysbert, Dana Gladstone, Jerry Houser, Judson Scott, Anne Haney, Thom McFadden

KZ

★★ (5)

UK 2005 95m
Shooting People/Rex Entertainment (Rex Bloomstein)

In the Austrian village of Mauthausen, the site of a Nazi concentration camp where thousands of Jews perished has now been turned into a memorial museum.
A radically different Holocaust-themed film, with no footage from death camps, testimony from survivors, voiceover commentary or mournful music. Instead TV documentary veteran Bloomstein points his camera at the bland village's residents, some of whom live in houses built for the SS, and asks if they ever consider the carnage committed there. An admirable essay about remembrance and forgetting.
d Rex Bloomstein ph Alexander Boboschewski ed Richard Rhys Davies

'A beautifully understated, troubling achievement.' – Kieron Corless, Sight & Sound

'Fate has found its hero.'

K-19: The Widowmaker

★

US/Germany/GB 2002 138m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/IntermediaNational Geographic/Palomar/First Light/IMF (Kathryn Bigelow, Joni Sighvatsson, Christine Whitaker, Edward S. Feldman)

The crew of a Russian nuclear submarine face disaster when it malfunctions on its maiden voyage.
Much like many other submarine adventures in its slick but shallow way, this still provides enough suspense to keep its audience watching.
w Christopher Kyle story Louis Nowra
d Kathryn Bigelow ph Jeff Cronenweth
m Klaus Badelt pd Karl Juliusson , Michael Novotny ed Walter Murch sp Bruce Jones, John Nelson; ILM
☆ Harrison Ford (Alexei Vostrikov), Liam Neeson (Mikhail Polenin), Peter Sarsgaard (Vadim Radtchenko), Joss Ackland (Marshal Zelentstov), John Shrapnel (Admiral Bratyeev), Donald Sumpter (Dr Savran), Tim Woodward (Partonov), Steve Nicholson (Demichev)

'The movie is efficient enough, but its dramatic freight includes every submarine cliché in the ship's manifesto.' – Philip French, Observer
'Piles up one nerve-racking crisis after another, interspersed with moments of ethereal, almost otherworldly beauty.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

'Meet the two toughest cops in town. One's just a little smarter than the other.'

K-9

US 1988 102m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal (Lawrence Gordon, Charles Gordon)

A narcotics cop teams up with an Alsatian.
A not-so-shaggy dog story with a couple of laughs.
w Steven Siegel, Scott Myers d Rod Daniel ph Dean Semler m Miles Goodman
pd George Costello ed Lois Freeman-Fox
☆ James Belushi, Mel Harris, Kevin Tighe, Ed O'Neill, Jerry Lee, James Handy, Daniel Davis, Cotter Smith, John Snyder, Pruitt Taylor Vince

'Change The Way You Look At The World.'
'Celebrate The Possibilities.'

K-Pax

US 2001 121m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Intermedia/IMF (Lawrence Gordon, Lloyd Levin, Robert F. Colesberry)

A psychiatrist examines a man who claims to be an alien from the planet K-Pax.
Watchable performances from the two leads save this shaggy dog story from seeming quite as pointless as it is.
w Charles Leavitt novel Gene Brewer
d Iain Softley ph John Mathieson pd John Beard ed Craig McKay
sp Centropolis Effects cos Louise Mingenbach
☆ Kevin Spacey (Prot), Jeff Bridges (Dr Mark Powell), Mary McCormack (Rachel Powell), Alfre Woodard (Claudia Villars), David Patrick Kelly (Howie), Saul Williams (Ernie), Peter Gerety (Sal), Celia Weston (Mrs Archer)

'Gives off a great deal of light but generates little heat in a drama that aspires to cosmic themes but ends up with plain, comforting homilies.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'As a brainless laugh riot, it's as funny as a flu epidemic. As a drama, it's an unintentional Robin Williams vehicle sour beyond its shelf life.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

Kàdisbellan: see The Slingshot

'In A World Of Ancient Traditions'

Kadosh

★

Israel/France/Italy 1999 117m colour
Downtown/Agav Hafakot/MP/Canal+/Mikado (Amos Gitai, Michel Propper)

Despite being in love with his wife of ten years, an ultra-orthodox Jew follows his rabbi's advice and divorces her so that he can have children.
Set in modern-day Jerusalem, this is a tragic, well-told story of conflicting demands and religious orthodoxy, but one that secular audiences will find easy to ignore.
w Eliette Abecassis, Amos Gitai d Amos Gitai ph Renato Berta m Louis Sclavis pd Miguel Markin ed Monica Coleman, Kobi Netanel cos Laura Dinolesko ☆ Yoram Hattab (Meir), Yael Abecassis (Rivka), Meital Barda (Malka), Uri Klauzner (Yossef), Yussuf Abu-Warda (Rav Shimon), Lea Koenig (Elisheva), Sami Hori (Yaakov), Rivka Michaeli (Gynaecologist), Samuel Calderon (Uncle Shmouel), David Cohen (Shlomo)

'A surprisingly affecting love story.' – Patrick Peters, Empire
'Slow, stifling and beautifully shot.' – James Christopher, Times

Kafka

★

US/France 1991 98m bw/colour
Guild/Renn/Baltimore/Pricel (Stuart Cornfeld, Harry Benn)

A timid insurance clerk finds himself drawn into an anarchist plot when he investigates the disappearance of a friend.
An intriguing attempt to create a paranoid fiction combining elements of Kafka's life and his stories; it is stylish though not entirely successful, closer to the basics of a horror movie than to its author's works.
w Lem Dobbs d Steven Soderbergh ph Walt Lloyd m Cliff Martinez pd Gavin Bocquet ed Steven Soderbergh ☆ Jeremy Irons, Theresa Russell, Joel Grey, Ian Holm, Jeroen Krabbé, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Alec Guinness, Brian Glover, Robert Flemyng

'Soderbergh's film has few surprises because he sticks too matter-of-factly to Kakfa basics, where others have spun out their own distinctive take.' – Nick James, Sight and Sound
'Soderbergh's most entertaining, least pretentious film to date, this is weirdly recommended.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Kagemusha

★★★

Japan 1980 179m Eastmancolor
TCF/Toho (Akira Kurosawa)

aka: The Double
aka: Shadow Warrior

On the death of a clan chief his place is taken by the lookalike hired to overlook battlefields while the chief is really busy elsewhere.
Fascinating Japanese epic centring on stately ritual and court intrigue, with the occasional battle for spectacular action; one of the director's most impressive works.
w Akira Kurosawa, Masato Ide d Akira Kurosawa ph Kazuo Miyagawa, Asakazu Nakai m Shinichiro Ikebe ad Yoshiro Muraki ☆ Tatsuya Nakadai (Shingen Takeda/Thief), Tsutomu Yamazaki (Nobukado Takeda), Kenichi Hagiwara (Katsuyori Takeda), Kota Yui (Takemaru Takeda), Hideo Murata (Nobuharu Baba), Takayuki Shiho (Masatoyo Natio), Shuhei Sugimori (Masanobu Kosaka), Noboru Shimizu (Masatane Hara)

'Probably the director's most physically elaborate, most awesome film, full of magnificent views of lines of mounted soldiers slowly crossing grand landscapes.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times best foreign film; art direction direction; costume design

Kakushi Ken: Oni No Tsume: see The Hidden Blade

Kakushi Toride No San-Akunin: see The Hidden Fortress

El Kalaa

★

Algeria 1988 98m Eastmancolor
Metro/Le Centre Algérien de l'Art et l'Industrie Cinématographique (Tahar Harhoura)

aka: The Citadel

A merchant runs into opposition when he decides to take a fourth wife.
Successful on the level of a village soap opera.
wd Mohamed Chouikh ph Allel Yahyaoui ad Zerrouki Boukhari, Ahmed Kobbi
ed Yamina Chouikh
☆ Khaled Barkat, Djillali Ain Tedelles, Fettouma Ousliha, Fatima Belhadj, Momo

'The switched-on thriller!!!'

Kaleidoscope

★

GB 1966 103m Technicolor
Warner/Winkast (Elliott Kastner)

reissue title: The Bank Breaker

An American playboy breaks into a playing card factory and marks the designs so that he can win in every European casino.
Would-be swinging comedy-thriller which in fact is entertaining only when it stops trying to dazzle.
w Robert and Jane Howard-Carrington
d Jack Smight ph Christopher Challis
m Stanley Myers ad Maurice Carter

☆ Warren Beatty, Susannah York, Clive Revill, Eric Porter, Murray Melvin

'A "groovie movie" it certainly is, with a battery of fashionable camera tricks, kaleidoscopic dissolves, and virtually every scene introduced from behind an irrelevant piece of furniture.' – David Wilson

'Fear Never Travels Alone.'

Kalifornia

US 1993 118m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Rank/Propaganda/Polygram/Viacom (Tim Clawson)

A couple driving across America to write about and photograph sites of murders unwittingly have as travelling companions a killer and his girlfriend.
An unlovely road movie, simultaneously violent and smug – and too knowing for its own good.
w Tim Metcalfe d Dominic Sena
ph Bojan Bazelli m Carter Burwell
pd Michael White ed Martin Hunter
☆ Brad Pitt, Juliette Lewis, David Duchovny, Michelle Forbes, Sierra Pecheur, Gregory Mars Martin

'An extremely handsome production imbued with a chilling surrealistic sensibility.' – Variety

'Looks a treat, tells what ought to be a fascinating story but ends up wallowing in its own pretensions.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Submit to love and feel the pain of too much tenderness.'

Kama Sutra ②

India/GB/Japan/Germany 1996 114m Technicolor
Film Four/Rasa/NDF/Pony Canyon/Pandora/Mirabai (Mira Nair, Lydia Dean Pilcher)

In 16th-century India, a servant girl seeks sexual freedom after she is cast out of the court for seducing the king just before his marriage to her childhood friend.
Exotic settings and beautiful women fail to enliven a dull movie, peopled by cardboard characters mouthing romantic clichés.
w Helena Kriel, Mira Nair d Mira Nair
ph Declan Quinn m Mark Friedberg
ed Kristina Boden
☆ Naveen Andrews, Sarita Choudhury, Ramon Tikaram, Rekha, Indira Varma, Pearl Padamsee, Arundhati Rao

'Reactionary soft-core erotica that could be sold as "Emmanuelle Goes to Bollywood".' – Philip French, Observer

Kameradschaft ★

Germany 1931 92m bw Nerofilm
aka: Comradeship

On the Franco-German border French miners are imprisoned below ground and Germans burrow to free them.
Salutary message film with good dramatic pointing.
w Laszlo Vajda, Karl Otten, Peter Martin Lampel d G. W. Pabst ph Fritz Arno Wagner, Robert Baberski
☆ Ernst Busch, Alexander Granach, Fritz Kampers, Gustav Puttjer

Kamikaze

France 1986 89m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Blue Dolphin/Les Films du Loup/ARP/Gaumont (Luc Besson)

An electronics engineer develops a deadly weapon that can kill anyone appearing live on television.
Weak thriller that fails to make anything of its silly central concept.
w Luc Besson, Didier Grousset d Didier Grousset ph Jean-François Robin m Eric Serra ed Olivier Mauffroy
☆ Richard Bohringer, Michel Galabru, Dominique Lavanant, Riton Leibman, Kim Massee, Harry Cleven, Romane Bohringer, Etienne Chicot, Philippe Girard

'When the action stops and the talking starts, the amiable triviality of the whole exercise becomes tediously apparent.' – Philip Strick, MFB

Kamikaze Girls ★

Japan 2004 100m colour
Toho/Shimotsuma Story Film Partners (Yuji Ishida, Takashi Hirano)

original title: Shimotsuma Monogatari

Stuck in a small rural town, the daughter of a Tokyo gangster designs dresses based on her dream of 18th-century France and becomes friends with a tough, biker girl.
Candy-coloured fantasy with occasional flashes of imaginative inspiration.
wd Tetsuya Nakashima novel Shimotsuma Story by Novala Takemoto ph Shoichi Ato
m Yoko Kanno ad Towako Kuwashima
ed Chiaki Toyama sp Masahide Yanagawase ☆ Kyoko Fukada (Momoko), Anna Tsuchiya (Ichiko), Hiroyuki Miyasako (Momoko's father), Ryoko Shinohara (Momoko's mother)

'What the film does say, with infectious exuberance, is that in a world in which shopping is a Cartesian truism – in the immortal words of Barbara Kruger, "I shop therefore I am" – it's so much nicer to go with a friend.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

Kanal ★★★

Poland 1956 97m bw
Film Polski (Stanislaw Adler)

aka: They Loved Life

In 1944, an anti-Nazi resistance group is trapped in a sewer.
There is no escape from the grim and suffocating realities of Wajda's excellent, if hard to watch, film. It is a tense and disturbing account of a heroic but futile resistance.
w Jerzy Stawinski novel Kloakerne by Jerzy Stawinski d Andrzej Wajda ph Jerzy Lipman m Jan Krenz ad Roman Mann
ed Halina Nawrocka
☆ Teresa Izewska (Daisy Stokrotka), Tadeusz Janczar (Corporal Korab), Emil Kariewicz (Madry), Wienczylaw Glinski (Lieutenant Zadra)

Kanchenjungha ★★

India 1962 102m colour
NCA Productions

During an afternoon on holiday in Darjeeling, a domineering father tries to arrange his daughter's marriage to an older, eligible bachelor.
Leisurely examination of attitudes to love and marriage and of the relationship between the sexes. It was Ray's first film in colour.
wd Satyajit Ray ph Subrata Mitra
m Satyajit Ray ad Bansi Chandragupta
ed Dulal Dutta
☆ Chhabi Biswas, Anil Chatterjee, Karuna Banerjee, Anubha Gupta, Subrata Sen, Sibani Singh, Alaknanda Roy, Arun Mukherjee, N. Viswanathan

'Under the primitive working circumstances, the story about love and ambition and the collision of cultures was perhaps too complex, but the setting and the beautiful women help to compensate for the awkwardness and naiveté.' – Pauline Kael

Kandahar: see Safar é Ghandehar

Kangaroo

US 1952 84m Technicolor
TCF (Robert Bassler)

In old Australia, a con man pretends to be a rancher's long-lost heir, then complicates things by falling in love with the rancher's daughter.
Standard romantic action hokum.
w Harry Kleiner d Lewis Milestone
ph Charles G. Clarke m Sol Kaplan
☆ Maureen O'Hara, Peter Lawford, Finlay Currie, Richard Boone, Chips Rafferty, Charles Tingwell

Kangaroo ★

Australia 1987 110m colour
Panavision
Ross Dimsey

After the First World War, an English writer and his German-born wife decide to settle in Australia, where they become involved with the leader of a secret fascist organization, who plans to become the country's dictator.
Effective treatment of Lawrence's semi-autobiographical novel, attacking what he saw as England's cultural decline, with Friels's performance based firmly upon the personality of its author.
w Evan Jones novel D. H. Lawrence
d Tim Burstall ph Dan Burstall
m Nathan Waks pd Tracy Watt
ed Edward McQueen-Mason
☆ Colin Friels, Judy Davis, Hugh Keays-Byrne, John Walton, Julie Nihill, Peter Hehir, Peter Cummins
† The film was made in 1985 and not released for two years.

'He stole the money... and he's not giving it back.'

Kangaroo Jack

US 2003 89m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Castle Rock (Jerry Bruckheimer)

A Brooklyn hairdresser and his friend, a petty crook, chase around Australia after a kangaroo that hops off with a package they were meant to deliver to an associate of his gangster stepfather.
Simple-minded farce about stupid people that is a familiar mixture of crass and tasteless jokes and broad slapstick; it has all the subtlety and humour of a punch on the nose.
w Steve Bing, Scott Rosenberg d David McNally ph Peter Menzies Jnr pd George Liddle ed John Murray, William Goldenberg sp Secret Lab
☆ Jerry O'Connell (Charlie Carbone), Anthony Anderson (Louis Booker), Estella Warren (Jessie), Michael Shannon (Frankie), Christopher Walken (Sal Maggio), Bill Hunter (Blue), Marton Csokas (Mr Smith), David Ngoombujarra (Mr Jimmy)

'Shrill and silly farce in which a CGI marsupial seems more lifelike than most of its flesh-and-blood co-stars.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'I'll make this town keep the peace – if I have to blow it to pieces!'

The Kansan

US 1943 79m bw
UA (Harry Sherman)

A wandering marksman stops off to become marshal of a frontier town.
Solid routine Western with good performances.
w Harold Shumate book Frank Gruber
d George Archainbaud m Gerard Carbonara
☆ Richard Dix, Albert Dekker, Jane Wyatt, Eugene Pallette, Victor Jory, Robert Armstrong, Clem Bevans, Hobart Cavanaugh, Willie Best
♗ Gerard Carbonara

Kansas

US 1988 106m colour
Cannon/Trans World Entertainment (George Litto)

A drifter falls foul of a crook and in love with a farmer's daughter.
Well-photographed wide open spaces that are empty of interest.
w Spencer Eastman d David Stevens
ph David Eggby m Pino Donaggio
pd Matthew Jacobs ed Robert Barrere
☆ Andrew McCarthy, Matt Dillon, Leslie Hope, Brent Jennings, Kyra Sedgwick, Harry Northup, Arlen Dean Snyder

Kansas City ★

US 1996 115m CFI color
Electric/Sandcastle 5/CiBy 2000 (Robert Altman)

The wife of a petty thief, who is being held captive by a powerful gangster, kidnaps a politician's drug-addicted wife in a bid to get her husband released.
Muddled story of power and corruption in Kansas City of the 30s, though admirers of the blues-tinged jazz of the period will appreciate the wonderful music on display.
w Robert Altman, Frank Barhydt d Robert Altman ph Oliver Stapleton m John Cale
pd Stephen Altman ed Geraldine Peroni
☆ Jennifer Jason Leigh, Miranda Richardson, Harry Belafonte, Michael Murphy, Dermot Mulroney, Steve Buscemi

'The film-making seems almost careless, and often perfunctory, as if Altman's memories – a mixture of fond nostalgia and his usual acerbic irony – aren't quite clear enough for the deal in hand.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Kansas City Bomber

US 1972 99m Metrocolor
MGM/Levy-Gardner-Laven/Raquel Welch (Marty Elfand)

A roller skating star finds time between affairs to beat her rival in a big match.
Vulgar melodrama with good action scenes.
w Thomas Rickman, Calvin Clements
d Jerrold Freedman ph Fred Koenekamp
m Don Ellis
☆ Raquel Welch, Kevin McCarthy, Norman Alden, Jeanne Cooper

Kansas City Confidential

US 1952 98m bw
United Artists/Edward Small

GB title: The Secret Four

An ex-detective plans a perfect crime, and recruits three confederates who all remain unknown to each other by wearing masks.
Moderately lively if violent thriller which gets less inventive as it goes along but satisfies the action buffs.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w George Bruce, Harry Essex d Phil Karlson ph George Diskant m Paul Sawtell ☆ Preston Foster, John Payne, Coleen Gray, Lee Van Cleef, Neville Brand, Jack Elam, Dona Drake

Kansas City Princess

US 1934 64m bw
Warner (Lou Edelman)
Gold diggers go to Paris.
Light farce comedy, somewhat lacking in punch.
w Sy Bartlett, Manuel Seff d William Keighley ☆ Joan Blondell, Glenda Farrell, Hugh Herbert, Robert Armstrong, Osgood Perkins, Hobart Cavanaugh
'Just a comedy, good for better than moderate biz.' – Variety

Kansas Raiders

US 1951 80m Technicolor
Universal-International
During the Civil War, Jesse James joins Quantrill's Raiders.
Fast-moving, fairly violent Western only remotely based on fact.
w Robert L. Richards d Ray Enright ph Irving Glassberg m Joseph Gershenson ad Bernard Herzbrun, Emrich Nicholson ed Milton Carruth ☆ Audie Murphy, Brian Donlevy, Marguerite Chapman, Scott Brady, Tony Curtis, Richard Arlen, James Best, Richard Long

Kaos ★★

Italy 1984 188m Eastmancolor
RAI-TV/Filmtre (Giuliano de Negri)
Five stories by Pirandello are combined in settings near his birthplace.
Generally fascinating mixture of tales which range from comedy to horror, styled by master film-makers.
wd Paolo and Vittorio Taviani ph Giuseppe Lanci m Nicola Piovani ed Roberto Perignani ☆ Margarita Lozano, Claudio Bigagli, Enrica Maria Modugno, Ciccio Ingrassia, Franco Franchi, Biagio Barone, Omero Antonutti

Kapo

Italy/France 1960 115m bw
Vides/Zebra/Francinex
A French Jewess survives the horrors of a Nazi concentration camp and becomes camp guard.
Curious exploitation piece which turns tragedy into melodrama, and doesn't even do that with much flair.
w Franco Solinas, Gillo Pontecorvo d Gillo Pontecorvo ph Goffredo Bellisario, Alexander Sekulovic m Carlo Rustichelli
☆ Susan Strasberg, Laurent Terzieff, Emmanuelle Riva
♗ best foreign film

Karakter: see Character

The Karate Kid ★

US 1984 127m Metrocolor
Columbia/Delphi II (Jerry Weintraub)
A teenage boy, new to California, joins a karate club and defeats the local bullies.
A kind of amateur Rocky, not bad in its way, but its huge commercial success in the US remains mystifying.
w Robert Mark Kamen d John G. Avildsen ph James Crabe m Bill Conti pd William J. Cassidy ed Bud Smith, Walt Mulconery
☆ Ralph Macchio, Noriyuki 'Pat' Morita, Elisabeth Shue, Martin Kove, Randee Heller, William Zabka
♗ Pat Morita (supporting actor)

Karate Kid III

US 1989 112m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar (Jerry Weintraub)
The karate kid defeats villains who attempt to humiliate him.
Even less interesting than Part II.
w Robert Mark Kamen d John G. Avildsen ph Stephen Yaconelli m Bill Conti pd William F. Matthews ed John Carter, John G. Avildsen
☆ Ralph Macchio, Noriyuki 'Pat' Morita, Robyn Lively, Thomas Ian Griffith, Martin L. Kove, Sean Kanan, Jonathan Avildsen
'Young love, meanwhile, has rarely been shown so boringly on screen.' – MFB

The Karate Kid Part II

US 1986 113m DeLuxe
Columbia/Delphi II (Jerry Weintraub)
Daniel's teacher heads back to Okinawa where his father is gravely ill.
Tedious attempt to spin out a surprise hit; no surprises this time.
w Robert Mark Kamen d John G. Avildsen ph James Crabe m Bill Conti pd William J. Cassidy ed David Garfield, Jane Kurson, John G. Avildsen
☆ Pat Morita, Ralph Macchio, Nobu McCarthy, Danny Kamekona
♗ song 'Glory of Love'

The Karate Killers

US 1967 90m Metrocolor
MGM/Arena (Boris Ingster)
The men from U.N.C.L.E. foil enemy agents who steal a formula for making gold out of sea water.
Comic-strip spy spoof, featuring two incompetent agents who are forever being knocked out by the opposition, even when it's no stronger than geisha girls; a starry cast is given very little to do.
w Norman Hudis story Boris Ingster d Barry Shear ph Fred Koenekamp m Richard Shores ad George W. Davis
☆ Robert Vaughn, David McCallum, Joan Crawford, Curt Jurgens, Telly Savalas, Herbert Lom, Terry Thomas, Leo G. Carroll, Kim Darby, Diane McBain
† The film was edited from episodes of the television series The Man from U.N.C.L.E.

Kåre John: see Dear John

Kárhozat: see Damnation

Kaspar Hauser

Germany 1993 139m colour
Arrow/Multimedia München/WDR/ORF/SVT/ARTE/Telepool/LFA (Andreas Meyer) original title: Verbrechen am Seelenleben eines Menschens
The heir to the throne of Baden becomes a pawn in a European power struggle; he is imprisoned for years, set free when he is unable to talk, but is still unable to escape his enemies.
A complex political drama that overwhelms the human interest of its story; it pales in comparison with Werner Herzog's The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser (qv).
wd Peter Sehr ph Gernot Roll m Nikos Mamangakis ad O. Jochen Schmidt, Karel Vacek ed Heidi Handorf, Susanne Hartmann
☆ André Eisermann, Udo Samel, Jeremy Clyde, Katharina Thalbach, Cécile Paoli, Hansa Czypionka, Dieter Mann
'It ends up as Dynasty in funny wigs, although much cruder, submerging the fascinating story at its core with coarse couplings and obscure plot points.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
† It was originally shown in a version that ran for 182m.

Katakuri-Ke No Koufuku: see The Happiness Of The Katakuris

'If they lived in the same century they'd be perfect for each other.'

Kate and Leopold

US 2001 121m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Miramax (Cathy Konrad)
An English duke is transported from 1876 to the present day, where he falls in love with a market researcher.
Vapid romantic comedy, with its endorsement of the past as a time when men were men and women did as they were told.
w Steven Rogers, James Mangold d James Mangold ph Stuart Dryburgh m Rolfe Kent pd Mark Friedberg ed David Brenner
☆ Meg Ryan (Kate McKay), Hugh Jackman (Leopold), Liev Schreiber (Stuart Bessler), Breckin Meyer (Charlie McKay), Natasha Lyonne (Darci), Bradley Whitford (J. J. Camden), Paxton Whitehead (Uncle Millard), Spalding Gray (Dr Geisler), Philip Bosco (Otis)
'Thoroughly predictable but surprisingly pleasant.' – San Francisco Examiner
♗ song 'Until' (m/l Sting)

Kate Plus Ten

GB 1938 81m bw
Wainwright (Richard Wainwright)
A police inspector falls for the attractive female leader of a bullion gang.
Curious comedy thriller with insufficient of either commodity.
w Jack Hulbert, Jeffrey Dell novel Edgar Wallace d Reginald Denham ph Roy Kellino m Allan Gray ad D. L. W. Daniels ed E. M. Hunter
☆ Jack Hulbert, Genevieve Tobin, Noel Madison, Francis L. Sullivan, Arthur Wontner, Frank Cellier, Googie Withers, Peter Haddon, Felix Aylmer, Leo Genn, Edward Lexy

Kathleen

US 1941 88m bw MGM (George Haight)
A neglected daughter finds a new wife for her widowed father.
One of the reasons for Shirley Temple's early retirement.
w Mary McCall Jnr story Kay Van Riper d Harold S. Bucquet ph Sidney Wagner m Franz Waxman ☆ Shirley Temple, Herbert Marshall, Laraine Day, Gail Patrick, Felix Bressart, Nella Walker, Lloyd Corrigan

Kathy O

US 1958 99m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
U-I (Sy Gomberg)
A temperamental child star befriends a lonely columnist.
Overlong Hollywood comedy drama with amusing moments.
w Jack Sher, Sy Gomberg d Jack Sher ph Arthur E. Arling m Frank Skinner m/ly Charles Tobias, Ray Joseph ☆ Patty McCormack, Dan Duryea, Jan Sterling, Sam Levene

Katia Ismailova ★

France/Russia 1994 94m colour
Films du Rivage/Studio TTL/Lumière/CNC/Gorki Studios (Marc Ruscart, Igor Tolstunov) original title: Podmoskovnye vechera
A woman who acts as secretary to her husband's mother, a romantic novelist, begins an affair with a carpenter during a stay at her mother-in-law's rural retreat.
An updated version of Nikolai Leskov's story of passion, murder and class conflict, with the passion downplayed; it has a certain fascination, though.
w Alla Krinitsyna, François Gérif, Cécile Vargaftig novella Maria Sheptunova, Stanislav Govorukhin d Valerii Todorovsky ph Sergei Koslov m Leonid Dessiatnikov ad Aleksandr Osipov ed Hélène Gargarin, Alla Streinikova ☆ Ingeborga Dapkunaite, Vladmir Mashkov, Alisa Freindlikh, Aleksandr Feklistov, Yuri Kuznetsov
'Slyly sustained noir atmosphere puts across the classic murder-without-remorse narrative.' – Variety † Leskov's story Katarina Ismailova was also the basis for Shostakovich's opera Lady Macbeth of the Mtsensk District, which was filmed in 1966 by Mikhail Shapiro, starring Galina Vishnevskaya.

Katie Did It

US 1951 81m bw
Universal-International (Leonard Goldstein)
A small town is shocked when young Katie comes back having posed in scanty attire for a commercial artist.
Feeble comedy which totters to a lame conclusion.
w Jack Henley d Frederick de Cordova ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner
☆ Ann Blyth, Mark Stevens, Cecil Kellaway, Elizabeth Patterson, Jesse White, Harold Vermilyea, Craig Stevens

Katie's Passion: see Keetje Tippel

Katina: see Iceland

Katinka ★

Denmark/Sweden 1988 96m colour
Nordisk Film/AB Svensk Filmindustri (Bo Christensen)
The wife of a village station master and a new farm foreman fall in love.
Intense domestic tragedy, in the manner of Ingmar Bergman.
w Klaus Rifberg novel Ved Vejen by Herman Bang d Max von Sydow ph Sven Nykvist m Georg Riedel ed Janus Billeskov Jansen
☆ Tammi Øst, Ole Ernest, Kurt Ravn

Kavkazskii Plennik: see Prisoner of the Mountains

Kazaam

US 1996 93m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Interscope/PolyGram (Scott Kroopf, Paul M. Glaser, Bob Engelman)
An unhappy boy, searching for his father, a petty criminal, finds a genie who grants him three wishes.
Grim fantasy of minimal interest, other than to watch an attempt to turn a sporting baseball hero into a film star.
w Christian Ford, Roger Soffer story Paul Michael Glaser d Paul Michael Glaser ph Charles Minsky m Christopher Tyng pd Donald Burt ed Michael E. Polokow ☆ Shaquille O'Neal, Francis Capra, Ally Walker, James Acheson, Marshall Manesh, Fawn Reed, John Costelloe, JoAnne Hart

'Too gritty, violent and downbeat for tykes, it's also a bit juvenile and fairy tale-like for teens and older auds.' – Godfrey Cheshire, Variety

Keane

US 2005 94m
TCF/Populist Pictures/Studio Fierberg (Andrew Fierberg)

A mentally unstable man haunts a bus terminal, from where he claims his daughter was abducted.
Jolting, disturbing piece that confronts audiences with the unsettling, obsessive side of mental disorder. Writer-director Kerrigan is clearly a distinctive talent, while this is a bravura performance from Lewis, who appears in almost every scene – often in uncomfortable close-up.
wd Lodge Kerrigan ph John Foster pd Petra Barchi ad Peter Yesair ed Andrew Hafitz ☆ Damian Lewis (William Keane), Abigail Beslin (Kira), Amy Ryan (Lynn), Tina Holmes (Michelle)
'Keane is emotionally involving right from the beginning, through its final frame.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times
'Fiercely compelling character study.' – Tom Dawson, BBC
† Executive producer Steven Soderbergh's alternate cut can be seen on the DVD.

The Keep

US 1983 93m Metrocolor Scope
Paramount (Gene Kirkwood, Howard W. Koch Jnr)

German troops in 1941 occupy a castle in the Carpathian Alps, and discover that it contains an evil force.
Extraordinary combination of war and fantasy fiction, not entirely dissimilar from Castle Keep which had a similar exposition.
wd Michael Mann novel F. Paul Wilson ph Alex Thomson m Tangerine Dream
☆ Scott Glenn, Alberta Watson, Jurgen Prochnow, Robert Prosky, Gabriel Byrne, Ian McKellen

Keep an Eye on Amelia: see Occupe-Toi d'Amélie

Keep 'Em Flying

US 1941 86m bw
Universal (Glenn Tryon)

Two incompetents in the Army Air Corps get mixed up with identical twin girls.
A big moneymaker of its day, this comedy now seems especially resistible.
w True Boardman, Nat Perrin, John Grant d Arthur Lubin ph Joseph Valentine m Frank Skinner
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Martha Raye, Carol Bruce, William Gargan, Dick Foran, Charles Lang
♫ song 'Pig Foot Pete' (m Gene de Paul, ly Don Raye)

Keep Fit

GB 1937 82m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

A barber mistaken for an athlete finally excels at sport and also catches a thief.
Good star vehicle with snappy songs and fast comedy scenes.
w Anthony Kimmins, Austin Melford d Anthony Kimmins ph Ronald Neame, Gordon Dines m/ly Harry Gifford, Fred E. Cliffe ad Wilfred Shingleton ed Ernest Aldridge
☆ George Formby, Kay Walsh, Guy Middleton, Gus McNaughton, Edmund Breon, George Benson, C. Denier Warren, Hal Gordon, Hal Walters, Leo Franklyn

Keep It Up Downstairs

GB 1976 94m Technicolor
EMI/Pyramid (Hazel Adair)

A bed-hopping aristocratic family are faced with losing their ancestral home.
Dire sex farce that apes but fails to emulate the low style of the Carry On movies.
w Hazel Adair d Robert Young ph Alan Pudney m Michael Nyman ad Jacqueline Charrott-Lodwige ed Mike Campbell
☆ Diana Dors, Jack Wild, William Rushton, Aimi MacDonald, Françoise Pascal, Neil Hallett, Julian Orchard
'The cast, required to bare breasts and buttocks at regular intervals, is able to make no headway against the inane script and consistently mistimed direction.' – Verina Glaessner, MFB

Keep Smiling

GB 1938 91m bw
TCF (Robert T. Kane)
US title: Smiling Along

Problems of a touring concert party.
Pretty good star vehicle, though with unfortunate signs of an attempt to glamorize Our Gracie.
w Val Valentine, Rodney Ackland story Sandor Farago, Alexander G. Kemedi d Monty Banks ph Max Greene md Bretton Byrd ad Oscar Werndorff ed James B. Clark ☆ Gracie Fields, Roger Livesey, Mary Maguire, Peter Coke, Jack Donohue, Tommy Fields, Eddie Gray, Edward Rigby, Hay Petrie

Keep Smiling

US 1938 77m bw
TCF (John Stone)

The niece of a Hollywood director finds him on the skids.
More than usually substantial star comedy-drama.
w Frances Hyland, Albert Ray story Frank Fenton, Lynn Root d Herbert I. Leeds ph Edward Cronjager md Samuel Kaylin
☆ Jane Withers, Henry Wilcoxon, Gloria Stuart, Helen Westley, Jed Prouty, Pedro de Cordoba, Douglas Fowley
'A kids' picture with an adult punch.' – Variety

Keep the Aspidistra Flying

GB 1997 100m Rank Colour
First Independent/Overseas/Arts Council/Bonaparte/UBA/Sentinel (Peter Shaw)

US title: A Merry War

A copywriter gives up his job to become a poet, but, after he makes his girlfriend pregnant, embraces the middle-class, suburban life.
A misguided, glossy production that emasculates all the passion and vitality of the original.
w Alan Plater novel George Orwell d Robert Bierman ph Giles Nuttgens m Mike Batt pd Sarah Greenwood ed Bill Wright
☆ Richard E. Grant, Helena Bonham Carter, Julian Wadham, Jim Carter, Harriet Walter, Lesley Vickerage, Liz Smith, Barbara Leigh Hunt, Bill Wallis
'Drains the novel of its class anger and turns it into a celebration of the joys of capitalism.' – Richard Williams, Guardian
'A betrayal of art.' – Alexander Walker

Keep Your Powder Dry

US 1945 93m bw
MGM (George Haight)

Three girls from different backgrounds join the WACS.
Totally uninteresting and unconvincing female flagwaver.
w Mary C. McCall Jnr, George Bruce d Edward Buzzell ph Ray June m David Snell ☆ Lana Turner, Laraine Day, Susan Peters, Agnes Moorehead, Bill Johnson, Natalie Schafer, June Lockhart, Lee Patrick

Keep Your Seats Please

GB 1936 82m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

A prospective heir seeks a fortune hidden in one of six chairs.
Good star comedy on a theme later reworked in It's in the Bag (qv) and The Twelve Chairs (qv).
w Tom Geraghty, Ian Hay, Anthony Kimmins play Twelve Chairs by Elie Ilf, Eugene Petrov d Monty Banks ph John W. Boyle m/ly Harry Parr-Davies, Harry Gifford, Fred E. Cliffe ad R. Holmes Paul ed Jack Kitchin
☆ George Formby, Florence Desmond, Alastair Sim, Gus McNaughton, Harry Tate

Keeper of the Bees

US 1935 76m bw
Monogram (Trem Carr)

A country boy makes good.
Victorian-style fable for rural audiences.
w Adele Buffington novel Gene Stratton Porter d Christy Cabanne ☆ Neil Hamilton, Betty Furness, Emma Dunn, Edith Fellows, Hobart Bosworth
'For discriminating patronage, a washout ... a calico narrative for the crossroads.' – Variety

Keeper of the Flame

US 1942 100m bw
MGM (Victor Saville)

A reporter befriends the widow of a politician and forces her to disclose her husband's guilty secret.
Well-acted but over-solemn melodrama which badly needs a sting in the tail.
w Donald Ogden Stewart novel I. A. R. Wylie d George Cukor ph William Daniels m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Richard Whorf, Margaret Wycherly, Donald Meek, Stephen McNally, Audrey Christie, Frank Craven
'An expensive testimonial to Hollywood's inability to face a significant theme.' – Time
'Unorthodox and on the whole absorbing drama. Ominous portents and overtones take the place of physical action.' – Christian Science Monitor
'A gothic wet blanket of a movie.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Keepers of Youth

GB 1931 70m bw
BIP (John Maxwell)

A young schoolmaster finds his fresh ideas make him unpopular, especially when he is found in a compromising position with the assistant matron.
Old-fashioned drama with a few lively scenes.
w Frank Launder, Thomas Bentley, Walter Mycroft play Arnold Ridley d Thomas Bentley ph James Wilson, Bert Ford
☆ Garry Marsh, Ann Todd, Robin Irvine, John Turnbull, O. B. Clarence, Mary Clare

'Some family secrets are best kept...buried.'

Keeping Mum

GB/US 2005 103m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/Summit/IoMF/Azure/Tusk (Julia Palau, Matthew Payne)

A murderous housekeeper solves the problems of a bumbling, distracted vicar and his family, which include his adulterous wife, promiscuous daughter and a neighbour's noisy dog.
Darkish comedy that has surprisingly cosy feel; an excellent cast do what they can to add a little edge to its blunted jokes.
w Richard Russo, Niall Johnson d Niall Johnson ph Gavin Finney m Dickon Hinchliffe pd Crispian Sallis ed Robin Sales
☆ Rowan Atkinson (Walter Goodfellow), Kristin Scott Thomas (Gloria Goodfellow), Maggie Smith (Grace Hawkins), Patrick Swayze (Lance), Tamsin Egerton (Holly Goodfellow), Toby Parkes (Peter Goodfellow), Liz Smith (Mrs Parker), James Booth (Mr Brown)
'Undeniably funny, but also desperately creaky and not quite black enough.' – James Christopher, Times

'If you have to believe in something, you might as well believe in love.'

Keeping the Faith

US 2000 129m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass (Howard Koch, Edward Norton, Stuart Blumberg)

Two close friends, a Catholic priest and a rabbi, experience jealousies when they both fall for the same woman, an old schoolfriend who re-enters their lives.
A romantic drama that tries too hard to be cute and lovable.
w Stuart Blumberg d Edward Norton ph Anastas Michos m Elmer Bernstein pd Wynn P. Thomas ed Malcolm Campbell
☆ Ben Stiller (Jake), Edward Norton (Brian), Jenna Elfman (Anna), Anne Bancroft (Ruth), Eli Wallach (Rabbi Lewis), Ron Rifkin (Larry Friedman), Milos Forman (Father Havel), Holland Taylor (Bonnie Rose), Lisa Edelstein (Ali Decker), Rena Sofer (Rachel Rose), Brian George (Indian bartender), Ken Leung (Don)
'Gossamer-light confection is a surefire winner to lift the heaviest heart.' – Ian Freer, Empire

Keetje Tippel

Netherlands 1975 104m Technicolor
Rob Houwer Film

aka: Katie's Passion
aka: A Girl Called Katy Tippel; Cathy Tippel; Hot Sweat

In the 1880s, a young woman moves with her poverty-stricken family from the country to Amsterdam, where she rises from reluctant prostitution to a life in high society.
Pleasant period piece, although too episodic to give much insight into its central character, despite a fine performance from van de Ven.
w Gerard Soeteman book Neel Doff d Paul Verhoeven ph Jan de Bont m Rogier van Otterloo ad Roland de Groot, Dik Schillemans ed Jane Sperr
☆ Monique van de Ven, Rutger Hauer, Andrea Domburg, Hannah de Leeuwe, Peter Faber, Eddy Brugman, Fons Rademakers
† The film is based on the autobiography of Katy Neel Doff. It was released on video in

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Britain in a dubbed version under the title Katie's Passion.

Kelly and Me

US 1956 86m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Robert Arthur)

The ups and downs of a song and dance man and the dog who shares his act.
Mild vaudeville saga with totally predictable twists.
w Everett Freeman d Robert Z. Leonard ph Maury Gertsman m Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, William Newberry ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Van Johnson, Piper Laurie, Martha Hyer, Onslow Stevens, Herbert Anderson, Gregory Gaye, Dan Riss

Kelly the Second

US 1936 71m bw
MGM

A determined lady trains a dimwitted prizefighter.
Easy-going farce from a studio which knew how to make them; but this wasn't one of the best.
w Jack Jevne, Gordon Douglas d Hal Roach ☆ Patsy Kelly, Guinn Williams, Charley Chase, Pert Kelton, Harold Huber

Kelly's Heroes

US/Yugoslavia 1970 143m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/The Warriors/Avala (Gabriel Kotzka, Sidney Beckerman)

During World War II, an American platoon abducts a German general and accidentally discovers the whereabouts of a fortune in gold.
Crude slam-bang actioner for the obvious market.
w Troy Kennedy Martin d Brian G. Hutton ph Gabriel Figueroa m Lalo Schifrin pd Jonathan Barry ed John Jympson second unit Andrew Marton
☆ Clint Eastwood (Lt Kelly), Telly Savalas (Big Joe), Don Rickles (Crapgame), Donald Sutherland (Oddball), Carroll O'Connor (General Colt), Stuart Margolin (Little Joe), Dick Davalos (Gutowski), Perry Lopez (Petuko), Dee Pollock (Jonesy), Michael Clark (Grace), Gene Collins (Babra), Harry Dean Stanton (Willard)
'Over two hours of consistently devastating explosions, pyrotechnics and demolition.' – MFB
'Made for no possible reason other than a chance to use the Yugoslav army at cut rates.' – Judith Crist, 1973

Ken Park

US/Netherands/France 2002 96m colour
Cinea/Kees Kasander

In a Californian town, alienated teenagers indulge in sex, murder and suicide.
Sleazy movie that rarely rings true; it's not the sexual explicitness that is unsettling, but the feeling that it is the directors', rather than the characters', concerns that are being aired.
w Harmony Korine stories and characters Larry Clark d Larry Clark, Ed Lachman ph Larry Clark, Ed Lachman pd John de Meo ed Andrew Hafitz
☆ James Ransome (Tate), Tiffany Limos (Peaches), Stephen Jasso (Claude), James Bullard (Shawn), Mike Apaletegui (Curtis), Ken Park (Adam Chubbuck)
'Beautifully crafted but emotionally dispiriting and alienating in its insistence on spotlighting only the negative aspects of life.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Kenkei Tai Soshiki Boryoku: see Cops vs Thugs (1975)

The Kennel Murder Case ★★

US 1933 73m bw
Warner (Robert Presnell)

Philo Vance proves that an apparent suicide is really murder.
Complex murder mystery, very smartly handled and often cited as a classic of the genre; later remade as Calling Philo Vance.
w Robert N. Lee, Peter Milner novel S. S. Van Dine d Michael Curtiz ph William Reese ad Jack Okey ed Ed N. McLarnin
☆ William Powell, Mary Astor, Eugene Pallette, Ralph Morgan, Helen Vinson, Jack La Rue, Paul Cavanagh, Robert Barrat
'Entertaining all the way.' – Variety
'Players are cast so inevitably to type that the film is like a demonstration of the principles of running a stock company.' – New Yorker, 1978
'Stylistically a little gem.' – Clive Hirschhorn
† See also Philo Vance.

The Kentuckian

US 1955 104m Technicolor Cinemascope
UA/Hecht-Lancaster (Howard Hecht)

A Kentucky backwoodsman takes his small son to settle in Texas.
Ambling mid-Western with moments of interest.
w A. B. Guthrie Jnr novel The Gabriel Horn by Felix Holt d Burt Lancaster ph Ernest Laszlo m Bernard Herrmann
☆ Burt Lancaster, Dianne Foster, Diana Lynn, Walter Matthau, John McIntire, Una Merkel, John Carradine

Kentucky ★

US 1938 95m Technicolor
TCF (Gene Markey)

Horse-breeding rivalry prevents the smooth running of true love.
Harmless family entertainment, more professionally handled than its innumerable later imitations. Remade as April Love.
w Lamar Trotti novel The Look of Eagles by John Taintor Foote d David Butler ph Ernest Palmer md Louis Silvers ☆ Loretta Young, Richard Greene, Walter Brennan, Douglass Dumbrille, Karen Morley, Moroni Olsen, Russell Hicks
'An outstanding effort, geared for top money.' – Variety
Walter Brennan

The Kentucky Fried Movie

US 1977 90m colour
Alpha/Kentucky Fried Theatre (Robert K. Weiss)

Comedy sketches from the University of Wisconsin parodying television programmes and commercials.
The writers later gave us Airplane. Enough said?
w David and Jerry Zucker, Jim Abrahams d John Landis ph Stephen M. Katz ad Rick Harvel ed George Folsey Jnr
☆ Marilyn Joi, Saul Kahan, Marcy Goldman, Joe Medalis

Kentucky Kernels

US 1934 74m bw
RKO

GB title: Triple Trouble
An orphan left with two musicians proves to be the heir to a fortune, but the way to it is through feuding hillbilly country.
Fairly funny Wheeler and Woolsey comedy, in other words one of their better efforts.
w Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby and Fred Guiol d George Stevens
☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Mary Carlisle, Spanky McFarland, Noah Beery, Willie Best

'It's Fun O'Clock, Mountain Time! And How The Fun Keeps Mountin' Up!'

Kentucky Moonshine ★

US 1938 87m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

In the hope of a radio contract, the Ritz Brothers masquerade as hillbillies and find themselves in the middle of a feud.
One of the trio's best solo vehicles.
w Art Arthur, M. M. Musselman d David Butler ph Robert Planck m/ly Lew Pollack, Sidney Mitchell md Louis Silvers
☆ The Ritz Brothers, Tony Martin, Marjorie Weaver, Slim Summerville, John Carradine, Wally Vernon, Berton Churchill, Eddie Collins
'It's crazy and it's wild, but it's funny and grand entertainment.' – Variety

Keoma (dubbed) ★

Italy 1976 101m Eastmancolor 'Scope
Uranos (Manolo Bolognini)

aka: Keoma – Violent Breed
aka: The Violent Breed

A half-breed Indian returns to his home to save the town from a ruthless landowner who is letting the people die from a plague.
Melodramatic spaghetti Western with metaphysical overtones, including a Mother Courage-like figure wandering through desolate landscapes; with its themes of revenge and family feuds, it plays like a Greek tragedy and is stylishly done, apart from the abysmal musical accompaniment, featuring Nero singing like an out-of-tune Lee Marvin.
w Mino Roli, Nico Ducci, Luigi Montefiori, Enzo G. Castellari d Enzo G. Castellari ph Aiace Parolin m Guido and Maurizio de Angelis ad Carlo Simi ed Gianfranco Amicucci
☆ Franco Nero, William Berger, Woody Strode, Olga Karlatos, Orso Maria Guerrini, Gabriella Giacobbe, Antonio Marsina, John Loffredo

Kerd Ma Lui: see Born to Fight

La Kermesse Héroïque ★★

France 1935 115m bw
Tobis

aka: Carnival in Flanders

When Spaniards invade a Flemish town in 1616, the men make themselves scarce and the women find other ways of conquering.
Sprightly though overlong comedy which seemed risqué at the time and therefore enjoyed international success.
w Charles Spaak, Jacques Feyder novel Charles Spaak d Jacques Feyder ph Harry Stradling m Louis Beydts ad Lazare Meerson ☆ Françoise Rosay, Louis Jouvet, Jean Murat, Alfred Adam, André Alerme
'A mixture of gay absurdity and shrewd comment, selecting its own pitch and holding it – comedy, you might say, self-contained.' – Otis Ferguson
'Everything fits perfectly into the pattern of cultured and sophisticated entertainment. Nowhere is there a false touch.' – The Times, 1952

The Kerosene Seller's Wife

USSR 1989 104m colour
Circle Film Unit

A former surgeon, reduced to selling kerosene in the street, is betrayed by his bureaucratic twin brother while his wife begins an affair with a young musician.
A bleak, disjointed, absurdist comedy of life among the dispossessed.
wd Alexander Kaidanovsky ph Alexei Rodionov m Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Schubert ad Teador Tezhik, Viktor Zenkov
☆ Anna Myasoedova, Alexander Baluev, Vitautas Paukshte

'They beat him. They deprived him. They ridiculed him. They broke his heart. But they couldn't break his spirit.'

Kes ★★★★

GB 1969 109m Technicolor
UA/Woodfall (Tony Garnett)

In a northern industrial town, a boy learns about life from the fate of his pet bird.
Realistic family drama that is one of the key British films of its period.
w Barry Hines, Ken Loach, Tony Garnett novel A Kestrel for a Knave by Barry Hines d Ken Loach ph Chris Menges m John Cameron ad William McCrow ed Roy Watts
☆ David Bradley (Billy Casper), Lynne Perrie (Mrs. Casper), Colin Welland (Mr. Farthing), Freddie Fletcher (Jud), Brian Glover (Mr. Sugden)
'There emerges a most discouraging picture of life in the industrial north ... infinitely sad in its total implications, it is also immensely funny in much of its detail.' – Brenda Davies
'Particularly to be admired is the way in which the dialogue has been kept flowing, as if it were always spontaneous, something proceeding from the moment.' – Dilys Powell
BAFTA Colin Welland; David Bradley

The Ketchup Effect ★★

Sweden/Denmark/Finland 2004 91m colour
Peccadillo/Filmlance (Lars Blomgren, Genya Kihlberg)

original title: Hip Hip Hora!

A 13-year-old girl is humiliated when she drinks too much at a party, passes out, and a boy takes compromising photographs of her.
Deft and touching rites of passage story on adolescent cruelties and the pains of growing up.
wd Teresa Fabik ph Par M. Ekberg m Jacob Groth ad Cian Bornebusch ed Sofia Lindgren
☆ Amanda Renberg (Sofie), Bjorn Kjellman (Krister), Ellen Fjaestad (Amanda), Linn Persson (Emma), Filip Berg (Sebbe)
'Realistically depicting the hell of being young and trying to find your own identity.' – Gunnar Rehlin, Variety

The Kettles

The rustic couple evolved from characters in The Egg and I (qv); Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride went on to play them in a cheap but very popular series for Universal, variously scripted and directed.
1949 Ma and Pa Kettle
1950 Ma and Pa Kettle Go to Town
1951 Ma and Pa Kettle Back on the Farm

1952 Ma and Pa Kettle at the Fair
1953 Ma and Pa Kettle on Vacation
1954 Ma and Pa Kettle at Home
1955 Ma and Pa Kettle at Waikiki
1956 The Kettles in the Ozarks (Arthur Hunnicutt instead of Kilbride)
1957 The Kettles on Old Macdonald's Farm (Parker Fennelly instead of Kilbride)

'All They Want To Do Is...Do It!!!'

Kevin & Perry Go Large

GB/US 2000 83m DeLuxe
Icon/Tiger Aspect/Fragile (Peter Bennett-Jones, Jolyon Symonds, Harry Enfield)

Two teenage boys go to Ibiza in the hope of losing their virginity.
Coarse and smutty comedy, using characters familiar from TV comedy sketches, where they did not so quickly wear out their welcome.
w Harry Enfield, David Cummings d Ed Bye ph Alan Almond pd Tom Brown ed Mark Wybourn
☆ Harry Enfield (Kevin), Kathy Burke (Perry), Rhys Ifans (Eye Ball Paul), Laura Fraser (Candice), James Fleet (Dad), Louisa Rix (Mum), Tabitha Waddy (Gemma), Paul Whitehouse (Bouncer), Ken Cranham (Vicar), Patsy Byrne (Old lady)
'Just one overlong middle-aged sneer at teen life.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'As a British answer to the wave of American gross-out comedies, it falls woefully short.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian
'Connoisseurs of bodily fluids on screen will doubtless appreciate how the makeover sequence climaxes with a multiple zit-squeezing money-shot.' – Mark Sinker, Sight and Sound

The Key ★

US 1934 71m bw
Warner

In Ireland in the twenties, a British army captain falls for the wife of an intelligence officer.
Heroics among the black and tans; interesting but dated drama.
w Laird Doyle play R. Gore-Brown, J. L. Hardy d Michael Curtiz ph Ernest Haller
☆ William Powell, Edna Best, Colin Clive, Hobart Cavanaugh, Halliwell Hobbes, Henry O'Neill, Arthur Treacher, Donald Crisp

'The door opened into a haven from hell ... and the girl came with the key!'

The Key ★

GB 1958 134m bw Cinemascope
Columbia/Open Road (Carl Foreman)

World War II tugboat skippers, about to embark on dangerous missions, pass on the key to an apartment and a girl to go with it.
Rather foolish symbolic melodrama which never makes its purpose clear but along the way provides fragments of love story, chunks of the supernatural and dollops of war action, rather languidly assembled with great technical competence but little real feeling. The talent occasionally shows through.
w Carl Foreman novel Stella by Jan de Hartog d Carol Reed ph Oswald Morris m Malcolm Arnold
☆ William Holden, Sophia Loren, Trevor Howard, Oscar Homolka, Kieron Moore
BAFTA Trevor Howard

The Key

Italy 1984 116m Technicolor
Enterprise/San Francisco Film (Giovanni Bertolucci)

As Mussolini begins his rise to power, an art professor keeps a diary concerning his frustration over his wife's prudery; in turn she begins a diary of her affair with her daughter's boyfriend.
Atrocious soft-core porn that takes in transvestism, necrophilia and urolagnia and includes Finlay dressed in bra, panties, suspenders and stockings having a heart attack while making love. Avoid.
wd Tinto Brass novel Kagi by Junichiro Tanizaki ph Silvano Ippoliti m Ennio Morricone ad Paolo Biagetti ed Tinto Brass
☆ Frank Finlay, Stefania Sandrelli, Franco Branciaroli, Barbara Cupisti, Armando Marra, Maria Grazia Bon, Gino Cavalieri
'Where there's muck, there's brass; and where there's cinematic muck, there's Tinto Brass.' – Virgin Film Yearbook

'A storm of fear and fury in the sizzling Florida keys!'

Key Largo ★★★

US 1948 101m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

A returning war veteran fights gangsters on the Florida keys.
Moody melodrama on similar lines to To Have and Have Not: it sums up the post-war mood of despair, allows several good acting performances, and builds up to a pretty good action climax.
w Richard Brooks, John Huston play Maxwell Anderson d John Huston ph Karl Freund m Max Steiner ad Leo K. Kuter ed Rudi Fehr
☆ Humphrey Bogart (Frank McCloud), Lauren Bacall (Nora Temple), Claire Trevor (Gaye Dawn), Edward G. Robinson (Johnny Rocco), Lionel Barrymore (James Temple), Thomas Gomez (Curley), Marc Lawrence (Ziggy)
'It's a confidently directed, handsomely shot movie, and the cast go at it as if the nonsense about gangsters and human dignity were high drama.' – New Yorker, 1977
'A completely empty, synthetic work.' – Gavin Lambert
Claire Trevor

Key to the City

US 1950 101m bw
MGM (Z. Wayne Griffin)

At a San Francisco convention, two mayors get involved in several escapades and fall in love.
Routine romantic comedy.
w Robert Riley Crutcher d George Sidney ph Harold Rosson m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Clark Gable, Loretta Young, Frank Morgan, James Gleason, Marilyn Maxwell, Raymond Burr, Lewis Stone, Raymond Walburn, Pamela Britton
'A comedy made to measure ... the script concerns itself with wringing every possible laugh from a number of stock situations.' – Variety

'Don't come if you're afraid to see what's on the other side of...'

The Keyhole ★

US 1933 70m bw
Warner (Hal Wallis)

A divorce investigator falls for the wife he is commissioned to frame.
Unsavoury little drama, unusual enough to be interesting.
w Robert Presnell novel Adventures by Alice Duer Miller d Michael Curtiz ☆ Kay Francis, George Brent, Glenda Farrell, Allen Jenkins, Monroe Owsley

The Keys of the Kingdom ★

US 1944 137m bw
TCF (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)

The life of a 19th-century Scottish priest in China.
Studio-made missionary melodrama, a big hit for its new star but otherwise an undistinguished piece of work with a shuffling pace and not much by way of climax.
w Joseph L. Mankiewicz, Nunnally Johnson novel A. J. Cronin d John M. Stahl ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ad James Basevi, William Darling
☆ Gregory Peck, Thomas Mitchell, Vincent Price, Rose Stradner, Roddy McDowall, Edmund Gwenn, Cedric Hardwicke, Peggy Ann Garner, James Gleason, Anne Revere
'Long, earnest, long, worthy, interesting and long.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
Arthur Miller; Alfred Newman; Gregory Peck; art direction

The Keys to the House ★★

Italy/Germany/France/GB/Norway 2004 111m colour
Artificial Eye/RAI/Achab Film/Pola Pandora/Arena (Enzo Porcelli)

original title: Le Chiavi Di Casa

After rejecting his mentally and physically handicapped son for 15 years, a father agrees to take him for treatment in Germany.
Much is left unexplained here, including why the father should suddenly become involved with his son, who had lived with the family of his dead wife; it concentrates with understated and moving delicacy on their deepening relationship.
w Gianni Amelio, Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli book Born Two Times by Giuseppe Pontiggia d Gianni Amelio ph Luca Bigazzi m Franco Piersanti pd Giancarlo Basili ed Simona Paggi
☆ Kim Rossi Stuart (Gianni), Andrea Rossi (Paolo), Charlotte Rampling (Nicole)
'Though it is a work of fiction, we have the sense every minute that we are watching something real, something with the unmistakable taste of life.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Keys to Tulsa

US 1997 113m CFI color
Polygram/ITC/Peyton/Empire (Leslie Greif, Harley Peyton)

The prodigal son of a wealthy family falls among blackmailers and murderers.
Barnstorming, scenery-chewing performances help stave off apathy for a while, but this thriller runs short of excitement long before its end.
w Harley Peyton novel Brian Fair Berkey d Leslie Greif ph Robert Fraisse m Stephen Endelman pd Derek R. Hill ed Eric L. Beason, Louis F. Cioffi, Michael R. Miller
☆ Eric Stoltz, Cameron Diaz, Randy Graff, Mary Tyler Moore, James Coburn, Deborah Kara Unger, Michael Rooker, Peter Strauss, James Spader
'A wonderfully written and performed comic crime meller.' – Variety

'Where the Nile divides, their mighty conflict begins!'

Khartoum ★

GB 1966 134m Technicolor Ultra Panavision
UA/Julian Blaustein

The last years of General Gordon.
Dullish history book stuff which fails to explain Gordon the man but occasionally erupts into glowing action.
w Robert Ardrey d Basil Dearden ph Edward Scaife, Harry Waxman m Frank Cordell ☆ Charlton Heston, Laurence Olivier, Ralph Richardson, Richard Johnson, Hugh Williams, Alexander Knox, Johnny Sekka, Nigel Green, Michael Hordern
'Academic accuracy and spectacular battles are unhappy partners.' – MFB
'Beautifully photographed, lavishly mounted, intelligently acted, but ultimately dull.' – Sight and Sound
Robert Ardrey

'When Monsters Meld With Humans, The Sky Will Split And Eternal Darkness Will Cover The Earth.'

Kibakichi

Japan 2003 95m colour
Kibakichi (Junichiro Mizuno, Seiichi Ono)

A swordsman and werewolf attempts to protect a settlement of monsters from gangsters who plan to exploit and kill them.
Comic book action, mixing a tale of a wandering ronin with an assortment of shape-changing monsters and a power struggle between heavily-armed rival clans.
w Mugi Kamio d Tomo-o Haraguchi ph Shoji Ebara m Kenji Kawai ☆ Ryuuji Harada, Miki Tanaka, Mubu Nakayama, Masato Ibu

Kick!

US 1978 90m Movielab
Sean S. Cunningham Films (Sean S. Cunningham, Stephen Miner)

A soccer team of orphans decide to bet on themselves with stolen money to win a championship game so that they can pay off their coach's gambling debts.
A dull and clumsy comedy that offers the messages that theft is good and obsessive gambling is endearing, though few will stay awake long enough to discover them.
w Victor Miller story Stephen Miner d Sean S. Cunningham ph Barry Abrams m Harry Manfredini ad Virginia Field ed Stephen Miner
☆ Jim Baker, Malachy McCourt, Chet Doherty, Sel Skolnick

Kick the Moon ★★

South Korea 2001 118m colour
Cinema Service/Terasource/Fun & Happiness (Kim Mi-heui)

original title: Shillaeui Dalban

A tough teacher and a gentle gangster, former school friends, fall for the same no-nonsense woman, who runs a noodle restaurant.
Lively comedy of role reversals with a little romance and violence for good measure.
w Park Jeong-woo story Kim Yeong-ho, Lee Hae-jun, Lee Hae-yeong d Kim Sang-jin ph Jung Kwang-seok m Son Mu-hyun pd Jo Sung-won ed Goh Im-pyo
☆ Lee Seong-jae (Park Yeong-jun), Cha Seung-weon (Choi Ki-dong), Kim Hae-su (Min Ju-ran), Lee Jong-su (Min Jin-seob)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Surprisingly rich pic that repays repeated viewings.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† The movie was a big hit in its homeland.

Kickboxer

US 1989 103m Technicolor
Entertainment/Kings Road Entertainment (Mark DiSalle)

After his brother is crippled in a fight, an American kickboxer seeks revenge.
Standard martial arts adventure.
w Glenn Bruce story Mark DiSalle, Jean Claude Van Damme d Mark DiSalle, David Worth ph Jon Kranhouse m Paul Hertzog pd Shay Austin ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ Jean Claude Van Damme, Dennis Alexio, Dennis Chan, Tong Po (Michel Qissi), Haskell Anderson, Rochelle Ashana, Steve Lee, Richard Foo, Ricky Lui

Kickboxer II: The Road Back

US 1990 89m colour
Entertainment/Kings Road (Tom Karnowksi)

A retired kickboxer is forced back into the ring to defeat a Thai gangster's champion.
Direly inept sequel.
w David S. Goyer d Albert Pyun ph Mark Emery Moore m Tony Riparetti, James Saad ad Nicholas T. Prevost ed Alan E. Baumgarten ☆ Sasha Mitchell, Peter Boyle, Dennis Chan, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, John Diehl, Michel Qissi, Heather McComb, Vince Murducco, Matthias Hues

'Has all the faults of many Stateside chop-socky carbons: slow pacing, fortune-cookie philosophy and fight sequences shot from all the wrong angles.' – Variety

Kickboxer III: The Art of War

US 1992 92m DeLuxe
Vision International (Michael Pariser)

In Rio de Janeiro, an American kick-boxer takes revenge on a fight promoter who is also a white slaver.
Only a slight variation here on the single plot that seems to serve for every martial arts movie, and there is no variation at all on the usual high-kicking and predictable action.
w Dennis Pratt d Rick King ph Edgar Moura m Harry Manfredini pd Clovis Bueno ed Dan Lowenthal
☆ Sasha Mitchell, Dennis Chan, Richard Comar, Noah Verduzco, Milton Goncalves, Alethea Miranda, Miguel Orniga

'A routine martial arts pic that benefits from attractive Brazilian location photography.' – Variety

Kicking and Screaming ★

US 1995 96m Foto-Kem
Trimark/Sandollar/Joel Castleberg

Newly graduated students find that they cannot tear themselves away from their university campus.
Slick and witty comedy of young men and women postponing adult life for as long as they can.
wd Noah Baumbach story Noah Baumbach, Oliver Berkman ph Steven Bernstein m Phil Marshall pd Dan Whifler ed J. Kathleen Gibson
☆ Josh Hamilton, Olivia D'Abo, Chris Eigeman, Parker Posey, Jason Wiles, Cara Buono, Carlos Jacott, Elliott Gould, Eric Stoltz

'Mildly amusing and occasionally exasperating – a self-analysis of the self-analysis of a self-analytical generation.' – Variety

'All his life Phil Weston has dreamed of being on a winning team. Phil... your time has come.'

Kicking and Screaming ★

US 2005 94m Technicolor
Universal/Mosaic Media (Jimmy Miller)

A mild-mannered man agrees to coach a kids' soccer team, which will bring him in direct conflict with his dominating, competitive father.
Amiable comedy that provides Ferrell with his best role so far, as a man who is distressed to discover that he is becoming more and more like his father.
w Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick d Jesse Dylan ph Lloyd Ahern m Mark Isham pd Clayton R. Hartley ed Stuart Pappe, Peter Teschner, Nina Kowasaki
☆ Will Ferrell (Phil Weston), Robert Duvall (Buck Weston), Mike Ditka (Himself), Kate Walsh (Barbara Weston), Musetta Vander (Janice Weston), Dylan McLaughlin (Sam Weston), Josh Hutcherson (Bucky Weston), Steven Anthony Lawrence (Mark Avery)

'It's all kept light and funny, but underlying the broad sight gags is a movie that actually has something to say about competition, fathers and sons, machismo and caffeine.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

Kicking the Moon Around

GB 1938 78m bw
Vogue (Howard Welsch)
US title: The Playboy
aka: Millionaire Merry Go Round

A millionaire goes into show business to establish a career for his singing protégée.
Mild, frothy comedy, dated but quite fluent.
w Angus MacPhail, Roland Pertwee, Michael Hogan, Harry Fowler Mear story Tom Geraghty d Walter Forde ph Francis Carver ad John Bryan ed Derek Twist
☆ Ambrose and his Orchestra, Evelyn Dall, Hal Thompson, Florence Desmond, Harry Richman, C. Denier Warren, Max Bacon

'6 Reels of Joy.'

The Kid ★★★★

US 1921 52m approx (24 fps) bw silent
First National/Charles Chaplin

A tramp brings up an abandoned baby, and later loses him to his mother; but there is a happy ending.
Sentimental comedy set in the slums. The comedy is very sparingly laid on, but the effect of the whole is much less painful than the synopsis would suggest, the production is comparatively smooth, the child actor is sensational, and the film contains much of the quintessential Chaplin.
wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh
☆ Charles Chaplin (A Tramp), Jackie Coogan (The Child), Edna Purviance (The Woman)

'Has all the hallmarks of having been carefully thought out and painstakingly directed, photographed and assembled.' – Variety

Kid

US 1990 91m Alpha Cine
Entertainment/Tapestry Films (Robert L. Levy, Peter Abrams, Nathan Zahavi)

A teenager returns to his home town for revenge on the locals who killed his parents.
Dull, morally confused modern Western.
w Leslie Bohem d John Mark Robinson ph Robert Yeoman m Tim Truman pd Sharon Seymour ed Nathan Zahavi
☆ C. Thomas Howell, Sarah Trigger, Brian Austin Green, R. Lee Ermey, Dale Dye, Michael Bowen, Damon Bowen, Lenore Kasdorf

'Ludicrously recasts a barely stubbled youth in the role of the outsider-avenger.' – MFB

Kid Auto Races at Venice

US 1914 6m approx bw silent
Keystone/Mack Sennett

This much-mentioned film is no more than a few candid camera shots of a children's car race on the California beach. It so happened that the young Charles Chaplin was called upon to liven up proceedings by causing a nuisance, and hastily conceived his tramp costume to do so. His fragments of comedy, primitive though they now seem, made him a star.
wd Henry Lehrman ph Frank D. Williams

Kid Blue

US 1973 100m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Marvin Schwarz Productions

In 1902 Texas a young outlaw tries to go straight.
Deliberately myth-deflating Western with agreeably rich detail.
w Edwin Shrake d James Frawley ph Billy Williams m Tim McIntire, John Rubinstein pd Joel Schiller ☆ Dennis Hopper, Warren Oates, Peter Boyle, Ben Johnson, Lee Purcell, Janice Rule, Clifton James

The Kid Brother ★★★★

US 1927 83m bw silent
Paramount/Lloyd (Harold Lloyd)

The youngest son in the family proves that he is more than the household drudge.
Lively, slapstick comedy with the star at his best.
w John Grey, Tom Crizer, Ted Wilde d Ted Wilde, J. A. Howe, Lewis Milestone ph Walter Lundin, Henry N. Kohler ad Liell K. Vedder ed Allen McNeil
☆ Harold Lloyd (Harold Hickory), Jobyna Ralston (Mary Powers), Walter James (Jim Hickory), Leo Willis (Leo Hickory), Olin Francis (Olin Hickory), Constantine Romanoff (Sandoni)

'As gaggy a gag picture as he has ever done.' – Variety
'Perfect.' – New York Times

The Kid Comes Back

US 1937 61m bw
Warner (Bryan Foy)

A tenderfoot from Texas is trained by an ex-champion prizefighter.
Not really a sequel to Kid Galahad, but a second feature in its wake; as such, fair.
w George Bricker, E. J. Flanagan d B. Reeves Eason
☆ Wayne Morris, Barton MacLane, June Travis, Maxie Rosenbloom

'Brisk, fast, strong dualler.' – Variety

A Kid for Two Farthings ★

GB 1955 96m Eastmancolor
London Films (Carol Reed)

Among the colourful characters of London's Petticoat Lane market moves a boy whose pet goat seems to have the magical power of a unicorn.
Whimsical character comedy-drama made with some style but too insubstantial and unconvincing to be affectionately remembered.
w Wolf Mankowitz d Carol Reed ph Ted Scaife m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Celia Johnson, Diana Dors, David Kossoff, Brenda de Banzie, Sydney Tafler, Primo Carnera, Joe Robinson, Jonathan Ashmore

The Kid from Brooklyn

US 1946 114m Technicolor
Samuel Goldwyn

A timid milkman becomes a prizefighter.
Yawn-provoking comedy, a remake of Harold Lloyd's The Milky Way; the first indication that Danny Kaye could be a bore.
w Grover Jones, Frank Butler, Richard Connell d Norman Z. McLeod ph Gregg Toland m/ly Jule Styne, Sammy Cahn md Carmen Dragon
☆ Danny Kaye, Virginia Mayo, Vera-Ellen, Steve Cochran, Eve Arden, Walter Abel, Lionel Stander, Fay Bainter, Clarence Kolb † Lionel Stander played the same role in The Milky Way.

The Kid from Kokomo

US 1939 92m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)

A farm boy's fight manager decides that for publicity purposes he must acquire a family.
Yet another follow-up to Kid Galahad, this time on the farcical side. Not bad, but too long.
w Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, Dalton Trumbo d Lewis Seiler
☆ Pat O'Brien, Wayne Morris, Joan Blondell, May Robson, Jane Wyman, Stanley Fields, Maxie Rosenbloom, Sidney Toler, Ed Brophy

'Full of laughs, and a very probable money-getter.' – Variety

The Kid from Left Field

US 1953 80m bw
TCF (Leonard Goldstein)

A big league basketball player is reduced to selling peanuts at the games, but passes on advice through his small son, who is appointed team manager.
Half-hearted whimsy for addicts.
w Jack Sher d Harmon Jones ph Harry Jackson m Lionel Newman
☆ Dan Dailey, Billy Chapin, Anne Bancroft, Lloyd Bridges, Ray Collins, Richard Egan

The Kid from Spain ★★

US 1932 90m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A simpleton is mistaken for a celebrated bullfighter.
Charmingly dated star musical which, though primitive in some respects, is a splendid reminder of its period.
w William Anthony McGuire, Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby d Leo McCarey ph Gregg Toland m/ly Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby ch Busby Berkeley
☆ Eddie Cantor, Lyda Roberti, Robert Young, Ruth Hall, John Miljan, Noah Beery, J. Carrol Naish, Stanley Fields, Betty Grable, Paulette Goddard

'A corking comedy ... it'll get a lot of money.' – Variety

The Kid from Texas

US 1950 85m Technicolor
Universal-International
GB title: Texas Kid, Outlaw

The last rampage of Billy the Kid.

Surprisingly violent Western for its time; otherwise unremarkable.
w Robert Hardy Andrews, Karl Kamb d Kurt Neumann ☆ Audie Murphy, Gale Storm, Albert Dekker, Shepperd Strudwick, Will Geer, William Talman

Kid Galahad ★

US 1937 101m bw
Warner (Samuel Bischoff)
TV title: Battling Bellhop
A bellhop is groomed as a prizefighter, and his trainer grows jealous.
Good standard prizefight melodrama, remade as The Wagons Roll at Night and later as Kid Galahad with Elvis Presley (see below).
w Seton I. Miller novel Francis Wallace d Michael Curtiz ph Tony Gaudio m Heinz Roemheld, Max Steiner
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Bette Davis, Wayne Morris, Jane Bryan, Humphrey Bogart, Harry Carey
'Good prizefight picture with action, melodrama and names. Unusual in that women will like it.' – Variety

Kid Galahad

US 1962 96m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch (David Weisbart)
Tolerable light-hearted musical remake of the above.
w William Fay d Phil Karlson ph Burnett Guffey m Jeff Alexander ☆ Elvis Presley, Lola Albright, Gig Young, Joan Blackman, Charles Bronson, Ned Glass, David Lewis, Robert Emhardt

Kid Glove Killer ★

US 1942 73m bw
MGM (Jack Chertok)
A police laboratory scientist tracks down the murderer of the mayor and finds his best friend is the culprit.
Professional police suspenser of the kind now tackled by television.
w John Higgins, Allen Rivkin d Fred Zinnemann ph Paul C. Vogel m David Snell
☆ Van Heflin, Lee Bowman, Marsha Hunt, Samuel S. Hinds, Eddie Quillan

A Kid in King Arthur's Court

US 1995 89m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Trimark/Tapestry (Robert L. Levy, Peter Abrams, J. P. Guerin)
During an earthquake, a teenager is transported back to the sixth century and helps an aged King Arthur defeat his enemies.
A youthful twist to Mark Twain's fantasy does nothing to persuade an audience that it was worth doing.
w Michael Part, Robert L. Levy d Michael Gottlieb ph Elemer Ragalyi m J. A. C. Redford pd Laszlo Gardonyi ed Michael Ripps, Anita Brandt-Burgoyne
☆ Thomas Ian Nicholas, Joss Ackland, Art Malik, Paloma Baeza, Kate Winslet, Ron Moody, Daniel Craig, David Tysall
'Run-of-the-mill.' – Variety

Kid Millions ★

US 1934 90m bw (Technicolor sequence)
Samuel Goldwyn
An East Side kid inherits a fortune and has the time of his life.
Dated star musical with moments which still please.
w Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, Nunnally Johnson d Roy del Ruth ph Ray June m/ly Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn, Burton Lane and Harold Adamson, Irving Berlin md Alfred Newman ad Richard Day ed Stuart Heisler
☆ Eddie Cantor, Ethel Merman, Ann Sothern, George Murphy, Warren Hymer
'Goldwyn-Cantor girl-and-gag socko.' – Variety

Kid Nightingale

US 1939 56m bw
Warner
A waiter is promoted into a prizefighter, and sings as he knocks out each opponent.
Self-spoofing comedy with some laughs.
w Charles Belden, Raymond Schrock, Lee Katz d George Amy ☆ John Payne, Jane Wyman, Walter Catlett, Ed Brophy, Charles D. Brown
'It's so absolutely silly it's almost good.' – Variety

'One man had been like any other to Nora. Then she met the kid.'

Kid Rodelo

US/Spain 1966 91m bw
Trident/Fenix/Paramount
An outlaw fresh from prison races his former partners for the hidden loot.
Dull Western.
w Jack Natteford story Louis L'Amour d Richard Carlson
☆ Don Murray, Janet Leigh, Richard Carlson, Broderick Crawford, Jose Nieto

'The Story Of A Man Who Seduced Hollywood.'

The Kid Stays in the Picture ★★

US 2002 93m Technicolor
Momentum/Highway/Ministry of Propaganda (Graydon Carter, Brett Morgen, Nanette Burstein)
Documentary about the rise of film producer Robert Evans, who became head of Paramount, and his subsequent fall from grace and re-emergence.
Based on Evans' autobiography, this is both an entertaining and self-aggrandising account of Hollywood life, revealing in its glimpse into a tinselled world where self-importance is a virtue.
w Brett Morgen book Robert Evans d Brett Morgen, Nanette Burstein ph John Bailey m Jeff Danna ed Jun Diaz
☆ Robert Evans (Narrator)
'Half-fact, half-fanciful and all riveting... great fun and compulsively watchable.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone
'An admitted egomaniac, Evans is no Hollywood villain, and yet this grating showcase almost makes you wish he'd gone the way of Don Simpson.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

Kidco

US 1984 105m colour
TCF (Frank Yablans, David Niven Jnr)
A boy who thinks up a series of money-making schemes in the hope of getting rich while young finds himself in trouble with the law.
Mildly amusing comedy, said to be based on a true story, but one without a natural audience: its concerns are too old for kids, and too silly for adults.
w Bennett Tramer d Ronald F. Maxwell ph Paul Lohmann m Michael Small pd Fred Price ed David E. McKenna
☆ Scott Schwartz, Clifton James, Charles Hallahan, Maggie Blye, Basil Hoffman, Phil Rubenstein, Cinnamon Idles, Tristine Skyler, Elizabeth Gorcey

Kidnapped: see Miss Fane's Baby Is Stolen (1933)

'Strangely they met ... gallantly they risked their lives for each other ... a valiant three against a nation's vengeful might!'

Kidnapped ★

US 1938 93m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)
During the Jacobite rebellion a young boy is sold by his wicked uncle as a slave, and is helped by an outlaw.
Much altered version of a classic adventure story, exciting enough in its own right, and well made in the thirties tradition.
w Sonya Levien, Richard Sherman, Walter Ferris novel Robert Louis Stevenson d Alfred L. Werker ph Bert Glennon m Arthur Lange ☆ Warner Baxter, Freddie Bartholomew, Arleen Whelan, John Carradine, C. Aubrey Smith, Nigel Bruce, Reginald Owen
'Strange modifications have been wrought ... ambitious effort which misses top rating.' – Variety

Kidnapped ★

GB 1959 95m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Hugh Attwooll)
A remake fairly faithful to the book, which results in a few longueurs; but in general the action is spirited.
wd Robert Stevenson ph Paul Beeson m Cedric Thorpe Davie
☆ Peter Finch, James MacArthur, Bernard Lee, John Laurie, Finlay Currie, Niall MacGinnis, Peter O'Toole, Miles Malleson, Oliver Johnston, Duncan Macrae, Andrew Cruickshank

Kidnapped ★

GB 1971 107m Movielab
Panavision
Omnibus (Frederick H. Brogger)
Remake incorporating sections of Catriona. Not particularly exciting, but the acting helps.
w Jack Pulman d Delbert Mann ph Paul Beeson m Roy Budd ☆ Michael Caine, Lawrence Douglas, Trevor Howard, Jack Hawkins, Donald Pleasence, Gordon Jackson, Freddie Jones, Jack Watson

The Kidnappers ★

GB 1953 95m bw
Rank/Nolbandov-Parkyn
US title: The Little Kidnappers
In a Nova Scotian village at the turn of the century a stern old man denies his young grandchildren a pet, so they borrow a baby and hide it in the woods.
Fairly pleasing and popular whimsy for family audiences.
w Neil Paterson d Philip Leacock ph Eric Cross m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Duncan Macrae, Vincent Winter, Jon Whiteley, Theodore Bikel, Jean Anderson
† Vincent Winter and Jon Whiteley were given honorary Oscars for their 'outstanding' performances.

The Kidnapping of the President ★

Canada 1980 113m DeLuxe
Sefel (George Mendeluk, John Ryan)
Third-world terrorists devise a plot to bring America to its knees by kidnapping the president.
Spirited political thriller which suffers chiefly from overlength.
w Richard Murphy novel Charles Templeton d George Mendeluk ph Mike Malloy m Paul J. Zaza
☆ Hal Holbrook, William Shatner, Van Johnson, Ava Gardner, Miguel Fernandez, Cindy Girling, Elizabeth Shepherd Kids ★★

US 1995 90m colour
Electric/Shining Excalibur/Independent/The Guys Upstairs (Cary Woods)
A day in the life of a group of teenagers, involved in their favourite pastimes of skateboarding, drugs and sex; one boy seeks out virgins for sex, while one of the girls he has deflowered discovers that she is HIV-positive.
A gritty, documentary-style drama of street life among the middle-class young, one that caused much controversy on its release; it has a feel of truth about it, together with a desire to shock and indulge in fantasies. In a few years' time, it may seem no more than a skilful variation on the themes of 50s youth exploitation movies like High School Confidential.
w Harmony Korine d Larry Clark ph Eric Edwards m Lou Barlow, John Davis pd Kevin Thompson ed Christopher Tellefsen
☆ Lee Fitzpatrick, Sarah Henderson, Justin Pierce, Jonathan S. Kim, Adriane Brown, Sajam Bhagat, Billy Valdes
'Personally, this film has left flash-frames and memory triggers in my mind that won't quite shift, and there has to be something said for any work of art that's that powerful.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight and Sound
'That the end product is an experience can hardly be denied. Whether it is an experience that anyone would wish to endure on a Saturday night, though, is another question altogether.' – Clark Collis, Empire
† The version shown in Britain was cut by one minute. The film was banned from its cinemas in Britain by Warner Bros Theatres.

Kids in the Hall: Brain Candy

US 1996 89m DeLuxe
Starlight/Paramount/Lake Shore (Lorne Michaels)
A pharmaceutical company markets a new drug that makes everyone happy, ignoring its side effects.
Ineffectual satire, performed with more enthusiasm than skill.
w Norm Hiscock, Bruce McCullough, Kevin McDonald, Mark McKinney, Scott Thompson d Kelly Makin ph David A. Makin m Craig Northey pd Gregory P. Keen ed Christopher Cooper
☆ David Foley, Bruce McCulloch, Kevin McDonald, Mark McKinney, Scott Thompson, Kathryn Greenwood, Amy Smith
'Both screenplay and jokes leave a lot to be desired.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Kid's Last Fight: see The Life of Jimmy Dolan

Kids Return ★

Japan 1996 107m Fujicolour
ICA/Office Kitano (Masayuki Mori, Yasushi Tsuge, Takio Yoshida)
Two young friends meet up after a long absence and recall their delinquent past, when both failed in their ambitions: one to become a successful boxer, the other a gangster.

A meandering portrait of two losers, observed with a compassionate detachment.
wd Takeshi Kitano ph Katsumi Yanagishima m Joe Hisaishi md Yukio Yamashita pd Norishiro Isoda ed Takeshi Kitano, Yoshinori Ota ☆ Masanobu Ando, Ken Kaneko, Leo Morimoto, Hatsuo Yamaya, Mitsuko Oka, Ryo Ishibashi, Susumu Terajima
'It goes further and deeper than earlier Kitano films, which means that it is the most interesting Japanese film in some time.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound
'Ultimately it's just plain depressing and somewhat pointless.' – Nick Briggs, Film Review

'Before adulthood comes...'

Kidulthood

GB 2005 91m DeLuxe
Revolver/Stealth/Cipher (George Isaac, Damian Jones, Menhaj Huda)
In West London, a gang of teenage boys and girls decide to humilate a school bully.
Gritty street drama, with dialogue to match, that ends in predictable violence.
w Noel Clarke d Menhaj Huda ph Brian Tufano m The Angel pd Murray McKeown, Nick Tuft ed Victoria Boydell
☆ Aml Ameen (Trife), Red Madrell (Alisa), Adam Deacon (Jay), Jaime Winstone (Becky), Femi Oyeniran (Moony), Madeleine Fairley (Claire), Noel Clarke (Sam)
'An ultra-realist snapshot of Britain today, let down by a preachy ending, but maintained by its punchy dialogue and kids.' – Total Film

Kika

Spain 1993 114m colour
Electric Pictures/El Deseo/Ciby 2000 (Esther Garcia)
The overlapping lives of a psychologist turned reporter, who videotapes sexual scandals and murders for a TV show, and a beautician, who lives with a depressed photographer mourning his mother's suicide, after she is raped by a pornographic movie star on the run from the police.
A chic and glossy look at voyeurism, a sort of Spanish Peeping Tom that is also partly a satire on television's habit of serving up 'reality' as entertainment, but is mainly a recycling of the themes of Almodóvar's previous movies. The director's shock tactics are beginning to lose their impact, especially when combined with an ill-constructed narrative.
wd Pedro Almodóvar ph Alfredo Mayo ad Javier Fernandez, Alain Bainée ed José Salcedo
☆ Veronica Forqué, Peter Coyote, Victoria Abril, Alex Casanova, Charo Lopez, Rossy de Palma, Santiago Lajusticia, Anabel Alonso, Bibi Andersen, Manuel Bandera
'What use is style when the content is all over the place, and a genuine attempt to say something that matters simply gets lost in the making.' – Philippa Bloom, Empire

Kiki

US 1931 96m bw
UA/Mary Pickford (Joseph M. Schenck)
A tomboyish chorus girl sets her cap at her divorced producer.
Long unseen star musical.
w Sam Taylor play David Belasco d Sam Taylor ph Karl Struss m Alfred Newman ☆ Mary Pickford, Reginald Denny, Joseph Cawthorn, Margaret Livingston
'Too long and too light ... what was to have been a cocktail has turned out to have been a soda.' – Variety

Kikuchi

Japan 1990 68m colour
ICA/Vortex Japan (Shuichi Ohi)
A laundry worker, who leads an aimless life, becomes obsessed with a check-out girl at a supermarket.
Quirky small film, with little in the way of action or dialogue.
wd Kenchi Iwamoto ph Hideo Fukuda pd Takashi Iwai ed Keiichi Okada ☆ Jiro Yoshimura, Yasuhiro Oka, Misa Kukuma, Papa Akiyama, Mama Akiyama, Masaya Yasumura

'A journey to friendship.'

Kikujiro

Japanese 1999 122m colour
Pathé/Bandai Visual/Tokyo FM/Nippon Herald/Office Kitano (Masuyuki Mori, Takio Yoshida)
A lonely 9-year-old boy is taken on a journey to see the mother he has never known by a morose middle-aged man.
Broad, episodic, slapstick comedy of a shiftless ne'er-do-well learning to care for someone other than himself; but the action grows ever more manipulative and sentimental, and is interspersed with clumsy dream sequences.
wd Takeshi Kitano ph Katsumi Yanagishima m Joe Hisaishi ad Norihiro Isoda ed Takeshi Kitano, Yoshinori Ota cos Fumio Iwasaki ☆ Beat Takeshi (Kikujiro), Yusuke Sekiguchi (Masao), Kayoko Kishimoto (Kikujiro's wife), Gidayu Great (Biker/Fatso), Rakkyo Ide (Biker/Baldy), Akaji Maro (Scary Man), Yuko Daike (Masao's Mother), Fumie Hosokawa (Juggling Girl), Daigaku Sekine (Yakuza boss), Beat Kiyoshi (Bus-stop man)
'Its treacly mix of emotional manipulation and klutzy comedy will make it hard to digest for most audiences.' – David Rooney, Variety

Kill

France/Spain/Italy/West Germany 1971
102m Eastmancolor
Procinex-Barnabe/Este/ICAR/Dieter Geissler (Alexander Salkind)
aka: Kill, Kill, Kill
The International Narcotics Bureau's best agent goes to Pakistan to catch the boss of a worldwide drugs syndicate, whose dealers are being killed by a vigilante.
Risible and amateurish thriller, occasionally almost engagingly silly – as when blues pianist Memphis Slim performs in a room occupied by naked, manacled women, dismembered mannequins and a worried man wearing a monocle, or when the dead bounce on trampolines – but more often merely very, very bad. An unshaven Boyd postures in brown leather, Mason frowns, and Seberg's vacuous role is the worst in a career notable for poor performances.
wd Romain Gary ph Edmond Richard m Berto Pisano, Jacques Chaumont ad Enrique Alarcon ed Roger Dwyre
☆ James Mason, Jean Seberg, Stephen Boyd, Curt Jurgens, Daniel Emilfork, Mauro Parenti, Carlos Montoya, Henri Garcin

Kill and Pray (dubbed) ★

Italy/W. Germany 1967 102m colour
Castor/Mancor Chretien/Luce/Tefi (Carlo Lizzani) original title: Requiescant
The adopted son of a preacher discovers that he is the sole survivor of a massacre, instigated by an American in order to steal land promised to the Mexican peasants.
Stylish Marxist spaghetti Western, though the politics are subsumed in the usual ingredients of plangent music, over-the-top confrontations, bizarre happenings and multiple deaths. Pasolini pops up unexpectedly as a revolutionary priest.
w Andrew Baxter, Denis Greene, Edward Williams story Arnold Elias, Frank Mills d Carlo Lizzani ph Alexander Clark m Roger Higgins ad Geoffrey Bailey ed Frank Rubien ☆ Lou Castel, Mark Damon, Pier Paolo Pasolini, Barbara Frey, Rossana Krisman, Mary Ellen Maxwell

'Here comes the bride.'

Kill Bill Vol. 1 ★ (7)

US 2003 110m DeLuxe/bw Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax/Band Apart (Lawrence Bender)
An assassin, left for dead by her former colleagues, wakes after four years in a coma to take her revenge.
Tarantino takes his audience back to the martial arts movies of the 1970s, with gushing blood and severed limbs, a bigger budget and American actors. This first part is just one fight after another, culminating in a spectacular blood-fest which, because of censorship, is shown in black and white.
wd Quentin Tarantino ph Robert Richardson m The RZA pd Yohei Tanada, David Wasco ed Sally Menke martial arts advisor Wo-Ping fight choreographer Sonny Chiba
☆ Uma Thurman (The Bride/Black Mamba), Lucy Liu (O-Ren Ishii/Cottonmouth), Vivica A. Fox (Vernita Green/Copperhead), Daryl Hannah (Elle Driver/California Mountain Snake), Michael Madsen (Budd/Sidewinder), David Carradine (Bill), Michael Parks (Sheriff), Sonny Chiba (Hattori Hanzo), Chiaki Kuriyama (Go Go Yubari), Gordon Liu Chia-hui (Johnny Mo)
'No one delivers that sheer, aneurism-inducing rush with the same intravenous efficiency as Tarantino.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'There is much to admire but little to love.' – James Christopher, Times
† It took $70m at the US box-office.

'Revenge is a dish best served cold.'

Kill Bill Vol. 2 ★ (7)

US 2004 137m colour Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax/Band Apart (Lawrence Bender)
After a flashback to the murder of her friends and future husband at a wedding rehearsal and her training in martial arts, an assassin continues her revenge, culminating in a meeting with her mentor.
Tarantino again raids old movies for spectacular moments and, unlike Kenji Misumi with the first two Lone Wolf movies (qv), is content to reproduce the past rather than adding anything new to the genre. Here, he also succumbs to sentimentality.
wd Quentin Tarantino ph Robert Richardson m The RZA pd Yohei Tanada, David Wasco ed Sally Menke martial arts advisor Wo-Ping fight choreographer Sonny Chiba
☆ Uma Thurman (The Bride/Black Mamba), David Carradine (Bill), Michael Madsen (Budd/Sidewinder), Daryl Hannah (Elle Driver/California Mountain Snake), Gordon Liu (Pai Mei), Michael Parks (Esteban Vihaio), Perla Haney-Jardine (B.B.), Samuel L. Jackson (Rufus), Bo Svenson (Reverend Harmony)
'A truly epic work, a 247-minute revenge saga in which the raw materials of movie memories have been transformed into a deliriously personal reverie that generates a trance-like dramatic power of its own.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A shapeless mess, but at least it's not as monotonous as Kill Bill Vol. 1.' – David Denby, New Yorker
† It took $64.6m at the US box-office.

Kill Her Gently

GB 1958 75m bw
Fortress/Columbia
A madman hires two convicts to murder his wife.
Very mild and unmemorable thriller.
w Paul Erickson d Charles Saunders ph Walter Harvey m Edwin Astley ☆ Griffith Jones, Maureen Connell, Marc Lawrence, George Mikell

Kill Me Again

US 1989 96m DeLuxe
Palace/Propaganda Films/ITC (David W. Warfield, Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Steve Golin)
On the run from her boyfriend, whom she robbed, a woman pays a private eye to fake her death.
Not very successful attempt to recreate the style of 1940s film noir.
w John R. Dahl, David W. Warfield d John R. Dahl ph Jacques Steyn m William Olvis pd Michelle Minch ed Frank Jiminez, Jonathan Shaw, Eric Beason ☆ Val Kilmer, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Michael Madsen, Jonathan Gries, Pat Mulligan, Nick Dimitri

Kill or Cure

GB 1962 88m bw
MGM (George H. Brown)
A series of murders at a nature clinic are solved by a bumbling private detective.
Flatfooted and unprofessional murder farce whose only pace is slow.
w David Pursall, Jack Seddon d George Pollock ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Ron Goodwin ☆ Terry-Thomas, Eric Sykes, Dennis Price, Lionel Jeffries, Moira Redmond, David Lodge, Ronnie Barker

The Kill-Off ★

US 1989 97m Technicolor
Palace/Filmworld International (Lydia Dean Pilcher)
Three men set out to kill a vindictive, bed-ridden town gossip.
Low-life thriller that manages an authentic sleaziness.
wd Maggie Greenwald novel Jim Thompson ph Declan Quinn m Evan Lurie pd Pamela Woodbridge ed James Y. Kwei
☆ Loretta Gross, Andrew Lee Barrett, Jackson Sims, Steve Monroe, Cath Haase, William Russell, Jorjan Fox, Sean O'Sullivan, Ellen Kelly

En Kille Och En Tjej: see A Lover and His Lass

Killer!: see Que la Bête Meure

The Killer ★

Hong Kong 1989 111m colour
Palace/Film Workshop/Golden Princess/Magnum (Tsui Hark)

original title: Diexue Shuang Xiong

A hired killer is double-crossed by his employer.

Excessively violent imitation of Hollywood gangster movies.

wd John Woo ph Wong Wing-Hang, Peter Pao m Lowell Lowe ad Luk Man-Wah ed Fan Kung-Ming

☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Danny Lee, Sally Yeh, Chu Kong, Kenneth Tsang, Lam Chung, Shing Fui-On

'In its serenely overstated way, it is as resonant and emotive as the "classics" it refers to.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

Killer: see Bulletproof Heart (1995)

Killer: a Journal of Murder ★

US 1995 92m Technicolor
First Independent/Spelling/Ixtlan (Janet Yang, Mark Levinson)

In the 20s, a prisoner is befriended by a guard who persuades him to write the story of his life; it turns out to be a confession to 21 murders, and he soon increases the number by beating to death a brutal guard.

A portrait of a self-destructive, cold-blooded killer, based on a true story, but turned into familiar Hollywood fare, notable only for Woods' chilling performance in the title role.

wd Tim Metcalfe book Thomas E. Gaddis, James O. Long ph Ken Kelsch m Graeme Revell pd Sherman Williams ed Richard Gentner

☆ James Woods, Robert Sean Leonard, Ellen Greene, Cara Buono, Robert John Burke, Richard Riehle, Harold Gould

Killer Calibre 32 (dubbed)

Italy 1967 95m Eastmancolor 'Scope
Explorer '58 (Bruno Turchetto)
US title: 32 Caliber Killer

A gunman, who hires himself out to kill criminals at $1000 a time, eliminates a ruthless gang of bank robbers.

Deservedly obscure, slow-moving spaghetti Western, directed in an exaggerated comic-book style and concentrating on the familiar ingredients of gunfights and bar-room brawls; it has most of the clichés of the genre.

w Enzo Gicca d Al Bradley (Alfonso Brescia) ph Bob Roberts m Robby Poitevin ad Lambert Walker ed Edwin Zimmerman

☆ Peter Lee Lawrence (Silver), Sherill Morgan (Doll), Agnès Spaak (Beth), Cole Kitosch (Spot), Lucy Slade (Janet), Andrew Bosich (Averell), Mirko Ellis (Sheriff), Max Dean (Judd), John Barth (Parker)

'The rubber that rubs you out!'

Killer Condom

Germany 1997 107m colour
Ascot/ECCO Film (Ralph S. Dietrich, Harald Reichebner)

original title: Kondom Des Grauens

A gay detective tracks down the creator of live, carnivorous condoms that are emasculating the men of New York.

A one-joke movie. on the seamy underside of big city life, that plays better than it sounds. It efficiently parodies the style of horror movies and has an effectively deadpan performance from Udo Samel as a hard-boiled cop who can gulp down a glass of whiskey without removing the cigarette from the corner of his mouth.

w Ralf Koenig, Martin Walz, Mario Kram comic Ralf Koenig d Martin Walz ph Alexander Honisch m Emil Viklicky ad Agi Ariunsaichan Dawaachu ed Simone Klier sp Joerg Buttgereit creative consultant H.R. Giger

☆ Udo Samel (Luigi Mackeroni), Peter Lohmeyer (Sam Hanks), Marc Richter (Billy), Leonard Lansink (Babette), Iris Berben (Dr Riffleson), Henning Schlueter (Robinson), Ron Williams (Police chief)

'That this German-language film... also deals with dislocation, urban anomie, love and tolerance is among its assets, as are its fun with movies like "Psycho" and its mockery of American politicians who preach moral values while practicing familiar vices.' – Lawrence Van Gelder, New York Times

The Killer Elite

US 1975 120m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Exeter-Persky Bright (Martin Baum, Arthur Lewis)

A private crime fighting organization handles cases which the CIA prefers not to.

Smooth, fashionable violence which seems to proclaim the end of a cycle.

w Marc Norman, Stirling Silliphant novel Monkey in the Middle by Robert Rostand d Sam Peckinpah ph Philip Lathrop m Jerry Fielding

☆ James Caan, Robert Duvall, Arthur Hill, Gig Young, Mako, Bo Hopkins, Burt Young, Tom Clancy

'Merely a commercial chore.' – Tom Milne

'A mysterious, elliptical, visually triumphant film about personal survival in a world of mean-minded machination.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Killer Fish

France/Brazil 1978 101m colour
Victoria/Filmar do Brasil/Fawcett-Majors (Alex Ponti)

The leader of a burglary gang hides their haul in a dammed reservoir which he stocks with piranha fish.

Heavy-going underwater shocker, with no fun while the fish are off-screen.

w Michael Rogers d Antonio Margheriti

☆ Lee Majors, Karen Black, Margaux Hemingway, Marisa Berenson, James Franciscus

'A slapdash actioner which casts its rod in water so overfished of late that it's amazing there's still anything down there biting.' – Variety

Killer Force: see The Diamond Mercenaries

Killer Grizzly: see Grizzly

The Killer Inside Me

US 1976 99m Metrocolor Panavision
Devi (Michael W. Leighton)

A well-respected small-town deputy sheriff in Montana, seriously disturbed by memories of his violent childhood, finds that his life is out of control.

Unimpressive and implausible psychological study of a man's disintegration, lacking the sleazy authenticity of the novel.

w Edward Mann, Robert Chamblee novel Jim Thompson d Burt Kennedy ph William A. Fraker m Tim McIntire, John Rubinstein ed Danford B. Greene, Aaron Stell

☆ Stacy Keach, Susan Tyrrell, Tisha Sterling, Keenan Wynn, John Carradine, Don Stroud, Charles McGraw, John Dehner, Pepe Serna, Royal Dano, Julie Adams

The Killer Is on the Phone

Italy 1972 102m Eastmancolor Cinescope
Cathay/Difnei (Vittorio Bartattolo, Aldo Scavarda)

original title: Assassino ... è al telefono

An unstable actress is stalked by a killer.

A dull and unimaginative thriller.

w Alberto de Martino, Vincenzo Mannino, Adriano Bolzoni, Renato Izzo d Alberto de Martino ph Aristide Massaccesi m Stelvio Cipriani ad Antonio Visone ed Otello Colangeli

☆ Anne Heywood, Telly Savalas, Rossella Falk

† The film was cut to 83m for its British release.

Killer McCoy

US 1947 104m bw
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)

A prizefighter becomes involved in a murder.

Grade A production applied to a grade B script.

w Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Thomas Lennon, George Bruce, George Oppenheimer d Roy Rowland ph Joseph Ruttenberg m David Snell

☆ Mickey Rooney, Ann Blyth, Brian Donlevy, James Dunn, Tom Tully, Sam Levene, James Bell, Gloria Holden

Killer Meets Killer: see Each Dawn I Die

'From the secret archives of the Vatican.'

Killer Nun (dubbed)

Italy 1979 86m colour
Cinesud/Calliope (Enzo Gallo)

original title: Suor Omicidi

In a lunatic asylum, a nun kills the male patients while framing another nun for the murders.

An over-the-top melodramatic horror, given matching histrionics by the cast.

w Giulio Berruti, Alberto Tarallo d Giulio Berruti ph Tonino Maccoppi m Alessandro Alessandroni pd Franco Vanorio ed Mario Giacco

☆ Anita Ekberg (Sister Gertrude), Alida Valli (Mother Superior), Massimo Serato, Daniele Dublino, Laura Nucci, Alice Gerhardi, Ileana Fraja, Lee De Barriault, Paola Morra, Lou Castel, Joe Dallesandro (Patrick)

'This hits all the proper lurid notes. But like many Italian exploitation movies, it's torn between sleaze and artiness.' – Empire

Killer of Killers: see The Mechanic

Killer on a Horse: see Welcome to Hard Times

Killer Tongue

GB/Spain 1996 99m colour 'Scope
Entertainment/Lolafilms/Sogatel/Spice Factory/Noel Gay (Christopher Figg, Andrés Vicente Gómez)

A Martian meteor transforms a bank robber, waiting for her boyfriend, into a creature with a killer tongue, and her pet poodles become drag queens.

Direly stupid comic horror, nasty and tasteless and displaying neither wit nor imagination.

wd Alberto Sciamma ph Denis Crossan m Fangoria pd José Luis del Barco, Cath Pater Lancucki ed Jeremy Gibbs

☆ Melinda Clarke, Jason Dar, Mapi Galán, Mabel Karr, Robert Englund, Alicia Borrachero, Doug Bradley

'Just trash.' – Sight and Sound

'Never sharp or funny enough to engage even passing interest.' – Alan Jones, Empire

'The Screen's All-Time Classic Of Suspense!'

The Killers ★★★

US 1946 105m bw
U-I (Mark Hellinger)

TV title: A Man Alone

In a small sleazy town a gangster waits for two assassins to kill him, and we later find out why.

Elaborate tale of cross and double-cross, stunningly executed.

w Anthony Veiller story Ernest Hemingway d Robert Siodmak ph Elwood Bredell m Miklos Rozsa ad Martin Obzina, Jack Otterson ed Arthur Hilton

☆ Burt Lancaster (Swede), Edmond O'Brien (Jim Reardon), Ava Gardner (Kitty Collins), Albert Dekker (Big Jim Colfax), Sam Levene (Lt. Sam Lubinsky), John Miljan (Jake), Virginia Christine (Lilly Lubinsky), Vince Barnett (Charleston), Charles D. Brown (Packy Robinson), Donald MacBride (Kenyon), Phil Brown (Nick Adams), Charles McGraw (Al), William Conrad (Max)

'About one tenth is Hemingway's, the rest is Universal-International's.' – Richard Winnington

'Seldom does a melodrama maintain the high tension that distinguishes this one.' – Variety

'There is nothing unique or even valuable about the picture, but energy combined with attention to form and detail doesn't turn up every day; neither does good entertainment.' – James Agee

† John Huston contributed to the script but is not credited.

Anthony Veiller; Robert Siodmak; Miklos Rozsa; Arthur Hilton

The Killers ★★★

US 1964 95m Pathecolor
U-I (Don Siegel)

A man waits to be killed.

Zesty, brutal remake of the 1946 movie intended for TV, but released theatrically because of its violence.

w Gene L. Coon story Ernest Hemingway d Don Siegel ph Richard L. Rawlings m Johnny Williams ad Frank Arrigo, George Chan ed Richard Belding

☆ John Cassavetes (Johnny North), Lee Marvin (Charlie), Clu Gulager (Lee), Angie Dickinson (Sheila Farr), Ronald Reagan (Browning), Claude Akins (Earl Sylvester)

† This was Ronald Reagan's last feature film and the first in which he played a bad guy.

Lee Marvin

'Her soft mouth was the road to sin-smeared violence!'

Killer's Kiss

US 1955 64m bw
UA/Stanley Kubrick

A prizefighter rescues a girl from her gangster lover, and is marked for death.

Tedious low-budget indie which first brought its director into notice.

m Gerald Fried wd/ph Stanley Kubrick

☆ Frank Silvera, Irene Kane, Jamie Smith

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Killers of Kilimanjaro

GB 1959 91m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia/Warwick (John R. Sloan)
US title: Adamson of Africa

A railroad engineer helps a girl find her lost father and fiancé.
Old-fashioned safari adventure full of action and animals.
w Richard Maibaum, Cyril Hume
d Richard Thorpe ph Ted Moore
m William Alwyn
☆ Robert Taylor, Anne Aubrey, Grégoire Aslan, Anthony Newley

The Killing ★★

US 1956 83m bw
UA/Harris-Kubrick (J. B. Harris)

An ex-convict recruits helpers to steal two million dollars from a racetrack.
Incisive, entertaining, downbeat caper movie clearly influenced by The Asphalt Jungle and Riffi.
wd Stanley Kubrick novel Clean Break by Lionel White ph Lucien Ballard m Gerald Fried ☆ Sterling Hayden, Marie Windsor, Jay C. Flippen, Elisha Cook Jnr, Coleen Gray, Vince Edwards, Ted de Corsia, Joe Sawyer, Tim Carey

'The visual authority constantly dominates a flawed script.' – Arlene Croce
'The camera watches the whole shoddy show with the keen eye of a terrier stalking a pack of rats.' – Time

'It was a war unlike any other war ... Against an enemy unlike any other enemy.'

The Killing Box ★

US 1992 92m colour
Motion Picture Corporation/Fred Kuehnert (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler)

In the 1860s, a Confederate regiment wiped out in a massacre in Tennessee becomes possessed by inhuman forces from Africa, brought to America by slavers, and forms an army of vampiric zombies.
Quirky, atmospheric horror movie with overtones of voodoo and Lovecraft; it can be taken as an allegory of racism or some other plague, or enjoyed as an intelligent essay in creepiness, although its lack of gore may disappoint fans of the more visceral horrors.
w Matt Greenberg d George Hickenlooper ph Kent Wakeford m Cory Lerios, John D'Andrea pd Mick Strawn ed Monte Hellman sp make-up effects: KNB EFX Group
☆ Corbin Bernsen, Adrian Pasdar, Ray Wise, Cynda Williams, Roger Wilson, Alexjs Arquette, Martin Sheen, Josh Evans, Billy Bob Thornton, Jefferson Mays

'An eerie blend of bleak war movie and mainstream horror ... an outstanding debut.' – Sight and Sound † Hickenlooper has said that the available version was cut by the producers. He also appears in a small role as an artist.

Killing Cars (dubbed)

West Germany 1985 94m colour
Sentana (Mario Krebs)

The designer of a car that runs without petrol finds himself enmeshed in an international conspiracy to bury his invention.
Heavy-handed ecological thriller, more interested in slick surfaces and fashionable posturing than in its ostensible message.
wd Michael Verhoeven ph Jacques Steyn ad Norbert Scherer ed Fred Srp ☆ Jurgen Prochnow, Senta Berger, Agnes Soral, Daniel Gélin, Bernhard Wicki, William Conrad

Killing Dad

GB 1989 93m Technicolor Panavision
Palace/Scottish TV Film Enterprises/British Screen/Applecross (Iain Smith)

When a down-at-heel father tries to return to the family he abandoned more than twenty years before, his ineffectual son decides to kill him.
Limp, forced and unfunny attempt at a black comedy.
wd Michael Austin novel Berg by Anna Quinn ph Gabriel Beristain m Chaz Jankel, David Storrs pd Adrienne Atkinson ed Edward Marner, Derek Trigg ☆ Denholm Elliott, Julie Walters, Richard E. Grant, Anna Massey, Laura del Sol

'Signally fails to amuse.' – MFB

The Killing Fields ★★★

GB 1984 141m colour
Goldcrest/Enigma (David Puttnam)

An American journalist is engulfed in the horror of Cambodia, and his native adviser disappears and is thought to be dead.
Brilliantly filmed, but probably too strong for a commercial audience to stomach, this true adventure tosses one into the horror of modern war and leaves one reeling despite its comparatively happy ending.
w Bruce Robinson, from the article 'The Death and Life of Dith Pran' by Sidney Schanberg d Roland Joffé ph Chris Menges m Mike Oldfield pd Roy Walker ad Steve Spence, Roger Murray Leach ed Jim Clark
☆ Sam Waterston (Sidney Schanberg), Haing S. Ngor (Dith Pran), John Malkovich (Al Rockoff), Julian Sands (Jon Swain), Craig T. Nelson (Military Attache)
Haing S. Ngor (supporting actor); photography; editing best picture; Sam Waterston; adapted screenplay; Roland Joffe best picture; adapted screenplay; Haing S. Ngor (supporting actor)

The Killing Game: see Jeu de Massacre

Killing Machine

Spain 1984 96m colour
Golden Sun/Esme (Carlos Vasallo)

A Spanish lorry driver and explosives expert, on his final journey to Germany, takes revenge on the French gangsters who burned his truck and killed his pregnant wife.
Uninvolving and violent thriller which, despite its transcontinental setting, lacks much sense of place or purpose; the conflict of accents and styles of acting does not aid enjoyment.
wd J. Antony Loma ph Alexander Ulloa m Guido and Maurizio de Angelis ed Nicholas Wentworth
☆ Jorge Rivero, Margaux Hemingway, Lee Van Cleef, Willie Aames, Hugo Stiglitz, Ana Obregon, Richard Jaeckel

Killing Me Softly

US 2002 100m DeLuxe
MGM/Montecito (Lynda Myles, Joe Medjuck, Michael Chinich)

In London, an American woman falls instantly in love with a famous English mountaineer, marries him and then has doubts about the relationship.
Risible romantic twaddle, an overheated clichéd melodrama with its two stars at their most lugubrious.
w Kara Lindstrom novel Nicci French
d Chen Kaige ph Michael Coulter
m Patrick Doyle pd Gemma Jackson
ed Jon Gregory
☆ Heather Graham (Alice), Joseph Fiennes (Adam Tallis), Natascha McElhone (Deborah Tallis), Ulrich Thomsen (Klaus), Ian Hart (Daniel), Jason Hughes (Jake), Helen Grace (Lucy)

'Turkeys don't come plumper than this. It's a jaw-dropping catastrophe of a movie, a gruesome multiple pile-up of reputations.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'I learnt from that experience that you should never accept a film without having the final cut.' – Chen Kaige

The Killing of a Chinese Bookie

US 1976 113m colour
John Cassavetes

A Los Angeles night-club owner is prevailed upon by gangsters to pay off his debt by eliminating a troublesome Chinese.
Another unendurable slab of Cassavetes pretentiousness; why he went on trying, in the face of twenty years of public indifference, is beyond imagining.
wd John Cassavetes
☆ Ben Gazzara, Timothy Carey, Seymour Cassel, Morgan Woodward

The Killing of Angel Street

Australia 1981 100m colour
Forest Home Films (Anthony Buckley)

Residents fight to save old terraced houses from demolition.
Rather routine light drama, like an Ealing comedy without laughs.
w Michael Craig, Cecil Holmes, Evan Jones
d Donald Crombie ph Peter James m Brian May
☆ Elizabeth Alexander, John Hargreaves, Reg Lye, David Downer

'What Power Should A Man Possess To Challenge The Prince Of Darkness?'

The Killing of Satan (dubbed)

Philippines 1983 95m colour
Cinex (Pio C. Lee)

On a small island, the new village headman uses magic powers against the Prince of Magic who has kidnapped his daughter to sacrifice to the devil.
Risible, cheaply made, quasi-religious horror with low-rent special effects and occasional moments of shock and gore.
w Jose Mari Avellana d Efren C. Piñon ph Ricardo Herrera md Ernani Cuenco ad Cornelio Ramirez ed Boy Vinarao
☆ Ramon Revilla (Lando San Miguel), Elizabeth Oropesa, George Estregan, Paquito Diaz, Cecille Castillo (Luisa), Erlyn Umali, Charlie Davao (Satan)

The Killing of Sister George ★

US 1969 138m Metrocolor
Associates and Aldrich/Palomar

An ageing lesbian actress is fired from a TV serial and her life collapses around her.
Heavily handled film version of an amusing and moving play; everything is clumsily spelt out, including the love scenes, and the actresses are forced to repeat themselves.
w Lukas Heller play Frank Marcus
d Robert Aldrich ph Joseph Biroc
m Gerald Fried
☆ Beryl Reid, Susannah York, Coral Browne, Ronald Fraser, Patricia Medina, Hugh Paddick, Cyril Delevanti

'The play was second-rate, but with its nice blend of the homely and the chilling, the absurdist and the perverse, it had the quality of a Kraft-Ebbing comic book. Aldrich and Heller have turned this material into a crawling tear-jerker, the lines spoken at a speed adjusted to non-English or non-language-speaking audiences.' – John Simon
'A clumpingly archaic piece of film-making.' – New Yorker, 1982

The Killing Time

US 1987 95m Foto-Kem
New World/Tapestry (Peter Abrams, Robert L. Levy)

Corruption thrives in a small Californian town, where the sheriff agrees to help his former lover kill her husband, a ruthless businessman, and a murderer has assumed the identity of his new deputy.
Unconvincing thriller with stereotyped characters and a basic plot that has been recycled too often; there's no tension in the tale.
w Don Bohlinger, James Nathan, Bruce Franklin Singer ph Paul H. Goldsmith
m Paul Chihara pd Bernt Amadeus Capra ed Lorenzo Destefano ☆ Beau Bridges, Kiefer Sutherland, Joe Don Baker, Wayne Rogers, Camelia Kath, Janet Carroll, Michael Madsen Killing Zoe ★

US 1993 96m CFI color
Rank/Davis (Samuel Hadida)

An American joins a Parisian gang planning a bank raid on Bastille Day.
Violent, blood-soaked thriller, filmed in a consciously arty manner and borrowing moments from other films on similar themes; there is talent on show, but not a great deal of originality.
wd Roger Avary ph Tom Richmond
m Tomandandy pd David Wasco
ed Kathryn Himoff
☆ Eric Stoltz, Julie Delpy, Jean-Hugues Anglade, Gary Kemp, Bruce Ramsay, Tai Thai, Kario Salem

'Has not much in its head and less in its heart.' – Jonathan Romney, Guardian

Kilroy Was Here

US 1947 68m bw
Monogram (Sid Luft)

A hellraiser of the Pacific war goes to college.
Mild comedy reuniting two former child stars, but without many other ideas.
w Dick Irving Hyland d Phil Karlson ph William Sickner ☆ Jackie Cooper, Jackie Coogan, Wanda McKay, Frank Jenks

Kim ★

US 1950 112m Technicolor
MGM (Leon Gordon)

The orphaned son of a British soldier in India has adventures with his horseman friend who belongs to the British secret service.
Colourful Boys' Own Paper high jinks, quite lively but never convincing.
w Leon Gordon, Helen Deutsch, Richard Schayer novel Rudyard Kipling d Victor Saville ph William Skall m André Previn
☆ Errol Flynn, Dean Stockwell, Paul Lukas, Robert Douglas, Thomas Gomez, Cecil Kellaway, Arnold Moss, Reginald Owen

'Ornate, lavish, but curiously lacking in genuine atmosphere, vitality or period sense.' – Penelope Houston

Kim

GB 2000 89m DeLuxe Panavision
Bard/BSkyB/British Screen/Arts Council/M-Net (Margaret Matheson)

In Namibia, a white woman who works to save endangered elephants, causes family ructions when she falls for a black American lawyer.

Muted story of fractured relationships that sat on the shelf for three years before limping into the light.

wd Elaine Proctor ph Amelia Vincent m Justin Adams pd Mark Wilby ed Nicholas Gaster

☆ Miranda Otto (Anna), Isaiah Washington (Stone), Chris Chameleon (Marius), Moses Kandjoze (Naniserri), Ndondoro Hevita (Old Man), Susan Coetzer (Katinka), Martin Stefanus (Pahere), Cornelius Tjiuma (Chohorerwa)

'A veritable rainbow of cinematic cliché, poor acting and lame dialogue.' – Steve Grant, Sunday Times

Kind Hearts and Coronets

★★★★ (7)

GB 1949 106m bw
Ealing (Michael Relph)

An impecunious heir eliminates eight D'Ascoynes who stand between him and the family fortune.

Witty, genteel black comedy well set in the stately Edwardian era and quite deserving of its reputation for wit and style; yet the effect is curiously muffled and several opportunities are missed.

w Robert Hamer, John Dighton novel Israel Rank by Roy Horniman d Robert Hamer ph Douglas Slocombe md Ernest Irving ad William Kellner ed Peter Tanner

☆ Dennis Price (Louis Mazzini), Alec Guinness (Lord D'Ascoyne/Henry D'Ascoyne/Canon D'Ascoyne/General D'Ascoyne/Admiral D'Ascoyne/Ascoyne D'Ascoyne/Lady Agatha D'Ascoyne/Duke of Chalfont), Valerie Hobson (Edith), Joan Greenwood (Sibella), Miles Malleson (Hangman), Arthur Lowe (Reporter), Audrey Fildes (Mrs Mazzini), John Penrose (Lionel), Hugh Griffith (Lord High Steward), Clive Morton (Prison Governor)

'A brilliant misfire for the reason that its plentiful wit is literary and practically never pictorial.' – Richard Winnington

'Enlivened with cynicism, loaded with dramatic irony and shot through with a suspicion of social satire.' – Daily Telegraph

'The film in general lacks a visual style equal to its script ... All the same, Kind Hearts and Coronets is a very funny film and it gets away with a great deal. With so much, in fact, that its makers deserve salutation as pioneers in the little-explored territory of adult British cinema.' – Lindsay Anderson

'A film which can be seen and seen again with undiminished pleasure.' – Basil Wright, 1972

Kind Lady

★

US 1935 76m bw
MGM/Lucien Hubbard
aka: House of Menace

A confidence trickster insinuates himself and his criminal friends into the house of an invalid lady.

Unusual but unconvincing melodrama with overwrought leading performances.

w Bernard Schubert play Edward Chodorov story Hugh Walpole d George B. Seitz ph George Folsey m Edward Ward

☆ Basil Rathbone, Aline MacMahon, Mary Carlisle, Frank Albertson, Dudley Digges, Doris Lloyd

'Leisurely pace cramps effectiveness.' – Variety

Kind Lady

★

US 1951 78m bw
MGM (Armand Deutsch)

Edwardian-set remake of the above, rather more subtly acted but failing to extract all possible frissons.

w Jerry Davis, Edward Chodorov, Charles Bennett d John Sturges ph Joseph Ruttenberg m David Raksin

☆ Maurice Evans, Ethel Barrymore, Angela Lansbury, Keenan Wynn, Betsy Blair, John Williams

'A curiously tame melodrama whose shocks, when they do come, are muffled and ineffectual.' – Penelope Houston

'Get even... or go under?'

A Kind of Hush

(3)

GB 1998 95m Technicolor
Metrodome/First Film/British Screen (Roger Randall-Cutler)

A gang of rent boys, sexually abused as children, take their revenge by beating up and robbing customers and attempting to blackmail a pimp.

Unlovely revenge drama, in which being abused in the past is shown as excusing abusive behaviour in the present; despite the efforts of a likable cast, it fails to make a convincing case for vengeance.

wd Brian Stirner novel Getting Even by Richard Johnson ph Jack Petrycki m Arvo Part pd Mark Stevenson ed David Martin

☆ Harley Smith (Stu), Marcella Plunkett (Kathleen), Nathan Constance (Tony), Ben Roberts (Simon), Paul Williams (Mick), Peter Saunders (Wivva), Mike Fibbens (Fish), Roy Hudd (Chef)

'Provides a welcome reminder that contemporary British drama can be moving and gritty without relying on constant blaring rock anthems and camera tricks. It is certainly one to make a noise about.' – Screen International

'A Kind Of Loving that knew no wrong until it was too late!'

A Kind of Loving

★★★★

GB 1962 112m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/Waterhall/Vic Films (Joe Janni)

A young north country draughtsman is forced into marriage, has to live with his dragon-like mother-in-law, and finally sorts out a relationship with his unhappy wife.

Blunt melodrama with strong kinship to Saturday Night and Sunday Morning, strikingly directed and photographed amid urban grime and suburban conformity.

w Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall novel Stan Barstow d John Schlesinger ph Denys Coop m Ron Grainer ad Ray Simm ed Roger Cherrill

☆ Alan Bates (Vic Brown), June Ritchie (Ingrid Rothwell), Thora Hird (Mrs. Rothwell), Bert Palmer (Mr. Brown), Gwen Nelson (Mrs. Brown)

'You will be shocked by this highly moral film only if you are shocked by life.' – Evening News

Kindergarten Cop

US 1990 110m colour
Universal (Ivan Reitman, Brian Grazer)

A cop, attempting to catch a drug dealer, works undercover as a teacher.

Muscle-bound would-be comedy, with an undercurrent of brutality and objectionable morality.

w Murray Salem, Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris d Ivan Reitman ph Michael Chapman m Randy Edelman pd Bruno Rubeo ed Sheldon Kahn, Wendy Bricmont

☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Penelope Ann Miller, Pamela Reed, Linda Hunt, Richard Tyson, Carroll Baker, Joseph Cousins, Christian Cousins

The Kindred

US 1987 97m Technicolor
Norkat/F-M Entertainment (Jeffrey Obrow)

Young scientists fall foul of a genetically engineered monster.

Unoriginal and uninteresting.

w Jeffrey Obrow, Stephen Carpenter, John Penney, Earl Ghaffari, Joseph Stefano d Jeffrey Obrow, Stephen Carpenter ph Stephen Carpenter m David Newman pd Chris Hopkins ed John Penney, Earl Ghaffari

☆ David Allen Brooks, Rod Steiger, Amanda Pays, Talia Balsam, Kim Hunter, Timothy Gibbs, Peter Frechette, Julia Montgomery

'The devil made me do it.'

The King

★ (5)

US/UK 2005 105m
Tartan/Content/Film Four (Milo Addica, James Wilson)

Elvis Valderez, 21, leaves the US Navy after three years and goes in search of the father he never met. He turns out to be a pastor with a new family who disowns Elvis.

This desperate struggle for a father's recognition, and the vengeful destruction of his family, makes for a powerful theme. But the story's impetus dissolves before our eyes; the moments of violence are sudden and seem to come from nowhere. As for Elvis's seduction of his half-sister, is it born out of genuine affection or calculation? It remains unclear. An ambitious film, then, thematically and visually (the bleakness of Corpus Christi, Texas, is captured succinctly) but it never quite achieves its aims.

w Milo Addica, James Marsh d James Marsh ph Eigil Bryld m Max Avery Lichtenstein pd Sharon Lomofsky ed Jinx Godfrey

☆ Gael Garcia Bernal (Elvis Valderez), William Hurt (Pastor William Sandow), Laura Harring (Twyla Sandow), Paul Dano (Paul Sandow), Pell James (Malerie Sandow)

'Suffers from an overbearing sense of its own self-importance.' – Dave Calhoun, Time Out

'A noxious film morally and an aggravating one dramatically.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† Despite the lead character's name being Elvis, and a title that alludes to Elvis Presley's nickname, neither fact is referred to in the script.

King and Country

★

GB 1964 86m bw
BHE (Norman Priggen, Joseph Losey)

In the trenches during World War I, a private is court-martialled and shot for desertion.

Neat cinematic treatment of a very downbeat play.

w Evan Jones play Hamp by John Wilson d Joseph Losey ph Denys Coop m Larry Adler pd Richard Macdonald

☆ Tom Courtenay, Dirk Bogarde, Leo McKern, Barry Foster, James Villiers, Peter Copley

The King and Four Queens

US 1956 86m DeLuxe Cinemascope
UA/Russ/Field/Gabco (David Hempstead)

A cowboy braves the wrath of a lady sharpshooter to gain gold and the hand of one of her four daughters.

Tawdry sex Western sporadically enlivened by good-humoured playing.

w Margaret Fitts, Richard Alan Simmons d Raoul Walsh ph Lucien Ballard m Alex North

☆ Clark Gable, Eleanor Parker, Jo Van Fleet, Jean Willes, Barbara Nichols, Sara Shane, Roy Roberts

'A superficially cynical exercise in the rival attractions of sex and money.' – MFB

The King and I

★

US 1956 133m Eastmancolor Cinem
55
TCF (Charles Brackett)

Musical remake of Anna and the King of Siam (qv), from the highly successful stage production.

The film is opulent in lush detail but quite lacking in style.

w Ernest Lehman book/ly Oscar Hammerstein II d Walter Lang ph Leon Shamroy m Richard Rodgers md Alfred Newman, Ken Darby ad Lyle Wheeler, John DeCuir

☆ Deborah Kerr, Yul Brynner, Rita Moreno, Martin Benson, Alan Mowbray, Geoffrey Toone, Terry Saunders

'Gaiety has something of a struggle to survive.' – Penelope Houston

† Deborah Kerr's singing was dubbed by Marni Nixon, and Rita Moreno's by Leona Gordon.

Yul Brynner; Alfred Newman, Ken Darby; art direction best picture; Walter Lang; Leon Shamroy; Deborah Kerr

The King and I

US 1999 87m colour 'Scope
Warner/Morgan Creek/Rankin/Bass/Nest (James G. Robinson, Arthur Rankin, Peter Bakalian)

An English governess helps foil a palace coup against the King of Siam.

An animated, cut-down version of the Broadway musical, now aimed at a youthful audience, with only a handful of the original 20 songs surviving; it may suffice for a wet afternoon.

w Peter Bakalian, Jacqueline Feather, David Seidler; Brian Nissen (additional dialogue) musical Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II adaptor Arthur Rankin d Richard Rich md William Kidd ed James D. Koford

☆ Featuring the voices of: Miranda Richardson (sung by Christiane Noll), Martin Vidnovic, Ian Richardson, Darrell Hammond, Allen D. Hong (sung by David Burnham), Armi Arabe (sung by Tracy Venner Warren), Adam Wylie, Sean Smith

'Broadway musical purists will shudder in horror, but parents will be whistling a happy tune that there's at least one

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

acceptable pic out there for their kids.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

♫ I Whistle a Happy Tune; Hello Young Lovers; Shall I Tell You What I Think of You?; The March of the Siamese Children; Getting to Know You; A Puzzlement; I Have Dreamed; Shall We Dance?

'Hail His Royal High (De Ho) Ness!'
'Filmdom crowns a new king of romance!'

The King and the Chorus Girl

US 1937 94m bw
Warner (Mervyn Le Roy)
GB title: Romance Is Sacred

A European prince on the spree falls for a New York chorine.
Reasonably lively romantic comedy.
w Norman Krasna, Groucho Marx story Grand Passion by Norman Krasna, Groucho Marx d Mervyn Le Roy ph Tony Gaudio m Werner Heymann ☆ Joan Blondell, Fernand Gravet, Edward Everett Horton, Jane Wyman, Alan Mowbray, Mary Nash, Kenny Baker

'Sure word of mouth and a shoo-in for dough.' – Variety

'Rule your fate.'

King Arthur

Ireland/GB 2004 126m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Jerry Bruckheimer

In 452 B.C. warriors who once served Rome attempt to keep the peace in Britain.
A deconstruction of the usual Arthurian legends, putting in their place a darker story of betrayal in a savage Britain.
w David Franzoni d Antoine Fuqua ph Slawomir Idziak m Hans Zimmer pd Dan Weil ed Conrad Buff, Jamie Pearson
☆ Clive Owen (Arthur), Keira Knightley (Guinevere), Ioan Gruffudd (Lancelot), Stephen Dillane (Merlin), Stellan Skarsgard (Cerdic), Ray Winstone (Bors), Hugh Dancy (Galahad), Til Schweiger (Cynric), Ken Stott (Marius Honorius)

'In my memory, these particular knights' deeds will be lucky to last until next week.' – Louisa McLennan, Times
'Sinks into a grim, gray torpor – though it's an odd, not unentertaining movie. The approach is different, if not edifying or convincing.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune

King Arthur Was a Gentleman

GB 1942 99m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

A soldier becomes a hero when he believes he has King Arthur's sword.
Not-too-successful attempt to turn a music hall comedian into a figure of Chaplinesque pathos.
w Val Guest, Marriott Edgar d Marcel Varnel ph Arthur Crabtree ☆ Arthur Askey, Evelyn Dall, Anne Shelton, Max Bacon, Jack Train, Peter Graves, Vera Frances, Ronald Shiner, Brefni O'Rorke

'Don't Mess With Mother Nature!'

King Cobra

US 1998 105m CFI
Trimark/Hill & Brand (David Hillenbrand, Scott Hillenbrand)

After a scientific experiment goes wrong, a giant snake, which is a cross between a cobra and a rattlesnake, threatens a small town.
This might have been called Fangs so closely does it stick to the narrative format of Jaws, with a monster on the loose, a mayor who ignores warnings, and an expert who is brought in for a battle to the death; it is competently done.
wd David Hillenbrand, Scott Hillenbrand ph Philip D. Schwartz m David Berrel pd Jack Cloud ed Guy W. Cearley sp CBFX: Charles Chiodo, Stephen Chiodo, Edward Chiodo
☆ Pat Morita (Nick Hashimoto), Scott Brandon (Dr Brad Kagen), Kasey Fallo (Jo Biddle), Joseph Ruskin (Dr Irwin Burns), Courtney Gains (Dr Joseph McConnell), Eric Lawson (Sheriff Ben Lowry), Arell Blanton (Jesse), Jerry Kernion (Conrad), Michael Leopard (Buck), Erik Estrada (Bernie Alvarez), Hoyt Axton (Mayor Ed Biddle)

'The resultant hokum even manages to make 1997's Anaconda look like a genre triumph. And if that isn't a telling indictment, nothing is.' – Empire

King Creole

US 1958 116m bw Vistavision
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

A failed graduate becomes a singer in a New Orleans night-club, and gets involved with gangsters.
Disagreeable crook melodrama turned into a musical star vehicle.
w Herbert Baker, Michael V. Gazzo novel A Stone for Danny Fisher by Harold Robbins d Michael Curtiz ph Russell Harlan m Walter Scharf
☆ Elvis Presley, Carolyn Jones, Dean Jagger, Walter Matthau, Dolores Hart, Paul Stewart

King David

GB/US 1985 114m Rank Colour Panavision
Paramount/Martin Elfand

The biblical story of David's involvements with Saul, Goliath and Bathsheba.
Astonishingly tedious, confused and inept retelling of familiar tales, especially so for an audience which needs to be lured back to them.
w Andrew Birkin, James Costigan d Bruce Beresford ph Donald McAlpine m Carl Davis pd Ken Adam ed William Anderson
☆ Richard Gere, Edward Woodward, Denis Quilley, Jack Klaff, Cherie Lunghi, Alice Krige, Hurd Hatfield, John Castle, Niall Buggy

A King in New York ★

GB 1957 109m bw
Attica (Charles Chaplin)

A penniless European king finds himself at odds with the American way of life.
Feeble Chaplin comedy from his anti-American period; tedious dialogue and poor physical production allow only momentary flashes of the satire intended.
ph Georges Périnal wd/m Charles Chaplin
☆ Charles Chaplin, Michael Chaplin, Oliver Johnston, Dawn Addams, Jerry Desmonde, Harry Green, Maxine Audley, Sid James

'Unhappily he is a sadder and an older man; the real punch is gone. His dethroned king is an ironically apt image.' – Marvin Felheim
'Maybe the worst film ever made by a celebrated film artist.' – New Yorker, 1977
'It shows how the coming of sound was a curse to Chaplin; how its freedoms dissipated his strengths; how his attempts to exploit it intellectually and ideologically played to his weaknesses; how, in short, he was much more grievously hurt by history in art than by history in politics.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'An overblown, self-piteous excursion into autobiography.' – Time Out, 1984

The King is Alive ★

Denmark/Sweden/Norway/Finland 2000 110m colour
Pathé/Newmarket/Good MachineZentropa (Patricia Kruijer, Vibeke Windelov)

Watched by an elderly black man who is its only resident, a group of tourists are stranded in a ghost town in the Namibian desert when their coach runs out of petrol. While waiting for rescue, they pass the time by acting King Lear, as it is remembered by one of their number, an actor.
Intriguing psychological drama that shades into melodrama as it uses Shakespeare as a source for the intense soul-searching of its characters, who look for love and find desolation.
w Kristian Levring, Anders Thomas Jensen inspired by King Lear by William Shakespeare d Kristian Levring ph Jens Schlosser ed Nicholas Wayman-Harris
☆ Miles Anderson (Jack), Romane Bohringer (Catherine), David Bradley (Henry), David Calder (Charles), Bruce Davison (Ray), Brion James (Ashley), Peter Kubheka (Kanana), Vusi Kunene (Moses), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Gina), Janet McTeer (Liz), Chris Walker (Paul), Lia Williams (Amanda)

'Stylish and gritty, The King Is Alive lacks the impact of revelation that might have made the journey worth taking.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times
† The film was the fourth to be made under the rules of the Dogme declaration.

The King is Dancing: see Le Roi Danse

'Out-leaping the maddest imaginings! Out-thrilling the wildest thrills!'

King Kong ★★★★

US 1933 100m bw
RKO (Merian C. Cooper)

A film producer on safari brings back a giant ape which terrorizes New York.
The greatest monster movie of all, a miracle of trick work and suspense, with some of the most memorable moments in film history.
w James Creelman, Ruth Rose story Edgar Wallace d Merian C. Cooper, Ernest Schoedsack ph Edward Linden, Vernon Walker, L. O. Taylor m Max Steiner ad Carroll Clark, Al Herman, Van Nest Polglase ed Ted Cheesman sound effects Murray Spivak chief technician Willis J. O'Brien
☆ Robert Armstrong (Carl Denham), Fay Wray (Ann Darrow), Bruce Cabot (John Driscoll), Frank Reicher (Capt. Englehorn), Sam Hardy (Charles Weston), Noble Johnson (Native Chief), Steve Clemento (Witch King)
CARL DENHAM (ROBERT ARMSTRONG): 'It wasn't the airplanes. It was beauty killed the beast.'

'If properly handled, should gather good grosses in a walk ... and may open up a new medium for scaring babies via the screen.' – Variety
'Just amusing nonsense punctuated by such reflections as why, if the natives wanted to keep the monster on the other side of the wall, they should have built a door big enough to let him through.' – James Agate

'The most exciting motion picture event of all time!'

King Kong

US 1976 135m Metrocolor Panavision
Dino de Laurentiis

Semi-spoof remake with added sexual overtones; though launched on a massive wave of publicity, it lacks both the charm and the technical resources of its predecessor.
w Lorenzo Semple Jnr d John Guillermin ph Richard H. Kline m John Barry pd Dale Hennesy, Mario Chiari
☆ Jeff Bridges, Charles Grodin, Jessica Lange, John Randolph, René Auberjonois, Julius Harris, Ed Lauter

'The one and original lovable monster is lost amid all the hydraulic manipulations in what now emerges as the story of a dumb blonde who falls for a huge plastic finger.' – Judith Crist, Saturday Review
'Even with colour, the settings of Kong II are no match for the rich black-and-white chiaroscuro of Kong I, with its echoes of artists like Gustave Doré and Max Ernst and its sensitivity to the emotional values of tone and texture.' – Jack Kroll, Newsweek † King Kong Lives (L) crept out minimally in 1986.

visual effects (Carlo Rambaldi, Glen Robinson, Frank Van Der Veer)
Richard H. Kline

'The eighth wonder of the world.'

King Kong ★★★ (8)

US/Germany/New Zealand 2005 187m colour Super 35
Universal/Wingnut/MFPV (Jan Blenkin, Carolynne Cunningham, Fran Walsh, Peter Jackson)

A devious film producer captures a giant ape from a remote island and brings it back to civilisation, where it escapes to frighten New York.
Too long, too sentimental, and too determined to include everything that was left out the first time around, this is a remarkable movie with a convincing great ape; yet it still lacks the charm of the original.
w Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, Peter Jackson story Merian C. Cooper, Edgar Wallace d Peter Jackson ph Andrew Lesnie m James Newton Howard pd Grant Major ed Jamie Selkirk, Jabez Olssen
☆ Naomi Watts (Ann Darrow), Jack Black (Carl Denham), Adrien Brody (Jack Driscoll), Thomas Kretschmann (Capt Englehorn), Colin Hanks (Preston), Jamie Bell (Jimmy), Evan Parke (Hayes), Andy Serkis (Kong/Lumpy the Cook)

'High-powered entertainment, but Jackson pushes too hard and loses momentum over the more than three hours of the movie' – David Denby, New Yorker
'Super-sized version of a yarn that was big to begin with, a stupendous adventure that maximizes, and sometimes oversells, its dazzling wares.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† Howard Shore's score for the movie was not used.
visual effects (Joe Letteri, Brian Van't Hul, Christian Rivers, Richard Taylor); sound (Christopher Boyes, Michael Semanick, Michael Hedges, Hammond Peek); sound editing (Mike Hopkins, Ethan Van der Ryn)
art direction
visual effects

King Lear ★

GB/Denmark 1970 137m bw
Columbia/Filmways-Laterna (Michael Birkett)

Tragedy ensues when an old king prematurely divides his kingdom between his daughters.
Miserably photographed in freezing Jutland, this is a deliberately downbeat version which despite its varied points of interest is extremely hard to sit through.
wd Peter Brook play William Shakespeare ph Henning Kristiansen m none pd Georges Wakhevitch
☆ Paul Scofield, Irene Worth, Alan Webb, Tom Fleming, Susan Engel, Cyril Cusack, Patrick Magee, Jack MacGowran

King Lear

US 1987 90m colour
Cannon (Menahem Globus, Yoram Golan)

A culture expert travelling in France thinks of a mad old man and his daughter as subjects for a film.
Sheer nonsense doodled by the director with someone else's money.
wd Jean-Luc Godard play William Shakespeare ph Sophie Maintigneux ed Jean-Luc Godard ☆ Burgess Meredith, Peter Sellars, Molly Ringwald, Jean-Luc Godard, Norman Mailer, Kate Mailer, Woody Allen

King of Alcatraz ★

US 1938 56m bw
Paramount (William C. Thomas)

Convicts escape on a freighter, but one needs surgery.
Pacy programmer with a stalwart cast.
w Irving Reis d Robert Florey ph Harry Fischbeck md Boris Morros
☆ Gail Patrick, J. Carrol Naish, Lloyd Nolan, Harry Carey, Robert Preston, Anthony Quinn, Dennis Morgan, Porter Hall
'Good gangster actioner ... will please those liking crime cinematics.' – Variety

King of Burlesque ★

US 1935 88m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

A vaudeville impresario overcomes his troubles.
Well-written musical with plenty of variety talent.
w James Seymour, Gene Markey, Harry Tugend d Sidney Lanfield ph Peverell Marley m/ly various ch Sammy Lee ☆ Warner Baxter, Alice Faye, Jack Oakie, Mona Barrie, Arline Judge, Dixie Dunbar, Gregory Ratoff, Herbert Mundin, Fats Waller, Kenny Baker
'Big-time musical, with production, material and cast making up for story shortcomings.' – Variety
† It was remade as Hello Frisco Hello
♫ 'I've Got My Fingers Crossed'; 'Lovely Lady'; 'Spreadin' Rhythm Around'; 'Whose Big Baby Are You?'; 'I'm Shooting High'; 'I Love to Ride the Horses'
Sammy Lee

King of Chinatown

US 1939 56m bw
Paramount (Stuart Walker)

A top racketeer is double-crossed by his henchman.
Smartly paced underworld melodrama.
w Lillie Hayward, Irving Reis, Herbert Biberman d Nick Grinde
☆ Anna May Wong, Akim Tamiroff, Sidney Toler, J. Carrol Naish, Philip Ahn, Anthony Quinn
'Good support for key duals.' – Variety

'It's no laughing matter.'

King of Comedy ★★★★

US 1983 109m Technicolor
TCF/Embassy International (Arnon Milchan)

Obsessed with becoming a chat show host, an aspiring comedian kidnaps his idol and ransoms him for a spot in the show.
Amusing, underplayed farce with a tragic lining: a very convincing picture of the media today.
w Paul D. Zimmerman d Martin Scorsese ph Fred Shuler m various md Robbie Robertson pd Boris Leven ad Lawrence Miller, Edward Pisoni ed Thelma Schoonmaker
☆ Robert DeNiro (Rupert Pupkin), Jerry Lewis (Jerry Langford), Diahnne Abbott (Rita), Sandra Bernhard (Masha)
'This is a very frightening film, and in retrospect nothing about it seems funny at all.' – Variety
'Unquestionably one of the films of the year.' – Guardian
'A most eerie and memorable picture.' – Spectator
best original screenplay

King of Gamblers

US 1937 79m bw
Paramount
aka: Czar of the Slot Machines

A ruthless gangster loves a singer who loves a reporter who is out to expose him.
A muddled script mars this pacy lower-birth item.
w Doris Anderson d Robert Florey ph Harry Fischbeck m Boris Morros ☆ Akim Tamiroff, Claire Trevor, Lloyd Nolan, Buster Crabbe, Porter Hall
'Well enough done to rate okay in the smaller spots solo.' – Variety

King of Hearts

France/Italy 1966 110m Eastmancolor Techniscope
UA/Fildebròc/Montoro (Philippe de Broca)

original title: Le Roi de Coeur
In World War I, a Scottish soldier finds a war-torn town occupied only by lunatics who have escaped from the asylum and who want to make him their king.
Heavy-handed whimsy which never catches fire despite the talents involved.
w Daniel Boulanger d Philippe de Broca ph Pierre Lhomme m Georges Delerue ☆ Alan Bates, Geneviève Bujold, Jean-Claude Brialy, Françoise Christophe, Pierre Brasseur, Micheline Presle, Adolfo Celi, Julien Guiomar

King of Jazz ★★

US 1930 101m Technicolor
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

Musical revue.
Stylish, spectacular, revelatory early musical: a treasure trove.
w Harry Ruskin, Charles MacArthur ph Hal Mohr, Ray Rennahan, Jerome Ash ad Herman Rose devised/d John Murray Anderson
☆ Paul Whiteman and his orchestra, John Boles, Bing Crosby (with the Rhythm Boys), Laura la Plante, Glenn Tryon, Slim Summerville, Walter Brennan
'A box office picture anywhere for one week.' – Variety
♫ 'Happy Feet'; 'A Bench in the Park'; 'My Bridal Veil'; 'Song of the Dawn'; 'I Like to Do Things for You'; 'Music Has Charms'; 'My Lover'; 'It Happened in Monterey'; 'Ragamuffin Romeo'; 'So the Bluebirds and the Blackbirds Got Together'
Herman Rose

'Under a master director and the reverent genius of great players, the story of Christ has taken human form and greater understanding!'
'Dramatic magnificence, spectacular splendour, riotous joy, tigerish rage, undying love, terrifying tempests, appalling earthquakes!'

King of Kings ★★

US 1927 155m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Pathé/Cecil B. de Mille

The life of Jesus, seen more or less from the viewpoint of Mary Magdalene.
A patchy but frequently moving and pictorially effective work, ranging from the sublime (the first view of Jesus as a blind man regains his sight) to the ridiculous ('Harness my zebras, gift of the Nubian king!' says the Queen of Sheba in a sub-title).
w Jeanie Macpherson d Cecil B. de Mille ph J. Peverell Marley ed Anne Bauchens, Harold McLernon
☆ H. B. Warner (Jesus), Jacqueline Logan (Mary Magdalene), Joseph Schildkraut (Judas), Ernest Torrence (Peter), Victor Varconi (Pilate), Dorothy Cumming (Mary, mother of Jesus), Rudolph Schildkraut (Caiaphas), Alan Brooks (Satan)
'The most impressive of all motion pictures.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times
'A picture which will tend to standardize the world's conception of the New Testament ... de Mille has one of the best business minds in pictures and making King of Kings was the most brilliant stroke of his successful business career.' – Welford Beaton, The Film Spectator

'A story of the Christ! The glory of his spoken words!'

King of Kings ★

US 1961 161m Super Technirama
MGM/Samuel Bronston

The life of Jesus Christ.
Known in the trade as I Was a Teenage Jesus, this good-looking but rather tedious film is neither vulgar nor very interesting; a solemn, decent, bible-in-pictures pageant.
w Philip Yordan d Nicholas Ray ph Franz Planer, Manuel Berenger m Miklos Rozsa ad Georges Wakhevitch
☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Robert Ryan, Siobhan McKenna, Frank Thring, Hurd Hatfield, Rip Torn, Harry Guardino, Viveca Lindfors, Rita Gam
'I have decided to confer on King of Kings both my 1961 Scripture Prizes: (1) Dullest; (2) Most Undenominational.' – Dilys Powell
† Nicholas Ray's reaction to film critics who attacked the film was, 'They are not hip enough with the times of Christ.'

The King of Marvin Gardens ★

US 1972 104m Eastmancolor
Columbia/BBS (Bob Rafelson)

The host of a late night radio talk show gets embroiled in his brother's schemes.
Thoughtful tragi-comedy overweighted by talk, but with good performances.
w Jacob Brackman d Bob Rafelson ph Laszlo Kovacs ☆ Jack Nicholson, Bruce Dern, Ellen Burstyn, Julia Anne Robinson
'Indecipherable dark nonsense about brothers and goals and the American dream. An unqualified disaster.' – New Yorker
'Glum news from the people who made Five Easy Pieces, which had a lot of good work in it along with some pretentious flab. In their new picture the flab has taken over.' – Stanley Kauffmann

King of New York

US 1990 103m colour
Rank/Reteitalia/Scena/Caminito (Mary Kane)

Released from prison, a New York gangster takes over the city's drug trafficking by murdering his rivals.
Excessively violent and sadistic fantasy, with a mannered leading performance.
w Nicholas St John d Abel Ferrara ph Bojan Bazelli m Joe Delia pd Alex Tavoularis ed Anthony Redman ☆ Christopher Walken, David Caruso, Larry Fishburne, Victor Argo, Wesley Snipes, Janet Julian, Joey Chin, Giancarlo Esposito
'Executed with the mix of splatter and gallows humour that Ferrara has made his own.' – Sight and Sound
'A nihilistic exercise in designer pessimism stating that the American system is corrupt from top to bottom.' – Philip French, Observer

King of Paris

GB 1935 75m bw
British and Dominions (Herbert Wilcox)

The story of a French stage impresario, supposedly based on Sacha Guitry.
Interesting try for a minority audience.
w W. P. Lipscomb, John Drinkwater, Paul Gangelin play La Voie Lactée by Alfred Savoir, John van Druten d Jack Raymond ph Freddie Young ad L. P. Williams
☆ Cedric Hardwicke, Marie Glory, Ralph Richardson, Phyllis Monkman
'Nothing much to be desired in this picture, excepting a story.' – Variety

King of the Children ★

China 1988 107m colour
ICA/Xi'an Film Studio (Wu Tianming)

A youth, first sent from the city to work on a farm during the Cultural Revolution, is transferred to teach at a remote school where he uses unconventional methods which soon cause trouble.
Pleasant film with much of interest, though its deeper implications are likely to be understood only by a Chinese audience.
w Chen Kaige, Wan Zhi story Haizi Wang by Ah Cheng d Chen Kaige ph Gu Changwei m Qu Xiaosong ad Chen Shaohua ed Liu Miaomiao
☆ Xie Yuan, Yank Xuewen, Chen Shaohua, Zhang Camimei, Xu Guoqing

'Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. A Comedy.'

King of the Corner ★

US 2001 93m colour
Elevation/Two Tequila/Ardustry (Lemore Syvan)

A middle-aged market researcher with family and professional problems undergoes a mid-life crisis after he meets his highschool sweetheart.
Mildly entertaining movie of a man attempting to face the fact that he has given his life to a worthless job and may be passed over for promotion.
w Gerald Shapiro, Paul Riegert stories Bad Jews and Other Stories by Gerald Shapiro d Peter Riegert ph Mauricio Rubenstein m Al Kooper pd Benjamin Conable ed Mario Ontal
☆ Peter Riegert (Leo Spivak), Isabella

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Rossellini (Rachel Spivak), Ashley Johnson (Elena Spivak), Eli Wallach (Sol Spivak), Rita Moreno (Inez), Jake Hoffman (Ed), Harris Yulin (Hargrove), Beverly D'Angelo (Betsy)

'An average film starring an average character actor, but maybe that's the point. This is a story about the benefits of just showing up.' – Akiva Gottlieb, Village Voice

King of the Damned ★

GB 1935 76m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

On a tropical island convict settlement, harsh treatment leads to mutiny.

A downright peculiar project for a British studio at this time, but technically very competent for those who like this kind of thing.

w Charles Bennett, Sidney Gilliat, Noel Langley play John Chancellor d Walter Forde ph Bernard Knowles md Louis Levy ad Oscar Werndorff ed C. Randell

☆ Conrad Veidt, Helen Vinson, Noah Beery, Cecil Ramage, Edmund Willard, Raymond Lovell, Allan Jeayes, Percy Parsons

'Goes so far overboard on gloom that it defeats its own end.' – Variety

King of the Gypsies

US 1978 112m Technicolor
Paramount/Dino de Laurentiis (Anna Gross)

A gypsy leader is denied the hand in marriage of the daughter of a rival, so he kidnaps her.

Ethnic melodrama which despite its vigorous insistence on tradition – or perhaps because of it – plays like a mad musical without any songs.

w Frank Pierson novel Peter Maas d Frank Pierson ph Sven Nykvist, Edward Lachman m David Grisman pd Gene Callahan

☆ Sterling Hayden, Brooke Shields, Shelley Winters, Susan Sarandon, Judd Hirsch, Eric Roberts

King of the Hill ★

US 1993 102m DeLuxe Panavision
Wildwood/Bona Fide/Gramercy (Albert Berger, Barbara Maltby, Ron Yerxa)

A 10-year-old boy grows up in St Louis during the Depression of the 30s.

A gentle, sometimes touching drama of an observant boy trying to make the best of life, but steeped in a somewhat rosy nostalgia.

wd Steven Soderbergh book A. E. Hotchner ph Elliot Davis m Cliff Martinez pd Gary Frutkoff ed Steven Soderbergh

☆ Jesse Bradford, Jeroen Krabbé, Lisa Eichhorn, Karen Allen, Spalding Gray, Elizabeth McGovern, Joseph Krest, Cameron Boyd

'This densely detailed, superbly acted evocation of a resourceful boy's life during the depths of the Depression animates another time and place, while quietly underlining the parallels to contemporary problems.' – Variety

'Body of a Greek god! Strength of a Hercules!'

King of the Jungle

US 1933 73m bw
Paramount

A small boy grows up with lions; he is captured with them and sold to an American circus.

Sub-Tarzan hokum which cheered up the kids.

w Philip Wylie, Fred Niblo Jnr, C. T. Stoneham d H. Bruce Humberstone, Max Marcin

☆ Buster Crabbe, Frances Dee, Douglass Dumbrille, Robert Adair, Robert Barrat

'Minus any help from the marquee it will have to attract on merit alone, and on merit it rates fair business.' – Variety

King of the Khyber Rifles

US 1953 100m Technicolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel Bischoff, David Diamond)

In 1857 a British garrison in India is threatened by the forces of Kuuram Khan but saved by a half-caste officer.

Standard North-West Frontier adventure, old-fashioned and rather dull.

w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts d Henry King ph Leon Shamroy m Bernard Herrmann ad Lyle Wheeler

☆ Tyrone Power, Terry Moore, Michael Rennie, Guy Rolfe, John Justin

King of the Roaring Twenties

US 1961 106m bw
Warner/AA/Bischoff-Diamond

GB title: The Big Bankroll

A gambler, Arnold Rothstein, becomes powerful among twenties gangsters.

Routine crime drama, shoddily made.

w Jo Swerling book The Big Bankroll by Leo Katcher d Joseph M. Newman ph Carl Guthrie m Franz Waxman

☆ David Janssen, Dianne Foster, Mickey Rooney, Mickey Shaughnessy, Diana Dors, Dan O'Herlihy, Jack Carson, Keenan Wynn, William Demarest, Joseph Schildkraut, Regis Toomey, Murvyn Vye

'Superficial, shopworn biography of an infamous bookie.' – MFB

King of the Turf

US 1939 88m bw
Edward Small

A gambler out of luck befriends a small boy who turns out to be his own son.

Hard to take even at the time, this sentimental tariddle does not bear later scrutiny.

wd George Bruce

☆ Adolphe Menjou, Dolores Costello, Walter Abel, Roger Daniel

'Dandy racetrack yarn ... it has a refreshing appeal and the dialogue is excellent.' – Variety

King of the Underworld

US 1938 69m bw
Warner (Bryan Foy)

When her husband is killed by gangsters, a doctor takes her own steps to round them up.

Sex-change remake of Dr Socrates; certainly no better.

w George Bricker, Vincent Sherman d Lewis Seiler

☆ Kay Francis, Humphrey Bogart, James Stephenson, John Eldredge

'It will have trouble even in the duals.' – Variety

King of the Wind

US 1989 102m Technicolor
Enterprise/Davis Panzer/HTV International (Michael Guest, Paul Sarony, Peter S. Davis, William Panzer)

Adventures in France and England of a young Arab groom and his horse.

Lamely told and a waste of everyone's time.

w Phil Frey novel Marguerite Henry d Peter Duffell ph Brian Morgan m John Scott pd Ken Sharp ed Lyndon Matthews

☆ Frank Finlay, Jenny Agutter, Nigel Hawthorne, Navin Chowdhry, Ralph Bates, Neil Dickson, Barry Foster, Jill Gascoine, Joan Hickson, Anthony Quayle, Ian Richardson, Norman Rodway, Peter Vaughan, Richard Harris, Glenda Jackson

King, Queen, Knave ★

US/West Germany 1972 92m
Eastmancolor
Wolper/Maran (Lutz Hengst)

The wife of a Munich bookseller falls for his adolescent nephew.

Amusing, capriciously directed sex comedy.

w David Shaw, David Seltzer novel Vladimir Nabokov d Jerzy Skolimowski ph Charly Steinberger m Stanley Myers

☆ Gina Lollobrigida, David Niven, John Moulder-Brown, Mario Adorf, Carl Fox-Duering

King Ralph

US 1991 97m Eastmancolor
UIP/Universal/Mirage/Ibro (Jack Brodsky)

A Las Vegas entertainer becomes King of England when the Royal Family is electrocuted.

Witless farce, set in an England that even P.G. Wodehouse would have found quaintly old hat.

wd David S. Ward novel Headlong by Emlyn Williams ph Kenneth MacMillan m James Newton Howard pd Simon Holland ed John Jympson

☆ John Goodman, Peter O'Toole, John Hurt, Camille Coduri, Richard Griffiths, Leslie Phillips, James Villiers, Joely Richardson, Niall O'Brian, Julian Glover, Judy Parfitt

'As the man who wouldn't be King if he could help it, Goodman redeems what might have been just another high-concept comedy for the party of humanity.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Even Hell had to have a monarch!'

King Rat ★★

US 1965 134m bw
Columbia/Coleytown (James Woolf)

In Singapore's Changi Gaol during World War II an American corporal lives more comfortably than the other prisoners by shabby dealings with the camp guards.

Overlong but generally gripping character melodrama – 'not a story of escape but a story of survival'.

wd Bryan Forbes novel James Clavell ph Burnett Guffey m John Barry

☆ George Segal, Tom Courtenay, John Mills, James Fox, Denholm Elliott, Todd Armstrong, Patrick O'Neal, James Donald, Alan Webb, Leonard Rossiter, Geoffrey Bayldon

♙ Burnett Guffey

King Richard and the Crusaders

US 1954 113m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner (Henry Blanke)

During the Crusades, the dreaded Saladin arrives in England in disguise and falls in love with Lady Edith...

Crudely confected comic strip version of Sir Walter Scott's The Talisman, ineptly written and cast, with poor production values.

w John Twist d David Butler ph Peverell Marley m Max Steiner

☆ Rex Harrison (Saladin), Virginia Mayo, George Sanders, Laurence Harvey, Robert Douglas

LADY EDITH (VIRGINIA MAYO): 'Fight, fight, fight! That's all you think of, Dick Plantagenet!'

'Do not adjust your set – the sound you hear is Sir Walter Scott turning in his grave.' – Sunday Express

'It shows why the Crusades never really amounted to much.' – Time

King Solomon of Broadway

US 1935 72m bw
Universal

A night-club owner gambles away money he has borrowed from the mob.

Stale underworld melodrama.

w Harry Clork, Doris Malloy d Alan Crosland

☆ Edmund Lowe, Dorothy Page, Pinky Tomlin, Louise Henry, Charles Grapewin

'Won't go very far; mostly for doubles.' – Variety

King Solomon's Mines ★

GB 1937 80m bw
Gainsborough (Geoffrey Barkas)

Explorers in Africa persuade an exiled chief to help them find a diamond mine.

Rather somnolent though well-cast version of a favourite adventure novel, with a splendid final reel.

w Michael Hogan, A. R. Rawlinson, Roland Pertwee, Ralph Spence, Charles Bennett novel H. Rider Haggard d Robert Stevenson ph Glen MacWilliams m Mischa Spoliansky

☆ Cedric Hardwicke, Paul Robeson, Roland Young, John Loder, Anna Lee, Sydney Fairbrother, Robert Adams

'If the pop houses can accept its half-throttle speed, they'll get all the thrills and entertainment they want.' – Variety

'They kept the eye of the camera open for every form of wild and savage life and crammed it all into the picture, so one gets the impression that Allan Quartermain is delivering a lecture with illustrations rather than taking part in an adventure.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

King Solomon's Mines ★

US 1950 102m Technicolor
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)

A woman goes in search of her husband, who disappeared in Africa while seeking the diamond mines of King Solomon.

A remake of Rider Haggard's novel which is largely travelogue with the merest trimmings of story.

w Helen Deutsch novel H. Rider Haggard d Compton Bennett ph Robert Surtees ed Ralph E. Winters, Conrad A. Nervig

☆ Stewart Granger, Deborah Kerr, Richard Carlson, Hugo Haas, Lowell Gilmore

† Andrew Marton directed the second unit sequences.

♟ Robert Surtees; editing

♙ best picture

King Solomon's Mines

US 1985 100m colour
Cinemascope
Cannon

Quatermain is hired by a girl who wants to find her kidnapped father.

Adaptation in the vein of Indiana Jones and then some: the leading characters are almost boiled in a pot. Enjoyment depends on your sense of humour.

w Gene Quintano, James R. Silke novel H. Rider Haggard d J. Lee-Thompson ph Alex Phillips m Jerry Goldsmith

pd Luciano Spadoni ed John Shirley
☆ Richard Chamberlain (Quatermain), Sharon Stone (Jessie), Herbert Lom (Colonel Bockner), John Rhys-Davies (Dogati), Ken Gampu (Umbopo), June Buthelezi (Gagoola), Sam Williams (Scragga)
'The cinema's equivalent to junk food.' – Sunday Mail

The King Steps Out *

US 1936 85m bw
Columbia (William Perlberg)

Emperor Franz Josef falls in love with the sister of the princess to whom he is betrothed.
Rather heavy-handed romance with music, not in its director's best style but showing flashes of his decorative talent.
w Sidney Buchman operetta Cissy by Herbert and Ernst Marischka d Josef von Sternberg ph Lucien Ballard m/ly Fritz Kreisler, Dorothy Fields ad Stephen Goosson
☆ Grace Moore, Franchot Tone, Walter Connolly, Raymond Walburn, Herman Bing, Victor Jory, Elizabeth Risdon, Nana Bryant, Frieda Inescort, Thurston Hall
'Josef von Sternberg asked that it not be included in retrospectives of his work, but he really did make the damned thing.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Kingdom **

Denmark 1994 279m colour
ICA/Zentropa/Denmark Radio TV/Swedish TV/WDR/Arte (Ole Reim)

original title: Riget
Ghosts stalk a large Copenhagen hospital, staffed by unbalanced doctors and nurses.
Bizarre drama, originally made for television, that resembles a patient's worst nightmares, where one doctor abandons his charges to practise voodoo and another is impregnated by the ghost of a malignant murderer; it is the obverse of your average soap opera and compulsive viewing.
w Tómas Gislason, Lars von Trier, Nils Vorsel d Lars von Trier ph Eric Kress m Joachim Holbek ad Jett Lehmann ed Jacob Thuesen, Molly Marlene Stensgaard
☆ Ernst Hugo Järegard, Kirsten Rolffes, Ghita Norby, Soren Pilmark, Udo Kier, Otto Brandenburg, Jens Okking, Holger Juul Hansen
'Meld of black-comedy soap and Z-grade horror flick that looks like an instant cult item among auds willing to go the stretch.' – Variety

Kingdom of Heaven **

GB/Spain.US/Germany 2005 145m
Technicolor 'Scope
TCF/Scott Free/BK/Reino del Cielo/KOH/Babelsberg (Ridley Scott)

In the Twelfth century a blacksmith discovers that he is a knight anjd joins one of the last Crusades to become the defender of Jerusalem against Saladin's Muslim army.
An epic that is designed to throw liberal amounts of light on present day conflicts, which remains its weakness, since it regards the past through the wrong end of a telescope. There are compensations in some muscular battle scenes, but the movie occupies the middle ground between history and sermon with the latter too often getting the upper hand.
w William Monahan d Ridley Scott ph John Mathieson m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Arthur Max ed Dody Dorn cos Janty Yates
☆ Orlando Bloom (Balian), Eva Green (Sibylla), Jeremy Irons (Tiberias), Brendan Gleeson (Reynald), Marton Csokas (Guy de Lusignan), Liam Neeson (Godfrey), Edward Norton (King Baldwin), Ghassan Massoud (Saladin)
'Contrives to make a great and often magnificent fuss about the doings of a feeble hero.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker
'At a time of inter-faith tension, nonsense like this will only reinforce existing myths.' – Professor Jonathan Riley-Smith
'It's so gorgeous you'll forgive it a lot, but this is a frustratingly thin epic.' – Ian Nathan, Empire

Kingdom of the Spiders

US 1977 95m colour
Arachnid/Dimension (Henry Fownes)

In an Arizona valley the death rate soars when tarantulas begin preying in groups on humans instead of singly on each other.
The spiders is coming, as Hitch might have remarked, and not even giant-size. Standard shudders, efficiently presented.
w Richard Robinson, Alan Caillou d John Cardos ph John Morrill, John Wheeler md Igo Kantor
☆ William Shatner, Tiffany Bolling, Woody Strode, David MacLean

'From the idiots what brung you Dumb and Dumber.'

Kingpin

US 1996 113m DeLuxe Super 35
Entertainment/Rysher/Motion Picture Corp (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler, Bradley Thomas)

A sleazy tenpin bowling champion is matched against one of his former victims, a one-armed alcoholic.
Dismal, rotten comedy, peopled by grotesques and driven by disgust.
w Barry Fanaro, Mort Nathan d Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly ph Mark Irwin m Freedy Johnston pd Sidney J. Bartholomew Jnr ed Christopher Greenbury ☆ Woody Harrelson, Randy Quaid, Vanessa Angel, Bill Murray, Chris Elliott, William Jordan, Richard Tyson
'Another unsubtle, ugly farce featuring people to whom even the dimmest audience can feel intellectually superior.' – George Perry

Kings and Desperate Men

Canada 1983 118m colour
Alexis Kanner

A radio talk show host is held hostage by a group of unpredictable, idealistic terrorists.
Indulgently scripted, directed and acted, and dreary to watch.
w Edmund Ward, Alexis Kanner d Alexis Kanner ph Henry Lucas, Paul Van der Linden m Michel Robidoux, Pierre F. Brault ad Will McCrow ed Henry Lucas
☆ Patrick McGoohan, Alexis Kanner, Andrea Marcovicci, Margaret Trudeau

Kings Go Forth

US 1958 109m bw
UA/Ross-Eton (Frank Ross)

August 1944: two American soldiers fall out over a black French woman who is torn between them.
Heavy-going war melodrama, well enough done for those who can take it.
w Merle Miller novel Joe David Brown d Delmer Daves ph Daniel Fapp m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Frank Sinatra, Tony Curtis, Natalie Wood, Leora Dana, Karl Swenson

Kings of the Road

Germany 1975 176m bw
Wim Wenders Productions

original title: Im Lauf der Zeit
Two men on a bus talk of their past lives, their problems, their hopes and their fears.
Impossibly tedious two-hander which doubtless says something about life for those with the patience to sit it out.
wd Wim Wenders ph Robby Müller, Martin Schäfer m Alex Linstädt ed Peter Pryzgodda ☆ Rüdiger Vogler, Hanns Zischler, Lisa Kreuzer

Kings of the Sun

US 1963 108m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch (Lewis J. Rachmil)

A Mayan tribe emigrates from Mexico to Texas and makes peace with the local Indian chief.
Ponderous dark age epic replete with human sacrifice, high-mindedness and solemn pauses. The actors and sets carry it as far as it will go.
w Elliott Arnold, James R. Webb d J.Lee-Thompson ph Joe MacDonald m Elmer Bernstein ad Alfred Ybarra
☆ Yul Brynner, George Chakiris, Shirley Anne Field, Richard Basehart, Brad Dexter, Barry Morse

'The king's ships the king's gold the king's girls ... were the treasure!'

The King's Pirate

US 1967 100m Technicolor
Universal (Robert Arthur)

An American in the 18th-century British navy infiltrates a pirate stronghold in Madagascar.
Tatty remake of Against All Flags, rising to a few minor heights of swashbuckling.
w Paul Wayne d Don Weis ph Clifford Stine m Ralph Ferraro ☆ Doug McClure, Jill St John, Guy Stockwell, Kurt Kasznar, Torin Thatcher, Richard Deacon, Sean McClory

King's Rhapsody

GB 1955 93m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Everest (Herbert Wilcox)

An exiled Ruritanian king leaves his mistress to return home to a political marriage.
Love versus duty in a ludicrously inept film of Ivor Novello's highly theatrical musical drama, cheaply made and killed stone dead by casting and wide screen.
w Pamela Bower, Christopher Hassall, A. P. Herbert d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene ☆ Errol Flynn, Anna Neagle, Patrice Wymore, Martita Hunt, Finlay Currie

'Out of the hushed strangeness of these lives, and out of the shadows that hid their shame, filmdom has fashioned a drama most unusual, most touching and most wonderful!'
'The town they talk of in whispers!'

Kings Row ****

US 1942 127m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

In a small American town during the early years of the century, three children grow up into a world of cruelty and madness.
Superb Hollywood melodrama, a Peyton Place with great visual strength, haunting music and a wholly absorbing if incredible plot.
w Casey Robinson novel Henry Bellamann d Sam Wood ph James Wong Howe m Erich Wolfgang Korngold pd William Cameron Menzies ad Carl Jules Weyl ed Ralph Dawson
☆ Ann Sheridan (Randy Monoghan), Robert Cummings (Parris Mitchell), Ronald Reagan (Drake McHugh), Claude Rains (Dr. Alexander Tower), Betty Field (Cassandra Tower), Charles Coburn (Dr. Henry Gordon), Nancy Coleman (Louise Gordon), Maria Ouspenskaya (Mme. Von Eln), Harry Davenport (Col. Skeffington), Judith Anderson (Mrs. Harriet Gordon), Karen Verne (Elise Sandor)
DRAKE (RONALD REAGAN): 'Where's the rest of me?'
'Half masterpiece and half junk.' – James Agate
'Tranquilly accepting many varieties of psychopathic behaviour as the simple facts of life, this film has its own kind of sentimental glow, yet the melodramatic incidents are surprisingly compelling.' – New Yorker, 1982
'One of the great melodramas, a veritable Mount Rushmore of physical and emotional cripples.' – Time Out, 1981
† The film was made in 1941, but its release was delayed for a year because the studio thought it too downbeat. It was not a great box-office success.
🎗 best picture; Sam Wood; James Wong Howe

A King's Story *

GB 1965 102m Technicolor
Le Vien Films (Jack Le Vien)

Interviews with the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are interspersed with newsreels of the abdication crisis.
Earnest popular documentary with many points in its favour, including a resounding commentary by Orson Welles.
w Glyn Jones d Harry Booth m Ivor Slaney 🎗 best documentary

The King's Thief

US 1955 79m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)

The Duke of Brampton plots treason against Charles II but a highwayman robs him of an incriminating notebook.
Dismal swashbuckler with neither zest nor style, just a cast of unhappy-looking actors.
w Christopher Knopf story Robert Hardy Andrews d Robert Z. Leonard ph Robert Planck m Miklos Rozsa
☆ David Niven, Edmund Purdom, Ann Blyth, George Sanders, Roger Moore

The King's Vacation

US 1933 62m bw
Warner

A king abdicates to seek the simple life.
Pleasing fable with a few theatrical ironies.
w Ernest Pascal, Maude T. Howell d John Adolfi
☆ George Arliss, Florence Arliss, Dick Powell, Marjorie Gateson, Dudley Digges

The King's Whore *

France/GB/Austria/Italy 1990 138m colour
ASC/FR3/Cinema e Cinema/Umbrella (Maurice Benart, Wieland Schullz-Keil, Paolo Zaccaria)

The beautiful wife of a courtier is forced to become a king's mistress.
Sumptuously romantic drama, conceived on a grand scale, but ultimately failing to live up to it.
w Daniel Vigne, Frederic Raphael, Axel Corti, Derek Marlowe novel Jeanne, Putain

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

du Roi by Jacques Tournier d Axel Corti ph Gernot Roll m Gabriel Yared pd Francesco Frigeri ed Joelle Van Effenterre

☆ Timothy Dalton, Valeria Golino, Stephane Freiss, Robin Renucci, Feodor Chaliapin, Eleanor David, Margaret Tyzack, Paul Crauchet

'The 17th century melodrama is less magnificent than it first appears, as it proves to be built around the small and inflexible obsessions of less-than-heroic characters.' – Variety

'A movie that makes one glad to have missed the 17th century.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Kini and Adams ★

France 1997 93m colour 'Scope
Noe/Les Films de la Plaine/Polar/Framework (Cedomir Kola, Sophie Salbot, Frédérique Dumas)

Two impoverished farmers, who dream of starting a new life in the city, fall out when one of them gets a better job than the other.

Ambitious, but not always successful, drama of male rivalry, where the landscapes come near to overwhelming the characters.

w Idrissa Ouédraogo, Olivier Lorelle, Santiago Amigorena d Idrissa Ouédraogo ph Jean-Paul Meurisse m Wally Badarou ad Heather Cameron ed Monica Coleman

☆ Vusi Kunene, David Mohloki, Nthati Moshesh, John Kani, Netsayi Chigwendere, Fidelis Cheza

Kinjite: Forbidden Subjects

US 1989 97m TVC Color
Cannon/Golan Globus (Pancho Kohner)

A cop goes after a pimp specializing in child prostitutes.

Depressingly violent and nasty thriller, little more than a rerun of the star's Death Wish vigilante series.

w Harold Nebenzal d J. Lee-Thompson ph Gideon Porath ed Peter Lee-Thompson, Mary E. Jochem

☆ Charles Bronson, Perry Lopez, Juan Fernandez, Peggy Lipton, James Pax, Sy Richardson, Marion Kodama Yue, Bill McKinney

'How Far Would You Go To Save The Family Business?'

Kinky Boots ★

GB/US 2005 106m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Miramax/Harbour/Price (Nick Barton, Suzanne Mackie, Peter Ettedgui)

The heir to a failing family shoe business discovers from a drag artist that there's a market for transvestite footwear.

Amiable, saucy comedy that would do well as an end of the pier show.

w Geoff Deane, Tim Firth d Julian Jarrold ph Eigil Bryld m Adrian Johnston pd Alan Macdonald ed Emma E. Hickox

☆ Joel Edgerton (Charlie Price), Chiwetel Ejiofor ('Lola'), Sarah-Jane Potts (Lauren), Jemima Rooper (Nicola), Linda Bassett (Melanie), Nick Frost (Don), Ewan Hooper (George)

'This film is dragging its high heels.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Let's talk about sex.'

Kinsey ★★★

US 2004 118m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Qwerty/N1 European/American Zoetrope/Pretty Pictures (Gail Mutrux)

Biopic of Dr Alfred Kinsey, the pioneering researcher whose book Sexual Behaviour in the Human Male caused a sensation in 1948 (and was later followed by a similar work on women's sexual behaviour).

Engrossing study of a man who knew everything about sex and nothing about people; Liam Neeson's performance brings out Kinsey's prickly character and his overwhelming curiousity that led him to practise what he researched. It also brilliantly captures the social and political attitudes of Kinsey's era.

wd Bill Condon ph Frederick Elmes m Carter Burwell pd Richard Sherman ed Virginia Katz

☆ Liam Neeson (Alfred Kinsey), Laura Linney (Clara McMillen), Chris O'Donnell (Wardell Pomeroy), Peter Sarsgaard (Clyde Martin), Timothy Hutton (Paul Gebhard), John Lithgow (Alfred Seguine Kinsey), Tim Curry (Thurman Rice), Oliver Platt (Herman Wells), Dylan Baker (Herman Wells), Lynn Redgrave (Final Interview Subject)

'Playful and happy and even naughty. It's partly a scientific brief, partly a song of sex, and it's enormously enjoyable.' – David Denby, New Yorker

'The movie wants to entertain and educate, not leer, about people flummoxed by participating in a revolution they had meant only to calibrate, and at that it succeeds handsomely.' – Richard Corliss, Times

♗ Laura Linney

Kipps ★★★

GB 1941 112m bw
TCF (Edward Black)

US title: The Remarkable Mr Kipps

In 1906, a draper's assistant comes into money and tries to crash society.

Charming, unassuming film of a well-loved novel, later musicalized as Half a Sixpence.

w Sidney Gilliat novel H. G. Wells d Carol Reed ph Arthur Crabtree m Charles Williams ed R.E. Dearing

☆ Michael Redgrave (Arthur Kipps), Phyllis Calvert (Ann Pornick as a woman), Diana Wynyard (Helen Walshingham), Arthur Riscoe (Chitterlow), Max Adrian (Chester Coote), Helen Haye (Mrs. Walshingham), Michael Wilding (Ronnie Walshingham), Lloyd Pearson (Shalford), Edward Rigby (Buggins), Hermione Baddeley (Miss Mergle), Frank Pettingell (Old Kipps), Beatrice Varley (Mrs. Kipps), Kathleen Harrison, Felix Aylmer

'It has the old fashioned charm of wax roses under a glass bell.' – New York Times

Kisenga, Man of Africa: see Men of Two Worlds

Kismet

US 1930 90m bw 65mm Vitascope
Warner

An Oriental magician overcomes a wicked vizier.

Rather tame filming of a spectacular which belongs on the stage.

w Howard Estabrook play Edward Knoblock d John Francis Dillon ph John Seitz

☆ Otis Skinner, Loretta Young, David Manners, Mary Duncan, Sidney Blackmer, Ford Sterling, Edmund Breese, Montagu Love

Kismet ★

US 1944 100m Technicolor
MGM (Everett Riskin)
TV title: Oriental Dream

Hollow and humourless but striking-looking remake of the above.

w John Meehan d William Dieterle ph Charles Rosher m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Daniel B. Cathcart

☆ Ronald Colman, Marlene Dietrich, James Craig, Edward Arnold, Hugh Herbert, Joy Ann Page, Florence Bates, Harry Davenport, Hobart Cavanaugh, Robert Warwick

'Enormous sets and crowding players are handled with such a clarity of line and colour that their gorgeousness never becomes untidy.' – MFB

♗ Charles Rosher; Herbert Stothart; art direction

Kismet

US 1955 113m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Arthur Freed)

Unlucky musical remake from the stage show with Borodin music.

w Charles Lederer, Luther Davis musical play Charles Lederer, Luther Davis d Vincente Minnelli ph Joseph Ruttenberg ch Jack Cole ad Cedric Gibbons, Preston Ames

☆ Howard Keel, Ann Blyth, Dolores Gray, Vic Damone, Monty Woolley, Sebastian Cabot, Jay C. Flippen, Mike Mazurki, Jack Elam

'The whole thing was done with too heavy a hand.' – Howard Keel

The Kiss ★

US 1929 64m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM (Albert Lewin)

A woman is accused of the murder of her jealous husband.

A wisp of a melodrama, enlivened by its star; otherwise only notable as MGM's last silent picture.

w Hans Kraly d Jacques Feyder ph William Daniels

☆ Greta Garbo, Lew Ayres, Conrad Nagel, Holmes Herbert, Anders Randolf

The Kiss

US 1988 98m colour
Columbia TriStar/Trilogy Entertainment/Astral Film Enterprises (Pen Densham, John Watson)

A glamorous model is possessed by a demonic snake-like creature.

Unimaginative horror movie.

w Stephen Volk, Tom Ropelewski d Pen Densham ph François Protat m J. Peter Robinson pd Roy Forge Smith ed Stan Cole sp Chris Walas

☆ Pamela Collyer, Peter Dvorsky, Joanna Pacula, Meredith Salenger, Mimi Kuzyk, Nicholas Kilbertus, Sabrina Boudot, Shawn Levy, Jan Rubes, Celine Lomez

Kiss and Kill: see Sax Rohmer's The Blood of Fu Manchu

'Women were putty in his hands!'

Kiss and Make Up

US 1934 80m bw
Paramount (B. P. Schulberg)

A Parisian beauty specialist forsakes a rich client for his loyal secretary.

Forgettable romantic comedy.

w Harlan Thompson, George Marion Jnr play Stephen Bekeffi d Harlan Thompson ph Leon Shamroy

☆ Cary Grant, Genevieve Tobin, Helen Mack, Edward Everett Horton, Lucien Littlefield, Mona Maris

'More gags than romance ... a nice picture lacking sufficient strength to wow, but should do all right.' – Variety

Kiss and Tell ★

US 1945 92m bw
Columbia (Sol C. Siegel)

To protect another girl, an irrepressible teenager pretends to be pregnant.

Good-humoured farcical comedy which at the time was thought pretty shocking, especially with the infant darling of the thirties in the lead.

w F. Hugh Herbert play F. Hugh Herbert d Richard Wallace ph Charles Lawton m Werner Heymann

☆ Shirley Temple, Robert Benchley, Walter Abel, Jerome Courtland, Katherine Alexander, Porter Hall, Tom Tully

'All brilliantly characteristic of the worst anyone could think of American life.' – James Agee

A Kiss before Dying ★

US 1956 94m DeLuxe Cinemascope
UA/Crown (Robert Jacks)

A college boy kills women who get in his way.

Reasonably absorbing exercise in psychopathology which would have been more effective on a smaller screen.

w Lawrence Roman novel Ira Levin d Gerd Oswald ph Lucien Ballard m Lionel Newman

☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Joanne Woodward, Robert Wagner, Virginia Leith, Mary Astor, George Macready

A Kiss before Dying ★

US 1991 93m Eastmancolor
UIP/Universal/Initial (Robert Lawrence)

A woman discovers that the man she married is a multiple murderer.

Moderately effective thriller, though it offers a considerable simplification of the novel on which it is based.

wd James Dearden novel Ira Levin ph Mike Southon m Howard Shore pd Jim Clay ed Michael Bradsell

☆ Matt Dillon, Sean Young, Max von Sydow, Jim Fyfe, Ben Browder, Diane Ladd, James Bonfanti

'As exciting as watching someone go bald.' – Anthony Lane, Independent on Sunday

The Kiss before the Mirror

US 1933 66m bw
Universal

A lawyer defends a man who killed his wife from jealousy, then finds that the same thing is happening to him.

Stilted drama which was thought stylish at the time but is now a disappointment from this director; miscast, too.

w William Anthony McGuire play Lazslo Fodor d James Whale ph Karl Freund ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Frank Morgan, Nancy Carroll, Gloria Stuart, Paul Lukas, Charles Grapewin

'Direction and adaptation lift this one into passable entertainment.' – Variety

† It was remade in 1938 as Wives Under Suspicion.

A Kiss for Corliss

US 1949 88m bw
UA/Strand/James Nasser (Colin Miller)

aka: Almost a Bride

A teenager develops a crush on a middle-aged roué.

Dismal sequel to Kiss and Tell in the shadow of The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer.

w Howard Dimsdale d Richard Wallace ph Robert de Grasse m Werner Heymann

☆ David Niven, Shirley Temple, Tom Tully, Darryl Hickman, Virginia Welles

'A disastrous teenage potboiler.' – David Niven

'I sometimes think that David Niven/ Should not take all the parts he's given;/ While of the art of Shirley Temple/I, for the moment, have had ample.' – C. A. Lejeune

A Kiss in the Dark

US 1949 87m bw
Warner (Harry Kurnitz)

A concert pianist finds romance in a boarding house peopled with zany characters.

Paper-thin romantic comedy.

w Harry Kurnitz d Delmer Daves ph Robert Burks m Max Steiner

☆ David Niven, Jane Wyman, Broderick Crawford, Maria Ouspenskaya, Victor Moore, Wayne Morris, Joseph Buloff, Curt Bois

'A hopeless farce... Their love affair is about as interesting to follow as the Jersey City telephone directory.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Kiss Kiss Bang Bang ★★ ⑦

US 2005 103m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Joel Silver)

A crook turned actor becomes involved in a murder investigation, together with his long-lost girlfriend and a gay detective.

Intricate, enjoyable thriller that twists and turns enough to leave an audience dizzy.

wd Shane Black novel Bodies Are Where You Find Them by Brett Halliday ph Michael Barrett m John Ottman pd Aaron Osborne ed Jim Page

☆ Robert Downey Jnr (Harry Lockhart), Val Kilmer (Gay Perry), Michelle Monaghan (Harmony Faith Lane), Corbin Bernsen (Harlan Dexter), Dash Mihok (Mr Frying Pan)

'It's one nutty holiday fruitcake that is appetizing and tasty.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun

Kiss Me Again ★★

US 1925 77m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Warner

A bored wife is tempted to stray, but doesn't.

Excellent silent comedy from an old boulevard farce, remade to less effect in the forties as That Uncertain Feeling.

w Hans Kraly play Divorçons by Victorien Sardou, Emile de Najac d Ernst Lubitsch ph Charles von Enger

☆ Marie Prévost, Monte Blue, John Roche, Willard Louis, Clara Bow

'Another sex masterpiece from the Attila of Hollywood ... Continental high comedy done in the central European manner with Germanic harshness and irony of attack.' – Ted Shane, New Yorker

'Perhaps the most exquisite light screen comedy ever made on the subject of l'amour.' – Herman G. Weinberg

Kiss Me Again

US 1931 74m Technicolor
Warner
GB title: Toast of the Legion

A French lieutenant and a cabaret singer chase each other half across the world.

Modest musical from Victor Herbert's Mademoiselle Modiste; popular at the time as a vehicle for two-colour Technicolor.

w Julien Josephson, Paul Perez d William A. Seiter

☆ Walter Pidgeon, Bernice Claire, Frank McHugh, Edward Everett Horton

'Doubtful as strong b.o. but clean, deserving, and may get a break.' – Variety

'I don't care what you do to me, Mike – just do it fast!'

'Blood red kisses! White hot thrills! Mickey Spillane's latest H-bomb!'

Kiss Me Deadly ★★★

US 1955 105m bw
UA/Parklane (Robert Aldrich)

By helping a girl who is nevertheless murdered, Mike Hammer prevents crooks from stealing a case of radio-active material.

Exuberant and harsh thriller set in an unlovely world and shot with brutal close-ups and unusual camera angles that create a disquieting effect. It is as unremittingly tough as its thuggish hero.

w A. I. Bezzerides novel Mickey Spillane d Robert Aldrich ph Ernest Laszlo m Frank de Vol ad William Glasgow ed Michael Luciano

☆ Ralph Meeker (Mike Hammer), Albert Dekker (Dr. Soberin), Cloris Leachman (Christina Bailey/Berga Torn), Paul Stewart (Carl Evello), Juano Hernandez (Eddie Yeager), Wesley Addy (Pat Chambers), Maxene Cooper (Velda), Gaby Rodgers (Gabrielle/Lily Carver)

'This meeting of "art" and pulp literature is, to say the least, curious.' – MFB

Kiss Me Goodbye

US 1982 101m DeLuxe
TCF/Boardwalk/Burt Sugarman/Keith Barish (Robert Mulligan)

A widow planning to marry again is harassed by the ghost of her first husband.

It worked in Blithe Spirit, but this is on a different level, a toned-down rendering of the heavy-breathing Brazilian farce Donna Flor and Her Two Husbands, and it doesn't work on any level.

w Charlie Peters d Robert Mulligan ph Donald Peterman m Ralph Burns pd Philip M. Jefferies ed Sheldon Kahn

☆ James Caan, Sally Field, Jeff Bridges, Paul Dooley, Claire Trevor, Mildred Natwick, William Prince

Kiss Me Guido

US/GB 1997 86m colour
Paramount/Capitol/Kardana/Swinsky/Redeemable (Ira Deutchman, Christine Vachon)

A hopeful heterosexual actor leaves home for a flat-share and discovers that his fellow-tenant is gay.

Feeble sitcom with few laughs and nothing else to recommend it, whatever your sexual predilections.

wd Tony Vitale ph Claudia Raschke pd Jeffrey Rathaus ed Alexander Hall

☆ Nick Scotti, Anthony Barrile, Anthony DeSando, Craig Chester, Dominick Lombardozzi, Molly Price, Christopher Lawford

'A bright, snappy culture-clash farce.' – Variety

'Bigger, Better, Blushing-er Than The Famed Broadway Smash Hit!'

Kiss Me Kate ★★

US 1953 111m Anscocolor 3-D
MGM (Jack Cummings)

The married leading players of a musical version of The Taming of the Shrew lead an equally tempestuous life backstage.

Brisk, bright screen version of the Broadway musical hit.

w Dorothy Kingsley play Samuel and Bella Spewack d George Sidney ph Charles Rosher m/ly Cole Porter md André Previn, Saul Chaplin ch Hermes Pan ad Cedric Gibbons, Urie McCleary ed Ralph E. Winters

☆ Howard Keel (Fred Graham/Petruchio), Kathryn Grayson (Lilli Vanessi/Katherine), Ann Miller (Lois Lane/Bianca), Keenan Wynn (Lippy), Bobby Van (Gremio), Tommy Rall (Bill Calhoun/Lucentio), James Whitmore (Slug), Bob Fosse (Hortentio), Kurt Kasznar (Baptista)

♫ So in Love; Too Darn Hot; So Kiss Me Kate; Why Can't You Behave; Wunderbar; We Open in Venice; Tom, Dick or Harry; I've Come to Wive it Wealthily in Padua; I Hate Men; Were Thine That Special Face; Where is the Life That Late I Led?; Always True to You in My Fashion; Brush Up Your Shakespeare; From This Moment On

♗ André Previn, Saul Chaplin

Kiss Me Stupid ★

US 1964 124m bw Panavision
UA/Mirisch/Phalanx/ (Billy Wilder)

A womanizing pop singer stops overnight in a small California desert town and shows interest in an unsuccessful songwriter in order to get at his wife.

Draggy, tasteless, surprisingly unamusing smoking room story, with the actors behaving as though driven against their will (apart from Dean Martin, ideally cast as the idol who gets a headache if he doesn't have sex every night). Some good wisecracks, but it should have been much faster and funnier.

w Billy Wilder, I. A. L. Diamond play L'oro della fantasia by Anna Bonacci d Billy Wilder ph Joseph LaShelle m André Previn m/ly George and Ira Gershwin pd Alexander Trauner

☆ Dean Martin, Kim Novak, Ray Walston, Cliff Osmond

'A work of ferocious tastelessness ... Swiftian in its relentless disgust.' – Peter Barnes

'You know what I do to squealers? I let them have it in the belly. So they can roll around for a long time thinking it over!'

Kiss of Death ★★

US 1947 98m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)

A captured thief informs on his own gang, and a psychopathic killer is sent to extract vengeance.

Gloomy, well-made semi-location thriller which descends into heavy melodrama. Remade as The Fiend Who Walked the West.

w Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer d Henry Hathaway ph Norbert Brodine m David Buttolph

☆ Victor Mature, Richard Widmark, Brian Donlevy, Coleen Gray, Karl Malden, Taylor Holmes

'A tense, terrifying crime melodrama with an unusually authentic seamy atmosphere.' – New Yorker, 1980

'Economy of narration enhances the compactness and tautness of the whole and achieves that rarity, a picture minus unnecessary footage.' – National Board of Review

'It illustrates a new and vigorous trend in US moviemaking. One of the best things that is happening in Hollywood is the tendency to move out of the studio – to base fictional pictures on fact, and to shoot them not in painted studio sets but in actual places.' – James Agee

♗ original story (E. Lipsky); Richard Widmark

'Whatever doesn't kill you ... makes you stronger.'

Kiss of Death ★

US 1995 101m DeLuxe
TCF (Barbet Schroeder, Susan Hoffman)

A former car thief finds himself locked in a battle of survival with a vicious criminal.

A heavily rewritten remake of the above, which was intended to launch Caruso, from TV's NYPD Blue, as a film star, but his performance seemed wan when confronted by the scenery-chewing Cage as a quirky psychopath, unbalancing the narrative and reducing interest in the story's outcome.

w Richard Price story Eleazar Lipsky d Barbet Schroeder ph Luciano Tovoli m Trevor Jones pd Mel Bourne ed Lee Percy

☆ David Caruso, Nicolas Cage, Samuel L. Jackson, Helen Hunt, Kathryn Erbe, Stanley Tucci, Michael Rapaport, Ving Rhames, Philip Baker Hall, Anthony Head

'Far too loud and silly, but quite entertaining should you wish to suspend your disbelief.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Kiss of Evil: see Kiss of the Vampire

Kiss of Fire

US 1955 86m Technicolor
Universal-International (Samuel Marx)

An ex-soldier escorts an exiled princess on a dangerous journey through Mexico.

Slightly unusual but rather clumsy swashbuckler of no especial merit.

w Franklin Coen, Richard Collins novel The Rose and the Flame by Jonreed Lauritzen d Joseph M. Newman ph Carl Guthrie m Hans Salter md Joseph Gershenson

☆ Jack Palance, Barbara Rush, Martha Hyer

Kiss of Life

GB/France/Canada 2003 87m DeLuxe
Artificial Eye/Film Council/BBC/France 3/ Gimages/Wild Horses (Gayle Griffiths)

As her unknowing husband tries to get home to London from the Balkans, his wife is killed in a road accident and haunts her family.

Muted study in loss and love that never comes to life on the screen.

wd Emily Young ph Wojciech Szepel m Murray Gold pd Jane Morton ed David Charap

☆ Ingeborga Dapkunaite (Helen), Peter Mullan (John), David Warner (Pap), Millie Findlay (Kate), James E. Martin (Telly)

'An earnest, desperately dull affair.' – Philip French, Observer

♉ Emily Young (most promising newcomer)

'Kiss Fear Goodbye.'

Kiss of the Dragon

France/US 2001 98m colour
Technovision
TCF/Europa/Quality Growth/Current & Immortal/ Canal+ (Luc Besson, Jet Li, Steven Chasman, Happy Walters)

In Paris, a Chinese government agent is framed for murder by a crooked cop.

Some spectacular fights enliven an otherwise unexceptional action movie, in which Jet Li demonstrates his prowess in hand-to-hand combat.

w Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen story Jet Li d Chris Nahon ph Thierry Arbogast m Craig Armstrong pd Jacques Bufnoir ed Marco Cave cos Pierre Bechir,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Annie Thiellement action director Cory Yuen
☆ Jet Li (Liu Jiuan), Bridget Fonda (Jessica), Tcheky Karyo (Jean-Pierre Richard), Laurence Ashley (Aja), Burt Kwouk (Uncle Tai), Cyril Raffaelli (Twin No. 1), Didier Azoulay (Twin No. 2), John Forgeham (Max), Max Ryan (Lupo)
'Old-fashioned martial arts programmer, a hard-core action film for hard-core action junkies.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Kiss of the Spider Woman ★★
US/Brazil 1985 119m MGM Color
HB/Sugarloaf (David Weisman)
Fantasies of two prisoners in a South American jail.
One of those lucky flukes, an opening up of a fringe novel about the relationship between a flagrant homosexual and a political prisoner; the former entertains the latter with accounts of his favourite pulp movies. Not for Aunt Edna.
w Leonard Schrader novel Manuel Puig d Hector Babenco ph Rodolfo Sanchez m John Neschling pd Clovis Bueno
☆ William Hurt, Raul Julia, Sonia Braga
William Hurt
best picture; direction; adapted screenplay
William Hurt

Kiss of the Tarantula
US 1976 84m Eastmancolor
New Realm/Manson (Daniel B. Cady)
GB title: Shudder
A young girl kills those she does not like with her pet spiders.
Excessively dim horror movie without thrills or shudders.
w Warren Hamilton Jnr story Daniel B. Cady d Chris Munger ph Henning Schellerup m Phillan Bishop ed Warren Hamilton Jnr
☆ Suzanne Ling, Eric Mason, Herman Wallner, Patricia Landon, Beverly Eddins, Jay Scott Neal, Rebecca Eddins, Rita French
'The spiders are good for one or two mild sensations as they crawl lovingly over their initial victims, but even they are gradually overcome by the appalling banality of the script and the general lethargy of the direction.' – Tom Milne

Kiss of the Vampire ★
GB 1964 88m Eastmancolor
Rank/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)
US title: Kiss of Evil
In 1910 a Bavarian disciple of Dracula lures a British honeymoon couple.
This unsubtle variation on Dracula is handled in lively fashion, with a splendid climax in which assorted white-robed vampires are destroyed by bats.
w John Elder (Anthony Hinds) d Don Sharp ph Alan Hume m James Bernard pd Bernard Robinson ed James Needs
☆ Noel Willman, Clifford Evans, Edward de Souza, Jennifer Daniel, Isobel Black
PROF. ZIMMER (NOEL WILLMAN): 'You must not expect your Queensberry rules here, Mr Harcourt.'

Kiss or Kill ★★ (6)
Australia 1997 95m Atlab
AFFC/Bill Bennett
Two edgy petty thieves go on the run with a video of child pornography, chased by a murderous famous footballer who features on the tape, and the police.
A tense road movie that resembles an Australian variation on Badlands, with an amoral young couple on the run across wide-open spaces; it adds a few original twists of its own to the familiar genre, and dispenses with a musical soundtrack.
wd Bill Bennett ph Malcolm McCulloch pd Andrew Plumer ed Henry Dangar ☆ Frances O'Connor, Matt Day, Chris Haywood, Barry Otto, Max Cullen, Andrew S. Gilbert, Barry Langrishe
'Solid scripting, intelligent thesping and a bold sense of humor.' – David Stratton, Variety

'They won't stop us – nobody can stop us!'

Kiss the Blood Off My Hands
US 1948 80m bw
Universal/Hecht-Norma (Harold Hecht)
GB title: Blood on My Hands
A nurse helps a seaman on the run for murder.
Risible romantic melodrama in never-was London docks setting, with Newton large as life and twice as villainous.
w Leonardo Bercovici novel Gerald Butler d Norman Foster ph Russell Metty m Miklos Rozsa ad Bernard Herzbrun, Nathan Juran ed Milton Carruth
☆ Joan Fontaine, Burt Lancaster, Robert Newton, Lewis Russell, Aminta Dyne

Kiss the Boys Goodbye ★
US 1941 85m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
A Broadway producer falls for one of his chorines.
Moderately smart musical entertainment of its time.
w Harry Tugend, Dwight Taylor play Clare Boothe d Victor Schertzinger ph Ted Tetzlaff m/ly Victor Schertzinger, Frank Loesser ☆ Don Ameche, Mary Martin, Oscar Levant, Rochester, Raymond Walburn, Connee Boswell, Virginia Dale, Barbara Jo Allen, Elizabeth Patterson

Kiss the Bride Goodbye
GB 1944 89m bw
Butcher
A runaway couple are unwittingly abetted by her uncle.
Unsubtle family farce.
w Jack Whittingham d Paul Stein
☆ Patricia Medina, Jimmy Hanley, Frederick Leister, Marie Lohr, Claud Allister, Ellen Pollock, Wylie Watson

'There's only one way Det. Alex Cross can get close to a deadly collector ... with the help of the only woman who got away.'

Kiss the Girls (2)
US 1997 120m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Rysher (David Brown, Joe Wizan)
A forensic psychologist goes on the track of a psychopath who is kidnapping and killing women.
Unpleasant thriller which expects its audience to get its pleasures from watching women being stalked and threatened.
w David Klass novel James Patterson d Gary Fleder ph Aaron Schneider m Mark Isham pd Nelson Coates ed William Steinkamp, Harvey Rosenstock
☆ Morgan Freeman (Alex Cross), Ashley Judd (Kate McTiernan), Cary Elwes (Nick Ruskin), Tony Goldwyn (Will Rudolph), Jay O. Sanders (Kyle Craig), Bill Nunn (Sampson), Brian Cox (Chief Hatfield), Alex McArthur (Sikes), Richard T. Jones (Seth Samuel), Jeremy Piven (Henry Castillo)
'Devotes itself to exploiting every fear and phobia about men to which women are prey. It's a flagrantly dangerous picture ... a grossly indecent product.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard † Morgan Freeman again played the role of detective Alex Cross in the 2001 movie Along Came a Spider (qv).

Kiss the Girls and Make Them Die
Italy 1966 106m Technicolor
Dino de Laurentiis
original title: Si Tutte le Donne del Mondo...
A rich industrialist has a plan to sterilize the whole male population of the world and restock it with his own mistresses, whom he keeps in suspended animation.
Patchy James Bond spoof.
w Jack Pulman, Dino Maiuri d Henry Levin, Dino Maiuri ph Aldo Tonti m Mario Nascimbene
☆ Michael Connors, Dorothy Provine, Raf Vallone, Terry-Thomas

Kiss Them for Me
US 1957 105m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)
Three navy pilots spend a weekend's unofficial leave in San Francisco, and get into various kinds of trouble.
Based on a novel which also served as source for the musical Hit the Deck, this very heavy-footed comedy with serious asides is most unsuitably cast and generally ill-timed and unattractive.
w Julius Epstein novel Shore Leave by Frederic Wakeman d Stanley Donen ph Milton Krasner m Lionel Newman
☆ Cary Grant, Jayne Mansfield, Suzy Parker, Ray Walston, Larry Blyden, Leif Erickson, Werner Klemperer

Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye
US 1950 102m bw
Cagney Productions (William Cagney)
A violent criminal breaks jail and plans several daring robberies.
Surprisingly brutal star melodrama which failed to repeat the success of White Heat.
w Harry Brown novel Horace McCoy d Gordon Douglas ph Peverell Marley m Carmen Dragon
☆ James Cagney, Barbara Payton, Ward Bond, Luther Adler, Helena Carter, Steve Brodie, Rhys Williams, Barton MacLane, Frank Reicher, John Litel
'The mixture as before without an ingredient changed.' – Otis Guernsey Jnr

Kissed ★
Canada 1996 78m colour
Metro/Tartan/Boneyard (Dean English, Lynne Stopkewich)
A young woman working in a funeral home makes love to the more attractive male corpses.
A dreamy evocation of the taboo subject of necrophilia which borders on the lifeless.
w Angus Fraser, Lynne Stopkewich story Barbara Gowdy d Lynne Stopkewich ph Gregory Middleton m Don MacDonald pd Eric McNab ed John Pozer, Peter Roeck, Lynne Stopkewich
☆ Molly Parker, Peter Outerbridge, Jay Brazeau, Natasha Morley, Jessie Winter Mudie, James Timmons
'This gently humorous film manages to present its disturbing psychology with understanding.' – George Perry, Sunday Times
'It's far too insultingly simplistic and naive on both the psychological and narrative levels to be taken that seriously.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

Kisses for My President
US 1964 113m bw
Warner/Pearlayne (Curtis Bernhardt)
America's first woman president causes problems for her husband.
Solidly-carpentered comedy with too few ideas for its length.
w Claude Binyon, Robert G. Kane d Curtis Bernhardt ph Robert Surtees m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Polly Bergen, Fred MacMurray, Arlene Dahl, Eli Wallach, Edward Andrews

Kissin' Cousins
US 1963 96m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Four Leaf (Sam Katzman)
The USAF wants to build a missile base on Smokey Mountain, and their PR man discovers that one of the hillbillies is his double.
A feeble production in every sense, even below its star's usual standard.
w Gerald Drayson Adams, Gene Nelson d Gene Nelson ph Ellis W. Carter md Fred Karger ☆ Elvis Presley, Arthur O'Connell, Glenda Farrell, Jack Albertson

Kissing a Fool
US 1998 94m DeLuxe
Universal/Largo/RL (Tag Mendillo, Andrew Form, Rick Lashbrook)
A sportswriter asks his best friend to attempt to seduce his girlfriend, in order to test her fidelity.
Contrived comedy that needs a lightness of touch, rather than the clumping treatment it gets here.
w James Frey, Doug Ellin d Doug Ellin ph Thomas Del Ruth m Joseph Vitarelli pd Charles Breen ed David Finfer
☆ David Schwimmer, Jason Lee, Mili Avital, Bonnie Hunt, Vanessa Angel, Kari Wuhrer, Frank Medrano, Bitty Schram
'Tries too hard to shake things up just a little, but falls between rather too many stools.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

The Kissing Bandit
US 1948 102m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)
In old California, a young businessman finds he is expected to keep up his bandit father's criminal and romantic reputation.
Silly, witless musical which never settles into gear; mocked by its star as Benny mocked The Horn Blows at Midnight.
w Isobel Lennart, John Briard Harding d Laslo Benedek ph Robert Surtees m Georgie Stoll m/ly Nacio Herb Brown, Earl Brent, Edward Heyman
☆ Frank Sinatra, Kathryn Grayson, J. Carrol Naish, Mildred Natwick, Mikhail Rasumny, Billy Gilbert, Clinton Sundberg
'Was Kissing Bandit the nadir of my career? Hell, it was the nadir of anybody's career.' – Frank Sinatra

'When it comes to love, sometimes she just can't think straight.'

Kissing Jessica Stein ★
US 2001 97m Duart
TCF/Eden Wurmfeld/Brad Zions/Cineric/Michael Alden
A Manhattan copy-editor looks for romance and finds it where she would least expect to.
A romance involving a seemingly heterosexual woman who falls in love with an occasional lesbian; otherwise a typical New York comedy, full of smart remarks, angst-ridden inhabitants and a match-making Jewish mother.

w Heather Juergensen, Jennifer Westfelt play Lipschtick by Heather Juergensen, Jennifer Westfelt d Charles Herman-Wurmfeld ph Lawrence Sher m Marcelo Zarvos pd Charlotte Bourke ed Kristy Jacobs Maslin, Gregory Tillman ☆ Jennifer Westfeldt (Jessica Stein), Heather Juergensen (Helen Cooper), Scott Cohen (Josh Meyers), Tovah Feldshuh (Judy Stein), Jackie Hoffman (Joan), Michael Mastro (Martin), Carson Elrod (Sebastian), David Aaron Baker (Dan Stein)
'One of the most highly entertaining films around, and – better still – one of the greatest romantic comedies of the past decade.' – Jeffrey M. Anderson, San Francisco Examiner

Kit Carson
US 1940 95m bw
Edward Small

Adventures of the pioneer Indian scout.
Thinly scripted Western imaginings with a sturdy but not alluring cast.
w George Bruce d George B. Seitz
☆ Jon Hall, Lynn Bari, Dana Andrews, Harold Huber, Ward Bond, Renie Riano, Raymond Hatton

Kitchen
Hong Kong/Japan 1997 112m colour
Alliance/Golden Harvest Crown/Amuse (Yim-Ho, Akira Morishige)

original title: Wo Ai Chufang
Homeless after her grandmother's death, a grieving woman goes to live with a hairdresser and his transsexual father.
A strange, muted tale of love and loss among eccentric misfits, filmed in an expressionist style among dated artefacts; definitely an acquired taste.
wd Yim Ho novel Banana Yoshimoto ph Poon Hang-Sang m Otomo Yoshihide, Uchihashi Kazuhisa ad James Leung, Jason Mok ed Poon Hung-Yiu
☆ Jordan Chan, Yasuko Tomita, Law Kar-Ying, Karen Mok, Lau Siu-Ming, Lo Koon Lan

Kitchen Stories ★
Norway/Sweden 2003 95m colour
ICA/BulBul/Bob (Bent Hamer)

original title: Salmer Fra Kjøkkenet
In Norway in the 1950s, a government researcher begins to lose his objectivity as he observes the kitchen habits of an elderly, cantankerous, single man.
Enjoyable comedy of loneliness and male camaraderie that also makes fun of bureaucrats.
w Bent Hamer, Jorgen Bergmark d Bent Hamer ph Philip Ogaard m Hans Mathisen pd Billy Johansson ed Pal Gengenbach
☆ Joachim Calmeyer (Isak), Tomas Norstrom (Folke), Bjorn Floberg (Grant), Reine Brynolfsson (Malmberg)
'Warmly observed humanist comedy.' – David Rooney, Variety

The Kitchen Toto ★
GB 1987 95m colour
Cannon/Skreba/British Screen/Film Four (Ann Skinner)

1950: in Kenya, a police officer agrees to take in the son of a black priest murdered by the Mau Mau.
Rather lumpy but well-meaning drama with a tragic ending.
wd Harry Hook ph Roger Deakins
m John Keane pd Jamie Leonard ed Tom Priestley
☆ Bob Peck, Phyllis Logan, Edwin Mahinda, Robert Urquhart

Kitten with a Whip
US 1964 83m bw
Universal

A girl escaped from reform school takes refuge with a politician whose wife is away.
Over-the-top melodrama thought bannable at the time.
wd Douglas Heyes book Wade Miller
☆ Ann-Margret, John Forsythe, Patricia Barry, Ann Doran, Audrey Dalton

Kitty
GB 1928 90m (24 fps) bw silent
BIP/Burlington (Victor Saville)

A shopgirl loves a paralysed amnesiac, but his mother interferes.
Uninteresting romantic melodrama, notable only as Britain's first sound film: a few dialogue sequences were quickly added (in New York).
w Violet Powell, Benn W. Levy novel Warwick Deeping d Victor Saville ph Karl Puth
☆ John Stuart, Estelle Brody, Dorothy Cumming, Marie Ault, Olaf Hytten

'She had all London on a MARRY-go-round!'

Kitty ★★★
US 1945 103m bw
Paramount (Karl Tunberg)

In 18th-century London, an aristocrat makes a duchess of a guttersnipe.
Well-detailed period Pygmalion which works much better than one would expect.
w Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg novel Rosamund Marshall d Mitchell Leisen ph Daniel L. Fapp m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Walter Tyler ☆ Paulette Goddard, Ray Milland, Cecil Kellaway, Constance Collier, Reginald Owen, Patric Knowles, Dennis Hoey, Sara Allgood, Eric Blore, Gordon Richards, Michael Dyne
'Enough sex, wit and urbane cynicism to make one forget a footling ending.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB
'It is excellently cast, delightfully acted, and the rather sordid story is told with subtlety and skill.' – Picture Show
'The most glamorous study of unrelieved sordidness that the screen has presented.' – Motion Picture Herald
art direction

'The most daring novel ever written by a man about a woman!'

Kitty Foyle ★★
US 1940 108m bw
RKO (Harry E. Edgington, David Hempstead)

A white-collar girl has a troubled love life.
Solid entertainment of its time, especially aimed at ambitious young ladies.
w Dalton Trumbo, Donald Ogden Stewart novel Christopher Morley d Sam Wood ph Robert de Grasse m Roy Webb
☆ Ginger Rogers, Dennis Morgan, James Craig, Eduardo Ciannelli, Ernest Cossart, Gladys Cooper, Mary Treen Ginger Rogers
best picture; Dalton Trumbo; Sam Wood

The Klansman
US 1974 112m Technicolor
Paramount/Atlanta (William Alexander)

An Alabama sheriff confronts the Ku Klux Klan.
Violent melodrama, all noise, brutality and bad acting.
w Millard Kaufman, Samuel Fuller novel William Bradford Huie d Terence Young ph Lloyd Ahern, Aldo Tonti m Stax Organization ☆ Lee Marvin, Richard Burton, Cameron Mitchell, O. J. Simpson, Lola Falana, David Huddleston, Luciana Paluzzi, Linda Evans
'There's not a shred of quality, dignity, relevance or impact in this yahoo-oriented bunk.' – Variety

Klimt ③
Austria / Germany / France / UK 2006 127m
EPO / Lunar / Gemini (Dieter Pochlatko / Arno Ortmair / Matthew Justice / Andreas Schmid)

An evocation of the life and times of Austrian artist Gustav Klimt, first seen dying of syphilis. His sole visitor is fellow artist Egon Schiele, who punctuates the narrative. Sporadic flashbacks show Klimt's evolving artistic style causing ructions in Viennese society. In Paris, where he receives official recognition, he meets his muse, Lea de Castro.
Director Ruiz fails to capture the spirit of Klimt's artistic endeavours – or even to explore fully the heady world around him. The dialogue sounds pretentious, while the delivery of Malkovich and Burrows dulls the senses. There are compensations to relish in the rich visuals.
w Gilbert Adair (English adaptation) wd Raul Ruiz ph Ricardo Aronovich
m Jorge Arriagada pd Rudi Czettel, Katharina Woeppermann ed Valeria Sarmiento
☆ John Malkovich (Klimt), Veronica Ferres (Midi), Saffron Burrows (Lea de Castro), Stephen Dillane (Secretary), Paul Hilton (Duke Octave), Sandra Ceccarelli (Serena Lederer)
'Gilbert Adair was responsible for translating Ruiz's script, though it's not clear into what language.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph
'Great clunky chunks of dialogue burst forth. It sounds as if the actors are reading from large placards.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
† The film was first seen commercially in Klimt's native Austria, where a producer's cut of 97 minutes was screened.

'Mae goes north and Alaska goes west!'

Klondike Annie
US 1936 83m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)

A torch singer on the run disguises herself as a missionary and revivifies a Klondike mission.
Laundered Mae West vehicle, from her fading period but not too bad.
w Mae West, Marion Morgan, George B. Dowell d Raoul Walsh ph George Clemens ☆ Mae West, Victor McLaglen, Philip Reed, Helen Jerome Eddy, Harry Beresford, Harold Huber, Esther Howard
'I found the whole film fun, more fun than any other of Miss West's since the superb period piece, She Done Him Wrong.' – Graham Greene

Klute ★★★
US 1971 114m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Alan J. Pakula)

A policeman leaves the force to investigate the disappearance of a research scientist, and takes up with a call girl who is involved.
Excellent adult thriller with attention to detail and emphasis on character.
w Andy K. Lewis, Dave Lewis d Alan J. Pakula ph Gordon Willis m Michael Small ad George Jenkins ed Carl Lerner
☆ Jane Fonda (Bree Daniels), Donald Sutherland (John Klute), Charles Cioffi (Peter Cable), Roy Scheider (Frank Ligourin), Rita Gam (Trina)
Jane Fonda
Andy K. Lewis, Dave Lewis

'Some have it, Some don't.'

The Knack ★★★★
GB 1965 84m bw
UA/Woodfall (Oscar Lewenstein)

A sex-starved young teacher lets one room of his house to a successful womanizer, another to an innocent girl from the north.
An excuse for an anarchic series of visual gags, a kaleidoscope of swinging London in which anything goes. Brilliantly done in the style of A Hard Day's Night.
w Charles Wood play Ann Jellicoe
d Richard Lester ph David Watkin m John Barry ad Assheton Gorton ed Anthony Gibbs ☆ Michael Crawford (Colin), Ray Brooks (Tolen), Rita Tushingham (Nancy Jones), Donal Donnelly (Tom)
'The whole film has the anarchic quality modish today and at all times appealing to a new generation understandably bent on overturning the ideas which have hardened in the minds of their elders.' – Dilys Powell
'The running jokes and gags never come off.' – Pauline Kael
† The film won the Palme D'Or at the 1965 Cannes Film Festival.

K'Nafayim Shvurot: see Broken Wings

Knave of Hearts ★
GB 1954 103m bw
Transcontinental (Paul Graetz)
aka: Monsieur Ripois et Son Nemesis
US title: Lover Boy

A born philanderer confesses all his affairs to his wife.
Well-observed though strangely flat and disappointing sex comedy, something of a pioneer in its time and therefore perhaps too diffident in its approach.
w René Clément, Hugh Mills d René Clément ph Oswald Morris m Roman Vlad ☆ Gérard Philipe, Margaret Johnston, Joan Greenwood, Natasha Parry, Valerie Hobson Knickerbocker Holiday ★

US 1944 84m bw
UA/PCA/Harry Joe Brown

In old New Amsterdam, a one-legged tyrant finally sees the light.
Artificial musical from a famous Broadway original, staged in 1938, with engaging moments including Charles Coburn singing 'September Song'.
w David Boehm, Harry Goldman, Rowland Leigh, Thomas Lennon novel Father Knickerbocker's History of New York by Washington Irving d Harry Joe Brown
ph Phil Tannura m Werner Heymann
m/ly Kurt Weill, Maxwell Anderson

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Charles Coburn, Nelson Eddy, Constance Dowling, Ernest Cossart, Shelley Winters, Otto Kruger
Werner Heymann, Kurt Weill

Knife in the Water ★★★

Poland 1962 94m bw
ZRF Kamera (Stanislaw Zylewicz)
original title: Noz w Wodzie
A young couple ask a hitchhiker to spend a weekend on their yacht, and regret it.
Detached little melodrama in which the sex and violence hover beneath the surface. All very watchable, but in a minor key.
w Jerzy Skolimowski, Roman Polanski, Jakub Goldberg d Roman Polanski
ph Jerzy Lipman m Krzystof Komeda
☆ Leon Niemczyk (Andrzej), Jolanta Umecka (Christine), Zygmunt Malanowicz (The Young Man)
'Has all the virtues of an intensely psychological, sardonically probing modern novel.' – John Simon
best foreign film

Knight Moves

US/Germany 1992 116m Eastmancolor Super 35
Columbia TriStar/Knight Moves/Cine Vox (Ziad El Khoury, Jean-Luc Defait)
A chess champion is suspected of being a serial killer.
Lacklustre thriller with little suspense or sense of reality.
w Brad Mirman d Carl Schenkel
ph Dietrich Lohmann md Anne Dudley
pd Graeme Murray ed Norbert Herzner
☆ Christopher Lambert, Diane Lane, Tom Skerritt, Daniel Baldwin, Ferdinand Mayne, Katherine Isobel, Charles Bailey-Gates, Arthur Strauss
'Mannered, heavy-handed and rather ridiculous.' – Philip French, Observer

Knight of the Plains

US 1938 57m bw
Equity/Spectrum/Stan Laurel (Jed Buell)
A cowboy defeats a confidence trickster who tries to cheat settlers out of their land.
Amiable Western, starring one of the many singing cowboys of the time; although it sticks to all the conventions – bearded comic sidekick, a hero who puts away his gun to fight the villain with his fists – it has more sprightly narrative than most of its kind.
w Fred Myton d Sam Newfield ph Mack Stengler md Lew Porter ed Robert Jahns
☆ Fred Scott, Al St John, Marion Weldon, John Merton, Richard Kramer, Frank La Rue, Lafe McKee

Knight without Armour ★★

GB 1937 107m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)
During the Russian Revolution of 1917, a widowed countess is helped to safety by a British translator.
Underrated romantic adventure with big production values and some splendid moments.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis, Frances Marion novel James Hilton d Jacques Feyder ph Harry Stradling, Bernard Browne, Jack Cardiff m Miklos Rozsa md Muir Mathieson ad Lazare Meerson ed William Hornbeck, Francis Lyon
☆ Robert Donat, Marlene Dietrich, Irene Vanbrugh, Herbert Lomas, Austin Trevor, Basil Gill, David Tree, John Clements, Lawrence Hanray
'Another feather in the cap of Alexander Korda for his series of artistic film productions. There is relatively little to find fault with and much to praise.' – Variety
'A first-class thriller, beautifully directed, with spare and convincing dialogue and a nearly watertight scenario.' – Graham Greene

Knightriders

US 1981 155m colour
United (Richard P. Rubinstein)
A group of wandering hippies, led by a man obsessed with notions of chivalry, re-enact medieval tournaments on motor-bikes.
A glum and wordy movie, revealing little point or purpose.
wd George A. Romero ph Michael Gornick m Donald Rubinstein pd Cletus Anderson ed George A. Romero, Pasquale Buba
☆ Ed Harris, Gary Lahti, Tom Savini, Amy Ingersoll, Patricia Tallman, Christine Forrest

Knights and Emeralds

GB 1986 94m colour
Warner/Goldcrest/Enigma (Susan Richards, Raymond Day)
A young white drummer joins a rival black band for the national marching bands championship.
Dull teen drama of racial relationships, accompanied by a great deal of uninteresting music.
wd Ian Emes ph Richard Greatrex
m Colin Towns ad Deborah Gillingham
ed John Victor-Smith
☆ Christopher Wild, Beverley Hills, Warren Mitchell, Bill Leadbitter, Rachel Davies

Knights of the Round Table ★

GB 1953 115m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)
Lancelot, banished from King Arthur's court for loving Guinevere, returns to defeat the evil Modred.
Disappointingly flat, pageant-like adaptation of the legends, with a few lively strands insufficiently firmly drawn together.
w Talbot Jennings, Jan Lustig, Noel Langley d Richard Thorpe ph Frederick A. Young, Stephen Dade m Miklos Rozsa ad Alfred Junge, Hans Peters ☆ Robert Taylor, Mel Ferrer, Ava Gardner, Anne Crawford, Stanley Baker, Felix Aylmer, Robert Urquhart, Niall MacGinnis
art direction

Knights of the Teutonic Order ★

Poland 1960 180m Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
Studio Unit (Zygmunt Krol)
original title: Krzyzacy
Teutonic knights pillage Poland on the pretext of converting the inhabitants to Christianity; when they kill a noblewoman, her daughter swears revenge.
Medieval epic differing little from those of Hollywood, but splendid to look at.
w Jerzy Stefan Stawinski, Aleksander Ford novel Henryk Sienkiewicz d Aleksander Ford ph Mieczyslaw Jahoda m Kazimierz Serocki ☆ Urszula Modrzynska, Grazyna Staniszewska, Andrzej Szalawski

'He Will Rock You.'

A Knight's Tale ④

US 2001 132m DeLuxe Super 35
Columbia TriStar/Escape Artists/Finestkind (Tim Van Rellim, Todd Black, Brian Helgeland)
A young peasant boy realises the American dream a few centuries too early by breaking class barriers to become a champion knight.
Deliberately anachronistic romp that tries to persuade its audience that jousting was the Olde English rock'n'roll and that the medieval era was a time of proto-hippies; it's difficult to see why its makers bothered, or what they thought they were achieving by this pop-saturated history.
wd Brian Helgeland ph Richard Greatrex
m Carter Burwell pd Tony Burrough
ed Kevin Stitt sp Mill Film cos Caroline Harris
☆ Heath Ledger (William Thatcher), Mark Addy (Roland), Rufus Sewell (Count Adhemar), Paul Bettany (Chaucer), Shanynn Sossamon (Jocelyn), Alan Tudyk (Wat), Laura Fraser (Kate), Christopher Cazenove (John Thatcher), Berenice Beso (Christiana), James Purefoy (Colville)
Paul Bettany: 'Geoffrey Chaucer's the name, writing's the game'
'Rarely has a period costume picture been quite so craven in courting a young audience.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Half Python, half Ivanhoe – and not as much fun as either.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Knock Off

US 1998 91m DeLuxe Super 35
Knock/MDP/Film Workshop/Val D'Oro (Nansun Shi)
In Hong Kong, a former forger of designer clothes and his partner, a CIA agent, foil the activities of violent smugglers.
Hectic action movie with a confusing plot and frantic fights, which is to say the mixture as usual for its star.
w Steven E. de Souza d Tsui Hark ph Arthur Wong m Ron Mael, Russell Mael pd James Leung, Bill Lui ed Mak Chi Sin
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme (Marcus Ray), Rob Schneider (Tommy Hendricks), Lela Rochon (Karen Leigh), Paul Sorvino (Harry Johansson), Michael Fitzgerald Wong (Han), Carmen Lee (Ling Ho), Glen Chin (Skinny), Jeff Joseph Wolfe (Skaar), Wyman Wong (Eddie Wang)
'Much of the movie simply consists of the gung-ho heroes doing the standard acrobatic butt-kicking that passes for action in the undemanding Far East market.' – Alexander Walker

Knock on Any Door ★

US 1949 100m bw
Columbia/Santana (Robert Lord)
A defence lawyer pleads with the jury for the life of a slum boy on a murder charge.
Smartly-made but empty melodrama making facile social points.
w Daniel Taradash, John Monks Jnr novel Willard Motley d Nicholas Ray ph Burnett Guffey m George Antheil ☆ Humphrey Bogart, John Derek, George Macready, Allene Roberts

Knock on Wood ★★

US 1954 103m Technicolor
Paramount (Norman Panama, Melvin Frank)
Stolen plans are hidden inside the dummy of an unsuspecting ventriloquist.
Excellent star comedy with good script and production (but some strange ideas of London's geography).
wd Norman Panama, Melvin Frank ph Daniel Fapp m Leith Stevens
m/ly Sylvia Fine ch Michael Kidd ☆ Danny Kaye, Mai Zetterling, David Burns, Torin Thatcher, Leon Askin, Abner Biberman, Steve Geray
Norman Panama, Melvin Frank (script)

Knockabout

Hong Kong 1979 100m colour
Media Asia/Raymond Chow (Louis Sit)
After they are beaten up by a man they tried to cheat, two con men decide to improve their martial arts ability, only to discover that their teacher is a violent criminal.
The title says it all: a broadly acted mix of slapstick and kung fu, culminating in a well choreographed three-way fight in a restaurant.
w Lau Tin-Chee, Huang Chik-Chin
d Hung Ching Pao (Sammo Hung) ph Lau Kwan-Wai m Chen Hsun-Chi ed Chang Yao-Chung ☆ Liang Chia-Jen, Lau Kar-Wing, Yuen Biao, Sammo Hung, Karl Maka

Knockout: see Knute Rockne, All American

Knocks at My Door ★★

Venezuela/Cuba/Argentina 1993 106m Agfacolor
Foncine/CONAC/ASP/ICAIC/Channel 4 (Alejandro Saderman) original title: Golpes a Mi Puerta
Two nuns face execution for sheltering a young radical being hunted by a military death-squad.
Gripping and timely drama of courage and obduracy, political expediency and state brutality.
w Juan Carlos Gene, Alejandro Saderman play Juan Carlos Gene d Alejandro Saderman ph Jonny Semeco, Adriano Moreno m Julio D'Escrivan ad Marietta Perroni ed Claudia Uribe ☆ Verónica Oddó, Elba Escobar, Juan Carlos Gené, José Antonio Rodriguez, Ana Castell, Mirta Ibarra, Frank Spano

Knute Rockne, All American

US 1940 98m bw
Warner (Robert Fellows)
GB title: Knockout
aka: A Modern Hero
The career of a famous Notre Dame football coach.
Standard sporting biopic.
w Robert Buckner d Lloyd Bacon
ph Tony Gaudio m Ferde Grofé
☆ Pat O'Brien, Ronald Reagan, Gale Page, Donald Crisp, Albert Basserman, John Qualen, John Sheffield

Koenigsmark

France 1935 114m bw
Roger Richebé/Capitol
A princess falls for a commoner.
Rather elementary royal romance in a Ruritanian background, filmed simultaneously in French and English by the same principals.
novel Pierre Benoit d Maurice Tourneur
ph Victor Armenise m Jacques Ibert
☆ Elissa Landi, Pierre Fresnay, John Lodge

Kohi Jikou: see Café Lumière

'Pain Is Their Pleasure.'

Kojitmal ★

South Korea 1999 111m colour
Alliance/Shincine/Korea Films (Shin Chul) aka: Lies
An 18-year-old schoolgirl enjoys an obsessive affair with a married middle-aged sculptor.
Deft account of a sado-masochistic relationship, in which control passes from the apparently stronger to the seemingly weaker partner. The sexual scenes are often brutal and, when the two choose poles with which to beat one another, even absurd.

wd Jang Sun Woo novel Tell Me a Lie by Jang Jung Il ph Kim Woo Hyung m Dal Palan pd Kim Myeong Kyeong ed Park Gok Ji ☆ Lee Sang Hyun (J), Kim Tae Yeon (Y), Jeon Hye Jin (Woori), Choi Hyun Joo (G), Han Kwon Taek (Y's brother)
'Although for a certain amount of time the boldness and frankness of the film impresses, ultimately it outstays its welcome.' – David Stratton, Variety
'Deliciously witty.' – Tony Rayns
† Jang Jung-Il's novel was banned as pornographic in Korea and withdrawn a month after publication, and he was sent to prison for two months.

Kokaku Kidotai: see Ghost in the Shell

Kokaku kidotai 2: Inosensu: see Ghost in the Shell 2: Innocence

Kokoda Crescent

Australia 1988 83m colour
Phillip Emanuel
When a youth dies from an overdose of heroin, his grandfather decides to take action against the drug dealer involved.
Ponderous tale of old soldiers finding a new campaign to fight.
w Patrick Cook d Ted Robinson ph Dan Burstall m Peter Best pd Leslie Binns ed Robert Gibson
☆ Warren Mitchell (Stan), Ruth Cracknell (Alice), Bill Kerr (Russ), Madge Ryan (Margaret), Martin Vaughan (Eric), Steve Jacobs (Detective), Penne Hackforth-Jones (Carol)

Koks I Kulissen: see Ladies on the Rocks

'Sometimes it's necessary to walk 1000 kilometers to find someone that's close to you.'

Koktebel ★

Russia 2003 104m colour
PBOUL (Roman Borisevich)
aka: Road to Koktebel
A penniless, heavy-drinking widower takes his 12-year-old son on a gruelling journey from Moscow to a Black Sea resort.
Slow-moving road movie that offers little in the way of explanation, though it has an austere charm.
wd Aleksei Popogrebsky, Boris Khlebnikov ph Shandor Berkeshi m Lutgardo Luga Lebad ed Ivan Lebedev ☆ Gleb Puskepalis (The son), Igor Csernyevics (The father), Evgenii Sytyi (Railway inspector), Vera Sandrykina (Tania)
'Gracefully composed and moving yet never maudlin.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

Kolobos

US 1999 83m FotoKem
Armitage (Nne Ebong, Dana Altman)
Five young people answer an advert to appear in an experimental film and find themselves trapped in an old dark house with doors and windows sealed.
Cheap and nasty horror movie, low on imagination and high on gruesome effects; it finally leaves its audience as much in the dark as its characters.
w Nne Ebong, Daniel Liatowitsch, David Todd Ocvirk d Daniel Liatowitsch, David Todd Ocvirk ph Yoram Astrakhan m William Kidd pd Preston Fisher ed Brian Olson
☆ Amy Weber (Kyra), Donny Terranova (Tom), Nichole Pelerine (Erica), John Fairlie (Gary), Promise LaMarco (Tina), Ilia Volok (Faceless), Linnea Quigley (Dorothy)
'Wholly baffling horror farrago.' – Sight and Sound

'The Ultimate Bachelor Has Finally Met His Match!'

Kolya ★★★ (8)

Czech Republic/France/GB 1996 105m colour
Buena Vista/Portobello/Ceska Televize/Biograf Jan Sverak
In Prague, a penniless musician marries for cash a Russian woman who needs Czech papers and finds that the transaction leaves him with her five-year-old son.
Charming, tough-minded drama of people trying to get by within a system that leaves them little room for manoeuvre.
w Zdenek Sverák idea Pavel Taussig d Jan Sverák ph Vladimir Smutny m Ondrej Soukup ed Alois Visárek ☆ Zdenek Sverák (Frantisek Louka), Andrej Chalimon (Kolya), Libuse Safránková (Klara), Ondrej Vetchy (Mr Broz), Stella Zázvorková (Mother), Ladislav Smoljak (Mr Houdek), Irina Livanova (Nadezda)
'Balances heart-warming sentiment with gentle humor and observations that strike universal chords.' – David Rooney, Variety
foreign film

Komissar ★★

USSR 1967 108m colour Cinemascope
Artificial Eye/Gorky Studios (V. Levin, L. Prilutzkaya)
aka: The Commissar
During the Civil War of the 1920s, a pregnant soldier of the Red Army moves in with a poor Jewish family to have her child.
First publicly shown twenty years after it was made, the film's events indict anti-Semitism and foreshadow the later treatment of the Jews within the context of a simple domestic story.
wd Alexander Askoldov novel In the Town of Berdichev by Vasily Grossman ph Valery Ginsburg m Alfred Schnittke ad Sergei Serebrennikov ed V. Isayeva, N. Loginova, S. Lyashinskaya ☆ Nonna Mordyukova, Rolan Bykov, Raisa Niedashkovskaya, Vasily Shukshin

Komitas

West Germany 1988 106m colour
ICA/Margarita Woskanjan Filmproduction/WDR/SFB/Channel 4
Visually striking meditation on an Armenian monk and composer traumatized into silence by the Turkish massacre of his countrymen in 1915.
Limited in its appeal.
wd Don Askarjan ph Jorgos Arvanitis, Martin Gressmann, Eberhard Geik
m Komitas and others ad Jurgen Kiebach, Michael Poladian ed Rene Perraudin, Marion Regentrop ☆ Samvel Ovasapain, Margarita Woskanjan, Onig Saadetian, Yeghishe Mougikian

'Welcome to the bottom of the food chain.'

Komodo

Australia 1999 90m colour
Scanbox Asia Pacific (Alan Riche, Tony Ludwig)
A youth returns to an island where his parents were slaughtered to discover it is inhabited by carnivorous Komodo lizards.
Feeble low-budget horror with no scares and little suspense.
w Hans Bauer, Craig Mitchell d Michael Lantieri ph David Burr m John Debney pd George Liddle ed Michael Fallavollita sp John Cox Creature Workshop; Tippet Studios
☆ Jill Hennessy (Victoria), Billy Burke (Oates), Kevin Zegers (Patrick Connelly), Paul Gleeson (Denby), Nina Landis (Annie), Simon Westaway (Bracken)

Kondom Des Grauens: see Killer Condom

Koneko Monogatari: see The Adventures of Milo and Otis

Konga

GB 1960 90m Eastmancolor Spectamation
Anglo Amalgamated/Merton Studios (Nat Cohen, Stuart Levy)
A scientist's experiments on a chimpanzee turn it into a monstrous killer ape.
Ridiculous mad-scientist movie, with some over-the-top acting in an attempt to distract attention from the risible script.
w Aben Kandel, Herman Cohen d John Lemont ph Desmond Dickinson m Gerard Schurmann md Muir Mathieson ad Wilfred Arnold ed Jack Slade
☆ Michael Gough, Margo Johns, Jess Conrad, Claire Gordon, Jack Watson, Austin Trevor, George Pastell, Leonard Sachs

Kongbufenzi: see The Terrorizer

Kongo

US 1932 86m bw
MGM
An embittered African recluse takes revenge on the daughter of his former enemy.
No-holds-barred melodrama which never really exerts the right grip; a remake of the Lon Chaney silent West of Zanzibar.
w Leon Gordon play Chester de Vonde, Kilbourn Gordon d William Cowen ph Harold Rosson
☆ Walter Huston, Lupe Velez, Virginia Bruce, Conrad Nagel, C. Henry Gordon
'Horror and tropical stuff combined ... chiefly for the daily grinds.' – Variety

Der Kongress Tanzt: see Congress Dances

Kontrakt: see The Contract

'There's No Such Thing As A Free Ride.'

Kontroll ★★

Hungary 2004 105m colour
Cafe Film/Bonfire (Tamas Hutlassa)
On the Budapest underground system, a misfit band of ticket collectors fight to retain their jobs.
Diverting and original drama, set entirely on underground trains, platforms and tunnels, where rivalries between teams of inspectors flare, travellers do everything to avoid paying fares and a killer pushes the unsuspecting under trains.
wd Nimrod Antal ph Gyula Pados m NEO ed Istvan Kiraly ☆ Sandor Csanyi (Bulcsu), Zoltan Mucsi (Professor), Sandor Badar (Lecso), Csaba Pindroch (Muki), Zsolt Nagy (Tibi), Lajos Kovacs (Bela), Eszter Balla (Szofi)
'A phantasmagoria – outlandish and jumpy – but, at the same time, the movie is three-dimensional and weighted, with a melancholy soulfulness that becomes surprisingly touching.' – David Denby, New Yorker

Konyets Sankt-Peterburga: see The End of St Petersburg

Kopek and Broom: see Find the Lady

Korczak

Poland/Germany/France/GB 1990 118m colour
Artificial Eye/Filmstudio 'Perspektywa'/Regina Ziegler Filmproduktion/Erato Films/BBC Films/Telmar Film International (Regina Ziegler, Janusz Morgenstern, Daniel Tocsan du Plantier)
The director of a Polish orphanage attempts to protect his charges from the Nazis.
Despite, or perhaps because of, being based on reality, the film fails to engage satisfactorily with its subject matter.
w Agnieszka Holland d Andrzej Wajda ph Robby Müller m Wojciech Kilar pd Allan Starski ed Ewa Smal
☆ Wojtek Pszoniak, Ewa Dalkowska, Piotr Kozlowski, Marzena Trybala, Wojciech Klata, Adam Siemion, Karolina Czernicka, Agnieszka Kruk

To Koritsi me ta Mavra: see The Girl in Black

Korkalen: see Thy Soul Shall Bear Witness

Koroshi No Rakuin: see Branded to Kill

Korotkie Vstrechi: see Short Encounters

Koshikei: see Death by Hanging

Kotch ★

US 1971 114m Metrocolor
ABC/Kotch Company (Richard Carter)
An eccentric 72-year-old widower is at odds with his family and helps a pregnant babysitter.
Variously amusing, moving and sentimental, this generally likeable film about a crotchety grandpa is sustained by its star performance.
w John Paxton novel Katherine Topkins d Jack Lemmon ph Richard H. Kline m Marvin Hamlisch
☆ Walter Matthau, Deborah Winters, Felicia Farr, Charles Aidman
'A nice, sentimental, Life-Can-Be-Beautiful comedy of the second order.' – Judith Crist
Walter Matthau; song 'Life Is What You Make It' (m Marvin Hamlisch, ly Johnny Mercer)

Koyaanisqatsi ★

US 1983 86m DeLuxe
Island Alive/Blue Dolphin/Institute for Regional Education (Godfrey Reggio)
A panoramic view of contemporary America without commentary or narrative, using time-lapse photography. The title is an Indian word meaning 'a state of life that calls for another way of living'.
A rather pointless, very beautiful, and finally rather boring experience.
w Ron Fricke, Godfrey Reggio, Michael Hoenig, Alton Walpole d Godfrey Reggio ph Ron Fricke m Philip Glass ed Anton Walpole, Ron Fricke
'Arrogant bombast, provoking no response except "wow".' – Sight & Sound
† It was followed by Powaqqatsi (qv), which gave a similar treatment to the Third World.

Kozure Okami: Kowokashi Udekashi Tsukamatsuru: see Lone Wolf and Cub: Sword of Vengeance

Kozure Okami: Sanzu No Kawa No Ubaguruma: see Lone Wolf and Cub: Baby Cart at the River Styx

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Krakatoa, East of Java

US 1968 136m Technicolor Cinerama
ABC/Cinerama (Lester A. Sansom)

In 1883 the SS Batavia Queen leaves Singapore and is engulfed by the Krakatoa eruption.

Mindless spectacular, technically quite impressive but with no dramatic interest whatsoever. (Krakatoa is actually west of Java.)

w Clifford Newton Gould, Bernard Gordon d Bernard Kowalski ph Manuel Berenguer m Frank de Vol pd/sp Eugene Lourié

☆ Maximilian Schell, Diane Baker, Brian Keith, Rossano Brazzi, Barbara Werle, John Leyton, Sal Mineo, J. D. Cannon, Marc Lawrence

'Apparently designed to disprove the old adage, "they don't make them like that any more". At a conservative count it includes such sure-fire cinematic ingredients as hidden treasure, deep-sea divers with shattered lungs and claustrophobia, mutiny and fire on board ship, nuns, convicts, a lost orphan boy, girl divers and even a little striptease, climaxing in the biggest explosion and the greatest tidal wave known to history.' – MFB

Ⱥ special visual effects

'There are three sides to this love story!'

Kramer versus Kramer ★★★

US 1979 105m Technicolor
Columbia/Stanley Jaffe (Richard C. Fischoff)

A divorced advertising executive gets temporary custody of his seven-year-old son.

New-fashioned tearjerker, as slick as a colour supplement and catnip to the emotion-starved masses.

wd Robert Benton novel Avery Corman ph Nestor Almendros md Erma E. Levin pd Paul Sylbert ed Jerry Greenberg

☆ Dustin Hoffman (Ted Kramer), Justin Henry (Billy Kramer), Meryl Streep (Joanna Kramer), Jane Alexander (Margaret Phelps), Howard Duff (John Shaunessy)

'Pastel colours, a cute kid and a good script made this one of the most undeserved successes of the year: wall-to-wall sentiment.' – Time Out

Ⱥ best picture; Robert Benton (as director); Dustin Hoffman; Meryl Streep; screenplay adapted from another medium

Ⱥ Justin Henry; Jane Alexander; Nestor Almendros; editing

'This year's most provocative coming-of-age story with a twist.'

Krámpack ★

Spain 2000 90m colour
Messidor (Marta Esteban, Gerardo Herrero)

A 16 year-old boy spends a summer holiday alone with his best friend at a house by the sea with both of them determined to lose their virginity.

Slick, often light-hearted coming-of-age drama, in which one boy discovers during their bedtime fumblings that he is gay.

w Cesc Gay, Tomas Aragay play Jordi Sanchez d Cesc Gay ph Andreu Rebes m Riqui Sabates, Joan Diaz, Jordi Prats pd Llorenc Miquel ed Frank Gutierrez

☆ Fernando Ramallo (Dani), Jordi Vilches (Nico), Marieta Orozco (Elena), Esther Nubiola (Berta), Chisco Amado (Julian), Ana Gracia (Sonia), Myriam Mezieres (Marianne)

'Won't be to everyone's taste and may scandalize some. Its respectful treatment of male sexuality, however, is impeccably p.c.' – Deborah Young, Variety

'When people are afraid of you ... You can do everything. Remember that.'

The Krays ★★

GB 1990 119m colour
Rank/Parkfield (Dominic Anciano, Ray Burdis)

Twins, who grow up in a mother-dominated household, become feared and fearsome East End thugs.

Made with the cooperation of its real-life protagonists, it stays within a gangster milieu and comes close to glamorizing them both.

w Philip Ridley d Peter Medak ph Alex Thomson m Michael Kamen pd Michael Pickwoad ed Martin Walsh

☆ Billie Whitelaw, Gary Kemp, Martin Kemp, Susan Fleetwood, Charlotte Cornwell, Jimmy Jewel, Avis Bunnage, Kate Hardie, Alfred Lynch, Tom Bell, Steven Berkoff

'The direction does not flinch, as do most other British crime-class-nostalgia movies, from graphic violence.' – MFB

'The movie comes over like a collaboration between Joan Littlewood's Theatre Workshop, an ungifted follower of Sigmund Freud and the postcard artist Donald McGill.' – Philip French, Observer

Kreitzerova Sonata

USSR 1987 135m colour
Cannon/Mosfilm (Maria Zakharova)
aka: The Kreutzer Sonata

A jealous husband tells a fellow traveller how he came to kill his wife.

Restlessly faithful to the book, but failing to engage its audience.

w Mikhail Schweitzer novel Leo Tolstoy d Mikhail Schweitzer, Sofia Milkina ph Mikhail Agraovich m Sofia Gubaidulina pd Igor Lemeshev, Vladimir Fabrikov ed Lyudmila Feiginova

☆ Oleg Yankovsky, Aleksandr Trofimov, Irina Seleznyova, Dmitri Pokrovsky

'If you miss the first five minutes you miss one suicide, two executions, one seduction and the key to the plot!'

The Kremlin Letter

US 1970 122m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Carter de Haven, Sam Wiesenthal)

An American intelligence team is sent undercover to Moscow to retrieve an arms treaty mistakenly signed.

Tediously violent cold war mystifier: a few good performances do not make it worth unravelling.

w John Huston, Gladys Hill novel Noel Behn d John Huston ph Ted Scaife m Robert Drasnin pd Ted Haworth

☆ Richard Boone, Orson Welles, Bibi Andersson, Max von Sydow, Patrick O'Neal, Ronald Radd, George Sanders, Dean Jagger, Nigel Green, Barbara Parkins, Lila Kedrova, Michael MacLiammoir, Sandor Eles, Niall MacGinnis, John Huston

'One of those all-star international spy sagas that trick out an indecipherably tortuous plot with a series of vignettes in which the pleasures of star-spotting are expected to compensate for any narrative longueurs.' – Nigel Andrews

Der Krieger und die Kaiserin

Germany 2000 135m colour Super 35
Pathé/X Filme (Stefan Arndt, Maria Kopf)
aka: The Princess and the Warrior

A nurse tracks down the man who saved her life and becomes involved in crime.

A gritty and unconvincing romance, taken at a slow tempo, and with mystic sequences that only add to the air of confusion.

wd Tom Tykwer ph Frank Griebe m Tom Tykwer, Johnny Kilmek, Reinhold Heil pd Uli Hanisch ed Mathilde Bonnefoy cos Monika Jacobs

☆ Franka Potente (Sissi), Benno Furmann (Bodo), Joachim Krol (Walter), Marita Breuer (Sissi's mother), Jurgen Tarrach (Schmatt), Lars Rudolph (Steini), Melchior Beslon (Otto), Ludger Pistor (Werner Durr)

'A botch, but it's the kind of bad movie that can only happen to a good – and potentially great – filmmaker.' – Gene Seymour, Newsday

Krippendorf's Tribe

US 1998 94m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Mora-Brezner-Steinberg-Tenenbaum/Dreyfuss-James (Larry Brezner)

A widowed anthropologist, who has spent his research grant on his children, invents a lost New Guinea tribe, faking film of them in his back yard.

Energetic comedy, though lacking in wit or humour; its sexual jokes are likely to alienate a family audience, for which it was presumably intended.

w Charlie Peters book Frank Parkin d Todd Holland ph Dean Cundey m Bruce Broughton pd Scott Chambliss ed Jon Poll

☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Jenna Elfman, Natasha Lyonne, Gregory Smith, Carl Michael Lindner, Stephen Root, Elaine Stritch, Tom Poston, David Ogden Stiers, Lily Tomlin, Zakes Mokae

'Frenetic, formulaic and instantly forgettable.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Kris: see Crisis

Krótki Film o Miłości: see A Short Film about Love

Krótki Film o Zabijaniu: see A Short Film about Killing

Krull

GB 1983 121m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/Ted Mann-Ron Silverman

Prince Colwyn's bride-to-be is abducted by the Beast of the Black Fortress.

Old-fashioned derring-do taking place on a somewhat unattractive planet; nevertheless fairly lively in its action and trick effects.

w Stanford Sherman d Peter Yates ph Peter Suschitzky m James Horner pd Stephen Grimes

☆ Ken Marshall, Lysette Anthony, Freddie Jones, Francesca Annis, Alun Armstrong, David Battley, Bernard Bresslaw, John Welsh, Tony Church, Bernard Archard

'Nearly everything in it has been done before, in some cases rather better, but rarely quite so likeably.' – Nick Roddick, MFB

'Not really thrilling enough to be a blockbuster and not light enough to be anything else.' – Sight and Sound

Krzyzacy: see Knights of the Teutonic Order

Kuang Ye San Qian Jing: see Wild

'When you have attitude, who needs experience?'

Kuffs

US 1992 101m Technicolor
Universal/EvansGideon (Raynold Gideon)

A high-school dropout inherits his murdered brother's private police business and sets out to avenge his death.

Messily coarse comedy not helped by the star's direct addresses to the camera.

w Bruce A. Evans, Raynold Gideon d Bruce A. Evans ph Thomas Del Ruth m Harold Faltermeyer pd Victoria Paul, Armin Ganz ed Stephen Semel

☆ Christian Slater, Tony Goldwyn, Milla Jovovich, Bruce Boxleitner, Troy Evans, George de la Pena, Leon Rippy

'Film veers from ultra-violence to slapstick comedy in an arbitrary and irritating fashion. Hokey camera angles and flashy dissolves fail to pump up the action.' – Variety

'The film comes to resemble the bastard child of Miami Vice and an especially bad movie-of-the-week.' – New York Times

Kühle Wampe ★★★

Germany 1932 73m bw
Prometheus/Praesens (George Hoellering)
aka: Whither Germany?

During the Depression in Berlin, a working-class family is forced to move to a shantytown on the outskirts of the city.

A powerful attack on capitalist brutality and working-class apathy, which also suggested that the hope of the future lay with the revolutionary young, an optimism that was sadly misplaced. It is the only film in which Brecht was in control, working with a collective of like-minded collaborators.

w Bertold Brecht, Ernst Ottwald d Slaten Dodow ph Günther Krampf m Hanns Eisler, Josef Schmidt ad C.P. Haacker, Robert Scharfenberg

☆ Hertha Thiele (Annie), Ernst Busch (Ballad Singer (voice)), Martha Wolter, Adolf Fischer (Genosse), Lili Schönborn, Max Sablotzki, Alfred Schaefer

† German authorities banned the film on its release as offending 'against the vital interests of the state' and as being 'a summons to violence and subversion'. Brecht, by lying, persuaded the censor to release it with a few minor cuts. He later wrote, 'Leaving the building we did not conceal our high opinion of the censor. He had penetrated the essence of our artistic intentions with far greater sagacity than our most benevolent critics.'

Kukushka: see The Cuckoo

'Courage conquers all.'

Kull the Conqueror ②

US 1997 95m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal (Raffaella de Laurentiis)

The ancient evil spirit is summoned up to prevent a lowly born barbarian inheriting the throne of Valusia.

Routine sword-and-sorcery stuff that lacks both panache and visual magic.

w Charles Edward Pogue characters created by Robert E. Howard d John Nicolella ph Rodney Charters m Joel Goldsmith pd Benjamin Fernandez ed Dallas Puett sp Kit West; Richard Malzahn; make-up fx: Gianetto de Rossi

☆ Kevin Sorbo, Tia Carrere, Thomas Ian Griffith, Litefoot, Karina Lombard, Roy Brocksmith, Harvey Fierstein, Edward Tudor-Pole, Douglas Henshall

'No more than a well-crafted, diverting romp.' – Variety

Kumonosu-Jo: see Throne of Blood

Kundun ★

US 1997 134m Technicolor 'Scope
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Barbara de Fina)

Biopic of the Dalai Lama, from his discovery as a baby to his exile from Tibet after the Chinese invasion of his country.

A visually splendid, but intellectually flabby, hagiography: by concentrating on a child's-eye view of events, its makers deliberately evade any attempt to provide a political or social context for what is shown.

w Melissa Mathison d Martin Scorsese ph Roger Deakins m Philip Glass pd Dante Ferretti ed Thelma Schoonmaker

☆ Tenzin Thuthob Tsarong, Sonam Phunstok, Gyatso Lukhang, Robert Lin, Tencho Gyalpo, Tsewang Migyur Khangsa

'One from the heart, a majestic spectacle of images and sounds. But pic is bogged down by a routine screenplay.' – Variety

Dante Ferretti (art direction; costume design)

Kung Fu Cult Master: see The Evil Cult

Kung Fu Hustle ★★

Hong Kong/China 2004 99m colour 'Scope
Columbia/Huayi Brothers/Beijing Film Studio/Star (Stephen Chow, Chui Po-chu, Jeff Lau)

original title: Gungfu

In 1940s China, a would-be crook discovers his true calling when an axe gang attempts to crush the inhabitants of a slum, where some martial arts experts have taken refuge.

High-energy, visually witty comedy that is close in style to Looney Tunes cartoons. Its approach is a mix of tongue in cheek and fist in the stomach, as it both parodies martial arts movies and stages some spectacular battles of its own.

w Stephen Chow, Tsang Kan-cheong, Lola Huo, Chan Man-keung d Stephen Chow ph Poon Hang-seng m Raymond Wong pd Oliver Wong ed Angie Lam action choreographer Yuen Wo-ping additional action choreographer Sammo Hung

☆ Stephen Chow (Sing), Yuen Wah (Landlord), Yuen Qiu (Landlady), Leung Siu-lung (The Beast), Dong Zhihua (Donut), Chiu Chi-ling (Tailor), Xing Yu (Coolie), Chan Kwok-kwan (Brother Sum)

'A chop-socky on f/x steroids that's devoid of genuine inspiration or involving character development.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Kung Fu Street Fighter (dubbed)

Japan 1974 74m Eastmancolor Actionscope
Eural/Toei-Kyoto Eiga/Titan (Norimichi Matsudaira)

original title: Gekitotsu! Satsujinken

A Japanese hitman offers his services to protect an oil heiress, who is threatened by Chinese businessmen with Mafia connections.

An unsavoury martial arts movie with a thuggish hero, whose behaviour is excused because his father was killed by a Chinese firing squad.

w Koji Yakada, Motohiro Torii d Shigehiro Ozawa ph Kenji Horikoshi m Tony Tsushima ad Takatoshi Suzuki ed Kozo Horiike

☆ Sonny Chiba, Gerald Yamada, Doris Nakajima, Tony Cetera, Tatsuro Endo, Masashi Ishibashi

'The plentiful fight scenes are choreographed and stage-managed with unusual vigour, rising to operatic delirium for the climax.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

† It was followed by a sequel, Blood of the Dragon (qv).

Kung Phooey!

US 2002 87m colour
Mandrake/Nakota/Kung Phooey (Darryl Fong)

A martial arts student searches for the secret of eternal youth.

Something to make a happy man feel very old: 87 minutes of tedium and feeble jokes about martial arts movies.

wd Darryl Fong ph Cliff Traiman m Ryan Kallas, Kent Carter pd Mulan Chan ed Rick LeCompte, Steve S. Liu

☆ Michael Chow, Joyce Thi Brew, Karena Davis, Colman Domingo, Darryl Fong, Wallace Choy

'Lamer-than-lame martial arts spoof.' – Guardian

Kung Pow: Enter the Fist

US 2001 81m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/O Entertainment (Paul Marshal, Tom Koranda, Steve Oedekerk)

The adventures of The Chosen one, a master in martial arts who must do battle with a bad-tempered cow.

A parody of kung-fu movies, using an old example of the genre Tiger & Crane Fists/Hu He Shuangxing, to which Oedekerk has added new scenes and dubbed new dialogue. It's silliness is infectious.

wd Steve Oedekerk ph John J. Connor pd Hector Velez ed Paul Marshal

☆ Steve Oedekerk (Chosen One), Lung Fai (Master Pain), Leo Lee (Young Master Pain)

'Consistently silly and intermittently laugh-out-loud funny spoof.' – Eddie Cockrell, Variety

Kuro No Tenshi: see Black Angel

Kuroi Ame: see Black Rain

'Beware the haunted women who lurk in the bamboo forest as black cats craving the blood of men!'

Kuroneko ★★

Japan 1968 99m bw Tohoscope
Toho/Indai Eiga/Nihon Eiga Shinsha

aka: Black Cat

Raped and murdered by a wandering gang of soldiers, a woman and her daughter-in-law return as vengeful spirits, haunting a city gate and killing the samurai they meet.

A bleak and impassively elegant fable of the casual slaughters of war and the suffering of women.

wd Kaneto Shindo ph Kiyomi Kuroda m Hikaru Hayashi ed Hisao Enoki

☆ Kichiemon Nakamura, Nobuko Otowa, Kei Sato, Rokko Toura, Kiwako Taichi, Taiji Tonoyama, Takao Kanze

'The Film Courtney Doesn't Want You To See!'

Kurt and Courtney

GB 1998 100m colour
Downtown/Strength (Nick Broomfield)

A documentary on rock singer Kurt Cobain's suicide, in which various interested parties advance their own paranoid theories, claiming he was murdered.

Courtney Love, Cobain's widow, refused to participate in the movie or to allow his music to be played, which is here treated as an assault on civil liberties rather than the good sense it was.

d Nick Broomfield ph Joan Churchill ed Mark Atkins

'Seems a labour of hate, full of feeble excuses and sluggish charisma. It's just another way of saying "the dog ate my homework".' – Gaby Wood, Guardian

Kvinnodrom: see Journey into Autumn

Kvinnors Vântan: see Waiting Women

Kwaidan ★★★★

Japan 1964 164m Eastmancolor Tohoscope
Ninjin Club/Bungei

Four elegant ghost stories by Lafcadio Hearn.

A literally haunting film that is among the most beautiful ever made, with its succession of exotic, perfectly composed images and strange narratives.

w Yoko Mizuki d Masaki Kobayashi ph Yoshio Miyajima m Toru Takemitsu ad Shigemasa Toda ed Hisashi Sagara

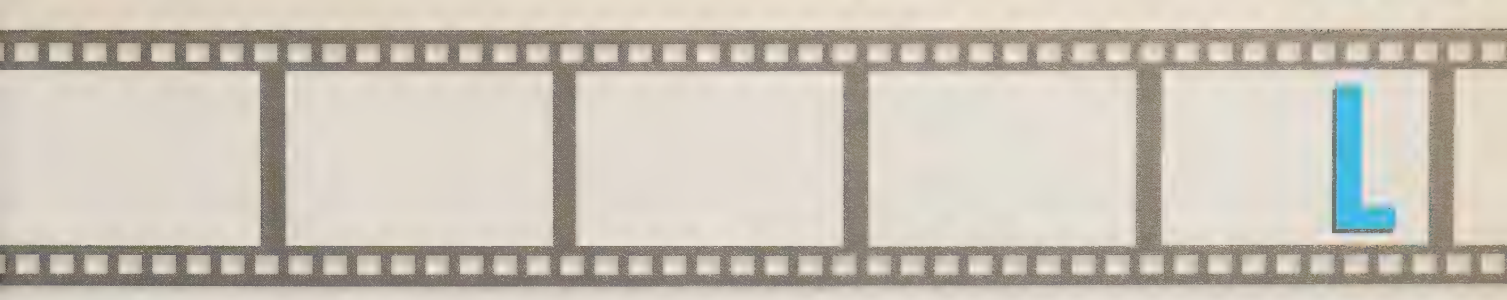
☆ Rentaro Mikuni (Samurai), Ganjiro Nakamura (Head Priest), Katsuo Nakamura (Hoichi), Keiko Kishi (Yuki/Snow Woman), Tatsuya Nakadai (Minokichi), Kanemon Nakamura (Kannai)

best foreign film



L.627 ★★

France 1992 146m colour
Artificial Eye/Little Bear (Alain Sarde)

A dedicated Paris cop joins a newly established team set up to deal with drug dealers.

A documentary-style film of police at work that inevitably reveals the grim underside of urban life, and problems that defy solution.

w Michel Alexandre d Bertrand Tavernier ph Alain Choquart m Philippe Sarde pd Guy-Claude François ed Ariane Boeglin

☆ Didier Bezace, Charlotte Kady, Philippe Torreton, Nils Tavernier, Jean-Paul Comart, Jean-Roger Milo, Lara Guirao, Cécile Garcia-Fogel, Claude Brosset

'With extraordinary documentary realism, the director has produced one of his best and most challenging films.' – Variety

† The title refers to the legislation against the possession and use of narcotics.

'Everything Is Suspect ... Everyone Is For Sale ... And Nothing Is What It Seems.'

LA Confidential ★★★★ (10)

US 1997 136m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Regency (Arnon Milchan, Curtis Hanson, Michael Nathanson)

In Los Angeles in the early 50s, an incorruptible cop learns that you cannot always play by the rules.

Exemplary, excellently acted thriller of creeping corruption, full of surprises; only the coda disappoints.

w Brian Helgeland, Curtis Hanson novel James Ellroy d Curtis Hanson ph Dante Spinotti m Jerry Goldsmith pd Jeannine Oppewall ad Bill Arnold ed Peter Honess

☆ Kevin Spacey (Jack Vincennes), Russell Crowe (Bud White), Guy Pearce (Ed Exley), James Cromwell (Dudley Smith), David Strathairn (Pierce Patchett), Kim Basinger (Lynn Bracken), Danny De Vito (Sid Hudgens), Graham Beckel (Dick Stensland)

'It's not quite the full-strength java Ellroy writes, but it's about as hard as a 1990s studio picture can be.' – Kim Newman, Empire

'An irresistible treat with enough narrative twists and memorable characters for a half-dozen films.' – Variety

† It grossed around $38m in the US, and another $30m elsewhere.

Kim Basinger; Curtis Hanson, Brian Helgeland best picture; Curtis Hanson (as director); Dante Spinotti; Jerry Goldsmith; Jeannine Oppewall; Peter Honess; sound

Peter Honess

'Something Funny Is Happening in L.A.'

L.A. Story ★

US 1991 95m Technicolor
Guild/Rastar (Daniel Melnick, Michael Rachmil)

A TV weather forecaster in Los Angeles falls for a visiting English journalist.

A pleasant romantic comedy, though the love affair is mainly with Los Angeles itself.

w Steve Martin d Mick Jackson ph Andrew Dunn m Peter Melnick pd Lawrence Miller ed Richard A. Harris

☆ Steve Martin, Victoria Tennant, Richard E. Grant, Marilu Henner, Sarah Jessica Parker, Susan Forristal, Kevin Pollak, Patrick Stewart

'A light-headed joyride for an audience.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

L.A. Takedown ★

US 1989 95m CFI color
Ajar/WIN (Patrick Markey)

A dedicated cop with marital problems pits his wits against a highly professional and ruthless gang.

Slick, melodramatic thriller, made for TV, which its director remade as the big-budget Heat, starring Robert DeNiro and Al Pacino; this version is less strenuous and emphatic, and plays down the male bonding between its two protagonists.

wd Michael Mann ph Ron Garcia m Tim Truman pd Dean Taucher ed Dov Hoenig

☆ Scott Plank, Michael Rooker, Ely Pouget, Vincent Guastaferro, Richard Chaves, Victor Rivers, Laura Harrington, Daniel Baldwin, Juan Fernandez

'A brisk little thriller, enjoyable in its own right, but fascinating as a trial run for the real thing.' – Sight and Sound

LA Without a Map

GB/France/Finland/Luxembourg 1998 107m
DeLuxe Technovision
United Media/Dan/Euro American/Marianna (Julie Baines, Sarah Daniel, Pierre Assouline)

An English aspiring writer falls for an American actress and follows her to Los Angeles.

Dreary, ambling narrative of uninteresting people passing the time in a futile manner.

w Mika Kaurismaki, Richard Rayner novel Richard Rayner d Mika Kaurismaki ph Michel Amathieu m Sebastien Cortella pd Caroline Hanania ed Ewa J. Lind

☆ David Tennant (Richard Tennant), Vinessa Shaw (Barbara), Julie Delpy (Julie), Vincent Gallo (Moss), Cameron Bancroft (Patterson), Joe Dallesandro (Michael), Anouk Aimée (Herself), Saskia Reeves (Joy), Margi Clarke (Bradford woman), Monte Hellman (Himself)

'A pointless, directionless film.' – Guardian

'Dire.' – Alexander Walker

'On the Long Island Expressway there are lanes going east, lanes going west, and lanes going straight to hell.'

L.I.E. ★★

US 2001 101m colour
Metro Tartan/Alter Ego/Belladonna (Linda Moran, Rene Bastian, Michael Cuesta)

In Long Island, a 15 year-old delinquent boy begins to form a relationship with a wealthy, middle-aged pederast.

Delicate account of a taboo subject, notable for Brian Cox's performance that brings humanity to the character of an ageing predator.

w Stephen M. Ryder, Michael Cuesta, Gerald Cuesta d Michael Cuesta ph Romeo Tirone m Pierre Foldes pd Elise Bennett ed Eric Carlson, Kane Platt

☆ Brian Cox (Big John Harrigan), Paul Franklin Dano (Howie Blitzer), Billy Kay (Gary Terrio), Bruce Altman (Marty Blitzer), James Costa (Kevin Cole), Tony Donnelly (Brian), Walter Masterson (Scott)

'A deeply nuanced drama full of original angles.' – David Rooney, Variety

'Offers a rich, dark, bitter slice of contemporary life. But the film's arty embellishments undermine its bleak vision.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The L-Shaped Room ★

GB 1962 142m bw
British Lion/Romulus (James Woolf, Richard Attenborough)

A girl intending to have an abortion takes a room in a London suburban house which is none too clean but full of characters.

Watchable, mildly sensational low-life melodrama of the pre-swinging London era when well-to-dos thought it amusing to live in garrets. Hellishly overlong but enjoyable in patches because of the professionalism with which it is made.

w Bryan Forbes novel Lynne Reid Banks d Bryan Forbes ph Douglas Slocombe m Brahms, John Barry

☆ Leslie Caron, Tom Bell, Brock Peters, Cicely Courtneidge, Bernard Lee, Avis Bunnage, Patricia Phoenix, Emlyn Williams

'It would be hard to imagine a more unlikely, or commercially more sure-fire group of lodgers living under a single roof than this pregnant French girl, maladjusted negro, lesbian actress, couple of prostitutes, and unpublished writer who finally commits it all to paper – shades of I Am a Camera as well as A Taste of Honey.' – MFB

Leslie Caron

Leslie Caron

La Bamba ★

US 1987 108m colour
New Visions/Columbia (Taylor Hackford, Bill Borden)

The brief life of 1950s rock-and-roller Ritchie Valens, who at 17 was killed in the Buddy Holly plane crash.

Palatable biopic, for those who can stand this kind of music.

wd Luis Valdez ph Adam Greenberg m Carlos Santana, Miles Goodman pd Vince Cresciman ed Sheldon Kahn, Don Brochu

☆ Lou Diamond Phillips (Ritchie Valens), Esai Morales, Rosana de Soto, Elizabeth Pena, Danielle von Zerneck, Marshall Crenshaw (Buddy Holly)

La Conga Nights

US 1940 59m bw
Universal

An elderly music moron helps to found a night-club.

Flimsy excuse for a musical, with the star playing himself, four sisters and his mother.

w Jay Dratler, Harry Clork, Paul Smith d Lew Landers ph Elwood Bredell ad Jack Otterson ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Hugh Herbert, Dennis O'Keefe, Constance Moore, Eddie Quillan

La Finestra di Fronte: see Facing Window

La Spagnola ★

Australia 2001 90m Atlab
Metro Tartan/AFFC/SBS|Wild Strawberries (Anna-Maria Monticelli)

In a poor Spanish and Italian immigrant community in Australia in 1960, a fiery Spanish mother finds herself at odds with her teenage daughter.

Exuberant drama of frustrated love and loss, given a sometimes unsettling comic treatment.

w Anna-Maria Monticelli d Steve Jacobs ph Steve Arnold m Cezary Skubiszewski pd Dee Molineaux ed Alexandre de Franceshi

☆ Lola Marceli (Lola), Alice Ansara (Lucia), Lourdes Bartolome (Manola), Alex Dimitriades (Stefano), Simon Palomare (Ricardo), Silvio Ofria (Bruno), Gabrielle Marsella (Maria), Helen Thomson (Wendy)

'A portrait of loneliness and sexual longing, mixed with hatred and desperation.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'The extraordinary life of Edith Piaf.'

La Vie En Rose ★★ (6)

France/Czech Republic/UK 2007 140m
Icon/Légende/Canal Plus/Sofica Valor 7/TPS Star (Ilan Goldman)

French theatrical title: La Môme

A biography of French singer Edith Piaf, from her childhood to her death at age 47.

Thankfully, one need not be a fan of Piaf's melodramatic, self-regarding singing style to enjoy this sprightly biography, which zips back and forth in time and covers many aspects of the singer's life – growing up in desperate poverty, temporary blindness, fame in Paris and New York, a brief doomed marriage to boxing champ Marcel Cerdan, not to mention the booze and morphine and hideous temper tantrums. Curiously, it omits her activities during World War II, abetting the Resistance while appearing not entirely unfriendly to occupying Nazis. Structurally, the film is far from perfect; a crucial piece of information about Piaf is tossed in very late, as if an afterthought. Yet it is a triumph for Marion Cotillard, who embodies Piaf perfectly, miming skilfully, and capturing the singer's creepy extremes to perfection.

wd Olivier Dahan ph Tetsuo Nagata m Christopher Gunning ad Olivier Raoux ed Richard Manzy
☆ Marion Cotillard (Edith Piaf), Sylvie Testud (Môme), Pascal Greggory (Louis Barrier), Emmanuelle Seigner (Titine), Jean-Pierre Martins (Marcel Cerdan), Gérard Depardieu (Louis Leplée)
'Anyone looking for scandal or salacious revelations will be disappointed. This over-long film does not probe or analyse; it is an exercise in heightened feeling, an opportunity for us to revel in emotion.' – Sukhdev Sandhu, Daily Telegraph

Laberinto de Pasiones: see Labyrinth of Passion

Laburnum Grove ★★

GB 1936 73m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)
A suburban father reveals he is a forger.
Agreeable worm-turns comedy melodrama, much copied since.
w Gordon Wellesley, Anthony Kimmins play J. B. Priestley d Carol Reed ph John W. Boyle ☆ Cedric Hardwicke, Edmund Gwenn, Victoria Hopper, Ethel Coleridge, Katie Johnson, Francis James
'Here at last is an English film one can unreservedly praise.' – Graham Greene

Labyrinth

US 1986 101m colour J-D-C Scope
Tri-Star/Eric Rattray, George Lucas
A young girl embarks on a fantasy adventure to save her stepbrother from the clutches of the Goblin King.
Bizarre but tedious attempt to create a new Alice in Wonderland, with the inventor of the Muppets in charge. Unfortunately his creatures become less attractive with each attempt, and the script is emaciated.
w Terry Jones, from script by Dennis Less and Jim Henson d Jim Henson ph Alex Thomson m Trevor Jones pd Elliot Scott conceptual designer Brian Froud
☆ David Bowie, Jennifer Connelly, Toby Froud, Shelley Thompson
'A crashing bore ... no real charm or texture to capture the imagination.' – Variety

Labyrinth of Passion

Spain 1982 99m colour
Metro/Alphaville/Ha Sido Producida (Andrés Santana)
original title: Laberinto de Pasiones
The sexual adventures of a nymphomaniac and the gay son of an emperor.
The Spanish equivalent of an Andy Warhol movie: a delirious farrago of sex and psychobabble intended to shock and amuse.
wd Pedro Almodóvar ph Angel L. Fernandez m Bernardo Bonezzi pd Pedro Almodóvar ed José Salcedo
☆ Cecilia Roth, Imanol Arias, Helga Liné, Marta Fernandez-Muro, Angel Alcazar, Antonio Banderas, Agustin Almodóvar
'The quintessential Spanish cult movie.' – Sight and Sound

The Lacemaker

France/Switzerland/West Germany 1977
107m Eastmancolor
Action/FR3/Citel/Janus (Yves Gasser)
original title: La Dentellière
An 18-year-old girl becomes ill and withdrawn when her first affair breaks up.
Careful social character study, witty and observant but in memory insufficiently differentiated from numerous exploitation pieces with similar plots.
w Pascal Lainé, Claude Goretta novel Pascal Lainé d Claude Goretta ph Jean Boffety m Pierre Jansen ad Serge Etter, Claude Chevant ed Joelle van Henterre, Nelly Meunier, Martine Charasson ☆ Isabelle Huppert, Yves Beneyton, Florence Giorgetti, Anne-Marie Düringer
BAFTA Isabelle Huppert

Lacombe, Lucien ★★★★

France 1974 141m Eastmancolor
Rank/NEF/UPF/Vides/Hallelujah Films (Louis Malle)
A boy is rejected for the French resistance and joins the Gestapo instead.
Tragic fable, a mite overlong, which caused its creator to migrate to America because of criticism received in France.
w Louis Malle, Patrick Modiano d Louis Malle ph Tonino Delli Colli m Django Reinhardt ad Ghislain Uhry ed Suzanne Baron ☆ Pierre Blaise (Lucien), Aurore Clement (France), Holger Lowenadler (Albert Horn), Thérèse Gieshe (Bella Horn)
'Malle's film is a long, close look at the banality of evil; it is – not incidentally – one of the least banal movies ever made.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'Easily Mr Malle's most ambitious, most provocative film.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
Academy Award best foreign film
BAFTA best film

The Lad

GB 1935 74m bw
Univeral (Julius Hagen)
A good-natured con man discovers that the inhabitants of a stately home have all got secrets to hide.
Old-fashioned, stagey but neatly plotted and quite watchable comedy thriller.
w Gerard Fairlie play Edgar Wallace d Henry Edwards ph Sydney Blythe md William L. Trytel ad James A. Carter ed Lister Laurance
☆ Gordon Harker, Betty Stockfeld, Jane Carr, Gerald Barry, Michael Shepley, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Sebastian Shaw, Barbara Everest

'A bond forged by fire is never broken.'

Ladder 49 (4)

US 2004 105m colour
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Beacon (Casey Silver)
An injured firefighter in a burning building recalls his life.
Old-fashioned heroics that relies on old-fashioned clichés.
w Lewis Colick d Jay Russell ph James L. Carter m William Ross pd Tony Burrough ed Bud Smith, Scott Smith
☆ Joaquin Phoenix (Jack Morrison), John Travolta (Captain Mike Kennedy), Jacinda Barrett (Linda Morrison), Robert Patrick (Lenny Richter), Morris Chestnut (Tommy Drake), Balthazar Getty (Ray Gauquin)
'The heroism of fire-fighters is brutally exploited in this dishonest flick, eager to convert post-9/11 pain into cheap euphoria.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Ladder of Swords ★

GB 1988 98m
Hobo/Film Four International/British Screen/Arden (Jennifer Howarth)
A circus performer is investigated by a policeman convinced that he has murdered his wife.
Well acted but rarely believable with its contrivances of a convenient death and a dim cop.
w Neil Clarke story Norman Hull, Neil Clarke d Norman Hull ph Thaddeus O'Sullivan m Stanley Myers pd Caroline Hanania ed Scott Thomas ☆ Martin Shaw, Eleanor David, Juliet Stevenson, Bob Peck, Simon Molloy, Pearce Quigley, Anthony Benson, Graham Rigby
'The whole enterprise is marked by a nimble, self-confident energy.' – MFB

Laddie

US 1935 70m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)
A young farmer loves the squire's daughter, but the squire says no.
Rather dim old-fashioned rural romance.
w Ray Harris, Dorothy Yost play Gene Stratton Porter novel Gene Stratton Porter d George Stevens
☆ John Beal, Gloria Stuart, Virginia Weidler, Charlotte Henry, Donald Crisp † Remade in 1940 by Cliff Reid for RKO, with Tim Holt, Virginia Gilmore.

Ladies Courageous

US 1944 88m bw
Universal (Walter Wanger)
Girls ferry war planes from base for the USAF.
Absolutely predictable propaganda potboiler.
w Norman Reilly Raine, Doris Gilbert d John Rawlins ph Hal Mohr m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Loretta Young, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Diana Barrymore, Evelyn Ankers, Anne Gwynne, Philip Terry, David Bruce, Lois Collier, Samuel S. Hinds
'Needs exploitation hype to catch nominal biz ... wandering continuity fails to generate much punch.' – Variety

Ladies' Day

US 1943 62m bw
Bert Gilroy/RKO
A baseball pitcher loses his touch when he falls in love, so has to be kept away from his latest girl.
Mildly wacky comedy with a fairly nimble touch.
w Charles E. Roberts, Dane Lussier play Robert Considine, Edward C. Lilley and Bertrand Robinson d Leslie Goodwins ☆ Lupe Velez, Eddie Albert, Patsy Kelly, Max Baer, Jerome Cowan, Iris Adrian

'The story of two sisters who saved a stranger, and the stranger who stole their hearts.'

Ladies in Lavender ★★ (5)

GB 2004 104m colour
Entertainment/Tale/Scala/Lakeshore (Nik Powell, Nicolas Brown, Elizabeth Karlsen)
In Cornwall in the mid 1930s, two elderly spinster sisters become possessive about an amnesiac musician to whom they offer shelter after he is found unconscious on the shore.
Unobtrusive virtuoso acting from Maggie Smith, as the sensible sister, and Judi Dench, as the more childish and romantic one, give this unassuming, genteel and picturesque period drama a touch of class.
wd Charles Dance short story William J. Locke ph Peter Biziou m Nigel Hess md Caroline Amies ed Michael Parker
☆ Judi Dench (Ursula Widdington), Maggie Smith (Janet Widdington), Daniel Bruhl (Andrea Marowski), Miriam Margolyes (Dorcas), Natascha McElhone (Olga Danilof), David Warner (Dr Francis Mead)

Ladies in Love ★

US 1936 97m bw
TCF (B. G. de Sylva)
Man-hunting girls in Budapest form a joint plan.
Amusing romantic nonsense.
w Melville Baker play Ladislaus Bus-Fekete d Edward H. Griffith ph Hal Mohr md Louis Silvers ☆ Janet Gaynor, Loretta Young, Constance Bennett, Simone Simon, Don Ameche, Paul Lukas, Tyrone Power, Alan Mowbray, Wilfrid Lawson, J. Edward Bromberg, Virginia Field

Ladies in Retirement ★★

US 1941 92m bw
Columbia (Lester Cowan)
A housekeeper murders her employer for the sake of her two mentally disturbed sisters.
Splendidly effective Grand Guignol, from a well-written play but filmically quite interesting. Remade with lots of gore as The Mad Room (qv).
w Reginald Denham, Edward Percy, Garrett Fort play Reginald Denham, Edward Percy d Charles Vidor ph George Barnes m Ernst Toch, Morris Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ☆ Ida Lupino, Louis Hayward, Isobel Elsom, Edith Barrett, Elsa Lanchester, Emma Dunn
'General excellence of script, direction, acting and mounting ... but too strong to catch general audience reaction on favourable plane.' – Variety
Academy Award Ernst Toch, Morris Stoloff; Lionel Banks

Ladies Love Brutes

US 1930 83m bw
Paramount
A gangster tries to improve himself to marry a socialite.
Uneasy comedy-drama with good moments.
w Waldemar Young, Herman J. Mankiewicz play Pardon My Glove by Zoë Akins d Rowland V. Lee ph Harry Fischbeck
☆ George Bancroft, Mary Astor, Fredric March, Margaret Quimby, Stanley Fields

Ladies Love Danger

US 1935 69m bw
Fox
A playwright and amateur sleuth solves a series of murders.
Light, bright whodunnit.
w Samson Raphaelson story Ilya Zorn d H. Bruce Humberstone
☆ Gilbert Roland, Mona Barrie, Donald Cook, Adrienne Ames, Hardie Albright, Herbert Mundin 'Stronger marquee strength would have sent it into ace spots. As is, looks best for secondaries.' – Variety

Ladies' Man ★

US 1931 70m bw
Paramount
A man of the world preys successfully on rich women until one grows jealous when her daughter falls for him.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Vivid, hard melodrama showing the blacker side of early thirties high society living.
w Herman J. Mankiewicz d Lothar Mendes ph Victor Milner ☆ William Powell, Kay Francis, Carole Lombard, Gilbert Emery, Olive Tell

'He's a hit with the misses, they go for his kisses!'

Ladies' Man
US 1947 90m bw
Paramount
A poor farmer strikes oil, becomes a millionaire, and finds himself a prize for the ladies.
Below-par comedy which wastes an agreeable cast.
w Edmund Beloin, Jack Rose and Lewis Meltzer d William D. Russell ☆ Eddie Bracken, Cass Daley, Virginia Welles, Spike Jones and his City Slickers

The Ladies Man
US 1961 106m Technicolor
Paramount/York (Jerry Lewis)
The adventures of an accident-prone houseboy at a Hollywood hotel for aspiring actresses.
Hit-or-miss collection of comic scraps which might have benefited from being put together on a less grandiose scale.
w Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond d Jerry Lewis ph W. Wallace Kelley m Walter Scharf ad Hal Pereira, Ross Bellar ed Stanley Johnson
☆ Jerry Lewis, Helen Traubel, Jack Kruschen, Doodles Weaver, Gloria Jean, Kathleen Freeman, Hope Holiday, Pat Stanley, George Raft, Harry James and his band
'Regression into infantilism cannot be carried much further than this.' – MFB

'He's cool. He's clean. He's a love machine.'

The Ladies Man
US 2000 84m DeLuxe
Paramount/SNL (Lorne Michaels)
A radio sex therapist and compulsive seducer loses his job but finds true love.
Tedious, mercifully brief, comedy based on a Saturday Night Live sketch.
w Tim Meadows, Dennis McNicholas, Andrew Steele d Reginald Hudlin ph Johnny E. Jensen m Marcus Miller pd Franco De Cotiis ed Earl Watson
☆ Tim Meadows (Leon), Karyn Parsons (Julie), Billy Dee Williams (Lester), Will Ferrell (Lance), Lee Evans (Barney), Tiffani-Amber Thiessen (Honey DeLune), John Witherspoon (Scrap Iron), Jill Talley (Candy), Julianne Moore (Audrey)
'Where are the laughs?' – Variety

Ladies Must Live: see The Home Towners

Ladies of Leisure
US 1930 98m bw
Columbia
A gold digger gets an attack of conscience and gives up her rich fiancé.
Only fitfully interesting early Capra, with little sparkle in any department.
w Jo Swerling play Ladies of the Evening by Milton Herbert Gropper d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Lowell Sherman, Ralph Graves, Marie Prevost
† The film was also released in a silent version for cinemas which had not yet been equipped for sound.

Ladies of the Big House
US 1931 77m bw
Paramount
A married couple are framed on a murder charge and sent to prison.
Melodramatic nonsense in the wake of The Big House.
w Louis Weitzenkorn d Marion Gering ph David Abel ☆ Sylvia Sidney, Gene Raymond, Wynne Gibson, Rockcliffe Fellowes, Earle Foxe 'Powerful in heart appeal and should do very well.' – Variety

Ladies of the Chorus
US 1948 61m bw
Columbia
A Broadway burlesque queen falls for a socialite.
Threadbare backstage support, notable only for the first leading performance of Marilyn Monroe.
w Harry Sauber and Joseph Carole d Phil Karlson ph Frank Redman md Mischa Bakaleinikoff ☆ Adele Jergens, Rand Brooks, Marilyn Monroe

Ladies of the Jury
US 1932 64m bw
RKO
A lady changes the minds of a murder jury to 'not guilty'.
Light-hearted early variation on Twelve Angry Men.
play Frederick Ballard d Lowell Sherman
☆ Edna May Oliver, Ken Murray, Roscoe Ates, Kitty Kelly, Guinn Williams, Cora Witherspoon
'A highly satisfying B house release.' – Variety

Ladies of the Park: see Les Dames du Bois de Boulogne

Ladies on the Rocks ★
Denmark 1983 110m colour
Artificial Eye/Komme Films/Danish Film Institute original title: Koks I Kulissen
Two women take their cabaret act on the road.
Small but well-observed film, with good performances.
w Christian Braad Thomsen, Helle Ryslinge, Annemarie Helger d Christian Braad Thomsen ph Dirk Bruel m Helle Ryslinge, Pernille Grumme, Annemarie Helger ed Grete Moldrup ☆ Helle Ryslinge, Annemarie Helger, Flemming Quist Moller, Hans Henrick Clemmensen, Gyda Hansen, Aksel Erhardsen

Ladies They Talk About ★
US 1933 69m bw
Warner
Trouble in a women's prison.
Entertaining comedy-melodrama which had some brushes with the Hays Office because of its frankly man-hungry characters.
w Sidney Sutherland, Brown Holmes play Women in Prison by Dorothy Mackaye, Carlton Miles d Howard Bretherton, William Keighley ph John Seitz
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Lyle Talbot, Preston Foster, Dorothy Burgess, Lillian Roth, Maude Eburne, Ruth Donnelly, Harold Huber
'Will get average business if sold to the hilt.' – Variety

Ladies Who Do
GB 1963 85m bw
British Lion/Bryanston/Fanfare (George H. Brown)
Charladies form a successful company from tips they salvage from wastepaper baskets.
Mild farce sustained by familiar actors.
w Michael Pertwee d C. M. Pennington-Richards ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Ron Goodwin
☆ Peggy Mount, Miriam Karlin, Robert Morley, Harry H. Corbett, Dandy Nichols

Ladri di Biciclette: see Bicycle Thieves

Ladri di Saponette: see The Icicle Thief

Il Ladro di Bambini: see The Stolen Children

The Lady and the Bandit
US 1951 78m bw
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)
GB title: Dick Turpin's Ride
A highwayman sacrifices his own life to avenge his father and protect his wife.
Fairly pathetic example of historical whitewashing to provide minor excitements.
w Robert Libbott, Frank Burt story Duncan Renaldo from the poem by Alfred Noyes d Ralph Murphy ph Henry Freulich, Harry Waxman m George Duning
☆ Louis Hayward, Patricia Medina, Suzanne Dalbert, Tom Tully, John Williams, Alan Mowbray

The Lady and the Doctor: see The Lady and the Monster

The Lady and the Duke: see L'Anglaise et Le Duc (2001)

The Lady and the Mob
US 1939 65m bw
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)
A lady bank owner menaced by gangsters forms her own mob.
Weak comedy.
w Richard Maibaum, Gertrude Purcell d Ben Stoloff ph John Stumar ☆ Fay Bainter, Ida Lupino, Lee Bowman, Henry Armetta, Warren Hymer, Harold Huber 'Neat, entertaining farce; rates exploitation.' – Variety

The Lady and the Monster
US 1944 86m bw
Republic (George Sherman)
aka: Tiger Man
GB title: The Lady and the Doctor
A scientist keeps alive the brain of a mortally injured financier, and it comes to dominate him.
Fair, over-padded version of a much filmed thriller (see also Donovan's Brain, Vengeance*).*
w Dane Lussier, Frederick Kohner novel Donovan's Brain by Curt Siodmak
d George Sherman ph John Alton
m Walter Scharf
☆ Erich von Stroheim, Richard Arlen, Vera Hruba Ralston, Mary Nash, Sidney Blackmer, Helen Vinson

The Lady and the Outlaw: see Billy Two Hats

Lady and the Tramp ★★
US 1955 76m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Walt Disney (Erdmann Penner)
A pedigree spaniel falls foul of two Siamese cats and has a romantic adventure with a mongrel who helps her.
Pleasant cartoon feature in Disney's cutest and most anthropomorphic vein.
d Hamilton Luske, Clyde Geronimi, Wilfred Jackson m Oliver Wallace m/ly Peggy Lee, Sonny Burke
☆ Featuring the voices of Peggy Lee, Barbara Luddy, Bill Thompson, Bill Baucon, Stan Freberg
† Lady and the Tramp II: Scamp's Adventure, a direct-to-video sequel, was released in 2001.

Lady Be Good
US 1941 111m bw
MGM (Arthur Freed)
Married songwriters produce a musical.
Thin musical with good talent and tunes; very little connection with the 1924 musical show.
w Jack McGowan, Kay Van Riper, John McClain d Norman Z. McLeod
ph George J. Folsey, Oliver T. Marsh md George Stoll songs various ☆ Eleanor Powell, Robert Young, Ann Sothern, Red Skelton, Dan Dailey, Virginia O'Brien, Reginald Owen, John Carroll, Lionel Barrymore, Jimmy Dorsey and his Orchestra
'A molasses-paced picture that extravagantly wastes talent and time … poor direction, unimaginative story-telling and slipshod photography.' – Variety ♫ Songs include: 'Hang on to Me'; 'Fascinating Rhythm'; 'Lady Be Good'; 'You'll Never Know'; 'Your Words and My Music'.
♟ song 'The Last Time I Saw Paris' (m Jerome Kern, ly Oscar Hammerstein II)

Lady By Choice ★
US 1934 78m bw
Columbia
A publicity-mad dancer adopts an old rummy as a Mother's Day stunt.
Amusing sentimental comedy in the wake of Lady for A Day.
w Jo Swerling, Dwight Taylor d David Burton ph Ted Tetzlaff ☆ Carole Lombard, May Robson, Walter Connolly, Roger Pryor, Arthur Hohl, Raymond Walburn, James Burke, Henry Kolker
'Can very well stand on its own outside the deluxers if properly sold.' – Variety

Lady Caroline Lamb ★
GB 1972 123m Eastmancolor
Panavision
EMI/GEC/Pulsar/Video Cinematographica (Fernando Ghia)
In 1805, impulsive Lady Caroline Ponsonby marries William Lamb, later Lord Melbourne, and then disgraces him by her wildness.
Pale, disappointing historical fiction with good spots but no reverence for fact; slackly written and handled, and not helped by the wide screen.
wd Robert Bolt ph Oswald Morris
m Richard Rodney Bennett ad Carmen Dillon
☆ Sarah Miles, Jon Finch, Richard Chamberlain (Byron), Margaret Leighton, John Mills (Canning), Ralph Richardson (George III), Laurence Olivier (Wellington)
'A period piece which rings a number of contemporary bells, both emotional and intellectual.' – Variety
'The film seems to have been made by a square Ken Russell' – Pauline Kael

Lady Chatterley's Lover

France 1955 101m bw
Regie du Film/Orsay Film (Gilbert Cohen-Séat)

The wife of a crippled and impotent mine-owner has an affair with a coarse gamekeeper and enjoys it.

Hilariously po-faced transcription of a notorious novel, of no cinematic interest whatever.

w Gaston Bonheur, Philippe de Rothschild, Marc Allégret novel D. H. Lawrence d Marc Allégret ph Georges Périnal m Joseph Kosma

☆ Danielle Darrieux, Leo Genn, Erno Crisa

'The classic of erotic literature!'

Lady Chatterley's Lover

GB/France 1981 104m colour
Cannon/Producteurs Associés

A 'period' remake, lovingly photographed but with some risible soft porn episodes and no great interest in the acting.

w Christopher Wicking, Just Jaeckin d Just Jaeckin ph Robert Fraisse m Stanley Myers, Richard Harvey pd Anton Furst ed Eunice Mountjoy

☆ Sylvia Kristel, Nicholas Clay, Shane Briant, Ann Mitchell, Elizabeth Spriggs

The Lady Cop: see La Femme-flic

'Eve Sure Knows Her Apples!'

The Lady Eve

★★★★

US 1941 97m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

A lady cardsharper and her father are outsmarted on a transatlantic liner by a millionaire simpleton; she plans an elaborate revenge.

Hectic romantic farce, the first to show its director's penchant for mixing up sexual innuendo, funny men and pratfalls. There are moments when the pace drops, but in general it's scintillating entertainment, especially after viewing its weak remake The Birds and the Bees (qv).

wd Preston Sturges play Monckton Hoffe ph Victor Milner m Leo Shuken, Charles Bradshaw ad Hans Dreier, Ernst Fegte ed Stuart Gilmore

☆ Barbara Stanwyck (Jean Harrington), Henry Fonda (Charles Pike), Charles Coburn ("Colonel" Harry Harrington), Eugène Pallette (Mr. Pike), William Demarest (Muggsy-Ambrose Murgatroyd), Eric Blore (Sir Alfred McGlennan Keith), Melville Cooper (Gerald), Martha O'Driscoll (Martha), Janet Beecher (Mrs. Pike), Robert Greig (Burrows), Luis Alberni (Pike's Chef), Jimmy Conlin (Steward)

'The whole theme, with all its variations of keys, is played to one end, to get laughs, and at several different levels it gets them.' – National Board of Review

'Preston Sturges, they tell me, is known in Hollywood as "the streamlined Lubitsch". This needn't put you off, because if he goes on producing films as lively as this one he will one day come to be known as Preston Sturges.' – William Whitebait

'This time Preston Sturges has wrapped you up another package that is neither very big nor very flashy, but the best fun in months.' – Otis Ferguson

'A mixture of visual and verbal slapstick, of high artifice and pratfalls ... it represents the dizzy high point of Sturges' writing.' – New Yorker, 1977

'The brightest sort of nonsense, on which Preston Sturges' signature is written large. The result has a sustained comic flavour and an individual treatment that are rarely found in Hollywood's antic concoctions.' – New York Herald Tribune

'A more charming or distinguished gem of nonsense has not occurred since It Happened One Night.' – New York Times

♙ Monckton Hoffe (original story)

Lady for a Day

★★★

US 1933 95m bw
Columbia (Frank Capra)

Gangsters help an old apple seller to pose as a rich woman when her daughter visits.

Splendid sentimental comedy full of cinematic resource; the best translation of Runyon to the screen.

w Robert Riskin story Madame La Gimp by Damon Runyon d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker ad Stephen Goosson ed Gene Havlick

☆ May Robson (Apple Annie), Warren William (Dave the Dude), Guy Kibbee (Judge Blake), Glenda Farrell (Missouri Martin), Ned Sparks (Happy), Jean Parker (Louise), Walter Connolly (Count Romero), Nat Pendleton (Shakespeare)

'Exceptionally adroit direction and scenario ... sell it with plenty of adjectives as it will please everybody.' – Variety

♙ best picture; Robert Riskin; Frank Capra; May Robson

Lady for a Night

US 1942 87m bw
Republic (Albert J. Cohen)

The lady owner of a gambling boat determines to break into society.

Moderate period comedy with a belated murder plot.

w Isabel Dawn, Boyce DeGaw d Leigh Jason ph Norbert Brodine m David Buttolph

☆ Joan Blondell, John Wayne, Ray Middleton, Philip Merivale, Blanche Yurka, Edith Barrett, Leonid Kinskey, Montagu Love

The Lady from Cheyenne

US 1941 87m bw
Universal (Frank Lloyd)

In 1860 Wyoming, a schoolmistress fights for women's rights.

Mild Western star romance.

w Kathryn Scola, Warren Duff d Frank Lloyd ph Milton Krasner m Frank Skinner

☆ Loretta Young, Robert Preston, Gladys George, Edward Arnold, Frank Craven, Jessie Ralph, Spencer Charters, Alan Bridge

Lady from Louisiana

US 1941 84m bw
Republic (Bernard Vorhaus)

In old Mississippi, a lottery-owner's daughter falls in love with a lawyer employed to make her father's business illegal.

Curious pot-boiler containing everything but the kitchen stove, including murder and a raging storm.

w Vera Caspary, Guy Endore, Michael Hogan d Bernard Vorhaus ph Jack Marta m Cy Feuer

☆ John Wayne, Ona Munson, Ray Middleton, Henry Stephenson, Helen Westley, Dorothy Dandridge, Jack Pennick

The Lady from Shanghai

★★

US 1948 87m bw
Columbia (Richard Wilson, William Castle)

A seaman becomes involved in the maritime wanderings of a crippled lawyer and his homicidal frustrated wife.

Absurd, unintelligible, plainly much cut and rearranged, this thriller was obviously left too much in Welles's hands and then just as unfairly taken out of them; but whole sequences of sheer brilliance remain, notably the final shoot-out in the hall of mirrors.

wd Orson Welles novel If I Die Before I Wake by Sherwood King ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Heinz Roemheld

☆ Orson Welles, Rita Hayworth, Everett Sloane, Glenn Anders, Ted de Corsia, Erskine Sanford, Gus Schilling

'The slurred social conscience of the hero leads him to some murky philosophizing, all of which with many individualities of diction clog the issue and the sound track. Sub-titles, I fear, would have helped.' – Richard Winnington

The Lady from Texas

US 1951 78m Technicolor
Universal-International (Leonard Goldstein)

A Civil War widow is thought to be committable.

Mild comedy of insanity, a pale shadow of Harvey whose star it borrows.

w Gerald Drayson Adams and Connie Lee Bennett d Joseph Pevney

☆ Josephine Hull, Mona Freeman, Howard Duff, Gene Lockhart, Craig Stevens, Ed Begley

The Lady from the Shanghai Cinema

Spain 1988 117m colour
Metro/Star/Raiz/Embrafilme/Chroma (Assunção Hernandes) original title: A dama do cine Shanghai

After becoming obsessed with the wife of a lawyer who may also be a criminal, a cinema-going estate agent contemplates murder.

Murky pastiche of film noir that deliberately confuses fantasy and reality; the central character might have been spared a great deal of misery if he had been better acquainted with Welles's The Lady from Shanghai.

wd Guilherme Del Almeida Prado ph Cláudio Portioli, José Roberto Eliezer m Hermelino Neder pd Hector Gomez

☆ Maite Proença, Antonio Fagundes, José Lewgoy, Jorge Doria, José Mayer, Miguel Falabella, Paulo Villaca

'The relentless drama of a woman driven to the depths of emotion by a craving beyond control!'

The Lady Gambles

US 1949 99m bw
U-I (Michael Kraike)

A happy woman destroys her marriage when she becomes addicted to gambling.

Boring, overwrought, underplotted fiction for women.

w Roy Huggins story Lewis Meltzer, Oscar Saul d Michael Gordon ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen ed Milton Carruth

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Preston, Stephen McNally, Edith Barrett, John Hoyt

'A kind of Lost Weekend of the gaming tables.' – Ella Smith

Lady Godiva

US 1955 89m Technicolor
U-I (Robert Arthur)
GB title: Lady Godiva of Coventry

Lord Leofric tames a Saxon shrew but she suspects his motives and rides naked through the streets of Coventry to prove the loyalty of the Saxons.

Comic strip historical legend, reliably turned out for midwestern family audiences.

w Oscar Brodney, Harry Ruskin d Arthur Lubin ph Carl Guthrie m Hans Salter

☆ George Nader, Maureen O'Hara, Victor McLaglen, Eduard Franz, Torin Thatcher

Lady Godiva of Coventry: see Lady Godiva

Lady Godiva Rides Again

GB 1951 90m bw
British Lion/London Films/Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder

A waitress wins a local beauty contest and becomes a charm school starlet and later a stripteaser.

Disappointing satirical comedy with good credentials.

w Frank Launder, Val Valentine d Frank Launder ph Wilkie Cooper m William Alwyn

☆ Pauline Stroud, Stanley Holloway, Diana Dors, Alastair Sim, George Cole, Dennis Price, John McCallum, Bernadette O'Farrell, Kay Kendall, Dora Bryan

Lady Hamilton: see That Hamilton Woman

The Lady Has Plans

US 1942 77m bw
Paramount (Fred Kohlmar)

A lady reporter in Lisbon is mistaken for a Nazi spy.

Competent fluff which veers between comedy and melodrama.

w Harry Tugend d Sidney Lanfield ph Charles Lang m Leo Shuken, Leigh Harline

☆ Paulette Goddard, Ray Milland, Albert Dekker, Roland Young, Margaret Hayes, Cecil Kellaway, Addison Richards, Edward Norris

Lady Ice

US 1973 92m Technicolor Panavision
Tomorrow Entertainment (Harrison Starr)

An insurance investigator steals a diamond and goes into partnership with a gangster's daughter.

Unamusing Miami-based thriller.

w Alan Trustman, Harold Clemins d Tom Gries ph Lucien Ballard m Perry Botkin Jnr

☆ Donald Sutherland, Jennifer O'Neil, Robert Duvall, Patrick Magee

'Because of its frank nature, we urge you – do not see it alone!'

Lady in a Cage

US 1964 97m bw
American Entertainments Corp. (Luther Davis)

A rich widow is trapped by roving marauders in her private elevator.

Unpleasant and boring suspenser with nasty details.

w Luther Davis d Walter Grauman ph Lee Garmes m Paul Glass pd Rudolf Sternad

☆ Olivia de Havilland, James Caan, Ann Sothern, Jeff Corey

'The film parades its pretensions on a note of high-pitched hysteria.' – MFB

Lady in a Jam

US 1942 78m bw
Universal (Gregory La Cava)

A scatterbrained socialite loses her money and inherits an Arizona farm.

A very thin vehicle for a star who deserved better.

w Eugene Thackrey, Frank Cockrell, Otho Lovering d Gregory La Cava ph Hal Mohr m Frank Skinner

☆ Irene Dunne, Patric Knowles, Ralph

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · ♫Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Bellamy, Eugene Pallette, Robert Homans, Samuel S. Hinds

Lady in Cement

US 1968 93m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Arcola/Millfield (Aaron Rosenberg)

A Florida private eye on his morning swim finds a dead blonde.
Routine private eye stuff with fashionable sex and violence added.
w Marvin H. Albert, Jack Guss d Gordon Douglas ph Joseph Biroc m Hugo Montenegro
☆ Frank Sinatra, Raquel Welch, Richard Conte, Martin Gabel, Lainie Kazan, Pat Henry, Steve Peck

'While Tony Rome seemed to herald a return to the forties thriller, Lady in Cement marks nothing more exciting than a return to Tony Rome.' – MFB

Lady in Distress: see A Window in London

The Lady in Question ★

US 1940 81m bw
Columbia

A Parisian shopkeeper on a jury is responsible for getting a girl acquitted of a murder charge, but begins to worry when his son falls in love with her.
Stagey but quite satisfying Hollywood remake of the French drama Gribouille, with Raimu and Michele Morgan.
w Lewis Meltzer story Marcel Achard d Charles Vidor ph Lucien Andriot m Lucien Moraweck ☆ Brian Aherne, Rita Hayworth, Glenn Ford, Irene Rich, George Coulouris, Lloyd Corrigan, Evelyn Keyes, Edward Norris, Curt Bois, Frank Reicher

The Lady in Red

US 1979 93m Metrocolor
New World

The story of Dillinger's mistress.
Okay but uninspired gangster drama from a fresh angle.
w John Sayles d Lewis Teague
☆ Pamela Sue Martin, Robert Conrad, Louise Fletcher, Robert Hogan, Rod Gist

The Lady in the Car with Glasses and a Gun

France/US 1969 105m Eastmancolor Panavision
Lira Film/Columbia (Anatole Litvak)

An English secretary in Paris decides to drive to the coast but has various adventures which make her believe she is either mad or amnesiac.
Muddled, tedious suspenser with a totally implausible 'explanation'.
w Richard Harris, Eleanor Perry novel Sebastien Japrisot d Anatole Litvak ph Claude Renoir m Michel Legrand
☆ Samantha Eggar, Oliver Reed, John McEnery, Stéphane Audran

'The minx in mink with a yen for men!'

Lady in the Dark ★★

US 1944 100m Technicolor
Paramount (Richard Blumenthal)

The editress of a fashion magazine is torn between three men, has worrying dreams, and takes herself to a psychoanalyst.
Lush, stylish and frequently amusing version of a Broadway musical, lacking most of the songs; despite its faults, an excellent example of studio spectacle and a very typical forties romantic comedy.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett play Moss Hart d Mitchell Leisen ph Ray Rennahan m Kurt Weill md Robert Emmett Dolan ad Hans Dreier, Raoul Pene du Bois sp Gordon Jennings ly Ira Gershwin
☆ Ginger Rogers, Warner Baxter, Ray Milland, Jon Hall, Mischa Auer, Mary Philips, Barry Sullivan
† The film was completed in 1942 but held up because of overstock.
†† Paramount chief Buddy de Sylva is credited with ruining the film by cutting the theme song, 'My Ship', which is the key to the psychoanalysis.
Ray Rennahan; Robert Emmett Dolan; art direction

Lady in the Iron Mask

US 1952 78m Natural Color
Wanger-Frenke/TCF

Princess Anne's twin sister is kept in an iron mask to prevent dispute about the succession.
Naïve twist on a well-worn legend; production values below par.
w Jack Pollexfen, Aubrey Wisberg d Ralph Murphy ph Ernest Laszlo m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Louis Hayward, Patricia Medina, Alan Hale Jnr, Judd Holdren, Steve Brodie, John Sutton

The Lady in the Lake ★

US 1946 103m bw
MGM (George Haight)

A private eye is assigned to find a missing wife...
Complex private eye yarn which makes the original Chandler dialogue sound childish by over-reliance on the subjective camera method: we see the hero's face only when he looks in a mirror. An experiment that failed because it was not really understood.
w Steve Fisher novel Raymond Chandler d Robert Montgomery ph Paul C. Vogel m David Snell
☆ Robert Montgomery, Audrey Totter, Lloyd Nolan, Tom Tully, Leon Ames

Lady in the Morgue ★

US 1938 70m bw
Universal
GB title: The Case of the Missing Blonde

A private eye investigates a suicide and uncovers three murders.
Smart 'B' feature frequently cited as a model of its kind.
w Eric Taylor, Robertson White novel Jonathan Latimer d Otis Garrett ph Stanley Cortez ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Preston Foster, Frank Jenks, Patricia Ellis, Thomas Jackson
† A previous film with the same characters and actors was The Westland Case, directed by Christy Cabanne in 1937.

'Time is running out for a happy ending.'

Lady in the Water ②

US 2006 109m
Warner Bros/Legendary Pictures/Blinding Edge Pictures (Sam Mercer, M Night Shyamalan)

The superintendent of an apartment block helps a water nymph get back to her world.
Ludicrous, self-indulgent fantasy that drowns in its own mythic pretensions. A significant reversal for the director of The Sixth Sense.
wd M Night Shyamalan ph Christopher Doyle m James Newton Howard pd Martin Childs ad Stefan Dechant, Christina Wilson ed Barbara Tulliver sp Edward Hirsch
☆ Paul Giamatti (Cleveland Heep), Bryce Dallas Howard (Story), Jeffrey Wright (Mr Dury), Bob Balaban (Harry Farber), Freddy Rodriguez (Reggie), M Night Shyamalan (Vick Ran)

'While Lady in the Water is probably not a career-ending disaster, it does demonstrate the dangers of convincing a young director of his own genius.' – Wendy Ide, The Times

Lady in White ★

US 1988 113m DeLuxe
Virgin/New Sky Productions/Samuel Goldwyn Company (Andrew G. La Marca, Frank LaLoggia)

After seeing the ghost of a murdered girl, a young boy discovers the identity of her killer.
Modest, but rewarding, movie in its depiction of childhood traumas.
wd Frank LaLoggia ph Russell Carpenter m Frank LaLoggia pd Richard K. Hummel ed Steve Mann
☆ Lukas Haas, Len Cariou, Alex Rocco, Katherine Helmond, Jason Presson, Renata Vanni, Angelo Bertolini, Joelle Jacobi, Jared Rushton

'A ghost movie with an overcomplicated plot, but it has a poetic feeling that makes up for much of the clutter.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

The Lady Is a Square

GB 1958 99m bw
ABP/Wilcox-Neagle

An impoverished socialite widow tries to keep her husband's symphony orchestra going and is helped by a pop singer.
Strained attempt to carry on the Spring in Park Lane tradition, with a few inspirations from Joe Pasternak and One Hundred Men and a Girl. Earnest performances, obvious jokes.
w Harold Purcell, Pamela Bower, Nicholas Phipps d Herbert Wilcox ph Gordon Dines md Wally Stott
☆ Anna Neagle, Frankie Vaughan, Anthony Newley, Janette Scott, Wilfrid Hyde-White

The Lady Is Willing

GB 1933 74m bw
Columbia British

An ex-officer becomes a detective and takes his revenge on the financier who ruined him.
Interesting comedy-melodrama with strong cast.
w Guy Bolton play Louis Verneuil d Gilbert Miller
☆ Leslie Howard, Cedric Hardwicke, Binnie Barnes, Nigel Playfair, Nigel Bruce

The Lady Is Willing

US 1942 91m bw
Columbia (Mitchell Leisen)

A musical comedy star adopts a baby and falls in love with its pediatrician.
Dull mixture of light drama and heavy comedy, with all concerned ill at ease.
w James Edward Grant, Albert McCleery d Mitchell Leisen ph Ted Tetzlaff m W. Franke Harling
☆ Marlene Dietrich, Fred MacMurray, Aline MacMahon, Stanley Ridges, Arline Judge, Marietta Canty

Lady Jane

GB 1986 142m Technicolor
Paramount/Peter Snell

After the death in 1553 of Edward VI, a faction pushes into power his second cousin Lady Jane Grey.
The puzzle is why this dreary and overlong historical piece was made in an unsympathetic age; and why such an unsuitable leading lady was cast.
w David Edgar, Chris Bryant d Trevor Nunn ph Douglas Slocombe m Stephen Oliver pd Allan Cameron ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Helena Bonham Carter, Cary Elwes, John Wood, Michael Hordern, Jill Bennett, Jane Lapotaire, Sara Kestelman, Joss Ackland, Patrick Stewart, Richard Vernon
† The story was previously told in 1936 as Tudor Rose.

Lady Killer ★★★

US 1933 76m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A cinema usher turns to crime, flees to Hollywood, and becomes a movie star.
Hectic slam-bang action comedy with melodramatic moments. Great fun.
w Ben Markson novel The Finger Man by Rosalind Keating Shaffer d Roy del Ruth ph Tony Gaudio md Leo F. Forbstein ad Robert Haas ed George Amy ☆ James Cagney (Dan Quigley), Mae Clarke (Myra Gale), Leslie Fenton (Duke), Margaret Lindsay (Lois Underwood), Henry O'Neill (Ramick), Willard Robertson (Conroy), Raymond Hatton (Pete), Russell Hopton (Smiley)

'An all-time high in roughneck character work even for this rough-and-tumble star.' – Variety
'A kind of résumé of everything he has done to date in the movies.' – New York Evening Post
'Sprightly, more or less daring, thoroughly entertaining.' – New York World Telegram

The Lady Killers: see The Ladykillers

Lady L

France/Italy/US 1965 124m Eastmancolor Panavision
Concordia/Champion/MGM (Carlo Ponti)

An 80-year-old lady recalls her romantic life from her youth as a Paris laundress.
Unhappy, lumbering, styleless attempt to recapture several old forms, indifferently though expensively made and acted.
wd Peter Ustinov novel Romain Gary ph Henri Alekan m Jean Françaix ad Jean D'Eaubonne, Auguste Capelier
☆ Sophia Loren, David Niven, Paul Newman, Peter Ustinov, Claude Dauphin, Philippe Noiret, Michel Piccoli, Marcel Dalio, Cecil Parker, Eugène Deckers

Lady, Let's Dance

US 1944 86m bw
Scott R. Dunlap/Monogram

An entertainment director for a California resort needs a new star.
Thin musical with production values ambitious for its source.
w Peter Milne and Paul Gerard Smith d Frank Woodruff ☆ Belita, James Ellison, Frick and Frack, Walter Catlett, Lucien Littlefield
Edward Kay (music); song 'Silver Shadows and Golden Dreams' (m Lew Pollack, ly Charles Newman)

The Lady Lies

US 1929 75m bw
Paramount

A wealthy widowed attorney courts a working-class girl and offends his children.
Dated melodrama in primitive talkie technique.
w John Meehan, Garrett Fort d Hobart Henley

☆ Walter Huston, Claudette Colbert, Charles Ruggles, Tom Brown

Lady Luck

US 1946 97m bw
RKO (Warren Duff)

The daughter of a long line of ill-fated gamblers marries one and tries to reform him, but the reverse happens.
Tedious comedy drama.
w Lynn Root, Frank Fenton d Edwin L. Marin ph Lucien Andriot m Leigh Harline ☆ Robert Young, Barbara Hale, Frank Morgan, James Gleason, Don Rice, Harry Davenport, Lloyd Corrigan

'Music Mystery Murder ...'

Lady of Burlesque *

US 1943 91m bw
Hunt Stromberg

GB title: Striptease Lady

A burlesque dancer solves a number of backstage murders.
Agreeable murder mystery with strong injections of comedy.
w James Gunn novel The G-String Murders by Gypsy Rose Lee d William A. Wellman ph Robert de Grasse m Arthur Lange ☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Michael O'Shea, J. Edward Bromberg, Iris Adrian, Gloria Dickson, Charles Dingle
♗ Arthur Lange

Lady of Deceit: see Born to Kill

Lady of Scandal

US 1930 67m bw
MGM

The son of a noble house wants to marry an actress, but the family is nasty to her.
Dated melodrama with sophisticated comedy asides.
w Hans Kraly play The High Road by Frederick Lonsdale d Sidney Franklin ☆ Ruth Chatterton, Basil Rathbone, Ralph Forbes, Nance O'Neil, Frederick Kerr, Herbert Bunston

'Should register well in any but the lowest grind.' – Variety

Lady of Secrets

US 1936 73m bw
B. P. Schulberg/Columbia

A rich girl's father prevents her marriage without knowing that she is pregnant.
Complicated and very boring mother-love yarn with the faint perfume of a bygone age.
w Joseph Anthony, Zoe Akins, Katherine Brush d Marion Gering
☆ Ruth Chatterton, Otto Kruger, Lionel Atwill, Lloyd Nolan, Marian Marsh, Elizabeth Risdon

'Chatterton, back to the screen after a long absence, is still having trouble with her offspring. This time she is also having trouble with the play, the direction, and the photography.' – Variety

Lady of the Boulevards: see Nana

The Lady of the Camelias (dubbed)

France/Italy/Germany 1981 121m Technicolor
Gaumont/Films du Losange/FR3/Opera/Tele-München (Margaret Menegoz, Monolo Bolognini)

original title: La Dame aux Camélias

As Alexandre Dumas rehearses his play La Dame aux Camélias, he recalls the tragic life of Alphonsine Plessis, the courtesan who was the model for its central character.
Uninspired and ponderous period drama, lacking in any sign of passion; what little life it might have had has been flattened by the dubbing.
w Enrico Medioli, Jean Aurenche, Vladimir Pozner d Mauro Bolognini ph Ennio Guarnieri m Ennio Morricone ad Mario Garbuglia ed Nino Baragli ☆ Isabelle Huppert, Gian Maria Volonte, Bruno Ganz, Fabrizio Bentivoglio, Fernando Rey, Clio Goldsmith, Mario Maranzana, Carla Fracci

Lady of the Night (dubbed)

Italy 1986 100m Telecolor
San Francisco/Metrofilm (Giovanni Bertolucci)

original title: La Signora della Notte

After three years of marriage, a wife decides she wants to have sex with strangers.
Risible and sleazy sexploitation movie, full of violence towards women.
w Galliano Juso, Piero Schivazappa d Piero Schivazappa ph Giuseppe Ruzzolini m Guido and Maurizio de Angelis ad Bruno Amalfitano ed Daniele Alabiso ☆ Serena Grandi, Fabio Sartor, Francesca Topi, Alberto di Stasio, Emanuela Taschini, Stanko Molnar

Lady of the Tropics

US 1939 92m bw
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)

An American playboy in Saigon marries a half-caste girl but her former admirer prevents her from getting a passport.
Interminable romantic melodrama with stars apparently straight from the taxidermist.
w Ben Hecht d Jack Conway ph George Folsey m Franz Waxman
☆ Robert Taylor, Hedy Lamarr, Joseph Schildkraut, Gloria Franklin, Ernest Cossart

'Mediocre and stagey romance, but stars should pull it through.' – Variety

Lady on a Train *

US 1945 84m bw
Universal (Felix Jackson)

A girl arriving in New York by train sees a murder committed and can't make anyone believe her.
Cheerful mystery which starts in the right spirit but does not progress too satisfactorily.
w Edmund Beloin, Robert O'Brien novel Leslie Charteris d Charles David ph Elwood Bredell m Miklos Rozsa ad John B. Goodman, Abraham Grossman ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Deanna Durbin, Ralph Bellamy, David Bruce, Edward Everett Horton, George Coulouris, Allen Jenkins, Dan Duryea, Patricia Morison

The Lady Pays Off

US 1951 80m bw
Universal-International (Albert J. Cohen)

A gambling schoolteacher agrees to pay off her debts by tutoring the casino owner's daughter.
Flat and unprofitable romantic comedy-drama.
w Frank Gill Jnr, Albert J. Cohen d Douglas Sirk ph William H. Daniels m Frank Skinner
☆ Linda Darnell, Stephen McNally, Gigi Perreau, Virginia Field, Ann Codee

'The sort of thing that people who shun the cinema imagine all films to be.' – C. A. Lejeune

Lady Possessed

US 1952 86m bw
Republic/Portland (James Mason)

An unbalanced woman imagines she is destined to take the place of a pianist's dead wife.
Weary melodramatic nonsense dating from Hollywood's first obsession with psychiatry.
w Pamela Kellino, James Mason novel Del Palma by Pamela Kellino d William Spier, Roy Kellino ph Karl Struss m Nathan Scott
☆ James Mason, June Havoc, Stephen Dunne, Fay Compton, Pamela Kellino, Steven Geray

The Lady Says No

US 1951 83m bw
UA/Stillman (Frank Ross, John Stillman Jnr)

A magazine photographer tames a female chauvinist author.
Very silly comedy with neither wit nor style.
w Robert Russell d Frank Ross ph James Wong Howe m Emil Newman ☆ Joan Caulfield, David Niven, James Robertson Justice, Lenore Lonergan, Henry Jones

Lady Scarface

US 1941 69m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)

A police lieutenant captures a dangerous female gangster.
Weird gangster second feature with too many domestic comedy asides; notable only for the appearance in it of its dignified lead, fresh from Rebecca.
w Arnaud D'Usseau, Richard Collins d Frank Woodruff ph Nicholas Musuraca ☆ Judith Anderson, Dennis O'Keefe, Frances Neal, Mildred Coles, Eric Blore, Marc Lawrence

Lady Sings the Blues *

US 1972 144m Eastmancolor Panavision
Paramount/Motown/Weston/Furie (Jay Weston, James S. White)

The disastrous private life of jazz singer Billie Holiday.
Old-fashioned showbiz biopic with new-fashioned drugs, sex and squalor.
w Terence McCloy, Chris Clark, Suzanne de Passe d Sidney J. Furie ph John Alonzo m Michel Legrand md Gil Askey
☆ Diana Ross, Billy Dee Williams, Richard Pryor, James Callahan, Sid Melton
♗ script; Gil Askey; Diana Ross

Lady Snowblood 2 - Love Song Of Vengeance

Japan 1974 89m colour
Toho/Tokyo Eiga (Kikumaru Okuda)

original title: Shurayukihime: Urami Renga

In the early 1900s, a female martial arts expert is given a choice by the secret police: face a death sentence or assassinate an anarchist revolutionary.
Violent but uninteresting sequel, with unconvincing action scenes.
w Kiyohide Ohara, Norio Osada d Toshiya Fujita ph Tatsuo Suzuki m Kenjiro Hirose ad Yuki Higuchi ed Osamu Inoue fight choreographer Ikushiroo Hayashi ☆ Meiko Kaji, Yoshio Harada, Kazuko Yoshiyuki, Shin Kishida, Kooji Nambara, Kiichi Yamamoto

'Feel Like A Beast. Become A Beast. Die A Beast.'

Lady Snowblood: Blizzard from the Netherworld

Japan 1973 97m colour
Toho/Tokyo Eiga (Kikumaru Okuda)

original title: Shurayukihime

Born in prison in 1874, a girl grows up to avenge her father's murder and her mother's rape.
Limbs are chopped off and blood gushes in copious quantities in a single-minded revenge drama set against a period of social unrest and high level corruption.
w Norio Osada manga Kazuo Koike, Kazuo Kamimura d Toshiya Fujita ph Masatoshi Tamura m Masaaki Hirao ad Kazuo Satsuya ed Osamu Inoue
☆ Meiko Kaji, Toshio Kurosawa, Masaaki Daimon, Miyoko Akaza, Takeo Chii, Noboru Nakaya
† It was followed by a sequel, Lady Snowblood 2 - Love Song Of Vengeance (qv).
†† The film was one of the inspirations for Kill Bill (qv), directed by Quentin Tarantino, who used its theme song in his film.

A Lady Surrenders

US 1930 95m bw
Universal

A misunderstanding turns an innocent husband into a bigamist after his wife has supposedly divorced him.
Totally effete romantic drama with no comedy relief.
w Gladys Lehman novel Sincerity by John Erskine d John Stahl ☆ Conrad Nagel, Genevieve Tobin, Basil Rathbone, Rose Hobart, Carmel Myers

'It fails from all angles: too stilted, slow, talky and punchless.' – Variety

A Lady Surrenders: see Love Story (1944)

A Lady Takes a Chance

US 1943 86m bw
RKO (Frank Ross)

aka: The Cowboy and the Girl

A New York office girl on holiday in Oregon falls for a rodeo rider.
Slender star action romance.
w Robert Ardrey d William A. Seiter ph Frank Redman m Roy Webb
☆ Jean Arthur, John Wayne, Charles Winninger, Phil Silvers, Mary Field, Don Costello, John Philliber, Grady Sutton, Hans Conried

The Lady Takes a Flyer

US 1958 95m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Universal-International (William Alland)

A pilot's wife finds that life at home is not easy, especially with a baby.
Heavy comedy or light drama; on either count a bore.
w Danny Arnold d Jack Arnold
☆ Lana Turner, Jeff Chandler, Richard Denning, Chuck Connors, Andra Martin

The Lady Takes a Sailor *

US 1949 99m bw
Warner

A girl devoted to telling the truth insists on proving her story of a mysterious submarine which saved her after a sailing accident.
Curious romantic farce with echoes of the old slapstick tradition.
w Everett Freeman d Michael Curtiz ph Ted McCord m Max Steiner
☆ Jane Wyman, Dennis Morgan, Eve Arden, Allyn Joslyn, Robert Douglas, William Frawley

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A Lady to Love

US 1930 92m bw
MGM

An ageing grape grower spots an attractive waitress, sends her a marriage proposal by mail, but encloses a photo of his handsome foreman.

Rather primitive but well-acted version of a subject later filmed more fluently under the title of the original play.

w Sidney Howard play They Knew What They Wanted by Sidney Howard d Victor Seastrom ph Merritt B. Gerstad

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Vilma Banky, Robert Ames, Richard Carle

'A hit as a talker: well directed, acted and treated.' – Variety

Lady Tubbs

US 1935 69m bw
Universal

An ex-cook crashes society and shows up the pretenders.

Mildly agreeable sentimental farce.

w Barry Trivers novel Homer Croy d Alan Crosland

☆ Alice Brady, Douglass Montgomery, Anita Louise, Alan Mowbray, Minor Watson, Russell Hicks, Hedda Hopper

'Solid laugh fare for the nabes.' – Variety

'Spies! Playing the game of love – and sudden death!'

The Lady Vanishes ★★★★

GB 1938 97m bw
Gaumont British/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

En route back to England by train from Switzerland, an old lady disappears and two young people investigate.

The disappearing lady trick brilliantly refurbished by Hitchcock and his screenwriters, who even get away with a horrid model shot at the beginning. Superb, suspenseful, brilliantly funny, meticulously detailed entertainment.

w Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder novel The Wheel Spins by Ethel Lina White d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox md Louis Levy ed R.E. Dearing, Alfred Roome

☆ Margaret Lockwood (Iris Henderson), Michael Redgrave (Gilbert Redman), Dame May Whitty (Miss Froy), Paul Lukas (Dr. Hartz), Basil Radford (Charters), Naunton Wayne (Caldicott), Catherine Lacey (The Nun), Cecil Parker (Eric Todhunter), Linden Travers (Margaret Todhunter), Googie Withers (Blanche), Mary Clare (Baroness), Philip Leaver (Signor Doppo)

'If it were not so brilliant a melodrama, we should class it as a brilliant comedy.' – Frank S. Nugent

'No one can study the deceptive effortlessness with which one thing leads to another without learning where the true beauty of this medium is to be mined.' – Otis Ferguson

'Directed with such skill and velocity that it has come to represent the very quintessence of screen suspense.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

† Hitchcock was actually second choice as director. The production was ready to roll as Lost Lady, directed by Roy William Neill, with Charters and Caldicott already in place, when Neill became unavailable and Hitch stepped in.

†† A Region 1 DVD release from Criterion includes audio commentary by film historian Bruce Eder.

The Lady Vanishes

GB 1979 97m Eastmancolor Panavision
Rank/Hammer (Michael Carreras, Tom Sachs)

A remake of the above in which everything goes wrong: wrong shape, wrong actors, wrong style (or lack of it).

Reasonable adherence to the original script can't save it.

w George Axelrod d Anthony Page ph Douglas Slocombe m Richard Hartley pd Wilfred Shingleton

☆ Cybill Shepherd, Elliott Gould, Angela Lansbury, Herbert Lom, Arthur Lowe, Ian Carmichael, Gerald Harper, Jenny Runacre, Jean Anderson

The Lady Wants Mink

US 1953 92m Trucolor
Republic (Herbert J. Yates)

A wife causes domestic upsets when she decides to start a mink farm in order to get the fur coat that she has always wanted.

A by-the-numbers comedy which comes to the predictable conclusions that the rural life is better than an urban existence and that money can't buy happiness; it fails to convince or even amuse.

w Dane Lussier, Richard Alan Simmons story Leonard Neubauer, Lou Schor d William A. Seiter ph Reggie Lanning m Stanley Wilson ad Martin Obzina ed Fred Allen

☆ Dennis O'Keefe, Ruth Hussey, Eve Arden, William Demarest, Gene Lockhart, Hope Emerson, Hillary Brooke, Tommy Rettig

Lady Windermere's Fan ★

US 1925 80m (24 fps) bw silent
Warner

The mysterious Mrs Erlynne almost causes a scandal in London society.

Oscar Wilde's play transposed to the twenties, with the Lubitsch touch daringly displacing Wildean epigrams. Still more amusing than the sound remake, The Fan.

w Julien Josephson d Ernst Lubitsch ph Charles Van Enger

☆ Ronald Colman, May McAvoy, Irene Rich, Bert Lytell, Edward Martindel

'Lubitsch's best silent film, full of incisive details, discreet touches, nuances of gestures, where behaviour betrays the character and discloses the sentiment of the personages.' – Georges Sadoul

Lady Windermere's Fan: see The Fan (1949)

The Lady with a Lamp ★

GB 1951 110m bw
British Lion/Imperadio (Herbert Wilcox)

The life of Florence Nightingale and her work in reforming the nursing service in 19th-century England.

Solid biopic, not quite in accord with history.

w Warren Chetham Strode play Reginald Berkeley d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Anthony Collins ad William C. Andrews

☆ Anna Neagle, Michael Wilding, Gladys Young, Felix Aylmer, Julian D'Albie, Arthur Young, Edwin Styles, Barbara Couper, Cecil Trouncer, Rosalie Crutchley

'A slow, sedate, refined chronicle … Herbert Wilcox is a good deal more at ease with the balls and dinners, than with anything that happens later.' – Penelope Houston

'It may please fans of Anna Neagle and Michael Wilding, but not fans of Florence Nightingale.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Lady with a Past ★

US 1932 80m bw
RKO (Charles R. Rogers)
GB title: Reputation

A wealthy but shy girl almost accidentally finds herself with a reputation as a scarlet woman, and the men flock around her.

Moderately enjoyable star comedy drama.

w Horace Jackson novel Harriet Henry d Edward H. Griffith ph Hal Mohr m Max Steiner

☆ Constance Bennett, Ben Lyon, David Manners, Astrid Allwyn, Merna Kennedy, Blanche Frederici, Nella Walker

'Light and satisfying material for the women.' – Variety

The Lady with Red Boots (dubbed) ★

France/Spain 1974 98m colour
UGC/CFDC (Claude Jaeger, Daniel Carrillo)
original title: La Femme aux Bottes Rouges

A poor and glamorous avant-garde novelist is attracted to a married publisher, and attracts in turn the attentions of a mysterious financier.

Enjoyably quirky study in obsession, with surrealist overtones.

w Pierre Jean Maintigneux, Jean-Claude Carrière, Clem Wood, Juan Buñuel d Juan Buñuel ph Leopold Villasenor ad Adolfe Cofino ed Genevieve Vaury, Maryse Siclier

☆ Catherine Deneuve, Fernando Rey, Adalberto Maria Merli, Jacques Weber, Jose Sacristan, Emma Cohen, Laura Betti

Lady with Red Hair ★

US 1940 78m bw
Warner (Edmund Grainger)

The life of actress Mrs Leslie Carter and her association with impresario David Belasco.

Mildly interesting but unsatisfying biopic of a lady scarcely remembered.

w Charles Kenyon, Milton Krims, N. Brewster Morse, Norbert Faulkner d Curtis Bernhardt ph Arthur Edeson m Heinz Roemheld

☆ Miriam Hopkins, Claude Rains, Richard Ainley, John Litel, Laura Hope Crews, Helen Westley, Mona Barrie, Victor Jory, Cecil Kellaway, Fritz Leiber, Halliwell Hobbes

The Lady with the Little Dog ★

USSR 1959 90m bw
Lenfilm
original title: Dama s Sobachkoi

In Yalta at the turn of the century, an unhappily married woman and a married man start an affair which lasts secretly over the years.

Modestly pleasing, subtly acted anecdote.

wd Josef Heifits story Anton Chekhov ph Andrei Moskvin m Jiri Sternwald ed D. Meschiev

☆ Iya Savvina, Alexei Batalov, Ala Chostakova

A Lady without Passport ★

US 1950 84m bw
MGM (Samuel Marx)

A secret service undercover man tracks down aliens being smuggled into the US, and falls in love with one of them.

Routine material, very well handled.

w Howard Dimsdale story Lawrence Taylor d Joseph H. Lewis ph Paul C. Vogel m David Raksin

☆ Hedy Lamarr, John Hodiak, James Craig, George Macready, Steve Geray

Ladybird Ladybird ★★

GB 1994 101m colour
UIP/Parallax/Film Four (Sally Hibbin)

An unmarried mother whose four children have been taken into care also loses her next two to the social services, despite a stable relationship with a Paraguayan refugee.

A fierce and passionate attack on official attitudes to the unconforming, based on a true story – although the facts, or the interpretation of them here, have been questioned since the film's release. It gains from its powerful performance by Crissy Rock.

w Rona Munro d Ken Loach ph Barry Ackroyd m George Fenton, Mauricio Venegas pd Martin Johnson ed Jonathan Morris

☆ Crissy Rock, Vladimir Vega, Sandie Lavelle, Mauricio Venegas, Ray Winstone, Clare Perkins, Luke Brown, Lilly Farrell, Jason Strachey

'A Comedy With Balls.'

Ladybugs

US 1992 90m DeLuxe
Warner/Morgan Creek (Albert S. Ruddy, Andre E. Morgan)

A salesman takes over managership of a women's soccer team and has his son join it in drag.

Dismayingly stupid comedy that is embarrassing to watch.

w Curtis Burch d Sidney J. Furie m Richard Gibbs pd Robb Wilson King ed John W. Wheeler, Timothy N. Board

☆ Rodney Dangerfield, Jackée, Jonathan Brandis, Ilene Graff, Vinessa Shaw, Tom Parks

'This picture doesn't deserve any respect. Sexist, homophobic and woefully unfunny to boot, Rodney Dangerfield's latest starring effort is a waste of comic talent.' – Variety

'This week's candidate for the worst film in history.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

'Cursed for eternity! No force in heaven will release them … no power on earth can save them!'

Ladyhawke

US 1985 124m Technicolor Technovision
Warner/Richard Donner, Lauren Schuler

Medieval boy and girl lovers have been changed respectively into a wolf and a hawk, never simultaneously to resume their true forms.

Unpersuasive legend, dolefully told at excessive length.

w Edward Khmara, Michael Thomas, Tom Mankiewicz d Richard Donner ph Vittorio Storaro m Andrew Powell pd Wolf Kroeger ed Stuart Baird

☆ Matthew Broderick, Rutger Hauer, Michelle Pfeiffer, Leo McKern, John Wood

The Ladykillers ★★★

GB 1955 97m Technicolor
Ealing (Michael Balcon)

An old lady takes in a sinister lodger, who with his four friends commits a robbery. When she finds out, they plot to kill her, but are hoist with their own petards.

Witty black comedy, shot in muted colours, which approaches the grotesque without damaging its acerbic humour or sense of fantasy; it is one of the few films where death is both shocking and funny.

w William Rose d Alexander Mackendrick

ph Otto Heller m Tristram Cary ad Jim Morahan ed Jack Harris

☆ Alec Guinness (Professor Marcus), Katie Johnson (Mrs. Wilberforce), Peter Sellers (Harry), Cecil Parker (The Mayor), Herbert Lom (Louis), Danny Green (One-Round), Jack Warner (Police Superintendent), Frankie Howerd (Barrow Boy), Kenneth Connor (The Cab Driver)

'To be frivolous about frivolous matters, that's merely boring. To be frivolous about something that's in some way deadly serious, that's true comedy.' – Alexander Mackendrick

'The acting is triumphant ... Artistically, I suspect, The Ladykillers needs a shade more of the macabre; it would be a better film if it were blacker. But I am beginning to find that I can see a joke better in twilight than midnight.' – Dilys Powell

'This sinister black comedy of murder accelerates until it becomes a grotesque fantasy of murder. The actors seem to be having a boisterous good time getting themselves knocked off.' – Pauline Kael

'One of the neatest blends of the mirthful and macabre I can remember.' – Fred Majdalany, Time and Tide

'Undoubtedly the most stylish, inventive and funniest British comedy of the year.' – Alan Brien, London Evening Standard

† The role of Professor Marcus, played by Alec Guinness, was originally intended for Alistair Sim. It has been claimed, though Guinness has denied it, that his toothy appearance was based on the critic Kenneth Tynan who worked for Ealing as a script editor.

William Rose

Katie Johnson; William Rose

'The greatest criminal minds of all time have finally met their match.'

The Ladykillers ★ (5)

US 2004 104m colour
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, Tom Jacobson, Barry Sonnenfeld, Barry Josephson)

A gang of crooks plan to kill their church-going landlady after she discovers that they have tunneled from her cellar to rob a nearby casino.

Flat remake of a classic comedy relocated to the American South, with a less engaging cast and broader jokes. Irma P. Hall is excellent as the landlady, though her toughness makes less enetertaining the contest between her and the incompetent robbers.

wd Joel Coen, Ethan Coen film The Ladykillers by William Rose ph Roger Deakins m Carter Burwell pd Dennis Gassner ed Roderick Jaynes (Joel Coen, Ethan Coen)

☆ Tom Hanks (G. H. Dorr), Irma P. Hall (Marva Munson), Marlon Wayans (Gawain MacSam), J.K. Simmons (Garth Pancake), Tzi Ma (The General), Ryan Hurst (Lump), George Wallace (Sheriff Wyner)

'Hanks gives his all, but the movie deflates around him; there is even what one hesitates to call a running gag, based on irritable bowels. Is that what the creators of "Fargo" now consider funny?' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'Weirdly pointless.' – Guardian

The Lady's from Kentucky

US 1939 75m bw
Jeff Lazarus/Paramount

A crooked bookie is reformed by a lady horse breeder.

Yawnworthy drama with an unattractive hero.

w Malcolm Stuart Boylan d Alexander Hall

☆ George Raft, Ellen Drew, Hugh Herbert, ZaSu Pitts, Louise Beavers, Forrester Harvey

'It starts with promise, stumbles in the middle section, and drags itself across the line for the finish.' – Variety

A Lady's Morals

US 1930 86m bw
MGM
GB title: Jenny Lind
aka: The Soul Kiss

The 'Swedish nightingale' learns that love is more important than a singing career.

Cliché-strewn romance with music.

w Hans Kraly, Claudine West, John Meehan, Arthur Richman d Sidney Franklin m Herbert Stothart

☆ Grace Moore, Reginald Denny, Wallace Beery, Jobyna Howland

'Class production of money potentialities.' – Variety

† Wallace Beery played P. T. Barnum, a role he was to repeat four years later in The Mighty Barnum.

Lafayette

France/Italy 1961 158m Super Technirama 70
Copernic/Cosmos (Maurice Jacquin)

French officers help America in the revolutionary war of 1776.

Nerveless international epic, interesting only for its star cameos.

w Jean-Bernard Luc, Suzanne Arduini, Jacques Sigurd, François Ponthier, Jean Dréville, Maurice Jacquin d Jean Dréville ph Claude Renoir, Roger Hubert m Steve Laurent, Pierre Duclos

☆ Michel Le Royer, Jack Hawkins, Orson Welles, Howard St John, Vittorio de Sica, Edmund Purdom, Jacques Castelot, Folco Lulli

'It looks, sounds and smells like nothing so much as the same old indigestible, ill-dubbed, co-produced continental spectaculars which have already turned the stomach in a whole range of lesser screen ratios.' – MFB

'A totally forgettable film... the only bit of acting I have ever done soley for money.' – Jack Hawkins

Lafayette Escadrille

US 1957 93m bw
Warner (William Wellman)
GB title: Hell Bent for Glory

Early in World War I, a young American joins the French air force.

The director's valedictory film, on a subject close to his heart, is a curiously disappointing, flat and disjointed affair, partly salvaged by a good period feel.

w A. S. Fleischman d William A. Wellman ph William Clothier m Leonard Rosenman

☆ Tab Hunter, Etchika Choreau, David Janssen, Clint Eastwood, Will Hutchins, Paul Fix

'Once Upon A Time In India'

Lagaan ★★

India 2001 224m colour 'Scope
SET/Jhamu Sughand (Aamir Khan)

In 1893, Indian villagers play a cricket match against the ruling British to determine whether they will have to pay an agricultural tax.

Accomplished, well-acted Bollywood epic, with at its centre a three-day cricket match that seems almost as long on-screen as it would be in real life.

w Ashutosh Gowariker, Kumar Dave, Sanjay Dayma, K. P. Saxena d Ashutosh Gowariker ph Anil Mehta m/ly A. R. Rahman, Javed Akhtar pd Nitin Chandrakant Desai ed Ballu Saluja cos Bhanu Athaiya

☆ Aamir Khan (Bhuvan), Gracy Singh (Gauri), Rachel Shelley (Elizabeth Russell), Paul Blackthorne (Capt. Andew Russell), Suhasini Mulay (Yashodamai), Kulbhushan Kharbanda (Rajah Puran Singh), Raghuveer Yadav (Bhura), Rajendra Gupta (Mukhiya), Jeremy Child (Major Cotton)

'Lagaan employs all the established narrative devices of commercial Hindi cinema – songs and dances, dramatic flashpoints, love stories, et al – but it is anything but a formula film.' – Hindustan Times

'Larger than life and outrageously enjoyable, it's got a dash of spaghetti western, a hint of Kurosawa, with a bracing shot of Kipling.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

foreign language film

The Lair of the White Worm

GB 1988 93m Technicolor
Vestron (Ken Russell)

A female vampire attempts to make human sacrifices to an ancient snake god.

Grotesque horror done without finesse or subtlety.

wd Ken Russell novel Bram Stoker ph Dick Bush m Stanlislas Syrewicz ed Peter Davies sp Geoff Portass

☆ Amanda Donohoe, Hugh Grant, Catherine Oxenberg, Peter Capaldi, Sammi Davis, Stratford Johns, Paul Brooke, Imogen Claire, Christopher Gable

'He proves incapable of handling straight suspense, horror, or supernatural sequences.' – MFB

'How on earth can you take seriously the vision of Catherine Oxenberg, dressed in Marks & Spencer's underwear, being sacrificed to a fake, phallic worm two hundred feet long?' – Ken Russell

Laissez-Passer ★★

France/German/Spain 2001 170m colour
Artificial Eye/Little Bear/France3/France2/KC Medien/Vertigo (Alain Sarde, Frederic Bourboulon)

GB and US title: Safe Conduct

During the Nazi occupation of France, two Frenchmen – one a womanising writer, the other a Resistance fighter – reluctantly work in Paris for a German production company.

Based on the experiences of two real French filmmakers, this is a fascinating account of the rebellions, compromises and evasions made by artists under enemy control. It raises questions about the fine line between acquiesence and collaboration.

w Jean Cosmos inspired by the remembrances of Jean Aurenche, Jean Devaivre d Bertrand Tavernier ph Alain Choquart m Antoine Duhamel pd Emile Ghigo ed Sophie Brunet

☆ Jacques Gamblin (Jean Devaivre), Denis Podalydes (Jean Aurenche), Christian Berkel (Dr Greven), Marie Gillain (Olga), Charlotte Kady (Suzanne Raymond), Marie Desgranges (Simone Devaivre), Maria Pitarresi (Reine Sorignal), Thierry Gibault (Paul Maillebuau), Philippe Morier-Genoud (Maurice Tourneur)

'An entrancing, rueful inquiry into movies as historical cross-examination.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

Lake Consequence

US 1992 90m colour
Rank/10dB/Zalman King (Avram Butch Kaplan)

A housewife who was gang-raped by a rock band wants more of the same.

Glossy, cliché-ridden would-be erotica for the easily pleased.

w Zalman King, Melanie Finn, Henry Cobbold story MacGregor Douglas d Rafael Eisenman ph Harris Savides m George S. Clinton pd Dominic Watkins ed James Gavin Bedford, Curtis Edge

☆ Billy Zane, Joan Severance, May Karasun, Whip Hubley, Courtland Mead, Dan Reed, Christi Allen

'Slickly shot, but over dramatised (some of the editing is positively epileptic) at the expense of any remotely believable dialogue or acting, this, given its pedigree, is high on sauce but low on just about everything else.' – Empire

'How do you hold on to someone you've never met?'

The Lake House (4)

US 2006 98m
Warner Bros/Vertigo Entertainment (Doug Davidson, Roy Lee)

A doctor finds she can communicate with her lakeside property's previous tenant through a magical mailbox.

Romantic confection with a time-travel twist, let down by tortuous pacing and muted performances from stars whose chemistry was shown to far better effect in Speed.

w David Auburn film Il Mare by Kim Eun-jeong, Yeo Ji-na d Alejandro Agresti ph Alar Kivilo m Rachel Portman pd Nathan Crowley ad Kevin Kavanaugh, Tomas Voth ed Alejandro Brodersohn, Lynzee Klingman

☆ Keanu Reeves (Alex Wyler), Sandra Bullock (Kate Forster), Dylan Walsh (Morgan), Shohreh Aghdashloo (Anna), Christopher Plummer (Simon Wyler), Lynn Collins (Mona)

'By playing so fast and loose with logic, the film fails to establish any sort of ground rules for its fantasy elements.' – Tim Grierson, Screen International

'The movie is, above all, a showcase for its stars, who seem gratifyingly comfortable in their own skin and delighted to be in each other's company again.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'You'll never know what bit you.'

Lake Placid

US 1999 82m Technicolor Panavision
TCF/Fox 2000/Phoenix/Rocking Chair (David E. Kelley, Michael Pressman)

A New York expert investigates reports of giant crocodiles inhabiting a lake in northern Maine.

A cheapjack horror movie that puts the emphasis on jokes, but a few good one-liners are not enough to enliven so much predictability.

w David E. Kelley d Steve Miner ph Daryn Okada m John Ottman pd John Willett ed Marshall Harvey, Paul Hirsch sp Stan Winston

☆ Bill Pullman (Jack Wells), Bridget Fonda (Kelly Scott), Oliver Platt (Hector Cyr), Brendan Gleeson (Sheriff Hank Keough), Betty White (Mrs Delores Bickerman), David Lewis (Walt Lawson), Tim Dixon (Stephen Daniel), Natassia Malthe (Janine), Mariska Hargitay (Myra Okubo), Meredith Salenger (Deputy Sharon Gare)

'A B-movie dud.' – Entertainment Weekly

Lake Placid Serenade

US 1944 85m bw
Republic (Harry Grey)

A Czech girl skater is sent to America to represent her country.

Simple-minded entertainment overloaded with musical numbers.

w Dick Irving Hyland, Doris Gilbert book Frederick Kohner d Steve Sekely

☆ Vera Hruba Ralston, Robert Livingston, Eugene Pallette, Vera Vague, Walter Catlett, Lloyd Corrigan, William Frawley

Lakposhtha Ham Parvaz Mikonand: see Turtles Can Fly

'It took him 24 years and 18000 feet to find himself.'

Lakshya

India 2004 185m colour 'scope
Excel& AA/UTV (Ritesh Sidhwani)

In 1999, a wealthy, good-for-nothing playboy redeems himself by becoming an army officer and leading a mountainous assault against a Pakistani incursion into India.

Overextended, old-fashioned, gung-ho flagwaver that manages to work in several Bollywood excursions into song and dance during military manoeuvres; it would have been no worse, and possibly better, at half its running time.

w Javed Akhtar d Farhan Akhtar ph Christopher Popp m Shankar-Ehsaan-Loy ch Prabhu Deva, Vaibhavi Merchant, Bosco Ceasar ad Sunil Babu, Sonal Sawant, Suzzanne Merwanji ed Anand Subaya

☆ Amitabh Bachchan (Colonel Sunil Damle), Hrithik Roshan (Karan Shergill), Preity Zinta (Romila Dutta), Om Puri (Subedar Major Pritam Singh), Sharad S. Kapoor (Major Binod Sengupta), Raj Zutshi (Major Kaushal Verma), Sushant Singh (Captain Jalal Akbar)

'Thinly scripted movie that leaves the viewer gagging for some good old Bollywood extravagance instead of more realistic, Western-style dramatics.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Lamb

GB 1986 110m Eastmancolor
Cannon/Flickers/Limehouse/Channel 4 (Neil Zeiger)

A young priest at a harsh Irish reform school absconds with a 14-year-old pupil, an act with tragic consequences for them both.

Rather wearisome transcription of religious thesis into makeshift drama: disturbing but not satisfying.

w Bernard MacLaverty novel Bernard MacLaverty d Colin Gregg ph Mike Garfath m Van Morrison pd Austen Spriggs ad Peter Delfgou

☆ Liam Neeson, Hugh O'Conor, Harry Towb, Frances Tomelty, Ian Bannen

Lambada

US 1990 98m Alpha Cine Panavision
Warner/Cannon/Film and Television Company (Peter Shepherd)

A teacher spends his nights as a lambada dancer so that he can give lessons to a gang of dropouts.

Dismal attempt to cash in on a short-lived American dance craze.

w Joel Silberg, Sheldon Renan d Joel Silberg ph Roberto D'Ettore Piazzoli m Greg DeBelles pd Bill Cornfield ed Marcus Manton

☆ J. Eddie Peck, Melora Hardin, Shabba-Doo, Ricky Paul Goldin, Basil Hoffman, Dennis Burkley, Keene Curtis

Lambada: Forbidden Dance

US 1990 97m Foto-Kem
Columbia/21st Century (Richard L. Albert, Marc S. Fischer)

aka: The Forbidden Dance
aka: Lambada: Baile Prohibido

A Brazilian princess travels to Los Angeles to try to save her rain-forest from being destroyed by American developers – and becomes a lambada dancer so she can make a public appeal on television.

Risibly clumsy attempt to exploit both a short-lived dance craze and ecological concern; after watching Laura Herring dance, you will understand why it should be forbidden.

w Roy Langsdon, John Platt story Joseph Goldman d Greydon Clark ph R. Michael Stringer m Vladimir Horunzhy ed Robert Edwards, Earl Watson

☆ Laura Herring, Jeff James, Richard Lynch, Sid Haig, Kid Creole and the Coconuts, Barbra Brighton

The Lambeth Walk

GB 1939 84m bw
CAPAD/Pinebrook (Anthony Havelock-Allan)

A Cockney bloke inherits a dukedom.

Mild screen version of a popular musical play and a song which became a nationwide hit.

w Clifford Grey, John Paddy Carstairs, Robert Edmunds play Me and My Girl by Louis Rose, Douglas Furber, Noel Gay d Albert de Courville ph Francis Carver

☆ Lupino Lane, Sally Gray, Seymour Hicks, Enid Stamp Taylor, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Charles Heslop, Norah Howard

Lamerica ★★★

Italy/France 1994 125m colour
Cinemascope
CGG Tiger/Arena (Mario and Vittorio Cecchi Gori)

Two Italian con men come unstuck when they go to Albania to get rich quick.

Powerful and bleak drama of appalling poverty and despair, and of the humanity that somehow survives in the direst situations.

w Gianni Amelio, Andrea Porporati, Alessandro Sermoneta d Gianni Amelio ph Luca Bigazzi m Franco Piersanti ad Giuseppe M. Gaudino ed Simona Paggi

☆ Enrico Lo Verso (Gino), Michele Placido (Fiore), Carmelo di Mazzarelli (Spiro), Piro Milkani (Selimi)

'Its evangelical sincerity and the sweeping emotion of its finale could win the director new admirers abroad.' – Variety

† The film won a Felix as European film of the year in 1994.

The Lamp Still Burns

GB 1943 90m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Leslie Howard)

Adventures of wartime probationary nurses.

Understated wartime morale-builder, no longer very interesting.

w Elizabeth Baron, Roland Pertwee novel One Pair of Feet by Monica Dickens d Maurice Elvey ph Robert Krasker

☆ Rosamund John, Stewart Granger, Godfrey Tearle, Sophie Stewart, John Laurie, Margaret Vyner, Cathleen Nesbitt, Joyce Grenfell

Lan Fengzheng: see The Blue Kite

Lancashire Luck

GB 1937 74m bw
Paramount British

A poor girl's life is changed when her father wins the pools.

Modest comedy which started its star's career.

w A. R. Rawlinson story Ronald Gow d Henry Cass

☆ Wendy Hiller, George Carney, Muriel George, Nigel Stock, George Galleon

Lancelot and Guinevere ★

GB 1962 117m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Emblem (Cornel Wilde)
US title: Sword of Lancelot

Sir Lancelot covets the wife of his beloved King Arthur, but after Arthur's death she takes the veil.

Decently made, rather tame transcription of the legends, with all concerned doing quite creditably but not brilliantly.

w Richard Schayer, Jefferson Pascal d Cornel Wilde ph Harry Waxman m Ron Goodwin

☆ Cornel Wilde, Jean Wallace, Brian Aherne, George Baker, John Barrie

Lancelot du Lac ★★★

France/Italy 1974 85m Eastmancolor
Mara/Laser/ORTF/Gerico Sound (Jean Yanne, Jean-Pierre Rassam)

aka: Le Graal
aka: The Grail

The high ideals of chivalry wither as Lancelot, with the few remaining Knights of the Round Table, returns disillusioned from the failed quest to find the Holy Grail and resumes his love affair with Guinevere, wife of King Arthur.

Austerely impressive drama of the loss of faith, conjuring up a medieval world with great economy of means.

wd Robert Bresson ph Pasqualino de Santis m Philippe Sarde ad Pierre Charbonnier ed Germaine Lamy

☆ Luc Simon (Lancelot), Laura Duke Condominas (Queen Guinevere), Humbert Balsan (Gawain), Vladimir Antolek-Oresek (King Arthur), Patrick Bernard (Modrick), Arthur de Montalembert (Lionel)

'Like so much of Bresson's work this is not so much a movie more a religious experience, but you don't have to be religious to enjoy it.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review

Lancer Spy ★

US 1937 80m bw
TCF

A German spy is captured and his English double is sent back to replace him.

World War I yarn on the lines of The Great Impersonation (qv). Excellent production and a good beginning and end, but a slow middle.

w Philip Dunne novel Marthe McKenna d Gregory Ratoff ph Barney McGill m Arthur Lange

☆ George Sanders, Dolores del Rio, Peter Lorre, Joseph Schildkraut, Virginia Field, Sig Rumann, Fritz Feld

'Sometimes exciting, always absorbing, and played with serious intensity.' – Variety

'A Story from the Spanish Civil War'

Land and Freedom ★★★

GB/Germany/Spain 1995 110m colour
Artificial Eye/Parallax/Messidor/Road Movies (Rebecca O'Brien)

An unemployed Liverpudlian Communist goes to fight in the Spanish Civil War on the side of the socialist POUM, but comes to discover that the activities of the Stalinist Republican forces and Communists in suppressing other left-wing groups will give victory to the Fascists.

An engrossing and passionate Orwellian account of the Spanish Civil War, as experienced on an individual level, which is framed by a death in present-day Liverpool in an attempt to point up the contemporary relevance of its story of a revolution betrayed.

w Jim Allen d Ken Loach ph Barry Ackroyd m George Fenton pd Martin Johnson ed Jonathan Morris

☆ Ian Hart (David Carne), Rosana Pastor (Blanca), Iciar Bollain (Maite), Tom Gilroy (Gene Lawrence), Marc Martinez (Vidal), Frederic Pierrot (Bernard), Suzanne Maddock (Kim)

'Direct, passionate and formidably informed by political conviction.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Ken Loach's real triumph is to get the viewer rooting for characters in a conflict that, for most, is as remote as the Trojan War.' – John Hopewell, Variety

The Land before Time

US 1988 69m Technicolor
UIP/Universal/Amblin (Don Bluth, Gary Goldman, John Pomeroy)

An orphaned dinosaur sets out with friends to find the way to a valley of plenty.

Over-cute, immensely sentimental animated feature.

w Stu Krieger story Judy Freudberg, Tony Geiss d Don Bluth ph Jim Mann m James Horner

☆ Featuring Voices of Gabriel Damon, Helen Shaver, Bill Erwin, Candice Houston, Pat Hingle, Burke Barnes, Judith Barsi, Will Ryan

Land of Desire: see A Ship to India

Land of Fury: see The Seekers

Land of Liberty ★

US 1939 137m bw
Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America

A compilation of footage from American historical films, amounting hopefully to a history of America as seen by Hollywood.

A pretty impressive job of selection and editing, compiled for the New York World's Fair.

w Jeannie Macpherson, Jesse Lasky Jnr ed Cecil B. de Mille and others

'Her treachery stained every stone of the pyramid!'
'20,000 workers and technicians! 1,600 camels! 104 specially built barges! 9,753 players in one scene alone!'

Land of the Pharaohs ★

US 1955 105m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner/Continental (Howard Hawks)

Pharaoh is obsessed with life after death and builds a great pyramid for himself and his treasures ... but his wife is ambitious...

Unexpected, interesting excursion into Ancient Egypt, distended by Cinemascope; basically a macabre melodrama with a final spectacular twist. The engineering details would make a fascinating documentary.

w William Faulkner, Harry Kurnitz, H. Jack Bloom d Howard Hawks ph Lee Garmes, Russell Harlan m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Alexander Trauner

☆ Jack Hawkins, Joan Collins, Alexis

Minotis, James Robertson Justice, Sydney Chaplin

'A perfectly ridiculous film.' – Jack Hawkins

Land Raiders

US 1969 100m Technicolor
Columbia (Charles H. Schneer)

Two brothers quarrel when one attempts to exterminate neighbouring Apaches so that he can take over their lands.

Routine Western of jealousy and greed, not helped by the miscasting of its two protagonists.

w Ken Pettus d Nathan H. Duran ph Wilkie Cooper m Bruno Nicolai ad Jose Alguero ed Archie Ludski

☆ Telly Savalas, George Maharis, Arlene Dahl, Janet Landgard, Phil Brown, Paul Picerni, George Colouris, Guy Rolfe, Jocelyn Lane

The Land that Time Forgot ★

GB 1974 91m Technicolor
Amicus (John Dark)

In 1916, survivors from a torpedoed supply ship find themselves on a legendary island full of prehistoric monsters.

Lively old-fashioned adventure fantasy with good technical credits.

w James Cawthorne, Michael Moorcock novel Edgar Rice Burroughs d Kevin Connor ph Alan Hume m Douglas Gamley pd Maurice Carter sp Derek Meddings, Roger Dicken

☆ Doug McClure, John McEnery, Susan Penhaligon, Keith Barron, Anthony Ainley

The Land Unknown ★

US 1957 78m bw Cinemascope
U-I (William Alland)

A plane is forced down into a strange Antarctic valley where dinosaurs still roam.

Efficient adventure fantasy on King Kong lines but without any of that film's panache.

w Laszlo Gorog d Virgil Vogel ph Ellis Carter m Hans Salter sp Roswell Hoffman, Fred Knoth, Orien Ernest, Jack Kevan

☆ Jock Mahoney, Shawn Smith, William Reynolds, Henry Brandon

Land without Bread ★

Spain 1932 27m bw
Ramon Acin
aka: Las Hurdes

A famous documentary showing the poorest region of northern Spain, notable for some stunningly unpleasant images impeccably staged.

ph Eli Lotar wd/ed Luis Buñuel

'An honest and hideous picture.' – Graham Greene

Land without Music ★

GB 1936 80m bw
Capitol Films (Max Schach)
US title: Forbidden Music

The ruler of a Ruritanian country bans music because her subjects are too busy singing to make money. A revolutionary singer however wins the duchess's hand and reverses her decision.

Artless but attractively played operetta with the star in excellent form.

w Marion Dix, L. Du Garde Peach story Fritz Koselka, Armin Robinson d Walter Forde ph John Boyle m Oscar Straus

☆ Richard Tauber, Jimmy Durante, Diana Napier, June Clyde, Derrick de Marney, Esme Percy, George Hayes, Edward Rigby

Landfall

GB 1949 88m bw
ABPC (Victor Skuzetzky)

A test pilot mistakenly believes that he accidentally sank a British submarine.

Second-rate transcription of a popular novel.

w Talbot Jennings, Gilbert Gunn, Anne Burnaby novel Nevil Shute d Ken Annakin ph Wilkie Cooper

☆ Michael Denison, Patricia Plunkett, Kathleen Harrison, David Tomlinson, Joan Dowling, Maurice Denham, A. E. Matthews, Margaretta Scott, Sebastian Shaw, Laurence Harvey

The Landgirls ★

GB/France 1997 111m colour
Panavision
Film Four/InterMedia/Greenpoint/West Eleven (Simon Relph)

During the Second World War, three young women go to work as labourers on an isolated Dorset farm, and are attracted to the farmer's son.

Pleasant nostalgic wallow, which eschews class conflicts for gentler romance.

w David Leland, Keith Dewhurst novel Angela Huth d David Leland ph Henry Braham m Brian Lock pd Caroline Amies ed Nick Moore

☆ Catherine McCormack, Rachel Weisz, Anna Friel, Steven Mackintosh, Tom Georgeson, Maureen O'Brien, Lucy Akhurst

'The period is created in such loving detail that the film risks looking like a museum piece, complete with old planes, Hovis ad-like farm workers in breeches and braces, and even fun-loving GIs.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

The Landlord ★

US 1970 110m DeLuxe
United Artists/Mirisch/Carter (Norman Jewison)

A tycoon's son buys a tenement in Brooklyn's black ghetto, and conscience diverts him into improving the lot of his tenants.

Overlong satirical comedy, good on detail but short on structure.

w Bill Gunn novel Kristin Hunter d Hal Ashby ph Gordon Willis m Al Kooper pd Robert Boyle

☆ Beau Bridges, Lee Grant, Pearl Bailey, Diana Sands

'Bad taste from start to finish ... not an avenue of offensiveness to any race is left unexplored.' – Judith Crist

♗ Lee Grant

Landru

France/Italy 1962 115m Eastmancolor
Rome-Paris/CC Champion (Carlo Ponti, Georges de Beauregard)
aka: Bluebeard

The true story of a furniture dealer who murdered women for financial gain, also treated by Chaplin in Monsieur Verdoux.

A curious artificial style has been adopted, making a tragi-comedy look like a farce which isn't very funny, and falls on very stony ground indeed despite the all star cast.

w Françoise Sagan d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen

☆ Charles Denner, Michèle Morgan, Danielle Darrieux, Hildegarde Knef, Stéphane Audran, Catherine Rouvel

Landscape in a Mist ★

Greece/France/Italy 1988 125m colour
Artificial Eye/Paradis Films/ET-1/Basicinematografica/Channel 4 (Theo Angelopoulos)

original title: Topio Stin Omichli

Two children, an eleven-year-old girl and her five-year-old brother, travel through Greece in an attempt to reach Germany and the father they have never known.

Lyrical, but slow-moving account of a child's discovery of the world that would have been as meaningful at half its length.

w Theo Angelopoulos, Tonino Guerra, Thanassis Valtinos d Theo Angelopoulos ph Giorgos Arvanitis m Eleni Karaindrou ad Mikes Karapiperis ed Yannis Tsitsopoulos

☆ Michalis Zeke, Tania Palaiologou, Stratis Tzortzoglou

Lanse Da Men: see Blue Gate Crossing

'Sometimes love isn't enough.'

Lantana ★★★

Australia/Germany 2001 121m
Technicolor Panavision
Winchester/AFFC/MPB (Jan Chapman)

In Sydney, an unhappily married policeman investigates the disappearance of a psychiatrist and uncovers guilty secrets in several lives.

An intense exploration of prickly relationships rather than a whodunnit, this well-crafted and -acted movie provides both suspense and insight.

w Andrew Bovell play Speaking in Tongues by Andrew Bovell d Ray Lawrence ph Mandy Walker m Paul Kelly pd Kim Buddee ed Karl Sodersten

☆ Anthony LaPaglia (Leon Zat), Geoffrey Rush (John Knox), Barbara Hershey (Dr Valerie Somers), Kerry Armstrong (Sonja Zat), Rachael Blake (Jane O'May), Vince Colosimo (Nik D'Amato), Daniela Farinacci (Paula D'Amato), Peter Phelps (Patrick Phelan)

'Elegant but never overstated, sinister but never coldhearted, this is a note-perfect masterwork on a modest, human scale.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Salon.com

'It was subtle, really interesting, and it also possessed a word I would use with great care: integrity.' – Harold Pinter

Lapse of Memory

Canada/France 1992 90m colour
Rank/Max/Gérard Mital/FR3/SGGC/Jean-Bernard Fetoux

aka: Mémoire Traquée

With the help of a psychiatrist, a teenage boy attempts to relive the shocking events that caused him to lose his memory.

Dull thriller, done with plodding flashbacks, which fails to come to a satisfactory conclusion.

w Patrick Dewolf, Philippe Le Guay, John Frizzell novel I Am the Cheese by Robert Cormier d Patrick Dewolf ph Eduardo Serra m Alexandre Desplat pd François Seguin ed Fabienne Alvarez-Giro

☆ John Hurt, Marthe Keller, Matthew Mackay, Kathleen Robertson, Marion Peterson

'Fine direction, acting and editing should add up to a strong commercial potential.' – Variety

† The novel was first filmed in 1983 as I Am the Cheese (qv).

'Born into wealth. Groomed by the elite. Trained for combat.'

Lara Croft: Tomb Raider

US/Germany/GB/Japan 2001 100m
DeLuxe Super 35
Paramount/Mutual/Eidos (Lawrence Gordon, Lloyd Levin, Colin Wilson)

An aristocratic adventurer saves the world from an evil organisation that plans to turn back time.

Trivial nonsense, a worthless farrago of stupefying boredom, based on best-selling videogames; Jolie, though, does seem like the creation of a masculine cyber-fantasy.

w Patrick Massett, John Zinman, Simon West story Mike Werb, Michael Colleary d Simon West ph Peter Menzies Jnr m Graeme Revell pd Kirk M. Petruccelli ed Dallas S. Puett, Glen Scantlebury

☆ Angelina Jolie (Lara Croft), Jon Voight (Lord Croft), Noah Taylor (Bryce), Iain Glen (Manfred Powell), Daniel Craig (Alex West), Christopher Barrie (Hillary), Julian Rhind-Tutt (Mr Pimms), Richard Johnson (Distinguished Gentleman), Leslie Phillips (Wilson)

'Has the distinction of being a major motion picture that's far less imaginative, and quite a bit more stupid, than the interactive game it's based on.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Elevates goofiness to an art form. Here is a movie so monumentally silly, yet so wondrous to look at, that only a churl could find fault.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Lara Croft Tomb Raider: The Cradle of Life ④

US/GB/Germany/Japan 2003 117m
DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Mutual/BBC/Tele-Munchen/Toho-Towa (Lawrence Gordon, Lloyd Levin)

Lara Croft saves the world from a villain who plans to open Pandora's box.

Brain-dead action movie of interminable silliness and irksome action.

w Dean Georgaris d Jan De Bont ph David Tattersall m Alan Silvestri pd Kirk M. Petruccelli ed Michael Kahn

☆ Angelina Jolie (Lara Croft), Gerard Butler (Terry Sheridan), Ciaran Hinds (Jonathan Reiss), Christopher Barrie (Hillary), Noah Taylor (Bryce), Djimon Hounsou (Kosa), Til Schweiger (Sean), Simon Yam (Chen Lo)

'Croft is one humorless butt-kicker. Excavations in exotic lands have rarely looked so much like items on a to-do list.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

'Tedious isn't the word. Poor Lara, with her pigtail, thigh-holsters and sports bra, is so over.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† The DVD release includes commentary by the director.

Larceny

US 1948 89m bw
Universal (Aaron Rosenberg)

A con man fleeces a war widow into paying for a memorial to her husband, but falls in love with her.

Drearily predictable melodrama.

w Herbert F. Margolis, Louis Markein, William Bowers novel The Velvet Fleece by Lois Ely, John Fleming d George Sherman ph Irving Glassberg m Leith Stevens

☆ Joan Caulfield, John Payne, Dan Duryea, Shelley Winters, Dorothy Hart, Richard Rober, Dan O'Herlihy

Larceny, Inc

US 1942 95m bw
Warner (Jack Saper, Jerry Wald)

An ex-convict tries to rob a bank but finds that honesty pays best.

Tepid comedy-drama from the period when Warner were taming their gangster image.

w Everett Freeman, Edwin Gilbert play The Night before Christmas by Laura

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

and S. J. Perelman d Lloyd Bacon ph Tony Gaudio
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Jane Wyman, Broderick Crawford, Anthony Quinn, Jack Carson, Edward Brophy, Harry Davenport, John Qualen, Barbara Jo Allen, Jackie Gleason, Grant Mitchell, Andrew Tombes
'The dialogue is brilliantly economical: this sort of Hollywood wit has the crackle of stage-thunder. And the acting is superb.' – James Agate

Larceny Lane: see Blonde Crazy

Large
GB 2001 80m colour
UIP/Film Consortium/Film4 (Alex Usborne)
Friends of a rock star's son attempt to sabotage his chances of inheriting a fortune.
British attempt at a gross teen comedy, very tasteless but rarely funny.
w Justin Edgar, Mike Dent d Justin Edgar ph Robbie Ryan m David A. Hughes pd Julian Fullalove ed Eddie Hamilton
☆ Luke de Woolfson (Jason), Melanie Gutteridge (Sophie), Simon Lowe (Rob), Lee Oakes (Ian), Mirren Delaney (Lisa Gates), Emma Catherwood (Rachel 'Measley' Beasley), Zita Sattar (Kylie), Tim Harris (Malcolm Tuttle)
'Absolutely terrible... a manic, charmless, utterly unfunny would-be Farrellyesque comedy about sex and clubbing.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Larger than Life
1996 93m DeLuxe
MGM/UA/Trilogy/RCS/Majestic/Trilogy (Richard B. Lewis, John Watson, Pen Densham)
A motivational speaker takes an elephant, left to him by his father, a circus clown, on a journey across America.
Bland comedy, from which its star seems to be distancing himself as fast as he can; in that, he has my sympathy.
w Roy Blount Jnr story Pen Densham, Garry Williams d Howard Franklin ph Elliot Davis m Miles Goodman pd Marcia Hinds-Johnson ed Sidney Levin
☆ Bill Murray, Janeane Garofalo, Matthew McConaughey, Keith David, Pat Hingle, Jeremy Piven, Lois Smith, Harve Presnell, Linda Fiorentino
'An enjoyably daft comedy with high production values and a watertight script that combines a feelgood message concerning personal growth with all the slapstick one would expect from an elephant road movie.' – Liese Spencer, Sight and Sound

Larks on a String ★★
Czechoslovakia 1969 94m colour
Barrandov Filmstudio (Karel Kochman) original title: Skrivanci Na Niti
Intellectuals and the displaced middle class prove resistant to change when they are punished by being forced to work on an industrial scrapheap.
Witty, blackly humorous satire on the Communist re-education of the bourgeoisie, marked by humanity, well-aimed barbs – a trade union executive gets out of his chauffeur-driven car and puts on a cloth cap before addressing the workers – and a scathing contempt for ideologically blinkered bureaucrats.
w Bohumil Hrabal, Jiri Menzel d Jiri Menzel ph Jaromir Sofr m Jiri Sust ed Josef Lojik ☆ Rudolf Hrusinsky, Vlastimil Brodsky, Vaclav Neckar, Jitka Zelenohorska, Jaroslav Satoransky, Vladmir Smeral, Ferdinand Kruta
'A courageous, bittersweet comedy of considerable charm and invention.' – Variety
† The film was banned for 21 years and not seen publicly until the 1990 Berlin Film Festival, where it shared the Golden Bear award as best film.

'They'll Give Anyone A Badge.'

Larry the Cable Guy: Health Inspector
US 2006 89m FotoKem
Lionsgate/Parallel/Shala Entertainment/Samwilla (Alan Blomquist, J.P. Williams)
An uncouth red-neck health inspector investigates food poisoning at the city's best restaurants.
At the beginning, Larry scratches his ample bare backside, gets out of bed to tread in something unmentionable and urinates in the shower. After that, vulgarity sets in and it is all dowhill to a fart-filled climax; it should carry its own health warning.
w Jonathan Bernstein, Jim Greer d Trent Cooper ph Kim Marks m Steven R. Phillips, Tim P pd Macie Vener ed Greg Featherman
☆ Larry the Cable Guy (Larry aka Daniel Whitney), Iris Bahr (Amy Butlin), Bruce Bruce (Big Shug), Joanna Cassidy (Lily Micelli), Brooke Dillman (Brenda), Tony Hale (Jack Dobbs)
'The scenario serves merely as an excuse for Larry to crack wise, break wind – so loudly, in fact, one can almost see how bad his farts smell – and drop malapropisms.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
'Aiming at audiences for whom no comedy is complete without lower-intestinal distress and projectile vomiting, the movie pursues its unsanitary goals with a relentlessness that makes "Dumb and Dumber" seem the epitome of sophistication.' – Jeannette Catsoulis, New York Times

The Las Vegas Story
US 1952 88m bw
RKO (Robert Sparks)
When an investment broker and his new wife stop at Las Vegas, her shady past begins to emerge.
So-so programmer with some eccentric talents in average form, capped by a desert helicopter chase.
w Paul Jarrico, Earl Felton, Harry Essex d Robert Stevenson ph Harry J. Wild m Leigh Harline md Constantin Bakaleinikoff
☆ Jane Russell, Victor Mature, Vincent Price, Hoagy Carmichael, Colleen Miller, Brad Dexter, Jay C. Flippen
† Paul Jarrico's name was omitted from the film's credits at the time because he was blacklisted.

The Laser Man
Hong Kong 1988 90m colour
Peter Wang Films/Hong Kong Film Workshop (Peter Wang)
An out-of-work laser scientist is hired by a mysterious corporation to develop a deadly weapon.
Quirky thriller – the Chinese hero has a Jewish mother – but lacking anything other than its deliberate eccentricity.
wd Peter Wang ph Ernest Dickerson m Mason Daring pd Lester Cohen ed Graham Weinbren ☆ Marc Hayashi, Maryann Urbano, Joan Copeland, Tony Ka-Fei Leung, Neva Small, David Chan, Sally Yeh, Peter Wang

The Lash
US 1930 76m bw
First National
Adventures of a Spanish-Californian Robin Hood.
Or, The Mark of Zorro in all but name: a stalwart early talkie.
w Bradley King story Adios by Lanier and Virginia Bartlett d Frank Lloyd ☆ Richard Barthelmess, Mary Astor, James Rennie, Marian Nixon
'A good action talker in the western romantic strain.' – Variety † Filmed in VitaScope (65mm).

Lashou Shentan: see Hard Boiled

Lasky Jedne Plavovlasky: see Loves of a Blonde

Lassie
US 1994 92m DeLuxe
Paramount/Broadway Pictures (Lorne Michaels)
aka: Lassie: A New Generation
A city boy is captivated by a sheepdog when he moves with his family to the country.
Glossy updating of the old story, but the magic has worn rather thin by now.
w Matthew Jacobs, Gary Ross, Elizabeth Anderson d Daniel Petrie ph Kenneth MacMillan m Basil Poledouris pd Paul Peters ed Steve Mirkovich
☆ Helen Slater, Thomas Guiry, Jon Tenney, Frederic Forrest, Richard Farnsworth, Brittany Boyd, Michelle Williams
'A hollow, post-yuppie update ... Everything in the movie smacks of trend-surfing.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker

Lassie
GB/Ireland/France/US 2005 colour
Entertainment
The official Lassie series, made by MGM, was as follows:
1943 Lassie Come Home (qv)
1945 Son of Lassie d S. Sylvan Simon with Peter Lawford, Donald Crisp, Nigel Bruce 1946 Courage of Lassie d Fred M. Wilcox with Elizabeth Taylor, Frank Morgan, Tom Drake
1948 The Hills of Home (GB: Master of Lassie) d Fred M. Wilcox with Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp, Tom Drake
1949 The Sun Comes Up d Richard Thorpe with Jeanette MacDonald, Lloyd Nolan
1949 Challenge to Lassie d Richard Thorpe with Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp
1951 The Painted Hills d Harold F. Kress with Paul Kelly, Bruce Cowling
† Later 'Lassie' features were taken from episodes of the long-running TV series.

'More Than A Hero. A Legend.'

Lassie ★
GB/reland/France/US 2005 100m colour
Entertainment/Odyssey/IoMFC/Classic Media/Firstsight (Ed Guiney, Francesca Barra, Charles Sturridge)
In the late 1930s, a miner is forced to sell the family dog, but she makes a long and hazardous journey to return home.
A return to the original tale of Lassie, which brings the collie back to Britain in a pleasantly old fashioned feel-good story.
wd Charles Sturridge novel Eric Knight ph Howard Atherton m Adrian Johnston pd John Paul Kelly ed Peter Coulson, Adam Green
☆ Peter O'Toole (Duke of Rudling), Samantha Morton (Sarah Carraclough), John Lynch (Sam Carraclough), Peter Dinklage (Rowlie), Steve Pemberton (Eddie Hynes), Jemma Redgrave (Daisy), Edward Fox (Colonel Hulton), John Standing (Colonel French)
'Stolid sincerity and steady four-footed pacing could make it pass as the one of the best family films of 1938.' – Variety
'Has anyone got a plastic bag and some rubber gloves?' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Lassie: A New Generation: see Lassie (1994)

Lassie Come Home ★
US 1943 88m Technicolor
MGM (Samuel Marx)
A poor family is forced to sell its beloved dog, but she makes a remarkable journey to return to them.
First of the Lassie films and certainly the best: an old-fashioned heartwarmer.
w Hugo Butler novel Eric Knight d Fred M. Wilcox ph Leonard Smith m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Roddy McDowall, Elizabeth Taylor, Donald Crisp, Edmund Gwenn, Dame May Whitty, Nigel Bruce, Elsa Lanchester, J. Pat O'Malley
'The late Eric Knight wrote this immortal essay in Doggery-Woggery. MGM finished it off.' – Richard Winnington
Leonard Smith

Lassiter
US 1984 100m Technicolor
Pan Pacific/Golden Harvest (Albert S. Ruddy)
An American detective in pre-war London is forced by Scotland Yard to steal papers from the German Embassy.
Flat to the point of stultification, this marks yet another failure to make a big screen star of Tom Selleck.
w David Taylor d Roger Young ph Gil Taylor m Ken Thorne pd Peter Mullins ed Benjamin Weissman, Richard Hiscott
☆ Tom Selleck, Jane Seymour, Lauren Hutton, Bob Hoskins, Joe Regalbuto, Ed Lauter, Warren Clarke

Last Action Hero
US 1993 131m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Columbia (Steve Roth, John McTiernan)
A magic ticket enables a boy to enter the world of an action movie, but it also allows the villain to escape into the real world, where he is followed by the boy and the film's muscular hero.
A film that tries to have it both ways, simultaneously mocking and celebrating the conventions of action movies, which leaves audiences, as well as the actors and director, in a state of bewildered confusion.
w Shane Black, David Arnott story Zack Penn, Adam Leff d John McTiernan ph Dean Semler m Michael Kamen pd Eugenio Zanetti ed John Wright
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, F. Murray Abraham, Art Carney, Charles Dance, Frank McRae, Tom Noonan, Robert Prosky, Anthony Quinn, Mercedes Ruehl, Ian McKellen, Joan Plowright, Tina Turner
'A joyless, soulless machine of a movie.' – Variety
'A perfect example of cinematic self-hatred.' – Sight and Sound
† The film's production costs were reportedly $100 million. It took around $28 million at the US box-office, though better results elsewhere meant that its final loss was reckoned to be some $20 million, although some estimates put it much higher.

The Last Adventurers

GB 1937 77m bw
Conway (H. Fraser Passmore)

Adventures on board a fishing trawler.
Acceptable low-budget outdoor drama.
w Denison Clift d Roy Kellino ph Eric Cross m Eric Ansell ad W. R. Brinton ed David Lean ☆ Niall MacGinnis, Linden Travers, Roy Emerton, Kay Walsh, Peter Gawthorne, Katie Johnson

The Last American Hero ★

US 1973 95m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Wizan/Rojo (John Cutts, William Roberts)

The adventures of an illicit whisky distiller with a passion for fast cars.
Observant, amusing hillbilly comedy drama based on the early life of racing driver Junior Johnson.
w William Roberts d Lamont Johnson ph George Silano m Charles Fox
☆ Jeff Bridges, Valerie Perrine, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Ned Beatty, Art Lund, Gary Busey

'A pop saga phrased with rough vernacular authenticity.' – Bruce Williamson, Playboy † Reissue title: Hard Driver.

The Last Angry Man ★

US 1959 100m bw
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)

An old doctor in a Brooklyn slum is made the subject of a TV documentary.
Self-confidently sentimental wallow which just about works.
w Gerald Green novel Gerald Green d Daniel Mann ph James Wong Howe m George Duning ad Carl Anderson
☆ Paul Muni, David Wayne, Betsy Palmer, Luther Adler, Dan Tobin, Robert F. Simon
♗ Paul Muni; art direction

The Last Battle

France 1983 92m bw Cinemascope
ICA/Les Films du Loup (Luc Besson) original title: Le Dernier Combat

A samurai swordsman runs amok in a world destroyed by nuclear war.
Chic, virtually silent film that borrows from dozens of other works on the same theme.
wd Luc Besson ph Carlo Varini m Eric Serra ed Sophie Schmit
☆ Pierre Jolivet, Jean Bouise, Fritz Wepper, Jean Reno, Maurice Lany, Pierre Carrive, Jean-Michel Castanie, Michel Doset

The Last Blitzkrieg

US 1959 84m bw
Columbia/Sam Katzman

During the Battle of the Bulge a German leads a squad of American saboteurs.
Weakly pacifist, technically incompetent war adventure.
w Lou Morheim d Arthur Dreifuss ph Ted Scaife m Hugo de Groot ☆ Van Johnson, Kerwin Mathews, Dick York, Larry Storch

'They're two fallen heroes up against the gambling syndicate in pro sports. Everyone had counted them out. But they're about to get back into the game.'

The Last Boy Scout

US 1991 105m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Geffen/Silver (Joel Silver, Michael Levy)

A too-honest secret agent turned private eye is hired by a former football player to protect his girlfriend, a stripper.
Standard buddy-buddy action movie with high-budget special effects and non-stop violence.
w Shane Black story Shane Black, Greg Hicks d Tony Scott ph Ward Russell m Michael Kamen pd Brian Morris ed Mark Goldblatt, Mark Helfrich
☆ Bruce Willis, Damon Wayans, Chelsea Field, Noble Willingham, Taylor Negron, Danielle Harris, Halle Berry, Bruce McGill

'Entertaining if mindless shoot-'em-up the Boy Scouts' "Be Prepared" motto could be taken as a warning to check one's brain at the door.' – Variety

'To give it a negative review would be dishonest. To be positive is to seem to approve its sickness.' – Roger Ebert † Shane Black was reportedly paid $1.75 million for his screenplay.

The Last Bridge

Austria/Yugoslavia 1953 95m bw
Cosmopol/UFUS (Carl Szokoll)

During World War II, a German nurse in Yugoslavia is captured by partisans and turns to their point of view.
Message melodrama, very ably put together with a bleakly tragic climax; but nothing at all new.
w Helmut Kautner, Norbert Kunze d Helmut Kautner ph Elio Carniel m Carl de Groof ☆ Maria Schell, Bernhard Wicki, Barbara Rütting, Carl Möhner

The Last Broadcast ★

US 1998 86m colour
Metrodome/FFM (Stefan Avalos, Lance Weiler)

An amateur film-maker investigates the 'Jersey Devil' murder of 1996, in which cable TV presenters died while presenting a live show from a remote forest where they were attempting a contact with the supernatural.
Clever, inventive low-budget horror that predates The Blair Witch Project (qv), with which it has some similarities.
wd Stefan Avalos, Lance Weiler ph Lance Weiler m A. D. Roso, Stefan Avalos ed Stefan Avalos
☆ David Beard (David Leigh), Jim Seward (Jim Suerd), Stefan Avalos (Steven Avkast), Lance Weiler (Locus Wheeler), Rein Clabbers (Rein Clackin), Michele Pulaski (Michelle Monarch), Tom Brunt (Video engineer), Mark Rublee (Video editor), A. D. Roso (Lead investigator), Dale Worstall (Psychologist)

'All dull film... Don't expect to be scared or shocked. Or in any way entertained.' – Rupert Laight, Film Review

'No Castle Can Have Two Kings.'

The Last Castle

US 2001 131m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/DreamWorks (Robert Lawrence)

A disgraced general organises a revolt among his fellow-prisoners against a corrupt and ruthless warden.
Stale drama of redemption and discipline that recycles most of the clichés familiar from other prison and gung-ho war movies, and miscasts Redford as an action hero.
w David Scarpa, Graham Yost d Rod Lurie ph Shelly Johnson m Jerry Goldsmith pd Kirk M. Petruccelli ed Michael Jablow, Kevin Stitt
☆ Robert Redford (Gen. Eugene Irwin), James Gandolfini (Col Winter), Mark Ruffalo (Yates), Delroy Lindo (Gen. Jim Wheeler), Clifton Collins Jnr (Aguilar), Steve Burton (Capt. Peretz), Brian Goodman (Beaupre), Paul Calderon (Dellwo), Jeremy Childs (Cutbush), Robin Wright Penn (uncredited) (Rosalie)

'Disappointingly pedestrian prison meller.' – Variety

The Last Chance ★

Switzerland 1945 105m bw
Praesens Film

In 1943 an Englishman and an American escape from a fascist camp in northern Italy and with the help of refugees cross the mountains into Switzerland.
Earnest propaganda piece which struck the spot at the time: cinematically rather plodding, but with some exciting scenes.
w Richard Schweitzer d Leopold Lindtberg ph Emil Berna m Robert Blum ☆ E. G. Morrison, Ray Reagan, John Hoy, Luisa Rossi

'Regrettably, there is about The Last Chance an episodic quality that doesn't make for cumulative drama.' – New Yorker

The Last Command ★★

US 1928 100m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount

An exiled Russian general goes berserk when given a role in a movie which virtually involves playing himself.
Fascinating ironic comedy tailored for an international star who was not to survive the talkies.
w John F. Goodrich story Lajos Biro d Josef von Sternberg ph Bert Glennon ad Hans Dreier
☆ Emil Jannings, William Powell, Evelyn Brent, Nicholas Soussanin
♟ Emil Jannings
♗ best picture; Lajos Biro

The Last Command ★

US 1955 110m Trucolor
Republic (Frank Lloyd)

Jim Bowie returns to Texas in the 1830s and dies at the Alamo alongside other famous men.
Reasonably interesting Western on a subject which has often figured but seldom worked.
w Warren Duff d Frank Lloyd ph Jack Marta m Max Steiner
☆ Ernest Borgnine, Sterling Hayden, Anna Maria Alberghetti, Arthur Hunnicutt, Richard Carlson, J. Carrol Naish

'Sometimes justice is a crime.'

Last Dance

US 1996 103m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Steven Haft)

An idealistic lawyer fights to have a death sentence on a murderess commuted to life imprisonment, after she has spent 12 years on Death Row.
Earnest, old-fashioned melodrama, aimed at the tear ducts of the susceptible.
w Ron Koslow d Bruce Beresford ph Peter James m Mark Isham pd John Stoddart ed John Bloom
☆ Sharon Stone, Rob Morrow, Randy Quaid, Peter Gallagher, Jack Thompson, Don Harvey, Jayne Brook, Pamela Tyson, Skeet Ulrich

'That most joyless of beasts: melodrama without the guts, a weepie with its plumbing pulled out.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Last Days ⑥

US 2005 96m colour
Optimum/Meno (Dany Wolf)

The last hours of a suicidal rock star.
Van Sant does nothing as vulgar as to offer explanations in this movie, one that draws on the death of rocker Kurt Cobain; he is content to observe, though you may not wish to join him.
wd Gus Van Sant ph Harris Savides ad Tim Grimes ed Gus Van Sant
☆ Michael Pitt (Blake), Lukas Haas (Luke), Asia Argento (Asia), Scott Green (Scott), Nicole Vicius (Nicole), Ricky Jay (Detective)

'Will either bore you to death or thrill you to bits; there is no middle ground.' – Derek Malcolm, London Evening Standard

'How can one defend this prolonged mumble of a motion picture? Well, some of the motion has a hypnotizing grace.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Last Days of Chez Nous ★

Australia 1992 96m Eastmancolor
Metro/Jan Chapman/Australian Film Finance Corp.

In Sydney, while a wife is away on holiday, her sister has an affair with her French husband and her daughter goes to bed with the lodger.
A slight but perceptive domestic drama.
w Helen Garner d Gillian Armstrong ph Geoffrey Simpson m Paul Grabowsky pd Janet Patterson ed Nicholas Beauman ☆ Lisa Harrow, Bruno Ganz, Kerry Fox, Miranda Otto, Kiri Paramore, Bill Hunter

'Beautifully acted and crafted.' – Variety

'Poignantly observed and dry-humoured account of emotional blundering and bruising.' – Lizzie Franke, Sight and Sound

'History is made at night.'

The Last Days of Disco ★

US 1998 113m Technicolor
Warner/Castle Rock/Westerly (Whit Stillman)

A loquacious group of friends congregate in a New York night-club that is under investigation by the police.
A smart comedy of sexual manners in an incongruous setting.
wd Whit Stillman ph John Thomas m Mark Suozzo ch John Carrafa pd Ginger Tougas ed Andrew Hafitz, Jay Pires
☆ Chloe Sevigny, Kate Beckinsale, Chris Eigeman, Matt Keeslar, Mackenzie Astin, Matthew Ross, Tara Subkoff, Burr Steers, David Thornton, Jaid Barrymore, Michael Weatherly, Robert Sean Leonard, Jennifer Beals

'Is as interesting to watch for its serious disjuncture between style and content as for its cute cast and fabulous soundtrack.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Last Days of Dolwyn ★

GB 1949 95m bw
London/BLPA (Anatole de Grunwald)

US title: Woman of Dolwyn

A Welsh valley is flooded to make a reservoir and a village has to be evacuated.
Interesting but rather stagey drama based on an actual 19th-century event, with personal melodrama added.
wd Emlyn Williams ph Otto Heller m John Greenwood ☆ Edith Evans, Emlyn Williams, Richard Burton, Hugh Griffith, Barbara Couper, Allan Aynesworth

'The conventionally picturesque Welsh flavour and mounting probabilities apart, the treatment is stiff and episodic.' – MFB

The Last Days of Man on Earth: see The Final Programme

'Pompeii ... drunk with wealth and power ... rotten with pagan pleasures ... doomed to fiery death from the skies!'

The Last Days of Pompeii ★

US 1935 96m bw
RKO (Merian C. Cooper)

In ancient Pompeii, various personal dramas are submerged in the eruption of Vesuvius.
Starchy melodrama capped by a reel of spectacular disaster.
w Ruth Rose, Boris Ingster novel Lord Lytton d Merian C. Cooper, Ernest Schoedsack ph Eddie Linden Jnr, J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb sp Vernon Walker, Harry Redmond
☆ Preston Foster, Basil Rathbone, Alan Hale, Dorothy Wilson

'Well-done spectacle minus romance and cast names. Should do all right generally.' – Variety

The Last Detail ★★

US 1973 104m Metrocolor
Columbia/Acrobat/Persky-Bright (Gerald Ayres)

Two hardened naval petty officers escort a young recruit, sentenced for thieving, from Virginia to a New Hampshire jail, and give him a wild last night.
Foul-mouthed weekend odyssey, with a few well-observed moments for non-prudes. Technically the epitome of Hollywood's most irritating seventies fashion, with fuzzy sound recording, dim against-the-light photography, and a general determination to show up the ugliness of everything around us.
w Robert Towne novel Darryl Ponicsan d Hal Ashby ph Michael Chapman m Johnny Mandel
☆ Jack Nicholson, Otis Young, Randy Quaid, Clifton James, Carol Kane

'Visually it is relentlessly lower-depths gloomy, and the material, though often very funny, is programmed to wrench your heart.' – New Yorker
Robert Towne; Jack Nicholson; Randy Quaid
Jack Nicholson; Robert Towne

The Last Dinosaur

US 1977 100m colour
Rankin-Bass Productions

An oil-drilling team discovers a tyrannosaurus rex while probing the polar oil-cap.
Inept monster saga with poorish special effects from a Japanese team.
w William Overgard d Alex Grasshoff, Tom Kotani ph Shoshi Ueda m Maury Laws ☆ Richard Boone, Joan Van Ark, Steven Keats

The Last Dragon

US 1985 109m colour
TriStar/Motown (Rupert Hitzig)

aka: Berry Gordy's The Last Dragon
A martial arts expert returns to Harlem and saves a video disc jockey from gangsters and the neighbourhood from a self-styled shogun and his high-kicking gang.
A camp mix of kung-fu and music, directed in a broad and unsubtle manner and aimed at a young and undiscriminating audience; it is more an extended rock video than a conventional movie.
w Louis Venosta d Michael Schultz ph James A. Contner m Misha Segal, Willie Hutch, Norman Whitfield pd Peter Larkin ed Christopher Holmes ☆ Taimak, Vanity, Julius J. Carry III, Chris Murney, Leo O'Brien, Faith Prince, Glen Eaton, Mike Starr, Jim Moody

'He thinks someone is trying to kill him. He's dead right!'

Last Embrace

US 1979 101m Technicolor
UA (Michael Taylor, Dan Wigutow)

An investigator survives a number of attacks on his life, though his wife is killed in the first of them.
Hitchcockian mystery without the master's zest or humour, though it leads to a pretty exciting climax at Niagara Falls.
w David Shaber novel The 13th Man by Murray Teigh Bloom d Jonathan Demme ph Tak Fujimoto m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Roy Scheider, Janet Margolin, Sam Levene, John Glover, Charles Napier, Christopher Walken, Jacqueline Brookes

'A case study of late seventies movie-making which does everything in its power to avoid taking risks.' – John Pym, MFB

The Last Emperor ★★

Italy/Hong Kong/GB 1987 160m approx
Technicolor Technovision
Columbia/Yanco Films/Tao Films/Recorded Picture Company/Screenframe/AAA Soprofilm (Jeremy Thomas)

The life of China's last imperial ruler, from ascending the throne as a puppet-like 3-year-old, to serene old age as a gardener in Mao's People's Republic.
A lavish spectacle which caught the imagination of audiences, though many found the compression of 60 years of Chinese politics baffling.
w Mark Peploe, Bernardo Bertolucci d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro m Ryuichi Sakamoto, David Byrne, Cong Su pd Ferdinando Scarfiotti ad Bruno Cesari ed Gabriella Cristiani
☆ John Lone, Joan Chen, Peter O'Toole, Ying Ruocheng
† A director's cut, a version running for 219m, was released in December 1998, and is also available Reviewing it for the New York Times, director-writer Oliver Stone called it 'a masterpiece – a fully shaped historical epic'.
picture; Bernardo Bertolucci; script (Mark Peploe, Bernardo Bertolucci); Vittorio Storaro; Ryuichi Sakamoto, David Byrne, Cong Su; Gabriella Cristiani; Bruno Cesari; costume design; sound film

The Last Escape

GB 1970 90m DeLuxe
Oakmont/UA

An American officer in Munich tries to rescue a German scientist from the Nazis.
Standard World War II actioner.
w Herman Hoffman d Walter Grauman ph Gernot Roll ad Rolf Zehetbauer ☆ Stuart Whitman, John Collin, Martin Jarvis, Pinkas Braun

Last Exit to Brooklyn ★★★

West Germany 1989 98m colour
Guild/Neue Constantin Film Produktion/Bavaria Film/Allied Filmmakers (Bernd Eichinger)

Striking workers and their families and a prostitute lead thwarted lives in Brooklyn in the early 1950s.
True to the spirit of Selby's grim, but compassionate, low-life novel, with some brilliant ensemble acting.
w Desmond Nakano novel Hubert Selby Jnr d Uli Edel ph Stefan Czapsky m Mark Knopfler pd David Chapman ad Mark Haak ed Peter Przygodda
☆ Stephen Lang (Harry Black), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Tralala), Burt Young (Big Joe), Peter Dobson (Vinnie), Christopher Murney (Paulie), Jerry Orbach (Boyce), Alexis Arquette (Georgette)

'Edel surprisingly has managed to capture exactly the horrified yet tender tone of Selby's book.' – MFB

The Last Flight ★★★

US 1931 80m bw
Warner

In 1919, four veteran American flyers stay on in Paris in the hope of calming their shattered physical and emotional states.
Fascinatingly offhand study on post-war cynicism and the faint hope of a better world, beautifully written and directed in a manner more effective than The Sun Also Rises.
w John Monk Saunders novel Single Lady by John Monk Saunders d William Dieterle ph Sid Hickox
☆ Richard Barthelmess, Helen Chandler, David Manners, John Mack Brown, Elliott Nugent, Walter Byron

'If the crowd can understand that girl character in this picture the film is an undoubted grosser.' – Variety
'A narrative as tight and spare as a Racine tragedy ... unique in Hollywood of that time in its persistent, calculated understatement.' – Tom Milne, 1975
† In magazine form the story was known as 'Nikki and her War Birds'.

The Last Flight of Noah's Ark

US 1980 98m Technicolor
Walt Disney

An impecunious pilot reluctantly flies an orphanage worker and a cargo of animals across the Pacific, only to be stranded with them on a desert island.
It must have sounded like a good idea, but if it was to work at all it needed much sharper handling.
w Steven W. Carabatsos, Sandy Glass, George Arthur Bloom story The Gremlin's Castle by Ernest K. Gann d Charles Jarrott ph Charles F. Wheeler m Maurice Jarre
☆ Elliott Gould, Geneviève Bujold, Ricky Schroder, Tammy Lauren, Vincent Gardenia

The Last Frontier: see Savage Wilderness (1956)

'The big fellow is out of Alcatraz – ready to show them no mercy!'

The Last Gangster ★

US 1937 81m bw
MGM (J. J. Cohn)

A gangster is released from Alcatraz and plans vengeance on his wife for deserting him.
Clean-cut star melodrama which suddenly turns sentimental.
w John Lee Mahin d Edward Ludwig ph William Daniels m Edward Ward montage Slavko Vorkapich
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Rose Stradner, James Stewart, Lionel Stander, Douglas Scott, John Carradine, Sidney Blackmer, Edward Brophy

'May indeed be the last gangster movie ... a good film which will blossom at the b.o.' – Variety
'A lot of water has flowed under the bridge since Little Caesar, but Mr Robinson has breasted the tides to make his impersonation of a 1937 thug as persuasive as was his portrait of a killer in that earlier classic of rats and rackets.' – Frank Nugent

The Last Gangster: see Roger Touhy, Gangster (1944)

The Last Gentleman

US 1934 80m bw
Fox

The career of a New England millionaire.
Pleasing star family drama.
w Leonard Praskins d Sidney Lanfield
☆ George Arliss, Edna May Oliver, Ralph Morgan, Janet Beecher, Charlotte Henry

'A prolonged monologue ... mediocre film which must depend on the star's rep.' – Variety

The Last Great Wilderness

GB/Denmark 2002 96m colour
Feature Film/Sigma/Scottish Screen/Monkey Puzzle/Zentropa/Serious Facilities (Gillian Berrie)

Strranded on a drive to Skye, two men stay in a remote Highland inn inhabited by apparent eccentrics, who are given to primitive rituals.
Odd, unsuccessful movie with an uncertain tone.
w Alastair Mackenzie, Michael Tait d David Mackenzie ph Simon Dennis m The Pastels pd Tom Sayer ed Jane Roberts
☆ Alastair Mackenzie, Jonny Phillips, David Hayman, Ewan Stewart, Victoria Smurfit

'Risible Scottish fiasco.' – Observer

The Last Grenade

GB 1969 93m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Cinerama/Dimitri de Grunwald/Josef Shaftel

An army mercenary is betrayed by an ex-friend in the Congo and pursues him to Hong Kong.
Violent action melodrama with few redeeming qualities.
w Kenneth Ware novel The Ordeal of Major Grigsby by John Sherlock d Gordon Flemyng ph Alan Hume m Johnny Dankworth
☆ Stanley Baker, Alex Cord, Honor Blackman, Richard Attenborough, Rafer Johnson, Andrew Keir, Ray Brooks, Julian Glover, John Thaw

The Last Hangman: see Pierrepoint

The Last Hard Men

US 1976 97m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Belasco-Seltzer-Thatcher

A train robber breaks jail and sets out to revenge himself on the now-retired lawman who committed him.
Tough action adventure without much sense except to paint the end of the golden days of the west.
w Guerdon Trueblood novel Gun Down by Brian Garfield d Andrew V. McLaglen ph Duke Callaghan m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Charlton Heston, James Coburn, Barbara Hershey, Christopher Mitchum, Michael Parks, Jorge Rivero, Thalmus Rasulala

'Script and direction seem equally tired.' – Sight and Sound
'The action proceeds slackly from one setpiece shoot-up to the next, barely providing the voltage for the two leads to expand their stereotyped roles into displays of star power.' – Richard Combs, MFB

The Last Harvest ★

Argentina 1992 91m colour
Arenas/Jorge Estrada Mora (Julio Lencina, Ricardo Freixa) original title: La Ultima Siembra

On an Argentinian ranch, conflict grows between an Indian miner turned maize farmer and the American-educated son of the landowner who wants to replace the cattle with a tobacco plantation.

Leisurely examination of a clash between races, classes and entrenched attitudes, coming heavily down on the side of conservatism.
wd Miguel Pereira novel Los Humilides by Miguel Angel Pereira ph Pablo Esteban Courtalón m Ariel Petrocelli, Tukuta Gordillo Isamara ad Mirta Spagarino ed Miguel Perez ☆ Patricio Contreras, Leonor Manso, Mario Pasik, Alberto Benegas, Gonzalo Morales, Antonio Paleari

Last Holiday ★

GB 1950 88m bw
ABPC/Watergate (Stephen Mitchell, A. D. Peters, J. B. Priestley)

A man with a short time to live has a thoroughly enjoyable and useful final fling.
Slight, amusing and moving comedy drama spoiled by an unnecessary double twist.
w J. B. Priestley d Henry Cass ph Ray Elton m Francis Chagrin ☆ Alec Guinness, Kay Walsh, Beatrice Campbell, Grégoire Aslan, Bernard Lee, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Helen Cherry, Sidney James, Muriel George

'She Always Thought She Was Somebody... And She Was.'

Last Holiday ④

US 2005 108m DeLuxe
Paramount/Imagemovers (Laurence Mark, Jack Rapke)

A reserved woman with a terminal illness loses her inhibitions on a holiday in Europe.
A mild Alec Guinness comedy has undergone a sex-change in this remake; the plot has not matured in the past fifty-six years and the jokes remain old.
w Jeffrey Price, Peter S. Seaman screenplay J.B. Priestley d Wayne Wang ph Geoffrey Simpson m George Fenton pd William Arnold ed Deirdre Slevin
☆ Queen Latifah (Georgia Byrd), LL Cool J (Sean Williams), Timothy Hutton (Kragen), Gerard Depardieu (Chef Didier), Alicia Witt (Ms Burns), Giancarlo Esposito (Senator Dillings)

> 'Reconfigured as one of those generic wish-fulfillment flicks in which the soul in question actualizes her goals through perseverance and pluck. Real-life obstacles are immaterial; so too, at least here, is competent filmmaking.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

The Last Horror Movie

GB 2003 80m colour
Prolific/Shakehair (Zorana Piggott)

A wedding video photographer films his own serial killings for a video viewer's delectation.
A notion that was done much better in the Belgium movie Man Bites Dog (qv) is here used for the purposes of unpleasant exploitation.
w James Handel d Julian Richards ph Chris St. John-Smith m Simon Lambros pd Bettina Eberhard ed Claus Wehlisch
☆ Kevin Howarth, Mark Stevenson, Antonia Beamish, Jim Bywater, Christabel Muir

> 'A tedious, unconvincing piece.' – Observer

'To Avoid Fainting Keep Repeating, It's Only A Movie ... Only A Movie ... Only A Movie ... Only A Movie.'

Last House on the Left

US 1972 91m colour
Hallmark (Sean S. Cunningham)

Parents seek revenge after their daughter is raped and killed by a gang of escaped convicts.
Low-budget shocker, updating and debasing Ingmar Bergman's Virgin Spring.
wd Wes Craven ph Victor Hurwitz m Steve Chapin, David Hess ed Wes Craven
☆ David Hess, Lucy Grantham, Sandra Cassel, Marc Sheffler, Jeramie Rain, Fred Lincoln

Last House on the Left Part II: see A Bay of Blood

The Last Hunt ★

US 1956 103m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Dore Schary)

Buffalo hunters fall out with each other.
Terse, brutish outdoor Western with something to say about old Western myths and a famous ending in which the bad guy freezes to death while waiting to gun down the hero.
wd Richard Brooks ph Russell Harlan m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Stewart Granger, Robert Taylor, Debra Paget, Lloyd Nolan, Russ Tamblyn, Constance Ford

The Last Hurrah ★★

US 1958 125m bw
Columbia (John Ford)

The political boss of a New England town fights his last campaign.
Enjoyable if disjointed melodrama, an old man's film crammed with cameo performances from familiar faces: important as one of Hollywood's great sentimental reunions.
w Frank Nugent novel Edwin O'Connor d John Ford ph Charles Lawton Jnr
☆ Spencer Tracy, Jeffrey Hunter, Dianne Foster, Pat O'Brien, Basil Rathbone, Edward Brophy, Donald Crisp, James Gleason, John Carradine, Ricardo Cortez, Wallace Ford, Frank McHugh, Frank Albertson, Anna Lee, Jane Darwell and also Willis Bouchey, Basil Ruysdael
† A TV version was subsequently made with Carroll O'Connor.

Last Images of the Shipwreck

Argentina/Spain 1989 129m colour
Palace/Cinequanon/TVE (Hugo Lauria)

original title: Ultimas Imagenes del Naufragio
A would-be writer befriends a prostitute and her crooked brother in order to gather material for a novel.
Playing rather unsuccessful games with illusion and reality, this odd movie soon loses its way.
wd Eliseo Subiela ph Alberto Basail m Pedro Aznar pd Abel Facello ed Mercela Saenz ☆ Lorenzo Quniteros, Noemi Frenkel, Hugo Soto, Pablo Brichta, Sara Benitez, Andres Tiengo, Alicia Aller, Alfredo Stuart

The Last Island

Netherlands 1990 109m colour
First Floor (Laurens Geels, Dick Maas)

Four men and two women, the only survivors of an air crash on an uninhabited island who also believe that they are the last people left alive in the world, find that their lives are dominated by an increasingly unbalanced military and religious bigot.
A feminist retelling of a familiar scenario, watchable, but too schematic to be entirely successful.
wd Marleen Gorris ph Marc Felperlaan m Boudewijn Tarenskeen ad Harry Ammerlaan ed Hans van Dongen
☆ Paul Freeman, Shelagh McLeod, Patricia Hayes, Kenneth Colley, Mark Hembrow, Marc Berman, Ian Tracey

The Last Journey ★

GB 1935 66m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)

The driver of an express train, driven mad with jealousy, goes berserk.
Workmanlike little train suspenser with an exciting climax.
w John Soutar, H. Fowler Mear story J. Jefferson Farjeon d Bernard Vorhaus ph Percival Strong, Billy Luff ad James Carter ☆ Godfrey Tearle, Hugh Williams, Julien Mitchell, Judy Gunn, Nelson Keys, Frank Pettingell, Olga Lindo, Sydney Fairbrother

'Charming. Magnetic. Murderous.'

The Last King of Scotland ★★★ ⑧

UK/US 2006 122m
TCF/Fox Searchlight/DNA/Film Four/Cowboy/Slate/Tatfilm (Andrea Calderwood, Lisa Bryer, Charles Steel, Chrstine Ruppert)

An idealistic young Scottish doctor applies to work in Uganda, and becomes personal physician to the savage dictator Idi Amin.
A riveting thriller with a towering performance by Forest Whitaker as the tyrannical Amin and a hard-working, underrated one by James McAvoy. The film cleverly suggests the extent of Amin's charisma and charm; McAvoy's young doctor wants so desperately to approve of his employer. The story is fictional, but has the smack of reality, largely due to being shot in Uganda itself, and to the expertise of director Macdonald, whose documentary background is evident here.
w Peter Morgan, Jeremy Brock novel Giles Foden d Kevin Macdonald ph Anthony Dod Mantle m Alex Heffes pd Michael Carlin ad Lynne Huitson ed Justine Wright
☆ Forest Whitaker (Idi Amin), James McAvoy (Nicholas Garrigan), Kerry Washington (Kay Amin), Gillian Anderson (Sarah Merrit), Simon McBurney (Stone), David Oyelowo (Dr. Junju)

> 'Amin, rather discomfitingly, is a marvellous monster.' – Sukhdev Sandhu, Daily Telegraph
> 'Macdonald has a fetching feel for the continent, and the movie has a powerful sense of what Africa looks and feels like; you can almost smell it.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

Forest Whitaker
Best British film; Forest Whitaker; Peter Morgan, Jeremy Brock

'You're never too young for a midlife crisis.'
'We all make choices. What's yours?'

The Last Kiss ⑤

US 2006 103m
Momentum/Lakeshore Entertainment (Andre Lamal, Gary Lucchesi, Tom Rosenberg, Marcus Viscidi)

An architect scared of commitment cheats on his pregnant partner with a pretty college student.
An American remake of an Italian original that has trouble reconciling its whimsical and melodramatic elements.
w Paul Haggis film L'ultimo bacio by Gabriele Muccino d Tony Goldwyn ph Tom Stern m Michael Penn pd Dan Leigh ad Gilles Aird ed Lisa Zeno Churgin ☆ Zach Braff (Michael), Jacinda Barrett (Jenna), Casey Affleck (Chris), Rachel Bilson (Kim), Blythe Danner (Anna), Tom Wilkinson (Stephen)

> 'A terrible movie populated by people who look human but are actually androids mouthing rom-com dialogue and middlebrow relationship-speak.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
> 'More of a cautionary tale than a rollicking entertainment.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

The Last Laugh ★★★

Germany 1924 73m approx (24 fps) bw silent
UFA

original title: Der Letzte Mann
The old doorman of a luxury hotel is given the job of lavatory attendant but comes into a fortune and gets his revenge.
Ironic anecdote made important by its virtual abandonment of dialogue and whole-hearted adoption of the camera eye technique which gives some thrilling dramatic effects.
w Carl Mayer d F. W. Murnau ph Karl Freund ad Robert Herlth, Walter Rohrig
☆ Emil Jannings (The Porter), Max Hiller (The Daughter's Fiance), Maly Delschaft (The Porter's Daughter), Hans Unterkirchen (Hotel Manager)

> 'A marvellous picture – marvellous in its simplicity, its economy of effect, its expressiveness, and its dramatic power.' – Life

† A German remake of 1955 had Hans Albers in the lead and was of no interest.

Last Life in the Universe ★

Thailand/Japan 2003 108m colour
Bohemian Films/Fortissimo/Cathay Asia/Five Star/Pioneer (Nonzee Nimibutr, Duangkamol Limcharoen, Wouter Barendrecht)

original title: Runang Rak Noi Nid Mahasan
In Bangkok, a depressed and meticulous Japanese librarian with yakuza connections finds himself involved with the messy life of a Thai prostitute.
Quirky drama that is at times so elusive as to be difficult to grasp, graced by some splendid cinematography and effective performances.
w Prabda Yoon, Pen-ek Ratanaruang d Pen-ek Ratanaruang ph Christopher Doyle m Small Room, Hualampong Riddim pd Saksiri Chuntarangsri ed Patamanadda Yukol ☆ Tadanobu Asano (Kenji), Sinitta Boonyasak (Noi), Laila Boonyasak (Nid), Yutaka Matsushige (Yukio), Takeuchi Riki (Takashi), Takashi Miike (Yakuza)

> 'Wistful mood piece whose contemplative tone is periodically punctured by eruptions of violence.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Last Man Standing ★

US 1996 101m CFI color Panavision
New Line (Walter Hill, Arthur Sarkissian)

In the 30s, a gunman on the run finds himself in a small Texas town ruled by two rival gangs of bootleggers.
A Hollywood Western influenced by other schools of film-making. The wit and charm of Kurosawa's original, Yojimbo, has been replaced by a raw energy and gunfights in the style of John Woo; but its glum, conscienceless protagonist lacks the style of Toshiro Mifune or even Clint Eastwood in the spaghetti Western version, A Fistful of Dollars.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

wd Walter Hill story Ryuzo Kikushima, Akira Kurosawa ph Lloyd Ahern m Ry Cooder pd Gary Wissner ed Freeman Davies
☆ Bruce Willis, Christopher Walken, Bruce Dern, Alexandra Powers, David Patrick Kelly, William Sanderson, Karina Lombard, Ned Eisenberg, Michael Imperioli
'Goes wholly down the comic book route Hill marked out as early as The Warriors, offering wham-bang style but nothing else.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound
† The film cost $57m to make, including $16m to Bruce Willis, and took $18m at the US box-office.
†† Elmer Bernstein's original score, which was rejected by Hill, has also been released on CD.

The Last Man to Hang?
GB 1956 75m bw
ACT Films/Columbia
Sir Roderick Strood is on trial for the murder of his neurotic wife.
Reasonably interesting co-feature based on Gerald Bullett's The Jury; the title refers to the no-hanging bill then passing through Parliament.
w Gerald Bullett and others d Terence Fisher
☆ Tom Conway, Elizabeth Sellars, Eunice Gayson, Freda Jackson, Hugh Latimer, Anthony Newley, Margaretta Scott

The Last Married Couple in America
US 1979 102m Technicolor
Universal/Cates Brothers (John Shaner)
A Los Angeles couple resist the efforts of their friends to involve them in the swinging life.
Tolerable sex comedy of modern mores, a shade too long delayed after Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice.
w John Herman Shaner d Gilbert Cates ph Ralph Woolsey m Charles Fox pd Gene Callahan
☆ Natalie Wood, George Segal, Richard Benjamin, Arlene Golonka, Alan Arbus, Marilyn Sokol, Dom DeLuise, Valerie Harper

'They'll never know what hit 'em.'
The Last Marshall
US 1999 102m
Xscapade/Filmtown/Newman/Tooley
A redneck Texan marshall transfers to Miami in search of the drug dealers who killed his colleagues and kidnapped a judge.
Ludicrously rabid thriller that owes something to Coogan's Bluff in its initial premise, but is otherwise stuffed with all the cliches of the dumber action movies.
w Scott Wiper, Mike Kirton d Mike Kirton ph Michael Bonvillain m Lanny Cordola, Matt Sorum ad Robert J. Butcher ed James E. Tooley
☆ Scott Glenn (Cole), Constance Marie (Rosa), Randall Batinkoff (Jamie), Vincent Castellanos (Toeres), John Ortiz (Enrico), Raymond Cruz (T-Boy), William Forsythe (DeClerc)

The Last Metro ★★★★
France 1980 131m Fujicolour
Les Films du Carrosse/Andrea/SEDIF/TF1/SFP (Jean-José Richer) original title: Le Dernier Métro
In occupied Paris, the Jewish manager of a theatre hides in the cellar of the building.
Tightly enclosed symbolic melodrama of oppression and release that concentrates on individual lives caught up in a moment of mass madness and seeking refuge in their dedication to their art.
w François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Nestor Almendros m Georges Delerue ad Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko ed Martine Barraque
☆ Catherine Deneuve (Marion Steiner), Gérard Depardieu (Bernard Granger), Jean Poiret (Jean-Loup Cottins), Heinz Bennent (Lucas Steiner)
'A dazzlingly subversive work... a gently comic, romantic meditation on love, loyalty, heroism and history.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
† A Region 2 DVD release includes audio commentary by historian Jean-Pierre Azema and an interview with Truffaut.
best foreign film

The Last Mile ★
US 1932 84m bw
World Wide (E. W. Hammons)
Tensions mount in jail as the execution of Killer Mears approaches.
Strident melodrama which works up quite a head of hysteria.
w Seton I. Miller play John Wexley d Sam Bischoff ph Arthur Edeson ☆ Preston Foster, Howard Phillips, George E. Stone, Noel Madison
'Subject's lure is confined to the morbid-minded sensation seeker ... without feminine interest.' – Variety

The Last Mile
US 1959 81m bw
UA/Vanguard (Milton Subotsky)
Even more hysterical remake, retaining the original period.
A cheerless, though literally electrifying, entertainment.
w Milton Subotsky, Seton I. Miller d Howard W. Koch ph Joseph Brun m Van Alexander ☆ Mickey Rooney, Clifford David, Frank Conroy, Frank Overton, Leon Janney

'The future is trying to tell us something.'
The Last Mimzy
US 2007 96m
Entertainment/New Line Cinema (Michael Phillips)
Two children become endowed with supernatural powers after finding a box of educational toys sent from the future.
New Age fantasy with a clear eco-message; charming and whimsical without ever being magical.
w Bruce Joel Rubin, Toby Emmerich short story All Mimsy Were the Borogroves by Lewis Padgett d Bob Shaye ph J. Michael Muro m Howard Shore pd Barry Chusid ad Ross Dempster ed Alan Heim sp Alex Burdett ☆ Joely Richardson (Jo Wilder), Timothy Hutton (David Wilder), Michael Clarke Duncan (Nathanial Boardman), Rainn Wilson (Larry White), Chris O'Neil (Noah Wilder), Rhiannon Leigh Wryn (Emma Wilder)
'A reasonably engaging movie filled with fun visual effects and an appealing tone reminiscent of a certain Spielberg movie about an out-of-his-element extraterrestrial.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter
'Kids will like Mimzy if for no other reason than it doesn't talk down to them.' – John Anderson, Variety † Director Shaye is the founder and CEO of New Line Cinema.

The Last Movie
US 1971 108m Technicolor
Universal
Moviemakers go to Peru to film a Western.
Muddled and pretentious melodrama following the success of Easy Rider.
w Stewart Stern d Dennis Hopper m Kris Kristofferson
☆ Dennis Hopper, Julie Adams, Peter Fonda, Kris Kristofferson, Rod Cameron, Daniel Ades, Michael Anderson Jnr, Sam Fuller

Last Night ★
Canada 1998 94m colour
Rhombus/CBC/La Seot Arte/Haut Et Court (Niv Fichman, Daniel Iron)
With the world ending at midnight, a man who decides to spend his last hours alone finds himself trying instead to help a stranded woman get home to her husband.
Genial comedy of the death of the world, which ends not with an apocalypse but a few hapless, genteel gestures of regret.
wd Don McKellar ph Douglas Koch m Alexina Louie, Alex Pauk pd John Dondertman ed Reginald Harkema
☆ Don McKellar (Patrick Wheeler), Sandrah Oh (Sandra), Callum Keith Rennie (Craig Zwiller), Sarah Polley (Jennifer Wheeler), Trent McMullen (Alex), David Cronenberg (Duncan), Robin Gammell (Mr Wheeler), Roberta Maxwell (Mrs Wheeler), Tracy Wright (Donna), Michael McMurtry (Menzies), Geneviève Bujold (Mrs Carlton)
'Bittersweet pic is funny, heart-wrenching and life-affirming. The modestly produced first feature has offbeat appeal.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

The Last of England
GB 1987 87m bw/colour
Blue Dolphin/Anglo International/British Screen/Channel 4/ZDF-Tartan Films (James Mackay, Don Boyd)
Impressionistic mix of home movies and images of urban disintegration.
Too personal to communicate much, even to a sympathetic audience.
d Derek Jarman ph Derek Jarman, Christopher Hughes, Cerith Wyn Evans, Richard Heslop m Simon Turner, Andy Gill, Mayo Thompson, Albert Oehlen, Barry Adamson, El Tito pd Christopher Hobbs ed Peter Cartwright, Angus Cook, Sally Yeadon, John Maybury ☆ Spring, John Phillips, Gay Gaynor, Gerrard McArthur, Matthew Hawkins, Tilda Swinton, Spencer Leigh

The Last of His Tribe
US 1992 90m CFI color
HBO Pictures/River City (John Levoff, Robert Lovenheim)
In the early 1900s a Californian anthropologist forms a friendship with Ishi, the last surviving Yahi Indian who still lives in the traditional way.
Well-meaning but dull re-telling of a fascinating true story.
w Stephen Harrigan d Harry Hook ph Martin Fuhrer m John E. Keane pd Michael Baugh ed Bill Yahraus
☆ Jon Voight, Graham Greene, David Ogden Stiers, Jack Blessing, Anne Archer
† The film was made for cable television in the States and released direct to video in Britain.

The Last of Mrs Cheyney
US 1929 94m bw
MGM
A confidence woman in British high society falls in love.
Old theatrical warhorse, much filmed but never very satisfactorily. (See below.)
w Hans Kraly, Claudine West play Frederick Lonsdale d Sidney Franklin ph William Daniels ☆ Norma Shearer, Basil Rathbone, George Barraud, Hedda Hopper, Maude Turner Gordon, Herbert Bunston
Hans Kraly

The Last of Mrs Cheyney
US 1937 98m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)
Adequate, unexciting remake.
w Leon Gordon, Samson Raphaelson, Monckton Hoffe d Richard Boleslawski ph George Folsey m William Axt
☆ Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery, William Powell, Frank Morgan, Jessie Ralph, Nigel Bruce, Benita Hume, Melville Cooper, Sara Haden
'Good film fodder, although not particularly socko.' – Variety
† A further remake was The Law and the Lady (qv).

'Any number can play; any number can die!'
The Last of Sheila ★
US 1973 123m Technicolor
Warner (Herbert Ross)
A Hollywood star is killed by a hit-and-run driver; a year later her husband invites six friends to his yacht, and murders begin.
Confused, in-jokey showbiz whodunnit with flashes of interest.
w Stephen Sondheim, Anthony Perkins d Herbert Ross ph Gerry Turpin m Billy Goldenberg ad Ken Adam ☆ Richard Benjamin, Dyan Cannon, James Coburn, James Mason, Joan Hackett, Ian MacShane, Raquel Welch
'The most teasing riddles for an audience are likely to be the real identities of the personalities being satirized.' – MFB

Last of the Bad Men
US 1957 79m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Allied Artists (Vincent M. Fennelly)
In the 1870s, a Chicago detective poses as a wanted man in order to infiltrate a gang of outlaws in Colorado.
A mediocre Western in which much of the narrative consists of a portentous voice-over in the documentary style of Dragnet, turning it into more of an illustrated lecture than a movie.
w Daniel B. Ullman, David Chantler d Paul Landres ph Ellsworth Fredricks m Paul Sawtell ad David Milton ed William Austin
☆ George Montgomery, James Best, Douglas Kennedy, Keith Larsen, Robert Foulk, Willis Bouchey, Michael Ansara

The Last of the Buccaneers
US 1950 79m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)
The story of Jean Lafitte, French privateer in the war of 1812.
Cheerful low-budget swashbuckler.
w Robert E. Kent d Lew Landers ph Vincent Farrar m Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Paul Henreid, Jack Oakie, Karin Booth, Edgar Barrier, Mary Anderson, John Dehner

The Last of the Comanches *

US 1953 85m Technicolor
Columbia (Buddy Adler)

GB title: The Sabre and the Arrow

Survivors of an Indian raid take refuge in an abandoned mission until help arrives.
Competent Western remake of Sahara (which was a remake of The Lost Patrol*).*
w Kenneth Gamet d André de Toth ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning ☆ Broderick Crawford, Barbara Hale, Lloyd Bridges, Martin Milner

'A Secret Lost In Time For Over 130 Years Is About To Be Discovered.'

Last of the Dogmen

US 1995 117m DeLuxe Panavision
Guild/Last of the Dogmen/Carolco/Savoy (Joel B. Michaels)

A bounty hunter, searching for escaped convicts, discovers instead a group of Cheyenne still following their old way of life in an isolated part of Montana.
Confused tale that aims for some spiritual meaning but misses, ending queasily as a celebration of noble savages.
wd Tab Murphy ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m David Arnold pd Trevor Williams ed Richard Halsey
☆ Tom Berenger, Barbara Hershey, Kurtwood Smith, Steve Reevis, Andrew Miller, Gregory Scott Cummins, Mark Boone Jnr

'Thick with implausibilities and sentimental twaddle, and even the breathtaking scenery of the Rockies cannot excuse it.' – George Perry

Last of the Fast Guns

US 1959 82m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Universal-International

Rival gunfighters form a friendship but fall out over their mission.
Mildly unusual Western programmer.
w David P. Harmon d George Sherman ph Alex Phillips ad Alexander Golitzen ☆ Gilbert Roland, Jock Mahoney, Linda Cristal, Eduard Franz, Lorne Greene, Carl Benton Reid

The Last of the Finest: see Blue Heat

'When School Ends ... And Life Begins.'

Last of the High Kings

Ireland/GB/Denmark 1996 104m colour
First Independent/Parallel/Northolme/Nordisk (Tim Palmer)

In the mid-70s, an Irish teenager enjoys an event-filled summer holiday in which he discovers sex.
Pleasant but very predictable family drama of the dawning of maturity, offering nothing that hasn't been seen many times before.
w David Keating, Gabriel Byrne novel Ferdia Mac Anna d David Keating ph Bernd Heinl m Michael Convertino pd Frank Conway ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Catherine O'Hara, Jared Leto, Christina Ricci, Gabriel Byrne, Stephen Rea, Colm Meaney

'Ambles along with a twinkle in its eye for most of the time.' – Variety

The Last of the Mohicans

US 1936 91m bw
Edward Small

Incidents during colonial America's French-Indian war.
Vigorous if rough-and-ready Western, later remade (poorly) as Last of the Redmen and as a Canadian TV series.
w Philip Dunne, John Balderston, Paul Perez, Daniel Moore novel James Fenimore Cooper d George B. Seitz ph Robert Planck m Roy Webb
☆ Randolph Scott, Binnie Barnes, Bruce Cabot, Henry Wilcoxon, Heather Angel, Hugh Buckler

The Last of the Mohicans *

US 1992 122m colour 'Scope
Warner/Morgan Creek (Michael Mann, Hunt Lowry)

The white, adopted son of an Indian rescues a British officer's two daughters from hostile Indians and falls in love with one of them.
An ambitious but flawed epic adventure: the characterization is as shallow as the photography, the action is repetitious, the narrative lacks suspense and the romance is unconvincing, with Cooper' s self-reliant woodsman here tamed into domesticity.
w Michael Mann, Christopher Crowe novel James Fenimore Cooper screenplay Philip Dunne d Michael Mann ph Dante Spinotti m Trevor Jones, Randy Edelman pd Wolf Kroeger ed Dov Hoenig, Arthur Schmidt
☆ Daniel Day-Lewis (Nathaniel Poe/Hawkeye), Madeleine Stowe (Cora Munro), Russell Means (Chingachgook), Eric Schweig (Uncas), Jodhi May (Alice Munro), Steven Waddington (Major Duncan Heyward), Wes Studi (Magua), Maurice Roeves (Colonel Munro), Patrice Chereau (General Montcalm)

'Whether it was because we were young or the movies were young or the world was at least youngish, old-fashioned Hollywood history was exhilarating. In retrospect there is something alarming about its simplicities and the enthusiasm we brought to it. It is the great virtue of this grandly scaled yet deliriously energetic movie that it reanimates that long-ago feeling without patronizing it – and without making us think we will wake up some day once again embarrassed by it.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Michael Mann has been aiming all along at two very different targets, trying to turn an adventure story into a responsible account of Native American life, while also making it lovey-dovey enough for the market place.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

sound
Dante Spinotti

Last of the Red Hot Lovers *

US 1972 98m Technicolor
Paramount (Howard W. Koch)

A middle-aged fish restaurateur feels the need for an extra-marital spree.
Modest, plainly-filmed sex comedy from a reliable stable.
w Neil Simon play Neil Simon d Gene Saks ph Victor J. Kemper m Neal Hefti ☆ Alan Arkin, Paula Prentiss, Sally Kellerman, Renée Taylor

Last of the Redmen

US 1947 78m Vitacolor
Sam Katzman/Columbia
GB title: Last of the Redskins

British soldiers escort a general's children through Indian country.
Tinpot rendition of The Last of the Mohicans.
w Herbert Dalmas, George H. Plympton d George Sherman
☆ Jon Hall, Michael O'Shea, Evelyn Ankers, Julie Bishop, Buster Crabbe

Last of the Secret Agents

US 1966 90m Technicolor
Paramount

Two odd job men are recruited as spies.
Pratfall comedy featuring a briefly existing comedy double act.
w Mel Tolkin d Norman Abbott
☆ Marty Allen, Steve Rossi, John Williams, Nancy Sinatra, Lou Jacobi, Theo Marcuse, Sig Rumann

Last Orders ***

GB/Germany 2001 110m DeLuxe
Metrodome/Winchester/MBP/Scala (Fred Schepisi, Elisabeth Robinson)

Three elderly Londoners look back on their lives and loves as they gather for a trip to the seaside to scatter the ashes of a mutual friend.
A deft, working-class remembrance of things past, a gently humorous, unsentimental account, tinged with melancholy, of the pleasures and pains of ordinary life; it gets excellent ensemble acting from its cast.
wd Fred Schepisi ph Brian Tufano m Paul Grabowsky pd Tim Harvey ed Kate Williams cos Jill Taylor
☆ Michael Caine (Jack), Bob Hoskins (Ray), Tom Courtenay (Vic), David Hemmings (Lenny), Ray Winstone (Vince), Helen Mirren (Amy), JJ Feild (Young Jack), Anatol Yusef (Young Ray), Cameron Fitch (Young Vic), Nolan Hemmings (Young Lenny), Kelly Reilly (Young Amy), Laura Morelli (June)

'A moving study of the pleasures and obligations of friendship.' – Philip French, Observer

'A subtly powerful drama that finally tells us that not only is death not the end, sometimes it makes for new beginnings.' – Kevin Courrier, Boxoffice

'Last Orders is low-grade plot engineering but is endurable because we wait for some revelation that will justify the mechanics. But nothing of the kind comes our way.' – Stanley Kaufmann

'Open war between a handful of English and swarming tribesmen! Hidden war between fellow-officers who love the same woman!'

The Last Outpost *

US 1935 75m bw
Paramount (E. Lloyd Sheldon)

A British officer is captured by the Kurds and freed by an adventurer whose wife he covets.
Patchy, unusual adventure story with good moments.
w Philip MacDonald story F. Britten Austin d Charles Barton, Louis Gasnier ph Theodor Sparkuhl ☆ Cary Grant, Claude Rains, Gertrude Michael, Kathleen Burke, Colin Tapley, Akim Tamiroff, Billy Bevan, Jameson Thomas

'Loosely-woven melodramatic mélange.' – Variety

'Half of it is remarkably good and half of it quite abysmally bad. One can even put one's finger on the joins.' – Graham Greene

The Last Outpost

US 1951 89m Technicolor
Paramount/Pine-Thomas

A Civil War colonel finds his brother fighting on the other side.
Routine historical action romance.
w Geoffrey Homes, G. Worthing Yates, Winston Miller d Lewis R. Foster ph Loyal Griggs m Lucien Cailliet
☆ Ronald Reagan, Bruce Bennett, Rhonda Fleming, Noah Beery Jnr

The Last Page

GB 1952 84m bw
Exclusive/Hammer-Lippert
US title: Manbait

A bookseller is framed for the death of a blackmailer.
Curious English mystery with American stars.
w Frederick Knott play James Hadley Chase d Terence Fisher ph Walter J. Harvey md Frank Spencer
☆ George Brent, Marguerite Chapman, Diana Dors, Raymond Huntley, Peter Reynolds, Eleanor Summerfield

The Last Parade

US 1931 82m bw
Columbia

A detective and a racketeer are buddies in the war, but not afterwards.
Predictable character melodrama with no remaining interest.
w Dorothy Howell, Casey Robinson d Erle C. Kenton
☆ Jack Holt, Constance Cummings, Tom Moore, Gaylord Pendleton

'In for money, but not that strong for a holdover.' – Variety

'Welcome to the island of California.'

The Last Patrol

US 1999 95m FotoKem
Kohan/Silverline/Dogwood

After an earthquake separates California from the mainland of America, an army captain tries to restore order among the mainly psychotic survivors.
Muddled action movie that tries too hard for pathos and neglects any engaging narrative.
w Stephen Brackley, Pamela K. Long d Sheldon Lettich ph David Gurfinkel m David Michael Frank pd Kuli Sander ed Martha Huntley, Isaac Sehayek ☆ Dolph Lundgren (Preston), Sherri Alexander (Sarah McBride), Joe Michael Burke (Lucky Simcoe), Rebecca Cross (Candy), Brook Susan Parker (Rainbow), Juliano Mer (Jesus Carrera), Chanan Elias (Simon Peace), Zeev Revach (Cooky)

The Last Picture Show ****

US 1971 118m bw
Columbia/LPS/BBS (Stephen J. Friedman)

Teenage affairs in a small Texas town in 1951, ending with the hero's embarkation for Korea and the closing of the tatty cinema.
Penetrating nostalgia with over-emphasis on sex; the detail is the attraction.
w Larry McMurtry, Peter Bogdanovich d Peter Bogdanovich ph Robert Surtees m original recordings pd Polly Platt ad Walter Scott Herndon ed Donn Cambern
☆ Timothy Bottoms (Sonny Crawford), Jeff Bridges (Duane Jackson), Cybill Shepherd (Jacy Farrow), Ben Johnson (Sam the Lion), Cloris Leachman (Ruth Popper), Ellen Burstyn (Lois Farrow)

'The most important work by a young American director since Citizen Kane.' – Paul D. Zimmerman

'So many things in it are so good that I wish I liked it more.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'Colour always had a tendency to prettify, and I didn't want that. I didn't want it to be a nostalgic piece.' – Peter Bogdanovich † Texasville (qv), a sequel featuring many of the same actors, was filmed by Bogdanovich in 1990.

†† Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include a documentary on the film and eight minutes of additional footage.

Ben Johnson; Cloris Leachman best picture; script; Peter Bogdanovich (as director); Robert Surtees; Jeff Bridges; Ellen Burstyn script; Ben Johnson; Cloris Leachman

The Last Posse

US 1953 73m bw
Columbia

Members of a thief-catching posse fall out on the way and return in disgrace.
Stumbling little Western, a poor return to the star after All the King's Men.
w Seymour and Connie Lee Bennett, Kenneth Gamet d Alfred Werker
☆ Broderick Crawford, John Derek, Wanda Hendrix, Charles Bickford

'A different kind of love story!'

The Last Remake of Beau Geste

US 1977 85m Technicolor
Universal (William S. Gilmore Jnr)

The Geste brothers find themselves in the Foreign Legion after the theft of the Blue Water sapphire.
Woebegone spoof of a romantic original, with most of the jokes totally irrelevant to the purpose and seldom at all funny.
w Marty Feldman, Chris J. Allen d Marty Feldman ph Gerry Fisher m John Morris ☆ Marty Feldman, Michael York, Ann-Margret, Peter Ustinov, Trevor Howard, James Earl Jones, Henry Gibson, Terry-Thomas, Roy Kinnear, Spike Milligan, Hugh Griffith, Irene Handl

'A ragbag of a film which looks like nothing so much as a Monty Python extravaganza in which inspiration has run dry and the comic timing gone sadly awry.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Last Resort ★★

GB 2000 73m colour
Artificial Eye/BBC (Ruth Caleb)

Jilted by her English fiancé, a young Russian women and her son seek political asylum and are sent to a seaside detention centre, where she finds work with a pornographer and is courted by a local man.
Small-scale but affecting drama, detailing the personal, rather than the political, effects of being stranded in a strange and unfriendly country given to a labyrinthine bureaucracy.
w Paul Pawlikowski, Rowan Joffe d Paul Pawlikowski ph Ryszard Lenczewski m Max de Wardener pd Tom Bowyer ed David Charrup ☆ Dina Korzun (Tanya), Artiom Strelnikov (Artiom), Paddy Considine (Alfie), Lindsey Honey (Les), Dave Bean (Frank), Perry Benson (Immigration officer), Adrian Scarborough (Council official)

'A slight but affectionately felt story, with loneliness at its heart, not asylum.' – Alexander Walker
'A bracing breath of fresh air for British cinema.' – Lizzie Franke, Sight and Sound

Last Rites

US 1988 103m DeLuxe
MGM (Donald P. Bellisario, Patrick McCormick)

A Catholic priest falls in love with a woman whom his gangster father wishes to kill.
Turgid thriller, slow-paced and uninteresting despite its hints of incest and emphasis on sex.
wd Donald P. Bellisario ph David Watkin m Bruce Broughton ed Pembroke J. Herring ☆ Tom Berenger, Daphne Zuniga, Chick Vennera, Anne Twomey, Paul Dooley, Dane Clark, Vassili Lambrinos

The Last Run

US 1971 92m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Carter de Haven)

An ex-Chicago gangster retired to a Portuguese fishing village undertakes one last fatal job.
Well-made, rather uninteresting downbeat melodrama.
w Alan Sharp d Richard Fleischer
ph Sven Nykvist m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ George C. Scott, Tony Musante, Trish Van Devere

The Last Safari

GB 1967 110m Technicolor
Paramount (Henry Hathaway)

A disillusioned white hunter takes on one last safari.
Dullsville adventure story with good animal photography redeeming some of the clichés.
w John Gay novel Gilligan's Last Elephant by Gerald Hanley d Henry Hathaway
ph Ted Moore m Johnny Dankworth
☆ Stewart Granger, Kaz Garas, Gabriella Licudi, Johnny Sekka, Liam Redmond, Eugene Deckers

The Last Samurai ★ ⑤

US 2003 154m Technicolor 'scope
Warner/Radar/Bedford Falls/Cruise-Wagner (Edward Zwick, Marshall Herskowvitz, Tom Cruise, Paula Wagner, Scott Kroopf, Tom Engelman)

In the 1870, an embittered drunken army captain switches sides after he is recruited to help train a Japanese army to put down a revolution led by a samurai.
Spectacular, egocentric epic that is concerned with the redemption of one man rather than any exploration of the culture it exploits for visual effect.
w John Logan, Marshall Herskovitz, Edward Zwick d Edward Zwick ph John Toll m Hans Zimmer pd Lilly Kilvert ed Steven Rosenblum, Victor du Bois cos Ngila Dickson
☆ Tom Cruise (Captain Nathan Algren), Ken Watanabe (Katsumoto), Timothy Spall (Zebulon Gant), Tony Goldwyn (Colonel Bagley), Hiroyuki Sanada (Ujio), Masato Harada (Omura), Koyuki (Taka), William Atherton (Winchester Rep)

'As rich in period and historical background as it is deficient in fresh dramatic and thematic ideas.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A masterclass not only in clarity of storytelling, economy of characterisation and dynamism of narrative, but also in the legitimate exposition of the heroic ideal.' – Will Lawrence, Empire
Ken Watanabe; art direction; costume design; sound

The Last Seduction ★★★

US 1994 110m CFI color
ITC (Jonathan Shestack)

A tough, manipulative New York woman leaves her husband, taking with her a million dollars he made on a drug deal.
Virtuoso revamping of the film noir genre, with a clever, tightly written, witty script, taut direction and a splendidly tart performance from Fiorentino.
w Steve Barancik d John Dahl ph Jeffrey Jur m Joseph Vitarelli pd Linda Pearl ad Dina Lipton ed Eric L. Beason
☆ Linda Fiorentino (Bridget Gregory), Peter Berg (Mike Swale), J. T. Walsh (Frank Griffith), Bill Nunn (Harlan), Bill Pullman (Clay Gregory)

'Funny, sexy and so intricately plotted that you are never quite sure what is going to happen next.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Erotically ravenous, exceptionally witty, and impressively knowledgeable about all the dirty deals and low maneuvers that keep a corrupt world going.' – David Denby, New York

'In the heart of a young woman lies a secret that divides a nation.'

The Last September

GB/France/Ireland 1999 103m colour
Matrix /Scala/IFB (Yvonne Thunder)

In 1920, the Anglo-Irish aristocracy enjoy a weekend party on a Cork estate, while an IRA gunman hides nearby.
Elegant but empty drama of the beginning of the Irish troubles.
w John Banville novel Elizabeth Bowen d Deborah Warner ph Slawomir Idziak m Zbigniew Preisner pd. Caroline Amies ed Kate Evans cos John Bright
☆ Maggie Smith (Lady Myra), Michael Gambon (Sir Richard Naylor), Jane Birkin (Francie Montmorency), Fiona Shaw (Marda Norton), Lambert Wilson (Hugo Montmorency), David Tennant (Capt Gerald Colthurst), Richard Roxburgh (Daventry), Keeley Hawes (Lois Farquar), Gary Lydon (Peter Connolly), Jonathan Slinger (Laurence Carstairs)

'A carefully fashioned but gloom-cloaked expression of familiar themes about a dying class of people during changing times.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Last Shot You Hear

GB 1970 90m bw
Lippert-TCF (Jack Parsons)

Lovers plot murder, but the scheme backfires.
Unassuming mystery programmer from a West End success.
w Tim Shields play The Sound of Murder by William Fairchild d Gordon Hessler ☆ Hugh Marlowe, Zena Walker, Patricia Haines, William Dysart, Thorley Walters

The Last Stage ★

Poland 1947 110m bw
Film Polski
original title: Ostatni Etap

Women suffer but one is finally rescued from the Nazi concentration camp at Auschwitz.
A dour, obsessive, horrifying record of human inhumanity, set in the actual camp and made by two former inmates.
w Wanda Jakubowska, Gerda Schneider d Wanda Jakubowska ph Borys Monastyrski m R. Palester
☆ Huguette Faget, W. Bartowna, T. Gorecka

The Last Starfighter ★

US 1984 101m Technicolor
Panavision
Lorimar/Universal (Gary Adelson, Edward O. Denault)

A teenage whiz at video games is abducted by the survivors of a distant planet who need his skills if they are to outwit their enemies.
A surprisingly pleasant variation on the Star Wars boom, with sharp and witty performances from two reliable character actors and some elegant gadgetry to offset the teenage mooning.
w Jonathan Betuel d Nick Castle ph King Baggot m Craig Safan pd Ron Cobb ed C. Timothy O'Meara
☆ Lance Guest, Robert Preston, Dan O'Herlihy, Catherine Mary Stewart, Barbara Bosson, Norman Snow

Last Summer ★

US 1969 97m Eastmancolor
Alsid/Francis (Alfred Crown, Sidney Beckerman)

Well-to-do teenagers have sexual adventures on a summer seaside holiday.
Striking off-beat melodrama with vividly sketched characters.
w Eleanor Perry novel Evan Hunter d Frank Perry ph Gerald Hirschfeld m John Simon ☆ Barbara Hershey, Richard Thomas, Bruce Davison, Cathy Burns, Ernesto Gonzales, Ralph Waite
Cathy Burns

The Last Summer in the Hamptons

US 1995 105m Technicolor
Revere/Rainbow/Jagtoria (Judith Wolinsky)

Family, friends and hangers-on gather for a final weekend at the home of an ageing Hollywood actress.
A tame comedy of theatrical chit-chat and tantrums, in which self-absorbed people fail to communicate with an audience.
w Henry Jaglom, Victoria Foyt d Henry Jaglom ph Hanania Baer ad Bruce Postman, Jeff Monte ed Henry Jaglom
☆ Victoria Foyt, Viveca Lindfors, Jon Robin Baitz, Savannah Boucher, Roscoe Lee Browne, André Gregory, Roddy McDowall, Martha Plimpton

'One has the uneasy feeling that Jaglom actually admires this pretentious, narcissistic circle of pseuds, which, of course, nullifies its satiric thrust.' – George Perry

The Last Sunset

US 1961 112m Eastmancolor
U-I (Brynaprod) (Eugene Frenke, Edward Lewis)

A killer and his hunter learn a lot about each other before the final showdown.
Slow psycho-Western with pretensions to tragedy.
w Dalton Trumbo novel Showdown at Crazy Horse by Howard Rigsby d Robert Aldrich ph Ernest Laszlo m Ernest Gold ☆ Rock Hudson, Kirk Douglas, Dorothy Malone, Carol Lynley, Joseph Cotten, Regis Toomey, Neville Brand

The Last Supper ★

Cuba 1976 125m colour
Cuban Film Institute (Santiago Llapin, Camilo Vives) original title: La Ultima Cena

In 18th-century Cuba, an aristocratic plantation owner attempts to get on better terms with his slaves.
Intermittently powerful, if overlong, political drama on the corruption of power and the acquiesence of the Church in the requirements of the State.
w Tomás Gonzalez, Maria Eugenia Haya, T. G. Alea d T. G. Alea ph Mario García Joya m Leo Brouwer ad Carlos Arditi ed Nelson Rodriguez
☆ Nelson Villagra, Silvano Rey, Luis Alberto García, José Antonio Rodriguez, Mario Balmaseda

'A laborious historical analogy, clumsy in the making and in implication, ineffectual esthetically and, for that matter, politically.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'Eat ... drink ... and be buried...'

The Last Supper

US 1996 100m CFI color
Electric/Vault (Matt Cooper, Larry Weinberg)

A group of graduate students, who share a house, invite illiberal people to dinner and poison them.
A slight black comedy that skirts around the matter of the end justifying the means, but which fails to develop its theme in an interesting way.
w Dan Rosen d Stacy Title ph Paul Cameron m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Linda Burton ed Luis Colina
☆ Annabeth Gish, Cameron Diaz, Jonathan Penner, Courtney B. Vance, Ron Eldard, Jason Alexander, Nora Dunn, Charles Durning, Bryn Erin, Mark Harmon, Bill Paxton, Ron Perlman

'It may be too clever for immediate cultdom – it would make a great stage play, which means there's little showy film business – but it's one of those films you'll remember.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Last Tango in Paris ★★★

France/Italy/US 1972 129m Technicolor
Les Artistes Associés/PEA/UA (Alberto Grimaldi)

A middle-aged man and a young French girl have a doomed love affair.
A revelatory film in which both Marlon Brando and Maria Schneider improvised their roles. Brando indulged in what seemed to be autobiographical reminiscences, and later thought the film was a violation of his inner self. That provides an extra level of fascination to a cool examination of how power shifts from one partner to another in a sexual relationship.
w Bernardo Bertolucci, Franco Arcalli d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro m Gato Barbieri ad Ferdinando Scarfiotti ed Franco Arcalli, Roberto Perpignani ☆ Marlon Brando (Paul), Maria Schneider (Jeanne), Jean-Pierre Léaud (Tom), Massimo Girotti (Marcel), Veronica Lazare (Rosa), Maria Michi (Rosa's mother), Gitt Magrini (Jeanne's mother)

'An intense meditation on the realization of mortality.' – Sight and Sound
'The most powerfully erotic movie ever made.' – Pauline Kael

Bernardo Bertolucci (as director); Marlon Brando

The Last Temptation of Christ*

US/Canada 1988 163m Technicolor
Universal/Cineplex Odeon (Harry Ufland)

On the cross, Jesus dreams of escaping his destiny and living the life of an ordinary man.
Beautifully shot and strikingly acted, but wordy and too long; pre-release notoriety muffled consideration of the film's intentions.
w Paul Schrader novel Nikos Kazantzakis d Martin Scorsese ph Michael Ballhaus m Peter Gabriel pd John Beard ed Thelma Schoonmaker
☆ Willem Dafoe (Jesus), Harvey Keitel (Judus), Barbara Hershey (Mary Magdalene), Harry Dean Stanton (Paul), David Bowie (Pontius Pilate), Verna Bloom (Mary, mother of Jesus), Andre Gregory (John the Baptist), Juliette Caton, Roberts Blossom, Irvin Kershner

'A film of challenging ideas and not salacious provocations.' – Variety

Martin Scorsese

The Last Thrill: see Female Vampire

The Last Time I Committed Suicide

US 1997 92m colour/bw
Feature Film/Kushner-Locke/Tapestry (Edward Bates, Louise Rosner)

Beat writer Neal Cassady loses his girlfriend and his chance of employment.
Meandering tale of minimal interest, totally dependent on an audience's knowledge that Cassady was said to be the inspiration behind Jack Kerouac's novel On the Road.
wd Stephen Kay letter Neal Cassady ph Bobby Bukowski pd Amy Ancona ed Dorian Harris
☆ Thomas Jane, Keanu Reeves, Adrien Brody, Joe Doe, Claire Forlani, Marg Helgenberger, Gretchen Mol, Tom Bower (uncredited)

'If, halfway through you feel you can't take any more, it's not because it's immoral or chauvinist, it's because it's boring.' – Gaby Wood, Guardian

The Last Time I Saw Archie

US 1961 98m bw
UA/Mark VII/Manzanita/Talbot (Jack Webb)

Adventures of a con man amid overage civilian pilots at an army/air force base.
Patchy service comedy.
w William Bowers d Jack Webb ph Joe MacDonald m Frank Comstock ☆ Jack Webb, Robert Mitchum, Martha Hyer, France Nuyen, Louis Nye, Jimmy Lydon, Richard Arlen, Don Knotts, Robert Strauss, Joe Flynn

The Last Time I Saw Paris

US 1954 116m Technicolor
MGM (Jack Cummings)

A writer recalls his romance with a wealthy American girl in Paris.
Dull romantic drama which very deadeningly and predictably updates F. Scott Fitzgerald's Babylon Revisited.
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein, Richard Brooks d Richard Brooks ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Conrad Salinger
☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Van Johnson, Walter Pidgeon, Donna Reed, Eva Gabor

Last Train (dubbed)

France/Italy 1973 100m Eastmancolor/bw Panavision
Lira/Capitolina (Raymond Danon) original title: Le Train

In 1941, on a train fleeing from the Germans, a Frenchman becomes separated from his pregnant wife and young daughter and begins an affair with a German Jewish refugee.
Somewhat glum romance, set against a background of war and casual death, with a downbeat ending.
w Pascal Jardin, Pierre Granier-Deferre novel Georges Simenon d Pierre Granier-Deferre ph Walter Wottitz m Philippe Sarde ad Jacques Saulnier ed Jean Ravel ☆ Jean-Louis Trintignant, Romy Schneider, Maurice Biraud, Regine, Serge Marquand, Anne Wiazemsky, Nike Arrighi

Last Train from Gun Hill ★

US 1959 98m Technicolor Vistavision (Paramount)

A marshal tracks down the man who raped and murdered his wife; it turns out to be the son of an old friend.
Good suspense and action Western culminating in a High Noon situation.
w James Poe story Les Crutchfield d John Sturges ph Charles Lang Jnr m Dimitri Tiomkin ☆ Kirk Douglas, Anthony Quinn, Earl Holliman, Carolyn Jones, Brian Hutton

'Flaming love drama set against the background of Spain's Civil War!'

The Last Train from Madrid

US 1937 85m bw
Paramount (George M. Arthur)

A variety of people escape the fighting in the Spanish Civil War.
Tawdry topical melodrama with cliché characters and situations.
w Louis Stevens, Robert Wyler d James Hogan ph Harry Fischbeck md Boris Morros
☆ Dorothy Lamour, Lew Ayres, Gilbert Roland, Karen Morley, Lionel Atwill, Helen Mack, Robert Cummings, Olympe Bradna, Anthony Quinn, Lee Bowman, George Lloyd

'It is probably the worst film of the decade and should have been the funniest.' – Graham Greene
'Simply a topical and different background for a glib little fiction.' – Frank S. Nugent

The Last Tycoon

US 1976 124m Technicolor
Paramount/Academy/Sam Spiegel

The production head of a Hollywood studio in the thirties has his troubles complicated when he falls in love with a girl who reminds him of his dead wife.
Astonishingly inept and boring big budget all-star melodrama which doesn't even begin promisingly (the scenes from supposed thirties films are woefully inaccurate in style); it then bogs down in interminable dialogue scenes, leaving its famous cast all at sea.
w Harold Pinter novel F. Scott Fitzgerald d Elia Kazan ph Victor Kemper m Maurice Jarre pd Eugene F. Callahan
☆ Robert DeNiro, Robert Mitchum, Tony Curtis, Jeanne Moreau, Jack Nicholson, Ingrid Boulting, Donald Pleasence, Ray Milland, Dana Andrews, John Carradine

'So enervated it's like a vampire movie after the vampires have left.' – New Yorker
'That the result is incoherent is no surprise; that it is so hollow and visually graceless adds a kind of wonder to the disappointment.' – Sight and Sound
'The breathless reverence that informs the movie kills it stone dead.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'It seems to me that Kazan and Pinter have failed disastrously, but then perhaps the task is impossible anyway.' – Benny Green, Punch

The Last Valley

GB 1970 128m Eastmancolor Todd-AO
ABC/Season/Seamaster (James Clavell)

In 1641 during the Thirty Years War a scholar tries to defend a remote and prosperous Swiss valley against a horde of mercenaries.
Big-scale historical action picture crammed with pillage, torture, rape, death at the stake, throat cutting and general carnage; reasonably literate for all that, and convincingly set.
wd James Clavell novel J. B. Pick ph Norman Warwick m John Barry ad Peter Mullins
☆ Michael Caine, Omar Sharif, Florinda Bolkan, Nigel Davenport, Per Oscarsson, Arthur O'Connell, Brian Blessed

The Last Voyage ★

US 1960 91m Metrocolor
MGM/Andrew and Virginia Stone

A boiler room explosion causes an old passenger liner to sink.
Spectacular if dramatically deficient actioner for which a genuine liner (awaiting scrapping) was sunk.
wd Andrew L. Stone ph Hal Mohr m Rudy Schrager
☆ Robert Stack, Dorothy Malone, Edmond O'Brien, George Sanders, Woody Strode, Jack Kruschen

'A prolonged nerve stretcher.' – MFB

'They pitted the fire of their youth against the flame of the frontier – when America was moving west!'

The Last Wagon

US 1956 99m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (William B. Hawks)

A half-breed wanted for murder joins an 1875 wagon train.
Heavy-going big-scale Western.
w James Edward Grant, Delmer Daves, Gwen Bagni d Delmer Daves ph Wilfrid Cline m Lionel Newman
☆ Richard Widmark, Felicia Farr, Tommy Rettig, Susan Kohner, Ray Stricklyn, Nick Adams, Carl Benton Reid

The Last Waltz ★★★

US 1978 115m DeLuxe
UA/Martin Scorsese, Jonathan Taplin (Robbie Robertson)

Documentary featuring the last concert of the rock group The Band at the Winterland, San Francisco, on Thanksgiving Day, 1976, after 16 years on the road.
Perhaps the best movie so far of a rock concert, one that also features many of the most influential performers of the era, together with some brief but revealing interviews with the band members.
d Martin Scorsese ph Michael Chapman, Laszlo Kovacs, Vilmos Zsigmond, David Myers, Bobby Byrne, Michael Watkins, Hiro Narita pd Boris Leven ed Yeu-Bun Yee, Jan Roblee
☆ Robbie Robertson, Rick Danko, Richard Manuel, Levon Helm, Garth Hudson, Eric Clapton, Neil Diamond, Bob Dylan, Joni Mitchell, Neil Young, Emmylou Harris, Ringo Starr, Paul Butterfield, Dr John, Van Morrison and also Ronnie Hawkins, The Staples, Muddy Waters, Ron Wood

The Last Warning ★

US 1929 88m bw
Universal

Murder backstage.
Shot as a silent film, with sound hurriedly added, this remains a stylish comedy-thriller with all the familiar ingredients of the whodunnit.
w Alfred A. Cohn d Paul Leni ph Hal Mohr ☆ Laura La Plante, Montagu Love, Roy D'Arcy, John Boles, Mack Swain, Slim Summerville, Margaret Livingston † Remade in 1938 as The House of Fear, a William Gargan second feature.

The Last Warning

US 1938 62m bw
Universal (Irving Starr)

A private eye mystery.
Better-than-average second feature.
w Edmund L. Hartmann novel The Dead Don't Care by Jonathan Latimer d Albert S. Rogell

☆ Preston Foster, Joyce Compton, Frank Jenks

The Last Warrior: see Flap

The Last Wave ★

Australia 1977 106m Atlab (UA)

During a spell of freak weather, a lawyer has recurrent dreams which give him the key to an Aborigine prophecy about the world being destroyed by flood...

Curious supernatural drama successfully played as a mystery, with excellent atmosphere and special effects.

w Peter Weir, Tony Morphett, Petru Popescu d Peter Weir ph Russell Boyd m Charles Wain pd Goran Warff

☆ Richard Chamberlain, Olivia Hamnet, Frederick Parslow

'A Hitchcockian sense of minatory dislocation.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

The Last Winter

Canada 1989 103m colour
Telefilm Canada/CIDO/Rode/John Aaron/NFBC (Jack Clements, Ken Rodeck)

A young boy is upset to discover that his father is planning to move the family from their farm to work in the city.

Pleasant, nostalgic, forgettable drama of childhood, with too little action and too much talk to interest the young.

wd Aaron Kim Johnston ph Ian Elkin m Victor Davies pd Perri Gorrara ed Lara Mazur

☆ Gerard Parkes, David Ferry, Wanda Cannon, Marsha Moreau, Nathaniel Moreau, Katie Murray, Joshua Murray

The Last Word

US 1979 105m colour
Variety International Pictures

An Irish inventor by wily stratagems prevents the demolition of the apartment block he occupies.

Oddly old-fashioned comedy drama of little obvious appeal.

w Michael Varhol, Greg Smith, Kit Carson d Roy Boulting

☆ Richard Harris, Karen Black, Martin Landau, Biff McGuire, Dennis Christopher

Last Year at Marienbad ★★★

France/Italy 1961 94m bw Dyaliscope
Terra/Tamara/Cormoran/Precitel/Como/Argos/Cinetel/Silver/Cineriz (Raymond Froment)

original title: L'Année Dernière à Marienbad

In a vast old-fashioned hotel, a man meets a woman who may or may not have had an affair with him the previous year in Marienbad – or was it Frederiksbad?

A dreamy, elegant film which presents a puzzle with no solution. It has its attractions for film buffs and cryptogram addicts, but is not for anyone who simply wants to be told a story.

w Alain Robbe-Grillet d Alain Resnais ph Sacha Vierny m Francis Seyrig ad Jacques Saulnier ed Jasmine Chasney, Henri Colpi

☆ Delphine Seyrig (A/Woman), Giorgio Albertazzi (X/Stranger), Sacha Pitoeff (M/Escort/Husband)

'Elaborate, ponderous and meaningless.' – Newsweek

'Clearly the film's creators know exactly what they want to do and have done it with complete success. Whether one responds to the result is entirely a matter of temperament.' – John Russell Taylor, MFB

Alain Robbe-Grillet

The Last Yellow

GB/Germany 1999 94m colour
Capitol/Scala/Hollywood Partners/Arts Council/BBC (Jolyon Symonds)

A dim-witted youth pays £500 to an overweight fantasist to go to London to kill the thug who left his brother brain-damaged.

Low-key, small-scale drama of two losers unable to deal with life's little difficulties; it looks misplaced on the big screen.

w Paul Tucker play Paul Tucker d Julian Farino ph David Odd m Adrian Johnston pd John Paul Kelly ed Pia di Ciaula

☆ Mark Addy (Frank), Charlie Creed-Miles (Kenny), Samantha Morton (Jackie), Kenneth Cranham (Len), Alan Atherall (Donut)

'Well-made, but unremarkable and depressingly unappealing at times.' – Nick Briggs, Film Review

Late August, Early September

France 1999 111m colour
Artificial Eye/Dacia/Cinéa (Georges Benayoun, Philippe Carcassonne)

original title: Fin Août, Début Septembre

A dying writer influences the lives of a close-knit group of friends.

Restless drama of changing partners and emotional crises that is so intensely focused as to exclude spectators.

wd Olivier Assayas ph Denis Lenoir pd François-Renaud Labarthe ed Luc Barnier

☆ Mathieu Amalric (Gabriel Deshayes), Virginie Ledoyen (Anne Rosenwald), François Cluzet (Adrien Willer), Jeanne Balibar (Jenny), Alex Descas (Jérémie), Arsinée Khanjian (Lucie), Nathalie Richard (Maryelle Deshayes), Mia Hanson-Love (Vera)

'I understand Assayas's wish is to lower daily reality to the point of ordinariness. I think he's lowered it to the point of dullness.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

The Late Edwina Black ★

GB 1951 78m bw
IFD/Elvey-Gartside (Ernest Gartside)

US title: Obsessed

When a schoolteacher's wife is found dead, the police have three suspects.

Adequately suspenseful Victorian thriller from a successful play.

w Charles Frank, David Evans play William Dinner, William Morum d Maurice Elvey ph Stephen Dade m Allan Gray

☆ Geraldine Fitzgerald, David Farrar, Roland Culver, Jean Cadell, Mary Merrall, Harcourt Williams, Charles Heslop, Ronald Adam

'Tomorrow wasn't just another day.'

Late for Dinner

US 1991 93m DeLuxe
First Independent/New Line/Castle Rock (Dan Lupovitz, W. D. Richter)

After being unwittingly frozen for 19 years, a man and his retarded brother-in-law wake up to discover that the world has moved on to 1991.

Rip van Winkle without a twinkle.

w Mark Andrus d W. D. Richter ph Peter Sova m David Mansfield pd Lilly Kilvert ed Richard Chew, Robert Leighton

☆ Brian Wimmer, Peter Berg, Marcia Gay Harden, Peter Gallagher, Colleen Flynn, Kyle Secor, Michael Beach

The Late George Apley ★

US 1946 96m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)

The uneventful family life of a Boston blueblood.

Pleasant but tame family comedy-drama, solidly carpentered.

w Philip Dunne novel John P. Marquand d Joseph L. Mankiewicz ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Ronald Colman, Edna Best, Vanessa Brown, Richard Haydn, Peggy Cummins, Charles Russell

Late Marriage: see Hatuna Meuheret

'Let's not go to work.'

Late Night Shopping

GB/Germany 2001 91m DeLuxe
FilmFour/GFO/Scottish Screen/NLF//Senator/Ideal (Angus Lamont)

Four friends, who work on the night shift in dead-end jobs, try to improve their love-lives.

Slight, pawky comedy that outstays its welcome.

w Jack Lothian d Saul Metzstein ph Brian Tufano m Alex Heffes pd Mike Gunn ed Justine Wright

☆ Luke de Woolfson (Sean), James Lance (Vincent), Kate Ashfield (Jody), Enzo Cilenti (Lenny), Heike Makatsch (Madeline Zozzocolovich), Shauna MacDonald (Gail), Sienna Guillory (Susie), Laurie Ventry (Joe)

'A wonderfully out-there slacker comedy that's as tight as a drum in script, direction and performances.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Late Show ★

US 1977 93m Metrocolor
Warner (Robert Altman)

An ageing private eye in Los Angeles finds that his ex-partner's death and a lost cat have a complex connection.

A more-or-less engaging spoof of, or perhaps a valediction to, the private eye genre, with engaging scenes marred by poor colour and occasional excesses of violent action.

wd Robert Benton ph Chuck Rosher m Ken Wannberg ed Lou Lombardo, Peter Appleton

☆ Art Carney, Lily Tomlin, Bill Macy, Ruth Nelson, Howard Duff, Joanna Cassidy, Eugene Roche

'On its own terms, it's perfectly executed. The squalid settings stink of decay; the spare pacing captures the tough style of Hammett prose; and the stylized use of blood puts some sting into murder.' – Frank Rich, New York Post

Robert Benton (for script)

Late Spring ★★★

Japan 1949 108m bw Shochiku

original title: Banshun

A widower announces his intention of re-marrying in order to persuade his daughter to marry and leave home.

One of Ozu's best films, a study in domestic discord and the acceptance of whatever life has to offer.

w Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda novel Kazuo Hirotsu d Yasujiro Ozu ph Yuharu Atsuta m Senji Ito ad Tatsuo Hamada ed Yoshiyasu Hamamura

☆ Chishu Ryu (Shukichi), Setsuko Hara (Noriko), Haruko Sugimura (Masa Taguchi), Yumeji Tsukioka (Aya Kitagawa), Jun Osami (Shuichi Hattori), Masao Mishima (Jo Onodera)

The Late Twentieth

GB 2003 76m colour
Timeless (Hadi Hajaig)

After seeing his girlfriend murdered, a man goes mad and becomes a vigilante, killing wrongdoers.

Confused but stylish low-budget thriller whose main purpose is to draw attention to the talents of its producer-writer-director-editor.

wd Hadi Hajaig ph Peter Ellmore m Simon Lambros ad Josh Grace, Kate Piper ed Hadi Hajaig

☆ John Webber (Ali), Justin Allder (Tom), Sam Loggin (Jane), Hannah Watkins (Emma), Camilla Heaney (Margaret)

'Notable for very little apart from that it contains the most improbably evil movie character in history.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Latin Lovers

US 1953 104m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

An heiress on holiday in Brazil looks for a man who will love her for herself alone.

Barren romantic drama, flatfooted and drawn out.

w Isobel Lennart d Mervyn Le Roy ph Joseph Ruttenberg m George Stoll

☆ Lana Turner, Ricardo Montalban, John Lund, Louis Calhern, Jean Hagen Latin Quarter ★

GB 1945 80m bw
British National (Louis H. Jackson, Derrick de Marney)

US title: Frenzy

In 1890s Paris a mad sculptor murders his fiancée and hides her inside his latest exhibit.

Artificial-looking but melodramatically effective thriller with a chilling climax and a detailed Degas-period background.

wd Vernon Sewell play L'Angoisse by Pierre Mills, Charles Vylars ph Gunther Krampf

☆ Derrick de Marney, Joan Greenwood, Beresford Egan, Frederick Valk, Lily Kann, Martin Miller

Laugh and Get Rich

US 1931 72m bw
RKO (William Le Baron)

A man invests his wife's money in a tyre with a whistling valve.

Inconsequential comedy with ancient jokes.

w Ralph Spence, Gregory La Cava d Gregory La Cava ph Jack MacKenzie ad Max Ree

☆ Hugh Herbert, Edna May Oliver, Dorothy Lee, Robert Emmett Keane

'Entertainment for the willing.' – Variety

Laugh with Max Linder ★★

France 1963 88m bw
Films Max Linder

original title: En Compagnie de Max Linder

Excerpts from three of the dapper comedian's most famous American comedies: Be My Wife (1921), The Three Must-Get-Theres (1922), Seven Years' Bad Luck (1923).

A compilation which must serve as a consensus of this almost forgotten comedian's work. The gag with a broken mirror in particular was borrowed by innumerable other comedians, notably the Marx Brothers in Duck Soup. Audiences new to Linder's work will find him not especially sympathetic but capable of many felicities. He wrote, produced and directed all three films.

compiler Maud Max Linder

Laughing Anne

GB 1953 90m Technicolor
Republic/Wilcox-Neagle

French Anne and her boxing lover are characters of the Javanese waterfront; he kills her after she has fallen for a sea captain.
Cheap and turgid adaptation of a Joseph Conrad story; the author would not recognize it. Studio settings put the lid on hilariously bad work all round.
w Pamela Bower d Herbert Wilcox
ph Max Greene m Anthony Collins
☆ Margaret Lockwood, Forrest Tucker, Ronald Shiner, Wendell Corey, Robert Harris

Laughing at Trouble

US 1937 60m bw
Max Golden/TCF

A small town newspaper editress untangles personal problems.
Acceptable second feature which almost became a series.
w Robert Ellis and Helen Logan d Frank R. Strayer ☆ Jane Darwell, Sara Haden, Lois Wilson, Margaret Hamilton, Allan Lane, John Carradine Laughing Gravy ★★★★

US 1931 20m bw
Hal Roach

Stan and Ollie retrieve their dog when the landlord throws it out into the snow.
One of the most endearing comedies of these stars, and one of the simplest.
w H. M. Walker d James W. Horne ph Art Lloyd ed Richard Currier ☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Charlie Hall, Harry Bernard

The Laughing Lady

GB 1946 93m Technicolor
Louis H. Jackson/British National

During the French revolution, an artist under sentence is required to steal an English lady's pearls.
Heavy-going operetta with the sense that all concerned have bitten off more than they can chew.
w Jack Whittingham play Ingram d'Abbes d Paul Stein ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Hans May ch Eileen Baker ad R. Holmes Paul ed Alan Osbiston
☆ Anne Ziegler (Denise), Webster Booth (Andre), Peter Graves (Prince of Wales), Felix Aylmer (Sir Felix Mountroyal), Francis L. Sullivan (Sir William Tremayne), Paul Dupuis (Pierre), Ralph Truman (Lord Mandeville), Chili Bouchier (Louise), Charles Goldner (Robespierre), Anthony Nicholls (Mr Pitt)

'Eight people know who the killer is – and they're all dead!'

The Laughing Policeman ★

US 1973 112m DeLuxe
TCF (Stuart Rosenberg)

GB title: An Investigation of Murder
A mad machine-gunner eludes the San Francisco police.
Downbeat, semi-documentary police thriller with pretensions. Too complex by half, with an overplus of characterization, but the location work is excellent.
w Thomas Rickman novel Maj Sjowall, Per Wahloo d Stuart Rosenberg ph David Walsh m Charles Fox
☆ Walter Matthau, Bruce Dern, Lou Gossett, Albert Paulsen, Anthony Zerbe

Laughing Sinners

US 1931 71m bw
MGM

A girl with a past joins the Salvation Army.
Glum romance which however started an effective star combination.
w Bess Meredyth and Martin Flavin
d Harry Beaumont
☆ Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Neil Hamilton, Marjorie Rambeau, Guy Kibbee Laughter ★★

US 1930 99m bw
Paramount (Herman J. Mankiewicz)

An ex-Follies girl marries a millionaire but later goes on a spree with the composer she once loved.
Sharply observed, before its time romantic comedy reminiscent now of the later Philadelphia Story in its attitudes to wealth and love. A precursor of the smart crazy comedies of the mid-thirties.
w Donald Ogden Stewart d Harry d'Abbadie d'Arrast ph George Folsey ☆ Fredric March, Nancy Carroll, Frank Morgan, Glenn Anders, Diane Ellis
'One of the best talking pictures I have ever seen.' – James Agate
'A talkie with so fast a pace that it crowds the comprehension of half the customers . . marked at intervals by superb dialogue and the quick hand of a smart director.' – Pare Lorentz
'A lovely sophisticated comedy.' – New Yorker, 1977
original story (Donald Ogden Stewart, Harry d'Abbadie d'Arrast, Douglas Doty)

Laughter in Paradise ★

GB 1951 93m bw
Transocean (Mario Zampi)

An eccentric leaves in his will a fortune for each of his relations providing they will perform certain embarrassing or criminal acts.
A funny idea gets half-hearted treatment, but the good bits are hilarious.
w Michael Pertwee, Jack Davies d Mario Zampi ph William McLeod m Stanley Black ☆ Alastair Sim, Joyce Grenfell, Hugh Griffith, Fay Compton, John Laurie, George Cole, Guy Middleton, Ronald Adam, Leslie Dwyer, A. E. Matthews, Beatrice Campbell † Remade 1972 as Some Will, Some Won't.

Laughter in the Dark ★

GB/France 1969 104m DeLuxe
UA/Woodfall/Winkast/Marceau (Neil Hartley)

A wealthy art dealer is taken in by an ambitious usherette and her lover, and after being blinded in a car accident tries to kill them.
Unsatisfactory adaptation of a novel with a very specialized appeal: conventional swinging London and Riviera settings only confuse the spectator. Moments do work, though.
w Edward Bond novel Vladimir Nabokov d Tony Richardson ph Dick Bush m Raymond Leppard ad Julia Trevelyan Oman ☆ Nicol Williamson, Anna Karina, Jean-Claude Drouot, Peter Bowles, Sian Phillips
'It fails to create the slightest interest in its trio of repulsive characters.' – Philip Strick

Laughterhouse ★

GB 1984 93m colour
Greenpoint/Film Four International (Ann Scott)
aka: Singleton's Pluck

A Norfolk farmer decides to walk his fattened geese to market.
An attempt to revive the tradition of Ealing comedy lands up somewhere on the wrong side of Group Three. Not enough plot, almost no jokes, and the geese are almost the only pleasant creatures.
w Brian Glover d Richard Eyre ph Clive Tickner m Dominic Muldowney ☆ Ian Holm, Penelope Wilton, Bill Owen, Richard Hope, Stephen Moore, Rosemary Martin Laura ★★★

US 1944 85m bw
TCF (Otto Preminger)

A beautiful girl is murdered ... or is she? A cynical detective investigates.
A quiet, streamlined little murder mystery that brought a new adult approach to the genre and heralded the mature film noir of the later forties. A small cast responds perfectly to a classically spare script, and in Clifton Webb a new star was born.
w Jay Dratler, Samuel Hoffenstein, Betty Reinhardt novel Vera Caspary d Otto Preminger ph Joseph LaShelle m David Raksin ad Lyle Wheeler, Leland Fuller ed Louis Loeffler
☆ Dana Andrews (Mark McPherson), Clifton Webb (Waldo Lydecker), Gene Tierney (Laura Hunt), Judith Anderson (Ann Treadwell), Vincent Price (Shelby Carpenter), Dorothy Adams (Bessie Clary), James Flavin (McAvity)
WALDO LYDECKER (CLIFTON WEBB): 'It's lavish, but I call it home.'
WALDO: 'I shall never forget the weekend Laura died. A silver sun burned through the sky like a huge magnifying glass. It was the hottest Sunday in my recollection. I felt as if I were the only human being left in New York ... I had just begun Laura's story when another of those detectives came to see me. I had him wait.'
WALDO: 'In my case, self-absorption is completely justified. I have never discovered any other subject quite so worthy of my attention.'
'Everybody's favourite chic murder mystery.' – New Yorker, 1977
† Rouben Mamoulian directed some scenes before handing over to Preminger.
Joseph LaShelle
script; Otto Preminger; Clifton Webb; art direction

Laurel and Hardy in Toyland: see Babes in Toyland (1934)

The Laurel and Hardy Murder Case

US 1930 30m bw
Hal Roach

Heirs to a fortune are menaced by a mad murderer.
Empty spoof on The Cat and the Canary which affords little scope.
w H. M. Walker d James Parrott
ph George Stevens, Walter Lundin
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Fred Kelsey, Del Henderson, Dorothy Granger, Frank Austin, Tiny Sandford

Laurel and Hardy's Laughing Twenties ★★

US 1965 90m bw
MGM/Robert Youngson

Excerpts from lesser comedians of the period – Max Davidson, Charlie Chase – are interspersed with highlights from Laurel and Hardy's silent two-reelers.
A hilarious and craftsmanlike compilation, perhaps a little too long for its own good.
m Skeets Alquist w/ed Robert Youngson commentator Jay Jackson † Films extracted include Putting Pants on Philip, From Soup to Nuts, Wrong Again, The Finishing Touch, Liberty, Double Whoopee, Leave 'Em Laughing, You're Darn Tooting and the custard pie climax from The Battle of the Century.

'On the road to the perfect life, Sam & Alex took a little detour.'

Laurel Canyon

US 2002 103m FotoKem
Columbia TriStar/Good MachineAntidote (Susan A. Stover, Jeffrey Levy-Hinte)

A doctor and his fiancée go to stay with his mother, a swinging rock record producer who is having an affair with the young lead singer of the British group she is recording.
A generational clash between a middle-aged leather-clad hippie and her conservative son degenerates into standard soap opera fare.
wd Lisa Cholodenko ph Wally Pfister m Craig Wedren m/ly Mark Linkus pd Catherine Hardwicke ed Amy E. Duddleston
☆ Frances McDormand (Jane), Christian Bale (Sam), Kate Beckinsale (Alex), Natascha McElhone (Sara), Alessandro Nivola (Ian)
'Not a successful movie – it's too stilted and pre-programmed to come alive.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Laurin (dubbed)

Germany 1985 80m colour
Salinas/TS-Film/Dialog/Südwestfunk (Bernhardt Stampfer, Andreas Bareiss)

In a small village, a young girl outwits a child murderer.
Confused attempt at a spooky narrative: its length and the great many loose ends suggest it has been heavily cut. All that remains is a little queasy atmosphere.
w Robert Sigl, Adam Rozgonyi d Robert Sigl ph Nyika Jancso m Jacques Zwart, Hans Jansen ed Teri Losonci
☆ Dora Szinetar, Brigitte Karner, Karoly Eperjes, Hedi Temessy

'Two men. One mission. Twice the mess...'

Lava

GB 2001 100m Soho Images
Winchester/Walking Point/Sterling (Michael Riley, Gregor Truter)

A drifter offers to help a friend take revenge on the man who beat his brother and left him brain-damaged.
Odd, edgy, black comedy that promises more than it delivers.
wd Joe Tucker ph Ian Liggett m Simon Fisher-Turner pd Philip Robinson ed St John O'Rorke
☆ Joe Tucker (Smiggy), James Holmes (Philip), Nicola Stapleton (Julie), Tameka Empson (Maxine), Johann Myers (Curtis), Dennis Titus (Claude), Grahame Fox (Darrel), Mark Leadbetter (Neville), Tom Bell (Eric), Leslie Grantham (Mr Aladdin)
'A profane and uncompromising comedy, several shades darker than the majority of recent British movies.' – Ryan Gilbey, Sight and Sound
† It has a virtually identical plot to the 1999 movie, The Last Yellow (qv), which was scripted by Paul Tucker, brother of Joe Tucker.

The Lavender Hill Mob ★★★★

GB 1951 78m bw
Ealing (Michael Truman)

A timid bank clerk conceives and executes a bullion robbery.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Superbly characterized and inventively detailed comedy, one of the best ever made at Ealing or in Britain.
w T. E. B. Clarke d Charles Crichton ph Douglas Slocombe m Georges Auric ad William Kellner ed Seth Holt
☆ Alec Guinness (Henry Holland), Stanley Holloway (Pendlebury), Sidney James (Lackery), Alfie Bass (Shorty), Marjorie Fielding (Mrs. Chalk), Edie Martin (Miss Evesham), John Gregson (Farrow), Gibb McLaughlin (Godwin), Sydney Tafler (Clayton), Audrey Hepburn (Chiquita)
'Amusing situations and dialogue are well paced and sustained throughout: the climax is delightful.' – MFB
'An outrageous comedy, of course, but the observations of detail and character are so true, the sense of a familiar place so sharp, that few will resent the gusto with which the outrage is perpetrated.' – C. A. Lejeune † Region 2 DVD release is available only as part of a four film set, Ealing Comedy Classics.
T. E. B. Clarke
Alec Guinness
British film

The Law: see Where the Hot Wind Blows

Law and Disorder: see Spies of the Air (1939)

Law and Disorder ★
GB 1958 76m bw
British Lion/Hotspur (Paul Soskin)
Crooks rally round a confederate about to be arrested, to prevent his son from learning of his father's real career.
Amusing, well-pointed caper on sub-Ealing lines.
w T. E. B. Clarke novel Smuggler's Circuit by Denys Roberts d Charles Crichton ph Ted Scaife m Humphrey Searle
☆ Michael Redgrave, Robert Morley, Joan Hickson, Lionel Jeffries, Ronald Squire, Elizabeth Sellars

Law and Disorder ★
US 1974 102m Technicolor Panavision
Memorial/Leroy Street/Ugo Fadsin (William Richert)
New York suburbanites aghast at escalating violence form themselves into a vigilante patrol.
Bewilderingly uneven comedy drama which starts as satirical comedy and ends with one of the heroes dead and the other moralizing. Sporadically interesting, and certainly topical.
w Ivan Passer, William Richert, Kenneth Harris Fishman d Ivan Passer ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Andy Badale
☆ Ernest Borgnine, Carroll O'Connor, Karen Black, Ann Wedgeworth, Leslie Ackerman, David Spielberg

The Law and Jake Wade ★
US 1958 86m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (William Hawks)
A marshal helps an old outlaw friend to escape from jail, and lives to regret it.
Good standard Western, enjoyable throughout but with no outstanding merits.
w William Bowers novel Marvin H. Albert d John Sturges ph Robert Surtees ad William Horning, Daniel B. Cathcart ed Ferris Webster
☆ Robert Taylor (Jake Wade), Richard Widmark (Clint Hollister), Patricia Owens (Peggy Carter), Robert Middleton (Ortero), Henry Silva (Rennie), De Forest Kelley (Wexler), Burt Douglas (Lieutenant), Eddie Firestone (Burke)

Law and Order ★
US 1932 80m bw
Universal
A cowboy becomes marshal and cleans up Tombstone.
Drily effective fictionalization of Wyatt Earp's exploits, with a good star performance.
w John Huston story Saint Johnson by W. R. Burnett d Edward L. Cahn ph Jackson Rose ed Milton Carruth
☆ Walter Huston, Harry Carey, Raymond Hatton, Russell Simpson, Russell Hopton

Law and Order
US 1953 80m Technicolor
Universal-International
Curious belated sequel to the above with Johnson moving on to tame Cottonwood; actual presentation rather dull.
w John and Gwen Bagni, D. D. Beauchamp story Saint Johnson by W.R. Burnett d Nathan Juran ph Clifford Stine ad Robert Clatworthy, Alexander Golitzen ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Ronald Reagan, Dorothy Malone, Preston Foster, Alex Nicol, Russell Johnson, Ruth Hampton, Barry Kelley, Dennis Weaver

The Law and the Lady
US 1951 104m bw
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)
A couple of confidence tricksters inveigle themselves into the house of a vulgar millionairess, but one of them has an attack of conscience.
Dreary remake of The Last of Mrs Cheyney (qv) with the locale altered, the plot simplified, and the level of wit diluted.
w Leonard Spigelgass, Karl Tunberg d Edwin H. Knopf ph George Folsey m Carmen Dragon ☆ Greer Garson, Michael Wilding, Fernando Lamas, Marjorie Main, Hayden Rorke, Margalo Gillmore, Ralph Dumke

Law of Desire ★
Spain 1987 101m colour
Other Cinema/El Deseo/Laurenfilm (Ester Garcia)
original title: La Ley del Deseo
A glamorous homosexual film director is pursued by a male would-be lover while sharing his apartment with his former brother, who has undergone a sex change, and her transvestite lover's daughter.
Delirious, stylish mix of sex and passion, though many may regard it as too camp and overdone.
wd Pedro Almodóvar ph Angel Luis Fernandez pd Javier Fernandez ed Jose Salcedo ☆ Eusebio Poncela, Carmen Maura, Antonio Banderas, Miguel Molina, Manuela Velasco, Bibi Andersen, Fernando Guillen
'Almodovar's tone is not like anyone else's; the film has the exaggerated plot of an absurdist Hollywood romance ... The film is festive. It doesn't disguise its narcissism; it turns it into bright-coloured tragi-comedy.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

The Law of the Lawless
US 1963 87m Techniscope
Paramount/A. C. Lyles
A judge arrives in a small Western town to conduct the murder trial of a former friend.
Jaded Western of interest only for the producer's custom of packing the bit roles with former stars.
w Steve Fisher d William F. Claxton ph Lester Shorr ☆ Dale Robertson, Yvonne de Carlo, William Bendix, Bruce Cabot, Barton MacLane, John Agar, Richard Arlen, Kent Taylor, Lon Chaney Jnr

Law of the Tropics
US 1941 76m bw
Warner (Ben Stoloff)
A café singer on the run from a murder charge marries a South American rubber plantation owner.
Hackneyed melodrama born from a mating of Oil for the Lamps of China and Tropic Zone.
w Charles Grayson d Ray Enright ph Sid Hickox m Howard Jackson ☆ Constance Bennett, Jeffrey Lynn, Regis Toomey, Mona Maris, Frank Puglia, Thomas Jackson, Craig Stevens

'Out of the most exciting pages of frontier history!'

The Law Versus Billy the Kid
US 1954 73m Technicolor
Sam Katzman/Columbia
Billy the Kid is driven into crime to avenge a friend.
Technicolor seems wasted on this two-bit Western which can't even manage to tell a clear story.
w John T. Williams d William Castle
☆ Scott Brady, Betta St John, James Griffith, Alan Hale Jnr, Paul Cavanagh

The Lawless
US 1949 83m bw
Paramount/Pine-Thomas
GB title: The Dividing Line
The editor of a California small-town newspaper defends a Spanish boy who is being victimized by the racist element.
Well-meaning 'realistic' melodrama, unfortunately among the dullest of the socially conscious movies of this period.
w Geoffrey Homes d Joseph Losey ph Roy Hunt m Mahlon Merrick
☆ Macdonald Carey, Gail Russell, John Sands, John Hoyt, Lee Patrick, Lalo Rios

The Lawless Breed
US 1952 83m Technicolor
U-I (William Alland)
The adventures and repentance of badman John Wesley Hardin.
Standard Western programmer with the star in an unlikely role.
w Bernard Gordon d Raoul Walsh ph Irving Glassberg m Joseph Gershenson ☆ Rock Hudson, Julie Adams, John McIntire, Dennis Weaver, Hugh O'Brian

The Lawless Frontier
US 1934 53m bw
Lone Star/Malvern
A cowboy comes to the rescue when a ruthless renegade takes a fancy to a gold prospector's granddaughter.
Rudimentary Western with stilted, melodramatic acting and not much action other than a couple of examples of Canutt's stunt riding.
wd Robert North Bradbury ph Archie Stout ad E. R. Hickson ed Charles Hunt
☆ John Wayne, Sheila Terry, Jack Rockwell, George Hayes, Buffalo Bill Jnr, Yakima Canutt, Earl Dwire

'We think we live in a rational world... then we screw it up.'

Lawless Heart ★
GB 2001 100m colour
Optimum/IoMFC/British Screen/FC/October (Martin Pope)
Lives and relationships of old friends intertwine and overlap after they are reunited at the funeral of a gay restaurateur.
A film that revisits the same events three times, as seen from the varying viewpoints of the people involved; the method loses its interest the second time around.
wd Neil Hunter, Tom Hunsinger ph Sean Bobbit m Adrian Johnston pd Lynne Whiteread ed Scott Thomas
☆ Douglas Henshall (Tim), Tom Hollander (Nick), Bill Nighy (Dan), Clementine Celarie (Corinne), Josephine Butler (Leah), Ellie Haddington (Judy), Stuart Laing (David), Sukie Smith (Charlie)
'A thoughtful, funny and melancholic meditation on the notion that all hearts are lawless and out of control when under emotional stress.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'A consistently witty and heartfelt portrait of contemporary British lives.' – John Mount, Sight and Sound

A Lawless Street
US 1955 78m Technicolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)
A marshal marries a dance hall entertainer, and loses interest in his job when she leaves him.
Enjoyable minor Western.
w Kenneth Gamet novel Marshal of Medicine Bend by Brad Ward d Joseph H. Lewis ph Ray Rennahan m Paul Sawtell
☆ Randolph Scott, Angela Lansbury, Warner Anderson, Jean Parker, Wallace Ford, John Emery, James Bell, Ruth Donnelly, Michael Pate, Jeanette Nolan, Don Megowan

Lawman ★
US 1970 99m Technicolor
UA/Scimitar (Michael Winner)
When a marshal tracks down drunken cowboys who have killed an old man, the townsfolk's resistance leads to a bloodbath.
Terse, violent Western with a good cast.
w Gerald Wilson d Michael Winner ph Bob Paynter m Jerry Fielding ☆ Burt Lancaster, Robert Ryan, Lee J. Cobb, Sheree North, Robert Duvall, Joseph Wiseman, John McGiver, Albert Salmi, J. D. Cannon

'Innocence is a dangerous friend.'

Lawn Dogs ★★ (7)
GB 1997 101m Rank Colour
Carlton/Rank/Toledo (Duncan Kenworthy)
A young girl, whose parents live in a secure community behind protected gates, forms a friendship with the tough youth who cuts the grass.
A fable, both charming and dark, of the dangers of civilizing the environment.
w Naomi Wallace d John Duigan ph Elliot Davis pd John Myhre ed Humphrey Dixon ☆ Sam Rockwell, Christopher McDonald, Kathleen Quinlan, Bruce McGill, Mischa Barton, David Barry Gray
'A true and compelling portrait of a so-called "secure community" which proves instead to be imprisoned by its own paranoia. A gem.' – Mark Steyn, Spectator

'God Made Him Simple. Science Made Him A God.'

The Lawnmower Man ★
GB/US 1992 108m DeLuxe
First Independent/Allied Vision/Lane Pringle/Fuji Eight (Gimel Everett) aka: Stephen King's The Lawnmower Man
A doctor experiments with drugs and computer technology to improve the mind of his retarded gardener, with startling and unforeseen results.

Some impressive special effects, simulating 'virtual reality' – a computer-created world – enliven an otherwise drab and predictable science fiction movie.
w Brett Leonard, Gimel Everett story Stephen King d Brett Leonard ph Russell Carpenter m Dan Wyman pd Alex McDowell ed Alan Baumgarten sp Angel Studios, Xaos Inc.
☆ Jeff Fahey, Pierce Brosnan, Jenny Wright, Geoffrey Lewis, Mark Bringleson, Jeremy Slate, Dean Norris
'It all works surprisingly well, with interesting and well-integrated visual effects, some nice humour and a few genuinely visionary effects.' – Kim Newman, Empire
† Stephen King was granted an injunction forbidding the film's producers from using his name in connection with the film.
†† A director's cut of the film was also released on video with a running time of 142m.

Lawnmower Man 2: Beyond Cyberspace

US 1995 92m colour Panavision
First Independent/Allied Entertainments/Fuji Eight (Edward Simons, Keith Fox)
A legless former imbecile attempts to create the city of the future in cyberspace, where he can control the world.
An incoherent and incompetent fantasy aimed at the young.
wd Farhad Mann ph Ward Russell m Robert Folk pd Ernest Roth ed Peter Berger, Joel Goodman sp Cinesite
☆ Patrick Bergin, Matt Frewer, Austin O'Brien, Ely Pouget, Camille Cooper, Kevin Conway, Patrick La Breque, Crystal Celeste Grant
'Stumbles from one unconnected moment to the next unexciting one.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

Lawrence of Arabia ★★★★

GB 1962 221m Technicolor Super Panavision 70
Columbia/Horizon (Sam Spiegel)
An adventurer's life with the Arabs, told in flashbacks after his accidental death in the thirties.
Sprawling epic which manages after four hours to give no insight whatever into the complexities of character of this mysterious historic figure, but is often spectacularly beautiful and exciting along the way.
w Robert Bolt, Michael Wilson book The Seven Pillars of Wisdom by T.E. Lawrence d David Lean ph Frederick A. Young m Maurice Jarre pd John Box ad John Stoll ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Peter O'Toole (T.E. Lawrence), Omar Sharif (Sherif Ali Ibn El Kharish), Arthur Kennedy (Jackson Bentley), Jack Hawkins (Gen Allenby), Donald Wolfit (Gen Murray), Claude Rains (Mr Dryden), Anthony Quayle (Col Harry Brighton), Alec Guinness (Prince Feisal), Anthony Quinn (Auda Abu Tayi), José Ferrer (Turkish Bey), Michel Ray (Ferraj), Zia Mohyeddin (Tafas)
'Grandeur of conception is not up to grandeur of setting.' – Penelope Houston
'Lean has managed to market epics as serious entertainment rather than as the spectacles they are.' – Time Out, 1980
† Marlon Brando was originally announced as the star, but backed out. Albert Finney turned down the role before O'Toole was offered it.
†† Michael Wilson was uncredited at the time for his work on the script because he had been blacklisted.
best picture; David Lean; Frederick A. Young; Maurice Jarre
Robert Bolt; Peter O'Toole; Omar Sharif best picture; best British picture; Robert Bolt; Peter O'Toole

Laws of Gravity ★

US 1992 98m colour
Oasis/The Shooting Gallery (Bob Gosse, Larry Meistrich)
In Brooklyn, friendship between two young, petty crooks is strained when they become involved with a gangster who is trying to sell guns.
Down-beat drama of losers, effectively filmed and acted in a documentary style although it does cover familiar territory.
wd Nick Gomez ph Jean de Segonzac m Douglas Cuomo pd Monica Bretherton ed Tom McArdle
☆ Peter Greene, Edie Falco, Adam Trese, Arabella Field, Paul Schulze, Saul Stein, James McCauley 'Reasonably acted with some funny, protracted conversations.' – Empire

The Lawyer ★

US 1970 120m Technicolor
Paramount (Brad Dexter)
An ambitious young Italian-American defence lawyer takes on a murder case.
Smartly scripted, perfectly ordinary courtroom drama in a well-detailed Western setting. The star subsequently played the same character in a TV series, Petrocelli.
w Sidney J. Furie, Harold Buchman d Sidney J. Furie ph Ralph Woolsey m Malcolm Dodds ☆ Barry Newman, Harold Gould, Diana Muldaur, Robert Colbert, Kathleen Crowley, Booth Colman

Lawyer Man

US 1932 68m bw
Warner
An honest lawyer becomes corrupted by success.
Smart, cynical melodrama, dated but sufficiently fast-paced to remain interesting.
w Rian James, James Seymour novel Max Trell d William Dieterle ph Robert Kurrle ☆ William Powell, Joan Blondell, Helen Vinson, Alan Dinehart, Allen Jenkins, David Landau, Claire Dodd
'Good picture in the lawyer cycle.' – Variety

Laxdale Hall

GB 1952 77m bw
Group Three (Alfred Shaughnessy)
US title: Scotch on the Rocks
MPs are sent to investigate a tiny Hebridean island which refuses to pay road tax.
Thin rehash of Whisky Galore put together without the Ealing style. Minor compensations can be found.
w John Eldridge, Alfred Shaughnessy d John Eldridge ph Arthur Grant m Frank Spencer
☆ Raymond Huntley, Ronald Squire, Sebastian Shaw, Fulton Mackay, Kathleen Ryan, Kynaston Reeves 'Constantly amusing in its quiet and wry fashion.' – Cinema

Layer Cake ★ (7)

US/GB 2004 105m colour 'Scope
Columbia/Marv Films (Matthew Vaughn, Adam Bohling, David Reid)
Plans to retire by a young, middle-class drug dealer, who takes no risks, go awry when his powerful supplier asks him to carry out a simple task.
Enjoyable fantasy of criminal life in a bright, neatly-plotted thriller; it is much concerned with the pecking order within the criminal world as various gangs jockey for prime position by attempting to outwit and out shoot one another.
w J.J. Connolly novel J.J. Connolly d Matthew Vaughn ph Ben Davis m Lisa Gerrard, Ilan Eshkeri pd Kave Quinn ed Jon Davis
☆ Daniel Craig (XXXX), Colm Meaney (Gene), Kenneth Cranham (Jimmy Price), George Harris (Morty), Jamie Foreman (Duke), Michael Gambon (Eddie Temple), Ben Whishaw (Sidney), Sally Hawkins (Slasher), Sienna Miller (Tammy), Jason Flemyng (Larry)
'Sinks a convincing borehole through London's new criminal order, and Vaughn films the various layers with a restraint and style that have been miserably lacking in this genre for the best part of a decade.' – James Christopher, Times
'A treat – especially if your taste in desserts is devil's food.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Lazy Bones: see Hallelujah I'm a Bum

Le Deluge: see After We're Gone

Le Mans ★

US 1971 108m DeLuxe Panavision
Solar/Cinema Center (Jack N. Reddish)
A sullen American enters for the 24-hour race.
Almost no plot and little documentary examination; what's left is a multitude of racing shots with Steve McQueen at the wheel. For some this may be enough.
w Harry Kleiner d Lee H. Katzin ph Robert B. Hauser, René Gruissart Jnr m Michel Legrand
☆ Steve McQueen, Siegfried Rauch, Elga Anderson, Ronald Leigh-Hunt

Le Temps Qui Reste: see Time to Leave

Leadbelly ★

US 1976 126m Eastmancolor
CIC/Brownstone/David Paradine (Marc Merson)
Biopic of the tough folk and blues singer and guitarist Huddie Ledbetter, concentrating on his earlier years and his times in chain gangs.
Pleasing, if stolid, account of a fascinating performer who sang his way out of prison.
w Ernest Kinoy d Gordon Parks ph Bruce Surtees m Fred Karlin m/ly Huddie Ledbetter pd Robert Boyle ed Harry Howard ☆ Roger E. Mosley, Paul Benjamin, Madge Sinclair, Alan Manson, Albert P. Hall, Art Evans, James E. Brodhead, John Henry Faulk
'Little more than the traditional biopic molasses.' – MFB † Leadbelly's songs are sung by HiTide Harris.

'Indecent. Immoral. Irresistible. It's the role he was born to play.'

The Leading Man

GB 1996 99m Metrocolor
Guild/J&M (Bertil Ohlsson, Paul Raphael)
An English playwright permits his star, a Hollywood actor, to seduce his wife so that he can continue his affair with his play's leading actress.
Drab domestic drama of cultural differences, treated like a soap opera.
w Virginia Duigan d John Duigan ph Jean-François Robin m Edward Shearmur pd Caroline Hanania ed Humphrey Dixon ☆ Jon Bon Jovi, Lambert Wilson, Anna Galiena, Thandie Newton, Barry Humphries, David Warner, Patricia Hodge, Diana Quick, Harriet Walter
'It's all predictable, artificial and long past its sell-by date.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'An Adventure in a League of Its Own.'

The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen (5)

US/Germany 2003 110m colour
TCF/Mediastream III (Don Murphy, Trevor Albert)
Heroes of Victorian literature team up to prevent a villain from destroying Venice and the world.
Dull, loud and empty nonsense, seemingly aimed at an audience of non-readers.
w James Dale Robinson comic books Alan Moore, Kevin O'Neill d Stephen Norrington ph Dan Laustsen m Trevor Jones pd Carol Spier ed Paul Rubell sp creature fx: Steve Johnson's Edge FX
☆ Sean Connery (Allan Quatermain), Shane West (Tom Sawyer), Stuart Townsend (Dorian Gray), Richard Roxburgh (M), Peta Wilson (Mina Harker), Tony Curran (Rodney Skinner), Jason Flemyng (Henry Jekyll/Edward Hyde), Naseeruddin Shah (Captain Nemo), David Hemmings (Nigel), Max Ryan (Dante)
'Has the sweat stains of wasted energy; it's dreary, yet frantic.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'Plunges into incomprehensible action, idiotic dialogue, inexplicable motivations, causes without effects, effects without causes, and general lunacy. What a mess.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
† The movie was budgeted at around $80m and took $66.5m at the US box office.

League of Frightened Men

US 1937 71m bw
Columbia
Nero Wolfe solves another murder case from his armchair.
Fair dectective story, but a negation of film.
w Eugene Solow, Guy Endore novel Rex Stout d Alfred E. Green
☆ Walter Connolly, Lionel Stander, Eduardo Ciannelli, Irene Hervey, Victor Kilian, Nana Bryant
'Hardly any audience likes to watch a character who just sits and thinks.' – Variety

The League of Gentlemen ★★★

GB 1960 112m bw
Rank/Allied Film Makers (Michael Relph)
An ex-army officer recruits high-class misfits with guilty secrets to help him in a bank robbery.
Delightfully handled comedy adventure, from the days (alas) when crime did not pay; a lighter ending would have made it a classic.
w Bryan Forbes novel John Boland d Basil Dearden ph Arthur Ibbetson m Philip Green ad Peter Proud ed John D. Guthridge
☆ Jack Hawkins (Hyde), Richard Attenborough (Edward Lexy), Roger Livesey (Mycroft), Nigel Patrick (Peter Graham Race), Bryan Forbes (Martin Porthill), Kieron Moore (Stevens), Terence Alexander (Rupert Rutland-Smith), Norman Bird (Frank Weaver), Robert Coote (Bunny Warren), Melissa Stribling (Peggy), Nanette

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Newman (Elizabeth), Gerald Harper (Capt. Saunders), Patrick Wymark (Wylie), David Lodge (C.S.M.), Doris Hare (Molly Weaver) and also Lydia Sherwood

'Are you local?'

League of Gentlemen's Apocalypse ★★

GB/US 2005 91m colour
UIP/Universal Pictures/FilmFour/Tiger Aspect/Hell's Kitchen

Inhabitants of a fictional town invade the real world to insist their writers keep them alive.

Haphazard transfer of a surreal TV sitcom to the big screen; instead of remaining in their hometown of Royston Vasey, the group venture into our world and a film within a film, where David Warner steals the show as a villain in the Vincent Price manner.

w Jeremy Dyson, Mark Gatiss, Steve Pemberton, Reece Shearsmith d Steve Bendelack ph Rob Kitzmann m Joby Talbot pd Richard Bridgland ed Tony Cranstoun

☆ Mark Gatiss (Matthew Chinnery/Hilary Briss/Mickey/Mark/Sir Nicholas Sheet-Lightning), Steve Pemberton (Tubbs/Pauline/Herr Lipp/Steve/Lemuel Blizzard), Reece Shearsmith (Edward/Papa Lazarou/Geoff Tipps/Bernice/Reece/Father Halfhearte/Red Devil), David Warner (Dr Erasmus Pea), Michael Sheen (Jeremy Dyson), Bernard Hill (King William III), Victoria Wood (Queen Mary II)

'Chaotic and almost insanely self-indulgent.' – Guardian

'Once in a lifetime you get a chance to do something different.'

A League of Their Own ★

US 1992 128m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Parkway

During the Second World War, women are recruited to play in an all-female baseball league.

A comedy that trundles along in a predictable fashion, settling for sentimentality rather than humour.

w Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel story Kim Wilson, Kelly Candaele d Penny Marshall ph Miroslav Ondricek m Hans Zimmer pd Bill Groom ed George Bowers

☆ Tom Hanks, Geena Davis, Madonna, Lori Petty, Jon Lovitz, David Strathairn, Garry Marshall, Bill Pullman, Megan Cavanagh, Tracy Reiner, Rosie O'Donnell, Ann Cusack

'This movie aims for the tear ducts and the funny bone as ruthlessly as the summer's big action-fantasy hits go after the viscera. It unfolds in field-of-dreams land – complete with cornstalks.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker

'Awash in sentimentality and manic energy but only occasionally bubbling over with high humor.' – Variety

Lean on Me

US 1989 108m Technicolor
Warner (Norman Twain)

A stern teacher tames the pupils at New Jersey's toughest school.

Given its subject matter, a surprisingly soft-centred drama, based on a true story.

w Michael Schiffer, Douglas Seelig d John G. Avildsen ph Victor Hammer m Bill Conti pd Doug Kraner ed John Carter, John G. Avildsen

☆ Morgan Freeman, Beverly Todd, Robert Guillaume, Alan North, Lynne Thigpen, Robin Bartlett, Ethan Phillips

Leap of Faith

US 1992 108m colour
Paramount (Michael Manheim, David V. Picker)

A fraudulent preacher works a miracle.

Unsatisfactory drama that begins as an exposé of cheapjack evangelists and their tricks and ends as something even more exploitative and crass.

w Janus Cercone d Richard Pearce ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Cliff Eidelman pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Don Zimmerman, Mark Warner, John F. Burnett

☆ Steve Martin, Debra Winger, Lolita Davidovich, Liam Neeson, Lukas Haas, Meat Loaf

'One finds oneself just thanking God the movie's ended.' – Film Review

The Learning Tree ★

US 1969 107m Technicolor Panavision
Warner

A black youth comes to maturity in Kansas, as he experiences the good and the bad in the society around him.

Despite its semi-autobiographical nature, the prevailing tone is nostalgic and almost elegiac; the past, despite its racism, is recollected with affection.

wd Gordon Parks novel Gordon Parks ph Burnett Guffey m Gordon Parks ad Ed Engoron ed George R. Rohrs

☆ Kyle Johnson, Alex Clarke, Estelle Evans, Dana Elcar, Mita Waters, Joel Fluellen, Malcolm Atterbury, James Rushing

Lease of Life ★

GB 1954 94m Eastmancolor
Ealing (Jack Rix)

A poor clergyman is given a year to live, and puts it to good use.

Somewhat depressing but well-acted drama with excellent village atmosphere.

w Eric Ambler d Charles Frend ph Douglas Slocombe m Alan Rawsthorne

☆ Robert Donat, Kay Walsh, Adrienne Corri, Denholm Elliott

The Leather Boys ★

GB 1963 108m bw Cinemascope
British Lion/Garrick (Raymond Stross)

Two working-class teenagers marry for sex; she becomes a drudge and he develops a relationship with a homosexual motorcyclist.

Sharply-observed slice of low life which now seems quite dated, the central figures no longer being of the 'heroic' interest given them at the time. Technically the film is tediously and fashionably flashy.

w Gillian Freeman novel Elliot George d Sidney J. Furie ph Gerald Gibbs m Bill McGuffie

☆ Rita Tushingham, Dudley Sutton, Colin Campbell, Gladys Henson

The Leather Saint

US 1955 86m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Norman Retchin)

To provide his parish hospital with medical equipment, a Catholic priest becomes a commercial prizefighter.

Unlikely piece of religiosity, not too badly done.

w Norman Retchin, Alvin Ganzer d Alvin Ganzer ph Haskell Boggs md Irvin Talbot

☆ Paul Douglas, John Derek, Cesar Romero, Ernest Truex, Jody Lawrance

Leathernecking

US 1930 80m bw (colour sequence)
RKO (Louis Sarecky)
GB title: Present Arms

A Honolulu socialite falls for a marine, but grows cool when she discovers that he is a private and not an officer as he pretended.

Curiously cast, spasmodically funny non-musical version of a Rodgers and Hart Broadway hit.

w Alfred Jackson, Jane Murfin play Present Arms by Herbert Fields, Rodgers and Hart d Edward F. Cline ph J. Roy Hunt m Oscar Levant

☆ Irene Dunne, Ken Murray, Eddie Foy Jnr, Louise Fazenda, Ned Sparks, Lilyan Tashman

'Weak medley of horseplay and romantic musical, and both poor.' – Variety

Leave All Fair ★

New Zealand 1984 88m colour
Pacific Films (John O'Shea)

At the end of his life, John Middleton Murry recalls his relationship with his first wife, the writer Katherine Mansfield.

Intelligent and ambivalent drama, leaving open the question of whether Murry was the betrayer or saviour of his wife's reputation.

w Stanley Harper, Maurice Pons, Jean Betts, John Reid d John Reid ph Bernard Lutic m Stephen McCurdy ad Joe Bleakley ed Ian John

☆ John Gielgud, Jane Birkin, Feodor Atkine, Simon Ward

Leave 'Em Laughing ★

US 1928 20m bw silent
Hal Roach

Stan has toothache, visits the dentist, and accidentally causes all concerned to inhale an overdose of laughing gas.

The earlier sequences are only mildly funny, but the laughing finale is irresistible.

w Hal Roach, Reed Heustis d Clyde Bruckman ph George Stevens ed Richard Currier supervisor Leo McCarey

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Edgar Kennedy, Charlie Hall

'The sum total of all human emotion!'

Leave Her to Heaven

US 1946 111m Technicolor
TCF (William A. Bacher)

A selfish, jealous woman causes unhappiness for those around her, even in her suicide.

No-holds-barred melodrama of the old school; what seemed lush production at the time now looks tatty.

w Jo Swerling novel Ben Ames Williams d John M. Stahl ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Maurice Ransford

☆ Gene Tierney, Cornel Wilde, Jeanne Crain, Vincent Price, Mary Philips, Ray Collins, Gene Lockhart, Reed Hadley, Chill Wills

'The story's central idea might be plausible enough in a dramatically lighted black and white picture ... but in the rich glare of Technicolor, all its rental library characteristics are doubly glaring.' – James Agee

Leon Shamroy
Gene Tierney; art direction

'The Beav is back.'

Leave It to Beaver

US 1997 88m DeLuxe
Universal (Robert Simmonds)

Two young brothers in an all-American family overcome the problems in their lives.

Those never exposed to the nostalgic TV sitcom of minor domestic happenings are likely to find this deadening entertainment; those who were may come to the same conclusion.

w Brian Levant and Lon Diamond TV serial Bob Mosher and Joe Connelly d Andy Cardiff ph Thomas Del Ruth m Randy Edelman pd Perry Andelin Blake

☆ Christopher McDonald, Janine Turner, Cameron Finley, Erik von Detten, Adam Zolotin, Barbara Billingsley, Ken Osmond, Erika Christensen

'Mildly subversive touches are separated by long stretches of unremarkable tedium.' – Variety

† Barbara Billingsley and Ken Osmond both appeared in the original TV sitcom, which ran from 1957 to 1963.

The Leavenworth Case

US 1935 66m bw
Republic

Police investigate the murder of a wealthy man.

Sluggish transcription of what claims to be the first American detective story.

w Albert DeMond, Sidney Sutherland novel Anna Katherine Green

☆ Donald Cook, Jean Rouverol, Norman Foster, Erin O'Brien-Moore, Maude Eburne, Warren Hymer

'Just another detective meller.' – Variety

Leaves from Satan's Book ★

Denmark 1919 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Nordisk

Episodes from the activities of Satan through the ages: with Christ, the Inquisition, the French Revolution and the Russian Revolution.

Vaguely propagandist short-story compilation with effective moments.

w Edgar Hoyer, Carl Dreyer novel The Sorrows of Satan by Marie Corelli d Carl Dreyer ph George Schneevoigt

Leaving Las Vegas ★★

US 1995 112m Foto-Kem
Entertainment/Initial (Lila Cazes, Annie Stewart)

An alcoholic writer goes to Las Vegas to drink himself to death and meets a prostitute who invites him to live with her.

A tragic drama that leaves unexplained the self-destructive motives of its protagonists; at times Cage's performance recalls James Stewart's in Harvey, and Shue's kindly tart amid the Vegas glitz seems as much an alcoholic's fantasy as a large white rabbit. The movie's emotional force is undercut by the maudlin ballads that swell on the soundtrack at climactic moments.

wd Mike Figgis novel John O'Brien ph Declan Quinn m Mike Figgis pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed John Smith

☆ Nicolas Cage, Elisabeth Shue, Julian Sands, Richard Lewis, Valeria Golino, Graham Beckel, Laurie Metcalf, Lou Rawls, Carey Lowell

'Although the movie is terribly, crushingly sad, its honesty is invigorating: it names its poison and downs it, neat.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

'Jazzy, soulfully florid fairy tale – as affecting and sublimely irresponsible as its doomed protagonist.' – J. Hoberman, Premiere † Author John O'Brien committed suicide just before the film went into production.

Nicolas Cage

Elisabeth Shue; Mike Figgis (as director and as writer)

Leaving Lenin ★★

GB 1993 93m colour
Feature/Gaucho/SC4 (Pauline Williams)

original title: Gadael Lenin

On a school trip to St Petersburg, the three teachers in charge become separated from the sixth-formers they are accompanying.
A slight but enjoyable Welsh comedy about the pains and pleasures of adolescence.
w Endaf Emlyn, Sion Eirian d Endaf Emlyn ph Ray Orton m John Hardy ad Vera Zelenkskaya ed Chris Lawrence ☆ Sharon Morgan, Ifan Huw Dafydd, Wyn Bowen Harris, Steffan Trevor, Ivan Shvedov, Catrin Mai, Richard Harrington, Shelley Rees

'The joy of this captivating comedy is that in spite of the ludicrousness of its situations, it is totally credible.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

Leaving Normal

Canada/US 1992 110m colour
Universal (Lindsay Doran)

An abrasive cocktail waitress and a young wife running from her second husband leave the small Western town of Normal and head for Alaska and freedom, which does not entirely live up to their expectations.
Loud and unsubtle road movie of female bonding, with a little male–female bonding on the side.
w Edward Solomon d Edward Zwick ph Ralf Bode m W. G. Snuffy Walden pd Patricia Morris ed Victor DuBois
☆ Christine Lahti, Meg Tilly, Lenny von Dohlen, Maury Chaykin, Patrika Darbo, Eve Gordon, James Eckhouse, Brett Cullen, James Gammon

'Not for all tastes ... has a serious undertone in its depiction of losers who keep struggling to assert themselves in an unfeeling and male-dominated world.' – Variety

† Cher and Demi Moore were originally cast in the leading roles.

Lebenszeichen: see Signs of Life

La Lectrice ★★

France 1988 98m colour
Curzon Films/Elefilm/AAA/TSF/Ciné 5/Sofimage (Rosalinde Deville)

A beautiful young woman, hired to read books out loud to people who are disabled in some way, has unexpected effects on her customers.
Witty games-playing comedy.
w Michel Déville, Rosalinde Déville novel Raymond Jean d Michel Déville ph Dominique Le Rigoleur m Beethoven pd Thierry Leproust ed Raymonde Guyot ☆ Miou-Miou, Régis Royer, Christian Ruché, Maria Cesars, Patrick Chesnais, Marianne Denicourt, Pierre Dux

'A frothy conceit, a true jeu d'esprit, but when it has said all that it has to say, albeit with panache, it has said nothing.' – MFB

'You can count the truly daring concepts in the making of motion pictures on the fingers of your right hand. Now add...'

The Left Hand of God

US 1955 87m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Buddy Adler)

China, 1947: a Catholic priest newly arrived in a small village proves to be an American flyer on the run from a warlord; but he contrives to work a small 'miracle'.
Hollywood religiosity at its most contrived, put together without distinction; the players have a wary look.
w Alfred Hayes novel William E. Barrett d Edward Dmytryk ph Franz Planer m Victor Young ☆ Humphrey Bogart, Gene Tierney, Lee J. Cobb, E. G. Marshall, Agnes Moorehead

The Left Handed Gun ★

US 1958 102m bw
Warner/Haroll (Fred Coe)

Billy the Kid sets out to shoot four men who have killed his friend.
'Method'-oriented Western, efficiently made but somewhat downcast.
w Leslie Stevens, TV play Gore Vidal d Arthur Penn ph Peverell Marley m Alexander Courage
☆ Paul Newman, John Dehner, Lita Milan, Hurd Hatfield

Left Luggage

Netherlands/Belgium/USA 1997 100m colour
Downtown/Shooting Star/Flying Dutchman (Ate de Jong, Hans Pos, David Schram)

In Antwerp, a philosophy student becomes the nanny of a four-year-old boy, whose parents are Hassidic Jews.
A study in contrasts, between modern attitudes and non-materialistic traditional ones, that is unfortunately overwhelmed by its sentimentality.
w Edwin de Vries novel The Shovel and the Loom by Carl Friedman d Jeroen Krabbé ph Walther Vanden Ende m Henny Vrienten ad Hemmo Sportal ed Edgar Burcksen
☆ Isabella Rossellini, Maximilian Schell, Laura Fraser, Jeroen Krabbé, Marianne Saegebrecht, David Bradley, Adam Monty, Chaim Topol

'It's a pity that a film which otherwise has a great deal going for it ultimately winds up as ghettoised as the community it portrays.' – Caroline Westbrook, Empire

'Top of the poll for laughs!'

Left Right and Centre ★

GB 1959 95m bw
Vale/Launder and Gilliat

A TV personality becomes Tory candidate at a by-election.
Scrappy political comedy with the saving grace of a large number of comic talents.
w Sidney Gilliat, Val Valentine d Sidney Gilliat ph Gerald Gibbs m Humphrey Searle ☆ Ian Carmichael, Alastair Sim, Patricia Bredin, Richard Wattis, Eric Barker, Gordon Harker, George Benson, Frederick Leister

The Legacy

GB 1978 102m colour
Columbia/Pethurst/Turman-Foster (David Foster)

An American designer goes to stay with her employer and finds herself in the middle of an occult murder plot.
Cliché-ridden screamer which will please the easily pleased.
w Jimmy Sangster, Patrick Tilley, Paul Wheeler d Richard Marquand ph Dick Bush, Alan Hume m Michael J. Lewis pd Disley Jones ed Anne Coates
☆ Katharine Ross, Sam Elliott, Roger Daltrey, John Standing, Ian Hogg, Margaret Tyzack, Charles Gray, Lee Montague, Hildegard Neil

'Like father, like son...'

Legacy of Rage (dubbed)

Hong Kong 1987 82m colour
Imperial (John Sham, Linda Kuk)

After six years in jail for a crime he did not commit, a former waiter teams up with a cell-mate to seek revenge on the gangster who framed him.
Standard martial arts adventure, notable only for Brandon Lee's debut.
wd Ronny Yu
☆ Brandon Lee, Onno Boelee (Bolo Yeung), Michael Wong, Regina Kent, Tanya George

'Offers too few thrills to satisfy hard-core action fans.' – Film Review

Legal Eagles

US 1986 114m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Northern Lights (Ivan Reitman)

An assistant DA becomes involved for the defence in an arson case.
Sophisticated but messy comedy with odd unrelated asides, reminiscent of the TV series Moonlighting but with top production values.
w Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jnr d Ivan Reitman ph Laszlo Kovacs m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Robert Redford, Debra Winger, Daryl Hannah, Brian Dennehy, Terence Stamp, Steven Hill

'Boldly going where no blonde has gone.'

Legally Blonde

US 2001 96m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/MGM (Marc Platt, Ric Kidney)

Dumped by her ambitious boy friend, a blonde proves that a knowledge of designer labels can take you to the top at Harvard Law School.
Fluffy comedy made watchable by Reese Witherspoon's engaging performance.
w Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith book Amanda Brown d Robert Luketic ph Anthony B. Richmond m Rolfe Kent pd Melissa Stewart ed Anita Brandt Burgoyne, Garth Craven
☆ Reese Witherspoon (Elle Woods), Luke Wilson (Emmett Richmond), Selma Blair (Vivian Kensington), Matthew Davis (Warner), Victor Garber (Professor Callahan), Jennifer Coolidge (Paulette), Holland Taylor (Professor Stromwell), Ali Larter (Brooke Taylor Windham), Raquel Welch (Mrs Windham Vandermark)

'A featherweight comedy balanced between silliness and charm. It is impossible to dislike.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Smug yet clueless... a junk-food movie striving to be nutritious.' – Jessica Winter, Village Voice

'Bigger. Bolder. Blonder.'

Legally Blonde 2: Red White & Blonde ④

US 2003 94m colour
MGM/Type A (Marc Platt, David Nicksay)

An apparent blonde bimbo begins a political career in Washington.
Witless sequel that not even Reese Witherspoon's effervescence can keep from going flat after five minutes.
w Kate Kondell d Charles Herman-Wurmfeld ph Elliot Davis m Rolfe Kent pd Missy Stewart ed Peter Teschner cos Sophie de Rakoff Carbonell
☆ Reese Witherspoon (Elle Woods), Sally Field (Congresswoman Victoria Rudd), Regina King (Grace Rossiter), Jennifer Coolidge (Paulette Parcelle), Bruce McGill (Stanford Marks), Dana Ivey (Libby Hauser), Bob Newhart (Sid Post), Luke Wilson (Emmett Richmond)

'We're talking fables, not reality, here, and this is a fine and merry one.' – Richard Schichel, Time

The Legend: see Fong Sai Yuk

'There May Never Be Another Dawn.'

Legend ★

GB 1985 94m Fujicolour Panavision
TCF/Universal/Legend Productions (Arnon Milchan)

Young peasant Jack takes his sweetheart on a quest to see the last surviving unicorns, but Satan uses them as pawns in his own game.
Elegant fairy tale for the few grown-ups who have use for such a thing. More to look at than to listen to.
w William Hjortsberg d Ridley Scott ph Alex Thomson m Tangerine Dream, Jerry Goldsmith pd Assheton Gorton ed Terry Rawlings
☆ Tim Curry (Darkness), Mia Sara (Lili), Tom Cruise (Jack), David Bennent (Gump), Alice Playten (Blix), Billy Barty (Screwball), Cork Hubbert (Brown Tom), Peter O'Farrell (Pox)

'The dying gasp of the sword and sorcery cycle.' – Philip French, Observer
'The enchanted forests constantly threaten to sell us something – most frequently soft toilet paper.' – Ibid.

† The film was reissued in a "director's cut" that runs for 114m.

make-up (Rob Bottin, Peter Robb-King)

'An Epic Story Of A Man Who Could Do Anything... Except Be Ordinary.'

The Legend of 1900 ★

Italy 1998 125m Cinecittà colour Technovision
Fine Line/Medusa/Sciarlo

original title: La Leggenda Del Pianista Sull'Oceano
US title: The Legend of the Pianist on the Ocean

An abandoned child, named 1900 after the year of his birth, spends his entire life as a virtuoso pianist aboard the trans-Atlantic liner on which he was born.
Lavish, good-looking but curious fable that suggests significance without ever revealing it.
wd Giuseppe Tornatore monologue Novecento by Alessandro Baricco ph Lajos Koltai m Ennio Morricone pd Francesco Frigeri ed Massimo Quaglia cos Maurizio Millenotti
☆ Tim Roth (Danny Boodman T. D. Lemon Novecento), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Max), Melanie Thierry (The Girl), Bill Nunn (Danny Boodmann), Peter Vaughan (Music store owner), Niall O'Brien (Harbour master), Alberto Vasquez (Mexican machinist), Clarence Williams III ('Jelly Roll' Morton), Gabrielle Lavia (Farmer)

'A darn good yarn told in classic style, but invigorated by inventiveness and imagination. Truly magnificent.' – Nick Briggs, Film Review

† The film ran for 170m when first shown at the Cannes Film Festival.

'It Was Just A Moment Ago.'

The Legend of Bagger Vance

US 2000 127m Technicolor
TCF/DreamWorks/Wildwood/Allied (Robert Redford, Michael Nozik, Jake Eberts)

In the late 20s, a mysterious black caddy

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

helps a once promising golfer, who returned from the war in bad shape, to win a tournament against top players.
Golf is treated as a viable substitute for religion in this insufferably mystic and torpid movie, which is given to nostalgia for a past that never was; it also reduces dialogue to an exchange of sentimental banalities.
w Jeremy Leven novel Steven Pressfield d Robert Redford ph Michael Ballhaus m Rachel Portman pd Stuart Craig ed Hank Corwin ☆ Will Smith (Bagger Vance), Matt Damon (Rannulph Junuh), Charlize Theron (Adele Invergordon), Bruce McGill (Walter Hagen), Joel Gretsch (Bobby Jones), Lane Smith (Grantland Rice), Harve Presnell (John Invergordon), J. Michael Moncrief (Hardy Greaves), Peter Gerety (Neskaloosa), Michael O'Neill (O.B. Keeler), Thomas Jay Ryan (Spec Hammond), Jack Lemmon (Old Hardy Greaves/Narrator)
'A lightweight, modestly engaging yarn sporting reductive mystical and philosophical elements that are both valid and borderline silly.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Might charitably be described as an inspirational poster blown up into a feature film.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

The Legend of Billie Jean

US 1985 96m Metrocolor
Tri-Star/Rob Cohen (Jon Peters, Peter Guber)

While protecting her brother, a girl becomes an outlaw by accident.
Unattractive and even distasteful farrago which is presumably intended to teach kids, so far as the law is concerned, how to eat their cake and have it.
w Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner d Matthew Robbins ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m Craig Safan pd Ted Haworth ed Cynthia Scheider
☆ Helen Slater, Keith Gordon, Christian Slater, Richard Bradford, Peter Coyote
'The germ of an idea, but hardly a reason for a film.' – Variety

'Half-man, half-beast, a mysterious creature has been stalking the woods and waterways near Fouke, Arkansas since the 1940s.'

The Legend of Boggy Creek

US 1973 90m Technicolor
Howco (Charles B. Pierce)

A shaggy, ape-like creature terrorises the inhabitants of a small Arkansas town.
Documentary-style horror movie, allegedly based on fact, that manages to raise a minor frisson or two.
w Earl E. Smith d Charles B. Pierce ph Charles B. Pierce m Jaime Mendoza-Nava ed Tom Boutross
☆ Willie E. Smith, John P. Hixon, John W. Oates, Jeff Crabtree, Buddy Crabtree, Herb Jones

The Legend of Fong Sai Yuk: see Fong Sai Yuk

The Legend of Fong Sai Yuk II: see Fong Sai Yuk II

'For the sake of your sanity, pray it isn't true!'

The Legend of Hell House ★

GB 1973 94m DeLuxe
TCF/Academy (Albert Fennell, Norman T. Herman)

Four people arrive at a haunted house in which several psychic investigators have been killed.
Harrowing thriller, a less solemn but more frightening version of The Haunting.
w Richard Matheson novel Richard Matheson d John Hough ph Alan Hume m Brian Hodgson, Delia Derbyshire
☆ Pamela Franklin, Roddy McDowall, Clive Revill, Gayle Hunnicutt, Roland Culver, Peter Bowles, Michael Gough
'One of the most absorbing, goose-fleshing and mind-pleasing ghost breaker yarns on film.' – Judith Crist, 1977

The Legend of Lobo ★

US 1962 67m Technicolor
Walt Disney (James Algar)

The life of a forest wolf.
Anthropomorphic entertainment in which a dreaded animal becomes something of a hero and finally saves his mate from bounty hunters. Impeccably contrived, like a live-action Bambi.
w Dwight Hauser, James Algar story Ernest Thompson Seton d James Algar ph Jack Couffer, Lloyd Beebe m Oliver Wallace

The Legend of Lylah Clare ★

US 1968 130m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Robert Aldrich

A mad director brings an unknown actress to Hollywood because of her resemblance to a former star, his creation, who had died mysteriously.
Unintentionally risible melodrama with echoes of Svengali and Sunset Boulevard*; not to the public's taste, or anyone else's, in the late sixties.*
w Hugo Butler, Jean Rouverol TV play Robert Thom, Edward de Blasio d Robert Aldrich ph Joseph Biroc m Frank de Vol
☆ Peter Finch, Kim Novak, Ernest Borgnine, Coral Browne, Milton Seltzer, Rossella Falk, Gabriele Tinti, Valentina Cortesa, George Kennedy
'Plain, unalloyed bad.' – Penelope Gilliatt

Legend of the Demon Womb

Japan 1990 84m colour
Toshio Maeda/West Cape
original title: Urotsukidoji II

Demons and man-beasts fight to prevent the son of a mad Nazi from gaining ultimate power by killing the boy who is destined to be the over-fiend, the god of gods.
Extremely gruesome animated fantasy, concentrating on graphic sex, from masturbation, fellatio and lesbianism to rape, and much violence, including decapitations, multiple murders and human sacrifice.
w Noboru Aikawa story Toshio Maeda d Hideki Takayama ph Hideo Okazaki m Masamichi Amano ad Hitoshi Nagao ed Shigeru Nishiyama
☆ Featuring the voices of Christopher Courage, Rebel Joy, Danny Bush, Lucy Morales, Rose Palmer
† A sequel to the equally gruesome Legend of the Overfiend (qv). It was followed by the video releases of Urotsukidoji III: Episode 1 and Urotsukidoji III: Episode 2, which both continue the mixture as before with an unintelligible narrative, an impenetrable mythology, a comic-book style of animation, and much sex and violence.

Legend of the Holy Drinker ★★

Italy 1988 128m colour
Artificial Eye/Aura Film/Cecchi Gori Group/Tiger Cinematografica/RAI Uno (Roberto Cicutto, Vincenzo de Leo)

original title: La Leggenda del Santo Bevitore
An alcoholic tramp is repeatedly frustrated in his attempts to repay money to the shrine of a saint.
An odd fable, beautifully presented.
w Tullio Kezich, Ermanno Olmi novel Die Legende des Heiligen Trinkers by Joseph Roth d Ermanno Olmi ph Dante Spinotti m Stravinsky pd Gianni Quaranta ed Ermanno Olmi ☆ Rutger Hauer, Anthony Quayle, Sandrine Dumas, Dominique Pinon, Sophie Segalen, Jean Maurice Chanet, Cecile Paoli, Joseph de Medina

'The film where you hiss the villain and cheer the hero!'

The Legend of the Lone Ranger

US 1981 98m Technicolor Panavision
ITC/Jack Wrather (Walter Coblenz)

A much-betrayed young Texan, almost killed in an ambush, is nursed back to health by an Indian and becomes a masked avenger.
Extremely ill-constructed and moody Western, apparently photographed through brown Windsor soup, which doesn't slip into the right gear until twenty minutes before the end.
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, Michael Kane, William Roberts d William A. Fraker ph Laszlo Kovacs m John Barry ☆ Klinton Spilsbury, Michael Horse, Christopher Lloyd, Matt Clark
'Wallows in endless sentiment before switching to what may possibly have been intended as parody.' – Sight and Sound
'Tedious hokum ... the kind of film that closes cinemas.' – Sunday Times

Legend of the Lost

US 1957 107m Technirama
UA/Batjac/Robert Haggiag/Dear (Henry Hathaway)

Two adventurers and a slave girl seek a lost city in the Sahara.
Tediously vague and underplotted desert adventure with a few attractive moments.
w Robert Presnell Jnr, Ben Hecht d Henry Hathaway ph Jack Cardiff m A. F. Lavagnino
☆ John Wayne, Sophia Loren, Rossano Brazzi

Legend of the Overfiend (dubbed)

Japan 1989 96m colour
West Cape Corp (Yasuhito Yamaki)

original title: Urotsukidōji
Creatures from two parallel universes battle to become supreme rulers of the Earth.
Revolting and thoroughly nasty animated feature, full of rape, masturbation, mutilation and grotesque mutations, with heads exploding and eyeballs popping. What narrative there is amid the sex and violence makes little sense.
w Noboru Aikawa story Toshio Maeda d Hideki Takayama m Masamichi Amano ad Shigemi Ikeda ed Shigeru Nishiyama
☆ Featuring the voices of Christopher Courage, Rebel Joy, Danny Bush, Lucy Morales, Rose Palmer
'Formula heroics, facile science fiction futurism, slavering monsters and tediously repetitive violence – the animated fantasies of the Manga school have everything to satisfy the adolescent mind.' – Sight and Sound

The Legend of the Pianist on the Ocean: see The Legend of 1900

The Legend of the Seven Golden Vampires

GB/Hong Kong 1974 89m Eastmancolor Panavision
Hammer-Shaw (Don Houghton, Vee King Shaw)

US title: The Seven Brothers Meet Dracula
In 1904 Chungking, Professor Van Helsing finds his old enemy Dracula behind a Chinese vampire cult.
Hectic, outlandish mix of Hammer horror and Kung Fu; plenty of gusto but not much sense.
w Don Houghton d Roy Ward Baker ph John Wilcox, Roy Ford m James Bernard ☆ Peter Cushing, David Chiang, Julie Ege, Robin Stewart, John Forbes Robertson

Legend of the Suram Fortress*

USSR 1984 87m colour
Poseidon/Georgianfilm Studio (X. Gogiladze, M. Simxaev)

original title: Legenda Suramskoi Kreposti
A youth lets himself be immured in the walls of a fortress to stop it from crumbling.
Colourful re-enactment of a folk tale, though not up to the director's best work.
w Vazha Gigashvili book D. Tchonghadze d Sergo Paradjanov, Dodo Abashidze ph Sergo Sixarulidze m Dzhansugh K'axidze ad Alexandr Dzhanishiev ed K'ora Ts'ereteli ☆ Venerik'o Andzhaparidze, Dodo Abashidze, Sopik'o Ch'iaureli, Duduxana Ts'erodze, Tamar Tsitsishuili

Legend of the Werewolf

GB 1974 90m Eastmancolor
Tyburn (Kevin Francis)

In the 1860s, a boy brought up by wolves changes into one at the full moon.
Cheap and cheerful horror movie, much in the Hammer style, bright but unsubtle.
w Anthony Hinds d Freddie Francis ph John Wilcox m Harry Robinson ad Jack Shampan ed Henry Richardson
☆ Peter Cushing, David Rintoul, Ron Moody, Hugh Griffith, Roy Castle, Stefan Gryff, Lynn Dalby, Renee Houston, Marjorie Yates

The Legend of Tom Dooley

US 1959 77m bw
Columbia/Shpetner

At the end of the Civil War, Confederate youths take the law into their own hands and attack Unionists.
Youthful rebellion in historical mould, decently but rather dully delivered, based on a folk ballad.
w Stan Shpetner d Ted Post ph Gilbert Warrenton m Ronald Stein ☆ Michael Landon, Richard Rust, Jo Morrow

The Legend of Zorro ★

US 2005 130m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Spyglass/Amblin (Walter F. Parkes, Laurie MacDonald, Lloyd Phillips)

Zorro leaps back in action to save his marriage and to help California become a state.
The cast buckle their swashes with less effect in this sequel to The Mask of Zorro*, though it provides some old-fashioned pleasures.*
w Roberto Orci, Alex Kurtzman d Martin Campbell ph Phil Meheux m James Horner pd Cecilia Montiel ed Stuart Baird
☆ Antonio Banderas (Zorro/Alejandro), Catherine Zeta-Jones (Elena), Rufus Sewell

(Armand), Nick Chinlund (Jacob McGivens), Julio Oscar Mechoso (Frey Felipe), Shuler Hensley (Pike)

'If the series wants to become a franchise, a rethink and new blood will be necessary – maybe Banderas can get mortally wounded in reel one of The Son Of Zorro, passing on the mask and sword to, say, Gael Garcia Bernal.' – Kim Newman, Empire

'The men of the Ludlow family. A woman's grace brought them together. Then her passion tore them apart.'

Legends of the Fall

US 1994 134m Technicolor
TriStar/Bedford Falls/Pangaea (Edward Zwick, Bill Wittliff)

An army officer retires to a ranch with his three sons: one is killed in the First World War, the surviving two fall in love with the same woman; one goes on to become a successful politician, and the other a bootlegger and outcast.

Period family saga, reminiscent of East of Eden, with Brad Pitt glowering as a latter-day James Dean; enjoyable as a soap opera but its aspirations to be something more come to nothing.

w Susan Shilliday, Bill Wittliff novel Jim Harrison d Edward Zwick ph John Toll m James Horner pd Lilly Kilvert ed Steven Rosenblum

☆ Anthony Hopkins, Brad Pitt, Aidan Quinn, Henry Thomas, Julia Ormond, Karina Lombard, Gordon Tootoosis, Tantoo Cardinal, Paul Desmond

'A silly melodrama trying to be an epic.' – Time

'A visceral, thoughtful and emotionally exhausting saga.' – Variety

🏆 John Toll

Lilly Kilvert

La Leggenda Del Pianista Sull'Oceano: see The Legend of 1900

'A fugitive from a killer. A remote outpost. A fight to the death.'

Legionnaire

US 1998 98m colour
Long Road/Quadra/Edward R.Pressman

After he refuses to throw a fight, a boxer joins the Foreign Legion in order to escape the gangsters on his trail.

An attempt to revive the spirit and style of Beau Geste, but it's too little and too late.

w Sheldon Lettich, Rebecca Morrison d Peter MacDonald ph Douglas Milsome m John Altman pd Charles Wood ed Mike Murphy, Christopher Tellefsen

☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme (Alain Lefevre), Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje (Luther), Steven Berkoff (Steinkampf), Nicholas Farrell (Mackintosh), Jim Carter (Lucien Galgani), Ana Sofrenovic (Katrina)

Lemming ★★

France 2005 130m colour
Artificial Eye/Diaphana/France 3 (Michel Saint-Jean)

A successful computer engineer and his wife experience marital upsets after his boss's seductive wife kills herself in their new home.

Bizarre tale of infidelity and murder, in which lemmings appear to symbolise everyone's self-destructive urges; it is enjoyable while risking being risible.

w Dominik Moll, Gilles Marchand d Dominik Moll ph Jean-Marc Fabre m David Sinclair Whitaker pd Michel Barthélémy ed Mike Fromentin

☆ Laurent Lucas (Alain Getty), Charlotte Gainsbourg (Bénédicte), Charlotte Rampling (Alice Pollock), André Dussollier (Richard Pollock), Jacques Bonnaffé (Nicolas Chevalier), Véronique Affholder (Francine)

'Manages to imbue ordinary goings-on with inklings of strangeness that are at once sinister and quietly comical. But there is, in the end, less to this film than meets the eye.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

The Lemon Drop Kid ★

US 1951 91m bw
Paramount (Robert A. Welch)

A gangster forces a bookie to find the money which he has lost on a horse through the bookie's incompetence.

Amusing Bob Hope/Runyon vehicle despite heavy sentiment about an old folks' home. The Santa Claus sequences are memorable.

w Edmund Hartmann, Frank Tashlin, Robert O'Brien story Damon Runyon d Sidney Lanfield ph Daniel L. Fapp m Victor Young

☆ Bob Hope, Marilyn Maxwell, Lloyd Nolan, Jane Darwell, Andrea King, Fred Clark, Jay C. Flippen, William Frawley, Harry Bellaver

† The previous 1934 version starred Lee Tracy, Helen Mack and William Frawley; ran 60m; and was directed by Marshall Neilan for Paramount

The Lemon Sisters

US 1990 93m Technicolor
Miramax/Lightyear (Joe Kelly)

In Atlantic City, three childhood friends with dreams of becoming stars grow up to face the realities of life and love.

Drearily witless comedy, in which most of the narrative thrust is confined to a voice-over; the inert direction only emphasizes that this is a bland movie about the dull lives of people of limited talent.

w Jeremy Pikser d Joyce Chopra ph Bobby Byrne m Dick Hyman pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Joe Weintraub, Michael R. Miller

☆ Diane Keaton, Carol Kane, Kathryn Grody, Elliott Gould, Ruben Blades, Estelle Parsons, Richard Libertini, Aidan Quinn

'Mishaps. Mayhem. Misadventures. Oh joy.'

Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events ★★ (6)

US 2004 107m DeLuxe
Paramount/DreamWorks/Nikelodeon/Parkes/Macdonald

Three wealthy orphans discover that their guardian is planning to kill them for their money.

A dark fantasy that is often scary and frequently amusing; it teeters on the edge of being a classic family movie of an eccentric kind, but a disjointed rhythm and Carrey's pantomime villain count against it.

w Robert Gordon books The Bad Beginning, The Reptile Room, The Wide Window by Lemony Snicket d Brad Silberling ph Emmanuel Lubezki, Robert Yeoman m Thomas Newman pd Rick Heinrichs ed Michael Kahn, Dylan Tichenor

☆ Jim Carrey (Count Olaf), Liam Aiken (Klaus Baudelaire), Emily Browning (Violet Baudelaire), Kara and Shelby Hoffman (Sunny Baudelaire), Jude Law (Lemony Snicket), Timothy Spall (Mr Poe), Catherine O'Hara (Justice Strauss), Billy Connolly (Uncle Monty), Meryl Streep (Aunt Jospehine), Luis Guzman (Bald Man)

'The movie is about the true and justified fears we experience in childhood and, set in this Gothic, Grimm fairytale world, one recalls Marianne Moore's claim that her poems were imaginary gardens with real toads in them.' – Philip French, Observer

'Isn't nearly as cheerily unpleasant as it ought to be.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

🏆 makeup (Valli O'Reilly, Bill Corso)

Thomas Newman; art direction; Colleen Atwood

Lena's Holiday

US 1991 97m colour
Crown International/Marimark (Marilyn Jacobs Tenser)

A young East German girl goes on holiday to Los Angeles.

Mildly agreeable comedy of a culture clash.

w Deborah Tilton, Michael Keusch d Michael Keusch ph Louis DiCesare m Steve Schiff pd Milo ed Bill Swenson

☆ Chris Lemmon, Nick Mancuso, Michael Sarrazin, Felicity Waterman, Pat Morita, Bill Dana, Liz Torres, Susan Anton

L'Enfant: see The Child

Lenin in October ★

USSR 1937 111m bw
Mosfilm
original title: Lenin v Octiabrye

The activities of Lenin during the revolution.

Stalwart propaganda piece, of solid but not outstanding cinematic interest.

w Alexei Kapler d Mikhail Romm ph Boris Volchok m Anatoli Alexandrov

☆ Boris Shchukin

'We have reached the end of the Communist film. It is to be all "Heroes and Hero-Worship" now: the old films are to be remade for the new leaders: no more anonymous mothers will run in the van of the workers against the Winter Palace. The USSR is to produce Fascist films from now on.' – Graham Greene

† The success of this film provoked Lenin in 1918, made in the following year (132m) by the same talents, with Cherkassov as Gorky. Many other Russian films on Lenin have followed.

Lenin v Octiabrye: see Lenin in October

'Somewhere in the tundra lived the worst rock'n'roll band in the world...'

Leningrad Cowboys Go America ★★

Finland/Sweden 1989 78m
Artificial Eye/Villealfa/Swedish Film Institute/Finnish Film Foundation (Aki Kaurismäki, Klas Olofsson, Katinka Farago)

An inept rock band travels through America in search of fame and fortune, which prove elusive.

Engagingly ramshackle comedy, with keen observation of the underside of the American dream

wd Aki Kaurismäki story Sakke Järvenpää, Aki Kaurismäki, Mato Valtonen ph Timo Salminen m Mauri Sumén ed Raija Talvio

☆ Matti Pellonpää, Kari Väänänen, Sakke Jarvenpää, Hiekki Keskinen, Pimme Oinonen, Silu Seppälä, Mauri Sumén, Mato Valtonen, Pekka Virtanen, Jim Jarmusch

Lenny ★★★

US 1974 111m bw
UA (Marvin Worth)

The career of outspoken comedian Lenny Bruce and his struggles with the law.

Old-fashioned rags-to-riches-to-rags story, rampant with the new permissiveness. Filmically extremely clever, emotionally hollow.

w Julian Barry play Julian Barry d Bob Fosse ph Bruce Surtees md Ralph Burns pd Joel Schiller ed Alan Heim

☆ Dustin Hoffman (Lenny Bruce), Valerie Perrine (Honey Bruce), Jan Miner (Sally Marr), Stanley Beck (Artie Silver), Gary Morton (Sherman Hart)

'For audiences who want to believe that Lenny Bruce was a saintly gadfly who was martyred for having lived before his time.' – New Yorker

best picture; Julian Barry; Bob Fosse; Bruce Surtees; Dustin Hoffman; Valerie Perrine

Valerie Perrine

Leo

GB/US 2002 104m Technicolor
UIP/Freewheel/Joy/La Scala (Massy Tadjedin, Erica August, Sara Roy)

Released from prison, where he served a sentence for murder, a would-be writer communicates with the son of an unhappy marriage.

Muted drama that gradually reveals its purpose, long after its has lost its audience.

w Massy Tadjedin, Amir Tadjedin d Mehdi Norowzian ph Zubin Mistry m Mark Adler pd Stefania Cella ed Tariq Anwar

☆ Joseph Fiennes (Stephen), Elisabeth Shue (Mary Bloom), Justin Chambers (Ryan Eames), Deborah Kara Unger (Caroline), Mary Stuart Masterson (Brynne), Jake Weber (Ben Bloom), Dennis Hopper (Horace), Sam Shepard (Vic)

'Much, much less than the sum of its parts.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Leo the Last

GB 1969 104m DeLuxe
UA/Char/Wink/Boor (Irwin Winkler, Robert Chartoff)

An alienated aristocrat brings his retinue to a London slum and has an effect on most of the inhabitants.

Infuriating symbolic fantasy; only the writer-director (presumably) has any idea what it is about.

w William Stair, John Boorman d John Boorman ph Peter Suschitsky m Fred Myrow pd Tony Woollard

☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Billie Whitelaw, Calvin Lockhart, Glenna Forster Jones, Graham Crowden, Gwen Ffrangcon Davies, David de Keyser, Vladek Sheybal, Kenneth J. Warren

'One must be grateful for the bold, high-spirited experiments and surprises ... They are never boring.' – Dilys Powell

'The Classic Novel. The Timeless Love Story.'

Leo Tolstoy's Anna Karenina

US 1997 108m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Icon (Bruce Davey)

In Russia, a married woman begins a doomed affair with a gallant and infatuated cavalry officer.

A clumsy, by-the-numbers treatment, often opulent to look at, well enough acted, but lacking in any depth or feeling.

wd Bernard Rose novel Leo Tolstoy ph Daryn Okada m Tchaikovsky et al

md Sir Georg Solti pd John Myhre ed Victor Du Bois ☆ Sophie Marceau, Sean Bean, Alfred Molina, Mia Kirshner, James Fox, Fiona Shaw, Danny Huston, Phyllida Law, David Scofield, Saskia Wickham, Jennifer Hall
'This passionless Classics Illustrated-style rendition possesses no distinction to attract an audience.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Léolo's fantasy is of Bianca and Sicily. His reality is Murder and Madness.'

Léolo ★

Canada/France 1992 103m colour
Alliance/Verseau/Flach/Canal (Lyse Lafontaine, Aimée Danis)

In a poor part of Montreal, a dreamy small boy, growing up at odds with his mainly demented family, retreats from reality.
A dark tragi-comic account of the flowering and the failure of an imagination.
wd Jean-Claude Lauzon ph Guy Dufaux ad François Séguin ed Michel Arcand ☆ Ginette Reno, Pierre Bourgault, Maxime Collin, Giuditta Del Vecchio, Julien Guiomar
'A semi-autobiographical phantasmagoria about growing up in a 1960s East-Montreal French-Canadian tenement populated by Fellini-esque grotesques.' – Philip French, Observer

'He Moves Without Sound, Kills Without Emotion, Disappears Without Trace.'
'If you want the job done right, hire a professional.'

Leon ★★

France 1994 110m Technicolor Technovision
Buena Vista/Gaumont/Dauphin (Luc Besson)
US title: The Professional
A hitman makes the mistake of befriending a 12-year-old girl whose family is murdered by a crooked policeman and his thugs.
Tense and involving thriller, dealing in heightened fantasy rather than reality, about a killer with a weakness.
wd Luc Besson ph Thierry Arbogast m Eric Serra pd Dan Weil ed Sylvie Landra
☆ Jean Reno, Gary Oldman, Natalie Portman, Danny Aiello, Peter Appel, Michael Badalucco, Ellen Greene, Elizabeth Regen
'The most satisfactory blend of brilliance and not quite original thought. It's a well-orchestrated thriller that never treats itself too seriously, skates on fairly thin ice but comes out smelling mainly of roses.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'A naïve fairy tale splattered with blood. Mix of cynicism and sentiment will ring hollow to cine-literate sophisticates but may play well to the gallery.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

Léon Morin, Priest ★

France/Italy 1961 117m bw
Rome – Paris Films (Georges de Beauregard)

During the German occupation of France a young widow finds herself falling in love with the young priest who is converting her to religion.
An intellectual romance, sharp and witty for the most part, with vivid wartime backgrounds.
wd Jean-Pierre Melville novel Béatrix Beck ph Henri Decaë m Martial Solal, Albert Raisner
☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Emmanuele Riva, Irène Tunc, Marielle Gozzi

Leon the Pig Farmer

GB 1992 104m colour
Electric/Leon the Pig Farmer Production (Gary Sinyor, Vadim Jean)

A Jewish estate agent discovers that his real father is a Yorkshire pig farmer.
Laboured low-budget comedy of racial stereotypes.
w Gary Sinyor, Michael Norman d Vadim Jean, Gary Sinyor ph Gordon Hickie m John Murphy pd Simon Hicks ed Ewa Lind
☆ Mark Frankel, Gina Bellman, Janet Suzman, Brian Glover, Connie Booth, Maryam D'Abo
'Overall, flashes of inspiration are outweighed by laboured skits that fall somewhat flat, but this is a worthy and promising effort.' – Empire
'The comedy has wit and pace. It has originality that Mel Brooks might envy.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
† The film was made on a budget of £160,000. It won the International Critics' Prize at the Venice Film Festival and an award for best first film at the Edinburgh Film Festival.

Leonard Cohen: I'm Your Man ★ (7)

USA 2006 103m
(Lian Lunson, Mel Gibson, Bruce Davey)

Filmed concert tribute to the legendary Canadian singer-songwriter, with various artists interpreting Cohen songs, and snippets of an interview with the artist himself.
Mainly for Cohen devotees. He comes across as funny and self-deprecating, in contrast to the gushing tributes paid him, especially by members of U2. Still, Rufus Wainwright and Nick Cave acquit themselves especially well onstage with Chen's work.
d Lian Lunson ph John Pirozzi, Geoff Hall m Leonard Cohen ed Mike Cahill
☆ Leonard Cohen, U2, Jarvis Cocker, Nick Cave, Kate and Anna McGarrigle, Rufus Wainwright, Anthony, Beth Orton, Julie Christensen, Linda Thompson, Martha Wainwright, Perla Batalla, Teddy Thompson, The Handsome Family
U2's THE EDGE: "He comes down the mountain top with tablets of stone."
'Proves that few can manoeuvre one of Cohen's dusky, love-lorn songs like Cohen himself.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

The Leopard ★★★★

US/Italy 1963 205m Technirama
TCF/Titanus/SNPC/GPC (Goffredo Lombardo) original title: Il Gattopardo
The family life of an Italian nobleman at the time of Garibaldi.
Elaborate, complex family saga, painted like an old master with great care and attention to detail, but with not much chance outside Italy of delivering its original dramatic force. Visconti had asked for Lancaster, so TCF picked up the international release but couldn't make head or tail of it commercially; they even ruined its high quality by releasing a dubbed, shortened version in Cinemascope and DeLuxe colour of poor standard.
wd Luchino Visconti novel Giuseppe de Lampedusa ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Nino Rota ad Mario Garbuglia ed Mario Serandrei ☆ Burt Lancaster (Prince Don Fabrizio Salina), Claudia Cardinale (Angelica Sedara/Bertiana), Alain Delon (Tancredi), Paolo Stoppa (Don Calogero Sedara), Serge Reggiani (Don Ciccio Tumeo), Leslie French (Cavalier Chevally)
'That rare thing - a great film based on a great book.' – Philip French, Observer
'One of the most moving meditations on individual mortality in the history of the cinema.' – David Kehr
† A restored version of the film running for 205m was released in 2003.
†† The three disc Region 1 DVD release from Criterion includes the film in its original 187m Italian version, in its 161m English language version, a documentary on the background and a commentary by critic Peter Cowie.

Leopard in the Snow

GB/Canada 1977 94m Technicolor
Seastone/Leopard in the Snow (W. Laurence Heisey)

A girl caught in a Cumberland blizzard is rescued by a mysterious stranger with a pet leopard. He turns out to be a disfigured racing driver, and she falls in love with him.
A deliberate cross between Jane Eyre and a shopgirl's romance, adequately produced for its intended audience.
w Anne Mather, Jill Hyem novel Anne Mather d Gerry O'Hara ph Alfie Hicks m Kenneth V. Jones ☆ Keir Dullea, Susan Penhaligon, Jeremy Kemp, Kenneth More, Billie Whitelaw

The Leopard Man ★★

US 1943 59m bw
RKO (Val Lewton)

Murders in a Mexican border town are attributed to an escaped leopard.
Effective minor piece in the Lewton horror gallery; poor plot countered by highly effective suspense sequences.
w Ardel Wray, Edward Dein novel Black Alibi by Cornell Woolrich d Jacques Tourneur ph Robert de Grasse m Roy Webb
☆ Dennis O'Keefe, Jean Brooks, Margo, James Bell, Isabel Jewell
'It's all confusion, too much for an audience to follow.' – Variety

Lepa Sela Lepo Gore: see Pretty Village Pretty Flame

Lepke

US 1974 110m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner/AmeriEuro Pictures (Menahem Golan)

After World War I a small-time crook becomes head of Murder Incorporated.
Violent but totally uninteresting gangster melodrama; fidelity to fact is not enough.
w Wesley Lau, Tamar Hoffs d Menahem Golan ph Andrew Davis m Ken Wannberg pd Jack Degovia ☆ Tony Curtis, Anjanette Comer, Michael Callan, Warren Berlinger, Milton Berle, Gianni Russo
'A kosher version of The Godfather.' – Verina Glaessner

Leprechaun

US 1992 92m CFI color
Trimark (Jeffrey B. Mallian)

A leprechaun terrorizes a household while searching for gold that was stolen from him.
Lugubrious, trivial horror with some nasty moments of violence.
wd Mark Jones ph Levie Isaacs m Kevin Kiner pd Naomi Slodki ed Christopher Roth ☆ Warwick Davis, Jennifer Aniston, Mark Holton, Ken Olandt, Robert Gorman, John Sanderford
'A dull, unscary horror movie whose sole selling point is some extraneous gore footage.' – Variety

'The Gold, the Bride and the Ugly...'

Leprechaun 2

US 1994 85m CFI color
Trimark (Donald Borchers)
GB title: One Wedding and Lots of Funerals
A leprechaun returns after a thousand years to claim as his bride a girl who sneezes three times.
A sequel that bears little resemblance to the original in its narrative, apart from the accumulation of dead bodies to the accompaniment of jokey violence.
w Turi Meyer, Al Septien d Rodman Flender m Jonathan Elias pd Anthony Tremblay ed Christopher Roth, Richard Gentner
☆ Warwick Davis, Charlie Heath, Sandy Baron, Shevonne Durkin, Adam Biesk, James Lancaster
'This malevolent little horror item is a nasty bit of business that revels in chicanery and gore.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Les Clefs de Bagnole: see The Car Keys

Les Girls: see Girls

Les Mauvais Joueurs: see Gamblers

Les Misérables: see Misérables

Les Patterson Saves the World

Australia 1987 90m colour Panavision
Recorded Releasing/Humpstead (Sue Milliken)

A coarse and slobbish Australian diplomat foils a dastardly plot to unleash a deadly virus.
Gross and tasteless comedy, without wit or style.
w Barry Humphries, Diane Milstead d George Miller ph David Connell m Tim Finn pd Graham 'Grace' Walker ed Tim Wellburn
☆ Barry Humphries, Pamela Stephenson, Thaao Penghlis, Andrew Clarke, Henri Szeps, Hugh Keays-Byrne

Lesbian Vampires: see Vampyros Lesbos

Less than Zero

US 1987 98m DeLuxe
TCF (Jon Avnet, Jordan Kerner)

A group of the rich young and upwardly mobile in Los Angeles become hooked on a meaningless round of drugs, parties and sex.
Limp attempt to film a best-selling novel of the blank generation, concentrating not so much on the despair and self-pity of the participants as on their enviable life-style.
w Harley Peyton novel Bret Easton Ellis d Marek Kanievska ph Edward Lachman m Thomas Newman pd Barbara Ling ed Peter E. Berger, Michael Tronick
☆ Andrew McCarthy, Jami Gertz, Robert Downey Jnr, James Spader, Tony Bill, Nicholas Pryor, Donna Mitchell

A Lesson in Love

Sweden 1954 95m bw
Svensk Filmindustri (Allan Ekelund)
original title: En Lektion I Kärlek
A gynaecologist and his wife grow bored and turn to other partners, but are reconciled.
Slight comedy, surprisingly unsubtle for its creator, but passable.

wd Ingmar Bergman ph Martin Bodin, Bengt Nordwal m Dag Wirén ad P. A. Lundgren ed Oscar Rosander
☆ Gunnar Björnstrand, Eva Dahlbeck, Harriet Andersson, Yvonne Lombard, Ake Grönberg

Lest We Forget: see Hangmen Also Die

Let 'Em Have It ★
US 1935 90m bw
Edward Small
GB title: False Faces
The FBI go after criminals on a terror spree.
Lively cops and robbers with some starkly effective moments.
w Joseph Moncure March, Elmer Harris d Sam Wood ph J. Peverell Marley, Robert Planck
☆ Richard Arlen, Virginia Bruce, Alice Brady, Bruce Cabot, Harvey Stephens, Eric Linden, Joyce Compton, J. Farrell MacDonald

Let Freedom Ring
US 1939 100m sepia
MGM (Harry Rapf)
A Westerner returns to his home town and clears it of corruption.
Elementary Hollywood actioner with curious credits, climaxed by Eddy singing The Star Spangled Banner.
w Ben Hecht d Jack Conway ph Sidney Wagner m Arthur Lange ☆ Nelson Eddy, Victor McLaglen, Virginia Bruce, Lionel Barrymore, H. B. Warner, Raymond Walburn, Edward Arnold, Guy Kibbee, Charles Butterworth, Billy Bevan
'Big box office ... lusty patriotic meller. Cinch for exploitation.' – Variety

Let George Do It ★★
GB 1940 82m bw
Ealing (Basil Dearden)
A ukelele player accidentally goes to Bergen instead of Blackpool and is mistaken for a spy.
Generally thought to be the best George Formby vehicle, with plenty of pace, good situations and catchy tunes.
w John Dighton, Austin Melford, Angus MacPhail, Basil Dearden d Marcel Varnel ph Gordon Dines, Ronald Neame ☆ George Formby, Phyllis Calvert, Garry Marsh, Romney Brent, Bernard Lee, Coral Browne, Torin Thatcher, Hal Gordon

'The shocking true story of an unbelievable miscarriage of justice.'

Let Him Have It ★★
GB 1991 115m colour
First Independent/Vivid/Le Studio Canal Plus/British Screen (Luc Roeg, Robert Warr)
Derek Bentley, an 18-year-old with a low IQ, is hanged for a murder committed by another.
Affecting drama that keeps its focus on its central character.
w Neal Purvis, Robert Wade d Peter Medak ph Oliver Stapleton m Michael Kamen pd Michael Pickwoad ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Christopher Eccleston, Paul Reynolds, Tom Bell, Eileen Atkins, Clare Holman, Michael Elphick, Mark McGann, Tom Courtenay, Michael Gough
'A powerful mix of social conscience and solid entertainment.' – Variety
'The straightforward, chronological narrative of this often moving naturalistic drama is both its major emotional strength and its chief dramatic weakness.' – Nigel Floyd, Sight and Sound
'Woolly liberal armchair bollocks. And I was crap in it.' – Christopher Eccleston

Let It Be Me
US 1995 100m colour
Rysher (David Kirkpatrick, Keith Samples)
GB title: Love Dance
An engaged man faces the loss of his fiancée when he persuades her to take dancing lessons.
Tired romantic comedy centred on dance, but never less than flat-footed.
wd Eleanor Bergstein ph Miroslav Ondricek m Joseph Vitarelli ch Miranda Garrison pd David Chapman ed Bill Pankow
☆ Campbell Scott (Gabriel), Jennifer Beals (Emily), Yancy Butler (Corinne), Patrick Stewart (John), Jamie Goodwin (Bud), Josh Mostel (Jordan), Elise Neal (Carlita), Heather Graham (Perfumery Saleswoman), Daniel McDonald (Fred), Leslie Caron (Marguerite)

Let It Ride
US 1989 86m Technicolor
Paramount (David Giler)
A compulsive and unsuccessful gambler comes good at the race-track.
A comedy that limps along for most of its length.
w Ernest Morton (Nancy Dowd) book Good Vibes by Jay Cronley d Joe Pykta ph Curtis J. Wehr m Giorgio Moroder pd Wolf Kroeger ed Dede Allen ☆ Richard Dreyfuss, David Johansen, Teri Garr, Allen Garfield, Jennifer Tilly, Michelle Phillips, Mary Woronov, Robbie Coltrane

Let No Man Write My Epitaph
US 1960 106m bw
Columbia/Boris D. Kaplan
A slum boy wants to become a concert pianist but falls in with gangsters.
Squalid, predictable melodrama without many redeeming features.
w Robert Presnell Jnr novel Willard Motley d Philip Leacock ph Burnett Guffey m George Duning
☆ James Darren, Shelley Winters, Burl Ives, Jean Seberg, Jeanne Cooper, Ricardo Montalban, Ella Fitzgerald

'Something is rotten in the City of the Angels.'

Let the Devil Wear Black
US 1998 89m DeLuxe
New Moon/Trimark (Matt Salinger)
After his father dies of a heart attack, his son believes that he was murdered by his uncle, who plans to marry his mother.
A modern variation on Hamlet, set among the low life of Los Angeles. It keeps the bare bones of the narrative but misses out on the tragedy in favour of a more conventional thriller of betrayal, one where the Hamlet-figure makes love in a bathroom to his addled and pregnant Ophelia-like girlfriend.
w Jonathan Penner, Stacy Title d Stacy Title ph Jim Whitaker m Christophe Beck pd Alec Hammond ed Luis Colina cos Leesa Evans
☆ Jonathan Penner (Jack Lyne), Jacqueline Bisset (Helen Lyne), Mary-Louise Parker (Julia Hirsch), Jamey Sheridan (Carl Lyne), Jonathan Banks (Satch), Philip Baker Hall (Saul Hirsch), Maury Chaykin (Bruce), Chris Sarandon (Jack's Father), Jeffrey Schoeny (Young Jack), Randall Batinkoff (T.B. Bradbury), Norman Reedus (Brautigan), Thomas Duffy (Bartender), Tony Plana (Tall), Lobo Sebastian (Ugly), Kevin West (Pharmacist)
'A first-rate ensemble cast and genuinely clever reworkings of Shakespearean plot devices are the major selling points.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Let the People Sing ★
GB 1942 105m bw
British National (John Baxter)
An out-of-work comedian persuades a drunken nobleman to join a protest against the closing of a village hall.
A development of The Good Companions which compares quite nicely with the Capra films from across the water: naïve but entertaining, with good star performances.
w John Baxter, Barbara K. Emery, Geoffrey Orme novel J. B. Priestley d John Baxter ph James Wilson
☆ Alastair Sim, Fred Emney, Edward Rigby, Patricia Roc, Oliver Wakefield, Marian Spencer, Olive Sloane, Gus McNaughton, Charles Hawtrey

Let Them Live
US 1937 71m bw
Universal
A young man matches wits with a crooked town boss.
Tepid second-feature drama.
w Bruce Manning, Lionel Houser
d Harold Young
☆ John Howard, Nan Grey, Edward Ellis, Judith Barrett
'Better than many of its kind ... should please in nabes.' – Variety

Let Us Be Gay
US 1930 79m bw
MGM
Divorcees meet again, many years later, in Paris.
Predictable star romance, now very dated, like its title.
w Frances Marion play Rachel Crothers
d Robert Z. Leonard
☆ Norma Shearer, Rod La Rocque, Marie Dressler, Sally Eilers, Raymond Hackett, Hedda Hopper
'Strong on all counts, romance, comedy, human sympathy and gorgeous clothes against a glamorous setting.' – Variety

Let Us Live
US 1937 67m bw
Columbia
An innocent taxi driver is convicted of murder.
Intense little melodrama which served its purpose.
w Joseph F. Dineen, Anthony Veiller and Allen Rivkin d John Brahm ☆ Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry Fonda, Ralph Bellamy
'Heavy dramatic preachment with limited appeal.' – Variety

Lethal Tender
Canada 1996 93m colour
Le Monde (Julian Grant)
A Chicago cop is the only one who can save the city's water supply when gangsters take over the filtration plant as part of an elaborate multi-million dollar robbery.
A standard action movie that gains a little from its unusual setting, though otherwise it sticks to the usual genre conventions, with otherwise ruthless killers suddenly becoming squeamish when they have a chance to shoot the hero.
w Tony Johnston d John Bradshaw ph Gerald R. Goozee m Lou Natale pd John Gillespie ed Paul Day
☆ Jeff Fahey (David Chase), Kim Coates (Montesi), Carrie-Ann Moss (Melissa Wilkins), Gary Busey (Mr Turner), Denis Akiyama (Detective Peter Ota), David Mucci (Wally), David Fraser (Ed Williams), Martin Roach (Sammy)

Lethal Weapon ★
US 1987 110m Technicolor
Warner/ Richard Donner, Joel Silver
A slightly unhinged cop uncovers a drug smuggling operation.
Extremely violent policier which caters to the Rambo crowd but has enough pizazz to recommend it to most classes.
w Shane Black d Richard Donner
ph Stephen Goldblatt m Michael Kamen, Eric Clapton ☆ Mel Gibson, Danny Glover, Gary Busey, Mitchell Ryan, Tom Atkins, Darlene Love 'Style masquerading as content.' – Daily Variety

Lethal Weapon 2
US 1989 111m colour Panavision
Warner/Silver Pictures (Richard Donner, Joel Silver)
Two cops hunt down drug smugglers protected by diplomatic immunity.
Slick action film with South Africans as the villains, fast-paced enough for the many implausibilities of plot and character to flash by.
w Jeffrey Boam story Shane Black, Warren Murphy d Richard Donner ph Stephen Goldblatt m Michael Kamen, Eric Clapton, David Sanborn pd J. Michael Riva ed Stuart Baird
☆ Mel Gibson, Danny Glover, Joe Pesci, Joss Ackland, Derrick O'Connor, Patsy Kensit

'The magic is back again.'

Lethal Weapon 3
US 1992 118m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Silver Pictures (Richard Donner, Joel Silver)
Two detectives expose a former cop who is running an arms racket.
A succession of violent set pieces substitutes for narrative and character in this increasingly cynical series.
w Jeffrey Boam, Robert Mark Kamen
d Richard Donner ph Jan de Bont
m Michael Kamen, Eric Clapton, David Sanborn pd James Spencer ed Robert Brown, Battle Davis
☆ Mel Gibson, Danny Glover, Joe Pesci, Rene Russo, Stuart Wilson, Steve Kahan, Darlene Love, Traci Wolfe
'A pic that's really more about moments -- comic or thrilling -- than any sort of cohesive whole.' – Variety
'It celebrates a luxurious kind of destruction and disorder that can only appear mindless amid today's realities.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

'The action you expect, the faces you love.'

Lethal Weapon 4
US 1998 127m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Silver/Doshudo (Joel Silver, Richard Donner)
Two LA cops tangle with Chinese gangsters smuggling illegal immigrants into the country.
When even the publicity tag stresses the predictability of what's on offer, then it's no surprise to discover that the usual fare is on offer: noisy explosions, noisy dialogue, and effusive male bonding.
w Channing Gibson story Jonathan

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Lemkin, Alfred Gough, Miles Millar
d Richard Donner ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Michael Kamen, Eric Clapton, David Sanborn ch martial arts: Cory Yuen, Huen Chiu Ku, Chi Wah Ling pd J. Michael Riva ed Frank J. Urioste, Dallas Puett
☆ Mel Gibson, Danny Glover, Joe Pesci, Rene Russo, Chris Rock, Jet Li, Steve Kahan, Kim Chan, Darlene Love, Traci Wolfe, Eddy Ko, Steven Lam, Richard Libertini

'Hollywood cinema that justifies big bucks and bigger bangs.' – Richard Williams, Guardian

'I almost fell asleep during one explosion, only to be rudely awoken by the din of comic business going on in the foreground. Hard to believe, I know, but then you haven't heard the noise levels that the director, Richard Donner, appears to believe are essential to great comedy – levels equalled only by the shrill creak of contrivance as he cranks up each comic situation.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Let's Be Famous

GB 1939 83m bw
Ealing (Michael Balcon)
A stage-struck Irish lad and Lancashire lass have various adventures in London.
Easy-going comedy introducing radio personalities of the day.
w Roger MacDougall, Allan MacKinnon d Walter Forde ph Ronald Neame, Gordon Dines md Ernest Irving ☆ Jimmy O'Dea, Betty Driver, Sonnie Hale, Patrick Barr, Basil Radford, Milton Rosmer, Garry Marsh

Let's Be Happy

GB 1957 107m Technicolor Cinemascope
ABP/ Marcel Hellman
Footling musical remake of Jeannie (qv).
w Diana Morgan d Henry Levin ph Erwin Hillier m Nicholas Brodszky md Louis Levy songs Nicholas Brodszky, Paul Francis Webster
☆ Vera-Ellen, Tony Martin, Robert Flemyng, Zena Marshall, Guy Middleton, Katherine Kath, Jean Cadell, Gordon Jackson

'Success still eludes the Anglo-American musical.' – MFB

Let's Dance

US 1950 112m Technicolor
Paramount (Robert Fellows)
Show business partners reunite after five years of private life.
Tediously plotted musical with a couple of good numbers.
w Allan Scott story Maurice Zolotow d Norman Z. McLeod ph George Barnes m Robert Emmett Dolan songs Frank Loesser
☆ Fred Astaire, Betty Hutton, Roland Young, Ruth Warrick, Lucile Watson, Barton MacLane, Shepperd Strudwick, Melville Cooper, Harold Huber, George Zucco

Let's Do It Again

US 1953 95m Technicolor
Columbia (Oscar Saul)
A songwriter and his wife plan a divorce but call it off in the nick of time.
Tame musical remake of The Awful Truth (qv), pleasant enough but lacking style and punch.
w Mary Loos, Richard Sale d Alexander Hall ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning md Morris Stoloff songs Lester Lee, Ned Washington
☆ Jane Wyman, Ray Milland, Aldo Ray, Leon Ames

Let's Do It Again

US 1975 113m Technicolor
Warner/First Artists/Verdon (Melville Tucker, Pembroke J. Herring)
Three Atlanta workers conceive a zany plan to raise money for their church by hypnotizing a boxer into winning a big fight.
Lively but overlong farce reassembling the black talents of Uptown Saturday Night.
w Richard Wesley d Sidney Poitier ph Donald M. Morgan m Curtis Mayfield ☆ Sidney Poitier, Bill Cosby, Calvin Lockhart, John Amos, Denise Nicholas, Ossie Davis, Jimmy Walker

Let's Face It

US 1943 76m bw
Paramount (Fred Kohlmar)
A smart-alec soldier has a plot involving a ladies' health camp, but finds himself up to his neck in spies.
Tepid star comedy which unaccountably ditches almost all the numbers from the musical on which it was based.
w Harry Tugend play Cradle Snatchers by Norma Mitchell, Russell Medcraft musical play Dorothy and Herbert Fields, Cole Porter d Sidney Lanfield ph Lionel Lindon songs Cole Porter
☆ Bob Hope, Betty Hutton, Eve Arden, Phyllis Povah, Dona Drake, ZaSu Pitts, Marjorie Weaver, Raymond Walburn, Joe Sawyer

Let's Fall in Love

US 1933 67m bw
Columbia
A film director passes off a circus attendant as a glamorous foreign star.
Lightweight comedy with music which did okay.
w Herbert Fields d David Burton
☆ Edmund Lowe, Ann Sothern, Miriam Jordan, Gregory Ratoff

'No chorus, no legs, no undressing for a change ... moderately geared for moderate income.' – Variety

Let's Get Laid

GB 1977 96m Technicolor
Norfolk International (Brian Smedley-Aston)
In 1947, a dimwitted demobbed soldier is chased by police and secret agents after he inadvertently acquires a secret weapon hidden inside a cigarette lighter.
Tiresome and tasteless farcial thriller, not helped by Askwith's gormless act. Its main aim is to get Fiona Richmond to discard her clothes, and even to achieve this, the feeble script has to resort to frequent dream sequences, including one in which she is dressed as a Nazi officer.
w Michael Robson d James Kenelm Clarke ph Phil Meheux m James Kenelm Clarke md Johnny Pearson ad Ken Bridgeman ed Jim Connock
☆ Fiona Richmond (Maxine Lupercal), Robin Askwith (Gordon Laid/Jimsy Deveroo), Anthony Steel (Moncrieff Dovecraft), Linda Hayden (Gloria), Graham Stark (Inspector Nugent), Roland Curram (Rupert Dorchester), Tony Haygarth (Sgt Costello), Patrick Holt (Commissioner)

'Remains fatally undecided whether to go for parody or pastiche, and duly fails as either.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

Let's Get Lost ★

US 1988 120m bw
Mainline/Little Bear (Bruce Weber)
Documentary on the life of jazz trumpeter and drug addict Chet Baker.
Fascinating series of interviews with friends, associates and lovers, interspersed with film from Baker's earlier life and some modern-day performances.
w Susan Stribling d Bruce Weber ph Jeff Preiss m Chet Baker ad Sam Shahid, Donald Sterzin, Rise Daniels ed Angelo Corrao

Let's Get Married

US 1937 68m bw
Columbia
A politician's daughter falls for the weather bureau chief.
Aimless romantic comedy which gets by on its performers.
w Ethel Hill story A. H. Z. Carr d Alfred E. Green ☆ Ida Lupino, Walter Connolly, Ralph Bellamy, Reginald Denny, Raymond Walburn

'Mediocre dualler.' – Variety

Let's Go Native

US 1930 75m bw
Paramount
Various people are shipwrecked on a South Sea island.
Easy-going farce comedy with music.
w George Marion Jnr, Percy Heath d Leo McCarey ☆ Jack Oakie, Jeanette MacDonald, Skeets Gallagher, James Hall, Kay Francis

'Hokum laughs with songs and dances.' – Variety

Let's Go Places

US 1930 70m bw
Fox
A young tenor goes to Hollywood, is mistaken for someone more famous and becomes a star.
Lightweight comedy with mildly interesting studio scenes.
w William K. Wells d Frank Strayer
☆ Joseph Wagstaff, Lola Lane, Sharon Lynn, Ilka Chase, Walter Catlett, Dixie Lee

'Plenty of music, no drawing names. Rates moderate for the big houses.' – Variety

Let's Hope It's a Girl ★

Italy/France 1985 119m colour
Artificial Eye/Clemi Cinematografica/ Producteurs Associes/Soprofilms/A2 (Raimondo Castelli, Bruno Ridolfi) original title: Speriamo Che Sia Femmina
A countess strives, with the help of other women of the household, to keep running the family farm.
Gently amusing, rambling comedy.
w Leo Benvenuti, Tullio Pinelli, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Piero de Bernardi, Mario Monicelli d Mario Monicelli ph Camillo Bazzoni m Nicola Piovani ad Enrico Fiorentini ed Ruggero Mastroianni
☆ Liv Ullmann, Catherine Deneuve, Philippe Noiret, Bernard Blier, Giuliana de Sio, Stefania Sandrelli, Athina Cenci, Lucrezia Lante Della Rovere

Let's Kill Uncle

US 1966 92m colour
Universal/William Castle
A boy is threatened by his wicked uncle, and retaliates.
Mildly intriguing black comedy, leadenly handled.
w Mark Rodgers novel Rohan O'Grady d William Castle ph Harold Lipstein m Herman Stein ☆ Nigel Green, Mary Badham, Pat Cardi, Robert Pickering

Let's Live a Little

US 1948 85m bw
Eagle-Lion/United California Productions
An advertising agent falls for his lady psychiatrist, and after many vicissitudes they and their former partners make it to the altar.
Mild comedy which just about bubbles along despite a rather uncomfortable cast.
w Albert J. Cohen, Jack Harvey d Richard Wallace ph Ernest Laszlo m Werner Heymann ☆ Hedy Lamarr, Robert Cummings, Anna Sten, Robert Shayne, Mary Treen

Let's Live Tonight

US 1935 75m bw
Columbia
Two millionaire brothers in Monte Carlo love the same girl.
Flimsy romantic comedy which gets by on its music.
w Gene Markey, Bradley King d Victor Schertzinger ☆ Lilian Harvey, Tullio Carminati, Hugh Williams, Janet Beecher, Tala Birell, Luis Alberni

'A parrot gets most of the laughs, which tips off the script.' – Variety

Let's Make a Night of It

GB 1937 92m bw
Associated British
In Nice, a husband and wife own rival night-clubs.
Slim musical with rather too many interpolated turns.
w Hugh Brooke radio play The Silver Spoon by Henrik Ege d Graham Cutts ph Otto Kanturek m/ly Jimmie Kennedy, Michael Carr
☆ Buddy Rogers, June Clyde, Claire Luce, Fred Emney, Iris Hoey, Steve Geray, Syd Walker, Afrique, Oliver Wakefield, Brian Michie, Joe Loss and his Band, Sidney Lipton and his Band

'Definitely no appeal for the US.' – Variety

Let's Make It Legal

US 1951 77m bw
TCF
An attractive grandmother divorces her gambler husband and takes up with an old boyfriend.
Unremarkable but competent star comedy.
w F. Hugh Herbert, I. A. L. Diamond d Richard Sale ph Lucien Ballard m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Claudette Colbert, Zachary Scott, Macdonald Carey, Barbara Bates, Robert Wagner, Marilyn Monroe

Let's Make Love ★

US 1960 118m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)
A multi-millionaire, learning that he is to be burlesqued in a Broadway show, joins the cast as an actor.
Complex, moderately sophisticated, occasionally funny musical inspired by On The Avenue (qv); lively characterizations but poor numbers.
w Norman Krasna d George Cukor ph Daniel L. Fapp md Lionel Newman, Earl H. Hagen ch Jack Cole songs Sammy Cahn, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Yves Montand, Marilyn Monroe, Tony Randall, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Frankie Vaughan, David Burns, and guests Bing Crosby, Gene Kelly, Milton Berle
Lionel Newman, Earl H. Hagen

Let's Make Music

US 1940 85m bw
RKO (Howard Benedict)

An old maid of a teacher writes a school song that unexpectedly becomes a novelty hit.

Slight but pleasant time-filler that includes a performance of Crosby's hit 'Big Noise from Winnetka'. Its only surprise is that it was written by the acerbic novelist Nathanael West during his time as an ill-paid Hollywood hack.

w Nathanael West; special dialogue for Bob Crosby by Helen Phillips, Bernard Dougall d Leslie Goodwins ph Jack Mackenzie ad Van Nest Polglase ed Desmond Marquette

☆ Bob Crosby, Jean Rogers, Elisabeth Risdon, Joseph Buloff, Joyce Compton, Bob Crosby's Orchestra featuring The Bobcats

Let's Make Up: see Lilacs in the Spring

Let's Scare Jessica to Death

US 1971 89m colour
Paramount/Jessica Co (Charles B. Moss Jnr)

Back home after a nervous breakdown, our heroine is troubled by voices and visions, not to mention an ambulant corpse and a vampire or two.

Competent screamie.

w Norman Jonas, Ralph Rose d John Hancock ph Bob Baldwin m Orville Stoeber

☆ Zohra Lampert, Barton Heyman, Kevin O'Connor

Let's Spend the Night Together

US 1982 94m Technicolor
Embassy (Ronald L. Schwary)

A concert film shot on the Rolling Stones' tour of America in 1981, including performances from the Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona and the Brendan Byrne Arena in Rutherford, New Jersey.

Fan material, providing nothing of backstage interest, and performances, in the large and impersonal arenas favoured by rock stars, which seem strictly by rote despite their energy.

d Hal Ashby ph Caleb Deschanel, Gerald Feil m/ly Mick Jagger, Keith Richards and others ed Lisa Day, Sonya Sones, Lorinda Hollingshead ♫ Songs performed include 'All Down the Line', 'Beast of Burden', 'Black Limousine', 'Brown Sugar', 'Hang Fire', 'Honky Tonk Woman', 'Jumpin' Jack Flash', 'Let It Bleed', 'Let's Spend the Night Together', 'Satisfaction', 'Under My Thumb' and 'You Can't Always Get What You Want'.

The Letter ★

US 1929 61m bw
Paramount

Early talkie version of a solid piece of theatre.

See below.

play W. Somerset Maugham story W. Somerset Maugham d Jean de Limur

☆ Jeanne Eagels, O. P. Heggie, Reginald Owen, Herbert Marshall, Irene Browne

♗ Jeanne Eagels

'With all my heart, I still love the man I killed!'

The Letter ★★★

US 1940 95m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

A rubber plantation owner's wife kills a man in what seems to have been self-defence; but a letter from her proves it to have been a crime of passion, and becomes an instrument of blackmail.

Excellent performances and presentation make this the closest approximation on film to reading a Maugham story of the Far East, though censorship forced the addition of an infuriating moral ending.

w Howard Koch story W. Somerset Maugham d William Wyler ph Tony Gaudio m Max Steiner ad Carl Jules Weyl ed Warren Low

☆ Bette Davis (Leslie Crosbie), Herbert Marshall (Robert Crosbie), James Stephenson (Howard Joyce), Sen Yung (Ong Chi Seng), Frieda Inescort (Dorothy Joyce), Gale Sondergaard (Mrs. Hammond), Bruce Lester (John Withers), Tetsu Komai (Head Boy)

'The writing is taut and spare throughout . . . the unravelling of Maugham's story is masterly and the presentation visual and cinematic ... the audience at the trade show did not move a finger.' – James Agate

† Herbert Marshall played the lover in the first version and the husband in the second.

♗ best picture; William Wyler; Tony Gaudio; Max Steiner; Bette Davis; James Stephenson; Warren Low

A Letter for Evie

US 1945 88m bw
William H. Wright/MGM

A girl starts confusion when she writes a letter to an unknown soldier; a wimp writes back but sends his he-man buddy's photograph.

Predictable comedy with longueurs.

w De Vallon Scott, Alan Friedman d Jules Dassin

☆ Marsha Hunt, John Carroll, Hume Cronyn, Spring Byington, Pamela Britton, Norman Lloyd

'The story that will live ... as long as there is love!'

Letter from an Unknown Woman ★★★

US 1948 89m bw
Universal/Rampart (John Houseman)

A woman wastes her life in unrequited love for a rakish pianist.

Superior 'woman's picture' which gave its director his best chance in America to recreate his beloved Vienna of long ago. Hollywood production magic at its best.

w Howard Koch novel Stefan Zweig d Max Ophüls ph Franz Planer m Daniele Amfitheatrof ad Alexander Golitzen ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Joan Fontaine (Lisa Berndle), Louis Jourdan (Stefan Brand), Mady Christians (Frau Berndle), Art Smith (John), Marcel Journet (Johann Stauffer)

'A film full of snow, sleigh bells, lights gleaming in ornamental gardens and trysts at night.' – Charles Higham, 1972

'It is fascinating to watch the sure deft means by which Ophuls sidetracks seemingly inevitable clichés and holds on to a shadowy, tender mood, half buried in the past. Here is a fragile filmic charm that is not often or easily accomplished.' – Richard Winnington

'Film narrative of a most skilled order.' – William Whitebait

'Probably the toniest "woman's picture" ever made.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Letter of Introduction ★

US 1938 100m bw
Universal (John M. Stahl)

A young actress is encouraged by an ageing star whom she does not know is her father. Commercial melodrama with luxury trimmings, all very neatly packaged.

w Sheridan Gibney, Leonard Spigelgass d John M. Stahl ph Karl Freund m Charles Previn ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Adolphe Menjou, Andrea Leeds, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, George Murphy, Eve Arden, Rita Johnson, Ernest Cossart, Ann Sheridan

'Headed for big business everywhere.' – Variety

A Letter to Brezhnev ★★

GB 1985 95m colour
Yeardream/Film Four International/Palace Productions (Janet Goddard)

Two girls from Liverpool spend a busy night with Russian sailors; when one of them receives no subsequent letters, she writes to Brezhnev and is invited to Moscow.

Vivid it is, but also raucous and seedy until true love enters as a redeeming factor. The critics loved it, thinking it about unemployment and urban decline; it certainly paints a low picture of Liverpool.

w Frank Clarke d Chris Bernard ph Bruce McGowan m Alan Gill ed Lesley Walker

☆ Alfred Molina, Peter Firth, Margi Clarke, Tracy Lea, Alexandra Pigg

'Fast-moving, funny, entertaining and poignant ... in short how to make a British film.' – Jill Forbes, MFB

'A peek into the other woman's male!'

A Letter to Three Wives ★★

US 1949 102m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

Three wives on a picnic receive word from a friend that she has run off with one of their husbands.

Amusing short-story compendium which seemed more revelatory at the time than it does now, and paved the way for its writer-director's heyday.

wd Joseph L. Mankiewicz novel John Klempner ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman

☆ Jeanne Crain, Ann Sothern, Linda Darnell, Jeffrey Lynn, Kirk Douglas, Paul Douglas, Barbara Lawrence, Connie Gilchrist, Florence Bates, Hobart Cavanaugh, and the voice of Celeste Holm

'A mere shadow of those acid Hollywood comedies of the thirties ... over-written and under-directed ... but it has a supply of ironies and makes a certain alkaline comment on present-day American customs and manners.' – Richard Winnington

'Replete with sharp dialogue. He aims barbed darts at the country's favourite institutions, and makes them score with telling effect.' – Variety

♗ Joseph L. Mankiewicz (as writer); Joseph L. Mankiewicz (as director)

♗ best picture

Letters from a Dead Man ★

USSR 1986 87m colour/bw Artificial Eye/Lenfilm/Sovexportfilm original title: Pisma Myortvovo Cheloveka

After a nuclear holocaust, a scientist composes letters to his missing son while trying to rescue young survivors thrown out of the central shelter.

Grim and powerful for the most part, although not always easy to watch.

w Konstantin Lopushansky, Vyacheslav Rybakov, Boris Strugatsky d Konstantin Lopushansky ph Nikolai Pokoptsev m Alexander Zhurbin, Faure ad Yelema Amshinskaya, Viktor Ivanov

☆ Rolan Bykov, I. Ryklin, V. Mikailov, A. Sabinin, V. Lobanov, N. Gryakalova, V. Mayorova, V. Dvorzhetski

Letters from Iwo Jima ★★★ (9)

US 2006 140m
Warner Bros./Malpaso/Amblin (Clint Eastwood, Steven Spielberg, Robert Lorenz)

An account of the pivotal World War II battle, from the viewpoint of Japanese troops.

This gripping, noble, thoroughly rewarding story, almost totally spoken in Japanese, is a companion piece to Flags of our Fathers (qv) and is superior in most respects. It shows Japanese troops – outnumbered, outmanoeuvred and denied reinforcements from Tokyo -- having retreated to Iwo Jima's caves and tunnels to fight a rearguard action against the invading US forces. It brilliantly depicts the awful waste of human life common to all wars. It strives too hard to suggest that we are all essentially the same regardless of nationality (an argument undermined by a scene of mass suicide), but it's a forceful document of a terrible, complete defeat.

w Iris Yamashita, Paul Haggis book Picture Letters From Commander in Chief by Tadamichi Kuribayashi, edited by Tsuyoko Yoshida d Clint Eastwood ph Tom Stern m Kyle Eastwood, Michael Stevens pd Henry Bumstead, James J. Murakami ed Joel Cox, Gary D. Roach

☆ Ken Watanabe (Lt. General Kuribayashi), Kazunari Ninomiya (Saigo), Tsuyoshi Ihara (Baron Nishi), Ryo Kase (Shimizu), Shidou Nakamura (Lt.Ito), Hiroshi Watanabe (Lt. Fujita), Takumi Bando (Captain Tanida)

'Eastwood has made one of the most quietly devastating war movies of our time.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

'A sharper account of the Iwo Jima conflict than Flags, this balances its unflinching handling of the horrors of war with its touching portrayal of those who face them.' – Dan Jolin, Empire

♗ Sound Editing (Alan Robert Murray, Bub Asman);

♗ Best picture, director, original screenplay

Letty Lynton

US 1932 84m bw
MGM

When one lover is murdered, Letty turns to another to prove her innocent.

Bad girl drama which established the star's box-office appeal.

w John Meehan and Wanda Tuchock d Clarence Brown

☆ Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery, Nils Asther, May Robson, Lewis Stone

'Big grosses are written all over this one.' – Variety

Letyat Zhuravli see The Cranes are Flying

Der Letzte Mann: see The Last Laugh

Leviathan

US/Italy 1989 98m Technicolor J-D-C Scope
Fox/Gordon Company/Filmauro (Luigi de Laurentiis, Aurelio de Laurentiis)

Deep sea miners are the victims of a monstrous genetic experiment gone wrong.

An underwater variation on Alien, lacking originality and suspense.

w David Peoples, Jeb Stuart d George P. Cosmatos ph Alex Thomson m Jerry Goldsmith pd Ron Cobb ed Roberto Silvi, John F. Burnett sp Perpetual Motion Pictures, Stan Winston Studios

☆ Peter Weller, Richard Crenna, Amanda

Pays, Daniel Stern, Ernie Hudson, Michael Carmine, Meg Foster, Lisa Eilbacher, Hector Elizondo

'Given the familiarity of it all, Leviathan is at least an enjoyable rip-off.' – MFB

Levity

US 2003 100m DeLuxe
Sony Pictures Classics/StudioCanal/FilmColony (Richard N. Gladstein, Adam J. Merims, Ed Solomon)

On his release from prison, a murderer is shown how to atone for his crime.
Sombre, didactic sermon, delivered in slow and sonorous tones in the forlorn hope it will be taken seriously.
wd Ed Solomon ph Roger Deakins m Mark Oliver Everett pd Francois Seguin ed Pietro Scalia
☆ Billy Bob Thornton (Manuel Jordan), Morgan Freeman (Miles Evans), Holly Hunter (Adele Easely), Kirsten Dunst (Sofia Mellinger), Dorian Harewood (Mackie Whittaker)

'The most incredible indie-miserablist whinge is all you can expect from this tiresome film' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Les Lèvres Rouges: see Daughters of Darkness

Lewis & Clark & George

US 1997 84m CFI color
Davis/Dark Matter (J. Todd Harris, Dan Gunther)

Two escaped convicts team up with a cigar-smoking woman to search for a gold mine.
A tongue-in-cheek, offbeat cowboy road movie, a tale of double- and triple-cross, which rounds up the usual situations and violently recycles them.
wd Rod McCall ph Michael Mayers m Ben Vaughn pd John Huke ed Ed Marx
☆ Rose McGowan, Salvator Xuereb, Dan Gunther, Art LaFleur, James Brolin, Paul Bartel

'This self-consciously quirky offering is unashamed of regurgitating most of the genre's clichés.' – Independent

La Ley del Deseo: see Law of Desire

Ley Lines ★

Japan 1999 105m colour
Daiei (Tsutomu Tsuchikawa)

original title: Nihon Kuroshakai
Three small town youths, the children of Chinese immigrants, run away to the big city, where they go from bad to worse.
A drama, bleak without being particularly enlightening, of the dispossessed and immigrants in the multi-ethnic confusion of Tokyo, told in short, disjointed scenes of petty crime and prostitution.
w Ichiro Ryu d Takashi Miike ph Naosuke Imaizumi m Koji Endo pd Akira Ishige ed Taiji Shimamura
☆ Dan Li, Hua Rong Wong, Kazuki Kitamura, Koji Tsukamoto, Michisuke Kashiwaya, Naoto Takenaka, Samuel Pop Aning, Tomorowo Taguchi

L'Homme du Train: see The Man on the Train

L'Humanité ★★

France 1999 148m colour Panavision
Artificial Eye/3B/Arte/CRRAV (Jean Brehat, Rachid Bouchareb)

In a small Flanders town, a lonely, emotionally unstable cop investigates the rape and murder of a schoolgirl.
Slow-paced, plodding movie of the dull, dour and inarticulate; its length will come near to defeating even those who respond to its slow rhythms and gradual, uncompromising unfolding of individual lives in a particular place.
wd Bruno Dumont ph Yves Cape m Richard Cuvillier ad Marc-Philippe Guerig ed Guy Lecorne cos Nathalie Raoul ☆ Emmanuel Schotte (Pharaon De Winter), Severine Caneele (Domino), Philippe Tullier (Joseph), Ghislain Ghesquiere (Police Chief), Ginette Allegre (Eliane)

'A tale of compassion and empathy that will trigger impatience and intolerance in many viewers.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

Les Liaisons Dangereuses ★

France 1959 106m bw
Films Marceau

Valmont and his wife compare notes on each other's affairs.
Showy modernization of a notorious minor classic.
w Roger Vailland, Roger Vadim, Claude Brulé novel Choderlos de Laclos d Roger Vadim ph Marcel Grignon m Jack Murray, Thelonius Monk ☆ Gérard Philipe, Jeanne Moreau, Annette Vadim, Jeanne Valerie, Simone Renant, Jean-Louis Trintignant

'A woman's picture par excellence.' – John Russell Taylor, MFB

Liam ★★

GB/Germany 2000 91m colour
Artificial Eye/BBC/Liam/Road Movies/Mida/Diaphana/Bim/ WDR/Arte/ARD/Degeto (Colin McKeown, Martin Tempia)

In Liverpool in the early 30s, a young, stammering Catholic boy undergoes a harsh education and watches his father turning to fascism and violence after he loses his job.
Raw and emotional account of life during the Depression, recalled with a powerful immediacy.
w Jimmy McGovern d Stephen Frears ph Andrew Dunn m John Murphy pd Stephen Fineren ed Kristina Hetherington
☆ Ian Hart (Dad), Claire Hackett (Mam), Anthony Borrows (Liam), David Hart (Con), Megan Burns (Teresa), Anne Reid (Mrs Abernathy), Russell Dixon (Father Ryan), Julia Deakin (Auntie Aggie), Andrew Schofield (Uncle Tom), Bernadette Shortt (Lizzie)

'A passionate drama bursting with humor and affection, and Frears handles the material with his customary skill and intelligence.' – David Stratton, Variety

Lianlian Feng Chen: see Dust in the Wind

Lianna

US 1983 112m DuArt
Winwood

A wife and mother becomes a lesbian.
That's all there is, folks, not much in the way of plot, and barely enough for a TV movie; but some good observation and acting come through.
ph Austin de Besche m Mason Daring wd/ed John Sayles
☆ Linda Griffiths, Jane Hallaren, Jon de Vries, Jo Henderson

'You come looking, you might not like what you find.'

Liar ★

US 1997 102m Foto-Kem 'Scope
First Independent/MDP (Peter Glatzer)

aka: Deceiver
A wealthy alcoholic playboy investigates the cops who questioned him over the murder of a prostitute.
Tricksy, over-elaborate thriller, intent on confusing its audience; but its makers show promise of better things to come.
wd Jonas and Joshua Pate ph Bill Butler m Harry Gregson-Williams pd John Kretschmer ed Dan Lebental
☆ Tim Roth, Chris Penn, Michael Rooker, Renee Zellweger, Ellen Burstyn, Rosanna Arquette

'Flashy exercise in style and obfuscation.' – Variety

'Trust Me.'

Liar, Liar ⑤

US 1997 87m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer)

A young boy's wish becomes true – and his father, an unscrupulous lawyer, is forced to tell the truth for 24 hours.
A comedy that merges Carrey's now familiar frenetic mugging with some gruesome sentimentality; soft-centred slapstick is not a pretty sight.
w Paul Guay, Stephen Mazur d Tom Shadyac ph Russell Boyd m John Debney pd Linda de Scenna ed Don Zimmerman
☆ Jim Carrey, Maura Tierney, Jennifer Tilly, Swoosie Kurtz, Amanda Donohoe, Cary Elwes

'Isn't designed to win Carrey any converts, but is shrewdly calculated to include enough lightly lewd humor to keep adults amused while the kids enjoy the slapstick shenanigans.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† A similar notion was used in the Bob Hope comedy Nothing but the Truth (qv).

Libel ★

GB 1959 100m bw
MGM/Comet (Anatole de Grunwald)

An ex-POW baronet is accused of being an impostor.
Old-fashioned courtroom spellbinder, quite adequately done though occasionally creaky.
w Anatole de Grunwald, Karl Tunberg play Edward Wooll d Anthony Asquith ph Robert Krasker m Benjamin Frankel ad Paul Sheriff ☆ Dirk Bogarde, Olivia de Havilland, Paul Massie, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Robert Morley, Anthony Dawson, Richard Wattis, Martin Miller, Millicent Martin

Libeled Lady ★★

US 1936 98m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

An heiress sues a newspaper, and the editor hires a friend to compromise her.
Lively four-star romantic comedy which sums up its era as well as any.
w Maurine Watkins, Howard Emmett Rogers, George Oppenheimer d Jack Conway ph Norbert Brodine m William Axt
☆ Jean Harlow, Myrna Loy, Spencer Tracy, William Powell, Walter Connolly, Charley Grapewin, Cora Witherspoon, E. E. Clive, Charles Trowbridge

'Handsomely mounted and produced, lavishly costumed, cleverly written and artfully directed, Libeled Lady is entirely worthy of the noble comedians who head its cast.' – Bland Johaneson, New York Daily Mirror † Remade as Easy to Wed (qv); central situation borrowed for Man's Favorite Sport (qv).

best picture

'All she wanted was her black man's money and her white man's love!'

The Liberation of L. B. Jones ★

US 1970 102m Technicolor
Columbia/Liberation Co (Ronald Lubin)

Racial murder is the result when a black undertaker wants a divorce in a small Tennessee town.
Violent, pointless but well-made melodrama which really does not take matters much further than Intruder in the Dust.
w Stirling Silliphant, Jesse Hill Ford, from Ford's novel d William Wyler ph Robert Surtees m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Lee J. Cobb, Anthony Zerbe, Roscoe Lee Browne, Lola Falana, Lee Majors, Barbara Hershey, Yaphet Kotto, Arch Johnson, Chill Wills

'With its genuinely ferocious climax it adds up to probably the most powerful, if not the most sophisticated, race-war film the commercial studios have yet produced.' – Nigel Andrews

The Libertine ★ ④

US/GB 2005 114m colour
Entertainment/Weinstein/IoMF/Mr Mudd (Lianne Halfon, John Malkovich, Russell Smith)

In the 17th century, the Earl of Rochester leads a debauched life and dies young.
Murkily shot historical romp, with Depp acting as if he has just wandered off the set of Pirates of the Caribbean.
w Stephen Jeffreys play Stephen Jeffreys d Laurence Dunmore ph Alexander Melman m Michael Nyman pd Ben Van Os ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Johnny Depp (Earl of Rochester), Samantha Morton (Elizabeth Barry), John Malkovich (King Charles II), Rosamund Pike (Elizabeth Malet), Tom Hollander (Sir George Etherege), Johnny Vegas (Charles Sackville)

'By the end the movie seems to flail in desperation, more like a work in progress than like a finished piece.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'All the cliches - alehouses, cackling whores and their sweaty, candlelit embonpoints, are present and correct.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Liberty ★★

US 1929 20m bw silent
Hal Roach

Two convicts escape and have adventures high on a construction site.
Amusing gags are succeeded by breathtaking thrills in the Harold Lloyd style.
w Leo McCarey, H. M. Walker d Leo McCarey ph George Stevens ed Richard Currier, William Terhune
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Jean Harlow, Tom Kennedy

† Lloyd French and James Horne also directed some sequences.

'You're only young once, but you remember forever.'

Liberty Heights ★

US 1999 127m Technicolor
Warner/Baltimore/Spring Creek (Barry Levinson, Paula Weinstein)

In Baltimore in the 1950s, the adolescent sons of a Jewish family cope with the problems of growing up.
Over-long and heavy-handed recreation of social change that comes to life only fitfully.
wd Barry Levinson ph Chris Doyle m Andrea Morricone pd Vincent Peranio ed Stu Linder cos Gloria Gresham

☆ Adrien Brody (Van Kurtzman), Ben Foster (Ben Kurtzman), Orlando Jones (Little Melvin), Bebe Neuwirth (Ada Kurtzman), Joe Mantegna (Nate Kurtzman), Rebekah Johnson (Sylvia), David Krumholtz (Yussel), Richard Kline (Charlie), Vincent Guastaferro (Pete), Justin Chambers (Trey)

'This exceptionally successful director seems to be rediscovering his voice as a writer, and in the process has made his best film.' – Todd McCathy, Variety

'The screenplay and performances are too muted for the movie to come to terms with growing pains cushioned in the nostalgic haze.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Licence to Kill ★

US 1989 133m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/United Artists/Danjaq (Albert R. Broccoli, Michael G. Wilson)

James Bond goes after a drug dealer who has injured his best friend.

The mixture is much as usual, though the action is more violent and Bond has become more of a free agent.

w Michael G. Wilson, Richard Maibaum d John Glen ph Alec Mills m Michael Kamen pd Peter Lamont ed John Grover

☆ Timothy Dalton, Carey Lowell, Robert Davi, Talisa Soto, Anthony Zerbe, Frank McRae, Everett McGill, Wayne Newton, Benicio del Toro

License to Drive

US 1988 88m DeLuxe
TCF/Davis/Licht/Mueller

A 16-year-old, unable to tell his friends that he has failed his driving test, borrows his grandfather's car for a date with the girlfriend of his dreams.

Heavy-handed and tiresome teenage farce; it works on a mechanical level, managing to maintain an accelerating momentum of incident, but rarely produces even a smile.

w Neil Tolkin d Greg Beeman ph Bruce Surtees m Jay Ferguson pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Wendy Greene Bricmont

☆ Corey Haim, Corey Feldman, Carol Kane, Richard Masur, Heather Graham, Michael Manasseri, Harvey Miller, M. A. Nickles, Nina Siemaszko

Licensed to Kill

GB 1965 97m Eastmancolor
Alistair Films (Estelle E. Richmond)
US title: The Second Best Secret Agent in the Whole Wide World

The Foreign Office calls in agent Charles Vine to protect a top international scientist.

Cheap copy of James Bond which wins no laurels but produces a few efficient routine thrills.

w Howard Griffiths, Lindsay Shonteff d Lindsay Shonteff ph Terry Maher m Bertram Chappell

☆ Tom Adams, Veronica Hurst, Karel Stepanek, Felix Felton, Peter Bull

The Lie: see Mensonge

Eine Liebe in Deutschland: see A Love in Germany

Liebelei ★

Austria 1932 85m bw
Fred Lissa

A young army officer falls in love; but he is killed in a duel and his girl commits suicide.

Semi-classic romantic novelette, like a warm-up for Letter from an Unknown Woman.

w Hans Wilhelm, Kurt Alexander story Arthur Schnitzler d Max Ophüls ph Franz Planer m Theo Macheber

☆ Magda Schneider, Wolfgang Liebeneiner, Luise Ullrich, Willy Eichberger, Gustaf Gruendgens, Paul Hoerbiger

† A revised French version played as Une Histoire d'Amour. The story had previously been shot under the same title in Germany in 1927; and in the sixties Romy Schneider and Alain Delon appeared in a French remake called Christine.

Liebestraum

US 1991 113m DuArt
UIP/MGM/Initial (Eric Fellner)

An architectural writer, returning home to visit his dying mother, unwittingly uncovers her violent past which has repercussions in the present.

Involved thriller that leaves a lot of questions unanswered.

wd Mike Figgis ph Juan Ruiz Anchia m Mike Figgis pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Martin Hunter

☆ Kevin Anderson, Pamela Gidley, Bill Pullman, Kim Novak, Graham Beckel, Zach Grenier, Thomas Kopache

'Seldom has the gulf between artistic intentions and end result yawned so protractedly.' – Empire

† A central scene, set in a brothel and lasting eleven minutes, was cut from the film before its release in America.

Lien-lien feng-ch'en: see Dust in the Wind

Les Liens du Sang: see Blood Relatives

Lies: see Kojitmal

Lies My Father Told Me

Canada 1975 102m colour
Columbia/Pentimento/Pentacle (Anthony Bedrich, Harry Gulkin)

Adventures of a poor Jewish boy and his grandfather in Montreal in the twenties.

Effectively if rather dishonestly sentimental, this is the kind of family picture for which critics are always clamouring but which few people in the seventies would pay to see.

w Ted Allan book Ted Allan d Jan Kadar ph Paul Van der Linden m Sol Kaplan

☆ Yossi Yadin, Len Birman, Marilyn Lightstone, Jeffrey Lynas

'Sentiment by numbers ... a lovable child awakening to discovery of the world; a lovable, whimsical old grandfather; a lovable, ne'er-do-well father; a lovable, long-suffering mother; a lovable, broken-down horse; lovable neighbours; a lovable whore across the way. It all strives so hard to be lovable that you want to scream.' – David Robinson, The Times

† A British low-budget film was made from the same material in 1960, changing the venue to Ireland and the race to Irish.

ℒ Ted Allan

Lt Robin Crusoe USN

US 1966 114m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Walsh, Won Miller)

A navy pilot parachutes on to a Pacific island and gets involved in the local women's lib movement.

Slow-paced family comedy with very few laughs.

w Bill Walsh, Don da Gradi d Byron Paul ph William Snyder m Bob Brunner

☆ Dick Van Dyke, Nancy Kwan, Akim Tamiroff

The Lieutenant Wore Skirts

US 1955 99m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Buddy Adler)

When a TV writer joins the service, his wife enlists to be near him; but he is rejected on medical grounds.

Raucous, tasteless farce which tries far too hard to raise laughs.

w Albert Beich, Frank Tashlin d Frank Tashlin ph Leo Tover m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Tom Ewell, Sheree North, Rita Moreno, Rick Jason, Les Tremayne

'Share It With Someone You Love.'

Life ★

US 1999 109m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Eddie Murphy)

A conman and a bank clerk, both framed for murder, spend a lifetime together in prison.

Amiable prison variation on The Odd Couple, which gets by on the interplay between its two stars, though reality never intrudes.

w Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone d Ted Demme ph Geoffrey Simpson m Wyclef Jean pd Dan Bishop ed Jeffrey Wolf sp make-up fx: Rick Baker cos Lucy Corrigan

☆ Eddie Murphy (Rayford Gibson), Martin Lawrence (Claude Banks), Obba Babatunde (Willie Long), Ned Beatty (Dexter Wilkins), Bernie Mac (Jangle Leg), Miguel A. Nunez Jnr (Biscuit), Clarence Williams III (Winston Hancock), Bokeem Woodbine (Can't Get Right), Michael 'Bear' Taliferro (Goldmouth), Barry Shabaka Henley (Pokerface), R. Lee Ermey (Older Sheriff Pike), Nick Cassavetes (Sgt Dillard), Noah Emmerich (Stan Blocker), Rick James (Spanky)

'Careens from decade to decade, and from relative dramatic realism to frequent hilarity, in often-winning fashion.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'It's unfunny, it lacks excitement, tension or even a sense of oppression, and it never involves us for a moment with its characters.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

ℒ make-up (Rick Baker)

Life After Dark: see Girls in the Night

The Life and Death of a Hollywood Extra ★

US 1927 11m (24 fps) bw silent
(Robert Florey and Slavko Vorkapich)

A nonentity arrives in Hollywood and dreams of becoming a star.

Avant-garde short, still interesting if less revolutionary than it seemed at the time.

wd Robert Florey and Slavko Vorkapich ph Slavko Vorkapich and Gregg Toland ad/ed Slavko Vorkapich

☆ Jules Raucort, Georges Voya

The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp ★★★

GB 1943 163m Technicolor
GFD/Archers (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)
US title: Colonel Blimp

A British soldier survives three wars and falls in love with three women.

Not the Blimp of the cartoon strip, but a sympathetic figure in a warm, consistently interesting if idiosyncratic love story against a background of war. The Archers as usual provide a sympathetic German lead (friend of the hero); quite a coup in wartime.

wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger
ph Georges Perinal m Allan Gray ad Alfred Junge ed John Seabourne

☆ Roger Livesey (Clive Candy), Anton Walbrook (Theo Kretschmar-Schuldorff), Deborah Kerr (Edith Hunter/Barbara Wynne/Johnny Cannon), Roland Culver (Col. Betteridge), James McKechnie (Spud Wilson), Albert Lieven (Von Ritter), Arthur Wontner (Embassy Counsellor), A. E. Matthews (President of Tribunal), David Hutcheson (Hoppy), Ursula Jeans (Frau von Kalteneck), John Laurie (Murdoch), Harry Welchman (Maj. Davis)

'There is nothing brilliant about the picture, but it is perceptive, witty and sweet-tempered.' – James Agee

'No one else has so well captured English romanticism banked down beneath emotional reticence.' – Time Out, 1985

'It stands as very possibly the finest film ever made in Britain.' – David Kehr, Chicago Reader

'Never judge a man by his cover.'

The Life and Death of Peter Sellers ★

US/GB 2004 122m colour
HBO/BBC/De Mann Entertainment/Company (Simon Bosanquet)

A selfish, self-obsessed actor only feels at ease when he adopts a personality other than his own.

A biopic of Peter Sellers that provides an opportunity for a bravura performance from Geoffrey Rush that emphasizes Sellers' unpleasant personal behaviour; the narrative complexities would have been better served by a less hectic directorial approach.

w Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely d Stephen Hopkins ph Peter Levy m Richard Hartley pd Norman Garwood ed John Smith

☆ Geoffrey Rush (Peter Sellers), Charlize Theron (Britt Ekland), Emily Watson (Anne Sellers), John Lithgow (Blake Edwards), Miriam Margolyes (Peg Sellers), Peter Vaughan (Bill Sellers), Sonia Aquino (Sophia Loren), Stanley Tucci (Stanley Kubrick), Stephen Fry (Maurice Woodruff), Heidi Klum (Heidi Klum), Edward Tudor Pole (Spike Milligan), Steve Pemberton (Harry Secombe), Nigel Havers (David Niven)

'An adventurously conceived biopic of the late comic actor that, in the end, just doesn't convince.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Life and Extraordinary Adventures of Private Ivan Chonkin ★

GB/France/Italy/Czechoslovakia/Russia 1994 111m colour
Portbello/MK2/Canal/La Sept/CNC/Channel 4/Fandango/Domenico Procacci/Studio 89/Studio Trite (Eric Abraham)

An army private, sent to an isolated village to guard a plane crash, begins an affair with the local postmistress and attracts the attention of the secret police.

Interesting, slightly ramshackle comedy, championing simple virtues in the face of repressive bureaucracy.

w Zdenek Sverák, Vladimir Voinovich novel Vladimir Voinovich d Jiri Menzel ph Jaromir Sofr m Jiri Sust pd Milan Bycek ed Jiri Brozek, Elisabeth Guido

☆ Gennadiy Nazarov, Zoya Buryak, Vladimir Ilyin, Valeriy Dubrovin, Alexei Zharkov, Zinovil Gerdt

† Vladimir Voinovich turned his original film script, written in the mid-60s, into a novel which was banned in the Soviet Union and published in Paris; it led to his exile in 1980, after he lost his citizenship, which was not restored to him until 1990.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Life and Lyrics ④

UK 2006 99m
UIP/Fiesta Productions (Esther Douglas, Fiona Neilson)

The leader of a south London rap outfit finds his loyalties tested when he falls for a rival crew's singer.
A predictable urban drama, acted with conviction but with a clichéd script that feels less than authentic.
w Ken Williams d Richard Laxton ph John Daly pd Luana Hanson ad David Hindle ed Tracey Wadmore-Smith, Sam Williams
☆ Ashley Walters (Danny Lewis), Louise Rose (Carmen), Christopher Steward (Fable), Cat Simmons (Sista Twista), Patrick Regis (Money Man), Beau Baptist (Blitz)
'The easy pitch is the British 8 Mile, but this slice of London life arguably has more in common with Boyz N the Hood.' – Helen O'Hara, Empire

Life and Nothing But ★★

France 1989 134m colour Panavision
Artificial Eye/Hachette Première et Cie/AB Films/Little Bear/A2 (René Cleitman) original title: La Vie Et Rien D'Autre

Two women, one searching for her missing husband, the other for her lover among the patients at a military hospital, discover that they are looking for the same man.
Complex and affecting movie of love and disillusion, of individual tragedy and national pride, set at the end of the First World War.
w Jean Cosmos, Bertrand Tavernier d Bertrand Tavernier ph Bruno de Keyzer m Oswald d'Andrea pd Guy-Claude François ed Armand Psenny
☆ Philippe Noiret, Sabine Azéma, Pascale Vignal, Maurice Barrier, François Perrot, Jean-Pol Dubois, Daniel Russo, Michel Duchaussoy, Arlette Gilbert
BAFTA best foreign picture

'I want peace – and I don't care who I kill to get it!'

The Life and Times of Judge Roy Bean ★

US 1972 124m Technicolor Panavision
National General/First Artists (John Foreman)

A fantasia on the famous outlaw judge of the old west.
Sporadically entertaining but schematically messy mixture of burlesqued folklore and violent action, not in the same league as Butch Cassidy.
w John Milius d John Huston ph Richard Moore m Maurice Jarre
☆ Paul Newman, Ava Gardner, Jacqueline Bisset, Tab Hunter, Stacy Keach, Roddy McDowall, Anthony Perkins, John Huston
Academy Award song 'Marmalade, Molasses and Honey' (m Maurice Jarre, ly A. and M. Bergman)

The Life Aquatic With Steve Zissou

US 2004 118m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Wes Anderson, Barry Mendel, Scott Rudin)

A hardup underwater explorer begins an expedition to find the jaguar shark that ate his best friend.
Curious disjointed comedy that rambles from one setpiece to another without anything particular in mind; incidents come and go in such a desultory manner that it is as if the cast made it up as they went along.
w Wes Anderson, Noah Baumbach d Wes Anderson ph Robert Yeoman m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Mark Friedberg ed David Moritz
☆ Bill Murray (Steve Zissou), Owen Wilson (Ned Plimpton), Cate Blanchett (Jane Winslett-Richardson), Anjelica Huston (Eleanor Zissou), Willem Dafoe (Klaus Daimler), Jeff Goldblum (Alistair Hennessey), Michael Gambon (Oseary Drakoulias), Bud Cort (Bill Ubell)
'Nobody could leave The Life Aquatic without the impression of having nearly drowned in some secret and melancholy game.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker
'Like a junior high kid's parody of outdoor-celebrity decadence set at picturesque ports of call, on uncharted waters, and 20,000 leagues under the sea.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun

'Seen from a distance, it's perfect.'

Life as a House

US/Germany 2001 125m DeLuxe Panavision
New Line (Irwin Winkler, Rob Cowan)

A dying architect tries to connect with his troubled teenage son while rebuilding the house in which he lives.
Slick lachrymose drama of male bonding that is contrived and uinconvincing..
w Mark Andrus d Irwin Winkler ph Vilmos Zgismond m Mark Isham pd Dennis Washington ed Julie Monroe ☆ Kevin Kline (George), Kristin Scott Thomas (Robin), Hayden Christensen (Sam), Jena Malone (Alyssa), Mary Steenbergen (Coleen)
'May satisfy those who like their movies to offer life lessons and provide role models.' – Bob Graham, San Francisco Chronicle

Life at the Top ★

GB 1965 117m bw
Columbia/Romulus (James Woolf)

Ten years after marrying into money, Joe Lampton is dissatisfied, and he and his wife both have affairs.
Rough-talking but basically predictable and old-fashioned sequel to Room at the Top, a bit compromised by having to reflect the sixties London scene; the early Yorkshire sequences are the best.
w Mordecai Richler d Ted Kotcheff ph Oswald Morris m Richard Addinsell ☆ Laurence Harvey, Jean Simmons, Honor Blackman, Michael Craig, Donald Wolfit, Margaret Johnston, Allan Cuthbertson, Ambrosine Philpotts, Robert Morley, Nigel Davenport, George A. Cooper
'Another thoroughly mean-spirited film of a kind which has been taking root in the British cinema.' – Tom Milne
† The character of Joe Lampton was later used in a long-running TV series called Man at the Top, which sprouted a film of its own under that title.

Life Begins

US 1932 72m bw
Warner (Ray Griffith)
GB title: Dream of Life

A night in a maternity hospital.
Multi-melodrama later remade as A Child Is Born. Passable.
w Earl Baldwin play Mary McDougal Axelson d James Flood ph James Van Trees ☆ Loretta Young, Eric Linden, Aline MacMahon, Preston Foster, Glenda Farrell, Frank McHugh, Clara Blandick, Elizabeth Patterson, Gilbert Roland 'Splendid women's picture promising at least solid matinée business.' – Variety

Life Begins at 40

US 1935 85m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

A small-town editor, whose paper is repossessed by the bank manager, starts a rival publication and investigates the conviction for robbery of a bank clerk.
Mildly entertaining rustic humour, aimed at giving Rogers the opportunity to spout his cracker-barrel philosophy.
w Lamar Trotti, Robert Quillen book Walter B. Pitkin d George Marshall ph Harry Jackson md Samuel Kaylin ad Duncan Cramer, Albert Hogsett ☆ Will Rogers, Richard Cromwell, George Barbier, Rochelle Hudson, Jane Darwell, Slim Summerville, Sterling Holloway

Life Begins at Eight-Thirty ★

US 1942 85m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)
GB title: The Light of Heart

A distinguished actor is reduced through drink to being a street corner Santa Claus.
Diluted and sentimentalized version of an agreeable play.
w Nunnally Johnson play The Light of Heart by Emlyn Williams d Irving Pichel ph Edward Cronjager m Alfred Newman
☆ Monty Woolley, Ida Lupino, Cornel Wilde, Sara Allgood, Melville Cooper, J. Edward Bromberg

Life Begins in College ★

US 1937 80m bw
TCF (Harold Wilson)
GB title: The Joy Parade

Three zanies save the honour of the college football team.
Another of the myriad college football stories of the thirties, but this time enlivened by comedians in the leads.
w Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger stories Darrell Ware d William A. Seiter ph Robert Planck m/ly Lew Pollock, Sidney D. Mitchell md Louis Silvers ch Nick Castle, Geneva Sawyer ad Hans Peters ed Louis Loeffler
☆ The Ritz Brothers (Themselves), Joan Davis (Inez), Tony Martin (Band Leader), Gloria Stuart (Janet O'Hara), Fred Stone (Coach O'Hara), Nat Pendleton (George Black)
'The Ritzes soar to stardom; a box office touchdown.' – Variety
♫ 'Big Chief Swing It'; 'Our Team Is On The Warpath'; 'The Rhumba Goes Collegiate'; 'Fair Lombardy'; 'Why Talk About Love'; 'Sweet Varsity Sue'

Life Dances On: see Un Carnet de Bal

Life for Ruth ★

GB 1962 91m bw
Rank/Allied Film Makers (Michael Relph, Basil Dearden)
US title: Condemned to Life

A little girl dies because her parents' religion forbids blood transfusions.
Dramatized from the headlines, this little case history is small beer as film-making, and not exactly entertainment, but absorbing as a comment on human behaviour.
w Janet Green, John McCormick d Basil Dearden ph Otto Heller m William Alwyn md Muir Mathieson
☆ Michael Craig, Patrick McGoohan, Janet Munro, Paul Rogers, Megs Jenkins, Frank Finlay, Maureen Pryor

Life in Danger

GB 1959 63m bw
Butchers/Parroch (Jack Parsons)

Angry villagers hunt for a murderer who has escaped from a nearby mental hospital.
Competent thriller with a twist in its tail.
w Malcolm Hulke, Eric Paice d Terry Bishop ph Peter Hennessy m William Davies ad Peter Proud ed John Trumper
☆ Derren Nesbitt, Julie Hopkins, Howard Marion Crawford, Victor Brooks, Jack Allen, Christopher Witty, Carmel McSharry, Bruce Seton

Life in Emergency Ward 10

GB 1958 84m bw
Eros Films (Ted Lloyd)

A new consultant at the hospital causes controversy by introducing an experimental modification to heart surgery techniques and becoming involved with a colleague's wife.
A spin-off from a popular TV series, though still looking as if it were made for the small screen and scripted as a series of anecdotal episodes that mix comedy and sentimentality in predictable ways.
w Tessa Diamond, Hazel Adair d Robert Day ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Philip Green ad George Beech ed Lito Carruthers
☆ Michael Craig, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Dorothy Alison, Glyn Owen, Charles Tingwell, Frederick Bartman, Rosemary Miller, Joan Sims

A Life in the Balance ★

US 1954 75m bw
TCF/Panoramic (Leonard Goldstein)

A Mexican widower springs into action when his young son is kidnapped by a murderer.
Taut little melodrama taking place during one night in Mexico City; made with vigour on a low budget.
w Robert Presnell Jnr, Leo Townsend d Harry Horner ph J. Gomez Urquiza m Raul Lavista ☆ Ricardo Montalban, Anne Bancroft, Lee Marvin

Life Is a Bed of Roses ★

France 1983 111m Eastmancolor
Philippe Dusart/Soprofilms/Films A2/Fideline/Ariane/Filmedis/Ministry of Culture (Philippe Dusart) original title: La Vie est un Roman

A count opens a temple of happiness and starts to re-educate his friends.
Dense fantasy which never really explains itself but provides pleasant moments along the way.
w Jean Gruault d Alain Resnais ph Bruno Nuytten m M. Philippe-Gerard ☆ Vittorio Gassman, Ruggero Raimondi, Geraldine Chaplin, Fanny Ardant, Pierre Arditi

Life Is a Circus

GB 1958 84m bw
Vale Film (M. Smedley Aston)

An odd-job man in a rundown circus finds Aladdin's lamp.
Feeble comedy by the Crazy Gang in a state of geriatric disrepair, simply going through the motions, which is an understandable reaction given the script. Chesney Allen makes a brief appearance to sing 'Underneath the Arches' with his old partner, Bud Flanagan.
wd Val Guest ph Arthur Graham m Philip Green ad Tony Masters ed Bill Lenny ☆ Bud Flanagan, Jimmy Nervo, Teddy Knox, Cahrlie Naughton, Jimmy Gold, Monsewer Eddie Gray, Shirley Eaton,

Michael Holliday, Joseph Tomelty, Lionel Jeffries

Life Is a Long Quiet River: see La Vie Est un Long Fleuve Tranquille

Life is a Miracle ★

France/Serbia and Montenegro 2004 154m colour
Artificial Eye/Cabiria/France 2/Les Films Alain Sarde

original title: Zivot Je Cudo

As war begins in Bosnia in the early 1990s, a Serbian railway engineer loses his wife, gains a lover and sends his son off to fight.

Exuberant comedy that plays down the nastier realities of life in favour of a noisy frivolity.

w Emir Kusturica, Ranko Bozic d Emir Kusturica ph Michel Amathieu m Dejan Sparavalo, Emir Kusturica ed Svetolik Mica Zajc

☆ Slavko Stimac (Luka), Natasa Solak (Sabaha), Vesna Trivalic (Jadranka), Vuk Kostic (Milos), Aleksandar Bercek (Veljo), Stribor Kusturica (Captain Aleksic)

'It is as if every character is trying to do his Anthony Quinn impersonation. Bernard Shaw might have reconsidered his ideas about the life force if he saw this movie.' – Philip French, Observer

'The unforgettable film that proves love, family and imagination conquer all.'

Life Is Beautiful ★★★

Italy 1997 122m colour
Buena Vista/Melampo (Elda Ferri, Gianluigi Braschi)

original title: La Vita è Bella

During the Second World War, a Jewish bookshop owner, sent with his family to a concentration camp, protects his young son by pretending that they are in a holiday camp.

A bold and brave film, and one well worth seeing, despite some rather contrived slapstick in the early sequences; yet, in the end, clowning does not merely seem an inappropriate response to the realities of a concentration camp, but the wrong response.

w Vincenzo Cerami, Roberto Benigni d Roberto Benigni ph Tonino Delli Colli m Nicola Piovani pd Danilo Donati ed Simona Paggi

☆ Roberto Benigni (Guido Orefice), Nicoletta Braschi (Dora), Giustino Durano (Uncle), Sergio Bustric (Ferruccio Orefice), Marisa Paredes (Dora's Mother), Horst Buchholz (Dr. Lessing), Lydia Alfonsi (Guicciardini), Giuliana Lojodice (Didactic Principal), Giorgio Cantarini (Giosue)

'Sluggish, uneven and lacking in rhythm, it nonetheless has enough pathos and winning humor to ensure national success.' – David Rooney, Variety

'What he has made is not, in fact, a comedy about the Holocaust – a project that would have required a sinewy nerve and a black spluttering wit. He has made an allegory about comedy's redemptive power – a softer, more fogbound beast.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

'One of the most unconvincing and self-congratulatory movies ever made.' – David Denby, New Yorker

† The film took in excess of $40m at the US box-office, more than any other foreign-language film, and also grossed more than $152m around the world.

†† Benigni's concentration-camp number, 7397, was chosen as a tribute to Charlie Chaplin, who wore the same number in The Great Dictator.

foreign-language film; Roberto Benigni (actor); Nicola Piovani best picture; Roberto Benigni (director); Vincenzo Cerami, Roberto Benigni (script); Simona Paggi

Roberto Benigni (actor)

Life Is Cheap ... But Toilet Paper Is Expensive ★

US 1990 88m colour
ICA/Forever Profit Investments/Far East Stars (Winnie Fredriksz)

Travelling from San Francisco to Hong Kong to deliver a gift to a local gangster, an Asian-American is plunged into a society he fails to understand and circumstances that lead to his humiliation.

Inventive, low-budget thriller of cultural bewilderment, mixed in with documentary-style monologues from the locals.

w Spencer Nakasako story Amir Mokri, Spencer Nakasako, Wayne Wang d Wayne Wang ph Amir Mokri m Mark Adler ad Colette Koo ed Chris Sanderson, Sandy Nervig

☆ Chan Kim Wan, Spencer Nakasako, Victor Wong, Cheng Kwan Min, Cora Miao, Lam Chung

'Audaciously stylish and visually mesmerizing ... Wayne Wang's take on the conundrum of Chinese identity has all the narrative logic of a tilted pinball machine.' – Variety

Life Is Sweet

GB 1990 103m Metrocolor
Palace/Thin Man/Film Four International/British Screen (Simon Channing-Williams)

An unexceptional couple and their grown-up children survive minor disasters.

Mildly amusing suburban comedy, though the actors' attitude to their characters ranges from condescension to caricature.

wd Mike Leigh ph Dick Pope m Rachel Portman pd Alison Chitty ed Jon Gregory

☆ Alison Steadman, Jim Broadbent, Claire Skinner, Jane Horrocks, Stephen Rea, Timothy Spall

A Life Less Ordinary ★ ②

GB 1997 103m Rank Colour Super 35
Polygram/Figment (Andrew Macdonald)

Two angels are given the task of making a wealthy, spoilt young woman and a janitor fall in love.

A surreal romantic comedy where fantasy and reality fail to cohere into a satisfactory whole.

w John Hodge d Danny Boyle ph Brian Tufano m David Arnold pd Kave Quinn ed Masahiro Hirakubo

☆ Ewan McGregor, Cameron Diaz, Holly Hunter, Delroy Lindo, Ian Holm, Ian McNeice, Stanley Tucci, Dan Hedaya, Maury Chaykin

'A pleasant enough ride in parts, but has too many half-realised ideas in the script to satisfy at any emotional level.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† The film cost $12m and took $4.3m at the US box-office.

The Life of Adolf Hitler ★

West Germany 1961 102m bw
Real Film

A documentary culled from newsreel material; somehow less arresting than one would have hoped, though undoubtedly worthy.

w Helga Koppel d Paul Rotha ed Paul Rotha

The Life of Brian: see Monty Python's Life of Brian

'The crime is clear. The truth is not.'

The Life of David Gale

US/GB/Germany 2002 130m DeLuxe 'Scope
Universal/Intermedia/Saturn/Dirty Hands (Alan Parker, Nicolas Cage)

A journalist attempts to save a campaigner against capital punishment who is found guilty of rape and murder and sentenced to death.

Glib, bombastic and muddled drama, anti-intellectual in tone, that takes itself, but not its subject-matter, very seriously.

w Charles Randolph d Alan Parker ph Michael Seresin m Alex Parker, Jake Parker pd Geoffrey Kirkland ed Gerry Hambling

☆ Kevin Spacey (David Gale), Kate Winslet (Bitsey Bloom), Laura Linney (Constance Harraway), Gabriel Mann (Zack Stemmons), Matt Craven (Dusty Wright), Rhona Mitra (Berlin), Leon Rippy (Braxton Belyeu)

'Heavy-handed, ponderous and simplistic polemic against the death penalty pretending to be a film.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

'Has nothing coherent to say about capital punishment, or anything else. It's a dead film lurching.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

'He plucked from the gutter a faded rose and made an immortal masterpiece!'

The Life of Emile Zola ★★★

US 1937 116m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

The French writer intervenes in the case of Alfred Dreyfus, condemned unjustly to Devil's Island.

The box-office success of this solidly-carpentered piece of Hollywood history was compounded in equal parts of star power and the sheer novelty of having such a thing turn up at the local Odeon.

w Norman Reilly Raine story Heinz Herald and Geza Herczeg d William Dieterle ph Tony Gaudio m Max Steiner ad Anton Grot ed Warren Low

☆ Paul Muni (Emile Zola), Joseph Schildkraut (Capt. Alfred Dreyfus), Gale Sondergaard (Lucie Dreyfus), Gloria Holden (Alexandrine Zola), Donald Crisp (Maitre Labori), Erin O'Brien Moore (Nana), John Litel (Charpentier), Henry O'Neill (Col. Picquart), Morris Carnovsky (Anatole France), Ralph Morgan (Commander of Paris), Louis Calhern (Maj. Dort), Robert Barrat (Maj. Walsin-Esterhazy), Vladimir Sokoloff (Paul Cezanne), Harry Davenport (Chief of Staff), Robert Warwick (Maj. Henry) and also Walter Kingsford

'Destined to box office approval of the most substantial character. It is finely made and merits high rating as cinema art and significant recognition as major showmanship.' – Variety

'Along with Louis Pasteur, it ought to start a new category – the Warner crusading films, costume division.' – Otis Ferguson

'A grave story told with great dignity and superbly played and produced.' – Pare Lorentz

'One of the fine ones which begin as a film and end as an experience.' – John Grierson

'Rich, dignified, honest and strong, it is at once the finest historical film ever made and the greatest screen biography.' – New York Times

best picture; script; Joseph Schildkraut original story; William Dieterle; Max Steiner; Paul Muni; Anton Grot

A Life of Her Own

US 1950 108m bw
MGM (Voldemar Vetluguin)

An innocent girl from Kansas becomes one of New York's top models.

Road to ruin, American style, from the pages of a women's magazine.

w Isobel Lennart d George Cukor ph George Folsey m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Lana Turner, Ray Milland, Tom Ewell, Louis Calhern, Ann Dvorak, Barry Sullivan, Jean Hagen

'This story belongs to the realms of soap opera – extremely artificial, highly moral in tone, and deliberately concocted to combine luxurious settings with an elementary assault on the audience's emotions.' – MFB

The Life of Jimmy Dolan

US 1933 85m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

GB title: The Kid's Last Fight

An amiable wanderer is mistaken for a prize fighter wanted for murder.

Modest character romance, later remade as They Made Me a Criminal.

w David Boehm, Erwin Gelsey play Bertram Millhauser, Beulah Marie Dix d Archie Mayo ph Arthur Edeson

☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Loretta Young, Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Lyle Talbot, Fifi D'Orsay, Harold Huber, George Meeker

The Life of Oharu ★★★

Japan 1952 110m bw
Shin Toho

original title: Saikaku Ichidai Onna

In the 1680s the daughter of a samurai recalls her descent to prostitution through her love for a servant.

Superbly photographed and acted tragedy of a woman trapped by a remorseless fate.

w Yoshikata Yoda, Kenji Mizoguchi novel Saikaku Ihara d Kenji Mizoguchi ph Yoshima Kono, Yoshimi Hirano m Ichiro Saito ad Hiroshi Mizutani ed Toshio Goto

☆ Kinuyo Tanaka (Oharu), Hisako Yamane (Lady Matsudaira), Toshiro Mifune (Katsunosuke), Yuriko Hamada (Yoshioka)

The Life of Riley

US 1948 87m bw
Universal-International (Irving Brecher)

The trials of a family man in a low-paid job.

Adequate transcription from a radio series.

wd Irving Brecher ph William H. Daniels m Frank Skinner ad John De Cuir, Bernard Herzbrun ed Milton Carruth

☆ William Bendix, James Gleason, Rosemary de Camp, Bill Goodwin, Beulah Bondi, Richard Long

Life of the Party

US 1930 78m Technicolor
Warner

Two gold-digging shop girls operate from a modiste's.

Half-hearted vulgar comedy, rather oddly given colour status.

w Arthur Caesar story Melville Crossman (Darryl F. Zanuck) d Roy del Ruth ☆ Winnie Lightner, Irene Delroy, Charles Butterworth, Jack Whiting

'Spotty for laughs and business.' – Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Life of the Party

US 1937 86m bw
RKO

A girl tries to evade suitors arranged by her mother.

Very thin comedy with several second-bracket names; not at all memorable.

w Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby, Viola Brothers Shore d William A. Seiter ph J. Roy Hunt md Roy Webb

☆ Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard, Gene Raymond, Parkyakarkus, Victor Moore, Helen Broderick, Billy Gilbert, Ann Miller

'Should prove fairish entertainment and do fairly at the b.o.' – Variety

The Life of Vergie Winters

US 1934 82m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A rising politician marries for position but keeps watch over his mistress and their child.

Archetypal soap opera, a cross between Stella Dallas and Back Street.

w Jane Murfin novel Louis Bromfield d Alfred Santell ph Lucien Andriot m Max Steiner

☆ Ann Harding, John Boles, Helen Vinson, Frank Albertson, Lon Chaney Jnr, Sara Haden, Ben Alexander, Donald Crisp

Life on a String ★★

GB/Germany/China 1991 120m Eastmancolor
Serene/Pandora/Beijing Film Studio/Herald Ace/Film Four/Berlin Filmforderung (Don Ranvaud)

original title: Bian Zhou Bian Chang

Accompanied by a blind youth, an elderly blind musician wanders the countryside waiting for a cure for his affliction which will come when he has broken a thousand strings while playing his three-stringed guitar.

Beautiful to look at, full of spectacular and striking images, this sedately-paced movie remains obscure to the end.

wd Chen Kaige story Shi Tiesheng ph Gu Changwei m Qu Xiaosong pd Shao Ruigang ed Pei Xiaonan

☆ Li Zhongyuan, Huang Lei, Xu Qing, Ma Ling, Zhang Zhengyuan

'A rich film experience, but its length and lack of conventional narrative will be factors to overcome in getting the film across to arthouse audiences.' – Variety

'What if you got a chance to discover who you really are?'

Life or Something Like It

US 2002 103m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Regency/Epsilon Motion (Arnon Milchan, John Davis, Chi-Li Wong, Toby Jaffe)

Believing she is going to die in a week, a Seattle TV news reporter, who is involved with two men and is about to land a top job, examines her life and finds it wanting.

Deeply silly romantic comedy, a genre for which its stars have little talent, but no actor or director could have made this particular script sound good.

w John Scott Shepherd, Dana Stevens d Stephen Herek ph Stephen H. Burum m David Newman pd Bill Groom ed Trudy Ship

☆ Angelina Jolie (Lanie Kerrigan), Edward Burns (Pete), Tony Shalhoub (Prophet Jack), Christian Kane (Cal), Melissa Errico (Andrea), James Gammo (Lanie's Father), Stockard Channing (Deborah Connors)

'This middlebrow trifle may engage the emotions of a certain tier of young professional women torn by the perceived conflicting desires of realizing career fantasies and settling down with a Regular Joe.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Life Returns

US 1938 62m bw
Scienart

A fictional story leads up to the actual experiment performed in 1934 by Dr Robert E. Cornish when he brought a dead dog back to life.

Weird mélange of fact and fiction; despite the achievement, the presentation never catches fire. The film was banned in Britain.

w Arthur Horman, John F. Goodrich d Eugene Frenke

☆ Onslow Stevens, George Breakston, Valerie Hobson, Lois Wilson

'A picture much longer to the audience than its accredited running time would indicate.' – Variety

Life Stinks

US 1991 95m DeLuxe
TCF/Brooks Films/Le Studio Canal Plus (Mel Brooks)

A rich property developer takes a bet that he can survive on his own on the streets of a slum for thirty days.

Crass, tasteless comedy in which the jokes are poor.

w Mel Brooks, Rudy de Luca, Steve Haberman story Mel Brooks, Ron Clark, Rudy de Luca, Steve Haberman d Mel Brooks ph Steven Poster m John Morris pd Peter Larkin ed David Rawlins

☆ Mel Brooks, Lesley Ann Warren, Jeffrey Tambor, Stuart Pankin, Howard Morris, Rudy de Luca, Teddy Wilson, Billy Barty

'Antic comedy has more laughs than the filmmaker's last couple of efforts, and presents an amiably sympathetic, if unreliable, look at the homeless.' – Variety

Life Upside Down ★

France 1964 92m bw
A.J. Films

original title: La Vie à l'Envers

A pleasant, ordinary young man discovers the joy of being absolutely alone, and begins to detach himself from his surroundings, ending up in a barren flat and a private hospital ward.

Engaging semi-comic case history which generates much sympathy for its eccentric hero.

wd Alain Jessua ph Jacques Robin m Jacques Loussier

☆ Charles Denner, Anna Gaylor, Guy Saint-Jean, Nicole Gueden

'The tone is civilized, quiet, infinitely peaceful and often brilliantly funny.' – Brenda Davies, MFB

'Amusing or disturbing depending on whether it is viewed from the outside or the inside, but perceptive and artistic whichever way one views it.' – John Simon

'Take your cookie to see the picture that takes the cake for laughs!'

Life with Father ★

US 1947 118m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Buckner)

Turn-of-the-century anecdotes of an irascible well-to-do paterfamilias who won't be baptized.

Well-upholstered screen version of a long-running play; oddly tedious considering the talent involved.

w Donald Ogden Stewart play Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse d Michael Curtiz ph Peverell Marley, William V. Skall m Max Steiner ad Robert Haas

☆ William Powell, Irene Dunne, Edmund Gwenn, ZaSu Pitts, Elizabeth Taylor, Martin Milner, Jimmy Lydon, Emma Dunn, Moroni Olsen, Elizabeth Risdon

'Everybody seems to be trying too hard ... the director is totally out of his element in this careful, deadly version.' – New Yorker, 1978

† Censorship of the day absurdly clipped Father's famous last line: 'I'm going to be baptized, damn it!'

Peverell Marley, William V. Skall; Max Steiner; William Powell; Robert Haas

Life with Mikey

US 1993 91m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Scott Rudin, Teri Schwartz)

GB title: Give Me a Break

A former child star turned agent discovers a new talent when a 10-year-old girl tries to steal his wallet.

Pleasant, undemanding, unmemorable comedy.

w Marc Lawrence d James Lapine ph Rob Hahn m Alan Menken pd Adrianne Lobel ed Robert Leighton

☆ Michael J. Fox, Christina Vidal, Nathan Lane, Cyndi Lauper, David Huddleston, David Krumholtz

'Screams "cute" from every pore but should play well with kids and won't insult the intelligence of adults.' – Variety

† It was released direct to video in Britain.

'Doggie's got a bone ... Whose bone?'

Life with the Cannibals

US 1996 95m Foto-Kem
Dorian (Harry Bromley-Davenport)

A wimp finds a new life, living next to the neighbourhood serial killer.

A weak and witless black comedy; all that can be said in its favour is that, considering its theme of multiple murder, it downplays any depiction of violence.

w Daryl Haney d Harry Bromley-Davenport ph Marco Cappetta, Ricardo Gale, Hector Rivera m Mark Hart pd Kate Perotti, Yvette Taylor ed Van Rieben

☆ Kieran Mulroney, Juliet Landau, Mason Adams, Bette Ford, Daryl Haney, Wings Hauser

Life with the Lyons

GB 1954 81m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Robert Dunbar)

The Lyon family have problems with their landlord when they move into a fashionable house by London's Marble Arch.

An extended low-budget situation comedy, based on a popular radio series, given rather more skilled playing than it deserves.

w Val Guest, Robert Dunbar d Val Guest ph Walter Harvey m Arthur Wilkinson ad Wilfred Arnold ed Douglas Myers

☆ Ben Lyon, Bebe Daniels Lyon, Richard Lyon, Barbara Lyon, Horace Percival, Molly Weir, Hugh Morton, Arthur Hill, Doris Rogers, Gwen Lewis, Belinda Lee Lifeboat ★★

US 1944 96m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

Survivors from a torpedoed passenger ship include the U-Boat commander responsible.

Propaganda gimmick melodrama interesting for the casting and for Hitchcock's response to the challenge of filming in one cramped set.

w Jo Swerling story John Steinbeck d Alfred Hitchcock ph Glen MacWilliams m Hugo Friedhofer

☆ Tallulah Bankhead, Walter Slezak, Henry Hull, John Hodiak, Canada Lee, William Bendix, Mary Anderson, Heather Angel, Hume Cronyn

'The initial idea – a derelict boat and its passengers as microcosm – is itself so artificial that ... it sets the whole pride and brain too sharply to work on a tour de force for its own sake.' – James Agee

John Steinbeck; Alfred Hitchcock; Glen MacWilliams

Lifeforce

US 1985 101m Eastmancolor Super 35
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

An Anglo-American space expedition investigating Halley's Comet discovers that it hides a two-mile-high alien spaceship containing the bodies of giant, bat-like creatures and three humanoids in suspended animation.

Extraordinarily bizarre mix of science fiction and vampire movie, more likely to provoke derision than any other emotion.

w Dan O'Bannon, Don Jakoby novel Space Vampires by Colin Wilson d Tobe Hooper ph Alan Hume m Henry Mancini, Michael Kamen, James Guthrie pd John Graysmark ed John Grover sp John Dykstra, Nick Maley, John Gant

☆ Steve Railsback, Peter Firth, Frank Finlay, Patrick Stewart, Michael Gothard, Nicholas Ball, Mathilda May, Aubrey Morris

Lifeguard

US 1976 96m CFI color
Paramount (Ron Silverman)

A beach guard at 30 reviews his life and his future.

Odd but not unlikeable little personal drama which barely got released.

w Ron Koslow d Daniel Petrie ph Ralph Woolsey md Dale Menten

☆ Sam Elliott, Anne Archer, Stephen Young, Parker Stevenson, Kathleen Quinlan

Lifespan

US/Netherlands 1975 85m Eastmancolor
Respectable/Whitepal (Alexander Whitelaw)

An American expert on ageing discovers that a Dutch colleague who killed himself was conducting successful experiments in prolonging life.

Mundane drama that promises more than it finally delivers; it strains for significance without achieving it.

w Alexander Whitelaw, Judith Roscoe, Alva Ruben d Alexander Whitelaw ph Eddie van der Enden m Terry Riley ad Dick Schillemans ed Guust Verschuuren, Jann Dopp, Hetty Konig

☆ Hiram Keller, Tina Aumont, Klaus Kinski, Fons Rademakers, Eric Schneider, Frans Mulders

The Lift

Netherlands 1983 99m Eastmancolor
Warner/Sigma Films (Matthijs Van Heijningen)

An office block elevator seems to assume deadly powers. After a murderous car, a murderous lift.

Slick but rather empty semi-horror.

wd Dick Maas ph Marc Felperlaan m Dick Maas ad Harry Ammerlaan ed Hans Van Dongen

☆ Huub Stapel, Willeke Van Ammelrooy, Josine Van Dalsum

Lift to the Scaffold *

France 1957 89m bw
Nouvelles Editions de Films (Jean Thuillier)

original title: Ascenseur pour l'Echafaud
US title: Frantic

An executive murders his employer but is trapped in the building all night; meanwhile his car is stolen and he is arrested for a murder committed by the thief.
Complex, watchable suspenser with pretensions.
w Roger Nimier, Louis Malle novel Noel Calef d Louis Malle ph Henri Decaë m Miles Davis
☆ Maurice Ronet, Jeanne Moreau, Georges Poujouly, Yori Bertin, Lino Ventura

'Cold, clever and rather elegant.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

The Light across the Street

France 1955 99m bw
EGC/Fernand Rivers (Jacques Gauthier) original title: La Lumière d'en Face

A lorry driver, injured in an accident, becomes insanely jealous of his young wife.
Low-life melodrama tailored for the sultry attractions of its new star.
w Louis Cahavance, René Masson, René Lefèvre d Georges Lacombe ph Louis Page m Norbert Glanzberg
☆ Brigitte Bardot, Raymond Pellégrin, Roger Pigaut, Claude Romain

The Light at the Edge of the World

US/Spain/Liechtenstein 1971 120m Eastmancolor Panavision
Bryna/Jet/Triumfilm (Kirk Douglas, Ilya Salkind)

A lighthouse keeper near Cape Horn resists a band of wreckers.
Pretentious, disaster-prone version of a simple adventure story; one wonders not so much what went wrong as whether anything went right in this international venture.
w Tom Rowe novel Jules Verne d Kevin Billington ph Henri Decaë m Piero Piccioni
☆ Kirk Douglas, Yul Brynner, Samantha Eggar, Jean-Claude Drouot, Fernando Rey, Renato Salvatori

The Light Fantastic: see Love Is Better Than Ever

The Light in the Forest

US 1958 92m Technicolor
Walt Disney

Kidnapped by Indians as an infant, a teenager is returned to his parents but finds the white man's ways disturbing.
Modest frontier drama with a moral.
w Lawrence Edward Watkin novel Conrad Richter d Herschel Daugherty ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Paul Smith
☆ James MacArthur, Carol Lynley, Jessica Tandy, Wendell Corey, Fess Parker, Joanne Dru, Joseph Calleia

The Light in the Piazza

GB 1962 101m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Arthur Freed)

An American matron in Florence tries to marry off her mentally retarded daughter to a wealthy Italian.
Puzzling romantic drama in which one is never quite sure why the characters behave as they do; in the end all one appreciates is the tour of northern Italy.
w Julius J. Epstein novel Elizabeth Spencer d Guy Green ph Otto Heller m Mario Nascimbene ☆ Olivia de Havilland, Yvette Mimieux, George Hamilton, Rossano Brazzi, Barry Sullivan

Light of Day

US 1987 107m Astrocolor
Taft/Keith Barish/Tri-Star

A Cleveland family is upset by illness and rock'n'roll.
Drab musical wallow which seems to have little point.
wd Paul Schrader ph John Bailey
m Thomas Newman pd Jeannine Claudia Oppewall ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Michael J. Fox, Joan Jett, Gena Rowlands, Michael McKean

The Light of Heart: see Life Begins at Eight-Thirty

Light Sleeper *

US 1991 103m DuArt
Guild/Grain of Sand (Linda Reisman)

A drug delivery man and former addict contemplates his future as his employer decides to give up the business and go straight.
An intelligent and occasionally gripping thriller.
wd Paul Schrader ph Ed Lachman
m Michael Been pd Richard Hornung
ed Kristina Boden
☆ Willem Dafoe, Susan Sarandon, Mary Beth Hurt, Dana Delany, David Clennon, Victor Garber, Jane Adams, Paul Jabara

'Contemplative and violent by turns, this quasi-thriller about a long-time drug dealer leaving the business has a great deal to recommend it but could have been significantly better had Schrader done some fresh plotting and not relied on his standby gunplay to resolve issues.' – Variety

'Laugh, you little fool, laugh ... for I'm giving you something you never had before – a soul ... on canvas!'

The Light that Failed *

US 1939 97m bw
Paramount (William A. Wellman)

A London artist is going blind as the result of a war wound, and must finish the portrait of the little Cockney whom he loves.
Nicely-made but rather boring star romance; no surprises in plot or performance.
w Robert Carson story Rudyard Kipling
d William Wellman ph Theodor Sparkuhl
m Victor Young
☆ Ronald Colman, Walter Huston, Ida Lupino, Dudley Digges, Muriel Angelus, Fay Helm

'Production fine for moderate b.o. Will catch attention of the carriage trade, the literati crowd and the critics.' – Variety † Previously filmed in 1916 and 1923.

The Light Touch

US 1951 107m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

An elegant art thief tries to doublecross the gangster who employs him.
Elongated and witless romantic charade on European locations.
wd Richard Brooks story Jed Harris, Tom Reed ph Robert Surtees m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Stewart Granger, George Sanders, Pier Angeli, Kurt Kasznar, Larry Keating, Rhys Williams, Norman Lloyd, Mike Mazurki

'A comedy thriller which moves far too slowly for its imperfections to be overlooked.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

The Light Touch: see Touch and Go (1955)

Light Up the Sky

GB 1960 90m bw
British Lion/Bryanston (Lewis Gilbert)

Life on a searchlight battery during World War II.
Wartime comedy-drama with accent on the laughs but adding dollops of tragedy and sentiment. A very patchy entertainment.
w Vernon Harris play Touch It Light by Robert Storey d Lewis Gilbert ph John Wilcox m Douglas Gamley
☆ Ian Carmichael (Lt Ogleby), Tommy Steele (Eric McCaffey), Benny Hill (Syd McCaffey), Sydney Tafler (Ted Green), Victor Maddern (Lance Bombardier Tomlinson), Harry Locke (Roland Kenyon), Johnny Briggs (Leslie Smith), Dick Emery (Harry), Cyril Smith ('Spinner' Rice), Cardew Robinson (Compere), Susan Burnet (Jean), Sheila Hancock (Theatre Act), Fred Griffiths (Mr Jennings)

The Lighthorsemen *

Australia 1988 110m colour Super 35
Medusa/RKO (Simon Wincer, Ian Jones)

Comrades take part in the cavalry charge on the fortified city of Beersheba in the First World War.
Intermittently exciting re-creation of a historic event, at its best in the battle scenes.
w Ian Jones d Simon Wincer ph Dean Semler m Mario Millo pd Bernard Hides ed Adrian Carr
☆ Jon Blake, Peter Phelps, Tony Bonner, Bill Kerr, John Walton, Gary Sweet, Tim McKenzie, Sigrid Thornton, Anthony Andrews

'The brightest light hides your darkest fear'

Lighthouse

GB 1999 95m colour
Winchester/Arts Council/British Screen/BSkyB (Mark Leake, Tim Dennuson)

US title: Dead of Night

A serial killer stalks the survivors of a wrecked prison ship.
Old-fashioned low budget horror in the slasher genre, providing nothing that hasn't been seen too many times before.
wd Simon Hunter ph Tony Imi m Debbie Wiseman pd Simon Bowles ed Paul Green ☆ James Purefoy (Richard Spader), Rachel Shelley (Dr Kirsty McCloud), Christopher Adamson (Leo Rook), Paul Brooke (Captain Campbell), Don Warrington (Prison Officer Ian Goslet), Chris Dunne (Chief Prison Officer O'Neil), Bob Goody (Weevil), Pat Kelman (Spoons)

'Even by the rock-bottom standard of Lottery-funded losers, this is pitiful.' – Christopher Tookey, Daily Mail

Lightnin' *

US 1930 94m bw
Fox

A country fellow is wiser than he seems, and in between setting other folks' lives right, persuades his own wife not to divorce him.
Archetypal Will Rogers star part which he played on the stage; now his first big talkie hit.
play Frank Bacon, Winchell Smith
d Henry King
☆ Will Rogers, Louise Dresser, Joel McCrea, Sharon Lynn, J. M. Kerrigan

'A production of the highest quality in all its phases.' – Variety

Lightning Jack

Australia 1994 93m colour Panavision
Buena Vista/Lightning Ridge/Village Roadshow (Paul Hogan, Greg Coote, Simon Wincer)

The adventures of a bungling, near-sighted outlaw and his mute companion.
A spoof Western a few bullets short of a six-shooter, with its few tired jokes milked relentlessly for laughs.
w Paul Hogan d Simon Wincer ph David Eggby m Bruce Rowland pd Bernard Hides ed O. Nicholas Brown
☆ Paul Hogan, Cuba Gooding Jnr, Beverly D'Angelo, Pat Hingle, Kamala Dawson, Roger Daltrey, L. Q. Jones, Richard Riehle, Frank McRae

'A good natured, if laconic, oater that rides along nicely.' – Variety

Lightning over Water

West Germany/Sweden 1980 91m Movielab
Road Movies/Viking Film (Renée Gunde-Lach, Pierre Cottrell, Chris Sievernich) aka: Nick's Movie

A record of the last months of Nicholas Ray's life, when he was hoping to revive his career while visibly dying from cancer.
Unique and uneasy, something for film buffs to chew over.
wd Nicholas Ray, Wim Wenders m Ronee Blakley ed Wim Wenders, Peter Przygodda

Lightning Strikes Twice

US 1951 91m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A woman decides to clear her lover of suspicion of murder, but later has her own doubts.
Silly melodrama with no credibility, little suspense, and too much talk.
w Lenore Coffee novel Margaret Echard d King Vidor ph Sid Hickox m Max Steiner
☆ Richard Todd, Ruth Roman, Mercedes McCambridge, Zachary Scott, Darryl Hickman, Frank Conroy, Kathryn Givney

Lights in the Dusk * (3)

Finland/Germany/Italy/Sweden 2006 77m
Artificial Eye/Sputnik Oy/Finnish Film Foundation/YLE TV-1/Pandora/ZDF/Arte/Pyramide/Arte France/Canal Plus/BIM/C More (Aki Kaurismaki)

Finnish theatrical title: Laitakaupungin valot
German theatrical title: Lichter von Vorstadt

A lonely night watchman at a Helsinki shopping mall, shunned by co-workers, is set up as the fall guy in a jewel heist by a glamorous blonde woman.
Downbeat story with a central character, Koistinen, who is a loser wronged by a femme fatale. Yet there is something appealing about Koistinen, and the film has a deadpan humour and charm.
wd Aki Kaurismaki ph Timo Salminen
pd Markku Patila
☆ Janne Hyytiainen (Koistinen), Maria Jarvenhelmi (Mirja), Maria Heiskanen (Aila), Ilkka Koivula (Lindholm)

'A digestibly light serio-comedy.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Lights of New York **

US 1928 57m bw
Warner

A chorus girl becomes involved with gangsters.
The first '100 per cent all-talking' film, dramatically primitive but historically important.
w F. Hugh Herbert, Murray Roth d Bryan Foy ph E. B. DuPar

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Helene Costello, Cullen Landis, Wheeler Oakman, Eugene Pallette, Tom Dugan, Gladys Brockwell, Mary Carr

'100 per cent crude.' – Variety

Lights of Old Broadway

US 1925 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

Twin orphan girls find very different routes to happiness.

One of the star's most popular vehicles.

w Carey Wilson d Monta Bell

☆ Marion Davies, Conrad Nagel, George K. Arthur, Julia Swayne Gordon Lights of Variety ★

Italy 1950 94m bw
Film Capitolium (Alberto Lattuada)

original title: Luci del Varieta
aka: Variety Lights

A stage-struck young girl forsakes the manager of the troupe in which she found stardom for the bright lights of the city.

Tragi-comical backstage story in which the bits of detail are more entertaining than the plot.

w Federico Fellini d Alberto Lattuada ph Otello Martelli m Felice Lattuada ad Aldo Buzzi

☆ Peppino de Filippo (Checco Dalmonte), Carla del Poggio (Liliana), Giulietta Masina (Melina Amour), John Kitzmiller (Johnny), Folco Lulli (Liliana's lover), Dante Maggio (Comedian)

'Told with the humor and compassion, the subtlety and sensitivity, and marked by the satiric eye, the keenness of insight, the appreciation of human frailty, that are Fellini's strong points.' – Judith Crist

Lights Out: see Bright Victory

The Lightship

US 1985 89m colour
Rank/CBS (Moritz Borman, Bill Benenson)

A lightship is taken over by a gang of psychopathic crooks on the run.

Echoes of Key Largo abound in this dreary suspense melodrama which aspires to more meaning than is evident.

w William Mai, David Taylor novel Siegfried Lenz d Jerzy Skolimowski ph Charly Steinberger m Stanley Myers ad Holger Gross ed Barry Vince, Scott Hancock

☆ Robert Duvall, Klaus Maria Brandauer, Tom Bower, Robert Constanzo

Like Father Like Son

US 1987 98m Technicolor
Grazer-Valdes/Tri-Star

A surgeon and his son find themselves in each other's bodies.

Role-reversal comedy at the beginning of a trend; in itself a bore.

w Lorne Cameron, Steven L. Bloom d Rod Daniel ph Jack N. Green m Miles Goodman pd Dennis Gassner ed Lois Freeman-Fox

☆ Dudley Moore, Kirk Cameron, Sean Astin, Patrick O'Neal, Margaret Colin

Like Grains of Sand ★

Japan 1995 129m Fujicolour
ICA/Toho/Pia/YES (Yoshishige Shimatani, Kazuo Hayashi, Kiyomi Kanazawa, Yuuka Nakazawa)

original title: Nagisa no Sindbad

A teenage boy discovers that he is gay.

Sensitive and provocative account of the emotional confusions and self-imposed repressions of a growing sexual awareness.

wd Ryosuke Hashiguchi ph Shogo Ueno m Kazuya Takahashi ed Miho Yoneda

☆ Yoshinori Okada, Kota Kusano, Ayumi Hamazaki, Koji Yamaguchi, Kumi Takada, Shizuka Isami

'Very probably the best film ever made about problems faced by a gay kid in his teens ... It gets inside adolescent emotions and insecurities with piercing accuracy.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound

'Cool Britannia in Gay London'

Like It Is

UK 1998 90m colour
First Run (Tracey Gardiner)

A young Blackpool bare-knuckle fighter begins a relationship with a London pop promoter.

Conventional, soft-centred and familiar narrative of the boy meets boy, boy loses boy, boy gets boy type.

w Robert Cray d Paul Oremland ph Alistair Cameron m Don McGlashan pd Tim Sykes ed Jan Langford

☆ Steve Bell (Craig), Ian Rose (Matt), Dani Behr (Paula), Roger Daltrey (Kelvin)

'Pleasant but unexceptional romance.' – Anita Gates, New York Times

Like Mike

US 2002 100m DeLuxe
TCF/NBA (Barry Josephson, Peter Heller)

A young orphan becomes a basketball star with the aid of some magic sneakers.

A sports fantasy for the young and easily amused, who may not notice its recycling of familiar moments from other movies.

w Michael Elliot, Jordan Moffet d John Schultz ph Shawn Maurer m Richard Gibbs pd Arlan Jay Vetter ed Peter Berger, John Pace

☆ Lil' Bow Wow (Calvin), Morris Chestnut (Tracey Reynolds), Jonathan Lipnicki (Murph), Robert Forster (Coach Wagner), Crispin Glover (Stan Bittleman), Eugene Levy (Frank Bernard), Brenda Song (Reg), Jesse Plemons (Ox)

'This irritatingly feeble basketball movie for kids is co-produced by the NBA, for whom it is pretty candidly designed as a giant feature-length commercial.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'A valueless kiddie paean to pro basketball.' – Mark Holcomb, Village Voice

Like Minds

Australia/UK 2006 109m
Lionsgate/Bluewater/Tempo (Jonathan Shteinman, Piers Tempest)
US DVD title: Murderous Intent

Police appoint a forensic psychologist to decide whether a public schoolboy should be charged with the murder of his classmate.

It's hard to care about the languid, pouting boys in the lead roles, and not even Collette's expertise can save the paper-thin script.

wd Gregory J. Read ph Nigel Bluck m Carlo Giacco pd Steven Jones-Evans ad Lucinda Thomson ed Mark Warner

☆ Toni Collette (Sally Rowe), Tom Sturridge (Nigel Colby), Eddie Redmayne (Alex Forbes)

'Quite, quite ludicrous in every way.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

'A Delicious Love Story.'

Like Water for Chocolate ★★

Mexico 1991 114m colour
Electric/Cinevista/NCCA/NTDF/Alfonso Arau

original title: Como agua para chocolate

In Mexico in the early 1900s, forced to stay at home to look after her mother and to see the man she loves marry her sister, the youngest of three daughters puts all her emotions into her cooking.

Part soap opera, part delightful fable and wholly enjoyable, this is a sweet, rich but not indigestible romantic drama.

w Laura Esquivel novel Laura Esquivel d Alfonso Arau ph Emmanuel Lubezki, Steve Bernstein m Leo Brower pd Marco Antonio Arteaga, Mauricio de Aguinaci, Denise Pizzini ed Carlos Bolado, Francisco Chiu

☆ Marco Leonardi, Lumi Cavazos, Regina Torne, Mario Ivan Martinez, Ada Carrasco, Yareli Arizmendi, Claudette Maille, Pilar Aranda

'This classic love story bridging generations is so compelling and splendidly expressed in the script that the frustrated filmgoer can only shake his head at the incompetent handling.' – Variety

'The film acts as a kind of palliative for the middle-class audiences with which it has been so successful. Despite all the changes brought about in Mexican society by the Revolution and its aftermath, they can still feel comfortable with those things that have remained the same: the servants in their kitchens.' – John Kraniauskas, Sight and Sound

† The title refers to the heroine's temper, kept just below boiling point – like water for chocolate.

The Likely Lads ★

GB 1976 90m bw
EMI (Aida Young)

Two Geordie friends, with wife and mistress, go on a touring holiday.

Valuable as a record of an excellent and long-running TV series, this big-screen version finds most of the humour regrettably broadened.

w Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais d Michael Tuchner ph Tony Imi m Mike Hugg

☆ Rodney Bewes, James Bolam, Brigit Forsyth, Mary Tamm, Sheila Fearn, Zena Walker

A Likely Story

US 1947 88m bw
RKO (Richard H. Berger)

A man thinks he has only a short time to live, and in trying to do his best for a girlfriend gets mixed up with gangsters.

Even a star cast could not have made much of this zany comedy script.

w Bess Taffel d H. C. Potter ph Roy Hunt m Leigh Harline md Constantin Bakaleinikoff

☆ Barbara Hale, Bill Williams, Lanny Rees, Sam Levene, Dan Tobin, Nestor Paiva

Li'l Abner ★

US 1959 113m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Panama-Frank (Norman Panama)

The hillbilly town of Dogpatch, tagged the most useless community in America, fights being used as a test site for A-bombs.

Set-bound, intrinsically American, but bright and cheerful film of a stage show about Al Capp's famous comic strip characters.

wd Norman Panama, Melvin Frank from the musical show (ly Johnny Mercer, words Gene de Paul) ph Daniel L. Fapp m Gene de Paul md Joseph Lilley, Nelson Riddle ch Dee Dee Wood, Michael Kidd

☆ Peter Palmer, Leslie Parrish, Billie Hayes, Howard St John, Stubby Kaye, Stella Stevens, Julie Newmar, Robert Strauss

'As joyous, screwy, dancin' and jokin' a musical show as Hollywood has sent us for a long time.' – Sunday Dispatch

♪ Joseph Lilley, Nelson Riddle

The Lilac Domino

GB 1937 79m bw
Grafton-Capitol-Cecil

A Hungarian count is attracted at the gambling tables by a masked girl.

Surprisingly undercast version of a popular operetta.

w Basil Mason, Neil Gow, R. Hutter and Derek Neame play. Rudolf Bernauer, E. Gatti and B. Jenbach d Fred Zelnik

☆ June Knight, Michael Bartlett, Athene Seyler, Richard Dolman, S. Z. Sakall, Fred Emney, Jane Carr

'Has to its great credit absolutely no social value outside of a feverish will to entertain, though that might prove tricky, since its assaultive wild style seems designed to repulse as well as attract.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

Lilac Time ★

US 1928 90m approx bw silent with sound effects
First National
GB title: Love Never Dies

A French girl promises to wait for an American flyer, but his stern father tells her he is dead.

Popular war romance which retains moments of interest.

w Carey Wilson play Jane Cowl, Jane Murfin ph Sid Hickox m Nathaniel Shilkret d/p George Fitzmaurice

☆ Colleen Moore, Gary Cooper, Eugenie Besserer, Burr McIntosh, Arthur Lake

Lilacs in the Spring

GB 1954 94m Trucolor
Republic/Everest (Herbert Wilcox)
US title: Let's Make Up

During the London blitz a young actress is knocked unconscious and dreams of herself as Nell Gwyn, Queen Victoria and her own mother before waking up to deal with her personal problems.

Good-humoured theatrical charade deadened by poorish production and colour, strengthened by the star's game run-through of her staple characters. How Mr Flynn came to be involved is anybody's guess.

w Miles Malleson (uncredited) play The Glorious Days by Harold Purcell d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Robert Farnon

☆ Anna Neagle, Errol Flynn, Peter Graves, David Farrar, Kathleen Harrison

Lili ★

US 1953 81m Technicolor
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)

A 16-year-old orphan girl joins a carnival and falls in love with the magician.

Romantic whimsy dependent entirely on treatment, which is sometimes heavy-handed. Charm, ballet and puppets are provided, but a little cheerful song and dance would not have been amiss.

w Helen Deutsch novel Paul Gallico ph Robert Planck m Bronislau Kaper ad Cedric Gibbons, Paul Groesse d/ch Charles Walters

☆ Leslie Caron, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Mel Ferrer, Kurt Kasznar

'A lovely and beguiling little film, touched with the magic of romance.' – Bosley Crowther

Bronislau Kaper
Helen Deutsch; Charles Walters; Robert Planck; Leslie Caron; art direction
Leslie Caron

Lili Marleen ★

West Germany 1980 116m colour
Roxy/CIP/Rialto/Bayerische Rundfunk (Luggi Waldleitner)

A German girl singer becomes famous and notorious during World War II by her rendition of an old song.
Curious mixture of melodrama and satire which doesn't really work but is always lively to watch.
w Manfred Purzer, Joshua Sinclair, Rainer Werner Fassbinder novel The Sky Has Many Colours by Lale Andersen d Rainer Werner Fassbinder ph Xaver Schwarzenberger m Peer Raben ed Juliane Lorenz, Rainer Werner Fassbinder ☆ Hanna Schygulla, Giancarlo Giannini, Mel Ferrer, Karl Heinz

Lilies ★

Canada 1996 95m colour
Alliance/Triptych (Anna Stratton, Arnie Gelbart, Robin Cass)

In Quebec, a bishop who visits a prison to hear an inmate's confession is taken hostage and forced to watch a play about his homosexual past.
Complex drama on the theme of obsessive love and betrayal; its setting provides a reason for its extreme theatricality, with female roles played by men in drag.
w Michel Marc Bouchard play Les Feluettes ou La Répétition d'un Drame Romantique by Michel Marc Bouchard d John Greyson ph Daniel John m Myschael Danna pd Sandra Kybartas ed Andre Corriveau
☆ Brent Carver, Marcel Sabourin, Albert Pallascio, Jason Cadieux, Danny Gilmore, Matthew Ferguson, Alexander Chapman, Ian D. Clark

'Aesthetically and conceptually very impressive, but it is less than the sum of its parts, its intelligence not sufficiently balanced and buttressed by the careful observation of character.' – Rob White, Sight and Sound

Lilies of the Field

US 1930 60m bw
First National

A chorus girl has been robbed of her child by framed divorce court evidence.
Backstage melodrama with music, very dated now but with interesting credits.
w John Goodrich play William Hurlbut d Alexander Korda ph Lee Garmes ☆ Corinne Griffith, Ralph Forbes, John Loder, Patsy Paige, Freeman Wood, Virginia Bruce

'Big revue sequences in backstage locale. Better than average programmer.' – Variety

† It was a remake of a 1924 film directed by John Francis Dillon and starring Corinne Griffith.

Lilies of the Field ★

US 1963 94m bw
UA/Rainbow/Ralph Nelson

An itinerant black workman in New Mexico helps a group of German nuns to build a chapel.
Liberal, sentimental, under-dramatized little comedy with everyone coming to understand each other's point of view, so that the audience feels improved if not especially entertained.
w James Poe novel William E. Barrett d Ralph Nelson ph Ernest Haller m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Sidney Poitier, Lilia Skala, Lisa Mann
Sidney Poitier
best picture; James Poe; Ernest Haller; Lilia Skala

Liliom ★

US 1930 94m bw
Fox

A Budapest carnival man is killed in a fight but later comes back from heaven to see how his family is doing.
Ingeniously-staged fantasy, very dated but a lot more interesting than its musical remake Carousel (qv).
w S. N. Behrman play Ferenc Molnar d Frank Borzage ph Chester Lyons m Richard Fall
☆ Charles Farrell, Rose Hobart, Estelle Taylor, Lee Tracy, Walter Abel, Guinn Williams, H. B. Warner, Dawn O'Day (Anne Shirley)

'Beyond the depth of Farrell's dramatic ability ... shapes up as passable for a week-stand in the keys.' – Variety

'Before Eve there was Evil ... and her name was Lilith!'

Lilith ★

US 1964 126m bw
Columbia/Centaur (Robert Rossen)

A trainee therapist at an asylum falls in love with a patient.
Strange, wistful, poetic and rather soporific character melodrama.
wd Robert Rossen novel J. R. Salamanca ph Eugene Schufftan m Kenyon Hopkins pd Richard Sylbert
☆ Warren Beatty, Jean Seberg, Peter Fonda, Kim Hunter, Anne Meacham, James Patterson, Jessica Walter, Gene Hackman

'A remarkable attempt to dig a little deeper in an almost untilled field, and to throw some light on the relationship between madness and the creative imagination.' – Tom Milne

Lilja 4-ever: see Lilya 4-Ever

Lillian Russell ★

US 1940 130m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)

The life and loves of the famous 1890s entertainer.
Flabby and inaccurate biopic, worth seeing for its highlights but flatly and incompetently written.
w William Anthony McGuire d Irving Cummings ph Leon Shamroy md Alfred Newman ad Richard Day, Joseph C. Wright ☆ Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Edward Arnold, Warren William, Henry Fonda, Leo Carrillo, Helen Westley, Dorothy Peterson, Ernest Truex, Nigel Bruce, Claud Allister, Lynn Bari, Weber and Fields, Eddie Foy Jnr, Una O'Connor
art direction

Lilly Turner

US 1933 65m bw
Warner

A girl unwittingly marries a bigamist, then a drunk who will give her baby a name.
Turgid mother-love saga.
w Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola play Philip Dunning, George Abbott d William A. Wellman
☆ Ruth Chatterton, George Brent, Frank McHugh, Ruth Donnelly, Guy Kibbee, Robert Barrat

'Spotty returns most probable.' – Variety

'There's one in every family.'

Lilo & Stitch ★

US 2002 85m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Clark Spencer)

A Hawaiian orphan befriends a curious creature who is an alien outlaw.
Lively, colourful, short and sweet animated feature that should amuse young children, though probably not their parents.
wd Chris Sanders, Dean Dubois m Alan Silvestri pd Paul Felix ed Darren Holmes ☆ voices of: Daveigh Chase (Lilo), Christopher Michael Sanders (Stitch), Tia Carrere (Nani), David Ogden Stiers (Jumba), Kevin McDonald (Pleakley), Ving Rhames (Cobra Bubbles), Zoe Caldwell (Grand Councilwoman), Jason Scott Lee (David Kawena)

'The story's holes and conventions grow ever wider and the humor diminishes as the film progresses, and it finishes up as a lesser Disney effort.' – Jeffrey M. Anderson, San Francisco Examiner
'Funny, sassy, startling, original.' – Roger Ebert
animated feature

Lily in Love

US/Hungary 1985 103m colour
Robert Halmi

Denied the lead in a film scripted by his wife, an actor disguises himself as an Italian in order to get the part.
A weak comedy, done with some style.
w Frank Cucci d Karoly Makk ph John Lindley m Szaboks Fenyes ad Tamas Vayer ed Norman Gay ☆ Christopher Plummer, Maggie Smith, Elke Sommer, Adolph Green

Lilya 4-Ever ★★

Sweden/Denmark 2002 109m colour
Metrodome/Memfis/Zentropa/ı Vast/SVT/Nordisk (Lars Jönsson)

original title: Lilja 4-ever
Abandoned by her mother, who leaves the Soviet Union to start a new life in America with her boyfriend, a 16-year-old girl takes to glue-sniffing and prostitution; then she meets a man who promises to find her a job in Sweden.
A dour tale of betrayal, given what uplift it has by Akinshina's radiant performance as the amoral Lilya, a girl with no insight into her own or her friends' troubles. Moodysson's attempt to lift the tragic mood at the very end fails to take wing.
wd Lukas Moodysson ph Ulf Brantas m Nathan Larson ad Josefin Asberg ed Michal Leszczylowski ☆ Oksana Akinshina (Lilya), Artiom Bogucharski (Volodya), Liliya Shinkaryova (Aunt Anna), Pavel Ponomaryov (Andrei), Tomas Neumann (Witek), Lyubov Agapova (Lilya's Mother), Tonu Kark (Sergei)

'It is Akinshina's presence and performance that make the pedestrian story heart-wrenching. She is pretty, responsive, reflective.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic
'A haunting and incandescent work of art.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

Limbo ★

US 1972 111m Technicolor
Universal (Linda Gottlieb) aka: Chained to Yesterday

Women wait for their husbands to return from Vietnam.
Worthy but dramatically uninteresting multi-storied semi-propaganda piece with an untried cast.
w Joan Silver, James Bridges d Mark Robson ph Charles Wheeler m Anita Kerr pd Gemma Jackson
☆ Kate Jackson, Katherine Justice, Stuart Margolin, Hazel Medina, Kathleen Nolan

'A condition of unknowable outcome.'

Limbo

US/Germany 1999 127m CFI
Columbia TriStar/Global/Screen Gems (Maggie Renzi)

Fleeing from murderous drug dealers, a former fisherman, a nightclub singer and her teenage daughter are stranded on a remote, uninhabited island.
This odd, broken-backed story begins as a portrait of life in a small Alaskan community, with a tentative romance on the side, and then changes into a survival story. The ending is calculated to infuriate all who make it through the rest of the movie.
wd John Sayles ph Haskell Wexler ad Keith Neely ed John Sayles
☆ Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio (Donna De Angelo), David Strathairn (Joe Gastineau), Vanessa Martinez (Noelle De Angelo), Kris Kristofferson (Smilin' Jack), Casey Siemaszko (Bobby Gastineau), Kathryn Grody (Franki), Rita Taggart (Lou), Leo Burmester (Harmon King), Michael Laskin (Albright)

'A thinly realized survival tale that falls flat dramatically and cinematically.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Romantic ruler of London's half-world!'

Limehouse Blues ★

US 1934 65m bw
Paramount
aka East End Chant

In London's shady quarter, an oriental roustabout tries to leave his jealous mistress for a girl with a shady past.
Artificial, atmospheric melodrama set in a never-never Limehouse redolent of Broken Blossoms. Interesting for its very excesses.
w Arthur Phillips, Cyril Hume, Grover Jones d Alexander Hall ph Harry Fischbeck
☆ George Raft, Anna May Wong, Jean Parker, Kent Taylor, Billy Bevan

'Weak and slow-moving ... won't satisfy the average fan.' – Variety

Limelight

GB 1935 80m bw
GFD/Herbert Wilcox
US title: Backstage

A chorus girl helps a street singer to become a star.
Highly predictable backstage musical drama which made a nine days wonder of 'The Street Singer'.
w Laura Whetter d Herbert Wilcox ph Henry Harris ☆ Anna Neagle, Arthur Tracy, Jane Winton, Ellis Jeffreys, Muriel George

'A syrupy concatenation to win all British hearts.' – James Agate

Limelight ★★★

US 1952 144m bw
Charles Chaplin

A broken-down music hall comedian is stimulated by a young ballerina to a final hour of triumph.
Sentimental drama in a highly theatrical

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

London East End setting. In other hands it would be very hokey, but Chaplin's best qualities, as well as his worst, are in evidence, and in a way the film sums up his own career.
wd Charles Chaplin ph Karl Struss m Charles Chaplin, Raymond Rasch, Larry Russell ad Eugene Lourié ed Joe Inge photographic consultant Rollie Totheroh
☆ Charles Chaplin (Calvero), Claire Bloom (Terry, a Ballet Dancer), Buster Keaton (Piano Accompanist), Sydney Chaplin (Neville, a Composer), Nigel Bruce (Postant, an Impresario), Norman Lloyd (Stage Manager)

'From the first reel it is clear that he now wants to talk, that he loves to talk ... where a development in the story line might easily be conveyed by a small visual effect, he prefers to make a speech about it ... it is a disturbing rejection of the nature of the medium itself.' – Walter Kerr

'Surely the richest hunk of self-gratification since Huck and Tom attended their own funeral.' – New Yorker, 1982

'His exhortations about life, courage, consciousness and "truth" are set in a self-pitying, self-glorifying story.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Charles Chaplin, Raymond Rasch, Larry Russell
Claire Bloom (newcomer)

'Tell Them I'm Coming.'

The Limey ★

US 1999 90m CFI
Artisan (John Hardy, Scott Kramer)

After he leaves prison, an English criminal goes to Los Angeles to discover how his daughter died.
A revenge thriller told in an elliptical manner that does not quite conceal the familiarity and predictability of its story.
w Lem Dobbs d Steven Soderbergh ph Ed Lachman m Cliff Martinez pd Gary Frutkoff ed Sarah Flack
☆ Terence Stamp (Wilson), Peter Fonda (Valentine), Lesley Ann Warren (Elaine), Luis Guzman (Ed), Barry Newman (Avery), Joe Dallesandro (Uncle John), Nicky Katt (Stacy), Amelia Heinle (Adhara), Melissa George (Jennifer)

'A contemplative, character-driven drama that underplays the familiar crime genre and underworld milieu in favor of a more resonant story about family and intergenerational issues.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

† The scenes showing Stamp as a young man are taken from Ken Loach's Poor Cow (qv), made in 1967.

Limit Up

US 1989 88m colour
Medusa/Management Company Entertainment (Jonathan D. Krane)

A woman sells her soul to an apparent demon in exchange for a successful career on the stock exchange.
A dull fantasy, dimly directed.
w Richard Martini, Luana Anders d Richard Martini ph Peter Lyons Collister m John Tesh pd R. Clifford Searcy ed Sonny Baskin
☆ Nancy Allen, Dean Stockwell, Brad Hall, Danitra Vance, Ray Charles, Rance Howard, Sandra Bogan

The Limping Man

GB 1953 74m bw
Banner/Eros (Donald Ginsberg)

An American leaving his plane at Heathrow sees another passenger shot by a limping man.
Initially intriguing thriller which gives up the ghost and tacks on a dream ending.
w Reginald Long, Alistair MacLean d Charles de Lautour ph Jonah Jones m Arthur Wilkinson
☆ Lloyd Bridges, Moira Lister, Helene Cordet, Bruce Beeby, Alan Wheatley, Leslie Phillips

Linda ★

GB 1960 61m bw
Independent Artists

A teenage girl falls for a member of a street gang.
Nicely atmospheric low-life romance; no real content but plenty of raw style.
w Bill MacIlwraith d Don Sharp ph Michael Reed m Garry Hughes ☆ Carol White, Alan Rothwell, Cavan Malone, Lois Dane, Edward Cast

The Lineup ★

US 1958 86m bw
Columbia (Frank Cooper)

San Francisco police trap a gunman who is also a drug contact.
Energetic, polished movie version of a popular TV series, San Francisco Beat.
w Stirling Silliphant d Don Siegel ph Hal Mohr m Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Warner Anderson, Robert Keith, Eli Wallach

'He wants to be tied down. She wants to be tied up. It's not what you think.'

The Linguini Incident

US 1992 98m CFI color
Rank/Isolar (Arnold Orgolini)

A waitress who wants to be an escape artist and a barman seeking a wife set out to rob an antique shop of a ring that once belonged to Houdini.
No escape from boredom in this trivial and lacklustre comedy.
w Richard Shepard, Tamar Brott d Richard Shepard ph Robert Yeoman m Thomas Newman pd Marcia Hinds-Johnson ed Sonya Polonsky
☆ Rosanna Arquette, David Bowie, Eszter Balint, André Gregory, Buck Henry, Viveca Lindfors, Marlee Matlin

'Energetic actors can't overcome the uninspired, poverty-row production values.' – Variety

Link

GB 1986 103m Technicolor
Cannon/EMI (Richard Franklin)

A scientist in a lonely house educates chimpanzees, but one proves malevolent.
Not much plot for a long film, and no suspense either.
w Everett DeRoche d Richard Franklin ph Mike Malloy m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ Terence Stamp, Elisabeth Shue, Steven Pinner, Richard Garnett

'What is missing from Link is a reason to see it.' – Variety

The Lion

GB 1962 96m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

An American lawyer goes to Africa to visit his ex-wife and their child.
Unabsorbing marital drama with child and animal interest.
w Irene and Louis Kamp novel Joseph Kessel d Jack Cardiff ph Ted Scaife m Malcolm Arnold
☆ William Holden, Trevor Howard, Capucine, Pamela Franklin

'The main fault must be attributed to the spiritless direction of Jack Cardiff, whose recent change of métier has resulted in the industry losing a great lighting cameraman.' – John Gillett

The Lion Has Wings ★

GB 1939 76m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)

A documentary drama tracing the steps leading up to the outbreak of war.
Once-inspiring propaganda piece, now regrettably hilarious. Valuable social history, though.
w Adrian Brunel, E. V. H. Emmett d Michael Powell, Brian Desmond Hurst, Adrian Brunel ph Harry Stradling m Richard Addinsell
☆ Merle Oberon, Ralph Richardson, June Duprez, Robert Douglas, Anthony Bushell, Derrick de Marney, Brian Worth, Austin Trevor

'As a statement of war aims, one feels, this leaves the world beyond Roedean still expectant.' – Graham Greene

The Lion in Winter ★

GB 1968 134m Eastmancolor Panavision
Avco Embassy/Haworth (Martin Poll)

Henry II and Eleanor of Aquitaine celebrate Christmas together and have a family row.
An acting feast for two principals and assorted supports, a talking marathon in which not all the talk is good, a smart comedy with sudden lapses into melodrama; stimulating in parts but all rather tiresome by the end, especially as there is not much medieval splendour.
w James Goldman play James Goldman d Anthony Harvey ph Douglas Slocombe m John Barry
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Peter O'Toole, Jane Merrow, John Castle, Anthony Hopkins, Nigel Terry, Timothy Dalton

'He is not writing a factual movie about the Plantagenets but an interpretation in which he combines their language and ours.' – Philip T. Hartung

James Goldman; John Barry; Katharine Hepburn best picture; Anthony Harvey; Peter O'Toole
John Barry

A Lion Is in the Streets ★

US 1953 88m Technicolor
Warner/Cagney Productions (William Cagney)

An itinerant confidence trickster becomes a defender of the people, is nominated for governor, and becomes corrupt.
Busy melodrama which came a bit soon after All the King's Men.
w Luther Davis novel Adria Locke Langley d Raoul Walsh ph Harry Stradling m Franz Waxman pd Wiard Ihnen
☆ James Cagney, Barbara Hale, Anne Francis, Warner Anderson, John McIntire, Jeanne Cagney, Lon Chaney Jnr, Frank McHugh, Larry Keating, Onslow Stevens, James Millican, Sara Haden

'A headlong and dynamic drama which offers Mr Cagney one of his most colourful and meaningful roles.' – Bosley Crowther

'Life's greatest adventure is finding your place in the Circle of Life.'

The Lion King ★★★

US 1994 88m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Don Hahn)

A lion cub, exiled by his evil uncle, grows up enjoying the easy life, but is persuaded that he must fight to restore himself to his rightful place as king.
An entertaining animated drama with some stunning moments, but a somewhat preachy tone; it isn't as much fun as the recent Disney features, although it found great favour with the public.
w Irene Mecchi, Jonathan Roberts, Linda Woolverton d Roger Allers, Rob Minkoff m Hans Zimmer, Lebo M m/ly Elton John, Tim Rice pd Chris Sanders
☆ Featuring the voices of Matthew Broderick, Rowan Atkinson, Niketa Calame, Jim Cummings, Whoopi Goldberg, Jeremy Irons, Robert Guillaume, James Earl Jones, Cheech Marin, Jonathan Taylor Thomas

'Bambi, but with carnivores ... The animation, computer-assisted in some of the more elaborate sequences, is sometimes impressive, but rarely impressive enough to overcome a certain impersonality – a stubborn mechanical coldness.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

'Its true glories are in storytelling, voicemanship and scenic splendour – virtues that would be familiar by now from earlier Disney cartoons if they weren't, each time, so wonderfully fresh.' – Time

† The film was the biggest earner of 1994 in the US, taking $298.9m at the box-office. Its plot reportedly resembles that of Jungle Taitei (aka Jungle Emperor), a Japanese animated series made in the 60s.
Hans Zimmer; song 'Can You Feel the Love Tonight' (m Elton John, ly Tim Rice)
songs 'Circle of Life', 'Hakuna Matata'

Lion of the Desert

US 1980 163m Eastmancolor Panavision
Falcon International (Moustapha Akkad)

In 1929 an Italian general in Libya withstands the attacks of rebel leader Omar Mukhtar.
Whitewashed account of the activities of a patriarchal partisan who was hanged in 1931. Of interest primarily to Arab zealots.
w H. A. L. Craig d Moustapha Akkad ph Jack Hildyard m Maurice Jarre pd Mario Garbuglia, Syd Cain
☆ Anthony Quinn, Oliver Reed, Irene Papas, Raf Vallone, Rod Steiger, John Gielgud, Andrew Keir

Lionheart

US 1987 104m colour
Orion (Stanley O'Toole, Talia Shire)

On his way to join King Richard the Lionheart's crusade, a young knight rescues a band of children from a slave trader.
Aimed at a family audience, it lacks excitement and pace and is best treated as a soporific.
w Menno Meyjes, Richard Outten d Franklin J. Schaffner ph Alec Mills m Jerry Goldsmith pd Gil Parrondo ed David Bretherton, Richard Haines
☆ Eric Stoltz, Gabriel Byrne, Nicola Cowper, Dexter Fletcher, Deborah Barrymore, Nicholas Clay, Bruce Purchase, Neil Dickson, Chris Pitt

'High on heart-warming ideals, but low in every other department.' – Empire

Lionheart: see AWOL (1990)

The Lion's Den: see La Boca del Lobo

'Rape was only the beginning!'

Lipstick

US 1976 90m Technicolor
Paramount/Dino de Laurentiis (Freddie Fields)

A girl is raped but gets nowhere in court until her sister lures the man to rape her too.
Franker but not very interesting extension of a fifties co-feature, with all the developments well telegraphed.
w David Rayfiel d Lamont Johnson
ph Bill Butler m Michel Polnareff
☆ Margaux Hemingway, Perry King, Anne Bancroft, Chris Sarandon, Mariel Hemingway, Robin Gammell

'One of Lipstick's points is that voyeurism encourages senseless crime, but it unfortunately ignores its own lesson.' – Marsha McCreadie, Films in Review

Liquid Sky

US 1982 118m TVC Color
Z Films (Slava Tsukerman)

Aliens in a flying saucer land on the roof of a New York skyscraper in search of a heroin-like drug, which they obtain by killing people during orgasm.
A film with an undeserved cult reputation, presumably because it is set among punks and junkies; otherwise it is tediously plotted and poorly written and acted, dealing with unattractive characters in an unpleasant environment.
w Slava Tsukerman, Anne Carlisle, Nina V. Kerova d Slava Tsukerman ph Yuri Neyman m Slava Tsukerman, Brenda L. Hutchinson, Clive Smith pd Marina Levikova-Neyman ed Sharyn Leslie Ross
☆ Anne Carlisle, Paula E. Sheppard, Bob Brady, Susan Doukas, Elaine C. Grove, Stanley Knap, Jack Adalist, Otto von Wernherr

'By turns self-consciously bizarre and beautiful.' – Sight and Sound

The Liquidator ★

GB 1965 104m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Leslie Elliott (Jon Pennington)

An ex-war hero is recruited by the secret service as an eliminator of security risks.
Fairly lively James Bond spoof which is never quite as funny as it imagines.
w Peter Yeldham novel John Gardner
d Jack Cardiff ph Ted Scaife m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Rod Taylor, Trevor Howard, David Tomlinson, Jill St John, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Derek Nimmo, Eric Sykes, Akim Tamiroff

Lisa: see The Inspector

Lisa and the Devil

Italy 1974 93m Technicolor
Leone International (Alfred Leone)

original title: Il Diavolo e il Morto

A tourist stranded in a small town takes refuge in an old, dark villa.
Baroque thriller that constantly teeters on the edge of absurdity before finally falling.
w Mario Bava, Alfred Leone d Mario Bava
ph Cecilio Paniagua m Carlo Savina ad Nedo Azzini ed Carlo Reali
☆ Telly Savalas, Elke Sommer, Sylva Koscina, Alessio Orano, Alida Valli, Gabriele Tinti, Kathy Leone

'Not quite in the first rank of the director's work, it's still a bizarre gem.' – Empire

Lisbon

US 1956 90m Trucolor Naturama
Republic (Ray Milland)

An international crook negotiates an Iron Curtain prisoner's release, but the man's wife has other ideas.
Glossy international intriguer with smart performances.
w John Tucker Battle d Ray Milland
ph Jack Marta m Nelson Riddle
☆ Ray Milland, Claude Rains, Maureen O'Hara, Yvonne Furneaux, Francis Lederer, Percy Marmont, Edward Chapman

The Lisbon Story

GB 1946 103m bw
British National

Spies in 1940 Lisbon rescue a French atom scientist.
Flat filming of a musical show which kept Britons humming 'Pedro the Fisherman' throughout World War II.
w Jack Whittingham play Harold Purcell, Harry Parr-Davies d Paul Stein ph Ernest Palmer m/ly Harold Purcell, Harry Parr-Davies
☆ Patricia Burke, David Farrar, Walter Rilla, Richard Tauber, Austin Trevor, Harry Welchman

The List of Adrian Messenger ★★

US 1963 98m bw
U-I/Joel (Edward Lewis)

An intelligence officer traps a mass murderer with a penchant for disguise.
Old-fashioned mystery thriller, as though Holmes and Watson were combating a modern Moriarty (and a rough-hewn production). The whole thing is camped up like an end-of-term treat, and as a further gimmick four guest stars allegedly appear under heavy disguise in cameo parts.
w Anthony Veiller novel Philip MacDonald d John Huston ph Joe MacDonald m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ George C. Scott, Kirk Douglas, Clive Brook, Dana Wynter, Jacques Roux, Walter Tony Huston, Herbert Marshall, Bernard Archard, Gladys Cooper; and Robert Mitchum, Frank Sinatra, Burt Lancaster, Tony Curtis

'A leisurely, underplayed thriller with some good performances and a gimmick which turns it into a guessing contest.' – L.A. Times

Listen

US 1996 101m Eastmancolor Panavision
Orion/Greg H. Sims/Devin/Rampage (Diane Patrick-O'Connor)

A San Francisco advertising executive overhears some telephone conversations and realizes that a serial killer lives in the same apartment block as her.
Convoluted and derivative thriller that requires more attention than it deserves to follow the improbabilities of its narrative.
w Jonas Quastel, Michael Bafaro d Gavin Wilding ph Brian Pearson m David Davidson pd Cathy Robertson
ed Melinda Seabrook
☆ Brooke Langton, Gordon Currie, Sarah Buxton, Joel Wyner, Evan Taylor, Andy Romano, Jeff Burnett

'A stylish, and extremely empty-headed, film.' – Variety

Listen Darling

US 1938 70m bw
MGM (Jack Cummings)

Children try to find their widowed mother a new husband.
Slight domestic comedy chiefly notable for its young talent.
w Elaine Ryan, Anne Morrison Chapin story Katherine Brush d Edwin L. Marin ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Axt
md George Stoll
☆ Mary Astor, Judy Garland, Freddie Bartholomew, Walter Pidgeon, Alan Hale, Scotty Beckett, Charley Grapewin, Barnett Parker, Gene Lockhart

'Inauspicious start for the Garland-Bartholomew team ... mediocre story hurts.' – Variety

Listen to Britain ★★★★

GB 1941 20m bw
Ministry of Information (Crown Film Unit)

Images of Britain at war.
A brilliant compilation of almost poetic sights and sounds which distil the essence of a year.
d Humphrey Jennings ph H. E. Fowle
ed Humphrey Jennings

Listen to Me

US 1989 110m CFI color
Columbia TriStar/Weintraub Entertainment/Martin Bregman (Marykay Powell)

Two students fall in love while being members of their college debating team.
Of limited interest, unless you happen to be a member of a debating team, and even then it is unlikely to hold your attention for long.
wd Douglas Day Stewart ph Fred J. Koenekamp m David Foster pd Gregory Pickrell ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Kirk Cameron, Jami Gertz, Roy Scheider, Amanda Peterson, Tim Quill, George Wyner, Anthony Zerbe, Christopher Atkins

Listen Up: The Lives of Quincy Jones

US 1990 115m Technicolor
Warner/Cort (Courtney Sale Ross)

Documentary on the life of the influential record producer, arranger and composer who began as a big-band trumpeter.
Distractingly edited, as if intended for an audience with a very short attention span, and mainly given over to performances and uninformative interviews with those with whom Jones has worked, from jazz musicians such as Lionel Hampton, Miles Davis and Ella Fitzgerald to rock singer Michael Jackson and rapper Big Daddy Kane.
d Ellen Weissbrod ph Stephen Kazmierski m Quincy Jones ed Milton Moses Lisztomania

GB 1975 104m colour Panavision
Warner/VPS/Goodtimes (Roy Baird, David Puttnam)

The life of Liszt seen in terms of a modern pop performer.
The most excessive and obscene of all this director's controversial works, incapable of criticism on normal terms except that it seems unusually poor in production values.
wd Ken Russell ph Peter Suschitzky md John Forsyth
☆ Roger Daltrey, Sara Kestelman, Paul Nicholas, Fiona Lewis, John Justin, Ringo Starr

'ample dialogue: 'Piss off, Brahms!'
'Ken Russell's first completely unmitigated catastrophe in several years . . . a welter of arbitrary gags, manic self-references and frantic exploitation-movie clichés.' – Tony Rayns
'Oscar Wilde once said "Each man kills the thing he loves", and the remark perfectly suits Ken Russell's film treatments of classical composers ... he has bludgeoned into pulp some of the finest music civilization has produced.' – Patrick Snyder
'This gaudy compendium of camp, second-hand Freud and third-rate pastiche is like a bad song without end.' – Sight and Sound

Liten Ida: see Little Ida

Little Accident

US 1930 82m bw
Universal

A man is about to marry again when he finds that his first wife is having his baby.
Stretched-out comedy which fumbles its way along.
w Gladys Lehman play Floyd Dell, Thomas Mitchell d William James Craft ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Anita Page, Sally Blane, ZaSu Pitts, Joan Marsh, Roscoe Karns, Slim Summerville

'If anybody thinks 82 minutes is the proper time for this film, they should be made to sit through it twice.' – Variety

Little Accident

US 1939 65m bw
Universal

A baby is passed from hand to hand after her father abandons her.
Simple-minded comedy bearing little relation to the above; it's now a vehicle for the baby.
w Paul Yawitz, Eve Greene d Charles Lamont ☆ Baby Sandy, Hugh Herbert, Richard Carlson, Florence Rice, Ernest Truex, Fritz Feld, Edgar Kennedy

'Elemental comedy for supporting attraction in nabes.' – Variety

Little Annie Rooney ★

US 1925 99m (24 fps) bw silent
United Artists/Mary Pickford

A 12-year-old tomboy in a New York slum rounds up the killer of her policeman father.
Sentimental melodrama tailored for a 32-year-old star who liked playing kids. Of minor historical interest.
w Hope Loring, Louis D. Lighton
d William Beaudine ph Charles Rosher, Hal Mohr m Joseph Plunkett ☆ Mary Pickford, William Haines, Walter James, Gordon Griffith

The Little Ark

US 1971 86m DeLuxe Panavision
Cinema Center/Robert B. Radnitz

Two war orphans and their pets, trapped in a flood, sail to safety in a houseboat.
Well-meaning, somewhat allegorical family film, too desultory to maintain interest and rather too frightening for children.
w Joanna Crawford novel Jan de Hartog
d James B. Clark ph Austin Dempster, Denys Coop m Fred Karlin
☆ Theodore Bikel, Philip Frame, Genevieve Ambas
♪ song 'Come Follow Follow Me' (m Fred Karlin, ly Marsha Karlin)

Little Big Horn ★

US 1951 86m bw
Lippert (Carl K. Hittleman)

GB title: The Fighting Seventh

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A cavalry squad sets out to warn Custer about Little Big Horn, but all the men are massacred before Custer arrives.
Dour, impressive low-budget Western.
wd Charles Marquis Warren ph Ernest Miller m Paul Dunlap
☆ Lloyd Bridges, John Ireland, Marie Windsor, Reed Hadley, Hugh O'Brian, Wally Cassell, King Donovan

Little Big League
US 1994 119m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock/Lobell/Bergman
A 12-year-old boy is left a baseball team by his grandfather and decides to take over as manager.
Amiable but uninvolving entertainment for sports-struck kids.
w Gregory K. Pincus, Adam Scheinman d Andrew Scheinman ph Donald E. Thorin m Stanley Clarke pd Jeffrey Howard ed Michael Jablow
☆ Luke Edwards, Timothy Busfield, John Ashton, Ashley Crow, Kevin Dunn, Jason Robards, Billy L. Sullivan
'Has its heart in the right place but never makes it out of the infield in terms of laughs or excitement.' – Variety

'The Cavalry Against The Indians And Dustin Hoffman Is On Both Sides!'

Little Big Man ★
US 1970 147m Technicolor Panavision
Stockbridge/Hiller/Cinema Center (Stuart Millar)
An aged veteran of the old west recounts his life story – with elaborations.
A number of episodes varying from stark tragedy to satirical farce are framed for no good reason by the star in heavy disguise; the intention is hard to guess but there are goodies along the way.
w Calder Willingham novel Thomas Berger d Arthur Penn ph Harry Stradling m John Hammond pd Dean Tavoularis
☆ Dustin Hoffman, Martin Balsam, Faye Dunaway, Chief Dan George, Richard Mulligan, Jeff Corey
'A hip epic, with an amiable first hour. Then the massacres and messages take over.' – New Yorker, 1976
'A tangy and, I think, unique film with American verve, about some of the things American verve has done.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Chief Dan George

Little Big Shot
US 1935 80m bw
Warner
A gangster's child is orphaned and cared for by two con men.
Reasonably lively vehicle for a new child star who didn't last.
w Jerry Wald, Julius J. Epstein, Robert Andrews d Michael Curtiz ☆ Sybil Jason, Glenda Farrell, Robert Armstrong, Edward Everett Horton, Jack La Rue, J. Carrol Naish, Edgar Kennedy
'Should pave the way handily for young Miss Jason's future.' – Variety

A Little Bit of Heaven
US 1940 87m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)
A 12-year-old girl becomes a singing sensation but runs into family opposition.
Predictable vehicle for a young star being built up as a stop-gap Deanna Durbin.
w Daniel Taradash, Gertrude Purcell, Harold Goldman story Grover Jones d Andrew Marton ph John Seitz m Charles Previn
☆ Gloria Jean, Robert Stack, Hugh Herbert, C. Aubrey Smith, Stuart Erwin, Nan Grey, Eugene Pallette, Billy Gilbert, Butch and Buddy

'Have you ever been tempted to look inside his...'

Little Black Book
US 2004 106m DeLuxe 'Scope
Columbia TriStar
An ambitious youing TV producer gets hold of her boyfriend's handheld computer and does some research on his old girlfriends.
Trivial romantic comedy with a thin script and not many jokes; there's not much romance, either.
w Melissa Carter, Elisa Bell d Nick Hurran ph Theo van de Sande m Christophe Beck pd Bob Ziembicki ed John Richards ☆ Brittany Murphy (Stacy), Holly Hunter (Barb), Kathy Bates (Kippie Kann), Ron Livingston (Derek), Julianne Nicholson (Joyce), Stephen Tobolowsky (Carl)
'The cinematic equivalent of chic lit– mildly amusing, but completely forgettable once you're done with it.' – Nicole Perri, Premiere

Little Boy Lost
US 1953 95m bw
Paramount (William Perlberg)
An American returns to Paris after the war to find his wife dead and his small son missing.
Rather dull tearjerker.
wd George Seaton novel Marghanita Laski ph George Barnes m Victor Young ☆ Bing Crosby, Claude Dauphin, Christian Fourcade, Gabrielle Dorziat, Nicole Maurey

Little Buddha ★
France/GB 1993 123m Technicolor Technovision
Buena Vista/Ciby 2000/Recorded Picture (Jeremy Thomas)
A lama, who leaves his monastery in Bhutan to find the reincarnation of his own teacher, discovers three candidates, including a young American boy.
Two themes – a childlike retelling of the story of how Siddharta becomes the Buddha and the drama of an American family's immersion in an unfamiliar culture – exist uneasily together, despite their symmetry. There is a naïvety in both; but the photography – predominantly a cool blue in its American settings, glowing golden in its eastern scenes – and composition provide a constant visual fascination.
w Rudy Wurlitzer, Mark Peploe story Bernardo Bertolucci d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro m Ryuichi Sakamoto pd James Acheson ed Pietro Scalia ☆ Keanu Reeves, Ying Ruocheng, Chris Isaak, Bridget Fonda, Alex Wiesendanger, Raju Lal, Greishma Makar Singh
'After 30 years of making passionately skeptical movies, Bertolucci has made a film of the most sophisticated simplicity. His triumph is to make you see the Buddhist world through his eyes. It shines like innocence reincarnated.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'Long, solemn and humourless, this isn't going to win many converts to the cinema, let alone Buddhism.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Little Caesar ★★★
US 1931 77m bw
Warner
The rise and fall of a vicious gangster.
Its central character clearly modelled on Al Capone, this also has historical interest as vanguard of a spate of noisy gangster films. The star was forever identified with his role, and the film, though technically dated, moves fast enough to maintain interest over seventy years later.
w Francis Faragoh, Robert N. Lee novel W. R. Burnett d Mervyn Le Roy ph Tony Gaudio m Erno Rapee ad Anton Grot ed Ray Curtiss
☆ Edward G. Robinson (Cesare Enrico Bandello/"Little Caesar"), Douglas Fairbanks Jnr (Joe Massara), Glenda Farrell (Olga Strassoff), William Collier Jnr (Tony Passa), Ralph Ince (Diamond Pete Montana), George E. Stone (Otero), Thomas Jackson (Lt. Tom Flaherty), Stanley Fields (Sam Vettori), Sidney Blackmer (The Big Boy)
RICO : 'Mother of Mercy, is this the end of Rico?'
'It has irony and grim humour and a real sense of excitement and its significance does not get in the way of the melodrama.' – Richard Dana Skinner
'One of the best gangster talkers yet turned out ... a swell picture.' – Variety
Francis Faragoh, Robert N. Lee

Little Children ★★ (8)
US 2006 136m
Entertainment/New Line/Bona Fide/Standard Film Company (Albert Berger, Ron Yerxa, Todd Field)
A suburban mother and an under-achieving househusband start an affair in suburbia under the disapproving gaze of neighbourhood mothers at the playground. In the same town, an obsessive cop is hounding a paedophile who lives with his elderly mother.
A smart, restrained film that initially seems to be a satire of suburban foibles, then branches out into more interesting directions. Winslet's Sarah, the Madame Bovary of this piece, throws herself away on a love affair with the handsome but utterly vacant Brad, and it takes a shocking incident involving the town paedophile (excellently portrayed by Haley) to bring them to something like adulthood. The tone is uneven – the middle section loses its way somewhat – but finally it's rewarding enough.
w Todd Field, Tom Perrotta novel Tom Perrotta d Todd Field ph Antonio Calvache m Thomas Newman pd David Gropman ad John Kasarda ed Leo Trombetta
☆ Kate Winslet (Sarah Pierce), Jennifer Connelly (Kathy Adamson), Patrick Wilson (Brad Adamson), Jackie Earle Haley (Ronnie McGorvey), Noah Emmerich (Larry Hedges), Gregg Edelman (Richard Pierce), Phyllis Somerville (May McGorvey)
'A sharply observed and brilliantly acted study of American suburban life.' – Philip French, Observer
'A jolting, artfully made drama set in and around a suburban playground somewhere between American Beauty and In The Bedroom on America's psychic highway.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly
Kate Winslet; supporting actor (Jackie Earle Haley); adapted screenplay

The Little Colonel ★★
US 1935 80m bw (colour sequence)
Fox (B. G. de Sylva)
In a Southern household after the Civil War, a little girl ends a family feud, plays Cupid to her sister, routs a few villains and mollifies her cantankerous grandfather.
First-class Temple vehicle, the first to boast an expensive production.
w William Conselman novel Annie Fellows Johnston d David Butler ph Arthur Miller md Arthur Lange ☆ Shirley Temple, Lionel Barrymore, Evelyn Venable, John Lodge, Bill Robinson, Hattie McDaniel, Sidney Blackmer

The Little Damozel
GB 1933 73m bw
British and Dominions
A gambler marries a young singer for a bribe, but falls in love with her.
Lavender-tinted romance with music; notable as its star's first major role.
w Donovan Pedelty play Monckton Hoffe d Herbert Wilcox m Ray Noble, Noël Coward ☆ Anna Neagle, James Rennie, Benita Hume, Athole Stewart, Alfred Drayton

Little Darlings
US 1980 92m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount/Stephen J. Friedman
Teenage girls at a summer camp take bets on who will lose her virginity first.
Crass and tasteless comedy with only prurient appeal.
w Kimi Peck, Dalene Young d Ronald F. Maxwell ph Fred Batka m Charles Fox pd William Hiney ed Pembroke J. Herring
☆ Tatum O'Neal, Kristy McNichol, Krista Errickson, Armand Assante

Little Dorrit ★★
GB 1987 357m Technicolor
Sands/Cannon (John Brabourne)
Faithful adaptation of classic novel.
Lovingly made by a large team, economically and authentically re-creating Dickens's London, with a starry cast giving their all. Adored by audiences who could take the length.
wd Christine Edzard novel Charles Dickens ph Bruno de Keyzer m Giuseppe Verdi
☆ Derek Jacobi, Joan Greenwood, Max Wall, Alec Guinness, Cyril Cusack, Sarah Pickering, Eleanor Bron, Robert Morley
† Part 1 is 176m, Part 2 runs to 181m.
Alec Guinness; best adapted screenplay

The Little Drummer Girl ★
US 1984 130m Technicolor
Warner/Pan Arts (Robert L. Crawford)
An American actress in Britain is persuaded by Israeli agents to lose her Arab sympathies and spy for them.
Tediously protracted and unexciting version of a novel which was generally agreed to have been based on Vanessa Redgrave. Interesting for its quality look and surface style only: the intricate plotting of the Le Carré manner is surely no longer fashionable.
w Loring Mandel novel John Le Carré d George Roy Hill ph Wolfgang Treu m Dave Grusin pd Henry Bumstead ed William Reynolds
☆ Diane Keaton, Yorgo Voyagis, Klaus Kinski, Sami Frey, Michael Cristofer, David Suchet, Eli Danker, Thorley Walters, Anna Massey
† Author Le Carré appears in a small role under his real name of David Cornwell.

Little Egypt

US 1951 81m Technicolor
Universal-International (Jack Gross)
GB title: Chicago Masquerade
An American girl poses as an Egyptian princess at the Chicago World's Fair.
Sluggish turn-of-the-century romantic melodrama based on a factual swindle involving a phoney Nile reclamation project.
w Oscar Brodney, Doris Gilbert
d Frederick de Cordova ph Russell Metty md Joseph Gershenson ☆ Rhonda Fleming, Mark Stevens, Nancy Guild, Charles Drake, Tom D'Andrea, Minor Watson, Steve Geray

Little Fauss and Big Halsy

US 1970 99m Movielab Panavision
Paramount/Alfran/Furie (Albert S. Ruddy)
Two motor cycle track racers team up and have violent adventures round the country.
Rather pointless capers in the wake of Easy Rider, neither interesting nor well done.
w Charles Eastman d Sidney J. Furie
ph Ralph Woolsey m Johnny Cash, Bob Dylan, Carl Perkins
☆ Robert Redford, Michael J. Pollard, Noah Beery Jnr, Lauren Hutton
'A sort of Batman and Robin on wheels.' – Rex Reed

'Everyone is hiding something.'

Little Fish ★★ (7)

Australia 2005 113m colour
Icon/AFFC/Porchlight/Myriad/Dirty Films (Vincent Sheehan, Liz Watts, Richard Keddie)
A former heroin user's efforts to rebuild her life are hampered by her drug-dealing brother and boyfriend and her best friend, a onetime sporting hero turned addict.
Downbeat drama of a vulnerable woman attempting to escape her past, notable for its unsentimental approach and the quality of its acting.
w Jacquelin Perske d Rowan Woods
ph Danny Ruhlmann m Nathan Larson
pd Luigi Pittorino ed Alexandre De Franceschi, John Scott ☆ Cate Blanchett (Tracy Heart), Sam Neill (Brad Thompson), Hugo Weaving (Lionel Dawson), Martin Henderson (Ray Heart), Noni Hazlehurst (Janelle Heart), Dustin Nguyen (Jonny Nguyen), Joel Tobeck (Steven Moss)
'Confrontational, raw and always compelling... a film of rare power and conviction.' – Erin Free, Hollywood Reporter

The Little Foxes ★★★

US 1941 116m bw
Samuel Goldwyn
A family of schemers in post-Civil War days will stop at nothing to outwit each other.
Superb film of a brilliant play; excellent to look at and listen to, with a compelling narrative line and memorable characters.
w Lillian Hellman play Lillian Hellman
d William Wyler ph Gregg Toland
m Meredith Willson ad Stephen Goosson ed Daniel Mandell
☆ Bette Davis (Regina Hubbard Giddens), Herbert Marshall (Horace Giddens), Teresa Wright (Alexandra Giddens), Richard Carlson (David Hewitt), Charles Dingle (Ben Hubbard), Dan Duryea (Leo Hubbard), Carl Benton Reid (Oscar Hubbard), Patricia Collinge (Birdie Hubbard), Jessica Grayson (Addie), Russell Hicks (William Marshall)
HORACE GIDDENS (HERBERT MARSHALL): 'Maybe it's easy for the dying to be honest. I'm sick of you, sick of this house, sick of my unhappy life with you. I'm sick of your brothers and their dirty tricks to make a dime. There must be better ways of getting rich than building sweatshops and pounding the bones of the town to make dividends for you to spend. You'll wreck the town, you and your brothers. You'll wreck the country, you and your kind, if they let you. But not me, I'll die my own way, and I'll do it without making the world any worse. I leave that to you.'
'One of the really beautiful jobs in the whole range of movie making.' – Otis Ferguson
'No one knows better than Wyler when to shift the camera's point of view, when to cut, or how to relate the characters in one shot to those in the next ... you never have to wonder where you are in a Wyler picture.' – Arthur Knight
♗ best picture; Lillian Hellman; William Wyler; Meredith Willson; Bette Davis; Teresa Wright; Patricia Collinge; Stephen Goosson; Daniel Mandell

Little Friend

GB 1934 85m bw
Gaumont
A girl is driven to attempt suicide by her parents' proposed divorce.
Fairly well written but rather stilted domestic drama which maintained a small reputation.
w Margaret Kennedy, Christopher Isherwood and Berthold Viertel novel Ernst Lothar d Berthold Viertel ☆ Nova Pilbeam, Matheson Lang, Lydia Sherwood, Arthur Margetson, Allan Aynesworth, Jean Cadell, Jimmy Hanley

The Little Giant

US 1933 74m bw
Warner
At the end of Prohibition, a beer baron moves to California and tries to break into society.
Disappointingly unfunny gangster comedy which never really gets going.
w Robert Lord, Wilson Mizner d Roy del Ruth ph Sid Hickox md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Mary Astor, Helen Vinson, Kenneth Thomson, Russell Hopton, Donald Dillaway
'It makes Robinson a comedy character surrounded by semi-travesty and the fans are likely to resent it.' – Variety

'From homicide to house parties – from dames to debutantes!'

Little Giant

US 1946 91m bw
Universal (Joseph Gershenson)
GB title: On the Carpet
Misadventures of a vacuum cleaner salesman.
Curious, unsatisfactory Abbott and Costello comedy in which the boys play separate characters instead of working as a team. They should have waited for a better script before experimenting.
w Paul Jarrico, Richard Collins, Walter de Leon d William A. Seiter ph Charles van Enger m Edgar Fairchild ☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Brenda Joyce, George Cleveland, Elena Verdugo Little Giants ★

US 1994 105m colour
Warner/Amblin (Arne L. Schmidt)
When his sporting hero of a brother rejects his daughter as not good enough to play in a junior football team, a wimp decides to create his own team featuring her and other rejects.
Amiable and amusing sporting comedy, despite its predictability.
w James Ferguson, Robert Shallcross, Tommy Swerdlow, Michael Goldberg
d Duwayne Dunham ph Janusz Kaminski
m John Debney pd Bill Kenney ed Donn Cambern
☆ Rick Moranis, Ed O'Neill, John Madden, Shawna Waldron, Mary Ellen Trainor, Matthew McCurley, Susanna Thompson, Brian Haley

The Little Girl Who Lives Down the Lane

US/Canada/France 1976 94m colour
Zev Braun/ICL/Filmedis-Filmel (Zev Braun)
A 13-year-old girl, when her father dies, is discovered to be keeping her mother's corpse in the cellar, and doesn't stop at more murders to keep her secret.
Tasteless piece of grand guignol, badly directed and over-acted.
w Laird Koenig novel Laird Koenig d Nicolas Gessner ph Rene Verzier
m Christian Gaubert
☆ Jodie Foster, Alexis Smith, Martin Sheen, Scott Jacoby
Originally intended as a TV movie

The Little Hut

US 1957 90m Eastmancolor
MGM/Herbson SA (F. Hugh Herbert, Mark Robson)
A man, his wife and her lover are shipwrecked on a desert island.
Sophisticated French farce which falls resoundingly flat in this bowdlerized Hollywood version in bilious colour, fatally compromising itself at the beginning with a 'realistic' London prologue.
w F. Hugh Herbert play André Roussin and Nancy Mitford d Mark Robson
ph Frederick A. Young m Robert Farnon ad Elliot Scott ed Ernest Walter ☆ Stewart Granger, David Niven, Ava Gardner, Walter Chiari, Finlay Currie, Jean Cadell

Little Ida ★★

Norway 1981 79m Eastmancolor
Minema/Norsk Film/Svenska Filminstituten (Harald Ohrvik, Sven Johansen) original title: Liten Ida
A seven-year-old girl is ostracized because of her mother's relationship with a Nazi soldier.
Unsentimental, excellently acted account of childhood suffering.
w Marit Paulsen, Laila Mikkelsen novel Marit Paulsen d Laila Mikkelsen ph Hans Welin, Kjell Vassdal m Eyvind Solas ad Anders Barreus ed Peter Falck ☆ Sunniva Lindekleiv, Howard Halvorsen, Lise Fjeldstad, Arne Lindtner Ness, Ellen Westerfjell, Roennaug Alten

Little Johnny Jones

US 1929 73m bw
First National
An American jockey wins the Derby.
Mild comedy with music from the old George M. Cohan play.
w Adelaide Heilbron and Edward Buzzell
d Mervyn Le Roy
☆ Eddie Buzzell, Alice Day, Edna Murphy, Robert Edeson
'Familiar formula but done nicely.' – Variety

The Little Kidnappers: see The Kidnappers

Little Lord Fauntleroy ★

US 1921 11m (24 fps) bw silent
United Artists/Mary Pickford
An American boy who lives with his widowed mother discovers he is heir to an English dukedom.
Over-upholstered sentimental extravaganza tailored for a star in her twenties playing both young Cedric and his mother, a curious double. One can now only wonder at the immense appeal this film had in its own time; but that is not to diminish the vitality of its star.
w Bernard McConville novel Frances Hodgson Burnett d Jack Pickford, Alfred E. Green ph Charles Rosher m Louis F. Gottschalk
☆ Mary Pickford, Claude Gillingwater, Kate Price, James A. Marcus, Emmett King

Little Lord Fauntleroy ★

US 1936 98m bw
David O Selznick
A sound remake which did surprisingly well at the box-office and is still very watchable.
w Richard Schayer, Hugh Walpole, David O. Selznick d John Cromwell ph Charles Rosher m Max Steiner
☆ Freddie Bartholomew, C. Aubrey Smith, Mickey Rooney, Dolores Costello, Jessie Ralph, Guy Kibbee
† A TV movie version appeared in 1980, with Ricky Schroder and Alec Guinness.

Little Man (2)

US 2006 97m
Columbia Tri-Star/Revolution Studios/Wayans Bros. (The Wayans Brothers (Keenen Ivory, Shawn, Marlon), Rick Alvarez, Lee R. Mayes)
A criminal midget is taken in by an engaged couple who long to start a family.
Apart from the expertise in superimposing the head of an adult actor (Marlon Wayans) on to a child's body, there's little to commend this feeble comedy.
w The Wayans Brothers d Keenen Ivory Wayans ph Steven Bernstein m Teddy Castelucci pd Leslie Dilley ad Gwen Margetson ed Nick Moore, Mike Jackson
☆ Marlon Wayans (Calvin Sims), Shawn Wayans (Darryl), Kerry Washington (Vanessa), Chazz Palminteri (Walken)

Little Man Tate ★

US 1991 99m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Orion (Scott Rudin, Peggy Rajski)
A battle develops over the future of a precociously bright child between his working-class mother and a teacher of gifted children.
A drama of family tensions that might have worked better on television.
w Scott Frank d Jodie Foster ph Mike Southon m Mark Isham pd Jon Hutman ed Lynzee Klingman ☆ Jodie Foster, Dianne Wiest, Adam Hann-Byrd, Harry Connick Jnr, David Pierce, Debi Mazar, P. J. Ochian
'A nice little film, but what audience it is meant to appeal to is, frankly, something of a mystery.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Little Man, What Now? ★

US 1934 95m bw
Universal
Problems of Germany in the grip of unemployment.
One of the studio's several 'sequels' to All Quiet on the Western Front, poignant at the time but now very dated.

w William Anthony McGuire novel Hans Fallada d Frank Borzage ph Norbert Brodine ed Milton Carruth
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Douglass Montgomery, Alan Hale, Muriel Kirkland, Alan Mowbray, Mae Marsh
'Human, homely and romantic ... should get ample b.o. attention.' – Variety

'Nothing's as big as your first love.'

Little Manhattan ★ (5)

USA 2005 89m
TCF/Pariah/New Regency (Gavin Polone, Arnon Milchan)

New York-set story of first love between two affluent kids – a 10 year old boy and a girl one year older.
Not as saccharine as it sounds, with moments of deft comedy. The boy narrator is a stuffy know-it-all, but the girl is sweet, funny and adorable. Irritatingly, the servant classes exist on screen only to cock their heads and smile fondly at these lovable kids. Still, it's all well-intentioned.
w Jennifer Flackett d Mark Levin ph Tim Orr pd Stuart Wurtzel ad John Kasarda ed Alan Edward Bell ☆ Josh Hutcherson (Gabe), Charlie Ray (Rosemary), Bradley Whitford (Adam), Cynthia Nixon (Leslie), Talia Balsam (Jackie)
'Small-scale, perfectly acted family film.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

Little Men

US 1935 77m bw
Mascot

Joe and her professor run a school for boys.
Slapdash sequel to Little Women; not an ambitious production.
w Gertrude Orr novel Louisa M. Alcott d Phil Rosen
☆ Ralph Morgan, Erin O'Brien-Moore, Junior Durkin, Cora Sue Collins, Frankie Darro, Dickie Moore
'Goes overboard on pathos ... tears flow over the most insignificant matters.' – Variety
† A remake emerged from RKO in 1940, but was ill received. Running 84 minutes, it starred Kay Francis, Jack Oakie, James Lydon, and Ann Gillis, not to mention Elsie the cow. Mark Kelly and Arthur Caesar wrote it, Norman Z. McLeod directed; for Graham Towne and Gene Baker.

The Little Mermaid ★★

US 1989 83m
Warner/Walt Disney/Silver Screen Partners IV (Howard Ashman, John Musker)

A mermaid falls in love with a prince and longs to be human.
A return to Disney's classic manner, with some excellent animation, though sentimentality is rampant.
wd John Musker, Ron Clements story Hans Christian Andersen m Alan Menken m/ly Howard Ashman, Alan Menken ☆ Featuring Voices of Rene Auberjonois, Christopher Daniel Barnes, Jodi Benson, Pat Carroll, Paddi Edwards, Buddy Hackett, Jason Marin, Kenneth Mars, Edie McClurg, Will Ryan, Ben Wright, Samuel E. Wright
Best original score; best song 'Under the Sea' (m/l Alan Menken; Howard Ashman)
Song 'Kiss the Girl' (m/l Alan Menken; Howard Ashman)

The Little Minister

US 1934 110m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

In 1840 Scotland, the gypsy girl with whom the new pastor falls unsuitably in love is really the local earl's wayward ward.
Tedious film version of a cloyingly whimsical play.
w Jane Murfin, Sarah Y. Mason, Victor Heerman play J. M. Barrie d Richard Wallace ph Henry Gerrard m Max Steiner
☆ Katharine Hepburn, John Beal, Alan Hale, Donald Crisp, Lumsden Hare, Andy Clyde, Beryl Mercer, Dorothy Stickney, Frank Conroy, Reginald Denny
'Fine production of an old favourite.' – Variety
'Although dear Barrie's elfin whimsies are likely to cause teeth-gnashing among unsympathetic moderns, Miss Hepburn plays the part with likeable sprightliness and charm.' – André Sennwald, New York Times

Little Miss Broadway

US 1938 70m bw
TCF (David Hempstead)

A small girl is adopted by the owner of a hotel for vaudeville artistes.
One of the child star's more casual vehicles, but quite pleasing.
w Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen d Irving Cummings ph Arthur Miller md Louis Silvers ☆ Shirley Temple, George Murphy, Jimmy Durante, Edna May Oliver, Phyllis Brooks, George Barbier, Edward Ellis, Jane Darwell, El Brendel, Donald Meek, Claude Gillingwater, Russell Hicks
'It can't be old age, but it does look like weariness.' – New York Times
'Shirley is better than her new vehicle, which in turn is better than her last one.' – Variety

Little Miss Marker ★★

US 1934 80m bw
Paramount (B. P. Schulberg)

GB title: The Girl in Pawn
A cynical racetrack gambler is forced to adopt a little girl, who not only softens him but saves him from his enemies.
The twin appeals of Temple (a new hot property) and Runyon made this a big hit of its time.
w William R. Lipman, Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman story Damon Runyon d Alexander Hall ph Alfred Gilks songs Leo Robin, Ralph Rainger
☆ Shirley Temple, Adolphe Menjou, Dorothy Dell, Charles Bickford, Lynne Overman, Frank McGlynn Snr, Willie Best
'A good response to that element which claims there is nothing good in pictures. Clean, funny, with thrills and heart appeal all nicely blended.' – Variety
'No one can deny that the infant was a trouper: she delivers her lines with a killer instinct.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
† Remade as Sorrowful Jones (qv).

Little Miss Marker

US 1980 103m Technicolor
Universal (Jennings Lang)

Mainly glutinous remake of the above, with acerbic asides from the star.
wd Walter Bernstein ph Philip Lathrop m Henry Mancini
☆ Walter Matthau, Julie Andrews, Tony Curtis, Bob Newhart, Sara Stimson, Lee Grant, Brian Dennehy

'Where's Olive?'

Little Miss Sunshine ★★★ (9)

US 2006 102m
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Big Beach/Bona Fide (Albert Berger, Ron Yerxa, Marc Turtletaub, David T. Friendly, Peter Saraf)

A dysfunctional American family includes a failed motivational speaker, facing financial ruin; an oversexed, drug-taking grandfather; a sulky mute teenager who chooses to communicate only by notepad; and a suicidal uncle. Together with the family's relatively sane mother, they travel in their dilapidated VW bus to a California beauty pageant in which their nine year old daughter Olive is a contestant.
An achingly funny comedy, brilliantly cast, with a script that not only fulfils any reasonable quota of brilliant lines and snappy dialogue, but also has plenty to say about the strange American obsession with winning and losing. Who, after all, could possibly want their child to be crowned Little Miss Sunshine once they had seen the hapless child contestants, made up to look like miniature hookers? The Hoover family, on the face of it, are losers, but their ability to stick together through trying times makes them anything but. A joyous film that completely succeeds on its own terms, and even dispenses some friendly wisdom.
w Michael Arndt d Jonathan Dayton, Valerie Faris ph Tim Suhrstedt m Mychael Danna pd Kalina Ivanov ad Alan E. Muraoka ed Pamela Martin
☆ Greg Kinnear (Richard Hoover), Toni Collette (Sheryl Hoover), Steve Carell (Frank), Paul Dano (Dwayne), Abigail Breslin (Olive), Alan Arkin (Grandpa Hoover)
'It comes closer to the truth about the way people really live – on the edge of fantasy-driven desperation – than our sanctimonies permit us to think.' – Richard Schickel, Time
'A prime example of a dysfunctional family comedy that also doubles as a road movie. Even the vehicle of transport is dysfunctional.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor
Original screenplay; supporting actor (Alan Arkin)
Picture; supporting actress (Abigail Breslin)
Original screenplay; supporting actor (Alan Arkin)

Little Mr Jim

US 1946 92m bw
Orville O. Dull/MGM

The plight of a youngster when mother dies and father takes to drink.
Unabashed tearjerker with a fairly resistible child star.
w George Bruce novel Army Brat by Tommy Wadelton d Fred Zinnemann ☆ Jackie 'Butch' Jenkins, James Craig, Frances Gifford, Luana Patten, Spring Byington

Little Murders

US 1971 108m DeLuxe
TCF/Brodsky-Gould (Jack Brodsky)

A young photographer rises above all the urban horror of New York life, but when his wife is killed by a sniper he takes to violence.
This adaptation of an ultrablack comedy would have worked better as a comic strip, for its characters are satirical puppets, and when played by human beings the whole thing seems violently silly.
w Jules Feiffer play Jules Feiffer d Alan Arkin ph Gordon Willis m Fred Kaz ☆ Elliott Gould, Marcia Rodd, Elizabeth Wilson, Vincent Gardenia, Alan Arkin Little Nellie Kelly ★

US 1940 100m bw
MGM (Arthur Freed)

The daughter of a New York Irish cop patches up a family feud.
Sentimental nostalgic vehicle for young Judy Garland, who plays both wife and daughter and sings plenty of standard melodies.
w Jack McGowan play George M. Cohan d Norman Taurog ph Ray June m/ly George M. Cohan, Roger Edens, Nacio Herb Brown, Arthur Freed
☆ Judy Garland, George Murphy, Charles Winninger, Douglas McPhail, Arthur Shields, Forrester Harvey
♫ 'Nellie is a Darlin"; 'It's a Great Day for the Irish'; 'Singin' in the Rain'; 'Nellie Kelly I Love You'

'Be Unafraid, Be Very Unafraid.'

Little Nicky

US 2000 90m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Happy Madison/RSC Media (Robert Simonds, Jack Giarraputo)

The devil's slacker son goes to Earth to bring back his two wicked brothers who are intent on turning it into another Hell.
Sandler's persona of simple-minded man-child wearies more than usual in a cheap, crude, tasteless comedy that is woefully short on laughs.
w Tim Herlihy, Adam Sandler, Steven Brill d Steven Brill ph Theo Van De Sande m Teddy Castellucci pd Perry Andelin Blake ed Jeff Gourson sp makeup and creature fx: Howard Berger, Robert Kurtzman, Greg Nicotero cos Ellen Lutter ☆ Adam Sandler (Nicky), Patricia Arquette (Valerie), Harvey Keitel (Dad), Rhys Ifans (Adrian), Tommy 'Tiny' Lister Jnr (Cassius), Robert Smigel (Beefy), Allen Covert (Todd), Peter Dante (Peter), Jonathan Loughran (John), Blake Clark (Jimmy the Demon), Rodney Dangerfield (Lucifer), Kevin Nealon (Gatekeeper), Reese Witherspoon (Holly)
'A devilishly energetic vehicle that contains about as many laughs as his previous features combined.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'Sandler delivers his first drop-dead dud with a jumble of sentimentality, vulgarity and inanity.' – Total Film
† The film cost $80 million and took around $39 million at the US box-office.

A Little Night Music ★

Austria/West Germany 1977 125m
Eastmancolor
Sascha Film/S & T (Elliott Kastner)

In Vienna at the turn of the century, a middle-aged lawyer, frustrated by the virginity of his young wife, turns to an old actress flame.
Fumbled version of a rather splendid Broadway musical based on Ingmar Bergman's Smiles of a Summer Night. The locale is changed, several of the songs are cut, and the leads are miscast.
w Hugh Wheeler play Hugh Wheeler d Harold Prince ph Arthur Ibbetson m/ly Stephen Sondheim
☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Diana Rigg, Len Cariou, Lesley-Anne Down, Hermione

Gingold, Christopher Guard, Laurence Guittard
Jonathan Tunick (music adaptation)

Little Nikita

US 1988 98m DeLuxe
Columbia (Harry Gittes)
aka: The Sleepers
An all-American boy discovers from an FBI agent that his parents are not the average couple they seem, but Soviet spies.
Ineptly plotted thriller that piles on complexity at the cost of credibility; the acting is better than the script or direction deserve.
w John Hill, Bo Goldman story Tom Musca, Terry Schwartz d Richard Benjamin ph Laszlo Kovacs m Marvin Hamlisch, Joe Curiale pd Gene Callahan ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Sidney Poitier, River Phoenix, Richard Jenkins, Caroline Kava, Richard Bradford, Loretta Devine, Richard Lynch, Lucy Deakins

'Between good and evil and heaven and hell is...'

Little Odessa ★

US 1994 98m Foto-Kem Super 35
First Independent/New Line (Paul Webster)
An exiled, edgy, hired killer returns to his Russian-Jewish community in Brighton Beach on an assignment and to see his family: heavy-handed father, dying mother and mixed-up younger brother.
Downbeat tale of melancholy lives, in which death and violence loom large; it compels almost as much as it repels.
wd James Gray ph Tom Richmond pd Kevin Thompson ed Dorian Harris
☆ Tim Roth, Edward Furlong, Moira Kelly, Vanessa Redgrave, Paul Guilfoyle, Natasha Andreichenko, Maximilian Schell

'A sparse, unforgiving work – part Oedipal drama, part thriller, bound together by a dense web of threat.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Little Old New York

US 1940 100m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)
The story of Robert Fulton and his invention of the steamboat.
Romantic hokum with a veneer of fact; good production.
w Harry Tugend play Rida Johnson Young d Henry King ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman ☆ Alice Faye, Richard Greene, Fred MacMurray, Henry Stephenson, Brenda Joyce, Andy Devine, Fritz Feld, Ward Bond

Little Orphan Annie

US 1932 60m bw
RKO
A girl orphan charms a millionaire.
Ineffective early version of the comic strip used many years later (equally ineffectively) as the basis for Annie.
w Wanda Tuchock, Tom McNamara d John Robertson ph Jack MacKenzie ad Carroll Clark ☆ Mitzi Green, Edgar Kennedy, May Robson, Buster Phelps

Little Otik: see Otesanek

The Little Polar Bear

Germany/Switzerland/US 2001 77m Technicolor
Warner/Rothkirch/Cartoon Film (Thilo Graf Rothkirch, Willi Geike)
The adventures of a polar bear cub, who makes friends with a seal, is marooned on a desert island, and stops a robot ship stealing all the fish in the sea.
Cartoon of amiable adventures of a baby bear that may briefly hold the attention of six-year-olds.
w Bert Schrickel, Thomas Wittenburg, Piet De Rycker books Hans de Beer d Piet De Rycker, Thilo Graf Rothkirch m Nigel Clarke, Michael Csányi-Wills ☆ voices of: Mijail Verona (Lars), Maximilian Artajo (Robby), Jochen Busse (Kalle), Mike Krüger (Nalle), Bernd Stelter (Palle), Ingolf Lück (Mika)

'Sweet-natured animation for very little children.' – Guardian

The Little Polar Bear: The Mysterious Island

Germany/Romania/Hungary 2005 81m colour
Warner/Rothkirch Cartoon-Film
The adventures of a polar bear cub and a friendly seal in the Galapagos Islands.
Simple cartoon film of cute animals being cute that may provide slight amusement for the very young.
w Piet De Rycker, Thomas Wittenburg, Rolf Giesen, Bert Schrickel books Hans de Beer d Piet De Rycker, Thilo Rothkirch m Nick Glennie-Smith, Hans Zimmer
pd Alexander Lindner, Branislav Perkovic, Man Arenas ☆ voices of: Maximilian Artajo (Lars), Céline Vogt (Greta), Leander Wolf (Robby), Anke Engelke (Iguanita), Dirk Bach (Caruso)

'Sketched in lo-fi line animation a million miles from Pixar, the film will have most viewers empathising with the seal cub who cries, "Pinch me and tell me this is not happening!"' – Total Film

The Little Prince

US 1974 89m Technicolor
Paramount/Stanley Donen
A small boy leaves the asteroid he rules to learn of life on Earth.
A whimsical bestseller turns into an arch musical which falls over itself early on and never recovers; in any case it fatally lacks the common touch, though it has pleasing moments.
w Alan Jay Lerner novel Antoine de St-Exupery d Stanley Donen ph Christopher Challis m/ly Frederick Loewe, Alan Jay Lerner pd John Barry
☆ Richard Kiley, Steven Warner, Bob Fosse, Gene Wilder, Joss Ackland, Clive Revill, Victor Spinetti, Graham Crowden

'Handsome production cannot obscure limited artistic achievement.' – Variety † Kiley replaced Frank Sinatra, who backed out.
♫ title song; musical adaptation (Angela Morley, Douglas Gamley)

The Little Princess ★★

US 1939 93m Technicolor
TCF (Gene Markey)
In Victorian London a little girl is left at a harsh school when her father goes abroad.
One of the child star's plushest vehicles, a charming early colour film complete with dream sequence and happy ending.
w Ethel Hill, Walter Ferris novel Frances Hodgson Burnett d Walter Lang
ph Arthur Miller, William Skall md Louis Silvers ☆ Shirley Temple, Richard Greene, Anita Louise, Ian Hunter, Cesar Romero, Arthur Treacher, Mary Nash, Sybil Jason, Miles Mander, Marcia Mae Jones, Beryl Mercer, E. E. Clive

A Little Princess ★★

US 1995 97m Technicolor
Warner/Baltimore (Mark Johnson)
An English girl is sent by her father to an exclusive New York boarding school; when he is killed in the First World War, she is reduced to working as a servant.
A charming, highly coloured version of a familiar tale, done with a touch of magic.
w Richard LaGravenese, Elizabeth Chandler novel Frances Hodgson Burnett d Alfonso Cuaron ph Emmanuel Lubezki m Patrick Doyle pd Bo Welch ed Steven Weisberg
☆ Eleanor Bron, Liam Cunningham, Liesel Matthews, Rusty Schwimmer, Arthur Malet, Vanessa Lee Chester, Errol Sitahal, Heather DeLoach, Taylor Fry

'An exquisite, perfectly played serious fantasy that movingly stresses the importance of magic and the imagination in the scheme of things. A classic the moment it hits the screen, this should delight audiences of all persuasions.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
♫ Emmanuel Lubezki; Bo Welch

Little Rascals

US 1994 82m DeLuxe
UIP/Amblin (Michael King, Bill Oakes)
It takes the loss of their clubhouse and go-cart for members of the He-Man Woman Haters Club to discover that girls are not so bad after all.
Redundant, cloying and long-winded revival of a series of shorts starring small kids that belonged to the early, more innocent era of cinema by a director once noted for her sharpness in dealing with today's youth; this, in contrast, is soft and fuzzy and has nothing to offer other than precociousness.
w Paul Guay, Stephen Mazur, Penelope Spheeris, Robert Wolterstorff, Mike Scott d Penelope Spheeris ph Richard Bowen m William Ross pd Larry Fulton ed Ross Albert
☆ Travis Tedford, Bug Hall, Brittany Ashton Holmes, Kevin Jamal Woods, Zachary Mabry, Ross Elliot Bagley, Sam Saletta, Mel Brooks, Whoopi Goldberg, Daryl Hannah, Reba McEntire

'A brainless exercise in exploitation that boasts the worst ensemble acting I have ever seen.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

Little Red Flowers

China/Italy 2006 91m
Miracle Communications/Beijing Century Good Tidings Cultural Development/RAI Cinema (Zhang Yuan, Marco Mueller)
Italian theatrical title: La Guerra dei fiori rossi
In the 1950s, a strong-willed four year old boy rebels at a repressive state orphanage.
An innocent, simple story, beautifully shot, but hardly memorable.
w Ning Dai, Zhang Yuan novel Wang Shuo d Zhang Yuan ph Yang Tao m Carlo Crivelli pd Huo Timgxiao ed Jacopo Quadri ☆ Dong Bowen (Fang Qiangqiang), Ning Yuanyuan (Yang Nanyan), Chen Manyuan (Yang Beiyan), Zhao Rui (Ms Li)

Little Red Monkey

GB 1954 74m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Merton Park (Alec C. Snowden)
Police and an American secret service agent protect a defecting missile expert from an assassin who has already murdered four scientists.
Based on a television serial, a soft-paced spy thriller that provides only a modicum of entertainment.
w James Eastwood, Ken Hughes story Eric Maschwitz d Ken Hughes ph Joseph Ambor m Trevor Duncan, Jack Jordan ad George Haslam ed Geoffrey Muller, Inman Hunter
☆ Richard Conte, Rona Anderson, Russell Napier, Colin Gordon, Arnold Marlé, Sylva Langova, Noel Johnson, Donald Bisset

A Little Romance

US 1979 108m Technicolor
Warner/Orion (Patrick Kelley)
A French teenager elopes with an American girl, encouraged by a garrulous old pickpocket.
Treacly juvenile romance enriched by in-jokes and an enjoyably over-the-top star performance.
w Allan Burns novel Patrick Cauvin d George Roy Hill ph Pierre William Glenn m Georges Delerue pd Henry Bumstead
☆ Laurence Olivier, Diane Lane, Thelonious Bernard, Arthur Hill, Sally Kellerman, Broderick Crawford, David Dukes
Georges Delerue
♫ Allan Burns

A Little Sex

US 1982 94m Technicolor
Universal/MTM (Robert de Laurentiis, Bruce Paltrow)
A young husband has a wandering eye.
Very thin comedy drama more suitable for TV if it were a little less outspoken.
w Robert de Laurentiis d Bruce Paltrow ph Ralf D. Bode m Georges Delerue ☆ Tim Matheson, Kate Capshaw, Edward Herrmann, John Glover

Little Shop of Horrors ★★

US 1960 70m bw
Santa Clara (Roger Corman)
A dim flower-shop assistant nurtures a man-eating plant.
A Corman quickie, allegedly shot in two days, that is a lively, if occasionally ramshackle, comic delight with a notable cameo from Nicholson as a masochist.
w Charles B. Griffith d Roger Corman ph Arch Dalzell m Fred Katz ad Daniel Haller ed Marshall Neilan Jnr
☆ Jonathan Haze, Jack Nicholson, Jackie Joseph, Mel Welles, Myrtle Vail, Dick Miller, Leola Wendorff

'One big sick joke, but it's essentially harmless and good-natured.' – Variety

Little Shop of Horrors ★

US 1986 88m Technicolor
Warner (David Geffen)
Workers in a flower shop are menaced by a plant with sinister intent.
Transcript of the off-Broadway musical curiously inspired by a 1960 Roger Corman horror flick which few people saw. A strange item with occasional effective moments.
w Howard Ashman play Howard Ashman

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

d Frank Oz ph Robert Paynter m Alan Menken pd Roy Walker ed John Jympson, Derek Trigg, Bob Gavin ☆ Rick Moranis, Ellen Greene, Vincent Gardenia, Steve Martin
'The best movie ever made about a man-eating plant.' – People
♫ song 'Mean Green Mother from Outer Space'

Little Tiger from Canton: see Master with Cracked Fingers

Little Tough Guy

US 1938 83m bw
Universal

A New York slum boy gets involved with a gang and is sent to reform school.
A development of the Dead End Kids, with attitudes not yet crystallized, the overall tone being heavy.
w Gilson Brown, Brenda Weisberg
d Harold Young
☆ Billy Halop, Helen Parrish, Marjorie Main, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsley, Jackie Searl, Hally Chester
'One of the best melodramas in recent years – very nearly as good as Dead End, and with the same cast of boys.' – Graham Greene

Little Tough Guys in Society

US 1938 75m bw
Universal

A society matron invites slum boys to her mansion as a corrective for her stuffy son.
The cast makes it plain that the Dead End Kids/Little Tough Guys are now headed for comedy, the reason being that their 'serious' films were thought to set a bad example.
w Edward Eliscu, Mortimer Offner d Erle C. Kenton
☆ Mary Boland, Mischa Auer, Edward Everett Horton, Helen Parrish, Jackie Searl, Frankie Thomas, Billy Benedict, Hally Chester, David Gorcey

A Little Trip to Heaven

Iceland/US 2005 86m colour
Palomar/Blueeyes (Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Baltasar Kormakur)

An unscrupulous insurance loss adjuster investigates a dubious million dollar claim in rural Minnesota.
Determinedlly quirky thriller – for reasons best known to himself, Whitaker attempts an Irish accent – that tries too hard to be different and ends up as hackneyed.
w Baltasar Kormakur, Edward Martin Weinman d Baltasar Kormakur ph Ottar Gudnason m Mugison pd Karl Juliusson ed Virginia Katz, Richard Pearson
☆ Forest Whitaker (Holt), Julia Stiles (Isold), Jeremy Renner (Fred), Peter Coyote (Frank), Philip Jackson (William), Anne Reid (Martha), Phyllida Law (Head Mistress), Alfred Harmsworth (Thor)
'The kind of movie that maintains a certain interest because it makes one wonder how it will pull itself together – even if, finally, it doesn't.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety
† The film was re-edited following the showing of a 98m version at the Toronto International Film Festival.

'They're not just best friends. They're blood brothers.'

The Little Vampire

GB/Germany/Netherlands 2000 95m colour
Icon/Comet/Stonewood/Avrora/Propaganda (Richard Claus)

An American boy moves to Scotland where he befriends a young vampire and his family.
Kids' film given to preaching the virtues of tolerance to misfits.
w Karey Kirkpatrick, Larry Wilson novels Angela Sommer-Bodenburg d Uli Edel ph Bernd Heinl m Nigel Clarke, Michael Csanyi-Wills pd Joseph Nemec III ed Peter R. Adam sp Digital Renaissance ☆ Jonathan Lipnicki (Tony Thompson), Richard E. Grant (Frederick), Jim Carter (Rookery), Alice Krige (Freda), Rollo Weeks (Rudolph), John Wood (Lord McAshton), Pamela Gidley (Dottie Thompson), Tommy Hinkley (Bob Thompson), Anna Popplewell (Anna), Dean Cook (Gregory)
'It's refreshing to see a kids' film taking on such sinister subject matter. Solid entertainment for the Goosebumps generation.' – Lizo Mzimba, Empire

Little Vera ★

USSR 1988 134m colour
Mainline/Gorky Studios (Yuri Prober)

original title: Malenkaya Vera
A young woman in a grim Russian town leads a disaffected life.
With its drunken father, promiscuous daughter and nagging mother, it will bring a sense of déjà vu to anyone familiar with the British kitchen sink dramas of the 1960s.
w Mariya Khmelik d Vasili Pichul ph Yefim Reznikov m Vladimir Matetski ad Vladimir Pasternak ed Yelena Zabolotskaya ☆ Natalya Negoda, Ludmilla Zaitseva, Andrei Sokolov, Yuri Nazarov, Alexander Alexeyev-Negreba, Alexandra Tabakova

'Finding Your Own Voice Can Be Magic.'

Little Voice ★

GB 1998 96m DeLuxe
Miramax/Scala (Elizabeth Karlsen)

A sleazy agent spots star potential in an almost mute young woman who can impersonate singers such as Judy Garland and Marlene Dietrich.
About six plots are squeezed together here – including an unlikely romance, and a daughter's queasy worship of her dead father – to the benefit of none; where the film comes to life is in the scenes between Horrocks and Caine, and the finale in a tawdry club. But to enjoy that, you also have to endure the grotesqueries of Brenda Blethyn's screeching performance.
wd Mark Herman play The Rise and Fall of Little Voice by Jim Cartwright ph Andy Collins m John Altman pd Don Taylor ed Michael Ellis
☆ Jane Horrocks, Michael Caine, Ewan McGregor, Jim Broadbent, Brenda Blethyn, Annette Badland, Philip Jackson
'There's a full-bloodedness about the film which bludgeons you into admiration. It slaps you on the back, kicks you in the gut, dares you not to laugh and cry and leaves your subconscious reeling.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound
♗ Brenda Blethyn

'They leap from the book and live!'

Little Women ★★★

US 1933 115m bw
RKO (David O. Selznick, Merian C. Cooper, Kenneth MacGowan)

The growing up of four sisters in pre-Civil War America.
Charming 'big picture' of its day, with excellent production and performances.
w Sarah Y. Mason, Victor Heerman novel Louisa May Alcott d George Cukor ph Henry Gerrard m Max Steiner ad Van Nest Polglase ed Jack Kitchin ☆ Katharine Hepburn (Jo), Paul Lukas (Prof. Fritz Bhaer), Joan Bennett (Amy), Frances Dee (Meg), Jean Parker (Beth), Spring Byington (Marmee), Edna May Oliver (Aunt March), Douglass Montgomery (Laurie), Henry Stephenson (Mr. Laurence), Samuel S. Hinds (Mr. March), John Lodge (Brooke), Nydia Westman (Mamie)
'If to put a book on the screen with all the effectiveness that sympathy and good taste and careful artifice can devise is to make a fine motion picture, then Little Women is a fine picture.' – James Shelley Hamilton
'One of the most satisfactory pictures I have ever seen.' – E. V. Lucas, Punch
'A reminder that emotions and vitality and truth can be evoked from lavender and lace as well as from machine guns and precision dances.' – Thornton Delehanty, New York Post
♟ script
♗ best picture; George Cukor

Little Women ★

US 1949 122m Technicolor
MGM (Mervyn Le Roy)

Syrupy Christmas-card remake, notably lacking the light touch.
w Andrew Solt, Sarah Y. Mason, Victor Heerman d Mervyn Le Roy ph Robert Planck, Charles Schoenbaum m Adolph Deutsch (after Max Steiner) ad Cedric Gibbons, Paul Groesse ☆ June Allyson, Elizabeth Taylor, Peter Lawford, Margaret O'Brien, Janet Leigh, Mary Astor
'It will raise a smile and draw a tear from the sentimental.' – MFB
♟ art direction
♗ cinematography

Little Women ★★

US 1994 118m colour
Columbia TriStar/Di Novi Pictures

Four girls grow to womanhood in 19th-century New England.
A pleasing remake with a decidedly feminist tone that occasionally lapses into oversweetness.
w Robin Swicord novel Louisa May Alcott d Gillian Armstrong ph Geoffrey Simpson m Thomas Newman pd Jan Roelfs ed Nicholas Beauman ☆ Winona Ryder, Gabriel Byrne, Trini Alvarado, Samantha Mathis, Kirsten Dunst, Claire Danes, Susan Sarandon, Eric Stoltz, John Neville, Mary Wickes
'The kind of film which, even when overlaid by the emotional goo of an often too insistent score, succeeds in preventing nausea by its sensible attention to the detail of Alcott's story.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
♗ Winona Ryder; costume design; Thomas Newman

The Little World of Don Camillo ★

France/Italy 1952 106m bw
Rizzoli-Amato-Francinex (Giuseppe Amato)

In a small Italian village the parish priest and the communist mayor are in a constant state of amiable feud.
Slightly lethargic character comedy with a mild message for its times, popular enough to warrant several sequels.
w Julien Duvivier, René Barjavel novel Giovanni Guareschi d Julien Duvivier ph Nicolas Hayer m Alessandro Cicognini ☆ Fernandel, Gino Cervi, Sylvie, Manara, Vera Talqui, Franco Interlenghi
'Cute and cosy.' – MFB

The Littlest Horse Thieves: see Escape from the Dark

The Littlest Rebel ★

US 1935 70m bw
TCF (B. G. de Sylva)

A small Southern girl persuades President Lincoln to release her father.
Charming, archetypal early Temple vehicle, very well produced.
w Edwin Burke play Edward Peple d David Butler ph John Seitz m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Shirley Temple, John Boles, Jack Holt, Karen Morley, Bill Robinson, Guinn Williams, Willie Best, Frank McGlynn Snr
'Shirley Temple as the public likes her … which means money.' – Variety

Live a Little, Steal a Lot

US 1974 102m CFI color
American International (Dominick Galate)
aka: Murph the Surf

Jewel thieves go from success to success, but the police finally force them to strike a bargain and return the gems.
Elaborate but rather unattractive caper story based on the exploits of two real criminals.
w E. Arthur Kean story Allan Dale Kuhn d Marvin Chomsky ph Michel Hugo m Philip Lambro
☆ Robert Conrad, Don Stroud, Donna Mills, Robyn Miller, Luther Adler, Paul Stewart Live and Become ★★

France/Italy/Belgium/Israel 2005 149m colour Technovision
The Works/Elzevir/Oi Oi Oi (Denis Carot, Marie Masmonteil, Radu Mihaileanu) original title: Va, Vis Et Deviens

An African youth pretends to be an Ethiopian Jew in order to emigrate to Israel.
Covering three periods in the life of an imposter who grows from a confused boy to a confident medical student, the film raises pertinent matters of identity and an immigrant experience of racism and prejudice, though too often indulging in sentimental answers.
w Radu Mihaileanu, Alain-Michel Blanc d Radu Mihaileanu ph Remy Chevrin m Armand Amar pd Eytan Levy ed Ludo Troch ☆ Yael Abecassis, Roschdy Zem, Moshe Agazai, Mosche Abebe, Sirak M. Sabahat
'Brave, moving and compassionate… deals boldly, yet sensitively, with issues crucial to our times.' – Philip French, Observer

Live and Let Die ★

GB 1973 121m Eastmancolor
UA/Eon (Harry Saltzman)

James Bond chases a black master criminal and becomes involved in West Indian Voodoo.
Standard tongue-in-cheek spy adventure with a new lightweight star and an air of déjà vu. Professional standards high.
w Tom Mankiewicz novel Ian Fleming d Guy Hamilton ph Ted Moore

m George Martin titles Maurice Binder
☆ Roger Moore, Yaphet Kotto, Jane Seymour, Clifton James, David Hedison, Bernard Lee, Lois Maxwell

'Plot lines have descended further to the level of the old Saturday afternoon serial, and the treatment is more than ever like a cartoon.' – Variety

'A Bond movie is not made. It is packaged. Like an Almond Joy. So much coconut to this much chocolate and a dash of raisins.' – Joseph Gelmis

♗ title song (m/ly Paul and Linda McCartney)

Live Flesh ★★

France/Spain 1997 100m colour 'Scope
El Deseo/CiBy 2000/France 3 (Agustin Almodóvar)

original title: Carne Trémula

In Madrid, the lives and loves of two policemen, their wives and an ex-convict, the son of a prostitute, intertwine.

Colourful, intricate, entertaining drama of love and loss, revenge and passion, moving from a time of repression to freedom.

w Pedro Almodóvar, Ray Loriga, Jorge Guerricaechevarria novel Ruth Rendell d Pedro Almodóvar ph Affonso Beato m Alberto Iglesias ad Antxon Gómez ed José Salcedo

☆ Javier Bardem, Francesca Neri, Liberto Rabal, Angela Molina, José Sancho, Penelope Cruz, Pilar Bardem

'Discerning viewers internationally should be impressed and entertained by the mature flow of the twisty narrative, in which earned emotion takes precedence over shock value.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

Live for Life

France/Italy 1967 130m Eastmancolor UA/Ariane/Vides

original title: Vivre pour Vivre

A news reporter forsakes his wife for a fashion model.

Interminable and unoriginal romantic drama against Sunday supplement backgrounds.

w Pierre Uytterhoeven, Claude Lelouch m Francis Lai d/ph Claude Lelouch

☆ Yves Montand, Candice Bergen, Annie Girardot, Irene Tunc

'The overall effect is of Gone with the Wind remade by Jacopetti.' – New Yorker

♗ best foreign film

The Live Ghost

US 1934 20m bw
Hal Roach

Two reluctant sailors think they have murdered one of their mates.

Somewhat unyielding material for Stan and Ollie, but still funnier than any of their rivals at the time.

w H. M. Walker d Charles Rogers

☆ Laurel and Hardy, Walter Long, Arthur Housman

Live, Love and Learn

US 1937 78m bw
MGM (Harry Rapf)

A bohemian painter is tamed by marriage.

Tiresome romantic trifle.

w Charles Brackett, Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum d George Fitzmaurice ph Ray June m Edward Ward

☆ Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell, Robert Benchley, Helen Vinson, Mickey Rooney, Monty Woolley, E. E. Clive, Maude Eburne

'Mildly entertaining mixture of slapstick and drama around the theme of art vs material success.' – Variety

Live Now, Pay Later

GB 1962 104m bw
(Regal) Woodlands/Jay Lewis (Jack Hanbury)

A credit store salesman is himself heavily in debt, and his private life is in ruins; but even after a chapter of unexpected and tragic events he remains irrepressibly optimistic.

A satirical farce melodrama which lets fly in too many directions at once and has a cumulatively cheerless effect despite funny moments.

w Jack Trevor Story d Jay Lewis ph Jack Hildyard m Ron Grainer

☆ Ian Hendry, John Gregson, June Ritchie, Geoffrey Keen, Liz Fraser

Live Nude Girls

US 1995 92m colour
Republic (Cara Tapper, Steve White, Barry Bernardi)

Six women gather for the female equivalent of a stag party, and consider their various relationships.

Unenlightening drama of small talk about tiny events by an uninteresting ensemble.

wd Julianna Lavin ph Christopher Taylor m Anton Sanko pd Jerry Fleming ed Kathryn Himoff

☆ Dana Delany, Kim Cattrall, Cynthia Stevenson, Laila Robins, Lora Zane, Olivia D'Abo, Glenn Quinn, Tim Choate, Jeremy Jordan

Live Today for Tomorrow: see An Act of Murder (1964)

'1750 to 1! Always outnumbered! Never outfought!'

Lives of a Bengal Lancer ★★

US 1934 119m bw
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)

Adventures on the North-West Frontier.

British army heroics are here taken rather solemnly, but the film is efficient and fondly remembered.

w Waldemar Young, John L. Balderston, Achmed Abdullah, Grover Jones, William Slavens McNutt book Francis Yeats-Brown d Henry Hathaway ph Charles Lang m Milan Roder ad Hans Dreier, Roland Anderson ed Ellsworth Hoagland

☆ Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell, Sir Guy Standing, C. Aubrey Smith, Monte Blue, Kathleen Burke, Colin Tapley, Douglass Dumbrille, Akim Tamiroff, Noble Johnson

'The best army picture ever made.' – Daily Telegraph

♗ best picture; script; Henry Hathaway; art direction; editing

'Before the fall of the Berlin wall, East Germany's police listened to your secrets.'

The Lives of Others ★★★★ (9)

Germany 2006 137m
Lionsgate/Wiedemann & Berg (Quirin Berg, Max Wiedemann)

German theatrical title: Das Leben der Anderen

In mid-1980s Communist East Germany, the Ministry of State Security (Stasi) has an army of officers who spy on every aspects of citizens' lives. A Stasi captain, Wiesler, whose expertise lies in breaking down suspected dissidents under interrogation, is assigned to spy on Dreyman, a successful playwright, and his actress girl-friend Christa. Wiesler gradually comes to realise that Dreyman is a decent man with an enviable life.

A fascinating, sad but electrifying film about betrayed friendships, ruined lives and dashed expectations. It's hard to recall that only 20 years ago a European regime presided over an atmosphere of such paranoia, distrust and fear. But it happened in East Germany, and that atmosphere is brilliantly evoked here. Much of the complex story details Wiesler's assiduous round-the-clock bugging of Dreyman's apartment, and the banality of the 'events' in Dreyman's life that he dutifully records. Director Von Dommersmarck maintains the pace of a thriller, while conveying the universal sense of distrust that permeated all East German society. The acting is superlative, notably Koch's suave, agreeable Dreyman, and the remarkable Mühe as the unmemorable looking Wiesler, working doggedly but silently undergoing an inner crisis. The last line, composed of just four short words, is unutterably moving. A rare film that can subtly alter the way one looks at life.

wd Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck ph Hagen Bogdanski m Gabriel Yared, Stéphane Moucha ad Silke Buhr ed Patricia Rommel

☆ Martina Gedeck (Christa-Maria Sieland), Ulrich Mühe (Captain Gerd Wiesler), Sebastian Koch (Georg Dreyman), Ulrich Tukur (Lt. Col. Anton Grubitz), Thomas Thieme (Minister Bruno Hempf), Volkmar Kleinert (Albert Jerska), Hans-Uwe Bauer (Paul Hauser)

'It is a tribute to the richness of this film that one cannot say for sure who the hero is.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'You should take pains not to miss this outstanding, and astounding German film....the layered ironies and bitter compromises of the story resonate as satisfyingly as a great novel.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

♗ foreign-language film

The Lives of the Saints

English 2007 100m
Tartan/Dazed/Meltin'Pot (Laura Hastings-Smith)

A sickly abandoned boy of 10 offers each underworld character in this north London story 'the perfect, rosy future of your dreams.'

The dead hand of magical realism hangs heavy over a story that never remotely convinces. Catholic images are laid on thick, as if at random, and it's all a sorry mess.

w Tony Grisoni d Rankin, Chris Cottam ph Baz Irvine m Rob Lane pd Mark Digby ad Chris Lightburn-Jones ed Chris Gill

☆ James Cosmo (Mr. Karva), David Leon (Othello), Emma Pierson (Tina), Bronson Webb (Emilio), Daon Broni (Roadrunner)

† Celebrity photographer Rankin makes his film debut as co-director.

Living: see Ikiru

The Living Corpse ★

Germany/USSR 1928 108m (24 fps) bw silent
Prometheus/Mezhrabpomfilm original title: Zhivoi Trup

An unhappy husband, whose wife loves another, tries all manner of means to give her a divorce. Refused by both church and state, he kills himself.

Heavy-going dramatic tract, photographed and directed with stirring style.

w B. Gusman, Anatoly Marienhof play Leo Tolstoy d Fedor Ozep ph Anatoly Golovnya

☆ Vsevolod Pudovkin, Maria Jacobini, V. Garden, Gustav Diessl

'One of the really few achievements of the Russian industry: a picture so gripping that it will hold any audience.' – Variety

The Living Daylights ★★

GB 1987 130m Technicolor Panavision
MGM-UA/Eon (Albert R. Broccoli, Michael G. Wilson)

James Bond helps the Soviets chase a KGB defector with sinister intent.

25th-anniversary Bond heroics with more adult style than usual, and all technical aspects up to par.

w Richard Maibaum, Michael G. Wilson d John Glen ph Alec Mills m John Barry pd Peter Lamont

☆ Timothy Dalton, Maryam d'Abo, Jeroen Krabbe, Joe Don Baker, John Rhys-Davies, Art Malik, Robert Brown

The Living Dead at the Manchester Morgue (dubbed) ★

Spain/Italy 1974 93m Eastmancolor
Miracle/Star/Flaminia (Edmundo Amati)

original title: Fin de Semana para los Muertos aka: Don't Open the Window

The dead are brought back to life as flesh-eating zombies by insects infected by an experimental crop-dusting machine.

An effectively creepy variation on The Night of the Living Dead, filmed in England.

w Sandro Continenza, Marcello Coscia d Jorge Grau ph Francisco Sempere m Giuliano Sorgini pd Carlo Leva ed Vincenzo Tomassi sp Giannetto de Rossi, Luciano Bird

☆ Ray Lovelock, Christine Galbo, Arthur Kennedy, Aldo Massasso, Giorgio Trestini, Roberto Posse

'A director with a genuine talent for the macabre mood and unsettling detail.' – Verina Glaessner

The Living Dead Girl ★

France 1982 98m colour
ABC/Aleriaz/Du Yaka/Sam Selsky

original title: La Morte Vivante

Toxic waste, released by an earthquake, revives the corpse of a young woman who needs blood to survive.

Spooky movie with some original touches, including a reluctant zombie, but containing rather too much gore for most tastes.

w Jean Rollin, Jacques Ralf d Jean Rollin ph Max Monteillet m Philippe d'Aram ed Janette Kronegger sp Benoit Lestang

☆ Marina Pierro, Françoise Blanchard, Mike Marshall, Carina Barone, Fanny Magieri, Patricia Besnard-Rousseau, Veronique Pinson

'This has a weird feel achieved by combining pastoral visions of an idyllic French countryside with oddly-staged tableaux of blood sacrifice and monstrous innocence. Very violent but not really scary.' – Empire

† The British video release runs for 86m.

The Living Desert ★★

US 1953 72m Technicolor
Walt Disney (James Algar)

A light-hearted documentary showing the animals and insects which live in American desert areas.

The aim is entertainment and Disney is not above faking, e.g. the famous sequence in which scorpions appear to do a square dance, but on its level the thing is brilliantly done.

w James Algar, Winston Hibler, Ted Sears d James Algar ph N. Paul Kenworthy Jnr, Robert H. Grandall m Paul Smith special processes Ub Iwerks

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'The film has the same cosy anthropomorphism as a Disney cartoon and its facetious commentary and vulgar music score are typical of others in the series.' – Georges Sadoul

† The other 'True Life Adventures' were: Seal Island 49 (2 reels), Beaver Valley 50 (2 reels), Nature's Half Acre 51 (2 reels), Water Birds 52 (2 reels), Bear Country 53, Prowlers of the Everglades 53, The Vanishing Prairie 54, The African Lion 55, Secrets of Life 56, White Wilderness 58, Jungle Cat 60.

Documentary

'A gleeful journey of sex and violence.'

The Living End

US 1992 84m colour
Mainline/Strand Releasing/Desperate Pictures (Marcus Hu, Jon Gerrans)

Two HIV-positive homosexuals – one a drifter, the other a film critic – head for San Francisco, indulging in casual sex and slaughter along the way.

A movie that its director has defined as 'irresponsible', although deliberately unpleasant and self-pitying would seem a more accurate description.

wd Gregg Araki ph Gregg Araki m Cole Coonce ed Gregg Araki

☆ Mike Dytri, Craig Gilmore, Mark Finch, Mary Woronov, Johanna Went, Darcy Marta, Paul Bartel

'Mark this down as the first, worst film of a director who may improve when he empties his system of gay special pleading and camp melodramatics.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times

Living Free

GB 1972 92m colour
Columbia/Open Road/High Road (Paul Radin)

On the death of Elsa the lioness, George and Joy Adamson capture her three cubs and transfer them for their own safety to Serengeti.

Sloppy sequel to Born Free, depending very heavily on the appeal of the cubs.

w Millard Kaufman d Jack Couffer ph Wolfgang Suschitzky m Sol Kaplan

☆ Susan Hampshire, Nigel Davenport, Geoffrey Keen

† It was followed in 1999 by To Walk With Lions, a film about the last days of George Adamson and his wildlife preserve.

'Amazing adventures beneath the curse of the jaguar god!'

The Living Idol

Mexico/US 1956 100m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Albert Lewin)

A Mexican girl becomes possessed by the spirit of the jaguar to whom local maidens were once sacrificed.

Pretentious but rather enjoyable highbrow hokum of the heady kind expected from this producer.

wd Albert Lewin ph Jack Hildyard m Rodolpho Halffter

☆ James Robertson Justice, Steve Forrest, Liliane Montevecchi

Living in a Big Way

US 1947 103m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A demobbed GI finds he can't get on with his rich selfish wife and opens up a charity home for the families of war casualties.

Odd mixture of comedy, drama and a few songs and dances, not forgetting a message or two. It mostly falls flat on its face.

w Gregory La Cava, Irving Ravetch d Gregory La Cava ph Harold Rosson m Lennie Hayton

☆ Gene Kelly, Marie McDonald, Charles Winninger, Phyllis Thaxter, Spring Byington, Clinton Sundberg

'Meet The Film Crew From Hell! In The Looniest Movie About The Movies'
'Warning. This Film Contains Explicit Scenes of Sex, Violence And People Being Perfectly Horrid To One Another.'
'This Is No Place For Luvvies'

Living in Oblivion ★★

US 1995 90m colour/bw
Entertainment/JDI/Lemon Sky (Michael Griffiths, Marcus Viscidi)

A low-budget film-maker has nightmares about his current project, while dealing with an egomaniacal leading man, a temperamental cinematographer and a dwarf who objects to appearing in dream sequences.

Energetic and entertaining joke at the expense of wannabe film-makers, skewering pretentiousness while demonstrating that what happens behind the camera can be more interesting than what takes place in front of it; James LeGros provides a nice turn as an impossibly vain star – any resemblance between him and Brad Pitt, who appeared in the director's Johnny Suede (qv), is presumably coincidental.

wd Tom DiCillo ph Frank Prinzi m Jim Farmer pd Thérèse DePrez ed Camilla Toniolo

☆ Steve Buscemi, Catherine Keener, Dermot Mulroney, Danielle von Zerneck, James LeGros, Peter Dinklage

'It has a sharp, fresh feel to it: a joke that'll please not only insiders, but any movie lover.' – Alexander Walker

Living It Up ★

US 1954 95m Technicolor
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis (Paul Jones)

A suspected victim of radium poisoning is played up by the press into a national hero.

Remake of Nothing Sacred with Lewis as Carole Lombard; deserves a mark for cheek.

w Jack Rose, Mel Shavelson d Norman Taurog ph Daniel Fapp m Walter Scharf

☆ Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Janet Leigh, Edward Arnold, Fred Clark, Sheree North, Sig Rumann

Living on Velvet ★

US 1935 77m bw
Warner (Edward Chodorov)

A happy-go-lucky aviator changes his life style when he narrowly escapes death in a crash.

Reasonably interesting 'serious' drama of its period.

w Jerry Wald, Julius Epstein d Frank Borzage ph Sid Hickox md Leo F. Forbstein

☆ George Brent, Kay Francis, Warren William, Helen Lowell, Henry O'Neill, Samuel S. Hinds, Russell Hicks, Edgar Kennedy

'Three good names but doubtful of pulling above ordinary business.' – Variety

Living Out Loud

US 1998 93m Technicolor Panavision
Entertainment/New Line/Jersey (Danny de Vito, Michael Shamberg, Stacey Sher)

An abandoned wife makes a friend of her building's lift operator, whose wife has thrown him out.

Romantic drama about an odd couple's failure to get together, mainly because the script raises issues only to avoid working them out.

wd Richard LaGravenese ph John Bailey m George Fenton pd Nelson Coates ed Jon Gregory, Lynzee Klingman

☆ Holly Hunter, Danny de Vito, Queen Latifah, Martin Donovan, Richard Schiff, Elias Koteas

'A talky, introspective character study laced with flights of musical fantasy.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

'A movie that looks as if it wants to have its cake and eat it, preferably from a highly gilded plate.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'The Only Risk In Taking An Adventure Is Not Taking It At All.'

The Lizzie Mcguire Movie ④

US 2003 94m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Stan Rogow)

A teenage girl flies from Los Angeles to Rome for some product placement for Lufthansa Airlines and falls for an Italian pop singer.

Mush intended for an audience of 12-year-old girls, and long may they keep it to themselves.

w Susan Estelle Jansen, Ed Decter, John J. Strauss d Jim Fall ph Jerzy Zielinski m Cliff Eidelman pd Douglas Higgins ed Margie Goodspeed

☆ Hilary Duff (Lizzie/Isabella), Adam Lamberg (Gordo), Robert Carradine (Sam), Hallie Todd (Jo), Jake Thomas (Matt), Yani Gellman (Paolo), Ashlie Brillault (Kate), Clayton Snyder (Ethan)

'Not a single moment of creativity or intrigue is to be found.' – Elizabeth Weitzman, New York Daily News

Ljubavni Slucaj: see The Switchboard Operator

The Llano Kid

US 1939 70m bw
Paramount

A bandit is persuaded to impersonate the long-lost son of a wealthy Mexican family.

Uninteresting minor Western, indifferently directed.

w Wanda Tuchock story Double-Dyed Deceiver by O. Henry d Edward D. Venturini ph Russell Harlan m Victor Young ad Lewis J. Rachmil ed Sherman A. Rose

☆ Tito Guizar, Gale Sondergaard, Alan Mowbray, Jane Clayton, Emma Dunn, Minor Watson, Glenn Strange

† It was a remake of The Texan (qv).

'The Love Story Which Changed The Story Of An Empire!'
'The Picture The World Is Waiting For!'

Lloyds of London ★★

US 1936 115m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

A young messenger boy in the 18th century grows up to found a great insurance company.

Thoroughly well mounted, if unconvincing and slightly boring, historical charade in which the Prince of Wales, Lord Nelson, Dr Johnson and other personages make guest appearances. An archetypal prestige film of its time which also turned out to be box-office.

w Ernest Pascal, Walter Ferris book Curtis Kenyon d Henry King ph Bert Glennon md Louis Silvers ad William S. Darling

☆ Tyrone Power, Madeleine Carroll, George Sanders, Freddie Bartholomew, C. Aubrey Smith, Guy Standing, Virginia Field, Montagu Love, Gavin Muir, Miles Mander, Una O'Connor, E. E. Clive

'Fictional history with fine production but weak from marquee standpoint ... basically it's the story of the beginning and rise of an insurance company, and how can average audiences be asked to get excited about that?' – Variety

'The name of England is so freely on the characters' lips that we recognize at once an American picture. These people live, make love, bear children all from the most patriotic motives, and it's all rather like London in coronation week.' – Graham Greene

art direction

Lo Chiamavano Trinità: see They Call Me Trinity

Loaded

GB/New Zealand 1994 96m colour
Blue Dolphin/NFTC/British Screen/NZFC (David Hazlett, Caroline Hewitt, Bridget Ikin, John Maynard)

A group of schoolfriends, who travel to the country to make a horror video, panic when, after taking drugs, one of them is killed in a motorcycle accident.

Ambitious but muddled and disjointed movie of adolescent longings and power games; its point gets lost among its video voyeurisms.

wd Anna Campion ph Alan Almond m Simon Fisher Turner pd Alistair Kay ed John Gilbert

☆ Oliver Milburn, Catherine McCormack, Thandie Newton, Dearbhla Molloy, Danny Cunningham, Nick Patrick

'Talky and embarrassingly pretentious bore about 20-something angst.' – Film Review

† The film was shown at the 1994 Venice Film Festival as Bloody Weekend and given a release two years later.

Loan Shark ★

US 1952 79m bw
Lippert

A detective goes undercover as a tyre worker in order to undermine a loan shark operation.

Competent co-feature with technical aspects in good shape.

w Martin Rackin, Eugene Ling d Seymour Friedman ph Joseph Biroc

☆ George Raft, Dorothy Hart, Paul Stewart, Helen Westcott, John Hoyt

Local Hero ★★

GB 1983 111m colour
Enigma/Goldcrest (David Puttnam)

A young American executive meets various difficulties when he is sent to a Scottish coastal village to arrange for the building of a new refinery.

Reminiscent of various Ealing comedies, especially Whisky Galore and The Maggie, this ambitious comedy is really not funny enough for its great length.

wd Bill Forsyth ph Chris Menges m Mark Knopfler

☆ Burt Lancaster, Peter Riegert, Denis Lawson, Peter Capaldi, Fulton Mackay, Jenny Seagrove

'Little in the way of obvious commercial hooks ... dominated by a constantly surprising sense of whimsicality.' – Variety

direction

Le Locataire: see The Tenant

Loch Ness

GB 1995 101m Metrocolor Panavision
Polygram/Working Title/Stephen Ujlaki (Tim Bevan)

An American scientist goes to Scotland to debunk the myth of the Loch Ness monster.

A romantic comedy that tries to get by on charm, and cannot quite manage it.
w John Fusco d John Henderson ph Clive Tickner m Trevor Jones pd Sophie Becher ed Jon Gregory ☆ Ted Danson, Joely Richardson, Ian Holm, Harris Yulin, James Frain, Keith Allen, Nick Brimble, Kirsty Graham, John Savident, Richard Vernon

'At its best a pleasant enough movie that more subdued, narcoleptic children might well enjoy. At its worst, it's really rather dull.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

'A Disgrace To Criminals Everywhere.'

Lock, Stock and Two Smokin' Barrels ★★

GB 1998 95m colour
Polygram/Steve Tisch/SKA Films (Matthew Vaughan)

Four friends who lose everything in a rigged poker game resort to robbery in order to pay their debts.
Clever, stylish, intricately plotted black farce, enjoyable if you can surrender to its gleeful delight in murder and mayhem.
wd Guy Ritchie ph Tim Maurice-Jones m David A. Hughes, John Murphy pd Iain Andrews, Eve Mavrakis ed Niven Howie
☆ Jason Flemyng, Dexter Fletcher, Nick Moran, Jason Statham, Steven Mackintosh, Vinnie Jones, Sting, Lenny McLean, P. H. Moriarty, Steve Sweeney, Frank Harper, Stephen Marcus, Peter McNicholl

'The film has a pounding, free energy, and the swift slang of the script gives it a lightness of touch amid the threats and the bloodbaths.' – Gaby Wood, Guardian

† It was also released on video in 'The director's cut', which adds an extra 10 minutes of footage.
BAFTA audience award

Lock Up

US 1989 109m Technicolor
Guild/White Eagle/Carolco/Gordon Company (Lawrence Gordon, Charles Gordon)

A tough prison warden tries to break the spirit of a tougher prisoner.
Nasty and sadistic, with no redeeming qualities.
w Richard Smith, Jeb Stuart, Henry Rosenbaum d John Flynn ph Donald E. Thorin m Bill Conti pd Bill Kenney ed Michael N. Knue, Donald Brochu
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Donald Sutherland, John Amos, Sonny Landham, Tom Sizemore, Frank McRae, Darlanne Fluegel, William Allen Young

'The restoration comedy about what cannot be restored!'

Lock Up Your Daughters

GB 1969 103m Technicolor
Columbia/Domino (David Deutsch)

In 18th-century London an aristocratic rake and various lower orders are all in search of female companionship and get their wires crossed.
Noisy, vulgar, ill-acted version (without music) of a successful musical based on two old theatrical warhorses.
w Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall play Rape upon Rape by Henry Fielding and The Relapse by John Vanbrugh d Peter Coe ph Peter Suschitzky m Ron Grainer pd Tony Woollard ☆ Christopher Plummer, Roy Kinnear, Georgia Brown, Susannah York, Glynis Johns, Ian Bannen, Tom Bell, Elaine Taylor, Jim Dale, Kathleen Harrison, Roy Dotrice, Vanessa Howard, Fenella Fielding, Peter Bayliss, Richard Wordsworth and also Peter Bull, Fred Emney

'Subtlety is neither required nor displayed.' – Jack Ibberson

Lock Your Doors: see The Ape Man

The Locket

US 1946 85m bw
RKO (Bert Granet)

A femme fatale is bent on destroying men, and eventually we discover why.
Dark, confusing melodrama very typical of the immediate post-war years; it has little to say but says it dourly, even achieving flashbacks within flashbacks within flashbacks.
w Sheridan Gibney d John Brahm ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb ☆ Laraine Day, Robert Mitchum, Brian Aherne, Gene Raymond, Ricardo Cortez

'The past never lies.'

The Locusts

US 1997 124m FotoKem Panavision
Orion/MPC (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler, Bradley Thomas)

video title: A Secret Sin
In Kansas in the early 60s, a man trying to escape his past takes a job on a feed lot run by a vindictive, hard-drinking widow and her withdrawn son, who has never recovered from the suicide of his father.
Overlong, over-heated melodrama in the Southern Gothic tradition, given to obtrusive symbolism in its heady mix of sex, death, castration, impotence and incest.
wd John Patrick Kelley ph Phedon Papamichael m Carter Burwell
pd Sherman Williams ed Kathryn Himoff, Erica Flaum
☆ Kate Capshaw (Delilah Ashford Potts), Jeremy Davies (Flyboy), Vince Vaughn (Clay Hewitt), Ashley Judd (Kitty), Paul Rudd (Earl), Daniel Meyer (Joel), Jessica Capshaw (Patsy)

'While this good-looking production lacks narrative economy and tends toward literary heavy-handedness, it nonetheless reps an entertaining debut driven by strongly drawn characters.' – David Stratton, Variety

The Lodger ★★★

GB 1926 84m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

Subtitle: A Story of the London Fog
US title: The Case of Jonathan Drew
A modern version of the novel about a stranger who is (in this case) wrongly thought to be Jack the Ripper.
The first true Hitchcock film, full of his familiar dramatic visual touches. Oddly enough it was followed by three years during which he seemed to forget them.
w Eliot Stannard, Alfred Hitchcock novel Mrs Belloc Lowndes d Alfred Hitchcock ph Baron Ventimiglia ad Bertram Evans, C. Wilfred Arnold ed Ivor Montagu ☆ Ivor Novello (Jonathan Drew, The Lodger), June (Daisy Bunting), Marie Ault (Mrs. Bunting), Arthur Chesney (Mr. Bunting), Malcolm Keen (Joe Betts)

'It was the first time I exercised my style ... you might almost say it was my first picture.' – Alfred Hitchcock, 1966

The Lodger ★

GB 1932 85m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)
US title: The Phantom Fiend
The upstairs lodger is suspected of being Jack the Ripper...
Modernized version of a story already tackled by Hitchcock as a silent and to be done again in costume in 1944. Not bad, for a minor British film of the time.
w Ivor Novello, Miles Mander, Paul Rotha, H. Fowler Mear novel Mrs Belloc Lowndes d Maurice Elvey ph Stanley Blythe, Basil Emmott ☆ Ivor Novello, Elizabeth Allan, A. W. Baskcomb, Jack Hawkins, Barbara Everest, Peter Gawthorne, Kynaston Reeves

'They can make pictures in England ... the only point for discussion is why they do not make them oftener.' – Variety

The Lodger ★

US 1944 84m bw
TCF (Robert Bassler)
1880s version of the above in which the lodger is Jack the Ripper.
Nicely mounted apart from some anachronisms, but a little dull.
w Barre Lyndon d John Brahm ph Lucien Ballard m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Laird Cregar, Merle Oberon, George Sanders, Cedric Hardwicke, Sara Allgood, Aubrey Mather, Queenie Leonard, Helena Pickard, Lumsden Hare, Frederick Worlock

'The only thing you can't have in this perfect world of total pleasure is your 30th birthday Logan is 29.'

Logan's Run ★

US 1976 118m Metrocolor Todd-AO
MGM (Saul David)

In the future, people try to escape from a society which dooms everyone to death at thirty.
Interesting and quite exciting fantasy melodrama which mercifully moves instead of preaching.
w David Zelag Goodman novel William F. Nolan d Michael Anderson ph Ernest Laszlo m Jerry Goldsmith pd Dale Hennesy
☆ Michael York, Richard Jordan, Jenny Agutter, Roscoe Lee Browne, Farrah Fawcett-Majors, Peter Ustinov, Michael Anderson Jnr

'A science fiction film made by people who don't understand science fiction for the amusement of people who don't care one way or the other.' – S. Frank, L. A. Panorama

'It puts the future back two thousand years.' – Benny Green, Punch
Ernest Laszlo

La Loi: see Where the Hot Wind Blows

Lola ★

France/Italy 1960 91m bw Franscope
Rome-Paris/Euro-International

A cabaret dancer in Nantes chooses between three men.
A slight romance which was much admired for its decoration and visual style, which reminded many of Max Ophuls.
wd Jacques Demy ph Raoul Coutard m Michel Legrand ☆ Anouk Aimée, Jacques Harden, Marc Michel, Elina Labourdette

'Like an adolescent's dream of romance, formed from old movies.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Lola: see Twinky (1969)

Lola ★★★★

West Germany 1982 113m colour
Rialto-Trio (Horst Wendlandt)

A cabaret singer leads a double life.
Blue Angel country is the setting for this fable of civic corruption from a director whose films always have interest.
w Peter Marthesheimer, Pea Froelich, Rainer Werner Fassbinder d Rainer Werner Fassbinder ph Xaver Schwarzenberger m Peer Raben ad Rolf Zehetbauer ed Juliane Lorenz, Rainer Werner Fassbinder
☆ Barbara Sukowa (Lola), Mario Adorf (Schuckert), Armin Mueller-Stahl (Von Bohm), Matthias Fuchs (Esslin)

Lola + Bilidikid ★

Germany 1998 95m colour
Millivres/Zero/WDR/Arte (Martin Hagemann)

aka: Lola and Billy the Kid
In Berlin, a teenaged Turkish youth acknowledges his own homosexuality after discovering that his brother, who has been thrown out of home, has become a transvestite dancer.
A melodramatic tale of homophobia, revenge, and repression within gay culture and in the wider world, lightened by a camp sense of humour.
wd E. Kutlug Ataman ph Chris Squires m Arpad Bondy ad Mona Kino ed Ewa J. Lind ☆ Gandi Mukli (Lola), Baki Davrak (Murat), Erdal Yildiz (Bilidikid), Inge Keller (Ute), Michael Gerber (Friedrich), Hasan Ali Mete (Osman)

'By no means a cosy family film, but it is well worth watching.' – Nick Briggs, Film Review

† The director received death threats after the film was shown in Turkey.

Lola Montes ★

France/Germany 1955 140m
Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Gamma/Florida/Oska

The life of the famous courtesan and her romance with the King of Bavaria, told in diverting fragments by a circus ringmaster.
An elaborate, expensive and trickily presented historical charade which confused the public and bankrupted its production company; but the various shorter versions released didn't help.
w Max Ophüls, Annette Wademant, Franz Geiger novel Cécil Saint-Laurent d Max Ophüls ph Christian Matras m Georges Auric ad Jean d'Aubonne, Willy Schatz
☆ Martine Carol, Anton Walbrook, Peter Ustinov, Ivan Desny, Oskar Werner, Will Quadflieg

'If you want to know what form can really do for content, rush along.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Lola Rennt: see Run Lola Run

Lolita ★★★

GB 1962 152m bw
MGM/Seven Arts/AA/Anya/Transworld (James B. Harris)

A middle-aged lecturer falls for a 14-year-old girl and marries her mother to be near her.
Beginning with a bang, as one middle-aged competitor for the love of a young girl murders his more successful rival, the story is told in flashback. As censorship meant that Kubrick could not deal openly with the theme of the novel, he turned it into a blackly comic duel between two men, which also becomes an engrossing exercise in acting styles by James Mason and Peter Sellers.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Vladimir Nabokov novel Vladimir Nabokov d Stanley Kubrick ph Oswald Morris m Nelson Riddle ad Bill Andrews ed Anthony Harvey
☆ James Mason (Humbert Humbert), Shelley Winters (Charlotte Haze), Sue Lyon (Lolita Haze), Peter Sellers (Clare Quilty)
'The director's heart is apparently elsewhere. Consequently, we face the problem without the passion, the badness without the beauty, the agony without the ecstasy.' – Andrew Sarris
'A diluted Blue Angel with a teenage temptress instead of a tart.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'So clumsily structured that you begin to wonder what was shot and then cut out, whether the beginning was intended to be the end; and it is edited in so dilatory a fashion that after the first hour, almost every scene seems to go on too long.' – Pauline Kael
† Before Mason was cast, Noël Coward and Laurence Olivier were sought for the role of Humbert Humbert.
♗ Vladimir Nabokov

Lolita ★
US/France 1997 137m colour
Pathé (Mario Kassar, Joel B. Michaels)
A college lecturer loves and loses a 12-year-old girl.
An unexpectedly bland remake, though it is, in outline, faithful to Nabokov's original; it fails in its depiction of the forbidden, lacking any sense of obsessional passion.
w Stephen Schiff novel Vladimir Nabokov d Adrian Lyne ph Howard Atherton m Ennio Morricone pd Jon Hutman ed Julie Monroe, David Bremner, F. Paul Benz
☆ Jeremy Irons, Melanie Griffith, Frank Langella, Dominique Swain, Suzanne Shepherd, Keith Reddin, Erin J. Dean
'Almost everything about the film testifies to Lyne's empty craftsmanship ... The truly shocking thing about his Lolita is its banality.' – Richard Williams, Guardian
'The crunch is, does this transgressive movie portray a sympathetic paedophile? The answer has to be yes.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'Quite innocuous, and Lyne's finest film, for what it's worth.' – Geoff Andrew, Time Out
† The film failed to find a distributor in the United States; after some controversy, it was released uncut in Britain.

The Lolly Madonna War: see Lolly Madonna XXX

Lolly Madonna XXX
US 1973 105m Metrocolor
MGM (Rodney Carr-Smith)
GB title: The Lolly Madonna War
Tennessee hillbilly farmers fight over a meadow.
Violent feudin' melodrama, technically accomplished but of limited interest to non hillbillies.
w Rodney Carr-Smith, Sue Grafton novel Sue Grafton d Richard C. Sarafian ph Philip Lathrop m Fred Myrow ☆ Rod Steiger, Robert Ryan, Scott Wilson, Jeff Bridges, Season Hubley London ★★

GB 1994 85m colour
BFI/Channel 4 (Keith Griffiths)
A traveller reluctantly returns to London at the urgent summons of a friend and former lover, a part-time teacher, and they explore the city, contrasting its present with its past and its missed potentialities.
An intriguing and original semi-documentary that is a voice-over narration by a sceptical, fictional observer together with an all-too-accurate portrait of a decaying and embattled place, with its freedoms restricted by the government's deliberate neglect and its dismantling of local power.
wd Patrick Keiller ph Patrick Keiller ed Larry Sider
☆ Paul Scofield (narrator)

London after Midnight ★
US 1927 75m approx bw silent
MGM (Tod Browning)
GB title: The Hypnotist
A creepy house murder is solved by hypnotism, and a grinning monster proves to be a red herring.
Famous star thriller of which lamentably no prints survive; remade as Mark of the Vampire.
w Tod Browning, Waldemar Young d Tod Browning ph Merritt Gerstad
☆ Lon Chaney, Marceline Day, Conrad Nagel, Henry B. Walthall, Polly Moran

London Belongs to Me ★★
GB 1948 112m bw
GFD/Individual (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)
US title: Dulcimer Street
A young boy is arrested on a murder charge and his boarding-house friends rally to his defence.
Unconvincing but highly entertaining sub-Dickensian comedy-drama with a rousing finish and an abundance of character roles.
w Sidney Gilliat, J. B. Williams novel Norman Collins d Sidney Gilliat ph Wilkie Cooper m Benjamin Frankel md Muir Mathieson ad Roy Oxley ed Thelma Myers ☆ Alastair Sim (Mr Squales), Stephen Murray (Uncle Henry), Richard Attenborough (Percy Boon), Fay Compton (Mrs Josser), Wylie Watson (Mr Josser), Susan Shaw (Doris Josser), Ivy St Helier (Connie), Joyce Carey (Mrs Vizzard), Andrew Crawford (Bill Todd), Eleanor Summerfield (Myrna), Hugh Griffith (Headlam Fynne), Gladys Henson (Mrs Boon), Maurice Denham (Jack Rufus)
'Memorable for its character-drawing and for the excellence of its writing and acting.' – Dilys Powell

The London Blackout Murders
US 1942 58m bw
Republic
GB title: Secret Motive
A mild tobacconist murders people who are sabotaging the war effort.
Curious, set-bound little melodrama with an interesting lead performance.
w Curt Siodmak d George Sherman
☆ John Abbott, Mary McLeod, Lloyd Corrigan, Lester Matthews, Anita Bolster, Billy Bevan, Frederick Worlock

London by Night ★
US 1937 70m bw
MGM
Apparent murders are really part of a blackmail scheme.
Reasonably intriguing mystery with good cast and atmosphere.
w George Oppenheimer play The Umbrella Man by Will Scott d William Thiele
☆ George Murphy, Rita Johnson, Leo G. Carroll, George Zucco, Virginia Field, Montagu Love, Eddie Quillan, Leonard Mudie
'Quality is there, but drawing power isn't.' – Variety

London Can Take It ★★★★
GB 1940 9m bw
The Ministry of Information
Quentin Reynolds, an American war correspondent, shows Americans what the London blitz was like.
Historically significant short, credited with inclining Americans towards participation. In its own right, a brilliant job of editing and presentation.
w Quentin Reynolds d Harry Watt ph Jonah Jones, H. E. Fowle

London Kills Me
GB 1991 107m colour
Rank/Working Title/Polygram/Film Four (Tim Bevan)
A drug pusher, down on his luck, is told that he can have a job as a waiter providing he acquires a good pair of shoes.
Aimless drama of young drug addicts and hangers-on that goes nowhere slowly.
wd Hanif Kureishi ph Ed Lachman m Mark Springer, Sarah Sarhandi pd Stuart Walker ed Jon Gregory ☆ Justin Chadwick, Steven Mackintosh, Emer McCourt, Roshan Seth, Fiona Shaw, Brad Dourif, Tony Haygarth, Alun Armstrong
'The motivation is often obscure, the action is sometimes lacking in simple credibility, which is not to be blamed on the performers, and ultimately Kureishi fails to make his people interesting either as individuals or as social types. Nevertheless, he has attempted to take us into an unfamiliar subculture without making us feel that we are slumming.' – Philip French, Observer
'An amazing, hypnotizing, mind-bending shambles ... Photographed like a home video that has been savaged by the cat, the film is earnestly ugly and passionately shapeless.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times

London Melody
GB 1937 75m bw
GFD/Herbert Wilcox
US title: Girls in the Street
A diplomat falls for a dancer.
Light but rather humourless musical drama.
w Florence Tranter, Monckton Hoffe d Herbert Wilcox ph F. A. Young ☆ Anna Neagle, Tullio Carminati, Robert Douglas, Horace Hodges
'Excellent compilation of bromidial mush, beautifully produced and directed, which should satisfy.' – Variety

The London Nobody Knows ★
GB 1967 53m Eastmancolor
Norcon/British Lion
James Mason wanders round the capital's by-ways in search of relics from former ages.
Unhurried but generally delightful documentary.
w Geoffrey Fletcher book Geoffrey Fletcher d Norman Cohen

London to Brighton ★★ (6)
UK 2006 85m
Vertigo/Steel Mill/Wellington Films (Alistair Clark, Rachel Robey, Ken Marshall, Paul Andrew Williams)
A prostitute flees to Brighton with an under-age runaway to protect her from a paedophile gang boss.
Grim, seedy story riddled with violence and sleaze, but an astonishingly confident debut from Williams in a virtually no-budget movie. From the opening scene, with its two female protagonists locked in a public lavatory at 3.07 a.m., and plotting their getaway, the pace never falters. Hardly pleasant viewing, but compulsive and gripping.
wd Paul Andrew Williams ph Christopher Ross m Laura Rossi pd Jane Levick ad Lizzie Dixon ed Tom Hemmings ☆ Lorraine Stanley (Kelly), Johnny Harris (Derek), Alexander Morton (Duncan), Georgia Groome (Joanne), Sam Spruell (Stuart)
'The film's propulsive urgency barely lets up.....a startlingly accomplished piece of work.' – Michael Brooke, Sight & Sound † Writer-director Williams has claimed he wrote the script over a single weekend.

London Town ★
GB 1946 126m Technicolor
GFD/Wesley Ruggles
US title: My Heart Goes Crazy
An understudy finally achieves stardom thanks to his daughter's schemes.
Disastrous and expensive attempt to make a major British musical without a single new idea. Tasteless, tawdry and sluggish, but it does record for posterity four of the star's sketches.
w Elliot Paul, Siegfried Herzig, Val Guest d Wesley Ruggles ph Erwin Hillier ☆ Sid Field, Greta Gynt, Kay Kendall, Tessie O'Shea, Claude Hulbert, Sonnie Hale, Mary Clare, Petula Clark, Jerry Desmonde
'I can't see the point of importing an American director and giving him all the time and money in the world to play with when we can make bad musicals on our own, and quicker.' – Richard Winnington

The Lone Hand
US 1953 80m Technicolor
Universal-International
A quiet Western farmer is really a Pinkerton detective.
Slightly unusual Western in which the happy ending is not however in doubt.
w Joseph Hoffman d George Sherman ph Maury Gertsman md Joseph Gershenson ☆ Joel McCrea, Barbara Hale, Alex Nicol, Charles Drake, James Arness

The Lone Ranger
This high-minded Western character, with his black mask, his horse Silver and his Indian friend Tonto, originated (complete with 'William Tell' overture) as a 1933 radio serial in which he was played by George Seaton. In 1938 he came to film via a Republic serial with a sequel in 1939 (see below). In 1949 Clayton Moore brought him to TV in innumerable half-hour adventures. These eventually encouraged two feature versions; see below. Also, The Legend of the Lone Ranger (qv).

The Lone Ranger
US 1956 85m Warnercolor
Jack Wrather
The masked do-gooder foils a ranchers' plot to destroy an Indian reservation.
Tolerably watchable adventures.
w Herb Meadow d Stuart Heisler ph Edwin DuPar m David Buttolph ed Clarence Kolster ☆ Clayton Moore, Jay Silverheels, Lyle Bettger, Bonita Granville, Perry Lopez

The Lone Ranger and the Lost City of Gold

US 1958 81m colour
Jack Wrather

The masked rider solves murders which have been committed for a mysterious medallion.

Lively Western for kids.

w Robert Schaefer and Eric Freiwald d Lesley Selander ph Kenneth Peach m Les Baxter

☆ Clayton Moore, Jay Silverheels, Douglas Kennedy, Charles Watts

The Lone Rider Ambushed

US 1941 67m bw
Equity/PRC (Sigmund Neufeld)

A cowboy impersonates an outlaw in order to recover stolen bank money.

The best of the Lone Rider series, mainly owing to the gimmick of having Houston play the villain as well as the hero.

w Oliver Drake d Sam Newfield ph Jack Greenhalgh m Johnny Lang, Lew Porter ad Vin Taylor ed Holbrook N. Todd

☆ George Houston, Al St John, Maxine Leslie, Frank Hagney, Jack Ingham, Hal Price, Ted Adams, George Chesebro

The Lone Rider Fights Back

US 1941 64m bw
Equity/PRC (Sigmund Neufeld)

A wandering cowboy helps a rancher's niece solve the murder of her uncle.

Standard second-feature Western, with songs, fist- and gunfights and a little comedy between the action.

w Joseph O'Donnell d Sam Newfield ph Jack Greenhalgh m Johnny Lange, Lew Porter ad Vin Taylor ed Holbrook N. Todd

☆ George Houston, Al St John, Dorothy Short, Dennis Moore, Frank Hagney, Charles King, Frank Ellis

The Lone Rider in Ghost Town

US 1941 64m bw
PRC (Sigmund Neufeld)

A wandering cowboy rescues a mine engineer who has been kidnapped and hidden in a deserted town.

A mix of comedy, songs and a little action following the usual pattern of the Lone Rider series, in which our hero is suspected to be the bad guy, but proves his innocence by beating a confession out of the villains.

w Joe O'Donnell d Sam Newfield ph Jack Greenhalgh m Johnny Lange, Lew Porter ed Holbrook N. Todd

☆ George Houston, Al St John, Alaine Brandes, Budd Buster, Frank Hagney, Alden Chase, Reed Howes

Lone Star

US 1952 90m bw
MGM (Z. Wayne Griffin)

Andrew Jackson enlists the aid of a Texas adventurer to persuade Sam Houston to change his mind about an agreement with Mexico.

Slow-moving semi-Western, hard to follow for non-Americans. Production values quite high.

w Borden Chase, Howard Estabrook d Vincent Sherman ph Harold Rosson m David Buttolph

☆ Clark Gable, Ava Gardner, Lionel Barrymore, Broderick Crawford, Ed Begley, Beulah Bondi, James Burke, William Farnum, Lowell Gilmore, Moroni Olsen, Russell Simpson, William Conrad

'John Sayles invites you to return to the scene of the crime.'

Lone Star ★★

US 1996 135m colour Super 35
Rank/Castle Rock/Turner/Rio Dulce (R. Paul Miller, Maggie Renzi)

In a Texan border town a sheriff investigates the murder of one of his predecessors, who vanished in the mid-50s.

Engrossing, wide-ranging tale of the way in which the past and the present impinge upon the lives of a small community.

wd John Sayles ph Stuart Dryburgh m Mason Daring pd Dan Bishop ed John Sayles

☆ Chris Cooper, Elizabeth Peña, Kris Kristofferson, Matthew McConaughey, Jesse Borrego, Ron Canada, Frances McDormand, Joe Morton

'Never quites lives up, in its storytelling, to its incidental observations.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

John Sayles (as writer)

The Lone Wolf

The jewel thief turned sleuth was created by Louis Joseph Vance and turned up in several silent films. During the talkie period several actors played Michael Lanyard; the role of his valet passed from Raymond Walburn to Eric Blore to Alan Mowbray. All the films were made for Columbia, but only the first was anything like a main feature.

1935 The Lone Wolf Returns d Roy William Neill with Melvyn Douglas 1938 The Lone Wolf in Paris d Albert S. Rogell with Francis Lederer 1939 The Lone Wolf Spy Hunt d Peter Godfrey with Warren William 1940 The Lone Wolf Strikes (qv)
1941 The Lone Wolf Meets a Lady (qv), The Lone Wolf Takes a Chance (qv), The Lone Wolf Keeps a Date (qv)
1941 Secrets of the Lone Wolf d Edward Dmytryk; WW
1943 One Dangerous Night (qv)
1943 Passport to Suez (qv)
1946 The Notorious Lone Wolf d D. Ross Lederman; with Gerald Mohr 1947 The Lone Wolf in London d Leslie Goodwins; GM
1947 The Lone Wolf in Mexico d D. Ross Lederman; GM 1949 The Lone Wolf and His Lady d John Hoffman; Ron Randell

Lone Wolf and Cub

is a brutal Japanese martial arts series of the adventures of Ogami Itto, the Shogun's disgraced official executioner, who becomes an outlaw and assassin, accompanied on his travels by his young son, who is carried in a cart fitted with knives and, in later episodes, a machine-gun. The series, which was based on a popular manga, follows his battles against the secret society that framed him for treason and murdered his wife. It has no resolution; in the last episode the fight still continues. The films were produced by Shintaro Katsu, better known for playing the blind swordsman Zatoichi (qv) in a long running series, and starred his brother Tomisaburo Wakayama. A dubbed American version was edited from the first two films of the series and released under the title Shogun Assassin; its video release was banned in 1983 because ot its violence.

1972 Sword of Vengeance
1972 Babycart At The River Styx
1972 Babycart To Hades
1972 Babycart In Peril
1973 Babycart In The Land Of Demons
1974 White Heaven In Hell

Lone Wolf and Cub: Baby Cart at the River Styx ★★

Japan 1972 85m colour
Toho (Katsu Shintaro, Matsubara Hisaharu)
original title: Kozure Okami: Sanzu No Kawa No Ubaguruma

A ronin wanders the countryside with his small son, offering his services as an assassin while being hunted down by his powerful enemies.

A cut above routine martial arts movies, though one in which blood gushes and spurts in copious quantities; the emphatic, shadowy directorial style is influenced by Sergio Leone, and the many fights are imaginatively staged.

w Kazuo Koike, Goseki Kojima d Kenji Misumi ph Chishi Makiura m Eiken Sakurai ad Akira Naito ed Toshio Taniguchi Fight choreographer Eiichi Kasumoto

☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama (Ogami Itto), Kayo Matsuo, Minoru Ooki, Akiji Kobayashi, Shin Kishida, Shogen Nitta, Kanji Ehata, Akihiro Tomikawa (Daigoro)

Lone Wolf and Cub: Babycart In Peril

Japan 1972 81m colour
Toho (Shintaro Katsu, Hisaharu Matsubara)
original title: Kozure Okami: Oya No Kokoro Ko No Kokoro

The Lone Wolf is hired to kill a female assassin who strips before she fights, confusing opponents with her elaborate tattoos.

The series began losing its dynamic quality with this episode, where fast-paced narrative gave way to a more sensational and sentimental approach.

w Kazuo Koike, Goseki Kojima d Buiichi Saito ph Kazuo Miyagawa m Eiken Sakurai ad Narinori Shimoishizaka ed Toshio Taniguchi fight choreographer Eiichi Kusumoto

☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama (Ogami Itto), Yooichi Hayashi (Gunbei), Akihiro Tomikawa, Michie Azuma, So Yamamura

Lone Wolf and Cub: Babycart In The Land Of Demons

Japan 1973 89m colour TohoScope
Toho (Shintaro Katsu, Hisaharu Matsubara)
original title: Kozure Okami: Meifumando

Five expert swordsmen test Ogami Itto's powers before he receives his next assignment and becomes involved in a clan's power struggles.

Five fewer gimmicks than in the third and fourth episodes of the series, this delivers much sword play and slaughter in what has become a familiar pattern.

w Kazuo Koike, Tsutomu Paul Nakamura d Kenji Misumi ph Fujio Morita m Hideaki Sakura ad Narinori Shimoishizaka fight choreograper Eiichi Kusumoto

☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama (Ogami Itto), Michiyo Yasuda (Shiranui), Akihiro Tomikawa (Daigoro), Heiji Okada (Mogami Shusuke), Minoru Ooki (Retsudo)

Lone Wolf and Cub: Babycart to Hades

Japan 1972 89m colour
Toho (Shintaro Katsu, Hisaharu Matsubara)
original title: Kozure Okami: Shinikazeni Mukau Ubaguruma

As a matter of honour, Ogami Itto undergoes a beating and agrees an assassination to save the life of a prostitute; he then slaughters an army sent to kill him.

An action movie that manages, between the violent death at its beginning and end, to debate the samurai's 'way of the warrior' and notions of honour in a society of killers for hire.

w Koike Kazui, Goseki Kojima d Kenji Misumi ph Chisi Makiura m Eiken Sakurai ad Yoshinobu Niskioka ed Toshio Taniguchi fight choreographer Eiichi Kasumoto

☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama (Ogami Itto), Goo Katoo (Kanbei), Yuuko Hama, Isao Yamagata, Michitaro Mizushima, Ichiroo Takatani

Lone Wolf and Cub: Sword of Vengeance ★★

1972 85m
Toho (Shintaro Katsu, Hisaharu Matsubara)
original title: Kozure Okami: Kowokashi Udekashi Tsukamatsuru

Framed by rivals, the disgraced official executioner to the Shogunate, accompanied by his small son, takes revenge on his enemies.

A spaghetti Eastern, much influenced by Italian movies in its use of close-ups to create suspense, though with a typical Japanese approach to gore, as fountains of blood gush and limbs are hacked off at every opportunity; it is nevertheless stylishly done, with an interesting relationship between the vengeful father and his wide-eyed son.

w Kazuo Koike, Goseki Kojima d Kenji Misumi ph Chishi Makiura m Hideaki Sakurai ad Akira Naito ed Toshio Taniguchi fight choreographer Eiichi Kusumoto

☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama (Ogami Itto), Fumio Watanabe (Sugito), Tomoko Mayama (Osen), Shigeru Tsuyuguchi (Matsuki Junai), Tomoo Uchida (Goto), Akihiro Tomikawa (Daigoro)

Lone Wolf and Cub: White Heaven In Hell

Japan 1974 94m colour
Toho (Shintaro Katsu, Hisaharu Matsubara)
original title: Kozure Okami: Jigoku e ikuzo! Daigoro

Ogami Itto is faced with his enemy's most powerful weapons: a deadly female assassin, supernatural underground warriors and an entire army.

Inspiration was running low in the last episode of the series, one that was obviously not intended to be the last since it does not resolve the story. Its interest lies in its snow-covered landscapes and battles against warriors on skis and sledges.

w Tsutomu Nakamura manga Kazuo Kioke, Goseki Kojima d Yoshiyuki Kuroda ph Chishi Makiura m Kunihiko Murai ad Akira Naito

☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama (Ogami Itto), Akihiro Tomikawa (Daigoro), Junko Hitomi (Kaori), Goro Mutsumi (Ozunu)

The Lone Wolf Keeps a Date

US 1941 65m bw
Columbia

The Lone Wolf saves his stamp collection from villains and foils a kidnap plot.

Dull thriller, hampered by an overcomplex plot and rather too much broad comedy to be at all effective.

w Earl Felton, Sidney Salkow novel Louis Joseph Vance d Sidney Salkow ph Barney McGill md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ed Richard Fantl

☆ Warren William, Frances Robinson, Bruce Bennett, Eric Blore, Thurston Hall, Jed Prouty, Fred Kelsey, Don Beddoe

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Lone Wolf McQuade

US 1983 107m DeLuxe
1818/Top Kick/Orion (Yoram Ben-Ami, Steve Carver)

A tough Texas Ranger takes on horse rustlers and hijackers.
Adults-only action rubbish, disarmingly competently made.
w B. J. Nelson d Steve Carver ph Roger Shearman m Francesco de Masi pd Norm Baron ed Anthony Redman ☆ Chuck Norris, David Carradine, Barbara Carrera, Leon Isaac Kennedy

'A winningly ludicrous mish-mash of mayhem-movie rudiments and action-man reputations.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

The Lone Wolf Meets a Lady

US 1941 71m bw
Columbia

The Lone Wolf offers to help a bride when, on the eve of her society marriage, her ex-husband helps a thief steal her wedding present, a priceless diamond necklace.
Routine programmer, enlivened by the occasional line of smart dialogue.
w John Larkin, Wolfe Kaufman story Louis Joseph Vance d Sidney Salkow ph Henry Freulich md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ed Al Clark
☆ Warren William, Eric Blore, Jean Muir, Victor Jory, Roger Pryor, Warren Hull, Thurston Hall, Georgia Caine

The Lone Wolf Strikes

US 1940 57m bw
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)

The Lone Wolf impersonates a fence in order to recover a heiress's priceless pearl necklace and solve the murder of a friend.
One of the best of the series: a brisk and enjoyable thriller, with comic relief cut to the minimum.
w Harry Segall, Albert Duffy story Dalton Trumbo d Sidney Salkow ph Henry Freulich md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ed Al Clark
☆ Warren William, Eric Blore, Joan Perry, Alan Baxter, Montagu Love, Robert Wilcox, Astrid Allwyn, Don Beddoe, Fred A. Kelsey

The Lone Wolf Takes a Chance

US 1941 76m bw
Columbia

Michael Lanyard, the Lone Wolf, bets a police inspector that he can stay out of trouble for 24 hours, and finds himself accused of murder and searching for a kidnapped inventor a few minutes later.
Watchable 'B' feature comedy-thriller that keeps the action and fun moving fast.
w Earl Fenton, Sidney Salkow novel Louis Joseph Vance d Sidney Salkow ph John Stumar md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ed Viola Lawrence ☆ Warren William, Eric Blore, June Storey, Henry Wilcoxon, Don Beddoe, Thurston Hall, Lloyd Bridges

The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner ★★★

GB 1962 104m bw
British Lion/Bryanston/Woodfall (Tony Richardson)

The only thing a Borstal boy does well is run, and as he trains he thinks back to his depressing life.
An unusual take on class war as a rebellious working-class delinquent takes part in a climactic race against a team of public schoolboys; interesting scenes, though, do not quite form a compelling whole.
w Alan Sillitoe story Alan Sillitoe d Tony Richardson ph Walter Lassally m John Addison ad Ted Marshall ed Anthony Gibbs
☆ Tom Courtenay (Colin Smith), Michael Redgrave (The Governor), James Bolam (Mike), Avis Bunnage (Mrs. Smith), Alec McCowen (Brown), Joe Robinson (Roach), Julia Foster (Gladys)
Ⓑ Tom Courtenay

'In The Tradition Of The Great Ones!'

Lonely Are the Brave ★

US 1962 107m bw Panavision
U-I/Joel (Edward Lewis)

The last of the cowboy rebels is no match for pursuit by jeep and helicopter.
A strange, sad, rather moving fable, with very good performances and action scenes, but a shade too unrelenting in its downbeat tone to become a popular classic.
w Dalton Trumbo novel Brave Cowboy by Edward Abbey d David Miller ph Philip Lathrop m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Kirk Douglas, Walter Matthau, Gena Rowlands, Michael Kane, Carroll O'Connor, Karl Swenson, George Kennedy, Bill Raisch

'Above all a portrait to remember and cherish, alive, doomed, tragic, by Kirk Douglas.' – Dilys Powell

The Lonely Guy

US 1984 90m Technicolor
Universal (Arthur Hiller)

After being thrown out by his girlfriend, a writer discovers a secret society of single men.
Glossy but heavy-handed comedy, attempting satire but not succeeding in its aim.
w Ed Weinberger, Stan Daniels, Neil Simon book The Lonely Guy's Book of Life by Bruce J. Friedman d Arthur Hiller ph Victor J. Kemper m Jerry Goldsmith pd James D. Vance ed William Reynolds
☆ Steve Martin, Charles Grodin, Judith Ivey, Steve Lawrence, Robyn Douglass, Merv Griffin, Dr Joyce Brothers

'Generally likeable, but it makes you feel as though you were watching television.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Lonely Hearts ★

Australia 1981 95m Eastmancolor
Adams Packer Films (John B. Murray)

When his mother dies, a 50-year-old attempts to go on a belated romantic spree.
Unexpectedly amusing comedy reminiscent of a New Yorker cartoon.
w Paul Cox, John Clarke d Paul Cox ph Yuri Sokol m Norman Kaye ☆ Wendy Hughes, Norman Kaye, John Finlayson, Julia Blake, Jonathan Hardy

Lonely in America ★

US 1990 96m DuArt
Arista/Apple (Tirlok Malik, Phil Katzman)

A young Indian arrives in New York to work for his uncle, and decides to strike out on his own.
Engaging comedy of an innocent abroad, with an eye for the foibles of both nationalities.
w Satyajit Joy Palit, Barry Alexander Brown, Nicholas Spencer story Tirlok Malik d Barry Alexander Brown ph Phil Katzman m Gregory Arnold ad Eduardo Capilla ed Tula Goenka
☆ Ranjit Chowdhry, Adelaide Miller, Robert Kessler, Melissa Christopher, David Toney, Franke Hughes, Anila Singh, R. Ganesh, Tirlok Malik

The Lonely Lady

US 1982 92m Technicolor
KGA Industries/Harold Robbins International

A girl graduate in Los Angeles suffers various setbacks and assaults on her way to being a film star.
Risible concoction designed to show off the non-talents of a non-star in a film financed by her husband.
w John Kershaw, Shawn Randall novel Harold Robbins d Peter Sasdy ph Brian West m Charles Calello ☆ Pia Zadora, Lloyd Bochner, Bibi Besch, Joseph Cali, Anthony Holland, Jared Martin

The Lonely Man

US 1957 87m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Pat Duggan)

An outlaw hopes to regain social recognition and contacts the son who abhors him.
Dullish psycho Western.
w Harry Essex, Robert Smith d Henry Levin ph Lionel Lindon m Van Cleave
☆ Jack Palance, Anthony Perkins, Elaine Aiken, Neville Brand, Lee Van Cleef, Elisha Cook Jnr, Robert Middleton

The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne ★★

GB 1987 116m Fujicolour
HandMade (George Harrison, Denis O'Brien)

A middle-aged piano teacher's hopeless life in Dublin boarding houses.
Inevitably gloomy tale, intelligently crafted and with wonderfully detailed performances.
w Peter Nelson novel Brian Moore d Jack Clayton ph Peter Hannan m Georges Delerue pd Michael Pickwoad ☆ Maggie Smith, Bob Hoskins, Wendy Hiller, Marie Kean, Prunella Scales
Ⓑ Maggie Smith

The Lonely Woman: see Voyage to Italy

Lonelyhearts ★

US 1958 103m bw
UA/Dore Schary

A young journalist finds himself engrossed, appalled and sickened by his work on the agony column.
Episodic, occasionally interesting but generally too vaguely liberal; an intellectual reshaping of a despairing novel. The producer as usual is well meaning but doesn't quite make it.
w Dore Schary novel Nathanael West d Vincent J. Donehue ph John Alton m Conrad Salinger ☆ Montgomery Clift, Robert Ryan, Myrna Loy, Dolores Hart, Maureen Stapleton
Ⓐ Maureen Stapleton

Lonesome ★

US 1928 69m (24 fps) bw silent
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

Young lovers lose each other at Luna Park but later discover that they are neighbours.
Amiable exploration of the life of city workers, comparable with The Crowd but showing a lighter touch.
w Edward T. Lowe d Paul Fejos ph Gilbert Warrenton
☆ Glenn Tryon, Barbara Kent
† Had sound effects and some talking sequences.

Lonesome Cowboys

US 1968 105m colour
Andy Warhol Films

aka: Andy Warhol's Lonesome Cowboys

A gang of outlaws rides into town, where the only inhabitants are a wealthy woman, her male nurse and a transvestite sheriff.
A sort of improvised and inspired home movie, a gay Western made by city lovers who regard wide-open spaces and horses with great suspicion.
wd Paul Morrissey
☆ Viva, Taylor Mead, Tom Hompertz, Louis Waldron, Joe Dallesandro, Eric Emerson

The Long Absence: see Une Aussi Longue Absence

Long Ago Tomorrow: see The Raging Moon

The Long and the Short and the Tall ★

GB 1960 105m bw
ABP/Michael Balcon

US title: Jungle Fighters

In Malaya during World War II a Japanese scout is captured by a British patrol.
Stark war melodrama with the emphasis on character. Vivid at the time, it now seems very routine.
w Wolf Mankowitz play Willis Hall d Leslie Norman ph Erwin Hillier m Stanley Black ☆ Laurence Harvey, Richard Todd, David McCallum, Richard Harris, Ronald Fraser, John Meillon, John Rees, Kenji Takaki

The Long Arm ★★

GB 1956 96m bw
Ealing (Tom Morahan)

US title: The Third Key

A Scotland Yard superintendent solves a series of robberies.
Good straightforward police thriller with careful detail.
w Janet Green, Robert Barr d Charles Frend ph Gordon Dines m Gerbrand Schurmann ☆ Jack Hawkins, Dorothy Alison, John Stratton, Michael Brooke, Geoffrey Keen, Sydney Tafler, Meredith Edwards, Ralph Truman, Ursula Howells

'A generally efficient example of popular British film-making.' – MFB

The Long Dark Hall

GB 1951 86m bw
British Lion/Five Oceans (Anthony Bushell)

A chorus girl is murdered and her married lover is accused.
Miserable mystery with a trick ending, most inappropriately cast.
w Nunnally Johnson, W. E. C. Fairchild d Anthony Bushell, Reginald Beck ph Wilkie Cooper m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Rex Harrison, Lilli Palmer, Raymond Huntley, Denis O'Dea, Anthony Bushell, Henry Longhurst, Patricia Wayne, Meriel Forbes, Brenda de Banzie, Anthony Dawson

The Long Day Closes ★★★

GB 1992 85m colour
Mayfair/Palace/Film Four/BFI (Olivia Stewart)

A man remembers growing up in working-class Liverpool of the mid-1950s as a solitary, movie-obsessed 11-year-old.
Remarkable, atmospheric, understated, nostalgic movie, dealing with emotional repression and the release offered by the cinema.
wd Terence Davies ph Michael Coulter md Robert Lockhart pd Christopher Hobbs ad Kave Naylor ed William Diver
☆ Marjorie Yates (Mother), Leigh McCormack (Bud), Anthony Watson

(Kevin), Nicholas Lamont (John), Ayse Owens (Helen), Tina Malone (Edna), Jimmy Wilde (Curly), Robin Polley (Mr. Nicholls)

'A technically elaborate, dryly witty mood piece.' – Variety

'A warm and oddly moving experience.' – Empire

'Davies' best film yet testifies to the vigour and flexibility of cinematic realisms.' – Raymond Durgnat, Sight and Sound

The Long Day's Dying

GB 1968 95m Techniscope
Paramount/Junction Films (Harry Fine)

Three British paratroopers in Europe are cut off from their unit and die pointlessly.

Violent, irritating anti-war film which resurrects all the clichés and makes itself unpleasant into the bargain.

w Charles Wood novel Alan White d Peter Collinson ph Brian Probyn m Malcolm Lockyer pd Disley Jones

☆ David Hemmings, Tom Bell, Tony Beckley, Alan Dobie

'It is typical of all that is wrong with the film that it should end on a frozen frame of a soldier in the act of dying while heavily ironic patriotic music swells on the soundtrack.' – David Wilson

Long Day's Journey into Night ★★

US 1962 174m bw
Ely Landau

Connecticut 1912: days in the life of an ageing actor, his drug addicted wife and their sons, one of whom is an alcoholic and the other Eugene O'Neill.

Heavy going, nicely handled, superbly acted version of a play which can be a player's triumph and certainly is here; but it still has more effect in the theatre.

w Eugene O'Neill d Sidney Lumet ph Boris Kaufman m André Previn pd Richard Sylbert

☆ Ralph Richardson, Katharine Hepburn, Jason Robards Jnr, Dean Stockwell

'Letting his players have their head, lighted miraculously so that every flicker of emotion is preserved, and pursuing them with Kaufman's unobtrusive camera, Lumet illuminates the play, line by line, and gives it all the impact of a live performance.' – Brenda Davies

'A very great play has been not translated to the screen but reverently put behind glass.' – John Simon

Katharine Hepburn

Un Long Dimanche de Fiancailles: see A Very Long Engagement

The Long Duel

GB 1967 115m Technicolor Panavision
Rank (Ken Annakin)

On the North-West Frontier in the twenties, British officers disagree about handling the natives, and one of them forms a strong regard for the native leader.

Unconvincing cut-price Indian adventure with little cohesion and less entertainment value.

w Peter Yeldham d Ken Annakin ph Jack Hildyard m Patrick John Scott

☆ Trevor Howard, Yul Brynner, Harry Andrews, Charlotte Rampling, Virginia North, Andrew Keir, Laurence Naismith, Maurice Denham

'The dialogue seems to have been written by a computer fed a programme of execrable films on the same theme.' – MFB

The Long Good Friday ★★

GB 1980 105m colour
Black Lion/Calendar (Barry Hanson)

A gangland boss faces violent reprisals from the competition.

Heavily melodramatic stylish updating of Scarface in a London East End setting. A critical success despite vicious detail and IRA plot involvement.

w Barrie Keefe d John Mackenzie ph Phil Meheux m Francis Monkman ad Vic Symonds ed Mike Taylor

☆ Bob Hoskins (Harold), Helen Mirren (Victoria), Dave King (Parky), Bryan Marshall (Harris), Eddie Constantine (Charlie), Stephen Davis (Tony), Paul Freeman (Colin), George Coulouris (Gus), Pierce Brosnan (First Irishman)

'Much more densely plotted and intelligently scripted than most such yarns.' – Variety

'Nothing says goodbye like a bullet!'

The Long Goodbye

US 1973 111m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Lions Gate (Jerry Bick)

Philip Marlowe helps an eccentric friend who is suspected of murdering his wife.

Ugly, boring travesty of a well-respected detective novel, the apparent intention being to reverse the author's attitudes completely and to substitute dullness and incomprehensibility.

w Leigh Brackett novel Raymond Chandler d Robert Altman ph Vilmos Zsigmond m John T. Williams

☆ Elliott Gould, Nina Van Pallandt, Sterling Hayden, Mark Rydell, Henry Gibson

'Altman's fragmentation bomb blows up itself rather than the myths he has said he wants to lay to rest.' – Sight and Sound

'The trouble is that this Marlowe is an untidy, unshaven, semi-literate dimwit slob who could not locate a missing skyscraper and who would be refused service at a hot dog stand.' – Charles Champlin

'A spit in the eye to a great writer.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

The Long Gray Line ★

US 1955 138m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Columbia (Robert Arthur)

The career of an athletics trainer at West Point.

Dim biopic, the kind of true life yarn that Americans like, produced in the cheerful, sentimental, sparring way that John Ford likes.

w Edward Hope book Bringing Up the Brass by Marty Maher d John Ford ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning md Morris Stoloff

☆ Tyrone Power, Maureen O'Hara, Donald Crisp, Ward Bond, Robert Francis, Betsy Palmer, Phil Carey, Harry Carey Jnr, Patrick Wayne, Sean McClory

'Its celebration of the codes and ideals of West Point vexatiously combines sentimental cosiness and a kind of religious awe.' – Gavin Lambert

The Long Hot Summer ★

US 1958 118m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)

Conflict arises between a Mississippi town boss and a tenant farmer.

Busy Peyton Place-style family brawling saga with sex on the side, flabby as narrative but compulsive as character study.

w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank stories William Faulkner d Martin Ritt ph Joseph LaShelle m Alex North

☆ Orson Welles, Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Tony Franciosa, Lee Remick, Angela Lansbury

Long John Silver

Australia 1953 106m
Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TI Pictures (Joseph Kaufman)

Back from Treasure Island, Silver and Hawkins plan a return visit with fresh clues to the treasure.

Cheaply produced, bitsy-piecy adventure fragments with no one to restrain the star from eye-rolling.

w Martin Rackin d Byron Haskin ph Carl Guthrie m David Buttolph ed Manuel Del Campo

☆ Robert Newton (Long John Silver), Connie Gilchrist (Purity Pinker), Kit Taylor (Jim Hawkins), Rod Taylor (Israel Hand), Eric Reiman (Trip Fenner), Syd Chambers (Ned Shill), Grant Taylor (Patch), John Brunskill (Old Stingley)

The Long Kiss Goodnight

US 1996 120m CFI color
Entertainment/New Line/Forge/Steve Tisch
(Renny Harlin, Stephanie Austin, Shane Black)

With the help of a private eye, an amnesiac teacher discovers that she was once a CIA assassin and so puts her life at risk.

Daft, fast-paced thriller with the usual paranoia about government double-dealing, with only its extreme silliness to differentiate it from others of its genre.

w Shane Black d Renny Harlin ph Guillermo Navarro m Alan Silvestri pd Howard Cummings ed William Goldenberg

☆ Geena Davis, Samuel L. Jackson, Patrick Malahide, Craig Bierko, Brian Cox, David Morse, G. D. Spradlin

'A superbly entertaining action movie, perhaps the best of this year's many shoot-'em-ups.' – Sight and Sound

† The film cost around $70m, including $4m to its screenwriter, with another $25m being spent on marketing. It took some $33.8m at the US box-office.

†† Samuel L. Jackson's character originally died at the end of the film, which upset preview audiences. As a result, the ending was reshot so that he lived.

Long Live Life ★★

France 1984 Eastmancolor
UGC/Les Films 13/Top No. 1 (Eugene Bellin)

Police and scientists investigate after a businessman and an actress are both unable to account for a three-day absence from their homes.

Tricksy whodunnit in the shadow of the nuclear holocaust, mixing dreams and reality and with several twists in its tale.

wd Claude Lelouch ph Bernard Lutic m Didier Barbelivien pd Jacques Bufnoir ed Hugues Darmois, Pauline Leroy

☆ Charlotte Rampling, Michel Piccoli, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Evelyne Bouix, Charles Aznavour, Laurent Malet, Tanya Lopert, Anouk Aimee

Long Live the Lady! ★★

Italy 1987 106m colour
Artificial Eye/Rai Channel 1 Cinemaundici (Giampietro Bonamigo) original title: Lunga Vita Alla Signora!

Six catering students go to a hotel converted from a mysterious castle to help prepare a grand banquet presided over by a spectral old lady.

Innocence and inexperience meet sophistication and tradition in a witty, deliberately ambiguous film.

wd Ermanno Olmi ph Maurizio Zaccaro, Ermanno Olmi m George Philip Telemann ed Giulia Ciniselli, Ermanno Olmi

☆ Marco Esposito, Simona Brandalise, Stefania Busarello, Simone Dalla Rosa, Lorenzo Paolini, Tarcisio Tosi, Marisa Abbate

The Long Long Trailer ★

US 1954 96m Anscocolor
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A construction engineer and his bride buy a trailer for their honeymoon, and wish they hadn't.

Disaster comedy with long bright periods and the inevitable saggy bits.

w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett novel Clinton Twiss d Vincente Minnelli ph Robert Surtees m Adolph Deutsch

☆ Lucille Ball, Desi Arnaz, Marjorie Main, Keenan Wynn, Moroni Olsen

Long Lost Father

US 1934 63m bw
RKO

A restaurant owner saves his daughter from a theft charge.

Competent minor star drama.

w Dwight Taylor novel G.B. Stern d Ernest B. Schoedsack ph Nicholas Musuraca m Max Steiner

☆ John Barrymore, Helen Chandler, Donald Cook, Alan Mowbray, Claude King

'A mild piece with an unbelievable story . . . British background and dialogue, mostly dull.' – Variety

The Long Memory

GB 1952 96m bw
Rank/Europa (Hugh Stewart)

An ex-con, framed for a murder he did not commit, plots revenge but instead uncovers a fresh crime.

Slow and dreary melodrama set largely on a barge, never rising to anything like excitement.

w Robert Hamer, Frank Harvey novel Winston Clewes d Robert Hamer ph Harry Waxman m William Alwyn

☆ John Mills, John McCallum, Elizabeth Sellars, Geoffrey Keen

'Love that promised the world – and paid off in bullets!'

The Long Night ★

US 1947 97m bw
(RKO)

A young man shoots the seducer of his sweetheart and barricades himself in a room against the police.

Good-looking but empty remake of Le Jour se Lève.

w John Wexley story Jacques Viot d Anatole Litvak ph Sol Polito m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ Henry Fonda, Barbara Bel Geddes, Vincent Price, Ann Dvorak, Queenie Smith

'This film faithfully reproduces the letter while altering the spirit of the original almost beyond recognition.' – MFB

'It would be interesting to see it on a double bill with its French original. Both films clearly rate themselves as tragedies; they are merely intelligent trash. But the old one is much more discreet with its self-pity and much more sharply edged.' – James Agee

'A classic of the bashful age!'

Long Pants ★

US 1927 58m (24 fps) bw silent
First National/Harry Langdon

A country bumpkin has trouble in the city.
Far from the best Langdon comedy, but funny in flashes.
w Arthur Ripley d Frank Capra ph Elgin Lessley
☆ Harry Langdon, Gladys Brockwell, Alan Roscoe, Alma Bennett

The Long Ride Home: see A Time for Killing

'All the world loves an outlaw. For some damn reason they remember 'em!'

The Long Riders

US 1980 99m Technicolor
UA/Huka (Tim Zinnemann)

The story of Western outlaw brothers named Younger, Miller and James.
Well-worn territory with new-fangled violent detail. Not much of an attraction despite the gimmick of having the various anti-heroes played by real brothers.
w Bill Bryden, Steven Phillip Smith, Stacy Keach, James Keach d Walter Hill ph Ric Waite m Ry Cooder pd Jack T. Collis ☆ Stacy Keach, James Keach, David Carradine, Keith Carradine, Robert Carradine, Dennis Quaid, Randy Quaid

'A satisfying, intelligently worked-out retelling of the classic movie-Western folk romance about the James brothers.' – New Yorker

The Long Ships

GB/Yugoslavia 1963 126m
Technirama
Columbia/Warwick/Avila (Irving Allen)

A Viking adventurer and a Moorish prince fall out over a golden bell.
Stilted medieval epic with some visual compensations but more chat than action.
w Berkely Mather, Beverley Cross novel Frans T. Bengtsson d Jack Cardiff
ph Christopher Challis m Dusan Radic
☆ Richard Widmark, Sidney Poitier, Russ Tamblyn, Rosanna Schiaffino, Oscar Homolka, Colin Blakely

'To say it was disastrous is a compliment.' – Sidney Poitier

The Long, the Short and the Tall: see The Long and the Short and the Tall

'Play It to Death.'

Long Time Dead

GB 2001 93m Technicolor
UIP/Working Title/Film Council/WT²/Midfield (James Gay-Rees)

Students, who use a ouija board at a party, summon up a fire demon, who begins to slaughter them.
Risible 'teen slasher movie, in which uninteresting people are killed by a forgettable monster.
w Eitan Arrusi, Daniel Bronzite, Chris Baker, Andy Day d Marcus Adams ph Nic Morris m Don Davis pd Alison Riva ed Lucia Zucchetti, Niven Howie ☆ Joe Absolom (Rob), Lara Belmon (Stella), Melanie Gutteridge (Annie), Lukas Haas (Webster), James Hillier (Spence), Alec Newman (Liam), Mel Raido (Joe), Marsha Thomason (Lucy), Tom Bell (Becker), Michael Feast (Paul Brennan)

'An unintentionally hilarious romp that makes the Hammer horror cycle look like high art.' – Uncut

'The love of woman in their eyes – the salt of the sea in their blood!'

The Long Voyage Home ★★

US 1940 104m bw
Walter Wanger

Merchant seamen on shore leave get drunk, philosophize and have adventures.
Stagey-looking but dramatically interesting amalgam of four one-act plays by Eugene O'Neill, with talent abounding.
w Dudley Nichols d John Ford ph Gregg Toland m Richard Hageman ed Sherman Todd ☆ John Wayne, Thomas Mitchell, Ian Hunter, Ward Bond, Barry Fitzgerald, Wilfrid Lawson, Mildred Natwick, John Qualen, Arthur Shields, Joe Sawyer

'One of the finest of all movies that deal with life at sea.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

best picture; Dudley Nichols; Gregg Toland; Richard Hageman; Sherman Todd

The Long Wait

US 1954 93m bw
UA/Parklane (Lesser Samuels)

An amnesia victim returns home to solve a murder in which he was involved.
Flatulent version of a Mickey Spillane novel, over-plotted and inadequately motivated.
w Alan Green, Lesser Samuels d Victor Saville ph Franz Planer m Mario Castelnuovo Tedesco
☆ Anthony Quinn, Charles Coburn, Gene Evans, Peggie Castle, Dolores Donlan

'Their forbidden friendship changed a nation.'

The Long Walk Home

US 1990 colour
Miramax/New Visions

In Montgomery, Alabama, in the mid-1950s a white woman and her black maid both experience in different ways the beginnings of the civil rights movement.
Interesting movie of a struggle involving two contrasted mothers, but one that does not escape condescension by using the white woman's teenage daughter as narrator.
w John Cork, Randy Meyer d Richard Pearce ph Roger Deakin m George Fenton pd Blake Russell ed Bill Yahraus
☆ Sissy Spacek (Miriam Thompson), Whoopi Goldberg (Odessa Cotter), Dwight Schultz (Norman Thompson), Ving Rhames (Herbert Cotter), Dylan Baker (Tunker Thompson), Erika Alexander (Selma Cotter)

'A powerful and affecting film.' – Roger Ebert

Long Weekend

Australia 1977 100m colour
Panavision
Dugong Films (Colin Eggleston)

Wild life appears to gang up on a couple with marital problems who go for a camping trip to an isolated beach.
Didactic thriller, too predictable to hold anyone's interest for long.
w Everett de Roche d Colin Eggleston ph Vincent Monton m Michael Carlos pd Larry Eastwood ed Brian Kavanagh
☆ John Hargreaves, Briony Behets

Long Zhi Ren Zhe (dubbed) ★

Hong Kong 1982 95m colour
Seasonal (Ng See Yuen)

US title: Ninja in the Dragon's Den

A Chinese martial-arts student defends an elderly Japanese, a former ninja, against a would-be assassin.
Narrative coherence is sacrificed for sensational fight sequences, beginning with a battle on stilts, that will excite fans of the genre, providing they can endure other moments of broad comedy.
w Ng See Yuen, Corey Yuen d Corey Yuen (Yuen Kwei) ph Ng Kwok Hao ☆ Conan Lee, Hiroyuki Sanada, Hwang Jang Lee, Tai Po, Kam Lung, Tin Chung Ho, Tin Fung

The Longest Day ★★

US 1962 169m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck, Elmo Williams)

A multi-faceted account of the landings in Normandy in June 1944.
Extraordinarily noisy war spectacular, enjoyable as a violent entertainment once one has caught all the threads, but emotionally unaffecting because every part is played by a star.
w Cornelius Ryan, Romain Gary, James Jones, David Pursall, Jack Seddon
book Cornelius Ryan d Andrew Marton, Ken Annakin, Bernhard Wicki ph Henri Persin, Walter Wottitz, Pierre Levent, Jean Bourgoin m Maurice Jarre, Paul Anka ☆ John Wayne, Robert Mitchum, Henry Fonda, Robert Ryan, Rod Steiger, Robert Wagner, Paul Anka, Fabian, Tommy Sands, Richard Beymer, Mel Ferrer, Jeffrey Hunter, Sal Mineo, Roddy McDowall, Stuart Whitman and also Steve Forrest, Eddie Albert, Edmond O'Brien, Red Buttons, Tom Tryon, Alexander Knox, Ray Danton, Ron Randell, Richard Burton, Donald Houston, Kenneth More, Peter Lawford, Richard Todd, Leo Genn, John Gregson, Sean Connery, Michael Medwin, Leslie Phillips, Irina Demich, Bourvil, Jean-Louis Barrault, Christian Marquand, Arletty, Curt Jurgens, Paul Hartmann, Gert Frobe, Wolfgang Preiss, Peter Van Eyck, Christopher Lee, Eugene Deckers, Richard Wattis

photography
best picture

The Longest Yard

US 1974 122m Technicolor
Paramount/Long Road (Albert S. Ruddy)

GB title: The Mean Machine

Imprisoned for drunkenness and car theft, a football star is blackmailed into training a prison football team of hulking misfits.
Violent, meandering comedy-drama with murderous jokes but no narrative grip.
w Tracy Keenan Wynn d Robert Aldrich ph Joseph Biroc m Frank de Vol ☆ Burt Reynolds, Eddie Albert, Ed Lauter, Michael Conrad, Jim Hampton

Longing ★ (8)

Germany 2007 86m
BFI/Rommel Film/GFP Medienfonds (Peter Rommel)
original title: Sehnsucht

A volunteer firefighter is torn between his doting wife and his earthy mistress.
Understated study of an everyday love triangle, made with non-professional actors; moving and well-crafted, if rather dour.
wd Valeska Grisebach ph Bernhard Keller pd Beatrice Schulz ed Bettina Boehler, Valeska Grisebach, Natali Barrey ☆ Andreas Muller (Markus), Ilka Welz (Ella), Anett Dornbusch (Rose), Erika Lemke (Oma), Markus Werner (Boy Neighbour), Detlef Baumann (Neighbour)

'Intelligent, studious, faultlessly acted.' – Steve Rose, Guardian

'Its low-key naturalism may not appeal to all tastes.' – Jonathan Romney, Screen International

The Longshot

US 1986 89m DeLuxe
Orion/Longshot (Lang Elliott)

Four disgruntled punters borrow money from a local gangster to bet on a horse that a con man has told them is a certain winner.
An also-ran of a comedy, inconsequential and witless.
w Tim Conway d Paul Bartel ph Robby Muller m Charles Fox ad Joseph M. Altadonna ed Adam Toomayan
☆ Tim Conway, Harvey Korman, Jack Weston, Ted Wass, Stella Stevens, Jonathan Winters, Anne Meara, George DiCenzo, Jorge Cervera

Longtime Companion ★

US 1990 99m colour
Palace/Companion Productions/American Playhouse (Stan Wlodkowski)

A group of homosexuals, watching their lovers and friends dying of AIDS, decide to become actively involved in fighting the disease.
While tracing its characters' lives from the beginning to the end of the 1980s, the film avoids easy emotion and sentimentality, though it stays with the somewhat sexless affluent middle-classes who are able to articulate their concerns.
w Craig Lucas d Norman René ph Tony Jannelli m Greg DeBelles pd Andrew Jackness ed Katherine Wenning
☆ Stephen Caffrey, Patrick Cassidy, Brian Cousins, Bruce Davison, John Dossett, Mark Lamos, Dermot Mulroney, Mary-Louise Parker

Bruce Davison

Look at Me ★★★

France/Italy 2004 111m colour
Technovision
Pathé/Les Films A4/StudioCanal/France 2 (Jean-Philippe Andraca, Christian Berard)

original title: Comme Un Image

A successful, highly egotistical novelist ignores his plump teenage daughter while lavishing attention on his pretty young wife and baby.
Witty, perceptive study of selfishness and the indignities and loss of self-esteem suffered by those who deviate from the accepted norm; there are, too, some splendid satirical moments at the expense of TV arts programmes.
w Agnès Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri d Agnès Jaoui ph Stéphane Fontaine m Philippe Rombi pd Olivier Jacquet ed François Gédigier
☆ Marilou Berry (Lolita), Agnès Jaoui (Sylvia), Jean-Pierre Bacri (Etienne), Laurent Grévill (Pierre), Virginie Desarnauts (Karine), Keine Bouhiza (Sebastien)

'The wry filmmaker has created an urbane society of family and friends as ridiculously pretentious and hypocritical as they are cultured, accomplished, and posh.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum

† Agnès Jaoui and Jean-Pierre Bacri won the prize for best screenplay at the 2004 Cannes Film Festival.

Look Back in Anger ★

GB 1959 99m bw
ABP/Woodfall (Gordon L. T. Scott)

A bad-tempered young man with a grudge against life and the government runs a market stall, lives in a squalid flat, and has an affair with his wife's best friend.
Well-made version of a play whose sheer dreariness was theatrically stimulating but in terms of film realism becomes only depressing and stupid despite competence all round. It also set shoddy standards for its many less proficient imitators.

w Nigel Kneale play John Osborne d Tony Richardson ph Oswald Morris m Chris Barber ☆ Richard Burton, Mary Ure, Claire Bloom, Edith Evans, Gary Raymond, Glen Byam Shaw, Phyllis Neilson-Terry, Donald Pleasence, George Devine

Look Before You Love
GB 1948 96m bw
Burnham/Rank
Romance in Rio for a girl of the embassy staff.
Abysmal romantic comedy with little of either commodity in evidence.
w Reginald Long d Harold Huth
☆ Margaret Lockwood, Griffith Jones, Norman Wooland, Phyllis Stanley, Michael Medwin, Maurice Denham

'Disaster is Everywhere.'
Look Both Ways
* ⑦
Australia 2005 100m
Tartan Films/Hibiscus Films (Bridget Ikin)
A train accident makes various Adelaide residents appraise their lives over the course of a hot weekend.
Quirky, character-based drama with occasional animated sequences that deftly juggles its competing storylines.
wd Sarah Watt ph Ray Argall m Amanda Brown pd Rita Zanchetta ad Simon McCutcheon ed Denise Haratzis
☆ William McInnes (Nick), Justine Clarke (Meryl), Anthony Hayes (Andy), Lisa Flanagan (Anna), Daniela Farinacci (Julia), Andrew S Gilbert (Phil)
'One of the most depressing weekends in movie history.' – Jeannette Catsoulis, New York Times

'The sunshine story of Broadway's glory girl!'
Look for the Silver Lining
*
US 1949 106m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)
The life story of twenties stage star Marilyn Miller.
Harmless musical biopic with a sense of humour.
w Phoebe and Henry Ephron, Marian Spitzer story Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby d David Butler ph Peverell Marley md Ray Heindorf
☆ June Haver, Ray Bolger, Charles Ruggles, Gordon MacRae, Rosemary de Camp, S. Z. Sakall, Walter Catlett
Ray Heindorf

Look Up and Laugh
*
GB 1935 82m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)
Market stallholders defy a big chain store.
Good star comedy with music.
w Gordon Wellesley story J. B. Priestley d Basil Dean ph Robert G. Martin md Ernest Irving ☆ Gracie Fields, Douglas Wakefield, Harry Tate, Alfred Drayton, Morris Harvey, Vivien Leigh, Robb Wilton

Look Who's Laughing
US 1941 75m bw
RKO (Allan Dwan)
See also: Here We Go Again
Fibber McGee and Molly act as unexpected hosts to Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy.
Exploitation of radio sitcoms, acceptable at the time. With Lucille Ball.
w James V. Kern and others d Allan Dwan ph Frank Redman m Roy Webb

Look Who's Talking
US 1989 96m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Jonathan D. Krane)
A baby comments on the growing relationship between his unmarried mother and a taxi driver.
Indifferent comedy that enjoyed a great success through the novelty of adult speech and attitudes issuing from the mouth of a baby.
wd Amy Heckerling ph Thomas Del Ruth m David Kitay ad Reuben Freed, Graeme Murray ed Debra Chiate
☆ John Travolta, Kirstie Alley, Olympia Dukakis, George Segal, Abe Vigoda, Bruce Willis, Twink Caplan, Joy Boushel, Don S. Davis
'Carelessly put together, ugly to look at and mawkish and stupid in turn.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Look Who's Talking Now
US 1993 97m colour
Columbia TriStar (Jonathan D. Krane)
A mongrel and a spoilt poodle comment on family tribulations when they are not snapping insults at each other.
Direly unamusing sequel in a series that ran out of momentum halfway through the first film; the dogs get the best lines, but even they should complain to their agents.
w Tom Ropelewski, Leslie Dixon d Tom Ropelewski ph Oliver Stapleton m William Ross pd Michael Bolton ed Michael A. Stevenson, Harry Hitner
☆ John Travolta, Kirstie Alley, Lysette Anthony, Olympia Dukakis, David Gallagher, Tabitha Lupien, George Segal and also the voices of Danny DeVito, Diane Keaton
'There is clearly still a collection of folk in Tinseltown insisting that a third instalment of an enjoyable one-joke movie made with no imagination, irony or flair is a really good idea ... it isn't.' – Philip Thomas, Empire

Look Who's Talking Too
US 1990 81m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Jonathan D. Krane)
Small babies comment on the disagreements between a husband and wife.
All that this sad comedy has to recommend it is the novelty of adult voices issuing from the mouths of babes, a joke that quickly outstays its welcome.
w Amy Heckerling, Neal Israel d Amy Heckerling ph Thomas Del Ruth m David Kitay pd Reuben Freed ed Debra Chiate
☆ John Travolta, Kirstie Alley, Olympia Dukakis, Elias Koteas, Twink Caplan and also the voices of Bruce Willis, Roseanne Barr, Damon Wayans, Mel Brooks
'Whenever Heckerling runs out of inspiration, which is every couple of minutes, she slaps an old rock 'n' roll record on the turntable and transforms the film into a music-video.' – Philip French, Observer

Looker
US 1981 94m colour
Warner/The Ladd Company (Howard Jeffrey)
A plastic surgeon investigates the murders of beautiful models who were his clients.
Unconvincing, paranoid science-fiction thriller about advertising.
wd Michael Crichton ph Paul Lohmann m Barry DeVorzon pd Dean Edward Mitzner ed Carl Kress
☆ Albert Finney, James Coburn, Susan Dey, Leigh Taylor-Young, Dorian Harewood, Tim Rossovich

Lookin' to Get Out
US 1982 105m colour
Lorimar/North Star/Voight-Schaffel (Robert Schaffel)
A couple of inveterate gamblers take on the Las Vegas establishment.
Fairly pleasant, mindless, quite forgettable comedy.
w Al Schwartz, Jon Voight d Hal Ashby ph Haskell Wexler m Johnny Mandel pd Robert Boyle
☆ Jon Voight, Ann-Margret, Burt Young, Bert Remsen, Jude Farese, Richard Bradford

Looking for Comedy in the Muslim World
US 2005 98m colour
Shangri-La (Herb Nanas)
A film actor who needs work is employed by the State Department to go to India and Pakistan to compile a report on Muslim humour for the president.
A mock documentary in which Brooks plays a bumbling version of himself, failing to get a laugh when he tries his stand-up routine on an Indian audience.
wd Albert Brooks ph Thomas Ackerman m Michael Giacchino pd Stephen Altman ed Anita Brandt Burgoyne
☆ Albert Brooks (Albert Brooks), Sheetal Sheth (Maya), John Carroll Lynch (Stuart), Jon Tenney (Mark), Fred Dalton Thompson (State Department official)
'Brooks' movie has a lot of humor in it, but it's buried, oblique, throwaway, inside, apologetic, coded and underplayed.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
† Sony withdrew from distributing the movie in the US because the company feared it would cause controversy.

Looking for Love
US 1964 83m Metrocolor Panavision
Joe Pasternak/MGM
A talented girl can't decide between show business and marriage.
Limp, would-be-cute romantic nonsense with poor musical numbers.
w Ruth Brooks Flippen d Don Weis ph Milton Krasner m George Stoll
☆ Connie Francis, Jim Hutton, Susan Oliver, Joby Baker, Barbara Nichols, Jay C. Flippen, Jesse White, Charles Lane

Looking for Mr Goodbar
US 1977 136m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount (Freddie Fields)
A teacher of deaf children leads a sordid secret night life.
Exploitative and very boring sex melodrama which doesn't even make one believe in its central character.
wd Richard Brooks novel Judith Rossner ph William A. Fraker m Artie Kane ad Edward Carfagno
☆ Diane Keaton, Tuesday Weld, William Atherton, Richard Kiley
'Brooks has laid a windy jeremiad about permissive sex on top of fractured film syntax.' – Judith Crist
William A. Fraker; Tuesday Weld

'A four hundred year old work-in-progress.'
Looking for Richard  ⑧
US 1996 109m DuArt
TCF (Michael Hadge, Al Pacino)
Al Pacino investigates the problems of playing Shakespeare's Richard III with American actors, rehearses the play and films parts of it in costume.
Fascinating glimpse into an actor's preparation for a classic role, done without pretentiousness.
w Al Pacino, Frederic Kimball play Richard III by William Shakespeare
d Al Pacino ph Robert Leacock, Nina Kedrem, John Kranhouse, Steve Confer m Howard Shore ad Kevin Ritter ed Pasquale Buba, William A. Anderson, Ned Bastille, Andre Betz
☆ Al Pacino, Penelope Allen, Harris Yulin, Alec Baldwin, Kevin Spacey, Estelle Parsons, Winona Ryder, Aidan Quinn
'This is not just a film about Shakespeare's Richard III – it is also a lucid and compelling adaptation of the play.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

Looking Forward
US 1933 76m bw
MGM
A shop owner finds he must sell his property and fire valued staff.
Depression fable from Dodie Smith's play Service, adequately mounted.
w Bess Meredyth, H. M. Harwood
d Clarence Brown
☆ Lewis Stone, Lionel Barrymore, Benita Hume, Elizabeth Allan, Phillips Holmes, Colin Clive

The Looking Glass War
GB 1969 107m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/M. J. Frankovich (John Box)
The British secret service sends a young Pole into East Germany to find a top secret film.
Jaundiced spy story which aims for irony and tragedy but becomes merely verbose and irritating.
wd Frank R. Pierson novel John Le Carré ph Austin Dempster m Wally Stott ☆ Christopher Jones, Pia Degermark, Ralph Richardson, Anthony Hopkins, Paul Rogers, Susan George, Ray McAnally, Robert Urquhart, Maxine Audley, Anna Massey
'There are a lot of incidental pleasures, but in the final analysis they only add up to half a film.' – Nigel Andrews

Looking on the Bright Side
*
GB 1931 81m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)
A songwriter gets ideas above his station but eventually returns to the manicurist who loves him.
Dated but lively musical which helped confirm Gracie's stardom.
w Basil Dean, Archie Pitt, Brock Williams d Basil Dean, Graham Cutts ph Robert G. Martin md Carroll Gibbons ☆ Gracie Fields, Richard Dolman, Julian Rose, Wyn Richmond

'Real life has never been so animated.'
Looney Tunes: Back in Action
US 2003 91m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Baltimore/Spring Creek/Goldmann (Paula Weinstein, Bernie Goldmann)
Daffy Duck quits Hollywood and joins a security guard in a search for a supernatural blue diamond.
Unsuccessful mix, with its human stars at their hammiest and its cartoon characters

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

losing their vitality in a series of self-referential gags.
w Larry Doyle d Joe Dante ph Dean Cundey m Jerry Goldsmith pd Bill Brzeski ed Marshall Harvey, Rick W. Finney
☆ Brendan Fraser (DJ Drake/Himself), Jenna Elfman (Kate), Steve Martin (Mr Chairman), Timothy Dalton (Damien Drake), Heather Locklear (Dusty Tails), Joan Cusack (Mother), Bill Goldberg (Mr Smith), voices of Joe Alaskey, Billy West, Eric Goldberg

'A not-inventive-enough romp that belches out gags at a rapid-fire clip but connects so sporadically as to leave the audience enervated.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

Loophole

GB 1980 105m colour
Brent Walker (Julian Holloway, David Korda)
A safecracker plans to rob the vault of a London bank.
Dim caper yarn which can't make its mind up how serious it means to be. As it stands, it is all very old hat and has a cop-out finish.
w Jonathan Hales novel Robert Pollock d John Quested ph Michael Reed m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Albert Finney, Martin Sheen, Susannah York, Colin Blakely, Jonathan Pryce, Robert Morley, Alfred Lynch

Loose Ankles

US 1930 66m bw
First National
A girl's inheritance will be cancelled if she is involved in scandal. Rival claimants try to ensure that she is.
Thin, amiable comedy based on a Broadway success.
w Gene Towne play Sam Janney d Ted Wilde
☆ Loretta Young, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Louise Fazenda, Otis Harlan, Daphne Pollard, Inez Courtney

'Will bring a chuckle to the most hard-boiled metropolite.' – Variety

Loose Cannons

US 1990 94m colour Panavision
TriStar (Aaron Spelling, Alan Griesman)
Two misfit cops track down a gang of killers who are attempting to recover a pornographic movie of Hitler and friends, which is to be used to discredit a German politician.
Poor, coarse-toned comedy thriller, one of the worst movies of the decade; the jokes are based on madness and violence, and Aykroyd's lunatic turns are embarrassing.
w Richard Christian Matheson, Richard Matheson, Bob Clark d Bob Clark
ph Reginald H. Morris m Paul Zaza pd Harry Pottle ed Stan Cole
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Gene Hackman, Dom DeLuise, Ronny Cox, Nancy Travis, Paul Koslo, Dick O'Neill, Robert Prosky

Loose Connections ★

GB 1983 96m colour
Umbrella/Greenpoint (Simon Perry)
Adventures on a drive to Munich.
Thin, easy-going road comedy. Pleasant enough, but no Genevieve.
w Maggie Brooks d Richard Eyre
ph Clive Tickner m Dominic Muldowney
☆ Lindsay Duncan, Stephen Rea, Carole Harrison, Frances Low

Loot ★

GB 1970 101m Eastmancolor
Performing Arts Ltd (Arthur Lewis)
A crook hides his mother's body and uses the coffin to carry the proceeds of a robbery.
Breakneck black farce which still can't move quite fast enough to cover up its bad taste, though well done by all concerned.
w Ray Galton, Alan Simpson play Joe Orton d Silvio Narizzano ph Austin Dempster m Keith Mansfield, Richard Willing-Denton ad Anthony Pratt ☆ Richard Attenborough, Lee Remick, Hywel Bennett, Milo O'Shea, Dick Emery

The Looters

US 1955 87m bw
Universal
A plane crashes on Pike's Peak, and rescuers fall out about whether to loot the wreckage.
Competent co-feature of its period and style.
w Richard Alan Simmons d Abner Biberman ☆ Rory Calhoun, Ray Danton, Thomas Gomez, Julie Adams, Frank Faylen, Rod Williams

Lord Camber's Ladies

GB 1932 80m bw
BIP
A nobleman tries to murder his way out of a romantic tangle.
Rather dull suspenser notable only for its stagey cast and the fact that Alfred Hitchcock produced it.
w Benn W. Levy, Edwin Greenwood and Gilbert Wakefield novel The Case of Lady Camber by Horace Annesley Vachell
d Benn W. Levy
☆ Gerald du Maurier, Gertrude Lawrence, Benita Hume, Nigel Bruce, Clare Greet, A. Bromley Davenport

Lord Edgware Dies

GB 1934 81m bw
Real Art
Hercule Poirot proves that an elderly nobleman was not killed by his young wife.
Modest whodunnit: the intended series did not catch on.
w H. Fowler Mear novel Agatha Christie
d Henry Edwards
☆ Austin Trevor, Jane Carr, Richard Cooper, John Turnbull, Michael Shepley

Lord Jeff

US 1938 78m bw
MGM (Frank Davis)
GB title: The Boy from Barnardo's
A well-brought-up boy gets into trouble and is sent under supervision to a naval school.
Adequate family film with absolutely no surprises.
w James K. McGuinness story Bradford Ropes, Val Burton, Endré Bohem d Sam Wood ph John Seitz m Edward Ward
☆ Freddie Bartholomew, Mickey Rooney, Charles Coburn, Herbert Mundin, Terry Kilburn, Gale Sondergaard, Peter Lawford

Lord Jim ★

GB 1964 154m Technicolor Super Panavision
Columbia/Keep (René Dupont)
Adventures of a sailor who prowls the Far East looking for truth; he helps enslaved natives, is raped by a tribal chief, and finally sacrifices his life.
Lush and very boring farrago of miscellaneous incident, with a central character about whose fate no one can care. However, an expensive production must have its points of interest, and the belated introduction of a gentleman villain gives a little edge.
wd Richard Brooks novel Joseph Conrad ph Frederick A. Young m Bronislau Kaper
pd Geoffrey Drake
☆ Peter O'Toole, James Mason, Eli Wallach, Paul Lukas, Jack Hawkins, Daliah Lavi, Curt Jurgens, Akim Tamiroff

Lord Love a Duck ★

US 1966 105m bw
UA/Charleston (George Axelrod)
A senior Los Angeles student practises hypnotism on his girlfriend.
Rather sloppy satire on American culture and fancies, dressed up as crazy comedy; occasional laughs.
w Larry H. Johnson, George Axelrod novel Al Hine d George Axelrod
ph Daniel Fapp m Neal Hefti
☆ Roddy McDowall, Tuesday Weld, Lola Albright, Ruth Gordon, Harvey Korman, Max Showalter

'The ne plus ultra of cinematic bad taste, blending in equal and unsurpassable measure vulgarity, pretentiousness, inept imitation (usually posing as parody), stupidity and such a proliferation of stomach-turning jokes as would take your average smut pedlar a lifetime to assemble.' – John Simon

Lord of the Flies

GB 1963 91m bw
Allen-Hogdon Productions/Two Arts (Lewis M. Allen)
After a plane crash, a party of English schoolboys are stranded on an uncharted tropical island and gradually turn savage.
Semi-professional production of a semi-poetic novel which worked well on the printed page but on screen seems crude and unconvincing.
wd Peter Brook novel William Golding ph Tom Hollyman, Gerald Feil
m Raymond Leppard
☆ James Aubrey, Tom Chapin, Hugh Edwards, Roger Elwin, Tom Gaman

'A Classic Story of Conflict and Survival'

Lord of the Flies

US 1990 90m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Castle Rock/Nelson/Jack's Camp/Signal Hill (Ross Milloy)
Boys from a US military school, survivors of an air crash on an uninhabited tropical island, revert to savagery.
Dull remake, with crude melodrama substituting for the subtle social disintegration of the original.
w Sara Schiff novel William Golding
d Harry Hook ph Martin Fuhrer
m Philippe Sarde pd Jamie Leonard ed Harry Hook
☆ Balthazar Getty, Chris Furth, Danuel Pipoly, Badgett Dale, Edward Taft, Andrew Taft, Bob Peck, Bill Schoppert, Michael Greene

'Individual performances mostly never rise above the semi-amateur level.' – Variety

'A Technicolor travel brochure in which a pack of already uncivilized kids act rough and talk dirty like children temporarily freed from the vigilance of their parents.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Lord of the Rings ★

US 1978 133m DeLuxe
UA/Fantasy (Saul Zaentz)
In Middle Earth the Dark Lord loses a powerful ring, and a Hobbit tries to prevent him from getting it back.
Disappointingly stolid, overlong and confused cartoon version of a modern classic which may well deserve all those adjectives. Parts of it are charming, and the method of making cartoons from film of actors photographed in the ordinary way is certainly ingenious though it denies the cartoon characters their own full richness.
w Chris Conkling, Peter S. Beagle books J. R. R. Tolkien d Ralph Bakshi ph Timothy Galfas m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Featuring the voices of Christopher Guard, John Hurt, William Squire, Michael Scholes

'The Legend Comes To Life'

The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship Of The Ring ★★★★

US/New Zealand 2001 178m DeLuxe Super35
Entertainment/New Line/Wingnut (Barrie M. Osborne, Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh, Tim Sanders)
A Hobbit inherits a magic ring that could enslave all the races of Middle Earth unless it is destroyed.
Epic, ambitious account that captures the essence of the first volume of Tolkien's cult novel; it is one of the few fantasy movies that powerfully conveys the conviction that it is dealing with matters of life and death.
w Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, Peter Jackson novel J.R.R. Tolkien d Peter Jackson ph Andrew Lesnie m Howard Shore pd Grant Major ed John Gilbert sp Taylor/WETA Workshop cos Ngila Dickson, Richard Taylor
☆ Elijah Wood (Frodo Baggins), Ian McKellen (Gandalf), Liv Tyler (Arwen), Viggo Mortensen (Aragorn), Sean Astin (Sam), Cate Blanchett (Galadriel), John Rhys-Davies (Gimli), Billy Boyd (Pippin), Dominic Monaghan (Merry), Orlando Bloom (Legolas), Christopher Lee (Saruman), Hugo Weaving (Elrond), Sean Bean (Boromir), Ian Holm (Bilbo Baggins), Andy Serkis (Gollum)

'A grand, even visionary entertainment.' – Sight & Sound

'Looks to please the book's legions of fans with its imaginatively scrupulous rendering of the tome's characters and worlds on the screen, as well as the uninitiated with its uninterrupted flow of incident and spectacle.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† The film was re-released in 2003 in a version that ran for 208m.
Andrew Lesnie; Howard Shore; Peter Owen, Richard Taylor; visual effects (Jim Rygiel, Randall William Cook, Richard Taylor, Mark Stetson) picture; Peter Jackson; Ian McKellen; Grant Major; Ngila Dickson, Richard Taylor; John Gilbert; sound (Christopher Boyes, Michael Semanick, Gethin Creagh, Hammond Peek); song 'May It Be' (m/l Enya, Nicky Ryan, Roma Ryan) film; Peter Jackson; visual effects; make up/hair

The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King ★★★★ (9)

New Zealand/Germany/US 2003 201m DeLuxe Super 35
Entertainment/New Line/Wingnut/Lord Dritte (Barrie M. Osborne, Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh)
As the hobbits struggle to reach Mount Doom to dispose of the cursed ring, others prepare for the final battle to free Middle Earth from evil.

Magnificent bravura epic that also works on an individual level: each member of the Fellowship has to struggle to find within himself the strength to continue in what seems to be a lost cause. The final battle ranks with the most thrilling and brilliant sequences on film.
w Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, Peter Jackson novel J.R.R. Tolkien d Peter Jackson ph Andrew Lesnie pd Grant Major ed Jamie Selkirk sp Jim Rygiel; Weta cos Ngila Dickson, Richard Taylor
☆ Elijah Wood (Frodo), Ian McKellen (Gandalf), Liv Tyler (Arwen), Viggo Mortensen (Aragorn), Sean Astin (Sam), Cate Blanchett (Galadriel), John Rhys-Davies (Gimli), Bernard Hill (Theoden), Billy Boyd (Pippin), Dominic Monaghan (Merry), Orlando Bloom (Legolas), Hugo Weaving (Elrond), Miranda Otto (Eowyn), Andy Serkis (Gollum), Ian Holm (Bilbo)
'Such a crowning achievement, such a visionary use of all the tools of special effects, such a pure spectacle, that it can be enjoyed even by those who have not seen the first two films.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Represents that filmmaking rarity – a third part of a trilogy that is decisively the best of the lot.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Joins the number of immortal movies that transcend labels or genres.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun
'There is no sobering experience of loss, no real sense of the obscenity and tragedy of war and therefore nothing really at stake. That's why it appeals to adolescent boys, and to adults sentimentally loyal to their departed, adolescent selves.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian picture; Peter Jackson (as director); script; art direction; Jamie Selkirk; Howard Shore; visual effects (Jim Rygiel, Joe Letteri, Randall William Cook, Alex Funke); costume design; sound (Christopher Boyes, Michael Semanick, Michael Hedges, Hammond Peek); makeup (Richard Taylor, Peter King); song 'Into the West' (m/l Frances Walsh, Howard Shore, Annie Lennox) film; script; Andrew Lesnie; visual effects

'A New Power Is Rising.'

The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers ★★★★

US/New Zealand/Germany 2002 179m DeLuxe 'Scope
Entertainment/New Line/Wingnut (Barrie M. Osborne, Fran Walsh, Peter Jackson)

The Fellowship of the Ring is split into three groups, each facing different dangers, as the evil Saruman launches his armies in a bid to control Middle Earth.
The narrative force slackens and fragments in this middle section of the trilogy, but the thrill of the action sequences and the sense that a world is in deadly peril make it as absorbing as the first film.
w Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, Peter Jackson novel J.R.R. Tolkien d Peter Jackson ph Andrew Lesnie m Howard Shore pd Grant Major ed Michael Horton, Jabez Olssen sp Richard Taylor cos Ngila Dickson, Richard Taylor
☆ Elijah Wood (Frodo), Ian McKellen (Gandalf), Liv Tyler (Arwen), Viggo Mortensen (Aragorn), Sean Astin (Sam), Cate Blanchett (Galadriel), John Rhys-Davies (Gimli), Bernard Hill (Theoden), Christopher Lee (Saruman), Billy Boyd (Pippin), Dominic Monaghan (Merry), Orlando Bloom (Legolas), Hugo Weaving (Elrond), Miranda Otto (Eowyn), Brad Dourif (Wormtongue) and also Andy Serkis (Gollum)
'The most incredible accomplishment of 'Towers' is that at its heart it is a transition film that lasts nearly three hours and holds the viewer's attention.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'Contains intense combat and fantasy horror scenes, long-haired men smoking unfeasibly long pipes, women with pointy ears, and lots and lots of interminable nerdish nonsense.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† The film was re-released in 2003 in a version that ran for 214m.
visual effects (Jim Rygiel, Joe Letteri, Randall William Cook, Alex Funke); sound editing (Ethan Van der Ryn, Mike Hopkins) picture; Michael Horton; Grant Major (with Dan Hennah, Alan Lee); sound (Christopher Boyes, Michael Semanick, Michael Hedges, Hammond Peek)
Ngila Dickson, Richard Taylor; visual effects (Jim Rygiel, Joe Letteri, Randall William Cook, Alex Funke)

Lord of the Wu Tang: see The Evil Cult

'The first and most important rule of gun-running is: never get shot with your own merchandise.'

Lord of War ★★ 6

Germany/US 2005 122m Technicolor
Momentum/Entertainment Manufacturing Co/VIP Medienfonds 3/Ascendant/Saturn/Rising Star/Copag V/Endgame (Phillippe Rousselot, Andrew Niccol, Nicolas Cage, Norman Golightly, Andy Grosch, Chris Roberts)

A Ukrainian-American entrepreneur makes a killing in the arms trade.
Topical, fast-moving feature that veers between an expose of the nastier side of the arms trade, legal and illegal, black comedy and an action thriller.
wd Andrew Niccol ph Amir Mokri
m Antonio Pinto pd Jean Vincent Puzos ed Zach Staenberg ☆ Nicolas Cage (Yuri Orlov), Jared Leto (Vitali Orlov), Bridget Moynahan (Ava Fontaine), Ian Holm (Simeon Weisz), Ethan Hawke (Valentine), Eamonn Walker (Baptiste Senior), Sammi Rotibi (Baptiste Junior)
'Impressive performances, fascinating info-bytes and pertinent editorial, but in the end, it feels too much like an illustrated lecture.' – Kim Newman, Empire

The Lords of Discipline

US 1982 103m Eastmancolor
Paramount (Herb Jaffe, Gabriel Katzka)

Murky goings-on at the Carolina Military Institute.
Strictly for those interested in army cadets being unpleasant to each other.
w Thomas Pope, Lloyd Fonvielle novel Pat Conroy d Franc Roddam ph Brian Tufano m Howard Blake pd John Graysmark ed Michael Ellis
☆ David Keith, Robert Prosky, G. D. Spradlin, Barbara Babcock, Michael Biehn, Rick Rossovich

'They came from nothing to change everything'

Lords of Dogtown

US 2005 107m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Senator (John Linson)

A gang of outsiders bring new freedoms to skateboarding and turn the sport into big business.
Self-aggrandising feature on matters that were better dealt with in the documentary Dogtown and the Z Boys.
w Stacy Peralta d Catherine Hardwicke ph Elliot Davis m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Chris Gorak ed Nancy Richardson
☆ Emile Hirsch (Jay), Victor Rasuk (Tony), John Robinson (Stacy), Michael Angarano (Sid), Nikki Reed (Kathy Alva), Heath Ledger (Skip), Rebecca De Mornay (Philaine), Johnny Knoxville (Topper Burks)
'Takes the pure gold of real life and turns it into conceited dross.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † See also Dogtown and Z Boys.

The Lords of Flatbush ★

US 1974 86m Technicolor
Columbia (Stephen F. Verona)

Adventures of Brooklyn street gangs.
Not quite the violent movie one might think, and interesting for its cast as well as some thoughtful passages.
w Stephen F. Verona, Martin Davidson, Gayle Glecker, Sylvester Stallone d Stephen F. Verona, Martin Davidson
☆ Perry King, Henry Winkler, Sylvester Stallone, Paul Mace, Susan Blakely, Maria Smith

Lorenzo's Oil ★★

US 1992 135m Technicolor
UIP/Universal/Kennedy Miller (Doug Mitchell, George Miller)

After they are told their young son has a fatal disease, his parents defy medical opinion to find a cure.
An inspiring true story of faith and determination, but acted and directed as an all-out emotional assault that some will find wearying before the end.
w George Miller, Nick Enright d George Miller ph John Seale pd Kristi Zea ed Richard Francis-Bruce, Marcus D'Arcy, Lee Smith
☆ Nick Nolte, Susan Sarandon, Peter Ustinov, Kathleen Wilhoite, Gerry Bamman, Margo Martindale, James Rebhorn, Ann Hearn, Maduka Steady, Zack O'Malley Greenburg
'As gruelling a medical case study as any audience would ever want to sit through ... A one-of-a-kind film that will devastate some viewers and prove too overbearing and clinical for others, it is as obsessive and relentless as its leading characters.' – Variety † Medical research released in 1993 claimed that the oil produced 'no detectable clinical improvement' in sufferers from the brain disease.
Susan Sarandon; George Miller (as writer), Nick Enright

Lorna Doone ★★

GB 1934 90m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

In 1625 on Exmoor, a farmer comes to love an outlaw's daughter who proves to be in reality a kidnapped heiress.
Simple, straightforward, effective version of the famous romance, with refreshing use of exteriors.
w Dorothy Farnum, Miles Malleson, Gordon Wellesley novel R. D. Blackmore d Basil Dean ph Robert Martin
☆ Victoria Hopper, John Loder, Margaret Lockwood, Roy Emerton, Edward Rigby, Mary Clare, Roger Livesey, George Curzon, D. A. Clarke-Smith, Lawrence Hanray, Amy Veness, Eliot Makeham
'It has polish, but it lacks drama and grip.' – Variety

Lorna Doone

US 1951 89m Technicolor
Columbia (Edward Small)

A farmer's son falls in love with the daughter of an outlawed family who defy King Charles II by continuing to rule Exmoor from their impregnable castle..
Living up to the credits, which read 'Freely adapted from R.D. Blackmore's immortal classic of Old England', this grotesque remake treats the story like a cheap Western.
w Jesse L. Lasky Jnr, Richard Schayer adaptation George Bruce d Phil Karlson ph Charles Van Enger m George Duning ad Harold MacArthur ed Al Clark cos Jean Louis
☆ Barbara Hale (Lorna Doone), Richard Greene (John Ridd), Anne Howard (Annie Ridd), William Bishop (Carver Doone), Carl Benton Reid (Sir Ensor Doone), Ron Randell (Tom Faggus), Sean McClory (Charleworth Doone), Onslow Stevens (Counsellor Doone), Lester Matthews (King Charles II), John Dehner (Baron de Wichehalse), Gloria Petroff (Lorna Doone as a child)

Los Amantes del Circulo Polar: see Lovers of the Arctic Circle

Los Lunes al Sol: see Mondays in the Sun

'Dare to be different.'

Loser

US 2000 95m DeLuxe
Columbia (Amy Heckerling, Twink Caplan)

A farm boy from the MidWest finds himself ostracized at New York University.
Clumsy teen comedy that veers haphazardly between sentimentality and broad humour.
wd Amy Heckerling ph Rob Hahn m David Kitay pd Steven Jordan ed Debra Chiate
☆ Jason Biggs (Paul Tannek), Mena Suvari (Dora Diamond), Zak Orth (Adam), Tom Sadoski (Chris), Jimmi Simpson (Noah), Greg Kinnear (Prof. Edward Alcott), Dan Aykroyd (Dad)
'This tepid comedy-drama is, lamentably, aptly titled.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Loser Takes All

GB 1956 88m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
British Lion/John Stafford

An accountant and his wife are invited to Monte Carlo but the high life estranges them.
Tedious taradiddle from an unexpected quarter; not a success by any standard.
w Graham Greene novel Graham Greene d Ken Annakin ph Georges Périnal m Alessandro Cicognini ☆ Glynis Johns, Rossano Brazzi, Robert Morley, Joyce Carey, A. E. Matthews, Tony Britton, Felix Aylmer, Albert Lieven, Geoffrey Keen

Loser Takes All

GB 1990 87m Technicolor
Miramax/British Screen/Ideal Communications/BBC/Flamingo (Christine Oestreicher, Graham Easton)

aka: Strike It Rich
A poor accountant discovers that his gift for winning at roulette causes problems on his honeymoon.
Slick, glossy and dull drama, with none of the needed sense of romance and irony.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

wd James Scott novel Graham Greene ph Robert Paynter m Cliff Eidelman, Shirley Walker pd Christopher Hobbs
☆ Robert Lindsay, Molly Ringwald, John Gielgud, Michel Blanc, Frances de la Tour, Vladek Sheybal, Marius Goring, Max Wall, Margi Clarke, Simon de la Brosse

Loseuteu Memoriseu: see 2009 – Lost Memories

Losing Isaiah

US 1995 106m DeLuxe
Paramount (Howard W. Koch Jnr, Naomi Foner)

A black single mother, a former drug addict, goes to the law to get back the baby she abandoned, which has been adopted by a white, middle-class couple.
A contrived drama, concentrating on racism, in which the characters are little more than cardboard cut-outs, representing a particular viewpoint; it rarely convinces.
w Naomi Foner novel Seth Margolis d Stephen Gyllenhaal ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Mark Isham pd Jeannine C. Oppewall ed Harvey Rosenstock
☆ Jessica Lange, Halle Berry, David Straithairn, Cuba Gooding Jnr, Samuel L. Jackson, Daisy Egan, Marc John Jefferies
'Audiences will assuredly get worked up by this grimly serious, issue-oriented drama.' – Variety
† It was released direct to video in Britain.

Loss of Innocence: see The Greengage Summer

The Loss of Sexual Innocence*

GB/US 1998 106m colour
Columbia TriStar/Summit/Newmarket/Red Mullet (Mike Figgis, Annie Stewart)

A film director's childhood in Africa, his adolescence and his experiences filming in Tunisia are contrasted with the story of Adam and Eve and their expulsion from paradise.
A very personal film that does not always connect with a wider audience, though it has its moments; the links between the episodic events and the clumsily handled Bible story are tenuous at best.
wd Mike Figgis ph Benoit Delhomme m Mike Figgis pd Giorgio Desideri ed Matthew Wood ☆ Julian Sands (Nic), Saffron Burrows (Twins), Stefano Dionisi (Lucca), Jonathan Rhys Meyers (Nic, aged 16), Kelly Macdonald (Susan), Femi Ogumbanjo (Adam), Hanne Klintoe (Eve), Johanna Torrel (Nic's wife), George Moktar (Nic aged 12), John Cowey (Nic aged 5), Bernard Hill (Susan's father), Rossy de Palma (Blind woman)
'Visually exqusite, intensely personal meditation on the story of Adam and Eve.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Lost ★

GB 1955 89m Technicolor
Rank (Vivian A. Cox)
US title: Tears for Simon

The police go on the trail of a stolen child.
Mildly effective semi-documentary police story, with good use of locations.
w Janet Green d Guy Green ph Harry Waxman m Benjamin Frankel ☆ David Farrar, David Knight, Julia Arnall, Anthony Oliver, Thora Hird, Eleanor Summerfield, Marjorie Rhodes, Joan Sims

Lost and Found

US 1979 105m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Gordon (Melvin Frank)

A widowed American professor meets an English divorcee on a skiing holiday, but after marriage they prove to be incompatible.
Unattractive romantic comedy-drama which despite capable stars degenerates into a series of wounding slanging matches.
w Melvin Frank, Jack Rose d Melvin Frank ph Douglas Slocombe m John Cameron pd Trevor Williams ☆ Glenda Jackson, George Segal, Maureen Stapleton, Paul Sorvino, John Cunningham, Hollis McLaren

Lost Angel ★

US 1943 91m bw
MGM (Robert Sisk)

A lost little girl is adopted by a reporter.
Good star vehicle for the sentimentally-inclined, with solid production and casting back-up.
w Isobel Lennart d Roy Rowland ph Robert Surtees m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Margaret O'Brien, James Craig, Marsha Hunt, Philip Merivale, Henry O'Neill, Donald Meek, Keenan Wynn
'A beautiful opportunity for true satire is offered and, I regret to say, thrown away. For our little Gulliver is rapidly decivilized by all the familiar bromidic palliatives: love, crooning, fairies and night clubs.' – Richard Winnington

Lost Angels: see The Road Home

Lost Boundaries ★

US 1949 105m bw
Film Classics (Louis de Rochemont)

In a New Hampshire town in the forties, a beloved doctor and his wife are found to have negro blood.
Well-meaning but dramatically ineffective racial drama which meanders along allowing an occasional burst of genuine feeling to come through.
w Virginia Shaler, Eugene Ling d Alfred Werker ph William J. Miller m Louis Applebaum ☆ Mel Ferrer, Beatrice Pearson, Richard Hylton, Susan Douglas, Canada Lee, Grace Coppin
'It cannot be said to betray its subject, but is, rather, unequal to it.' – Gavin Lambert

The Lost Boys

US 1987 92m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Harvey Bernhard)

Vampiric bikers corrupt innocent teenagers.
Wild nonsense which affronts all classes by its sheer excesses.
w Janice Fischer, James Jeremias, Jeffrey Boam d Joel Schumacher ph Michael Chapman m Thomas Newman pd Bo Welch ed Robert Brown
☆ Jason Patric, Corey Haim, Dianne Wiest, Barnard Hughes, Kiefer Sutherland

'Wherever their feet touched ground, a new adventure was born!'

Lost Command

US 1966 128m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Red Lion (Mark Robson)

Adventures of a French paratroop regiment in Indo-China and Algeria.
Anti-war war adventure; noisy but scarcely inspired.
w Nelson Gidding novel The Centurions by Jean Larteguy d Mark Robson ph Robert Surtees m Franz Waxman
☆ Anthony Quinn, Alain Delon, George Segal, Michèle Morgan, Maurice Ronet, Claudia Cardinale, Grégoire Aslan, Jean Servais

The Lost Continent ★

GB 1968 98m Technicolor
Hammer (Michael Carreras)

The captain of a tramp steamer illegally carries dynamite, and he and his passengers are stranded in a weird Sargasso Sea colony run by the Spanish Inquisition.
Hilariously imaginative hokum with splendid art direction and some of the grottiest monsters on film; but memorable moments do not quite add up to a classic of the genre.
w Michael Nash novel Uncharted Seas by Dennis Wheatley d Michael Carreras ph Paul Beeson m Gerard Schurmann ad Arthur Lawson sp Robert A. Mattey, Cliff Richardson
☆ Eric Porter, Hildegarde Neff, Suzanna Leigh, Tony Beckley, Nigel Stock, Neil McCallum, Jimmy Hanley, James Cossins, Victor Maddern
'One of the most ludicrously enjoyable bad films since Salome Where She Danced.' – MFB

Lost Embrace ★

Argentina/France/Italy/Spain/Netherlands
2004 100m colour
Axiom/BD Cine/Paradis/Classic/Wanda/Canal+ (Diego Dubcovsky, Daniel Burman)

original title: El Abrazo Partido

In Buenos Aries, a young Jewish drop-out spends his time at a shopping mall, where his family has failing businesses.
A likeable ensemble drama among dreamers and losers, who engage in petty squabbles and desultory affairs; it passes the time when there's nothing better to do.
w Marcelo Birmajer, Daniel Burman d Daniel Burman ph Ramiro Civita m Cesar Lerner ad María Eugenia Sueiro ed Alejandro Brodersohn
☆ Daniel Hendler (Ariel), Adriana Aizenberg (Sonia), Jorge D'Elia (Elias), Sergio Boris (Joseph), Rosita Londner (Grandmother)
'A small movie about a small world, but its modesty is part of what makes it durable and satisfying.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Lost Highway ★ (4)

US 1996 134m CFI color
Polygram/CiBy 2000/Asymmetrical (Deepak Nayar, Tom Sternberg, Mary Sweeney)

The character of a man found guilty of murdering his wife melds with that of a garage mechanic involved with a gangster's girlfriend.
An exploration of four characters in search of each other that leaves them, and the audience, too often stranded in limbo.
w David Lynch, Barry Gifford d David Lynch ph Peter Deming m Angelo Badalamenti pd Patricia Norris ed Mary Sweeney
☆ Bill Pullman, Patricia Arquette, Balthazar Getty, Robert Blake, Natasha Gregson Wagner, Richard Pryor, Gary Busey, Jack Nance, Henry Rollins
'The most radical, dreamlike and complicated movie David Lynch has made.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Asserts an all American, suburban-Puritan belief in the idiosyncratic eyewitness and the visionary, the truth of an individual viewpoint and even of messianic derangement, while all the while conveying almost wearily that such subjectivity as idealised elsewhere has entered terminal decline.' – Marina Warner, Sight and Sound

Lost Horizon ★★★

US 1937 130m bw
Columbia (Frank Capra)

Escaping from a Chinese revolution, four people are kidnapped by plane and taken to an idyllic civilization in a Tibetan valley, where the weather is always kind and men are not only gentle to each other but live to a very advanced age.
Much re-cut romantic adventure which leaves out some of the emphasis of a favourite Utopian novel but stands up pretty well on its own, at least as a supreme example of Hollywood moonshine, with perfect casting, direction and music. If the design has a touch of Ziegfeld, that's Hollywood.
w Robert Riskin novel James Hilton d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Stephen Goosson ed Gene Havlick, Gene Milford
☆ Ronald Colman (Robert Conway), H. B. Warner (Chang), Thomas Mitchell (Henry Barnard), Edward Everett Horton (Alexander P. Lovett), Sam Jaffe (High Lama), Isabel Jewell (Gloria Stone), Jane Wyatt (Sondra), Margo (Maria), John Howard (George Conway)
'One of the most impressive of all thirties films, a splendid fantasy which, physically and emotionally, lets out all the stops.' – John Baxter, 1968
'One is reminded of a British critic's comment on Mary of Scotland, "the inaccuracies must have involved tremendous research".' – Robert Stebbins
'The best film I've seen for ages, but will somebody please tell me how they got the grand piano along a footpath on which only one person can walk at a time with rope and pickaxe and with a sheer drop of three thousand feet or so?' – James Agate
'If the long dull ethical sequences had been cut to the bone there would have been plenty of room for the real story: the shock of western crudity and injustice on a man returned from a more gentle and beautiful way of life.' – Graham Greene
† A 1943 reissue trimmed down the negative still further, to 109 minutes; but in 1979 the American Film Institute restored a print of the original length.
Stephen Goosson
best picture; Dimitri Tiomkin; H. B. Warner

'The adventure that will live forever has been transformed into spectacular musical drama!'
'Come to Shangri-La and a new world of love!'

Lost Horizon ★

US 1973 143m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Ross Hunter

Torpid remake with a good opening followed by slabs of philosophizing dialogue and an unbroken series of tedious songs.
w Larry Kramer d Charles Jarrott ph Robert Surtees m Burt Bacharach ad Preston Ames songs Burt Bacharach, Hal David ☆ Peter Finch, Liv Ullmann, Sally Kellerman, Bobby Van, George Kennedy, Michael York, Olivia Hussey, James Shigeta, John Gielgud, Charles Boyer
'It will never play again outside of Shangri-La.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies
'Only Ross Hunter would remake a 1937 movie into a 1932 one.' – Judith Crist
'It can't even be enjoyed as camp.' – Newsweek
'The narrative has no energy, and the pauses for the pedagogic songs are so awkward that you feel the director's wheelchair needs oiling.' – Pauline Kael

The Lost Illusion: see The Fallen Idol

Lost in a Harem ★★

US 1944 89m bw
MGM (George Haight)
Two travelling entertainers in the Middle East get mixed up with a conniving sultan, who hypnotizes them.
Lively, well-staged romp which shows the comedians at their best and uses astute borrowings from burlesque, pantomime, and Hollywood traditions of fantasy and running jokes.
w Harry Ruskin, John Grant, Harry Crane d Charles Reisner ph Lester White m David Snell
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Douglass Dumbrille, Marilyn Maxwell, John Conte, Jimmy Dorsey and his Orchestra

Lost in Alaska: see Abbott and Costello Lost in Alaska

Lost in America ★

US 1985 91m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Geffen Company (Marty Katz)
A successful couple drop out of their expensive life-style to discover that poverty has its disadvantages.
Witty demolition of yuppie attitudes to the simple life.
w Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson d Albert Brooks ph Eric Saarinen m Arthur B. Rubinstein pd Richard Sawyer ed David Finfer
☆ Albert Brooks, Julie Hagerty, Michael Greene, Garry K. Marshall, Maggie Roswell, Tom Tarpey

Lost in La Mancha ★★

GB 2002 93m colour
Optimum/Quixote Films/Low Key (Lucy Darwin)
Documentary on the disasters that beset director Terry Gilliam when attempting to make The Man Who Killed Don Quixote. With a leading actor taken ill, a storm destroying the sets and jet fighters screaming overhead, this is an object lesson in how not to make a big budget feature. For those not involved the six days before the project was abandoned resemble a surreal comedy that belongs in the Monty Python canon.
wd Keith Fulton, Louis Pepe ph Louis Pepe m Miriam Cutler ed Jacob Bricca animation Chaim Bianco
☆ Jeff Bridges (Narrator), Terry Gilliam, Johnny Depp, Jean Rochefort, Bernard Bouix, Rene Cleitman, Phil Patterson, Benjamin Fernandez
'A hilarious comedy of catastrophe.' – Alexander Walker

Lost in Siberia ★

GB/USSR 1992 108m Eastmancolor
Winstone/Spectator/Mosfilm
aka: Zateriannyi v Sibiri
In the late 40s an English archaeologist working on the border between Persia and Russia is accused of being a spy and sent to Siberia.
One of an unsuccessful series of co-productions with the West; this has the effect of diminishing the Russian experience of the gulags in favour of a thriller-like movie, but it has its moments.
w James Brabazon, Alexander Mitta, Valery Fried, Yuri Korotkov d Alexander Mitta ph Vladimir Shevtsik m Leonid Desyatnikov ad Valery Yurkevitch, Vatali Klimenkov ed Anthony Sloman, Nadezhda Veselovskaya
☆ Anthony Andrews, Yelena Mayorova, Vladimir Ilyin, Ira Mikhalyova, Yevgeni Mironov, Alexei Zharkov, Valentin Gaft, Alexander Bureyev

Lost in Space

US 1998 131m colour
Panavision
New Line/Prelude/Irwin Allen (Mark W. Koch, Stephen Hopkins, Akiva Goldsman, Carla Fry)
In 2058, a family journey to another planet is sabotaged and they become lost.
Yet another doomed attempt to transfer a creaking 60s TV series to the big screen; its makers might have found a better script than the tired specimen on offer.
w Akiva Goldsman d Stephen Hopkins ph Peter Levy m Bruce Broughton pd Norman Garwood ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ William Hurt, Mimi Rogers, Heather Graham, Lacey Chabert, Jack Johnson, Gary Oldman, Matt LeBlanc, Jared Harris, Mark Goddard, Lennie James, Marta Kristen, June Lockhart, Edward Fox, Dick Tufeld (robot's voice)
'Plays more towards the serious with hi-tech gloomier sets and lighting and an examination of the disintegration of the family. At its core, however, the movie is stupid.' – James E. Brooks, Film Review † June Lockhart played Maureen Robinson, Mark Goddard was pilot Don West, and Dick Tufeld was the robot's voice in the TV series, which ran from 1965 to 1968.

Lost in the Stars ★

US 1974 114m colour
American Express/Cinevision/Ely Landua
A country priest goes to Johannesburg in search of his son, and discovers him in prison, awaiting trial for murder.
Effective treatment of a bestselling book, though it does incline towards over-earnestness.
w Alfred Hayes novel Cry the Beloved Country by Alan Paton d Daniel Mann ph Robert Hauser m/ly Kurt Weill, Maxwell Anderson md Alex North pd Jack Martin Smith ed Walter Hannemann ☆ Brock Peters, Melba Moore, Raymond St Jacques, Clifton Davis, Paul Rogers, Paula Kelly, John Williams

Lost in Time: see Waxwork II: Lost in Time

'Everyone wants to be found.'

Lost in Translation ★★ (8)

US/Japan 2003 102m colour
Momentum/Focus/Tohokushinsha/American Zoetrope/Elemental (Ross Katz, Sofia Coppola)
In Tokyo, a weary, ageing actor, who is making a whisky advert, and a young married woman ignored by her busy husband meet and imagine what might have been.
On the plus side, Murray's portrait of a tired actor going through the motions is perfect (though it's impossible to ever imagine him as the action star he's meant to be), and the brief almost-romantic encounter is treated with delicacy; on the minus side are some poor revue-type scenes making fun of the Japanese that detract from the movie's overall impact.
wd Sofia Coppola ph Lance Acord
m Kevin Shields, Air, Brian Reitzell, Roger Joseph Manning Jnr, William Storkson pd Anne Ross, K.K. Barrett ed Sarah Flack
☆ Bill Murray (Bob Harris), Scarlett Johansson (Charlotte), Giovanni Ribisi (John), Anna Faris (Kelly), Fumihiro Hayashi (Charlie), Catherine Lambert (Jazz Singer)
'Registers like a pop song that enters the mind only in fragments because, as a whole, it lacks the style or substance to be memorable.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun
'One emerges from it wondrously light-headed and spring-heeled.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent ♟ Sofia Coppola (screenwriter)
picture; Sofia Coppola (director); Bill Murray ♉ Bill Murray; Scarlett Johansson; Sarah Flack

Lost in Yonkers ★

US 1993 114m colour
Columbia TriStar/Rastar (Ray Stark)
aka: Neil Simon's Lost in Yonkers
In the early 40s, two youths go to stay with their formidable grandmother and her handicapped daughter.
Often charming version of a nostalgic Simon play, crisply acted but rather bland.
w Neil Simon d Martha Coolidge ph Johnny E. Jensen m Elmer Bernstein pd David Chapman ed Steven Cohen
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Mercedes Ruehl, Irene Worth, Mike Damus, Brad Stoll, Robert Guy Miranda, Jack Laufer
'You laugh a little, you cry a little, you admire the skill with which everything is put together.' – Caren Myers, Sight and Sound

A Lost Lady

US 1934 71m bw
Warner
A girl falls in love with a much older man.
Empty-headed and over-familiar romantic melodrama.
w Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola novel Willa Cather d Alfred E. Green ☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Frank Morgan, Ricardo Cortez, Lyle Talbot, Philip Reed, Hobart Cavanaugh, Henry Kolker
'Lightweight in story and interesting only as a femme style display.' – Variety

'He crowded a lifetime into 37 suspenseful hours!'

The Lost Man

US 1969 113m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Ernest B. Wehmeyer)
After a robbery, a crook is pursued by the police and goes into hiding.
Odd Man Out made over as a vehicle for polemics about civil rights for blacks: too shiny, too long, too talky to have any grip.
wd Robert Alan Aurthur ph Jerry Finnerman m Quincy Jones
☆ Sidney Poitier, Joanna Shimkus, Al Freeman Jnr, Michael Tolan, Leon Bibb, Richard Dysart, David Steinberg, Paul Winfield

'In a strange house of hate – they loved where love had never dared to live before!'

The Lost Moment ★

US 1947 89m bw
Universal/Walter Wanger (Martin Gabel)
An American publisher goes to Venice to recover love letters written by a famous poet to a lady now aged 105.
Slightly absurd but memorable period drama with a guilty secret eventually coming to light, all put across with apparently deliberate artificiality.
w Leonardo Bercovici novel The Aspern Papers by Henry James d Martin Gabel ph Hal Mohr m Daniele Amfitheatrof ad Alexander Golitzen ed Milton Carruth
☆ Robert Cummings, Susan Hayward, Agnes Moorehead, Joan Lorring, Eduardo Ciannelli
'A compelling piece, highly stylized and very personal, with a beautifully photographed studio recreation of Venice.' – NFT, 1973

'Boiling passions in the burning sands!'

The Lost Patrol ★

US 1934 74m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)
A small British army group is lost in the Mesopotamian desert under Arab attack.
Much-copied adventure story of a small patrol under attack (compare Sahara, Bataan and The Last of the Comanches for a start). The original now seems pretty starchy but retains moments of power.
w Dudley Nichols story Patrol by Philip MacDonald d John Ford ph Harold Wenstrom m Max Steiner ☆ Victor McLaglen, Boris Karloff, Wallace Ford, Reginald Denny, J. M. Kerrigan, Billy Bevan, Alan Hale
'Although the running time is long, there's nothing draggy about it.' – Variety
† A silent British version was released in 1929, written and directed by Walter Summers for British Instructional, with Cyril McLaglen, Sam Wilkinson and Terence Collier.
♗ Max Steiner

The Lost People

GB 1949 89m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Gordon Wellesley)
Displaced persons gather for comfort in a disused German theatre.
Once again a very flat film has been unsuitably made from an effective piece of theatre, with all possible types present and all views represented. Not on.
w Bridget Boland play Cockpit by Bridget Boland d Bernard Knowles ph Jack Asher m John Greenwood
☆ Richard Attenborough, Mai Zetterling, Siobhan McKenna, Dennis Price, Maxwell Reed, William Hartnell, Gerard Heinz, Harcourt Williams, Marcel Poncin

'Innocence Isn't Lost. It's Taken...'

The Lost Son ★

GB/France 1999 102m colour
UIP/Film Consortium/Le Studio Canal+/Scala/Ima Films (Finola Dwyer)
A French private eye, working in London, is hired to find a drug-addicted photographer, the son of a wealthy couple, and finds himself investigating an international paedophile ring.
Tense, violent thriller that leaves too much unexplained in the motivation of its protagonist and has a final revelation that will surprise no-one.
w Eric and Margaret Leclere, Mark Mills d Chris Menges ph Barry Ackroyd m Goran Bregovic pd John Beard ed Pamela Power, Luc Barnier
☆ Daniel Auteuil (Xavier Lombard), Nastassja Kinski (Deborah Spitz), Katrin Cartlidge (Emily), Ciaran Hinds (Carlos), Marianne Denicourt (Nathalie), Bruce Greenwood (Friedman), Billie Whitelaw (Mrs Spitz), Cyril Shaps (Mr Spitz)
'Has all the makings of a powerful thriller. But the drama never really clicks into gear, and the thrills are fleeting.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · ♉ BAFTA

'Deliver us from evil.'

Lost Souls

US 2000 97m DeLuxe
New Line/Prufrock (Nina R. Sadowsky, Meg Ryan)

A Catholic schoolteacher realises that a best-selling author is about to be possessed by the devil.

Visually interesting, but dramatically dull and predictable movie, no more than The Exorcist-lite.

w Pierce Gardner, Betsy Stahl d Janusz Kaminski ph Mauro Fiore m Jan Kaczmarek pd Garreth Stover ed Anne Goursaud, Andrew Mondshein sp Jay Riddle, Cinesite cos Jill Ohanneson

☆ Winona Ryder (Maya Larkin), Ben Chaplin (Peter Kelson), Sarah Wynter (Claire Van Owen), Philip Baker Hall (Father James), John Hurt (Father Lareaux), Elias Koteas (John Townsend), Brian Reddy (Father Frank), John Beasley (Mike Smythe), John Diehl (Henry Birdson), Victor Slezak (Father Thomas), Brad Greenquist (George Viznik), W. Earl Brown (William Kelson)

'He might have the best tunes, but the Devil's got the worst movie.' – Film Review

'Shot at only by cameras – yet falling in flames!'

The Lost Squadron ★

US 1932 79m bw
RKO (David O. Selznick)

World War I pilots find work stunting for a movie studio.

Unusual comedy-drama with several points of interest.

w Herman J. Mankiewicz, Wallace Smith d George Archainbaud ph Leo Tover, Edward Cronjager m Max Steiner

☆ Richard Dix, Mary Astor, Erich von Stroheim, Joel McCrea, Dorothy Jordan, Hugh Herbert, Robert Armstrong

'A pretty good show ... whether it will get back what it cost is something else again.' – Variety

Lost Treasure of the Amazon: see Jivaro

'From the best-seller that was talked about in whispers!'
'The picture that dares to bare a man's soul!'

The Lost Weekend ★★★★

US 1945 101m bw
Paramount (Charles Brackett)

Two days in the life of a young dipsomaniac writer.

Startlingly original on its release, this stark little drama keeps its power, especially in the scenes on New York streets and in a dipso ward. It could scarcely have been more effectively filmed.

w Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder novel Charles Jackson d Billy Wilder ph John F. Seitz m Miklos Rozsa ad Hans Dreier, Earl Hedrick ed Doane Harrison

☆ Ray Milland (Don Birnam), Jane Wyman (Helen St. James), Philip Terry (Nick Birnam), Howard da Silva (Nat the Bartender), Frank Faylen (Bim)

DON BIRNAM (RAY MILLAND): 'It shrinks my liver, doesn't it, Nat? It pickles my kidneys, yeah. But what does it do to my mind? It tosses the sandbags overboard so the balloon can soar. Suddenly I'm above the ordinary. I'm competent, supremely competent. I'm walking a tightrope over Niagara Falls. I'm one of the great ones. I'm Michelangelo, moulding the beard of Moses. I'm Van Gogh, painting pure sunlight. I'm Horowitz, playing the Emperor Concerto. I'm John Barrymore before the movies got him by the throat. I'm Jesse James and his two brothers – all three of 'em. I'm W. Shakespeare. And out there it's not Third Avenue any longer – it's the Nile, Nat, the Nile – and down it moves the barge of Cleopatra.'

'A reminder of what celluloid is capable of achieving when used by a good director.' – Spectator

'I understhand that liquor interesh; innerish; interesh tsh are rather worried about thish film. Thatsh tough.' – James Agee

'Most to be admired are its impressions of bare dreadful truth: the real crowds in the real streets as the hero-victim lugs his typewriter to the pawnshop, the trains screaming overhead, the awful night as he makes his escape from the alcoholics' ward.' – Dilys Powell

'A distinguished film, rich in cinematic ingenuity.' – The Times

best picture; script; Billy Wilder (as director); Ray Milland

John F. Seitz; Miklos Rozsa; editing

'Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's Stupendous Story of Adventure and Romance.'

The Lost World ★★

US 1925 60m bw
First National

The irascible Professor Challenger leads an expedition to prove his claim that prehistoric creatures are still living on a remote plateau in South America.

A sensational film of its time, complete with dinosaurs, an apeman, a volcanic eruption, a forest fire and a brontosaurus running wild in the streets of London, destroying Tower Bridge. It still retains a naïve charm, as well as providing a narrative that has served as a prototype for dozens of similar films since.

novel Arthur Conan Doyle d Harry O. Hoyt ph Arthur Edeson sp Willis O'Brien, Ralph Hammeras, Fred Jackman

☆ Wallace Beery, Lewis Stone, Bessie Love, Lloyd Hughes, Alma Bennett, Arthur Hoyt, Margaret McWade, Bull Montana

'This has precious few touches to visual imagination to complement its wonderful monsters and stirring romance.' – Empire

'In the middle of the twentieth century you fall off the brink of time!'

The Lost World

US 1960 98m DeLuxe
Cinemascope
TCF/Saratoga (Irwin Allen)

Professor Challenger is financed by a newspaper to confirm the report of prehistoric life on a South African plateau.

Pitiful attempt to continue the success of Journey to the Center of the Earth, with the story idiotically modernized, unconvincing monsters, a script which inserts conventional romance and villainy, and fatal miscasting of the central part.

w Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett novel Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d Irwin Allen ph Winton C. Hoch m Bert Shefter, Paul Sawtell

☆ Claude Rains, Michael Rennie, David Hedison, Richard Haydn, Fernando Lamas, Jill St. John, Ray Stricklyn

'Resembles nothing so much as a ride on a rundown fairground Ghost Train.' – MFB

The Lost World: Jurassic Park ★ (5)

US 1997 134m DeLuxe
Universal/Amblin (Gerald R. Molen, Colin Wilson)

A team of experts goes to investigate how an island used as a breeding ground for the recreated dinosaurs of Jurassic Park has become a self-supporting eco-system.

The special effects are to be wondered at, as is the fact that the script is cloned from the oldest and most familiar elements of monster movies; this is a dinosaur about dinosaurs.

w David Koepp novel Michael Crichton d Steven Spielberg ph Janusz Kaminski m John Williams pd Rick Carter ed Michael Kahn sp Dennis Muren, Stan Winston, Randal M. Dutra, Michael Lantieri

☆ Jeff Goldblum, Julianne Moore, Pete Postlethwaite, Vince Vaughn, Vanessa Lee Chester, Arliss Howard, Richard Attenborough, Peter Stormare, Harvey Jason, Richard Schiff

'The dinosaur creations are even better than those in the first film. But underneath the technical virtuosity is a standard chase film.' – Variety

'This feels like the kind of sequel a master hands over to an apprentice, and you sense that although much effort was lavished on the special effects, Spielberg's interest in the story was perfunctory.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

† The film had the biggest worldwide gross of 1997, of more than $611m. It also holds the record for the biggest opening weekend in cinema history, taking $72m at the US box-office.

visual effects

A Lot Like Love

US 2005 107m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Beacon (Armyan Bernstein/Kevin Messick)

After they first meet when they make love in an airplane toilet, a couple later introduce themselves and, over a seven-year period, comfort each other over their failed love affairs.

Dim-witted romantic comedy that has the charm of regurgitated fast food; this is When Harry Met Sally for the immature.

w Colin Patrick Lynch d Nigel Cole ph John de Borman m Alex Wurman pd Tom Meyer ed Susan Littenberg

☆ Ashton Kutcher (Oliver Martin), Amanda Peet (Emily Friehl), Kathryn Hahn (Michelle), Kal Penn (Jeeter), Ty Giordano (Graham Martin)

'Isn't half bad and every so often is pretty good, filled with real sentiment, worked-through performances and a story textured enough to sometimes feel a lot like life.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

'A lot like a romantic comedy, except that all that's keeping these two kids apart is the trivially insufferable movie they're in.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

The Lottery Bride

US 1930 85m bw
Arthur Hammerstein/United Artists

A girl goes on the run when she finds herself first prize in a lottery.

Dismal operetta from the period when silent techniques were still giving way to sound.

w Horace Jackson, Howard Emmett Rogers story Herbert Stothart d Paul Stein

☆ Jeanette MacDonald, Joe E. Brown, John Garrick, ZaSu Pitts

'One of the worst of the really very bad features released since sound.' – Variety

Lottery Lover

US 1935 80m bw
Fox

A shy sailor wins a lottery prize, an introduction to a Folies Bergère star, but falls in love with the public relations girl organizing the stunt.

Faded romantic comedy of little surviving interest.

w Sig Herzig d William Thiele

☆ Lew Ayres, Reginald Denny, Pat Paterson, Sterling Holloway

The Loudest Whisper: see The Children's Hour

Louisa ★

US 1950 90m bw
Universal-International

A much-married man finds that both his daughter and his mother have boyfriend trouble.

Friendly generation gap comedy with practised talent.

w Stanley Roberts d Alexander Hall ph Maury Gertsman m Frank Skinner ad Robert Boyle, Bernard Herzbrun ed Milton Carruth

☆ Ronald Reagan, Spring Byington, Charles Coburn, Ruth Hussey, Edmund Gwenn, Piper Laurie, Scotty Beckett

Louise ★

France 1939 99m bw
European Film Distributors

A seamstress is rescued from a life of shame.

Ill-advised venture into film opera for an American star.

w Steve Passeur opera Gustave Charpentier d Abel Gance

☆ Grace Moore, Georges Thill, André Pernet

'Tedious and unconvincing.' – Variety

'Visually and dramatically it is one of the funniest films to be seen in London. It is all bacchanalia among the blossoms and situations whose grotesqueness is deliciously enhanced by the personality of the distinguished singer. Oh, the tiptoeings of Miss Moore, the sedate coquetry, the little trills and carollings, and the great stony teeth.' – Graham Greene

Louisiana

US 1947 82m bw
Lindsley Parsons/Monogram

A poor singing farmer becomes governor.

Musical biopic of only historical interest.

w Jack de Witt d Phil Karlson

☆ Jimmie Davis, Margaret Lindsay, John Gallaudet, Freddie Stewart

Louisiana Purchase ★

US 1941 98m Technicolor
Paramount (Harold Wilson)

Efforts are made to compromise a politician.

Quite lively transcription of a Broadway musical success with elements of political satire including a climactic filibuster scene.

w Jerome Chodorov, Joseph Fields play Morrie Ryskind d Irving Cummings ph Harry Hallenberger, Ray Rennahan ad Raoul Pene du Bois songs Irving Berlin

☆ Bob Hope, Vera Zorina, Victor Moore, Irene Bordoni, Dona Drake, Raymond Walburn, Maxie Rosenbloom, Frank Albertson, Donald MacBride, Andrew Tombes

Harry Hallenberger, Ray Rennahan; Raoul Pene du Bois

Louisiana Story ★

US 1948 77m bw
Standard Oil Company (Robert Flaherty)

In the Louisiana bayous a young native boy watches as oil drillers make a strike.

Quite beautiful but over-extended semi-documentary.
w Robert and Frances Flaherty d Robert Flaherty ph Richard Leacock m Virgil Thomson ed Helen Van Dongen
☆ Joseph Boudreaux, Lionel Leblanc, Frank Hardy
'The film will be remembered, not for its content, but for the sustained beauty of photography and music, harmonised in shots recalling the delicacy of Chinese landscape painting.' – Campbell Dixon
Ⓐ original story

Loulou

France 1980 105m Eastmancolor Gaumont/Action Films

A smart young business woman sets up an uneasy menage with a working-class layabout.
Curious but not particularly interesting character study, watchable mainly for its detail.
w Arlette Langmann d Maurice Pialat ph Pierre-William Glenn, Jacques Loiseleux md Philippe Sarde
☆ Isabelle Huppert, Gérard Depardieu, Guy Marchand, Humbert Balsan

The Lovable Cheat

US 1949 79m bw Film Classics/Skyline (Edward Lewis, Richard Oswald)

A bankrupt merchant tries to keep the bailiffs at bay by hurriedly finding a rich husband for his daughter.
A stolid, stagey treatment that lacks cinematic flair and humour.
w Edward Lewis, Richard Oswald play Mercadet Le Faiseur by Honoré de Balzac d Richard Oswald ph Paul Wano m Karl Hajos ad Boris Leven ed Douglas Bagier
☆ Charlie Ruggles, Peggy Ann Garner, Buster Keaton, Curt Bois, Richard Ney, Alan Mowbray, Iris Adrian, Fritz Feld, Ludwig Donath

'Caught in the swirl of passions and sacrifice!'

Love ★

US 1927 82m (24 fps) bw silent MGM (Edmund Goulding)

Anna Karenina leaves her husband and child for Count Vronsky.
Marginally interesting first shot at a famous subject by a star who came back to it in 1935.
w Frances Marion, Lorna Moon novel Leo Tolstoy d Edmund Goulding ph William Daniels m Ernst Luz ad Cedric Gibbons, Alexander Toluboff
☆ Greta Garbo, John Gilbert, Brandon Hurst, Philippe de Lacy, George Fawcett, Emily Fitzroy
† An alternative happy ending was provided for exhibitors who wanted it.

Love ★★★

Hungary 1971 92m bw Mafilm

original title: Szerelem
After her husband is jailed for his political opinions, a young woman cares for her dying mother-in-law.
An unsentimental film on a theme that could lend itself to mawkishness. The relationship between the two women is loving yet marked by personal differences. The wife reads the mother letters purporting to be from her son, telling her that he is making good in America; it is never clear whether the mother believes in this deception.
w Tibor Dery d Karoly Makk ph Janos Toth m Andras Mihaly ad Jozsef Romvari ed Gyorgy Sivo ☆ Lili Darvas (Old Lady), Mari Torocsik (Luca), Ivan Darvas (Janos), Erzsi Orsolya (Iren), Laszlo Mensaros (Azorvos), Tibor Bitskey (Feri)
'Subtle, rich, reserved, even elegant, it is a beautiful movie.' – Roger Greenspun, New York Times

'The ultimate romantic comedy.'

Love Actually ★★ Ⓢ

GB/US/France 2003 135m DeLuxe 'scope Universal/StudioCanal/Working Title/DNA (Duncan Kenworthy, Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner)

The love lives of various individuals, including the British Prime Minister who is attracted by his tea-lady, find resolution at a school nativity play.
Extremely soft-centred, sentimental romantic comedy with some funny moments, particularly a sub-plot involving an aged rocker; at times, though, it appears to be a parody of the genre.
wd Richard Curtis ph Michael Coulter m Craig Armstrong pd Jim Clay ed Nick Moore ☆ Hugh Grant (The Prime Minister), Alan Rickman (Harry), Bill Nighy (Billy Mack), Colin Firth (Jamie), Emma Thompson (Karen), Laura Linney (Sarah), Liam Neeson (Daniel), Martine McCutcheon (Natalie), Keira Knightley (Juliet), Rowan Atkinson (Rufus), Billy Bob Thornton (The US President), Kris Marshall (Colin Frissell), Chiwetel Ejiofor (Peter), Rodrigo Santoro (Karl), Claudia Schiffer (Carol)
'Its cheeky wit, impossibly attractive cast and sure-handed professionalism are beguiling.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'All in all, I thoroughly enjoyed the movie until, in the end, it went somewhat bonkers with what amounted to a communal love fest on Christmas Eve.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer
Ⓑ Bill Nighy

Love Affair

US 1932 68m bw Columbia

An heiress falls for a flying instructor.
Mild romantic comedy drama.
w Jo Swerling story Ursula Parrott d Thornton Freeland ph Ted Tetzlaff ☆ Dorothy Mackaill, Humphrey Bogart, Jack Kennedy, Astrid Allwyn, Halliwell Hobbes, Barbara Leonard
'A neighbourhood operation, that's about its worth.' – Variety

Love Affair ★★★

US 1939 89m bw RKO (Leo McCarey)

On a transatlantic crossing, a European man of the world meets a New York girl, but their romance is flawed by misunderstanding and physical accident.
The essence of Hollywood romance, and one of the most fondly remembered films of the thirties, perhaps because of the easy comedy sense of the first half.
w Delmer Daves, Donald Ogden Stewart story Mildred Cram, Leo McCarey d Leo McCarey ph Rudolph Maté m Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase, Al Herman ed Edward Dmytryk, George Hively
☆ Charles Boyer (Michel Marnet), Irene Dunne (Terry McKay), Maria Ouspenskaya (Grandmother Janou), Lee Bowman (Kenneth Bradley), Astrid Allwyn (Lois Clarke), Maurice Moscovich (Maurice Cobert)
'Production is of grade A quality ... its b.o. chances look good.' – Variety
'Those excited over the mastery of form already achieved in pictures, will like to follow this demonstration of the qualities of technique and imagination the films must always have and keep on recruiting to their service ... Clichés of situation and attitude are lifted almost beyond recognition by a morning freshness of eye for each small thing around.' – Otis Ferguson
'McCarey brought off one of the most difficult things you can attempt with film. He created a mood, rather than a story; he kept it alive by expert interpolations; he provided comedy when he needed comedy and poignancy when he needed substance; and he did it with the minimum of effort.' – Pare Lorentz † Remade as An Affair to Remember (qv).
Ⓐ best picture; original story; Irene Dunne; Maria Ouspenskaya; art direction; song 'Wishing' (m/ly Buddy de Sylva)

Love Affair

US 1994 108m Technicolor Warner/Mulholland (Warren Beatty)

A couple find that the course of true love does not run smooth and similar clichés.
An inexplicable remake of a sentimental weepie, predicated on the fact that its stars are married to one another, which is hardly reason enough to disinter something done with much more style a generation ago; an affair to forget.
w Robert Towne, Warren Beatty story Mildred Cram, Leo McCarey screenplay Delmer Daves, Donald Ogden Stewart d Glenn Gordon Caron m Ennio Morricone pd Fernando Scarfiotti ed Robert C. Jones
☆ Warren Beatty, Annette Bening, Katharine Hepburn, Garry Shandling, Pierce Brosnan, Kate Capshaw, Chloe Webb
'Not a disaster, but it's not good either; its kitsch derives from old "woman's film" formulas but put together without the conviction or the moral urgency that once made such stuff irresistible.' – David Denby, New York
'Marks the nadir of Hollywood's obsession with re-makes to date.' – Denis Seguin, Screen International
† The film was first made by Leo McCarey in 1939 starring Charles Boyer and Irene Dunne and remade as An Affair to Remember in 1957, again directed by Leo McCarey and starring Cary Grant and Deborah Kerr.

Love Affair, or the Case of the Missing Switchboard Operator: see The Switchboard Operator

Love After Love: see Après l'Amour

Love among the Millionaires

US 1930 70m bw Paramount

A waitress falls for the son of a railroad president.
Ho-hum star vehicle without much get-up-and-go.
w Grover Jones, William Conselman, Joseph L. Mankiewicz d Frank Tuttle ☆ Clara Bow, Stanley Smith, Mitzi Green, Skeets Gallagher, Stuart Erwin
'It will call for a lot of faith from the Clara Bow admirers to accept her in this kind of a part, the sweet wishy-washy thing, after the bum publicity she's been getting.' – Variety

Love and a .45 ★

US 1994 101m colour Trimark (Darin Scott)

A petty crook, who shoots his psychotic partner for killing a checkout girl during a robbery, takes to the road with his girl pursued by the law and assorted low-life.
Slick, enjoyably trashy exploitation movie that updates a familiar theme.
wd C. M. Talkington ph Tom Richmond m Tom Verlaine pd Deborah Pastor ed Bob Ducsay
☆ Gil Bellows, Renee Zellweger, Rory Cochrane, Jeffrey Combs, Jace Alexander, Jack Nance, Michael Bowen, Peter Fonda
'The fact that Love and a 45 is so unapologetically irresponsible (the lingering tattoo torture scene is lip-smackingly sadistic) only makes it more endearing.' – Sight and Sound

'All's fair in love and basketball.'

Love & Basketball

US 2000 124m DeLuxe New Line/40 Acres and a Mule (Spike Lee, Sam Kitt)

Two school friends with a talent for basketball begin dating when they go to University, then go their separate ways only to meet again...
A movie that questions some masculine assumptions about feminine roles, but mainly is content to get by on its slight charm.
wd Gina Prince-Bythewood ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Terence Blanchard pd Jeff Howard ed Terilyn Shropshire cos Ruth Carter ☆ Sanaa Lathan (Monica Wright), Omar Epps (Quincy McCall), Alfre Woodard (Camille Wright), Dennis Haysbert (Zeke McCall), Debbie Morgan (Mona McCall), Harry J. Lennix (Nathan Wright), Kyla Pratt (Young Monica), Glenndon Chatman (Young Quincy)
'An easy feel-good movie, but falls far short of the challenging film it aspires to be.' – Emma Cochrane, Empire

Love and Bullets

US 1978 103m Metrocolor ITC (Pancho Kohner)

A gangster's mistress is brought back from Switzerland by a revengeful Phoenix cop.
Downbeat bang-bang with a high death rate and a glum finale; generally low-grade stuff.
w Wendell Mayes, John Melson d Stuart Rosenberg ph Fred Koenekamp m Lalo Schifrin pd John DeCuir
☆ Charles Bronson, Jill Ireland, Rod Steiger, Henry Silva, Strother Martin, Bradford Dillman, Michael V. Gazzo
'A relatively dismaying example of the Lew Grade entertainment formula: as locations, production values and clichéd set-pieces proliferate, scripts increasingly look like shaggy dog stories desperately in search of a point, and actors are left to do their own thing as characters disintegrate.' – Richard Combs, MFB
'Love and bullets my eye: embarrassment and tedium would be more like it.' – Time Out

Love and Death ★

US 1975 85m DeLuxe Panavision UA/Jack Rollins, Charles H. Joffe

In 1812 Russia, a man condemned reviews the follies of his life.
Personalized comedy fantasia inspired by War and Peace, Ingmar Bergman and S. J. Perelman. Basically only for star fans.

Ⓓ Digital Video Disc Region 2 Ⓓ Digital Video Disc Region 1 Soundtrack released on compact disc ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance † Points of interest ♫ Notable songs Academy Award Ⓐ Academy Award nomination Ⓑ BAFTA

wd Woody Allen ph Ghislain Cloquet m Prokofiev ☆ Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, Georges Adel, Despo, Frank Adu
'I have a feeling that one of these days Allen will get it most dreadfully together and make a film which is more than a string of funny one-liners and set-pieces. He hasn't quite done it here.' – Benny Green, Punch

Love and Death on Long Island ★★

GB/Canada 1996 93m Technicolor
Guild/Skyline/Imagex/British Screen/Telefilm Canada/Arts Council/NSFDC (Steve Clark-Hall, Christopher Zimmer)

A reclusive, intellectual British novelist becomes obsessed with a good-looking American actor, who appears in trashy movies, and goes to America to try to seduce him.
Engaging, witty, slender movie that extracts much amusement from a clash between two cultures and vastly differing sensibilities.
wd Richard Kwietniowski novel Gilbert Adair ph Oliver Curtis m The Insects, Richard Grassby-Lewis pd David McHenry ed Susan Shipton
☆ John Hurt, Jason Priestley, Fiona Loewi, Sheila Hancock, Maury Chaykin, Gawn Grainger, Elizabeth Quinn
'Bittersweet blend of Death in Venice and Porky's.' – David Parkinson, Empire
Richard Kwietniowski (best newcomer)

Love and Hisses ★

US 1937 84m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

A gossip columnist and a bandleader continue their feud.
Moderate sequel to Wake Up and Live (qv); it got by.
w Art Arthur, Curtis Kenyon d Sidney Lanfield ph Robert Planck m Louis Silvers ☆ Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie and his orchestra, Joan Davis, Bert Lahr, Simone Simon, Ruth Terry

Love and Human Remains ★

Canada 1993 100m colour
Rank/Max/Atlantis (Roger Frappier)

A gay actor turned waiter searches for sex while his flatmate, a female book reviewer, looks for love among people with hang-ups of their own.
A modern romance in a world of AIDS and serial killers, often witty and sceptical but also increasingly unbelievable and hysterical.
w Brad Fraser play Unidentified Human Remains and the Nature of Love by Brad Fraser d Denys Arcand ph Paul Sarossy m John McCarthy pd François Seguin ed Alain Baril
☆ Thomas Gibson, Ruth Marshall, Cameron Bancroft, Mia Kirshner, Joanne Vannicola, Matthew Ferguson, Rick Roberts
'A bawdy and spirited comedy about a group of mostly 30ish urbanites trying to get a grip on their sexuality and place in the world.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'The more it progresses, the more it falls into banality and melodrama.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Love and Money

US 1980 95m Metrocolor
Lorimar

A banker kidnaps a financier's wife, and finds himself in dead trouble.
Incoherent light melodrama which barely got released.
wd James Toback ph Fred Schuler ad Lee Fischer ☆ Ray Sharkey, Ornella Muti, Klaus Kinski, Armand Assante, King Vidor (as the hero's senile grandfather), William Prince

'The trouble with love is, you never know where it's going to strike next.'

Love and Other Catastrophes ★★ (5)

Australia 1996 79m Cinevex
TCF/Screwball Five/AFC (Stavros Andonis Efthymiou)

In Melbourne, five university students cope with the problems of life, learning and love.
High-spirited, episodic account of the young enjoying the little dramas of everyday experience, which skates on the surface of life without putting a foot wrong.
w Yael Bergman, Emma-Kate Croghan, Helen Bandis d Emma-Kate Croghan ph Justin Brickle m Oleh Witer ad Lisa Collins ed Ken Sallows
☆ Matt Day (Michael), Frances O'Connor (Mia), Alice Garner (Alice), Radha Mitchell (Danni), Matthew Dyktynski (Ari), Kim Gyngell (Professor Leach), Suzi Dougherty, Suzanne Dowling (Dr Russell), Torquil Neilson
'A sharp, short, excellent little movie that comes in looking suspiciously like an Andy Warhol home movie and grows into a truly rewarding, original and spontaneous piece of entertainment.' – Marianne Gray, Film Review

Love and Pain and the Whole Damn Thing

US 1972 113m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Gus (Alan J. Pakula)

An asthmatic young American on holiday in Spain has an affair with an older woman suffering from an incurable disease.
Dreary doomed romance studiously treated as tourist comedy.
w Alvin Sargent d Alan J. Pakula ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Michael Small ☆ Maggie Smith, Timothy Bottoms

Love and Sacrifice: see America

'Get A Love Life!'

Love & Sex

US 2000 80m FotoKem
Behaviour Worldwide (Timothy Scott Bogart, Martin J. Barab, Brad Wyman)

A female journalist, given to reminiscing about her various relationships, has an off-and-on affair with an artist.
Slick but bland romantic comedy in which couples analyse their attitudes to one another ad nauseam.
wd Valerie Breiman ph Adam Kane pd Sara Sprawls ed Martin Applebaum cos Sara Jane Slotnick
☆ Famke Janssen (Kate Welles), Jon Favreau (Adam Levy), Noah Emmerich (Eric), Ann Magnuson (Ms Steinbacher), Cheri Oteri (Joey Santino), Robert Knepper (Gerard), Vincent Ventresca (Richard), David Schwimmer (Jehovah's Witness (uncredited))
'Serves up the kind of cutesy-wootsy sentiment that makes me pukesy.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Love at First Bite ★

US 1979 96m colour
Simon (Joel Freeman)

Count Dracula flees from the communists and settles in New York.
Energetic spoof, with jokes on the sexy side; good work all round.
w Robert Kaufman d Stan Dragoti ph Edward Rosson m Charles Bernstein pd Serge Krizman
☆ George Hamilton, Susan St James, Richard Benjamin, Dick Shawn, Arte Johnson

'Love is so hard to find you have to hire a detective'

Love at Large ★

US 1990 97m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (David Blocker)

A private eye checks on the wrong man, while a female detective is hired by his girlfriend to check on him.
Enjoyably light-hearted treatment of an intricate plot of double-cross and double lives.
wd Alan Rudolph ph Elliot Davis m Mark Isham pd Stephen Legler ed Lisa Churgin
☆ Tom Berenger, Elizabeth Perkins, Anne Archer, Kate Capshaw, Annette O'Toole, Ted Levine, Ann Magnuson, Kevin J. O'Connor, Ruby Dee, Barry Miller, Neil Young

The Love Ban: see It's a 2' 6" Above the Ground World

A Love Bewitched

Spain 1985 98m colour
Emilian Piedra
original title: El Amor Brujo

The future marriage of two children is arranged by their gypsy fathers with tragic results.
A dance drama likely to appeal only to aficionados of the genre.
w Carlos Saura, Antonio Gades d Carlos Saura ph Teo Escamilla m Manuel de Falla pd Gerardo Vera ed Pedro Del Rey
☆ Antonio Gades, Cristina Hoyos, Laura Del Sol, Juan Antonio Jiminez, Emma Penella, La Polaca, Gomez de Jerez

The Love Bug ★★

US 1968 107m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Walsh)

An unsuccessful racing driver finds that his small private Volkswagen has a mind of its own.
Amusing, pacy period fantasy in the best Disney style.
w Bill Walsh, Don da Gradi d Robert Stevenson ph Edward Colman m George Bruns sp Eustace Lycett
☆ David Tomlinson, Dean Jones, Michele Lee, Buddy Hackett, Joe Flynn, Benson Fong, Joe E. Ross

The Love Cage: see Joy House

'He promised to love, honor and protect. She promised to love, cheat and steal.'

Love, Cheat & Steal

US 1994 96m Foto-Kem
ITC/Showtime Network/MPCA (Brad Kevoy, Steve Stabler)

A killer escapes from prison and forces his former wife to help him to rob her new husband's bank.
Formula thriller of betrayal and double-cross that early promises more than it ultimately delivers.
wd William Curran ph Kent Wakeford pd Jane Ann Stewart ed Carole Kravetz
☆ John Lithgow, Eric Roberts, Madchen Amick, Donald Moffat, Richard Edson, Dan O'Herlihy, David Ackroyd
'A desperate wannabe film noir that lacks the form's crucial elements of suapenseful ambience and steamy sexuality.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

The Love Child

GB 1987 101m colour
BFI/Frontroom Pro/Channel 4/VPRO TV (Angela Topping)

An orphaned South London youth falls in love with an artist living in a squat.
Weak whimsy of working-class life.
w Gordon Hann d Robert Smith ph Thaddeus O'Sullivan m Colin Gibson, Kenny Craddock pd Caroline Hanania ed John Davies
☆ Sheila Hancock, Peter Capaldi, Percy Herbert, Lesley Sharp, Alexei Sayle, Arthur Hewlett, Cleo Sylvestre, Stephen Lind

Love Crazy ★

US 1941 100m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

When his wife threatens to divorce him, a businessman hatches all manner of crazy schemes, including disguising himself as his own sister.
Zany romantic comedy, over-stretched but with a fair share of hilarity.
w William Ludwig, Charles Lederer, David Hertz d Jack Conway ph Ray June m David Snell
☆ William Powell, Myrna Loy, Gail Patrick, Jack Carson, Florence Bates, Sidney Blackmer, Vladimir Sokoloff, Donald MacBride, Sig Rumann, Sara Haden, Elisha Cook Jnr, Kathleen Lockhart

Love Crimes

US 1991 90m DeLuxe
Rank/Sovereign/Miramax (Lizzie Borden, Rudy Langlais)

An assistant DA goes undercover so that she can trap a photographer who is raping the women who pose for him.
Confused thriller that seems uncertain as to what kind of film it wants to be; it finally settles for mediocrity.
w Allan Moyle, Laurie Frank d Lizzie Borden ph Jack N. Green m Graeme Revell, Roger Mason pd Armin Ganz ed Nicholas C. Smith, Mike Jackson
☆ Sean Young, Patrick Bergin, Arnetia Walker, James Read, Ron Orbach, Fern Dorsey, Tina Hightower, Donna Biscoe

Love Dance: see Let It Be Me (1999)

A Love Divided ★

Ireland 1999 100m colour
RTE/BBC/IFB/Parallel (Alan Moloney, Tim Palmer, Gerry Gregg)

In Ireland in the 1950s, a Protestant woman marries a Catholic farmer; but she leaves him when the local priest insists that their daughters must be educated at the village Catholic school.
Based on a true story, an effective narrative of a domestic disagreement that escalates into a bigoted religious controversy that destroys a community.
w Stuart Hepburn screenplay Deirdre Dowling, Gerry Gregg d Sydney Macartney ph Cedric Culliton m Fiachra Trench pd Alan Farquharson ed Ray Roantree
☆ Liam Cunningham (Sean Cloney), Orla Brady (Sheila Cloney), Tony Doyle (Fr. Stafford), Peter Caffrey (Andy Bailey), John Kavanagh (Bishop Staunton), Brian McGrath (Tom Kelly), Jim Norton (Rev. Fisher), Ali White (Dorothy Kelly)
† In 1998, the Catholic church formally apologised for its role in the affair.

Love etc.

France 1996 104m colour Panavision
Pathé/Aliceléo/France3/Canal+ (Patrick Godeau)

Two friends, one shy, the other flamboyant, compete for the love of the same woman.
Slight, playful treatment of a triangular romance.
w Marion Vernoux, Dodine Herry novel Talking It Over by Julian Barnes
d Marion Vernoux ph Eric Gautier
m Alexandre Desplat pd François Emmanuelli ed Jennifer Auge ☆ Charlotte Gainsbourg, Yvan Attal, Charles Berling, Thibault de Montalembert, Elodie Navarre, Marie Adam

Love Eternal *

France 1943 111m bw
André Paulvé

original title: L'Eternel Retour
The love story of Tristan and Isolde.
This modernized version had a Teutonic look and was respected rather than admired.
w Jean Cocteau d Jean Delannoy
ph Roger Hubert m Georges Auric ad Wakhevitch
☆ Jean Marais, Madeleine Sologne, Jean Murat, Yvonne de Bray

'There it is, the whole dolorous bag of tricks, the island, the love potion, the scarf on the mast, the dark tower, the aching rejection of life, valid according to its intentions, often superbly beautiful in its execution, but rotted.' – Richard Winnington

Love Field

US 1992 104m DeLuxe
Orion (Sarah Pillsbury, Midge Sanford)

A hairdresser in Dallas who identifies with Jacqueline Kennedy goes to attend President Kennedy's funeral and is attracted to a black man she meets on the way.
Intensely American movie that is too parochial to be rewarding.
w Don Roos d Jonathan Kaplan ph Ralf Bode m Jerry Goldsmith pd Mark Freeborn ed Jane Kurson
☆ Michelle Pfeiffer, Dennis Haysbert, Stephanie McFadden, Brian Kerwin, Louise Latham, Peggy Rea, Beth Grant ♗ Michelle Pfeiffer

Love from a Stranger *

GB 1936 90m bw
Trafalgar (Max Schach)

A young woman realizes she may have married a maniac.
Stalwart suspenser from a popular novel and play.
w Frances Marion play Frank Vosper story Philomel Cottage by Agatha Christie
d Rowland V. Lee ph Philip Tannura
m Benjamin Britten
☆ Ann Harding, Basil Rathbone, Binnie Hale, Bruce Seton, Jean Cadell, Bryan Powley, Joan Hickson, Donald Calthrop

'Gorgeously photographed and splendidly cut ... takes front rank with the long list of gruesome films produced in recent years.' – Variety

Love from a Stranger

US 1947 81m bw
Eagle Lion (James J. Geller)

GB title: A Stranger Walked In
Stilted period remake.
w Philip MacDonald d Richard Whorf
ph Tony Gaudio m Hans Salter
☆ Sylvia Sidney, John Hodiak, Ann Richards, John Howard, Isobel Elsom, Frederick Worlock

The Love God?

US 1969 103m Techniscope
Universal (Edward J. Montagne)

A meek ornithologist is thought to be the brains behind a girlie magazine, and becomes a national sex symbol.
Dispiriting and very talkative star farce which would have been long at half the time.
wd Nat Hiken ph William Margulies
m Vic Mizzy
☆ Don Knotts, Edmond O'Brien, Anne Francis, James Gregory, Maureen Arthur

'Strictly for admirers of Don Knotts. Can there really be many?' – MFB

The Love Goddesses **

US 1965 87m bw
Paramount/Walter Reade/Sterling

A light-hearted account of female sexuality on the Hollywood screen.
Sharp-eyed compilation film which is worth a dozen books on the subject.
w Saul J. Turell, Graeme Ferguson m Percy Faith narrator Carl King

'A compilation of shrapnel from old sex-bomb movies, full of deliciously improbable moments.' – Newsweek † Clips include Blonde Venus, Morocco, True Heart Susie, Cleopatra (1934), Intolerance, The Cheat, The Sheik, Blood and Sand, The Sorrows of Satan, The Love of Sunya, Diary of a Lost Girl, Ecstasy, L'Atlantide, Peter the Tramp, Cabin in the Cotton, Platinum Blonde, Gold Diggers of 1933, No Man of Her Own, Professional Sweetheart, Love Me Tonight, I'm No Angel, Baby Face, They Won't Forget, College Swing, Her Jungle Love, Gilda, A Place in the Sun, Some Like it Hot.

Love Happy *

US 1949 85m bw
Lester Cowan/Mary Pickford

A group of impoverished actors accidentally gets possession of the Romanov diamonds.
The last dismaying Marx Brothers film, with Harpo taking the limelight and Groucho loping in for a couple of brief, tired appearances. A roof chase works, but Harpo tries too hard for sentiment, and the production looks shoddy.
w Ben Hecht, Frank Tashlin, Mac Benoff
d David Miller ph William Mellor m Ann Ronell ☆ Groucho Marx, Harpo Marx, Chico Marx, Eric Blore, Ilona Massey, Marilyn Monroe, Vera-Ellen

Love Has Many Faces

US 1964 104m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Jerry Bresler

A rich woman marries a beach boy and has an affair with another, who is murdered.
Hilarious but unentertaining sex melodrama built around an overage star.
w Marguerite Roberts d Alexander Singer
ph Joseph Ruttenberg m David Raksin
☆ Lana Turner, Cliff Robertson, Hugh O'Brian, Stefanie Powers, Ruth Roman, Virginia Grey

'For connoisseurs of perfectly awful movies.' – Judith Crist

Love Hate: see L'Albatross

Love + Hate *

GB 2005 85m DeLuxe
Momentum/BBC/UKFC/Ruby (Neris Thomas, Alison Owen)

Against family opposition, a 17-year-old Pakistani girl and her elder brother both begin affairs, she with a racist white boy, he with a white girl.
Gritty drama of racial conflict, set in a Northern town, that veers into polemic and the belief that love is all.
wd Dominic Savage ph Barry Ackroyd
pd Sami Khan ed David G.Hill, Nicolas Gaster ☆ Samina Awan (Naseema), Tom Hudson (Adam), Nichola Burley (Michelle), Wasim Zakir (Yousif), Dean Andrews (Derek)

'Plot's contrived coincidences seriously damage pic's realist street feel.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

'Till Death Us Do Part '

Love, Honour and Obey

GB 1999 98m DeLuxe
UIP/BBC/Fugitive (Dominic Anciano, Ray Burdis)

Trouble erupts when a North London gangster admits a new member to his gang.
Dreary would-be thriller, in which actors who ought to know better play at being criminals.
wd Dominic Anciano, Ray Burdis ph John Ward pd Nick Burnell ed Rachel Meyrick ☆ Sadie Frost (Sadie), Jonny Lee Miller (Jonny), Jude Law (Jude), Ray Winstone (Ray), Kathy Burke (Kathy), Sean Pertwee (Sean), Denise Van Outen (Maureen), Rhys Ifans (Matthew), Dominic Anciano (Dominic), Ray Burdis (Ray)

'Another strong contender for the worst Britflick of the year.' – Sight and Sound
'What's more unforgivable than the raggedness and puerility is the pervasive smugness.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

† The same writer-directors, together with many of the same cast, made the equally dire The Final Cut (v).`

'A big comedy about life's little heartaches'

Love Hurts

US 1990 115m CFI color
Vestron/Love Hurts Production (Bud Yorkin, Doro Bachrach)

Returning home for his sister's wedding, a philanderer puts his past behind him.
A botched attempt, with unsympathetic characters, to return to comic style of Capra.
w Ron Nyswaner d Bud Yorkin ph Adam Greenberg m Frank DeCaro pd Armin Ganz ed John C. Horger
☆ Jeff Daniels, Judith Ivey, John Mahoney, Cynthia Sikes, Amy Wright, Cloris Leachman, Mary Griffin, Thomas Allen

Love in Ambush

Australia/France 1997 110m colour
Becker/Fit (Jean-Pierre Ramsay Levi, David Hannay)

An Australian woman goes to Cambodia in search of her brother, who has gone missing in action, and seeks help from her former husband.
A mix of romantic and political drama, set against the rise of the Khmer Rouge and CIA deviousness, but uninvolving for all that.
w Loup Durand, David Ambrose, Christine Miller, Carl Schultz d Carl Schultz ph John Stokes m Olivier Lliboutry
pd Georgina Greenhill ed Minh-Tam Nguyen ☆ Jacques Perrin (Pascal Lasalle), Sigrid Thornton (Shelley Kincaird), Gary Sweet (Eddie Norton), Bernadette Lafont (Madeleine Carver), David Clendenning (Charles Carver), Grant Piro (Jon Kincaird), James Tolkan (Price)

Love in Black and White *

France 1920 23m bw
Saturnfilm

The cast of a travelling show fall in love with a sleeping beauty.
One of the director's lesser efforts, with a less coherent story than usual and less inspired stop-motion animation; the characters include a Charlie Chaplin doll.
wd Ladislaw Starewicz story René Buzelin
m Roger White

† The film has been released on video with the feature-length The Tale of the Fox (qv) and four other shorts under the title Ladislaw Starewicz: Selected Films.

Love in Bloom

US 1934 76m bw
Paramount

A carnival owner's daughter marries a songwriter.
Lame little romance broken up by crosstalk from Burns and Allen; an ill-considered entertainment.
w J. P. McEvoy, Keene Thompson d Elliott Nugent
☆ George Burns, Gracie Allen, Dixie Lee, Joe Morrison

'Radio pair may save their latest celluloid effort, but it won't help their future on the screen.' – Variety

♗ song 'She Loves Me Not' (m Ralph Rainger, ly Leo Robin)

A Love in Germany *

West Germany/France 1983 107m colour
Artificial Eye/CCC Filmkunst/Gaumont/TFL/Stand'Art (Arthur Brauner)

original title: Eine Liebe in Deutschland
A German woman and a Jewish prisoner-of-war fall in love during the Second World War.
Powerful drama, though it lacks a tragic dimension.
w Boleslaw Michalek, Agnieszka Holland novel Rolf Hochhuth d Andrzej Wajda ph Igor Luther m Michel Legrand ad Allan Starski, Gotz Heymann, Jurgen Henze ed Halina Prugar-Ketling ☆ Hanna Schygulla, Marie-Christine Barrault, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Elisabeth Trissenaar, Daniel Olbrychski, Piotr Lysak

Love in Las Vegas: see Viva Las Vegas

Love in the Afternoon: see L'Amour, L'Après-midi

Love in the Afternoon

US 1957 126m bw
AA (Billy Wilder)

The daughter of a private detective warns an American philanderer in Paris that an enraged husband is en route to shoot him.
Tired and dreary romantic sex comedy, miscast and far too long. With the talent around, there are of course a few compensations.
w Billy Wilder, I. A. L. Diamond novel Ariane by Claude Anet d Billy Wilder ph William Mellor m Franz Waxman ad Alexander Trauner ☆ Gary Cooper, Audrey Hepburn, Maurice Chevalier, John McGiver

Love in the Strangest Way **

France 1994 107m colour
Gala/Fildebroc/TF1/Capac/Ice (Michelle de Broca)

original title: Elles n'oublient pas
A woman takes her revenge on the married businessman who picked her up for a one-night stand.

Icy, gripping drama that follows a familiar pattern – the plot resembles that of Fatal Attraction – but spins some original and unexpected variations.
wd Christopher Frank ph Bertrand Chatry m Jean-Marie Senia ad Dominique Andre ed Catherine Dubeau ☆ Thierry L'hermitte, Maruschka Detmers, Nadia Fares
'Those who like French films, even when not sufficiently French, may well enjoy the thought of a swine slowly but surely twisting on the spit of fate.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian † Christopher Frank died before the film was edited.

Love Is a Ball
US 1962 112m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Oxford/Gold Medal (Martin H. Poll)
GB title: All This and Money Too
A Riviera matchmaker recruits instructors to train his star pupil, but one of them walks away with the lady.
Forgettable comedy in which more effort goes into the glamorous background than the script.
w David Swift, Tom and Frank Waldman novel The Grand Duke and Mr Pimm by Lindsay Hardy d David Swift ph Edmond Séchan m Michel Legrand
☆ Glenn Ford, Charles Boyer, Hope Lange, Ricardo Montalban, Telly Savalas, Ruth McDevitt, Ulla Jacobsson

Love Is a Headache
US 1938 73m bw
MGM
An actress on hard times gets a break through freak publicity.
Wholly artificial comedy, hammed up to little avail.
w Marion Parsonnet, Harry Ruskin, William Lipman, Lou Heifetz, Herbert Klein d Richard Thorpe ☆ Franchot Tone, Gladys George, Mickey Rooney, Ralph Morgan, Jessie Ralph, Ted Healy, Barnett Parker, Frank Jenks, Virginia Weidler, Fay Holden
'Dialogue is pungent, but fails to cover up slap-happy situations.' – Variety

'A love that defied five thousand years of tradition!'

Love Is a Many Splendored Thing ★
US 1955 102m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Buddy Adler)
During the Korean War, a Eurasian lady doctor in Hong Kong falls in love with a war correspondent.
Self-admittedly sentimental soaper with a tragic ending; the theme tune kept it popular for years.
w John Patrick novel Han Suyin d Henry King ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, George W. Davis
☆ Jennifer Jones, William Holden, Torin Thatcher, Isobel Elsom, Murray Matheson, Virginia Gregg, Richard Loo
♟ Alfred Newman; title song (m Sammy Fain, ly Paul Francis Webster) ♙ best picture; Leon Shamroy; Jennifer Jones; art direction

Love Is a Racket
US 1932 72m bw
Warner
GB title: Such Things Happen
A newspaperman covers up for a girl suspected of murder, but she lets him down.
Jaundiced comedy-drama of Broadway night life; quite effective.
w Courteney Terrett d William Wellman
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Frances Dee, Ann Dvorak, Lee Tracy, Lyle Talbot, Warren Hymer

Love Is Better Than Ever
US 1951 81m bw
MGM (William H. Wright)
GB title: The Light Fantastic
A small-town girl falls for a New York theatrical agent.
Only moderate production values are brought to bear on this wispy plot which shows no signs of development.
w Ruth Brooks Flippen d Stanley Donen ph Harold Rosson md Lennie Hayton ☆ Larry Parks, Elizabeth Taylor, Josephine Hutchinson, Tom Tully, Ann Doran

Love Is My Profession: see En Cas de Malheur

Love Is News ★
US 1937 78m bw
TCF (Earl Carroll, Harold Wilson)
An heiress marries a scoop-hunting reporter just to show him how embarrassing publicity can be.
Silly romantic comedy with plenty of laughs.
w Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen story William Lipman, Frederick Stephani d Tay Garnett ph Ernest Palmer md David Buttolph ad Rudolph Sternad ed Irene Morra
☆ Tyrone Power (Steve), Loretta Young (Tony), Don Ameche (M. J. Canavan), Slim Summerville (Judge Hart), Dudley Digges (Cyrus Jeffrey), Walter Catlett (Eddie Johnson), Jane Darwell (Mrs Flaherty), Stepin Fetchit (Penrod), George Sanders (Count Andre), Frank Conroy (A.G. Findlay), Elisha Cook Jnr (Egbert Eggleston)
'Fast-moving comedy and good star names. Surefire.' – Variety † Remade as Sweet Rosie O'Grady and That Wonderful Urge.

'Study for a portrait of Francis Bacon.'

Love Is the Devil ★★
GB 1998 91m colour
Artificial Eye/BBC/BFI/Première Heure/Uplink/Arts Council/Partners in Crime (Chiara Menage)
A homosexual artist begins a doomed love affair with a petty crook he discovers trying to burgle his home.
A wittily artificial biopic of Francis Bacon, which, in the absence of any of Bacon's paintings, contrives to imitate their style; it is blessed with a brilliant performance from Jacobi as the self-absorbed artist.
wd John Maybury ph John Mathieson m Ryuichi Sakamoto pd Alan Macdonald ed Daniel Goddard ☆ Derek Jacobi (Francis Bacon), Daniel Craig (George Dyer), Tilda Swinton (Muriel Belcher), Anne Lambton (Isabel Hawesthorne), Adrian Scarborough (Daniel Farson), Karl Johnson (John Deakin), Annabel Brooks (Henrietta Moraes), Richard Newbold (Blonde Billy)
'Unconventional, audacious and uncompromising in every sense.' – David Rooney, Variety

'Get Together. Fall Apart. Start Over.'

Love Jones ★ ⑦
US 1997 108m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line (Nick Wechsler, Jeremiah Samuels)
A poet who performs in a night-club becomes involved in an on-and-off affair with a photographer who has given up on love.
A small-scale romantic drama among the arty that has charm and wit, though a little too much gloss and contrivance for its own good.
wd Theodore Witcher ph Ernest Holzman m Darryl Jones pd Roger Fortune ed Maysie Hoy ☆ Larenz Tate, Nia Long, Isaiah Washington, Lisa Nicole Carson, Khalili Kain, Leonard Roberts, Bernadette L. Clarke
'A sexy and appealing love story set in the flavorsome world of black bohemians in contemporary Chicago.' – Variety

Love Lessons ★★
Sweden/Denmark 1995 128m colour
Gala/Per Holst Film original title: Lust och Fägring Stor
aka: All Things Fair
In Sweden in the early 40s, a sexually curious 15-year-old boy begins an affair with his teacher, who is married to an alcoholic salesman.
Sprightly domestic drama of inexperience and maturity, hope and despair, affectionately acted and directed.
wd Bo Widerberg ph Morten Bruus m Mahler, Beethoven et al pd Palle Arestrup ed Bo Widerberg ☆ Johan Widerberg, Marika Lagercrantz, Tomas von Brömssen, Karin Huldt, Björn Kjellman
'A highly likeable film ... has a constant sense of sexuality and sensuality.' – Gunnar Rehlin, Variety

The Love Letter
US 1999 87m Technicolor
DreamWorks (Sarah Pillsbury, Midge Sanford, Kate Capshaw)
In a small, seaside town several people imagine that an unsigned love letter is addressed to them.
Amiable, and forgettable, small-scale romantic comedy that springs no surprises.
w Maria Maggenti novel Cathleen Schine d Peter Ho-Sun Chan ph Tami Reiker m Luis Bacalov pd Andrew Jackness ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Kate Capshaw (Helen), Blythe Danner (Lillian), Ellen DeGeneres (Janet), Geraldine McEwan (Miss Scattergoods), Julianne Nicholson (Jennifer), Tom Everett Scott (Johnny), Tom Selleck (George), Gloria Stuart (Eleanor), Bill Buell (Officer Dan), Alice Drummond (Postal clerk)
'It's a flimsy excuse for a movie and therefore no surprise that the end result is as charmless and cloying as it is.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

'Blood on her hands ... love in her heart!'

Love Letters ★
US 1945 101m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)
A girl who has lost her memory through war shock is threatened by more physical danger.
Oddly unexciting romantic melodrama directed and designed in heavy but satisfying style. Typical post-war depressive fare.
w Ayn Rand novel Pity My Simplicity by Chris Massie d William Dieterle ph Lee Garmes m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Roland Anderson
☆ Jennifer Jones, Joseph Cotten, Ann Richards, Gladys Cooper, Anita Louise, Cecil Kellaway, Robert Sully, Byron Barr, Reginald Denny, Lumsden Hare
♙ Jennifer Jones; title song (m Victor Young, ly Edward Heyman); Victor Young; art direction

Love Letters ★
US 1983 89m DeLuxe
Roger Corman/Millennium
Affected by her mother's old letters revealing an unconsummated love, a twenty-two-year-old girl begins an affair with an older man.
Low-budget drama which might have worked better as a television play; but it has its memorable aspects.
wd Amy Jones ph Alec Hirschfeld m Ralph Jones
☆ Jamie Lee Curtis, James Keach, Matt Clark, Bonnie Bartlett, Bud Cort, Amy Madigan

Love Letters of a Star
US 1936 66m bw
Universal
A blackmailed rich girl takes poison.
Complicated but efficient murder mystery.
w Lewis R. Foster, Milton Carruth, James Mulhauser novel The Case of the Constant God by Rufus King d Lewis R. Foster, Milton Carruth ph Milton Krasner ed Frank Gross
☆ Henry Hunter, Polly Rowles, C. Henry Gordon, Walter Coy, Hobart Cavanaugh, Mary Alice Rice
'Good family entertainment ... ought to do all right.' – Variety

Love, Life and Laughter ★
GB 1934 83m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)
A film actress catches the eye of a Ruritanian prince.
Lively star vehicle ranging from sentiment to slapstick.
w Robert Edmunds d Maurice Elvey
☆ Gracie Fields, John Loder, Norah Howard, Allan Aynesworth, Esme Percy, Robb Wilton, Fred Duprez, Horace Kenney, Veronica Brady

'A Comic Tragedy.'

Love Liza ★
Germany/US/France 2002 89m colour
Columbia-TriStar/Kinowelt/Wild Bunch/Canal+/Muse/Blacklist (Chris Hanley, Fernando Sulichin, Ruth Charny, Jeff Rota)
After the unexpected suicide of his wife, a website designer slowly goes to pieces.
Melancholy, quirky movie graced with a good central performance but otherwise hard going and frequently baffling.
w Gordy Hoffman d Todd Louiso ph Lisa Rinzler m Jim O'Rourke pd Stephen Beatrice ed Anne Stein, Katz ☆ Philip Seymour Hoffman (Wilson Joel), Kathy Bates (Mary Ann Bankhead), Jack Kehler (Denny), Sarah Koskoff (Maura Haas), Stephen Tobolowsky (Tom Bailey), Erika Alexander (Brenda)
'May frustrate as many viewers as it delights (if not more) and it is almost relentlessly depressing, but it's also a principled, sharply realistic film that captures a highly convincing vision of Middle America.' – Andrew O'Hehir

The Love Lottery
GB 1953 83m Technicolor
Ealing (Monja Danischewsky)
A British film star is persuaded to offer himself as first prize in a lottery.
Satirical farce which doesn't come off, mainly owing to paucity of comedy ideas.
w Harry Kurnitz d Charles Crichton ph Douglas Slocombe m Benjamin Frankel pd Tom Morahan ☆ David Niven, Herbert Lom, Peggy Cummins, Anne Vernon, Charles Victor,

Gordon Jackson, Felix Aylmer, Hugh McDermott

The Love Machine

US 1971 110m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Mike Frankovich

Megalomaniac TV reporter progresses to network programme controller but is finally undone by his vivid sex life.

Stodgy, silly melodrama from a bestseller whose inspiration was well known in TV circles.

w Samuel Taylor novel Jacqueline Susann d Jack Haley Jnr ph Charles Lang Jnr m Artie Butler

☆ John Phillip Law, Dyan Cannon, Robert Ryan, Jackie Cooper, David Hemmings, Shecky Greene

The Love Match ★

GB 1955 85m bw
British Lion/Beaconsfield (Maclean Rogers)

A North Country train driver's enthusiasm for his local football team lands him in trouble at home and work.

A regional farce, full of stock characters and situations, but given some individuality by the likeable performances of its cast.

w Geoffrey Orme, Glenn Melvyn play Glenn Melvyn d David Paltenghi ph Arthur Grant m Wilfred Burns ad Bernard Robinson ed J. M. Sterling

☆ Arthur Askey, Thora Hird, Glenn Melvyn, Robb Wilton, Shirley Eaton, Edward Chapman, William Franklyn, Patricia Hayes, Maurice Kaufmann

Love Me Darling

Denmark 1971 88m Eastmancolor
Cinecenta/Gabriel Axel
original title: Med Kaerlig Hilsen

Two lovers journey through time, enjoying themselves from the Garden of Eden onwards.

A series of farcical sketches on the subject of sex, without any evidence of humour or eroticism.

wd Gabriel Axel ph Rolf Rinne m B. Fabricius Bjerre ad Erik Bjoric ed Anders Refn

☆ Buster Larsen, Birte Tove, Christian Sarvig, Lone Helmer

'Completely lacking in style or originality, the film also fails to titillate, since its actors project about as much sex-appeal as damp cardboard.' – Carol Howard, MFB

Love Me Forever

US 1935 92m bw
Columbia
GB title: On Wings of Song

A down and out singer makes good.

Fair star vehicle.

w Jo Swerling, Sidney Buchman d Victor Schertzinger ph Joe Walker md Louis Silvers

☆ Grace Moore, Leo Carrillo, Robert Allen, Spring Byington, Michael Bartlett, Thurston Hall, Douglas Dumbrille, Luis Alberni

'Gangsters and grand opera are tough to mix, but ... should be all right in major towns.' – Variety

Love Me If You Dare

France/Belgium 2003 95m colour
UGC/Nord-Ouest/StudioCanal/Artemis/France2/M6/Caneo/Media Services (Christophe Rossignon)

original title: Jeux D'Enfants

Two childhood sweethearts dare each other to prove their love by carrying out difficult or embarrassing tasks when they become adults.

Exasperating high romantic tosh about lovers who deliberately thwart their feelings for one another.

w Yann Samuell, Jacky Cuckier d Yann Samuell ph Antoine Roch m Philippe Rombi ad Jean-Michel Simonet ed Andrea Sedlackova

☆ Guillaume Canet (Julien), Marion Cotillard (Sophie), hibault Verhaeghe (Julien, Age 8), Josephine Lebas Joly (Sophie, Age 8), Emmanuelle Gronvold (Julien's Mother), Gerard Watkins (Julien's Father)

'An exquisitely irritating experience: mannered, supercilious, self-important.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Love Me or Leave Me ★★

US 1955 122m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Twenties singer Ruth Etting is befriended by a racketeer who pushes her to the top but drives her to drink and despair in the process.

Agreeably bitter showbiz biopic which gives the impression of being not too far from the truth.

w Daniel Fuchs, Isobel Lennart d Charles Vidor ph Arthur E. Arling md Percy Faith, George Stoll ad Cedric Gibbons, Urie McCleary

☆ Doris Day, James Cagney, Cameron Mitchell, Robert Keith, Tom Tully, Harry Bellaver, Richard Gaines

original story (Daniel Fuchs) script; Percy Faith, George Stoll; James Cagney; song 'I'll Never Stop Loving You' (m Nicholas Brodszky, ly Sammy Cahn)

Love Me Tender

US 1956 95m bw Cinemascope
TCF (David Weisbart)

Three brothers fall out over loot they have brought home from the Civil War.

Odd Western designed (perhaps after shooting began) as Presley's introductory vehicle; he sings four songs before getting shot, and reappears in ghostly form at the end.

w Robert Buckner d Robert D. Webb ph Leo Tover m Lionel Newman

☆ Richard Egan, Debra Paget, Elvis Presley, Robert Middleton, William Campbell, Neville Brand, Mildred Dunnock, Bruce Bennett, James Drury, Ken Clark, Barry Coe

'I understand this performance is tame compared with the one Mr Presley can put up when not handicapped by a motion picture. My concern is with a moving picture made nonsense of by him.' – C. A. Lejeune

Love Me Tonight ★★★★

US 1932 104m bw
Paramount (Rouben Mamoulian)

A Parisian tailor accidentally moves into the aristocracy.

The most fluently cinematic comedy musical ever made, with sounds and words, lyrics and music, deftly blended into a compulsively and consistently laughable mosaic of sophisticated nonsense; one better than the best of Lubitsch and Clair.

w Samuel Hoffenstein, Waldemar Young, George Marion Jnr play Tailor in the Château by Leopold Marchand and Paul Armont d Rouben Mamoulian ph Victor Milner ad Hans Dreier ed William Shea songs Rodgers and Hart

☆ Maurice Chevalier (Maurice Courtelin), Jeanette MacDonald (Princess Jeanette), Charles Butterworth (Count de Savignac), Charles Ruggles (Vicomte Gilbert de Vareze), Myrna Loy (Countess Vantine), C. Aubrey Smith (The Duke), Elizabeth Patterson (Aunt), Ethel Griffies (Aunt), Blanche Frederici (Aunt), Robert Greig (Major-Domo Flamond)

'A musical frolic, whimsical in its aim and delicately carried out in its pattern.' – Variety

'Gay, charming, witty, it is everything that the Lubitsch musicals should have been but never were.' – John Baxter, 1968

'With the aid of a pleasant story, a good musician, a talented cast and about a million dollars, he has done what someone in Hollywood should have done long ago – he has illustrated a musical score.' – Pare Lorentz

'It has that infectious spontaneity which distinguishes the American musical at its best.' – Peter Cowie, 1970

'A rich amalgam of filmic invention, witty decoration and wonderful songs.' – NFT, 1974

'What a picture! First you have Chevalier, and last you have Chevalier!' – Photoplay

† The Region 1 DVD release includes audio commentary by Miles Kreuger, Chevalier singing 'Louise' and Jeanette MacDonald singing 'Love Me Tonight'.

♫ 'Song of Paree'; 'Isn't It Romantic'; 'Lover'; 'Mimi'; 'A Woman Needs Something Like That'; 'Love Me Tonight'; 'The Son-of-a-Gun Is Nothing But a Tailor'; 'Poor Apache'

Love, Mother ★★

Hungary 1987 102m colour
Mafilm/Objektiv
original title: Csok, Anyu

A small boy plays truant from school and, using a home-made periscope and binoculars, spies on the life of his preoccupied parents and their neighbours, discovering more than it is good for him to know.

A charming and quirky comedy of the little mishaps, misbehaviours and pressures of everyday life which gradually moves into darker territory, analysing a family that is falling apart.

w Istvan Kardos d Janos Rozsa ph Elemer Ragalyi m Janos Brody

☆ Dorottya Udvaros, Robert Koltai, Sandor Gaspar, Kati Lajtai, Simon G. Gevai, Peter Andorai

The Love Nest

US 1923 22m (24 fps) bw silent
Buster Keaton Productions

Buster dreams of a solitary voyage in a small boat. Long lost but ultimately disappointing Keaton short.

wd Buster Keaton, Edward F. Cline

☆ Buster Keaton, Joe Roberts, Virginia Fox

Love Nest

US 1951 84m bw
TCF

A writer and his wife invest in an apartment building but find their tenants time-consuming.

Fairly lively comedy with varied talent.

w I. A. L. Diamond novel Scott Corbett d Joseph Newman ph Lloyd Ahern m Cyril Mockridge

☆ William Lundigan, June Haver, Frank Fay, Marilyn Monroe, Jack Paar, Leatrice Joy

Love Never Dies: see Lilac Time

The Love of Jeanne Ney ★

Germany 1927 98m (24 fps) bw silent
UFA

In the Crimea during the Russian Revolution, a political observer is accidentally killed by his daughter's lover.

Inconsistently-styled contemporary melodrama. The abiding interest is in the detailed treatment rather than the story or acting.

w Ladislas Vajda, Rudolf Leonhardt, Ilya Ehrenberg d G. W. Pabst ph Fritz Arno Wagner, Walter Robert Lach

☆ Edith Jehane, Uno Henning, Fritz Rasp, Brigitte Helm

The Love of Sunya

US 1927 80m (24 fps) bw silent
Swanson Producing Corporation

A yogi recognizes two young lovers as people he wronged in a previous existence, and warns them of impending disaster.

Star tosh of its period, unthinkable now as a screen attraction.

w Earle Brown play The Eyes of Youth by Max Marcin, Charles Guernon d Albert Parker ph Robert Martin ad Hugo Ballin

☆ Gloria Swanson, John Boles, Anders Randolf, Hugh Miller, Flobelle Fairbanks, Raymond Hackett

† Previously filmed as Eyes of Youth with Clara Kimball Young.

Love on the Dole ★★★

GB 1941 100m bw
British National (John Baxter)

Life among unemployed cotton workers in industrial Lancashire between the wars.

Vividly characterized, old-fashioned social melodrama, well made on a low budget; a rare problem picture for Britain at this time.

w Walter Greenwood, Barbara K. Emery, Rollo Gamble novel Walter Greenwood d John Baxter ph James Wilson m Richard Addinsell ad R. Holmes Paul ed Michael Chorlton

☆ Deborah Kerr (Sally Hardcastle), Clifford Evans (Larry Meath), George Carney (Mr. Hardcastle), Joyce Howard (Helen Hawkins), Frank Cellier (Sam Grundy), Geoffrey Hibbert (Harry Hardcastle), Mary Merrall (Mrs. Hardcastle), Maire O'Neill (Mrs. Dorbell), Marjorie Rhodes (Mrs. Bull), A. Bromley Davenport (Pawnbroker), Marie Ault (Mrs. Jilke), Iris Vandeleur (Mrs. Nattle), Kenneth Griffith (Tom Hare)

'Kissing and kidding their way from Mayfair to the Mediterranean in a transcontinental caravan of jollity!'

Love on the Run ★

US 1936 81m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)

Rival newspapermen help an heiress to escape an unwanted wedding and in the process uncover a ring of spies.

Harebrained star farce, smoothly assembled and still fairly funny.

w John Lee Mahin, Manuel Seff, Gladys Hurlbut d W. S. Van Dyke ph Oliver T. Marsh m Franz Waxman

☆ Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, Franchot Tone, Reginald Owen, Mona Barrie, Ivan Lebedeff, William Demarest

'Should collect its share at the gate through the sheer momentum of the Gable-Crawford combo.' – Variety

'A slightly daffy cinematic item of absolutely no importance.' – New York Times

Love on the Run ★★★

France 1979 95m Eastmancolor
Les Films du Carrosse (François Truffaut)

Antoine Doinel, separated from his family,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

is still having girl trouble.
Amorous adventure of the character first glimpsed in Les Quatre Cent Coups and presumably based on the director; fair sophisticated fun for those who appreciate the joke.
w François Truffaut, Marie-France Pisier, Jean Aurel, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Nestor Almendros m Georges Delerue pd Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko ed Martine Barraqué
☆ Jean-Pierre Léaud, Marie-France Pisier, Claude Jade, Rosy Varte

Love on Wheels
GB 1932 87m bw
Gainsborough
A department store assistant becomes publicity-conscious.
Zippy little comedy of its day.
w Victor Saville, Angus MacPhail, Robert Stevenson and Douglas Furber d Victor Saville ☆ Jack Hulbert, Edmund Gwenn, Leonora Corbett, Gordon Harker, Percy Parsons, Roland Culver, Miles Malleson

The Love Parade ★★
US 1929 112m bw
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)
The prince of Sylvania marries.
Primitive sound operetta set among the idle European rich, with clear but faded instances of the Lubitsch touch.
w Ernest Vajda, Guy Bolton play The Prince Consort by Leon Xanrof and Jules Chancel d Ernst Lubitsch ph Victor Milner ad Hans Dreier songs Victor Schertzinger, Clifford Grey ☆ Maurice Chevalier, Jeanette MacDonald, Lupino Lane, Lillian Roth, Edgar Norton, Lionel Belmore, Eugene Pallette
'The first truly cinematic screen musical in America.' – Theodore Huff
🎗 best picture; Ernst Lubitsch; Victor Milner; Maurice Chevalier; Hans Dreier

'Imagine if sex appeal came in a bottle.'
'If you've got it – you get it!'

Love Potion No. 9
US 1992 97m CFI color
TCF (Dale Launer)
Unattractive scientists discover a chemical that makes the user irresistible to the opposite sex.
Occasionally amusing teen comedy, but one that fails to develop its central idea to any effect.
wd Dale Launer ph William Wages m Jed Leiber pd Linda Pearl ed Suzanne Petit ☆ Tate Donovan, Sandra Bullock, Mary Mara, Dale Midkiff, Hillary Bailey Smith, Dylan Baker, Anne Bancroft
'A light-hearted one-joke romantic comedy that tries too hard to be cute.' – Variety

Love, Soldiers and Women
France/Italy 1953 96m bw
Franco-London/Continental original title: Destinées
US title: Daughters of Destiny
Three stories of women in war: Joan of Arc, Lysistrata, and a modern American war widow visiting her husband's grave.
Uninteresting patchwork with Lysistrata predictably stealing the show.
Jeanne
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost d Jean Delannoy with Michèle Morgan Elizabeth
w Sergio Amedei d Marcel Pagliero with Claudette Colbert, Eleanora Rossi Drago Lysistrata
w Jean Ferry, Henri Jeanson, Carlo Rim play Aristophanes d Christian-Jaque with Martine Carol, Raf Vallone, Paolo Stoppa

'The heart is a lonely hunter.'

A Love Song for Bobby Long
US 2004 119m colour
Columbia TriStar/El Camino/Crossroads (Bob Yari, R. Paul Miller, David Lancaster)
In New Orleans, the drink-soaked life of a former literature professor and his onetime assistant are altered when a young woman arrives to claim the house in which they live.
Meandering drama of misfits that invokes the work of novelist Carson McCullers, but too often imagines that quoting from famous writers is evidence of profundity.
wd Shainee Gabel novel Off Magazine Street by Ronald Everett Capps ph Elliot Davis m Nathan Larson pd Sharon Lomofsky ed Lee Percy, Lisa Fruchtman
☆ John Travolta (Bobby Long), Scarlett Johansson (Pursy Will), Gabriel Macht (Lawson Pines), Deborah Kara Unger (Georgianna), Dane Rhodes (Cecil)
'Another example of Hollywood's going soft and squishy when it goes South.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Love Story
GB 1944 112m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Harold Huth)
US title: A Lady Surrenders
In Cornwall during World War II, a half-blind airman falls for a pianist with a weak heart.
Novelettish love story which became popular because of its Cornish Rhapsody.
w Leslie Arliss, Doreen Montgomery, Rodney Ackland novel J. W. Drawbell d Leslie Arliss ph Bernard Knowles m Hubert Bath
☆ Margaret Lockwood, Stewart Granger, Patricia Roc, Tom Walls, Reginald Purdell, Moira Lister
'A splendid, noble and fatuous piece.' – C. A. Lejeune
'In psychology and dialogue this is straight out of Mabel's Weekly.' – Richard Winnington

Love Story: see Une Histoire d'Amour (1951)

Love Story ★
US 1970 100m Movielab
Paramount (David Golden)
Two students marry; she dies.
A barrage of ripe old Hollywood clichés spiced with new-fangled bad language. In the circumstances, well enough made, and certainly astonishingly popular.
w Erich Segal novelette Erich Segal d Arthur Hiller ph Dick Kratina m Bach, Mozart, Handel md Francis Lai ☆ Ali MacGraw, Ryan O'Neal, Ray Milland, John Marley
'Camille with bullshit.' – Alexander Walker
🎗 Francis Lai
🎗 best picture; Erich Segal; Arthur Hiller; Ali MacGraw; Ryan O'Neal; John Marley

Love Streams
US 1984 141m Metrocolor
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)
A distraught woman whose marriage has gone sour moves in with her philandering brother.
Elongated study of two life styles, not so shapeless as most Cassavetes films, but not exactly dramatic or endearing either.
w Ted Allan, John Cassavetes play Ted Allan d John Cassavetes ph Al Ruban m Bo Harwood ad Phedon Papamichael ed George C. Villasenor
☆ Gena Rowlands, John Cassavetes, Diahnne Abbott, Seymour Cassel, Margaret Abbott

The Love Test
GB 1935 63m bw
Fox British (Leslie L. Landau)
Research scientists plot to prevent a woman from taking over as head of the laboratory by selecting one of their number to seduce her.
Competent, if unoriginal, comedy with an occasional directorial touch that lifts it out of the very ordinary.
w Selwyn Jepson story Jack Celestin d Michael Powell ph Arthur Crabtree ☆ Judy Gunn, Louis Hayward, David Hutcheson, Googie Withers, Morris Harvey, Aubrey Dexter, Gilbert Davis, Bernard Miles
'A light, bright romantic comedy.' – Variety

Love That Brute
US 1950 85m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)
A ruthless Chicago gangleader is actually a softy, leaving his supposedly rubbed-out enemies in a comfortable cellar; a young governess persuades him to reform.
Rickety, dully-scripted gangster farce.
w Darrell Ware, John Lee Mahin, Karl Tunberg d Alexander Hall ph Lloyd Ahern m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Paul Douglas, Jean Peters, Cesar Romero, Joan Davis, Arthur Treacher

Love Thy Neighbour ★
US 1940 81m bw
Paramount
Two radio comics fall out.
Curious mixture of fact and fiction, basing its plot on the publicity feud between Benny and Allen, who appear 'in character' as themselves.
w William Morrow, Edmund Beloin, Ernest Pagano, Z. Myers pd Mark Sandrich
☆ Jack Benny, Fred Allen, Mary Martin, Eddie Anderson, Verree Teasdale, Virginia Dale, Richard Denning

Love Thy Neighbour
GB 1973 85m Technicolor
EMI/Hammer (Roy Skeggs)
A prejudiced white worker has coloured neighbours.
Elongated screen version of the popular TV series in which the West Indians smile through all the insults and come out top in the end. It might have been worse, but not much.
w Vince Powell, Harry Driver d John Robins ph Moray Grant m Albert Elms ☆ Jack Smethurst, Kate Williams, Rudolph Walker, Nina Baden-Semper, Bill Fraser, Charles Hyatt, Keith Marsh, Patricia Hayes, Arthur English

Love under Fire
US 1937 75m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)
A detective catches up with a lady jewel thief in Madrid during the Spanish Civil War.
Adequately entertaining but rather tasteless adventure comedy.
w Gene Fowler, Allen Rivkin, Ernest Pascal play Walter Hackett d George Marshall ph Ernest Palmer m Arthur Lange ☆ Loretta Young, Don Ameche, Frances Drake, Walter Catlett, John Carradine, Borrah Minevitch and his Rascals, Sig Rumann, Harold Huber, E. E. Clive, Katherine de Mille
'Melodrama with music cooked up for the duals.' – Variety

Love! Valour! Compassion! ★
US 1997 110m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Fine Line (Doug Chapin, Barry Krost)
Eight homosexual friends and lovers get together for three weekend house parties.
Witty, occasionally poignant, account of shifting relationships in the shadow of AIDS.
w Terrence McNally play Terrence McNally d Joe Mantello ph Alik Sakharov m Harold Wheeler pd François Séguin ed Colleen Sharp ☆ Jason Alexander, Randy Becker, Stephen Bogardus, John Glover, John Benjamin Hickey, Justin Kirk, Stephen Spinella
'A perceptive, often hilarious look at life in the AIDS era.' – Variety

'There is a moment ... a long moment ... when everything is risked with the proper stranger!'

Love with the Proper Stranger ★★
US 1964 100m bw
Paramount/Boardwalk (Alan J. Pakula)
A musician tries to help his pregnant shopgirl friend get an abortion, but they decide to get married instead.
Oddly likeable comedy drama set on New York's Italian East Side, with an excellent location sense.
w Arnold Schulman d Robert Mulligan ph Milton Krasner m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Steve McQueen, Natalie Wood, Tom Bosley, Edie Adams, Herschel Bernardi
🎗 Arnold Schulman; Milton Krasner; Natalie Wood

'In her heart she embraced it. In her soul she feared it.'

Loved
US 1996 103m DeLuxe
Downtown/Crosslight/MDP/Clyde Is Hungry/Palisades (Philippe Caland, Sean Penn)
A woman testifies against her former boyfriend, a serial abuser of women.
Enigmatic exploration of obsessive female–male relationships, which never quite clarifies the issues, despite a strong central performance.
wd Erin Dignam ph Reynaldo Villalobos m David Baerwald pd Barry Robison ed Gillian Hutchings, David Rogow, Ann Trulove
☆ William Hurt, Robin Wright Penn, Amy Madigan, Lucinda Jenny, Joanna Cassidy, Paul Dooley, Anthony Lucero, Jennifer Rubin, Sean Penn
'Deserves kudos for eschewing standard entertainment values.' – Ken Eisner, Variety

The Loved One ★
US 1965 118m bw
MGM/Filmways (Neil Hartley)
A young English poet in California gets a job at a very select burial ground.
A pointed satire on the American way of death has been allowed to get out of hand, with writer and actors alike laying it on too thick; but there are pleasantly waspish moments in a movie advertised as 'the motion picture with something to offend everybody'.
w Terry Southern, Christopher Isherwood novel Evelyn Waugh d Tony Richardson ph Haskell Wexler m John Addison pd Rouben Ter-Arutunian ☆ Robert Morse, John Gielgud, Rod Steiger,

Liberace, Anjanette Comer, Jonathan Winters, Dana Andrews, Milton Berle, James Coburn, Tab Hunter, Margaret Leighton, Roddy McDowall, Robert Morley, Lionel Stander

'Even a chaotic satire like this is cleansing, and it's embarrassing to pan even a bad movie that comes out against God, mother and country.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

'A spineless farrago of collegiate gags.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'A sinking ship that makes it to port because everyone on board is too giddy to panic.' – New Yorker, 1978

'The Meanest ... Roughest ... Toughest ... Gang Ever To Hit The Screen! Muscles Clad In Black Leather ... Incest ... And Murder!'
'Sworn To Fun ... Loyal To None!!!'

The Loveless

US 1983 83m colour
Mainline/Pioneer Films (Grafton Nunes, A. Kitman Ho)

In the 1950s, a gang of bikers cause problems in a small Southern town.

Arty (the settings are reminiscent of the paintings of Edward Hopper), derivative and inconsequential drama.

wd Kathryn Bigelow, Monty Montgomery ph Doyle Smith m Robert Gordon pd Lilly Kivert ed Nancy Kantner

☆ Willem Dafoe, Robert Gordon, Marin Kanter, J. Don Ferguson, Tina L'Hotsky

'If you're hoping for the perfect family, don't hold your breath...'

Lovely & Amazing ★

US 2001 89m colour
Metro Tartan/Blow Up/Good Machine/Roadside Attractions (Anthony Bregman, Eric d'Arbeloff, Ted Hope)

A self-absorbed mother with two grown-up, discontented daughters adopts a young black girl.

Brisk and engaging comedy about women's insecurities, particularly in their dealings with men and each other.

wd Nicole Holofcener ph Harlan Bosmajian m Craig Richey pd Devorah Herbert ed Rob Frazen

☆ Catherine Keener (Michelle Marks), Brenda Blethyn (Jane Marks), Emily Mortimer (Elizabeth Marks), Raven Goodwin (Annie Marks), Aunjaue Ellis (Lorraine), Clark Gregg (Bill), Jake Gyllenhaal (Jordan), James LeGros (Paul), Michael Nouri (Dr Crane), Dermot Mulroney (Kevin McCabe)

'Intelligent and funny but a little unfocussed.' – David Denby, New Yorker

'A frustrating and disappointing film.' – Peter Brtadshaw, Guardian

† The film was shot on high definition video.

Lovely Rita ★

Austria/Germany 2001 80m colour
ICA/Coop 99/Essential/Prisma (Antonin Svoboda, Philippe Bober, Heinz Stussak)

In the suburbs of Vienna, a confused teenage girl experiments with sex before turning her anger on to preoccupied parents.

Chilling, small-scale study of suburban teenage angst and anomie, and the discovery that freedom can be more frightening than convention.

wd Jessica Hausner ph Martin Gschlacht ad Katharina Woeppermann ed Karin Hartusch

☆ Barbara Osika (Rita), Christoph Bauer (Fexi), Peter Fiala (Bus driver), Wolfgang Kostal (Rita's father), Karina Brandlmayer (Rita's mother)

'A deliciously observed, ironic take on middle-class Austrian life.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Lovely to Look At: see Thin Ice (1937)

Lovely to Look At ★

US 1952 102m Technicolor
MGM (Jack Cummings)

Three Broadway producers inherit a Paris fashion house.

Lavish but dullish remake of Roberta (qv), in itself no great shakes as a storyline; again the fashions and the numbers are the thing.

w George Wells, Harry Ruby d Mervyn Le Roy ph George J. Folsey m Jerome Kern ad Cedric Gibbons, Gabriel Scognamillo

☆ Howard Keel, Kathryn Grayson, Ann Miller, Red Skelton, Marge and Gower Champion, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Kurt Kasznar

♫ 'Lovely to Look At'; 'I'll Be Hard to Handle'; 'Yesterdays'; 'The Most Exciting Night'; 'You're Devastating'; 'I Won't Dance'; 'Smoke Gets in Your Eyes'; 'The Touch of Your Hand'.

A Lovely Way to Die

US 1968 98m Techniscope
Universal (Richard Lewis)
GB title: A Lovely Way to Go

An ex-cop becomes bodyguard to a suspected murderess, but proves her innocent.

Offbeat mélange of caper comedy, black farce, private eye detection, courtroom drama, spectacular action and routine thick ear. Doesn't work.

w A. J. Russell d David Lowell Rich ph Morris Hartzband m Kenyon Hopkins

☆ Kirk Douglas, Sylva Koscina, Eli Wallach, Martyn Green, Kenneth Haigh, Sharon Farrell

'The net result is rather as though Philip Marlowe had met Doris Day on his not very inspiring way to the forum.' – MFB

A Lovely Way to Go: see A Lovely Way to Die

The Lover: see L'Amant

A Lover and His Lass ★

Sweden 1975 90m Eastmancolor
SF/SFI (Bengt Forslund, Olle Hellbom, Olle Nordemar) original title: En Kille Och En Tjej
aka: Boy Meets Girl

The amorous adventures of a hypochrondriac unemployed journalist.

Pleasant comedy about the slow maturing of a young drifter.

w Lasse Hallström, Lasse Brännström d Lasse Hallström ph Eddie Akberg, Lasse Ulander m Berndt Egerbladh ad Stig Limer ed Lasse Hallström

☆ Lasse Brännström, Mariann Rudberg, Christer 'Bonzo' Jonsson, Börje Ahlstedt, Roland Hedlund, Chatarina Larsson, Anna Godenus, Gun Jönsson

Lover Boy: see Knave of Hearts

Lover Come Back

US 1946 90m bw
Universal (Howard Benedict)

When a war correspondent returns, his wife discovers that he hasn't been so lonely overseas as he might have been.

Very tolerable star comedy which at the time seemed quite fresh.

w Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano d William A. Seiter ph Joseph Valentine m Hans J. Salter

☆ George Brent, Lucille Ball, Vera Zorina, Charles Winninger, Carl Esmond, Raymond Walburn, Franklin Pangborn, Louise Beavers

'Should chalk up good grosses in most situations.' – Variety

Lover Come Back ★★★

US 1961 107m Eastmancolor
U-I/Seven Pictures/Nob Hill/Arwin (Stanley Shapiro, Marty Melcher)

Rival executives find themselves advertising a non-existent product.

Fairly sharp advertising satire disguised as a romantic comedy; the most entertaining of the Day-Hudson charmers.

w Stanley Shapiro, Paul Henning d Delbert Mann ph Arthur E. Arling m Frank de Vol ad Robert Clatworthy, Alexander Golitzen ed Marjorie Fowler

☆ Doris Day (Carol Templeton), Rock Hudson (Jerry Webster/Doctor Linus Tyler), Tony Randall (Peter 'Pete' Ramsey), Jack Oakie (J. Paxton Miller), Edie Adams (Rebel Davis)

'One of the brightest, most delightful satiric comedies... the funniest picture of the year.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

Stanley Shapiro, Paul Henning

Loverboy

US 1989 99m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Crescent Film Enterprises (Gary Foster, Willie Hunt)

A pizza delivery boy pays his way through college by becoming a lover to his female customers.

Feeble comedy with little wit or sense.

w Robin Schiff, Tom Ropelewski, Leslie Dixon d Joan Micklin Silver ph John Davis m Michel Colombier pd Dan Leigh ed Rick Shaine

☆ Patrick Dempsey, Kate Jackson, Kirstie Alley, Carrie Fisher, Robert Ginty, Nancy Valen, Charles Hunter Walsh, Barbara Carrera

'The material often suggests a crude and juvenile variation on The Graduate.' – MFB

The Lovers: see Les Amants (1958)

The Lovers

GB 1972 89m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Gildor (Maurice Foster)

A Manchester bank clerk with a prim girlfriend finds it difficult to lose his virginity.

Well-written but rather arch comedy which seemed much funnier and fresher as a TV series.

w Jack Rosenthal d Herbert Wise ph Bob Huke m Carl Davis

☆ Richard Beckinsale, Paula Wilcox, Joan Scott, Susan Littler, John Comer, Stella Moray, Nikolas Simmonds

'This landlady has more than just rent on her mind.'

Lovers ★

Spain 1991 103m colour
Mainline/TVE/Pedro Costa

original title: Amantes

In the 1950s, a young Spanish man finds himself torn between his virginal fiancée and the sexy, sophisticated widow with whom he lodges.

Overheated and old-fashioned drama that becomes increasingly melodramatic as it continues.

w Carlos Perez, Alvaro Del Amo, Vicente Aranda d Vicente Aranda ph José Luis Alcaine m José Nieto ad Josep Rosell ed Teresa Font

☆ Victoria Abril, Jorge Sanz, Maribel Verdu, Enrique Cerro, Mabel Escano, José Cerro, Gabriel Latorre

'A nicely photographed, well-dressed, at times distinctly tedious love triangle thriller.' – Empire

Lovers

France/GB 1999 100m colour
Toloda/Bar-Nothing/TF1/Canal+/Film4 (Pascal Arnold, Jean-Marc Barr)

In Paris, a bookshop assistant falls in love with a Yugoslavian artist.

Intense romantic drama that becomes too claustrophobic in its concentration on the momentary moods of its lovers; it provides so little information about either that their relationship and predicaments fail to interest.

w Pascal Arnold, Jean-Marc Barr d Jean-Marc Barr ad Francoise Rabut ed Brian Schmitt

☆ Elodie Bouchez (Jeanne), Serguci Trifunovic (Dragan), Genevieve Page (Alice), Dragan Nicolic (Zlatan), Thibault de Montalembest (Jean-Michel)

† It was filmed with handheld cameras using available light, under the rules of Dogme 95.

Lovers and Other Strangers ★★★

US 1970 104m Metrocolor
ABC/David Susskind

After living together for eighteen months, Susan and Mike decide to get married, and find their parents have sex problems of their own.

Wise, witty and well-acted sex farce, with many actors making the most of ample chances under firm directorial control.

w Renée Taylor, Joseph Bologna, David Zelag Goodman d Cy Howard ph Andrew Laszlo m Fred Karlin ed David Bretherton, Sidney Katz

☆ Gig Young (Hal Henderson), Anne Jackson (Cathy), Richard Castellano (Frank Vecchio), Bonnie Bedelia (Susan Henderson), Michael Brandon (Mike Vecchio), Beatrice Arthur (Bea Vecchio), Robert Dishy (Jerry), Harry Guardino (Johnny), Diane Keaton (Joan), Cloris Leachman (Bernice), Anne Meara (Wilma), Marian Hailey (Brenda)

'An extremely engaging comedy.' – Gillian Hartnoll song 'For All We Know' (m Fred Karlin, ly Robb Wilson, Arthur James) script, Richard Castellano

Lovers Courageous

US 1932 78m bw
MGM

An unsuccessful playwright covets the admiral's daughter.

Heavily-titled comedy with good performances of the period.

w Frederick Lonsdale d Robert Z. Leonard

☆ Robert Montgomery, Madge Evans, Roland Young, Frederick Kerr, Reginald Owen, Halliwell Hobbes, Alan Mowbray

'There is no such thing as safe sex.'

Lovers Lane

US colour
Iris/Seattle Pacific (Geof Miller, Rory Veal)

video title: I'm Still Waiting For You

On Valentine's Day, a mad killer escapes and begins to kill high-school students who

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

gather in a favourite lovers' hangout.
Uninventive slasher movie of no distinguishable merit or purpose.
w Rory Veal, Geof Miller d Jon Ward ph Lon Magdich m BC Smith pd Linda Sue LaRose ed John David Dagnen
☆ Erin J. Dean (Mandy Anderson), Sarah Lancaster (Chloe Grefe), Riley Smith (Michael Lamson), Anna Faris (Jannelle), Matt Riedy (Tom Anderson), Richard Sanders (Jack Grefe), Brian Allemand (Ward Lamson)

Lovers Like Us: see Call Him Savage

Lovers Must Learn: see Rome Adventure

The Lovers of Lisbon ★

France 1954 112m bw
EGC/Hoche/Fides (Jacques Gauthier) original title: Les Amants du Tage
A man who has killed his unfaithful wife is acquitted of murder, gets a job as a taxi driver in Lisbon, and falls for a rich Englishwoman who has killed her husband and is being pursued by a police inspector.
Pretentious tosh with a few compensations.
w Marcel Rivet novel Joseph Kessel d Henri Verneuil ph Roger Hubert m Lucien Legrand
☆ Daniel Gélin, Françoise Arnoul, Trevor Howard, Ginette Leclerc, Marcel Dalio

Lovers of Montparnasse ★

France 1958 110m bw
Franco London Films (Ralph Baum)
original title: Les Amants de Montparnasse
US title: Modigliani of Montparnasse
Alcoholic and ill, Modigliani pursues his art and the young woman who inspires him to paint.
Moderate biopic, though with an unconvincing performance from Philipe.
w Jacques Becker, Max Ophuls, Henri Jeanson novel Les Montparnos by Michel Georges Michel d Jacques Becker ph Christian Matras m Paul Misraki pd J. A. d'Eaubonne ed Marguerite Renoir ☆ Gérard Philipe, Lilli Palmer, Léa Padovani, Lino Ventura, Anouk Aimée

'Destiny cannot be denied.'

Lovers of the Arctic Circle ★★★

Spain/France 1998 108m colour Super 35
Metro Tartan/Alicia/Bailando en la Luna/Sogetel (Fernando Bovaira, Enrique Lopez Lavinge) original title: Los Amantes del Circulo Polar
The lives of a man and a woman interlock from their first meeting in childhood, but their later attempts to meet one another are frustrated.
An unusual, lyrical movie about predestination, and the way one life links unexpectedly with another; it is also a charmingly romantic tale of loves lost and won.
wd Julio Medem ph Gonzalo F. Berridi m Alberto Iglesias pd Satur Udarreta, Karmele Soler, Estibaliz Markiegi, Itziar Arrieta ed Ivan Aledo ☆ Najwa Nimri (Ana), Fele Martinez (Otto), Nancho Nova (Alvaro), Maru Valdivieslo (Olga), Peru Medem (Otto as a child), Sara Valiente (Ana as a child), Victor Hugo Oliveira (Adolescent Otto), Kristel Diaz (Adolescent Ana), Pep Munné (Javier)
'It never loses the air of a dispassionate exercise, arranged by its creator according to an oppressively rigid pattern of his own.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times

The Lovers of Toledo

Italy/France/Spain 1952 82m bw
EGE/Lux/Athenea (Raymond Eger)
In 1825 a cruel police chief releases a political prisoner in return for the hand in marriage of his mistress.
Curiously unpersuasive period melodrama with good credits but too many international cooks.
w Claude Vermorel story Le Coffre et le Revenant by Stendhal d Henri Decoin ph Michel Kelber m Jean-Jacques Grunenwald ☆ Pedro Armendariz, Alida Valli, Gérard Landry, Françoise Arnoul

The Lovers of Verona: see Les Amants de Vérone

Lovers on the Pont-Neuf: see Les Amants du Pont-Neuf

Love's a Bitch: see Amores Perros

'A New Spin On The Old Song and Dance.'

Love's Labours Lost ★

GB/France/US 2000 94m colour Super 35
Pathé/Intermedia/Shakespeare/Arts Council/Canal+/Miramax (David Barron, Kenneth Branagh)
In 1939, the King of Navarre goes on a celibate retreat into the woods with three friends; then the Princess of France arrives with three female companions.
Lively attempt to revive the Hollywood musical, though why the 30s melodies were hung upon the bare bones of Shakespeare's comedy is hard to understand; the result is a lightweight romantic romp with songs that have been better sung elsewhere.
wd Kenneth Branagh play William Shakespeare ph Alex Thomson m Patrick Doyle m/ly Irving Berlin, George Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Cole Porter ch Stuart Hopps pd Tim Harvey ed Neil Farrell, Dan Farrell cos Anna Buruma ☆ Alessandro Nivola (King), Alicia Silverstone (Princess), Natascha McElhone (Rosaline), Kenneth Branagh (Berowne), Carmen Ejogo (Maria), Matthew Lillard (Longaville), Adrian Lester (Dumaine), Emily Mortimer (Katherine), Richard Briers (Nathaniel), Geraldine McEwan (Holofernia), Stefania Rocca (Jaquenetta), Jimmy Yuill (Costard), Timothy Spall (Don Armado), Anthony O'Donnell (Moth)
'The result is not a classic, but it is fun: short, sharp and fast-paced.' – Derek Malcolm, Screen International
♫ I'd Rather Charleston; I Get a Kick Out of You; I Won't Dance; No Strings; Cheek to Cheek; The Way You Look Tonight; I've Got a Crush on You; Let's Face the Music and Dance; There's No Business Like Show Business; They Can't Take That Away From Me

Loves of a Blonde ★★★

Czechoslovakia 1965 82m bw
Barrandov Studios original title: Lasky Jedne Plavovlasky
aka: A Blonde in Love
A factory girl falls for a visiting musician but meets suspicion from his family when she pursues him.
Mild anecdote with excellent humorous detail which endeared it to international critics.
w Milos Forman, Jaroslav Papousek, Ivan Passer d Milos Forman ph Miroslav Ondricek m Evzen Illin ad Karel Cerny ed Miroslav Hajek
☆ Hanna Brejchova (Andula), Vladimir Pucholt (Milda), Vladimír Mensík (Vacivsky), Ivan Kheil (Manas), Jiri Hruby (Burda)
'It depends on an instinctive sense of timing and a consistent vision of life and people.' – Georges Sadoul
Academy Award best foreign film

The Loves of Carmen

US 1948 99m Technicolor
Columbia (Charles Vidor)
In 1820s Seville, a dragoon corporal is enslaved by a gypsy, kills her husband and becomes an outlaw.
Unrewarding version of the original much-filmed story, with both stars plainly wishing they were elsewhere.
w Helen Deutsch novel Prosper Mérimée d Charles Vidor ph William Snyder m Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco ☆ Rita Hayworth, Glenn Ford, Victor Jory, Ron Randell, Luther Adler, Arnold Moss, Margaret Wycherly, Bernard Nedell
Academy Award William Snyder

The Loves of Count Iorga, Vampire: see Count Yorga Vampire

The Loves of Edgar Allan Poe

US 1942 67m bw
TCF (Bryan Foy)
The famous writer marries his childhood sweetheart but becomes an alcoholic.
A curiosity which fails to bring out the bizarre truth and emerges as a stilted charade.
w Samuel Hoffenstein, Tom Reed d Harry Lachman ph Lucien Andriot m Emil Newman
☆ John Shepperd, Linda Darnell, Virginia Gilmore, Jane Darwell, Frank Conroy, Henry Morgan

The Loves of Isadora: see Isadora

The Loves of Joanna Godden

GB 1947 89m bw
Ealing (Sidney Cole)
On Romney Marsh at the turn of the century, a woman farmer has three suitors.
Dullish 'woman's picture'.
w H. E. Bates, Angus Macphail novel Sheila Kaye-Smith d Charles Frend ph Douglas Slocombe m Ralph Vaughan Williams md Ernest Irving ad Duncan Sutherland ed Michael Truman cos Mark Luker
☆ Googie Withers (Joanna Godden), John McCallum (Arthur Alce), Jean Kent (Ellen Godden), Derek Bond (Martin Trevor), Chips Rafferty (Collard), Henry Mollison (Harry Trevor), Sonia Holm (Louise), Edward Rigby (Stuppen), Josephine Stuart (Grace Wickens)
'Made with sincerity, and its outdoor backgrounds abound in freshness and beauty, but I felt that it faltered because the script writers and the director permitted themselves to become so obsessed by the landscape and local colour that they regarded the plot as somewhat of a hindrance to their documentary explorations.' – Ewart Hodgson, News of the World
† Robert Hamer directed some scenes.

The Loves of Salammbo: see Salambo

Lovesick

US 1983 96m Technicolor
Warner/Ladd (Charles Okun)
A New York psychiatrist in love with a patient is guided by the ghost of Sigmund Freud.
Depressing comedy with a non-star and supporting players who must have been embarrassed.
wd Marshall Brickman ph Gerry Fisher m Philippe Sarde pd Philip Rosenberg ☆ Dudley Moore (Saul Benjamin), Elizabeth McGovern (Chloe Allen), Alec Guinness (Sigmund Freud), John Huston, Larry Rivers, Gene Saks, Renee Taylor, Alan King
'Flat, lamebrained and indigestible.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

'To get a date with the guy of her dreams, one girl is really going overboard....'

Lovewrecked ③

US 2006 86m
Delanic Films/Media 8 Entertainment/Bacon & Eggs (Joe Anderson, Stewart Hall, Sammy Lee, Wendy Thorlakson, Robert Velo)
A love-struck teenager pretends to be marooned on a desert island in order to seduce her favourite singer.
Forgettable vehicle for US television actress Bynes, with a plot that strains credulity from the opening reel.
w Stephen Langford d Randal Kleiser ph Gary Capo pd Damien Byrne ad Jon Deprudhoe
☆ Amanda Bynes (Jenny Taylor), Chris Carmack (Jason Masters), Jonathan Bennett (Ryan Howell), Jamie-Lynn DiScala (Alexis Manetti), Fred Willard (Ben Taylor), Alfonso Ribeiro (Brent Hernandez)
'An amiable piece of pure pop bubblegum... Silly, but fun.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'So predictable and derivative even its target audience of young teens will feel insulted.' – Ian Johns, Times
† The film did not receive a theatrical release in the US.

Lovin' Molly ★

US 1973 98m Movielab
Stephen Friedman (David Golden)
In Texas between 1925 and 1945, two men friends and an accommodating lady have a shifting relationship.
Odd little drama compendium, with fragments told by each in turn; too slight in structure and substance for complete success, but interesting most of the way.
w Stephen Friedman novel Leaving Cheyenne by Larry McMurtry d Sidney Lumet ph Edward Brown m Fred Hellerman ☆ Blythe Danner, Anthony Perkins, Beau Bridges, Edward Binns, Susan Sarandon Loving ★★

US 1970 90m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Brooks Ltd (Don Devlin)
A commercial artist reaches crisis point with both his wife and his mistress.
Smart New Yorkish sex comedy, typical of many but better than most.
w Don Devlin novel Brooks Wilson Ltd by J. M. Ryan d Irvin Kershner ph Gordon Willis m Bernardo Segall pd Walter Scott Herndon
☆ George Segal, Eva Marie Saint, Sterling Hayden, Keenan Wynn, Nancie Phillips, Janis Young, David Doyle

Loving Couples ★

Sweden 1964 118m bw
Sandrew (Rune Waldekranz) original title: älskande Par
Three expectant mothers think back over their sex lives.

Superbly made, rather hollow diatribe against sex, presented as a series of intricate flashbacks. Along the way, there is much to enjoy, but the result is not really a film of importance.
w Mai Zetterling, David Hughes novel Froknarna von Pahlen by Agnes von Krusenstjerna d Mai Zetterling ph Sven Nykvist m Rodger Wallis
☆ Harriet Andersson, Gunnel Lindblom, Anita Bjork, Gunnar Bjornstrand, Eva Dahlbeck, Frank Sundstrom, Inga Landgre
'...that air of packaged neurosis so peculiar to the Swedish cinema.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Loving Couples
US 1980 98m Metrocolor
Time Life (Renee Valente)
Man-and-wife doctors decide to liven up their lives by having affairs.
Embarrassingly with-it romantic charade.
w Martin Donovan d Jack Smight ph Philip Lathrop m Fred Karlin ☆ Shirley MacLaine, James Coburn, Susan Sarandon, Stephen Collins, Sally Kellerman

Loving in the Rain
France/Italy/West Germany 1973 90m Eastmancolor
Lira Films/Terra Film (Raymond Danon) original title: Un Amour de Pluie
A mother and her teenage daughter both experience a holiday love affair.
An inconsequential romance involving inconsequential people.
w Jean-Claude Brialy, Yves Simon d Jean-Claude Brialy ph Andreas Winding m Francis Lai ed Eva Zorn
☆ Romy Schneider, Nino Castelnuovo, Mehdi, Benedicte Bucher, Suzanne Flon

Loving You
US 1957 101m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis
A press agent signs a young hillbilly singer to give zest to her husband's band.
Empty-headed, glossy star vehicle.
w Herbert Baker, Hal Kanter d Hal Kanter ph Charles Lang Jnr m Walter Scharf ☆ Elvis Presley, Lizabeth Scott, Wendell Corey, Dolores Hart, James Gleason

A Low Down Dirty Shame
US 1994 100m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Joe Roth, Roger Birnbaum)
A private eye investigates the South American drug dealer who cost him his job as a Los Angeles cop.
An action comedy that fails on both counts, unless you find men with guns inherently amusing.
wd Keenen Ivory Wayans ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Marcus Miller pd Robb Wilson King ed John F. Link ☆ Keenen Ivory Wayans, Charles S. Dutton, Jada Pinkett, Salli Richardson, Andrew Divoff, Corwin Hawkins, Gary Cervantes, Gregory Sierra
'A predictable and sluggishly paced plot with obligatory car chases and shoot-outs.' – Lizzie Francke

Lower City ★
Brazil/UK 2005 98m colour
Verve/Buena Onda/VideoFilmes (Mauricio Andrade Ramos, Walter Salles) original title: Cidade Baixa
Two sailors fall out when they both become infatuated with the same prostitute.
Intensely acted drama of sex and jealousy that follows a familiar pattern.
w Sergio Machado, Karim Ainouz d Sergio Machado ph Toca Seabra m Carlinhos Brown, Beto Villares pd Marcos Pedroso ed Isabela Monteiro de Castro
☆ Alice Braga (Karinna), Lazaro Ramos (Deco), Wagner Moura (Naldinho), Jose Dumont (Man at Cock Fight)
'Violent, passionate, erotic film with a steamy atmosphere that hits you in the face like an unwashed bar-cloth from a backstreet dive.' – Philip French, Observer

The Lower Depths: see Les Bas-fonds (1936)

The Lower Depths ★★
Japan 1957 124m bw
Toho
original title: Donzoko
An elderly pilgrim moves into a hovel and changes the lives of the derelicts who live there.
Effectively unsentimental, claustrophobic version of life at the bottom, although it betrays its theatrical origins, with more talk than action.
w Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Oguni play Maxim Gorky d Akira Kurosawa ph Ichio Yamazaki m Masaru Sato
☆ Isuzu Yamada, Toshiro Mifune, Bokuzen Hidari, Kyoko Kagawa, Akemi Nigishi, Nijiko Kiyokawa
'Lesser Kurosawa, but still high-quality cinema.' – Empire

Lucas
US 1986 100m DeLuxe
TCF (David Nicksay)
A studious 14-year-old boy tries for the football team after falling for a new 16-year-old girl at school.
Pleasant little movie about the problems of growing up, though it steers clear of reality and tries too hard to be charming.
wd David Seltzer ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Dave Grusin ad James Murakami ed Priscilla Nedd
☆ Corey Haim, Kerri Green, Charlie Sheen, Courtney Thorne-Smith, Winona Ryder, Guy Boyd

Luci del Varieta: see Lights of Variety

Lucia y El Sexo: see Sex and Lucia

Lucie Aubrac ★★
France 1997 116m colour Technovision
Pathé/Renn/TF1/DA/Pricel (Patrick Bordier)
A French woman is determined to liberate from prison her husband, a leading member of the Resistance, who has been sentenced to death by the Gestapo.
An emotional romance set against wartime privations and tribulations, all the more moving because it is based on a true story.
wd Claude Berri book Outwitting the Gestapo by Lucie Aubrac ph Vincenzo Marano m Philippe Sarde ad Olivier Radot ed Hervé de Luze ☆ Carole Bouquet, Daniel Auteuil, Patrice Chéreau, Eric Boucher, Jean-Roger Milo, Heino Ferch
'Tethered by a detached tone and directorial restraint, ultimately rendering a potential heart-wrenching yarn decidedly lacklustre.' – Ian Freer, Empire † Juliette Binoche was replaced in the title role after several weeks' shooting.

The Luck of Ginger Coffey ★
Canada/US 1964 100m bw
Crawley/Roth-Kershner (Leon Roth)
An Irish layabout in Canada finds it difficult to keep a job or protect his family.
Mildly interesting character study with good background detail of Montreal.
w Brian Moore novel Brian Moore d Irvin Kershner ph Manny Wynn m Bernardo Segall
☆ Robert Shaw, Mary Ure, Liam Redmond

The Luck of the Irish ★
US 1948 99m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)
A New York newsman's love life is complicated by a helpful leprechaun he meets in Ireland.
Hollywood moonshine, second class: the will and the players are there, but the script is not funny enough.
w Philip Dunne novel There Was a Little Man by Constance and Guy Jones d Henry Koster ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Tyrone Power, Cecil Kellaway, Anne Baxter, Lee J. Cobb, James Todd, Jayne Meadows, J. M. Kerrigan, Phil Brown
♗ Cecil Kellaway

The Luckiest Girl in the World
US 1936 75m bw
Charles R. Rogers/Universal
A rich girl bets her father that she can live in New York for a month on 150 dollars.
Lighthearted comedy with farcical trimmings.
w Herbert Fields, Henry Myers, Anne Jordan d Edward Buzzell ☆ Jane Wyatt, Louis Hayward, Eugene Pallette, Nat Pendleton, Catherine Doucet, Philip Reed
'Speed and gags offset story absurdity.' – Variety

Lucky Boy
US 1929 97m bw part silent
Tiffany-Stahl
A young Jewish boy makes it big on Broadway.
Simple-minded fable inspired by The Jazz Singer (which Jessel is said to have turned down).
w George Jessel d Norman Taurog, Charles C. Wilson ☆ George Jessel, Rosa Rosanova, William K. Strauss, Margaret Quimby

Lucky Break
GB/Germany/US 2001 107m colour
Film Four/Senator/Paramount/Miramax/Fragile/Lucky Break (Barnaby Thompson, Peter Cattaneo)
A jailed bank robber persuades other inmates to stage a musical to cover his escape from prison.
Slight, predictable comedy with a little charm and too much reliance on familiar stereotypes.
w Ronan Bennett d Peter Cattaneo ph Alwin Kuchler m Anne Dudley pd Max Gottlieb ed David Gamble cos Ffion Elinor
☆ James Nesbitt (Jimmy), Olivia Williams (Annabel), Timothy Spall (Cliff), Bill Nighy (Roger), Lennie James (Rudy), Ron Cook (Perry), Frank Harper (John Toombes), Raymond Waring (Darren), Christopher Plummer (Graham Mortimer), Julian Barratt (Paul), Peter Wight (Officer George Barratt), Celia Imrie (Amy)
'A thoroughly competent and disarmingly daft piece of work.' – Nigel Cliff, Times

Lucky Devils
US 1933 63m bw
David O. Selznick/RKO
Hollywood stuntmen rescue an actress from a suicide attempt.
Tolerable action special with interesting sidelights.
w Agnes Christine Johnston, Ben Markson story Casey Robinson, Bob Rose d Ralph Ince ph J. Roy Hunt
☆ William Boyd, Dorothy Wilson, William Gargan, Robert Rose, Roscoe Ates, Bruce Cabot

Lucky Jim ★★
GB 1957 95m bw
British Lion/Charter (Roy Boulting)
At a provincial university, an accident-prone junior lecturer has a disastrous weekend with his girlfriend and his professor.
Quite funny in its own right, this is a vulgarization of a famous comic novel which got its effects more subtly, with more sense of place, time and character.
w Jeffrey Dell, Patrick Campbell novel Kingsley Amis d John Boulting ph Max Greene m John Addison ☆ Ian Carmichael, Hugh Griffith, Terry-Thomas, Sharon Acker, Jean Anderson, Maureen Connell, Clive Morton, John Welsh, Reginald Beckwith, Kenneth Griffith
'An almost endless ripple of comfortable laughter.' – News Chronicle

'When he smiles, it's not because he likes you – it's because he likes what he's going to do to you!'

Lucky Jordan
US 1942 83m bw
Paramount (Fred Kohlmar)
A con man is drafted and overcomes Nazi agents.
Forgettable star cheapie.
w Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg d Frank Tuttle ph John F. Seitz m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Alan Ladd, Helen Walker, Sheldon Leonard, Marie McDonald, Mabel Paige, Lloyd Corrigan, Dave Willock, Miles Mander
'It's still cops and robbers, no matter how you slice it ... Mr Ware and Mr Tunberg are not above dragging in mother love as the reason the gangster changes from a selfish killer to a patriot.' – Joseph Pihodna, New York Herald Tribune

Lucky Lady
US 1975 118m DeLuxe
TCF/Gruskoff/Venture (Michael Gruskoff)
A cabaret girl in 1930 Tijuana joins two adventurers in smuggling liquor into the US by boat.
Whatever can be done wrong with such a story has been done, including irritatingly washed out photography, kinky sex, and sudden switches from farce to gore. None of it holds the interest for a single moment.
w Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz d Stanley Donen ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Ralph Burns pd John Barry
☆ Liza Minnelli, Gene Hackman, Burt Reynolds, Michael Hordern, Geoffrey Lewis, Robby Benson
'A manic mess that tries to be all things to

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

all people and ends up offering nothing to anyone.' – Frank Rich
'It sports its calculations on its sleeve like rhinestones.' – Sight and Sound
'They're all rumrunners in the early 30s, and they're meant to be adorable. This is a big expensive movie for people who don't mind being treated like hicks: the audience is expected to shudder with delight every time it hears an obscenity or sees a big movie star grin.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Lucky Mascot: see The Brass Monkey

Lucky Me ★

US 1954 100m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Theatrical entertainers stranded in Florida get a lucky break.
Watchable, forgettable musical.
w James O'Hanlon, Robert O'Brien, Irving Elinson d Jack Donohue ph Wilfrid M. Cline md Ray Heindorf
☆ Doris Day, Robert Cummings, Phil Silvers, Eddie Foy Jnr, Nancy Walker, Martha Hyer, Bill Goodwin, Marcel Dalio
'The first Cinemascope musical ... pleasant, light-hearted, frothy entertainment.' – MFB

Lucky Nick Cain: see I'll Get You for This

Lucky Night

US 1939 90m bw
MGM (Louis D. Lighton)

An heiress goes out into the world to make a life for herself, and falls for a man she finds on a park bench.
Tedious pattern romance which did neither of its stars any good.
w Vincent Lawrence, Grover Jones d Norman Taurog ph Ray June m Franz Waxman ☆ Myrna Loy, Robert Taylor, Joseph Allen, Henry O'Neill, Douglas Fowley, Marjorie Main, Charles Lane, Bernard Nedell
'Light romantic comedy, okay for box office ... but certain sections might object to so much liquor-imbibing.' – Variety

'Wrong Time. Wrong Place. Wrong Number.'

Lucky Number Slevin ★★ (5)

Germany/Canada/GB/US 2006 110m Technicolor
Entertainment/Ascendant/FilmEngine/VIP 4 (Christopher Eberts, Kia Jam, Andreas Grosch, Chris Roberts, Anthony Rhulen, Tyler Mitchell, Robert S. Kravis)

Mistaken for an absent friend, a young man finds himself in debt to two rival gangsters; each offers to forgo the money if he will kill the other.
With nods to Hitchock's North by Northwest and James Bond, this smart thriller is a little too clever for its own, or the audience's, good, but it's still a bracing, disconcerting experience.
w Jason Smilovic d Paul McGuigan ph Peter Sova m J. Ralph pd Francois Seguin ed Andrew Hulme
☆ Josh Hartnett (Slevin), Morgan Freeman (The Boss), Ben Kingsley (Schlomo), Lucy Liu (Lindsey), Stanley Tucci (Brikowski), Bruce Willis (Mr Goodkat)
'A bag of nerves. Everything here is too much. The older the actors, the saltier the ham of their performances.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'The talk is witty, the twists are ingenious, the look and the mood are drop-dead.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune

Lucky Partners ★

US 1940 101m bw
RKO (George Haight)

Two strangers share a sweepstake ticket and fall in love.
A very thin comedy kept afloat by its stars.
w Allan Scott, John Van Druten story Bonne Chance by Sacha Guitry
d Lewis Milestone ph Robert de Grasse
m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Ronald Colman, Ginger Rogers, Jack Carson, Spring Byington, Cecilia Loftus, Harry Davenport

The Lucky Star ★

Canada 1980 110m colour
Tele Metropole International/Claude Leger

During World War II a Dutch Jewish boy studies wild west films and captures a German colonel.
Unusual and likeable family adventure story with an unnecessary downbeat ending.
w Max Fischer, Jack Rosenthal d Max Fischer ph Frank Tidy m Art Philipps ☆ Rod Steiger, Louise Fletcher, Brett Marx, Lou Jacobi, Helen Hughes

The Lucky Stiff

US 1949 101m bw
Amusement Enterprises/UA

A cabaret singer sentenced to death for murder is secretly reprieved but comes back as a 'ghost' to scare the real culprit into confession.
Weird comedy-melodrama which seems to embarrass all concerned.
wd Lewis R. Foster novel Craig Rice
ph Ernest Laszlo
☆ Dorothy Lamour, Brian Donlevy, Claire Trevor, Irene Hervey

The Lucky Texan

US 1933 56m bw
Monogram/Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

Two crooked assayers try to cheat an old man out of his ranch and gold mine, but the son of his former partner saves the day.
Brisk programmer, with some novel stunts, including Wayne almost walking on water, 'Gabby' Hayes beginning to perfect the comic role of a whiskery and garrulous sidekick which he was to play for the next 18 years, and an unusual final chase involving horses, an automobile and a railcar.
wd Robert N. Bradbury ph Archie Stout
ed Carl Pierson
☆ John Wayne, Barbara Sheldon, Lloyd Whitlock, George Hayes, Yakima Canutt, Ed Parker, Gordon Demaine, Earl Dwire

Lucretia Borgia

France/Italy 1952 105m approx Technicolor
Ariane/Filmsonor/Rizzoli

Cesare Borgia uses his beautiful sister as a political pawn.
Well-mounted but rather boring period barnstormer.
w Cécil Saint-Laurent, Jacques Sigurd, Christian-Jaque d Christian-Jaque ph Christian Matras m Maurice Thiriet
☆ Martine Carol, Pedro Armendariz, Massimo Serato, Valentine Tessier

Lucy Gallant ★

US 1955 104m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Pine-Thomas

The success story of a dressmaker who comes to run a group of fashion shops but neglects her love life.
Efficient, smartly-handled woman's picture.
w John Lee Mahin, Winston Miller novel The Life of Lucy Gallant by Margaret Cousins d Robert Parrish ph Lionel Lindon m Van Cleave ☆ Jane Wyman, Charlton Heston, Claire Trevor, Thelma Ritter, William Demarest, Wallace Ford, Tom Helmore, Mary Field

Ludwig ★

Italy/France/West Germany 1972 186m Technicolor Panavision
Mega/Cinetel/Dieter Gessler/Divina (Robert Gordon Edwards)

The 19th-century King of Bavaria becomes involved in scandal and goes mad.
A stylish but historically questionable and highly coloured view of events; it drags its heels long before history did.
w Luchino Visconti, Enrico Medioli
d Luchino Visconti ph Armando Nannuzzi md Franco Nannino ☆ Helmut Berger, Romy Schneider, Trevor Howard, Silvana Mangano, Helmut Griem, Nora Ricci, Gert Frobe, John Moulder Brown

The Lullaby: see The Sin of Madelon Claudet

'Happiness is busting out all over!'

Lullaby of Broadway ★

US 1951 92m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)

The daughter of a faded Broadway star becomes the new toast of the town.
Reasonably lively musical with solid production values but little style or wit.
w Earl Baldwin d David Butler
ph Wilfrid Cline md Ray Heindorf ad Douglas Bacon ed Irene Morra musical numbers staged by Al White, Eddie Prinz
☆ Doris Day, Gene Nelson, S. Z. Sakall, Billy De Wolfe, Gladys George, Florence Bates, Anne Triola, Hanley Stafford, Page Cavanaugh Trio, Carlo and Constance De Mattiazzi
♫ In a Shanty in Old Shanty Town; The Lullaby of Broadway; Please Don't Talk About Me when I'm Gone; Somebody Loves Me; You're Dependable; You're Getting To Be a Habit With Me; Just One of Those Things; Zing! Went the Strings of My Heart; I Love the Way You Say Goodnight

Lulu: see Pandora's Box

Lulu Belle

US 1948 87m bw
Benedict Bogeaus/Columbia

A selfish singer has a bad effect on one man after another.
Dreary melodrama with a miscast star.
w Everett Freeman play Charles MacArthur, Edward Sheldon d Leslie Fenton
☆ Dorothy Lamour, George Montgomery, Otto Kruger, Albert Dekker, Glenda Farrell

La Lumière d'en Face: see The Light Across the Street

Lumière d'Eté ★

France 1943 112m bw
Discina (André Paulvé)

The idle and decadent rich in a mountain hotel are affected in various ways by workmen in the valley below.
Unusual and generally interesting character melodrama.
w Jacques Prévert, Pierre Laroche d Jean Grémillon ph Louis Page m Roland Manuel ☆ Madeleine Renaud, Pierre Brasseur, Madeleine Robinson, Paul Bernard, Jane Marken, Georges Marchal

La Luna

Italy 1979 142m Eastmancolor
TCF/Fiction Cinematografica (Giovanni Bertolucci)

A singer has an incestuous relationship with her teenage son.
Interminable catalogue of events few people wanted to experience; the kindest description would be 'pretentious claptrap'.
w Giuseppe and Bernardo Bertolucci, Clare Peploe d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro m operatic excerpts ☆ Jill Clayburgh, Matthew Barry, Laura Betti, Renato Salvatori, Fred Gwynne

Luna de Miel: see Honeymoon

Lunacy ★★ (6)

Czech Republic/Slovakia 2005 118m
BFI Southbank/Illumination Films/Athanor (Jaromir Kallista, Jan Svankmajer)

Czech theatrical title: Sileni
In 18th century France, a character resembling the Marquis de Sade takes pity on a young man who dreams of being dragged to a lunatic asylum in a straitjacket. The Marquis explains his philosophy about freedom and oppression, and the thin line between lunatics and those who run asylums.
Consciously depraved, with depictions of psycho-sexual perversions, premature burials and assorted body organs on display. Some brilliant stop-go animation to be admired, but it isn't for the faint-hearted.
wd Jan Svankmajer short story The System of Doctor Tarr and Professor Fether by Edgar Allan Poe short story The Premature Burial by Edgar Allan Poe ph Juraj Galvanek
ad Eva Svankmajerova, Jan Svankmajer
ed Marie Zermanova
☆ Pavel Liska (Jean Berlot), Jan Triska (The Marquis), Ana Geislerova (Charlota), Jaroslav Durek (Dr. Murlloppe), Martin Huba (Dr. Coulmiere)
'The kind of film that is easier to admire than it is to actually like.' – Mark Olsen, Los Angeles Times
'Dark, scary and yucky – even by the Czech animator's own standards.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

'A seriously wicked comedy hot from Jamaica'

The Lunatic

US 1992 93m CFI color
Island (Paul Heller, John Pringle)

A German photographer visiting Jamaica falls for a local butcher and a boy who talks to the trees.
Whimsical fable that passes an idle hour or so.
w Anthony C. Winkler novel Anthony C. Winkler d Lol Creme ph Richard Greatrex m Wally Badarou ad Giorgio Ferrari ed Michael Connell
☆ Julie T. Wallace, Paul Campbell, Reggie

Carter, Carl Bradshaw, Winston Stona, Linda Gambrill, Rosemary Murray, Lloyd Reckord

'An annoyingly cute fable.' – Variety

Lunch on the Grass ★★

France 1959 91m Eastmancolor
Compagnie Jean Renoir original title: Déjeuner sur l'Herbe

An international scientist hears the pipes of Pan, embarks on a country idyll and impregnates a housemaid whom he later marries.

Charming if overlong frolic with ideas, a harking back to earlier Renoir themes such as in Boudu Sauvé des Eaux.

wd Jean Renoir ph Georges Leclerc
m Joseph Kosma
☆ Paul Meurisse, Catherine Rouvel, Fernand Sardou, Ingrid Nordine

'A warm, loving, garrulous, undisciplined film.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

Lundi Matin: see Monday Morning

La Lune dans le Caniveau: see The Moon in the Gutter

Lunes de fiel: see Bitter Moon

Lunga Vita All Signora!: see Long Live the Lady

Lure of the Wilderness

US 1952 92m Technicolor
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)

A man falsely accused of murder hides for eight years in Georgia's Okefenokee swamp.

Remake of Swamp Water, with Walter Brennan playing the same part. The plot works fairly well still, but colour doesn't suit the scenery.

w Louis Lantz story Vereen Bell d Jean Negulesco ph Edward Cronjager m Franz Waxman ☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Jean Peters, Walter Brennan, Constance Smith, Jack Elam Lured ★

US 1947 102m bw
(UA) Hunt Stromberg (James Nasser)

GB title: Personal Column

An American dancer stranded in London helps Scotland Yard catch a killer.

Minor murder mystery with a pleasing cast.

w Leo Rosten, from the French film Pièges d Douglas Sirk ph William Daniels
m Michel Michelet pd Nicolai Remisoff
☆ Lucille Ball, George Sanders, Charles Coburn, Boris Karloff, Cedric Hardwicke, Alan Mowbray, George Zucco, Joseph Calleia, Robert Coote, Alan Napier

'Devils In Female Bodies Whose Embrace Is The Kiss Of Death For Man Or Woman!'

Lust for a Vampire

GB 1970 95m Technicolor
Hammer (Harry Fine, Michael Style)

In 1830 an English writer discerns that a pupil in an exclusive mid-European girls' school is a reincarnated vampire.

Dull Hammer horror, with the emphasis on lesbianism and nudity.

w Tudor Gates novel Carmilla by J. Sheridan Le Fanu d Jimmy Sangster ph David Muir m Harry Robinson
☆ Ralph Bates, Michael Johnson, Barbara Jefford, Suzanna Leigh, Yutte Stensgaard, Mike Raven, Helen Christie

'An embarrassment.' – Jimmy Sangster

Lust for Evil: see Plein Soleil

Lust for Gold

US 1949 90m bw
Columbia (S. Sylvan Simon)

A young man goes to Arizona to search for a lost gold mine discovered by his grandfather.

Moderate Western drama consisting largely of flashback.

w Ted Sherdeman, Richard English novel Thunder God's Gold by Barry Storm
d S. Sylvan Simon ph Archie Stout
m George Duning
☆ Ida Lupino, Glenn Ford, Gig Young, William Prince, Edgar Buchanan, Will Geer, Paul Ford

Lust for Life ★★

US 1956 122m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (John Houseman)

The life of Vincent Van Gogh.

Fairly absorbing, not inaccurate, but somehow uninspiring biopic, probably marred by poor colour and wide screen; despite good work all round, it simply doesn't fall into a classic category.

w Norman Corwin book Irving Stone d Vincente Minnelli ph Freddie Young, Russell Harlan m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Hans Peters, Preston Ames ed Adrienne Fazan cos Walter Plunkett
☆ Kirk Douglas (Vincent Van Gogh), Anthony Quinn (Paul Gauguin), James Donald (Theo Van Gogh), Pamela Brown (Christine), Everett Sloane (Dr Gachet), Niall MacGinnis (Roulin), Noel Purcell (Anton Mauve), Henry Daniell (Theodrus Van Gogh), Lionel Jeffries, Madge Kennedy, Jill Bennett, Laurence Naismith

'Two hours of quite shattering and exciting entertainment.' – Alan Dent, Illustrated London News

† Anthony Quinn was on the screen for a total of eight minutes in his Oscar-winning role.

Anthony Quinn
Norman Corwin; Kirk Douglas; art direction

Lust in the Dust

US 1984 87m CFI color
Fox Run (Allan Glaser, Tab Hunter)

In the old west, a strong silent man and a drag queen beat the baddies to the gold.

Fitfully funny spoof for adults.

w Philip Taylor d Paul Bartel ph Paul Lohmann m Peter Matz ed Alan Toomayan ☆ Tab Hunter, Divine, Lainie Kazan, Geoffrey Lewis, Henry Silva, Cesar Romero, Woody Strode

Lust in the Sun (dubbed)

France/Spain 1971 84m Eastmancolor
Golden Era/Kerfrance/IMF original title: Dans la Poussière du Soleil

A son, who is regarded by many as a coward, revenges his father's death by killing his uncle.

Enjoyably bizarre updating of Hamlet to a cowboy setting, with Polonius becoming the town's sheriff, and faithful enough to the original to include the 'play within the play'.

wd Richard Balducci play Hamlet by William Shakespeare ph Tadusu G. Suzuki
m Francis Lai pd Santiago Ontanon
ed Liliane Fattori
☆ Maria Schell, Bob Cunningham, Daniel Beretta, Karin Meier, Pépé Calvo, Colin Drake

'The inherent silliness of the conception . quickly converts the film into a variety skit.' – MFB

Lust och Fägring Stor: see Love Lessons

The Lusty Men ★

US 1952 113m bw
RKO/Wald-Krasna (Jerry Wald)

Tensions lead to the death of one of a pair of rider friends on a rodeo tour.

Standard melodrama with semi-documentary detail and star performances.

w Horace McCoy, David Dortort
d Nicholas Ray ph Lee Garmes m Roy Webb
☆ Robert Mitchum, Arthur Kennedy, Susan Hayward, Arthur Hunnicutt

Luther ★

GB 1973 112m Eastmancolor
American Express/Ely Landau/Cinevision

In 1525, the teachings of Luther culminate in the Peasants' Revolt.

Hard-to-watch filming by the American Film Theatre of a singularly theatrical play, and not a very good one at that. Some good acting.

w Edward Anhalt play John Osborne
d Guy Green ph Freddie Young m John Addison pd Peter Mullins ☆ Stacy Keach, Patrick Magee, Hugh Griffith, Robert Stephens, Alan Badel, Julian Glover, Judi Dench, Leonard Rossiter, Maurice Denham

Luv

US 1967 95m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Jalem (Martin Manulis)

When a man prevents an old friend from jumping off the Brooklyn Bridge and brings him home, a sexual square dance develops.

A modern comedy that should have stayed in the theatre.

w Elliott Baker play Murray Schisgal
d Clive Donner ph Ernest Laszlo
m Gerry Mulligan
☆ Jack Lemmon, Peter Falk, Elaine May, Nina Wayne, Eddie Mayehoff, Paul Hartman, Severn Darden

'A light but incisive comedy about the patterns and language of love in a Freud-ridden society has become an inept and lethally unamusing film farce.' – MFB

Luxury Liner

US 1933 72m bw
Paramount

Stories of various passengers on a liner bound from New York to Bremerhaven.

Interesting minor multi-drama, like a rough sketch for Ship of Fools (qv).

w Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola novel Gina Kaus d Lothar Mendes ph Victor Milner ☆ George Brent, Zita Johann, Vivienne Osborne, Alice White, Verree Teasdale, C. Aubrey Smith, Frank Morgan, Henry Wadsworth, Billy Bevan

'Not even the frank hook-up with Grand Hotel will help this entry much ... a loose and thin catch-as-catch-can affair.' – Variety

Luxury Liner

US 1948 98m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

The captain of a liner has trouble with his teenage daughter.

Minor shipboard musical with pleasing talents applied.

w Gladys Lehman, Richard Connell
d Richard Whorf ph Ernest Laszlo
md George Stoll
☆ George Brent, Jane Powell, Lauritz Melchior, Frances Gifford, Marina Koshetz, Xavier Cugat, Richard Derr, Connie Gilchrist

'His love dictates every move.'

The Luzhin Defence ★

GB/France 2000 108m Technicolor
Entertainment/Renaissance/Clear Blue Sky/ICE3
(Caroline Wood, Stephen Evans, Louis Becker, Philippe Guez)

In Italy for a chess tournament, an obsessive Russian grandmaster has to choose between the game and love and marriage.

Good-looking but glum romantic drama about a prodigy who cannot escape his talent; its merits lie mainly in the performances of its protagonists.

w Peter Berry novel Vladimir Nabokov
d Marleen Gorris ph Bernard Lutic
m Alexandre Desplat pd Tony Burrough
ed Michael Reichwein cos Jany Temime
☆ John Turturro (Alexander Luzhin), Emily Watson (Natalia), Geraldine James (Vera), Stuart Wilson (Valentinov), Christopher Thompson (Jean de Stassard), Fabio Sartor (Turati), Peter Blythe (Ilya), Orla Brady (Anna), Mark Tandy (Luzhin's father), Kelly Hunter (Luzhin's mother), Alexander Huntin (Young Luzhin)

'A smoothly made period romancer that's elevated by strong playing from its whole cast.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'The girl who thought she knew all about love!'

Lydia ★

US 1941 104m bw
Alexander Korda (Lee Garmes)

An ageing lady recalls her former beaux.

Pleasing remake of Carnet du Bal, with excellent production values.

w Ben Hecht, Samuel Hoffenstein story Julien Duvivier, Laszlo Bus-Fekete
d Julien Duvivier ph Lee Garmes
m Miklos Rozsa pd Vincent Korda
☆ Merle Oberon, Joseph Cotten, Alan Marshal, Edna May Oliver, Hans Yaray, George Reeves, John Halliday, Sara Allgood
Miklos Rozsa

Lydia Bailey

US 1952 89m Technicolor
TCF (Jules Schermer)

In 1802 a Boston lawyer visits Haiti to obtain the signature of a wayward heiress, and becomes involved in the negro fight against the French.

Standard adventure romance with plenty of excitements.

w Michael Blankfort, Philip Dunne novel Kenneth Roberts d Jean Negulesco
ph Harry Jackson m Hugo Friedhofer
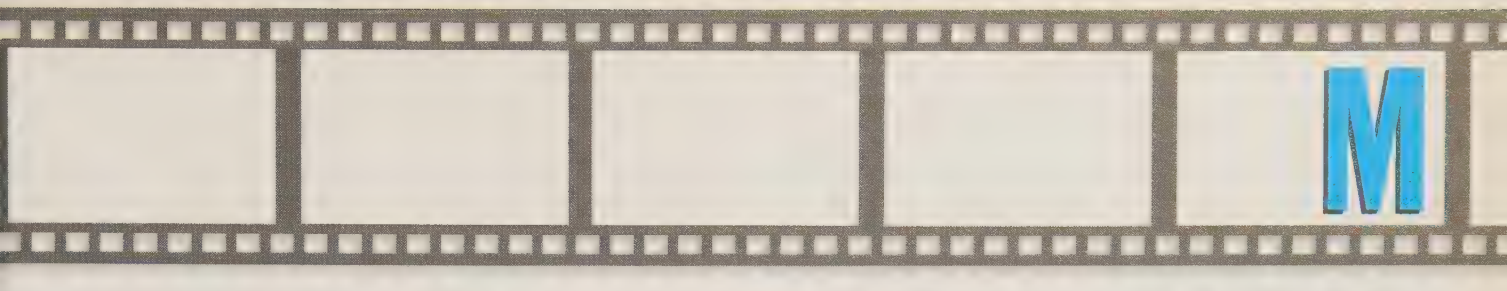
☆ Dale Robertson, Anne Francis, Charles Korvin, William Marshall, Adeline de Walt Reynolds



M ★★★★

Germany 1931 118m bw
Nero Film (Seymour Nebenzal)

A psychopathic murderer of children evades the police but is caught by the city's criminals who find his activities getting them a bad name.
An unmistakable classic whose oddities are hardly worth criticizing, this is part social melodrama and part satire, but entirely unforgettable, with most of its sequences brilliantly staged.
w Thea von Harbou, Paul Falkenberg, Adolf Jansen, Karl Vash d Fritz Lang ph Fritz Arno Wagner m Adolf Jansen ad Karl Vollbrecht, Emil Hasler ed Paul Falkenberg
☆ Peter Lorre (Franz Becker), Otto Wernicke (Inspector Karl Lohmann), Gustav Gründgens (Schraenker)
'Visual excitement, pace, brilliance of surface and feeling for detail.' – New Yorker, 1977
† Of Lang's later work, Fury comes closest to the feeling and style of M.

M ★

US 1951 82m bw
Columbia (Seymour Nebenzal)

Faithful but fated remake; without the heavy expressionist techniques, the story seems merely silly and the atmosphere is all wrong.
w Norman Reilly Raine, Leo Katcher d Joseph Losey ph Ernest Laszlo m Michel Michelet pd John Hubley ed Edward Mann
☆ David Wayne, Howard Da Silva, Luther Adler, Martin Gabel, Glenn Anders, Karen Morley, Norman Lloyd, Walter Burke
'I consciously repeated only one shot … essentially Lang's villain was my hero.' – Joseph Losey

M. Butterfly

US 1993 101m colour
Warner/Geffen (Gabriella Martinelli)

A French diplomat begins an affair with a Chinese performer in the Beijing Opera, unaware that he is being deceived.
Based on an actual scandal, which became a successful play, this is an unsuccessful movie, one that never convinces as to the truth or likelihood of its central relationship.
w David Henry Hwang play David Henry Hwang d David Cronenberg ph Peter Suschitzky m Howard Shore pd Carol Spier ed Ronald Sanders ☆ Jeremy Irons, John Lone, Barbara Sukowa, Ian Richardson, Shizuko Hoshi, Annabel Leventon, Vernon Dobtcheff, Richard McMillan
'Gets all dressed up in fancy threads but goes nowhere, due to a lack of chemistry and heat on the part of the two leads.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'The end result, while not entirely unrewarding, is another step away from the singular vision Cronenberg once expressed even in his marginal work.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Ma and Pa Kettle ★

US 1949 75m bw
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

Pa Kettle wins a house in a contest and is accused of cheating.
First of a series of low-budget comedies which, based on characters from The Egg and I (qv), had astonishing commercial success in America. The standard varied from adequate to painful.
w Herbert Margolis, Louis Morheim, Al Lewis d Charles Lamont ph Maury Gertsman m Milton Schwarzwald ☆ Marjorie Main, Percy Kilbride, Richard Long, Meg Randall
'Not exactly Noël Coward.' – Leonard Maltin
† For others in the series, see under The Kettles.

Ma Femme Est Une Actrice ★★

France 2001 95m colour
Pathé/Renn/TF1 (Claude Berri)

GB title: My Wife is an Actress
A sportswriter becomes increasingly exasperated by his actress-wife's celebrity and jealous of her on-screen romance with her English co-star.
Enjoyable comedy of obsessional jealousy that also makes fun of self-obsessed celebrities.
wd Yvan Attal ph Remy Chevrin pd Katia Wyszkop ed Jennifer Auger cos Jacqueline Bouchard
☆ Charlotte Gainsbourg (Charlotte), Yvan Attal (Yvan), Terence Stamp (John), Noémie Lvovsky (Nathalie), Laurent Bateau (Vincent), Ludivine Sagnier (Geraldine), Keith Allen (David), Lionel Abelanski (Georges)
'Terrifically deft picture about the thick line that separates movie glamour from the real world, and the thin line between common sense and paranoia.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

Ma Nuit Chez Maud ★

France 1969 110m bw
Films du Losange (Pierre Cottreill)

aka: My Night at Maud's
A Catholic clerk in a small town falls in love with an elegant divorcee but can't bring himself to court her openly and marries someone else.
Subdued, literate talk-piece which finally exhausts rather than stimulates.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Nestor Almendros ad Nicole Rachline ed Cécile Decugis ☆ Jean-Louis Trintignant, Françoise Fabian, Marie-Christine Barrault best foreign film; Eric Rohmer (as writer)

Ma Saison Préferée ★★

France 1993 127m colour Panavision
Arrow/TF1/DA/Alain Sarde

aka: My Favourite Season
An estranged brother and his married sister meet for some uneasy reunions as their mother becomes ill and increasingly frail.
Emotionally true, devastatingly accurate portrait of the subterranean tensions, guilt and anguish that exist within a conventional middle-class family, told in four chapters, each corresponding to a season.
w André Téchiné, Pascal Bonitzer d André Téchiné ph Thierry Arbogast m Philippe Sarde pd Carlos Conti ed Martine Giordano
☆ Catherine Deneuve, Daniel Auteuil, Marthe Villalonga, Jean-Pierre Bouvier, Chiara Mastroianni, Carmen Chaplin, Anthony Prada, Ingrid Caven
'A dull exposition of the glacial shifts in the emotional alignments within a dysfunctional middle-class family.' – Variety

Ma Vie en Rose ★★

France/Belgium/Switzerland/GB 1997 89m colour
Buena Vista/Haut et Court/WFE/Freeway/CAB/La Sept/RTBF/TF1 (Carole Scotta)

To the surprise of his parents and the horror of their neighbours, a seven-year-old boy insists that he is really a girl.
A strange but compelling movie about gender and identity, with a remarkable performance from its young protagonist.
w Chris Vander Stappen, Alain Berliner d Alain Berliner ph Yves Cape m Dominique Dalcan pd Véronique Melery ed Sandrine Deegan
☆ Michèle Laroque, Jean-Philippe Ecoffey, Hélène Vincent, Georges du Fresne, Daniel Hanssens, Laurence Bibot
'A generous and at times gorgeous instance of cinema's true powers and promise.' – Sight and Sound

Ma Vie Sexuelle ★★

France 1996 180m colour
BAC/Why Not/La Sept/France2/Canal+

original title: Comment je me suis disputé … ('ma vie sexuelle')
An unhappy 29-year-old academic with an unsatisfactory 10-year relationship and a desire for his best friend's girlfriend begins an affair with the girlfriend of a friend.
Complex and talkative disquisition on love, responsibility and the pleasures and pains of adultery; its tone is intellectual but not solemn: one character has a religious revelation while a girl dances in her underwear, while another says, 'I think I'm incredibly depressed,' as the woman he wants takes off her clothes.
w Arnaud Desplechin, Emmanuel Bourdieu d Arnaud Desplechin ph Eric Gautier m Krishna Lévy pd Antoine Platteau ed François Gédigier ☆ Mathieu Amalric, Emmanuelle Devos, Emmanuel Salinger, Marianne Denicourt, Thibault de Montalembert, Chiara Mastroianni
'Has its moments, but there are too few of them to justify the running time.' – Empire

Maborosi ★

Japan 1995 109m colour
ICA/TV Man Union (Naoe Gozu)

A wife, who has continued to mourn the death of her husband, a suicide, remarries a widower.
Austerely moving account of a twilight existence, of people trapped within a bleakly implacable landscape.
w Yoshihisa Ogita story Teru Miyamoto d Hirokazu Kore-Eda ph Masao Nakabori m Cheng Ming-Chang ad Kyoko Heya ed Tomoya Oshima
☆ Makiko Esumi, Takeshi Naito, Tadanobu Asano, Goki Kashiyama, Naomi Watanabe
'A powerful insight into the disabling force of grief.' – George Perry

'Every success has its story. And its price.'

Mac ★

US 1992 118m Technicolor
Entertainment/Macfilm (Nancy Tenenbaum, Brenda Goodman)

A construction worker, irritated by the sloppy standards of his foreman, decides to start his own business, working to the best of his ability; his two brothers join him but then leave.
A drama of obsession and integrity, with splendid ensemble acting and a gritty reality.
w John Turturro, Brandon Cole d John Turturro ph Ron Fortunato m Richard Termini, Vin Tese pd Robert Standefer ed Michael Berenbaum
☆ John Turturro, Katherine Borowitz, Michael Badalucco, Carl Capotorto, Ellen Barkin, John Amos, Dennis Farina
'Obviously made as a labour of love. But it is a bit of a labour to sit through.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'A film of old-fashioned virtues – sincerity, worthiness, and probity – used in an unpatronising way.' – Philip French

Mac and Me

US 1988 99m
Guild/R. J. Louis

A family of aliens is inadvertently dumped in California.
A cardboard confection, copying much of the plot of E.T., that is little more than a dull and extended commercial for fast foods.
w Steven Feke, Stewart Raffill d Stewart Raffill ph Nick McLean m Alan Silvestri pd W. Stewart Campbell ed Tom Walls
☆ Christine Ebersole, Jonathan Ward, Tina Caspary, Lauren Stanley, Jade Calegory, Vinnie Torrente, Martin West

'See it with someone who can carry you home!'
'So terrifying we have to insure your life!'

Macabre

US 1958 73m bw
AA (William Castle)

When a small-town doctor's daughter is kidnapped, he fears she may have been buried alive in the cemetery.

Genuine but unsuccessful attempt to film a horror comic; incredibly stodgy writing, acting and direction put the lid on it.

w Robb White d William Castle ph Carl Guthrie m Les Baxter

☆ William Prince, Jim Backus, Jacqueline Scott, Philip Tonge, Ellen Corby

'A ghoulish but totally ineffective horror piece, set mainly in undertakers' offices and an atmosphere of graveyards and swirling fog.' – MFB

† When first released, admission carried insurance against death by fright. Some said it should have been death by boredom.

'Keep A Cool Head!'

Macabre (dubbed)

Italy 1980 90m Telecolor
Medusa/AMA (Gianni Minervini, Antonio Avati)

original title: Macabro

A blind man becomes curious about his neighbour, a demented woman who, unknown to him, takes to bed every night the head of her dead lover, which she keeps in the refrigerator during the day.

Gruesome, though stylish, horror movie, which marked the debut of director Lamberto Bava.

w Lamberto Bava, Pupi Avati, Antonio Avati, Roberto Gandus d Lamberto Bava ph Francesco delli Colli m Ubaldo Continiello ad Katia Dottori ed Piera Gabutti sp Tonino Corridori, Angelo Mattei

☆ Bernice Stegers, Stanko Molnar, Roberto Posse, Veronica Zinny, Ferdinando Orlandi

Macao

US 1952 81m bw
RKO (Alex Gottlieb)

A wandering American in the Far East helps a detective catch a gangster.

A few flashy decorative touches show the director's hand, otherwise this is routine, murky thick ear.

w Bernard C. Schoenfeld, Stanley Rubin d Josef von Sternberg (and Nicholas Ray) ph Harry J. Wild m Anthony Collins

☆ Robert Mitchum, Jane Russell, William Bendix, Gloria Grahame, Thomas Gomez

Macaroni (dubbed) ★

Italy 1985 104m Eastmancolor
Massfilm/Filmauro (Luigi and Aurelio de Laurentiis, Franco Committeri)

An American engineer returns to Naples, where he fought 40 years earlier in the Second World War, and begins to relive a past he never had.

Gentle, nostalgic, bitter-sweet comedy of middle-aged frustrations, helped by the charm of the leading performances.

w Ruggero Maccari, Furio Scarpelli, Ettore Scola d Ettore Scola ph Claudio Ragona m Armando Trovaioli pd Luciano Ricceri ed Carla Simoncelli

☆ Jack Lemmon, Marcello Mastroianni, Daria Nicolodi, Isa Danieli, Maria Luisa Santella, Fabio Tenore, Patrizia Sacchi, Bruno Esposito

'A star vehicle, but it seems awfully out of date and joyless.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

MacArthur the Rebel General ★

US 1977 130m Technicolor
Universal/Richard D. Zanuck, David Brown (Frank McCarthy)

The exploits of General MacArthur during the Pacific wars and his strained relationships with two presidents.

Sober, earnest political biography with war sequences; very well done but somehow unsympathetic.

w Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins d Joseph Sargent ph Mario Tosi m Jerry Goldsmith pd John J. Lloyd ed George Nicholson sp Albert Whitlock

☆ Gregory Peck (General MacArthur), Dan O'Herlihy (President Roosevelt), Ed Flanders (President Truman), Ward Costello (General Marshall), Marj Dusay (Mrs MacArthur), Ivan Bonar (General Sutherland)

'A biopic that begins when its subject is sixty lacks roots – and in this case revelation.' – Judith Crist

'Taking on the drug lords is impossible. Taking on a country is insane.'

McBain

US 1991 102m TVC Color
Shapiro Glickenhaus (J. Boyce Harman Jnr)

A former soldier agrees to help the sister of a friend overthrow the corrupt government in Colombia.

Predictable and interminable, lacking any sense of reality.

wd James Glickenhaus ph Robert M. Baldwin Jnr m Christopher Franke pd Charles C. Bennett ed Jeffrey Wolf

☆ Christopher Walken, Maria Conchita Alonso, Michael Ironside, Steve James, Jay Patterson, T. G. Waites, Victor Argo, Hechter Ubarry, Russell Dennis Baker, Chick Vennera

'A silly action film geared mainly to overseas audiences.' – Variety

Macbeth ★

US 1948 89m bw
Republic/Mercury (Orson Welles)

A famous – or infamous – attempt to film Shakespeare in twenty-one days in papier mâché settings running with damp; further hampered by the use of a form of unintelligible bastard Scots.

A few striking moments at the beginning remain; the rest should be silence.

w Orson Welles play William Shakespeare d Orson Welles ph John L. Russell m Jacques Ibert ad Fred Ritter ed Louis Lindsay

☆ Orson Welles, Jeanette Nolan, Dan O'Herlihy, Roddy McDowall, Edgar Barrier, Erskine Sanford

Macbeth

GB 1972 140m Technicolor Todd-AO 35
Playboy/Caliban (Andrew Braunsberg)

A sharpened and brutalized version; the blood swamps most of the cleverness and most of the poetry.

w Roman Polanski, Kenneth Tynan play William Shakespeare d Roman Polanski ph Gilbert Taylor m the Third Ear Band pd Wilfrid Shingleton ed Alastair MacIntyre

☆ Jon Finch (Macbeth), Francesca Annis (Lady Macbeth), Martin Shaw (Banquo), Nicholas Selby (Duncan), John Stride (Ross), Stephan Chase (Malcolm), Paul Shelley (Donalbain), Terence Bayler (Macduff), Keith Chegwin

Macbeth

Scotland 1997 129m colour
CJP/Cromwell/Lamancha/Grampian (Shona Donaldson)

In Scotland in the 11th century, Macbeth pays the price for murdering the king and seizing the throne.

Low-budget approach to Shakespeare's Scottish play, emphasizing the fact that it comes from north of the border, and by far the least interesting version so far.

w Bob Carruthers, Jeremy Freeston play William Shakespeare d Jeremy Freeston ph Dave Miller m Richard Cherns ed Owen Parker, Chris Gormlie

☆ Jason Connery (Macbeth), Helen Baxendale (Lady Macbeth), Graham McTavish, Kenny Bryans, Kern Falconer, Hildegard Neil, Chris Gormlie, John Corvin, Brian Blessed

'What do we get? A cross between a 1970s schools programme and a Scottish Tourist Board video. This is indeed a tragic Macbeth.' – Giala Murray, Empire

† Brian Blessed was credited as artistic adviser and for 'special direction of witches scenes'.

McCabe and Mrs Miller ★

US 1971 120m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (David Foster, Mitchell Brower)

At the turn of the century a gambling gunfighter comes to a northwest mining town and uses his money to set up lavish brothels.

Obscurely scripted, muddy-coloured and harshly recorded Western melodrama whose squalid 'realism' comes as close to fantasy as does The Wizard of Oz.

w Robert Altman, Brian McKay novel McCabe by Edmund Naughton d Robert Altman ph Vilmos Zsigmond pd Leon Ericksen

☆ Warren Beatty, Julie Christie, René Auberjonois, Shelley Duvall, John Schuck

'A fleeting, diaphanous vision of what frontier life might have been.' – Pauline Kael

'Altman directed *M*A*S*H*, which wandered and was often funny; then Brewster McCloud, which wandered and was not funny; now this, which wanders and is repulsive. The thesis seems to be that if you take a corny story, fuzz up the exposition, vitiate the action, use a childishly ironic ending, and put in lots of profanity and nudity, you have Marched On with Time.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Julie Christie

The McConnell Story

US 1955 107m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (Henry Blanke)

GB title: Tiger in the Sky

The career and accidental death of a jet ace of the Korean war.

Crude, obvious and saccharine biopic.

w Ted Sherdeman, Sam Rolfe d Gordon Douglas ph John Seitz, Ted McCord m Max Steiner

☆ Alan Ladd, June Allyson, James Whitmore, Frank Faylen, Willis Bouchey

MacDonald of the Canadian Mounties: see Pony Soldier

McFadden's Flats

US 1935 65m bw
Paramount

The quarrel between a bricklayer and a barber affects their children.

Modest working-class comedy from a well-worn play.

w Arthur Caesar, Edward Kaufman, Casey Robinson, Andy Rice play Gus Hill d Ralph Murphy

☆ Walter C. Kelly, Andy Clyde, Richard Cromwell, Jane Darwell, Betty Furness, George Barbier

'Better-than-average family picture.' – Variety

McGuire Go Home: see The High Bright Sun

McHale's Navy

US 1997 108m DeLuxe
Universal/Bubble Factory (Sid, Bill and Jon Sheinberg)

On a Caribbean island, an ex-naval officer, who uses his ill-gotten money to finance good causes, finds his schemes thwarted when a tough new commander tightens up discipline on the naval base.

A misfiring comedy, ridiculous for all the wrong reasons, which suddenly veers into frenetic action, and finally sinks with all hands lost.

w Peter Crabbe d Bryan Spicer ph Buzz Feitshans m Dennis McCarthy pd Gene Rudolf ed Russel Denove

☆ Tom Arnold, Tim Curry, Dean Stockwell, David Alan Grier, Debra Messing, Ernest Borgnine, Thomas Chong, Bruce Campbell

'A ham-fisted, fitfully amusing lark that quickly runs aground.' – Variety

† The film is based on the TV sitcom, a waterlogged copy of Phil Silver's Sgt Bilko, that ran from 1962 to 1966 and starred Ernest Borgnine as McHale, the role played by Tom Arnold in the film.

Machibuse ★

Japan 1970 117m colour
Toho/Mifune (Toshiro Mifune, Yoshio Nishikawa)

video title: Ambush at Blood Pass
aka: Incident at Blood Pass

Hired to go to a distant pass and await developments, a wandering ronin is caught up in a conspiracy to steal the Shogunate's gold.

Intriguing mix of suspense and psychological drama of shifting loyalties.

w Yumi Fujiki, Hideo Oguni, Hajime Takaiwa, Ichiro Miyakawa d Hiroshi Inagaki ph Kazuo Yamada m Masaru Sato ad Hiroshi Ueda ed Yoshihiro Araki fight choreography Ryuu Kuze, Yookai Nana

☆ Toshiro Mifune (Yojimbo), Shintaro Katsu (Gentetsu), Kinnosuke Nakamura (Heima Ibuki), Yujiro Ishihara (Yataro), Ruriko Asaoka (Okuni), Mika Kitagawa (Oyuki), Rynosuke Yamazake (Tatsu)

The Machine (dubbed) ★

France/Germany 1994 96m colour
Hachette Première/DD/Prima/M6/France 2/Studio Babelsberg (Patrick Bordier)

original title: La Machine

A brain specialist working with the criminally insane builds a machine to enable him to get inside the mind of a serial killer; but the experiment goes wrong, and the two switch bodies.

A deft psychological thriller, a variation on Frankenstein, which creates an atmosphere of unease that is maintained until its horrific climax.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

wd François Dupeyron novel La Machine by René Belletto ph Dietrich Lohmann m Michel Portal pd Carlos Conti ed Noelle Boisson ☆ Gérard Depardieu, Nathalie Baye, Didier Bourdon, Natalia Woerner, Erwan Baynaud
'A cleverly choreographed roller-coaster ride of identity and appearances – with a stomach-churning dip yet to come.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety
† There is an error in the video release. After an opening sequence, a caption reads 'eighteen months later'; it should read 'eighteen months earlier'.

'Even the Mafia calls him Mister!'

Machine Gun McCain

Italy 1970 94m Techniscope
Euroatlantica/Columbia

The Mafia springs a hardened criminal from jail and puts him to use.
Dull but violent Las Vegas-set mobster story with some echoes of Bonnie and Clyde.
w Giuliano Montaldo, Mino Roli
d Giuliano Montaldo m Ennio Morricone
☆ John Cassavetes, Peter Falk, Britt Ekland, Gabriele Ferzetti

'A little guilt goes a long way...'

The Machinist

★★ (5)

Spain 2004 100m colour 'Scope
Tartan/Filmax/Castelao (Julio Fernandez)

A lathe operator, who has not slept for a year, becomes a danger to himself and others as he descends into madness.
Disturbing psychological drama, both because of Bale's gaunt and emaciated appearance and the intensity of his performance; the movie's grim, grey atmosphere.
w Scott A. Kosar d Brad Anderson ph Xavi Gimenez m Roque Banos pd Alain Bainee ed Luis de la Madrid
☆ Christian Bale (Trevor), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Stevie), Aitana Sanchez-Gijon (Marie), John Sharian (Ivan), Michael Ironside (Miller), Larry Gilliard (Jackson), Reg E. Cathey (Jones), Anna Massey (Mrs Shike)
'Shot in shades of green and yellow, the film has a gangrenous quality that enhances the level of foreboding. The over-all effect is gripping, like the flu.' – Bruce Diones, New Yorker

Macho Callahan

US 1970 100m Movielab Panavision
Avco/Felicidad (Bernard Kowalski, Martin C. Schute)

A vengeful cowboy annihilates all who stand in his way.
Squalid Mexican-made Western with unremitting emphasis on violence.
w Clifford Newton Gould d Bernard Kowalski ph Gerry Fisher m Pat Williams
☆ David Janssen, Lee J. Cobb, David Carradine, James Booth, Jean Seberg

MacKenna's Gold

★

US 1969 136m Technicolor Super Panavision
Columbia/Highroad (Carl Foreman, Dimitri Tiomkin)

A dying Indian entrusts a sheriff with a map of the legendary Valley of Gold, and when the news breaks the map is in demand.
Curious serial-like Western melodrama packed with stars and pretensions above its station. On a lower level, it is quite enjoyable.
w Carl Foreman novel Will Henry d J. Lee-Thompson ph Joseph MacDonald, Harold Wellman m Quincy Jones pd Geoffrey Drake
☆ Gregory Peck, Omar Sharif, Telly Savalas, Camilla Sparv, Keenan Wynn, Julie Newmar, Ted Cassidy, Eduardo Ciannelli, Eli Wallach, Edward G. Robinson, Raymond Massey, Burgess Meredith, Anthony Quayle, Lee J. Cobb
'Preposterous hotch-potch of every cliché known to the gold lust book.' – MFB
'Twelve-year-olds of all ages might tolerate it.' – Judith Crist
'A western of truly stunning absurdity, a thriving example of the old Hollywood maxim about how to succeed by failing big.' – Vincent Canby

The McKenzie Break

★

GB 1970 106m DeLuxe
UA/Levy-Gardner-Laven

During World War II, German prisoners at a Scottish camp stage an escape.
Effective little action suspenser.
w William Norton d Lamont Johnson ph Michael Reed m Riz Ortolani ☆ Brian Keith, Helmut Griem, Ian Hendry, Jack Watson, Patrick O'Connell, Horst Janson

'Only Mackintosh can save them now – and Mackintosh is dead!'

The Mackintosh Man

★

GB 1973 99m Technicolor
Warner/Newman-Foreman/John Huston

A government agent is sent to prison to contact a criminal gang.
Convoluted but entertaining spy thriller with good performances and action sequences.
w Walter Hill novel The Freedom Trap by Desmond Bagley d John Huston ph Oswald Morris m Maurice Jarre pd Terry Marsh ed Russell Lloyd ☆ Paul Newman (Joseph Rearden), James Mason (Sir George Wheeler), Dominique Sanda (Mrs Smith), Nigel Patrick (Soames-Trevelyan), Harry Andrews (Angus Mackintosh), Michael Hordern (Brown), Ian Bannen (Slade), Peter Vaughan (Brunskill), Roland Culver (Judge), Percy Herbert (Taafe), Robert Lang (Jack Summers), Leo Genn (Rollins), Jenny Runacre (Gerda), John Bindon (Buster), Hugh Manning (Prosector)

McLintock

★

US 1963 127m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Batjac (Michael Wayne)

A cattle baron can control a whole town but not his termagant wife.
Sub-Ford Western farce borrowed from The Taming of the Shrew, with much fist-fighting and mud-splattering, and rather too much chat in between.
w James Edward Grant d Andrew V. McLaglen ph William H. Clothier m Frank de Vol
☆ John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Yvonne de Carlo, Patrick Wayne, Stefanie Powers, Chill Wills, Bruce Cabot, Jack Kruschen

The McMasters

US 1969 90m Technicolor
JayJen (Dimitri de Grunwald)

A black man returning home from the Civil War gets unexpected help from a tough landowner.
Racial Western with black, white and red points of view, all very violently expressed.
w Harold Jacob Smith d Alf Kjellin ph Lester Shorr m Coleridge-Taylor Parkinson
☆ Brock Peters, Burl Ives, David Carradine, Nancy Kwan, Jack Palance, Dane Clark, John Carradine, L. Q. Jones, R. G. Armstrong

The Macomber Affair

★

US 1946 89m bw
(UA) Benedict Bogeaus (Casey Robinson)

The wife of a bullying big game hunter falls for their guide.
Safari melodrama with a plot which has become a cliché but seemed fresh enough at the time. Goodish writing and acting.
w Casey Robinson story The Short Happy Life of Francis Macomber by Ernest Hemingway d Zoltan Korda ph Karl Struss m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Gregory Peck, Joan Bennett, Robert Preston, Reginald Denny, Carl Harbord, Jean Gillie
'The best movie job on Hemingway to date.' – James Agee
'It has survived the hazardous crossing from brilliant short story to film with practically no casualties.' – Daily Mail

Macon County Line

US 1973 89m Eastmancolor
Sam Arkoff/Max Baer

In mid-fifties Louisiana, a couple of hell-raisers are harassed by a local sheriff, and much bloodshed results.
Shapeless melodrama more or less in the wake of Easy Rider; an unattractive film which unaccountably had great box-office success.
w Max Baer, Richard Compton d Richard Compton ph Daniel Lacambre m Stu Phillips
☆ Alan Vint, Cheryl Waters, Geoffrey Lewis, Joan Blackman, Jesse Vint, Max Baer

'He's a busted cop, his gun is unlicensed, his methods unlawful, his story incredible!'

McQ

US 1974 111m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Batjac/Levy-Gardner

A Seattle police detective goes after the gangster who killed his friend.
Rambling, violent thriller with good sequences but no cohesion.
w Lawrence Roman d John Sturges ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Elmer Bernstein
☆ John Wayne, Eddie Albert, Diana Muldaur, Colleen Dewhurst, Clu Gulager, David Huddleston, Julie Adams

Macu, the Policeman's Wife

Venezuela 1987 102m colour
Macu Films/Cinearte (Olegario Barrera)
original title: Macu

The young wife of a policeman suspects her husband of having murdered her lover and his friends.
Slice-of-life drama that was a big hit in its own country, but does not travel well.
w Solveig Hoogesteijn, Milagros Rodriguez d Solveig Hoogesteijn ph Andrés Agusti m Victor Cuica ed José Alcalde
☆ Maria Luisa Mosquera, Daniel Alvarado, Frank Hernández, Tito Aponte, Ana Castell, Carmen Palma, Iván Feo

McVicar

GB 1980 112m Eastmancolor
The Who Films/Brent-Walker (Bill Curbishley, Roy Baird, Roger Daltrey)

The true story of the escapes from prison of a violent criminal who was subsequently reformed and rehabilitated.
Some smart sequences don't prevent this from being an exploitation item.
w John McVicar and Tom Clegg d Tom Clegg ph Vernon Layton m Jeff Wayne ad Fred Carter ed Peter Boyle
☆ Roger Daltrey, Adam Faith, Cheryl Campbell, Billy Murray, Georgina Hale, Steven Berkoff

'Fall in love... With the beat.'

Mad About Mambo

★

Ireland/GB 2000 92m colour
GramercyPhoenixFirst CityPlurabelle (David P. Kelly)

In Belfast, a would-be professional footballer joins a dance class to improve the way he moves and falls for the star pupil, a rich girl.
Oddly titled corny romance – it has nothing to do with the mambo – that is frequently implausible but gets by on the charm of its two stars.
wd John Forte ph Ashley Rowe m Richard Hartley pd Fiona Daly ed David Martin ☆ William Ash (Danny Mitchell), Keri Russell (Lucy McLoughlin), Brian Cox (Sidney McLoughlin), Theo Fraser Steele (Oliver Parr), Rosaleen Linehan (Mrs Burns), Maclean Stewart (Mickey), Tim Loane (Brother McBride), Julian Littman (Rudi Morelli)
'The movie is lightweight but irresistibly entertaining.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

Mad about Men

GB 1954 90m Technicolor
GFD/Group Films (Betty Box)

By mutual agreement, a sports mistress and a mermaid change places for a while.
Laborious rehash of Miranda with familiar jokes.
w Peter Blackmore d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Glynis Johns, Donald Sinden, Anne Crawford, Margaret Rutherford, Dora Bryan, Nicholas Phipps, Irene Handl

Mad about Music

★

US 1938 98m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)

A girl at a Swiss school adopts a personable visitor as her father.
Pleasing star vehicle with charm and humour; badly remade as Toy Tiger (qv).
w Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson d Norman Taurog ph Joseph Valentine m Frank Skinner, Charles Previn m/ly Harold Adamson, Jimmy McHugh ☆ Deanna Durbin, Herbert Marshall, Gail Patrick, Arthur Treacher, Helen Parrish, Marcia Mae Jones, William Frawley
'Another Durbin smash ... will mop up at the b.o.' – Variety original story (Marcella Burke, Frederick Kohner); Joseph Valentine; Frank Skinner, Charles Previn

The Mad Adventures of 'Rabbi' Jacob: see Les Aventures de Rabbi Jacob

The Mad Bomber

★

US 1972 91m Movielab
Scotia-Barber/College (Bert I. Gordon)

A detective tries to track down a bomber who is killing people by dynamiting buildings in Los Angeles in order to punish society.
Low-budget thriller, effective in a harsh and unpolished way.

wd Bert I. Gordon story Marc Behm m Michel Mention ed Gene Ruggiero ☆ Vince Edwards, Chuck Connors, Neville Brand, Christina Hart, Faith Quabius
'An attempt not to be sneezed at.' – Tom Milne, MFB
† The film was cut to 87m for its British release.

'A Desperate Man. An Ambitious Reporter. A Situation Gone Mad.'

Mad City ★★

US 1997 114m Technicolor Super 35
Warner/Punch (Arnold and Anne Kopelson)

To aid his slipping career, a reporter attempts to manipulate the accidental shooting of a museum security guard into an attention-grabbing television event.
Deft satire on the live television media circus that accompanies modern-day crime and terrorism; in part, it was suggested by the Waco siege in 1993, and is also an updating of Billy Wilder's Ace in the Hole (qv).
w Tom Matthews d Costa-Gavras ph Patrick Bloosier m Thomas Newman pd Catherine Hardwicke ed Françoise Bonnot
☆ John Travolta (Sam Baily), Dustin Hoffman (Max Brackett), Mia Kirshner (Laurie Callahan), Alan Alda (Kevin Hollander), Robert Prosky (Lou Potts), Blythe Danner (Mrs Banks), William Atherton (Dohlen), Ted Levine (Alvin Lemke)
'Despite its easy social conscience, the movie is often hilarious and zeroes in on an essential, heartless truth about journalism.' – David Tse, Sight and Sound
† The film did poorly at the US box-office, taking around $10.4m.

'They don't take no bull.'

Mad Cows

GB 1999 90m Technicolor
Entertainment/Capitol/Newmarket/Flashlight (Frank Mannion, Aaron Simpson)

Jailed for shoplifting, an Australian woman breaks out of prison in order to get even with the uncaring, aristocratic father of her child and to stop the baby being adopted.
A failed farce that tempts its cast into overacting whenever possible, which is made worse by the clichéd directorial style, full of meaningless flourishes.
w Sara Sugarman, Sasha Hails novel Kathy Lette d Sara Sugarman ph Pierre Aim m Mark Thomas pd Joseph Nemec III ed John Jympson
☆ Anna Friel (Maddy), Joanna Lumley (Gillian), Anna Massey (Dwina Phelps), Greg Wise (Alex), Phyllida Law (Alex's mother), John Standing (Politician), Nicholas Woodeson (Slynne), Prunella Scales (Dr Minny Stinkler), Jodie Kidd (Tracey), Sophie Dahl (Prisoner)
'So astonishingly bad it made me break out in a thin film of cold sweat.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A third-rate Carry On farce that will only make you weep and wonder: how did they ever get the money to make a film as bad as this?' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

'She knew the ecstasy and terror of loving him!'

The Mad Doctor

US 1941 90m bw
Paramount (George Arthur)
GB title: A Date with Destiny

A doctor marries wealthy women and then murders them.
Naïve melodrama of little interest except as a vehicle for its star.
w Howard J. Green d Tim Whelan ph Ted Tetzlaff m Victor Young ☆ Basil Rathbone, Ellen Drew, John Howard, Barbara Jo Allen, Ralph Morgan, Martin Kosleck

The Mad Doctor of Blood Island

Philippines/USA 1969 86m colour
Westland/Hemisphere (Eddie Romero)

aka: Tomb of the Living Dead
Visitors to a Pacific island discover that a scientist searching for the secret of eternal life has created a vegetable monster.
Dreary horror that receives the inept treatment it deserves from all those concerned in its making.
w Reuben Candy d Gerardo de Leon, Eddie Romero ph Justo Paulino m Tito Arevalo
☆ John Ashley, Angelique Pettyjohn, Ronald Remy, Alicia Alonso
'The script is trite, the dramatic structure slack and the violence unconvincing.' – Paul Joannides, MFB

Mad Dog and Glory

US 1992 97m Technicolor
UIP/Universal (Barbara DeFina, Martin Scorsese)

A timid and conventional Chicago cop is embarrassed when a gangster he inadvertently helps gives him a present of a beautiful woman for a week.
A movie that promises much but fails to deliver, quickly dwindling into something inconsequential, though it occasionally amuses; the problem lies in the passivity of its two central characters, including a female role that is totally inert.
w Richard Price d John McNaughton ph Robby Müller m Elmer Bernstein pd David Chapman ed Craig McKay, Elena Maganini
☆ Robert DeNiro, Uma Thurman, Bill Murray, David Caruso, Mike Starr, Tom Towles, Kathy Baker
'A pleasurably offbeat picture that manages the rare trick of being both charming and edgy.' – Variety
'Price's macho fantasy smells way past its dwell-by date.' – Ian Penman, Sight and Sound

Mad Dog Coll

US 1961 87m bw
Columbia-Warner/Thalia (Edward Schreiber)

Biopic about a violent gangster of the 1930s.
Predictable low-budget exploitation movie, offering no new insights into the times and the vicious mobsters it bred.
w Edward Schreiber story Leo Lieberman d Burt Balaban ph Gayne Reschner m Stu Phillips ad Richard Sylbert ed Ralph Rosenblum
☆ John Davis Chandler, Neil Nephew, Brooke Hayward, Jerry Orbach, Telly Savalas, Vincent Gardenia, Gene Hackman

Mad Dog Time: see Trigger Happy

Mad Dogs and Englishmen

GB 1995 97m Technicolor
Entertainment/Movie Screen/Moor Street (Peter Watson-Wood, Nigel Thomas)

An aristocratic drug addict is targeted by a corrupt cop who wants her dead.
Dim, daft thriller that becomes ever-more risible as it continues.
w Tim Sewell d Henry Cole ph John Peters m Barrie Guard pd Tony Stringer ed Lionel Selwyn, Simon Hilton ☆ Elizabeth Hurley, C. Thomas Howell, Joss Ackland, Claire Bloom, Frederick Treves, Andrew Connolly, Jeremy Brett, Louise Delamere
'Baffling to the point of boredom, this British thriller is as gripping as KY Jelly.' – Empire
'God-awful and quite rightly torn to shreds.' – Joss Ackland

'Adults Only! Censor's orders!'

The Mad Genius

US 1931 81m bw
Warner

A crippled puppeteer adopts a boy and makes him into a great dancer.
Curious variation on Trilby, filmed as Svengali the previous year with much the same cast. Not a great success: the script is dreadful.
w J. Grubb Alexander, Harvey Thew play The Idol by Martin Brown d Michael Curtiz ph Barney McGill ad Anton Grot
☆ John Barrymore, Marian Marsh, Donald Cook, Luis Alberni, Carmel Myers, Charles Butterworth, Boris Karloff, Frankie Darro
'Magnificent acting, but not the sort of thing that will panic the fans.' – Variety † Many of the sets in this production had ceilings, ten years before the idea was supposed to have been invented for Citizen Kane.

The Mad Ghoul

US 1943 65m bw
Universal (Ben Pivar)

A mad scientist needs fresh hearts to keep alive the victims of his experiments with a poison vapour.
Stagey, tasteless horror melodrama.
w Brenda Weisberg, Paul Gangelin story Hans Kraly d James Hogan ph Milton Krasner md Hans Salter ad John B. Goodman ed Milton Carruth
☆ George Zucco, David Bruce, Evelyn Ankers, Turhan Bey, Robert Armstrong, Charles McGraw, Milburn Stone

'Anyone can make it if they know how to shake it.'

Mad Hot Ballroom ★★★ (7)

US 2005 106m colour
Metrodome/Just One (Amy Sewell, Marilyn Agrelo)

Children from New York City elementary schools train to take part in a ballroom dancing competition.
Heartwarming documentary about an inspired teacher and inspirational children.
w Amy Sewell d Marilyn Agrelo ph Claudia Raschke-Robinson m Steven Lutvak, Joseph Baker ed Sabine Krayenbuhl ☆ Yomaira Reynoso, Wilson Castillo, Alyssa Polack, Michell Rodriguez, Elsamelys Ulerio
'A documentary experience to savor. Warm, funny and very difficult to resist.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Mad Little Island: see Rockets Galore

'Dead hands that live... and love... and kill!'

Mad Love ★★

US 1935 83m bw
MGM (John Considine Jnr)

GB title: The Hands of Orlac

A pianist loses his hands in an accident; a mad surgeon, in love with the pianist's wife, grafts on the hands of a murderer.
Absurd Grand Guignol done with great style which somehow does not communicate itself in viewer interest, only in cold admiration.
w Guy Endore, P. J. Wolfson, John Balderston novel The Hands of Orlac by Maurice Renard d Karl Freund ph Chester Lyons, Gregg Toland m Dmitri Tiomkin
☆ Colin Clive, Peter Lorre, Frances Drake, Ted Healy, Edward Brophy, Isabel Jewell, Sara Haden
'The results in screen potency are disappointing ... will probably do fair biz.' – Variety
'Mr Lorre cuts deeply into the darkness of the morbid brain.' – New York Times

Mad Love

US 1995 95m Technicolor
Buena Vista (David Manson)

An inhibited youth runs off with a lively girl whose behaviour soon becomes unbalanced.
A road movie about a manic depressive that is only occasionally interesting; neither of its main characters attains any individuality.
w Paula Milne d Antonia Bird ph Fred Tammes m Andy Roberts pd David Brisbin ed Jeff Freeman ☆ Chris O'Donnell, Drew Barrymore, Matthew Lillard, Richard Chaim, Robert Nadir, Joan Allen, Jude Ciccolella, Amy Sakasitz
'There's a half-decent road movie desperate to break free, but it gets stuck in a mire of fatuous slush.' – Empire

'Was it a hoax or horror? Magic or Murder!'

The Mad Magician

US 1954 72m bw
Columbia (Bryan Foy)

A magician's star-struck inventor murders his employer and several others who stand between him and the big time.
Hokey horror flick set in the eighties and originally shown in 3-D.
w Crane Wilbur d John Brahm ph Bert Glennon m Emil Newman, Arthur Lange ad P. Frank Sylos ed Grant Whytock
☆ Vincent Price (Don Gallico), Mary Murphy (Karen Lee), Eva Gabor (Claire Gallico Ormond), John Emery (Rinaldi), Patrick O'Neal (Det Bruce Allen), Donald Randolph (Ross Ormond), Lenita Lane (Alice Prentice), Jay Novello (Frank Prentice), Lyle Talbot (Barker)

The Mad Martindales

US 1942 55m bw
Walter Morosco/TCF

In 1900 San Francisco, an eccentric family gets out of debt.
The star's last film for a major studio is a filler of unrelieved tedium.
w Francis Edward Faragoh d Alfred Werker
☆ Jane Withers, Alan Mowbray, Marjorie Weaver, Jimmy Lydon, Byron Barr, George Reeves

Mad Masquerade: see Washington Masquerade

Mad Max ★

Australia 1979 100m Eastmancolor
Todd-AO 35
Warner/Mad Max Pty (Byron Kennedy)

In the future, motor cycle gangs combat the police.
Violent extravaganza with no real merit save its enthusiasm for destruction of both bikes and bodies.
w James McCausland, George Miller d George Miller ph David Eggby m Brian

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

May ad Jon Dowding ed Tony Paterson, Cliff Hayes
☆ Mel Gibson, Joanne Samuel, Hugh Keays-Byrne, Steve Bisley

'Ruthless ... Savage ... Spectacular'

Mad Max 2 ★

Australia 1981 96m colour Panavision
Warner/Kennedy Miller Entertainment (Byron Kennedy)

US title: The Road Warrior
A shortage of petrol causes all-out war between police and bikers.
Not much more than a retread of the above, but a more expensive, spectacular and violent one.
w Terry Hayes, George Miller, Brian Hannant d George Miller ph Dean Semler m Brian May ad Graham Walker ed David Stiven, Tim Wellburn, Michael Chirgwin
☆ Mel Gibson, Bruce Spence, Vernon Wells, Emil Minty

'Essentially just another display of vehicles smashing into each other.' – David McGillivray, MFB

Mad Max Beyond Thunderdome

Australia 1985 106m colour Panavision
Warner/Kennedy Miller (George Miller)

A drifter arrives in a desert town ruled by a ruthless woman.
More violent futuristic rubbish in similar vein to its predecessors.
w Terry Hayes, George Miller d George Miller and George Ogilvie ph Dean Semler m Maurice Jarre pd Graham Walker ed Richard Francis-Bruce ☆ Mel Gibson, Tina Turner, Angelo Rossitto, Helen Buday

The Mad Miss Manton ★

US 1938 80m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A zany socialite involves her friends in a murder mystery.
Mildly funny comedy-thriller without too much of either, but a good example of the style of thirties craziness at its zenith.
w Philip G. Epstein d Leigh Jason ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb ☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Henry Fonda, Sam Levene, Frances Mercer, Stanley Ridges, Whitney Bourne, Hattie McDaniel, Miles Mander

'Something ground out by people in a desperate mood.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Mad Monkey

Spain 1990 108m Eastmancolor Panavision
Hobo/Iberoamericana Films/Emmanuel Schlumberger (Andres Vincente Gomez)

original title: El Mono Loco
A screenwriter becomes involved with a young, incestuous brother and sister.
Ridiculous farrago of sex and drugs, devoid of sense and sensuality.
w Fernando Trueba, Manolo Matji novel The Dream of the Mad Monkey by Christopher Frank d Fernando Trueba ph Jose Luis Alcaine m Antoine Duhamel ad Pierre-Louis Thevenet ed Carmen Frias
☆ Jeff Goldblum, Miranda Richardson, Anemone, Dexter Fletcher, Daniel Ceccaldi, Liza Walker, Jerome Natali, Arielle Dombasle, Micaela Sebastian

The Mad Monster

US 1942 77m bw
Sigmund Neufeld/PRC

A mad scientist injects wolf blood into a man, who goes around at night killing people.
Inept and uncontrolled shocker, the kind of thing that gives horror films a bad name.
w Fred Myton d Sam Newfield
☆ George Zucco, Johnny Downs, Glenn Strange, Anne Nagel

Mad Monster Party

US 1967 94m Eastmancolor Animagic
Embassy/Videocraft (Arthur Rankin Jnr)

Baron von Frankenstein invites Dracula, the Mummy, the Werewolf, the Hunchback of Notre Dame and other monsters to a party to celebrate his new invention.
A children's film that uses stop-motion animated figures, it is harmless but trivial entertainment.
w Len Korobkin, Harvey Kurtzman story Arthur Rankin Jnr d Jules Bass m Maury Laws m/ly Maury Laws, Jules Bass sp character design: Jack Davis
☆ Featuring the voices of Boris Karloff, Phyllis Diller, Alan Swift, Gale Garnett

The Mad Parade

US 1931 62m bw
Liberty/Paramount

A story told by women about the effect of the war on their sex.
Not really strong enough to be taken seriously, this was played as a novelty.
w Henry McCarthy and Frank R. Conkin story Gertrude Orr and Doris Malloy d William Beaudine
☆ Evelyn Brent, Irene Rich, Louise Fazenda, Lilyan Tashman, Marceline Day

'Chances for disappointing business greater than the opposite.' – Variety

The Mad Room

US 1969 92m Berkeley-Pathé
Columbia/Norman Mauer

A companion kills her wealthy employer so that her mentally retarded brother and sister will have a home.
Tasteless remake of Ladies in Retirement, in the brutalized vein which audiences are supposed by producers to want. In modern dress and sharp locations, it succeeds only in being nauseating.
w Bernard Girard, A. Z. Martin d Bernard Girard ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Dave Grusin ☆ Stella Stevens, Shelley Winters, Skip Ward, Carol Cole, Severn Darden Mad Wednesday ★

US 1947 79m bw
Howard Hughes

aka: The Sin of Harold Diddlebock
A middle-aged book-keeper is sacked and goes on the town.
Woolly and unattractive farce which proved something of a disaster for all the talents concerned but historically is of considerable interest. It begins with an excerpt from The Freshman and continues to comic adventures with a lion.
ph Robert Pittack m Werner Richard Heymann wd/pd Preston Sturges (re-edited by others)
☆ Harold Lloyd, Jimmy Conlin, Raymond Walburn, Franklin Pangborn, Al Bridge, Margaret Hamilton, Edgar Kennedy

† It has been released on video in Sturges' original 90m version, which was later cut to 79m by Howard Hughes.

'Someone's got a zoo loose.'

Madagascar

US 2005 86m Technicolor
DreamWorks/PDI (Mireille Soria)

Through a series of unfortunate circumstances four zoo animal friends experience life in the wild.
*Charmless animated movie about New Yorkers removed from their natural environment, relying on in-jokes of movie theme tunes (*Born Free and the like) to provide amusement.
w Mark Burton, Billy Frolick, Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath d Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath m Hans Zimmer pd Kendal Cronkhite-Shaindlin ed H. Lee Peterson ☆ voices of: Ben Stiller (Alex the Lion), Chris Rock (Marty the Zebra), David Schwimmer (Melman the Giraffe), Jada Pinkett Smith (Gloria the Hippo), Sacha Baron Cohen (King Julien), Cedric the Entertainer (Maurice), Andy Richter (Mort)

'Pleasant, if mediocre family fare.' – Variety

Madagascar Skin

GB 1995 93m colour
BFI/Channel 4/Dan (Julie Baines)

A shy young homosexual, whose face bears a large birthmark in the shape of Madagascar, forms an uneasy relationship with a burly older man, whom he finds on a lonely beach buried up to his neck in sand.
A thin, almost arid tale of an unlikely love, well acted, but directed with a greater interest in visual compositions than in people.
wd Chris Newby ph Oliver Curtis pd Paul Cross ed Chris Newby, Annabel Ware ☆ Bernard Hill, John Hannah, Mark Anthony, Mark Petit, Danny Earl

'An eccentric and unselfconscious comedy which will surprise as much as it satisfies.' – Empire

Madam Satan ★

US 1930 105m bw
MGM (C. B. de Mille)

When her husband strays, a socialite disguises herself as a mysterious femme fatale and wins him back.
Abysmal comedy in which both director and principals appear frozen until the closing reels present a crazy, spectacular party on a dirigible which crashes but allows a happy ending.
w Jeanie Macpherson, Gladys Unger, Elsie Janis d C. B. de Mille ph Harold Rosson m Herbert Stothart m/ly Clifford Grey, Herbert Stothart, Elsie Janis, Jack King ad Cedric Gibbons, Mitchell Leisen ed Anne Bauchens ☆ Kay Johnson, Reginald Denny, Lillian Roth, Roland Young

'A strange conglomeration of unreal incidents that are sometimes set forth with no little technical skill.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times

Madame: see Madame Sans-Gêne (1962)

Madame Bovary ★

France 1933 120m bw
NSF (Robert Aron)

The bored wife of a provincial doctor seeks excitement and finds only disappointment and death.
A flawed version of Flaubert's novel, not helped by having had an hour cut from it before its original release, so that it has lost some of its characterization and continuity; the stylized acting by a cast drawn largely from the theatre, in contrast to the reality of the settings, adds to a feeling of dislocation.
wd Jean Renoir novel Gustave Flaubert ph Jean Bachelet m Darius Milhaud ad Robert Bys ed Marguerite Renoir
☆ Max Dearly, Valentine Tessier, Pierre Renoir, Daniel Lecourtois, Fernand Fabre

'Whatever it is that French women have – Madame Bovary had more of it!'

Madame Bovary

US 1949 114m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A passionate girl marries a dull husband, takes a lover, and commits suicide.
Dull, emasculated version of a classic.
w Robert Ardrey novel Gustave Flaubert d Vincente Minnelli ph Robert Planck m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Jack Martin Smith ☆ Jennifer Jones, Van Heflin, James Mason, Louis Jourdan, Christopher Kent, Gene Lockhart, Gladys Cooper, John Abbott, George Zucco

'If you hadn't read the book, you wouldn't guess what it was about from this film.' – Pauline Kael, 70s † Previously filmed in 1932 as Unholy Love.
art direction

Madame Bovary

France 1991 120m colour
Arrow/MK2/CED/FR3 (Marin Karmitz)

A bored housewife with social pretensions, married to a doctor, indulges in self-destructive behaviour.
A reasonably faithful, but lifeless, adaptation, which seems as stultifying as the middle-class existence it portrays.
wd Claude Chabrol novel Gustave Flaubert ph Jean Rabier m Matthieu Chabrol ad Michèle Abbé ed Monique Fardoulis
☆ Isabelle Huppert, Jean-François Balmer, Christophe Malavoy, Jean Yanne, Lucas Belvaux, Christiane Minazzoli

'Respectful, luxurious and eminently forgettable.' – Sight and Sound

'One of the world's magnificent romances of great, unselfish love!'

Madame Butterfly

US 1932 88m bw
Paramount (B. P. Schulberg)

A Japanese geisha commits hara kiri when an American lieutenant passes her up for a western girl.
Drearily modernized version of the opera without its music; an odd idea to say the least.
w Josephine Lovett, Joseph M. March story John Luther Long play David Belasco d Marion Gering ph David Abel md W. Franke Harling
☆ Sylvia Sidney, Cary Grant, Charlie Ruggles, Sandor Kallay, Irving Pichel, Helen Jerome Eddy

'The long-drawn tragedy might be bearable if it were expressed in music or poetry, without any such embellishment it is apt to be painfully pathetic.' – The Times
'Travels slow and makes for only fair entertainment.' – Variety

Madame Butterfly ★★

France/Japan/Germany/GB 1995 134m colour 'Scope
Blue Dolphin/Erato/Idéale/France3/Imalyre/VTCOM/Sony Classical (Daniel Toscan du Plantier, Pierre-Olivier Bardet)

In Japan in the early 1900s, an American naval officer casually marries and abandons a Japanese girl.
An effective and authentic-looking staging of the opera, acted and sung with conviction.
wd Frédéric Mitterrand opera Giacomo Puccini libretto Giuseppe Giacosa, Luigi Illica ph Philippe Welt md James Conlon ad Michel Glotz, Daniel Zalay, Michèle Abbe-Vannier, Taïeb Jellouli ed Luc Barnier ☆ Ying Huang, Richard Troxell, Ning Liang, Richard Cowan, Jing Ma Fan, Christopheren Nomura, Constance Hauman

'Mr and Mrs Miniver together again!'

Madame Curie ★

US 1943 124m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

The life and marriage of the woman who discovered radium.
Dignified and rather dull biopic which well exemplifies MGM's best production style of the forties.
w Paul Osborn, Paul H. Rameau book Eve Curie d Mervyn Le Roy ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Paul Groesse
☆ Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Henry Travers, Albert Basserman, Robert Walker, C. Aubrey Smith, Dame May Whitty, Victor Francen, Elsa Basserman, Reginald Owen, Van Johnson
'It achieves a notable triumph in making the discovery of a new element seem almost as glamorous as an encounter with Hedy Lamarr.' – C. A. Lejeune best picture; Joseph Ruttenberg; Herbert Stothart; Greer Garson; Walter Pidgeon; art direction

Madame De... ★

France/Italy 1953 102m bw
Franco-London/Indus/Rizzoli

US title: The Earrings of Madame de...
Tragic misunderstandings arise when a society wife sells her earrings and tells her husband she has lost them.
Elegant, rather heavy-handed but superbly glossy extension of a fashionable novelette.
w Marcel Achard, Max Ophüls, Annette Wademant novel Louise de Vilmorin d Max Ophüls ph Christian Matras m Oscar Straus, Georges Van Parys ad Jean d'Eaubonne
☆ Charles Boyer, Danielle Darrieux, Vittorio de Sica, Lea di Lea, Jean Debucourt

Madame Dubarry ★★

Germany 1919 85m (24 fps) bw silent
Union-UFA

US title: Passion
The life and times of the glamorous courtesan of Louis XV.
Milestone silent film which introduced to the cinemas of America and Britain not only the subtleties of the European cinema but the more adaptable subtleties of a key director, here dealing rather heavy-handedly with material which he should later have re-used.
w Fred Orbing, Hans Kraly d Ernst Lubitsch ph Theodor Sparkuhl ☆ Pola Negri, Emil Jannings, Harry Liedtke, Reinhold Schünzel

Madame Dubarry

US 1934 77m bw
Warner

The life of the legendary courtesan at Versailles.
Utterly unpersuasive but sometimes decorative historical charade.
w Edward Chodorov d William Dieterle
☆ Dolores del Rio, Reginald Owen, Victor Jory, Anita Louise, Osgood Perkins, Verree Teasdale
'A lavish but not particularly distinguished production.' – Variety

Madame Pimpernel: see Paris Underground

Madame Rosa

France 1977 120m Eastmancolor
Lira Films

original title: La Vie Devant Soi
An elderly Jewish prostitute runs an unofficial nursery school and cares especially for a fourteen-year-old Arab.
Splendidly acted but basically dreary fable twisted from a novel which took the child's point of view.
wd Moshe Mizrahi novel Emile Ajar ph Nestor Almendros m Philippe Sarde ☆ Simone Signoret, Claude Dauphin, Samy Ben Youb
best foreign film

Madame Sans-Gêne

US 1925 110m (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount

During the French Revolution, Napoleon plays Cupid to a laundry-maid and her lover.
The story formed the basis of one of Gloria Swanson's last successes; but it was made in France and did not have the zip of her Hollywood productions.
w Forrest Halsey d Léonce Perret
☆ Charles de Roche, Emile Drain, Gloria Swanson

Madame Sans-Gêne

France/Italy/Spain 1962 100m
Technirama
TCF/Cine Alliance/Gesi/Champion/Agata (Maleno Malenotti)
GB and US title: Madame
Historical romp based on an old theatrical warhorse.
Pretty stilted in this version; especially when dubbed.
w Henri Jeanson and others play Victorien Sardou d Christian-Jaque ph Roberto Gerardi m Francesco Lavagnino ☆ Sophia Loren, Robert Hossein, Julien Bertheau, Marina Berti

Madame Sousatzka

GB 1988 122m Eastmancolor
Curzon/Sousatzka Productions (Robin Dalton)

A piano teacher is reluctant to let go of her star pupil.
A parade of eccentrics is mixed with a little domestic drama, but it all remains inert and uninteresting.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, John Schlesinger novel Bernice Rubens d John Schlesinger ph Nat Crosby m Gerald Gouriet pd Luciana Arrighi ed Peter Honess ☆ Shirley MacLaine, Peggy Ashcroft, Twiggy, Shabana Azmi, Leigh Lawson, Geoffrey Bayldon, Lee Montague, Robert Rietty, Navin Chowdhry
'No amount of technical finesse, or polite musical trappings, can make the film seem other than an unswallowable, old-fashioned, overlong slab of confectionery.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

Madame Spy

US 1942 63m bw
Universal

A glamorous Nazi spy turns out to be an American secret agent.
Elementary espionage stuff without much in the way of plot development.
w Lynn Riggs, Clarence Upson Young d Roy William Neill ph George Robinson ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Constance Bennett, Don Porter, John Litel, Edward Brophy, John Eldredge

Madame X ★

US 1929 95m bw
MGM

TV title: Absinthe
After an accidental death, a wealthy woman disappears and goes down in the world; at a subsequent murder trial she is defended by her unrecognizing son.
Two silent versions (with Dorothy Donnelly and Pauline Frederick) had been made of this old theatrical warhorse; two sound versions followed this one. The thing defies criticism.
w Willard Mack play Alexandre Bisson d Lionel Barrymore
☆ Ruth Chatterton, Raymond Hackett, Mitchell Lewis, Sidney Toler, Carroll Nye, Lewis Stone, Richard Carle
'Works like this confound the reformers, elevate the name of pictures, and tell the world that there is an art in film making.' – Variety
Lionel Barrymore; Ruth Chatterton

Madame X ★

US 1937 72m bw
MGM (James K. McGuinness)

Competent remake with an excellent cast.
w John Meehan d Sam Wood ph John B. Seitz m David Snell ad Cedric Gibbons ed Frank Hull ☆ Gladys George, John Beal, Warren William, Reginald Owen, Lynne Carver, Henry Daniell, Emma Dunn, Ruth Hussey, George Zucco, William Henry
'An upper bracketer when played with a strong companion.' – Variety
'A fine old play, dated and outmoded. Audiences will leave the theatre expecting to find the coachman with horse and buggy.' – Variety

'One man drove her to it – one man tempted her – one man degraded her – one man defended her!'

Madame X

US 1965 100m Technicolor
Universal/Ross Hunter/Eltee

An elaborately dressed remake which suffered from a wooden lead; the more expensive the production, the more obvious the holes in the plot and the psychology.
w Jean Holloway play Alexandre Bisson d David Lowell Rich ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen, George Webb ed Milton Carruth cos Jean Louis
☆ Lana Turner, John Forsythe, Ricardo Montalban, Constance Bennett, Burgess Meredith, Keir Dullea, Virginia Grey, Warren Stevens
'One is free to enjoy a luxurious wallow in emotions that are all the more enjoyable for having no connection whatever with reality.' – Brenda Davies

The Madcap Adventures of Mr Toad: see Ichabod and Mr Toad

Das Mädchen Rosemarie: see The Girl Rosemarie

Made

US 2001 94m DeLuxe
Momentum/Artisan (Vince Vaughn, Jon Favreau)

Two friends muddle through when they run an errand for a Los Angeles gangster.
Lumbering buddy movie with a few likeable moments.
wd Jon Favreau ph Chris Doyle m John O'Brien, Lyle Workman pd Anne Stuhler ed Curtiss Clayton ☆ Jon Favreau (Bobby), Vince Vaughn (Ricky), Sean Combs (Ruiz), Famke Janssen (Jessica), Faizon Love (Horrace), David O'Hara (Welshman), Vincent Pastore (Jimmy), Peter Falk (Max)
'The kind of crime comedy that you root for even as it grows progressively more irritating.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

Made for Each Other ★

US 1938 90m bw
David O. Selznick

Problems of a lawyer and his new wife culminate in the near-death of their infant son.
Smooth star tearjerker.
w Jo Swerling d John Cromwell ph Leon Shamroy m Hugo Friedhofer, David Buttolph pd William Cameron Menzies theme Oscar Levant
☆ Carole Lombard, James Stewart, Charles Coburn, Lucile Watson, Harry Davenport, Eddie Quillan, Esther Dale, Louise Beavers
'Made to order for strong box office.' – Variety

Made for Each Other ★

US 1971 107m DeLuxe
TCF/Wylde Films (Roy Townshend)

Romance between two New Yorkers with inferiority complexes.
Elongated cabaret sketch, a Brooklynesque comedy of flashy brilliance but limited general interest.
w Renée Taylor, Joe Bologna d Robert B. Bean ph William Storz
☆ Renée Taylor, Joe Bologna

'At the sperm-bank, she asked for a tall, intelligent, black man. One out of three ain't bad.'

Made in America

US 1993 110m Technicolor
Warner/Stonebridge/Kalola/Regency/Canal (Arnon Milchan, Michael Douglas, Rick Bieber)

A black teenager, born by artificial insemination, discovers that her father is a white car-salesman with a crass manner.
An occasionally amusing comedy, owing more to the performances than the script, which skirts all the racial issues it raises to settle for a comforting situation comedy.
w Holly Goldberg Sloan story Marcia Brandwynne, Nadine Schiff d Richard Benjamin ph Ralf Bode m Mark Isham pd Evelyn Sakash ed Jacqueline Cambas ☆ Whoopi Goldberg, Ted Danson, Will Smith, Nia Long, Paul Rodriguez, Jennifer Tilly, Peggy Rea, Clyde Kusatsu
'It's a likeable effort, good enough for a sultry summer evening at the multiplex when the film you came to see is sold out.' – Sight and Sound

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Made in Heaven

GB 1952 81m Technicolor
Rank/Fanfare

Married couples compete for the Dunmow Flitch.

Easy-going family comedy which aims to be liked.

w William Douglas Home d John Paddy Carstairs ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Ronald Hanmer

☆ David Tomlinson, Petula Clark, Sonja Ziemann, A. E. Matthews, Charles Victor, Sophie Stewart, Richard Wattis, Athene Seyler

Made in Heaven

US 1987 103m colour
Rudolph-Blocker/Lorimar (Raynold Gideon, Bruce A. Evans, David Blocker)

A boy is sent back from heaven to find his lost love.

Droopy fantasy on the lines of Here Comes Mr Jordan but without the wit.

w Bruce A. Evans, Raynold Gideon d Alan Rudolph ph Jan Kiesser m Mark Isham pd Paul Peters ed Tom Walls

☆ Timothy Hutton, Kelly McGillis, Maureen Stapleton, Don Murray, Marj Dusay, Debra Winger

Made in Hong Kong ★

Hong Kong 1997 109m colour
ICA/Shu Kei's Creative Workshop/Nicetop/Team Work (Andy Lau, Doris Yang)

original title: Xianggang Zhizao

A gangster's debt collector believes he is haunted by the spirit of a dead schoolgirl, as he tries to raise money for a kidney transplant for the teenager he loves.

Nihilistic thriller of rootless young people on the edge; it de-glamorises violence and crime and doesn't leave its audience feeling good about life.

wd Fruit Chan ph O Sing-pui, Lam Wah-chuen m Lam Wah-chuen ad Ma Ka-kwan ed Tin Sam-fat cos Tin Muk

☆ Sam Lee Chan-Sam (To Chung-chau, 'August Moon'), Wenbers Li Tung-Chuen (Ah-Lung, 'Sylvester'), Neiky Yim (Lam Yuk-ping), Amy Tam (Susan), Chan Tat-Yee (Fat Chan), Doris Chow (Mrs To), Chang Sang (Cheung Siu-Wing)

'A portrait of angry youth that's as hypnotic as it's often maddeningly kinetic.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† The film was made for $80,000, using non-professional actors, and utilising the short-ends of film stock from movies that Chan had worked on over the years as an assistant director.

Madeleine ★

GB 1949 114m bw
GFD/David Lean/Cineguild (Stanley Haynes)

In Victorian Glasgow a well-to-do young woman is accused of murdering her lover, but the verdict is 'not proven'.

Dramatically dead because of its ambiguous ending, this lavish and good-looking treatment of a cause célèbre was a mistake for all concerned, but its incidental pleasures are considerable.

w Nicholas Phipps, Stanley Haynes d David Lean ph Guy Green m William Alwyn pd John Bryan cos Margaret Furse

☆ Ann Todd, Leslie Banks, Elizabeth Sellars, Ivor Barnard, Ivan Desny, Norman Wooland, Edward Chapman, Barbara Everest, André Morell, Barry Jones, Jean Cadell, John Laurie, Eugene Deckers

'In an old house in Paris that was covered in vines, lived twelve little girls in two straight lines.'

Madeline ★

US 1998 90m Technicolor
Sony Pictures/TriStar Pictures/Jaffilms/Pancho Kohner/Saul Cooper

In Paris, a girl rescues the son of an ambassador and ensures that the orphanage in which she lives is not shut down.

Energetic children's film of resourceful and plucky girls; adults may find it a little trying before the end.

w Mark Levin, Jennifer Flackett book Ludwig Bemelmans d Daisy von Scherler Mayer ph Pierre Aim m Michel Legrand pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Jeffrey Wolf

☆ Frances McDormand, Nigel Hawthorne, Hatty Jones, Stéphane Audran, Ben Daniels, Arturo Venegas, Katia Caballero, Chantal Neuwirth, Kristian de la Osa

'Witless and dramatically inept.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Mademoiselle Docteur ★

GB 1937 84m bw
Grafton/Trafalgar (Max Schach)

A German lady spy falls for a British agent.

War melodrama vaguely based on fact and later remade as Fräulein Doktor.

w Jacques Natanson, Marcel Achard, Ernest Betts d Edmond T. Gréville ph Otto Heller

☆ Dita Parlo, John Loder, Erich von Stroheim, Claire Luce, Gyles Isham, Clifford Evans, John Abbott

'Even a thriller cannot thrill unless the characters are established in our imaginations, and the packed plot of this film allows them no chance.' – Graham Greene

Mademoiselle Fifi ★

US 1944 69m bw
RKO (Val Lewton)

During the Franco-Prussian war a stagecoach is held up because a prostitute, despite the urging of her fellow passengers, refuses to sleep with a Prussian officer. When she gives in, they shun her, and she kills him.

Interesting low budget version of a story which inspired many films.

w Josef Mischel, Peter Ruric stories Boule de Suif/Mademoiselle Fifi by Guy de Maupassant d Robert Wise ph Harry Wild m Werner Heymann

☆ Simone Simon, Kurt Kreuger, John Emery, Alan Napier, Jason Robards Sr, Norma Varden, Helen Freeman, Fay Helm

'There is a gallant, fervent quality about the whole picture, faults and all, which gives it a peculiar kind of life and likeableness, and which signifies that there is one group of men working in Hollywood who have neither lost nor taken care to conceal the purity of their hope and intention.' – James Agee

Mademoiselle France: see Reunion in France

Madhouse ★

GB 1974 92m Eastmancolor
AIP/Amicus (Milton Subotsky)

A reluctant horror actor makes a comeback and finds himself involved in a series of grisly murders.

In-jokey horror piece with clips from old AIP chillers; quite likeable.

w Greg Morrison novel Devilday by Angus Hall d Jim Clark ph Ray Parslow m Douglas Gamley

☆ Vincent Price, Peter Cushing, Robert Quarry, Adrienne Corri, Natasha Pyne, Linda Hayden, Barry Dennen

Madhouse

US 1990 90m colour
Rank/Orion/A Boy of the Year (Leslie Dixon)

Unwanted friends and neighbours move in as house guests of a young couple.

Remarkably unfunny domestic comedy, directed with a heavy hand.

wd Tom Ropelewski ph Denis Lewiston m David Newman pd Dan Leigh ed Michael Jablow

☆ John Larroquette, Kirstie Alley, Alison LaPlaca, John Diehl, Jessica Lundy, Bradley Gregg, Dennis Miller, Robert Ginty, Wayne Tippit

Madigan ★

US 1968 100m Techniscope
Universal (Frank P. Rosenberg)

A Brooklyn police detective brings in a dangerous escaped criminal at the cost of his own life.

Lively, well-characterized police thriller with excellent locations.

w Henri Simoun, Abraham Polonsky novel The Commissioner by Richard Dougherty d Don Siegel ph Russell Metty m Don Costa

☆ Richard Widmark, Henry Fonda, Michael Dunn, Inger Stevens, Harry Guardino, James Whitmore, Susan Clark, Steve Ihnat, Don Stroud, Sheree North, Warren Stevens, Raymond St Jacques

† The character was later resurrected for a TV series also starring Richard Widmark.

Madison Avenue

US 1961 94m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Bruce Humberstone)

An advertising executive plans to revenge himself on his treacherous boss.

Predictable melodrama with an adequate plot but dismal acting and presentation.

w Norman Corwin novel The Build-Up Boys by Jeremy Kirk d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Charles G. Clarke m Harry Sukman

☆ Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, Eleanor Parker, Eddie Albert, Howard St John, Henry Daniell, Kathleen Freeman

'Simply nowhere near grand enough.' – MFB

Madman

US 1982 88m Cineffects colour
The Legend Lives (Gary Sales)

Young counsellors at a rundown summer camp discover that the nearby woods are the home of a mad axeman.

Deliberately formulaic slasher movie, in the mould of Friday the 13th, but much mouldier.

wd Joe Giannone ph James Momel m Stephen Horelick md Gary Sales ed Daniel Loewenthal

☆ Alexis Dubin (Betsy), Tony Fish (T. P.), Harriet Bass (Stacey), Seth Jones (Dave), Jan Claire (Ellie), Alex Murphy (Bill), Jimmy Steele (Richie), Paul Ehlers (Madman Marz)

'His Majesty was all powerful and all knowing. But he wasn't quite all there.'
'First he lost America. Now he's losing his mind.'

The Madness of King George ★★★

GB 1994 107m Technicolor
Rank/Samuel Goldwyn/Channel 4/Close Call (Stephen Evans, David Parfitt)

In the 1780s, King George III's behaviour becomes more and more eccentric and unbalanced until he is diagnosed as mad and comes close to losing his power.

Entertaining drama of the eccentricities of royalty, speculating that the King's problem may have been caused by the illness porphyria, and which also obliquely questions the point of the monarchy. Directed with a sense of pace and an excellent eye for the inequalities of society, even within palaces, it gains immeasurably by the superb performance of Hawthorne in the title role, honed by his having played it so often on stage.

w Alan Bennett play The Madness of George III by Alan Bennett d Nicholas Hytner ph Andrew Dunn m George Fenton, Handel pd Ken Adam ad Martin Childs ed Tariq Anwar

☆ Nigel Hawthorne (King George III), Helen Mirren (Queen Charlotte), Ian Holm (Willis), Amanda Donohoe (Lady Pembroke), Rupert Graves (Greville), Rupert Everett (The Prince of Wales), Jim Carter (Fox), Geoffrey Palmer (Warren), John Wood (Thurlow), Jeremy Child (Black Rod), Cyril Shaps (Pepys)

'Essentially it is Hawthorne's triumph and no one else's, since he provides the holding centre without which the rest might have seemed an ephemeral romp, uncertain as to whether to comment on its own times or ours and drifting towards parody in both instances.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† The title of the play, The Madness of George III, was not used in case audiences thought it was the third film in a series (just as audiences are said to have come out of Henry V regretting that they had missed the first four films).

Ken Adam
Nigel Hawthorne; Helen Mirren; Alan Bennett best British picture; Nigel Hawthorne

Madness of the Heart

GB 1949 105m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Richard Wainwright)

A blind girl marries a French aristocrat and has to cope with a jealous neighbour.

Heavily disguised version of the Rebecca theme, with a happy ending after many alarums and excursions, most of them irrelevant. As film-making, very thin.

wd Charles Bennett novel Flora Sandstrom ph Desmond Dickinson m Allan Gray

☆ Margaret Lockwood, Paul Dupuis, Kathleen Byron, Maxwell Reed

Madonna of the Seven Moons

GB 1944 110m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (R. J. Minney)

Affected by childhood rape, a demure lady has a second life as a daring gypsy.

Novelettish balderdash killed stone dead by stilted presentation; but highly successful in its day.

w Roland Pertwee, Brock Williams novel Margery Lawrence d Arthur Crabtree ph Jack Cox

☆ Phyllis Calvert, Stewart Granger, Patricia Roc, Peter Glenville, John Stuart, Jean Kent, Nancy Price, Peter Murray Hill, Reginald Tate

'One of the most diverting British films of the forties.' – Richard Roud

'The purplest production English cinema has yet achieved.' – Time and Tide

† Phyllis Calvert was only four months older than Patricia Roc, who played her daughter.

The Madonna's Secret

US 1946 79m bw
Stephen Auer/Republic

Women attracted to a Parisian painter are all found dead.

Slow-moving mystery which manages to remain suspenseful.

w Bradbury Foote, William Thiele
d William Thiele
☆ Francis Lederer, Gail Patrick, Ann Rutherford, Edward Ashley, Linda Stirling, John Litel

'Killing Is As Easy As Stealing Candy From A Baby'

La Madre Muerta

Spain 1993 107m colour Panavision
Metro Tartan/Gasteizko Zinema (Juanma Bajo Ulloa)

A petty crook kidnaps a mentally retarded woman whom he recognizes as the witness to his murder of her mother a decade earlier, but is unable to bring himself to kill her.

An oddly disturbing drama, of casual deaths and murky happenings suffused with a melodramatic religiosity; no doubt its director will go on to better films.

w Juanma Bajo Ulloa, Eduardo Bajo Ulloa
d Juanma Bajo Ulloa ph Javier Aguirresarobe m Bingen Mendizabal ad Satur Idaretta ed Pablo Blanco ☆ Karra Elejalde, Lio, Ana Alvarez, Silvia Marsó

'As a dark thriller it is remarkably unpleasant.' – George Perry

Madron

US/Israel 1970 93m colour
Four Star Excelsior/GBC/Edric/Isracine/Zev Braun (Emanuel Henigman, Eric Weaver)

A nun, the only survivor of a massacre, attempts to escape the attentions of Apache warriors with the aid of a passing gunfighter.

A downbeat Western that concentrates on the contrasting characters of its two protagonists, but which fails to make the clash of personalities interesting. It was mostly filmed in the Negev Desert, which accounts for the uninteresting scenery.

w Edward Chappell, Leo McMahon
d Jerry Hopper ph Marcel Grignon, Adam Greenberg m Riz Ortolani ad Robert Ramsey ed Renzo Lucidi
☆ Richard Boone, Leslie Caron, Gabi Amrani

The Madwoman of Chaillot ★

GB 1969 142m Technicolor
Warner/Commonwealth United (Ely Landau)

An eccentric Parisian lady has equally eccentric friends, but her real life is in the past.

A highly theatrical whimsy which somewhat lacks humour, this should never have been considered as a film, certainly not as an all-star extravaganza; but it was, and it falls flat on its face in the first reel of tedious conversation.

w Edward Anhalt play Jean Giraudoux
d Bryan Forbes ph Claude Renoir, Burnett Guffey m Michael J. Lewis pd Ray Simm
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Yul Brynner, Danny Kaye, Edith Evans, Charles Boyer, Claude Dauphin, John Gavin, Paul Henreid, Nanette Newman, Oscar Homolka, Margaret Leighton, Giulietta Masina, Richard Chamberlain, Donald Pleasence, Fernand Gravet

'One finds oneself too often longing for the drop of the curtain.' – Brenda Davies

'The intentions are honourable – defeat is inevitable.' – Rex Reed

'One of Giraudoux's less good and most fragile plays has been rewritten, bloated with inept contemporary references, drawn out to gigantic proportions of humourless vacuity, and peopled with a barrelful of nonacting stars.' – John Simon

'The remnants of Giraudoux' slight, whimsical play can still be perceived in Edward Anhalt's vile modernization, and a lot of famous actors can be recognized even in the performances they give here.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Maedchen in Uniform ★

Germany 1931 90m bw
Deutsche Film-Gemeinschaft

aka: Girls in Uniform

A girl at a strict boarding school falls in love with one of the teachers and commits suicide.

Famous early stab at lesbianism, remade in 1958 with Romy Schneider and Lilli Palmer. Interesting for content, not style.

w F. D. Andam, Christa Winsloe play Gestern und Heute by Christa Winsloe
d Leontine Sagan ph Reimar Kuntze
m Hansen Milde-Meissner
☆ Dorothea Wieck, Ellen Schwannecke, Hertha Thiele, Emilie Lunde

'At once a strident warning against the consequences of Hitler's regime and the first truly radical lesbian film.' – Time Out, 1981

Il Maestro

Belgium/France 1989 92m Fujicolour
Man's Films/Flach Film/RTBF/BTR (Marion Hänsel, François Lepetit)
aka: The Maestro

Returning to Italy to conduct Madame Butterfly, a Jewish conductor reveals a wartime betrayal that brings on a breakdown.

Small-scale, overstretched drama.

wd Marion Hänsel story La Giacca Verde by Mario Soldati ph Acacio de Almeida m Frederick Devreese ad Ernita Frigato, Antonello Geleng
☆ Malcolm McDowell, Charles Aznavour, Andréa Ferréol, Francis Lemaire

El Maestro de Esgrima: see The Fencing Master

Il Maestro di Don Giovanni: see Crossed Swords

Maestro – Ma Non Troppo

France 1985 90m colour
Antenne 2

A provincial orchestral conductor is kidnapped to prevent him from performing at a concert for world peace.

Farcical attempt at political satire.

w Christian Watton, Serge Korber d Serge Korber ph André Dumaître, Bernard Dumont m Greco Casadesus ed Claude Dufour
☆ Alain Doutey, Sophie Barjac, Claude Villers, Joelle Guillaud, Jean Gaven, Jacques Spiesser, Jess Hahn, Clément Harari

Mafia!

US 1998 84m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Tapestry (Bill Badalato)

aka: Jane Austen's Mafia

Two brothers vie with one another to take over the leadership of a Mafia family from their ageing father.

A tired send-up of The Godfather trilogy and similar gangster movies; a few jokes might have helped.

w Jim Abrahams, Greg Norberg, Michael McManus d Jim Abrahams ph Pierre Letarte m Gianni Frizzelli pd William Elliott ed Terry Stokes
☆ Jay Mohr, Billy Burke, Christina Applegate, Pamela Gidley, Olympia Dukakis, Lloyd Bridges, Jason Fuchs, Joe Viterelli, Tony Lo Bianco

'Has far more fart jokes than laughs.' – Rob Mackie, Guardian

The Magdalene Sisters ★★

GB/Ireland 2002 119m colour
Momentum/Scottish Screen/Film Council/Irish Film/PFP/Temple (Frances Higson)

In Ireland in the 1960s, three young women – one raped at a family wedding, one attracting the attention of boys, and one who had an illegitimate child – are all forced to work unpaid in the Magdalene Laundries, which were run by Catholic nuns for women judged to be in moral danger.

Fiercely angry film, based on true stories, that takes the lives of three women as representative of the many thousands who suffered. It is a powerful polemic, well acted and with moments of black humour among the futility and waste of lives.

wd Peter Mullan ph Nigel Willoughby m Craig Armstrong pd Mark Leese ed Colin Monie
☆ Geraldine McEwan (Sister Bridget), Anne-Marie Duff (Margaret), Nora-Jane Noone (Bernadette), Dorothy Duffy (Rose/Patricia), Eileen Walsh (Crispina), Mary Murray (Una), Britta Smith (Katy)

'A deliberately provocative film that triggers the audience's emotions in order to highlight important issues of personal freedom. Amen to that.' – Alan Morrison, Empire

'A sustained and all-but-deafening howl of rage on behalf of vulnerable women.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† The film won The Golden Lion at the Venice Film Festival.

The Maggie ★★

GB 1953 93m bw
Ealing (Michael Truman)

US title: High and Dry

An American businessman is tricked into sending his private cargo to a Scottish island on an old puffer in need of repair.

Mildly amusing comedy about the wily Scots; not the studio at its best, but pretty fair.

w William Rose d Alexander Mackendrick ph Gordon Dines m John Addison ☆ Paul Douglas, Alex Mackenzie, James Copeland, Abe Barker, Dorothy Alison, Hubert Gregg, Geoffrey Keen, Andrew Keir, Tommy Kearins

Magic

US 1978 107m Technicolor
TCF/Joseph E. Levine

A ventriloquist obsessed by his dummy is impelled to murder.

Pretentious and occasionally unpleasant version of an oft-told tale.

w William Goldman novel William Goldman d Richard Attenborough
ph Victor J. Kemper m Jerry Goldsmith pd Terence Marsh
☆ Anthony Hopkins, Ann-Margret, Burgess Meredith, Ed Lauter, E. J. Andre, David Ogden Stiers

'The gloomily withdrawn Hopkins has no vulgarity in his soul – nothing that suggests any connection with the world of entertainment – and the picture grinds along.' – New Yorker

The Magic Bow

GB 1946 106m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (R. J. Minney)

Episodes in the life of the violin virtuoso Paganini.

Poor costumer, dramatically and historically unpersuasive.

w Norman Ginsburg, Roland Pertwee novel Manuel Komroff d Bernard Knowles ph Jack Cox m Paganini, Beethoven, Tartini, Phil Green, Henry Geehl md Louis Levy ad Andrew Mazzei ed Alfred Roome violin solos Yehudi Menuhin
☆ Stewart Granger, Jean Kent, Phyllis Calvert, Dennis Price, Cecil Parker, Felix Aylmer, Frank Cellier, Marie Lohr, Henry Edwards

The Magic Box ★

GB 1951 118m Technicolor
Festival Films (Ronald Neame)

The life of William Friese-Greene, a British cinema pioneer who died in poverty.

A joint British film industry venture to celebrate the Festival of Britain, this rather downbeat and uneventful story takes on the nature of a pageant or a series of charades, with well-known people appearing to no good purpose. But it means well.

w Eric Ambler d John Boulting ph Jack Cardiff m William Alwyn pd John Bryan
☆ Robert Donat, Margaret Johnson, Maria Schell, John Howard Davies, Renée Asherson, Richard Attenborough, Robert Beatty, Michael Denison, Leo Genn, Marius Goring, Joyce Grenfell, Robertson Hare, Kathleen Harrison, Jack Hulbert, Stanley Holloway and also Glynis Johns, Mervyn Johns, Barry Jones, Miles Malleson, Muir Mathieson, A. E. Matthews, John McCallum, Bernard Miles, Laurence Olivier, Cecil Parker, Eric Portman, Dennis Price, Michael Redgrave, Margaret Rutherford, Ronald Shiner, Sybil Thorndike, David Tomlinson, Cecil Trouncer, Peter Ustinov, Kay Walsh, Emlyn Williams, Harcourt Williams, Googie Withers

'An honest and often a very moving film.' – Daily Express

'Patriotic, sentimental, overlong and faintly embarrassing.' – Time Out, 1984

The Magic Carpet

US 1951 84m Supercinecolor
Sam Katzman/Columbia

The caliph's son returns as the Scarlet Falcon to rout the usurper.

Hopeless kid's matinée rubbish, not even performed with verve.

w David Matthews d Lew Landers ph Ellis Carter ad Paul Palmentola ☆ Lucille Ball, Raymond Burr, John Agar, Patricia Medina, George Tobias

The Magic Christian

GB 1969 95m Technicolor
Commonwealth United/Grand Films (Dennis O'Dell)

An eccentric millionaire spends his wealth

deflating those who pursue money or power.
A series of variably funny but always unpleasant sketches, climaxing with citizens delving for spoils in a vat of blood and manure. In its aim to be satirical, very typical of its time.
w Terry Southern, Joe McGrath, Peter Sellers novel Terry Southern d Joe McGrath ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Ken Thorne pd Assheton Gorton
☆ Peter Sellers, Ringo Starr, Richard Attenborough, Laurence Harvey, Christopher Lee, Spike Milligan, Yul Brynner, Roman Polanski, Raquel Welch, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Fred Emney, John Le Mesurier, Dennis Price, Patrick Cargill, John Cleese and also Graham Chapman

The Magic Face
US 1951 90m bw
Columbia (Mort Briskin, Robert Smith)
A brilliant German impersonator kills Hitler, takes his place, and leads Germany deliberately into defeat.
Hilariously unlikely anecdote 'as told to William Shirer', performed with vigour but handicapped by a shoddy production.
w Mort Briskin, Robert Smith d Frank Tuttle ph Tony Braun m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ Luther Adler, Patricia Knight, Ilka Windish, William L. Shirer
'If Shirer believed this story, then he must be the only person in the world to do so.' – Gavin Lambert

Magic Fire
US 1954 94m Trucolor
Republic (William Dieterle)
The life and loves of Richard Wagner.
Remarkably boring biopic with much music but little story or characterization. Ugly colour minimizes German locations.
w Bertita Harding, E. A. Dupont, David Chantler d William Dieterle ph Ernest Haller md Erich Wolfgang Korngold
☆ Alan Badel, Yvonne de Carlo, Peter Cushing, Frederick Valk, Carlos Thompson, Valentina Cortesa

Magic Night: see Goodnight Vienna

The Magic of Lassie
US 1978 99m colour
Lassie Productions (Bonita Granville Wrather, William Beaudine Jnr)
A collie dog is sold but makes its way back home.
Downright peculiar revamp of Lassie Come Home with music and an ageing all-star cast.
w Jean Holloway, Richard M. Sherman, Robert B. Sherman d Don Chaffey m Irwin Kostal songs Richard and Robert Sherman
☆ James Stewart, Alice Faye, Mickey Rooney, Pernell Roberts, Stephanie Zimbalist, Gene Evans ♫ song 'When You're Loved'

The Magic Roundabout
GB/France 2005 79m colour
Pathé/UKFC/Pathé Renn/Pricel/France 2/Canal+/SPZ/Bolex Brothers/Films Action (Laurent Rodon, Pascal Rodon, Claude Gorsky)
A band of intrepid animals try to prevent a wizard's wicked twin getting hold of three magic diamonds so that he can freeze the world.
Slickly animated movie for very small children that had its origins in a series of funny five minutes on TV, written and narrated by Eic Thompson, who, ignoring the original French narrative, wrote his own whimsical stories. None of that gentle humour survives here in a story of sword and sorcery that lacks the promised magic.
w Paul Bassett Davies, Raoff Sanoussi, Stephane Sanoussi characters created by Serge Danot, Martine Danot d Jean Duval, Frank Passingham, Dave Borthwick m Mark Thomas m/ly Andrea Remanda ad Lilian Fuentefria ed Mathieu Morfin
☆ voices of: Tom Baker (Zeebad), Jim Broadbent (Brian), Joanna Lumley (Ermintrude), Ian McKellen (Zebedee), Kylie Minogue (Florence), Bill Nighy (Dylan), Robbie Williams (Dougal), Ray Winstone (Soldier Sam), Lee Evans (Train)
'You might wonder what the point is in making a whole movie about these twee and distinctly watery toytown characters.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† The film was re-written and re-voiced for the American market and released under the title Doogal (qv).

The Magic Sword
US 1962 80m Eastmancolor
UA/Bert I. Gordon
The son of a well-meaning witch rescues a princess from the clutches of an evil sorcerer.
Shaky medieval fantasy on too low a budget.
w Bernard Schoenfeld d Bert I. Gordon ph Paul Vogel m Richard Markowitz sp Milt Rice
☆ Basil Rathbone, Estelle Winwood, Gary Lockwood, Anne Helm

The Magic Sword: Quest for Camelot: see Quest for Camelot

'The guy with the dynamite heart meets the girl with the firecracker eyes!'

Magic Town
US 1947 103m bw
Robert Riskin Productions
An opinion pollster discovers a small town which exactly mirrors the views of the USA at large.
A bright Capraesque idea is extraordinarily dully scripted, the production looks dim, and all concerned are operating one degree under.
w Robert Riskin d William A. Wellman ph Joseph Biroc m Roy Webb ☆ James Stewart, Jane Wyman, Kent Smith, Regis Toomey, Donald Meek, Ned Sparks, Wallace Ford

The Magic Toyshop ★
GB 1986 107m colour
Granada (Steve Morrison)
Three children are left in the care of their uncle, a puppet-maker.
Weird, sometimes grotesque fantasy focusing on an adolescent girl's sexual awakening.
w Angela Carter novel Angela Carter d David Wheatley ph Ken Morgan m Bill Connor pd Stephen Fineren ed Anthony Ham
☆ Tom Bell, Caroline Milmoe, Kilian McKenna

The Magician ★
US 1926 80m approx bw silent
MGM
A dabbler in the occult comes to grief when he tries to influence a young girl.
A rarely-seen melodrama with interesting credits.
novel Somerset Maugham d Rex Ingram
☆ Paul Wegener, Ivan Petrovich, Alice Terry

The Magician: see The Face (1958)

The Magician of Lublin
West Germany/Israel 1979 114m colour
Geria-Golan-Globus (Harry N. Blum)
In 1901 an itinerant magician with an active sex life dreams of being able really to fly.
Curious muddled fable with apparent correspondences to the Christ story, like Bergman's The Face. In the end it does not confidently address itself to any audience, despite clever moments.
w Irving S. White, Menahem Golan novel Isaac Bashevis Singer d Menahem Golan ph David Gurfinkel m Maurice Jarre pd Jürgen Kiebach
☆ Alan Arkin, Louise Fletcher, Valerie Perrine, Shelley Winters, Lou Jacobi, Warren Berlinger
'California Polish accents grapple with hamfisted direction and a script of surpassing banality.' – Sight and Sound

'Don't ask how they do it... ask why.'

Magicians ⑤
UK 2007 89m
Universal/Intermedia Films/Breakout Films/Universal Pictures (Ollie Madden)
Estranged conjurers find themselves competing at the same magic tournament.
Wildly erratic comedy from a popular TV double act; the humour rarely rises above sketch show level.
w Jesse Armstrong, Sam Bain d Andrew O'Connor ph James Welland m Paul Englishby pd Max Gottlieb ad Ben Munro ed Lucien Clayton ☆ David Mitchell (Harry Kane), Robert Webb (Karl Allen), Jessica Stevenson (Linda), Peter Capaldi (Mike Francis), Darren Boyd (Otto), Miranda Hart (Miriam)
'Begins very promisingly but rapidly loses its way.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Screen International
'The bumbling charms of the stars just about pull this through.' – Olly Richards, Empire

The Magnet
GB 1950 79m bw
Ealing (Sidney Cole)
A small boy steals a magnet and accidentally becomes a hero.
Very mild Ealing comedy, not really up to snuff.
w T. E. B. Clarke d Charles Frend ph Lionel Banes m William Alwyn ☆ Stephen Murray, Kay Walsh, William Fox, Meredith Edwards, Gladys Henson, Thora Hird, Wylie Watson

The Magnetic Monster ★
US 1953 75m bw
UA/Ivan Tors
A new radio-active element causes 'implosions' of increasing size by drawing energy from the area around it.
Well-told low-budget sci-fi with the audience kept abreast of all developments; the undersea lab scenes are borrowed from an old German film, Gold.
w Curt Siodmak, Ivan Tors d Curt Siodmak ph Charles Van Enger m Blaine Sanford pd George Van Marter
☆ Richard Carlson, King Donovan, Jean Byron, Byron Foulger
'A crackling mixture of science and fiction.' – Time

'Real life screened more daringly than it's ever been before!'

The Magnificent Ambersons ★★★★
US 1942 88m bw
RKO/Mercury (Orson Welles)
A proud family loses its wealth and its control of the neighbourhood, and its youngest male member gets his come-uppance.
Fascinating period drama told in brilliant cinematic snippets; owing to studio interference the last reels are weak, but the whole is a treat for connoisseurs, and a delight in its fast-moving control of cinematic narrative.
wd Orson Welles novel Booth Tarkington ph Stanley Cortez m Bernard Herrmann ad Mark-Lee Kirk ed Robert Wise, Mark Robson
☆ Joseph Cotten (Eugene Morgan), Dolores Costello (Isabel Amberson Minafer), Agnes Moorehead (Fanny Amberson), Tim Holt (George Amberson Minafer), Anne Baxter (Lucy Morgan), Ray Collins (Jack Amberson), Richard Bennett (Maj. Amberson), Erskine Sanford (Benson), Donald Dillaway (Wilbur Minafer)
NARRATOR (WELLES): 'And now Major Amberson was engaged in the profoundest thinking of his life, and he realized that everything which had worried him or delighted him during his lifetime – all his buying and building and trading and banking – that it was all a trifle and a waste beside what concerned him now, for the Major knew now that he had to plan how to enter an unknown country where he was not even sure of being recognized as an Amberson.'
NARRATOR: 'Something had happened. A thing which years ago had been the eagerest hope of many, many good citizens of the town. And now it had come at last: George Amberson Minafer had got his come-uppance. He got it three times filled and running over. But those who had so longed for it were not there to see it, and they never knew it. Those who were still living had forgotten all about it and all about him.'
'Rich in ideas that many will want to copy, combined in the service of a story that few will care to imitate.' – C. A. Lejeune
'Nearly every scene is played with a casual perfection which could only come from endless painstaking planning and rehearsals, and from a wonderful sense of timing.' – Basil Wright, 1972
'Even in this truncated form it's amazing and memorable.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
† Previously filmed in 1925 as Pampered Youth.
†† The credits are all at the end and all spoken, ending with: 'I wrote and directed the picture. My name is Orson Welles.'
♗ best picture; Stanley Cortez; Agnes Moorehead; art direction–interior decoration (Albert D'Agostino, A. Roland Fields, Darrell Silvera)

The Magnificent Brute
US 1936 77m bw
Universal
A blast furnace boss becomes involved with stolen money.
Star character drama; very predictable.
w Owen Francis, Lewis R. Foster, Bertram Millhauser d John G. Blystone ph Merritt Gerstad ad Albert S. Agostino, Jack Otterson ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Victor McLaglen, Binnie Barnes, Billy

Burrud, William Hall, Jean Dixon
art direction

'The whisper of every woman – the toast of every man!'

Magnificent Doll

US 1946 95m bw
Universal/Hallmark (Jack H. Skirball, Bruce Manning)

Dolly Madison, wife of the President, finds that traitor Aaron Burr is a memory from her own past.
Uneasy historical semi-fiction, badly cast and rather boring, yet with some sense of period style.
w Irving Stone d Frank Borzage
ph Joseph Valentine m Hans Salter
ad Alexander Golitzen ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Ginger Rogers, David Niven, Burgess Meredith, Stephen McNally, Peggy Wood, Robert Barrat

'No duller case has ever been made out for liberty.' – Daily Mail
'Some day the moviemakers will discover that they can make history wonderfully believable and exciting by just sticking roughly to the facts.' – The Times

The Magnificent Dope

US 1942 83m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

As a publicity stunt a success school brings the nation's most complete failure to New York, and he outsmarts them all.
Dim sub-Capra comedy.
w George Seaton d Walter Lang
ph Peverell Marley m David Raksin and others md Emil Newman ☆ Henry Fonda, Lynn Bari, Don Ameche, Edward Everett Horton, George Barbier, Frank Orth, Hobart Cavanaugh

The Magnificent Fraud

US 1939 78m bw
Paramount

The president of a Latin American republic is murdered, and an impersonator takes his place.
Sharply played dramatic hokum.
w Gilbert Gabriel and Walter Ferris
d Robert Florey
☆ Akim Tamiroff, Lloyd Nolan, Patricia Morison, Mary Boland

'Dull drama; no marquee names; filler fodder for duals.' – Variety

The Magnificent Matador

US 1955 94m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Edward L. Alperson

GB title: The Brave and the Beautiful
A matador trains his illegitimate son to follow in his footsteps but has a premonition of his death in the ring.
Dreary bullfighting drama with romantic interludes.
w Charles Lang d Budd Boetticher
ph Lucien Ballard m Raoul Kraushaar
☆ Anthony Quinn, Maureen O'Hara, Manuel Rojas, Richard Denning, Thomas Gomez, Lola Albright

Magnificent Obsession ★★

US 1935 112m bw
Universal (John M. Stahl)

The playboy who is half-responsible for the death of a woman's husband and for her own blindness becomes a surgeon and cures her.
Absurd soaper which was phenomenally popular and is certainly well done.
w George O'Neil, Sarah Y. Mason, Victor Heerman novel Lloyd C. Douglas d John M. Stahl ph Russell Metty m Franz Waxman ad Bernard Herzbrun, Emrich Nicholson ed Milton Carruth
☆ Irene Dunne, Robert Taylor, Ralph Morgan, Sara Haden, Charles Butterworth, Betty Furness, Arthur Hoyt, Gilbert Emery, Arthur Treacher

'Capital romance, a cinch for the femme trade.' – Variety

Magnificent Obsession ★★

US 1954 108m Technicolor
Universal (Ross Hunter)

Glossy remake which sent Ross Hunter to the commercial heights as a remaker of thirties weepies.
This one worked best.
w Robert Blees d Douglas Sirk ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ☆ Jane Wyman, Rock Hudson, Agnes Moorehead, Barbara Rush, Otto Kruger, Gregg Palmer, Paul Cavanagh, Sara Shane
Jane Wyman

The Magnificent Rebel

US 1960 94m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Peter V. Herald)

Episodes in the life of the young Beethoven.
Solid Disney biopic, shot in Vienna with good period detail.
w Joanne Court d Georg Tressler
ph Göran Strindberg md Frederick Stark
☆ Karl Boehm, Ernst Nadhering, Ivan Desny, Gabriele Porks

'They were seven – and they fought like seven hundred!'

The Magnificent Seven ★★

US 1960 138m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch-Alpha (John Sturges)

A Mexican village hires seven American gunmen for protection against bandits.
Popular Western based on the Japanese Seven Samurai; good action scenes, but the rest is verbose and often pretentious.
w William Roberts d John Sturges
ph Charles Lang Jnr m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Yul Brynner, Steve McQueen, Robert Vaughn, James Coburn, Charles Bronson, Horst Buchholz, Eli Wallach, Brad Dexter, Vladimir Sokoloff, Rosenda Monteros
Elmer Bernstein

The Magnificent Seven Deadly Sins

GB 1971 107m colour
Tigon (Graham Stark)

Compendium of comedy sketches, a very variable ragbag of old jokes.
w Bob Larbey, John Esmonde, Dave Freeman, Barry Cryer, Graham Chapman, Graham Stark, Marty Feldman, Alan Simpson, Ray Galton, Spike Milligan
d Graham Stark ph Harvey Harrison Jnr
m Roy Budd
☆ Bruce Forsyth, Joan Sims, Roy Hudd, Harry Secombe, Leslie Phillips, Julie Ege, Harry H. Corbett, Ian Carmichael, Alfie Bass, Spike Milligan, Ronald Fraser

'A Brand New Seven -- Doing Their Number! They put their lives on the line and let it ride!'

The Magnificent Seven Ride!

US 1972 100m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch (William A. Calihan)

After his wife is killed, a marshall recruits a gang of convicts to save a Mexican village once again from bandits.
Tired and very modest finale to a patchy series (Return of the Seven, Guns of the Magnificent Seven).
w Arthur Rowe d George McCowan
ph Fred Koenekamp m Elmer Bernstein
ad John T. McCormack ed Walter Thompson
☆ Lee Van Cleef (Chris), Stefanie Powers (Laurie Gunn), Mariette Hartley (Arilla), Pedro Armendariz Jnr (Pepe Carral), Luke Askew (Skinner), Michael Callan (Noah Forbes), Bill Lucking (Walt Drummond), James B. Sikking (Hayes), Ed Lauter (Scott Elliott), Melissa Murphy (Madge Buchanan), Gary Busey (Hank Allan)

The Magnificent Showman: see Circus World

The Magnificent Two

GB 1967 100m Eastmancolor
Rank (Hugh Stewart)

One of two incompetent travelling salesmen in a Latin American banana republic is persuaded to pose as a dead rebel leader.
More or less a Bob Hope vehicle, adapted for the less realistic Morecambe and Wise with unhappy results: too few sight gags and a curious emphasis on violence. The third and last of their attempts to find film vehicles.
w S. C. Green, R. M. Hills, Michael Pertwee, Peter Blackmore d Cliff Owen ph Ernest Steward m Ron Goodwin
☆ Eric Morecambe, Ernie Wise, Margit Saad, Cecil Parker, Virgilio Teixeira, Isobel Black, Martin Benson

The Magnificent Yankee ★

US 1950 88m bw
MGM (Armand Deutsch)
GB title: The Man with Thirty Sons

Episodes in the later life of Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes.
Vaguely well-meaning biopic without much dramatic sense.
w Emmet Lavery play Emmet Lavery
d John Sturges ph Joseph Ruttenberg
m David Raksin
☆ Louis Calhern, Ann Harding, Eduard Franz, Philip Ober, Richard Anderson, Edith Evanson
Louis Calhern

'Things fall down. People look up. And when it rains, it pours.'

Magnolia ★★★

US 1999 188m DeLuxe Panavision
New Line/Ghoulardi (Joanne Sellar)

In Los Angeles, the lives of various dysfunctional people coincidentally intertwine and interact.
A sprawling, episodic drama which examines unhappy people: a dying father, suffused with guilt, his hysterical wife, an estranged, misogynistic son, an unloved cop, a bullying father and his clever, timid son, a dying game show host and his estranged daughter. It is a clever, intense film about relationships and the need for love, but ultimately seems so contrived and manipulative that much of its emotional power is dissipated.
wd Paul Thomas Anderson ph Robert Elswit m John Brion m/ly Aimee Mann pd William Arnold, Mark Bridges
ed Dylan Tichenor
☆ Jason Robards (Earl Partridge), Julianne Moore (Linda Partridge), Tom Cruise (Frank Mackey), Philip Seymour Hoffman (Phil Parma), John C. Reilly (Officer Jim Kurring), Melora Walters (Claudia Gator), Philip Baker Hall (Jimmy Gator), Melinda Dillon (Rose Gator), Jeremy Blackman (Stanley Spector), Michael Bowen (Rick Spector), William H. Macy (Donnie Smith), Emmanuel Johnson (Dixon)

'May be self-regarding and pretentious, but there are some fiendishly clever moments.' – James Christopher, Times
'A remarkably inventive and audacious film that almost overcomes its flaws.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
Tom Cruise; Paul Thomas Anderson; song 'Save Me' (m/l Aimee Mann)

Magnum Force

US 1973 124m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Malpaso (Robert Daley)

Inspector Harry Callahan has to track down the cops who are slaughtering gangsters in cold blood.
Toned-down sequel to Dirty Harry; the violence is still there but the hero no longer commits it.
w John Milius, Michael Cimino d Ted Post
ph Frank Stanley m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Clint Eastwood, Hal Holbrook, Mitch Ryan, Felton Perry, David Soul

'A ragbag of western mythology and head-on thuggery.' – Sight and Sound

The Magus

GB 1968 116m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Blazer (John Kohn, Jud Kinberg)

An English schoolmaster on a Greek island is influenced by the local magician.
Fashionable philosophical nonsense, an elaborate mystery with no solution; the kind of film that all concerned begin to wish they had never thought of, especially as the presentation has nothing like the panache required, so that not even the critics liked it.
w John Fowles novel John Fowles d Guy Green ph Billy Williams m Johnny Dankworth pd Don Ashton
☆ Michael Caine, Anthony Quinn, Candice Bergen, Anna Karina, Paul Stassino, Julian Glover, George Pastell

'Faintly ludicrous some of the time and painfully unexciting all of the time.' – MFB
'This may not be the most misguided movie ever made, but it's in there pitching.' – Rex Reed
'There's enough incoherence pretending to be enigma, sex play and chat about existentialism and self-discovery to make teenagers think they're having an experience; for grown-ups it's an ordeal.' – Judith Crist
'It has much of the fascination of a Chinese puzzle, but it would have been infinitely more enthralling if it hadn't been quite so flatly acted and directed.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'Probably the only movie in which one will ever see a copy of Empson's Seven Types of Ambiguity.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

The Mahabharata ★

France 1989 171m colour
Virgin/Les Productions du 3ème Etage (Michel Propper)

A boy listens to the story of a great war between competing tribes.
The vast Indian epic poem of 100,000 couplets in this condensed cinematic form results in a complex incident-crammed narrative, in which the significance of specific events can be hard to comprehend.
w Peter Brook, Jean-Claude Carrière, Marie-Hélène Estienne play Jean-Claude Carrière d Peter Brook ph William Lubtchansky m Toshi Tsuchitori, Djamchid Cherirani, Kudsi Erguner, Kim

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Menzer, Mahmoud Tabrizi-Zadeh
pd Chloe Oboloensky ed Nicholas Gaster
☆ Urs Biher, Ryszard Cieslak, Georges Corraface, Mamadou Dioumé, Miriam Goldschmidt, Jeffrey Kissoon, Sotigui Kouyate, Tuncel Kurtiz, Robert Langdon Lloyd

Mahanagar: see The Big City (1963)

Mahler ★

GB 1974 115m Technicolor
Goodtimes Enterprises (Roy Baird)

Fantasia on the life and times of the Jewish composer.
Fairly successful Ken Russell musical biopic on the lines of his early BBC specials.
wd Ken Russell ph Dick Bush ad Ian Whittaker ed Michael Bradsell
☆ Robert Powell, Georgina Hale, Richard Morant, Lee Montague, Rosalie Crutchley, Benny Lee, David Collings

'A piece of movie making that sets my pulses racing.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'Whether the title of the opus happens to be Strauss or Tchaikovsky or Elgar or Brubeck, the real title is always Russell.' – Benny Green, Punch

Georgina Hale

Mahogany

US 1975 109m colour Panavision
Paramount/Nikor (Rob Cohen, Jack Ballard)

The love life of a model and fashion designer.
Virtually a Joan Crawford vehicle redesigned for a black heroine who creates her own clothes. Fairly hilarious.
w John Byrum d Berry Gordy ph David Watkin m Michael Masser ly Gerry Goffin
☆ Diana Ross, Billy Dee Williams, Anthony Perkins, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Nina Foch, Beah Richards, Marisa Mell

'The level of silliness rises steadily.' – Geoff Brown
'Movies as frantically bad as Mahogany can be enjoyed on at least one level; the spectacle of a lot of people making fools of themselves.' – Time
'What Mahogany does so fascinatingly and sometimes hilariously is to pilfer certain stock clichés of 50's Hollywood and adapt them to a black milieu.' – Molly Haskell

♫ song 'Do You Know Where You're Going To?' (m Michael Masser, ly Gerry Goffin)

Maid in Manhattan

US 2002 105m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Revolution/Red Om (Elaine Goldsmith-Thomas, Deborah Schindler, Paul Schiff)

An ambitious politician mistakes a hotel maid for a socialite when he sees her wearing a guest's clothes and asks her out.
Trite, sickly, Cinderella romance with a miscast Fiennes, who, like his co-star, shows little talent for comedy.
w Kevin Wade story Edmond Dantes d Wayne Wang ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m Alan Silvestri pd Jane Musky ed Craig McKay
☆ Jennifer Lopez (Marisa Ventura), Ralph Fiennes (Christopher Marshall), Natasha Richardson (Caroline Lane), Stanley Tucci (Jerry Siegel), Bob Hoskins (Lionel Bloch), Tyler Garcia Posey (Ty Ventura), Frances Conroy (Paula Burns)

'There won't be a person in the audience who can't guess exactly how it will turn out. Yet it goes through its paces with such skill and charm that, yes, I enjoyed it.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Not so much a movie as a collection of career moves. J. Lo needs a comedy hit to support her principal activity, adorning magazine covers. Fiennes needs to warm his austere British image if he hopes to become a true international star.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Love so glorious it was denounced as sin!'

Maid of Salem ★

US 1937 86m bw
Paramount (Frank Lloyd)

In 1692 Salem, a young girl is accused of witchcraft but saved by her lover.
Remarkably solemn period melodrama, unfortunately betrayed by amiable but miscast leads.
w Bradley King, Walter Ferris, Durward Grinstead d Frank Lloyd ph Leo Tover m Victor Young ☆ Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray, Harvey Stephens, Gale Sondergaard, Louise Dresser, Edward Ellis, Beulah Bondi, Bonita Granville

'Weak and slow saga of witchcraft: stars the only hope.' – Variety
'Once the panic of witchcraft starts you are carried along on a vicious crescendo of madness and terror.' – Stage

Maid to Order

US 1987 96m DeLuxe
Vista/New Century (Herb Jaffe, Mort Engelberg)

A spoiled rich girl takes work as a maid but finds she has a fairy godmother.
Weird semi-fantasy which wasn't wanted in the 80s, Cinderella being out of fashion.
wd Amy Jones (co-writers Perry and Randy Howze) ph Shelly Johnson m Georges Delerue pd Jeffrey Townsend ed Sidney Wolinski
☆ Ally Sheedy, Michael Ontkean, Beverly D'Angelo, Valerie Perrine, Dick Shawn, Tom Skerritt

Maiden Voyage: see Bridal Suite

The Maids

GB 1974 95m Technicolor
Ely Landau/Cinevision

Two Paris maids evolve a sado-masochistic ritual involving the death of their employer, but never go through with it.
Unbalanced and dreary film version of an essentially theatrical play.
w Robert Enders, Christopher Miles play Jean Genet d Christopher Miles ph Douglas Slocombe m Laurie Johnson
☆ Glenda Jackson, Susannah York, Vivien Merchant, Mark Burns

'In view of the huge technical, stylistic and even metaphysical difficulties, I think it succeeds very well.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Maid's Night Out

US 1938 65m bw
RKO

A wealthy girl falls for the milkman, who is really a rich man who thinks she's the maid.
Skittish second-feature comedy which helped to build a new star.
w Bert Granet d Ben Holmes
☆ Joan Fontaine, Allan Lane, Billy Gilbert, Cecil Kellaway, Hedda Hopper

Maigret Sets a Trap ★

France/Italy 1957 119m bw
Intermondia/J. P. Guibert/Jolly Film

Maigret sets a policewoman as decoy for a knife murderer...
Probably the best Maigret film, with excellent Parisian atmosphere and excellent acting.
w Michel Audiard novel Georges Simenon d Jean Delannoy ph Louis Page m Paul Misraki ad René Renoux
☆ Jean Gabin, Annie Girardot, Jean Desailly, Olivier Hussenot, Alfred Adam, Lino Ventura

'It is puzzling, it is intermittently exciting, it is not offensive to a modest intelligence, not at any rate a modest intelligence used to crime stories.' – Dilys Powell

Mail Order Bride

US 1963 83m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Richard E. Lyons)
GB title: West of Montana

An old Westerner tries to find a bride for a wild young man in his charge.
Mild Western comedy drama; quite tolerable.
wd Burt Kennedy ph Paul C. Vogel m George Bassman ☆ Buddy Ebsen, Lois Nettleton, Keir Dullea, Warren Oates, Marie Windsor

Mail Train: see Inspector Hornleigh Goes To It

The Main Attraction

GB 1962 90m Metrocolor
Seven Arts (John Patrick)

A wandering singer causes emotional problems backstage at a circus.
Limp melodrama with the star miscast as a fatal charmer.
w John Patrick d Daniel Petrie ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Andrew Adorian ☆ Pat Boone, Mai Zetterling, Nancy Kwan, Yvonne Mitchell, John Le Mesurier

The Main Event

US 1979 112m Technicolor
Warner/First Artists/Barwood (Jon Peters, Barbra Streisand)

A lady entrepreneur takes on a prizefighter.
Thin and very patchy comedy for confirmed addicts of its star.
w Gail Parent, Andrew Smith d Howard Zieff ph Mario Tosi m Michael Melvoin pd Charles Rosen ☆ Barbra Streisand, Ryan O'Neal, Paul Sand, Whitman Mayo, James Gregory

Main Street: see I Married a Doctor

Main Street to Broadway ★

US 1953 102m bw
Lester Cowan Productions

After several reverses a young playwright sees his work through to a Broadway opening night; it fails, but he has learned several lessons.
Curious, flat attempt to show the public how Broadway works, with big stars playing themselves in cameo roles.
w Samson Raphaelson d Tay Garnett ph James Wong Howe
☆ Tom Morton, Mary Murphy, Ethel Barrymore, Lionel Barrymore, Shirley Booth, Rex Harrison, Lilli Palmer, Helen Hayes, Henry Fonda, Tallulah Bankhead, Mary Martin, Louis Calhern, John Van Druten, Cornel Wilde, Joshua Logan and also Agnes Moorehead, Gertrude Berg

Les Mains Sales

France 1951 103m bw
Fernand Rivers
aka: Dirty Hands

A young communist intellectual, required to kill a traitor, finds he can do so only when he suspects the man of making love to his wife.
Verbose and dull version of a play which had some international success as Crime Passionel.
wd Fernand Rivers play Jean-Paul Sartre ph Jean Bachelet ☆ Pierre Brasseur, Daniel Gélin, Claude Nollier

Maisie

US 1939 74m bw
MGM (J. Walter Ruben)

Adventures of a Brooklyn showgirl.
Acceptable programmer which led to a series, all quite watchable and absolutely forgettable.
The succeeding titles, mostly written by Mary McCall and directed by Marin or Harry Beaumont or Roy del Ruth, were:
1940 Congo Maisie (with John Carroll; a remake of Red Dust), Gold Rush Maisie (with Lee Bowman), Maisie Was a Lady (with Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan)
1941 Ringside Maisie (qv) (with George Murphy; GB title Cash and Carry)
1942 Maisie Gets Her Man (with Red Skelton; GB title She Got Her Man)
1943 Swing Shift Maisie (with James Craig; GB title The Girl in Overalls)
1944 Maisie Goes to Reno (qv) (with John Hodiak; GB title You Can't Do That to Me)
1946 Up Goes Maisie (with George Murphy; GB title Up She Goes) 1947 Undercover Maisie (with Barry Nelson; GB title Undercover Girl)
w Mary McCall Jnr novel Dark Dame by Wilson Collison d Edwin L. Marin ph Leonard Smith ☆ Ann Sothern, Robert Young, Ian Hunter, Ruth Hussey, Anthony Allan (John Hubbard), Cliff Edwards

Maisie Goes to Reno

US 1944 90m bw
MGM (George Haight)
GB title: You Can't Do That to Me

Maisie saves a rich wife from divorcing her soldier-husband.
Pleasant light-hearted programmer with a few comic moments.
w Mary C. McCall Jnr story Harry Ruby, James O'Hanlon d Harry Beaumont ph Robert Planck m David Snell ad Cedric Gibbons, Howard Campbell ed Frank E. Hull
☆ Ann Sothern, John Hodiak, Tom Drake, Marta Linden, Paul Cavanagh, Ava Gardner, Donald Meek

La Maison de Jeanne: see Jeanne's House

Le Maître de Musique: see The Music Teacher

Maitresse ★

France 1976 112m Eastmancolor
Films du Losange/Jean Pierre Rassam (Pierre Andrieux)

A young man, newly arrived in Paris, begins an affair with a woman who earns her living as a dominatrix, but he becomes concerned about the difference between her relationship with him and her sado-masochistic professional life.
Love is seen as akin to a Venus fly-trap, a painful and devouring business, in this elegant, icy romantic drama that, with its emphasis on bizarre, masochistic activities, is not for the squeamish. It forces audiences to acknowledge that the behaviour on show is merely an extreme form of everyday relationships and games-playing.
w Barbet Schroeder, Paul Voujargol d Barbet Schroeder ph Nestor Almendros m Carlos D'Alessio ad Roberto Plate ed Denise de Casabianca cos Karl Lagerfeld
☆ Gérard Depardieu (Olivier), Bulle Ogier

(Arian), André Rouver (Mario), Nathalie Keryan (Lucienne), Roland Bertin (Man in cage), Tony Taffin (Emile), Holger Lowenadler (Gautier)

'Sometimes your life comes into focus one frame at a time.'

The Majestic

US/Australia 2001 153m Technicolor
Warner/Castle Rock/Village Roadshow/NPV/Darkwoods (Frank Darabont)

In 1951, an amnesiac blacklisted Hollywood screenwriter assumes the identity of the missing son of the owner of a rundown movie theatre.
Cliché-ridden drama of the triumph of small-town values that is in stark contrast to the realities of Hollywood's blacklisting.
w Michael Sloane d Frank Darabont ph David Tattersall m Mark Isham pd Gregory Melton ed Jim Page
☆ Jim Carrey (Peter Appleton), Martin Landau (Harry Trimble), Laurie Holden (Adele Stanton), David Ogden Stiers (Doc Stanton), James Whitmore (Stan Keller), Jeffrey DeMunn (Ernie Cole), Ron Rifkin (Kevin Bannerman), Hal Holbrook (Congressman Doyle), Bob Balaban (Majority Counsel Elvin Clyde), Brent Briscoe (Sheriff Cecil Coleman)

'A thick slice of bogus inspirational cheese that only makes itself look bad by recycling so many golden movie memories.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A derivative, self-satisfied fable that couldn't be more treacly and simple-minded if it tried.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Majin Strikes Again: see Daimajin Gyakushu

'Is she a kid – or is she kidding?'

The Major and the Minor ★★

US 1942 100m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A girl poses as a child in order to travel half fare on a train, and is helped by an officer who falls for her.
Moderately smart comedy showing the writer-director's emergent style. Remade as You're Never Too Young (qv).
w Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder d Billy Wilder ph Leo Tover m Robert Emmett Dolan
☆ Ginger Rogers, Ray Milland, Rita Johnson, Robert Benchley, Diana Lynn, Edward Fielding, Frankie Thomas, Charles Smith
OSBORNE (ROBERT BENCHLEY): 'Why don't you get out of that wet coat and into a dry martini?'

'The script seems to have been concocted after the title.' – New Yorker, 1977

Major Barbara ★★★

GB 1941 121m bw
Gabriel Pascal

The daughter of an armaments millionaire joins the Salvation Army but resigns when it accepts her father's donation.
Stagey but compulsive version of a play in which the author takes typical side swipes at anything and everything within reach, allowing for some gorgeous acting (and overacting) by an impeccable cast.
w Anatole de Grunwald, Gabriel Pascal play Bernard Shaw d Gabriel Pascal, Harold French, David Lean ph Ronald Neame m William Walton ad Vincent Korda, John Bryan ed Charles Frend cos Cecil Beaton
☆ Wendy Hiller (Maj. Barbara Undershaft), Rex Harrison (Adolphus Cusins), Robert Morley (Andrew Undershaft), Robert Newton (Bill Walker), Marie Lohr (Lady Brittomart), Emlyn Williams (Snobby Price), Sybil Thorndike (The General), Deborah Kerr (Jenny Hill), David Tree (Charles Lomax), Felix Aylmer (James), Penelope Dudley Ward (Sarah Undershaft), Walter Hudd (Stephen Undershaft), Marie Ault (Rummy Mitchens), Donald Calthrop (Peter Shirley)

'Shaw's ebullience provides an unslackening fount of energy ... his all-star cast of characters are outspoken as no one else is in films except the Marx Brothers.' – William Whitebait
'To call it a manifest triumph would be an arrant stinginess with words.' – New York Times

Major Dundee ★

US 1964 134m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Columbia (Jerry Bresler)

A small group of men from a US cavalry post sets out to annihilate marauding Indians.
Large-scale, rough-and-ready Western which rambles along in humourless vein but rises to some spectacularly bloodthirsty climaxes.
w Harry Julian Fink, Oscar Saul, Sam Peckinpah d Sam Peckinpah ph Sam Leavitt m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Charlton Heston, Richard Harris, Jim Hutton, James Coburn, Michael Anderson Jnr, Warren Oates, Senta Berger, Slim Pickens

Major League

US 1989 106m Technicolor
Braveworld/Fox (Mark Rosenberg)

A hopeless baseball team turn winners when they learn their owner wants them to lose.
Broad and often tasteless comedy, too predictable to be funny.
wd David S. Ward ph Reynaldo Villalobos m James Newton Howard pd Jeffrey Howard ed Dennis M. Hill, Tony Lombardo
☆ Tom Berenger, Charlie Sheen, Corbin Bernsen, Margaret Whitton, James Gammon, Rene Russo, Wesley Snipes, Charles Cyphers

Major League II

US 1994 104m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson, David S. Ward)

A baseball team reverts to its losing ways before the players pull themselves together and begin winning.
A smudged copy of the original, recycling the same narrative and failing to produce a moment of wit or originality.
w R. J. Stewart, Tom S. Parker, Jim Jennewein d David S. Ward ph Victor Hammer m Michel Colombier
pd Stephen Hendrickson ed Paul Seydor, Donn Cambern
☆ Charlie Sheen, Tom Berenger, Corbin Bernsen, Dennis Haysbert, Eric Bruskotter, Omar Epps, David Keith, Randy Quaid

'A singularly unfunny, dramatically tepid follow-up.' – Variety

Major Payne

US 1995 97m DeLuxe
Universal/Wife 'n' Kids (Eric L. Gold, Michael Rachmil)

A tough military martinet is put in charge of a school cadet troop.
Soft-centred drama about a hard man learning that killing isn't everything in life, but the comedy is strictly by the numbers.
w Dean Lorey, Damon Wayans, Gary Rosen d Nick Castle ph Richard Bowen m Craig Safan pd Peter Larkin ed Patrick Kennedy
☆ Damon Wayans, Karyn Parsons, Bill Hickey, Michael Ironside, Albert Hall, Steven Martini, Andrew Harrison Leeds, Joda Blare-Hershman, Damien Wayans

'It's what is sometimes called a "warmedy", a cuddly comedy in which a crotchety hero sees the light by rubbing shoulders with humanity.' – Leonard Klady, Variety
† It is a remake of The Private War of Major Benson (qv).

A Majority of One

US 1961 156m Technicolor
Warner (Mervyn Le Roy)

A Jewish widow has a shipboard romance with a Japanese businessman.
Interminable stage-bound comedy-drama, boringly assembled and fatally compromised by the casting of stars who are neither Jewish nor Japanese.
w Leonard Spigelgass play Leonard Spigelgass d Mervyn Le Roy ph Harry Stradling m Max Steiner ☆ Rosalind Russell, Alec Guinness, Ray Danton, Madlyn Rhue
Harry Stradling

Make a Wish

US 1937 75m bw
(RKO)

A composer discovers a boy singer at a summer camp.
Acceptable family entertainment.
w Gertrude Berg, Bernard Schubert, Earle Snell d Kurt Neumann ph John Mescall m Hugo Riesenfeld songs Oscar Straus ☆ Basil Rathbone, Bobby Breen, Marion Claire, Leon Errol, Henry Armetta, Ralph Forbes, Donald Meek
Hugo Riesenfeld

Make Haste to Live

US 1954 89m bw
Republic (William A. Seiter)

A lady newspaper owner is embarrassed, to say the least, by the reappearance of her murderer husband, long thought dead.
Competent but rather dull programmer.
w Warren Duff novel The Gordons
d William A. Seiter ph John L. Russell
m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Dorothy McGuire, Stephen McNally, Mary Murphy, Edgar Buchanan, John Howard

Make It Big ★

South Korea 2002 110m colour
Korea Pictures (Keyweck Shide)

original title: Ildan Dwieo

When the body of a thief clutching a bag of money falls onto their car, three school friends decide to dispose of the body and spend the cash.
High-spirited, occasionally witty, drama of amoral youths almost getting their come-uppance.
wd Jo Ui-seok ph Kim Chul-ju ☆ Song Seung-heon (Sung-hwan), Lee Bum-soo (Jin-won), Kwon Sang-woo (Woo-sup), Kim Young-jun (Jin-won), Lee Mun-shik (Yu-jin)

Make Me a Star

US 1932 80m bw
Paramount (Lloyd Sheldon)

A grocery clerk goes to Hollywood and becomes a film star.
Modest remake of a silent success; see also Merton of the Movies.
w Sam Mintz, Walter de Leon, Arthur Kober novel Merton of the Movies by Harry Leon Wilson d William Beaudine
ph Allen Siegler
☆ Stuart Erwin, Joan Blondell, ZaSu Pitts, Ben Turpin, Florence Roberts, Tallulah Bankhead, Clive Brook, Gary Cooper, Maurice Chevalier, Claudette Colbert, Fredric March, Jack Oakie, Charlie Ruggles, Sylvia Sidney

'Packed with laughs which offsets the longish running time.' – Variety

Make Me an Offer ★

GB 1954 88m Eastmancolor
Group Three (W. P. Lipscomb)

An antique dealer has an ambition to own a famous vase.
Mildly pleasant Jewish comedy with interesting sidelights on the antique business.
w W. P. Lipscomb novel Wolf Mankowitz
d Cyril Frankel ph Denny Densham
m John Addison
☆ Peter Finch, Adrienne Corri, Meier Tzelniker, Rosalie Crutchley, Finlay Currie, Ernest Thesiger, Wilfrid Lawson, Alfie Bass

Make Mine a Million

GB 1959 82m bw
British Lion/Elstree Independent/Jack Hylton (John Baxter)

A TV make-up man strikes it rich by showing advertisements on non-commercial television.
Amiable, low-key comedy, relying heavily on the personality of its star.
w Peter Blackmore, Arthur Askey, Talbot Rothwell story Jack Francis d Lance Comfort ph Arthur Grant m Stanley Black ad Dennis Wreford ed Peter Pitt ☆ Arthur Askey, Sidney James, Dermot Walsh, Olga Lindo, Clive Morton, Sally Barnes, Leigh Madison, Bernard Cribbins, Gillian Lynee, The Penge Formation Dancers

Make Mine Mink ★★

GB 1960 101m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)

Members of a high-class boarding establishment steal furs to give the proceeds to charity.
Enjoyable comedy, expertly performed.
w Michael Pertwee, Peter Blackmore play Breath of Spring by Peter Coke
d Robert Asher ph Reginald Wyer
m Philip Green ad Carmen Dillon
ed Roger Cherrill
☆ Terry-Thomas, Athene Seyler, Hattie Jacques, Billie Whitelaw, Raymond Huntley, Irene Handl, Kenneth Williams, Noel Purcell, Sydney Tafler
† The film was reissued with 21m cut.

Make Mine Music ★★

US 1946 74m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Joe Grant)

A programme of cartoon shorts: Johnny Fedora, All the Cats Join in, Without You, Two Silhouettes, Casey at the Bat, The Martins and the Coys, Blue Bayou, After You've Gone, Willie the Singing Whale, Peter and the Wolf
An insubstantial banquet, sometimes arty

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

and sometimes chocolate boxy, which occasionally rises to the expected heights.
w various d various
'There is enough genuine charm and imagination and humour to make up perhaps one good average Disney short.' – James Agee

Make Way for a Lady
US 1936 63m bw
Zion Myers/RKO
A girl determines to find a mate for her widowed father.
Rather irritating comedy of embarrassment.
w Gertrude Purcell novel Daddy and I by Elizabeth Jordan d David Burton ☆ Herbert Marshall, Anne Shirley, Gertrude Michael, Margot Grahame, Clara Blandick, Taylor Holmes, Willie Best
'It lacks suspense, surprise, and plausibility.' – Variety

'Grandpa moves in! Daughter moves out! And the riot starts!'

Make Way for Tomorrow ★★
US 1937 94m bw
Paramount (Leo McCarey)
An elderly couple are in financial difficulty and have to be parted because their children will not help.
Sentimental drama which had a devastating effect at the time but now seems oversimplified and exaggerated.
w Vina Delmar novel The Years Are So Long by Josephine Lawrence d Leo McCarey ph William C. Mellor m George Antheil
☆ Victor Moore, Beulah Bondi, Thomas Mitchell, Fay Bainter, Porter Hall, Barbara Read, Maurice Moscovich, Elizabeth Risdon, Gene Lockhart
'Needs special exploitation: even so, business is apt to be spotty where played solo.' – Variety
'The most brilliantly directed and acted film of the year.' – John Grierson
'A sense of misery and inhumanity is left vibrating in the nerves.' – Graham Greene

The Maker ★
US 1997 98m colour Panavision
Midsummer/New Image (Andrew Lazar, Demitri Samaha)
A suburban high-school youth becomes involved in criminal activities when his elder brother returns home after ten years away.
An enjoyable thriller that centres on the confusions and mixed loyalties of teenage life, avoiding both sentimentality and melodrama.
w Rand Ravich d Tim Hunter ph Hubert Taczanowski m Paul Buckmaster pd Jane Ann Stewart ed Scott Chestnut ☆ Matthew Modine, Jonathan Rhys Myers, Mary-Louise Parker, Michael Madsen, Fairuza Balk, Jesse Borrego
'Satisfies as both a clever suspenser and fairly believable drama.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Making It: see Les Valseuses

Making Love
US 1982 111m DeLuxe
TCF/IndieProd (Allen Adler, Danny Melnick)
A young married doctor declares that he is gay and moves in with a friend.
Would-be daring melodrama whose producers quickly found that nobody was interested.
w Barry Sandler story A. Scott Berg d Arthur Hiller ph David M. Walsh m Leonard Rosenman pd James D. Vance ed William H. Reynolds
☆ Michael Ontkean, Kate Jackson, Harry Hamlin, Wendy Hiller, Arthur Hill, Nancy Olson

Making Mr Right
US 1987 98m colour
Rank/Orion (Mike Wise, Joel Tuber)
An android falls in love with a public relations consultant.
Slight comedy that soon runs out of anywhere to go.
w Floyd Byars, Laurie Frank d Susan Seidelman ph Edward Lachman m Chaz Jankel pd Barbara Ling ed Andrew Mondshein
☆ Ann Magnuson, John Malkovich, Glenne Headly, Ben Masters, Laurie Metcalf, Polly Bergen, Harsh Nayyar, Hart Bochner

Making Up ★
Germany 1993 55m colour
Electric Pictures/Vela-X/Bayerischer Rundfunk (Ewa Karlström) original title: Abgeschminkt!
Two single women fall in and out of love with unsuitable men.
A film-school graduation project that was a hit in its home country, this is an enjoyable comedy, mocking the over-enthusiastic pursuit of the opposite sex.
w Benjamin Taylor, Katja von Garnier, Hannes Jaenicke d Katja von Garnier ph Torsten Breuer m Peter Wenke, Tillmann Höhn ad Irene Edenhofer, Nikolai Ritter ed Katja von Garnier ☆ Katja Riemann, Nina Kronjäger, Gedeon Burkhard, Max Tidof, Daniela Lunkewitz, Peter Sattmann, Jochen Nickel
'An above-average single-woman's date comedy.' – Variety

La Mala Educación: see Bad Education

Mala Noche ★
US 1988 78m bw
The Other Cinema/Northern Film/Respectable (Gus Van Sant)
A homosexual store worker falls for a heterosexual illegal Mexican immigrant.
Interesting first feature, a study in obsession, shot on a minimal budget.
wd Gus Van Sant story Walt Curtis ph John Campbell m Creighton Lindsay ☆ Tim Streeter, Doug Cooeyate, Ray Monge, Nyla McCarthy
'Reminds you how exciting independent film-making can be ... has a sure feel for the more awkward corners of sexual exchange which we might prefer to forget.' – Judith Williamson, New Statesman

Malachi's Cove
GB 1973 75m Technicolor
Penrith/Impact Quadrant Films (Andrew Sinclair, Kent Walwin)
aka: The Seaweed Children
In 1880 Cornwall, a 14-year-old girl lives by selling seaweed.
Slimly-plotted film for the family, pleasant without being very interesting.
wd Henry Herbert story Anthony Trollope ph Walter Lassally m Brian Gascoigne ☆ Donald Pleasence, Dai Bradley, Veronica Quilligan, Arthur English, David Howe

Malaga
GB 1954 84m Technicolor
M. J. Frankovich/Film Locations
US title: Fire Over Africa
An American woman agent catches drug smugglers in Tangier.
Routine international thick ear.
w Robert Westerby d Richard Sale ph Christopher Challis m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Maureen O'Hara, Macdonald Carey, Binnie Barnes, Guy Middleton, Leonard Sachs

Malaga: see Moment of Danger (1962)

Malarek
Canada 1989 100m colour
Telescene (Jamie Brown, Robin Spry)
In Montreal in the early 70s, an aggressive would-be journalist, investigating the police cover-up of a killing, exposes widespread abuse at a juvenile detention centre.
A true story is forced into a familiar thriller format, but given some life by the intensity of Koteas's performance.
w Avrum Jacobson autobiography Hey Malarek by Victor Malarek d Roger Cardinal ph Karol Ike m Alexandre Stanké ad Claude Paré ed Yves Langlois
☆ Elias Koteas, Kerrie Keane, Al Waxman, Michael Sarrazin, Daniel Pilon, Kahil Karn Malaya ★

US 1949 95m bw
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)
GB title: East of the Rising Sun
An adventurer attempts to smuggle rubber out of Japanese-occupied Malaya.
Dour action melodrama, unworthy of its considerable cast but watchable.
w Frank Fenton d Richard Thorpe ph George Folsey m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Spencer Tracy, James Stewart, Sydney Greenstreet, John Hodiak, Valentina Cortesa, Lionel Barrymore, Gilbert Roland

Malcolm
Australia 1986 86m colour
Enterprise/Cascade (David Parker, Nadia Tass)
A retarded but mechanically talented youth lives alone in a Melbourne suburb and takes in a petty criminal and his girlfriend.
Initially interesting but mishandled character study which never settles into a comfortable groove.
w David Parker d Nadia Tass ph David Parker m Simon Jeffes ed Ken Sallows ☆ Colin Friels, John Hargreaves, Lindy Davies, Chris Haywood, Charles Tingwell

Malcolm X ★★
US 1992 201m DuArt
Warner/Largo/Forty Acres and a Mule (Marvin Worth, Spike Lee)
Biopic of the turbulent life and violent death of the black revolutionary leader.
Despite Washington's powerful performance in the title role, an overlong and somewhat subdued treatment that seems anxious not to offend.
w Arnold Perl, Spike Lee book The Autobiography of Malcolm X as told to Alex Haley d Spike Lee ph Ernest Dickerson m Terence Blanchard pd Wynn Thomas ed Barry Alexander Brown ☆ Denzel Washington, Angela Bassett, Albert Hall, Al Freeman Jnr, Delroy Lindo, Spike Lee, Theresa Randle, Kate Vernon, Lonette McKee, Tommy Hollis
'A disappointingly sluggish and conventional film.' – Variety
'Always watchable even if one can't call it memorable.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
Denzel Washington; Ruth Carter (costume design)

The Male Animal ★
US 1942 101m bw
Warner (Wolfgang Reinhardt)
A dry college professor emancipates himself when his wife becomes attracted to a football star.
Stagebound but amusing college comedy with pleasant humour and good performances. Remade as She's Working Her Way through College (qv).
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein, Stephen Morehouse Avery play James Thurber and Elliott Nugent d Elliott Nugent ph Arthur Edeson m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Henry Fonda, Olivia de Havilland, Jack Carson, Joan Leslie, Eugene Pallette, Don Defore, Herbert Anderson, Hattie McDaniel

'A world at war. A young man coming of age. And the woman who changed his life forever.'

Malèna ★
Italy/US 2000 92m colour Panavision
Buena Vista/Medusa/Miramax (Carlo Bernasconi, Harvey Weinstein)
In Sicily in the early 1940s, a beautiful woman, who loses her husband in the war, is the object of an adolescent's day dreams.
Teenage fantasies of sexual success conflict with the realities of political failure and personal humiliation in this engaging fable that shows the influence of Fellini.
wd Giuseppe Tornatore story Luciano Vincenzoni ph Lajos Koltai m Ennio Morricone pd Francesco Frigeri ed Massimo Quaglia cos Maurizio Millenotti ☆ Monica Bellucci (Malena Scordia), Giuseppe Sulfaro (Renato Amoroso), Luciano Federico (Renato's father), Matilde Piana (Renato's mother), Pietro Notarianni (Professor Bonsignore), Gaetano Aronica (Nino Scordia), Gilberto Idonea (Centorbi), Angelo Pellegrino (Political secretary)
'A nudging, winking, leering pantomime about another small boy's affair with the local whore.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
Lajos Koltai; Ennio Morricone

Malenkaya Vera: see Little Vera

'Deception. Betrayal. Murder. Some Things You Never See Coming.'

Malice
US 1993 107m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock/New Line (Rachel Pfeffer, Charles Mulvehill, Harold Becker)
An academic finds that he is the victim of a confidence trick.
Elaborate, involved, over-heated thriller that makes little sense and provides less enjoyment.
w Aaron Sorkin, Scott Frank, Jonas McCord d Harold Becker ph Gordon Willis m Jerry Goldsmith pd Philip Harrison ed David Bretherton ☆ Alec Baldwin, Nicole Kidman, Bill Pullman, Bebe Neuwirth, George C. Scott, Anne Bancroft, Peter Gallagher, Josef Sommer, Tobin Bell
'A virtual scrapbook of elements borrowed from other suspense pics, but no less enjoyable for being so familiar.' – Variety
'One of the most shameless pieces of unadultered trash.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'Ignore her, and she'll never go away.'

Malicious

US 1995 92m colour
Republic/Keystone (Robert Vince, William Vince)

After a one night stand with a college baseball hero, a discarded girl decides to take revenge on him and his girlfriend..
A youthful copy of the theme of Fatal Attraction, done without suspense or interest; it is notable only for marking another downward slide in the career of Molly Ringwald.
w George Saunders d Ian Corson
ph Michael Slovis m Graeme Coleman
pd Marian Witlak ed Richard Martin
☆ Molly Ringwald (Melissa), Patrick McGaw (Doug Gordon), Sarah Lassez (Laura), Ryan Michael (Mitch), Mimi Kuzyk (Mrs Gordon), John Vernon (Detective Pronzini), Rick Henrickson (Rich), Jennifer Copping (Judy)

Mallrats

US 1995 108m DeLuxe
Gramercy/Alphaville/View Askew (James Jacks, Sean Daniel, Scott Mosier)

A group of teenagers hang out in a shopping mall.
The laid-back, inconsequential humour of Smith's first film, Clerks, wears thin here in a similar, but much more conventional, outing.
wd Kevin Smith ph David Klein m Ira Newborn pd Dina Lipton ed Paul Dixon ☆ Shannen Doherty, Jeremy London, Jason Lee, Claire Forlani, Michael Rooker, Priscilla Barnes, Ben Affleck, Joey Lauren Adams, Renee Humphrey, Jason Mewes, Kevin Smith

'While admittedly ragged and ribald, it's a picture with an innate charm and honesty that should win over audiences.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Malone

US 1987 92m DeLuxe
Orion (Leo L. Fuchs)

A disillusioned CIA hit man is not allowed to go 'straight'.
Moody but not unwatchable thriller largely set in Oregon.
w Christopher Frank novel Shotgun by William Wingate d Harley Cokliss ph Gerald Hirschfeld m David Newman
pd Graeme Murray ed Todd Ramsay
☆ Burt Reynolds, Cliff Robertson, Kenneth McMillan, Cynthia Gibb, Scott Wilson, Lauren Hutton

Malou ★

West Germany 1980 93m colour
Regina Ziegler

A teacher goes on a journey to discover more about her dead mother and, ultimately, herself.
This simple story of a woman trying to come to terms with the past and the present is sometimes too didactic, but often rewarding.
wd Jeanine Meerapfel ph Michael Ballhaus
m Peer Raben ad Rainer Schaper
ed Dagmar Hirtz
☆ Ingrid Caven, Grischa Huber, Helmut Griem, Ivan Desny, Marie Colbin, Peter Chatel, Margarita Calahorra

The Malta Story

GB 1953 103m bw
GFD/British Film Makers (Peter de Sarigny)

An English flyer is involved in the defence of Malta during World War II.
Glib propaganda piece which is not very excitingly written or characterized, and fails to convince on any but the most elementary level.
w William Fairchild, Nigel Balchin d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Robert Krasker
m William Alwyn
☆ Alec Guinness, Anthony Steel, Muriel Pavlow, Jack Hawkins, Flora Robson, Renée Asherson, Ralph Truman, Reginald Tate, Hugh Burden

The Maltese Bippy

US 1969 92m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM

A skin flick star thinks he is turning into a werewolf.
Failed attempt to construct a crazy comedy for the stars of Laugh-In; even the spooky house sequences don't go.
w Everett Freeman, Ray Singer d Norman Panama
☆ Dan Rowan, Dick Martin, Carol Lynley, Julie Newmar, Mildred Natwick, Fritz Weaver, Robert Reed

The Maltese Falcon ★★

US 1931 80m bw
Warner

TV title: Dangerous Female

After the death of his partner, private eye Sam Spade is dragged into a quest for a priceless statuette.
Excellent crime melodrama with smart pace and performances. Remade as Satan Met a Lady (1936); and see below.
w Maude Fulton, Lucien Hubbard, Brown Holmes novel Dashiell Hammett d Roy del Ruth ph William Rees
☆ Ricardo Cortez, Bebe Daniels, Dudley Digges, Dwight Frye, Robert Elliott, Thelma Todd, Oscar Apfel

'Any type of audience will enjoy it.' – Variety
'The best mystery thriller of the year.' – New York Times
'A nice blend of humour, intelligence and suspense.' – Clive Hirschhorn, 1979

'A guy without a conscience! A dame without a heart!'
'He's as fast on the draw as he is in the drawing room!'

The Maltese Falcon ★★★★

US 1941 101m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A private eye is hired to find a black sculpture of a bird.
A remake which shows the difference between excellence and brilliance; here every nuance is subtly stressed, and the cast is perfection.
wd John Huston novel Dashiell Hammett
ph Arthur Edeson m Adolph Deutsch
ad Robert Haas ed Thomas Richards
☆ Humphrey Bogart (Sam Spade), Mary Astor (Brigid O'Shaughnessy), Sydney Greenstreet (Kasper Gutman the Fat Man), Elisha Cook Jnr (Wilmer Cook), Barton MacLane (Det. Lt. Dundy), Lee Patrick (Effie Perine), Peter Lorre (Joel Cairo), Gladys George (Iva Archer), Ward Bond (Det. Tom Polhaus), Jerome Cowan (Miles Archer)
GUTMAN (SYDNEY GREENSTREET): 'I distrust a close-mouthed man. He generally picks the wrong time to talk and says the wrong things. Talking's something you can't do judiciously, unless you keep in practice. Now, sir, we'll talk if you like. I'll tell you right out, I'm a man who likes talking to a man who likes to talk.'
SPADE (HUMPHREY BOGART) TO CAIRO (PETER LORRE): 'When you're slapped, you'll take it and like it!'
SPADE TO BRIGID (MARY ASTOR): 'Don't be too sure I'm as crooked as I'm supposed to be.'
GUTMAN: 'I distrust a man who says when. If he's got to be careful not to drink too much, it's because he's not to be trusted when he does.'

'The first crime melodrama with finish, speed and bang to come along in what seems like ages.' – Otis Ferguson
'A work of entertainment that is yet so skilfully constructed that after many years and many viewings, it has the same brittle explosiveness – and some of the same surprise – that it had in 1941.' – Pauline Kael, 1968
'The trick which Mr Huston has pulled is a combination of American ruggedness with the suavity of the English crime school – a blend of mind and muscle – plus a slight touch of pathos.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
'Admirable photography of the sort in which black and white gives full value to every detail, every flicker of panic.' – Francis Wyndham

Ⓐ best picture; John Huston (as writer); Sydney Greenstreet

Mama Loves Papa ★

US 1933 70m bw
Paramount

A middle-class wife decides to do some social climbing.
Slight but amusing comedy which put together a useful team.
w Arthur Kober, Nunnally Johnson, Douglas MacLean, Keene Thompson
d Norman Z. McLeod
☆ Charles Ruggles, Mary Boland, Lilyan Tashman, George Barbier, Morgan Wallace

'Exceptionally funny comedy ... a cinch builder.' – Variety

† A second film under this title was a Leon Errol vehicle of 1945.

La Maman et la Putain: see The Mother and the Whore

Mamba

US 1930 76m Technicolor
Tiffany

Germans in East Africa go to the bad during World War I.
Absurd melodrama climaxing with a Zulu uprising.
w Tom Miranda, Winifred Dunn story F. Schumann-Heink and John Reinhardt
d Albert S. Rogell
☆ Jean Hersholt, Eleanor Boardman, Ralph Forbes, Josef Swickard

'It has its lowlights and highlights; in between it's not a bad programmer.' – Variety

Mamba

Italy 1988 81m colour
Medusa/Eidoscope/Reteitalia (Mario Orfini)

aka: Fair Game

A woman is locked in a room with a deadly snake by her murderous ex-boyfriend.
Modest, moderately suspenseful thriller that just manages to eke out its length.
w Lidia Ravera, Mario Orfini d Mario Orfini ph Dante Spinotti m Giorgio Moroder pd Ferdinando Scarfiotti
ed Claudio Cutry
☆ Trudie Styler, Gregg Henry, Bill Moseley

Mambo

Italy/USA 1954 92m bw
Paramount/Ponti/De Laurentiis

A Venetian shopgirl loves a worthless gambler, is romanced by a haemophiliac count, and joins a dance troupe.
Patchy melodrama with plenty going on but no grip.
w Guido Piovene, Ivo Perelli, Ennio de Concini, Robert Rossen d Robert Rossen ph Harold Rosson m Nino Rota, Francesco Lavagnino ch Katherine Dunham sets Andrei Andrejew ☆ Silvana Mangano, Michael Rennie, Shelley Winters, Vittorio Gassman, Eduardo Ciannelli, Mary Clare, Katherine Dunham and her troupe

'It's not a democracy, it's a family.'

Mambo Italiano ③

Canada 2003 88m colour
Cinemaginaire (Denise Robert, Daniel Louis)

In Montreal, a young man is faced with telling his Italian immigrant parents that he is gay.
Broad comedy of racial and sexual stereotypes.
w Émile Gaudreault, Steve Galluccio play Steve Galluccio d Émile Gaudreault ph Serge Ladouceur m FM Le Sieur
pd Patricia Christie ed Richard Comeau
☆ Luke Kirby (Angelo Barberini), Ginette Reno (Maria Barberini), Paul Sorvino (Gino Barberini), Mary Walsh (Lina Paventi), Claudia Ferri (Anna Barberini)

'Lacks sparkle, and finally tips its gallery of colourful protagonists into the realm of caricature.' – Caroline Westbrook, Empire

The Mambo Kings ★

US 1992 104m DeLuxe
Warner/Canal/Regency/Alcor (Arnon Milchan, Arne Glimcher)

In the 1950s, a Cuban trumpeter and his brother, a singer, leave home to seek their fortunes in New York.
Energetic but dull version of a best-selling novel.
w Cynthia Cidre novel The Mambo Kings Play Songs of Love by Oscar Hijuelos
d Arne Glimcher ph Michael Ballhaus
m Robert Kraft, Carlos Franzetti pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Claire Simpson ☆ Armand Assante, Antonio Banderas, Cathy Moriarty, Maruschka Detmers, Pablo Calogero, Scott Cohen, Mario Grillo, Desi Arnaz Jnr, Roscoe Lee Browne, Tito Puente

'An ambitious, old-fashioned Hollywood film ... is bound to win converts to the intoxicating rhythms of Latino music.' – Variety

Ⓐ Song: 'Beautiful Maria of My Soul' (m Robert Kraft, ly Arne Glimcher)

'She'll coax the blues right out of your heart'

Mame ★

US 1974 131m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/ABC (Robert Fryer, James Cresson)

In 1928, a 10-year-old boy goes to live with his eccentric, sophisticated aunt.
Old-fashioned and rather bad film of a much overrated Broadway musical, inept in most departments but with occasional show-stopping moments.
w Paul Zindel play Jerome Lawrence, Robert E. Lee book Patrick Dennis d Gene Saks ph Philip Lathrop m/ly Jerry Herman pd Robert F. Boyle
☆ Lucille Ball, Beatrice Arthur, Robert

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Preston, Bruce Davison, Jane Connell, Joyce Van Patten, John McGiver

'It makes one realize afresh the parlous state of the Hollywood musical, fighting to survive against misplaced superstars and elephantine budgets matched with minuscule imagination.' – Geoff Brown

'The cast seem to have been handpicked for their tone-deafness, and Lucille Ball's close-ups are shot blatantly out of focus.' – Sight and Sound

'So terrible it isn't boring; you can get fixated staring at it and wondering what Lucille Ball thought she was doing.' – New Yorker, 1977

Mamma Roma ★

Italy 1962 114m bw
Arco/Cineriz (Alfredo Bini)

A pimp tries to blackmail a former prostitute into resuming her old profession by threatening to tell her teenage son about her past.

Ravishing photography is allied with over-emphatic moralizing in a film sympathetic to the deprivations of an underclass and overawed by the presence of Magnani among its otherwise non-professional cast.

wd Pier Paolo Pasolini ph Tonino delli Colli m Antonio Vivaldi md Carlo Rustichelli ad Flavio Mogherini ed Nino Baragli

☆ Anna Magnani, Franco Citti, Ettore Garofolo, Silvana Corsini, Luisa Loiano, Paolo Volponi, Luciano Gonini

Mammy ★

US 1930 84m bw
Warner (Walter Morosco)

Murder backstage at a minstrel show.

One of the star's better musicals.

w L. G. Rigby, Joseph Jackson d Michael Curtiz ph Barney McGill m Irving Berlin

☆ Al Jolson, Lowell Sherman, Hobart Bosworth, Louise Dresser, Lee Moran

'Looks like money ... a lively picture playing fast.' – Variety

Mam'selle Striptease: see Plucking the Daisy

A Man, a Woman and a Bank

Canada 1979 101m CFI color
Bennett/McNichol

A civil engineer and a computer expert devise a foolproof way of robbing a bank.

We have been here before, except that these days the criminals are allowed to get away with it. Ho-hum.

w Raynold Gideon, Bruce A. Evans and Stuart Margolin d Noel Black ph Jack Cardiff m Bill Conti

☆ Donald Sutherland, Brooke Adams, Paul Mazursky

A Man about the House

GB 1947 95m bw
British Lion (Edward Black)

Two English ladies inherit an Italian villa and fall under the spell of the handsome handyman, who marries one of them and proceeds slowly to poison her.

Now clearly dull, at the time this seemed a fairly enterprising rehash of Gaslight, Kind Lady and Rebecca.

w J. B. Williams, Leslie Arliss play John Perry novel Francis Brett Young d Leslie Arliss ph Georges Perinal m Nicholas Brodszky md Philip Green ad Andre Andrejew ed Russell Lloyd

☆ Margaret Johnston (Agnes Isit), Dulcie Gray (Ellen Isit), Kieron Moore (Salvatore), Felix Aylmer (Ronnie Sanctuary), Lilian Braithwaite (Mrs Armitage), Guy Middleton (Sir Ben Dench), Victor Rietti (Peasant)

Man about the House

GB 1974 90m colour
EMI/Hammer (Roy Skeggs)

Two young women, their male flatmate and their landlords combine forces to prevent the terrace from being razed for redevelopment.

Mild and rather exhausting sex comedy from the TV series, as relentlessly single-minded as a 'Carry On'.

w Johnnie Mortimer, Brian Cooke d John Robins ph Jimmy Allen m Christopher Gunning

☆ Richard O'Sullivan, Paula Wilcox, Sally Thomsett, Yootha Joyce, Brian Murphy, Peter Cellier, Patrick Newell, Spike Milligan, Arthur Lowe

Man about Town ★

US 1939 85m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A Broadway producer in London makes his girlfriend jealous.

Fairly amusing comedy-musical programmer.

w Morrie Ryskind d Mark Sandrich ph Ted Tetzlaff md Victor Young

☆ Jack Benny, Dorothy Lamour, Edward Arnold, Binnie Barnes, Phil Harris, Eddie Anderson, Monty Woolley, Isabel Jeans, Betty Grable, E. E. Clive

'Good comedy, rates okay biz.' – Variety

A Man Alone: see The Killers (1946)

A Man Alone ★

US 1955 96m Trucolor
Republic

A wandering gunman is framed by other badmen.

Solemn, slow-moving but generally interesting Western, the star's first attempt at direction.

w John Tucker Battle d Ray Milland ph Lionel Lindon m Victor Young

☆ Ray Milland, Mary Murphy, Ward Bond, Raymond Burr, Arthur Space, Lee Van Cleef, Alan Hale Jnr

A Man and a Woman ★★

France 1966 102m Eastmancolor
Les Films 13

original title: Un Homme et une Femme

A racing driver and a script girl, both of whose spouses are dead, meet while visiting their children, and an affair leads to marriage.

Slight romantic drama so tricked out with smart images that it looks like a series of expensive commercials. A great box-office success, but its director never again succeeded in this vein which he made his own.

w Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven d Claude Lelouch ph Jean Columb, Patrice Pouget m Francis Lai

☆ Anouk Aimée, Jean-Louis Trintignant

'When in doubt, Lelouch's motto seems to be, use a colour filter or insert lyrical shots of dogs and horses; when in real doubt, use both.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'A slick item with all the Hollywood ingredients.' – John Simon

best foreign film; Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven

Claude Lelouch (as director); Anouk Aimée

Anouk Aimée

A Man and a Woman: Twenty Years Later

France 1986 120m Eastmancolor
Films 13/Warner

original title: Un Homme Et Une Femme: Vingt Ans Déjà

Slightly macabre attempt to extend the appeal with the same actors, the same technique, and even shots from Lelouch's other movies.

A bit of a wallow.

w Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven, Monique Lange, Jérôme Tonnerre d Claude Lelouch ph Jean-Yves Le Mener m Francis Lai

☆ Anouk Aimée, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Evelyne Bouix, Marie-Sophie Pochat

Man and His Mate: see One Million BC

'Love changes a man. Revenge tears him apart.'

A Man Apart

US/Germany 2003 109m DeLuxe
Panavision
Entertainment (Tucker Tooley, Vincent Newman, Joseph Nittolo, Vin Diesel)

An undercover cop takes his revenge when his wife is murdered and his career ruined by members of a drug smuggling cartel.

Slick, empty action movie that goes nowhere interesting and offers a hero who is indistinguishable from a vicious criminal.

w Christian Gudegast, Paul Scheuring d F. Gary Gray ph Jack N. Green m Anne Dudley pd Ida Random ed Bob Brown, William Hoy

☆ Vin Diesel (Sean Vetter), Larenz Tate (Demetrius Hicks), Timothy Olyphant (Hollywood Jack), Geno Silva (Memo Lucero), Jacqueline Obradors (Stacy Vetter), Steve Eastin (Ty Frost), Juan Fernandez (Mateo Santos), Jeff Kober (Pomona Joe)

'Sets chunks of nonsense floating down in a river of action.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Man at the Top ★

GB 1973 87m Technicolor
Hammer/Dufton (Peter Charlesworth)

A pharmaceutical executive finds that his firm is marketing an unsafe drug.

Further adventures of the belligerent hero of Room at the Top (qv), this time following a popular television series. All very fashionable and predictable.

w Hugh Whitemore d Mike Vardy ph Bryan Probyn m Roy Budd

☆ Kenneth Haigh, Nanette Newman, Harry Andrews, John Quentin, Charlie Williams

The Man Behind the Gun

US 1952 82m Technicolor
Warner

A cavalry officer is sent to quell a rebellion and helps to found Los Angeles.

Cheerful Western programmer.

w John Twist d Felix Feist ph Bert Glennon m David Buttolph

☆ Randolph Scott, Patrice Wymore, Dick Wesson, Phil Carey

The Man Behind the Mask

GB 1936 79m bw
Joe Rock

A mad scientist kidnaps a nobleman's daughter.

Serial-like hokum with interesting credits.

w Ian Hay, Syd Courtenay, Jack Byrd and Stanley Haynes d Michael Powell

☆ Hugh Williams, Maurice Schwartz, Jane Baxter, Donald Calthrop, Henry Oscar

A Man Betrayed

US 1941 82m bw
Armand Schaefer/Republic

GB title: Citadel of Crime

A hick lawyer in the big city smashes corruption.

Somewhat inconsequential melodrama which fails to come through with the powerful entertainment it promises.

w Isabel Dawn d John H. Auer

☆ John Wayne, Frances Dee, Edward Ellis, Wallace Ford, Ward Bond, Harold Huber, Alexander Granach, Barnett Parker

The Man Between ★

GB 1953 101m bw
British Lion/London Films (Carol Reed)

Ivo Kern operates successfully as a West Berlin racketeer; love causes a softening of his attitudes and leads to his death.

Imitation Third Man with an uninteresting mystery and a solemn ending. Good acting and production can't save it.

w Harry Kurnitz d Carol Reed ph Desmond Dickinson m John Addison ad Andrei Andreiev

☆ James Mason, Hildegarde Neff, Claire Bloom, Geoffrey Toone, Ernst Schroeder

'Reed's love of photogenic corruption, his technical finesse, and his feeling for atmospheric intrigue almost make something really good out of a synthetic script.' – Variety

'A cold-hearted film about people with cold feet.' – Daily Express

Man Bites Dog ★★★

Belgium 1992 96m bw
Metro/Les Artistes Anonymes (Rémy Belvaux, André Bonzel, Benoît Poelvoorde)

original title: C'est arrivé près de chez vous

A documentary film crew begins by recording the activities of a motiveless serial killer and ends by helping him with his murders.

A black comedy that makes some effective points about the relationship between cinema (or TV) and exploitation and voyeurism but which becomes ever harder to watch or enjoy, with its scenes of gang rape and murder. A remarkable, if sometimes repellent, first feature, nevertheless.

w Rémy Belvaux, André Bonzel, Benoît Poelvoorde, Vincent Tavier d Rémy Belvaux, André Bonzel, Benoît Poelvoorde ph André Bonzel m Jean-Marc Chenut ed Rémy Belvaux, Eric Dardill

☆ Benoît Poelvoorde (Ben), Jacqueline Poelvoorde-Pappaert (Ben's Mother), Nelly Pappaert (Ben's Grandmother), Jenny Drye (Jenny), Malou Madou (Malou), Willy Vandenbroeck (Boby)

'To encounter Man Bites Dog is to submit to a torrent of hilariously cruel humour, enacted without fuss or rancour, and inconceivably authentic.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound

'Offbeat, darkly hilarious ... Violent yet trenchant, potential sleeper should attract a cult following and will look just right on video.' – Variety

'Carefully shaped to draw us in and repel us, to make us laugh and wipe the smiles off our faces. The most horrendous scenes are calculated to force us into asking how we can bear to watch such things.' – Philip French, Observer

A Man Called Gannon

US 1969 105m Technicolor Techniscope
Universal

A wandering cowboy helps a widow rancher in her fight against encroaching cattlemen.
Adequate remake of Man Without a Star, which somehow had much more stature.
w Gene Kearney, D. D. Beauchamp and Borden Chase d James Goldstone ☆ Tony Franciosa, Michael Sarrazin, Judi West, Susan Oliver, John Anderson

A Man Called Horse ★

US 1970 114m Technicolor Panavision
Cinema Center/Sanford Howard

In 1825 an English aristocrat is captured by Indians, lives with them and eventually becomes their leader.
Harrowing account of tribal life and customs, with much bloodshed and torture and most of the dialogue in Indian. Occasionally impressive but not exactly entertaining.
w Jack de Witt story Dorothy M. Johnson d Elliot Silverstein ph Robert Hauser m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Richard Harris, Judith Anderson, Jean Gascon, Manu Tupou † Sequels 1976: The Return of a Man Called Horse. 1984: Triumphs of a Man Called Horse.

The Man Called Noon

GB/Spain/Italy 1973 95m Technicolor
Frontier/Montana/Finarco (Euan Lloyd)

A Western gunslinger loses his memory.
Childish Western melodrama in the violent manner.
w Scot Finch novel Louis L'Amour d Peter Collinson ph John Cabrera m Luis Bacalov ☆ Richard Crenna, Stephen Boyd, Rosanna Schiaffino, Farley Granger

A Man Called Peter ★

US 1955 119m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

The life of Peter Marshall, a Scottish clergyman who became chaplain to the US Senate.
Careful but rather dreary biopic.
w Eleanore Griffin book Catherine Marshall d Henry Koster ph Harold Lipstein m Alfred Newman
☆ Richard Todd, Jean Peters, Marjorie Rambeau, Jill Esmond, Les Tremayne, Robert Burton
Harold Lipstein

A Man Called Sledge

Italy 1970 92m Technicolor
Dino de Laurentiis (Carl Olsen)

A bandit tries in vain to mastermind a bank robbery.
Curious change of pace for a genial star. A spaghetti Western without style but with plenty of violence, the result doesn't linger in the memory.
w Vic Morrow, Frank Kowalski d Vic Morrow ph Luigi Kuveiller
☆ James Garner, Dennis Weaver, Claude Akins, John Marley

A Man Called Sullivan: see The Great John L.

A Man Could Get Killed ★

US 1966 98m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Cherokee (Ernest Wehmeyer)

An American businessman in Lisbon is mistaken for a secret agent.
Minor thrill comedy with a confused plot and a willing cast.
w T. E. B. Clarke, Richard Breen novel Diamonds Are Danger by David Walker d Ronald Neame, Cliff Owen ph Gabor Pogany m Bert Kaemfert
☆ James Garner, Melina Mercouri, Sandra Dee, Tony Franciosa, Robert Coote, Roland Culver, Cecil Parker, Grégoire Aslan, Dulcie Gray, Martin Benson, Niall MacGinnis

A Man for All Seasons ★★★★

GB 1966 120m Technicolor
Columbia/Highland (Fred Zinnemann)

Sir Thomas More opposes Henry VIII's divorce, and events lead inexorably to his execution.
Irreproachable film version of a play which has had its narrative tricks removed but stands up remarkably well. Acting, direction, sets, locations and costumes all have precisely the right touch.
w Robert Bolt play Robert Bolt d Fred Zinnemann ph Ted Moore m Georges Delerue pd John Box ad Terence Marsh ed Ralph Kemplen cos Elizabeth Haffenden, Joan Bridge
☆ Paul Scofield (Sir Thomas More), Wendy Hiller (Alice More), Susannah York (Margaret More), Robert Shaw (King Henry VIII), Orson Welles (Cardinal Wolsey), Leo McKern (Thomas Cromwell), Nigel Davenport (Duke of Norfolk), John Hurt (Richard Rich), Corin Redgrave (William Roper), Cyril Luckham (Archbishop Cranmer), Jack Gwillim (Chief Justice)
'Mr Zinnemann has crystallized the essence of this drama in such pictorial terms as to render even its abstractions vibrant.' – New York Times
'A beautiful and satisfying film, the ultimate demonstration, perhaps, of how a fine stage play can be transcended and, with integrity and inspiration, turned into a great motion picture.' – Judith Crist † Reports indicate that Charlton Heston badly wanted the role of Sir Thomas More.
best picture; Robert Bolt; Fred Zinnemann; Ted Moore; Paul Scofield; Elizabeth Haffenden, Joan Bridge
Wendy Hiller; Robert Shaw best picture; best British film; Ted Moore; John Box; Paul Scofield

'If you've read the book, forget it!'

Man Friday

GB 1975 115m Eastmancolor Panavision
Avco-Embassy/ITC/ABC/Keep Films (Jules Buck)

The story of Robinson Crusoe told so that Friday appears the more intelligent.
A pointless and not very entertaining exercise which wears out its welcome very early.
w Adrian Mitchell d Jack Gold ph Alex Phillips m Carl Davis
☆ Peter O'Toole, Richard Roundtree
'Liberal intentions trail sadly through every sequence and cause absurd fluctuations of tone, since no one seems to have decided whether laborious slapstick, heavy portentousness or method acting is the best vehicle for the message.' – Jill Forbes

The Man from Blankley's

US 1930 67m bw
Warner

A drunken aristocrat goes to the wrong party and teaches those present, and himself, a thing or two.
Amusing star trifle, previously filmed as a silent.
w Harvey Thew, Joseph Jackson story F. Anstey d Alfred E. Green ph James Van Trees ☆ John Barrymore, Loretta Young, William Austin, Albert Gran, Emily Fitzroy
'Dickens comedy, in the Sennett vein, with the Barrymore finesse.' – Variety

The Man from Colorado

US 1948 99m Technicolor
Columbia (Jules Schermer)

A maladjusted Civil War veteran becomes a Western judge and rules by the gun.
Slightly unusual, watchable star Western.
w Robert D. Andrews, Ben Maddow story Borden Chase d Henry Levin ph William Snyder m George Duning
☆ Glenn Ford, William Holden, Ellen Drew, Ray Collins, Edgar Buchanan, Jerome Courtland, James Millican, Jim Bannon
'No more humour than a lawyer's shingle, but it has suspense and some exciting shots of fist fights and burning houses.' – Time

The Man from Dakota ★

US 1940 75m bw
MGM
GB title: Arouse and Beware

A Yankee soldier is taken prisoner by the South and becomes a spy.
Good period action piece.
w Laurence Stallings novel Mackinlay Kantor d Leslie Fenton
☆ Wallace Beery, Dolores Del Rio, John Howard, Donald Meek, H. B. Warner, Victor Varconi

Man from Del Rio

US 1956 82m bw
UA/Robert L. Jacks

A Mexican hobo becomes sheriff and forces the local badman to leave town.
Modest, efficient, rather brutal little Western.
w Richard Carr d Harry Horner ph Stanley Cortez m Fred Steiner
☆ Anthony Quinn, Katy Jurado, Peter Whitney, Douglas Fowley

The Man from Down Under

US 1943 103m bw
MGM

A veteran of World War I smuggles two orphans back into Australia.
Appallingly indulgent sentimental star vehicle, a mistake for all concerned.
w Wells Root, Thomas Seller d Robert Z. Leonard ☆ Charles Laughton, Binnie Barnes, Donna Reed, Richard Carlson, Horace McNally, Arthur Shields

'Pleasure is his business...Call him old-fashioned.'

The Man From Elysian Fields ★ ④

US 2001 105m FotoKem
Gold Circle/Shoreline/Pfilmco/CineSon (Donald Zuckerman, Andrew Pfeffer, Andy Garcia)

A struggling writer puts his marriage in jeopardy by becoming a male escort to the young wife of a dying novelist.
Literate, though over-contrived, account of a Faustian pact that provides occasional epigrammatic pleasure.
w Philip Jayson Lasker d George Hickenlooper ph Kramer Morgenthau m Anthony Marinelli pd Franckie Diago ed Michael Brown ☆ Andy Garcia (Byron Tiller), Mick Jagger (Luther Fox), Julianna Margulies (Dena Tiller), Olivia Williams (Andrea Allcott), James Coburn (Tobias Allcott), Anjelica Huston (Jennifer Adler), Michael des Barres (Nigel Halsey)
'A rare comedy of manners, witty, wicked and worldly.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago sun-Times
'Only the charm and attractiveness of the cast keeps this movie from the remainder bin.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer

'He came a thousand miles to kill someone he'd never seen!'

The Man from Laramie ★★

US 1955 104m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia (William Goetz)

A wandering cowman seeks revenge on those who killed his brother.
Grade-A Western with new-fangled touches of brutality touching off the wide screen spectacle.
w Philip Yordan, Frank Burt d Anthony Mann ph Charles Lang Jnr m George Duning md Morris Stoloff ad Cary Odell ed William Lyon
☆ James Stewart (Will Lockhart), Arthur Kennedy (Vic Hansbro), Donald Crisp (Alec Waggoman), Cathy O'Donnell (Barbara Waggoman), Alex Nicol (Dave Waggoman), Aline MacMahon (Kate Canaday), Wallace Ford, Jack Elam

The Man from Majorca ★

Sweden 1984 105m colour
Cannon/Drakfilm (Göran Lindström) original title: Mannen Från Mallorca

Two policemen are thwarted in their attempt to uncover a political and sexual scandal.
A taut thriller that maintains its suspense until the end.
wd Bo Widerberg novel Grisfesten by Leif G. W. Persson ph Thomas Wahlberg m Björn Jason Lindh ad Jan öquist ed Bo Widerberg ☆ Sven Wollter, Tomas von Brömssen, Hakan Serner, Ernst Günther, Thomas Hellberg, Ingvar Hirdvall, Niels Jensen

The Man from Monterey

US 1933 57m bw
Warner (Leon Schlesinger)

A US Army captain helps Mexican landowners prevent their lands from being taken over by unscrupulous speculators and saves the girl from marrying a villain.
A standard quickie that was Wayne's last Western for Warner, as he went on to better movies and paydays.
w Lesley Mason d Mack V. Wright
☆ John Wayne, Ruth Hall, Nina Quartero, Lillian Leighton, Luis Alberni, Francis Ford, Donald Reed

The Man from Morocco

GB 1944 116m bw
ABP (Warwick Ward)

Members of the international brigade are captured and later sent by Vichy to build a Sahara railway for the Germans; one escapes to London with vital information.
Stilted, meandering and extremely unconvincing melodrama with a star ill at ease.
w Warwick Ward, Edward Dryhurst, Marguerite Steen story Rudolph Cartier d Max Greene ph Basil Emmott
☆ Anton Walbrook, Margaretta Scott, Mary Morris, Reginald Tate, Peter Sinclair, David Horne

The Man from Nevada: see The Nevadan

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Man from Planet X

US 1951 70m bw
Sherrill Corwin/United Artists (Aubrey Wisberg and Jack Pollexfen)

On a remote Scottish island a spacecraft deposits a strange creature with a large head and mesmeric powers.

Early, minor, moderately pleasing fragment in the Close Encounters cycle.

w Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen d Edgar G. Ulmer ph John Russell m Charles Koff

☆ Margaret Field, Raymond Bond, William Schallert

The Man from Snowy River

Australia 1982 104m
Eastmancolor Panavision
Cambridge Films/Michael Edgley International (Geoff Burrowes)

In 1888, an orphan boy grows up with an obsession about wild horses.

Essentially no more than an Audie-Murphy-style Western given full down-under treatment. An Australian smash, a programmer elsewhere.

w John Dixon, Fred Cullen poem A. B. Paterson d George Miller ph Keith Wagstaff m Bruce Rowland

☆ Kirk Douglas, Jack Thompson, Sigrid Thornton, Tom Burlinson, Terence Donovan, Lorraine Bayly

The Man from Snowy River Part II: see Return to Snowy River

Man from Tangier

GB 1957 66m bw
Butcher's (W. G. Chalmers)

A pilot becomes mixed up with rival gangs trying to get their hands on a forger's valuable plates.

Dull, cramped thriller with little action and much talk in small rooms.

w P. Manning O'Brine d Lance Comfort ph Geoffrey Faithfull md Wilfred Burns ad John Stoll ed Peter Mayhew

☆ Robert Hutton, Lisa Gastoni, Martin Benson, Leonard Sachs, Derek Sydney, Robert Raglan, Harold Berens, Michael Balfour

The Man from the Alamo ★

US 1953 79m Technicolor
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)

A survivor of the Alamo is thought to be a deserter but proves his story and exposes a villain.

Satisfying Western programmer.

w Steve Fisher, D. D. Beauchamp d Budd Boetticher ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner

☆ Glenn Ford, Victor Jory, Julia Adams, Hugh O'Brian

The Man from the Diners' Club ★

US 1963 96m bw
Columbia/Dena/Ampersand (Bill Bloom)

A clerk accidentally lets a credit card go to a notorious gangster, and makes desperate efforts to retrieve it.

Minor star comedy with funny moments surviving a slapdash script.

w Bill Blatty d Frank Tashlin ph Hal Mohr m Stu Philips

☆ Danny Kaye, Telly Savalas, Martha Hyer, Cara Williams, Everett Sloane, George Kennedy

The Man from the Folies Bergère: see Folies Bergère

The Man from Tokyo: see Tokyo Drifter

The Man from U.N.C.L.E

This long-running one-hour TV series (1964–68) began as a spoof of James Bond, which was itself a spoof.

Not much more serious or convincing than Batman, they caused a lot of people to suspend their disbelief.

☆ Robert Vaughn (Napoleon Solo), David McCallum (Ilya Kuryakin), Leo G. Carroll (Mr Waverly)

† Several feature films were made up from various episodes, and did well in cinemas in some countries. They were: To Trap a Spy, The Spy with My Face, The Karate Killers, The Spy in the Green Hat, One of Our Spies Is Missing, The Helicopter Spies, How to Steal the World, and One Spy Too Many.

The Man from Utah

US 1934 55m bw
Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

At the urging of a US Marshal, a cowboy goes undercover to expose a gang organizing a crooked rodeo.

Dull Western, with some moderately interesting rodeo footage. It opens, uncharacteristically, with Wayne as a guitar-toting cowboy on a white horse, singing a love song in an unpleasing baritone.

w Lindsley Parsons d Robert Bradbury ph Archie Stout m William Barber ed Carl Pierson

☆ John Wayne, Polly Ann Young, Anita Compillo, Edward Peil, George Hayes, Yakima Canutt, George Cleveland

A Man from Wyoming

US 1930 70m bw
Paramount

A slow-speaking engineer joins the army, serves overseas and marries an ambulance driver.

Uncertain star vehicle which helped to mould his screen character.

w John Weaver and Albert Shelby Le Vino d Rowland V. Lee

☆ Gary Cooper, June Collyer, Regis Toomey, E. H. Calvert, Morgan Farley

'Bad enough to be good entertainment if taken as farce.' – New York Evening Post.

'Her body ached for the man she loved!'

The Man from Yesterday

US 1932 71m bw
Paramount

A man is reported missing in World War I, but years later his wife and her new fiancé find him in Switzerland, dying of gas poisoning.

Enoch Arden rides again, and very boringly.

w Oliver H. P. Garrett d Berthold Viertel ph Karl Struss

☆ Claudette Colbert, Clive Brook, Charles Boyer, Andy Devine, Alan Mowbray, Christian Rub

'Rather too late in the day to expect war scenes, and when the war peters out, there is only scenery and conversation.' – Variety

Man Hunt

US 1936 65m bw
Warner

A cub reporter hunts a bank robber.

Standard support action fare of its time.

w Roy Chanslor, Earl Felton d William Clemens ph Joseph Ruttenberg ad Esdras Hartley ed Louis Hesse

☆ William Gargan (Hank Dawson), Ricardo Cortez (Frank Kingman), Marguerite Churchill (Jane Carpenter), Chic Sale (Ed Hoggins), Maude Eburne (Mrs Hoggins), Don Barclay (Waffles)

'Script never lives up to the title's promise.' – Variety

Man Hunt ★★

US 1941 98m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

A big game hunter misses a shot at Hitler and is chased back to England by the Gestapo.

Despite hilariously inaccurate English backgrounds, this is perhaps its director's most vivid Hollywood thriller, though watered down in tone from the original novel.

w Dudley Nichols novel Rogue Male by Geoffrey Household d Fritz Lang ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman

☆ Walter Pidgeon, Joan Bennett, George Sanders, John Carradine, Roddy McDowall, Ludwig Stossel, Heather Thatcher, Frederick Worlock

'A tense and intriguing thriller that is both propaganda and exciting entertainment.' – Paul M. Jensen, 1969

'In its manipulation of these dark and intent forces on a checkerboard, it manages to take your breath away.' – Otis Ferguson

† Remade for TV in 1976 as Rogue Male.

The Man I Killed: see Broken Lullaby

The Man I Married ★

US 1940 79m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)
aka: I Married a Nazi

When an American couple take a European vacation, the wife is horrified to find her husband, who is of German parentage, agreeing with the Nazis.

Naïve but striking melodrama exploring attitudes of its time.

w Oliver H. P. Garrett novel Swastika by Oscar Shisgall d Irving Pichel ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph

☆ Joan Bennett, Francis Lederer, Lloyd Nolan, Anna Sten, Otto Kruger, Maria Ouspenskaya, Ludwig Stossel, Johnny Russell

Man in a Cocked Hat: see Carlton-Browne of the FO

The Man in Grey ★★

GB 1943 116m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

In Regency times, an aristocratic girl's love for her less fortunate friend is repaid by jealousy, treachery and murder.

Rather dully performed flashback costume melodrama which caught the public imagination in the middle of a dreary world war, especially as its evil leading characters were played by stars who rapidly went right to the top. The several imitations which followed, including The Wicked Lady, Jassy and Hungry Hill, became known as the Gainsborough school.

w Margaret Kennedy, Leslie Arliss, Doreen Montgomery novel Lady Eleanor Smith d Leslie Arliss ph Arthur Crabtree m Cedric Mallabey ad Walter Murton

☆ James Mason, Margaret Lockwood, Phyllis Calvert, Stewart Granger, Helen Haye, Nora Swinburne, Raymond Lovell, Martita Hunt

'There was not a moment when I would not gladly have dived for my hat.' – James Agate

'All the time-tested materials: gypsy fortune-teller; scowling, black-browed villain; gushy diary kept by a doe-eyed girl who munches candied violets; fire-breathing adventuress who dotes on discord and low-cut gowns...' – Time

'Even the one girl who loved enough to ask no questions – had to face the fearful truth!'

The Man in Half Moon Street

US 1944 91m bw
Paramount (Walter MacEwen)

A mysteriously handsome young scientist is actually a 90-year-old who has discovered a surgical method of preserving youth.

Boring screen version of a play which was conceived in an almost romantic vein; Hollywood has taken it too literally.

w Charles Kenyon play Barre Lyndon d Ralph Murphy ph Henry Sharp m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Nils Asther, Helen Walker, Brandon Hurst, Reinhold Schunzel

† Remade in straight horror vein as The Man Who Could Cheat Death (qv).

The Man in Her Life

Philippines 1998 103m colour
Star Pacific/Reyna (Armida Siguion-Reyna)
original title: Ang Lalaki Sa Buhay Ni Selya

A homosexual headmaster, scandalising the locals over his relationship with a married man, decides to marry the school's new teacher, who has left home to find her lover, a travelling salesman.

Amiable, but long-winded domestic drama that never fully engages with its subject matter.

w Bibeth Orteza d Carlos Siguion-Reyna ph Yam Laranas m Ryan Cayabyab pd Joey Luna ed Manet A. Dayrit

☆ Ricky Davao, Gardo Versoza, Rosanna Roces, Alan Paule, Eva Darren, Renato del Prado, Crispin Pineda

Man in Love ★

France/Italy 1987 110m colour
Virgin/Fox/Camera One/Alexandra Films/JMS (Michel Seydoux, Diane Kurys)

original title: Un Homme Amoureux

A married American film star falls in love with an actress while making a movie in Italy.

Overlong romantic melodrama that generates little heat.

w Diane Kurys, Olivier Schatzky d Diane Kurys ph Bernard Zitzermann m Georges Delerue ad Dean Tavoularis ed Joelle Van Effenterre

☆ Peter Coyote, Greta Scacchi, Peter Riegert, Claudia Cardinale, John Berry, Vincent Lindon, Jamie Lee Curtis

The Man in Possession

US 1931 81m bw
MGM

A lady falls in love with the bailiff's man in temporary charge of her establishment.

Light comedy subsequently remade as Personal Property; quite tolerable.

w Sarah Y. Mason play H. M. Harwood d Sam Wood

☆ Robert Montgomery, Irene Purcell, Charlotte Greenwood, C. Aubrey Smith, Beryl Mercer, Reginald Owen, Alan Mowbray

'Should have no trouble where the censors don't interfere ... where it gets by with the dirt, the dirt should get it over.' – Variety

The Man in Possession: see Personal Property (1937)

The Man in the Attic

US 1953 82m bw
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)

Remake of the much-remade The Lodger, this time with parsimonious production values and no style.

w Robert Presnell Jnr, Barre Lyndon d Hugo Fregonese ph Leo Tover md Lionel Newman

☆ Jack Palance, Constance Smith, Byron Palmer, Frances Bavier, Rhys Williams

The Man in the Back Seat ★

GB 1961 57m bw
Independent Artists (Julian Wintle, Leslie Parkyn)

Two robbers fail to separate a bookie from the locked bag chained to his wrist, at first taking him with them they finally kill him and are apparently haunted by him.

Taut, downbeat little crime thriller which won a few critical plaudits.

w Malcolm Hulke, Eric Paice d Vernon Sewell ph Reg Wyer m Stanley Black

☆ Derren Nesbitt, Keith Faulkner, Carol White, Harry Locke

'Death at the carnival – as a killer takes over the switchback!'

Man in the Dark ★

US 1953 70m bw 3-D
Columbia (Wallace MacDonald)

A convict submits to a brain operation which will remove his criminal tendencies. Unfortunately it also removes his memory, and on his release he is bewildered when gangsters expect him to know where the loot is hidden.

Silly low-budgeter which is only notable as the 3-D film which most exploited the short-lived medium. Apart from a roller coaster ride, objects hurled at the audience include scissors, spiders, knives, forceps, fists and falling bodies.

w George Bricker, Jack Leonard screenplay The Man Who Lived Twice by William Sackheim story Tom van Dyke, Henry Altimus d Lew Landers ph Floyd Crosby md Ross Di Maggio ad John Meehan ed Viola Lawrence

☆ Edmond O'Brien (Steve Rawley), Audrey Totter (Peg Benedict), Ted de Corsia (Lefty), Horace MacMahon (Arnie), Nick Dennis (Cookie), Dayton Lummis (Dr Marston), Dan Riso (Jawald)

The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit ★

US 1956 152m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A young New York executive is offered a demanding job but decides that his first loyalty is to his wife and children.

An amusingly accurate novel of Madison Avenue mores becomes a marathon emotional melodrama in which the mordant bits quickly give way to domestic problems and a guilt complex about a wartime affair, shown in lengthy flashback. It's all too much.

wd Nunnally Johnson novel Sloan Wilson ph Charles G. Clarke m Bernard Herrmann

☆ Gregory Peck, Fredric March, Jennifer Jones, Ann Harding, Arthur O'Connell, Henry Daniell, Marisa Pavan, Lee J. Cobb, Keenan Wynn, Gene Lockhart, Gigi Perreau, Connie Gilchrist, Joseph Sweeney

'Free Him!'
'Is he my wooer, my loved one? Or is he the tyrant who bleeds my people? Is he ardent lover – or cold-blooded killer? Let me look upon his face! Let me touch him!'

The Man in the Iron Mask ★★

US 1939 110m bw
Edward Small

King Louis XIV keeps his twin brother prisoner.

Exhilarating swashbuckler based on a classic novel, with a complex plot, good acting and the three musketeers in full cry.

w George Bruce novel Alexandre Dumas d James Whale ph Robert Planck m Lucien Moraweck, Lud Gluskin ad John DuCasse Schulze ed Grant Whytock

☆ Louis Hayward (Louis XIV/Philippe), Warren William (D'Artagnan), Alan Hale (Porthos), Bert Roach (Athos), Miles Mander (Aramis), Joan Bennett (Maria Theresa), Joseph Schildkraut (Fouquet), Walter Kingsford (Colbert), Marion Martin, Montagu Love, Albert Dekker

'Substantial entertainment for general appeal and satisfaction.' – Variety
'A sort of combination of The Prisoner of Zenda and The Three Musketeers, with a few wild west chases thrown in ... not unentertaining.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

† Remade 1976 as a TV movie with Richard Chamberlain, and 1978 as The Fifth Musketeer (qv).

♗ Lucien Moraweck, Lud Gluskin

The Man in the Iron Mask ★

US 1998 132m DeLuxe
MGM/UA (Randall Wallace, Russell Smith)

When King Louis XIV rules badly and connives in the death of Athos's son, the former musketeers decide to replace him with his imprisoned twin brother.

A stolid version that limits the swashbuckling, and provides little else to excite, with its motley international quartet of musketeers and a twin performance from DiCaprio that fails to convince.

wd Randall Wallace novel Alexandre Dumas ph Peter Suschitzky m Nick Glennie-Smith pd Anthony Pratt ed William Hoy

☆ Leonardo DiCaprio, Jeremy Irons (Aramis), John Malkovich (Athos), Gérard Depardieu (Porthos), Gabriel Byrne (D'Artagnan), Anne Parillaud, Judith Godrèche, Edward Atterton, Peter Sarsgaard

'An unusually sober and serious-minded telling of Alexandre Dumas' classic tale, this handsome costumer is routinely made and comes up rather short in boisterous excitement.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† MGM discovered that the audience the movie attracted was 'directly related to the appeal of Leonardo DiCaprio', being 55 per cent female, and 46 per cent under-25.

The Man in the Middle ★

GB 1964 94m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Pennebaker/Belmont (Walter Seltzer)

In India during World War II, an American lieutenant is indicted for murder and the defence counsel is instructed to lose the case.

Courtroom melodrama with unusual angles; quite intriguing, though the wide screen doesn't help.

w Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall novel The Winston Affair by Howard Fast d Guy Hamilton ph Wilkie Cooper m John Barry

☆ Robert Mitchum, Trevor Howard, Keenan Wynn, Barry Sullivan, France Nuyen, Alexander Knox

'For once Mitchum seems to have an excuse for keeping his eyes at half mast.' – Judith Crist

The Man in the Mirror

GB 1936 82m bw
JH Productions (Julius Hagen)

A timid man's reflection steps out of the mirror and organizes him.

Modest comedy with a pleasing star.

w F. McGrew Willis, Hugh Mills novel William Garrett d Maurice Elvey ph Curt Courant

☆ Edward Everett Horton, Geneviève Tobin, Garry Marsh, Ursula Jeans, Alastair Sim, Aubrey Mather, Felix Aylmer

'High speed sequences of comic incident put over in fine style.' – Cinema

Man in the Moon

GB 1960 99m bw
Allied Film Makers/Excalibur (Michael Relph)

A man who earns his living as Mr Normal, a human guinea pig for scientific research, is chosen as the first astronaut.

Dated comedy which rather dismayingly turns from mild satire to outright farce and fantasy.

w Michael Relph, Bryan Forbes d Basil Dearden ph Harry Waxman m Philip Green

☆ Kenneth More, Shirley Anne Field, Michael Hordern, John Phillips, John Glyn-Jones, Charles Gray, Norman Bird

The Man in the Moon ★

US 1991 99m Eastmancolor
UIP/MGM/Pathé (Mark Rydell)

In the 1950s, a 14-year-old girl falls in love with a 17-year-old boy, but he prefers her sister.

Weepy period account of growing-up, handled with skill.

w Jenny Wingfield d Robert Mulligan ph Freddie Francis m James Newton Howard pd Gene Callahan ed Trudy Ship

☆ Sam Waterston, Tess Harper, Gail Strickland, Reese Witherspoon, Jason London, Emily Warfield

'A disappointing return by Mulligan to the well-ploughed cliché.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound
'One of the most delicate and heart-warming movies of the year.' – Roger Ebert

The Man in the Net

US 1958 96m bw
UA/Mirisch-Jaguar (Walter Mirisch)

When a painter is accused of murdering his wife, he goes into hiding and is helped by children.

Extremely tedious and inept mystery, doubly disappointing in view of the credits.

w Reginald Rose novel Patrick Quentin d Michael Curtiz ph John Seitz m Hans Salter

☆ Alan Ladd, Carolyn Jones, Diane Brewster, John Lupton, Charles McGraw, Tom Helmore, John Alexander

Man in the Saddle

US 1951 87m Technicolor
Columbia/Scott-Brown (Harry Joe Brown)

GB title: The Outcast

A small rancher is victimized by his wealthy neighbour.

Fairly lively Western which develops into a series of gunfights.

w Kenneth Gamet novel Ernest Haycox d André de Toth ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning md Maurice Stoloff ad George Brooks ed Charles Nelson

☆ Randolph Scott, Alexander Knox, Joan Leslie, Ellen Drew, Richard Rober, Alfonso Bedoya, Guinn 'Big Boy' Williams, Cameron Mitchell

Man in the Shadow ★

US 1957 80m bw Cinemascope
U-I (Albert Zugsmith)

GB title: Pay the Devil

The sheriff of a small western town investigates a murder against the wishes of a powerful local rancher.

Mini-social drama in which the honest man wins out at last ... and who would expect anything different. A brooding melodrama which delivers less than it promises.

w Gene L. Coon d Jack Arnold ph Arthur E. Arling m Hans Salter

☆ Jeff Chandler, Orson Welles, Colleen Miller, John Larch, Joe Schneider, Leo Gordon

The Man in the Sky ★

GB 1956 87m bw
Ealing (Seth Holt)

US title: Decision against Time

A test pilot refuses to bale out when an engine catches fire; his plight is interwoven with scenes of his family, friends and associates.

Thin suspense drama with some effective moments but too many irrelevant asides.

w William Rose, John Eldridge d Charles Crichton ph Douglas Slocombe m Gerbrand Schurmann

☆ Jack Hawkins, Elizabeth Sellars, Walter Fitzgerald, Eddie Byrne, John Stratton, Victor Maddern, Lionel Jeffries, Donald Pleasence

The Man in the Trunk

US 1942 70m bw
TCF

The ghost of a murder victim helps a young attorney to nail the culprit.

Slightly uneasy spook comedy with a good star performance.

w John Larkin d Malcolm St Clair

☆ Raymond Walburn, Lynne Roberts, George Holmes, J. Carrol Naish, Dorothy Peterson

The Man in the White Suit ★★★★

GB 1951 81m bw
Ealing (Sidney Cole)

A scientist produces a fabric that never gets dirty and never wears out. Unions and management are equally aghast.

Brilliant satirical comedy played as farce and put together with meticulous cinematic counterpoint, so that every moment counts and all concerned give of their very best.

w Roger MacDougall, John Dighton, Alexander Mackendrick d Alexander Mackendrick ph Douglas Slocombe m Benjamin Frankel ad Jim Morahan ed Bernard Gribble

☆ Alec Guinness (Sidney Stratton), Joan Greenwood (Daphne Birnley), Cecil Parker (Alan Birnley), Vida Hope (Bertha), Ernest Thesiger (Sir John Kierlaw), Michael Gough (Michael Corland), Howard Marion Crawford (Cranford), Miles Malleson (Tailor), George Benson (The Lodger), Edie Martin (Mrs. Watson)

'The combination of an ingenious idea, a bright, funny and imaginative script, skilful playing and perceptive brisk direction has resulted once more in a really satisfying Ealing comedy.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

† The Region 2 DVD release is available only as part of a four-disc set, Ealing Comedy Collection'.

script

Man in the Wilderness ★

US 1971 105m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Wilderness (Sanford Howard)

In 1820 in the Canadian northwest, a fur trapper is mauled by a grizzly and left for dead, but he learns to survive and sets out for revenge.

Endurance melodrama modelled after A Man Called Horse*; a bit stretched and only for the hardened, but taking an agreeably unromantic view of nature.*

w Jack de Witt d Richard Sarafian ph Gerry Fisher m Johnny Harris

☆ Richard Harris, John Huston, John Bindon, Prunella Ransome, Henry Wilcoxon, Ben Carruthers

The Man Inside

GB 1958 97m bw Cinemascope
Columbia/Warwick (Harold Huth)

A jeweller's book-keeper steals a priceless diamond and is trailed by various factions half across Europe.

Fairly modest and unenterprising British thriller which hadn't much hope of the world market it was aiming at.

w John Gilling, David Shaw novel M. E. Chaber d John Gilling ph Ted Moore m Richard Bennett

☆ Nigel Patrick, Jack Palance, Anita Ekberg, Anthony Newley, Bonar Colleano, Sid James, Donald Pleasence

A Man is Ten Feet Tall: see Edge of the City

A Man Like Eva ★

West Germany 1983 89m colour
Blue Dolphin/Cinevista/Schier-Straub/Trio/Impuls/Maran (Horst Schier, Laurens Straub) original title: Ein Mann Wie Eva

While making a film, its director marries the female star and seduces the male star.

Based on the messy, manipulative life of bisexual film director Rainer Werner Fassbinder, it has one of his leading ladies, Eva Mattes, in the role of the male director, surprising casting that works well and adds an extra spice to an already over-heated narrative.

w Radu Gabrea, Laurens Straub d Radu Gabrea ph Horst Schier m Verdi ad Herbert Buchenberger ed Dragos-Emmanuel Witowski

☆ Eva Mattes, Lisa Kreuzer, Werner Stocker, Charles Regnier, Carola Regnier, Charly Muhamed Huber, Albert Kitzl

Man Made Monster ★

US 1940 57m bw
Universal (Jack Bernard)

GB title: The Electric Man

A scientist experiments with a man who is impervious to electric shock, and turns him into a walking robot.

A smart little semi-horror originally planned for Karloff and Lugosi.

w Joseph West d George Waggner ph Elwood Bredell m Hans Salter md Charles Previn sp John P. Fulton

☆ Lon Chaney Jnr, Lionel Atwill, Anne Nagel, Frank Albertson, Samuel S. Hinds

'Who were the women who twisted his life and love – gutting the flame of his incredible genius?'

Man of a Thousand Faces ★★

US 1957 122m bw Cinemascope
U-I (Robert Arthur)

The rise to fame of silent screen character actor Lon Chaney.

Moderately commendable biopic with a strong sense of period Hollywood, an excellent star performance, but too much sudsy emoting about deaf mute parents and an ungrateful wife.

w R. Wright Campbell, Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts d Joseph Pevney ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen ed Ted J. Kent sp Clifford Stine

☆ James Cagney (Lon Chaney), Dorothy Malone (Cleva Creighton Chaney), Robert Evans (Irving Thalberg), Roger Smith (Creighton Chaney at 21), Marjorie Rambeau (Gert), Jane Greer (Hazel Bennett), Jim Backus (Clarence Logan)

'The script and conception are so maudlin and degrading that Cagney's high dedication becomes somewhat oppressive.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

script

Man of Affairs: see His Lordship (1936)

Man of Affairs

GB 1937 70m bw
Gaumont British

When the foreign secretary is kidnapped, his twin brother impersonates him.

Lighthearted star vehicle which satisfied.

w Maude Howell and L. Du Garde Peach play The Nelson Touch by Neil Grant d Herbert Mason

☆ George Arliss, Romilly Lunge, Rene Ray, Jessie Winter, Allan Jeayes

'Business possibilities only moderate.' – Variety

Man of Aran ★★

GB 1934 75m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

The primitive life of crofting and fishing folk in the west of Ireland.

A lowering documentary very typical of its maker: highly impressive scene for scene, but tedious as a whole; still, highly remarkable that it was made at all for the commercial cinema.

w Robert and Frances Flaherty d Robert Flaherty m John Greenwood

☆ Colman King, Maggie Dirane

'In so far as it is a rendering of the efforts of the Atlantic to overwhelm and demolish a wall of rock, it is magnificent; but the human note is inadequate and unnecessary.' – E. V. Lucas, Punch

'However real, it would have made better truth if it had been handled with more of the art of fiction.' – Otis Ferguson

'Six thousand feet of such fine and purposeful pictorial composition have seldom been seen on the screen.' – Observer

Man of Bronze: see Jimmy Thorpe, All American

Man of Conquest

US 1939 99m bw
Republic (Sol C. Siegel)

The life of Western hero Sam Houston, who became president of Texas.

Competent action/domestic biopic.

w Wells Root, E. E. Paramore Jnr d George Nicholls Jnr ph Joseph H. August m Victor Young ad John Victor Mackay

☆ Richard Dix, Joan Fontaine, Gail Patrick, Edward Ellis, Victor Jory, Robert Barrat, George Hayes, Ralph Morgan, Robert Armstrong, C. Henry Gordon, Janet Beecher

'A grown-up hoss opera, based on authentic and colorful history, with fairly believable characters, ample action and reasonable suspense.' – Variety

Victor Young; art direction

Man of Evil: see Fanny by Gaslight

Man of Flowers ★

Australia 1983 91m Fujicolour
Flowers International (Jane Ballantyne, Paul Cox)

A model's relationship with her lover, a blackmailing, cocaine-snorting artist, and her admirer, a wealthy, repressed, middle-aged aesthete, leads to violence.

A study of sexual hang-ups that teeters on the edge of black farce.

w Paul Cox, Bob Ellis d Paul Cox ph Yuro Sokol ad Asher Bilu ed Tim Lewis

☆ Norman Kaye, Alyson Best, Chris Haywood, Sarah Walker, Werner Herzog

Man of Iron

US 1935 62m bw
Warner

A steel works foreman rises to the boardroom, but doesn't like it.

Rather obvious moral tale without much excitement.

w William Wister Haines, Dawn Powell d William McGann

☆ Barton MacLane, Mary Astor, John Eldredge, Dorothy Peterson, Joseph Crehan

'Unimportant programme material.' – Variety

Man of Iron ★★★

Poland 1981 152m colour/bw PRF/Filmowy X

original title: Czlowiek Z Zelaza

The events of 1980 in Poland are seen through the eyes of a strike leader.

A stirring companion piece to Man of Marble*; hard tack for the entertainment seeker but as honest a piece of history as one is likely to get from a so-called fiction film.*

w Aleksander Scibor-Rylski d Andrzej Wajda ph Edward Klosinski m Andrzej Korzynski

☆ Jerzy Radziwilowicz, Krystyna Janda, Marian Opania

best foreign film

Man of La Mancha ★

US 1972 132m DeLuxe
UA/PEA (Arthur Hiller)

Arrested by the Inquisition and thrown into prison, Miguel de Cervantes relates the story of Don Quixote.

Unimaginative but generally good-looking attempt to recreate on the screen an essentially theatrical experience.

w Dale Wasserman play Dale Wasserman d Arthur Hiller ph Goffredo Rotunno m Mitch Leigh md Laurence Rosenthal ad Luciano Damiani ly Joe Darion

☆ Peter O'Toole, Sophia Loren, James Coco, Harry Andrews, John Castle, Brian Blessed

'Needful of all the imagination the spectator can muster.' – Variety

Laurence Rosenthal

Man of Marble ★★★

Poland 1978 165m colour
PRF/Zespol X (Andrzej Wajda)

original title: Czlowiek Z Marmur

Young film makers gather material on a political hero of the fifties.

An extended drama on the style of Citizen Kane but with much more relevance to contemporary history. A key film to students of Poland, but too specialized for general entertainment.

w Aleksander Scibor-Rylski d Andrzej Wajda ph Edward Klosinski m Andrzej Korzynski

☆ Jerzy Radziwilowicz, Krystyna Janda, Michael Tarkowski, Tadeusz Lomnicki

The Man of My Life: see L'Homme de Ma Vie

A Man of No Importance

GB/Ireland 1994 99m Eastmancolor
Clarence/Majestic/BBC/Little Bird (Jonathan Cavendish)

In Dublin in the early 60s, a middle-aged bus conductor, who is staging an amateur performance of Oscar Wilde's Salome, realizes that it is time to come out of the closet and admit that he is homosexual and in love with his driver.

A pointless and virtually witless exercise that resembles a timidly gay reworking of a third-rate Ealing comedy; it is heavy-handed whimsy weighed down by some broad acting.

w Barry Devlin d Suri Krishnamma ph Ashley Rowe m Julian Nott pd Jamie Leonard ed David Freeman

☆ Albert Finney, Brenda Fricker, Michael Gambon, Tara Fitzgerald, Rufus Sewell, Patrick Malahide, Anna Manahan

'Faced with a film as quietly bad, as lazy in its pathos (even the title is sentimental), it's hard to know whether to crush it with rock or to run circles round it sniggering.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Man of the East (dubbed)

Italy/France 1972 125m Technicolor Techniscope
UA/PEA/Artistes Associés (Alberto Grimaldi) original title: ...E Poi Lo Chiamarono Il Magnifico

An English fop is taught how to fight and shoot by three outlaws.

Over-long comedy Western, in which the jokes are few and far between.

w Enzo Barboni d E. B. Clutcher (Enzo Barboni) ph Aldo Giordani m Guido de Angelis, Maurizio de Angelis ad Enzo Bulgarelli ed Eugenio Alabiso

☆ Terence Hill (aka Mario Girotti) (Sir Thomas More), Yanti Somer (Candida), Gregory Walcott (Bull), Harry Carey (Holy Joe), Dominici Barto (Monkey), Riccardo Pizzuti (Morten Clayton)

'A predictable plot ... is strung out to almost interminable length by the director's own script which never misses an opportunity to employ five sequences where one would do.' – David Pirie, MFB

Man of the Hour: see Colonel Effingham's Raid

The Man of the House

US 1995 96m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Forever Girls (Bonnie Bruckheimer, Marty Katz)

A young boy attempts to sabotage his mother's romance with the lawyer who comes to live with them.

A dim and uninteresting account of male bonding in the woods; it is impossible to imagine at what audience it is aimed.

w James Orr, Jim Cruickshank story David Peckinpah, Richard Jefferies d James Orr ph Jamie Anderson m Mark Mancina pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Harry Keramidas

☆ Chevy Chase, Farrah Fawcett, Jonathan

Taylor Thomas, George Wendt, David Shiner, Art LaFleur, Richard Portnow
'A dreadful film, with absolutely no redeeming features whatsoever – except that it does eventually end.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Jaw-droppingly awful.' – Independent

'Protecting witnesses is a challenge. Living with them is impossible.'

Man of the House ②

US 2005 100m colour Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Revolution (Steven Reuther, Todd Garner, Allyn Stewart)
A Texas Ranger is assigned to act as bodyguard to five cheerleaders who were witnesses to a murder.
The opening has Jones groping up a cow's rectum to retrieve a mobile phone, which is as funny as this tiresome, exploitative comedy gets.
w Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone, John J. McLaughlin, Scott Lobdell d Stephen Herek ph Peter Menzies Jnr m David Newman pd Nelson Coates ed Chris Lebenzon, Joel Negron
☆ Tommy Lee Jones (Roland Sharp), Anne Archer (Prof Molly McCarthy), Brian Van Holt (Eddie Zane), Christina Milian (Anne), Paula Garces (Teresa), Monica Keena (Evie), Vanessa Ferlito (Heather), Kelli Garner (Barb), Cedric the Entertainer (Percy Stevens)
'Mindless, vapid fare.' – New York Post

Man of the Moment

GB 1935 82m bw
Warner
An engaged young man saves a girl from suicide and falls in love with her.
Minor romantic comedy of predictable development.
w Roland Pertwee, Guy Bolton, A. R. Rawlinson play Yves Mirande d Monty Banks ph Basil Emmott ad Peter Proud ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Laura La Plante, Claude Hulbert, Margaret Lockwood, Donald Calthrop, Monty Banks

Man of the Moment

GB 1955 88m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)
A Whitehall filing clerk has to pretend to be a high-level diplomat at an international conference in Geneva.
Slapstick comedy of the obvious kind, but one of the better showcases for Norman Wisdom's sentimental 'little man' act.
w Vernon Sylvaine, John Paddy Carstairs story Maurice Cowan d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Cox m Philip Green ad Cedric Dawe ed John Shirley ☆ Norman Wisdom, Lana Morris, Belinda Lee, Jerry Desmonde, Karel Stephanek, Garry Marsh, Inia te Wiata

Man of the People

US 1937 80m bw
Lucien Hubbard/MGM
An Italian immigrant works for a law degree but is forced in with crooks.
Political power play without much zest despite good acting.
w Frank Dolan d Edwin L. Marin
☆ Joseph Calleia, Thomas Mitchell, Florence Rice, Ted Healy, Catherine Doucet
'Patently primed for duals, where it can hold its own.' – Variety

Man of the West

US 1958 100m DeLuxe Cinemascope
UA/Ashton (Walter M. Mirisch)
In 1874 Arizona, a reformed gunman is cajoled by his old buddies to help them rob a bank.
Talkative, set-bound, cliché-ridden star Western with minor compensations.
w Reginald Rose novel Will C. Brown d Anthony Mann ph Ernest Haller m Leigh Harline
☆ Gary Cooper, Lee J. Cobb, Julie London, Arthur O'Connell, Jack Lord, John Dehner, Royal Dano, Robert Wilke

Man of the World

US 1931 71m bw
Paramount
A gentleman racketeer operates on American playboys in Paris.
Predictable but smooth star vehicle.
w Herman J. Mankiewicz d Richard Wallace
☆ William Powell, Carole Lombard, Wynne Gibson, Guy Kibbee, Lawrence Gray
'Anything better than moderate for gross must come through the star's personal pull.' – Variety

'He was the centrefold that revealed everything but the truth.'

Man of the Year

US 1995 87m bw/colour
Artisan (Matt Keener)
Dirk Shafer, voted Playgirl magazine's Man of the Year in 1992, strives to conceal the fact that he is gay.
A light-hearted documentary that plays around with the form, also parodying straighter factual films.
wd Dirk Shafer ph Stephen Timberlake m Peitor Angell pd Michael Mueller ed Barry Silver, Ken Solomon
☆ Dirk Shafer, Vivian Paxton, Deidra Shafer, Michael Ornstein, Claudette Sutherland, Cal Bartlett, Beth Broderick

The Man of the Year *

Brazil 2003 112m colour
Warner/Conspiracao (Flavio R. Tambellini, Leonardo Monteiro de Barros, Jose Enrique Fonseca) original title: O Homem do Ano
After he shoots a boy who insulted him, a young Brazilian becomes a local hero and a hit man on behalf of the wealthy.
Intriguing drama of machismo and civic corruption that begins well but then loses its way.
w Ruben Fonseca novel The Killer/O Matador by Patricia Melo d José Enrique Fonseca ph Breno Silveira m Dado Villa-Lobos pd Toni Vanzolini ed Sergio Mekler
☆ Murilo Benicio (Maiquel), Claudia Abreu (Cledir), Natalia Lage (Erica), Jorge Doria (Dr Carvalho), Jose Wilker (Silvio), Agildo Ribeiro (Zilmar)
'Would be a smart indictment of contemporary urban paranoia if it didn't meander off in so many unrelated directions.' – Nicholas Barber, Independent

Man on a String

US 1960 92m bw
Columbia/Louis de Rochemont
GB title: Confessions of a Counterspy
A Russian-born Hollywood producer is asked by the Russians to work as a spy but becomes a double agent.
Slightly unbelievable biopic about Boris Morros, rather childlike in its simplicity and not too entertaining either.
w John Kafka, Virginia Shaler book Ten Years a Counterspy by Boris Morros d André de Toth ph Charles Lawton Jnr and others m George Duning
☆ Ernest Borgnine, Kerwin Mathews, Colleen Dewhurst, Alexander Scourby, Glenn Corbett, Vladimir Sokoloff

Man on a Swing

US 1975 108m Technicolor
Paramount (Howard B. Jaffe)
Investigations into a murder are helped by a would-be medium.
Overlong and confused psycho-mystery with one stand-out performance.
w David Zelag Goodman d Frank Perry ph Adam Holender m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Cliff Robertson, Joel Grey, Dorothy Tristan, Peter Masterson
'Runs out of interest long before it runs out of film.' – Variety

Man on a Tightrope *

US 1953 105m bw
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)
A Czech circus owner has trouble with the communist authorities and tries to escape.
Adventure story with cold war pretensions which virtually kill it.
w Robert Sherwood d Elia Kazan ph Georg Krause m Franz Waxman ☆ Fredric March, Cameron Mitchell, Adolphe Menjou, Gloria Grahame, Terry Moore, Richard Boone, John Dehner, Dorothea Wieck

The Man on America's Conscience: see Tennessee Johnson

Man on Fire

US 1957 95m bw
MGM (Sol C. Siegel)
When his wife divorces him, a middle-aged man refuses to hand over their son.
Low-key personal drama of very moderate interest and modest budget.
wd Ranald MacDougall ph Joseph Ruttenberg m David Raksin ☆ Bing Crosby, Inger Stevens, Mary Fickett, E. G. Marshall

Man on Fire

France/Italy 1987 92m Eastmancolor
Rank/Sept/FR3/Cima (Arnon Milchan)
An ex-CIA agent, working as a bodyguard in Italy, takes revenge on the gang who kidnapped a young girl he was protecting.
Uninteresting action movie, with a great deal of dull talk and hysterical acting interspersed by moments of violence that become ever more ludicrous. One of the many low points comes when Joe Pesci sings Johnny B. Goode.
w Eli Chouraqui, Sergio Donati novel A. J. Quinnell d Eli Chouraqui ph Gerry Fisher m John Scott ad Giantito Burchiellaro ed Noelle Boisson
☆ Scott Glenn, Brooke Adams, Danny Aiello, Joe Pesci, Jonathan Pryce, Paul Shenar, Laura Morante, Alessandro Haber, Franco Trevisi, Jade Malle
† The film was cut by 30 seconds for its British video release.

'A Promise To Protect. A Vow To Avenge.'

Man on Fire

US 2004 146m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Fox 2000/Regency/Scott Free (Arnon Milchan, Tony Scott, Lucas Foster)
In Mexico City, a hard drinking former CIA agent becomes a bodyguard to a young girl; when she is kidnapped, he tortures and kills those responsible in order to rescue her.
Mean-spirited revenge thriller with a hero who possesses the sensibility of a cornered rat; the fussy direction and editing are a welcome distraction from the vile happenings on screen.
w Brian Helgeland novel A.J. Quinnell d Tony Scott ph Paul Cameron m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Benjamin Fernandez, Chris Seagers ed Christian Wagner
☆ Denzel Washington (John Creasy), Dakota Fanning (Pita Ramos), Christopher Walken (Rayburn), Giancarlo Giannini (Manzano), Radha Mitchell (Lisa Ramos), Marc Anthony (Samuel Ramos), Rachel Ticotin (Mariana), Mickey Rourke (Jordan Kalfus)
'Lurid, blood-soaked, operatic junk... the jittery camera and disjointed editing combine to create exquisite audience torture.' – Bruce Diones, New Yorker

The Man on the Eiffel Tower *

US 1949 82m Anscocolor
A & T (Irving Allen)
A crazy killer defies Inspector Maigret to discover his identity.
Early independent production, an unsatisfactory crime melodrama with international talent and Paris locations. Some quirky acting carries it through.
w Harry Brown novel A Battle of Nerves by Georges Simenon d Burgess Meredith ph Stanley Cortez m Michel Michelet
☆ Charles Laughton, Burgess Meredith, Franchot Tone, Robert Hutton, Jean Wallace, Patricia Roc, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Belita
† Some scenes were directed by Charles Laughton and some by Franchot Tone.

The Man on the Flying Trapeze *

US 1935 65m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)
GB title: The Memory Expert
Adventures of an oppressed family man who is useful to his boss because of his prodigious memory.
Plotless rigmarole of shapeless comedy sketches, for star fans.
w Ray Harris, Sam Hardy, Jack Cunningham, Bobby Vernon story Charles Bogle (W. C. Fields) d Clyde Bruckman ph Al Gilks
☆ W. C. Fields, Kathleen Howard, Mary Brian, Grady Sutton, Vera Lewis, Lucien Littlefield, Oscar Apfel
'A series of gags unrelated to the title. Under average.' – Variety

''Hello, my name is Andy and people are talking about me!''

Man on the Moon *

US 1999 119m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Mutual/Jersey/Cinehaus (Danny DeVito, Michael Shamberg, Stacey Sher)
Biopic of stand-up, self-destructive comic Andy Kaufman, who enjoyed success on the TV sitcom Taxi, but then pushed at the bounds of comedy until his early death from cancer.
An intriguing story of an unusual and uncomfortable talent, with a good performance from Carrey; those who were never exposed to Kaufman's comedy are likely to need more convincing that he is worth this elaborate treatment.
w Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski d Milos Forman ph Anastas Michos m R.E.M. pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Christopher Tellefsen, Lynzee Klingman cos Jeffrey Kurland

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Jim Carrey (Andy Kaufman), Danny DeVito (George Shapiro), Courtney Love (Lynne Margulies), Paul Giamatti (Bob Zmuda), Vincent Schiavelli (Maynard Smith), Peter Bonerz (Ed Weinberger), Jerry Lawler (Himself), Gerry Becker (Stanley Kaufman), Leslie Lyles (Janice Kaufman)

'All the audience is left with is the impression of a thoroughly obnoxious man you'd never want to meet in real life, a hopeless neurotic of little discernible talent other than for making the lives of those around him miserable.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Man on the Roof ★

Sweden 1976 109m Eastmancolor
Svensk Filmindustri (Per Berglund)
original title: Mannen pòà Taket

A brutal policeman is murdered, and a rooftop sniper turns out to be the culprit.
Alternately vivid and lumbering police thriller with a regrettable tendency to moralize.
wd Bo Widerberg novel The Abominable Man by Max Sjöwall, Max Wahlöös ph Odd Geir Saether, Per Kallberg, others
m Björn Lindh
☆ Carl-Gustaf Lindstedt, Gunnel Wadner, Hakan Serner, Sven Wollter

'A poet. A thief. Two strangers with nothing in common are about to trade their lives for a chance to cheat their destinies.'

The Man on the Train ★★

France 2002 90m colour Panavision
Pathé/Cine B/Zoulou Films/Rhone-Alpes/FCC/Tubedale/Pandora/Cinema Parisien/Media Suits (Philippe Carcassonne) original title: L'Homme du Train

In a small French town, an ageing bank robber and a retired teacher envy each other's way of life.
Delightful, intimate comedy of character that does not outstay its welcome; its two protagonists, a weary, itinerant tough guy and a prissily pedantic teacher, both contemplating the possibility of death, are given exemplary performances by Hallyday and Rochefort.
w Claude Klotz d Patrice Leconte ph Jean-Marie Drejou m Pascal Esteve ad Ivan Maussion ed Joëlle Hache
☆ Jean Rochefort (Manesquier), Johnny Hallyday (Milan), Jean-François Stévenin (Luigi), Charlie Nelson (Max), Pascal Parmentier (Sadko), Isabelle Petit-Jacques (Viviane), Édith Scob (Manesquier's sister)

'Has a wintry wit about it, and the modest incidents that define the two figures toying with transformation have a believable, saving naturalism.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Delectable: Leconte has a taste for minor, chewed-up lives, and you can't help sighing with regret as he gathers his wits and hurries the plot toward an unnecessary climax.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Man Proof

US 1937 74m bw
MGM (Louis D. Lighton)

In trying to win back her man a woman discovers she really loves someone else.
Modest romantic comedy which leaves its stars at sea.
w Vincent Lawrence, Waldemar Young, George Oppenheimer novel The Four Marys by Fanny Heaslip Lea d Richard Thorpe ph Karl Freund m Franz Waxman ☆ Myrna Loy, Franchot Tone, Walter Pidgeon, Rosalind Russell, Nana Bryant, Ruth Hussey

'A smartly produced, well-directed and excellently acted society comedy drama.' – Variety

Man Push Cart ★★ (8)

US/ Iran 2006 86m
Dogwoof/Nuruz Film / Flip Side Film (Ramin Bahrani / Pradip Ghosh / Bedford T. Bentley III)

Pakistani immigrant Ahmad (Ahmad Razvi) is up at the crack of dawn to stock his pushcart with coffee, doughnuts and bagels. Ahmad must push the cart himself along New York's traffic-congested streets to reach his regular corner. Back in Pakistan he had a hit CD and seemed to be on a roll before his luck changed …
Director Bahrani, an American of Persian origin, takes us into the world of a New York coffee seller with refreshing simplicity as the man struggles to make ends meet. Then hope returns to his life when he meets a young Spanish woman.
wd Ramin Bahrani ph Michael Simmonds m Peyman Yazdanian ad Charles Dafler ed Ramin Bahrani ☆ Ahmad Razvi (Ahmad), Leticia Dolera (Noemi), Ali Reza (Manish), Farooq 'Duke' Muhammad (Duke), Charles Daniel Sandoval (Mohammad)
† Lead actor Ahmad Razvi was himself a pushcart seller, and his experiences were partly incorporated into his character.

The Man They Could Not Hang

US 1939 65m bw
Columbia

A scientist working on a mechanical heart causes the death of a volunteer student. He is executed, but his assistant restores him to life and he determines to murder those who convicted him.
Predictable horror hokum which set Karloff on his mad doctor cycle.
w Karl Brown story Leslie T. White, George W. Sayre d Nick Grinde
ph Benjamin Kline md Morris Stoloff
☆ Boris Karloff, Lorna Gray, Robert Wilcox, Roger Pryor, Don Beddoe, Byron Foulger

A Man to Remember ★

US 1938 80m bw
RKO (Robert Sisk)

At a small-town doctor's funeral, his life is remembered by mourners.
Modestly effective family film.
w Dalton Trumbo novel Failure by Katharine Haviland-Taylor d Garson Kanin
ph J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb
☆ Edward Ellis, Anne Shirley, Lee Bowman, William Henry, Granville Bates

'No sock for the marquee but a fine, well-made little picture.' – Variety

A Man to Respect

Italy/West Germany 1972 108m
Technicolor Techniscope
Eagle/Verona Cinematografica/Paramount-Orion (Marina Cicogna)
aka: Un Uomo da Rispettare

On his release from jail, a safebreaker trains a young acrobat in his skills so that they can commit a double robbery.
An ingeniously plotted thriller that indulges in over-statement.
w Mino Roli story Franco Bucceri, Roberto Leoni d Michele Lupo ph Tonino Delli Colli m Ennio Morricone
ad Francesco Bronzi ed Tony Zila
☆ Kirk Douglas, Giuliano Gemma, Florinda Bolkan

'A small triumph of dehumanised style.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'She Put Her Life In His Hands. Unfortunately, His Hands Have A Life Of Their Own.'

Man Trouble

US 1992 100m DeLuxe
First Independent/Penta/American Filmworks/Budding Grove (Bruce Gilbert, Carole Eastman)

A dog-trainer becomes involved with an opera singer when she decides she needs a guard dog to protect her home.
An unlikely romance is at the centre of an even unlikelier narrative – and even if you swallow the implausibilities, the result is still sickly.
w Carole Eastman d Bob Rafelson
ph Stephen H. Burum m Georges Delerue
pd Mel Bourne ed William Steinkamp
☆ Jack Nicholson, Ellen Barkin, Harry Dean Stanton, Beverly D'Angelo, Michael McKean, Saul Rubinek, Viveka Davis

'An insultingly trivial star vehicle.' – Variety

'Unredeemedly awful.' – Philip French, Observer

The Man Upstairs ★

GB 1958 88m bw
British Lion/ACT (Robert Dunbar)

A mild-mannered lodger becomes violent, injures a policeman, and barricades himself in his room.
Character melodrama reminiscent of both Fourteen Hours and Le Jour se Lève, but not so interesting as either.
w Alun Falconer d Don Chaffey
ph Gerald Gibbs
☆ Richard Attenborough, Bernard Lee, Donald Houston, Dorothy Alison, Maureen Connell, Kenneth Griffith, Virginia Maskell, Patricia Jessel

The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo ★

US 1935 67m bw
Twentieth Century (Nunnally Johnson)

A Russian émigré becomes a taxi driver, wins a fortune at roulette, loses it all again, and returns happily to his cab.
Very mild, unconvincing and not very entertaining malarkey which rested squarely on its star, who carried it with aplomb.
w Nunnally Johnson d Stephen Roberts
ph Ernest Palmer md Oliver Bradley
☆ Ronald Colman, Joan Bennett, Colin Clive, Nigel Bruce, Montagu Love, Frank Reicher, Ferdinand Gottschalk

'Nice production though lacks dash … Colman at times seems to be playing under wraps. Should do fairly well.' – Variety

'The richest roles of romance and redemption they ever played!'

The Man Who Came Back

US 1930 74m bw
Fox

A reckless young man is reformed when he finds his erstwhile sweetheart now a drug addict in Hong Kong.
Earnest melodrama which not surprisingly damaged the talkie success of a celebrated screen team, and must now seem risible in the extreme.
w Edwin J. Burke play Jules Eckert Goodman story and novel John Fleming Wilson d Raoul Walsh ph Arthur Edeson
pd Joseph Urban
☆ Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Kenneth MacKenna, William Holden, Mary Forbes, Peter Gawthorne

'Gripping old melodrama of drugs and degradation tamed down and made into a cheerful sentimental piece. Co-star names make it a strong bid.' – Variety

'Sophisticates will give it one big horse laugh.' – Photoplay

The Man Who Came Back: see Swamp Water (1941)

The Man Who Came to Dinner ★★★

US 1941 112m bw
Warner (Jack Saper, Jerry Wald)

An acid-tongued radio celebrity breaks his hip while on a lecture tour, and terrorizes the inhabitants of the suburban home where he must stay for several weeks.
Delightfully malicious caricature of Alexander Woollcott which, though virtually confined to one set, moves so fast that one barely notices the lack of cinematic variety, and certainly provides more than a laugh a minute, especially for those old enough to understand all the references.
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein play George S. Kaufman, Moss Hart
d William Keighley ph Tony Gaudio
m Frederick Hollander ad Robert Haas
ed Jack Killifer
☆ Monty Woolley (Sheridan Whiteside), Bette Davis (Maggie Cutler), Ann Sheridan (Lorraine Sheldon), Jimmy Durante (Banjo (spoofing Harpo Marx)), Reginald Gardiner (Beverly Carlton (spoofing Noël Coward)), Richard Travis (Bert Jefferson), Billie Burke (Mrs Stanley), Grant Mitchell (Ernest Stanley), Ruth Vivian (Harriett Stanley), Mary Wickes (Miss Preen), George Barbier (Dr. Bradley), Elisabeth Fraser (June Stanley)

WHITESIDE (MONTY WOOLLEY) TO HIS NURSE, WHO WON'T LET HIM EAT CHOCOLATES: 'I had an aunt who ate a box of chocolates every day of her life. She lived to be a hundred and two, and when she had been dead three days, she looked healthier than you do now!'

NURSE (MARY WICKES): 'I am not only walking out on this case, Mr Whiteside, I am leaving the nursing profession. I became a nurse because all my life, ever since I was a little girl, I was filled with the idea of serving a suffering humanity. After one month with you, Mr Whiteside, I am going to work in a munitions factory. From now on, anything I can do to help exterminate the human race will fill me with the greatest of pleasure. If Florence Nightingale had ever nursed YOU, Mr Whiteside, she would have married Jack the Ripper instead of founding the Red Cross!'

WHITESIDE (INTRODUCING HIS SECRETARY): 'This ageing debutante, Mr Jefferson, I retain in my employ only because she is the sole support of her two-headed brother.'

BANJO (JIMMY DURANTE): 'Did you ever get the feeling that you wanted to stay, and still get the feeling that you wanted to go?'

BEVERLY CARLTON (REGINALD GARDINER IMPERSONATING NOËL COWARD): 'Don't tell me how you are, Sherry, I want none of the tiresome details. I've very little time, and so the conversation will be entirely about me, and I shall love it. Shall I tell you how I glittered through the South Seas like a silver scimitar, or would you rather hear how I finished a three-act play with one hand and made love to a maharaja's daughter with the other?'

† The inspiration for the play came after

Alexander Woollcott had stayed with Moss Hart and, on leaving, had written in Hart's guest book, 'This is to certify that I had one of the most unpleasant times I ever spent.'

The Man Who Changed His Mind

GB 1936 66m bw
Gainsborough
US title: The Man Who Lived Again
A scientist dabbles in brain transplants.
Mild British-style horror piece; not a success.
w John L. Balderston, L. DuGarde Peach and Sidney Gilliat d Robert Stevenson ☆ Boris Karloff, Anna Lee, Donald Calthrop, John Loder, Frank Cellier, Cecil Parker

'A spine-freezer of routine construction. The accents are very limey and the way laboratory is pronounced may have American schoolchildren wondering.' – Variety

The Man Who Changed His Name

GB 1934 80m bw
Universal/Twickenham (Julius Hagen)
A wife begins to suspect that her husband is trying to murder her and her former lover.
Tepid comedy thriller that betrays its stage origins and is not helped by being somnambulistically acted and directed.
w H. Fowler Mear, Edgar Wallace play Edgar Wallace d Henry Edwards ph Sydney Blythe md W. L. Trytel
ad James A. Carter ed Jack Harris, Michael C. Chorlton ☆ Lyn Harding, Betty Stockfeld, Leslie Perrins, Ben Welden, Aubrey Mather, Stanley Vine

The Man Who Cheated Himself

US 1950 81m bw
TCF (Jack M. Warner)
A woman shoots her husband and her homicide detective lover covers up for her.
Efficient crime melodrama.
w Seton I. Miller, Philip MacDonald
d Felix Feist ph Russell Harlan m Louis Forbes
☆ Lee J. Cobb, Jane Wyatt, John Dall, Terry Frost

The Man Who Could Cheat Death

GB 1959 83m Technicolor
Paramount/Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)
A surgeon looks 35 but is really 104, having had a series of gland operations performed on himself.
Vulgar, gory, gruesomely coloured Hammer version of a rather attractive play, previously filmed under its original title The Man in Half Moon Street (qv). The shocks are routine, and entertainment value is minimal.
w Jimmy Sangster play Barrie Lyndon d Terence Fisher ph Jack Asher
m Richard Rodney Bennett
☆ Anton Diffring, Hazel Court, Christopher Lee, Arnold Marle, Delphi Lawrence, Francis de Wolff

The Man Who Could Work Miracles ★★★

GB 1936 82m bw
London (Alexander Korda)
A city clerk discovers he has the power to work miracles (given him by sportive gods) and nearly causes the end of the Earth.
Slow-moving but rather pleasing variation on a simple theme.
w Lajos Biro story H. G. Wells d Lothar Mendes ph Harold Rosson m Mischa Spoliansky ed Philip Charlot, William Hornbeck
☆ Roland Young (George McWhirter Fotheringay), Ralph Richardson (Col. Winstanley), Ernest Thesiger (Mr. Maydig), Edward Chapman (Maj. Grigsby), Joan Gardner (Ada Price), Sophie Stewart (Maggie Hooper), Robert Cochran (Bill Stoker), George Zucco (Moody), Lawrence Hanray (Mr. Bamfylde), George Sanders (Indifference, a God)

'Supposedly a comedy. A weakling: little draw power on this side.' – Variety
'Sometimes fake poetry, sometimes unsuccessful comedy, sometimes farce, sometimes sociological discussion, without a spark of creative talent or a trace of film ability.' – Graham Greene

The Man Who Couldn't Get Enough: see Confessions of a Sex Maniac

The Man Who Cried ★

GB/France/US 2000 100m colour
Universal/StudioCanal/Working Title/Adventure (Christopher Sheppard)
A Jewish woman, brought up in England, goes to Europe and America in search of her lost father and her religious identity.
A romantic melodrama with exuberant musical accompaniment, ravishingly photographed.
wd Sally Potter ph Sacha Vierny
m Osvaldo Golijov pd Carlos Conti
ed Hervé Schneid cos Lindy Hemming
☆ Christina Ricci (Suzie), Cate Blanchett (Lola), John Turturro (Dante Dominio), Johnny Depp (Cesar), Harry Dean Stanton (Felix Perlman), Claudia Lander-Duke (Young Suzie), Oleg Yankovsky (Father)

'A trite sob story.' – Sunday Times
'An aloof and uninvolving bore.' – Damon Wise, Total Film

The Man Who Cried Wolf

US 1937 67m bw
Universal
An actor continually confesses to crimes he didn't commit in the hope that when he does commit one he won't be believed.
An attractive idea rather poorly handled.
w Charles Grayson, Sy Bartlett d Lewis R. Foster
☆ Lewis Stone, Tom Brown, Barbara Read, Marjorie Main, Forrester Harvey

'Will get by as the number two feature on dual bills.' – Variety

The Man Who Dared

US 1933 72m bw
Fox
The life of a local politician, based on Mayor Cermak of Chicago.
Episodic but not unpleasant biopic; it adds up to very little, though.
w Dudley Nichols, Lamar Trotti
d Hamilton McFadden
☆ Preston Foster, Zita Johann, Joan Marsh, Irene Biller, Leon Waycoff

'The most flattering account ever written of any man's life ... but as a commercial talker it's not likely to get very far. Even in Chicago they didn't care for it.' – Variety

The Man Who Fell to Earth ★

GB 1976 138m colour Panavision
British Lion (Michael Deeley, Barry Spikings)
A visitor from another planet tries to colonize Earth, but his powers are destroyed and he ends an alcoholic cripple.
A weird piece of intellectual science fiction made weirder by longueurs of all varieties: obscure narrative, voyeuristic sex, pop music and metaphysics. Not an easy film or a likeable one, despite its great technical skill.
w Paul Mayersberg novel Walter Tevis
d Nicolas Roeg ph Anthony Richmond md John Phillips
☆ David Bowie, Rip Torn, Candy Clark, Buck Henry

'Once you have pierced through its glittering veneer, you find only another glittering veneer underneath.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'There is a punch line, but it takes forever, and great expectations slump away.' – Charles Champlin, L.A. News
'You feel finally that all that has been achieved has been to impose an aura of mystery and enigma where essentially there is none; to turn a simple tale into the sort of accumulation of sensations that has become fashionable.' – David Robinson, The Times

The Man Who Finally Died

GB 1962 100m bw Cinemascope
British Lion/Magna/White Cross (Norman Williams)
A German-born Englishman returns to Bavaria for news of his father, and becomes involved in a spy plot.
Busy adaptation of a TV serial with a convoluted plot which might have been more pacily developed and better explained.
w Lewis Greifer, Louis Marks d Quentin Lawrence ph Stephen Dade m Philip Green ☆ Stanley Baker, Peter Cushing, Mai Zetterling, Eric Portman, Niall MacGinnis, Nigel Green, Barbara Everest, Harold Scott

The Man Who Found Himself

US 1937 67m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)
A nurse helps a downcast doctor face his problems and renew his enthusiasm for life.
Simple-minded programmer.
w J. Robert Bren, Edmund Hartmann, G. V. Atwater d Lew Landers ph Roy Hunt ☆ John Beal, Joan Fontaine, Philip Huston, Jane Walsh, George Irving

'No names in this hokey B session ... flapdoodle with a capital F.' – Variety

The Man Who Had His Hair Cut Short ★

Belgium 1966 94m bw
Belgian Cultural Ministry
A frustrated law clerk has an aberration after attending an autopsy and meeting again an old love.
Pessimistic case history with unpleasant details often brilliantly recorded.
w Anna de Pagter, André Delvaux d André Delvaux ph Ghislain Cloquet m Freddy Devreese ☆ Seene Rouffaer, Beata Tyszkiewicz, Hector Camerlynck

The Man Who Had Power over Women

GB 1970 89m Eastmancolor
Avco/Kettledrum
A successful public relations man comes to hate himself, his job and what it has done to his marriage.
Fashionable wallow in guilt and luxury, not very convincingly done.
w Allan Scott, Chris Bryant novel Gordon Williams d John Krish ph Gerry Turpin
m Johnny Mandel
☆ Rod Taylor, Carol White, James Booth, Penelope Horner, Charles Korvin, Alexandra Stewart, Keith Barron

The Man Who Haunted Himself

GB 1970 94m Technicolor
ABP/Excalibur (Michael Relph)
After recovering from a road accident, a staid businessman finds that he has an evil doppelganger who steals his wife and his job.
Mildly effective if inexplicable story idea which served more suitably as a Hitchcock TV half hour and here, despite adequate production, outstays its welcome.
w Basil Dearden, Michael Relph story The Case of Mr Pelham by Anthony Armstrong
d Basil Dearden ph Tony Spratling
m Michael Lewis
☆ Roger Moore, Hildegarde Neil, Olga-Georges Picot, Anton Rodgers, Freddie Jones, Thorley Walters, John Carson, John Welsh

The Man Who Knew Too Little ★ ③

US 1997 94m Technicolor
Warner/Regency/Taurus (Arnon Milchan, Michael Nathanson, Mark Tarlov)
A holidaying American is mistaken for a hired killer.
Pleasant, undistinguished comedy that pokes fun at the sort of identity mix-up that Hitchcock used to better effect.
w Robert Farrar, Howard Franklin novel Watch That Man by Robert Farrar
d Jon Amiel ph Robert Stevens m Chris Young pd Jim Clay ed Pamela Power, Paul Karasick
☆ Bill Murray, Peter Gallagher, Joanne Whalley, Alfred Molina, Richard Wilson, Geraldine James, John Standing, Anna Chancellor, Nicholas Woodeson

'Scores a reasonable number of laughs, but its ultimate impact is pretty mild.' – Variety

The Man Who Knew Too Much ★★★

GB 1934 84m bw
GFD/Gaumont British (Ivor Montagu)
A child is kidnapped by spies to ensure her father's silence, but he springs into action.
Splendid early Hitchcock which after a faded start moves into memorable sequences involving a dentist, an East End mission and the Albert Hall. All very stagey by today's standards, but much more fun than the expensive remake.
w A. R. Rawlinson, Charles Bennett, D. B. Wyndham Lewis, Edwin Greenwood, Emlyn Williams d Alfred Hitchcock ph Curt Courant m Arthur Benjamin ad Alfred Junge, Peter Proud ed Hugh Stewart
☆ Leslie Banks (Bob Lawrence), Edna Best (Jill Lawrence), Peter Lorre (Abbott), Nova Pilbeam (Betty Lawrence), Frank Vosper (Ramon Levine), Hugh Wakefield (Clive), Pierre Fresnay (Louis Bernard)

'A natural and easy production that runs smoothly and has the hallmark of sincerity.' – Variety
'The film's mainstay is its refined sense of the incongruous.' – Peter John Dyer, 1964

'A single clash of cymbals that will rock the lives of an American family!'

The Man Who Knew Too Much ★

US 1956 120m Technicolor Vistavision (Paramount)
Flaccid remake of the above, twice as long

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

and half as entertaining, though it does improve after a very slow start.
w John Michael Hayes, Angus MacPhail d Alfred Hitchcock ph Robert Burks m Bernard Herrmann
☆ James Stewart, Doris Day, Bernard Miles, Brenda de Banzie, Daniel Gelin, Ralph Truman, Mogens Wieth, Alan Mowbray, Hillary Brooke
'The balance between character and incident in the earlier film makes a far better thriller.' – Observer
'The remake is heavy and oppressive, the suspense often risible, and the moments of comic relief fall flat.' – Sunday Times
'Let's say the first version is the work of a talented amateur and the second was made by a professional.' – Alfred Hitchcock
♪ song 'Que Sera Sera' (m/ly Jay Livingston, Ray Evans)

The Man Who Lived Again: see The Man Who Changed His Mind

The Man Who Lived Twice
US 1936 73m bw
Columbia (Ben Pivar)
An eminent doctor is unaware that he was formerly a criminal who was cured by a brain operation that also removed his memory; but his past begins to catch up with him.
Daft melodrama, acted with far more intensity than it deserves; there's a little pleasure to be gained from watching Bellamy play a disfigured murderer on the run before reverting to his more familiar blandness.
w Tom Van Dycke, Arthur Strawn, Fred Niblo Jnr d Harry Lachman ph James Van Trees ed Byron Robinson
☆ Ralph Bellamy, Marian Marsh, Thurston Hall, Isabel Jewell, Nana Bryant, Ward Bond, Henry Kolker, Willard Robertson
† It was remade in 1953 as Man in the Dark (qv).

The Man Who Lost Himself
US 1941 71m bw
Universal
A man back from the tropics finds himself playing the part of a lookalike millionaire.
Pleasantly nimble farce; not original but agreeable to watch.
w Eddie Moran novel H. DeVere Stacpoole d Edward Ludwig ph Victor Milner ed Milton Carruth
☆ Brian Aherne, Kay Francis, S. Z. Sakall, Henry Stephenson, Nils Asther, Sig Rumann

The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing
US 1973 114m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Martin Poll, Eleanor Perry)
A runaway wife is kidnapped by train thieves and comes to love one of them.
Outdoor variation on No Orchids for Miss Blandish, remarkably lacking in any kind of entertainment value.
w Eleanor Perry novel Marilyn Dunham d Richard Sarafian ph Harry Stradling Jnr m John Williams
☆ Sarah Miles, Burt Reynolds, Lee J. Cobb, Jack Warden, George Hamilton, Bo Hopkins, Robert Donner, Jay Silverheels
'Any number of things have gone wrong with this peculiarly dreary western.' – Tom Milne
'Sarah Miles undergoes more perils than Pauline.' – Variety

The Man Who Loved Redheads
GB 1954 90m Eastmancolor
British Lion/London Films (Josef Somlo)
Throughout his career, a diplomat seeks women who resemble the redhead with whom in youth he had had an idyllic affair.
West End theatrical moonshine, poorly filmed in ugly colour but saved by the cast.
w Terence Rattigan play Who Is Sylvia? by Terence Rattigan d Harold French ph Georges Périnal m Benjamin Frankel ☆ John Justin, Moira Shearer, Roland Culver, Gladys Cooper, Denholm Elliott, Harry Andrews, Patricia Cutts, Moyra Fraser, Joan Benham, Jeremy Spenser

'Deciding which woman in the world he loved most is driving him out of his mind!'

The Man Who Loved Women
France 1977 119m Eastmancolor
Les Films du Carrosse/PAA (Marcel Bebert)
A man spends his life in pursuit of women and dies in the chase.
Sour comedy which doesn't quite come off.
w François Truffaut, Michel Fermaud, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Nestor Almendros m Maurice Jaubert
☆ Charles Denner, Brigitte Fossey, Leslie Caron, Nelly Borgeaud, Nathalie Baye 'Doesn't just miss: it has virtually nothing.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Man Who Loved Women
US 1983 110m Metrocolor
Columbia/Delphi/Blake Edwards (Blake Edwards, Tony Adams)
An American remake of the above, with even less success.
w Blake Edwards, Milton Wexler, Geoffrey Edwards d Blake Edwards ph Haskell Wexler m Henry Mancini ☆ Burt Reynolds, Julie Andrews, Kim Basinger, Marilu Henner, Cynthia Sikes, Jennifer Edwards

'The strangest story in the annals of naval espionage!'

The Man Who Never Was ★★
GB 1955 102m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Sumar/André Hakim
In 1943, the British secret service confuses the Germans by dropping a dead man into the sea with false documents.
Mainly enjoyable true life war story marred by an emotional romantic sub-plot with a double twist but helped by an equally fictitious spy hunt which cheers up the last half hour.
w Nigel Balchin book Ewen Montagu d Ronald Neame ph Oswald Morris m Alan Rawsthorne ☆ Clifton Webb, Robert Flemyng, Gloria Grahame, Stephen Boyd, Laurence Naismith, Josephine Griffin
♈ Nigel Balchin

The Man Who Played God ★
US 1932 81m bw
Warner
GB title: The Silent Voice
A musician goes deaf but finds satisfaction in helping a young student.
Stagey but effective star vehicle which Arliss also played as a silent film. Remade as Sincerely Yours (qv).
w Julien Josephson, Maude Howell play The Silent Voice by Jules Eckert Goodman d John G. Adolfi ph James Van Trees
☆ George Arliss, Violet Heming, Ivan Simpson, Bette Davis, Louise Closser Hale, Donald Cook, Ray Milland
'Will need all the Arliss name strength to pull average returns.' – Variety

The Man Who Reclaimed His Head ★
US 1934 81m bw
Universal (Henry Henigson)
A writer who feels he has been betrayed and his brain sapped by his publisher takes a gruesome revenge.
Oddball period melodrama tailored rather unsuccessfully for a new star. Remade as Strange Confession (see Inner Sanctum*).*
w Jean Bart, Samuel Ornitz play Jean Bart d Edward Ludwig ph Merritt Gerstad m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Claude Rains, Joan Bennett, Lionel Atwill, Juanita Quigley, Henry O'Neill, Lawrence Grant
'Interesting screen diversion ... Far from a smash, but good enough to keep to the average level or above.' – Variety

The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance ★★★
US 1962 122m bw
Paramount/John Ford (Willis Goldbeck)
A tenderfoot becomes a hero for shooting a bad man, but the shot was really fired by his friend and protector.
Clumsy, obvious Western with the director over-indulging himself but providing some good scenes in comedy vein.
w James Warner Bellah, Willis Goldbeck d John Ford ph William H. Clothier m Cyril Mockridge ad Eddie Imazu, Hal Pereira ed Otho Lovering
☆ James Stewart (Ransom Stoddard), John Wayne (Tom Doniphon), Vera Miles (Hallie Stoddard), Lee Marvin (Liberty Valance), Edmond O'Brien (Dutton Peabody), Andy Devine (Link Appleyard), Jeanette Nolan (Nora Ericson), John Qualen (Peter Ericson), Ken Murray (Doc Willoughby), Woody Strode (Pompey), Lee Van Cleef (Reese), Strother Martin (Floyd), John Carradine (Maj. Cassius Starbuckle)
FAMOUS LINE: 'When truth becomes legend, print the legend.'
'Like Queen Victoria, John Wayne has become lovable because he stayed in the saddle into a new era.' – Judith Crist
'A heavy-spirited piece of nostalgia.' – Pauline Kael, 1975
'A film whose fascination lies less in what it is itself than in what it reveals about the art of its maker.' – William S. Pechter

The Man Who Sued God
Australia 2001 Atlab Panavision
Winchester/AFFC/Gannon/Empress Road (Ben Gannon)
After a fisherman's boat is destroyed by what his insurance company claims is 'an act of God', he decides to sue the religious hierarchy as God's representatives on earth.
Limp comedy that wastes an intriguing idea and becomes just another movie about unscrupulous lawyers.
w Don Watson idea Patrick McCarville original screenplay John Clarke d Mark Joffe ph Peter James m David Bridie pd Luigi Pittorino ed Peter Barton
☆ Billy Connolly (Steve Myers), Judy Davis (Anna Redmond), Colin Friels (David Myers), Bille Brown (Gerry Ryan), Wendy Hughes (Jules Myers), Blair Venn (Les)
'What a flaccid and droopingly sentimental comedy it is: unfunny, unconvincing and naive in all the wrong ways.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Man Who Talked Too Much
US 1940 75m bw
Warner (Edmund Grainger)
A smart defence attorney gets the goods on a gangster and decides to turn him in.
Below-par remake of The Mouthpiece (qv), later filmed again as Illegal (qv).
w Walter de Leon, Tom Reed play The Mouthpiece by Frank J. Collins d Vincent Sherman ph Sid Hickox
☆ George Brent, Brenda Marshall, Richard Barthelmess, Virginia Bruce, William Lundigan, John Litel, George Tobias, Henry Armetta, Alan Baxter

'Human or inhuman, no woman is safe!'

The Man Who Turned to Stone
US 1957 71m bw
Clover/Columbia
A girls' reformatory is taken over by a group of zombie scientists born in the 18th century.
Cheap horror item with a few choice moments for connoisseurs of the absurd.
w Raymond T. Marcus (Bernard Gordon) d Leslie Kardos ph Benjamin Kline
☆ Victor Jory, Ann Doran, Charlotte Austin, William Hudson, Paul Cavanagh
† Screenwriter Gordon wrote under a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

The Man Who Understood Women
US 1959 105m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)
An arrogant, exhibitionist film producer finally alienates his long-suffering wife.
Something of an aberration, with good scenes submerged in an unholy mixture of sharp comedy and sentimental melodrama.
wd Nunnally Johnson novel Colours of the Day by Romain Gary ph Milton Krasner m Robert Emmett Dolan
☆ Henry Fonda, Leslie Caron, Myron McCormick, Cesare Danova, Marcel Dalio, Conrad Nagel, Harry Ellerbe
'A pretentious extravaganza on a romantic theme.' – MFB

'The Last Thing On His Mind Is Murder.'

The Man Who Wasn't There ★★★
US 2001 116m DeLuxe/bw
Entertainment/USA/Working Title/Gramercy (Ethan Coen)
In the late 1940s, an insignificant, small-town barber turned blackmailer finds himself in a situation he cannot control.
Stylish, stylized, highly polished, and leisurely thriller in the tradition of film noir, in which the guilty are undone by their own failures of character; it is impeccably written, photographed and acted.
w Joel Coen, Ethan Coen d Joel Coen ph Roger Deakins m Carter Burwell pd Dennis Gassner ad Chris Gorak ed Roderick Jaynes, Tricia Cooke cos Mary Zophres
☆ Billy Bob Thornton (Ed Crane), Frances McDormand (Doris Crane), Michael Badalucco (Frank), James Gandolfini (Big Dave), Katherine Borowitz (Ann Nirdlinger), Jon Polito (Creighton Tolliver), Scarlett Johansson (Birdy Abundas), Richard Jenkins (Walter Abundas), Tony

Shalhoub (Freddy Riedenschneider), Adam Alexi-Malle (Carcanogues)

'Steadily engrossing and devilishly funny, and, oh brother, does it look sharp.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

'A work of finely fabricated art. For much of its length it gives enormous pleasure of a kind that comes from observing events interlocking inexorably.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Roger Deakins

Roger Deakins

The Man Who Watched Trains Go By

GB 1952 80m Technicolor
Raymond Stross

aka: Paris Express

A clerk steals money in order to fulfil his wish of world travel, and this leads to murder.

Miscast minor Simenon, not exactly badly made but with no spark of excitement or suspense.

wd Harold French novel Georges Simenon ph Otto Heller m Benjamin Frankel

☆ Claude Rains, Marius Goring, Marta Toren, Anouk Aimée, Herbert Lom, Ferdy Mayne

The Man Who Would Be King *

US 1975 129m colour Panavision
Columbia/Allied Artists/Persky-Bright/Devon (John Foreman)

In India in the 1880s, two adventurers find themselves accepted as kings by a remote tribe, but greed betrays them.

After an ingratiating start this ambitious fable becomes more predictable, and comedy gives way to unpleasantness. Despite its sporadic high quality, one does not remember it with enthusiasm.

w John Huston, Gladys Hill story Rudyard Kipling d John Huston ph Oswald Morris m Maurice Jarre pd Alexander Trauner ed Russell Lloyd

☆ Sean Connery (Daniel Dravot), Michael Caine (Peachy Carnehan), Christopher Plummer (Rudyard Kipling), Saeed Jaffrey (Billy Fish), Jack May (District Commissioner), Shakira Caine

'Huston has now made a good picture – not up to the standard of his early best but with sweep and guts and with nicely overblown cinematic eloquence.' – Stanley Kauffmann

John Huston, Gladys Hill (script); Alexander Trauner

The Man Who Wouldn't Talk

US 1940 72m bw
Sol M. Wurtzel/TCF

A man on trial for murder has such a mysterious background that he may even be the victim.

Efficient remake of Paul Muni's The Valiant.

w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Lester Ziffren and Edward Ettinger d David Burton

☆ Lloyd Nolan, Jean Rogers, Richard Clarke, Eric Blore, Mae Marsh

The Man Who Wouldn't Talk

GB 1957 97m bw
British Lion/Everest (Herbert Wilcox)

A lady QC gets an acquittal for a man who can't defend himself on a murder charge because of loyalty to a scientist on the run.

Efficient courtroom melodrama based on a somewhat incredible and even uninteresting situation.

w Edgar Lustgarten story Stanley Jackson d Herbert Wilcox ph Gordon Dines m Stanley Black

☆ Anna Neagle, Anthony Quayle, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Katherine Kath, Dora Bryan, Patrick Allen

The Man with a Cloak *

US 1951 81m bw
MGM (Stephen Ames)

In 1848 New York, a mysterious stranger (who turns out to be Edgar Allan Poe) helps a young French girl to keep her inheritance.

Curious domestic melodrama set on MGM's choicest sets; its playful literary allusion causes it to fall between suspense thriller and character drama, but the acting keeps one watching.

w Frank Fenton story John Dickson Carr d Fletcher Markle ph George Folsey m David Raksin

☆ Joseph Cotten, Barbara Stanwyck, Leslie Caron, Louis Calhern, Joe de Santis, Jim Backus, Margaret Wycherly

The Man with a Hundred Faces: see Crackerjack

Man with a Million: see The Million Pound Note

The Man with an Umbrella: see It Rains on Our Love

The Man with Bogart's Face

US 1980 106m CFI color
TCF/Melvin Simon (Andrew J. Fenady)

An unremarkable private eye gets lots of assignments because he looks like Humphrey Bogart.

Amiably nostalgic romp, not too spoofy to be enjoyable for its own sake, but notably underproduced.

w Andrew J. Fenady novel Andrew J. Fenady d Robert Day ph Richard C. Glouner m George Duning

☆ Robert Sacchi, Misty Rowe, Michelle Phillips, Franco Nero, Olivia Hussey, Victor Buono, Herbert Lom, George Raft, Yvonne de Carlo, Jay Robinson, Mike Mazurki, Henry Wilcoxon, Victor Sen Yung

The Man with My Face

US 1951 77m bw
UA/Edward F. Gardner

A successful young man finds a double in his place at both home and office, and himself branded as an impostor.

Intriguing yarn which deserved a better production.

w Samuel W. Taylor, Edward J. Montagne, T. J. McGowan and Vincent Bogart novel Samuel W. Taylor d Edward J. Montagne

☆ Barry Nelson, Lynn Ainley, John Harvey, Carole Mathews, Jack Warden

The Man with Nine Lives *

US 1940 73m bw
Columbia
GB title: Behind the Door

A scientist believes he can cure cancer by freezing, but accidentally locks himself and his patients in an underground ice chamber for seven years, and goes berserk when thawed out.

Interesting, rather prophetic science fiction thriller which rather lacks the style required to put it over.

w Karl Brown story Harold Shumate d Nick Grinde ph Benjamin Kline

☆ Boris Karloff, Byron Foulger, Roger Pryor, Jo Ann Sayers

The Man with One Red Shoe

US 1985 93m colour
TCF (Victor Drai)

A violinist wearing odd shoes is mistaken for a spy and becomes a pawn in a battle being waged by rival factions for control of the CIA.

Farcical comedy that rarely achieves the right tempo or timing for its occasional jokes.

w Robert Klane d Stan Dragoti ph Richard H. Kline m Thomas Newman pd Dean E. Mitzner ed Bud Molin, O. Nicholas Brown

☆ Tom Hanks, Dabney Coleman, Lori Singer, Charles Durning, Jim Belushi, Carrie Fisher, Ed Herrmann, Irving Metzman, Tom Noonan, David Ogden Stiers

† It was a remake of the French film Le Grand Blond avec une Chaussure Noire (qv), written by Francis Veber and Yves Robert.

The Man with the Deadly Lens: see Wrong Is Right

The Man with the Golden Arm *

US 1956 119m bw
Otto Preminger

A Chicago poker dealer finally kicks the drug habit.

Sensational on its first release, with its cold turkey scenes, this now seems a muddled impressionist melodrama with echoes of the silent German cinema and much over-acting and miscasting all round. But Sinatra is good; and it is different...

w Walter Newman, Lewis Meltzer novel Nelson Algren d Otto Preminger ph Sam Leavitt m Elmer Bernstein pd Joe Wright titles Saul Bass

☆ Frank Sinatra, Kim Novak, Eleanor Parker, Darren McGavin, Arnold Stang, Robert Strauss, John Conte, Doro Merande, George E. Stone

'Nothing very surprising or exciting ... a pretty plain and unimaginative look-see at a lower depths character.' – Bosley Crowther

'A very inferior film ... the script is inexcusably clumsy, the sets are unbelievable and the casting is ridiculous.' – Diana Willing, Films in Review

'It has the same running time as Citizen Kane but it seems a whole lot longer.' – Robert James

Elmer Bernstein; Frank Sinatra; art direction

The Man with the Golden Gun *

GB 1974 125m Eastmancolor
UA/Eon (Harry Saltzman, Albert R. Broccoli)

James Bond goes to the Far East to liquidate a professional assassin named Scaramanga.

Thin and obvious Bond extravaganza with conventional expensive excitements.

w Richard Maibaum, Tom Mankiewicz novel Ian Fleming d Guy Hamilton ph Ted Moore, Oswald Morris m John Barry pd Peter Murton

☆ Roger Moore, Christopher Lee, Britt Ekland, Maud Adams, Hervé Villechaize, Clifton James, Richard Loo, Marc Lawrence

'The script lacks satiric insolence and the picture grinds on humourlessly.' – New Yorker

The Man with the Green Carnation: see The Trials of Oscar Wilde

Man with the Gun *

US 1955 83m bw
UA/Samuel Goldwyn Jnr
aka: Deadly Peacemaker

A gunfighter is hired to clean up a town overrun by hired guns.

A well-made Western, tough, grim and suspenseful.

w N. B. Stone Jnr, Richard Wilson d Richard Wilson ph Lee Garmes m Alex North ad Hilyard Brown ed Gene Milford

☆ Robert Mitchum, Jan Sterling, Karen Sharpe, Henry Hull, Emile Meyer, John Lupton, Barbara Lawrence, Ted DeCorsia, Leo Gordon, James Westerfield

The Man with the Movie Camera ***

USSR 1928 60m approx bw silent
VUFKU

original title: Chelovek sKinoapparatom

A 'camera eye' documentary without any plot, showing, through a succession of street and interior scenes, all the tricks of which the instrument is capable; it takes a bow at the end.

Unique documentary which was understandably a sensation when it first appeared and still retains much of its power.

ph Mikhail Kaufman wd/ed Dziga Vertov

† A special edition DVD was released in 2002 with a new score composed by Michael Nyman.

Man with the Screaming Brain

US 2005 89m colour
FWE/Apollo ProScreen/Creative Light Entertainment (Bruce Campbell, Jeff Franklin, David M. Goodman, Bob Perkis)

In Bulgaria, an American pharmaceutical tycoon becomes involved with a mad scientist who is experimenting on body-swopping.

Easy-going spoof of horror conventions that occasionally raises a smile.

w Bruce Campbell, David M. Goodman d Bruce Campbell ph David Worth m Joseph LoDuca pd George Costello ed Shawn Paper

☆ Bruce Campbell (William Cole), Ted Raimi (Pavel), Antoinette Byron (Jackie Cole), Tamara Gorski (Tatoya), Remington Franklin (Punk), Stacy Keach (Dr Ivan Ivanov), Vladimir Kolev (Yeygor)

'Amiable goof that looks like it was cobbled together in a hurry, on a shoestring.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

The Man with Thirty Sons: see The Magnificent Yankee

The Man with Two Brains

US 1983 93m colour
Warner/Aspen (David V. Picker, William E. McEuen)

A surgeon, trapped in a frustrating marriage, falls in love with a brain in a jar.

Offbeat, broad comedy that is never as funny as it promises to be.

w Carl Reiner, Steve Martin, George Gipe d Carl Reiner ph Michael Chapman m Joel Goldsmith ad Polly Platt ed Bud Molin

☆ Steve Martin (Dr Michael Hfuhruhurr), Kathleen Turner (Dolores Benedict), David Warner (Dr Necessiter), Paul Benedict (Butler), Richard Brestoff (Dr Pasteur), James Cromwell (Realtor), Sissy Spacek (Brain's voice)

'Indefensible by any known standard of comedy form – or formlessness. It's not much of anything, but it moves along enjoyably.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Man with Two Faces ★

US 1934 72m bw
Warner

An actor takes revenge on a scoundrel who had preyed on his sister.

Pleasing melodrama hinging on disguise; the Hays Office surprisingly allowed the hero to get away with it.

w Tom Reed, Niven Busch play The Dark Tower by George S. Kaufman, Alexander Woollcott d Archie Mayo ph Tony Gaudio

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Mary Astor, Ricardo Cortez, Louis Calhern, Mae Clarke, John Eldredge

'Fair fodder, but undistinguished in the main, and in spots very confusing.' – Variety

The Man with X-Ray Eyes: see X–The Man with X-Ray Eyes

The Man Within ★

GB 1947 88m Technicolor
GFD/Production Film Service (Muriel and Sydney Box)
US title: The Smugglers

An orphan boy discovers that his mysterious new guardian is a smuggler.

Unconvincing period yarn which has managed to drain every vestige of subtlety from the novel, but at least looks good.

w Muriel and Sydney Box novel Graham Greene d Bernard Knowles ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Clifton Parker md Muir Mathieson ad Andrew Mazzei ed Alfred Roome cos Elizabeth Haffenden

☆ Michael Redgrave (Carlyon), Richard Attenborough (Andrews), Jean Kent (Lucy), Joan Greenwood (Elizabeth), Francis L. Sullivan (Mr Braddock), Felix Aylmer (Priest), Ronald Shiner (Cockney Harry), Basil Sydney (Sir Henry Merriman), Ernest Thesiger (Farne)

'With more style this might have been rather good. Outside of life more private than I am normally party to I can't recall hearing so many men so often say, to other men, I hate him! or I hate you!' – James Agee

The Man without a Body

GB 1957 80m bw
Eros/Filmplays (Guido Coen)

A tycoon with a brain tumour steals the head of Nostradamus and has it kept alive to replace his own.

Hilarious horror comic, inept in every department.

w William Grote d W. Lee Wilder, Charles Saunders ph Brendan J. Stafford m Albert Elms

☆ George Coulouris, Robert Hutton, Nađja Regin, Julia Arnall

The Man without a Face

US 1993 115m Technicolor
Entertainment/Icon (Bruce Davey)

A boy remembers how he was helped to enter a military academy by a disfigured former teacher who had become an outcast in the community.

A well-meaning but rather dull movie that makes heavy weather of a not very affecting drama.

w Malcolm MacRury novel Isabelle Holland d Mel Gibson ph Donald M. McAlpine m James Horner pd Barbara Dunphy ed Tony Gibbs

☆ Mel Gibson, Margaret Whitton, Fay Masterson, Gaby Hoffman, Geoffrey Lewis, Richard Masur, Nick Stahl, Viva

'The overall effect is sincere, sentimental and slightly uneasy.' – Philip French, Observer

'A contrived story, overloaded with pop psychology, that would never reach the big screen unless a major star insisted. As director, Mel Gibson proves no visual stylist.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

The Man Without a Past ★★

Finland/Germany/France 2002 97m colour
ICA/Sputnik Oy/Pandora/Pyramide (Aki Kaurismaki)

original title: Mies Vailla Menneisyytta

A man wakes up in a Helsinki hospital with amnesia and goes to live with the poor in a shanty town while he tries to rebuild his life.

Gentle humane comedy, full of keen observation and enjoyment of human foibles.

wd Aki Kaurismaki ph Timo Salminen pd Markku Patila, Jukka Salmi ed Timo Linnasalo

☆ Markku Peltola (M), Kati Outinen (Irma), Juhani Niemela (Nieminen), Kaija Pakarinen (Kaisa Nieminen), Sakari Kuosmanen (Anttila)

'Droll, reticent, flawlessly filmed fable of generosity.' – Richard Corliss, Time

Man without a Star ★

US 1955 89m Technicolor
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)

A wandering cowboy helps settlers to put up barbed wire against an owner of vast cattle herds.

Conventional but entertaining star Western.

w Borden Chase, D. D. Beauchamp novel Dee Linford d King Vidor ph Russell Metty m Hans Salter

☆ Kirk Douglas, Jeanne Crain, Claire Trevor, William Campbell, Jay C. Flippen, Mara Corday, Richard Boone † Remade for TV as A Man Called Gannon.

Man, Woman and Child

US 1982 100m DeLuxe
Gaylord

A married professor discovers that he has a son by his only infidelity.

Angst among the well-to-do, from the author of Love Story.

w Erich Segal, David Zelag Goodman novel Erich Segal d Dick Richards ph Richard H. Kline m Georges Delerue

☆ Martin Sheen, Blythe Danner, Craig T. Nelson, David Hemmings, Nathalie Nell

Man, Woman and Sin

US 1927 85m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

A reporter has an affair with his boss's mistress.

Glossy romantic drama marking the first screen appearance of a sensational stage star; her effect on screen was more muted.

w Alice Duer Miller d Monta Bell

☆ Jeanne Eagels, John Gilbert, Marc McDermott

Manbait: see The Last Page

The Manchurian Candidate ★★★★

US 1962 126m bw
UA/MC (Howard W. Koch)

A Korean war 'hero' comes back a brainwashed zombie triggered to kill a liberal politician, his control being his own monstrously ambitious mother.

Insanely plotted but brilliantly handled spy thriller, a mixture of Hitchcock, Welles and All the King's Men.

w George Axelrod novel Richard Condon d John Frankenheimer ph Lionel Lindon m David Amram pd Richard Sylbert ad Richard Sylbert, Philip Jefferies ed Ferris Webster

☆ Frank Sinatra (Bennett Marco), Laurence Harvey (Raymond Shaw), Janet Leigh (Rosie), James Gregory (Sen. John Iselin), Angela Lansbury (Raymond's Mother), Henry Silva (Chunjim), John McGiver (Sen. Thomas Jordon)

'The unAmerican film of the year.' – Penelope Houston

'An intelligent, funny, superbly written, beautifully played, and brilliantly directed study of the all-embracing fantasy in everyday social, emotional and political existence.' – Philip Strick, 1973

'Although it's a thriller, it may be the most sophisticated political satire ever to come out of Hollywood.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

† The Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include an audio commentary by the director, and interviews with Frank Sinatra and George Axelrod.

Angela Lansbury

The Manchurian Candidate ★

US 2004 130m DeLuxe
Paramount/Scott Rudin/Tina Sinatra/Clinica Estetico

During the Gulf War American soldiers are kidnapped and brainwashed by a global corporation that plans to make one of them president of the United States.

Slick thriller that de-fangs the original, removing its paranoia about the political process and replacing it with something less topical and more amorphous; on its own terms it's watchable, but it's no more than another disposable high-tech thriller.

w Daniel Pyne, Dean Georgaris screenplay George Axelrod novel Richard Condon d Jonathan Demme ph Tak Fujimoto m Rachel Portman, Wyclef Jean pd Kristi Zea ed Carol Littleton, Craig McKay

☆ Denzel Washington (Ben Marco), Meryl Streep (Eleanor Shaw), Liev Schreiber (Raymond Shaw), Jon Voight (Senator Thomas Jordan), Kimberly Elise (Rosie), Jeffrey Wright (Al Melvin), Ted Levine (Colonel Howard), Bruno Ganz (Delp), Dean Stockwell (Mark Whiting)

'Ultimately, the best – perhaps the only – way to enjoy Demme's movie is to take a leaf out of the titular character's book and get someone with a large power tool to make scrambled eggs out of your cognitive facilities.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

'A strong and substantial work.' – Sight and Sound

Mandalay

US 1934 65m bw
Warner

A lady of the tropics murders her lover and pushes his body through a porthole.

Steamy melodrama which the masses found absorbing.

w Austin Parker, Charles Kenyon d Michael Curtiz

☆ Kay Francis, Ricardo Cortez, Lyle Talbot, Ruth Donnelly, Shirley Temple, Warner Oland, Lucien Littlefield, Reginald Owen

Mandela ★

US 1996 123m colour
Nubian Tales/Island/Clinica Estetico (Jonathan Demme, Edward Saxon, Jo Menell)

Documentary on the life of Nelson Mandela, from childhood through his involvement with the ANC, imprisonment for more than two decades and final triumph as president of a democratic South Africa.

Great subject, but a dull documentary, perhaps circumscribed by including a long interview with Mandela himself, which is often used as a commentary on the images; his need not to inflame those who opposed him for so long leads to blandness.

d Jo Menell, Angus Gibson ph Dewald Aukema, Peter Tischhauser m Cedric Gradus Samson, Hugh Masekela ed Andy Keir

'Very much the authorised biography … The film-makers should still have tried harder to humanise him and the great struggle he led by opening up the complexities rather than closing down into pat clichés.' – Kevin Macdonald, Sight and Sound

documentary

Manden I Manen: see The Dark Side of the Moon

'Liberation. Whether They Want It Or Not.'

Manderlay ★★

Denmark/Sweden/France/GB/Germany/Netherlands/Finland/Italy 2005 139m colour
Metrodome/Zentropa/Isabella/Sigma III/Memfis/Ognon/Pain Unlimited (Vibeke Windelov)

In the early 1930s, a woman discovers in Alabama a plantation where slavery continues.

The second part of Lars Trier's American trilogy uses similar bare sets as in his first, Dogville*; the work, though, is more schematic this time around and covering familiar ground.*

wd Lars von Trier ph Anthony Dod Mantle ad Peter Grant ed Molly Malene Stensgaard

☆ Bryce Dallas Howard (Grace), Isaach de Bankole (Timothy), Danny Glover (Wilhelm), Willem Dafoe (Grace's Father), Michael Abiteboul (Thomas), Lauren Bacall (Mam), Jean-Marc Barr (Mr Robinson)

'Von Trier is not so much a filmmaker as a misanthropic mesmerist, who uses movies to bend the viewer to his humorless will.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'Its tone is that of a practical joker strewing whoopee cushions at a gathering, then sitting back to cackle at the rude noises made by credulous fools taking their seats.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Mandingo

US 1975 126m Technicolor
Dino de Laurentiis (Peter Herald)

On a slave-breeding plantation in 1840 Louisiana, passions ride high.

Like Gone with the Wind with all the characters on heat, this exuberant and unpleasant melodrama goes several points over the top from start to finish but proved to have wide appeal for the groundlings, in the Tobacco Road tradition of a wallow in other people's depravities.

w Norman Wexler play Jack Kirkland novel Kyle Onstott d Richard Fleischer ph Richard H. Kline m Maurice Jarre pd Boris Leven

☆ James Mason, Susan George, Perry King, Richard Ward, Brenda Sykes, Ken Norton

Mandrake the Magician

US 1939 bw
Columbia

A world-famous magician trails an underworld leader called The Wasp.

Rather stylish serial exploits with the added effect of illusions.
d Sam Nelson, Norman Denning
☆ Warren Hull, Doris Weston, Al Kikume, Rex Downing, Don Beddoe
† Serial in 12 episodes.

'She'll find a home in every heart! She'll reach the heart of every home!'

Mandy ★★★

GB 1952 93m bw
Ealing (Leslie Norman)

US title: The Crash of Silence
A little girl, born deaf, is sent to a special school.
Carefully wrought and very sympathetic little semi-documentary film in which all the adults underplay in concession to a new child star who alas did not last long at the top.
w Nigel Balchin, Jack Whittingham novel This Day Is Ours by Hilda Lewis
d Alexander Mackendrick ph Douglas Slocombe m William Alwyn ed Seth Holt
☆ Jack Hawkins (Searle), Terence Morgan (Harry), Phyllis Calvert (Christine), Mandy Miller (Mandy), Godfrey Tearle (Mr. Garland), Dorothy Alison (Miss Stockton)

'An extremely touching film, in spite of occasional obviousness in a plot never dull, and in spite of its subject never saccharine.' – Dilys Powell

Maneater of Kumaon

US 1948 78m bw
Monty Shaff-Frank Rosenberg/Universal
A doctor in the Himalayas helps track down a man-eating tiger.
Slightly unusual adventure story based on a currently popular book.
w Jeanne Bartlett and Lewis Meltzer book Jim Corbett d Byron Haskin
☆ Sabu, Wendell Corey, Joanne Page, Morris Carnovsky

Manèges ★

France 1950 90m bw
Films Modernes-Discina (Emil Natan)
GB title: The Wanton
A scheming girl marries the middle-aged owner of a riding school and, with her greedy mother, milks him of his money.
A neat little melodrama with flashbacks so arranged that the girl, paralysed in an accident, seems for the first half to have an angelic character.
w Jacques Sigurd d Yves Allégret ph Jean Bourgoin
☆ Simone Signoret, Bernard Blier, Frank Villard, Jane Marken

Mang Jing: see Blind Shaft

The Mangler

US 1995 106m Technicolor
Guild/Distant Horizon/Allied/Anant Singh
After human blood falls on an industrial steam-iron at a laundry, it turns into a killer machine.
Ludicrous and stupid horror movie, full of gore but sadly lacking in any sense or the ability to scare.
w Tobe Hooper, Stephen Brooks, Peter Welbeck (Harry Alan Towers) story Stephen King d Tobe Hooper ph Amnon Salomon m Barrington Pheloung pd David Barkham ed David Heitner ☆ Robert Englund, Ted Levine, Daniel Matmor, Jeremy Crutchley, Vanessa Pike, Demetre Phillips, Lisa Morris

'Lackluster story and thesping should guarantee the would-be frightfest a short spin and quick fade at the box office.' – Variety

Manhandled

US 1949 97m bw
Paramount/Pine-Thomas
The secretary of a bogus psychiatrist becomes involved in a murder and finds herself in danger from all comers.
Modest, overlong suspenser with adequate production values.
w Lewis R. Foster, Whitman Chambers novel The Man Who Stole a Dream by L. S. Goldsmith d Lewis R. Foster ph Ernest Laszlo m David Chudnow ☆ Dorothy Lamour, Dan Duryea, Sterling Hayden, Irene Hervey, Harold Vermilyea, Philip Reed, Alan Napier, Art Smith, Irving Bacon

Manhattan ★★★★

US 1979 96m bw Panavision
UA/Jack Rollins/Charles H. Joffe
Episodes in the sex life of a TV comedy writer with an obsession about New York.
As close to a summation of Woody Allen's views and oeuvre as anybody needs; some smart jabs about the lives we lead are sometimes bogged down in earnestness and half-comic despair.
w Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman
d Woody Allen ph Gordon Willis md Tom Pierson ed Susan E. Morse ☆ Woody Allen (Isaac Davis), Diane Keaton (Mary Wilke), Meryl Streep (Jill), Mariel Hemingway (Tracy), Michael Murphy (Yale)

'Given that the identity of his films has increasingly been determined by his compulsion to talk about the things he finds important, but also by his fear of having them come out as anything but a joke, it is not surprising that he has scarcely been able to decide on a form for his "art": from the anything-for-a-laugh skittering of his early films, to the broad parodies and pastiches of his middle period, to the recent confessional/psychoanalytical mode.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'A masterpiece that has become a film for the ages by not seeking to be a film of the moment.' – Andrew Sarris

script; Mariel Hemingway
best picture

Manhattan Madness: see Adventure in Manhattan

Manhattan Melodrama ★★

US 1934 93m bw
MGM (David O. Selznick)
Two slum boys grow up friends, one as district attorney and the other as a gangster.
Archetypal American situation drama (cf Angels with Dirty Faces, Cry of the City, etc), with the bad guy inevitably indulging in self-sacrifice at the end. An all-star cast makes it palatable in this case, though the film is inevitably dated.
w Oliver H. P. Garrett, Joseph L. Mankiewicz story Arthur Caesar d W. S. Van Dyke ph James Wong Howe m William Axt
☆ William Powell, Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Leo Carrillo, Nat Pendleton, George Sidney, Isabel Jewell, Thomas E. Jackson

'Action meller of the big town ... replete with punchy, popularly-appealing ingredients.' – Variety

† Manhattan Melodrama gained some irrelevant fame as the movie John Dillinger was watching before he was cornered and shot.

Arthur Caesar

Manhattan Merry-go-round ★

US 1937 82m bw
Republic
A sound recording studio is taken over by a band of racketeers.
Sufficient comedy plot to sustain a revue of historical interest.
w Harry Sauber, Frank Hummert
d Charles F. Reisner ad Victor MacKay
☆ Phil Regan, Leo Carrillo, Ann Dvorak, Tamara Geva, James Gleason, Ted Lewis and his Orchestra, Cab Calloway and his Orchestra, the Kay Thompson Ensemble, Louis Prima and his Band, Gene Autry, Joe Di Maggio

'So much talent and novelty has been compressed within the limits of the film that customers dare not sneeze for fear of missing something ... for the territorial distributors and independent theatres it is something to get excited about.' – Variety

Victor MacKay

Manhattan Murder Mystery ★

US 1993 105m Technicolor
TriStar (Robert Greenhut)
A husband becomes concerned when his wife decides that the woman who lives next door has been murdered.
Amiable comedy whodunnit that jogs along nicely without arriving anywhere that is particularly interesting.
w Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman
d Woody Allen ph Carlo Di Palma
pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Woody Allen, Alan Alda, Anjelica Huston, Diane Keaton, Jerry Adler, Joy Behar, Ron Rifkin, Lynn Cohen, Melanie Norris

'Light, insubstantial and utterly devoid of the heavier themes Allen has grappled with in most of his recent outings, this confection keeps the chuckles coming and is mainstream enough in sensibility to be a modest success.' – Variety

'God, it's good to get a film which gives you only fun to worry about.' – Alexander Walker

Manhattan Parade

US 1931 77m Technicolor
Warner
Behind the scenes as a theatrical costumier tries to get into the revue business.
Aimless backstage comedy with turns.
w Robert Lord and Houston Branch play Sam Shipman d Lloyd Bacon
☆ Smith and Dale, Winnie Lightner, Charles Butterworth, Walter Miller, Luis Alberni

'A few laughs dot the scenery, and they're all this musical possesses in value.' – Variety

The Manhattan Project

US 1986 117m Technicolor
Cannon/Gladden (Jennifer Ogden, Marshall Brickman)
aka: Deadly Game
A clever student steals plutonium from a weapons laboratory and builds his own nuclear bomb; when the authorities track him down, he threatens to explode it.
Efficiently made but very silly thriller, a piece of teenage wish fulfilment.
w Marshall Brickman, Thomas Baum
d Marshall Brickman ph Billy Williams
m Philippe Sarde pd Philip Rosenberg
ed Nina Feinberg
☆ John Lithgow, Christopher Collet, Cynthia Nixon, Jill Eikenberry, John Mahoney, Robert Sean Leonard

Manhunt: see From Hell to Texas

'Enter the mind of a serial killer... you may never come back.'

Manhunter ★★

US 1986 120m Technicolor Panavision
Recorded Releasing/Red Dragon/De Laurentiis Entertainment (Richard Roth)
An FBI agent with an ability to think like a killer tracks down a serial murderer.
Slick and glossy thriller, enjoyable enough if you can accept its premise.
novel Red Dragon by Thomas Harris
ph Dante Spinotti m Michael Rubini, The Reds pd Mel Bourne ed Dov Hoenig wd/p Michael Mann
☆ William L. Petersen, Kim Greist, Joan Allen, Brian Cox, Dennis Farina, Stephen Lang, Tom Noonan, David Seaman, Benjamin Hendrickson
† It was remade in 2002 as Red Dragon, directed by Brett Ratner.

Le Mani sulla Città: see Hands over the City

Maniac

GB 1963 86m bw Hammerscope
Columbia/Hammer (Jimmy Sangster)
Murders by oxyacetylene torch in the Camargue, with the wrong lunatic going to the asylum.
Hammer's mark two plot, the shuddery murder mystery in which someone is not quite what he seems; feebly done in this case, with a fatally slow start.
w Jimmy Sangster d Michael Carreras
ph Wilkie Cooper
☆ Kerwin Mathews, Donald Houston, Nadia Gray, Justine Lord

Maniac Cop

US 1988 85m colour
Medusa/Shapiro Glickenhaus Entertainment (Larry Cohen)
A former cop turns killer in New York.
Excessively violent thriller that is too implausible to be enjoyable.
w Larry Cohen d William Lustig
ph Vincent J. Rabe m Jay Chataway ad Jonathan Hodges, Ann Cudworth
ed David Kern
☆ Tom Atkins, Bruce Campbell, Laurene Landon, Richard Roundtree, William Smith, Robert Z'Dar, Sheree North

Maniac Cop 2

US 1990 88m Foto-Kem Panavision
Medusa/Movie House Sale/Fadd Enterprises (David Hodgins, Frank D'Alessio)
A murderous and deranged former policeman teams up with a mass murderer to terrorize New York.
Limply directed sequel that offers nothing new, but just increases the body count.
w Larry Cohen d William Lustig
ph James Lemmo m Jay Chattaway
pd Gene Abel, Charles Logola ed David Kern
☆ Robert Davi, Claudia Christian, Michael Lerner, Bruce Campbell, Laurene Landon, Robert Z'Dar, Clarence Williams III, Leo Rossi

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'The Wrong Arm Of The Law Is Back.'

Maniac Cop 3: Badge of Silence

US 1992 81m Foto-Kem
Neo/First Look (Larry Cohen)

Resurrected by occult methods, a dead cop acts as a vigilante to protect the reputation of a policewoman, shot during a hold-up and accused of killing an innocent hostage.
An action adventure rather than a horror movie, with the maniac cop remaining a shadowy figure; it avoids predictability, has an inventive car chase and manages a moderate amount of suspense.
w Larry Cohen d William Lustig ph Jacques Haitkin m Joel Goldsmith pd Clark Hunter ed David Kern, Michael Eliot
☆ Robert Davi, Caitlin Dulany, Gretchen Becker, Paul Gleason, Jackie Earle Haley, Julius Harris, Grand Bush, Doug Savant, Robert Z'Dar
'A promising exploitation sequel, laced with Cohen's dark humour, which collapses in its final act into a series of dull stunts.' – Sight and Sound

Maniacs on Wheels: see Once a Jolly Swagman

Manifesto

US 1988 94m colour
Cannon/Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus
video title: A Night of Love

In an Eastern European village in the 1920s, a lecherous secret policeman waylays revolutionaries before a visit by a king.
Sex-obsessed black comedy that muffs its climaxes.
wd Dusan Makavejev story For a Night of Love by Emile Zola ph Tomislav Pinter m Nicola Piovani pd Velijo Despotovic ed Tony Lawson
☆ Alfred Molina, Camilla Soeberg, Simon Callow, Lindsay Duncan, Eric Stoltz, Rade Serbedzija, Chris Haywood, Linda Marlowe, Ronald Lacey

Manila Calling

US 1942 82m bw
TCF/Sol M. Wurtzel

Americans in the Philippines try to install a short-wave radio transmitter before the Japs take over.
Acceptable thick ear with professional trimmings.
w John Larkin d Herbert I. Leeds
☆ Lloyd Nolan, Carole Landis, Cornel Wilde, James Gleason, Martin Kosleck, Ralph Byrd Manipulation ★

GB 1991 5m colour
Tandem

A cartoon character tries to assert his independence from the artist who drew him.
A clever, if somewhat sterile, exercise in animation.
d Daniel Greaves ed Rod Howick animated short

The Manitou

US 1978 104m CFI color Panavision
Herman Weist/Melvin Simon (William Girdler)

A fake spiritualist finds his girlfriend is possessed by the demon of a 400-year-old Indian.
Boring retread of The Exorcist.
w William Girdler, Jon Cedar, Tom Pope novel Graham Masterton d William Girdler ph Michel Hugo m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Tony Curtis, Susan Strasberg, Michael Ansara, Stella Stevens, Jon Cedar, Ann Sothern, Burgess Meredith, Paul Mantee

Mannen på Taket: see The Man on the Roof

Mannequin

US 1937 95m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)

The wife of a small-time crook gets a modelling job and falls for a shipping magnate.
Competent star melodrama about a working girl's harassments.
w Lawrence Hazard d Frank Borzage ph George Folsey m Edward Ward ☆ Joan Crawford, Spencer Tracy, Alan Curtis, Ralph Morgan, Mary Philips, Elizabeth Risdon, Leo Gorcey
'A star vehicle in which the star is so solemnly noble that you want to strangle her.' – New Yorker
song 'Always and Always' (m Edward Ward, ly Chet Forrest, Bob Wright)

Mannequin

US 1987 89m DuArt
TCF/Gladden (Art Levinson)

A window dresser falls in love with a mannequin who changes into a real live girl.
Feeble and never less than idiotic fantasy.
w Edward Rugoff, Michael Gottlieb d Michael Gottlieb ph Tim Suhrstedt m Sylvester Levay pd Josan Russo ed Richard Halsey, Frank Jiminez ☆ Andrew McCarthy (Joanthan Switcher), Kim Cattrall (Emmy), Estelle Getty (Claire Timkin), James Spader (Richards), G. W. Bailey (Felix), Carole Davis (Roxie), Stephen Vinovich (B. J. West), Christopher Maher (Armand), Meshach Taylor (Hollywood) song 'Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now' (Albert Hammond, Diane Warren)

Mannequin Two: On the Move

US 1991 95m colour
Rank/Gladden (Edward Rugoff)

A window dresser discovers that a mannequin holds the imprisoned spirit of a bewitched peasant girl.
Even less enjoyable than the original, if that's possible.
w Edward Rugoff, David Isaacs, Ken Levine, Betty Israel d Stewart Raffill ph Larry Pizer m David McHugh ad Norman B. Dodge Jnr ed Joan Chapman ☆ Kristy Swanson, William Ragsdale, Meshach Taylor, Terry Kizer, Stuart Pankin, Cynthia Harris, Andrew Hill Newman
'If this stiff ever shows any life, it will be a wonder indeed.' – Variety
'A messy rehash of clichés and tired jokes.' – Empire

Männer...: see Men...

Mano dello Straniero: see The Stranger's Hand

Manon ★

France 1949 96m bw
Alcina (P. E. Decharme)

After the liberation, a girl who has been a collaborator becomes involved in the black market, passes from man to man, and ends up being shot by Arabs in the Sahara desert.
Oddball modernized version of Manon Lescaut, with post-war pessimism and the glamour of sin going hand in hand. Worth comparing with Gilda.
w Henri-Georges Clouzot, J. Ferry novel L'Abbé Prévost d Henri-Georges Clouzot ph Armand Thirard m Paul Misraki
☆ Michel Auclair, Cécile Aubry, Serge Reggiani, Gabrielle Dorziat
'A clever idea, handled cleverly, but without depth of feeling.' – Penelope Houston
'Though I have been going to the pictures since I wore rompers, I do not recall a more horrible film.' – Leonard Mosley

Manon des Sources

France 1952 190m bw
Films Marcel Pagnol

A Provençal girl who lives in the hills with her goats is thought to be a witch, and takes her revenge on the populace by stopping the water supply.
Insanely long idyll of the countryside with the writer-director unintentionally caricaturing himself.
wd Marcel Pagnol ph Willy m Raymond Legrand ☆ Jacqueline Pagnol, Raymond Pellégrin, Henri Vibert
'Something of an endurance test for all but the most enthusiastic Pagnol admirers.' – John Gillett, MFB
† Pagnol later expanded the story into two novels which were the basis for a two-part film, Jean de Florette (qv) and Manon des Sources (1986) (qv).

Manon des Sources ★★★

France 1986 114m colour
Technovision
Renn Productions/A2/RAI 2/DD Productions (Roland Thenot)

A young girl avenges the wrong done to her father by a farmer and his nephew.
Absorbing drama of rural life, impeccably performed and directed.
w Claude Berri, Gérard Brach novel Marcel Pagnol d Claude Berri ph Bruno Nuytten m Jean-Claude Petit pd Bernard Vizat ed Geneviève Louveau, Hervé de Luze ☆ Yves Montand (Cesar "Le Papet" Soubeyran), Daniel Auteuil (Ugolin Soubeyran), Emmanuelle Béart (Manon Cadoret), Hippolyte Girardot (Bernard Olivier), Margarita Lozano (Baptistine), Gabriel Bacquier (Victor)

Manpower ★

US 1941 103m bw
Warner (Mark Hellinger)

Power linesmen fall out over a night-club hostess.
Yet another variation on Tiger Shark, with vivid fisticuff and storm sequences supporting the star performers.
w Richard Macaulay, Jerry Wald d Raoul Walsh ph Ernest Haller m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Edward G. Robinson, George Raft, Marlene Dietrich, Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, Eve Arden, Barton MacLane, Walter Catlett, Joyce Compton, Ward Bond
'The pace and cutting are those of the best gangster films ... the climax outdoes anything the Lyceum may have known.' – William Whitebait

Man's Best Friend

US 1993 87m DeLuxe
Guild/New Line/Roven-Cavello (Bob Engelman)

A reporter releases from an experimental laboratory a genetically altered dog that combines size and intelligence with the ability of a chameleon and the instincts of a killer.
A moderately entertaining, but gory, thriller that at least provides a welcome antidote to the Beethoven series.
wd John Lafia ph Mark Irwin m Joel Goldsmith pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Michael N. Knue sp Kevin Yagher
☆ Ally Sheedy, Lance Henriksen, Robert Constanzo, Frederic Lehne, John Cassini, J. D. Daniels, William Sanderson
'Combines increasingly gory black-comic bits ... with a plethora of gimmicks. The mixture is far from boring, but it coarsens the comedy about the hidden life of dogs.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker
'How we all laughed at this movie's awful lines and clichéd plot contrivances, down to the closing, sequel-bound litter of pyscho puppies.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

Man's Castle ★

US 1933 70m bw
Columbia (Frank Borzage)

Romance blooms among the unemployed who live in a shanty town on the banks of the East River.
Depression moonshine which at the time was taken for realism; sociologically very interesting but very faded as entertainment.
w Jo Swerling play Lawrence Hazard d Frank Borzage ph Joseph August m W. Franke Harling
☆ Spencer Tracy, Loretta Young, Glenda Farrell, Walter Connolly, Arthur Hohl, Marjorie Rambeau, Dickie Moore
'A picture that goes contrary to normal entertainment appetites and tastes, its possibilities of going places look slender at best.' – Variety
'Heavily sentimental yet magically romantic.' – New Yorker, 1977

Man's Favorite Sport? ★

US 1963 120m Technicolor
Universal/Gibraltar/Laurel (Howard Hawks)

A star salesman of fishing tackle finds his bluff called when he has to enter a fishing competition.
Over-extended romantic farce drawn by the director from memories of older and better films, such as Libeled Lady and his own Bringing Up Baby.
w John Fenton Murray, Steve McNeil story The Girl Who Almost Got Away by Pat Frank d Howard Hawks ph Russell Harlan m Henry Mancini ad Alexander Golitzen, Tambi Larsen ed Stuart Gilmore cos Edith Head
☆ Rock Hudson (Roger Willoughby), Paula Prentiss (Abigail Page), Maria Perschy (Isolde Mueller), Charlene Holt (Tex Connors), John McGiver (William Cadwalader), Roscoe Karns (Major Phipps)
'Hawks' deadpan documentation of a physical gag is as effective as ever, but the overall pace of his direction is curiously contemplative, as though he were savoring all his past jokes for the last time.' – Andrew Sarris
† Leigh Brackett worked uncredited on the script, and also did rewrites during production.

Man's Hope: see Espoir

'Discover The Year's Most Passionate Film!'
'Jane Austen's Wicked Comedy.'

Mansfield Park ★

GB/US 1999 112m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Miramax HAL/BBC (Sarah Curtis)

A poor young girl goes to live with her wealthy relations and falls in love with her cousin.

Fanny Price, Austin's timid, neurasthenic heroine is here transformed into a forceful writer (based on Rozema's view of Jane Austen herself); other alterations include shifting the action back in time to make points about the slave trade. More seriously, other changes mean that Fanny is no longer the moral centre of the action, so that the point of the novel is lost.
wd Patricia Rozema novel, letters and early journals Jane Austen ph Michael Coulter m Lesley Barber pd Christopher Hobbs ed Martin Walsh cos Andrea Galer
☆ Embeth Davidtz (Mary Crawford), Jonny Lee Miller (Edmund Bertram), Alessandro Nivola (Henry Crawford), Frances O'Connor (Fanny Price), Harold Pinter (Sir Thomas Bertram), Lindsay Duncan (Lady Bertram/ Mrs Price), Sheila Gish (Mrs Norris), James Purefoy (Tom Bertram), Hugh Bonneville (Mr Rushworth), Justine Waddell (Julia Bertram), Victoria Hamilton (Maria Bertram), Sophia Myles (Susan), Hilton McRae (Mr Price), Hannah Taylor Gordon (Young Fanny), Charles Edwards (Yates)
'Rozema can't seem to hold a single tone for more than a few minutes, and she has too many other axes to grind besides just getting the story up on the screen.' – Derek Elley, Variety
'Seldom has a film played quite so fast and loose with an enduring literary work in the dubious cause of seeming "accessible" and "relevant".' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Manslaughter ★

US 1922 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount/Famous Players (Cecil B. de Mille)
An idle rich girl accidentally kills a man while driving, and is sent to prison, but falls for the district attorney who convicted her.
De Mille was here testing out his Ten Commandments format, with a long flashback during the DA's speech to the idle rich of ancient Rome. It worked like a charm at the box-office.
w Jeanie Macpherson novel Alice Duer Miller d Cecil B. de Mille ph Alvin Wyckoff ☆ Leatrice Joy, Thomas Meighan, Lois Wilson, John Miltern
† A 1930 sound remake for Paramount was directed by George Abbott, who also tried in vain to modernize the screenplay (by omitting the flashback). Claudette Colbert and Fredric March starred.

'You've seen the story through the eyes of the law... Now see it through the eyes of The Manson Family.'

The Manson Family ★

GB/US 2003 95m colour
Anchor Bay/Asmodeus/Mercury/Blue Underground (Carl Daft, David Gregory, Mike King, Jim Van Bebber)
In 1996, a TV reporter recalls the murders committed by Charles Manson and his followers in the 60s.
A film begun in the late 1980s and shown as a work in progress in the late 90s in the hope of raising the money to finish it, which was not managed until 2003. The approach ranges from rough-edged semi-documentary to the style of underground movies and low-budget exploitation flicks of the 60s, culminating in scenes of extreme violence.
wd Jim Van Bebber ph Mike King ed Jim Van Bebber, Michael Capone ☆ Marcelo Games (Charlie), Marc Pitman (Tex), Leslie Orr (Patty), Maureen Allisse (Sadie), Amy Yates (Leslie), Jim Van Bebber (Bobby)
'An act of transgression so extreme and uncompromised, and yet so amateurish and sloppy, that it exists in a category of one film – this film.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

The Mantrap

US 1943 57m bw
Republic (George Sherman)
A retired Scotland Yard man helps the DA's office in a murder case.
Entertaining second feature with a geriatric hero; alas, the clues don't play quite fair.
w Curt Siodmak d George Sherman
☆ Henry Stephenson, Lloyd Corrigan, Joseph Allen Jnr, Dorothy Lovett

Mantrap

US 1961 93m bw Panavision
Paramount/Tiger (Edmond O'Brien, Stanley Frazen)
An honest man is lured by an old Marine friend into a hi-jack attempt which leads to the death of his wife.
Rather uninteresting melodrama, played and directed for more than it's worth.
w Ed Waters novel Taint of the Tiger by John D. Macdonald d Edmond O'Brien ph Loyal Griggs m Leith Stevens ☆ Jeffrey Hunter, David Janssen, Stella Stevens, Hugh Sanders

Manuela ★

GB 1957 95m bw
British Lion/Ivan Foxwell
US title: Stowaway Girl
In a South American port, the engineer of a tramp steamer smuggles aboard a half caste girl, but it is the disillusioned captain who falls in love with her.
Downbeat seafaring melodrama, fine for those seeking a mood piece.
w William Woods novel William Woods d Guy Hamilton ph Otto Heller m William Alwyn
☆ Trevor Howard, Elsa Martinelli, Pedro Armendariz, Donald Pleasence

The Manxman

GB 1929 90m (24 fps) bw silent
British International (John Maxwell)
A fisherman thought drowned comes back to find that his girl is expecting his best friend's baby.
Stern romantic melodrama of virtually no interest despite its director.
w Eliot Stannard novel Hall Caine d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox ☆ Carl Brisson, Malcolm Keen, Anny Ondra, Randle Ayrton, Clare Greet † Previously filmed in 1916 with Henry Ainley and Elizabeth Risdon.

Many Happy Returns

US 1934 62m bw
Paramount
A scatty girl jinxes her father's department store and a Hollywood studio.
Silly comedy with stops for vaudeville.
w J. P. McEvoy, Claude Binyon, Keene Thompson, Ray Harris story Lady Mary Cameron(!) d Norman Z. McLeod
☆ George Burns, Gracie Allen, Guy Lombardo and his Band, Veloz and Yolanda, Ray Milland, George Barbier, Joan Marsh, Franklin Pangborn, William Demarest, Larry Adler
'Often very funny, at other moments it lags.' – Variety

Many Rivers to Cross ★

US 1955 94m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Jack Cummings)
A trapper bound for Canada is helped by a sharp-shooting girl, and in return he saves her from marauding Indians.
Simple-minded, cheerful, quite refreshing Western compounded of equal parts comedy and action.
w Harry Brown, Guy Trosper d Roy Rowland ph John Seitz m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Robert Taylor, Eleanor Parker, Victor McLaglen, Josephine Hutchinson, Jeff Richards, Russ Tamblyn, James Arness, Alan Hale Jnr

'From a Kingdom of Ice to a Land of Fire ... A Love That Knows No Boundaries.'

Map of the Human Heart ★

GB/Australia 1992 109m colour Panavision
Rank/Working Title/Map/Sunrise/Polygram/AFFC/Vincent Ward
An elderly Eskimo recalls to a surveyor the events of his life: how he helped map his remote part of the Arctic as a boy, was sent to Canada to cure his tuberculosis, served in the RAF and loved and lost a girl he met in hospital and later in England.
An ambitious, sprawling and flawed film that attempts to take in too much, in time and emotion – with a 'feel-good' ending that seems out of place with the tragic story that has gone before.
w Louis Nowra story Vincent Ward d Vincent Ward ph Eduardo Serra m Gabriel Yared pd John Beard ed John Scott, Frans Vandenburg
☆ Patrick Bergin, Anne Parillaud, Jason Scott Lee, John Cusack, Jeanne Moreau
'What we learn about the human heart remains a matter of guesswork, but as a map the film certainly offers some eye-catching perspectives.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound
'A true one-off, this is a poignant, thoughtfully drawn map of love, death and life.' – Angie Errigo, Empire
† The film was cut from 126m after it was shown at the Cannes Film Festival, and had an extra day's shooting in London to add scenes with Lee and Parillaud. The ending was also recut to give it a more upbeat feeling.

'A story about the amazing places life can take you.'

A Map of the World ⑤

US 1999 125m DeLuxe
Overseas (Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall)
A farmer's wife discovers that speaking her mind causes her trouble and the possibility of a prison sentence.
Moderately intriguing drama of a woman in the wrong place and time, though it is too manipulative for its own good.
w Peter Hedges, Polly Platt novel Jane Hamilton d Scott Elliott ph Seamus McGarvey m Pat Metheny pd Richard Toyon ed Craig McKay, Naomi Geraghty cos Suzette Daigle ☆ Sigourney Weaver (Alice Goodwin), Julianne Moore (Theresa Collins), David Strathairn (Howard Goodwin), Ron Lea (Dan Collins), Arliss Howard (Paul Reverdy), Chloe Sevigny (Carole Mackessy), Louise Fletcher (Nellie), Dara Perlmutter (Emma), Kayla Perlmutter (Claire), Marc Donato (Robbie)
'An accomplished film that continually takes us beyond our first impressions of people and situations.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times
'A soggy number, largely about child-rearing and its travails. It never really focuses.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic

Mapantsula ★

South Africa 1988 104m Agfacolor
Electric/One Look Productions/David Hannay Productions/Haverbeam (Max Montocchio)
A petty criminal in Soweto stands firm against police oppression.
Lively look at the underside of life in a black township, but lacking in depth.
w Oliver Schmitz, Thomas Mogotlane d Oliver Schmitz ph Rod Stewart m The Ouens ad Robin Hofmeyr ed Mike Baard
☆ Thomas Mogotlane, Thembi Mtshali, Peter Sephuma, Marcel Van Heerden, Eugene Majola, Dolly Rathebe, Darlington Michaels

El Mar ★

Spain 1999 113m colour
Peccadillo/Massa d'Or/Paulo Branco/Isona Passola (Paulo Branco, Lluis Ferrando, Isona Passola)
aka: The Sea
In 1946, two men and a nurse, who witnessed two traumatic deaths during the Spanish Civil War, meet again in a tuberculosis sanitorium.
Overheated, claustrophic melodrama of repressed and violent love.
w Antonio Aloy, Biel Mesquida, Agustín Villaronga d Agustín Villaronga ph Jaime Peracaula m Javier Navarrete ad Francesc Candini ed Raul Roman ☆ Roger Casamajor (Ramallo), Bruno Bergonzini (Manuel Tur), Antonia Torrens (Francisca), Hernan Gonzalez (Galindo), Juli Mira (Eugeni Morell), Simon Andreu (Alcantara), Angela Molina (Carmen)
'Mixing religion, death and sex in just about equal proportions, this brooding item is probably too dark and bleak for most tastes.' – David Stratton, Variety

Mar Adentro: see The Sea Inside

Mara Maru

US 1952 98m bw
Warner (David Weisbart)
A Manila salvage expert locates a sunken treasure and defeats crooks who are also in pursuit of it.
Lethargic but pleasant-looking star vehicle with a plot borrowed from The Maltese Falcon.
w N. Richard Nash, Philip Yordan, Sidney Harmon, Hollister Noble d Gordon Douglas ph Robert Burks m Max Steiner
☆ Errol Flynn, Ruth Roman, Raymond Burr, Paul Picerni, Richard Webb

Maracaibo

US 1958 88m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Theodora (Cornel Wilde)
A Texan oil fire expert finds himself unexpectedly busy when on holiday in Venezuela.
Meandering action melodrama with too much local colour.
w Ted Sherdeman novel Stirling Silliphant d Cornel Wilde ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Laurindo Almeida ☆ Cornel Wilde, Jean Wallace, Abbe Lane, Francis Lederer, Joe E. Ross, Michael Landon

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Marat/Sade ★

GB 1966 116m DeLuxe
UA/Marat Sade (Michael Birkett)

aka: The Persecution and Assassination of Jean-Paul Marat as performed by the inmates of the Asylum of Charenton under the direction of the Marquis de Sade

The title tells all, except that at the end the inmates go berserk.

Fairly plain filming of an Old Vic succès d'estime which it became fashionable to announce that one had seen and understood. The film makes no effort to attract the unbeliever.

w Adrian Mitchell play Peter Weiss d Peter Brook ph David Watkin m Richard Peaslee

☆ Glenda Jackson, Patrick Magee, Ian Richardson, Michael Williams, Robert Lloyd, Clifford Rose, Freddie Jones

'I loathed and detested doing the play. I couldn't wait for it to end. Then we all did the film and it was a shattering experience. People twitching, slobber running down their chins, everyone screaming from nerves and exhaustion.' – Glenda Jackson

Marathon Man ★★★

US 1976 126m Metrocolor
Paramount (Robert Evans, Sidney Beckerman)

A vicious Nazi returns from Uruguay to New York in search of diamonds which had been kept for him by his now-dead brother, and is outwitted by the young brother of an American agent he has killed.

Complex mystery thriller which seems to have things to mutter about freedom and McCarthyism and Nazism, but finally settles down to being a simple shocker with a nick-of-time climax. The presentation is dazzling.

w William Goldman novel William Goldman d John Schlesinger ph Conrad Hall m Michael Small pd Richard MacDonald ad Jack DeShields ed Jim Clark

☆ Dustin Hoffman (Babe Levy), Laurence Olivier (Szell), Roy Scheider (Doc Levy), William Devane (Janeway), Marthe Keller (Elsa), Fritz Weaver (Prof. Biesenthal), Marc Lawrence (Erhard)

'A film of such rich texture and density in its construction, so fascinatingly complex in its unfolding, so engrossing in its personalities, and so powerful in its performance and pace that the seduction of the senses has physical force.' – Judith Crist, Saturday Review

'Fashionably violent ... distinctly self-conscious ... conventionally moralistic ... and absolutely devoid of resonance.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'If at the film's end, you have followed the series of double and triple crosses, braved the torture scenes, and still don't know what it was about, you're bound to have company.' – Paul Coleman, Film Information

'A Jewish revenge fantasy.' – Pauline Kael

'He has made a most elegant, bizarre, rococo melodrama out of material which, when you think about it, makes hardly any sense at all.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

Laurence Olivier

The Marauders

US 1955 81m Eastmancolor
MGM (Arthur M. Loew Jnr)

A rancher hires gunmen to drive away squatters, but the gunmen kill him and take over.

Slightly sinister Western with a plot probably worth trying again.

w Jack Leonard, Earl Fenton novel Alan Marcus d Gerald Mayer ph Harold Marzorati m Paul Sawtell

☆ Dan Duryea, Jeff Richards, Keenan Wynn, Jarma Lewis, Harry Shannon

'In the harshest place on Earth, love finds a way.'

March of the Penguins ★★ (8)

France/US 2005 80m colour
Warner/Bonne Bloche/Wild Bunch (Yves Darondeau, Christophe Lioud, Emmanuel Priou)

original title: La Marche de L'Empereur

Documentary on the Emperor penguin and its journey inland to its breeding ground, where the male protects the egg from the ice for two months without eating while the female returns to the sea for food.

Remarkable photography of the birds enduring some of the worst weather on earth is marred by a sentimental, anthropomorphic narration and a mushy score. For some reason, the film was hailed as demonstrating family values, though penguins choose a different mate for each breeding season.

w Jordan Roberts script Luc Jacquet, Michel Fessler d Luc Jacquet ph Laurent Chalet, Jerome Maison m Alex Wurman ed Sabine Emiliani

☆ Morgan Freeman (Narrator)

† It took $77.5m at the US box office, making it the second highest grossing documentary, after Fahrenheit 9/11.

documentary

March of the Wooden Soldiers: see Babes in Toyland

March or Die

GB 1977 107m Technicolor
ITC/Associated General (Dick Richards, Jerry Bruckheimer)

In 1918, tensions rise at a Foreign Legion outpost threatened by Arabs.

Incredibly old-hat romantic melodrama of the kind that was being spoofed forty years ago. The considerable talent involved seems unfortunately under instruction to take it seriously.

w David Zelag Goodman d Dick Richards ph John Alcott m Maurice Jarre

☆ Gene Hackman, Terence Hill (Mario Girotti), Catherine Deneuve, Max von Sydow, Ian Holm, Marcel Bozzuffi

† The writer and director more successfully revived a different set of clichés in Farewell My Lovely.

Marching Along: see Stars and Stripes Forever

Marco the Magnificent: see The Fabulous Adventures of Marco Polo

Mardi Gras

US 1958 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)

In New Orleans at holiday time, a film star falls for a cadet.

Mindless musical using up available talent.

w Winston Miller, Hal Kanter d Edmund Goulding ph Wilfrid M. Cline md Lionel Newman

☆ Pat Boone, Christine Carere, Sheree North, Tommy Sands, Gary Crosby, Fred Clark, Richard Sargent, Barrie Chase

Lionel Newman

Mare Nostrum ★

US 1925 110m approx bw silent
MGM

A Spanish captain loves a German spy.

Tragic romantic melodrama, a major attraction of its time.

w Willis Goldbeck novel Vicente Blasco Ibanez d Rex Ingram ph John Seitz

☆ Antonio Moreno, Alice Terry

Marebito (4)

Japan 2005 91m colour
Euro Space (Kenzo Horikoshi, Mikihiko Hirata, Atsuko Ohno, Yoichiro Onishi)

aka: The Stranger from Afar

Exploring subterranean caverns beneath Tokyo in search of ultimate terror, a TV cameraman discovers a naked and chained woman whom he brings back to his apartment and discovers she needs human blood to survive.

Odd, dismal, low-key horror of madness and obesssion that wants the audience to puzzle out the significance, if any, of its disconnected images of gloomy tunnels and a blood-sucking woman.

w Chiaki Konaka d Takashi Shimizu ph Tsukasa Tanabe m Toshiyuki Takine pd Atsuo Hirai ed Masahiro Ugajin

☆ Shinya Tsukamoto (Masuoka), Tomomi Miyashita ('F'), Kazuhiro Nakahara (Arei Furoki), Miho Ninagawa (Aya Fukumoto), Shun Sugata (MIB)

'There are pale, ghostly women, enough blood to transfuse a small city and an atmosphere of urban loneliness and sullen psychosexual pathology. None of which is quite as much fun – or quite as disturbing – as it should be.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

Margaret's Museum ★★ (3)

Canada/GB 1995 100m colour
Ranfilm/Imagex/Télé-Action/Skyline (Mort Ransen, Christopher Zimmer, Claudio Luca, Steve Clark-Hall)

In the late 40s, in a small Novia Scotia town, a woman is driven to madness by the deaths of the men in her life, who had no option but to work as miners.

Compelling drama of female suffering that comes to an unexpected climax, and owes much to the equally unexpected performance of Bonham Carter as a working-class wife.

w Gerald Wexler, Mort Ransen novel The Glace Bay Miner's Museum by Sheldon Currie d Mort Ransen ph Vic Sarin m Milan Kymlicka pd William Fleming, David McHenry ed Rita Roy

☆ Helena Bonham Carter, Kate Nelligan, Clive Russell, Craig Olejnik, Andrea Morris, Peter Boretski, Kenneth Welsh

'A moving, funny pic that's actually quite uplifting for most of the time.' – Brendan Kelly, Variety † Ransen spent most of the 90s trying to get backing for the film. In Canada's 1995 Genie awards it won plaudits for best writing, score, actress (Bonham Carter), supporting actress (Nelligan) and supporting actor (Welsh).

La Marge

France 1976 90m Eastmancolor
Paris Film/Robert and Raymond Hakim

aka: The Margin
aka: The Streetwalker

After receiving a letter telling him that his wife has committed suicide after his son was drowned, a husband working in Paris spends several days with a prostitute.

Trite tale of the wages of sin, filmed without much enthusiasm from the participants, despite a great deal of nudity and sexual activity.

wd Walerian Borowczyk novel André Pieyre de Mandiargues ph Bernard Daillencourt ed Louisette Hautecoeur

☆ Sylvia Kristel, Joe Dallesandro, André Falcon, Mireille Audibert, Denis Manuel

'Borowczyk is at his least impressive with this story.' – Sight and Sound

'His masterpiece.' – Movie Collector

† A dubbed version running for 80m has also been released on video.

'The girl of the moment in the picture of America's hey! hey! day!'

Margie ★★

US 1946 94m Technicolor
TCF (Walter Morosco)

A married woman reminisces about her college days, when she married the French teacher despite her tendency to lose her bloomers at the most embarrassing moments.

Wholly pleasing nostalgia, very smartly and brightly handled.

w F. Hugh Herbert stories Ruth McKinney, Richard Bransten d Henry King ph Charles Clarke md Alfred Newman

☆ Jeanne Crain, Glenn Langan, Alan Young, Lynn Bari, Barbara Lawrence, Conrad Janis, Esther Dale

'Direction, script and settings skilfully interpret the fashions and crazes of the twenties.' – MFB

The Margin: see La Marge

Margin for Error ★

US 1943 74m bw
TCF (Ralph Dietrich)

Just before World War II, the Nazi consul in New York is murdered in his own office.

Mildly intriguing whodunnit with the case solved by a Jewish cop.

w Lillie Hayward play Clare Boothe Luce d Otto Preminger ph Edward Cronjager m Leigh Harline

☆ Milton Berle, Joan Bennett, Otto Preminger, Carl Esmond, Howard Freeman, Poldy Dur, Hans von Twardowski

Le Marginal: see The Outsider (1983)

Marguerite de la Nuit ★

France/Italy 1955 126m Technicolor
SNEG/Gaumont Actualités/Cino del Duca (Léon Carré)

An octogenarian signs a pact with the devil in return for his lost youth; but when he has it he causes the death of the woman he loves.

Expensive, sporadically interesting, but unpersuasive updating of Faust.

w Ghislaine Autant-Lara, Gabriel Arout d Claude Autant-Lara ph Jacques Natteau m René Cloërc

☆ Michèle Morgan, Yves Montand, Jean-François Calvé, Massimo Girotti

Le Mari de la coiffeuse: see The Hairdresser's Husband

Maria Chapdelaine ★

France 1934 73m bw
Société Nouvelle

In a hard Quebec winter Maria loses her mother and her lover, but resists temptation by a man from the city.

Artistically telling drama, later flatly remade as The Naked Heart.

novel Louis Hémon d Julien Duvivier

☆ Madeleine Renaud, Jean Gabin, Suzanne Despres, Jean-Pierre Aumont

'A fine achievement, it gives the feeling of a sort of epic poem.' – Variety

Maria Full of Grace

**

US/Colombia/Ecuador 2004 101m colour
Icon/HBO/Journeyman/Tucan/Altercine (Paul Mezey)

A young pregnant unemployed girl from Colombia becomes a drug mule, swallowing rubber pellets full of heroin before flying to the United States.
Involving drama centred on a fine performance by Catalina Sandino Moreno, but one that raises more questions than it answers.
wd Joshua Marston ph Jim Denault m Jacobo Lieberman, Leonardo Heiblum pd Monica Marulanda, Debbie De Villa ed Anne McCabe, Lee Percy ☆ Catalina Sandino Moreno (Maria), Yenny Paola Vega (Blanca), Giulied Lopez (Lucy), Jhon Alex Toro (Franklin), Patricia Rae (Carla), Wilson Guerrero (Juan)

'Moreno's excellent and credible performance... is adrift in a film which raises larger questions about the nature of drug trafficking which it is unable or unwilling to answer.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Catalina Sandino Moreno

Maria Marten, or The Murder in the Red Barn

GB 1935 67m bw
George King

A wicked Victorian squire kills his pregnant mistress and is haunted.
Stilted melodrama, ripely played, from a real-life case. (The villain's scalp is still exhibited in a museum at Bury St Edmunds.)
w Randall Faye d Milton Rosmer ph George Stretton md Lionel Claff ad D. W. Daniels ed Charles Saunders
☆ Tod Slaughter, Sophie Stewart, Eric Portman, Clare Greet, D. J. Williams
† Several versions had been made in silent days.

El Mariachi: see under E

Maria's Lovers

US 1984 103m colour
Cannon/Golan-Globus (Bosko Djordjevic, Lawrence Taylor-Mortorff)

A soldier returns from a Japanese prisoner-of-war camp to marry the girl of his dreams and discovers that he is impotent with her.
Turgid domestic drama, taken at a funereal pace and with acting that is unable to make the lugubrious script convincing; it is rather as if Tennessee Williams had been rewritten by William Faulkner.
w Gerard Brach, Andrei Konchalovsky, Paul Zindel, Marjorie David d Andrei Konchalovsky ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia m Gary S. Remal pd Jeannine Oppewall ed Humphrey Dixon ☆ Nastassja Kinski, John Savage, Robert Mitchum, Keith Carradine, Anita Morris, Bud Cort, Karen Young, Tracy (credited as Tracey) Nelson, John Goodman, Vincent Spano

Marie

US 1985 112m Technicolor Dunton vision
Dino de Laurentiis (Frank Capra Jnr)

A battered wife leaves her husband and becomes chairman of the Tennessee parole board.
An edifying biopic to which the only answer is, so what?
w John Briley book Peter Maas d Roger Donaldson ph Chris Menges m Francis Lai ☆ Sissy Spacek, Jeff Daniels, Morgan Freeman, Fred Thompson

'Blessed are the pure in heart but also deadly dull.' – Time Out
'A highly accomplished piece of work. It moves, it looks professional, and it's well acted.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

† Fred Thompson, who was the real-life Marie Ragghianti's lawyer, plays himself in the film. He then became a movie actor under the name Fred Dalton Thompson, appearing in The Hunt for Red October and Die Hard 2 among other films.

Marie Antoinette

*

US 1938 160m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

The last days of the French court before the revolution.
Too slow by half, and so glamorized and fictionalized as to lack all interest, this long delayed production stands only as an example of MGM's expensive prestige movies of the thirties.
w Claudine West, Donald Ogden Stewart, Ernest Vajda d W. S. Van Dyke ph William Daniels m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons montage Slavko Vorkapich
☆ Norma Shearer, Tyrone Power, John Barrymore, Robert Morley, Gladys George, Anita Louise, Joseph Schildkraut, Henry Stephenson, Reginald Gardiner, Peter Bull, Albert Dekker, Cora Witherspoon, Barnett Parker, Joseph Calleia, Henry Kolker and also George Zucco, Henry Daniell, Harry Davenport, Barry Fitzgerald, Mae Busch, Robert Barrat

'Produced on a scale of incomparable splendour and extravagance, it approaches real greatness as cinematic historical literature.' – Variety
'A resplendent bore.' – New Yorker, 1977

Herbert Stothart; Norma Shearer; Robert Morley

'Let them eat cake.'

Marie Antoinette

* (6)

US/France/Japan 2006 122m
Sony/Columbia/Pricel/Tohokushinsha/American Zoetrope (Ross Katz, Sofia Coppola)

An account of the teenage Austrian princess who enters the ritualistic, protocol-drenched French court to marry Louis XVI and attempt to produce an heir to the throne.
A costume drama in which the costumes utterly swamp the drama. It's not the first historical film to dispense with accuracy. But writer-director Coppola, employing a soundtrack of punk and new wave music, simply portrays Marie Antoinette as an 18th century equivalent of a modern celebrity – a vacuous shopaholic who has an affair, attends a masked ball incognito, and generally behaves petulantly, like a reality TV graduate. This lively but minor point is the extent of Coppola's thoughts on her subject. The French Revolution looms and the royal couple simply leave Versailles, without a hint of their real fate. To describe the script as 'adapted' from a serious biography does not begin to describe the looseness of the process. Audiences unwilling merely to surrender to the film's visual splendour will find it deeply irritating.
wd Sofia Coppola ph Lance Acord pd K.K. Barrett, Veronique Melery ad Pierre du Boisberranger ed Sarah Flack Biography Antonia Fraser
☆ Kirsten Dunst (Marie Antoinette), Jason Schwartzman (Louis XVI), Judy Davis (Comtesse de Noailles), Rip Torn (Louis XV), Rose Byrne (Duchesse de Polignac), Asia Argento (Comtesse du Barry), Molly Shannon (Aunt Victoire), Shirley Henderson (Aunt Sophie), Danny Huston (Emperor Joseph), Marianne Faithfull (Maria Teresa)

Costume design (Milena Canonero)

Marie Baie des Anges: see Angel Sharks

La Marie du Port

France 1949 95m bw
Sacha Gordine

A Cherbourg restaurateur takes his mistress home for her father's funeral, and falls in love with her younger sister.
Slight romantic drama, well enough put over but not very memorable except for its slightly cynical mood.
w Louis Chavance, Marcel Carné novel Georges Simenon d Marcel Carné ph Henri Alekan m Joseph Kosma
☆ Jean Gabin, Blanchette Brunoy, Nicole Courcel, Claude Romain, Louis Seigner, Jeanne Marken, Carette

Marie Galante

US 1934 90m bw
Fox

A French girl stranded in the Canal Zone becomes involved in international intrigue.
Slightly unusual spy romance.
w Reginald Berkeley novel Jacques Deval d Henry King
☆ Spencer Tracy, Ketti Gallian, Ned Sparks, Helen Morgan, Sig Rumann, Leslie Fenton, Stepin Fetchit

'Production and handling should carry it to moderate grosses.' – Variety

Marie Octobre

France 1958 102m bw
Orex/SF/Abbey/Doxa (Lucien Viard)
US title: Secret Meeting

At a reunion dinner of a wartime resistance group, a traitor is exposed and killed.
Stultifying one-set talkfest employing Hitchcock's long-discarded ten-minute take.
w Julien Duvivier, Jacques Robert novel Jacques Robert d Julien Duvivier ph Robert Le Fèbvre m Jean Yatove ad Georges Wakhevitch
☆ Danielle Darrieux, Serge Reggiani, Bernard Blier, Paul Meurisse, Noel Roquevert, Lino Ventura, Paul Guers, Paul Frankeur

Marie Walewska: see Conquest

La Mariée Est Trop Belle: see The Bride Is Much Too Beautiful

La Mariée Etait en Noir: see The Bride Wore Black

Mariés de L'An Deux: see The Scoundrel (1971)

'When destiny leads, love follows.'

Marilyn Hotchkiss Ballroom Dancing and Charm School

(3)

US 2006 104m
Anchor Bay/Shoreline/Unclaimed Freight (Randall Miller, Jody Savin, Morris Ruskin, Eileen Craft)

A widower's life is changed when he promises to visit a dancing school to track down the old sweetheart of a dying man.
Well-intentioned romance set around the dance floor, but it lacks flair visually, its tone is unsteady and its narrative simply falls flat. Too many under-written characters on screen fail to arouse any interest.
w Randall Miller, Jody Savin d Randall Miller ph Jonathan Sela m Mark Adler pd Dawn Snyder ed Randall Miller
☆ Robert Carlyle (Frank Keane), Marisa Tomei (Meredith Morrison), Mary Steenburgen (Marienne Hotchkiss), Sean Astin (Kip Kipling), Donnie Wahlberg (Randall Ipswitch), David Paymer (Rafael Horowitz), Camryn Mannheim (Lisa Gobar), Adam Arkin (Gabe DiFranco), John Goodman (Steve Mills), Danny de Vito (Booth)

'A soggy, endless wallow in nostalgia and the healing power of very bad dancing.' – Jeannette Catsoulis, New York Times
'Predictable and decidedly old-fashioned in its sensibility, the film is likely to win over audiences if not critics.' – James Greenberg, Hollywood Reporter

† Flashback scenes in the film are taken from director Miller's 1990 short, bearing the same title.

Marine Raiders

US 1944 90m bw
RKO (Robert Fellows)

The marines do battle in Guadalcanal.
Standard romantic flagwaver.
w Warren Duff d Harold Schuster ph Nick Musuraca m Roy Webb
☆ Pat O'Brien, Robert Ryan, Ruth Hussey, Frank McHugh, Barton MacLane

The Marines Fly High

US 1940 68m bw
RKO

Two leathernecks combat a mysterious South American villain.
Formula action fare, intended as a Flagg and Quirt adventure but made with a second team.
w Jerry Cady, A. J. Bolton d George Nicholls Jnr, Ben Stoloff
☆ Richard Dix, Chester Morris, Lucille Ball, John Eldredge, Steffi Duna

'Up to their necks in fights and loving!'

Marines Let's Go

US 1961 103m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Raoul Walsh)

Marines fighting in Korea are granted leave in Japan.
Brawling tragi-farce with predictable characters, a long way after What Price Glory.
w John Twist story Raoul Walsh d Raoul Walsh ph Lucien Ballard m Irving Gertz
☆ Tom Tryon, David Hedison, Tom Reese, Linda Hutchins, William Tyler

'A typically noisy, insensitive and maudlin tribute to the American Marines.' – MFB

Marius

****

France 1931 125m bw
Marcel Pagnol/Paramount

The son of a Marseilles waterfront café owner gives up his sweetheart to go to sea.
Celebrated character drama which succeeds through the realism and vitality of its people and their dialogue.
w Marcel Pagnol play Marcel Pagnol d Alexander Korda ph Ted Pahle m Francis Grammon ed Roger Mercanton
☆ Raimu (Cesar Olivier), Pierre Fresnay (Marius), Charpin (Honore Panisse), Orane Demazis (Fanny)

† Two sequels with the same players and from the same pen made this a famous trilogy: Fanny (qv) and César (qv).

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

†† Port of Seven Seas (MGM 1938) was a hammy and stagey Hollywood compression of the trilogy. See also Fanny (1960), a dull version of the stage musical, with the songs removed.

Marius et Jeanette ★

France 1997 102m colour
Porter Frith/La Sept/Agat (Gilles Sandoz, Robert Guédiguian)

A security guard finds it difficult to cope with his new relationship with a single mother who has two young children.
A soft-centred romance about a couple experiencing hard times; the craft of its director and the performances of the cast compensate for its old-fashioned tone.
w Jean-Louis Milesi, Robert Guédiguian d Robert Guédiguian ph Bernard Cavalié ed Bernard Sasia ☆ Ariane Ascaride, Gérard Meylan, Pascale Roberts, Jacques Boudet, Frédérique Bonnal, Jean-Pierre Darroussin
'A rough-cut gem.' – Empire

Marjorie Morningstar

US 1958 123m Warnercolor
(Warner) United States Pictures (Milton Sperling)

A New York Jewish girl has great ambitions for herself but ends up a suburban housewife.
Stodgy 'woman's picture' with all talents somewhat uneasy in their assignments, mainly because the Jewish quality is imperfectly conveyed.
w Everett Freeman novel Herman Wouk d Irving Rapper ph Harry Stradling m Max Steiner
☆ Natalie Wood, Gene Kelly, Claire Trevor, Everett Sloane, Ed Wynn, Martin Milner, Carolyn Jones, George Tobias, Jesse White, Martin Balsam
† The first film in which perfume was credited.
♫ song 'A Very Precious Love' (m Sammy Fain, ly Francis Webster)

'Lock me up! Please lock me up!'

The Mark ★

GB 1961 127m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Raymond Stross/Sidney Buchman

A sexual psychopath finds on emerging from prison that his past still haunts him despite the help of his psychiatrist.
Worthy but evasive social drama which outstays its welcome but provides good performances.
w Sidney Buchman, Stanley Mann d Guy Green ph Douglas Slocombe m Richard Rodney Bennett ☆ Stuart Whitman, Maria Schell, Rod Steiger, Brenda de Banzie, Maurice Denham, Donald Wolfit, Paul Rogers, Donald Houston
'There is seriousness and care, but neither boldness nor passion ... no hint of the truly sordid is allowed to seep through.' – MFB
♫ Stuart Whitman

The Mark of Cain

GB 1947 88m bw
GFD/Two Cities (W. P. Lipscomb)

The attractive housekeeper of a Manchester businessman is blamed when his brother accidentally poisons him.
Turgid period melodrama in which few opportunities are offered and none taken.
w Francis Crowdy, Christianna Brand, W. P. Lipscomb novel Airing in a Closed Carriage by Joseph Shearing d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Erwin Hillier m Bernard Stevens ad Alexander Vetchinsky ed Sidney Stone ☆ Sally Gray, Eric Portman, Patrick Holt, Dermot Walsh, Denis O'Dea, Edward Lexy, Miles Malleson

'Positively The Most Horrifying Film Ever Made.'
'Likely to upset your stomach.'

Mark of the Devil (dubbed)

West Germany 1969 97m colour
Atlas/Hi-Fi Stereo 70 (Adrian Hoven)

original title: Hexen geschändet und zu Tode gequält
aka: Austria 1700

A bloodthirsty and lecherous witch-finder's activities are usurped by an even more sadistic aristocrat, acting in the name of the Church.
A nasty, garish horror that lingers over scenes of torture and brutality. The movie claims to be based on cases 'taken from authentic documents', but the result is the same old exploitative rubbish as usual.
w Sergio Casstner (Michael Armstrong), Percy Parker (Adrian Hoven) d Michael Armstrong ph Ernst W. Kulinke m Michael Holm ad Max Mellin ed Siegrun Jager
☆ Herbert Lom, Olivera Vuco, Udo Kier, Reggie Nalder, Herbert Fux, Michael Maien, Ingeborg Schoener, Johannes Buzalski, Gaby Fuchs
† The film was refused a certificate and never shown in British cinemas. It was released on video in the 1980s and quickly withdrawn before being given a British video release in 1993 with an 18 certificate. When it first opened in America, audiences were supplied with sick-bags as they went in.

The Mark of the Hawk

US 1958 84m Technicolor Superscope
Universal-International

An educated African fights for the emergence of his people by peaceful means.
Well-intentioned but muddled topical drama.
w H. Kenn Carmichael d Michael Audley
☆ Sidney Poitier, Juano Hernandez, Eartha Kitt, John McIntire, Marne Maitland, Patrick Allen

Mark of the Phoenix

GB 1959 65m bw
Butchers (W. G. Chalmers)

An American jewel thief becomes accidentally involved in a plan to smuggle into Russia a cigarette case made of a secret alloy.
Dull second feature; it is typical that its brief moments of action should take place in the dark.
w Norman Hudis story Desmond Cory d Maclean Rogers ph Geoffrey Faithfull md Wilfred Burns ad John Stoll ed Harry Booth
☆ Julia Arnall, Sheldon Lawrence, Anton Diffring, Eric Pohlmann, George Margo, Michael Peake, Martin Miller, Bernard Rebel, Roger Delgado

Mark of the Renegade

US 1951 81m Technicolor
Jack Gross/Universal-International

In 1824, a Mexican agent in California pretends to be a rotter in order to unmask villains.
Shakily constructed action piece which quickly wears out its welcome.
w Louis Solomon and Robert Hardy Andrews story Johnston McCulley d Hugo Fregonese
☆ Ricardo Montalban, Gilbert Roland, Cyd Charisse, J. Carrol Naish, Andrea King, George Tobias, Antonio Moreno

Mark of the Vampire ★

US 1935 61m bw
MGM (E. J. Mannix)

A policeman tries to solve an old murder in an eerie house by hiring vaudeville performers to pose as vampires.
Semi-spoof horror which is flawed by lack of pace and a patchy script, but contains splendid visual moments. A remake of the Lon Chaney silent, London After Midnight.
w Guy Endore, Bernard Schubert d Tod Browning ph James Wong Howe
☆ Lionel Barrymore, Jean Hersholt, Elizabeth Allan, Bela Lugosi, Carol Borland, Lionel Atwill, Henry Wadsworth, Donald Meek, Jessie Ralph, Ivan Simpson, Holmes Herbert
'Deftly combines murder mystery, chiller and novelty elements for pretty good entertainment results.' – Variety.
'Even the adults in the audience may feel a bit skittery at the sight of two or three vampires, a bevy of bats, a drove of rodents, a herd of spiders and a cluster of cobwebs, not forgetting the swarm of fog.' – New York Times

The Mark of Zorro ★

US 1920 90m (24 fps) bw silent
Douglas Fairbanks

A Mexican Robin Hood carves his initial wherever he turns up to harass the Spanish invaders.
A little faded now, but this swashbuckler opened up a whole new career for its star; the 1940 version clearly has more style.
novel The Curse of Capistrano by Johnston McCulley d Fred Niblo ph William McGann m William Perry ☆ Douglas Fairbanks, Marguerite de la Motte, Noah Beery

The Mark of Zorro ★★★

US 1940 94m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

After being educated in Spain, Diego de Vega returns to California and finds the country enslaved and his father half-corrupted by tyrants. Disguising himself as a masked bandit, he leads the country to expel the usurpers.
Splendid adventure stuff for boys of all ages, an amalgam of The Scarlet Pimpernel and Robin Hood to which in this version the director adds an overwhelming pictorial sense which makes it stand out as the finest of all.
w John Taintor Foote, Garrett Fort, Bess Meredyth d Rouben Mamoulian ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day, Joseph C. Wright ed Robert Bischoff
☆ Tyrone Power (Zorro/Don Diego Vega), Basil Rathbone (Capt. Esteban Pasquale), J. Edward Bromberg (Don Luis Quintero), Linda Darnell (Lolita Quintero), Eugene Pallette (Fra Felipe), Montagu Love (Don Alejandro Vega), Janet Beecher (Senora Isabella Vega), Robert Lowery (Rodrigo)
† A Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by critic Richard Schickel.
♫ Alfred Newman

The Mark of Zorro (dubbed)

Italy/France/Spain 1963 90m
Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
CCM/Fidès/Benito Perojo (Harry Joe Brown)
original title: Il Segno di Zorro
US title: Duel at the Rio Grande

Returning from Spain to his Mexican home, an aristocrat discovers that his father has been killed and his lands confiscated by the governor on a false charge of treason.
Cut-rate swashbuckler with little of the necessary panache about it.
w Guido Malatesta, Casey Robinson d Nathan Juran ph Adalberto Albertini m Gregorio Garcia Segura ad Enrique Alarçon ed Alberto Gallitti, Antonio Boccianti
☆ Sean Flynn, Danielle de Metz, Armando Calvo, Mario Petri, Gaby André, Mino Doro, Folco Lulli, Alfredo Rizzo
† Nathan Juran directed the US dubbed version; the Italian version was directed by Mario Caiano

Marked for Death

US 1990 93m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/Steamroller (Michael Grais, Mark Victor, Steven Seagal)

A former agent takes action against a Jamaican drug dealer and his gang.
Familiar scenario offering the usual mix of grunts and orchestrated violence.
w Michael Grais, Mark Victor d Dwight H. Little ph Ric Waite m James Newton Howard pd Robb Wilson King ed O. Nicholas Brown
☆ Steven Seagal, Basil Wallace, Keith David, Tom Wright, Joanna Pacula, Elizabeth Gracen, Bette Ford, Danielle Harris

Marked Woman ★

US 1937 96m bw
Warner (Lou Edelman)

A night-club girl is persuaded to testify against an underworld boss.
A twist on the usual run of gangster melodramas, performed with the star's accustomed intensity and presented with the studio's usual panache.
w Robert Rossen, Abem Finkel d Lloyd Bacon ph George Barnes m Heinz Roemheld md Leo F. Forbstein ☆ Bette Davis, Humphrey Bogart, Jane Bryan, Eduardo Ciannelli, Isabel Jewell, Allen Jenkins, Mayo Methot, Lola Lane, Henry O'Neill
'Spotty draw depending on feminine reaction ... there is nothing that is light, and very little that is funny.' – Variety † Remade as Lady Gangster.
†† Humphrey Bogart's character was based on Thomas E. Dewey, and Eduardo Ciannelli's on Lucky Luciano.

Marlowe ★

US 1969 95m Metrocolor
MGM (Gabriel Katzka, Sidney Beckerman)

Private eye Philip Marlowe is hired by a nervous girl to find her missing brother.
The authentic Chandler atmosphere is caught by this busy thriller, but there seems to be a deliberate attempt to make a confusing plot even more obscure, so that the end result is more tiresome than amusing.
w Stirling Silliphant novel The Little Sister by Raymond Chandler d Paul Bogart ph William H. Daniels m Peter Matz ad George W. Davis, Addison Hehr ed Gene Ruggiero

☆ James Garner (Philip Marlowe), Rita Moreno (Dolores Gonzales), Sharon Farrell (Orfamay Guest), Bruce Lee (Winslow Wong), Gayle Hunnicutt (Mavis Wald), Carroll O'Connor (Lt Christy French), William Daniels (Mr Crowell), Jackie Coogan (Grant W. Hicks), H. M. Wynant (Sonny Steelgrave), Kenneth Tobey (Sgt Fred Beifus)

'One does wonder whether the simple human squalor of the Bogart-Chandler era can ever be recaptured by an increasingly meretricious Hollywood.' – MFB

Marnie ★

US 1964 130m Technicolor
Universal/Geoffrey Stanley Inc (Alfred Hitchcock)

A rich man marries a kleptomaniac and cures her, but a nightmare in her past makes her still sexually frigid.

Psychodrama with background crime and suspense, lethargically handled by the old master, who alone knows what he saw in it in the first place, as this heroine does not even have fire under her ice. The production is curiously artificial in many ways, from dummy horses to backcloths to back projection.

w Jay Presson Allen novel Winston Graham d Alfred Hitchcock ph Robert Burks m Bernard Herrmann pd Robert Boyle ed George Tomasini cos Edith Head

☆ Tippi Hedren (Marnie Edgar), Sean Connery (Mark Rutland), Martin Gabel (Sidney Strutt), Diane Baker (Lil Mainwaring), Louise Latham (Bernice Edgar), Bob Sweeney (Cousin Bob)

Maroc 7

GB 1967 91m Eastmancolor Panavision
Rank/Cyclone

The lady editor of a top fashion magazine doubles as a jewel thief and becomes involved in Moroccan intrigue.

Complex sub-Bond tale of cross and double cross; hardly worth following, really.

w David Osborn d Gerry O'Hara ph Ken Talbot m Kenneth Jones

☆ Gene Barry, Elsa Martinelli, Cyd Charisse, Leslie Phillips, Denholm Elliott, Alexandra Stewart, Eric Barker, Angela Douglas

Marooned ★

US 1969 134m Technicolor Panavision 70
Columbia/Frankovich-Sturges (Frank Capra Jnr)

Three astronauts are stranded in space, and a rescue mission gets under way.

Very heavy-going space suspenser with all possible technical accomplishment but little life of its own.

w Mayo Simon novel Martin Caidin d John Sturges ph Daniel Fapp pd Lyle R. Wheeler

☆ Gregory Peck, Richard Crenna, David Janssen, James Franciscus, Gene Hackman, Lee Grant, Nancy Kovack, Mariette Hartley, Scott Brady

'In something like the plight of Ironman One, Sturges' work seems on the point of slowing to a standstill as it drifts further into projects of ever-increasing, self-effacing size and anonymous technical dexterity.' – Richard Combs

'It has all the zip, zest and zing of a moon walk, and I suspect a computer fed a dictionary could come up with better dialogue.' – Judith Crist, 1973

'A space epic with a horse-and-buggy script.' – Pauline Kael

special visual effects (Robbie Robertson)

Daniel Fapp

'The Marquis de Sade at his most bestial.'

Marquis

Belgium/France 1989 83m colour
ICA/Y. C. Aligator/Constellation/Tchin Tchin

Imprisoned in the Bastille in the 1780s, Marquis, an aristocratic spaniel, who passes the time by writing pornography and talking to his chatty penis, Colin, is accused of raping another prisoner, a cow impregnated by the king.

Bizarre, erotic fantasy about the Marquis de Sade by an iconoclastic French cartoonist in which all the characters are played by actors wearing animal masks. Its point remains obscure, though there are a few good jokes, as well as some unpleasant moments, along the way.

w Roland Topor, Henri Xhonneux d Henri Xhonneux ph Etienne Fauduet m Reinhardt Wagner ad Roland Topor ed Chantal Hymans

☆ Philippe Bizot, Bien de Moor, Gabrielle Van Damme, Olivier Duchaveau, Bernard Cogneux, Pierre Decuypere

'An erotic fantasy horror from the tortured pen of The Marquis de Sade.'

Marquis de Sade: Justine

W. Germany/Italy 1968 104m Eastmancolor
Antony Balch/Corona/Aica (Harry Alan Towers)

aka: Justine and Julia

A young woman flees from many attempts on her virtue, while her sister rises to a position of power through prostitution.

A sort of Carry On De Sade, a broad tale of the dangers of innocence, in which the director is unable to get convincing performances from a cast that is superior to most that have suffered at his hands.

w Peter Welbeck (Harry Alan Towers) novel Marquis de Sade ph Manuel Merino m Bruno Nicolai ed Nicholas Wentworth

☆ Romina Power (Justine), Maria Rohm (Juliette), Akim Tamiroff (Du Harpin), Jack Palance (Brother Antonin), Sylva Koscina (Jasmin), Klaus Kinski (De Sade), Horst Frank (Marquis de Bressac), Mercedes McCambridge (Madame Dusbois)

Marquise

France/Italy/Switzerland/Spain 1997 117m colour
Downtown/Stephan/France 3/AMLF/3 Emme/Multivideo (Nicola Venditti)

In 17th-century France, a dancer beds the playwright Molière to become an actress, and then begins an affair with his rival, Jean Racine.

Lurid melodrama of theatrical life and tragedy that never comes to life.

w Jean-François Josselin, Vera Belmont, Marcel Beaulieu, Gérard Mordillat d Vera Belmont ph Jean-Marie Dreujou m Jordi Savall, Marin Marais, Jean-Baptiste Lully ad Gianni Quaranta ed Martine Giordano, Babak Karimi

☆ Sophie Marceau, Bernard Giraudeau, Lambert Wilson, Patrick Timsit, Thierry Lhermitte, Anémone, Remo Girone, Romina Mondello, Estelle Skornik

'A muddled, decidedly soapified, not unintelligent yarn.' – Empire

'My worst movie.' – Sophie Marceau

The Marquise of O ★

West Germany/France 1976 107m Eastmancolor
Janus/Films du Losange

At the end of the 18th century, during the Russian invasion of an Italian town, a noblewoman finds herself pregnant...

Careful novella with many ambiguities, more concerned with what might have happened than with what did. Interesting but exasperating.

wd Eric Rohmer story Heinrich von Kleist ph Nestor Almendros m Roger Delmotte

☆ Edith Clever, Bruno Ganz, Peter Luhr, Edda Seippel

'Some may find it slow, sentimental, naïve and old-fashioned; others leisurely, beautiful, controlled and illuminating. I found it both, often at the same time.' – Alan Brien, Sunday Times

'A bold, funny story becomes a formal, tame film, like a historical work recreated for educational TV.' – New Yorker, 1980

The Marriage Circle ★★

US 1924 78m (24 fps) bw silent
Warner

A bachelor on the loose becomes amorously involved in two marriages.

Feather-light comedy of manners which began a whole new American school, heavily influenced by various European masters.

w Paul Bern play Only a Dream by Lothar Schmidt d Ernst Lubitsch ph Charles Van Enger

☆ Monte Blue, Florence Vidor, Marie Prevost, Adolphe Menjou, Creighton Hale

'A vanished world of roses, kisses and embraces, of whispers and sighs, of a woman's shadowed arm encased in georgette beckoning across a moonlit garden ... and hand-kissing all over the place.' – Herman G. Weinberg

'At once perfect cinematography and perfect conventional drama.' – Iris Barry, The Spectator

'So slim a plot, so hackneyed if you will, is told with gaiety and a wit that lift it into the very first rank of screen comedy.' – National Board of Review

† Remade as One Hour with You, also by Lubitsch.

'It's the most hilarious proposition a wife ever had!'

The Marriage Go Round

US 1961 98m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Leslie Stevens)

A Swedish girl suggests to a married American professor that she borrow his body for mating purposes, believing they would produce the perfect child.

Silly, unfunny sex comedy.

w Leslie Stevens play Leslie Stevens d Walter Lang ph Leo Tover m Dominic Frontière

☆ James Mason, Susan Hayward, Julie Newmar, Robert Paige, June Clayworth

'As tedious as it is tasteless.' – Evening Standard

'It offers James Mason, an actor who couldn't crack a joke if it was a lichee nut, and Susan Hayward, a bargain basement Bette Davis whose lightest touch as a comedienne would stun a horse.' – Time

Marriage Is a Private Affair

US 1944 116m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A spoilt rich girl becomes a petulant wife.

Abysmally slow, uninvolving and poorly acted star fodder.

w David Hertz, Lenore Coffee novel Judith Kelly d Robert Z. Leonard ph Ray June m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Lana Turner, James Craig, John Hodiak, Frances Gifford, Keenan Wynn, Natalie Schafer, Hugh Marlowe, Paul Cavanagh

The Marriage of a Young Stockbroker ★★

US 1971 95m DeLuxe
TCF/Lawrence Turman

A stockbroker who finds his life and his marriage dull tries voyeurism and extramarital sex.

Sardonic adult comedy of the battle between the sexes, pretty lively from start to finish.

w Lorenzo Semple Jnr novel Charles Webb d Lawrence Turman ph Laszlo Kovacs m Fred Karlin

☆ Richard Benjamin, Joanna Shimkus, Elizabeth Ashley, Adam West, Patricia Barry

The Marriage of Maria Braun ★★★★

West Germany 1978 119m Fujicolour
Albatros/Trio/WDR/FdA (Michael Fengler)

original title: Die Ehe der Maria Braun

Vicissitudes of a post-war bride who is eventually blown up in a gas explosion.

A mixture of solemnity and irony which keeps its basic points well concealed but, despite a sometimes flagging pace, more or less consistently entertains the eye.

w Peter Marthesheimer, Pea Frohlich d Rainer Werner Fassbinder ph Michael Ballhaus m Peer Raben ad Norbert Scherer, Claud Kottmann, Georg Borgel, Helga Ballhaus ed Juliane Lorenz, Franz Walsch

☆ Hanna Schygulla (Maria Braun), Klaus Löwitsch (Hermann Braun), Ivan Desny (Oswald), Gottfried John (Willi)

Marriage on the Rocks

US 1965 109m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/A-C/Sinatra (William H. Daniels)

An ad man and his wife decide to go to Mexico for a divorce but once there change their minds; she ends up accidentally married to his best friend.

All this talent retreats fearfully from a witless, tasteless script and slow handling. A dismal comedy.

w Cy Howard d Jack Donohue ph William H. Daniels m Nelson Riddle

☆ Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Deborah Kerr, Cesar Romero, Hermione Baddeley, Tony Bill, Nancy Sinatra, John McGiver

'A long, coarse, and nearly always unfunny comedy, hammered together for no apparent reason except to make money.' – New Yorker

The Marriage Playground

US 1929 70m bw
Paramount

Children of divorced rich parents wander round Europe in a group.

Slightly unusual drama of its day; sound technique very thin.

w J. Walter Ruben, Doris Anderson novel The Children by Edith Wharton d Lothar Mendes ph Victor Milner

☆ Fredric March, Kay Francis, Mary Brian, Lilyan Tashman, Huntley Gordon, Anita Louise

Married Before Breakfast

US 1937 70m bw
MGM

An impecunious inventor has a razorless shaving cream.

Scatty comedy which seldom amuses.
w George Oppenheimer, Everett Freeman, Harry Ruskin d Edwin L. Marin ☆ Robert Young, Florence Rice, June Clayworth, Barnett Parker, Warren Hymer
'It has practically nothing in its favour.' – Variety

Married but Single: see This Thing Called Love

Married to It
US 1993 112m DeLuxe
Orion (Thomas Baer)
Three ill-assorted couples, who meet through a school function, become friends while suffering marital problems.
A somewhat lifeless domestic comedy that never escapes the restraints of its over-schematic screenplay; it fails to animate its stock characters.
w Janet Kovalcik d Arthur Hiller ph Victor Kemper m Henry Mancini pd Robert Gundlach ed Robert C. Jones
☆ Beau Bridges, Stockard Channing, Robert Sean Leonard, Mary Stuart Masterson, Cybill Shepherd, Ron Silver
† The film was made in 1991 and not released for two years.

Married to the Mob ★★
US 1988 103m DuArt
Rank/Orion/Mysterious Arts (Kenneth Utt, Edward Saxon)
The wife of a murdered gangster tries to live an honest life after her husband's death.
Effervescent comedy-thriller that bubbles merrily along.
w Barry Strugatz, Mark R. Burns d Jonathan Demme ph Tak Fujimoto m David Byrne pd Kristi Zea ed Craig McKay ☆ Michelle Pfeiffer, Matthew Modine, Dean Stockwell, Mercedes Ruehl, Alec Baldwin, Trey Wilson, Joan Cusack
'A smart, genial entertainment that gives us plenty to look at and listen to.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
Dean Stockwell

A Married Woman ★
France 1964 98m bw
Anouchka/Orsay (Philippe Dusart)
original title: Une Femme Mariée
A pilot's wife has an actor lover.
Fragments of character observation, in various cinematic techniques, build up into an intense personal study if not a plot.
wd Jean-Luc Godard ph Raoul Coutard m Claude Nougaro ☆ Macha Meril, Bernard Noel, Roger Leenhardt
'A minefield of paradoxes ... the essence of cinema 1965.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Marry Me
GB 1949 97m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Betty Box)
Four stories of a marriage bureau.
A styleless portmanteau of anecdotes put over by a clear second team.
w Lewis Gilbert, Denis Waldock d Terence Fisher ph Ray Elton m Clifton Parker ☆ Derek Bond, Susan Shaw, Patrick Holt, Carol Marsh, David Tomlinson, Zena Marshall, Guy Middleton, Nora Swinburne, Jean Cadell, Mary Jerrold

Marry Me Again
US 1953 73m bw
RKO (Alex Gottlieb)
A man returns from war to find that his fiancée has inherited a million dollars.
Zany comedy with tilts at psychiatry: not too bad.
wd Frank Tashlin ph Robert de Grasse m Raoul Kraushaar
☆ Robert Cummings, Marie Wilson, Ray Walker, Mary Costa, Jess Barker

Marry the Girl
US 1937 66m bw
Warner
A crazy family owns a newspaper syndicate.
Fashionable comedy which goes far too far.
w Sig Herzig, Pat C. Flick, Tom Reed novel Edward Hope d William McGann ☆ Mary Boland, Frank McHugh, Hugh Herbert, Mischa Auer, Carol Hughes, Allen Jenkins, Alan Mowbray, Hugh O'Connell
'Pic will probably get by on duals in the nabes and should be a panic with juve audiences. But it will probably lay an egg in first runs.' – Variety

The Marrying Kind ★
US 1952 93m bw
Columbia (Bert Granet)
A couple seeking divorce tell their troubles to a judge, and change their minds.
Smart, New Yorkish, tragi-comic star vehicle which works pretty well.
w Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin d George Cukor ph Joseph Walker m Hugo Friedhofer ☆ Judy Holliday, Aldo Ray, Madge Kennedy, Mickey Shaughnessy

The Marrying Man
US 1991 116m Technicolor
Warner/Hollywood Pictures/Silver Screen Partners IV/Odyssey (David Permut)
GB title: Too Hot To Handle
A playboy, forced to marry a gangster's girlfriend, finds himself repeating the experience several times.
A misfiring romantic comedy, both involved and uninvolving.
w Neil Simon d Jerry Rees ph Donald E. Thorin m David Newman pd William F. Matthews ed Michael Jablow
☆ Kim Basinger, Alec Baldwin, Elisabeth Shue, Armand Assante, Paul Reiser, Fisher Stevens, Peter Dobson, Steve Hytner
'A still-born romantic comedy of staggering ineptitude. Industry bad-mouthing of the stars during production was just a preview of the terrible picture.' – Variety
'A comedy that bounces skittishly down a lane that memory has not travelled in a while. Maybe it's silly. But it does awaken a nostalgic fondness for an era when celebrity dreaming was goofier, giddier and less consequential than it is now.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Nice Planet. We'll Take It!'

Mars Attacks! ★ ⑤
US 1996 103m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Tim Burton, Larry Franco)
Martians conquer the world, until they are defeated by being subjected to the singing of Slim Whitman.
The film begins brilliantly, with a stampede of flaming cows, but is then content to recycle, at great expense, the style of 50s sci-fi films while its cast parody their more serious roles; despite its occasional antic charm, it is not as enjoyable as it ought to be.
w Jonathan Gems d Tim Burton ph Peter Suschitzky m Danny Elfman pd Wynn Thomas ed Chris Lebenzon
☆ Jack Nicholson, Glenn Close, Annette Bening, Michael J. Fox, Pierce Brosnan, Sarah Jessica Parker, Martin Short, Lisa Marie, Rod Steiger, Danny De Vito, Lukas Haas, Natalie Portman, Jim Brown, Pam Grier, Joe Don Baker and also Tom Jones, Jerzy Skolimowsky, Barbet Schroeder
'A cult sci-fi comedy miscast as an elaborate all-star studio extravaganza. Continually inventive, parodistic sendup of alien invasion movies that owes its style to genre classics of the '50s, the technically brilliant picture possesses a quirky, somewhat facetious insider tone.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

La Marseillaise ★
France 1938 145m bw
Films La Marseillaise (André Zwoboda)
The story of the French revolution of 1789.
A rather disconnected epic which, despite a few splendid scenes, never moved its audiences to enthusiasm.
wd Jean Renoir ph Jean Bourgoin and others md Joseph Kosma ☆ Pierre Renoir, Lise Delemare, Louis Jouvet, Léon Larive, Georges Spanelly, Elisa Ruis, William Aguet
'France's super-super film production is a near flopperoo.' – Variety

The Marseille Contract
GB/France 1974 89m Eastmancolor
Warner/AIP/Kettledrum/PECF (Judd Bernard)
US title: The Destructors
An American narcotics agent in Paris hires an assassin to dispose of a drug smuggler.
Routine action melodrama with a jokey atmosphere not sustained by a downbeat script.
w Judd Bernard d Robert Parrish ph Douglas Slocombe m Roy Budd
☆ Michael Caine, Anthony Quinn, James Mason, Alexandra Stewart, Marcel Bozzuffi, Maurice Ronet

Marseilles trilogy: see Marius; Fanny; César

Marshmallow Moon: see Aaron Slick from Punkin Crick

Martha & Ethel ★★
US 1993 78m colour/bw
Columbia TriStar/Canobie (Jyll Johnstone)
A documentary on the lives of two nannies and the families they influence: Martha, 87, German-born and a disciplinarian, who worked for the same family for 30 years, bringing up five children; and Ethel, 88, from southern Carolina and easy-going, who was nanny to six children and still lives with her employer.
A fascinating glimpse into the lives of two ordinary but exceptional working women, including interviews with them and the children they raised through changing times.
d Jyll Johnstone ph Joseph Friedman ed Toby Shimin
'As light as a breeze, and there's a lot of bright, natural humour emanating from her subjects, but she raises dark questions.' – Independent

'Two's Company. Three's A Crowd. Four's A Catastrophe.'

Martha Meet Frank, Daniel & Laurence
GB 1998 90m colour
Film Four/Channel 4/Banshee (Grainne Marmion)
Three friends in London fall in love with the same young American woman.
A romantic comedy heavy with charm, but lacking in substance.
w Peter Morgan d Nick Hamm ph David Johnson m Edward Shearmur pd Max Gottlieb ed Michael Bradsell
☆ Monica Potter, Rufus Sewell, Tom Hollander, Joseph Fiennes, Ray Winstone
'Minuscule romantic comedy ... looks skimpy and feels plodding.' – Alexander Walker

Martha, Ruth & Edie
Canada 1988 90m Film House colour
Sunrise (Deepa Mehta Saltzman)
Three women tell each other of the most significant event in their lives.
Portmanteau movie of female bonding, which is no more rewarding than the more usual tales of the male variety.
w Anna Sandor, Janet Maclean, Barbara O'Kelly story How I Met My Husband by Alice Munro, The California Aunts by Cynthia Flood, Guilt by Betty Lambert d Norma Bailey, Daniele J. Suissa, Deepa Mehta Saltzman ph Doug Koch m Alexina Louie, Alex Pauk ad Tom Doherty ed Lara Mazur
☆ Jennifer Dale, Margaret Langrick, Andrea Martin, Tom Butler, Jeff Christensen, Page Fletcher, Lois Maxwell

Martin ★
US 1978 95m colour
Laurel (Richard Rubinstein)
A disturbed youth may be a vampire or just a boy with sexual hangups and an appetite for blood.
Gory thriller with a sense of irony, making fun of the superstitions surrounding vampires yet utilizing them for its shocking climax.
wd George A. Romero ph Michael Gornick m Donald Rubinstein
☆ John Amplas, Lincoln Maazel, Christine Forrest, Elyane Nadeau, Tom Savini, Sarah Venable, Fran Middleton, Al Lavistsky

Martin Luther ★
US/Germany 1953 114m bw
Louis de Rochemont/Lutheran Church Productions (Lothar Wolff)
The career and doubts of Martin Luther.
Frequently vivid, occasionally boring, small-scale account of the first Protestant.
w Allan Sloane, Lothar Wolff, others d Irving Pichel ph Joseph C. Brun m Mark Lothar ad Fritz Maurischat, Paul Markwitz ☆ Niall MacGinnis, John Ruddock, Pierre Lefèvre, Guy Verney, David Horne, Philip Leaver, Irving Pichel, Alexander Gauge
Joseph C. Brun; art direction

Martin Roumagnac
France 1946 99m bw
Alcina (Marc Le Pelletier)
The trial, with flashbacks, of a small-town businessman who has murdered his mistress.
Wholly unabsorbing and ordinary story of a crime passionnel, totally wasting its stars.
wd Georges Lacombe ph Roger Hubert m Marcel Mirouze
☆ Jean Gabin, Marlene Dietrich, Margo Lion, Marcel Hérrand

'Contaminating A Cinema Near You.'

The Martins
GB 2001 87m Technicolor Panavision
Icon/Tiger Aspect/Icon (Greg Brenman, Dixie Linder, Bruce Davey)
Anxious to give his family a better life, an unemployed man takes them on a holiday he has stolen.
A star vehicle for a comedian who has yet to prove himself a star on screen, and this witless hotchpotch won't help.
wd Tony Grounds ph David Johnson

m Richard Hartley pd Michael Carlin ed Robin Sales
☆ Lee Evans (Robert Martin), Kathy Burke (Angie), Linda Bassett (Anthea), Eric Byrne (Little Bob), Terri Dumont (Katie), Frank Finlay (Mr Heath), Lennie James (PC Alex), Jack Shepherd (DI Branch)
'A confused mess that has nothing to say and yet still says it loudly.' – Andrew Anthony, Observer

Martin's Day
Canada 1985 98m Medallion
World Film Services/MGM-UA (Richard F. Dalton, Roy Krost)
An escaped convict and the young boy he kidnaps become friends.
Predictable melodrama which gets nowhere.
w Allan Scott, Chris Bryant d Alan Gibson ph Frank Watts m Wilfred Josephs pd Trevor Williams ed David de Wilde
☆ Richard Harris, Lindsay Wagner, James Coburn, Justin Henry, Karen Black, John Ireland

'It's the love story of an unsung hero!'

Marty ★★★★
US 1955 91m bw
UA/Hecht-Hill-Lancaster (Harold Hecht)
A 34-year-old Bronx butcher fears he will never get a girl because he is unattractive, but at a Saturday night dance he meets a girl with similar fears. Unfortunately she is not Italian...
The first of the filmed teleplays which in the mid-fifties seemed like a breath of spring to Hollywood (they were cheap) and also brought in a new wave of talent. This is one of the best, its new naturalistic dialogue falling happily on the ear; but it has been so frequently imitated since that its revolutionary appearance is hard to imagine.
w Paddy Chayefsky play Paddy Chayefsky d Delbert Mann ph Joseph LaShelle m Roy Webb ad Edward S. Howarth, Walter Simonds ed Alan Crosland Jr.
☆ Ernest Borgnine (Marty), Betsy Blair (Clara), Esther Minciotti (Mrs. Pilletti), Joe Mantell (Angie), Karen Steele (Virginia), Jerry Paris (Thomas)
'Something rare in the American cinema today: a subtle, ironic and compassionate study of ordinary human relationships.' – Gavin Lambert
'A warm and winning film, full of the sort of candid comment on plain, drab people that seldom reaches the screen.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
† The original 1953 television version was also directed by Delbert Mann and starred Rod Steiger.
♟ picture; Paddy Chayefsky; Delbert Mann; Ernest Borgnine
♙ Joseph LaShelle; Betsy Blair; Joe Mantell; art direction
♈ Ernest Borgnine; Betsy Blair

Marusa no onna: see A Taxing Woman

'A story about the years that keep us apart
And the moments that bring us together.'

Marvin's Room ★
US 1996 98m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Miramax (Scott Rudin, Jane Rosenthal, Robert de Niro)
A woman who cares for her dying father and eccentric aunt discovers that she is terminally ill, and turns for help to her estranged sister, who has family troubles of her own.
A movie that betrays its theatrical origins, and which gives its cast the opportunity for acting with the stops full out, of which they take full advantage.
w Scott McPherson play Scott McPherson d Jerry Zaks ph Piotr Sobocinski m Rachel Portman pd David Gropman ed Jim Clark
☆ Meryl Streep, Leonardo DiCaprio, Diane Keaton, Robert de Niro, Hume Cronyn, Gwen Verdon, Hal Scardino, Dan Hedaya
'A film of many small but glorious moments.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
'This seems a particularly nasty view of old age by a man who knew he'd never be around to experience it.' – Mark Steyn, Spectator
† Scott McPherson died of AIDS in 1992, aged 33.
♙ Diane Keaton

The Marx Brothers at the Circus: see At the Circus

Mary Burns Fugitive ★
US 1935 84m bw
Paramount (Walter Wanger)
The innocent girlfriend of a gangster is convicted through circumstantial evidence, escapes from prison and finds true love.
Competent meshing of well-tried thirties elements, a good typical wish-fulfilment melodrama of its time.
w Gene Towne, Graham Baker, Louis Stevens d William K. Howard ph Leon Shamroy ☆ Sylvia Sidney, Melvyn Douglas, Alan Baxter, Pert Kelton, Wallace Ford, Brian Donlevy, Esther Dale
'As a piece of synthetic studio slickness it has enough on the ball to qualify.' – Variety

Mary Forever: see Mery per sempre

Mary Jane's Pa
US 1935 70m bw
Warner
GB title: Wanderlust
A husband goes wandering for ten years. On his return, his wife has magnified what he left into a newspaper empire.
Adequate stagey comedy, well acted.
w Tom Reed, Peter Milne play Edith Ellis Furness novel Norman Way d William Keighley ph Ernest Haller ad Esdras Hartley ed Clarence Kolster ☆ Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Tom Brown, Robert McWade, Minor Watson, Nan Grey
'Okay for secondary bills.' – Variety

Mary Magdalene: see The Sword and the Cross

Mary Mary
US 1963 126m Technicolor
Warner (Mervyn Le Roy)
A publisher falls in love again with his ex-wife but finds she is being pursued by a film star.
Feeble film version of a lighter-than-air Broadway success, with the actors paralysed behind the footlights and the camera asleep in the stalls.
w Richard L. Breen play Jean Kerr d Mervyn Le Roy ph Harry Stradling m Frank Perkins
☆ Debbie Reynolds, Barry Nelson, Michael Rennie, Diane McBain

Mary of Scotland ★
US 1936 123m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)
Mary Stuart refuses to give up her claim to the English throne, and is eventually executed.
Sombre historical charade with splendid sets and atmosphere but suffering from script and performances that don't quite make it despite effort all round.
w Dudley Nichols play Maxwell Anderson d John Ford ph Joseph H. August m Nathaniel Shilkret ad Van Nest Polglase, Carroll Clark
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Fredric March, Donald Crisp, Florence Eldridge, Douglas Walton, John Carradine, Robert Barrat, Monte Blue, Moroni Olsen, Frieda Inescort, Alan Mowbray
'An unpromising and stagey play is fleshed out into a rich and confident exercise in filmcraft.' – John Baxter, 1968
'Events are walked through as though they were rooms in a museum, and closing time at three.' – Otis Ferguson

Mary Poppins ★★★
US 1964 139m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Walsh)
In Edwardian London a magical nanny teaches two slightly naughty children to make life enjoyable for themselves and others.
Sporadically a very pleasant and effective entertainment for children of all ages, with plenty of brightness and charm (including magic tricks, the mixing of live with cartoon adventures, and just plain fun. It suffers, however, from a wandering narrative in the second half (when Miss Poppins scarcely appears) and from Mr Van Dyke's really lamentable attempt at Cockney.
w Bill Walsh, Don da Gradi novel P. L. Travers d Robert Stevenson ph Edward Colman m/ly Richard M. and Robert B. Sherman md Irwin Kostal pd Tony Walton ad Carroll Clark, William H. Tuntke ed Cotton Warburton sp Eustace Lycett, Peter Ellenshaw, Robert A. Mattey
☆ Julie Andrews (Mary Poppins), David Tomlinson (Mr. Banks), Glynis Johns (Mrs. Banks), Dick Van Dyke (Bert/Mr. Dawes, Sr.), Reginald Owen (Adm. Boom), Ed Wynn (Uncle Albert), Matthew Garber (Michael Banks), Karen Dotrice (Jane Banks), Hermione Baddeley (Ellen), Elsa Lanchester (Katie Nanna), Arthur Treacher (Constable Jones), Jane Darwell (The Bird Woman)
'A charming, imaginative and technically superb movie musical, sparkling with originality, melody and magical performances.' – Judith Crist
♫ 'Chim Chim Cher-ee'; 'Feed the Birds'; 'Fidelity Fiduciary Bank'; 'I Love to Laugh'; 'Jolly Holiday'; 'Let's Go Fly a Kite'; 'The Life I Lead'; 'The Perfect Nanny'; 'Sister Suffragette'; 'A Spoonful of Sugar'; 'Stay Awake'; 'Step in Time'; 'Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious'
♟ Richard M. and Robert B. Sherman; Julie Andrews; song 'Chim Chim Cheree'; special visual effects; editing ♙ best picture; script; Robert Stevenson; Edward Colman; Irwin Kostal; art direction
♈ Julie Andrews

'They used every passion in their incredible duel, and every man in their savage games of intrigue!'

Mary Queen of Scots
GB 1971 128m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Hal B. Wallis
The story of Mary Stuart's opposition to Elizabeth I, her imprisonment and execution.
Schoolbook history in which none of the characters comes to life; dramatic movement is almost entirely lacking despite the liberties taken with fact.
w John Hale d Charles Jarrott ph Christopher Challis m John Barry pd Terry Marsh ed Richard Marden
☆ Vanessa Redgrave (Mary, Queen of Scots), Glenda Jackson (Elizabeth I), Trevor Howard (William Cecil), Patrick McGoohan (James Stuart), Nigel Davenport (James Hepburn), Timothy Dalton (Lord Henry Darnley), Ian Holm (David Riccio), Daniel Massey (Robert Dudley), Tom Fleming (Ballard)
'Without a better script, Hercules couldn't lift this story off the ground.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
♙ John Barry; Vanessa Redgrave

'Evil is irresistible.'

Mary Reilly
US 1996 109m Technicolor
TriStar (Ned Tanen, Nancy Graham Tanen, Norma Heyman)
The new chambermaid in the household of Dr Jekyll is attracted by the doctor's lecherous assistant, Mr Hyde.
A handsome but dull attempt to turn Stevenson's tale of a split personality into a Jane Eyre*-like romantic drama, but neither of the two leads is convincing and there is little sign of any attraction between them.*
w Christopher Hampton novel Valerie Martin d Stephen Frears ph Philippe Rousselot m George Fenton pd Stuart Craig ed Lesley Walker
☆ Julia Roberts, John Malkovich, George Cole, Michael Gambon, Glenn Close, Kathy Staff, Michael Sheen, Ciaran Hinds
'Has plenty of production polish but little of the dramatic force and erotic spark needed.' – Variety
'I should never have done Mary Reilly. I knew that before I started. It was full of great design and photography, but it should have been a little BBC film.' – Stephen Frears
† The film, which cost $47m to make, flopped at the box-office.

Mary Shelley's Frankenstein ★
US 1994 123m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/American Zoetrope/Japan Satellite/IndieProd (Francis Ford Coppola, James V. Hart, John Veitch)
A scientist tells a sea captain how he gave life to a creature, which, when he refused to create a mate for it, took revenge on his family.
A bold and brash attempt to be true to the original novel, but which, like its monster, gets lost in the Arctic wastes and then confuses the narrative by focusing the attention on its over-production; it fails to dislodge the original film from folk memory.
w Steph Lady, Frank Darabont novel Mary Shelley d Kenneth Branagh ph Roger Pratt m Patrick Doyle pd Tim Harvey ed Andrew Marcus
☆ Robert DeNiro, Kenneth Branagh, Tom Hulce, Helena Bonham Carter, Aidan Quinn, Ian Holm, Richard Briers, John Cleese, Robert Hardy, Cherie Lunghi, Celia Imrie
'A highly paced costume drama that propels us along the trajectory of Frankenstein's ambition with a speed reminiscent of Indiana Jones.' – Oscar Moore, Screen International
'Much of Frankenstein is spectacular and hyperbolic, but in a good way. Kenneth

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♙ Academy Award nomination · ♈ BAFTA

Branagh has made a very fleshy and visceral movie, though not a horror movie in the normal sense.' – David Denby, New York

'A gargoyle short of the Gothic horror that made the original unforgettable.' – Ingrid Pitt

'More a case of Mary Shelley's Frankie Goes to Hollywood.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

make-up

Mary Stevens M.D.

US 1933 71m bw
Warner

A lady doctor decides to have a baby before getting married.

Saucy drama which engrossed audiences in its day.

w Rian James novel Virginia Kellogg d Lloyd Bacon

☆ Kay Francis, Lyle Talbot, Glenda Farrell, Thelma Todd, Una O'Connor, Hobart Cavanaugh, Harold Huber

'Exceptionally good adult entertainment, with a pronounced feminine appeal.' – Variety

Maryland

US 1940 92m Technicolor
TCF (Gene Markey)

After her husband is killed in a fox-hunting accident, his wife tries to keep their son away from horses.

Over-lavish treatment of a trite story; money has been spent on everything except the script.

w Ethel Hill, Jack Andrews d Henry King md Alfred Newman

☆ Walter Brennan, Fay Bainter, Brenda Joyce, John Payne, Charles Ruggles, Hattie McDaniel, Marjorie Weaver, Sidney Blackmer, Ben Carter

Masala ★

Canada 1991 106m colour
Metro/Divani/Telefilm Canada/Ontario Film Development/Ontario Arts Council (Srinivas Krishna, Camelia Freiberg)

The Hindu god Krishna grants a miracle to a Sikh family living in Toronto.

An irreverent small-scale movie that provides pleasure.

wd Srinivas Krishna ph Paul Sarossy m The West India Company, Leslie Winston pd Tamara Deverell ed Michael Munn

☆ Srinivas Krishna, Sakina Jaffrey, Zohra Segal, Saeed Jaffrey, Heri Johal, Madhuri Bhatia, Ronica Sajnani, Les Porter

'A highly entertaining work.' – Sight and Sound

La Maschera

Italy 1988 90m Eastmancolor
RAIDVE/Istituto Luce/Best International (Lilia Smecchia, Ettore Rosboch)
aka: The Mask

In the 18th century a young actress rejects the advances of a dissolute aristocrat and then falls in love with a mysterious masked stranger.

Lugubrious romance, concentrating on glossy surfaces.

w Adriano Apra, Fiorella Infascelli, Enzo Ungari, Ennio de Concini d Fiorella Infascelli ph Acacio de Almeida m Luis Bacalov ad Antonello Geleng ed Francisco Malvestito

☆ Helena Bonham Carter, Michael Maloney, Feodor Chaliapin Jnr, Roberto Herlitzka, Michele de Marchi, Alberto Cracco

La Maschera del Demonio: see Mask of Satan

The Mascot ★★

France 1916 20m bw
H. Rose/Gelma

The adventures of a toy dog, who goes to hell and back.

A mix of live action and stop-motion animation, amusing and macabre, by an early master of the craft.

wd Ladislaw Starewicz

† The film has been released on video with the feature-length The Tale of the Fox (qv) and four other shorts under the title Ladislaw Starewicz: Selected Films.

Masculin Féminin ★★

France/Sweden 1966 110m bw
Gala/Anouchka/Argos/Svensk/Sandrews (Philippe Dussart)

A young, romantic revolutionary imagines that he is in love with a would-be singer.

An exploration of pop culture and politics, in a sequence of episodes intercut with arbitrary happenings, and as much concerned with form as content, moving cinema away from straightforward narrative to something more abstract and less interesting.

wd Jean-Luc Godard story La Femme de Paul by Guy de Maupassant ph Willy Kurant m Francis Lai ed Agnès Guillemot

☆ Jean-Pierre Léaud, Chantal Goya, Catherine-Isabelle Duport, Marlène Jobert, Michel Debord, Birger-Malmsten, Eva Britt Strandberg, Brigitte Bardot, Françoise Hardy

'Godard's exercise in self-indulgence.' – John Simon

'That rare movie achievement: a work of grace and beauty in a contemporary setting.' – Pauline Kael

'By this defiantly unrealistic system of narrative, Godard manages to present us with all the problems facing his hero and facing boys of his generation.' – Richard Roud

'Mainly it seems to be a movie happening, in which Mr Godard can play whimsical and sometimes comical stunts, not leading to any clear conclusion as to the stability of youth. He himself, as a motion-picture maker, seems to have little more concentration-span than his saucy, good-looking youngsters, who evidently have none at all.' – Bosley Crowther

† For its American release, it was cut to 103m.

'M*A*S*H Gives A D*A*M*N.'

M*A*S*H ★★★★

US 1970 116m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Aspen (Ingo Preminger, Leon Ericksen)

Surgeons at a mobile hospital in Korea spend what spare time they have chasing women and bucking authority.

Savage comedy of man's rebellion in the face of death, alternating sex farce with gory operation scenes; hailed as the great anti-everything film, and certainly very funny for those who can take it. It led to a television series which for once did not disgrace its original.

w Ring Lardner Jnr novel Richard Hooker d Robert Altman ph Harold E. Stine m Johnny Mandel md Herbert Spencer ad Arthur Lonergan, Jack Martin Smith ed Danford B. Greene

☆ Donald Sutherland (Hawkeye Pierce), Elliott Gould (Trapper John McIntyre), Tom Skerritt (Duke Forrest), Sally Kellerman (Major Hot Lips Houlihan), Robert Duvall (Major Frank Burns), Jo Ann Pflug (Lt Hot Dish), René Auberjonois (Dago Red), Gary Burghoff (Radar O'Reilly), Roger Bowen (Col Henry Blake)

'Bloody funny. A hyper-acute wiretap on mankind's death wish.' – Joseph Morgenstern

'The laughter is blood-soaked and the comedy cloaks a bitter and terrible truth.' – Judith Crist

'A foul-mouthed, raucous, anti-establishment comedy, combining gallows humour, sexual slapstick and outrageous satire.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies

† Regions 1 and 2 two disc DVD release includes audio commentary by Robert Altman.

Ring Lardner Jnr

best picture; Robert Altman; Sally Kellerman; Danford B. Greene

Mask

US 1985 120m Technicolor
Universal/Martin Starger

A boy of 16 has a rare and disfiguring bone disease, but his mother fights for his rights.

More of a character study than a movie, this also has the problem of being emotionally hard to take; but one ends up respecting it.

w Anna Hamilton Phelan, from her true story of Rocky Dennis d Peter Bogdanovich ph Laszlo Kovacs m Dennis Ricotta ed Barbara Ford

☆ Cher, Sam Elliott, Eric Stoltz, Estelle Getty

'Anyone looking for a good uplifting cry should be well satisfied.' – Variety

The Mask: see La Maschera (1988)

'From Zero To Hero.'

The Mask ★★

US 1994 101m Foto-Kem
Entertainment/New Line/Dark Horse (Bob Engelman)

A wimpish bank clerk in a constant state of humiliation finds a mask that transforms him into a green-faced comic-book hero capable of humiliating everyone.

Antic, amusing comedy that finds a perfect setting for the exaggerated style of Jim Carrey: cartoon-style humour, borrowing heavily from Chuck Jones and Tex Avery. The jokes are often familiar, but never seen before in a real-life setting thanks to the spectacular digital special effects.

w Mike Werb story Michael Fallon, Mark Verheiden based on characters appearing in Dark Horse Comics d Chuck Russell ph John R. Leonetti m Randy Edelman pd Craig Stearns ed Arthur Coburn sp make-up: Greg Cannom; visual effects: Ken Ralston, Scott Squires, Steve 'Spaz' Williams, Industrial Light and Magic

☆ Jim Carrey, Peter Riegert, Cameron Diaz, Peter Greene, Amy Yasbeck, Richard Jeni, Orestes Matacena, Tim Bagley, Nancy Fish, Johnny Williams

'The story is predictable and has little imagination outside its technical prowess – some extraordinary special effects.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'As dull-witted and straitjacketed by cliché as it is visually hellzapoppin, the film may be a watershed moment in the cultural current that looks to loot the baby-boomer memory banks for recyclable cinematic ideas.' – Michael Atkinson, Sight and Sound

visual effects

The Mask of Dimitrios ★★

US 1944 99m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A timid Dutch novelist is drawn into a Middle-Eastern intrigue with money at the centre of it.

Generally successful international intriguer, moodily shot in evocative sets, and remarkable for its time in that the story is not distorted to fit romantic stars: character actors bear the entire burden.

w Frank Gruber novel Eric Ambler d Jean Negulesco ph Arthur Edeson m Adolph Deutsch

☆ Peter Lorre, Sydney Greenstreet, Zachary Scott, Faye Emerson, Victor Francen, Steven Geray, Florence Bates, Eduardo Ciannelli, Kurt Katch, John Abbott, Monte Blue

'The picture has more mood than excitement.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Mask of Fu Manchu ★★

US 1932 70m bw
MGM

Nayland Smith and his party are caught and threatened with torture by the yellow terror.

Highly satisfactory episode in the nefarious adventures of the master criminal, fast moving, humorous and very good to look at.

w John Willard, Edgar Woolf, Irene Kuhn stories Sax Rohmer d Charles Brabin, Charles Vidor ph Tony Gaudio

☆ Boris Karloff, Myrna Loy, Lewis Stone, Karen Morley, Charles Starrett, Jean Hersholt, Lawrence Grant

'The diabolical stuff is piled on so thick at the finish, audiences are liable to laugh where they oughtn't.' – Variety

'A tolerable, campy entertainment.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Mask of Satan ★

Italy 1960 84m bw
Galatea/Jolly (Massimo de Rita) original title: La Maschera del Demonio

aka: Black Sunday; Revenge of the Vampire

A princess who was executed for witchcraft by her brother returns 200 years later to wreak vengeance on his descendants.

A stylish, though gruesome, horror movie.

w Mario Bava, Ennio de Concini, Marcello Coscia, Mario Serandrei d Mario Bava ph Mario Bava, Ubaldo Terzano sp Mario Bava

☆ Barbara Steele, John Richardson, Ivo Garrani, Andrea Cecchi, Arturo Dominici, Enrico Olivieri, Clara Bindi

'The greatest gothic horror movie ever made in Italy.' – Empire

Mask of the Avenger

US 1951 83m Technicolor
Columbia (Hunt Stromberg)

During the Austro-Italian War, a count's son avenges his father's death and exposes a traitor.

Very moderate swashbuckler on the lines of The Mark of Zorro.

w Jesse Lasky Jnr d Phil Karlson ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning

☆ John Derek, Anthony Quinn, Jody Lawrance, Arnold Moss, Eugene Iglesias

The Mask of Zorro ★★

US 1998 136m CFI color Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Amblin/Zorro (Doug Claybourne, David Foster)

An ageing Zorro trains a young man to take his place and prevent the man who killed his wife and kidnapped his daughter from ruling over California.

An enjoyable, high-spirited return to the style of an old-fashioned swashbuckler, with added sex appeal.
w John Eskow, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio d Martin Campbell ph Phil Meheux m James Horner pd Cecilia Montiel ed Thom Noble ☆ Antonio Banderas, Anthony Hopkins, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Stuart Wilson, Matt Letscher, Maury Chaykin, Tony Amendola, Pedro Armendariz, L. Q. Jones
'You haven't seen anything like this since the good old Indiana Jones days.' – Alan Jones, Film Review
sound; sound effects editing

Maskerade ★

Austria 1935 87m bw
Tobis/Sascha
An inveterate ladies' man finds himself trapped.
Charming romantic comedy.
w Walter Reisch d Willi Forst ph Franz Planer
☆ Anton Walbrook, Paula Wessely, Olga Tscheshowa
'Not a real masterpiece like Liebelei, but it has the same b.o. elements.' – Variety

The Masque of the Red Death ★★

GB 1964 89m Pathécolor 'Scope
AIP/Alta Vista (George Willoughby)
A medieval Italian prince practises devil worship while the plague rages outside, but when he holds a ball, death is an uninvited guest.
Languorous, overstretched, often visually striking horror piece with some extremely effective touches among its longueurs.
w Charles Beaumont, R. Wright Campbell story Edgar Allan Poe d Roger Corman ph Nicolas Roeg m David Lee ad Robert Jones cos Laura Nightingale
☆ Vincent Price, Hazel Court, Jane Asher, Patrick Magee, John Westbrook

Masquerade ★

GB 1965 101m Eastmancolor
UA/Novus (Michael Relph)
To avert friction between Arab states the young heir to one of them is abducted by a British secret service agent; but one of the plotters has other fish to fry.
Quite a lively spy romp with a spectacular action climax, but the plot is simply too complicated.
w Michael Relph, William Goldman novel Castle Minerva by Victor Canning d Basil Dearden ph Otto Heller m Philip Green pd Don Ashton ☆ Cliff Robertson, Jack Hawkins, Charles Gray, Bill Fraser, Marisa Mell, Michel Piccoli, John Le Mesurier

Masquerade

US 1988 91m colour
UIP/MGM (Michael I. Levy)
A gigolo marries a wealthy woman with the intention of murdering her for her money.
Dull thriller that fails to maintain interest.
w Dick Wolf d Bob Swaim ph David Watkin m John Barry pd John Kasarda ed Scott Conrad ☆ Rob Lowe, Meg Tilly, Kim Cattrall, Doug Savant, John Glover, Dana Delany, Erik Holland, Brian Davies, Barton Heyman
'A tranquil, sophisticated thriller.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'A gay and gorgeous whirl of romance, adventure and rhythm ... in the billion-dollar pan-American postwar playground!'

Masquerade in Mexico

US 1945 96m bw
Paramount (Karl Tunberg)
A stranded showgirl is hired by a Mexican banker to entice a gigolo away from his wife.
Talent-starved remake of Midnight (qv), which seems second-hand even if you don't know why.
w Karl Tunberg d Mitchell Leisen ph Lionel Lindon m Victor Young ☆ Dorothy Lamour, Arturo de Cordova, Patric Knowles, Ann Dvorak, George Rigaud, Natalie Schafer, Mikhail Rasumny, Billy Daniels

The Masquerader ★

US 1933 75m bw
Samuel Goldwyn
A drug-addicted politician is replaced by his lookalike cousin.
Pleasing dual role star vehicle with good production and support. Very much of its period.
w Howard Estabrook, Moss Hart play John Hunter Booth novel Katherine Cecil Thurston d Richard Wallace ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman
☆ Ronald Colman, Elissa Landi, Halliwell Hobbes, Juliette Compton, David Torrence
'A fine production with too much story handicap ... Colman's best is not enough.' – Variety
'The first amusing and believable tale of English politics and society ... made of all places in Hollywood.' – Newsweek

Masques ★

France 1987 100m colour
Cannon/MK2 Productions/A2 (Marin Karmitz)
A thriller writer inveigles his way into the home of a TV game-show host to solve the mysterious disappearance of his sister.
Glossy, well-made thriller that promises more than it delivers, but is enjoyable for Noiret's performance as a hypocritically hearty television celebrity.
w Odile Barski, Claude Chabrol d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Matthieu Chabrol ad Françoise Benoit-Fresco ed Monique Fardoulis ☆ Philippe Noiret, Robin Renucci, Bernadette Lafont, Monique Chaumette, Anne Brochet, Roger Dumas, Pierre-François Dumeniaud

Mass Appeal ★

US 1984 100m Technicolor
Universal/Turman-Foster
An idealistic student matches wits with a compromising priest.
Amusing, opened-out version of a two-character play: good for minority audiences.
w Bill C. David play Bill C. David d Glenn Jordan ph Don Peterman m Bill Conti pd Philip Jefferies
☆ Jack Lemmon, Zeljko Ivanek, Charles Durning, Louise Latham
'Saved from damnation by the originality of its central theme and by the excellence of its acting.' – Quentin Crisp

Massacre Hill: see Eureka Stockade

Massacre in Rome

Italy 1973 103m Technicolor
Compagnia Cinematografica Champion (Carlo Ponti)
In 1944, after partisans blow up a detachment of SS troops in a Rome street, a German colonel makes an ineffectual attempt to resist an order to shoot 330 Italians in retaliation.
Moderately effective drama, based on a true story.
w Robert Katz, George Pan Cosmatos book Death in Rome by Robert Katz d George Pan Cosmatos ph Marcello Gatti m Ennio Morricone pd Morton Haack ed Françoise Bonnot, Roberto Silvi
☆ Richard Burton, Marcello Mastroianni, Leo McKern, John Steiner, Anthony Steel, Robert Harris, Peter Vaughan, Delia Boccardo

Master and Commander: The Far Side of the World ★★★ (7)

US 2003 139m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Miramax/Universal (Samuel Goldwyn Jnr, Peter Weir, Duncan Henderson)
After his ship is almost destroyed in an attack, a British sea captain chases a faster French warship across the oceans.
Handsome drama of derring-do on the high seas that brilliantly recreates the horror of battle, as cannonballs splinter ships and crush limbs, but also finds time for quieter, reflective moments.
w Peter Weir, John Collee novels Patrick O'Brian d Peter Weir ph Russell Boyd m Iva Davies, Christopher Gordon, Richard Tognetti pd William Sandell ad Bruce Crone, Mark Mansbridge ed Lee Smith sp Industrial Light and Magic cos Wendy Stites
☆ Russell Crowe (Captain Jack Aubrey), Paul Bettany (Dr Stephen Maturin), Billy Boyd (Barrett Bonden), James D'Arcy (1st Lt Thomas Pullings), Lee Ingleby (Hollom), George Innes (Joe Plaice), Mark Lewis Jones (Mr Hogg), Chris Larkin (Captain Howard, Royal Marines), David Threlfall (Killick), Max Pirkis (Lord Blakeney)
'Achieves the epic without losing sight of the human, and to see it is to be reminded of the way great action movies can rouse and exhilarate us, can affirm life instead of simply dramatizing its destruction.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Much of the film is not sufficiently interesting.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic
'I have to say, it shivered my timbers.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent
† The action in the novels was shifted back seven years, to 1805, so that the enemy Captain Aubrey fights could be altered from the United States to France.
Russell Boyd; sound editing (Richard King)
picture; Peter Weir; Lee Smith; art direction (William Sandell, Robert Gould); Wendy Stites; makeup (Edouard F. Henriques, Yolanda Toussieng); sound (Paul Massey, Doug Hemphill, Art Rochester); visual effects (Daniel Sudick, Stefen Fangmeier, Nathan McGuinness, Robert Stromberg)
Peter Weir; William Sandell; Wendy Stites; sound

The Master Gunfighter

US 1975 120m Metrocolor Panavision
Avondale/Warner
In gold rush California, a mysterious avenger rights a variety of wrongs.
Pretentious Western which failed to advance the career of its somewhat over-confident creator.
w Harold Lapland d Tom Laughlin ph Jack Marta m Lalo Schifrin pd Albert Brenner
☆ Tom Laughlin, Ron O'Neal, Lincoln Kilpatrick, Barbara Carrera
† From a Japanese film Goyokin written by Kei Tasaka and Hideo Gosha

The Master of Ballantrae

GB 1953 89m Technicolor
Warner
Two brothers toss to decide which shall join Bonnie Prince Charlie's 1745 rebellion.
Half-hearted version of a classic adventure novel.
w Herb Meadow novel R. L. Stevenson d William Keighley ph Jack Cardiff m William Alwyn ☆ Errol Flynn, Anthony Steel, Roger Livesey, Beatrice Campbell, Felix Aylmer, Mervyn Johns, Jacques Berthier, Yvonne Furneaux, Ralph Truman
'All that can be salvaged from this rather unforgivable Anglo-American junket are some pleasant exteriors.' – Gavin Lambert

Master of Bankdam ★

GB 1947 105m bw
GFD/Holbein (Nat Bronsten, Walter Forde, Edward Dryhurst)
19th-century chronicles of a mill-owning Yorkshire family.
Archetypal 'trouble at t'mill' saga with moderate production, good acting and undeniably compulsive story.
w Edward Dryhurst, Moie Charles novel The Crowthers of Bankdam by Thomas Armstrong d Walter Forde ph Basil Emmott m Arthur Benjamin md Muir Mathieson ad G. Patterson ed Terry Fisher cos Doris Lee ☆ Tom Walls (Simeon Crowther), Anne Crawford (Annie Pickersgill), Dennis Price (Joshua Crowther), Stephen Murray (Zebediah Crowther), Linden Travers (Clara Baker), Jimmy Hanley (Simeon Crowther Jnr), Nancy Price (Lydia Crowther), David Tomlinson (Lancelot Handel Crowther), Herbert Lomas (Tom France), Patrick Holt (Lemuel Pickersgill), Nicholas Parsons (Edgar Hoylehouse)

'He can get into any disguise... getting out is another story.'

Master of Disguise

US 2002 80m DeLuxe
Revolution/Happy Madison/Out of the Blue (Sid Ganis, Alex Siskin, Barry Bernardi, Todd Garner)
When his crime-fighting father is kidnapped, a restaurateur learns the family skills of disguise to rescue him.
Carvey shows himself to be a man of a thousand faces; what he cannot disguise, though, is that this is a tedious, woeful, witless movie.
w Dana Carvey, Harris Goldberg d Perry Andelin Blake ph Peter Lyons Collister m Marc Ellis pd Alan Au ed Peck Prior, Sandy Solowitz sp make-up fx: Kevin Yagher ☆ Dana Carvey (Pistachio), Jennifer Esposito (Jennifer), Harold Gould (Grandfather), James Brolin (Frabbrizio), Brent Spiner (Bowman), Edie McClurg (Mother), Maria Canals (Sophia)
'Everything in the film has been fine-tuned to produce the least possible mirth. I suppose we should be grateful that it doesn't last much longer than an hour.' – Nicholas Barber, Independent

Master of Lassie: see The Hills of Home

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Master of the House ★

Denmark 1925 107m bw Palladium

original title: Du Skal Aere Din Hustru

A husband is cured of his domestic tyranny.
Enjoyable account of a man's comeuppance at the hands of his old nanny, one that is also perceptive about relationships.
w Carl Theodor Dreyer, Sven Rindom play Tyraennens Fald by Sven Rindom
d Carl Theodor Dreyer ph George Schnéevoigt ad Carl Theodor Dreyer ☆ Johannes Meyer, Astrid Holm, Karin Nellemose, Clara Schonfeld, Mathilde Nielsen, Johannes Nielsen, Petrine Sonne

Master of the Islands: see The Hawaiians

Master of the World

US 1961 104m Magnacolor
AIP/Alta Vista (James H. Nicholson, Anthony Carras)

In 1848 a mad inventor takes to the air in his magnificent flying machine in the hope of persuading men to stop war.
Aerial version of Twenty Thousand Leagues under the Sea, with cheap sets and much use of stock footage; some scenes howeyer have a certain vigour.
w Richard Matheson novel Jules Verne
d William Witney ph Gil Warrenton
m Les Baxter
☆ Vincent Price, Charles Bronson, Henry Hull, Mary Webster, David Frankham

The Master Plan

GB 1954 78m bw
Gibraltar

An American agent, concealing the fact that he suffers from blackouts, is sent to investigate information leakages in England.
Quite lively second feature spylarks.
wd Cy Endfield ph Jonah Jones
☆ Wayne Morris, Tilda Thamar, Norman Wooland, Mary Mackenzie, Arnold Bell

The Master Race

US 1944 96m bw
Edward Golden

German generals realize that the war is lost, and plan counter-measures.
Timely propaganda melodrama warning against premature rejoicing, from the producer of Hitler's Children.
wd Herbert J. Biberman.
☆ George Coulouris, Osa Massen, Stanley Ridges, Nancy Gates, Carl Esmond, Morris Carnovsky, Lloyd Bridges

'The ultimate kung fu revenge movie'

Master with Cracked Fingers

(dubbed)
Hong Kong 1971 82m colour
Fan Tai (Lee Long Koan)

original title: Gwong Dung Siu Lou Fu
aka: Little Tiger from Canton, Snake Fist Fighter

With the aid of a beggar, a young boy grows up to be a martial arts expert and avenges his father's death.
Tedious kung-fu movie with a confused narrative, some dim comedy and unexciting fight sequences.
d Chin Hsin Martial Arts Director Jackie Chan, Se Fu Yai
☆ Jackie Chan (Jackie Chan), Simon Yuen Siu-tien (Old Master), Kwan Young-Moon (Evil Boss), Dean Shek (Landlord), Hon Kwok-choi (Little Frog), Tien Feng (Father)
† It was Jackie Chan's first film and was never finished. Later, after Chan became a star, extra footage was added using a double. American producer Dick Randall had it dubbed into English, and it was released in the US in 1981.

The Masters

Italy 1975 100m Technospes
Campagnia Cinematografica Champion (Carlo Ponti)

original title: Gente di rispetto

A new and naïve schoolteacher in a small Sicilian town becomes involved in corrupt local politics after a man who insulted her is murdered by the Mafia.
Glossy thriller that fails to carry any conviction.
w Leo Benevenuti, Piero de Bernardi, Luigi Zampa story Giuseppe Fava d Luigi Zampa ph Ennio Guarnieri m Ennio Morricone ad Luigi Scaccianoce
ed Franco Fraticelli
☆ James Mason, Jennifer O'Neill, Franco Nero, Orazio Orlando, Claudio Gora, Franco Fabrizi, Aldo Giuffré

Masters of Menace

US 1990 97m colour
Cinetel/Hertzberg-Hanson-Insana

A motorcycle gang violates its three-year probation in order to bury one of its members in Las Vegas.
Coarse and aimless send-up of biker movies, which at least ends appropriately, with a vat of manure.
w Tino Insana d Daniel Raskov ph Edward J. Pei m Hawk Wolinski
ed Stephen Myers
☆ David Rasche, Catherine Bach, Lance Kinsey, Teri Copley, Ray Baker, David L. Lander

'Original humor was obviously not required.' – Variety

† Dan Aykroyd, Jim Belushi, John Candy and George Wendt appear in cameo roles.

Masters of the Universe

US 1987 106m Metrocolor
Edward R. Pressman/Cannon

He-Man defends the planet Eternia from the evil Skeletor.
Live action version of the TV cartoons of the toys of the comic strip. Pretty weak stuff, even for five-year-olds.
w David Odell d Gary Goddard
ph Hanania Baer m Bill Conti
pd William Stout ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Dolph Lundgren, Frank Langella, Meg Foster, Billy Barty

Masterson of Kansas

US 1955 73m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

The sheriff of Dodge City prevents an Indian uprising by saving an innocent man from the gallows.
Unhistorical two-bit Western.
w Douglas Heyes d William Castle
ph Henry Freulich md Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ George Montgomery, Nancy Gates, James Griffith, Jean Willes

Mat: see Mother

Mat i syn: see Mother and Son

'Men worshipped her like a goddess, only to be betrayed by a kiss!'

Mata Hari ★★

US 1931 92m bw
MGM

The career of the famous lady spy of World War I.
Elaborate melodrama, pictorially satisfying and generally more entertaining than might be supposed, with both star and supporting cast in rich thespian form.
w Benjamin Glazer, Leo Birinsky, Doris Anderson, Gilbert Emery d George Fitzmaurice ph William Daniels ☆ Greta Garbo, Ramon Novarro, Lionel Barrymore, Lewis Stone, C. Henry Gordon, Karen Morley, Blanche Frederici

'Picture's strength is all in the players; an important grosser on that account.' – Variety

Mata Hari

US 1985 108m Eastmancolor
Rony Yacov/Cannon

The career of the famous lady spy of World War I.
Absurd melodrama which in places seems to be spoofing itself.
w Joel Ziskin d Curtis Harrington
☆ Sylvia Kristel, Christopher Cazenove, Oliver Tobias, Gaye Brown, William Fox

Mata Hari, Agent H21 ★

France/Italy 1964 99m bw
Filmel/Les Films du Carrosse/Simar/Fida Cinematografica (Eugene Lepicier)

A rather unnecessary revamp of the same story, with interesting details but not much resonance.
w Jean-Louis Richard, François Truffaut
d Jean-Louis Richard ph Michel Kelber
m Georges Delerue ad Claude Pignot
☆ Jeanne Moreau, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Claude Rich, Frank Villard

'All that we are left with is a generous dollop of period charm, and the fascinating spontaneity of an actress.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Matador ★

Spain 1988 106m colour
Iberoamericana de TV/Televisión Española (Andrés Vicente Gómez)

A lame, death-obsessed matador is smitten by a sex- and death-obsessed woman, the defending lawyer of a psychic, guilt-obsessed, would-be bullfighter who has confessed to a series of murders he did not commit.
An intense though unerotic treatment of decadent passions; it is comparatively restrained by its director's usual standards, avoiding camp, though it manages to encompass scenes of attempted rape, violent death, and masturbation to images of mutilation.
w Jesus Ferrero, Pedro Almodóvar d Pedro Almodóvar ph Angel Luis Fernández
m Bernardo Bonezzi ad Roman Arango, José Morales, José Rosell ed Pepe Salcedo ☆ Assumpta Serna, Antonio Banderas, Bibi Andersen, Nacho Martinez, Eva Cobo, Julieta Serrano, Chus Lampreave, Carmen Maura, Eusebio Poncela

'Chips away at the surface elegance of the bourgeoisie to expose its private vices.' – Sight and Sound

'A piece of voluptuous tom-foolery.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'A hitman and a salesman walk into a bar...'

The Matador ★

Germany/US/Ireland/Australia 2004 97m
FotoKem
Buena Vista/Stratus/DEJ/Equity Pictures/Furst/Irish Dreamtime (Pierce Brosnan, Beau St Clair, Sean Furst, Bryan Furst)

A lonely, sleazy hitman, who is losing his touch, befriends an uptight businessman and involves him in his dangerous life.
Enjoyable odd-couple comedy; Brosnan revels in the opportunity it provides to put James Bond behind him.
wd Richard Shepard ph David Tattersall
m Rolfe Kent pd Rob Pearson ed Carole Kravetz-Akyanian
☆ Pierce Brosnan (Julian Noble), Greg Kinnear (Danny Wright), Hope Davis (Carolyn 'Bean' Wright), Philip Baker Hall (Mr Randy), Dylan Baker (Lovell), Adam Scott (Phil Garrison)

'Savage, breezy, occasionally obscene and sometimes poignant mix of comedy and crime.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

The Match

GB/US/Ireland 1999 96m Technicolor
Polygram/Propaganda/Irish Dreamtime (Allan Scott, Guymon Casady)

A pub football team, which has lost its annual match against a neighbouring inn for 99 years, gets ready to compete in the 100th game, with the loser agreeing to shut down his business.
Thoroughly predictable Scottish comedy about a group of losers discovering a winning community spirit; it might have worked had it been funny, or even amusing.
wd Mick Davis ph Witold Stok m Harry Gregson-Williams pd John Frankish
ed Kate Williams
☆ Max Beesley (Wullie Smith), Isla Blair (Sheila Bailey), James Cosmo (Billy Bailey), Laura Fraser (Rosemary Bailey), Richard E. Grant (Gorgeous Gus), David Hayman (Scrapper), Ian Holm (Big Tam), Neil Morrissey (Mr Doris), Bill Paterson (Tommy), Iain Robertson (Danny Van Boy), Tom Sizemore (Buffalo), Pierce Brosnan (John McGee), Alan Shearer (Himself)

'Truly dire.' – Guardian

The Match Factory Girl ★★

Finland/Sweden 1990 70m Eastmancolor
Electric Pictures/Swedish Film Institute/ Viillealfa/ Aki Kaurismäki

original title: Tulitikkutehtaan Tytto

A downtrodden factory girl takes her revenge on those who have taken her for granted.
Quietly savage comedy, filmed in a minimalist style.
wd Aki Kaurismäki ph Timo Salminen
pd Risto Karhula ed Aki Kaurismäki
☆ Kati Outinen, Elina Salo, Esko Nikkari, Vesa Vierikko, Reijo Taipale, Silu Seppälä

The Match King

US 1932 80m bw
Warner

A world-famous match manufacturer gets into spectacular money difficulties.
Thinly veiled biopic of Ivar Kreuger; not at all bad.
w Houston Branch and Sidney Sutherland
d Howard Bretherton
☆ Warren William, Lili Damita, Glenda Farrell, Harold Huber

'Good entertainment, uncommonly well acted ... in Swedish-populated sections should be top moneymaker.' – Variety

'There are no little secrets.'

Match Point * (15)

GB/US/Luxembourg 2005 124m Technicolor
Icon/BBC/Thema/Jada (Letty Aronson, Gareth Wiley, Lucy Darwin)

An Irish coach at a posh London tennis club marries above himself, but also has the encumbrance of an unsettling American lover.

Allen's ear for dialogue has deserted him in this comic drama set in England, nor does he seem to have much understanding of the distinctions of class in British society; here he too often seems adrift, providing a tourist's passing acquaintance with the country.
wd Woody Allen ph Remi Adefarasin pd Jim Clay ed Alisa Lepselter ☆ Scarlett Johansson (Nola Rice), Jonathan Rhys-Meyers (Chris Wilton), Emily Mortimer (Chloe Hewett Wilton), Matthew Goode (Tom Hewett), Brian Cox (Alec Hewett), Penelope Wilton (Eleanor Hewett), Ewen Bremner (Inspector Dowd), James Nesbitt (Detective Banner), Rupert Penry-Jones (Henry), Margaret Tyzack (Mrs Eastby)
'Well-observed and superbly cast picture is the filmmaker's best in quite a long time.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'As flat-footed a movie as Allen has ever made, a decent idea scuppered by a setting – London – which he treats with the peculiarly tin-eared reverence of a visitor who only thinks he knows his way around.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph
Woody Allen (as writer)

The Matchmaker ★

US 1958 101m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Don Hartman)

In New York at the turn of the century, a rich merchant decides to marry again but the matchmaker he consults has her own eye on him.
Cold and lifeless version of an amusing play which also served as the basis for the musical Hello Dolly (qv).
w John Michael Hayes play Thornton Wilder d Joseph Anthony ph Charles Lang m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Shirley Booth, Paul Ford, Anthony Perkins, Shirley MacLaine, Wallace Ford, Robert Morse, Perry Wilson
DOLLY LEVI (SHIRLEY BOOTH) TO THE AUDIENCE: 'Life's never quite interesting enough, somehow. You people who come to the movies know that.'
'Long static dialogue exchanges are further extended by frequent confidences expressed directly to the audience ... but in spite of the general lack of pace, lightness and dimension there is still a great deal to enjoy.' – Peter John Dyer

'lie cheat steal rinse repeat.'

Matchstick Men ★★ 6

US/GB 2003 116m Technicolor
Panavision
Warner/Imagemovers/Scott Free/Rickshaw/Liveplanet (Jack Rapke, Ridley Scott, Steve Starkey, Sean Bailey, Ted Griffin)

An obsessive-compulsive con-man is hoist with his own petard.
Glossy caper with smart performances.
w Nicholas Griffin, Ted Griffin book Eric Garcia d Ridley Scott ph John Mathieson m Hans Zimmer pd Tom Foden ed Dody Dorn ☆ Nicolas Cage (Roy Waller), Sam Rockwell (Frank Mercer), Alison Lohman (Angela), Bruce Altman (Dr Harris Klein), Bruce McGill (Chuck Frechette), Sheila Kelley (Kathy), Beth Grant (Laundry Lady)
'Let it swindle you; it's part of the fun. In fact, it's all of the fun.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post
'Both entertaining and empty: an emotional shell game that leaves you feeling cheated even though, on the surface at least, everyone is a winner.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'It's a short trip from the penthouse to the poorhouse.'

Material Girls

US 2006 97m
Verve Pictures/Maverick Films/Rafter H Entertainment (Hilary Duff, Susan Duff, David Faigenblum, Milton Kim, Eve LaDue, Mark Morgan, Guy Oseary, Tim Wesley)

Two heiresses who find themselves on Skid Row fight to regain their 'celebutante' lifestyle.
Dire vehicle for starlet siblings whose idea of self-parody is more like self-indulgence.
w Jessica O'Toole, John Quaintance, Amy Rardin d Martha Coolidge ph Johnny E. Jensen m Jennie Muskett pd James Spencer ad Ian Phillips ed Steven Cohen
☆ Hilary Duff (Tanzie Marchetta), Haylie Duff (Ava Marchetta), Anjelica Huston (Fabiella), Lukas Haas (Henry Baines), Maria Conchita Alonso (Inez), Brent Spiner (Tommy Katzenbach)
'Even by the low standards of the genre it represents, this female teen comedy represents a new nadir.' – Frank Scheck, Hollywood Reporter
'A tolerably silly trifle.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

La Maternelle ★

France 1932 89m bw
Photosonor

A maid in a nursery school becomes devoted to the children and in particular to one who causes trouble when her friend decides to marry.
A touching drama of its day which now seems rather primitive.
w Jean Benoit-Lévy d Jean Benoit-Lévy, Marie Epstein ph Georges Asselin m Edouard Flament
☆ Madeleine Renaud, Paulette Elambert, Alice Tissot, Mady Berry
'By any standard the finest foreign-language talker shown in the US in a couple of years.' – Variety

Matewan ★★

US 1987 133m DuArt
Enterprise/Cinecom Entertainment/Film Gallery/Red Dog (Peggy Rajski, Maggie Renzi)

Striking miners battle against brutal owners determined to break the strike.
Engaging hard-edged political drama.
wd John Sayles ph Haskell Wexler pd Nora Chavooshian ed Sonya Polonsky ☆ Chris Cooper, Mary McDonnell, Will Oldham, David Strathairn, Ken Jenkins, Kevin Tighe, Gordon Clapp, James Earl Jones, Bob Gunton, Jace Alexander
Haskell Wexler

Matilda: see Roald Dahl's Matilda

Matilda

US 1978 105m Movielab
AIP/Albert S. Ruddy

A down-at-heel theatrical agent finds success with a boxing kangaroo.
Damon Runyon meets Walt Disney in an old-fashioned family audience picture for which there may no longer be an audience.
w Albert S. Ruddy, Timothy Galfas novel Paul Gallico d Daniel Mann ph Jack Woolf m Jerrold Immel pd Boris Leven
☆ Elliott Gould, Robert Mitchum, Harry Guardino, Clive Revill, Karen Carlson, Lionel Stander, Art Metrano, Roy Clark

'Lawrence Woolsey presents the end of civilisation as we know it. Make that ... Proudly Presents'

Matinee ★

US 1993 99m DeLuxe
Guild/Universal

At the time of the Cuban missile crisis, a B-movie-maker arrives at a US naval base to stage the premiere of his new horror film about a half-man, half-ant, incorporating the cinema-seat-shaking Rumblerama.
An enjoyable celebration of the nuclear-inspired, gimmicky horror movies of the 50s, brilliantly parodied; but it is hampered by a teen romance, presented without apparent irony, which might have been lifted from any drive-in movie of the period.
w Charlie Haas story Jerico d Joe Dante ph John Hora m Jerry Goldsmith pd Steven Legler ed Marshall Harvey
☆ John Goodman, Cathy Moriarty, Simon Fenton, Omri Katz, Lisa Jakub, Kellie Martin, Jesse Lee, Dick Miller, John Sayles
'Even when the film gets bogged down in romantic drivel, there are enough clever in-jokes and well-remembered period details to keep buffs happy.' – Variety
† The character played by Goodman is based on the showman-producer-director William Castle.

The Mating Game

US 1958 96m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Philip Barry Jnr)

An income-tax inspector becomes involved in the affairs of an unorthodox farming family.
Dismally unfunny adaptation for Americans of a very English novel; everyone works hard to no avail.
w William Roberts novel The Darling Buds of May by H. E. Bates d George Marshall ph Robert Bronner m Jeff Alexander ☆ Debbie Reynolds, Tony Randall, Paul Douglas, Fred Clark, Una Merkel, Philip Ober, Charles Lane, Philip Coolidge
'Every joke is driven past the point of exhaustion.' – MFB
† H. E. Bates's novel was the basis for a successful television series, The Darling Buds of May (1991–93), starring David Jason and Pam Ferris.

The Mating of Millie

US 1948 87m bw
Columbia

A self-confident young woman wants to adopt a small boy and tries to propel a bus driver into a marriage of convenience.
Amiable if protracted romantic comedy with dashes of sentiment and an obvious outcome.
w Louella MacFarlane, St Clair McKelway d Henry Levin
☆ Glenn Ford, Evelyn Keyes, Willard Parker, Jimmy Hunt, Ron Randell

The Mating Season

US 1950 101m bw
Paramount (Charles Brackett)

A factory draughtsman marries an ambassador's daughter; his mother loses her job and comes incognito to work for them as a cook.
Uninteresting mechanical domestic comedy in which the young folk are dull and the older ones overplay.
w Walter Reisch, Charles Brackett, Richard Breen d Mitchell Leisen ph Charles Lang m Joseph J. Lilley ☆ Gene Tierney, John Lund, Miriam Hopkins, Thelma Ritter, Jan Sterling
Thelma Ritter

Matir Moina: see The Clay Bird

Matka Joanna od Aniolow: see The Devil and the Nun

'Believe the unbelievable.'

The Matrix ★★★

US/Australia 1999 136m Technicolor
Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/Groucho II (Joel Silver)

An insignificant worker turns out to be the promised leader who fights against the Matrix, an artificial intelligence that controls the world and consumes its inhabitants.
Spectacular special effects, slick design and the speed and vitality of the narrative overcome its deficiencies, particularly its derivative plot that draws on so many science-fiction clichés and conventions.
wd Andy Wachowski, Larry Wachowski ph Bill Pope m Don Davis pd Owen Paterson ed Zach Staenberg sp Geoffrey Darrow; Bob McCarron; Makeup Effects Group Studio
☆ Keanu Reeves (Neo), Laurence Fishburne (Morpheus), Carrie-Anne Moss (Trinity), Hugo Weaving (Agent Smith), Gloria Foster (Oracle), Joe Pantoliano (Cypher), Marcus Chong (Tank), Paul Goddard (Agent Brown), Robert Taylor (Agent Jones), Julian Arahanga (Apoc), Matt Doran (Mouse), Belinda McClory (Switch), Anthony Ray Parker (Dozer)
'Eye-popping but incoherent extravaganza of morphing and superhuman martial arts. Ultra-cool visuals that truly deliver something new to the sci-fi action lexicon will make this time-jumping thriller a must-see among genre fans, especially guys in their teens and 20s.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A dazzingly nifty slice of sci-fi cool.' – Empire
† Yuen Wo-Ping was responsible for the kung fu choreography.
†† The film cost $60m to make and grossed $475m at cinemas around the world.
Zach Staenberg; sound (John Reitz, Gregg Rudloff, David Campbell, David Lee); sound effects editing (Dane A. Davis); visual effects (John Gaeta, Janek Sirrs, Steve Courtley, Jon Thum) special visual effects; sound

'Free your mind.'

The Matrix Reloaded ★★

US 2003 138m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV (Joel Silver)

As the last human outpost is threatened by machines, rebels against the system pin their hopes of survival on one man.
Now that our hero Neo can fly like Superman, this second instalment comes closer to other comic-book blockbusters: its set pieces may be bigger and better than anything done before, but they still remain action movie staples – car chases and fights on moving vehicles; the one brilliantly notable novelty is a fight between Neo and a hundred clones of Agent Smith.
wd Andy Wachowski, Larry Wachowski ph Bill Pope m Don Davis pd Owen Paterson ed Zach Staenberg sp John Gaeta; Animal Logic Films; Buf Compagnie; ESC; Giant Killer Robots; Sony Pictures Imageworks cos Kym Barrett fight choreographer Yuen Wo Ping

☆ Keanu Reeves (Neo), Laurence Fishburne (Morpheus), Carrie-Anne Moss (Trinity), Hugo Weaving (Agent Smith), Jada Pinkett Smith (Niobe), Gloria Foster (The Oracle), Harold Perrineau (Link), Monica Bellucci (Persephone), Harry Lennix (Commander Lock), Lambert Wilson (Merovingian), Randall Duk Kim (Keymaker), Neil Rayment (Twin #1), Adrian Rayment (Twin #2)

'More of a straight-ahead action movie than the original, and it's filled with spectacular mayhem.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

'Full of braindead cod philosophy and devoid of anything like a cogent plot, this nevertheless super sequel is a thrill ride that no film fan should miss.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror

'Heavy-spirited and pompous, even faintly embarrassing.' – David Denby, New Yorker

'Utilization of serious thought does not in itself make the Matrix films more than the adolescent fodder that they are.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic

'Everything that has a beginning has an end.'

The Matrix Revolutions

US 2003 129m Eastmancolor Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV

The last free humans defend their remaining city from a massive invasion by the machines.

Disappointing finale to the trilogy, which manages to finish with a bang and a whimper, though leaving its audience none the wiser for all its grandiose intentions.

wd Larry Wachowski, Andy Wachowski ph Bill Pope m Don Davis pd Owen Paterson ed Zach Staenberg sp John Gaeta; Animal Logic Films; Buf Compagnie; ESC; Giant Killer Robots; Sony Pictures Imageworks martial arts choreographer Yuen Wo Ping

☆ Keanu Reeves (Neo), Carrie-Anne Moss (Trinity), Laurence Fishburne (Morpheus), Nona Gaye (Zee), Clayton Watson (The Kid), Hugo Weaving (Agent Smith), Mary Alice (The Oracle), Monica Bellucci (Persephone)

'The dominant tone is one one of po-faced and ponderous solemnity.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

'You can virtually see the mystique peeling away while beholding the patchy plotting, windy dialogue and, yes, spectacular effects of this grand finale.' – Variety

A Matter of Dignity ★

Greece 1957 104m bw
Finos (Anis Nohra)
original title: To Telefteo Psemma

The daughter of a bankrupt family reluctantly agrees to marry a millionaire, and the family's false values lead to tragedy.

Rather offbeat melodrama with the director in good form.

wd Michael Cacoyannis ph Walter Lassally m Manos Hadjidakis

☆ Ellie Lambetti, Georges Pappas, Athena Michaelidou

A Matter of Innocence: see Pretty Polly

A Matter of Life and Death ★★★★

GB 1946 104m Technicolor
GFD/Archers (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)
US title: Stairway to Heaven

A pilot with brain damage after bailing out is torn between this world and the next, but an operation puts things to rights.

Outrageous fantasy which seemed more in keeping after the huge death toll of a world war, and in any case learned the Hollywood lesson of eating its cake and still having it, the supernatural elements being capable of explanation. A mammoth technical job in the heavenly sequences, it deserves full marks for its sheer arrogance, wit, style and film flair.

wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger ph Jack Cardiff m Allan Gray pd Hein Heckroth ad Arthur Lawson ed Reginald Mills

☆ David Niven (Squadron Leader Peter D. Carter), Roger Livesey (Dr. Reeves), Kim Hunter (June), Marius Goring (Conductor 71), Raymond Massey (Abraham Farlan), Abraham Sofaer (The Judge)

'Powell and Pressburger seem to have reached their heaven at last ... an illimitable Wembley stadium, surrounded by tinkly music and mists, from which all men of insight, if they were ever careless enough to get there, would quickly blaspheme their way out.' – Richard Winnington

'A dazzling mesh of visionary satire, postwar politics and the mystical side of English romanticism.' – Tony Rayns, Time Out, 1979

'Beautifully written, beautifully acted, beautifully executed ... you would think such formidable merits would add up to quite a film – and darned if they don't.' – Time Out

'This film, whether or not you find its philosophy half-baked, is downright good cinema, doing things that couldn't be done in any other medium' – Tribune

'It compelled attention and created emotion.' – Basil Wright, 1972

† A Region 2 DVD release includes commentary with Jack Cardiff.

A Matter of Resistance: see La Vie de Château

'Some women are born to have a glorious affair with life ... !'

A Matter of Time

US/Italy 1976 97m Technicolor (AIP)

An Italian country chambermaid is taught about life by a faded countess.

Interminable even in its abbreviated form, this woebegone fantasy is a tribute to his miscast daughter by a director who never had much sense of plot to begin with. It has to be seen to be believed.

w John Gay novel The Film of Memory by Maurice Druon d Vincente Minnelli ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Nino Oliviero

☆ Liza Minnelli, Ingrid Bergman, Charles Boyer, Tina Aumont, Gabriele Ferzetti, Spiros Andros

'So hackneyed, inept and stupid as to be almost amusing.' – John Simon, New York

'So spectacularly crazy that if Minnelli could only persuade Mel Brooks to put his name on it, A Matter of Time might yet be the comedy sleeper of the year.' – Frank Rich, New York Post

A Matter of Who

GB 1961 92m bw
MGM/Foray (Walter Shenson, Milton Holmes)

The World Health Organization tracks down a smallpox outbreak.

Curious blend of semi-documentary with suspense and comedy; not really a starter.

w Milton Holmes, Harold Buchman magazine article Patricia Lee, Paul Dickinson d Don Chaffey ph Erwin Hillier m Edwin Astley

☆ Terry-Thomas, Sonja Ziemann, Alex Nicol, Guy Deghy, Richard Briers, Clive Morton, Geoffrey Keen, Martin Benson, Honor Blackman, Carol White

† Harold Buchman's name was omitted from the original credits at the time because he was blacklisted.

Maurice ★

GB 1987 140m Technicolor
Cinecom/Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant)

The life of a Cambridge homosexual.

Hothouse study of E. M. Forster's posthumously published and semi-autobiographical novel. An acquired taste, but many scenes have general appeal.

w Kit Hesketh-Harvey, James Ivory d James Ivory ph Pierre Lhomme m Richard Robbins pd Brian Ackland-Snow ed Katherine Wenning

☆ James Wilby, Hugh Grant, Rupert Graves, Denholm Elliott, Simon Callow, Billie Whitelaw, Ben Kingsley, Judy Parfitt

costume design (Jenny Beavan, John Bright)

Mauvais Genres: see Transfixed

Mauvais Sang: see The Night Is Young

Mauvaise Passe: see The Escort (1999)

'In Their Hands, A Deck Of Cards Was The Only Thing More Dangerous Than A Gun.'

Maverick ★

US 1994 127m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Icon (Bruce Davey, Richard Donner)

A gambler raises the money to take part in a poker championship, where his opponents include a woman who tried to rob him.

Based on the TV series that starred James Garner, this is a relaxed and rambling romp, a jokey tale of double-cross in a Western setting which would have been far better with its last half-hour excised.

w William Goldman d Richard Donner ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Randy Newman pd Tom Sanders

☆ Mel Gibson, Jodie Foster, James Garner, Graham Greene, James Coburn, Alfred Molina

'Good solid fun.' – Empire

† Danny Glover appears uncredited in a Lethal Weapon in-joke.

costume design

The Maverick Queen

US 1955 90m Trucolor Naturama
Republic

A lady rustler falls for a Pinkerton detective sent to arrest her.

Tedious Western in bilious colour.

w Kenneth Gamet, De Vallon Scott novel Zane Grey d Joseph Kane ph Jack Marta m Victor Young

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Barry Sullivan, Scott Brady, Mary Murphy, Wallace Ford, Jim Davis

'Art + Politics = Power'

Max ★★

Hungary/Canada/GB 2002 109m DeLuxe
Pathé/Film Council/Aconit (Andras Hamori)

In Munich in 1918, a Jewish art dealer, who lost an arm in the First World War, befriends an untalented artist, an army corporal named Adolf Hitler.

Intriguing take on the development of fascism that captures the artistic and political ferment of the time, even if the suggestion that Hitler's failures and frustrations as a painter fuelled his politics seems far-fetched.

wd Menno Meyjes ph Lajos Koltai m Dan Jones pd Ben Vanos ed Chris Wyatt

☆ John Cusack (Max Rothman), Noah Taylor (Adolf Hitler), Leelee Sobieski (Liselore), Molly Parker (Nina Rothman), Ulrich Thomsen (Captain Mayr), David Horovitch (Max's Father), Janet Suzman (Max's Mother), Peter Capaldi (David Cohn), Kevin McKidd (George Grosz)

'The "what-ifs" involved have offended some people, but I found the movie fascinating for its subtext about art and politics, then as now.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer

'Far from faultless, then, but praiseworthy for its chutzpah, this rumbustious affair provokes both serious consideration and light-hearted appreciation.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

† The DVD release includes a commentary by Menno Meyjes.

Max Dugan Returns ★★

US 1983 98m colour
TCF (Herbert Ross, Neil Simon)

A hard-up widow with a 15-year-old son is visited by her dying father who abandoned her when she was a child.

Slight, sentimental but gently amusing comedy.

w Neil Simon d Herbert Ross ph David M. Walsh m David Shire ad Albert Brenner ed Richard Marks

☆ Marsha Mason, Jason Robards, Donald Sutherland, Matthew Broderick

'A consistently happy comedic fable.' – Variety

Max Mon Amour

France/US 1986 97m colour
Electric/Greenwich Film/A2 (Serge Silberman)

The wife of a British diplomat in Paris falls in love with a chimpanzee.

Odd tale that strives for, but fails to achieve, an air of unease.

w Nagisa Oshima, Jean-Claude Carrière d Nagisa Oshima ph Raoul Coutard m Michel Portal pd Pierre Guffroy ed Hélène Plemiannikov

☆ Charlotte Rampling, Anthony Higgins, Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu, Victoria Abril, Anne-Marie Besse, Nicole Clafan, Pierre Etaix, Bernard Haller, Sabine Haudepin

Maxie

US 1985 98m DeLuxe
Orion/Aurora/Elsboy/Carter De Haven

The ghost of a twenties starlet revisits her old apartment and takes over the body of the wife of the tenant.

Heavenly comedy which would have been funnier in the forties.

w Patricia Resnick novel Marion's Wall by Jack Finney d Paul Aaron ph Fred Schuler m Georges Delerue pd John Lloyd ed Lynzee Klingman

☆ Glenn Close, Mandy Patinkin, Ruth Gordon, Barnard Hughes, Valerie Curtin

Maxim Gorky Trilogy ★★★

USSR bw Soyuzdetfilm

Orphan Gorky is raised by his grandparents, and becomes a ship's cook and a painter before going on to university.

This simple and direct story is told in three beautifully detailed if rather overlong films:

'The Childhood of Maxim Gorky' (1938, 101m), 'Out in the World' (1939, 98m), 'My Universities' (1940, 104m).
w Mark Donskoi, I. Grudzev d Mark Donskoi ph Pyotr Yermolov m Lev Schwartz ad I. Stepanov ☆ Alexei Lyarsky (Alexei Peshkov Gorky), Yelizaveta Alekseyeva (Varvara Kashirina Peshkova), Mikhail Troyanovski (Grandfather), Valeria Massalitinova (Grandmother), Nikolai Valbert (Aleksei Pechkov Gorky (as student))
'This is for grown-up minds. It is episodic and sprawling, the photography is by no means good – quite inferior to the polished camera work of the average Hollywood product – but it touches the mind and heart as no film within years has done.' – Richard Winnington
† Only the first part of the trilogy is currently available on a Region 1 DVD; all three parts have been released on PAL VHS video-cassette.

Maximum Overdrive

US 1986 97m Technicolor J-D-C Scope
Dino de Laurentiis (Martha Schumacher)
In a corner of North Carolina, all mechanical devices go haywire, and trucks menace a group of humans caught in a filling station.
Idiotic premise for sensational action sequences, which are well staged but go on too long.
wd Stephen King ph Armando Nannuzzi m AC/DC pd Giorgio Postiglione ed Evan Lottman ☆ Emilio Estevez, Pat Hingle, Laura Harrington, Yeardley Smith, John Short, Ellen McElduff, J. C. Quinn
† The plot was used again for a less effective TV movie Trucks in 1997.

Maximum Risk

US 1996 100m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia (Moshe Diamant)
A French cop takes revenge on the gangsters who killed his twin brother by assuming his identity.
Standard action-film clichés are well orchestrated in this predictable fast-paced nonsense.
w Larry Ferguson d Ringo Lam ph Alexander Gruszynski m Robert Folk pd Steven Spence ed Bill Pankow
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Natasha Henstridge, Zach Grenier, Jean-Hugues Anglade, Paul Ben-Victor, Stéphane Audran
'A visceral delight that refuses to be deterred by niceties of plot or character consistency and prefers sweat to emotion.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

May Fools: see Milou in May

Maya

US 1966 91m Technicolor Panavision
MGM/King Brothers (Mary P. Murray, Herman King)
A teenage American boy arrives in India to visit his disillusioned father, who finally comes to understand him only after he has run away.
Good-looking but otherwise uninteresting animal drama which served as the pilot for a TV series.
w John Fante d John Berry ph Gunter Senftleben m Riz Ortolani ☆ Clint Walker, Jay North, I. S. Johar, Sajid Khan

Maybe Baby

US 1988 98m colour
Columbia/Tri-Star (Jerry Belson, Walter Coblenz) US title: For Keeps
Two teenagers, who marry when pregnancy looms, face up to adult responsibilities.
Tiresome and sentimental account of young motherhood.
w Tim Kazurinsky, Denise DeClue d John G. Avildsen ph James Crabe m Bill Conti pd William J. Cassidy ed John G. Avildsen
☆ Molly Ringwald, Randall Batinkoff, Kenneth Mars, Miriam Flynn, Conchata Ferrell, Sharon Brown
'Unfunny, clichéd and dumbed down.' – Steve Grant, Sunday Times

Maybe Baby

GB/France 2000 104m DeLuxe
Redbus/Pandora/BBC (Phil McIntyre)
A BBC executive and his wife have difficulties with conceiving a child, which causes problems with their marriage.
A self-regarding comedy, since our hero is writing the script of the film we are watching and it is, we are told, brilliant; it doesn't live up to this word-of-mouth, but it may amuse in an idle moment.
wd Ben Elton novel Inconceivable by Ben Elton ph Roger Lanser m Colin Towns pd Jim Clay ed Peter Hollywood cos Anne Sheppard
☆ Hugh Laurie (Sam Bell), Joely Richardson (Lucy Bell), Adrian Lester (George), James Purefoy (Carl Phipps), Tom Hollander (Ewan Proclaimer), Joanna Lumley (Sheila), Rowan Atkinson (Mr James), Dawn French (Charlene), Emma Thompson (Druscilla), Rachael Stirling (Joanna), Matthew Macfadyen (Nigel)
'An innocuous and very English middle-class comedy.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

Maybe, Maybe Not: see The Most Desired Man

Mayerling ★★

France 1935 90m bw
Seymour Nebenzal/Nero Film
In 1889, imperial lovers are found dead in a country house.
Classic French version of a somewhat chilly subject.
w Joseph Kessel, V. Cube novel Claude Anet d Anatole Litvak
☆ Charles Boyer, Danielle Darrieux, Marthe Regnier, Yolande Laffon, Suzy Prim
'As good a picture as Hollywood could produce, plus some local touches that are inaccessible to Hollywood.' – Variety

Mayerling

France/GB 1968 141m Eastmancolor Panavision
Corona/Winchester (Robert Dorfmann)
In 1889 the heir to the Habsburg Empire is forced into a suicide pact with his mistress.
Tedious dramatization of historical events which in 1935 had made a delicate French film but in these hands seems an endless and boring manipulation of doubtful events into turgid romance.
wd Terence Young novel Claude Anet ph Henri Alekan m Francis Lai pd Georges Wakhevitch
☆ Omar Sharif, Catherine Deneuve, James Mason, Ava Gardner, James Robertson Justice, Genevieve Page, Ivan Desny, Maurice Teynac

The Mayor of 44th Street

US 1942 86m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)
Dance bands are threatened by hooligans demanding protection money.
Boring melodrama with music.
w Lewis R. Foster d Alfred E. Green ph Robert de Grasse songs Mort Greene, Harry Revel
☆ George Murphy, Anne Shirley, Richard Barthelmess, William Gargan, Joan Merrill, Millard Mitchell, Mary Wickes, Freddy Martin and band
♫ song 'There's a Breeze on Lake Louise'

The Mayor of Hell ★

US 1933 90m bw
Warner
A racketeer becomes superintendent of a reform school, and it changes his life.
Moderate star vehicle with a plot that did yeoman service thereafter in Dead End Kids films.
w Edward Chodorov d Archie Mayo ph Barney McGill m Leo F. Forbstein
☆ James Cagney, Madge Evans, Allen Jenkins, Dudley Digges, Frankie Darro
'Has the outline of a junior Big House. Offers exploitation easily.' – Variety
'Propaganda for nothing: like most of what comes out of Hollywood, it is entertaining trash.' – Time † Remade in 1938 as Crime School with Humphrey Bogart, 1939 as Hell's Kitchen with Ronald Reagan.

Maytime ★★

US 1937 132m bw (sepia sequence)
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)
An opera star falls in love with a penniless singer but her jealous impresario shoots him.
Lush romantic musical which turns gradually into melodrama and ends in a ghostly reunion for the lovers. If that's what you like, it could scarcely be better done.
w Noel Langley operetta Rida Johnson Young d Robert Z. Leonard ph Oliver T. Marsh m Sigmund Romberg md Herbert Stothart
☆ Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, John Barrymore, Herman Bing, Lynne Carver, Rafaela Ottiano, Paul Porcasi, Sig Rumann
'Click operetta … cinch for the foreign market also.' – Variety
'Enjoyable for more than camp reasons the atmosphere of thwarted passion is compelling.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
† Shooting had begun in colour with Frank Morgan in Bing's part and Paul Lukas in Barrymore's; this footage, directed by Edmund Goulding, was abandoned on Irving Thalberg's death.
♗ Herbert Stothart

Maytime in Mayfair

GB 1949 95m Technicolor
British Lion/Imperadio (Herbert Wilcox)
A playboy inherits a dress salon and falls for the lady manager.
Witless comedy fit to set one's teeth on edge, with over-acting and poor musical numbers. Not in the same street as its predecessor Spring in Park Lane.
w Nicholas Phipps d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene md Robert Farnon ☆ Anna Neagle, Michael Wilding, Nicholas Phipps, Peter Graves, Tom Walls
'Painstakingly refined.' – MFB

'The Suspense Novel That Startled the World.'
'The Deadliest Trap On Earth!'

The Maze

US 1953 81m bw 3-D
Allied Artists (Richard Heermance)
The heir to a title also inherits a family curse and turns into a giant frog.
Rather splendidly idiotic horror film which raises plenty of laughs but no frissons.
w Dan Ullman story Maurice Sandoz d William Cameron Menzies ph Harry Neumann m Marlin Skiles pd William Cameron Menzies ad David Milton ed John C. Fuller
☆ Richard Carlson (Gerald McTeam), Veronica Hurst (Kitty Murray), Katherine Emery (Edith Murray), Michael Pate (William), Lillian Bond (Margaret Dilling), Hillary Brooke (Peggy Lord), Owen McGiveney (Simon), John Dodsworth (Dr Bert Dilling), Stanley Fraser (Robert), Robin Hughes (Robert Robler)

Me and Him

US 1988 90m colour
Columbia/Egmont/Neue Constantin (Bernd Eichinger)
A New Yorker's penis begins to talk back to him.
A comedy about male chauvinism that fails to raise a smile.
w Warren D. Leight, Michael Junker, Doris Dörrie novel Io e Lui by Alberto Moravia d Doris Dörrie ph Helge Weindler ed Raimund Barthelmes ☆ Griffin Dunne, Ellen Greene, Steven Marcus, Craig T. Nelson, Kelly Bishop, Carey Lowell, Kara Glover, Kim Flowers

Me and Marlborough ★

GB 1935 84m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)
In Marlborough's army, a woman takes the place of her soldier husband to prove his innocence of spying.
Curious period service farce, not quite a success but an interesting attempt at something different.
w Ian Hay, Marjorie Gaffney story W. P. Lipscomb, Reginald Pound d Victor Saville ph Charles Van Enger
☆ Cicely Courtneidge, Tom Walls, Barry McKay, Alfred Drayton
'In most cases the comedy is totally uncalled for and destroys the period atmosphere.' – Variety

Me and My Gal ★

US 1932 79m bw
Fox
GB title Pier 13
A cop on the beat romances a hashslinger and catches a crook.
Pleasant little programmer, very evocative of its period.
w Arthur Kober d Raoul Walsh ph Arthur Miller
☆ Spencer Tracy, Joan Bennett, George Walsh, Marion Burns, J. Farrell MacDonald, Noel Madison, Henry B. Walthall
'Lacking in nearly everything that makes box office.' – Variety † Remade in 1949 as Pier 13.

Me and My Pal ★

US 1933 20m bw
Hal Roach
Ollie becomes engrossed in a jigsaw puzzle and forgets to get married.
Oddball star comedy which nearly comes off but simply doesn't provide enough jokes.
w Stan Laurel d Charles Rogers, Lloyd French ph Art Lloyd ed Bert Jordan

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Eddie Dunn

Me and the Colonel

US 1958 110m bw
Columbia/Court-Goetz (William Goetz)

In 1940 an anti-semitic Polish colonel is obliged to flee from France in the company of a Jewish refugee.

Rather obvious war comedy with predictable but not very entertaining situations, sentiment, action and pathos. The stars cope well enough but the picture never picks up steam.

w S. N. Behrman, George Froeschel play Franz Werfel d Peter Glenville ph Burnett Guffey m George Duning

☆ Danny Kaye, Curt Jurgens, Nicole Maurey, Françoise Rosay, Akim Tamiroff, Martita Hunt, Alexander Scourby, Liliane Montevecchi, Ludwig Stossel

Me and Will

US 1999 101m colour
S & M (Melissa Behr, Sherrie Rose)

A heroin-addicted writer meets an unhappy painter in drug rehab and the two women set out on their motorbikes to find the machine that Peter Fonda rode in Easy Rider.

A vanity project for its stars, who also produce, write and direct without creating effective roles for themselves or any of the other participamts.

wd Melissa Behr, Sherrie Rose ph Joey Forsyte ed Eric L. Beason, Debra Goldfield, Ross Guidici

☆ Sherrie Rose (Jane), Melissa Behr (Will), Patrick Dempsey (Fast Eddie), Seymour Cassel (Roy), Grace Zabriskie (Edith), Steve Railsback (Rob), M. Emmet Walsh (Dean), Keanu Reeves (Himself)

Me and You and Everyone We Know ★

US/GB/Japan 2005 90m DeLuxe
Optimum/IFC/Filmfour (Gina Kwon)

A deserted, erratic shoe salesman begins a tentative relationship with a struggling, fey video artist.

Fitfully amusing, occasionally insightful account of sexual experiments by the young, and love among the eccentrics.

wd Miranda July ph Chuy Chavez m Mike Andrews pd Aran Mann ed Andrew Dickler

☆ John Hawkes (Richard), Miranda July (Christine), Miles Thompson (Peter), Brandon Ratcliff (Robby), Carlie Westerman (Sylvie), Natasha Slayton (Heather), Najarra Townsend (Rebecca)

'By turns comic and tender, tragic and absurd. But throughout, it gives off what is surely one of the greatest of moviegoing pleasures – the sense of an artist seeing the world from some private vantage that is as original as it is truthful.' – Scott Foundas, LA Weekly

'A hit-and-miss affair. It has moments of unexpected, offbeat comedy, but most of the time neither the characters nor the situations engage the viewer.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

'From gentle to mental'

Me, Myself and Irene

US 2000 117m DuArt
TCF/Conundrum (Bradley Thomas, Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly)

A Rhode Island state trooper with split personalities –one nice, the other nasty– falls in love with the woman he is escorting to New York.

Fans of Jim Carrey at his most manic will enjoy his mugging in this tasteless, episodic comedy; others will do well to stay as far away as possible.

w Peter Farrelly, Mike Cerrone, Bobby Farrelly d Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly ph Mark Irwin m Peter Yorn, Lee Scott pd Sidney J. Bartholomew Jnr ed Christopher Greenbury sp makeup fx, animatronics: Alterian Studios cos Pamela Withers

☆ Jim Carrey (Charlie/Hank), Renee Zellweger (Irene), Chris Cooper (Lt Gerke), Robert Forster (Col Partington), Richard Jenkins (Agent Boshane), Rob Moran (Trooper Finneran), Traylor Howard (Layla), Daniel Greene (Dickie Thurman), Zen Gesner (Agent Peterson), Tony Cox (Limo Driver), Anthony Anderson (Jamaal), Rex Allen Jnr (Narrator), Mongo Brownlee (Lee Harvey), Jerod Mixon (Shonte Jnr)

'Goes out of its way to shock its audience with the bizarre and socially unacceptable antics of its protagonist.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight and Sound

'Jim Carrey's weakest effort to date, his talents wasted on a film which manages to be both unamusing and unpleasant by turns.' – Empire

† It took $90.6m at the US box office.

'Find out what happens when first love gets a second chance.'

Me Myself I ★

Australia/France 1999 104m colour
Buena Vista/Gaumont/Films du Loup/Sedell (Fabien Liron)

A successful, single, thirtysomething female journalist finds herself transformed into the suburban wife of the man whose proposal of marriage she turned down 13 years earlier, and the mother of three children.

Enjoyable identity-switching comedy in which a woman gets to discover that the grass on the other side of the fence is no greener.

wd Pip Karmel ph Graeme Lind m Charlie Chan pd Murray Picknett ed Denise Haratzis cos Paul Warren, Ariane Weiss

☆ Rachel Griffiths (Pamela Drury), David Roberts (Robert Dickson), Sandy Winton (Ben), Yael Stone (Stacey), Shaun Loseby (Douglas), Trent Sullivan (Rupert)

'An exceedingly broad and obvious situation comedy that is nonetheless rooted in a great deal of recognizable truth.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Me, Natalie ★

US 1969 111m DeLuxe
Cinema Center (Stanley Shapiro)

An unattractive 18-year-old girl moves into Greenwich Village and learns to accept herself as she is.

Basically very predictable but rather well done character study with excellent detail.

w A. Martin Zweiback d Fred Coe ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Henry Mancini

☆ Patty Duke, James Farentino, Martin Balsam, Elsa Lanchester, Salome Jens, Nancy Marchand, Al Pacino

Me Without You

GB/Germany 2001 108m Technicolor Panavision
Momentum/Road Movies/IoMFC/Dakota/Wave (Finola Dwyer)

The friendship and rivalry of two women, from their early years in London of the 1970s to university and beyond.

A sometimes engaging study of a relationship between opposites that is both supportive and destructive, and most perceptive on the pair's student years.

w Sandra Goldbacher, Laurence Coriat d Sandra Goldbacher ph Denis Crossan m Adrian Johnston pd Michael Carlin ed Michael Ellis

☆ Anna Friel (Marina), Michelle Williams (Holly), Kyle MacLachlan (Daniel), Oliver Milburn (Nat), Trudie Styler (Linda), Marianne Denicourt (Isabel), Nicky Henson (Ray), Allan Corduner (Max)

'Explores dysfunctional female relationships to the point where you drop with exhaustion. At least if you're a bloke you do.' – Alexander Walker

Me You Them: see Eu Tu Eles

'Beneath the surface, everyone has a secret.'

Mean Creek ★★

US 2004 89m FotoKem
Tartan/Whitewater Films (Rick Rosenthal, Susan Johnson, Hagai Shaham)

A group of teenagers decide to teach the fat school bully a lesson by inviting him on a trip along the river, where they plan to strip him and force him to run home naked.

Tense drama of the feral instincts of the young, in which decency and bravado battle for supremacy; as the excursion goes horribly wrong, the group's emotional and moral crisis rings terribly true.

wd Jacob Aaron Estes ph Sharone Meir m Tomandandy pd Greg McMickle ed Madeleine Gavin

☆ Rory Culkin (Sam), Ryan Kelley (Clyde), Scott Mechlowicz (Marty), Trevor Morgan (Rocky), Josh Peck (George), Carly Schroeder (Millie)

'Feature's strength lies in its crackling intensity, ultra-sharp character insights and an affinity for teenage protagonists who look and sound like real teens.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

'Watch your back'

Mean Girls

US 2004 97m DeLuxe
Paramount (Lorne Michaels)

A new girl in high school is accepted into the ruling clique until she dates the wrong boy.

Based on research, this is presumably an authentic comedy of American high school life; it seems the usual mix of bitchiness and striving for popularity, lively enough, but also bland and forgettable.

w Tina Fey book Queen Bees and Wannabes by Rosalind Wiseman d Mark Waters ph Daryn Okada m Rolfe Kent pd Cary White ed Wendy Greene Bricmont

☆ Lindsay Lohan (Cady Heron), Rachel McAdams (Regina George), Tina Fey (Ms Norbury), Tim Meadows (Mr Duvall), Amy Poehler (Mrs George), Ana Gasteyer (Cady's Mom)

'It's all very well to satirize perfect white females, but if you're sick of their attitudes why single them out as protagonists in the first place?' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Mean Guns

US 1996 96m Foto-Kem
Polygram/Filmwerks (Gary Schmoeller, Tom Karnowski)

A group of hitmen are gathered together in an unopened prison and told that the last three alive at the end of six hours can claim $10 million hidden in the building.

Explosive action movie, essentially men with guns running around shooting at one another.

w Andrew Witham d Albert Pyun ph George Mooradian m Tony Riparetti ed Ken Morrisey

☆ Christopher Lambert (Lou), Ice-T (Vincent Moon), Michael Halsey (Marcus), Deborah Van Valkenburgh (Cam), Tina Coté (Barb), Yuji Okomoto (Hoss), Thom Matthews (Crow), Hunter Doughty (Lucy), Kimberly Warren (Dee)

'Make no mistake, this is one of the worst films you will ever see.' – Ben Mitchell, Guardian

'Not Your Usual Suspects.'

Mean Machine

GB/US 2001 98m DeLuxe
Paramount/Ska/Ruddy/Morgan/Brad Grey (Matthew Vaughn)

A disgraced former England soccer captain, jailed for assault, coaches a prisoners' team in a game against the guards.

Unsuccessful attempt to make a star of a former footballer of limited acting ability, who was notorious for his tough-guy attitude on the field; the threadbare, hand-me-down script doesn't help.

w Charlie Fletcher, Chris Baker, Andrew Day screenplay Tracy Keenan Wynn story Albert S. Ruddy d Barry Skolnick ph Alex Barber m John Murphy pd Russell De Rozario ed Eddie Hamilton, Dayn Williams

☆ Vinnie Jones (Danny Meehan), Jason Statham (Monk), David Kelly (Doc), David Hemmings (Prison Governor), Vas Blackwood (Massive), Jason Flemyng (Bob), Danny Dyer (Billy the Limpet), Robbie Gee (Trojan)

'Another useless recycling of a brutal mid-'70s American sports movie.' – Joe Leydon, San Francisco Examiner

'It all seems like an unvarnished report on the state of English soccer today – or indeed the state of British cinema, reduced to the lowest common (and very common it is) denominator of laddish, loutish thuggery.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

† It is an Anglicised remake of Robert Aldrich's 1974 movie The Longest Yard (qv).

The Mean Machine (1974): see The Longest Yard

The Mean Season

US 1985 103m DeLuxe Panavision
Orion/Turman-Foster

A Miami police reporter becomes the personal spokesman for a murderous psychopath.

Tolerable murder thriller with asides on politics and the media.

w Leon Piedmont novel In the Heat of the Summer by John Katzenbach d Phillip Borsos ph Frank Tidy m Lalo Schifrin pd Philip Jefferies

☆ Kurt Russell, Mariel Hemingway, Richard Jordan, Richard Masur, Richard Bradford, Joe Pantoliano

Mean Streets ★★★★

US 1973 110m Technicolor
Taplin-Perry-Scorsese (Jonathan T. Taplin)

Four young Italian-Americans use Tony's Bar as a base for drinking, brawling and hustling.

Relentlessly sordid melodrama with a good eye for realistic detail. The first film in which Scorsese announced himself as a major talent and discovered the subject matter that has served him so well.

w Martin Scorsese, Mardik Martin
d Martin Scorsese ph Kent Wakeford
ed Sid Levin
☆ Harvey Keitel (Charlie), Robert De Niro (Johnny Boy), David Proval (Tony), Amy Robinson (Teresa), Richard Romanus (Teresa)
'Lacks a sense of story and structure unless a film-maker respects the needs of his audience, he can't complain if that audience fails to show up.' – Variety
'A thicker-textured rot than we have ever had in an American movie, and a deeper sense of evil.' – New Yorker
'Extraordinarily rich and distinguished on many levels.' – Joseph Gelmis

The Meanest Man in the World

US 1943 57m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

An easy-going small-town lawyer finds that business picks up when he becomes tough and mean.
Very minor star comedy with a muddled opening followed by strictly rationed laughs.
w George Seaton, Allan House play George M. Cohan d Sidney Lanfield ph Peverell Marley m Cyril J. Mockridge ad Richard Day, Albert Hogsett ed Robert Bischoff
☆ Jack Benny, Priscilla Lane, Rochester, Edmund Gwenn, Anne Revere

The Meaning of Life: see Monty Python's The Meaning of Life

Meatballs

Canada 1979 92m Sonolab Color
Paramount (Dan Goldberg)

Adventures at an ineptly run summer camp.
Adolescent fun and games for easily pleased teens.
w Len Blum, Dan Goldberg, Harold Ramis, Janis Allen d Ivan Reitman ph Don Wilder m Elmer Bernstein ad David Charles ed Debra Karen ☆ Bill Murray (Tripper), Harvey Atkin (Morty), Russ Banham (Crockett), Ron Barry (Lance), Jack Blum (Spaz), Kate Lynch (Roxanne), Matt Craven (Hardware), Kristine DeBell (A.L.), Cindy Girling (Brenda)
'A smooth–running narrative that makes the camp hijinks part of an overall human mosaic... without the usual grossness and cynicism of many contempo comedy pix.' – Variety

Meatballs 4

US 1992 87m colour
Moviestore (Donald P. Borchers)

A water skier tries to prevent a lakeside summer camp being taken over by a ruthless developer.
Tired comedy with a predictable plot, occasionally enlivened by the action on water skis.
wd Bob Logan ph Vance Burberry
m Steve Hunter pd Deborah Raymond
ed Peter H. Verity
☆ Corey Feldman (Ricky Wade), Jack Nance (Neil Peterson), Sarah Douglas (Monica), Bojesse Christopher (Wes), Johnny Cocktails (Victor), J. Trevor Edmond (Howie), Paige French (Jennifer), John Mendoza (Dick)

'Rudy struck out two summers in a row... this will be his year to score!'

Meatballs III: Summer Job

Canada 1987 94m Sonolab color
(John Dunning, Don Carmody)

A wimp loses his virginity at summer camp with the aid of the ghost of a pornographic filmstar.
Tedious, frequently distasteful, no-brow, slapstick comedy; underlying all the antics is an adolescent fear of sex, or possibly its makers' fear of adolescent sex.
w Michael Paseorner, Radley Kesden story Carl Workman d George Mendeluk ph Peter Benison m Paul Zaza pd Charles Dunlop ed Debra Karen ☆ Sally Kellerman, Al Waxman, Patrick Dempsey, Shannon Tweed, Maury Chaykin, Isabelle Mejias, Ronnie Hawkins, George Suza

Meatballs Part II

Canada 1984 87m Movielab color
TriStar (Stephen Poe, Tony Bishop)

The future of a summer camp depends upon the outcome of a boxing match.
Raucous lowbrow comedy, a series of slapstick jokes and parodies.
w Bruce Singer story Martin Kitrosser, Carol Watson d Ken Wiederhorn ph Donald M. Morgan m Ken Harrison
pd James William Newport ed George Berndt
☆ Archie Hahn (Jamie), John Mengatti (Flash), Tammy Taylor (Nancy), Kim Richards (Cheryl), Ralph Seymour (Eddie), Richard Mulligan (Giddy), Hamilton Camp (Hershey), John Larroquette (Meathead), Paul Reubens (Albert)

'The Mechanic must be dead sure ... or dead!'

The Mechanic

US 1972 100m Technicolor
UA/Chartoff/Winkler/Carlino

reissue title: Killer of Killers
A professional assassin under contract to the Mafia makes his missions look like accidents.
Violent thriller with a few pretensions, but too flashily made to be taken seriously.
w Lewis John Carlino d Michael Winner
ph Richard Kline, Robert Paynter m Jerry Fielding ☆ Charles Bronson, Jan-Michael Vincent, Keenan Wynn, Jill Ireland
'A hymn to technological violence, efficiently and convincingly made.' – George Melly, Observer

Med Kaerlig Hilsen: see Love Me Darling

A Medal for Benny ★

US 1945 77m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

An old rustic is the centre of small town celebrations in honour of his dead war hero son.
Satirical-sentimental location drama, effective but not memorable.
w Frank Butler original story John Steinbeck, Jack Wagner d Irving Pichel ph Lionel Lindon m Victor Young ☆ Dorothy Lamour, Arturo de Cordova, J. Carrol Naish, Mikhail Rasumny, Charles Dingle, Frank McHugh, Grant Mitchell
Ⱥ original story; J. Carrol Naish

Medal for the General

GB 1944 99m bw
British National (Louis H. Jackson)

An old general takes in evacuees and finds a new interest in life.
Uneventful character drama which seemed mildly pleasing at the time.
w Elizabeth Baron novel James Ronald d Maurice Elvey ph James Wilson
m William Alwun md Charles Williams
ad Wilfred Arnold ed Grace Garland
☆ Godfrey Tearle (General Church), Jeanne de Casalis (Lady Frome), Morland Graham (Bates), Mabel Constanduros (Mrs Bates), John Laurie (McNab), Petula Clark (Irma)

The Medallion ③

Hong Kong/US 2003 88m colour
Columbia TriStar/Screen Gems/Emperor Multimedia/Golden Port/Jackie Chan (Alfred Cheung)

A Hong Kong cop and an Interpol agent go in search of a kidnapped boy who knows the secret of a medallion that can raise the dead and give them supernatural powers.
Chan and Evans flounder before sinking without trace in a narrative that is at best confused and more often incomprehensible.
w Bey Logan, Gordon Chan, Alfred Cheung, Bennett Joshua Davlin, Paul Wheeler d Gordon Chan ph Arthur Wong
m Adrian Lee pd Joseph C. Nemec III
ed Chan Ki Hop action director Sammo Hung ☆ Jackie Chan (Eddie Yang), Lee Evans (Arthur Watson), Claire Forlani (Nicole James), Julian Sands (Snakehead), Jonathan Rhys-Davies (Cmdr Hammerstock-Smythe), Anthony Wong (Lester Wong), Christy Chung (Charlotte Watson), Johann Giscard Myers (Giscard)
'At times plays as if it were aimed at children, but more often simply seems to be aiming blind at whatever genre cliché the five credited writers fix upon in any given scene.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Medals: see Seven Days Leave (1929)

Medea ★

Italy/France/West Germany 1970 118m Eastmancolor
San Marco/Number One/Janus (Franco Rossellini, Marina Cicogna)

Jason brings back as his wife the high priestess of the Golden Fleece, but her adjustment is to say the least uncomfortable.
In modern terms the case history of a psychopath, this weird production plays like an opera without music, and seems to have been designed as a vehicle for its charismatic star.
wd Pier Paolo Pasolini play Euripides
ph Ennio Guarnieri
☆ Maria Callas, Giuseppe Gentile, Laurent Terzieff, Massimo Girotti

'He turned his back on civilization. Only to discover he had the power to save it.'

Medicine Man

US 1992 105m Technicolor Panavision
Guild/Cinergi (Andrew G. Vajna, Donna Dubrow)

A scientist, who has discovered a cure for cancer while working in the South American rain forest, is upset to find that his new research assistant is a woman.
Unpalatable mix of ecology and romance, with a long-delayed outcome that is predictable from the opening minutes.
w Tom Schulman, Sally Robinson d John McTiernan ph Donald McAlpine m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ Sean Connery, Lorraine Bracco, José Wilker, Rodolfo de Alexandre, Angelo Barra Moreira
'This jumbo-budget two-character piece suffers from a very weak script and a lethal job of miscasting.' – Variety † Tom Schulman was reportedly paid $3 million for his script, with another $1 million being spent on rewrites. And still they got it wrong.

'A film dedicated to all those who are running away.'

Mediterraneo ★

Italy 1991 90m Technicolor
Mayfair/Penta/AMA/Berlusconi (Gianni Minervini)

During the Second World War, eight Italian soldiers find themselves forgotten and stranded on an idyllic Aegean island.
Based on a true story, this is a pleasant, bittersweet, nostalgic comedy that prefers the past to the present.
w Vincenzo Monteleone d Gabriele Salvatores ph Italo Pettriccione
m Giancarlo Bigazzi, Marco Falagiani
ad Thalia Istikopoulos ed Nino Baragali ☆ Diego Abatantuono, Claudio Bigagli, Giuseppe Cederna, Claudio Bisio, Gigio Alberti, Ugo Conti, Memo Dini, Vasco Mirondola, Vanna Barba
'An ironic, gently amusing charmer, even though its anti-war elements jostle clumsily with its not entirely persuasive case for running away from real life's disappointments.' – Angie Errigo, Empire
Ⱥ best foreign film

The Medium ★

Italy 1951 80m bw
Transfilm (Walter Lowendahl)

A fake medium feels a genuine manifestation, shoots at it and kills her assistant, but is still not sure whether he was responsible.
A filmic but not entirely satisfactory treatment of a modest but popular modern opera.
ph Enzo Serafin wd/m Gian-Carlo Menotti, his opera co-d Alexander Hammid ☆ Marie Powers, Anna Maria Alberghetti, Leo Coleman
Ⱥ Gian-Carlo Menotti (for music)

Medium Cool ★★

US 1969 111m Technicolor
Paramount/H & J Pictures (Tully Friedman)

A TV news cameraman is made apathetic by the events around him.
Stimulating if overlong comment on the quality of life in the sixties, immaculately made and with a rather effective though obvious twist ending.
wd Haskell Wexler ph Haskell Wexler
m Mike Bloomfield ad Leon Ericksen
☆ Robert Forster, Verna Bloom, Peter Bonerz, Marianna Hill, Sid McCoy
'A deeply moving questioning of America's violence and voyeurism.' – Jan Dawson
'I can't think of any film that tells one more about the texture of American life today.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'By the time he was eleven he had killed nine people!'

The Medusa Touch ★

GB/France 1978 109m Technicolor
ITC/Bulldog/Citeca (Arnon Milchan, Elliott Kastner)

A novelist is haunted by the belief that he can cause disaster.

And he does, very predictably, while any intellectual excitement in the script is rapidly replaced by mere mayhem. Different, but not exciting.
w John Briley novel Peter Van Greenway d Jack Gold ph Arthur Ibbetson m Michael J. Lewis sp Doug Ferris ☆ Richard Burton, Lee Remick, Lino Ventura, Harry Andrews, Alan Badel, Jeremy Brett, Michael Hordern, Gordon Jackson

Meet Danny Wilson
US 1951 83m bw
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)
An overbearing crooner gets to the top with the help of gangsters.
Fairly abrasive star vehicle, almost amounting to self-parody.
w Don McGuire d Joseph Pevney ph Maury Gertsman md Joseph Gershenson ☆ Frank Sinatra, Shelley Winters, Alex Nicol, Raymond Burr

Meet Dr Christian
US 1939 68m bw
William Stephens/RKO
A dedicated small-town doctor has no concern for financial reward.
Adequate pot-boiler based on a radio character, and following Hersholt's popularity as Dr Dafoe.
w Ian McLellan Hunter, Harvey Gates, Ring Lardner Jnr d Bernard Vorhaus ph Robert Pittack
☆ Jean Hersholt, Dorothy Lovett, Robert Baldwin, Enid Bennett, Paul Harvey, Marcia Mae Jones
'First of a series ... profitable programme material for the family trade.' – Variety

'Sooner or later everyone does.'

Meet Joe Black
US 1998 180m DeLuxe
Universal/City Light (Martin Brest)
Death, in the form of a handsome young man, comes calling for a media tycoon and is attracted to the man's daughter.
A movie more than half in love with Brad Pitt; the camera swoons around him endlessly, while little of interest goes on elsewhere.
w Ron Osborn, Jeff Reno, Kevin Wade, Bo Goldman play Death Takes a Holiday by Alberto Casella, adapted by Walter Ferris screenplay Maxwell Anderson, Gladys Lehman d Martin Brest ph Emmanuel Lubezki m Thomas Newman pd Dante Ferretti ed Joe Hutshing, Michael Tronick sp Industrial Light & Magic ☆ Brad Pitt, Anthony Hopkins, Claire Forlani, Jake Weber, Marcia Gay Harden, Jeffrey Tambor, David S. Howard, Lois Kelly-Miller
† The film was a box-office flop, costing around $100m to make and market, and grossing around $43.25m at the US box-office.

Meet John Doe ★★★
US 1941 123m bw
Liberty Films (Frank Capra)
A tramp is hired to embody the common man in a phony political drive, and almost commits suicide.
Vividly staged but over-sentimental Capra extravaganza with high spots outnumbering low.
w Robert Riskin d Frank Capra ph George Barnes m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Stephen Goosson ed Daniel Mandell
☆ Gary Cooper ("John Doe"/Long John Willoughby), Barbara Stanwyck (Ann Mitchell), Edward Arnold (D.B. Norton), Walter Brennan (Colonel), James Gleason (Henry Connell), Spring Byington (Mrs. Mitchell), Gene Lockhart (Mayor Lovett), Rod la Rocque (Ted Sheldon), Irving Bacon (Beany), Regis Toomey (Bert Hansen), Ann Doran (Mrs. Hansen), Warren Hymer (Angelface), Andrew Tombes (Spencer)
'Capra is as skilled as ever in keeping things moving along briskly and dramatically.' – National Board of Review
'The meanings were so distorted that the original authors sued ... It starts out in the confident Capra manner, but with a darker tone; by the end, you feel puzzled and cheated.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Ⱥ original story (Richard Connell, Robert Presnell)

Meet Me after the Show ★
US 1951 88m Technicolor
TCF (George Jessel)
A musical star thinks she has discovered an affair between her husband and his glamorous backer.
Surprisingly bright routine musical.
w Mary Loos, Richard Sale d Richard Sale ph Arthur E. Arling md Lionel Newman songs Jule Styne, Leo Robin ☆ Betty Grable, Macdonald Carey, Rory Calhoun, Eddie Albert, Irene Ryan

Meet Me at Dawn
GB 1946 99m bw
Excelsior/Marcel Hellman
US title: The Gay Duellist
A professional duellist is commissioned to provoke a duel with a senator, but unwittingly hires the senator's daughter to play the injured party.
A totally laborious and artificial period comedy which never seems even to aspire to the style required.
w Lesley Storm, James Seymour, Maurice Cowan story Le Tueur by Anatole Litvak, Marcel Achard d Thornton Freeland ph Gunther Krampf m Mischa Spoliansky ad Norman Arnold ed E. B. Jarvis
☆ Hazel Court (Gabrielle Vermorel), William Eythe (Charles Morton), Stanley Holloway (Emile), Margaret Rutherford (Mme Vermorel), Basil Sydney (Georges Vermorel), Irene Browne (Madame Renault), George Thorpe (Senator Philipe Renault), Ada Reeve (Concierge), Graeme Muir (Count de Brissac), James Harcourt (Butler), Wilfrid Hyde-White (News Editor), Charles Victor (First Client)

Meet Me at the Fair
US 1952 87m Technicolor
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)
In 1900, an orphan joins a travelling medicine show.
Mildly pleasing open-air comedy drama.
w Irving Wallace novel The Great Companions by Gene Markey d Douglas Sirk ph Maury Gertsman md Joseph Gershenson
☆ Diana Lynn, Dan Dailey, Hugh O'Brian, Chet Allen, Rhys Williams

Meet Me in Las Vegas
US 1956 112m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Joe Pasternak)
GB title: Viva Las Vegas!
A gambler's luck changes when he grabs the hand of a passing ballerina.
Listless song-and-dance extravaganza which wastes a great deal of talent.
w Isobel Lennart d Roy Rowland ph Robert Bronner m Georgie Stoll, Johnny Green ch Eugène Loring, Hermes Pan ly Sammy Cahn
☆ Dan Dailey, Cyd Charisse, Agnes Moorehead, Lili Darvas, Paul Henreid, Oscar Karlweis, Lena Horne, Jerry Colonna, Frankie Laine
'A large-scale musical of almost stupefying banality.' – MFB
Ⱥ Georgie Stoll, Johnny Green

Meet Me in St Louis ★★★
US 1944 113m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)
Scenes in the life of an affectionate family at the turn of the last century.
Patchy but generally highly agreeable musical nostalgia with an effective sense of the passing years and seasons.
w Irving Brecher, Fred Finklehoffe novel Sally Benson d Vincente Minnelli ph George Folsey md Georgie Stoll ad Lemuel Ayers, Cedric Gibbons ed Albert Akst
☆ Judy Garland (Esther Smith), Margaret O'Brien ('Tootie' Smith), Tom Drake (John Truett), Leon Ames (Mr Alonzo Smith), Mary Astor (Mrs Anne Smith), Lucille Bremer (Rose Smith), June Lockhart (Lucille Ballard), Harry Davenport (Grandpa), Marjorie Main, Joan Carroll, Hugh Marlowe, Robert Sully, Chill Wills
'A family group framed in velvet and tinsel ... it has everything a romantic musical should have.' – Dilys Powell, 1955
'A charming picture. There is much more in it than meets the ear.' – C. A. Lejeune
♫ 'Meet Me in St Louis'; 'The Boy Next Door'; 'Under the Bamboo Tree'; 'The Trolley Song'; 'You and I'; 'Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas'
Ⱥ script; George Folsey; Georgie Stoll; song 'The Trolley Song' (m/ly Ralph Blane, Hugh Martin)

Meet Me on Broadway
US 1946 77m bw
Columbia (Burt Kelly)
A young musical director determines to hit Broadway.
Mild revue with a skimpy plot.
w George Bricker, Jack Henley d Leigh Jason m/ly Allen Roberts, Doris Fisher ☆ Marjorie Reynolds, Fred Brady, Jinx Falkenburg, Spring Byington, Gene Lockhart, Allen Jenkins

Meet Me Tonight
GB 1952 85m Technicolor
British Film Makers/Anthony Havelock Allan
Three short Noël Coward plays: Red Peppers, Fumed Oak, Ways and Means.
Regrettably bald treatment of three playlets which have not lasted well. A thoroughly artificial evening.
w Noël Coward d Anthony Pelissier ph Desmond Dickinson m/ly Noël Coward ☆ Ted Ray, Kay Walsh, Stanley Holloway, Betty Ann Davies, Nigel Patrick, Valerie Hobson

Meet Mr Callaghan
GB 1954 88m bw
Pinnacle
A private detective unmasks a rich man's killer.
Routine thick ear on American lines; moderately popular at the time, it spawned no sequels.
w Brock Williams play Gerald Verner (based on novel The Urgent Hangman by Peter Cheyney) d Charles Saunders ph Harry Waxman m Eric Spear ☆ Derrick de Marney, Harriet Johns, Peter Neil, Adrienne Corri, Delphi Lawrence, Belinda Lee

Meet Mr Lucifer
GB 1953 81m bw
Ealing (Monja Danischewsky)
The Demon King in a tatty provincial pantomime dreams he is the devil preventing people from wasting time watching television.
Clean and occasionally amusing piece of topical satire on tellymania; but the prologue is funnier than the sketches.
w Monja Danischewsky play Beggar My Neighbour by Arnold Ridley d Anthony Pelissier ph Desmond Dickinson m Eric Rogers
☆ Stanley Holloway, Peggy Cummins, Jack Watling, Barbara Murray, Joseph Tomelty, Gordon Jackson, Jean Cadell, Kay Kendall, Ian Carmichael, Gilbert Harding, Charles Victor, Humphrey Lestocq

Meet Mr Penny
GB 1938 70m bw
British National
A meek clerk leads a revolt against a speculator who wants to build on allotments.
Early Ealing-style social comedy based on a radio character; of no abiding interest.
w Victor Kendall, Doreen Montgomery, from the character created by Maurice Moisiewicz d David MacDonald
☆ Richard Goolden, Vic Oliver, Fabia Drake, Kay Walsh, Patrick Barr, Hermione Gingold, Wilfrid Hyde-White

Meet Nero Wolfe ★
US 1936 73m bw
Columbia
A corpulent stay-at-home sleuth solves a disappearance and a murder.
The film début of an engaging crime character, who oddly never made it to a series.
w Howard J. Green, Bruce Manning, Joseph Anthony play Fer de Lance by Rex Stout d Herbert Biberman ph Henry Freulich
☆ Edward Arnold, Lionel Stander, Joan Perry, Rita Hayworth, Victor Jory, Nana Bryant, Walter Kingsford, John Qualen

'The human race is about to be destroyed by people who wouldn't hurt a fly'

Meet the Applegates
US 1990 82m DuArt
Castle Premier/New World (Denise Di Novi)
US title: The Applegates
Giant insects, whose habitat in the Brazilian rain forests has been destroyed, disguise themselves as humans and go to America to wreck a nuclear power plant.
Ineffectual slapstick satire aimed at suburban life-styles.
w Redbeard Simmons, Michael Lehmann d Michael Lehmann ph Mitchell Dubin m David Newman pd John Hutman ad Kara Lindstrom, Adam Lustig ed Norman Hollyn
☆ Ed Begley Jnr, Stockard Channing, Dabney Coleman, Bobby Jacoby, Cami Cooper, Glenn Shadix, Susan Barnes, Adam Biesk
'This wayward movie has a great deal of charm.' – MFB

Meet the Baron

US 1933 79m bw
MGM

A nincompoop is fêted as the real Baron Münchhausen.

An incoherent script provides an opportunity for several comics to do their stuff.

w Herman J. Mankiewicz, Norman Krasna, Allen Rivkin, P. J. Wolfson, Arthur Kober, William K. Wells d Walter Lang

☆ Jack Pearl, Jimmy Durante, ZaSu Pitts, Ted Healy and his Stooges, Edna May Oliver, Henry Kolker

'Not so forte in the material division, but saved by its capable crew of comics.' – Variety

'Fish out of water... Surfers in Yellowstone'

Meet the Deedles

US 1998 92m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/DIC/Peak (Dale Pollock, Aaron Meyerson)

Two rich young slackers find themselves inadvertently working as trainee rangers in Yellowstone Park.

Vapid, dim-witted comedy, in which screaming and shouting too often substitute for meaningful dialogue.

w Jim Herzfeld, Dale Pollock d Steve Boyum ph David Hennings m Steve Bartek pd Stephen Storer ed Alan Cody

☆ Steve Van Wormer (Stew Deedle), Paul Walker (Phil Deedle), A. J. Langer (Lt Jesse Ryan), John Ashton (Capt Douglas Pine), Dennis Hopper (Frank Slater), Eric Braeden (Elton Deedle), Richard Lineback (Crabbe), Robert Englund (Nemo)

'Story's central absurdity is compounded by cheap jokes and scatological humor.' – Variety

Meet the Feebles

New Zealand 1989 97m colour
Arrow/Wingnut (Jim Booth, Peter Jackson)

A troupe of puppets indulge in sex, drugs, violence and general vulgarity.

A semi-pornographic horror with Muppet-like creatures that is determined to offend.

w Danny Mulheron, Frances Walsh, Stephen Sinclair, Peter Jackson d Peter Jackson ph Murray Milne m Peter Dasent pd Mike Kane ed Jamie Selkirk sp Steve Ingram

☆ Danny Mulheron and also the voices of: Donna Akersten, Stuart Devenie, Mark Hadlow, Ross Jolly, Brian Sergent, Peter Vere Jones, Mark Wright

'No excuse for spurting bodily secretions – blood, pus, vomit, or whatever – is passed up.' – Sight and Sound

'And you thought your parents were embarrassing.'

Meet the Fockers

US 2004 115m Technicolor
Universal/DreamWorks/Tribeca/Everyman (Jane Rosenthal, Robert De Niro, Jay Roach)

The liberal parents of a male nurse invite for a weekend his fiancee's conservative mother and uptight father, an ex-CIA agent.

A sequel to Meet the Parents in which the amusement is provided by the performances rather than a succession of unfunny situations and endless toilet jokes.

w Jim Herzfeld, John Hamburg d Jay Roach ph John Schwartzman m Randy Newman pd Rusty Smith ed Jon Poll, Lee Haxall

☆ Robert De Niro (Jack Byrnes), Ben Stiller (Greg Focker), Dustin Hoffman (Bernie Focker), Barbra Streisand (Roz Focker), Blythe Danner (Dina Byrnes), Teri Polo (Pam Byrnes), Tim Blake Nelson (Officer Le Flore), Shelley Berman (Judge Ira)

'Lower your expectations to the altitude of the gag that's showcased in the trailer, the one in which Jinx the cat flushes a little dog named Moses down a toilet.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Meet the Mayor

US 1938 63m bw
Frank Fay/Times

A veteran small-town elevator operator becomes involved in politics.

Curious semi-comedy in which the star uses up most of his old vaudeville routines.

w Walter DeLeon, Charles Belden, Frank Fay d Ralph Ceder

☆ Frank Fay, Ruth Hall, Hale Hamilton, George Meeker, Berton Churchill, Franklin Pangborn

'Flimsy meller for secondary duallers.' – Variety

Meet the Missus

US 1937 65m bw
Albert Lewis/RKO

A worm turns when his wife constantly involves him in newspaper contests.

Very slight farce for the rurals.

w Jack Townley, Bert Granet, Joel Sayre story Lady Average by Jack Goodman, Albert Rice d Joseph Santley

☆ Victor Moore, Helen Broderick, Anne Shirley, Alan Bruce, Willie Best

'Destined for the lower half of duals.' – Variety

Meet the Navy

GB 1946 85m bw (Technicolor sequence)
British National

The story of a revue featuring amateurs from the allied navies.

Patchy but generally good-natured wartime entertainment.

w Lester Cooper, James Seymour d Alfred Travers

☆ Lionel Murton, John Pratt, Oscar Naske, Alan Lund

'First comes love. Then comes the interrogation.'

Meet the Parents ★★

US 2000 108m DeLuxe
DreamWorks/Nancy Tenenbaum, Jane Rosenthal, Robert De Niro, Jay Roach

A teacher takes her accident-prone boyfriend, a male nurse, home to meet her mother and father, a humourless ex-CIA officer.

Polished, funny, old-fashioned farcical comedy with some impeccably-timed gags.

w Jim Herzfeld, John Hamburg story Greg Glienna, Mary Ruth Clarke d Jay Roach ph Peter James m Randy Newman pd Rusty Smith ed Jon Poll cos Daniel Orlandi

☆ Robert De Niro (Jack Byrnes), Ben Stiller (Greg Focker), Blythe Danner (Dina Byrnes), Teri Polo (Pam Byrnes), James Rebhorn (Larry Banks), Jon Abrahams (Denny Byrnes), Phyllis George (Linda Banks), Kali Rocha (Flight Attendant), Owen Wilson (Kevin Rawley), Tom McCarthy (Bob Banks), Nicole DeHuff (Debbie Byrnes)

'A film with lots of funny lines and actors doing an impeccable technical job, but it is somehow less than the sum of its parts.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'A flat-out hilarious mainstream comedy.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

♗ Randy Newman (song 'A Fool in Love')

Meet the People

US 1944 100m bw
MGM (E. Y. Harburg)

A Broadway musical star proves she isn't snooty by taking a job in a shipyard.

Thin propaganda musical which wastes a fair amount of talent.

w S. M. Herzig, Fred Saidy play Louis Lantz, Sol and Ben Barzman d Charles Reisner ph Robert Surtees songs various

☆ Lucille Ball, Dick Powell, Virginia O'Brien, Bert Lahr, Rags Ragland, June Allyson, Steve Geray, Phil Regan, Spike Jones and his City Slickers, Vaughn Monroe and his Orchestra

'Think your family's weird?'

Meet the Robinsons ★★★ (6)

US 2007 101m
Buena Vista/Walt Disney Pictures (Dorothy McKim)

A brilliant young inventor attends a science fair and meets a boy named Wilbur, who whisks him off to the future in a time machine.

Frenetic, funny and sometimes dazzlingly inventive, this marks the first welcome sign of Pixar's influence on Disney animation. Essentially the story of its young hero Lewis's search for a family to call his own, it's packed with first-rate verbal and visual gags and appealing characters. The future (for once in films) looks sleek, dazzling and optimistic, and the Robinson family's eccentricities are delightful. The jokes sometimes come so thick and fast that it may be best appreciated on a DVD, using the pause and rewind buttons. This may be primarily light-hearted fun, but appealingly it's also a film that applauds rational thought and patient research, and asserts the freedom to fail in pursuit of scientific advances.

w Jon Bernstein, Michelle Spitz, Don Hall, Nathan Greno, Aurian Redson, Joe Mateo, Stephen Anderson book A Day With Wilbur Robinson by William Joyce d Stephen Anderson m Danny Elfman ad Robh Ruppel ed Ellen Keneshea

☆ Daniel Hansen, Jordan Fry (Lewis), Angela Bassett (Mildred), Stephen John Anderson (Bowler Hat Guy), Matthew Josten (Goob), Laurie Metcalf (Lucille), Adam West (Uncle Art), Tom Selleck (Cornelius Robinson), Wesley Singerman (Wilbur Robinson)

'A sharp-minded, plenty entertaining toon that will keep children of all ages wide-eyed and on their toes.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'So cleverly executed that one forgives – just – the frenetic pace and absence of down time.' – Ella Taylor, L.A. Weekly

† The film has also been screened in a 3-D version.

Meet the Stewarts

US 1942 74m bw
Columbia

Newlyweds have trouble when he's poor and she's used to rich living.

Modest marital comedy with young talent.

w Elizabeth Dunn, Karen de Wolf d Alfred E. Green

☆ William Holden, Frances Dee, Grant Mitchell

Meet Wally Sparks

US 1997 104m CFI color
Trimark/Largo (Leslie Greif)

Injured in an accident, the failing host of a scurrilous TV chat show takes over the governor's residence as a broadcasting studio.

A dim-witted variation on The Man Who Came to Dinner that long overstays its welcome.

w Rodney Dangerfield, Harry Basil d Peter Baldwin ph Richard Kline m Michel Colombier pd Bryan Jones ed Raul Davalos

☆ Rodney Dangerfield, Debi Mazar, Cindy Williams, Burt Reynolds, David Ogden Stiers, Alan Rachins

'A broad comedy of the kitchen sink school.' – Variety

† There are uncredited cameos by Tim Allen, Tony Danza, Jay Leno and Roseanne.

Meet Whiplash Willie: see The Fortune Cookie

'Love. Lust. Betrayal. Chaos. And the overture hasn't even begun.'

Meeting Venus ★

GB 1990 120m colour
Warner/Enigma/BSB/County NatWest (David Puttnam)

A married Hungarian conductor, having problems over a performance of Tannhäuser to an international audience, has an affair with the principal singer.

Bold attempt at a European film, but one that works only fitfully.

w István Szabó, Michael Hirst d István Szabó ph Lajos Koltai m Richard Wagner md Marek Janowski pd Attila Kovacs ed Jim Clark

☆ Glenn Close, Niels Arestrup, Moscu Alcallay, Macha Meril, Johanna Ter Steege, Maite Nahyr, Victor Poletti, Marian Labuda

'A comedy with something to say, and the audacity to mix its laughs with a decent seriousness of purpose.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

La Meglio Gioventu: see The Best of Youth

Mein Kampf ★

Sweden 1961 118m bw
Töre Sjöberg/Minerva International

original title: Den Blodiga Tiden

A newsreel compilation tracing the rise and fall of Nazi Germany.

A simple but highly effective and reliable selection of actualities leaves conclusions to the viewer, letting the events speak for themselves. A powerful documentary.

wd Erwin Leiser ed Erwin Leiser

Het Meisje Met Het Rode Haar: see The Girl with the Red Hair

Melancholia

GB 1989 87m colour
BFI/Lichtblik Filmproduktion/Channel 4/Norddeutscher Rundfunk/Film Fons Hamburg/Hamburger Filmbüro (Colin MacCabe, Helga Bahr)

A German art critic, a former radical, is asked to take part in a political assassination in London.

Downbeat thriller built around an enigmatic protagonist.

w Andi Engel, Lewis Rodia d Andi Engel ph Denis Crossan m Simon Fisher Turner pd Jock Scott ed Christopher Roth

☆ Jeroen Krabbé, Susannah York, Ulrich

Wildgruber, Jane Gurnett, Kate Hardie, Saul Reichlin, John Sparkes

Melba

GB 1953 113m Technicolor
Horizon (Sam Spiegel)

The life of the internationally famous Australian opera singer of Victorian days.
Moderately interesting recreation of a woman and an era, though dramatically rather stodgy.
w Harry Kurnitz d Lewis Milestone ph Ted Scaife md Muir Mathieson ad Andrei Andreiev
☆ Patrice Munsel, Robert Morley, Alec Clunes, Martita Hunt, Sybil Thorndike, John McCallum

'Life can be a comedy or a tragedy, it all depends on how you look at it.'

Melinda and Melinda

US 2004 100m colour
TCF/Fox Searchlight (Letty Aronson)

Two writers tell the same story, of the unexpected arrival of a distraught woman at a dinner party, as a tragedy and a comedy.
Mildly diverting entertainment, though only the presence of Will Ferrell indicates which of the two parallel stories is intended to be comic.
wd Woody Allen ph Vilmos Zsigmond pd Santo Loquasto ed Alisa Lepselter ☆ Radha Mitchell (Melinda), Chloe Sevigny (Laurel), Jonny Lee Miller (Lee), Will Ferrell (Hobie), Amanda Peet (Susan), Chiwetel Ejiofor (Ellis), Wallace Shawn (Sy)
'It has great performances, snappy one-liners and a likeably tricksy structure, all wrapped up in an affirmative antidote to life's daunting complexities. Welcome back, Woody.' – Emma Cochrane, Empire
'Neither comedy nor tragedy, the movie is closest to genteel soap opera.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

